THE ERA

ESTABLISHED 1837.

REGISTERED AT THE GENERAL POST OFFICE AS A NEWSPAPER.

VOL. 69. No. 3,511. SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 1906. PRICE SIXPENCE.

THE NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY
803810 A
ASTOR, LENOX AND TILDEN FOUNDATIONS
R 1905 L

MISS BATEMAN (Mrs. Crowe).
Address,
88, Philbeach-gardens, S.W.

MISS LILIAN HINGSTON
(Mrs. ALWYN LEWIS).
Letters, c/o "The Era" Office.

MISS MABEL LOVE,
THE COLISEUM.

MISS EDITH ROSENTHAL
(Mrs. H. CECIL BERYL).
THEATRE ROYAL, BRIGHTON.

MISS CICELY RICHARDS.
Address, Miss Olga Nethersole's Co.,
C/o Chas. Dillingham, 1402, Broadway, New York.

MISS DEERING.
Address,
BRIXTON THEATRE, LONDON, S.W.

MISS SIDNEY CROWE.
ADELA, in "The Way of the World."
Jan. 8, QUEEN'S THEATRE, WORKINGTON.

MISS IDA MOLESWORTH.
At Liberty for Town.
Address, 11, St. Edmund's-terrace, Regent's Park.

MISS KATE BISHOP
(Mrs LEWIS LOHR) Disengaged.
Address, 5, Duke-street, Strand, W.C.

MISS KATE MILLS,
Disengaged.
180, Clarence Gate-gardens, N.W.

MISS CYBEL WYNNE
(Mrs Charles Rock) at Liberty.
62, St. John's-Wood-road, N.W.

MISS LOUIE FREEAR,
Address,
65, Beaufort-mansions, Beaufort-st., Chelsea, S.W

MISS NETTIE WARE.
Bracklyn, Bowden, Cheshire.
Telephone, 217, Altrincham.

MISS ETHEL VAN PRAAGH.
Permanent Address,
THEATRE ROYAL, BATLEY.

MISS CONSTANCE WALTON.
Address,
DALY'S THEATRE, NEW YORK, U.S.A.

MISS STELLA GASTELLE.
GANEM, "Forty Thieves."
MARLBOROUGH THEATRE, N.

MISS NORA HASTINGS,
Lead and Character,
Disengaged. 126, Oxford-street, W.

MISS ELIZABETH BESSLE.
Address,
9, Edith-villas, West Kensington, W.

MISS ESSEX DANE,
Disengaged.
113, Long-acre. Tel., 10770 Central.

MISS EDITH COLE,
JOSEPHINE, in "A Royal Divorce."
SCALA THEATRE, LONDON, W.

MISS LILIAS WALDEGRAVE,
as THE AMERICAN WIDOW,
WYNDHAM'S THEATRE, W.C.

MISS MARIE DALTRA
(Mrs LIONEL RIGNOLD).
All communications address, 393, Clapham-rd, S.W.

MISS MONA K. ORAM
at Liberty.
20, Kenyon-mansions, West Kensington, W.

MISS RUTH MACKAY,
Address,
Lyric Theatre.

MISS EDYTH OLIVE.
Disengaged.
26, Shaftesbury-avenue, W.

MISS HELENA HEAD,
in America. Address, care of Leonard Shepherd, Manhattan Theatre, New York.

MISS TITA BRAND,
OLIVIA, Lady Anne, Gertrude, Mrs. Page,
Lady Sneerwell, with Mr. Benson.

MISS F. GLOSSOP-HARRIS,
Just concluded tour with Mr. Edward Terry.
Address, TERRY'S THEATRE.

MISS AGNES MILLER,
Dis. Broken English, Character Parts, &c.
26, Regent's Park-road, N.W.

MISS IRENE ROOKE,
Address,
24, Camera-square, S.W.

MISS GWENDOLEN FLOYD,
Address,
IMPERIAL THEATRE.

MISS FLORENCE SMITHSON,
Prima Donna, "Blue Moon" Co.,
LYRIC THEATRE, LONDON.

MISS MILLICENT MARSDEN,
Prima Donna, LANGE, in "Mde. Angot."
COLISEUM.

MISS MAY CHEVALIER,
Disengaged.
6, Fairfax-road, Bedford Park, W.

MISS ELLEN TERRY.
Address,
care of "The Era" Office.

MISS ROBERTHA ERSKINE
at Liberty. Address, care of Blackmore, 11, Garrick-st., Covent-garden.

MISS CARLOTTA ADDISON,
MISS VICTORIA ADDISON.
37, Avonmore-road, Kensington, W.

MISS COMPTON.
engaged by Frank Curzon, Esq.
WYNDHAM'S THEATRE.

MISS WALLIS
(Mrs. Walter Reynolds). c/o Leggett and Carruthers, 5, Raymond's-bldgs., Gray's Inn, W.C.

MISS FLORENCE ST. JOHN,
Disengaged end of February.
25, Bedford-square, W.C.

MISS ALMA MURRAY,
Address,
49, Comeragh-road, W. Kensington.

MISS VIOLET FULTON,
Disengaged.
All communications, c/o "The Era."

MISS EDITH WYNNE MATTHISON.
Address,
58, Overstrand-mansions, Battersea Park, S.W.

MISS ALICE DE WINTON,
Address,
Inglewood House, West End-lane, Hampstead.

MISS CECILIA LOFTUS,
"Peter Pan."
DUKE OF YORK'S THEATRE.

MISS BEATRICE SELWYN,
Disengaged.
Add., 23, Priory-mansions, Drayton-gardens, S.W.

MISS HENRIETTA WATSON,
Address,
Holly Lea, Kirkstall-rd., Streatham-hill, S.W.

MISS THERESA OSBORNE
Lead, at Liberty.
Add., 52, Cambridge-mans., Battersea Park, S.W.

MISS HAIDEE GUNN,
Disengaged.
Address, Gaiety Theatre, Dublin.

MISS POLLIE EMERY.
Engaged by Arthur Collins, Esq.
For Drury Lane Pantomime.

MISS MAY HARVEY.
Address,
Care of C. T. H. Helmsley, St. James's T., S.W.

MISS NITA FAYDON,
Address,
ADELPHI THEATRE.

MISS GERTRUDE BURNETT
Disengaged for London.
Add. Heath View, Montpelier-row, Blackheath, S.E.

MISS SOPHIE HARRISS,
Principal Boy "Robin Hood."
GRAND THEATRE, NOTTINGHAM.

MISS FLORENCE HAMER,
c/o J. C. Williamson, Esq.,
Her Majesty's Theatre, Melbourne, Australia.

MISS DOROTHY MARSDIN.
OLIVER TWIST in "Oliver Twist."
Address, c/o "The Era."

MISS CARLOTTA ZERBINI,
Disengaged.
Address, 105, College-place, Camden Town, N.W.

MISS HELENA MILLAIS, at Liberty Spring. Juvenile or Lead. Comedy or Good Drama. Homeland, 16, Villa-rd., Brixton.

MISS MARIANNE CALDWELL
Disengaged.
Address, 42, Chelsea-gardens, S.W.

MISS TOPSY SINDEN,
Address,
care of "The Era" Office.

MISS AMY GRACE,
Mrs. Leonard Rayne).
Address, 35, Albert-mansions, Battersea Park, S.W.

MISS MADGE CRICHTON.
"The Catch of the Season."
VAUDEVILLE THEATRE.

MISS MIRIAM LEWES,
at Liberty.
91, Lavender-sweep, S.W.

MISS AURELIE REVY,
Address,
Care of "The Era."

MISS IDA ASSHETON-CHAPMAN, Returned from Australia.
C/o the A.A.

MISS JEAN STERLING MACKINLAY,
"Sunday."
Address, 193, Cambridge-street, S.W.

MR. and MRS. ROBERT PATEMAN
(Miss BELLA PATEMAN). ST. JAMES'S THEATRE. Rosedale, Castelnau, Barnes, S.W.

MR. and MRS. HARDING THOMAS
(ELAINE VERNER). All communications,
Spring Bank, Victoria-road, Worthing.

MR. and MRS. GORDON BAILEY
(MISS LUCY WILSON).
160, Hamlet-gardens, Ravenscourt Park, W.

MR. and MRS. H. NYE CHART,
Disengaged.
Address, 7, Dynevor-gardens, Richmond, S.W.

MR. and MRS. CHARLES SUGDEN,
Address,
Care of "The Era" Office.

MRS. STANISLAUS CALHAEM.
Disengaged after run of "Leah Kleschna."
26, Long-acre, London, W.C.

MRS. BANDMANN-PALMER,
Seventeenth year of Tour. Vacation.
Add., Letters only, 36, Gloucester-rd., Kew, Surrey.

MR. and MRS. F. R. BENSON.
Address,
11, Henrietta-street, Covent-garden, W.C.

MR. and MRS. NORMAN MACOWAN
(Miss VIOLET STERNE). Rehearsing.
Address, County Theatre, Bedford.

MR. and MRS. ROBERT MILSTED,
29, Primrose-mansions, Battersea Park.
R. M., Charlie Bates, H. M. Theatre, Jan. 15.

MRS. BENNETT,
Specially engaged Panto, BOROUGH THEATRE, STRATFORD. Disengaged March 17.

MRS. FORDYCE,
COURT THEATRE.
Disengaged in January.

MISS NORA LANCASTER.
IMOGEN, "Cymbeline."
QUEEN'S THEATRE, MANCHESTER.

MISS ETHEL HARPER,
Disengaged. 29, Chatsworth-road, Brondesbury, N.W. T.N. 1026 P.O. Hampstead.

MISS DORIS TEMPLETON,
Disengaged.
Address, Mascotte, Beltinge, Herne Bay.

MISS MARION LIND,
Disengaged.
7, Ormonde-mansions, 100A, Southampton-row, W.C.

MISS MURIEL GODFREY-TURNER,
3, Museum-mansions, Gt. Russell-street, W.C.
'Phone, 7787 Gerrard.

MISS NELLIE BOWMAN,
Disengaged.
Address, 37, Heythorp-street, Southfields, S.W.

MISS ELEANOR DELAPORTE,
Specially Engaged by Messrs. Leibler, Production Sutro's New Play. 95, Warwick-st., S.W.

MISS MAY BROOKE,
On tour, Mr. Arthur Bourchier's No. 1 Company, "The Walls of Jericho."

MR. LEONARD RAYNE.
Own Company in South Africa.
Add., Portugal House, Portugal-st., London, W.C.

MR. JERROLD ROBERTSHAW.
Address,
NEW THEATRE.

MR. B. SOANE ROBY,
Manager for Miss Louie Freear. Tel. No. 7,532
Gerrard Offices, 14, Whitcomb-st., Pall-mall E., W.C.

MR. CHARLES ANGELO.
Address,
care of "The Era."

MR. ALBERT CHEVALIER,
For vacant dates,
Mr. Ingle, 7, Dorset-road, S. Ealing.

MR. STANLEY COOKE,
As CHARLEY'S AUNT,
TERRY'S THEATRE.

MR. FRED EMNEY.
Address,
PRINCE OF WALES'S THEATRE.

MR. MILTON ROSMER
Disengaged.
6, Benbow-road, Hammersmith.

MR. EILLE NORWOOD.
Re-engaged by Sir Charles Wyndham.
WYNDHAM'S THEATRE.

MR. BEN FIELD.
STARKEY, "Peter Pan."
DUKE OF YORK'S THEATRE.

MR. FRED ALLANDALE,
BOBBIE SCOTT, in "The Blue Moon."
Address, LYRIC THEATRE, W.

MR. WILFRED DRAYCOTT,
Address
HAYMARKET THEATRE.

MR. F. LUMSDEN HARE,
At Liberty.
Address, 10, King-street, Covent Garden, W.C.

MR. STERLING MACKINLAY, M.A.,
Trains Voices, Speciality, Style, Expression.
Song Effects. 193, Cambridge-street, S.W.

MR. CHARLES WARNER.
Address,
care of "The Era" Office.

MR. EDWARD TERRY.
Address all communications,
TERRY'S THEATRE, STRAND, W.C.

MR. HENRY NEVILLE.
Address (except for business with Studio).
Crescent House, Queen's-crescent, Haverstock-hill.

MR. MACKINTOSH,
Address,
4, Cromartie-road, Hornsey Rise, N.

MR. BEVERIDGE.
In America. Address, care of Mr. Charles Frohman, Empire Theatre, New York, U.S.A.

MR. HARRY PAULTON.
Address,
9, Huguenot-mansions, East-hill, S.W.

MR. EDWARD COMPTON, on Tour as DAVID GARRICK, Charles Surface, "A Reformed Rake," and in "To-morrow."

MR. ARTHUR WHITTAKER,
"Mr. Popple,"
APOLLO THEATRE, W.

MR. E. W. GARDEN,
Disengaged; MISS MABEL GARDEN, Disengaged. St. Helier's, East Hill, S.W.

MR. AUSTIN MELFORD,
Now at Liberty.
Add., Gardenhurst, Sandycombe-rd., Twickenham.

MR. CHARLES ALLAN,
Disengaged.
Address, 9, Abbey-court, Abbey-road, N.W.

MR. ALFRED HARDING,
Disengaged.
Add., 86, Haydon Park-road, Wimbledon, S.W.

MR. LIONEL RIGNOLD.
All communications,
Address, 393, Clapham-road, S.W.

MR. H. ATHOL FORDE.
Disengaged.
15, Werter-road, Putney, S.W.

MR. T. B. THALBERG
(THALBERG CORBETT).
At Liberty. 21, King-street, Portman-square, W.

MR. CHARLES ROCK.
SNUG, the joiner, in "A Midsummer Night's Dream," ADELPHI THEATRE.

MR. BLAKE ADAMS,
"The Last Pitch," "The Horseshoe."
PALACE, GLASGOW.

MR. T. WIGNEY PERCYVAL, at Liberty. Letters and telegrams, care of Wheeler, 1, Courtnell-st., Bayswater, W.

MR. JOHN LE HAY,
"Veronique" Co., New York.
12, Lancaster-road, N.W.

MR. ARTHUR WILLIAMS,
T. R., DRURY LANE,
Christmas.

MR. HERBERT JARMAN.
Address,
45, Lamb's Conduit-street, W.C.

MR. SIDNEY YOUNG,
DAME, "Goody Two Shoes."
PALACE THEATRE, WALTHAMSTOW.

MR. ALFRED A. HARRIS,
Disengaged.
Address, 2, Devonshire-place, Birkenhead.

MR. E. HARCOURT-WILLIAMS.
Address,
GARRICK THEATRE.

MR. ARTHUR WONTNER
At liberty.
Grasmere, Hendon-lane, Finchley, N.

MR. GEORGE ARLISS
Address, Manhattan Theatre, 34th-street; and Broadway, New York City, U.S.A.

MR. WILLIAM HAVILAND,
HAMLET, Othello, Claudian, &c.
Add., HIS MAJESTY'S T., JOHANNESBURG.

MR. STANLEY DREWITT,
FAGIN, in "Oliver Twist."
Address, 8, Burnfoot-avenue, Fulham, S.W.

MR. ERIC BLIND,
POSTHUMUS LEONATUS, "Cymbeline,"
Q. T., MANCHESTER. 20, Queen Anne's-grove, W.

MR. H. MANFRED RUSSELL,
Tenor.
Disengaged. Care of "The Era."

MR. CHARLES LANDER,
Note change of address:
C/o F. Tiernay, Esq., 13, Old Jewry-chambers, E.C.

MR. S. A. COOKSON.
"The Tempest," H. MAJESTY'S THEATRE.
Disengaged, Jan. 22, 1906.

MR. REGINALD KENNETH.
HYPNOS and OBERON, "Bluebell in Fairyland." ALDWYCH THEATRE, W.C.

CHARLES WYNDHAM,
"Captain Drew."
WYNDHAM'S THEATRE, W.C.

MR. H. BEERBOHM-TREE.
Address,
HIS MAJESTY'S THEATRE.

MR. E. S. WILLARD,
in AMERICA. Address, c/o H. M. Rogers, Esq., Attorney-at-Law, 89, State-street, Boston.

MR. GEORGE ALEXANDER.
Address,
ST JAMES'S THEATRE.

MR. ARTHUR BOURCHIER.
Address,
GARRICK THEATRE.

MR. LEONARD BOYNE.
Address,
Care of "The Era" Office.

MR. WEEDON GROSSMITH.
Address,
Bedford-square, W.C.

MR. ARTHUR COLLINS,
THEATRE ROYAL,
DRURY-LANE.

MR. LIONEL BROUGH.
Address,
Percy Villa, South Lambeth, S.W.

MR. MARTIN HARVEY.
Address,
Avenue-road, Regent's Park, N.W.

MR. CHARLES COLLETTE,
Address,
C/o "The Era," to be forwarded.

MR. E. M. ROBSON.
Disengaged.
Trelawny, Fairfax-road, Bedford-park, W.

MR. ALFRED BISHOP,
Disengaged.
Address, 16, Craven-street, Strand, W.C.

MR. HENRY KEMBLE,
at Liberty.
Address, 7, Weymouth-street, W.

WILLIAM GILLETTE,
No Address.

MR. CHARLES GROVES,
Address,
St. James's Theatre, London.

MR. ACTON BOND.
Address,
Actors' Association, 10, King-street, Covent-garden.

MR. MARK KINGHORNE.
Address,
C/o "The Era."

MR. WILL DENNIS.
Address,
STEPHEN TOWNSEND, 5 Crown-office-row, Inner Temple

MR. G. S. TITHERADGE,
Engaged for Special Production New York.
Letters forwarded from 3, Birch-grove, Acton, W.

MR. W. PAYNE SEDDON.
Address,
OPERA HOUSE, LONDONDERRY.

MR. LYTTON GREY,
Disengaged.
Communications to 35, Strand, W.C.

MR. H. COOPER CLIFFE,
KLESCHNA,
On Tour.

MR. CHARLES J. CAMERON,
Re-engaged for Spring by Mr. Martin Harvey.
8, Victoria House, South Lambeth-road, S.W.

MR. LEONARD SHEPHERD, in America. Engaged for production of "Monna Vanna," Manhattan Theatre, New York

MR. F. SKEIN.
Address,
c/o "The Era."

MR. JOHNNIE SCHOFIELD.
IDLE JACK,
KENNINGTON THEATRE.

MR. MURRAY HATHORN,
Engaged by Mr. Norman MacOwan.
Address, Fairfield, Quedgeley, Gloucester.

MR. LEWIS CASSON,
OCTAVIUS ROBINSON, "Man and Superman." COURT THEATRE, S.W.

MR. HENRY WORRALL,
Engaged by Messrs. Wm. Mollison and Durward Lely. ST. JAMES'S THEATRE.

MR. STANLEY PRINGLE,
At Libery.
Address, 6, Brunswick-gardens, W.

MR. ST. CLAIR BAYFIELD,
(Character). Disengaged.
Address, Actors' Association.

MR. J. FRITZ RUSSELL,
PHILOSTRATE, "A Midsummer Night's Dream." ADELPHI THEATRE, W.C.

MR. MATTHEW BRODIE,
Disengaged.
Address, 21, Colville-road, W.

APPLICATIONS for Positions on the FRONT PAGE will be treated according to priority of receipt they should be addressed to the Publisher.

MISS ADA BLANCHE,
GRAND THEATRE, GLASGOW.
Specially engaged by Robert Courtneidge, Esq
"There is none like her, none."—Tennyson.

MISS NELLIE CHRISTIE,
"The Real Genuine Susie Tusie."
Address,
Roseville, 30, Thornton-road, East Sheen, S.W.

MISS DAISIE WALLACE,
Principal Soubrette,
George Edwardes' Co.,
South Africa.
Permanent address, 47, Louisville-road, Balham.

MISS EMELIE POLINI,
Disengaged.
Lead or Juvenile Lead.
138, Elgin-avenue,
Maida Vale, W.

MISS DAVIES WEBSTER,
Engaged by Mr. Frank Fenton for Miss Elsie Robert's Tour of "One of the Best."
Dis. for Town or Suburbs only, till Feb.
For address, see Alphabetical Card weekly.

MISS DOROTHY CAMPBELL,
[illegible]ed Prince Rupert during Miss Malonie's indisposition, and scored an immediate Success. Highly complimented as Eva Lancashire in "Miss Lancashire, Ltd." This refined and graceful young Actress was all that could be desired.
Spring Offers Invited.
Address c/o C. W. Colman, PRINCE'S THEATRE, POPLAR.

MISS FLORENCE BURNS,
Principal Boy.
"Beauty and the Beast."
THEATRE ROYAL,
BOLTON.

MISS EMPSIE BOWMAN,
CINDERELLA,
PALACE THEATRE, BELFAST.
Disengaged Spring.

MISS JULIA KENT,
as PRINCESS in "Aladdin." Success, Success, Success. To Miss Julia Kent was entrusted the rôle of the Princess, and as the leading lady at the Anglesey Castle productions her visit aroused some interest. The part was efficiently carried out, and her singing was sweet. For her vocalisation of "I have got it in my diary" she was recalled, and introduced a few appropriate sentences to the problem of the unemployed and the demand for charity; whilst the rainbow dance in which she figured was exceptionally popular, the effect being charming and unstintedly appreciated by the audience.

MISS EMMELINE ORFORD,
Jan. 8,
NE[illegible]
HIPPOD[illegible]E,
[illegible]OCKTON-[illegible]ES.

MADAME FAN[illegible] BROWN,
Ballet Mistress.
ADELPHI THEATRE,
"A Midsummer Night's Dream."

BUSINESS MANAGERS.

MR. H. CECIL BERYL.
All communications
to Theatre Royal, Brighton.

MR. J. H. SAVILE.
Address all communications,
re Paisley and Perth,
Paisley Theatre.

MR. E. P. MORGAN,
Manager,
THE HIPPODROME
(OXFORD-STREET), MANCHESTER.
Address as above.

MR. WALTER DE FRECE.
178, Charing Cross-road, W.C.
Telephone, 1739 Gerrard; Tele. Add., Yellit, London.

MR. JOHN WILMER,
General Manager,
At Liberty.
85, Carlton-mansions, Maida Vale, W.

MR. WILFRID FRANKS,
ROYAL COURT THEATRE, S.W.
Dramas, Farcical Comedies, and Sketches to Let, or Sell. Scenery Made, or Let on Hire.
Plays Produced and Tours Booked.

MR. EDOUARD JOSE,
Manager for Messrs. B. and F. Wheeler,
South Africa.
Address,
Good Hope Theatre, Capetown.

MR. HARRY FISCHER,
Producer and Stage Manager.
Three Big Successes:—
"Aladdin," Grand Theatre, Edinburgh.
"Babes in the Wood," Grand T., Nottingham.
"Cinderella," Lyceum Theatre, Glasgow.
Specially retained by Eade Montefiore, Esq., as General Stage-Director for above.
All coms., GRAND THEATRE, EDINBURGH.

MR. ALBERT C. DUNCAN,
Business Manager,
At Liberty after Pantomime.
Address,
Grand Theatre, Birmingham.

MR. WALTER McEWEN,
Resigned Engagement, Stage-Management, "White Chrysanthemum," Criterion Theatre, W., to Produce
"Aladdin," THEATRE ROYAL, BIRMINGHAM.
At Liberty for Spring and Autumn for Productions. Stage, General, or Business Management, or Paris.

MR. JAMES LESLIE,
Secretaris der Directie de Heer, for
Mr. Silvanus Dauncey's and Mr. M. V. Leveaux's
"The Walls of Jericho" Company, on Tour in Holland.
The Hague, Armhem, Amsterdam, Rotterdam, and Utrecht. &c., &c.

MR. WILTON HERIOT,
at Liberty for Stage, General Management, or Paris. Amateur Performances Superintended
Permanent Address,
10, Crieff-road, Wandsworth Common, S.W.

MR. LEONARD HORNSEY,
Musical Director "Forty Thieves" Panto.
ALEXANDRA THEATRE, STOKE NEWINGTON.
Spring, Mr. F. Curzon's
"White Chrysanthemum" Co.

MR. and MRS. W. RUDDLE BROWN
(Miss Nelly Howitt).
W. R. B., SOUTHAMPTON;
N. H., CANNING TOWN and SOUTH LONDON.
Belgrave Cottage, Belgrave-gardens, St. John's Wood, N.W.

MR. and MRS. WILLIAM GIFFARD.
Mr. Giffard's arrangements completed.
Mrs. Giffard disengaged.
Address,
55, Stockwell Park-road, S.W.

MR. FRANK LITCHFIELD,
Thanks Messrs. Northway and Garrod for most Comfortable 65 Consecutive Weeks Engagement as Tommy Walker, in "Sledge-Hammer"; also Mrs. L. thanks same Management for 28 Weeks as Martha Derrick. At Liberty through Termination of Tour, for Character Parts, Comedy, or Intense. Mrs. L., Rough Chambermaids or Comedy Old Women. EMMIE LITCHFIELD, Jo. A. Campbell's "Little Bread Winner" Co.; MINNIE LITCHFIELD, Boy Blue, J. A. Thompson's Panto. Address, 444, Manton-road, London, S.E.

MR. FREDERICK SARGENT,
Terminating engagement with Mr. Esmonde Bramley's Co. At Liberty Jan. 15.
Address, His Majesty's Theatre, Carlisle.

MR. ROBERT WHYTE, Jun.,
Specially Engaged for America,
Sir Ormsby St. Leger in "The School Girl."
Add., Low's Exchange, 1,123, Broadway, New York.

MR. WAL CROFT,
MACKASSARAC, "Aladdin,"
GRAND THEATRE, EDINBURGH.
The Edinburgh Evening News, Dec. 26, says: Mr. Wal Croft, who did so much to make "The Trip to the Highlands" a success, bids fair to do the same by the pantomime.
GRAND THEATRE, EDINBURGH.

MR. O. E. LENNON,
HASSARAC, "The Forty Thieves."
MARLBOROUGH THEATRE, HOLLOWAY.
Engaged by F. Curzon, Esq., for "THE WHITE CHRYSANTHEMUM."

MR. GEORGE MILLER,
NURSE, "The Sleeping Beauty."
Makes his points with an ease and force that reveal the accomplished actor. Nurse is sure to be very popular.—News.
PRINCE'S THEATRE, MANCHESTER.

MR. ALFRED LESTER,
DAME,
Pantomime,
KENNINGTON THEATRE.

MR. MARTIN ADESON,
Enormous Success,
KING GRABBUS, "Puss in Boots,"
BROADWAY, NEW CROSS.
At Liberty Spring, in consequence of postponement of West End Production.
58, Loughboro'-park, Brixton.

MR LEONARD THIEL,
Terrifice Success as Dame Hubbard.
The Wolf does come to the grandmother's cottage, but he does not devour the dame (this perhaps, is just as well, for Mr. Leonard Thiel is much too funny in the part to be dispensed with till the curtain falls).''—Morning Post.
Some of the earlier fun is enacted in the village school, kept by Mother Hubbard. In the latter impersonation Mr. Leonard Thiel is inimitable.—Daily Telegraph.
While the humour, never loud or vulgar, was supplied by Mr. Leonard Thiel.—Daily Chronicle.
FULHAM THEATRE, LONDON.

MR. HARRY KILBURN,
Usual Success,
as Alderman Fitzwarren.
KING'S THEATRE, HAMMERSMITH, W.
At Lib. Spring. Address, Agents, or above.

MR. EARDLEY TURNER,
At Liberty.
Character and Comedy Parts.
Offers Invited.
Letters, 12, Ampthill-square, N.W.

MR. BALIOL HOLLOWAY,
Mark Antony, Jacques, Ford,
Clarence, Joseph Surface, &c.
H. M. T., CARLISLE.

MR. FRED LAKE,
Re-engaged for 1906 by Cyril Maude, Esq.
for Bob Ford, and Stage-Manager,
"Beauty and the Barge."
Perm. add., 27, Milner-street, S.W.

MR. ALEX KEITH,
as
Baron Pennywise, "CINDERELLA,"
Enormous Success.
Mr. Alex. Keith was very droll as Baron Pennywise, and his frivolous behaviour at the Prince's ball, in contrast with the dignity of an imposing flunkey, caused endless merriment.—Irish Times.
The Baron Pennywise of Mr. Alex. Keith was broadly humorous from start to finish, and was a popular and clever performance by one who has the art of patter thoroughly at his finger-ends.—Daily Express.
GAIETY THEATRE, DUBLIN.

At Liberty,
Short Comedian,
MR. FRANK LILLIPUT,
Many Thanks for Offers and Wires,
23, Dorothy-road, Clapham Junction.

INSTRUCTORS.

MISS BATEMAN (Mrs. CROWE).
Complete Training for the Stage, Constant Rehearsals, Fencing, Dancing. Resident Pupils.
Full particulars, apply, by letter only, to MISS DOLLING, 33, PHILBEACH-GARDENS, S.W

NEVILLE'S PRIVATE DRAMATIC STUDIO, 524, OXFORD-STREET, W.—Patrons:—Sir Charles Wyndham, H. Beerbohm Tree, Esq.; E. S. Willard, Esq.; Cyril Maude, Esq.; F. Harrison, Esq.; &c. Established by, and under the Personal Supervision of, Mr. HENRY NEVILLE. Thorough Practical Instruction for the Stage, Voice Production, Elocution, Gesture, and Performances. Lessons in Studio Theatre. Introduction to Profession.
Address, The Principal, Mr. G. R. Foss.

THE BEN GREET ACADEMY OF ACTING.—Pupils of ability started in the Profession. Shakespearean and Modern Plays systematically Rehearsed on the Stage of the Studio. Prospectus, terms, SECRETARY, 3, Bedford-st., Strand.

ELOCUTION, Deportment, and Acting. Miss STELLA BRERETON Prepares Pupils for the Stage, Platform, Bar, Recitations, Reading, Speaking, and the Pulpit. 30, PARK-VILLAGE EAST, GLOUCESTER GATE, N.W., and 126, OXFORD-STREET, W. (Fridays only).

MADAME KATE FLINN, Professor of Singing. Voice Production and Style a Specialty. All Pupils Successful. Madame KATE FLINN Receives Pupils (Ladies and Gentlemen) at her Residence, 57, Gt. Marlborough-street, W. Personal Interview Free on written application.

MISS EDITH GIBBS
TEACHES PERFECT BREATHING, TONE PRODUCTION, SINGING, ELOCUTION, Coaches for the Stage, Parliament, Public Speaking. &c. STUDIO, 60, BERNERS-STREET, W.

MUSIC and ELOCUTION, Songs and Recitations taugh by Madame Florence Vanne, late teacher of Elocution and Voice Production, the Ladies' College, Cheltenham, L.A.M., &c. At liberty as accompanist or reciter for At Home Concerts. &c. Apply, 78, Sutherland-av., W.

EDUCATED AND REFINED LADIES and Gentlemen, wishing to adopt the Stage as a Profession, write Secretary, 113, Lisson-grove, Marylebone, London, N.W.
Interviews by apointment only.

MUSICAL-DRAMATIC CLASSES for LADIES only.
Good Voices,
Fair Readers,
Costume Recitals Given.
Fee, £1 1s.
Write,
O., 600, Shelley's,
Gracechurch-street, E.C.

READY MONDAY, JANUARY 15.
THIRTY-NINTH YEAR OF PUBLICATION.
Price. ONE SHILLING; by Post. TWELVE STAMPS.
1906—THE ERA ANNUAL—1906
The Most Complete
DRAMATIC DICTIONARY OF DATES
and
THEATRICAL TREASURY OF KNOWLEDGE
ever brought before the Public.
It will also be found to be the most Interesting Annual of the Year.
Office, 5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, STRAND, W.C.

TOURING COMPANIES.

LA COMEDIE ANGLAISE.
Mr WM L. DOBELL, with Répertoire.
Twenty-eighth Year of Tour.
P. H.'s, CHERTSEY, STAINES, and EGHAM.
Perm. Add., Christie House, Staple Hill, Bristol.

MRS. BANDMANN-PALMER.
Seventeenth year of Tour with own Company, in her Répertoire of High-class Comedies, Tragedies, and Standard Plays.
Vacation.
Address (Letters only),
36, Gloucester-road, Kew, Surrey.

THE COMPTON COMEDY COMPANY.
under the Direction of EDWARD COMPTON, in the Round of Old English Comedies.
Twenty-fifth Year of Tour.
Stage-Manager, Mr. HENRY CROCKER.
Business-Manager, Mr. H. B. FITZGIBBON. to whom all communications should be addressed.
Jan. 8, GRAND THEATRE, WOLVERHAMPTON.

DOTTRIDGE and LONGDEN'S ENTERPRISES.
"VILLAGE BLACKSMITH," COURT, WIGAN.
"MIDNIGHT MAIL," NUNEATON.
"CITY OF SIN," Starts Autumn.
"ALADDIN," GRAND, DERBY.
All Coms., E. DOTTRIDGE, EMPIRE, OLDHAM.

DOTTRIDGE, LONGDEN, and LIVESEY'S CO.
THE VILLAGE BLACKSMITH."
Jan. 8, ROYAL COURT THEATRE, WIGAN.
Absolutely the biggest financial success touring.
Required, a First Class Theatre for
The First Open Date, viz.,
Christmas Week, 1906.
Address, E. DOTTRIDGE, EMPIRE, OLDHAM.

E. HILL-MITCHELSON'S New Play,
"REVENGE,"
Booked Two Consecutive Weeks, Star, Rotunda, Liverpool; Broadhead's, Barnard's, Birmingham, Sunderland, Jarrow, Newcastle, Middlesbro'.
Fast Booking, 1907.
E. HILL-MITCHELSON as PRINCE ORLOFF,
Supported by a Star Company.
Austrian Uniforms a Speciality.
THEATRE ROYAL, SMETHWICK.

E. HILL MITCHELSON and H. FINEBERG'S
"THE TRAITOR,"
By E. Hill-Mitchelson. Short vacation during Pantomime Season. A few autumn dates open.
THEATRE ROYAL, SMETHWICK.

JULIAN MALVERN'S TOUR.
"I DEFY THE WORLD,"
By Arthur Shirley and E. Hill-Mitchelson
Under the direction of
CHAS. M. JULIAN
Jan. 8, PRINCE OF WALES T., MEXBORO'.

MR. LAWRENCE BROUGH and his famous Company of Comedians.
"THE LADY OF OSTEND."
"THE SAUCY SALLY."
By Sir Francis Burnand.
"IN SUNNY CEYLON,"
By Guy Boothby.
Vacant Jan. 15, 22, and certain spring dates.
THEATRE ROYAL, WORTHING.

T. EDWARD WARD'S TOURS.
Truly Magnificent Revival of "HER WEDDING DAY" (New Version).
Only Vacancies, April 9, May 28.
Jan. 1, STAR T., LIVERPOOL.

MR. CHARLES MACDONA'S COS.
"SCHOOL GIRL,"
Week commencing Jan. 8, Vacation.
"THREE LITTLE MAIDS" (N.),
Week commencing Jan.
"THREE LITTLE MAIDS" (S.),
Week commencing Jan. 8, T. R., North Shields.
"COUNTRY GIRL,"
Week commencing Jan. 8, Monmouth, Banbury, &c.
"CHINESE HONEYMOON,"
Week commencing Jan. 8, Vacation.
"GAY PARISIENNE,"
Week commencing Jan. 8, Worcester.
"ARE YOU A MASON?"
Week commencing Jan. 8, Blackpool.
"TOREADOR,"
Week commencing Jan. 8, Gateshead.
"WHITE CHRYSANTHEMUM,"
Tour starts Autumn, 1906.
"MR. HOPKINSON,"
Tour starts Autumn, 1906.
THEATRE ROYAL, COLCHESTER.
Vacant dates Feb. 26 (?), March 5, 19 (?), April 23, 24, 25, 30, May 7, Whit week and onward, with exceptions.
OPERETTA HOUSE, CLACTON-ON-SEA.
Vacant dates from Jan. 8, onward, with exception Easter, Whit week, specially Vacant. Now booking season dates.
All communications to London Offices, 17, Shaftesbury-avenue, W. Telegrams, "Cockeyed, London." Telephone, 6,920 Gerrard.

New and Grand Revival of
"CLAUDIAN."
"CLAUDIAN."
"CLAUDIAN."
"CLAUDIAN."
"CLAUDIAN."
WILLIAM MACLAREN as CLAUDIAN.
LILY C. BANDMANN as ALMIDA.
Easter vacant for this Magnificent Production.
Jan. 8, OPERA HOUSE, SOUTHPORT.

"A gilt-edged attraction."
RENAD BROTHERS' Celebrated
"SWISS EXPRESS." A Musical
"SWISS EXPRESS." Pantomimical
"SWISS EXPRESS." Comedy.
Communications to C. and F. Renad.
CORPORATION THEATRE, CHESTERFIELD.

MESSRS. DURWARD LELY AND WILLIAM MOLLISON'S
"BESIDE THE BONNIE BRIER BUSH."
Mr. WILLIAM MOLLISON,
and London Company,
Tour, 1906.
All Communications to the Manager,
ST. JAMES'S THEATRE, S.W.

J. BANNISTER HOWARD (Limited),
THEATRES AND COMPANIES.
"FLORODORA."
SOUTH.—This Week, READING. Next, DUDLEY.
NORTH.—Feb. 5, BATH.
"THE ETERNAL CITY."
This Week, MANCHESTER. Next, BATH.
"OLIVER TWIST"
(by Arrangement with Mr. Tree).
This, BLACKPOOL. Next, CHESTERFIELD.
"THE CHRISTIAN."
This Week, BATH. Next, ABERDARE.
THEATRE ROYAL, RYDE.
This Week, "DICK WHITTINGTON."
NEW ROYAL, KING'S LYNN.
This, "LITTLE MARY." Next, SWISS CHOIR.
CRYSTAL PALACE.
Lease Commences February.
Address, 3, Bedford-street, Strand.

J. BANNISTER HOWARD'S
"ALADDIN."
NEW KING'S THEATRE, GATESHEAD, until further notice.
Enormous Success. Hundreds Turned Away Nightly. Managers Invited to see this Magnificent Production with a View to Production next Year.
3, Bedford-street, Strand.

TOURING COMPANIES.

MISS EMMA HUTCHISON
and
MR. PERCY HUTCHISON
"THE FREEDOM OF SUZANNE,"
BOURNE.
"ON THE LOVE PATH," Jan. 22, CROYDON.
"SATURDAY TO MONDAY."
"COUSIN KATE."
PERCY HUTCHISON, 4, Fi[illegible]-road, N.W.
Tele., 2,193, -rad.

MISS EMMA HUTCHISON,
and
MR. PERCY HUTCHISON, have aranged for the entire Provincial and Suburban Theatre Rights of Mr. R. C. Carton's Successful Farce,
"PUBLIC OPINION,"
from Wyndham's Theatre, London,
By arangement with Mr. Frank Curzon.
Re dates, PERCY HUTCHISON, 4, Finchley-road, N.W.

MR. and MRS. F. R. BENSON and COMPANY.
Jan. 8, LIMERICK; 10th WATERFORD.
"B" Co., COLERAINE and BALLYMENA.
"C" Company Touring West of England.
All communications to
ALFRED SMYTH-PIGOTT, General Manager,
11, Henrietta-street, Covent-garden, W.C.

HENRY SWINERD'S COMPANY.
"DARE-DEVIL DOROTHY,"
By Wilfred Carr.
A Musical Comedy
Novelty.
Now in Sixth Year of Continuous Tour.
Under the Direction of J. W. CORDINER.
Vacant April 2, 23, 30.
May 7, 21 (3 nights);
June 4, and Aug. 6.
Sole Proprietor, MR. HENRY SWINERD.
General Manager: MR. J. W. CORDINER.
Jan. 8, THEATRE ROYAL, SUNDERLAND.
Jan. 15, Theatre, Royal, Jarrow.

ALFRED NORTHWAY and W. V. GARROD'S TOURS, "THE PRODIGAL PARSON." Spring Tour fully Booked. A few Autumn Dates vacant. Re dates, W. V. GARROD, 3, March-rd., Anfield, Liverpool; other coms., ALFRED NORTHWAY, 57, Warrington-crescent, W.

"THE 10.30 DOWN EXPRESS."
Vacant Jan. 22, 29,
Feb. 12, 19.
HORACE STANLEY, 48, Sherwin-street, Nottingham; next, PETERBORO'.

MR. HENRY FURNIVAL'S COMPANY,
"LOST IN PARIS,"
an Adaptation from the French "Les Deux Orphelines," by Miss Clare Howard.
Five Sets of Magnificent Scenery Carried.
Special Printing by Messrs. Allen and Sons.
Next week, 89, Bowbridge-road, Newark, Notts.

MILTON BODE'S PANTOMIMES, 1905-6.
"PUSS IN BOOTS,"
H. M. THEATRE, DUNDEE, Jan. 8, Twelve Nights.
"ROBINSON CRUSOE,"
THEATRE ROYAL, CARDIFF, Jan. 8, Twelve Nights.
"DICK WHITTINGTON,"
ROYALTY THEATRE, CHESTER, Jan. 8, Six Nights.
"THE BABES IN THE WOOD,"
Jan. 8, NEW THEATRE, CAMBRIDGE, Six Nights.
Tours:— "WOMAN AND WINE,"
"THE FRENCH MAID."
Address,
MILTON BODE, COUNTY THEATRE, READING.

MISS MARY AUSTIN
and
MR. E. VIVIAN EDMONDS present
"THE GOLDEN LADDER,"
Written by George R. Sims and Wilson Barrett.
A Gorgeous Production.
40 People on the Stage.
THEATRE ROYAL, YORK.
"PASSION'S POWER,"
Written by Arthur Shirley.
Miss CECIL CROMWELL as Zorah.
OPERA HOUSE, WAKEFIELD.
"THE COTTON SPINNER."
A Simple Play, by the late Frank Harvey.
Cast includes Miss AUSTIN.
THEATRE ROYAL, MACCLESFIELD.
All Communications,
E. VIVIAN EDMONDS,
2, Sunnyside-terrace, Weston-super-Mare.

MISS MARIE DAGMAR
and
MR. FRED C. SOMERFIELD'S PLAY,
"GEOFFREY LANGDON'S WIFE (?)"
"GEOFFREY LANGDON'S WIFE (?)"
by Nita Rae,
Pronounced on all sides to be one of the finest productions seen for years.
A Drury Lane Production.
Another Record this week.
Managers requiring an Attraction to fill their Theatres,
See this play—Book it.
See this play—Book it.
See this play—Book it.
Vacant Feb. 19, 26, March 12, 19, April 2, 9, 16, 30, May, June.
Large clear stage only required.
FRED C. SOMERFIELD, MARINA T., LOWESTOFT.

MR. LEIGH LOVEL,
MISS OCTAVIA KENMORE, and Company in
"THE DUKE OF KILLICRANKIE."
Easter, and a few Spring dates open.
Jan. 8, WESTON-SUPER-MARE.

IDA MOLESWORTH and MARK BLOW'S COMPANY.
"A CRIPPLE CREEK."
THEATRE ROYAL, DOVER.
"A SAILOR'S SWEETHEART."
Jan. 8, THEATRE ROYAL, DOVER.
"UNDER TWO FLAGS."
Vacant dates, Jan. 29, Feb. 5, 12, 19, March 5, and on.
MARK BLOW, Theatre Royal, Dover.

AN UNWEDDED WIFE
Will be SENT ON TOUR
SHORTLY.

JAMES KIDDIE'S PANTOMIMES.
"ALADDIN."
HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE, WALSALL.
Every Evening until further notice.
"CINDERELLA,"
PRINCE'S THEATRE, PORTSMOUTH.
Every Evening until further notice.
"DICK WHITTINGTON,"
Jan. 8, THEATRE ROYAL, ROCHDALE, 1 week.
Only Vacant Dates,
"DICK WHITTINGTON,"
Feb. 19 and 26.
First-class Theatres only.
Sole Proprietor,
MR. JAMES KIDDIE.
General Secretary and Treasurer,
THOS. SWINTON,
Address all Communications to
ALEXANDRA THEATRE, WINDES.

TOURING COMPANIES.

MR. ARTHUR [illegible]
[illegible] Co., THE HAGUE, ARNHEIM
AMSTERDAM; South Co., [illegible]
Vacant Jan. 1[illegible]
Add., MR. SILVANUS

"UNCLE TOM"
The No. 1 Great Americ[illegible]
A Magnificent Production,
Full Chorus of Real Negroes, New Printing.
Vacant Jan. 22, Feb. 5, A
CHARLES HARRINGTON, EMPIRE,

"THE SAILORS OF T[illegible]
An Enormous Production
Carried, Naval Ur[illegible]
Magnificent Plant o[illegible]
Vacant Feb.
CHARLES HARR[illegible]
EMPIRE THEATR[illegible]

MR. ALLAN [illegible]
[illegible] Jan. 8, M[illegible]
"Merchant of [illegible] and "Robert Maca[illegible]
"Belphegor," Fri[illegible]
Macaire," Satur[illegible]
Robert Mac[illegible]
5 and

VIVIAN G[illegible]
"HELD
By Robert [illegible] entirely repro[illegible]
Re Aut. Dates, VIVIAN GRANTHAM, [illegible]

BERT COOTE'S TOURS
of
"THE FATAL WEDDING,"
"THE FATAL WEDDING."
"THE FATAL WEDDING."
"THE FATAL WEDDING."
"THE FATAL WEDDING."
"THE FATAL WEDDING."
"THE FATAL WEDDING."
"THE FATAL WEDDING."
Having Decided in Future to Play only Autumn Tours of
"THE FATAL WEDDING."
"THE FATAL WEDDING."
"THE FATAL WEDDING."
"THE FATAL WEDDING."
"THE FATAL WEDDING."
"THE FATAL WEDDING."
"THE FATAL WEDDING."
"THE FATAL WEDDING."
I shall be pleased to hear from all Managers desiring to Book the above Successful Play.
Season Open August Bank Holiday, 1906, and Terminates the Last Week of November.
Please Communicate Direct with
BERT COOTE,
150, Oxford-street,
London, W.

FRED. J. LITTLE and FRED DARCY'S PANTOMIMES.
"THE FORTY THIEVES," B. AUCKLAND.
"ROBINSON CRUSOE," FALKIRK.
"SINBAD THE SAILOR," MOTHERWELL.
Note "SINBAD THE SAILOR" is vacant Feb. 12.
Managers are invited to see these productions with a view to arranging dates for next season.
Address all communications to
FRED J. LITTLE, GRAND THEATRE, FALKIRK.

FRED J. LITTLE and FRED DARCY'S DRAMAS.
"THE EXECUTIONER'S DAUGHTER,"
Vacant March 5, 19, and Easter.
"ON THE STROKE OF TWELVE,"
Vacant March 19 and 26.
"THE SHADOW OF A CRIME,"
By Nita Rae.
Several Autumn Dates Vacant for all Shows.
Add., FRED J. LITTLE, GRAND T., FALKIRK.

MR. J. A. CAMPBELL'S COMPANY, in the New Homely Play,
THE LITTLE BREADWINNER.
By J. A. CAMPBELL
(Author of "The Sin of Her Childhood,"
"Daddy," &c.
Splendid Business last week at Accrington.
Complimented and Re-booked by Jos. B. Ormerod, Esq.
Prince's Theatre, Accrington.
Dec. 23, 1905.
Dear Mr. Campbell,
What? Yes, with pleasure, a return for "The Little Breadwinner." It is one of the best productions that has ever been here, an da certain money-maker. Splendidly acted, beautifully mounted, and I must say, an excellent piece. You deserve success.
Yours faithfully,
(Signed) Jos. B. ORMEROD.
Address, J. A. CAMPBELL, THEATRE ROYAL, JARROW.

MR. J. A. CAMPBELL'S CO., in the new homely drama, "THE LITTLE BREADWINNER," by J. A. Campbell. (Author of "The Sin of Her Childhood," "Daddy," &c.)
Splendid Business last week at Bury.
Complimented and re-booked by OTTO C. CULLIN, Esq., for all theatres.
Play was witnessed last week by WM. MORTON, Esq., and immediately booked for Hull, Alexandra.
Address, J. A. CAMPBELL, Theatre Royal, Jarrow.

"THE WIFE AND THE WOMAN,"
The daring and original play by Tom Craven.
The Newcastle Chronicle says: Mr. Tom Craven has written several interesting dramas, but this easily ranks first among his productions.
NOTE.—This play has been produced for copyright purposes. It will be played, with every attention to detail, in London during the month of June. It will tour in the autumn.
Address, E. C. STAFFORD, 26, Southampton-st., W.C.

HARDIE and VON LEER'S COS.
"TWO LITTLE VAGABONDS."
Jan. 8, O. H., TUNBRIDGE WELLS.
"A PATH OF THORNS."
Jan. 8, T. R., TONYPANDY.
"THE WOMAN FROM GAOL."
Production Easter, 1906.
E. P. CLIFT, 110, St. Martin's-lane, W.C.
Wires, "Vagancy, London," Tel., No. 7504 Gerrard.

W. H. KIRBY and CO.
in Edward Marris's Successful Musical Play.
"SOMEBODY'S SWEETHEART."
The Story and uproarious Comedy Scenes remain as they were, but every number will be a novelty, and new dances arranged.
W. H. Kirby, as Blabbs,
Feb. 12 and Easter Vacant.
Enormous Holiday Attraction.
W. H. KIRBY, 28, Mimosa-road, Fulham, S.W.

MISS BONWIN CARLTON'S CO.
"THE PLUCKY NIPPER."
Third Year of Tour. Vacant Jan. 29, Feb. 5, March 19. Address, EDWARD SURREY, Jan. 8, THEATRE ROYAL, COLNE (return), ANIES.

BOURNE,
Tour.
."

BRIGHTON.

BREAD'S
MPANY,
Irish Dramas.
GOON."

DUBLIN.

'S CO.
ARD PLAYS.
pany.
E CRICHTON,
SLE.

MACOWAN,
E,

AIRE."
Costume Play, in Holmes, entitled RTUNE."
ved Everywhere
asm.
12. May 21.
acOWAN.

CO.

Revival.
Jan. 22. Wire.
THEATRE, FLEETWOOD.

OLINI AND MAITLAND'S CO. in and Fewlass Llewellyn's Great Human Drama, COAL KING."
THEATRE ROYAL, CONSETT.
Feb. 5 and April 16; also a few in ly, POLINI, 93, Penge-road, Anerley, r coms., MAITLAND, en route.

LONDON FIREMAN," hur Shirley and George Conquest.
anted Jan. 29 and Feb. 19.
ARSIDE and KNOWLES,
RE, ABERTILLERY (Return).

AGG'S Congress of Comedians in GHTER LAND," ding the Marvellous CRAGGS. Fourth
r. All Spring Dates Fully Booked.
Autumn, 1906. Address, 68, Ken-
, London, S.E.

BLANCHE ST. ALBANS
J. LEICESTER-JACKSON'S CO.'S.
NE GREAT SIN," Maisteg, T'bert.
NOURED," Vacant Easter.
ENALTY OF CRIME," Vacant Easter.
AL SPY."
ddress, J. LEICESTER-JACKSON,
ESTEG, 3; TREHERBERT, 3.

LOVE THAT EN DESIRE.
LTON WALLACE.
The Village Blacksmith," mpany of Fifteen Artists.

Printing by D. Allen and Sons ficently Mounted.
s and Two Front Cloths carried, ncis H. Bull, London.

Y ONE OF THE FINEST
NS AND GREATEST AKERS TOURING.

Vacant
Feb. 12, 19,
12, Whit Week.

LTON WALLACE,
DRA THEATRE,
HULL.

ARE and MILLAR ANDERSON'S WOMAN HATES."
by William Hibbert.
First vacant date Feb. 19 and 26. Thanks William Morton, Esq. for Alexander Theatre. Have Contract Kennington Theatre, S.E.

MR. FRANK LINDO,
MISS MARION WAKEFORD,
and Full Company, in the Great Domestic Drama,
"HOME, SWEET HOME,"
by Frank Lindo,
For Fourth Year of Tour.
Only a Few Vacant Dates Left in 1906.
Return Dates Already Booked for This Year include:
Alexandra, Sheffield; Victoria, Broughton;
Prince's, Portsmouth; T. R., Stratford;
Opera House, Bury (third visit); W. G., Blackpool;
Grand, Halifax; T. R., Blyth;
T. R., Dewsbury; Court, Bacup;
T. R., Rochdale; Queen's, Keighley;
Queen's, Lincoln; T. R., Castleford;
T. R., Colne,
&c., &c.
Now Booking 1907.
New Scenery, New Costumes, and New Printing.

Managers wishing to Secure this Great Attraction, Apply,
FRANK LINDO,
THEATRE ROYAL, BLYTH.

MESSRS. MURRAY and STAFFORD'S CO.,
In an Entirely
New and Original Drama in Four Acts.
"THE CURSE OF CRIME,"
Written by Alfred Stafford.
Carefully Selected Company.
Specially Constructed and Painted Scenery.
The Best of Pictorial Printing.
Required, First-class Theatres for Spring and Autumn, with few exceptions.
Address, 39, Evan's-square, Beetonsville, Hull.

"MAN'S ENEMY."
By arrangement with Messrs. Dottridge and Longden. Vacant March 19, 26, April 16,
Lancashire or Yorkshire.
POWER AND NORMAN, T. R., HULL.

Powerful New and Entirely Original Drama,
"WOMAN AND HER MASTER,"
by
Miss Mary Stafford Smith.

Sole Rights for Great Britain secured by Jack
Esq., who will shortly Tour same.
Australian, and South Africa
Miss STAFFORD SMITH, care of S.O.

TOURING COMPANIES.

MR. WILLIAM GREET'S COMPANY.

"THE SIGN OF THE CROSS."

Re dates, Apply, W. A. McNEILL
Lyric Theatre, W.

MR. WILLIAM GREET'S COMPANY.
"THE EARL AND THE GIRL."
Western Company.
Manager, ALEXANDER TELFORD.
Jan. 8, H. M. THEATRE, ABERDEEN.

MR. GEORGE EDWARDES' CO.
in
"THE LITTLE MICHUS."
Address,
General-Manager, Mr. H. ADAIR NELSON.
Jan. 8, ROYALTY THEATRE, GLASGOW.

MISS GRACE WARNER and CO., in the Powerful Drama
"THE SCARLET CLUE."
This, KING'S THEATRE, GAINSBOROUGH.
Vacant Jan. 15, 29, Feb. 5, 12.

"MR. SMITH,"
By
Walter Reynolds.
Duplicate Companies.
Jan. 8,
VICTORIA THEATRE, BURNLEY.
O. H., DONCASTER.

MESSRS. POLINI & MELFORD'S CO.,
In Henry Arthur Jones' Greatest Drama of the Age,
"THE SILVER KING."
Jan. 8, OPERA HOUSE, NORTHAMPTON.
A few Autumn Dates Open.
For Dates, POLINI, 93, Penge-rd., Anerley, London,
S.E. Other Coms., MELFORD, 15, Sandy Coomberoad, Twickenham.

LIONEL RIGNOLD AND ADA BLANCHE'S TOURS.

"WHAT THE BUTLER SAW,"
From Wyndham's and Savoy Theatres.
Spring Tour Complete. For Autumn Dates.
Address, LIONEL RIGNOLD, 398, Clapham-road.

"THE GIRL FROM JAPAN,"
The brilliant Musical Comedy.

Book and Lyrics by Wilfred Carr.
Music by Colet Dare.

Under the direction of F. Martin Morris.

Mr. George Hudson,
Mr. Percy Baverstock,	Mr. Charles L. Ludlow,
Mr. W. H. Moore,	Miss Mabel Kerridge,
Mr. Charles Lupton,	Miss Josephine Ellis,
Mr. Ernest Spalding,	Miss Jeannie Holmes,

and
MISS DOROTHY GLENTON
as
THE GIRL FROM JAPAN.

Full Chorus and Troupe of Dancers.

Musical Director, Mr. W. H. EVELEIGH.

Vacant dates, Jan. 29, onwards.

All communications to be addressed
F. MARTIN MORRIS,
This week,
Victoria Theatre, Broughton, Manchester.
Next week,
THEATRE ROYAL, ST. HELENS.

FRANK E. BURDETT'S TOUR.
"THE INDIAN MUTINY."
Vacant, Feb. 12, 26, and late Autumn.
Address, FRANK E. BURDETT.
Jan. 8, T. R., WHITEHAVEN.

MISS FRANCES DELAVAL'S CO.,
"HER LOST SELF,"
By Nita Rae. "THE BIGGEST SCAMP
ON EARTH," by the late F. A. Scudamore. Vac.
Jan. 15, 29, Feb. 19, April 16. Wire, Hip., New Brompton; next, COUNTY T., BEDFORD.

MR. JOSEPH W. WORLEY'S TOUR,
with the Successful Drama,
"A FAITHFUL FRIEND."
By Arrangement with Mr. Lewis Gilbert.
All Special New Scenery Carried.
First-Class Company.
Re dates, Lewis Gilbert, P. O. W., Mexbro'.
Other Communications to Joseph W. Worley.
Highdene, Burnham-on-Crouch.

An Unqualified Success.
"AFTER THE BALL,"
"AFTER THE BALL."
"AFTER THE BALL."
"AFTER THE BALL."
"AFTER THE BALL."
"AFTER THE BALL."
"AFTER THE BALL."
"AFTER THE BALL."
"AFTER THE BALL."
"AFTER THE BALL."
"AFTER THE BALL."
"AFTER THE BALL."
"AFTER THE BALL."
"AFTER THE BALL."
"AFTER THE BALL."
By Charles Carey.
Additional Lyrics by Buckstone Clair.
Incidental Music and Special Numbers
by G. Leone.
The Most Complete
Musical Comedy
Touring.

Six Gibson Girls.	A Perfect Chorus.
Dallas Welford.	Victor Widdicombe.

Easter Vacant.
CHARLES CAREY,
Opera House,
Tunbridge Wells.

W. REUBEN PAYNE'S TOUR.

THE ORPHAN HEIRESS

By Arrangement with
MR. ARTHUR JEFFERSON.

Four Complete Sets of Scenery and all Properties carried.
Full Cast of Recognised Artists, including
Miss BEATRICE FITZHUGH
as
LADY AINSLEY.

ALL ARTISTS Engaged will be required to Rehearse METROPOLE, GLASGOW, January 29th, open following week. Wire confirmation to PAYNE, Theatre, Dumfries.

Re Dates, apply—
ARTHUR JEFFERSON,
METROPOLE, GLASGOW.

TOURING COMPANIES.

D'OYLY CARTE OPERA COMPANY.
OPERA HOUSE, CAPE TOWN,
Four Weeks Commencing Jan. 8, 1906.
All applications for permissions for Amateur Performances of the Operas by Mr. W. S. Gilbert and Sir Arthur Sullivan should be made direct to Mrs. D'OYLY CARTE,
Savoy Hotel, London, W.C.

THE MOODY-MANNERS OPERA COMPANY, Ltd. Founded 1897.
"A" Company is the Largest English Opera Company that has ever Travelled Great Britain. Guaranteed over 118 Travelling in this Company.
All other Companies under this Management, whether in Great Britain or the Colonies, are the same as in "A" Co. in everything except numbers.
An "Academy of Music on Tour" has now been added to the "A" Co. This is the only one in the world combining the advantages of an Academy of Music with Stage Experience. Terms, Conditions, &c., on application.
Required, Principals, Chorus, Orchestra, and all concerned to write in, quoting experience and lowest terms. Chorus need not have Répertoire for examination, but must be Young. Terms for experienced First-class Choristers:—Tenors, £2 5s. per week; Baritones and Basses, £2 2s. 6d. per week; Sopranos and Contraltos, £1 17s. 6d. per week. Extra Salaries are paid for Small Parts, which are all Played Exclusively by the Chorus.
"A," Jan. 8, THEATRE ROYAL, DUBLIN.
"B," Jan. 8, THEATRE ROYAL, LINCOLN.
Permanent address, Moody-Manners' Stores, The Hyde, Hendon, Middlesex.

C. P. LEVILLY'S COMPANIES.
"LA POUPEE."
"LA POUPEE."
"AMORELLE."
"AMORELLE."
All arrangements for 1906 complete. Letters to HERBERT RALLAND, 10, King-st., Covent Garden, W.C.

HERBERT RALLAND'S COMPANY.
"LA POUPEE,"
By arrangement with C. P. Levilly, Esq.,
Jan. 8, H. M. T., BARROW.
Address, 10, King-street, Covent Garden, W.C.

MESSRS. ARMADALE and WARREN'S COMPANY.
"THE FACE AT THE WINDOW."
Wanted, Feb. 19, March 19, April 2, 23, 30, and Whit-week for the above attraction.
Address, F. B. WARREN,
THEATRE ROYAL, WEST HARTLEPOOL.

TOURS BOOKED.

ARTHUR JEFFERSON is prepared to book tours for responsible managers. Fullest attention given to his clients' interests. Personal visits to companies "en route" if desired. No tour booked without a knowledge of the attraction, and a belief in its "drawing" powers. A. J. thanks those managers who have already favoured him with commissions and enquiries. Add.. Metropole Theatre, Glasgow.

SCALE OF CHARGES FOR TRAVELLING COMPANIES.
Five Lines TWO and SIXPENCE.
Thirteen Insertions (Including a Copy of "The Era" Weekly), THIRTY SHILLINGS.
For Each Additional Line Sixpence.
Address, THE PUBLISHER,
"The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-st., Strand, W.C.
"Wire," "The Era, London."
"Ring-up" 4,747, Central.

WE LEAD—OTHERS FOLLOW.

LUSH AND COOK, LTD.,

THE PREMIER
THEATRICAL CHEMICAL CLEANERS AND DYERS.

Contractors to the Principal Theatres, including the
THEATRE ROYAL, DRURY-LANE.

LOWEST QUOTATIONS FOR CLEANING ANY NUMBER OF DRESSES BETWEEN THE SHOWS.

RING UP 783 MAYFAIR.

Artists' Private Work a Specialite.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Our processes of Chemical Cleaning have become so popular with the Profession that our premises at 91, Mount-street have become totally inadequate for the carrying on of so large a business. We shall therefore in the course of a few weeks Transfer the WHOLE of our PROFESSIONAL BUSINESS to Large and Centrally Situated Premises at

29, CHARING-CROSS-ROAD, W.C.
(Adjoining the Alhambra).

By opening these Offices in the Centre of Theatre-land we consider that we are supplying

A LONG-FELT WANT.

Prior to Opening send all Orders to

LUSH & COOK, LTD.,
91, MOUNT-STREET,
LONDON, W.

JOHN BELL, Theatrical Manager.
Tele., 783 Mayfair.
Works: HACKNEY-WICK, N.E.

WALLER, THEATRICAL COSTUMIER and WIG MAKER. Every Description of Play and Opera correctly Costumed and Wigged. Historical and other Costumes, &c., for Tableaux and Fancy Balls. Amateurs advised on Correctness of Detail in Costumes and Wigs. 79, CITY ROAD, LONDON. Tel., 9399, London Wall. Quantity Secondhand Scenery for Sale.

COSTUMES. — C. and W. MAY (Sons of the late Samuel May, of Bow-street), COSTUMES on HIRE for Amateur Performances, FANCY BALLS, Tableaux Vivants, &c. The Newest Stock of Historical and Fancy Costumes. 9 and 11 GARRICK-ST., COVENT GARDEN, W.C. Tel., "Shakespearian, London." 'Phone 6525 Gerrard.

WHITE'S TIGHTS.
Postage, 3d. per Pair.
Strong Cotton Tights, Black, White, and Flesh, 2s. 6d. per Pair; Forty other Shades in stock, 2s. 9d. per Pair. New Silk Lustre Tights, 3s. 9d. Silk Tights, 7s. and 8s. 6d.; Very Best, 10s. Worsted Tights, 6s. 6d. Stamp for List, Patterns of Colours, and Self-Measure Form. WHITE and SONS, BOBBERS MILL, NOTTINGHAM. SOLE London Agent for these Tights, GAMAGE, LTD., 146, HOLBORN. Call and Inspect.

A. R. DEAN & SONS The World's
A. R. DEAN & SONS Theatre
A. R. DEAN & SONS Furnishers,

BIRMINGHAM.

Factory Telephone: No. 3834, Birmingham.
Showroom Telephone: No. 224, Birmingham.
Telegrams: "Carpets, Birmingham."

A. R. DEAN & SONS	Furnish upwards of 85 per cent. of the New Theatres and Halls erected in Great Britain.
A. R. DEAN & SONS'	Prices are the same for the Provinces, Scotland, Ireland, and London.
A. R. DEAN & SONS'	Advertisements are not bogus. Every article advertised, even if it be a Tip-up Chair at 4/11, is as freely supplied and as promptly executed as the best.
A. R. DEAN & SONS	Are never too busy to execute Small Orders.
A. R. DEAN & SONS'	Factories are capable of turning out 2000 Tip-up Chairs per week.
A. R. DEAN & SONS	Give a Three Years' Guarantee with every class of Chair and Seat, from their 4/11 to their 60/- Chair.
A. R. DEAN & SONS	Guarantee to use only New Material in all their Seats.
A. R. DEAN & SONS	Only employ First-class Workmen.
A. R. DEAN & SONS	Always pay Trade Union Rate of Wages.
A. R. DEAN & SONS'	Seats and Chairs are all Manufactured in their Own Factories at Clement Street, Birmingham.

NOTE.—A. R. DEAN & SONS' LATEST PRODUCTION.

THE NON PAREIL MAGNIFICENT TIP-UP CHAIR.

9/11 9/11 9/11 9/11

Carriage Paid any Quantity any Distance in Great Britain.

NOTE.—This Chair will favourably compare with any Chair in the Trade, and cannot be equalled for value.

ALL Frames used are Solid Birch.
ALL Webs are Best English Make, and not German.
ALL Seats have four 6in. Coppered Springs.
ALL Seats have Best Canvas-stitched Rolls.
ALL Seats, Backs, and Rods covered in a Good British Velvet, any Colour.
ALL Seats and Backs, Outsides and Bottoms, covered with a good American Leather.
Samples free, any distance.

A. R. DEAN & SONS, BIRMINGHAM,

Point with pride to their list of Contracts now in hand, and executed this year, 1905:

1. NEW QUEEN'S THEATRE, GATESHEAD.—Complete Decorations and entire Re-Furnishing.
2. NEW HIPPODROME, ACCRINGTON.—Complete Re-Furnishing.
3. NEW HIPPODROME, MAIDSTONE, KENT.—Complete Seating.
4. NEW HIPPODROME, IPSWICH.—The whole of the Magnificent Draperies, Tableaux Curtains, and Tip-Up Chairs.
5. NEW GRAND THEATRE, COLCHESTER.—The complete Furnishing, Seating, Tableau Curtains, &c.
6. NEW TIVOLI, DUBLIN.—Complete Re-seating, including New Patent Pit Seating, Tableau Curtains, Draperies, &c.
7. THE OPERA HOUSE, CORK.—Complete Re-seating, including A. R. Dean's New Patent Pit Seating.
8. NEW PALACE, CORK.—Complete Re-seating and Re-upholstering, including A. R. Dean's New Patent Pit Seating.
9. THE NEW COLISEUM, ABERYSTWYTH.—Complete Furnishing, including 600 Tip-up Chairs, and A. R. Dean's New Patent Pit Seating.
10. THE OSBORNE THEATRE, MANCHESTER.—Re-seating, &c.
11. THE GRAND JUNCTION THEATRE, MANCHESTER.—A. R. Dean's New Pit Seating.
12. THE EMPIRE, PORTSMOUTH.—Completely Re-Furnished, Re-Decorated, and new Fibrous Work; also upwards of 700 new Tip-up Chairs supplied.
AT A COST OF UPWARDS OF £2,000.
13. NEW HIS MAJESTY'S THEATRE, CARLISLE.—Complete Decorations and Furnishing, including upwards of 400 Tip-up Chairs, and A. R. Dean's New Patent Pit Seating.
14. THE AQUARIUM, SCARBOROUGH.—Complete Re-seating.
15. NEW HIPPODROME, PRESTON.—The whole of the magnificent Draperies, Tableau Curtains, Carpets, &c.
16. NATIONAL TELEPHONE CO., LTD., LONDON.—The whole of their Silence Cabinets, in mahogany, pitch pine, &c., at a cost of several thousand pounds.
17. NEW CAMERON HOTEL, SWANSEA.—The whole of the Decorations and Complete Furnishing, at a cost of upwards of £8,000.
18. NEW TURK'S HEAD HOTEL, NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE.—Complete Carpeting of the New Wing, Dining and Billiard Rooms; also Dining-Room Chairs, and Furniture, &c.
19. NEW QUEEN'S HOTEL, BIRMINGHAM.—Carpets, Furnishing, &c.
20. THE COUNCIL OF CAMBRIDGE.—New Tip-up Chairs for Guildhall.
21. THEATRE ROYAL, DARLINGTON.—Complete Decoration, and Entire Re-Furnishing, New Chairs and Seatings, &c.
22. NEW GRAND THEATRE, STOCKTON-ON-TEES.—The whole of Fibrous Plaster, Marble and Decorations; also complete Furnishing, Chairs, Seatings, &c., throughout.
23. NEW HIPPODROME, SOUTHAMPTON.—The complete Furnishings, Seatings, Chairs, Curtains, Carpets, &c.
24. COUNTY AND BOROUGH HALL COMPANY, GUILDFORD.—Magnificent Tip-up Chairs of our noted portable make, without screwing to floors.
25. PRINCE OF WALES'S THEATRE, MEXBORO'.—Whole of new Tip-up Chairs, &c.
26. NEW ALEXANDRA THEATRE, GREENOCK, N.B.—Whole of Seating, Chairs, Curtains, Draperies, &c.
27. THE PALACE THEATRE, DUNDEE.—Whole of new Tip-up Chairs, &c.
28. NEW OPERA HOUSE, SOUTHPORT.—Re-seating and Re-furnishing, New Carpets, &c.
29. NEW KING'S OPERA HOUSE, LONGSIGHT, MANCHESTER.—The whole of the Magnificent Fibrous Plaster Decorations, 750 Tip-up Chairs, All Seating, 1,000 Wilton Carpet, Magnificent Draperies and Tableaux Curtains, and Furnishing throughout.
30. NEW EMPIRE PALACE, DUDLEY.—Re-furnishing, Seating, Tip-up Chairs and Draperies, Carpets, &c.
31. HIPPODROME, BIRMINGHAM. — Re-upholstering, &c.
32. ASSEMBLY ROOMS, LEAMINGTON. — Re-furnishing.
33. NEW CORPORATION BATHS, MANCHESTER (For the Manchester Corporation).—Complete Seating, with Patent Seats.
34. THE PALACE THEATRE, GREENOCK.—Re-furnishing, &c.
35. SKEGNESS PIER PAVILION.—New Tip-up Chairs.
36. GAIETY THEATRE, OLDHAM.—New Patent Tip-up Seating, Carpets, &c., &c.
37. NORTH PIER PAVILION, SCARBOROUGH.—New Seating, &c.
38. COUNCIL OF GRANGE-OVER-SANDS.—New Portable Tip-up Chairs.
39. THE HIPPODROME, SCARBOROUGH.—Set Tableau Curtains, &c.
40. Magnificent Tableau Curtains, Draperies, and Curtains, &c., &c., &c., &c., for Fred Karno's Magnificent Paris Production of "Mumming Birds."

A. R. DEAN & SONS

Have invented a New Double-Action Automatic TIP-UP CHAIR,

"THE DEAN."

THE BEST CHAIR IN THE TRADE.

A. R. DEAN & SONS'	New Chair, "The Dean," is very handsome in appearance. Cannot get out of order, takes up very little room. Prices from 12s. 9d. to £3 10s.
A. R. DEAN & SONS	Have long been noted for the complete manner in which they carry out their Contracts.
A. R. DEAN & SONS'	Managers have had vast experience in the Decorating and Fitting out of Theatres, Halls, Hotels, &c.
A. R. DEAN & SONS'	Catalogue, post free, is the most Magnificent Catalogue of Theatre Furnishing compiled.
A. R. DEAN & SONS	Lay themselves out to complete, if necessary, the Re-seating and Re-furnishing, or the entire Re-furnishing of Theatres and Halls in 24 hours.
A. R. DEAN & SONS	THE TIME SAVERS. THE WORRY SAVERS.
A. R. DEAN & SONS	Have the following Departments:— FIBROUS PLASTER. DECORATIONS. BAR FITTINGS AND ALL KINDS OF JOINERY. TIP-UP CHAIRS AND ALL KINDS OF SEATING. ALL KINDS OF FLOOR COVERINGS. ALL KINDS OF CURTAINS AND DRAPERIES. ALL KINDS OF FURNITURE. IN FACT EVERYTHING FOR THE COMPLETE EQUIPMENT OF UP-TO-DATE THEATRES AND HALLS.
A. R. DEAN & SONS	Are the only Firm in the Country who Undertake and Carry Out the Complete Decoration and Furnishing without Sub-Letting any portion of the work.

A. R. DEAN & SONS

— ARE —

Ironfounders, Cabinet Makers, Carpet Manufacturers, Joiners, Fibrous Plaster Manufacturers, Decorators, & Complete Furnishers.

A. R. DEAN & SONS	Still retain the services of Mr. A. F. WINDIBANK as Manager of the Theatre Department. Mr. CHARLES BARDELL, N.S.S.K., as Manager of the Decoration Department. Mr. L. BECK as Manager of Factories and Works. All the above are Masters and Experts in their various Departments, and have had unlimited experience in Theatre Contracts.

A. R. DEAN & SONS,

The World's Theatre Contractors,

Telephone Nos.: 3834 & 224 Birmingham. BIRMINGHAM. Telegrams: "Carpets, Birmingham."

DRAMATIC CARDS.

Alphabetically Arranged—Limited to Three Lines

MISS HANID ALEXANDER, Title-rôle, Panto., Grand Theatre, Fulham.

MISS BESSIE ALLAYNE, Principal Boy, Jack, in "Jack and the Beanstalk," Theatre Royal, Exeter.

MISS MARY ALLESTREE, Disengaged. Address, 65, Holbein-house, Sloane-square, S.W.

MISS JENNIE ARMSTRONG, Abdallah, "Forty Thieves." Alexandra Theatre, Stoke Newington, N.

MISS MARIE AUCKLAND, Disengaged Lead, Special Parts. Add., Charles Herrick, Manager, T. R., Croydon.

MISS MARIE AULT, Baroness, "Cinderella," Mr. F. Mouillot's Co., Jan. 8, Hippodrome, Boscombe. Dis. shortly.

MISS ANNE BEAUFORT, Disengaged for Spring. Address, Grand Hotel, St. Moritz, Engadine, Switzerland.

MISS MARIE BECKENHAM, Mr. J. B. Howard's Co., "The Christian." Jan. 8, New Theatre, Aberdare.

MISS CELESTINE BERTRAM, Batty "Breed of the Treshams" Co. Theatre Royal, Norwich.

MISS NELLIE BERYL, At Liberty. Earlham, Chatsworth-road, Brighton.

MISS NELLIE C. BILBE, Gratis, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McLaren's "Claudian" Co. Opera House, Southport.

MISS EDITH BLANDE, at Liberty, Lead or Heavy Lead. Letters only. 45 Graham-road, Dalston, N.E.

MISS ADELINE BOURNE, Address, c/o Grindlay and Co., 54, Parliament-street, S.W.

MISS ADIE BOYNE, Disengaged. 27, Caversham-road, N.W.

MRS. J. W. BRAITHWAITE, 34, Waldemar-avenue, Fulham, S.W. Next, T. R., Dover.

MADAME FANNY BROWN'S School for Stage Dancing, Mon. and Thurs., 12 till 2, Masonic Hall, Camberwell New-rd., S.E.

MISS JESSIE BURWITZ, Address, Oakleigh, Loftus-road, Shepherd's Bush.

MISS LYDIA BUSCH, 16, Hogarth-road, Earl's Court.

MISS MARY CAMPBELL, Emilia Gertrude, "Anne of Austria," Effie Deans, &c. Mr. E. Tearle's Co., T., Ashington.

MISS VIOLET CARLYLE, Lead, "Revenge" Co. Next, T. R., Smethwick.

MISS MARY CARNEGY, Mr. Bannister Howard's "Christian" Co. Theatre Royal, Aberdare.

MISS LIZZIE CHAMBERS (Mrs. E. Carter Livesey). Rhoda Brown, "The Temptress" Co. Jan. 8, Grand, Walsall.

MISS HETTIE CHATTELL, Prince in "Cinderella." Theatre Royal, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

MDLLE. MARCELLE CHEVALIER, Engaged by Mr. Geo. Alexander, for his new production. Address, care of "The Era" Office.

MISS ANNIE CHIPPENDALE, Disengaged. 12, Flanders-mansions, Bedford Park, W.

MISS KATHARINE CLARKE, Disengaged for Lead. Address, 234, The Grove, Hammersmith.

MISS MARIE CLAVERING, Heavies, Comedy. "Geoffrey Langdon's Wife (?)" Co. Letters, 1, Colchester-st., St. George's-sq., London.

MISS AMY COLEMAN, Aristocratic Old Woman. Dis. early in January and on, town or good tour. His Majesty's Theatre, W.

MISS ITALIA CONTI, at Liberty. 41, Crockerton-road, Wandsworth Common, S.W.

MISS MILDRED COTTELL Disengaged. Heavy and Comedy Parts. 12, Lavender-sweep, Clapham Junc., S.W., or A.A.

MISS EDITH CRUIKSHANKS, Disengaged. All communications, 35, Cautley-avenue, S.W.

MISS FLORENCE DALTON, Starring as "The Worst Woman in London.." Theatre Royal, Colchester.

MRS. ALFRED DAVIS, Mrs. Smith, Walter Reynolds' "Mr. Smith." Jan. 8, Victoria Theatre, Burnley.

MISS HYLDA DAVIES, Mr. William Greet's "Earl and the Girl" Co. Lyceum Theatre, Sheffield.

MISS JOSIE DELAINE, Empire, Newcastle-on-Tyne. Communications, FREVELLI'S Agency.

MISS GEORGIE DE LARA, Fairy Godmother, Borough Stratford.

MISS DORIS DIGBY (Mrs. Charles Vane), "Sherlock Holmes" Co. Jan. 8, Lyceum Theatre, Sheffield.

MISS ELLA DIXON, Engaged by Miss Ida Molesworth and Mr. Mark Blow for a few weeks. Perm. Add., A.A.

MISS LYDIA DONOVAN. "Sybil Thorburn" (Lead), in "The Love that Women Desire." Address, en route, or A. A.

MISS MAUDE STEWART DREWRY, A.A. Standard Theatre every evening. Disengaged Spring.

MISS DOLORES DRUMMOND, Disengaged. 17, Southfield-gardens, Strawberry-hill, S.W.

MISS ELSPETH DUDGEON, Disengaged. 19, Briardale-gardens, Hampstead.

MISS MABEL DURRANT, Clara Darrel, in "A Woman's Past." Jan. 8, Theatre Royal, Aldershot.

MISS EAST-ROBERTSON, Disengaged Spring. 163, St. Mary's-rd, Sheffield.

MISS CONSTANCE ELGIN, At liberty. Lead or heavy lead. 7, Vineyards, Bath. D. CECIL. O. H., Tunbridge Wells.

MISS DAISY ENGLAND, Disengaged. Address, 73, Lower Richmond-road, Putney, S.W.

MISS ANNIE ESMOND, Chas. Frohman's "Catch of the Season" Co. Empire Theatre, Broadway, New York.

MISS ALMA EVELYNE, Dramatic Soprano, Queen, in "Sleeping Beauty," at Paisley. Offers for Spring. Add., A.A.

MISS MAMIE FINBOW, Fairy Queen, Britannia Theatre. Agent, RICHARD CASS.

MISS DOROTHY FIRMIN, Mavis, Camden Th., N.W. Lady Violet, Spring Tour, "Orchid." Address, 47, College-place, Camden.

MISS BEATRICE FITZHUGH, Lead, "The Red Coat," Jan. 1, Theatre Royal, Dumfries.

MISS RUBY FORBES, Title-rôle, "Cinderella." Coronet Theatre, Notting Hill, W.

MISS HELENE FOREST, Lead, Henriette, "Lost in Paris." Perm. add., 50, Elsham-road, Kensington, W.

MISS PHYLLIS B. FRENCH, Disengaged. Perm., 6, Glenmore-street, Southend-on-Sea.

MISS KATE FROUDE, Title-rôle, "A Modern Adventuress." King's Theatre, Cardiff.

MISS ADA GATLEY, in her Speciality Combination Act. Address, 149, Waldegrave-road, Preston Park, Brighton.

MISS INA GOLDSMITH, Miss Olga Nethersole's Co., Address, care of Low's Exchange, 1123, Broadway, New York.

MISS BARBARA GOTT, Mother Superior, "Her Forbidden Marriage." Star Theatre, Liverpool.

MISS LOUISA GOURLAY, Continuing Tour with "Lucky Durham." Address c/o "The Era." Letters forwarded.

MISS DORA GRAY, Disengaged. 51, The Grove, Hammersmith.

MISS MARION GREY, At Liberty to accept engagements. 50, Curzon-street, Mayfair, W.

MISS DAISY GWYNNE, Disengaged Address, c/o "The Era."

MISS PAULINE HAGUE, at Liberty. The Cannons, Pevensey Bay Sussex.

MISS DAISY HALLING, At liberty for lead or heavy lead. 32, Ampthill-square, Hampstead-road, N.W.

MISS LILIAN HALLOWS, Disengaged. Address, 19, Mornington-avenue, West Kensington.

MISS LAURA HANSEN, Lead, Kate, "Village Blacksmith." Perm. Add., 86, Church-road, Hove, Brighton.

MISS GERTRUDE HARRISON, Madge Larrabee, "Sherlock Holmes" Co. Lyceum Theatre, Sheffield.

MISS HELEN HAYE, Engaged by Messrs. Dauncey and Levaux, Spring Tour, "The Walls of Jericho. Add., 43, Old Kent-rd., S.E.

MISS GWYNNE HERBERT, Lady Sarah Middleton, Haymarket Theatre.

MISS LILIAN HERRIES, Lead. Address, 25, Nelson-street, Leicester.

MISS JEANNIE HOLMES, Lady Flippington in "The Girl from Japan." Theatre Royal, St. Helens, Jan. 8, Six Nights.

MISS BEATRICE HOMER, Starring as "The Ugliest Woman on Earth," Mr. F. Melville's Company, Theatre Royal, Rotherham.

MISS EDITH HOUSLEY, Disengaged. 63, Bedford Court-mansions, W.C.

MISS MARIE HOUSLEY, At Liberty for Lead. 63, Bedford Court-mansions, W.C.

MISS AGNES IMLAY, Leading Business. Offers Invited. Add., 41, Egerton-road, West Greenwich, S.E.

MISS CLARA JECKS. Address, care of "The Era" Office; or, A.A.

MISS MARY JERROLD, at Liberty. Address, 40, Perham-road, West Kensington, W.

MISS KATIE JOHNSON, "Billy's Little Love Affair" (own com). Special week. Dis. Jan. 14. New Pier Pavilion, Eastbourne.

MISS KATE KEARNEY, Comedy, Character, Irish Parts. Address, 37, Colville-road, Leytonstone, N.E.

MISS FLORRIE KELSEY (Mrs. Henry Wright, jun.), Juvenile Lead, "Female Swindler" Co. Jan. 8, Eccles.

MISS LILIAN KEVILL-DAVIES, Disengaged. 40, Churton-street, Westminster, S.W.

MISS RHODA KILDARE, at Liberty for Town or Good Tour. Address, 4, Bloomsbury-square, W.C.

MISS BERTHA KINGSTON, Permanent address, 234, Lyham-road, Brixton Hill, S.W.

MISS FLORENCE LE CLERCQ, At Liberty. Address, 118, Southampton-row, W.C.

MISS STELLA LEIGH, Disengaged Lead, Comedy, or Drama. Pleasure Gardens Theatre, Folkestone.

MRS. HENRY LEIGH, at Liberty. 2, The Wodlands, Langton-rd., Vassall-rd., S.W.

MISS GERTRUDE LE SAGE, Disengaged Jan. 15. Add., next week, T. R., West Bromwich. Then A.A.

MISS MINNIE LESLIE, Fi-Fi, George Dance's "Chinese Honeymoon" Co., Third Tour. Address, Theatre Royal, Birkenhead.

MISS ADELINE LESTER George Edwardes's "Little Michus" Co., Royalty, Glasgow.

MISS GRACE LESTER, Starring Engagement. "The Midnight Mail" Co. Jan. 8, Theatre, Nuneaton.

MISS EMILY LEVETTEZ, Heavy, Aristocratic Comedy. Disengaged. 72, Oakley-square, London, N.W.

MISS HETTIE LIND, Dolly Flirt, J. Waters' "Cinderella" Panto. To-day, O. H., Cheltenham; next, Queen's, Farnworth.

MISS MAUD LOCKER, Concluded "Fatal Wedding." Engaged by Mark Blow, Esq., Two Weeks, Special, Jan. 8, T. R., Dover.

MISS KITTY LOFTING, Constance, "Path of Thorns." Address, Actors' Association.

MISS KEITH LYTTON, Mrs. Jim Grieves, "Billy's Little Love Affair" (Specially engaged). West Pier, Eastbourne, Jan. 8.

MISS GLADYS MAKEHAM, Aged 14. At Liberty. 330, New Cross-road, S.E.

MISS MARY MALLALIEU, Margaret Daventry, in "The Little Breadwinner." On Tour.

MISS MABEL MANNERING, Fairy Queen in "Dick Whittington." Kennington Theatre, London.

MISS PHYLLIS MANNERS, Disengaged. Letters, 131, St. George's-rd., Southwark, London, S.E.

MISS ALICE MANSFIELD, Disengaged. 1, Westgate-terrace, Redcliffe-square, S.W.

MISS BEATRICE MARSDENE, Alice Faulkner in "Sherlock Holmes." Jan. 8, Lyceum Theatre, Sheffield.

MISS EDIE MARTIN, Pantomime Season, Elephant and Castle Theatre, S.E.

MISS RUBIE MAUDE, Leading Business, Sophie, "Grip of Iron" Co., Jan. 8, Glossop.

MISS JENNIE MAYNARD, In Australia. Returning to England Shortly. Address, G.P.O., Melbourne.

MISS ALICE MAZZONI, Lead, at Liberty. Good Offers Invited. Address, 19, Coatsworth-road, Gateshead.

MISS CONNIE MEADOWS, Comedy, Ingénues. Mrs. C. WOOD, com., old women. Dis. 94, Aughton-st., Gt. Homer-st., Liverpool.

MISS MADGE MERRY, Title-rôle, Edward Marris's "Dick Whittington" Co., Theatre Royal, Blackburn.

MISS SASH MILLWARD, Amateurs and Special Engagements. 6, Havelock-road, Norwich.

MISS LILLIE MONCKTON, the Ideal Principal Boy, "Cinderella" Pantomime. Next, Lyceum, Long Eaton. Offers invited for 1906.

MISS LOUISE MOODIE, Address, c/o Chas. Dillingham, Esq., 1402, Broadway, New York, U.S.A.

MISS MADGE MORAN, Lead, Dis. Thanks to Mr. Brownson for Engagement. 4, Ardville House, Rushcroft-rd., Brixton.

MISS EFFIE MORTON, Refined Male Mimic. Another Vesta Tilley.—Vide Press notices. Wanted dates. City Varieties, Leeds.

MISS DAISY MURCH, Vacant. Emotional, Light Com., Lead, and Adventuress parts. 3, Coram-street, W.C.

MISS TESSA MYERS, Address, 40, Burlington-road, South Shore, Blackpool.

MISS NASH, Costumier, Prince's, Manchester, for all Productions for past 16 years. For this year only, T. R., Manchester.

MISS FLORENCE NELSON, Mr. Andrew Melville's Stock Season. Metropole Theatre, Birmingham.

MISS NOEL NEVILLE, Matinées only, Court Theatre, otherwise Disengaged. 28, Stanley-gardens, Kensington.

MISS CLARA NICHOLLS, "Billy's Little Love Affair," Palace Pier, Eastbourne, Jan. 8. At Liberty Jan. 14. A.A

MISS RUTH NIGHTINGALE, Helena ("All's Well"), Celia, Jessica, &c., Esmonde Bramley's Co. Jan. 8, Carlisle.

MISS OCTAVIA NOEL, Lead, with Mr. Montefiore (Special), at Lib., Home or Abroad. 5th, Lyceum Theatre, Govan.

MISS PHILLIS NOELL, Disengaged. Merrywoods, Stansted, near Wrotham, Kent.

MISS BLANCHE NORMAN, Address, 4, Burleigh-mansions, Charing Cross-road, W.C.

MISS MARGARET NYBLOC, Disengaged Address, 118, Long Acre, W.C.

MISS ADA PALMER, At Liberty. 78, Merton-road, Wimbledon, S.W.

MISS LOUISA PEACH, Juvenile Lead, Victoria Theatre, Broughton.

MISS JOAN PEREIRA, Disengaged. Good Offers Invited. 64, Charlwood-street, S.W.

MISS IDA PHILLIPS, Disengaged. 1, Tavistock-square, W.C. Telephone, 9402 Central.

MISS JOSEPHINE PREECE, Big Success as Dandini, "Cinderella." Next, Long Eaton. Offers invited for Spring.

MISS ADELINE RABY, Resigning with 'Barmaids" Co. Thanks Management for instantly releasing. 2, Heathfield House, Brixton.

MISS MARY RABY, The Queen, in "Cymbeline." Queen's Theatre, Manchester.

MISS LYDIA RACHEL, "Dr. Wake's Patient" Co., Jan. 8, Winter Gardens, Blackpool.

MISS NELLIE RANDALL, Principal Boy, Silverbutton, Theatre Royal, Bolton.

MISS ROSEMARY REES, Address, 7, Colville-road, Bayswater, W.

MISS GRACE RICHARDSON, Engaged by Mr. Lionel Rignold and Miss Ada Blanche. Glentworth, Palmer's Green, N.

MISS KATHLEEN RIND, Resting by Doctor's Order. Letters will be forwarded from 10, Wynnstay-gardens, Kensington.

MISS CONSTANCE ROBERTSON, Engaged by Otho Stuart, Esq. Address, Adelphi Theatre; or 9, Rosetti-mansions, Cheyne-walk, S.W.

MISS STANLEY RONALDS, Disengaged. 5, Bedford-place, Russell-square, W.C., or A. A.

MISS LILIAN ROSEBERY, Playing the Heroine in the Successful Skit, "The Would-be Actors."

MISS INA ROZANT, Disengaged. Character, Comedy. 85, Jerningham-road, New Cross, S.E.

MISS CLARA RUSSELL, Minna, "Little Lord Fauntleroy"; "After the Ball." Dis. 27, Aigburth-man., Chapel-st., Brixton.

MISS MAUD RUSSELL (Mrs. Frank M. Thorne). Jan. 8, Queen's, Gateshead.

MISS FRANCES RUTTLEDGE, Stock Season. Metropole Theatre, Birmingham.

MISS ANNIE SAKER, Princess Astrea, "The Midnight Wedding." Jan. 8, T. R., West Stanley.

MISS AMY SANGSTER, Nora Helmer, "A Doll's House." Devonshire Park Theatre, Eastbourne.

MISS VERA SCHLESINGER, Prima Donna. F. Godmother, "Cinderella," Lyceum T., Glasgow.

MISS GERTRUDE SCOTT, Address, 16, Upper Bedford-place, Russell-square, W.C.

MISS MAUDE SCOTT, Mercy, in "Honour thy Father." Jan. 8, Athenæum, Lancaster.

MISS SCOTT-WATSON, Lead. At Liberty for Special Engagements. 7, Falkland-road, Hornsey, N.

MISS RUTH SHEPHERD, Lead, "The Sin of Her Childhood." Jan. 8, Grand, Byker. Disengaged Jan. 29.

MISS LUCY SIBLEY, Disengaged, Lead or Light Comedy. 7, Gainsborough-house, Lithos-road, N.W.

MISS VIOLET SIMS, Juvenile Lead. Offers invited for Spring. Address, 10, King-street, Covent Garden.

MISS ETHELDRED SMART, Messrs. Buchanan and Stevens' Company, Gaiety, Leith. Dis. beginning February.

MISS FLORENCE SMITHERS, Resigned Engagement with Mr. Edward Marris. Disengaged. Add., Royal Theatre, Glasgow.

MISS BLANCHE ST. ALBANS, Lead, "Her One Great Sin," Own Co. Maesteg (3), Treherbert (3).

MISS WINNIE STANHOPE, At Lib. Soubrette, Juvenile Comedy. Address c/o "The Era."

MISS BLANCHE STANLEY Disengaged, Town or Suburbs. 101, Sugden-road, Clapham, S.W.

MRS. E. STATHAM STAPLES (May St. Aubyn). 1, Prima-road, Brixton, S.W.

MISS BLANCHE STEELE, W. H. Hallatt's Co., "The Temptress." Grand Theatre, Walsall, Jan. 8, 6 nights.

MISS SYLVIA STELLA, Lead (The Heroine), "Sailors of the King." Jan. 8, Empire Theatre, Southend.

MISS GERTRUDE STERROLL, At Liberty. Letters, &c., 36, Foxley-road, Brixton, S.W.

MISS BLANKA STEWART, Dec. 8, "Billy's Little Love Affair" Co. Pier Pavilion, Eastbourne.

MISS MILDRED SURREY, Lady Sneerwell, Diana ("All's Well"), Phœbe, &c. B. Bramley's Co., Jan. 8 (Carlisle).

MISS JULIE TEMPLE, Disengaged, Mus. Com., Char., Com., Aris., Heavies. Offers invited. 74, Graham-road, Dalston.

MISS ELLALINE THORNE (Ivy) sang herself into favour with "Irish Molly." —Referee. Brixton.

MISS N. THORNE-HALLAM Lead, Miss Marguerite [illegible] Disengaged. [illegible]bourn; 8th, West Hartlepool.

MISS MAUDE TREMAYNE, Lead, "Sailors of the King." Jan. 8, Empire Theatre, Southend.

MISS AUGUSTA TULLOCK, Lead or Heavies. Dis. Also DOROTHY VIVIAN, for Children's parts. 94, Boston-st., Hulme.

MISS MARION TURNER, H. Chattell's "Revenge" Co. Address, 16, Mill-lane, Hampstead, N.W.

MISS ELLA VANE, Leading Business, Mr. Geo. Kirk and Miss Mary Neil's Co. Jan. 7, Saltley Theatre, Birmingham.

MISS NINA VAUGHTON, Disengaged, Star Lead, Lead, &c. Address, North-grove, Wetherby, Yorks.

MISS EMMA VICTOR, Comedy, Character, at Liberty. Address, 49, Calabria-road, Highbury, N.

MISS MARION WAKEFORD, Joan, in "Home, Sweet Home," her Original Part. Address, T. R., Blyth.

MISS ANENA WALTON, Principal Soubrette. Dis. Offers invited. 11, West Clowes-st., Eccles New-rd., Salford.

MISS ADA WATSON, Princess Soo Soo, Mr. G. Dance's "A Chinese Honeymoon." New T. R., Birkenhead.

MISS DAVIES WEBSTER, See Page 2. Add., 38, Flanders-mansions, Bedford-place, W.

MISS FRANCES WETHERALL, Disengaged. 6, Rectory-chambers, Church-street, Chelsea, S.W.

MISS FRANCES WHITE, At liberty. 45, Bessborough-gardens, S.W.

MISS KATHLEEN WILLOUGHBY, Disengaged Juvenile Lead, Light Comedy. Add., 52, Cambridge-mans., Battersea Park, S.W.

MISS DRUSILLA WILLS, Low Comedy and Character. Disengaged. Address, 28, Biddulph-mansions, Elgin-avenue, W.

MISS GRACE WILSON, Permanent address, 25, Flanchford-road, Stamford Brook-road, W.

MISS ELINOR WINTER (Miss Nelly Johnstone). Perm. address, 86, Queen Elizabeth's-walk, London, N.

MR. FRED ACTON, Frank Denman Wood's "Dick Whittington" Co., Terrific Success, T. R., Darwen.

MR. ADAM ALEXANDER, Principal Old Men. Disengaged. Address, 71, St. George's-road, S.E.

MR. ALEC ALEXANDER, Heavy Lead, "Gipsy Jack"; Juvenile Lead, "Mafeking." Jan. 8, Royal, Windsor.

MR. ANGUS ALEXANDER, Disengaged, Char. or Com. Add., 47, Jeffreys-road, Clapham, or c/o Three Prestons, Brit. T.

MR. FRED F. ALLEN, "Bluebell in Fairyland" Tour. Jan. 8, N. T., Oxford; 11th, T. R., Hereford.

MR. A. HYLTON ALLEN, 6 Worsley-road, Hampstead, N.W.

MR. A. D. ANDERSON, Stage-Manager, "Cinderella" Panto, Borough T., Stratford, E. At Lib. early in Feb.

MR. WELDON ATHERSTONE Invites Offers. Leading Business. Add., Lyceum Theatre, Eccles, Manchester.

MR. WILLIE ATOM, Small Comedian (4ft. 4in.). No Deformities. On Tour. Dis. Spring. Address, 26, St. George's-road, Brighton.

MR. CYRIL AUSTEN-LEE, Horace Parker, "A Message from Mars." Gaiety Theatre, Hastings.

MR. H. K. AYLIFF, Disengaged. 9, Grafton-mansions, Duke's-road, W.C.

MR. WILFORD BAILEY, Principal Character Comedian. "Proof" Company, Star Theatre, Swansea. Six Nights. Jan. 8.

MR. MAURICE E. BANDMANN, Annual Tour of the World. Address, care of "The Era."

MR. ARTHUR J. BARCLAY, Manager of the Palace, Walthamstow. Address, Parkside, The Drive, Walthamstow

MR. J. J. BARTLETT, At Lib. Jan. 6. Address, 12, Angel-road, Hammersmith, W.

MR. E. R. BEAUMONT, Producer, Stage and General Management. Producing "Robinson Crusoe," T. R., Cardiff.

MR. CHARLES B. BEDELLS, Supporting Miss Florence St. John in "My Milliner's Bill," Empire, Nottingham.

MR. HENRY BELDING, Disengaged. Address, 2, Stoke Newington Common, London, N.

MR. IVAN BERLYN Package lost on Thursday. Will sender please communicate Grand, Edinburgh.

MR. PASCOE BIOLETTI, Disengaged. Bus.-Man., Principal Heavy or Special Parts. A.A., 10, King-street, Covent Garden, W.C.

MR. CHARLES BOULT, Disengaged, Lead or Heavy Lead, Special Sketch, Drama, Comedy. 30, Upper Baker-st., N.W.

MR. [illegible] Letters, 32, Ch[illegible]

MR. and [illegible] 19, Parcliffe-p[illegible]

MR. [illegible] Comedy, I[illegible] (by permissio[illegible]

MR. CO[illegible] Friar[illegible] Addres[illegible]

MR. W[illegible] 2, Ardville

MR. and [illegible] wich, n[illegible] Adelaide-road,

MR. T. [illegible] Character, [illegible] Care of Mrs. Ingli[illegible]

MR. JOH[illegible] 19, Coatswo[illegible]

MR. [illegible] Pa[illegible] Jan[illegible]

MR. [illegible] field[illegible]

MR. [illegible] The [illegible]

MR. DE[illegible] a[illegible] 14,[illegible]

MR. [illegible] and [illegible] H. C., Re-engage[illegible] Mrs. C. Disengaged. 22, [illegible]

MR. and MRS. CARR[illegible] Rosslyn), Disc[illegible] 51, Brook-street, Kennington[illegible]

MR. LESLIE [illegible] at Liberty for Lead 1, Claverton-street, St. Ge[illegible]

MR. ALBERT [illegible] General-Manager and Mr. and Mrs. William Macla[illegible]

MR. HAROLD [illegible] Address, Theatre Royal, D[illegible]

MR. and MRS. G[illegible] (Frances Bruce). G. [illegible] Weeks. Milton-road, Hanwell[illegible]

MR. JAMES CHIPPI[illegible] Queen, in "The Sleep[illegible] invited for Spring Tour. Gra[illegible]

MR. E. BELLENI[illegible] Disengage[illegible] Town or First Class Tour. R[illegible]

MR. HARRY [illegible] as Father Lamplugh, "[illegible] Jan. 8, New Theatre[illegible]

MR. HARRY COL[illegible] Character, &c. Badger, Co. Dis. Jan. 13. Address, [illegible]

MR. SYDNEY [illegible] as Brassett, in "Char[illegible] Terry's Theatre, every alter[illegible]

MR. WILFRID [illegible] Light and Character C[illegible] Jan. 15, also for Summer. T.[illegible]

MR. FRED [illegible] Pantomime[illegible] Prince's Theatre,[illegible]

MR. BERNARD [illegible] Lead, MISS ISA BELL[illegible] Miss Maud Hildyard's Co., A.[illegible]

MR. J. W. [illegible] "Dare-Devil Dorothy," Jan. 8, Theatre Roya[illegible]

MR. ARTHUR [illegible] Disengaged[illegible] Address, 28, Perham-rd., We[illegible]

MR. THOS. COUR[illegible] Manager for Charles [illegible] of the Season" Co., Letters[illegible]

MR. ERNEST H[illegible] Adrien, "Lost[illegible] All com., 8, Darlan-m[illegible]

MR. HARRY [illegible] Invites Offe[illegible] 198, Barry-road, East Dulw[illegible]

MR. JULIAN [illegible] Disengage[illegible] Address, 13, Eglantine-road,[illegible]

MR. ARTHUR [illegible] Catulle, in "The Jury Shaftesbury Th[illegible]

MR. ROBERT [illegible] Address, 12, Blomfield-road, Mai[illegible]

MR. HAMILTON [illegible] Heavy Lead, "Rogues o[illegible] Queen's Theatre, Longton[illegible]

MR. GEORGE DE[illegible] Dame. This, Croydon; n[illegible]t, Crouch End. Disengaged Ja[illegible] 22.

MR. CECIL DE LEE, Disengaged. Characte[illegible]or Comedy. Address, The Actors' [illegible]ssociation.

MR. HORACE [illegible] DENTON, Dr. Leslie Fairfax, in [illegible] The Power of the Cross." Jan. 8, Queen's Th[illegible]e, Liverpool.

MR. HENRY [illegible] SOLLA, 21, South End-road, Ham[illegible] Heath. Just Produced Panto., West [illegible]ondon Theatre.

MR. HERBERT DICKESON, Disengaged Jan. 15. C[illegible]ers invited. Address, Theatre Royal, West [illegible]romwich, or A.A.

MR. WALTER H. DOMONEY, Juv. Lead, "Secret[illegible] of Life." Skinner, "Gipsy Jack." T. R., W[illegible]ester.

MR. OSWALD DOUGLAS and MARY AINSLIE. 2, St. George's-square, Regent's Park, N.W.

MR. WELLESLEY DRAPER, E. Hill Mitchelson's "Revenge" Co. Theatre Royal, Smethwick.

MR. CECIL DU GUE, Starring in "The Still Alarm." Lyceum, Theatre, Crewe.

MR. ALBERT C. DUNCAN, Business-Manager, "Sleeping Beauty" Panto. Grand Theatre, Birmingham.

MR. HENRY DUNDAS, Lib., General Management, Resident, or First-class Tour. Tours Booked 34, Maiden-lane, W.C.

MR. T. W. DUNSCOMBE, Paul Gouffet, "The Face at the Window." Jan. 8, Grand Theatre, West Hartlepool.

MR. CHARLES A. EAST "Babes in the W[illegible]." T. R., Sheffield. Dis. Spring.

MR. and MRS. ERNEST C. EDWARDS (Miss Bella Power). "The Cotton Spinner" T. R., Macclesfield.

MR. and MRS. ROBERT ENTWISTLE (Miss Lester-Stephens), Char. and Juv. Perm. add., 3, College-court, Hammersmith.

MR. EDWARD FENTON Disengaged, Character Comedy. 13, Claverton-street, [illegible]

FORTUNE & GRANVILLE

LEONARD MORTIMER & CO.

LEONARD MORTIMER and CO.,
LEONARD MORTIMER and CO.,
LEONARD MORTIMER and CO.,
LEONARD MORTIMER and CO.,
LEONARD MORTIMER and CO.,
LEONARD MORTIMER and CO.,
The Drury-lane Producers of Original Sketches,

Stand Alone.
Stand Alone.
Stand Alone.
Stand Alone.
Stand Alone.
Stand Alone.

Eighteenth Year in the Variety Theatres.

Bookings include Canterbury, Paragon, Euston, South London; Palace, Walthamstow; Empress, Brixton, Messrs. Barnard's, &c.

"THE BRITISHER."
"THE EARL OF ENNIWARE,"
"THE FINAL SCENE,"
"THE KETTLEDRUM," (Capt. Kettle),
"SPECTRES,"
"THE UNDESIRED."

Leonard Mortimer's Great and only Advertisement for Eighteen Years has been His Show on the Stage.

Jan. 8, BARNARD'S, CHATHAM.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

SISTERS NEILSON,

The Talented Duettists and Dancers,
Now Playing
MOSS'S EMPIRES TOUR.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

THE TWO WILTONS

(HARRY and LUCY),
Sweet Coons with Novel Songs.
Jan. 1, Palace, Bath.
Jan. 8, PALACE, SOUTHAMPTON.
A Happy New Year to all Brother and Sister Artists
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

EDGAR GRANVILLE,

The Ever-Green Comedian.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

SPRING, SPRING, AND ROSIE CARLO,

Acrobatic Barrel Jumpers.
Just Concluded Moss's Empires Tour.
Finish To-night, 8 weeks London Hippodrome.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

We cannot fail. Always the Big Laughing Hit.
SISTERS. BROTHERS.

PHILLIPS & LORENZI.

"The Famous Four Comical Cards,"
"THE BABES IN THE WOOD."
THE GRAND THEATRE, NOTTINGHAM.
The Compliments of the Season to All.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

THE WEDBURNS,

The Popular Comedians,

Instrumentalists, Vocalists, and Unexcelled Patterers, in their Refined, Funny, and Original Acts.

Now with J. F. Elliston, Esq.,

AVENUE THEATRE, SUNDERLAND.

All Principal Halls booked, including Moss' Empires, 1906-7.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRAN[VILLE].

MUSICAL [DU]O.

[...]ells."
[...]OW.
[...]VILLE.

Seagull," by [...]ns and [...]HAN Rogers.

[H]ARRY BANC[ROFT],

The Popular Vocal Comedian.
Enormous Success on Tour.
Jan. 23, PALACE, CHELSEA.
Only Few Weeks Vacant 1906.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

[...]D & ARNO,

Comedy Bar Performers,
New and Original.

[H]IPPODROME, SOUTHAMPTON.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

[...]ER & MAY,

[...]d Coon Singers and Eccentric Dancers.

[...] the only Coloured Blind Comedian.
[...]8, CANTERBURY PALACE.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

[...]BON BONS,

[...]Comedy Speciality Novelty,
"A Hot Time for One."

[T]HE PALACE PLYMOUTH.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

"Whirling the Whirl."
Motoring in Mid-air.

[...]AVIES TRIO

[...] (One Lady, Two Gents),
[...]OM DAVIES, World's Champion Cyclist.
[...]£3,000 in Prizes and Twenty Champion[ships] Raced all over England for the last [...] Drawing Crowded Houses Every[where].
[...]ebooked Everywhere.
[...]Adney Payne, Esq., Messrs. Moss, [...] Graydon, Frank Macnaghten, [...]ivermore, Esq., W. B. Broadhead, Esq. [...]ies' Sensational Performance. Illumi[nated] Electric Light. This Act can be fixed [any] part. Stage in Five Minutes.
Enormous Attraction
[E]MPIRE, JOHANNESBURG.
[...]nts, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

Tel[egrams]
"[...]AC

ROZE & CALVERT,

ROZE AND CALVERT.
ROZE AND CALVERT.
ROZE AND CALVERT.
ROZE AND CALVERT.
ROZE AND CALVERT.
ROZE AND CALVERT.
ROZE AND CALVERT.
ROZE AND CALVERT.
ROZE AND CALVERT.
ROZE AND CALVERT.

Principal Comedy Parts,

GRAND THEATRE, LEEDS.

South African News, Sept. 7, 1905.

In point of cleverness the comedy act of Roze and Calvert afforded the audience almost equal cause for hilarity and enjoyment. Beginning in somewhat commonplace fashion these artists soon had the house interested and amused over one of the smartest burlesques of melodrama we have ever encountered at the music hall. The variety, colour, and extravagant mock earnestness which the gentleman infused into his work was not only surprisingly subtle and full of artistic force, but it possessed the additional merit of being intensely mirth-compelling. It may be that people who are not regular playgoers will miss the point of the joke at times, but it is, nevertheless, burlesque of the highest order.

No Vacancies 1906.

Agents,
FORTUNE and GRANVILLE

THE TWO SPRAYS,

Speciality Dancers,
Refinement and Grace.
The Prettiest and Cleverest of Dancing Acts.
Now in Pantomime.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

CHUMMIE LA MARA,

Principal Boy;
and WILL SERGEANT, Business-Manager.
Charles Chard's Pantomime,
"GOODY TWO SHOES,"
THEATRE ROYAL, STOCKPORT.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

Selected to appear before the King and Queen.

SELBO.

World's Greatest Club Juggler and China Plate Thrower,

Waverley Market, Edinburgh.
Second Week.

Many Thanks to Sir Edward Moss for Offer of Third Week.

ROYAL THEATRE, OLDHAM.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

ALBERT WYNDHAM & CO.,

In Shakespearean Episodes,
"PRINCE ARTHUR,"
"SHYLOCK," &c.
ALHAMBRA, BRIGHTON.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

BERNARD STUART,

High-class Character Actor and Vocalist, EMPIRE, EALING.

Grand, Clapham, Era Report.—Bernard Stuart gives distinction [to] gramme with his impersonation [of] Bishop in the Trial Scene from [...]," and it is a proof of h[is] that silence re[ceived] [...]ilities fine lines wh[ich] [...] of the [...]itten.

All Fre[e] [...]bert Voyce, Esq.

[All] Communications,
MESSRS. FORTU[NE] and GRANVILLE.

MISS FREDRICK'S

Wonderful Terrier
and
Cake Walk Pony, "Dot."
The Smartest Animal Act on the Stage.
PALACE, CAMBERWELL.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

CONAN & DOYLE,

the Favourite Comedians and Dancers,
LYCEUM THEATRE,
GLASGOW.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

THE WESTWOODS,

Comedy Cyclists.
Original, Clever, and Different from all other Cycle Acts.
"Sinbad the Sailor" Co.,
NEW CENTURY THEATRE, MOTHERWELL.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

THE ROYAL

KORRIES,

the Kurios Konglomorators.

Stoll Tour.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

WILL CORNISH,

In His Unique Musical Bell Act.

Bookings include Moss and Stoll Empires until 1908, London Coliseum, March 12, for Four Weeks, also 1907.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

The HARRIS LESLIE BELL and LILLY PEARL Co.,
Presenting the Comedy Vaudeville,

"A BIT OF STRING."

Jan. 8, QUEEN'S PARK HIPPODROME, MANCHESTER.
Jan. 15, Hippodrome, Ashton-under-Lyne.

In Preparation,
a Romantic Comedy Idyll,
entitled
"BY ORDER OF THE COURT."
an Original Idea in an Original Setting.
Everything Carried.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

THE GREAT MARCONIS,

Electric Wonders,

The Most Wonderful Electric Act in Existence.
We actually Perform Feats which other people Romance about.
Genuine Wireless Telegraphy, Demonstrations, Passing Millions of Volts of Electricity through the Human Body without Injury, Lighting Electric Lamps with Electricity which actually does Pass through our Bodies (not down our sleeves), also Numerous Fire Effects.
Our Act is pronounced by Press, Scientists, Electricians, and People who Know, to include the Most Marvellous Electric Feats of Modern Times. Our Act is guaranteed to be Absolutely Genuine, being accomplished by Scientific Means, and is neither Fraud, Fake, or Quackery.

We Offer £1,000 to any Person who can Prove that any Feat which we Perform is not Absolutely Genuine. Who else can say this?
We can follow any act anywhere, and Make a Success, on our Merits, not on Bluff.
We were the First to Use the New High Tension Apparatus on the Stage; Copiers, please Note.
Special Columns of Press Notices wherever we appear. We hold and have fulfilled Contracts on the following Tours:—
Stoll's, Graydon's, Macnaghten's, De Frece's, Broadhead's, G. A. Payne's, and also other Principal London Halls. This week,
Creating a Sensation and Drawing Packed Houses, TRADES HALL, ABERDEEN.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

NEW YORK QUARTETTE,

Lady Vocalists and Dancers,
Big Success,
London Pavilion, Moss' Empires Tour, &c.
Now at GRAND THEATRE, SOUTHAMPTON.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

"Here's Another One off to America."

WALTER EMERSON,

"The Original Six Feet of Comicality," ARGYLE THEATRE,
BIRKENHEAD.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

THE NEW HULINES

(ALEC and TOM),
the Modern Musical Clowns, Creators of Comical Curiosities. See our Magic Music Sheet, Piscatorial Picnic, Miniature Motor Car, "THE BELLS," and our Funny Nautical Sensation, "YACHTING."
Entirely Different to the Usual Musical Acts.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

VALVERO'S

Naval Bombardment,
the Greatest Electrical Mechanical Novelty.
New and Original.
EMPIRE, WOLVERHAMPTON.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

MISS CECILE E. ANSON

(Indisposed), in her Successful Comedy Episode,
"NELLIE! A (TAIL) OF A DOG"
(Fully Protected).

Agents, FORTUNE and G[RANVILLE].

GEORGE FOR[D]BY,

An "Odd Fellow" from Lancashire.

"The" Success at THE TYNE THEATRE,
NEWCASTLE.
Stoll Tour,
1906-7-8,
and
No Vacancies.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

HERR FRITZ,

The Illusion King,
Now Performing a Series of Dates with
G. Adney Payne, Esq.
Jan. 8, CANTERBURY THEATRE.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

LORD, MURRAY, & LORD,

Comedy Athletes, in their Celebrated Sporting Act,
"THE INTRUDER."
PARAGON THEATRE.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

THE BRONTES,

The Premier Comedy Duologue Artists,
"SAUCY MAUD,"
Now on Moss and Stoll Tour.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

RITA & ROMA,

Refined and Original Novelty Act, introducing High-class Vocalism, Comedy, and Speciality Dancing.
PALACE THEATRE, PLYMOUTH.
Moss' Empires Tour, 1906-7, &c.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

DEZMONTI & MORA,

The Cleverest of all
Comedy Bar Acts.
EMPRESS THEATRE, BRIXTON.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

THE

NAROW BROTHERS,

Sensational
Comedy
Acrobatic Cyclists,
Create a Perfect Furore
Wherever they Appear.
Just returned from the Continent.
Jan. 8, PALACE, CAMBERWELL.
Principal Tours Booked to Follow.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

JOHN GRUN MARX,

The Modern Hercules.

King of all Strong Men on this Earth.

Holder of all World's Records for Weight-lifting.

No Fake.
No Humbug.
All Pure Strength.

A Challenge:
£1,000 to Anyone who Defeats John Grün Marx.

Acknowledged by Proprietors and Managers to be, without a doubt, the Strongest Man in the Business.
The most Elegant Apparatus on the Variety Stage.
Always a Big Success, and a Sure Draw.

The World's Representative Champion Dumb-bell Performer.

Has Met and Defeated all-comers in all Parts of the World, and is now Ready to Perform Feats of Strength against any Professional or Amateur Strong Man in the World for a Stake of £100 to £1,000, Money to be Deposited at the "Sporting Life," London.

Now Touring the Continent.

Agents,
FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

THE REDFERNS

RUBIE and ELSIE),
Premier Lady Banjoists, Vocalists, and Banjo Dancers,
Palace, Northampton.
Next Week, CITY VARIETIES, LEEDS.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

H. MORGAN.

Big Success as Baron, in John Tiller's "RED RIDING HOOD."
Liberty for Pantomime, '06 and '7.
Monday, O. H., HARROGATE.
Agents,
FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

STYLO,

The Acknowledged Finest Hoop Manipulator;
and
BEATRICE BONNIE,
the Refined Comedienne.
GRAND THEATRE, HALIFAX
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

VICTORIA DAGMAR

and [...]
Premier La[dy]
Gy[mn]astontal Bar
[...]
[...]ope Performer.
[...]ROME, YARMOUTH.
[...]nts, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

The Popular Comedian,

SID COTTERELL & CO.,

In London's Latest and Greatest Comedy Success,
"THE SUBSTITUTE."
A Genuine Comedy Act, Brimful of Laughs.
Panto., THEATRE ROYAL, DRURY-LANE.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

FRANK SYLVO,

The Original Comedy Juggler,

PALACE, CHELSEA.

Re-engaged
Stoll Tour,
Moss Tour,
Brill and Graydon Tour,
Macnaghten Tour,
Payne Syndicate,
&c.

Agents,
FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

HULBERT & DE LIL,

Ventriloquist. Illusionist.

Two Distinct Acts.

Agents,
FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

THE TWO WHITES,

Novel Variety Performers,
Vocalists, Patterers, and Speciality Dancers.
HIPPODROME, BURY.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE

BURG, HAUD, & WISE,

"YE BROWN COW INN,"
The Smartest of Acrobatic Pantomimists,
OPERA HOUSE, HARROGATE.
Perm. Address, The Lodge, Quinton, near Birmingham.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

BROTHERS H[A]RRISON,

Principal Com[edi]ans,
with Clarence Sounes, Esq.
Moss's Empires to follow.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

The Originator of Title, "An Artist's Model."

MDLLE. KLOET,

in a Series of Original Living Pictures, entitled "Christianity."

HIPPODROME,
HULL.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

FRED S. PEAKE & CO.,

including Miss DORA DAVIS, in the most Successful Romantic Costume Sketches, "THE HYPOCRITE" and "THE GAMBLER."

Others in Preparation. Well-written, Played, and Mounted. Jan. 8, ARDWICK EMPIRE, MANCHESTER. Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

MISS CISSIE DRY[DEN],

MISS CISSIE DRY[DEN],
MISS CISSIE DRY[DEN],
MISS CISSIE DRY[DEN],

Vocal Character Actress.

In her Characters of Street Arab,
Eton Boy,
Masher,
Drummer Boy,
Jockey, &c.

Also Special Scenas,
Sailors of the Empire,
"Soldier Boys of England"
(Registered),
Introducing every Drill in the Service,
Drummer Boy to Officer.

Drummer, Grenadier Guards.
Private, King's Own.
Sergeant 17th Lancers (Death and Glory Boys).
Officer, 13th Hussars.

CAMBERWELL PALACE.
CAMBERWELL PALACE.

Rebooked Everywhere.

Collections made by Miss Dryden at the Collins's, Royal, Metropolitan, Oxford, Camberwell, Alhambra, &c., realised the sum of £100 for the Balaclava Heroes' Fund.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

THE BRANSBYS

(HARRY and LOUIE),
Comedy Duologue Artists,
Wish all friends
A Happy New Year.
Jan. 8, SURREY THEATRE.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

DONALD MABEL

KEIR & KEMPTON,

The Premier Vocal Duettists.
Only Vacancies [1906] are May 7 and 21, Oct. [7] and 29, and Dec. 3.
Jan. 8, FORESTERS'.
Agents, FORTUNE and GR[ANVILLE].

Always Suc[ceeds].

HARRY HAY[TON],

HARRY HAYTON,
The Merriment Merchant.
All the Principal Tours Booked.
T. R., WARRINGTON.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

"Lost in London."

KURTZ,

American Wild West [...]
and
Latest Ju[mp]-[...]sation.
EMPIRE, [...]ROCHDALE.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

HENRY HERNE'S

Sketch Organisation.
Everything Carried, including Water Sensations.
"BLACKMAIL,"
"NO MAN'S LAND,"
"THE COLLEEN BAWN."
BROADHEAD'S, MANCHESTER.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

BISHOP & HANLON

(WALTER) (FRED)

Knockabout Comedy Artists.
Knockabout Comedy Artists.

Fifteen Minutes of Laughter.
Fifteen Minutes of Laughter.
Fifteen Minutes of Laughter.

With Robert Arthur, Esq.
THEATRE ROYAL, NOTTINGHAM.
THEATRE ROYAL, NOTTINGHAM.
THEATRE ROYAL, NOTTINGHAM.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

The Spanish

GOLDINIS,

Novel Carpet Spinning and Juggling Act.
Magnificent Apparatus.
ALEXANDRA THEATRE, SHEFFIELD.
ALEXANDRA THEATRE, SHEFFIELD.

Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

KEITH & MERSON,

In their Acrobatic Hunting Absurdity,
"THE MEET,"
"THE MEET."
T. R., STOCKPORT.
"Goody Two Shoes" Pantomime.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

THE FRENCH TROUPE,

Trick Cyclists
and
THE SNOW FAMILY.
Comedy Skating Act.
Pantomime Tour.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

CARDEN & ZESCH,

Variety and Operatic Vocalists,
ELEPHANT AND CASTLE THEATRE.
ELEPHANT AND CASTLE THEATRE.
Principal Halls booked to follow.
Principal Halls booked to follow.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

EFFIE WHITE,

The Pr[e]mier
Illuminated and Nov[el]ty Dancer.

Now on
Pantomime Tour.
Agents, FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

THE

PAULASTO TROUPE,

PAULASTO TROUPE.
PAULASTO TROUPE.
PAULASTO [...]
Sensational [...]
In their New and Or[iginal]
"FROLICS IN THE CA[BARET]"
"FROLICS IN THE CA[BARET]"
"FROLICS IN THE CA[BARET]"
Now Touring [...]
Continent.
Returning to [...]
May 28, GAIETY, BIRM[INGHAM].
May 28, GAIETY, BIRM[INGHAM].
May 28, GAIETY, BIRM[INGHAM].
Agents, FORTUNE and G[RANVILLE].

SAVOY HOUSE, 115, STRAND [...]DG

MISS MARIE LLOYD,
TIVOLI and the METROPOLITAN.
HUGH J. DIDCOTT, Sole Representative.

MISS KATIE LAWRENCE,
"Oh, my Crinoline,"
Published by The People Newspaper Co.
Pantomime Rights apply, Geo. Fuller and Co.
330, Camden-road, N. Nat. Tel., 871, North.

The Original Singer of "Remember me to Mother dear."
FLORRIE GALLIMORE,
EMPIRE, NEWCASTLE.
Communications, FRETTELL'S Agency.

A Vesta that strikes everywhere.
MISS VESTA VICTORIA,
TIVOLI,
OXFORD,
CANTERBURY.

MISS ALEXANDRA DAGMAR.
EMPIRE, SHEPHERD'S BUSH.
Agent, GEO. FOSTER.

MISS SABLE FERN,
STOLL'S
EMPIRE,
HACKNEY.
Frank Leo. G. and F. PEEL.

FANNY ROBINA, FLORRY COOPER.
Fanny Robina was the original Faust, in "Faust up-to-date," with Miss Florence St. John as Marguerite, Gaiety Theatre, London.
EMPIRE, BRADFORD.

"'Neath the Shadow of Great Big Ben."
EMMIE AMES,
Enormous Success on Tour.
This week, Hippodrome, St. Helens.
Only a few weeks Vacant till 1907.

An Actress of the Nellie Farren type.
MISS DOLLY HARMER,
London Season, TIVOLI and CANTERBURY.
Booked by HUGH J. DIDCOTT, Esq.
Offers invited Panto., 1906-7.

MISS CONSTANCE MOXON.
All Communications Addressed
1, Arodene-road, Brixton-hill, S.W., will be Forwarded.

"Sorry, but I Can't Come Out!"
By Harrington and Le Brunn.
MISS AMY CLEVERE,
The Charming Comedienne,
OXFORD nightly.
Great Success of Harrington and Le Brunn's Song,
"The Girl Guessed Wrong."

All New Business by Harrington and Le Brunn.
MISS WINIFRED HARE,
"Robin Hood,"
[illegible] THEATRE,
[illegible]POOL.

FORDE,
[illegible] Actress.

FLORRIE
England's Premier Bu[illegible]
Jan. 8,
GAIETY, BIRMINGHAM.
No Vacant Dates until 1907.

The Most Original, Versatile, and Fu[illegible]
Little Woman.
NELLIE COLEMA[illegible]
the Only Lady Comedian in the World.
The First Woman to make the Face up Funny.
THEATRE ROYAL, WARRINGTON.
DOME, the Comedy Clay Man.

MISS MILLIE PAYNE,
The New [illegible] Comedy Queen.
Enormous Success at [illegible]ciety, Chatham.
Monday next, [illegible]
GRAND VARIETIES, GRAVESEND.
Please note, Miss Payne has no Vacancies in 1906.
More laughter making business was introduced by Miss Milly Payne, who proves her claim to the title of the New Low Comedy Queen. She is a most eccentric character, and exceedingly droll.—Chatham Standard, Jan. 3, 1906.
All communications,
WILL OLIVER, "Spot," 1, Cranbourn-street, W.C.

DAINTY ETHEL RA-LESLIE,
A singer of dainty songs.—Vide O. Stoll, Esq.
Grand Success of New Songs.
"When love dies." Joe Tabrar.
"The Old School." Joe Tabrar.
"Little Billie Taylor." Joe Tabrar.
Published Francis, Day, and Hunter.
ETHEL RA-LESLIE.
Now on Sixth Moss and Stoll Tour, and Re-engaged. That speaks for itself.
The North Mail, Dec. 26, '05, says: Miss Ethel Ra-Leslie is a young vocalist who is making much headway in her profession. Possessed of a soprano voice of wide range and rich quality, she is heard to great advantage in several dainty songs.
Agent, GEO. FOSTER.

MISS JENNIE BELMORE,
Speciality Comedienne and Dancer.
Good Songs wanted.
Price paid.
Monday, Hippo., Sheerness.

"I've got it in my Diary," by Mills and Scott.
"Hurry up, Miss Brown," by Mills and Scott.
MISS JESSIE ALBINI,
41, Torriano-avenue, Camden-road, N.W.

The Daintiest of Dancers.
MISS RUBY BIJOU,
Another great success at Empire, Hull.
Monday, EMPIRE, ROCHDALE.
Communications direct.

KITTY MARION,
The delightful songs by Miss Kitty Marion were extremely acceptable.—The Western Morning News, Jan. 2, 1906.
Jan. 8, PARTHENON, LIVERPOOL.

LILLIAN VICTORIA,
in a Quick-change Vocal Scena, entitled "Aunt's Troubles." Five Characters (Male and Female), Three Songs, and a Story. Time, 10 minutes. The Smartest Quick-change Act on the Stage. First Vacant Dates, Feb. 19 and 26, to Follow Maidstone. This Week, Empire, Paisley; Next, TIVOLI and BRIT., GLASGOW.
Communications, J. MARKS,
Manager, Park Palace, Liverpool.

A most versatile performer.—Vide Referee.
MISS HETTIE LEE,
Chic Comedienne and Speciality Dancer.
THE PALACE, GREENOCK.
Fully Booked until June, 1906.
Coms, WILL OLIVER, The Man on the Spot.

CISSIE CURLETTE,
Secured by D. J. Clarke, Esq., till 1910.
En Route for England.
Sole Agent, [illegible]ONI.

MISS [illegible]LORENCE ESDALE
BROADWAY THEATRE,
NEW CROSS.

MADGE [illegible]ALY
as ROBIN HO[illegible],
Usual Suc[illegible] Stockport.
Empire Theatre, [illegible]STER HIPPODROME.
[illegible]day next, MANC[illegible]

[illegible]MAUD MARLOW
[illegible] Hit, CHELSEA PALACE,
[illegible]stling and Collins.
[illegible]. H. CREW.
[illegible]econd House, CHELSEA
[illegible]ence in Roars of Laughter
[illegible]as to take two and three [illegible]s another Big Song, by [illegible] "Jump, Jimmy Knac-
[illegible]s WILL OLIVER, Esq. Spot.

[illegible]E. ZELDA,
[illegible]g and graceful performer on all
[illegible]musical instruments is Mdlle Zelda,
[illegible]s one of the best of the evening.—
[illegible]ndy. Success Empire, Porta-

MISS "The Lilac Girl." HARRIETT VERNON.
"The Lilac Girl,"
Special Scenery and Effects, Special Costumes,
LONDON.
All communications,
45, Lauderdale-mansions.
Maida Vale, W.

MISS VESTA TILLEY,
EMPIRE,
HOLLOWAY.
All Communications to be Addressed to
Mr. WALTER DE FRECE, 178, Charing Cross-road, W.C.

With a quiet charm all her own.
MISS MILLIE HYLTON,
Address, 156, Clarence Gate-gardens, Baker-street, W.

MISS LELIA ROZE.
THE PRINCE, in "Cinderella."
PRINCE OF WALES'S T., BIRMINGHAM.
where address all letters till further notice.

Singer of Novelty Songs.
MISS RACHEL LOWE,
Principal Boy,
"Humpty Dumpty," Panto.,
THEATRE ROYAL, NOTTINGHAM.

MISS RACHEL LOWE,
THEATRE ROYAL, NOTTINGHAM.
In the title-rôle Miss Rachel Lowe works with unflagging spirit and untiring energy, and no "principal boy" could show herself more desirous of promoting the success of the performance. An accomplished burlesque artist, Miss Lowe is able both to render a pleasing song with all possible effect, and to work with the comedians, for which her natural fund of humour admirably fits her. Several episodes owed much to her co-operation, and she is likely to become a great favourite.—Vide Press.
Miss Rachel Lowe, the leading figure in the Theatre Royal pantomime, as the personator of the title-rôle, brings to mind in some of her business memories of the late Miss Nellie Farren. Not in her general style, perhaps; but when she assumes the "gamin" manner and voice. Let her crop her hair close, and produce her tones a little more nasally, and she might at moments pass for the lamented "star" of the Gaiety of years that are gone. Which is to state in a rather roundabout way that Miss Lowe is a burlesque actress of the first rank, and probably something more if opportunity came her way.—Vide Press.

Voice, Songs, Costumes, and a Full Date Book.
MISS ROSE HARVEY,
PEKOE,
THEATRE ROYAL, BIRMINGHAM.

MISS LINA VERDI,
Enormous Success
as GRETCHEN, "Mother Goose."
TYNE THEATRE, NEWCASTLE. Second Year.
G. and F. PEEL.

Instantaneous Success of a New and Original Musical Episode, in one Scene, entitled "Our Laundry,"
by Harry Castling.
Overture and Incidental Music
Composed and Arranged by George Le Brunn.
Scene:—
Blue House Laundry, Camberwell.

E CARNEY,
[illegible]AMMERSMITH.
[illegible].O.

Sole Agents,
GEORGE BARCLAY and [illegible]
221, Brixton-hill, S[illegible]A,

GERTIE GIT[illegible]
One continued success.
CENTRAL HALL,
SHEFFIELD.
Starring with JASPER REDFERN, Esq.
Coms., J. O'CONNOR, Theatre Royal, Sheffield.

MISS LILLIE SOUTTER,
Portrayer of Comedy Characters.
EMPIRE PALACE, JOHANNESBURG.
Specially Engaged.
DIDCOTT'S Agency only. 6, John-st., Adelphi, W.C.

MISS MARGARET ASHTON,
EMPIRE, SOUTH SHIELDS.
In Harrington and Field's new March Song,
"His Country, King, and Girl."

NINA GORDON,
The Scottish Mimic.
HIPPODROME, MANCHESTER.
Possessor of a well-trained voice, and a born mimic.
'Phone 13759 Central.

KITTY LOFTUS,
KITTY LOFTUS,
Engaged by Oswald Stoll, Esq.,
Birmingham, Manchester.
London Shortly.
Business Managers,
G. AND F. PEEL.

MISS ARABELLA ALLEN,
The Dickens Girl.
This Week, Great Success, The Palace, Blackpool; next Week, THE PALACE, MANCHESTER.
Expert, GEORGE FORSTER, 4, Garrick-street.

"DEL" LEVEY,
Enormous Success on Tour. Songs a Hit,
Gorgeous Dresses. Vac. Jan., April, and Panto.
Wires, &c., Stork Hotel, Birmingham.

An Ideal Principal Boy.
Verdict of Press and Public.
MISS DAISY SILCOTT,
GRAND THEATRE, ISLINGTON,
Pantomime, "Sinbad the Sailor."

No Vacancies in 1906.
The Greatest Juvenile Comedy
Artist Before the Public.
QUEENIE MAY.
Monday next, PALACE, BATH.
Exclusive Agent, E. DE VERE, 72, Waterloo-rd, S.E.

MISS FLORENCE [illegible]ATSON,
as
CINDERELLA,
METROPOLE THEATRE,
DEVON[illegible]RT.

Unapproached Baby Mimics.
Acrobatic duettists.—The Era.
Popular and [illegible]
SISTERS [illegible]ANDRA TERRY,
[illegible]ALE. Said New Year tae Ane and A'.

SISTERS (THREE) SPRIGHTLY, (Maud, Florrie, and Lily).
Enormous Success in Mr. Peter Eland's Pantomime at Grand Theatre, Hull.

Prominent among the artists are the Sisters Sprightly, a well-known trio, all full of vivacity, and untiring in their efforts to amuse. Lily is Robin Hood, Maud Maid Marian, and Florrie Tom the Tinker, and their united efforts do much to give "The Babes" the sparkle and go which characterise the production.—Hull Daily Mail, Dec. 27. Mon. next, T. R., MIDDLESBROUGH.

"THE DANDIES."
Miss Queenie Essex, Miss Annie Braddan,
Miss K. Augusta Davies.
Mr. Harry Russon and Mr. Henry J. Corner.
Jan. 8. NEW EMPIRE, ROCHDALE.

Voilà.
EIGHT PHASEY GIRLS, EIGHT,
The Real Thing at LA SCALA, PARIS.
Directress, ALICE PHASEY.

THE SMART SET ENTERTAINERS,
Next Week, PAVILION, GLASGOW.
Address all Communications,
[illegible], Marquess-road, Canonbury, London, N.
[illegible] Dalston.

MISS MARIE LOFTUS,
Every item of New Sketch is Protected, entered at Stationers' Hall, and the Double Acting Patented, and I hereby caution all Proprietors from allowing any Infringement.
Agent, HARTLEY MILBURN.
Representative, BEN BROWN.
Note: Two Magnificent Principal Boy's Dresses for sale.

Has No Rival for Sprightliness and Liveliness.
MISS L. LANGTRY. has a Style all her own; Empire, Portsmouth, great success, re-engaged till 1909; Monday return, PALACE, LINCOLN. Always open to buy original up-to-date songs, suitable to my style. Not coon songs.

The Inimitable
PATTY YOLE,
Usual success, PALACE, OLDBURY.
Com., GEO. REGAN, Theatre Royal, Birmingham.

LIL HAWTHORNE,
PRINCE'S THEATRE, MANCHESTER.
Representative, JOHN E. NASH.
Address as above.

The world's great sand dancer.—Vide Oswald Stoll.
MY FANCY,
EUSTON, and EMPRESS, BRIXTON.
BAWN'S AGENCY. 'Phone, 1178, Battersea.

MISS AGNES HAZEL,
A Bonnie Bough of British Beauty.
"Johnny's Sunday Trousers,"
"The girl said 'yes,'"
"I don't want a pretty girl."
STANDARD. 8.45. Agents, BARCLAY AND CO.

MISS JOSEPHINE SABEL,
American Eccentrique.
Jan. 8,
EMPIRE PALACE,
GLASGOW.
All Communications to be Addressed to
MR. DAVID SABEL.
Booked Solid until June.

EDNA CRAGGE,
Principal Boy,
METROPOLE THEATRE,
DEVONPORT.

MISS MAY HENDERSON,
Great Success as PRINCESS POLLONARIES, afterwards Crusoe's Servant, in "Robinson Crusoe's Adventures," at the THEATRE ROYAL, MANCHESTER.
The above wishes to Thank those Friends for Telegrams, Xmas. Cards, and New Year's Cards.
All Coms. B. HENDERSON.

Huge Success. Huge Success.
The New Orpheum Revue
The New Orpheum Revue
Is the Talk of Vienna,
The Gibson Girl Is the Talk of Vienna,
The Gibson Girl
Is the Talk of the Revue,
Is the Talk of the Revue,
and and
MISS DAISY JAMES,
MISS DAISY JAMES.
Is the Gibson Girl.
Is the Gibson Girl.
Huge Success. Huge Success.
Booked by SHERRY AND BRAFF.
Communications to
MISS DAISY JAMES,
MISS DAISY JAMES,
ORPHEUM THEATRE, VIENNA
ORPHEUM THEATRE, VIENNA.

Dainty and Demure.
MISS LUCY WESTON.
LONDON. New Songs by Harrington and the late Geo. Le Brunn, all dainty, smart, refined.
MISS LUCY WESTON.
Representative, HUGH J. DIDCOTT, or direct, 108, Great Portland-street, W.

MISS ROSE HAMILTON,
[illegible]OLITAN.
8th M[illegible] Songs and Dances.
In répertoire of up-to-[illegible] Wreyford.
Gorgeous Costumes by [illegible]

"Bombay." "Bombay."
An Immediate and Emphatic [illegible]
Sung by
MISS MARGARET RADC[illegible]
SHAKESPEARE THEATRE, LIVERPO[illegible]

MAUDE MAY MURRAY,
Tremendous Success in "La Danse Illuminée," "La Danse da Fleurs," and new danse, "La Sylphe." Dis. Feb. 5. Second Edition of Panto.
Address, Grand, Woolwich.

ROSIE BARTLETT, Grand Theatre, Woolwich, complimented by everyone on her success as Ganem; playing the part at two hours' notice owing to unavoidable absence of Miss Thorne. Thanks Mr. Sounes offer for Panto., '06-7.

MDLLE. DE ROSE,
The Lady Foli.
Creating an Enormous Success Nightly as Prince Perfect.
J. Kiddie's Pantomime, "CINDERELLA,"
PRINCE'S THEATRE, PORTSMOUTH.
Acknowledged by Everybody to be the most Charming, Artistic, and Talented
Principal Boy
That has ever Visited Portsmouth. In fact,
A Perfect Prince of Principal Boys.
Communications to J. H. HAWTREY, as above.

AUSTIN and COWAN,
Jan. 8, PALACE, PLYMOUTH.
JAMES FIONI, Agent.

THE DAGODETS
(Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Aiston).
Success, Success, Success,
as ABANAZER and PEKOE,
H. M. T., WALSALL, every evening.

"The Captain and the Ship," Reg. No. 23,[illegible]
(BERT) (MARIE)
SWAN and VESTA,
Enormous Success. Finish to-night Muncaster Theatre, Bootle. Principal Boy, Dame, and own Speciality. Our Act "The Captain and the Ship," broke all records. The acknowledged Hit of the Panto. Re-engaged 1906-7.
Miss Marie Vesta is a delightful Robin Hood.—Vide Stafford Chronicle.
Agents, R. WARNER AND CO.
Solicitor, G. P. R. BURGESS.

ROMA and ROMANI,
The Classical Musical Entertainers.
Grand Success at the Hippodrome, Brighton.
Monday next, HIPPODROME, NORWICH.
All Communications,
WILL OLIVER, "Spot," 1, Cranbourn-street, W.C.

FRED MINNIE
MULVEY and MIRIAM,
J. F. Elliston's Pantomime,
"Cinderella."
AVENUE THEATRE,
SUNDERLAND.

MR. GUS GARRICK,
PEEPING TOM,
in "Goody Two Shoes,"
The Hit of the Season.
The Times says: Mr. Gus Garrick deserves a special word for his acting. When he is on the boards there is no lack of fun. His jokes are well timed and really good, and the pranks he plays with other members of the company are extremely funny. But he scores most with his imitations of well-known comedians, whom he hits off very faithfully.
Jan. 8 PALACE, WALTHAMSTOW.

"Our Chicken," and "Whack Fol de Diddle," by Percy Johnson. The Original JOHNNY WALKER,
English Eccentric Comedian and Mimic.
This, Empire Hippodrome, Ashton.
Next, PADDINGTON, LIVERPOOL.
Coms. JULES VERNO, Liverpool.

The Sun, Jan. 3, 1906, says.
The Tivoli is still giving a very much up-to-date show. The plums of the programme to my way of thinking are Miss Marie Lloyd and Gus Elen.
MR. GUS ELEN,
TIVOLI,
CANTERBURY.
Business Manager, GEORGE FOSTER, Esq.

MR. J. W. HALL
THE CIRCUS, BURY,
Vacant Jan. 29,
through postponing Russia

"Butterfly," by E. W. Rogers.
Published by Feldman and Co.
MR. ARTHUR LENNARD,
Jan. 8,
EMPIRE, GLASGOW.

"Mother," by Chas. Osborne.
Published by Francis, Day, and Hunter.
Agents, Messrs. TOM SHAW and Co.

"All you've got to do," "Turn on the water," "Catch of the Season." Panto. Rights £2 2s.
Apply, Francis and Day's.
MR. GEORGE BROOKS,
also LIZZIE DANIELS.
Pantomime, PALACE, NEWCASTLE.

The Originator of Immobile Comedy.
MR. ALF GIBSON.
EMPIRE, NEW CROSS.
Open to buy clean, quaint songs.
Sole business managers, G. and F. PEEL.

"Are we downhearted? No!"
MR. W. J. CHURCHILL,
The Hit of Birmingham,
As the COUNT, "Sleeping Beauty,"
GRAND THEATRE, BIRMINGHAM.

MR. WALTER CURTIS. described by Oswald Stoll, Esq., as
"The Merriment Merchant."
Perm. address, Leeds. National Tel 02812.

"Aladdin." "Aladdin." "Aladdin."
MR. DAN THOMAS,
8th., HIPPODROME, EASTBOURNE.
The Greatest Success ever put on a Music Hall.

"Beautiful, Beautiful Bed."
by Murphy and Lipton.
Published by F. and D.
MR. MORNY CASH,
Page, "Cinderella," Empire, Oldham.

That prince amongst Irish comedians.—The Era.
MR. MICHAEL NOLAN,
Finished on Saturday last Stoll Tour.
Resting by permission of
Mr. Sylvester (Maidstone) and Mr. G. A. Payne.
A Happy and Prosperous New Year to All.
17, Bushey Hill-road, Peckham-road, S.E.

Enormous Success at Cardiff Empire.
Cheered to the very Echo Nightly.
MR. F. V. ST. CLAIR,
Monday, EMPIRE, SWANSEA.
Third Week there in Nine Months.
St. Clair has Toy Yorkshire Terriers for Sale.

MR. FRANK COYLE,
The Continuous Comedian.
Concludes Empire, Rochdale, same success.
Proof returns October 8, at increase.
Monday next, HIPPODROME, HULL.
With smart, crisp, clean, polished Comic Songs.

Pantomime, CAMDEN THEATRE, LONDON.
MR. JOHN E. COYLE,
Abbreviated Press Opinions.
On the contrary he is a very droll gentleman indeed, and Mr. J. E. C. will certainly make him one of the pantomime's most laughable features.—Telegraph.
The Wicked Baron is J. E. C. Mr. C. is an excellent comedian, and with his songs and quaint appearance promises to be a great success.—Standard.

"Jack and Jill," undoubtedly one of the most successful pantomimes seen in the city for years. . . . . Dame Durden's School abounds with rollicking fun. . . . The fun-provoking part of the piece falls on the shoulders of Mr. . . . and Mr. Harry Conlin, who fill the parts of . . . and Dame Durden. The house was never quiet while they are on the boards.—Leeds Evening News.
Absolutely a Gigantic Hit.
MR. HARRY CONLIN.
An Instantaneous Success.
Most Successful
Panto. seen here for years.
THEATRE ROYAL,
LEEDS.
Invited for next
[illegible]tmas.

[illegible]A[illegible]L[illegible]
A dead cert"! [illegible]ays a sure winner time. The Baron i[illegible]inderella" Pantom[illegible]
T. R., NEWCASTLE-[illegible]-TYNE. Communicatio[illegible]
Care of BROOKS' [illegible]ency, 36, Shaftesbury-av., W.

"An Irish[illegible]an's Views." Boden. A Hit.
MR. [illegible]ALTER MUNROE,
[illegible]MPIRE, LIVERPOOL.
"Molly, Now Don't be Teasing."—F., D. and H.
"An Irishman's Views." Big Success.

[illegible]DAN
C O N R O Y,
Comedian.
Enormous success South Shields.
Complimented by R. THORNTON, Esq.
Monday, EMPIRE, EDINBURGH.

WILL McIVOR,
A Vocalist with a Voice.
"Recollections," by J. W. Hall and Will McIvor.
What a Success this week, Empress, Hartlepool;
Monday, PAVILION, GLASGOW.

Gigantic Success.
"Everyday Cyclists."
Gigantic Success.
Impersonated by FRANK KEEGAN.
FRANK KEEGAN and COMPANY.
Success. Enormous Success.
QUEEN'S THEATRE, LEEDS (2nd week).
Communications to JAMES FIONI,
21, Norton-street, Liverpool.

E. CARTER LIVESEY and CO., including Miss LILIAN ROSEBERY, in the enormously successful skit,
"THE WOULD-BE ACTORS."
KING'S, LONGSIGHT. Agent, TOM SHAW.

ARTHUR CONQUEST,
Great Success. Press Opinions next week.
Pantomime, THEATRE R., DRURY-LANE,
Commences in April next again with his Highly Successful Pantomimic Sketch,
"THE SIOUX."
with New and Magnificent Scenery, and at all the Syndicate Halls Controlled by Mr. Geo. Adney Payne, Mr. Walter Gibbons, and Mr. Henri Gros; also the Principal Theatres under Mr. Jack De Frece's Management.
Only 5 Weeks Vacant 1905, and 6 Weeks 1907.
All Bookings made by Mr. Conquest's Sole Agent,
FRED NEIMAN, 74 The Grove, Camberwell,
London, S.E. Tel., 247 Brixton.

"Opera in the Halls."
To Managers.
Don't be Bamboozled into Booking Useless Imitators with Pedigrees.
Book the Originals.
CHAS. FISHER and CO., who made London Ring with His "Bold Attempt"
Three Years ago, obtaining 170 Laudable Press Opinions and a Cartoon in Punch.
Now Playing the Stoll Tour. Presenting,
"THE MUSIC MASTER,"
Interpolating,
"Opera Gems,"
High Class Comedy,
Grand Opera Mixture.
PALACE THEATRE, LEICESTER.

"TOFFY'S TROTTER," Gigantic Hit.
"OBEDIENT BILLY," a Screamer,
Written by Wal Pink and Mark Melford.
JOE ELVIN,
GRANVILLE ("Obedient Billy"), 8.40,
OXFORD ("Toffy's Trotter"), 9.40
CANTERBURY ("Any more Orders"), 10.40
Grand Revival of "'APPY 'AMPSTEAD," Jan. 15.
All the Fun of the Fair. Ain't it all Right!
Communications, LORRO'S Agency.

THE ARTHUR LLOYD TRIO
in a Drawing-room Entertainment, "Little Charlie, or the Twin Sisters," by the late Arthur Lloyd. Next week, Jan. 8, EMPIRE, NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE. A Happy New Year to all.

TOM VINE,
the Famous Vocal Comedian and Up-to-date Song-writer.
CLARA NISBETT, CLARA NISBETT,
Refined Character Vocalist and Burlesque Actress.
Immense Hits of the Latest by Tom Vine.
THEATRE ROYAL, COATBRIDGE.

MR. BRANSBY WILLIAMS,
Phone. 874, Battersea;
Principal Comedian,
SHAKESPEARE THEATRE, LIVERPOOL.
Address all Coms. as above.

LITTLE TICH,
TIVOLI and PARAGON.
Agent, G. BARCLAY.

PAUL CINQUEVALLI,
Address, c/o "The Era."

MR.
GEORGE LASHWOOD,
Playing DANDINI,
in the Gloriously Successful Pantomime,
"Cinderella,"
PRINCE OF WALES'S T., BIRMINGHAM.

FREDERICK MAXWELL
LOIS DU CANE,
and Famous Company, Jan. 8.
"Dick Dare M.P.," LONDON, SHOREDITCH.
"The Girl I Love," BEDFORD.
Brilliant Success of "Dick Dare, M.P."

"Hullo, old dear."
MR. TOM WOOTTWELL,
THEATRE ROYAL,
DRURY LANE.
Second Season.
WARNER, Sole Agents.

The New Star.
RUSSELL
WALLETT,
"The Lady in Black."
Address, PALACE, BELFAST.
Business-Manager, E. J. MACDERMOTT.
Sole Agents, MACDERMOTT and SHELDON.

"The Covent Garden Ball," by C. C.; "Love," by C. C. Published by Francis, Day, and Hunter.
MR. CHARLES CARDOW,
EMPIRE,
LIVERPOOL.

ARTHUR SLATER,
The Man in White.
Best wishes to the Men who have Copied my Dress and Pinched by Gags.
HIPPO., HASTINGS.

MENDEL, the Marvellous Blind Pianist.
The Greatest Favourite and Surest Draw on the Halls. Empire, Liverpool; next EMPIRE, BIRMINGHAM. Perm., Bella Vista, Ravenslea-road, Balham, or BAWN'S Agency.

Morton's Man of Memory.
DATAS,
The only Artist who performed 12 months right off at the Palace Theatre, Shaftesbury-avenue, W. HUGH J. DIDCOTT, Agent.

Great Success. Great Success.
VIVIANA,
The Dancing Girl,
Appears Nightly in her Wonderful Crêpe Paper Dress, "Dancing Girl Brand," specially made by Crompton's, Bury. Shortly producing a Charming New Dancing Scena.
EMPIRE, SHEPHERD'S BUSH.

CHARLEY HARVEY, Enormous Success, ABANAZAR, GRAND T., GLASGOW. Required, Good Funny Character Songs and Patter, will Buy anything Good and Original. Authors forward to above.

[illegible]oozey Billy.
MR. RYDER SLONE
and [illegible]OY GLES[illegible]
[illegible]d So[illegible]s His Parents."
[illegible]EATRE, [illegible]YDNEY, AUSTRALIA.

[illegible]
Letters, c[illegible]

MR. [illegible]
A Po[illegible] Society [illegible] everywhere.
[illegible] next,
ARDWICK E[illegible]E, MANCHESTER.
Please Note.—I am at [illegible]iberty Feb. 5. Re[illegible]
Managers all along the Tour. Sole Agent, OLIVER.

MR. HERBERT CYE[illegible]
The Seven Foot Comedian.
Resting for a Month, after severe illne[illegible]
Authors with real Funny Songs, write R[illegible]
Doncaster. Booked Syndicate Halls, Londo[illegible] principal Provincial Halls. Sole Represe[illegible]
HUGH J. DIDCOTT, Esq.

MR. TED YOU[illegible]
Enormous Success. Enormous Succes[illegible]
as MOTHER GOOSE.
This week, Royal Court Theatre, Warrin[illegible]
Next week, GRAND THEATRE, RAWTENS[illegible]

C. W. MURPHY and DAN LIP[illegible]
Resumed
Comic Song Writing, Jan. 1st.
14, Walcot-gardens,
London, S.E.

HARRINGTON and TA[illegible]
HARRINGTON and TATE,
The New Song-Writing Combination.
The New Song Writing Combination.
Messrs. John P. Harrington and James W[illegible]
Messrs. John P. Harrington and James W[illegible]
Beg to inform the Professional Wor[illegible] that they have joined forces,
to supply First-Class Scenas, Songs, and [illegible]
to supply First-Class Scenas, Songs, and [illegible]
to Music-Hall Artists.
Note address: 3, Berners-st., Oxford-st[illegible]
Telegrams: "Lyrical, London."
Telephone, 12805 Central.

READY MONDAY, JANUARY [illegible]
THIRTY-NINTH YEAR OF I[illegible]
Price, ONE SHILLING: by Post, [illegible]
1906—THE ERA ANN[illegible]
The Most Compl[illegible] OF DRAMATIC DICTIONARY
and
THEATRICAL TREASURY OF K[illegible] ever brought before the Pu[illegible]
It will also be found to be th[illegible]
Interesting Annual of the Y[illegible]
Office, 5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, ST[illegible]

LONDON: PUBLISHED FOR "THE ERA" [illegible] "THE ERA" B[illegible]
F. H. PEDG[illegible] LONDON,
TAVISTOCK [illegible]D COUN[illegible]
PRINTED AT [illegible]'AY, JAN[illegible]
WORKS, DR[illegible]

MR. C[illegible]LES A[illegible] EAST
Producer [illegible] M., "Babes in the Wood." T. R., [illegible]ld. Disengaged spring.

MR. & MRS. ERNEST C. EDWARDS
(Miss [illegible]ella Power), Major Stretton and Lady Charlotte, "The Cotton Spinner." O. H., Burton.

MR. [illegible] MRS. ROBERT ENTWISTLE
(M[illegible] Lester Stevens), Dis. Jan. 27, Light Com., S[illegible]e M., Peter Davey's Panto. Eastbourne.

MR. EDWARD FENTON,
Disengaged, Character Comedy.
13, Clave[illegible]n-street, S.W., or A. A.

MR. ARTHUR FITZGERALD,
[illegible]sengaged. Offers invited.
Address, [illegible], King-street, Covent Garden, W.C.

MR. [illegible]nd MRS. ROBERT FORSYTH
(Mariette Hyde). Disengaged.
107, Camberwell New-road, S.E.

MR. G. D. FOX,
Conductor, "Forty Thieves" Pantomime.
Metropole Theatre, Gateshead.

MR. & MRS. CHARLES FRANMORE.
Address,
22, Osborne-street, Oldham-road, Manchester.

MR. and MRS. RICHARD FULTON
(Miss Gertrude Evans),
4, Chichester-street, St. George's-square, S.W.

MR. W. H. GARBOIS
As Ellis Jordan, "A Wife's Triumph."
Coliseum Theatre, Oldham.

MR. W. V. GARROD,
Address,
3, March-road, Anfield, Liverpool.

MR. HENRY GEORGE,
Engaged by Arthur Collins, Esq., for Tour of the "Prodigal Son." 2, Aliwal-rd., Clapham, S.W.

MR. VIVIAN GILBERT,
Disengaged. Juveniles or Light Comedy.
Address, Musbury, Axminster, Devon.

MR. ALFRED GODDARD,
Leading Business.
Address, 10, King-street, Covent Garden, W.C.

MR. DOUGLAS GORDON,
Disengaged.
Address, T. R., Plymouth.

MR. J. LYNWARD GRAHAME.
Address,
Duke of York's Theatre, W.C.

MR. CLIFFORD GRAHAM'S AGENCY,
8, Campden House-road, Kensington, W.
'Phone, 2260 Western. Tele., "Cliffalla, London."

MR. and MRS. A. CARLAW GRAND
(Miss Rollo Deas) Disengaged, Light Comedy.
Address, 4, Parkshot, Richmond, Surrey.

MR. HERBERT GREVILLE,
At Liberty.
19, Mornington-road, Regent's Park, N.W.

MR. FRED GROVE,
Disengaged.
10, King-street, Covent Garden, W.C.

MR. LAURENCE GROVE,
at Liberty. Juvenile and Light Comedy Parts.
Add., 69, Huron-rd., Upper Tooting, S.W., or A.A.

MR. CLIFTON HALL, Vocalist,
Demon King, "Cinderella."
Jan. 15, Queen's Theatre, Gateshead.

MR. CHARLES HALLING, Ross Christian, "The Manxman," Mr. A. B. Cross's Co. T. R., Ton-y-pandy, S. Wales.

MR. AUGUSTUS HAMMOND,
Producer and Stage-Manager, "Puss in Boots."
Her Majesty's Theatre, Dundee.

MR. HUBERT HARBEN,
"Stephen Undershaft" in "Major Barbara."
Court Theatre.

MR. A. C. HARDIE,
Queen's Theatre,
Manchester.

MR. FRANK HARDING.
Address, all Coms., 21, Argyll-mansions, King's-road, Chelsea, S.W. T., No. 2077, Ken.

MR. W. S. HARDY,
Father Gerard and Business Manager,
"The Midnight Wedding."

MR. FREDERICK HARKER,
Disengaged Spring.
Jan. 15, Six Nights, Grand Theatre, Walsall.

MR. CHARLES HARLEY,
Disengaged.
13, Western-road, Ealing, W.

MR. MORRIS HARPER,
General Manager, "Sailors of the King."
Jan. 15, Theatre Royal, Batley.

MR. FRANCIS HAWLEY,
Business Manager, "The Earl and the Girl."
Jan. 15, Grand Theatre, Falkirk.

MR. R. CALVERT HAWS, late "Walls of Jericho," Shaftesbury. Offers invited.
Juv., Light Com. Dudes. 13. Up. Bedford-pl., W.C.

MR. T. P. HAYNES,
Address,
Scala Theatre, W.

MR. JERROLD HEATHER,
Disengaged, Lead.
34, High-street, Milton, Staffs.

MR. HORACE E. HERBERT,
Juvenile Leading Business.
All Coms., 87, Fairfield-road, Edmonton, N.

MR. CHAS. HERBERTE, at Liberty
for Robust Character Comedy, Old Men, or Sketch. 92, Rectory-road, Fulham, S.W.

MR. A. S. HOMEWOOD,
Disengaged.
Address, 86, The Drive, Fulham Park-gardens, S.W.

MR. ALFRED H. HOOK,
Touring, "The Prodigal Son."
Jan. 15, Royalty Th., Llanelly.

MR. FRANCIS HOPE, Disengaged till Jan. 22. Re-engaged by Norman V. Norman, Esq., Spring Tour. 5, Elder's-street, Scarboro'.

MR. and MRS. GEORGE HOWARD
(Miss Clara Earle), "The Cherry Girl."
West Pier, Brighton.

MR. and MRS. WILSON HOWARD
(Miss Carlotta Anson),
"Claudian" Co., Royalty T., Barrow-in-Furness.

MR. and MRS. HORACE HUNTER
(Miss Lily Hammersley), at Liberty.
Address, 348, Kennington-road, S.E.

MR. JAMES P. E. HUSSEY,
"The Cherry Girl."
West Pier, Brighton. Dis. Jan. 28.

MR. RALPH HUTTON,
Disengaged.
9 Grafton-mansions, Duke's-rd, W.C.

MR. ROBERT A. INNES,
Sixth Year with Mr. John Hart.
Address all communications to Grand T., Leeds.

MR. and MRS. F. JACQUES (Miss Minnie Rayner). Miss R. at Lib. Mr. J., Grand Theatre, Glasgow. 52, Crowndale-rd, N.W.

MR. G. WALLACE JOHNSTON,
Fourth Tour with Mr. Edward Compton.
Jan. 15, Royalty Theatre, Chester.

MR. T. ARTHUR JONES,
Touring the Success, "Life's Sweetest Sins."
Address, 26, Wightman-road, Finsbury-park, N.

MR. S. MAJOR JONES,
Engaged by H. Dudley Bennett, Esq., to produce Panto., Shakespeare T., Clapham, S.W.

MR. WHITFORD KANE,
Disengaged.
Address, [illegible] King-street, Covent Garden.

MR. OGILVY KEITH.
Address,
Charlmont, Western-parade, Southsea.

MR. and MRS. EDGAR KENT (Miss Ada Clarke), "Saints and Sinners" and "The Middleman," on tour. Perm. add., Shelton, Stoke.

MR. CLAUDE KING,
in "The Fascinating Mr. Vandervelt."
Daly's Theatre, New York.

MR. and MRS. W. KINGSFORD
PEARCE. W.K.P. eng. Miss HANLEY (Mrs. W.K.P.) dis. 58, Ormsley-rd., Balham, S.W.

MR. J. POOLE KIRKWOOD,
John Forman, in "Sherlock Holmes."
Jan. 15, New Theatre, Cambridge.

MR. ARTHUR KNIGHT, General Manager; Miss EDITH KNIGHT, Fairy Queen, "Red Riding Hood." 42, Cannon-st., St. Albans.

MR. AUGUSTINE KNIGHT,
Disengaged for Heavies.
19, Dunalley-parade, Cheltenham.

MR. FRED KNIGHT, Disengaged,
Robust, Character, Comedy, Old Men. Add., pro tem., 16, Rumford-street, Manchester.

MR. RICHARD HENRY LACE.
Address, 10, King-street, London, W.C.
Permanent address, 19, Parkfield-drive, Liscard.

MR. JAMES R. LA FANE,
Manager and Stage Director, Mr. Mouillot's Panto., "Aladdin," Opera House, Jersey, C.I.

MR. and MRS. CHARLES LANGLEY
(Jessie Price) Disengaged. Joint or Single Engagements. 3, Mornington-crescent, N.W.

MR. EDWIN LEVER,
Disengaged. Heavies, Character, Old Men.
Address, 161, Cambridge-street, Pimlico, London.

MR. D. LEWIN-MANNERING,
Baron Bonelli and General Manager, in "The Eternal City." T. R., Merthyr Tidvil.

MR. H. LAWRENCE LEYTON,
As Sherlock Holmes. To-day, L., Sheffield; next, Cambridge; Suburbs to follow.

MR. ARDENE LINDEN,
Relinquished Engagement with Mr. William Maclaren. 117, Railway-street, Southport.

MR. EDWIN LING,
S.M. and Character. Offers invited.
KISHMET, Wolsey-road, Esher.

MR. FRANK LISTER,
Napoleon,
Scala Theatre.

MR. FRANK LISTON,
Heavies, King Charles II. in "The Orange Girl." 15th, Empire, Bristol.

MR. and MRS. SAM LIVESEY
(Miss Maggie Edwards)
"The Village Blacksmith" Co., P. T., Preston.

MR. FEWLASS LLEWELLYN,
"Lights Out," Savoy Theatre, W.C.
28, Chelverton-road, Putney.

MR. EDWARD LLOYD,
Juvenile Lead. At Liberty.
4, Pulteney-avenue, Bath.

MR. WILLIAM LOCKHART,
"Sunday" Co.
Theatre Royal, Worcester.

MR. and MRS. WILLIAM LOWE,
Mr. L., understudy, Lachlan Campbell. Mrs. Lowe dis. Ad., 7, Bridson-street, Liverpool.

MR. FREDERICK LOYD, Engaged by Fred G. Brooke, Esq., Surrey Theatre. Address, 71, St. George's-road, Lambeth, S.E.

MR. and MRS. CHARLES L. LUDLOW
(Agnes St. Clair), C. L. L., "Girl from Japan." 64, Hove-avenue, Walthamstow, N.E.

MR. WILLIAM LUGG,
Disengaged.
7, Swift-street, Fulham, S.W.

MR. JOHN MACFARLANE, at Liberty, Heavy Juveniles, Romantic Parts, Pathos. The A.A.

MR. GEORGE F. MACKARNESS,
Mr. Henry Furnival's "Lost in Paris" Co.
Sutton-in-Ashfield (3), Harrogate (3).

MR. and MRS. CHALMERS MACKEY.
Own Tour, "Wearin' o' the Green."
En route, or Ashdale, Poulton-le-Fylde, Lancs.

MR. & MRS. WILLIAM MACLAREN
(Miss Lily C. Bandmann). Own company in "Claudian." Jan. 15, Royalty T., Barrow-Furness.

MR. J. T. MACMILLAN,
Address,
Grand Theatre, Nottingham.

MR. AUBREY MALLALIEU,
Light Comedian, Meynell-Gunn Australian Tour. Add., Princess's Theatre, Melbourne.

MR. GEORGE MALLETT, General Manager Mr. Peter Davey's "Puss in Boots" Co. Disengaged Jan. 29. P. G. T., Folkestone.

MR. JERROLD MANVILLE,
Disengaged for Spring.
Theatre Royal, Grantham.

MR. MAITLAND MARLER,
Cogia, "The Forty Thieves."
Marlborough Theatre, N.

MR. PERCY MARSHALL.
Carbury, "Lady of Ostend" Co.
Address, 16, Mill-Lane, Hampstead, N.W.

MR. ALFRED MARTIN,
Advance Manager, Mr. Milton Bode's Pantomime. Jan. 15, Queen's Theatre, Swindon.

MR. WALTER MAXWELL.
Address,
Vaudeville Theatre, London.

MR. HENRY W. MAY.
All Kinds of Music Composed and Orchestrated. Pantomimes, &c. Add., C/o "The Era."

MR. ERIC MAYNE,
Disengaged. Lead or General Management.
1, South-place, Kennington Park.

MR. QUINTON McPHERSON,
at Liberty for Character or Comedy parts.
18, Bonneville-gardens, Clapham Park, S.W.

MR. LONNEN MEADOWS,
Yellow Dwarf, and producer Grand, Birmingham. Disengaged end of run. Good offers invited.

MR. CHAS. MELVIN,
Acting-Manager for Mr. F. W. Purcell,
Marlborough Theatre, Holloway, N.

MR. and MRS. ARTHUR MERVYN,
Juv. Leads, Arrangements Complete.
Perm., "The Cot," Trafalgar-rd., Twickenham.

MR. G. M. MONTANINI,
Business-Manager, "A Traitor Prince."
Jan. 15, Star Theatre, Liverpool.

MR. HUGH MONTGOMERY,
MARIE HARCOURT, Napoleon and Marcel, "Napoleon the Great" Co. T. R., Sunderland.

MR. G. MORETON-WILLIAMS,
Disengaged. Heavy Lead, &c.
4, Graham-road, Dalston, N.E.

MR. FRED MORGAN,
Offers invited.
55, Amersham-road, New Cross, S.E.

MR. PERCY NORMAN, at Liberty,
Com. or Character. 68, Sayer-street, Walworth, S.E. Spring, "Man's Enemy," Own Company.

MR. ALFRED NORTHWAY,
Vacation,
57, Warrington-crescent, W.

MR. ERNEST OWTTRIM,
Lead, At Liberty, Jan. 22nd.
Address, Empire, Bristol.

MR. GUS OXLEY,
Daly's Theatre,
London, W.

MR. and MRS. ROBSON PAIGE
(Mabel Syringa),
Address, 10, Ospringe-road, N.W.

MR. and MRS. MARK PATON
(Miss MABEL REES).
1, Stockwell-avenue, Brixton, S.W.

MR. POPE PAX,
Journalist and Dramatic Critic,
Address, 18, Trinity-road, Birmingham.

MR. DOUGLAS PAYNE,
Address,
Shaftesbury Theatre, W.

MR. WILFRED E. PAYNE,
At Liberty.
63, Bedford Court-mansions, W.C.

MR. ASHTON PEARSE,
Monks in "Oliver Twist," Mr. Tree's Spring tour. 65, Redcliffe-road, S. Kensington.

MR. FRED W. PERMAIN
Address,
118, Southampton-row, W.C.

MR. and MRS. FRANK E. PETLEY
(Miss Gertrude Price), Leading Business.
Disengaged. Ad., 10, Oberstein-road, London, S.W.

MR. THOMAS PHILLIPS, General Manager, Mr. Cyril Maude's "Beauty and the Barge" Co. Vacation. Letters c/o "The Era."

MR. FELIX PITT,
Engaged by Andrew Melville, Esq.
Grand Theatre, Walsall (six nights).

MR. & MRS. DONALD PRICE-EVANS
(Miss Marcella Hudson).
"The Talk of the Town" Co. Gaiety, M'chester.

MR. WILLIAM PRINGLE,
Capers in "Cinderella."
Brixton Theatre. Disengaged spring.

MR. and MRS. WALTER PURVIS
(Miss Lily Brammer), Ali Baba and Morgiana, "Forty Thieves" Panto. T. R., Blackburn.

MR. RULE PYOTT,
Disengaged.
49, Hyde-vale, Blackheath, S.E.

MR. J. NELSON RAMSAY,
Disengaged.
Lyceum Theatre, Govan, Glasgow.

MR. ALBERT E. RAYNOR.
On Tour with Mr. Martin Harvey.
Jan. 15, Opera House, Southport.

MR. ARTHUR LAW RAYNOR,
Directing Mr. Bert Coote's Specialities, Coronet, Camden, Fulham. 150, Oxford-street, W.

MR. and MRS. SIDNEY RENNEF,
S. R., Davy, "Sunday" Co.,
Theatre Royal, Worcester.

MR. PERCY RHODES,
At Liberty for Spring.
Address, 10, Elmstone-road, Fulham, S.W.

MR. HARRY H. RIGNOLD,
"Swiss Express" Co.,
Address, 398, Clapham-road, S.W.

MR. WALTER L. RIGNOLD,
Panto., T. R., Manchester.
Liberty, Spring.

MR. WALTER ROBERTS,
Rudolph Laski, "Passion's Power,"
Eden Theatre, Bishop Auckland, Six Nights.

MR. STAIR ROBERTSON,
Disengaged O. M., Witch, Drama, Comedy.
Post Office, Mendlesham, Suffolk.

MR. LEONARD ROBSON,
Leading Business,
115, Grosvenor-street, All Saints, Manchester.

MR. G. STAPELTON ROCHE,
Relinquishing Engagement. Diseng. Jan 22.
Light Comedy, &c. 32, Kelvedon-rd., Fulham, S.W.

MR. ALBERT ROGERS,
Stage-Manager, "At Cripple Creek."
Next, Osborne Theatre, Manchester.

MR. STANLEY ROGERS.
Address all communications,
124, Warwick-road, Carlisle.

MR. HARRY ROUSBY, Principal Comedy and Char. Bus. Gen.-Man., "Laughter Land" Tour. C/o Welby, 166, Main-st, Glasgow.

MR. ARTHUR ROYCE, Dame, Peter Davey's "Puss in Boots." Letters, Pier, Eastbourne. Re-engaged next Xmas.

MR. LEONARD RUSSELL,
Baritone, at Liberty.
63, Alderbrook-road, Nightingale-lane, S.W.

MR. VERNON SANSBURY,
Disengaged for leading juvenile business at home or abroad. 93 Barrow-rd, Streatham, S.W.

MR. WILLIE SCOTT,
Principal Comedy, "Great Awakening" Co.
This, Yarmouth; next, Luton.

MR. ARCHIE SELWYN,
Tommy Keston, "The Freedom of Suzanne."
Jan. 15, Gaiety Theatre, Hastings.

MR. MICHAEL SHERBROOKE, Dis. till April 16, and Miss ALICE ARDEN (Mrs. S.), Dis. 2, Jouberts-mansions, Jubilee-pl., Chelsea.

MR. FRED SINCLAIR,
Bottom of Bill,
Gaiety, Chatham.

MR. JAMES SKEA, Character Actor,
Disengaged the 20th, end of Tour.
T. R., Seaham Harbour.

MR. A. GIFFORD STACEY,
Manager for Mr. Robt. Courtneidge,
Lyric Theatre, W.

MR. FRANK STANLEY,
Acting-Manager,
Her Majesty's Theatre, Carlisle.

MR. E. STANTON-SHARP,
Lord Robert Ure, in "The Christian."
Jan. 15, Gaiety, Aberavon.

MR. W. R. STAVELEY,
Scala, Jan. 28 and 29, Stage Society.
239, King's-road, Chelsea, S.W.

MR. and MRS. W. S. STEVENSON
(Miss Evelyn Robson), at Liberty early in February. Jan. 15, Gaiety Theatre, Leith, N.B.

MR. T. S. McCAUSLAND STEWART
(Theodosius Stewart),
18, Bernard-street, Russell-square, W.C.

MR. CHARLES STIRLING,
Lead, Heavy Lead.
60, Wouldhave-street, South Shields.

MR. ERNEST ST. JOHN,
General Gordon, "At Duty's Call,"
Theatre Royal, Castleford.

MR. HERBERT ST. JOHN,
Dandini,
"Cinderella," Brixton Theatre.

MR. and MRS. CHARLES R. STONE,
Character, Comedy, &c. At Liberty Spring.
Offers Invited. 10, Borough-street, Brighton.

MR. GEORGE STONE,
Resident-Manager (Twelfth Year),
Royalty T., and Opera House, Barrow-in-Furness.

MR. WALLACE STRANACK,
General Manager, L. and P. P. Co., Ltd.,
"Jack, the Giant Killer." New Gaiety T., Leith.

MR. AUGUSTIN SYMONDS and Miss Kate Parry. "Forty Thieves" Pantomime. Grand Theatre, Woolwich, London.

MR. ALGERNON SYMS,
General Flarup, "Three of a Kind."
Perm., 3, Springdale-road, Clissold Park, N.

MR. TAPPING.
Address,
28, Leyland-road, Lee, S.E.

MR. ALFRED TERRAINE,
Artist.
25, St. Alban's-avenue, Bedford Park, London, W.

MR. FOWLER THATCHER,
The Baron, "Cinderella."
At Liberty Feb. 19, 1906. King's, Cardiff.

MR. E. W. THOMAS,
Address.
10, King-street, Covent Garden, W.C.

MR. WYLIE A. THOMPSON,
Disengaged 20th. Boys, Dudes, Light Comedy. "Bridgen," Bexley, Kent.

MR. WALTER THORNTON,
Miss Ida Molesworth and Mr. Mark Blow's Co. Jan. 15, Osborne Theatre, Manchester.

MR. ALFRED C. TOONE,
Musical-Director, "Lady Madcap."
Theatre Royal, Chatham.

MR. DUNCAN TOVEY,
Sandy MacSteele, Prince's Theatre, Poplar.
Disengaged Spring.

MR. GEORGE TRAILL,
"The Breed of the Treshams" Tour.
47, College-place, Camden Town, N.W.

MR. A. W. TYRER
as Harry Dallas, "Walls of Jericho" Co.
Weeks Jan. 8 and 15, The State Theatres of Holland.

MR. GEORGE UNWIN,
Charles II., in "Orange Nell."
Supporting Miss Minnie Palmer.

MR. and MRS. EDWARD VAN BIENE
(Kate Hallam), Bus. Mgt., Char., and Lead.
Dis. till Autumn. 33, Glengall-rd., Kilburn, N.W.

MR. CHARLES VANE,
Sails for Australia Jan. 26.
Ivy House, Seed Hill, Hudersfield.

MR. RICHARD VANE, Dis. 20th
End of Tour, Iago, &c., with Edmund Tearle.
This, Ashington; Next, Seaham Harbour.

MR. and MRS. CHAS. B. VAUGHAN.
Miss M. Lewes, Understudying Miss Julia Neilson. C. B. V., at Lib. c/o "The Era."

MR. FRED VAUGHAN,
General Business Manager,
"Life of a Showman" Co.

MR. PERCY H. VERNON,
"A Royal Divorce,"
Scala Theatre, W.

MR. FREDERICK VICTOR,
Lead. Disengaged Jan. 22.
Jan. 15, Theatre Royal, Barnsley.

MR. and MRS. DOUGLAS VIGORS
(Miss Lucy Beaumont). L. B. Disengaged.
Next, Grand Theatre, Wolverhampton.

MR. A. N. VINCE,
Acting-Management or Advance, Disengaged.
6, Ranelagh-gardens, Hurlingham, S.W.

MR. CHARLES VIVIAN,
Starring as Jim Selby, in "The Great Awakening." Disengaged, Jan. 27, Heavy or Character.

MR. T. W. VOLT,
King Encyclops, "Among the Stars,"
London Hippodrome.

MR. ARTHUR WALCOTT,
Private Michael, in "Lights Out." Disengaged shortly. Savoy Theatre.

MR. EDWIN WALTON,
Address,
Playgoers' Club, 6, Clement's Inn, W.C.

MR. PERCY CARNE WARAM,
St. Remo, Woodland-terrace,
Whitstable-on-Sea.

MR. E. C. WARBURTON-GAMBLE,
Scala Theatre,
Disengaged for Spring.

MR. ALBERT WARD,
Lead,
97, Plantation-street, Acrington.

MR. HYLTON WARDE,
Principal Comedian, Sing and Dance.
Add., 17, Doris-road, Norwich, or A. A.

MR. W. LEMMON WARDE,
Disengaged.
47, Algiers-road, Ladywell, S.E.

MR. FRANK WEATHERSBY,
Theatrical Agency, 3, Bedford-street, Strand,
'Phone, 3781 Cen. Tel., "Frivolous, London."

MR. WYN WEAVER,
Address,
10, King-street, W.C.

MR. and MRS. ALFRED WELLESLEY
(Miss Beatrice Webb), "Dr. Wake's Patient" Co. Jan. 15, Grand, Wolverhampton.

MR. and MRS. HAROLD WEST
(Miss LILIAN HALLOWS), Disengaged.
Address, 19, Mornington-avenue, West Kensington.

MR. C. A. WHITE,
At Liberty for Special Weeks till Feb. 10.
Add., Park House, Harewood-road, Merton, S.W.

MR. WILL WHITE, F.O.S.,
At Liberty April 23.
Metropole, Gateshead.

MR. VICTOR WIDDICOMBE,
At Liberty.
27, Aigburth-mansions, Brixton, S.W.

MR. JOHNNIE WILKINSON,
Comedian, Disengaged for Spring.
Grand Theatre, Brighton.

MR. HERBERT WILLIAMS,
Granny, "Red Riding Hood," Theatre Royal, Croydon.

MR. LEONARD WILLIAMS,
Juvenile Lead. Returned from South Africa. Offers invited. Add., The Bloreange, Taunton.

MR. BREMBER WILLS,
at Liberty.
20, Jessica-rd., Wandsworth Common, S.W.; or A.A.

MR. and MRS. DICK WINSLOW (Miss Evelyn Shaw). "A Path of Thorns" Co.
Perm., 2, Norfolk-road, Avenue-road, N.W.

MR. FRED WITHERS,
Disengaged.
13, Renmuir-street, Tooting, S.W.

MR. A. WOOD.
Address,
59, St. Mary's-road, Peckham, S.E.

MR. and MRS. GRAHAM WOODS
(Miss Marie Robson). Offers Invited.
Address, 1a, Kender-street, New Cross, S.E.

MR. SIDNEY YOUNG,
Comedy, Character, Musical Comedy.
Disengaged, Jan. 22. See front page.

MISCELLANEOUS.

LITTLE DOTT MOSS, the Toy Comedienne Starring as H. Spry. Success of "The Little Wooden Hut." Theatre Royal, Stockton.

MASTER VYVIAN THOMAS,
Concluded, "Cousin Kate." Disengaged.
93, St. Mark's-road, N. Kensington, W.

READY MONDAY, JANUARY 15.

THIRTY-NINTH YEAR OF PUBLICATION.
Price, ONE SHILLING; by Post, TWELVE STAMPS.

1906—THE ERA ANNUAL—1906

The Most Complete
DRAMATIC DICTIONARY OF DATES
and
THEATRICAL TREASURY OF KNOWLEDGE
ever brought before the Public.
It will also be found to be the most Interesting Annual of the Year.
Office, 5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, STRAND, W.C.

SPRING TOURS.

WE ARE NOW BUSY CLEANING DRESSES FOR THE ABOVE,
but our facilities and energy are illimitable.

SPECIAL QUOTATIONS AND ADVICE ALWAYS FREELY GIVEN.

PROFESSIONAL WORK TAKES PRECEDENCE OF ALL OTHER ORDERS.

By Special Arrangement,

TOURING MANAGERS

can have their Wardrobes Cleaned between Shows, when in or near London.

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONIALS.

19, Exeter-road, Brondesbury, N.W.
Jan. 2, 1906.

Dear Sir,
I must compliment you on the way you have cleaned my evening gown and furs. They really look just like new. I have had my dresses, &c. cleaned before by other firms, but they have never been finished nearly so nicely or carefully. I shall certainly entrust all my cleaning to your firm in the future, and recommend you to my friends.
Yours faithfully,
Winifred Siddons.

T. Harris, Esq.,
6, Argyll-street, W.

Theatre, Bridgnorth, Jan. 1, 1906.
Mrs. Richard Fulton received costume in time, and cleaned beautifully. Many thanks.
Messrs. The Chemicel Cleaning and Dyeing Co.,
6, Argyll-street, London, W.

King's Theatre, Nottingham, Dec. 30, 1905.
Dear Sir,
Many thanks for the way you have cleaned my muslin dress. I consider it has been beautifully done, and is now quite as good as when it was new.
Faithfully yours,
Kate Kilpack (Mrs. Horace Stanley).
T. Harris, Esq.,
Chemical Cleaning and Dyeing Co.,
6, Argyll-street, W.

'Phone, wire, or write to

T. HARRIS.

Delays are Dangerous

LOOK OUT YOUR DRESSES AT ONCE.

CHEMICAL CLEANING & DYEING COMPANY,

Original Theatrical Cleaners & Dyers

6, ARGYLL ST., REGENT ST., W.

Telegraphic Address, "CLEANING, LONDON."
Telephone, THREE-NINE-TWO-THREE GERRARD.

NOTICE

TO DRAMATIC ARTISTS.

Please keep your ADDRESS CARD permanently in THE ERA in the Alphabetical Arrangements of Dramatic Artists' Advertisements. Managers, Agents, and Friends are in need of this information. Engagements are frequently lost through failure to find your Address. For terms, address—

THE PUBLISHER, "The Era," 5, Tavistock-street, London, W.C.

INSTRUCTORS.

MISS BATEMAN (Mrs. CROWE). Complete Training for the Stage, Constant Rehearsals, Fencing, Dancing. Resident Pupils. Full particulars, apply, by letter only, to MISS DOLLING, 88, PHILBEACH-GARDENS, S.W.

NEVILLE'S PRIVATE DRAMATIC STUDIO, 524, OXFORD-STREET, W.—Patrons:—Sir Charles Wyndham, H. Beerbohm Tree, Esq.; S. S. Willard, Esq.; Cyril Maude, Esq.; E. Harrison, Esq.; &c. Established by, and under the Personal Supervision of, Mr. HENRY NEVILLE. Thorough Practical Instruction for the Stage, Voice Production, Elocution, Gesture, and Performances. Lessons in Studio Theatre. Introduction to Profession.
Address, The Principal, Mr. G. R. Foss.

THE BEN GREET ACADEMY OF ACTING.—Pupils of ability started in the Profession. Shakespearean and Modern Plays systematically Rehearsed on the Stage of the Studio. Prospectus, terms, SECRETARY, 3, Bedford-st., Strand.

ELOCUTION, Deportment, and Acting. Miss STELLA BERRETON Prepares Pupils for the Stage, Platform, Bar, Recitations, Reading, Speaking, and the Pulpit. 30, PARK-VILLAGE EAST, GLOUCESTER GATE, N.W., and 126, OXFORD-STREET, W. (Fridays only).

MADAME KATE FLINN, Professor of Singing. Voice Production and Style a Specialty. All Pupils Successful. Madame KATE FLINN Receives Pupils (Ladies and Gentlemen) at her Residence, 57, Gt. Marlborough-street, W. Personal Interview Free on written application.

W. WALLER, THEATRICAL COSTUMIER and WIG MAKER. Every Description of Play and Opera correctly Costumed and Wigged. Historical and other Costumes, &c., for Tableaux and Fancy Balls. Amateurs advised on Correctness of Detail in Costumes and Wigs. 79, CITY-ROAD, LONDON. Tel., 9399, London Wall. Quantity Secondhand Scenery for Sale.

A WORLD-WIDE CIRCULATION.

THE ERA

IN DIFFERENT PARTS OF THE WORLD.

"THE ERA" IN AMERICA.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS AND SUBSCRIBERS.

LOW'S STEAMSHIP AGENCY.
1,123 BROADWAY,
Corner TWENTY-FIFTH-STREET.
Choice Berths on all Steamers at Lowest Rates
Receiving Mail, Storing, Forwarding Baggage.

SINGLE COPIES ON SALE.
SUBSCRIPTIONS RECEIVED.
ADVERTISEMENTS ACCEPTED

American Artistes visiting the Metropolis use The Era Offices as their Permanent London Address.

Apply or Address,
LOW'S STEAMSHIP AGENCY,
1,123, Broadway, corner Twenty-fifth-street, New York.

"THE ERA" IN AUSTRALIA.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS AND SUBSCRIBERS

MESSRS.
GORDON AND GOTCH.

SINGLE COPIES ON SALE.
SUBSCRIPTIONS RECEIVED.
ADVERTISEMENTS ACCEPTED.

Australian Artistes visiting the Metropolis use The Era Offices as their Permanent London Address.

Apply or Address,
MELBOURNE—
Messrs. GORDON and GOTCH, QUEEN-STREET.
SYDNEY—
Messrs. GORDON and GOTCH, PITT-STREET
BRISBANE—
Messrs. GORDON and GOTCH, QUEEN-STREET.
PERTH—
Messrs. GORDON and GOTCH.

"THE ERA" IN SOUTH AFRICA.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS AND SUBSCRIBERS.

THE
CENTRAL NEWS AGENCY, LTD.

SINGLE COPIES ON SALE.
SUBSCRIPTIONS RECEIVED.
ADVERTISEMENTS ACCEPTED.

Apply or Address,
The CENTRAL NEWS AGENCY, Ltd.,
Cape Town, Johannesburg, Pretoria, Durban, Bloemfontein, &c., &c.

GLASGOW AMUSEMENTS.

At the Royal, King's, Princess's, Grand, and Metropole Theatres, pantomime has been the holiday attraction, and crammed houses have been the rule day and night.

LYCEUM.—Proprietor, Mr. Rich. Waldon; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. H. Oakden.—Mr. Eade Montefiore's Streets of London company is here for the week, and a very good opening was made to a considerable audience. The company is well chosen, and with adequate scenery and mounting, a capital representation of Boucicault's well-known drama is secured. Mr. Harry Collier gives a fine performance as Badger, particularly in the closing act. As the Banker, Mr. Edward Busher is admirably suited, and rarely misses a telling point; and as Mark Livingstone, Mr. J. Nelson Ramsay exhibits excellent qualities as an actor. Mr. Joe Bracewell, as Puffy, is cynical and humorous by turns, and pleases immensely; Mr. Gerald Stewart is calm and dignified as befits the part of the unfortunate Paul; and the policeman of Mr. Harry Newlands is realistic. Miss Maude Brookman is capital throughout as Lucy, the Alida of Miss Octavia Noel is forceful to a degree, and Miss Helena Rigby invests the Mrs. Puffy of the cast with just the right balance. An outstanding rôle is Dan Puffy, by Miss Marion Armittage, who is vivacious, whether as actress, singer, or dancer. The local street urchins do very well, and several Govan firemen assist in the fire scene.

EMPIRE.—Proprietors, Moss's Empires, Ltd.; District-Manager, Mr. Sam Gething; Resident-Manager, Mr. Chas. Mussett.—Jail Birds, as played by Fred Karno's company, occupies a large part of the bill, and causes roars of laughter. Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Lucas get hearty applause for their various scenes from Dickens. Daisy Ring is a neat coon singer and dancer; J. P. Ling's varied impersonations are decidedly clever; Elsie Clare contributes several pleasing ballads; Wood and Bates are a most amusing couple of comedy musicians; the Five Julians are smart in song and dance; and Bertha Vere, comedienne, and Mdlle. Chalon, equilibrist, complete an excellent programme.

ZOO-HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Moss's Empires, Ltd., and E. H. Bostock; Resident-Manager, Mr. E. H. Bostock.—The star attraction this week is Miss Josephine Sabel,' an American eccentric singer, whose songs are given with great vigour. Mr. G. W. Hunter secures roars of laughter; Nelson's Newsboys' voices blend well, and they dance gracefully; Professor Chard puts his troupe of dogs through some clever feats; Helen Martin is a pleasing soprano, who sings with charming effect the Strads give clever impersonations of famous musicians; Matt Wilkinson and his company provide an amusing sketch, called The Registry Office; and Corty Brothers, comical acrobats; Dave M'Neil, versatile comedian; and the bioscope complete the programme.

PALACE.—Proprietors and Managers, Rich. Waldon and Thos. Barrasford; Assistant-Manager, Mr. H. M'Kelvie.—The principal item of the programme here is Belle Davis and her "pick chick" actors, who are capital in their coon songs and dances. Other interesting turns include Jas. Preston's company, in a dramatic sketch, The Rebel's Sweetheart; Fred Dunstone, comedian; Vera Bateman, a clever vocalist; Silvo, musical expert; Mr. and Mrs. Blake Adams, sketch artists; Andrews and Thomson, vocal specialists; Mack Olive, whistling comedian; Gracie Taylor, burlesque artist; and the Animatograph, with a series of interesting pictures.

PAVILION, LTD.—General-Manager, Mr. Samuel Lloyd. — A condensed version of La Fille de Madame Angot is received with hearty applause. Mr. Hermann Vezin, Miss Gaston Murray, and Miss Robertson Grimston, ably filling the leading parts. Doody and Wright come in for an enthusiastic and well-deserved reception, their comedy and dancing turn being particularly good. Morris and Morris are a clever pair of knockabouts, and their "Fun on a broom-handle" acrobatic business is smart. Millie Denham is a tuneful singer, well equipped with new and catchy songs. The Imperial Boys' Orchestra effectively render a varied musical programme. The Bros. Hartbert Orellys give a novel and wonderful acrobatic turn. Oakdene as a ventriloquist is specially good, and his nautical scena is well arranged. Hector, wire-walker and hoop-spinner; and Rita Bell, dancer, complete a good programme.

QUEEN'S.—Lessees and Managers, Messrs. T. J. Colquhoun and B. M. Armstrong.—Aladdin, which is in its last week, continues to draw large houses. The principals are all well-known to Glasgow audiences; while the scenery and dresses are quite up to date. Special mention may be made of Jack and Evelyn O'Connor, who fairly captivated the audience with their clever dancing and singing; while the efforts of Misses Frances Haskoll and Florence Wood, in their respective parts, are pleasing. The Three Floradora Girls are exceedingly smart dancers; and the boxing bout of Sandy and Carl is well received.

HARMONIC CONCERTS.—Musical Secretary, Mr. Wm. Biggam.—A special comic company here includes such favourites as A. J. Gamble, Bendon, Bonnetti and Corrie, Musical Silvo, the Lorraines, Five Delvins, G. U. Scott Combination. J. H Johnston, and Hubner's Animatograph, who combine to provide a varied and attractive programme.

MISS ELLALINE TERRISS tells in the Pictorial Magazine an anecdote which confirms the adage that truth is stranger than fiction. "I was going to the Vaudeville Theatre one afternoon," writes Miss Terriss, "when I passed a tiny mite of a girl sobbing so bitterly that I could do nothing else but stop to ask her what was the matter, and whether I could help her at all. She told me, between her sobs, she had lost her father quite recently, and that ever since her mother had been so ill that she hadn't been able to do any work, with the result that they were now practically starving. She herself, unknown to her mother, had been trying to get some engagement in a pantomime in order to do what she could towards keeping the wolf from the door. But as she had had no previous experience, and as there was no one to recommend her, her efforts had been entirely unsuccessful; in fact, that very afternoon she had met with another disappointment. Hence her tears. I was so touched—not so much by her story, which, I am afraid, was an only too ordinary one, but by her evident desire to become the family breadwinner—that I promised her at once she should come in to Bluebell. She became within a short time one of the very best fairies we had, and on several occasions I went with her to see her mother, who, alas! never got over the death of her husband, but died a few months later, leaving her child with only one relation in the world, an uncle, who, years before, had emigrated to Canada, and of whom nothing had been heard of for a considerable time.

"A HOME was eventually found for the child, who from that time onwards got regular employment, always taking part in our Christmas play. Last Christmas—when she was thirteen years old, and had grown into a very pretty little girl—an elderly gentleman who had a seat in the front row of the stalls one evening, took such a violent fancy to her that he sent round his card to my husband, saying that he was a lonely old widower, and would very much like to adopt this little girl, provided it could be arranged, and if, on closer investigation, the arrangement seemed a suitable one. This old gentleman proved to be the very uncle who had emigrated to Canada years before, and who, having lost his wife and having made a moderate fortune, had returned to England to spend the remaining years of his life in his native land."

PROVINCIAL THEATRICALS.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

ABERDARE.—NEW THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. Z. Andrews.—Mr. J. Bannister Howard's Company is delighting large audiences here this week with The Christian, Mr. A. Goddard scores with his rendering of the part of John Storm, as does also Miss Laura Walker in the part of Glory Quayle. Mr. Harry Colbeck is excellent as Father Lamplugh, Mr. Colin Johnson is everything that could be desired as Archdeacon Wealthy, Lord Robert Ure as presented by Mr. E. Stanton is good. Mr. Duncan Yarrow is a host in himself as Horatio Drake. Mr. R. Stidwell deserves mention as Mr. Lorrimer.

ABERDEEN.—HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Acting-Manager, Mr. H. C. Cavanah, C.A.—The Earl and the Girl, as played by Mr. William Greet's company, continues to draw large audiences. The members of the company act as cleverly and vivaciously as on the first night, and admirable work is contributed by the chorus and augmented orchestra. Altogether the piece is one of the brightest and best of its class that has been seen here for some time.

PALACE THEATRE.—Proprietors, Messrs. Rosen and Bliss; Manager, Mr. Walter Gilbert.—There is an exceptionally strong company here this week, and the house is crowded nightly. The Saxon Trio perform their remarkable feats of strength with the utmost facility, and the singing and dancing of the Virginian Troupe of coloured boys and girls are highly appreciated, while a very warm welcome is given to Mr. Jake Friedman, the "one man opera." Among the other enjoyable turns are those of Miss Bessie Travis, an accomplished ventriloquist and pianiste; Mr. Phil Lee and Miss Lily Arden, smart Scottish comedians; Miss Agnes Molteno, the well-known operatic and ballad vocalist; Miss Mabelle May, who sings and dances gracefully; Mr. Jack Charman, a singer of ability, and the Gladenbecks, wonderfully expert balancing artists. Vernon's Bioscope pictures are, as usual, interesting and up to date.

ABERTILLERY. — THEATRE METROPOLE. — Lessees, Messrs. Arthur Carlton and Sam Duckworth; General and Resident-Manager. Mr. Geo. W. Ventom; Stage-Manager, Mr. Fred Thomas.—On Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of this week the boards were occupied here by Messrs. Garside and Knowles' No. 1 company in The London Fireman. In the title-rôle Mr. J. Forbes Knowles played with capital vigour; as Viscount Fleming Mr. Oliver Birrel was well placed; as Hal Curtis (Ratty) Mr. Edward Garside was capable; as Abel Fortnum Mr. William Burgess was really good; Mr. Walter Wilby did well as Joe Bluener. The comedy parts were in the capable hands of Mr. Chas. Preese as Nixey Stinger, and Miss Nelly Garside as Polly Bramble. Mr. Joe Rockley as Capt. Langton was convincing. As Countess Fleming Miss Nellie Waddington acted the part creditably; Miss Florence M. Daly may be complimented on her impersonation of Grace Curtis; and as Ida Curtis Miss Nellie Shirley became a favourite.

ACCRINGTON. — HIPPODROME. — Proprietors, Messrs. Willmott, Potter, Vandy, and Weisker; Acting-Manager, Mr. L. Campkin.—The smart bill presented here this week includes Emma Don, who is well received in a grand vocal scena. Bert Williams is in the front rank in his line of business; Frank Caso is particularly funny with capital songs; Cora Gray has a good voice, and is duly appreciated; The Demon Chef is smartly presented by Preitt and Linetto; the Perkins are well received; Alf. Berq performs some wonderful feats of strength; and the Hippodrome pictures complete a good bill.

ALDERSHOT.—ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Clarence Sounes; Resident-Manager, Mr. Geo. E. Williams.—A Woman's Pluck was produced here in June last year, and Mr. Hamilton Warden is again presenting it. There are, however, many changes in the cast, only three or four being the same. A talented portrayal of Bessie Heath is given by Miss Marie Hanbury; Miss May Dallas is capital as Dorothy; and Miss Mabel Durant's Clara Darrel is acceptable. Mr. Robert Castleton gives a good impersonation of David Heath; Mr. Charles V. Sandford's portrayal of Frank is highly successful; and Mr. Warden as Clement Harper is well placed; while Mr. Oswald Cray in the part of Uriah Craven is quite capable.

ASHTON-UNDER-LYNE. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Sole Owner and Manager, Mr. Chas. Revill; Acting-Manager, Mr. Armstrong Fairbairn.—Pantomime succeeds pantomime here. The departure of Goody Two Shoes has left a vacancy which is this week filled by Jack and Jill, by Mr. Jas. Hewson, written for the Six Brothers Luck. These "speciality" artists sustain the humour of the production with considerable success. They impart plenty of farcical vigour, as well as some "speciality" acting of character. The Dwarf and the Demon, in the opening, are capably sustained by Messrs. Oscar and Henry Luck. Messrs. Ernest, Fred, Phil, and A. Luck respectively fill important parts, and each artist individually brings to bear some gift which is prominently displayed to the advantage of the individual performer, and to the fun and frolic of the varied situations in the ten interesting scenes of the pantomime. Miss Flora Macdonald as Fairy Great Heart also takes the attention of the audience, not only by her luminous presence and beauty of face and figure, but by her vocal and other accomplishments. Miss Mabel Thorne is a vivacious and sprightly Jack and Miss Marjorie Cecil a pretty and engaging Jill. Mr. Harry Levaine does not make the stage old woman too vulgar: Dame Wiggs, in this instance, consistently carries out his own advice in the "tag," "Have a bit of sense." Mr. P. Bathurst as King Usurpah fulfils requirements satisfactorily; and Misses Claire Brenton, Edie Brenton, Maggie Travers, Brenda Travers pose and dance, sing and chatter, after the approved fashion of the minor heroes and heroines of pantomime.

THE EMPIRE HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. H. Broadhead; Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy B. Broadhead; Resident Acting-Manager, Mr. W. Leech.—One capable company of variety stars succeeds another at this palace of pleasure week by week. This week's "bill" includes some interesting items. Bert and Dora are clever performers as "speciality" artists; we have an expert player of the drum in Dan Merritt; a change is introduced in Flora Lumière's new electrical fairy grotto, described as the most charming and beautiful act to be seen. The inventor and manager is Mr. J. D. Birteno, electrician. Little Clara Walters is a mistress of harmony; Harry Gray, calling himself the "Australian Nugget," is a really smart colonial comedian; the Hartley Wonders, including Arthur Hartley, champion all-round jumper of the world, introduce something new and novel; Grogie is extremely funny as the Sussex yokel; Maggie Walsh sings tunefully as the Lancashire singing mill girl; and a new song-scena is introduced by Carr and Rose, entitled "Catching the Catch of the Season." The bioscope depicts the doings of some Nihilists, a story of present-day life in Russia.

ATTERCLIFFE.—THEATRE ROYAL, LIMITED.—Managing-Director, Mr. F. Macnaghten; Resident-Manager, Mr. G. H. Beagle.—Messrs. Jazon and Warner's pantomime Aladdin is the attraction here this week, and, judging by the large audiences, who have received it with hearty applause, its success is assured. Mr. E. C. Jazon, the author, is to be complimented on his work, for it is smartly written. The title-rôle is well played by Miss Marie Braham, who makes a dashing principal boy; Miss Daisy Lane is a taking Princess Badroulbadour; and the parts of Petroe, Caramel, Bercour, and Nicee are safe in the hands of Misses Effie Morde, Florrie White, Flo Russell, and Ada Salida. Mr. Edwin C. Jazon is excellent as Abanazar; Mr. Harry Carmen is most humorous as Widow Twankey; Messrs. Mantell and Oval cause roars of laughter as Ping and Pong. Mr. Pete Vone as Snowball, Mr. Alfred Brooks as the Grand Vizier, Mr. Dan Romans as Demonico, Miss Pattie Holder as Gem of the Ring, and Miss Beatrice Sinclair as Slave of the Lamp, all contribute to the general success. Specialities are introduced by the Three Delaries, gymnasts; Salidi and Vone, dancers; Sisters Varley, vocalists; and Mantell and Oval, comedy cyclists. The chorus and orchestra are under the direction of Mr. A. Benhardt.

PALACE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietor, Mr. T. Allan Edwardes; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. Lacy Lyne; Assistant-Manager, Mr. J. Gibbons.—This week the "bill" is headed by Arthur Kenny, cyclist, who gives a daring and sensational performance; the Wallys contribute an excellent juggling act; George Brown, Yorkshire comedian, is well received in his dialect songs; Carlin is a gifted and marvellous foot equilibrist; Mr. E. C. Clayton's selections on the Palace Attergraph include a most interesting film, "The Squire's Daughter"; and a highly appreciated turn is provided by the Musical Saxonias. Tom Leo, comedian, and Kendrick and Laura, duettists and speciality dancers, also find much favour.

BACUP. — NEW COURT THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Frank Denman-Wood; Acting-Manager, Mr. Richard Nightingale.—The New Sapho Syndicate, Ltd., opened a week's engagement here on Monday with Sapho. The principal interest of the play centres round Fanny le Granda (Sapho), and Miss Annie Bell presents a powerful study of the title-rôle. Mr. Francis Serle is decidedly amusing as Cesaire; Mr. Pringle Roberts, as Jean Gausin, puts a wonderful amount of dramatic force into his interpretation; and a sound performance of Dechelette comes from Mr. Lawrence Kingsley. Flamant is satisfactorily portrayed by Mr. Duncan Bell. Father Legrand is ably depicted by Mr. Chas. M. Daly; and little Miss Doris E. Graham, as Josaph, is highly commendable.

BARROW-IN-FURNESS. — ROYALTY THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Hugh Robertson; Resident-Manager, Mr. George Stone.—The stirring American drama, At Cripple Creek, is drawing good houses here this week. As Joe Mayfield Mr. Hilliard Vox is a great success; he plays with much feeling and power. Mr. Walter Thornton as Martin Mason commands much admiration; Mr. R. Harley West gives a faithful portrayal of Wahketah, the Indian; and Mr. Albert Rodger is very humorous as the nigger Ben White. Miss Daisy Carlton as Maggie Mason is full of life; Miss May Straker gives a pleasing portrayal of Belle Gordon; Little Talto is a capital child character in the hands of Miss May Douglas, and Dynamite Ann is played in a powerful yet pleasing manner by Miss Vera Fordice.

HIS MAJESTY'S THEATRE.—Lessees and Managers, Mr. and Mrs. Calvert Routledge.—La Poupée is here this week, and is proving as popular as ever. The piece is staged and dressed in an admirable manner, and the company is one of all-round excellence, quite a number of the songs and choruses having to be repeated.

TIVOLI THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Sole Lessee and Manager, Signor Pepi; Stage-Manager, Mr. Tom Whiting.—The Salambos are at the top of the bill here this week and are giving a wonderful exhibition of electrical novelties; Larmo, the comedy juggler, creates quite a furore; the Two Eltons are a clever pair of bar performers; Fred Curran is a comedian with a quaint style quite his own; Miss Alice Maple renders her songs in a pleasing manner; Olivette and the Marblesque Trio are excellently received, and evidently afford much pleasure to the audience.

BARNSLEY.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Manager, Mr. A. C. Mitchell.—Mr. G. Testo Santé, the actor-athlete, in his novelty drama, The Life of a Showman, is here this week. He himself is seen to great advantage as Brien Leader, the strong man and circus acrobat; Sir Noel Hartland is successfully played by Mr. Charles Osborne; Mr. Logan Darra is an interesting villain as Hendrick Marais; and the Rev. Cyril Arliss is well presented by Mr. Edward Warden. Miss Amy McNeill exhibits skill and cleverness as the lady housekeeper, Agatha Winter; Lena Hartland is pathetically acted by Miss Enid French; and the comedy is well sustained by Miss May Neilson as Angelina Mutton. Mr. Frank Santé as Tommy Allthere and Mr. Ernest Turner as Ben Tic-Tac, A.B., are also effective.

BATH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Egbert Lewis; Acting-Manager, Mr. Lewis A. Long.—For the second week in succession Mr. Bannister Howard is supplying the attraction, this week's play being Hall Caine's drama The Eternal City. First honours are easily secured by Mr. D. Lewin Mannering as Baron Bonelli, his acting being excellent. Mr. Henry Deas and Miss Rona Merrick impersonate David Rossi and Donna Roma respectively, each presenting a well-studied portrayal. Pius XI. is enacted with due solemnity and reserve by Mr. J. Fortescue. Mr. Geo. Cartwright is convincing as Bruno Rocco. Mr. L. St. G. Lowther and Mr. F. C. Leighton do well as the Chief of Police and his spy. Miss Constance Stephens is quite satisfactory as the Princess Beltini. The piece is liberally staged, and Mascagni's special musical numbers are well rendered by the orchestra.

PALACE THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. Charles Schubert.—Bevan's Gordon Highlanders are paying a popular return visit here, their lightning drill act creating the usual enthusiasm. The Albano quartette of musical artists secure several encores for pleasing performance of popular melodies. The well-written and pathetic sketch The Little Colonel is admirably acted by Mr. Ernest Montefiore and his youthful companion Miss Lilian Rose, who receive capital support from Miss Belle Vickers. Ned Graydon, musical entertainer, is well received. Belle Braham with pictorial is always sure of a warm welcome; Miniature Marie's mimicry of well-known "stars" and her smart dancing are cordially recognised; the Delmars, vocal duettists, and Harry Lawson, comedian, have plenty of admirers; and Raymond's Bio-Tableaux remain a permanent attraction.

BEDFORD.—ROYAL COUNTY THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. E. Graham-Falcon; Acting-Manager, Mr. Walter R. Wilson.—Lovers of the drama are being entertained this week by Miss Frances Dalaval's company in Nita Rae's play, Her Lost Self. Mr. George Lyttleton powerfully depicts Wilfred Daventry; and Mr. Charles Kean successfully portrays the artist, Norman Esmond; Mr. Jack Henri gives a satisfactory interpretation of Paul Kimberley; Miss Frances Delaval presents in a powerful manner the part of the evil designing Philipine Marcell; and Miss M. Johnson pathetically represents Dorothy Daventry. The humour is well sustained by Miss Nellie Warden, as Bridget Mahone; Mrs. Edmund Lyons, as Rachel Cohen; Mr. L. W. Halfpenny, as Abraham Cohen; and Mr. Leslie York, as Tom Flyaway.

BELFAST.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Fred W. Warden; Acting-Manager, Mr. James M. McCann.—Mr. J. W. Whitbread's Irish company opened here on Monday with the romantic drama, Lord Edward; or '98. Mr. Robert Faulkner was a manly representative of Lord Edward; Mr. Ion Ireland acquitted himself well in the rôle of Francis Higgins; and roars of laughter greeted Mr. James O'Brien's impersonation of Thady McGrath. The iniquities of Francis Magan were realistically portrayed by that clever actor, Mr. Dane Clarke; and Miss Cecilia Dare was a charming Pamela. Miss Monica Kelly was a delightful Katey Malone; and Mr. James Daly was a thoroughly capable Neilson. The rôles of Napper Tandy and General Hoche were capitally portrayed by Messrs. R. Payne and Charles Boyle; and Mrs. E. F. Brady was quite equal to the responsibilities of Madame De Sillery. Other rôles were ably presented by Miss M. Hurst, Miss May Axon, Miss Ada Turner, Miss P. Marnard, and Messrs. H. Ryeland Leigh, G. Nolan, Alfred Danes, H. Richardson, &c. The Lord Edward Brass Band rendered several selections during the course of the piece. On Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday the evergreen Irish drama, The Shaughraun, was presented. The company is under the direction of Mr. Dane Clarke.

PALACE THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Fred W. Warden; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. P. Beardmore.—The success of the pantomime, Cinderella, continues unabated, delighted audiences showing their appreciation of Mr. Warden's annual in an unmistakable manner. Miss Empsie Bowman, in the title-rôle, has gained hosts of admirers by her delightful acting and sweet vocalism. Miss Olive Marston—happily recovered from her indisposition—gains a deserved ovation nightly for her rendering of "My Irish Molly O" and "Hear the Pipers Calling, Jenny Mine." Of the comedians, Mr. Fred Cary is one of the biggest favourites, securing a great reception. Mr. Russell Wallett's humour in the rôle of Mabelle is quite irresistible; and no one in the pantomime works harder than Miss Kitty Clinton, who as Dandini has made an undeniable hit, her singing of "Sally Ann" gaining her a deserved encore. The pantomime is certainly enjoying a prosperous run.

EMPIRE THEATRE OF VARIETIES, LIMITED.—General-Manager, Mr. Frank Allen; Acting-Manager, Mr. John A. Walker.—Vasco heads the bill, and has been most successful with his clever manipulation of many musical instruments; Marzella's birds exhibit much excellence, their feats being simply marvellous; and much amusement has been created by the Holles Golden trio in their attractive act, The Little Charwoman. Miss Ella Retford is a clever comedienne, with good songs, and her dancing is most attractive. Alexandra and Berthe appear to great advantage in their aerial act; and much applause has been extended to Les Ados for their remarkable feats of [illegible]ad and hand balancing. Tom[illegible]nd Flo Verno[illegible]n their smart comedy act, and [illegible]icknelle, clay[illegible]odeller, complete the programme.

NEW ALHAMBRA [illegible]TRE OF VARI[illegible].—General-Manager, Mr. Henry Downs.—Th[illegible]tic[illegible] top the bill, and have cre[illegible] quite a se[illegible] Tou[illegible] their ladder act. The [illegible]rous songs [illegible]tton, Lloyd gain a good recepti[illegible] and Mr. B[illegible] the swell comique, has a [illegible]al style. [illegible]usical speciality of Volp and [illegible]veland is [illegible]nly an acquisition to the bill, as a welco[illegible] return visit is being paid by Mr. Mark Boyle, the droll comedian. The sweet ballad voc[illegible]m of Miss Sadie Early commands success; and Mr. O. W. Watson exhibits much ability in his comic solos. Also here are Will Dalton, character comedian, and Miss Ada Whitton, male impersonator.

BILSTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. H. Battersby; Manageress, Miss Grace Battersby.—A good representation of The Power and the Glory is being given here by Ernest Cheney, Arthur C. Sanderson, and Miss Bessie Elba's company. The last-named artist portrays Kate Goodluck with excellent results; Mr. A. Fitzmaurice gives a sterling rendering of the [illegible]g sailor, Harry Goodluck; Mr. Reginald Fox shows tact in depicting Harold Hartrer; a good King of Sweden Mobsmen (Ferdinand Crape) is found in Mr. Victor R. C. Moors; and Miss May Loyett plays carefully as Lizzie Medwin. A word of praise is due to Miss Flo Florence, as the blind girl, Linda; to Miss Fanny Olive, as Lady Gwendoline Dyce Morris; to Miss M. Le Ray, as Bessie Goodluck; to Miss Lizzie Lennon, as May Goodluck; and to Messrs. Jack Bigwood and Henry Gilpin as the two apprentices.

BIRKENHEAD.—NEW THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee, Mr. W. W. Kelly; Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles Pell.—Mr. George Dance's company, in A Chinese Honeymoon, is attracting large and fashionable audiences. The representation is in every respect a most capable one, and the many strong points of the play are received with the keenest relish. Miss Minnie Leslie is an ideal Fi-Fi, and invests the rôle with charming dash and piquancy. The Emperor is finely played by Mr. St. John Hammond, who makes the most of his opportunities; Mr. Percy Russell is an excellent Lord Chancellor; Mr. Jack Lisle is inimitable as the Lord High Admiral; and Miss Harriette Greene, a local artist, as Mi-Mi acquits herself with much ability. Mr. L. Bullock Webster is well suited as Tom Hatherton; Mr. Pineapple is humorously rendered by Mr. Foster Courtenay; Miss Poppy Wilkinson is an admirable Mrs. Pineapple; and Mrs. Brown is well impersonated by Miss Edie Ross. Miss Ada Watson exhibits much vocal skill in the rôle of Soo-Soo.

ARGYLE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Manager, Mr. D. J. Clarke.—Merritt, the wonder-worker, in his clever illusionary entertainment, again heads the company here. Leading turns are also supplied by the Frantz Family, a marvellously clever troupe of acrobats; Rastus and Brown, in The Major and the Maid; Mr. Harry Anderson, a comedian of undoubted ability; Miss Helen Charles, an exceptionally clever vocalist and mimic; Hallam and Stanton, in their amusing sketch, A Broken Journey; the Brothers Ashley, in a comic boxing sketch; Mr. Walter Everson, an energetic and able comedian; and Miss Winnie Derson, a pleasing comedienne.

BIRMINGHAM.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing Director, Mr. Tom B. Davis; Acting-Manager, Mr. Philip Rodway.—Aladdin has settled down to regular good business, as it deserved to do, and is undoubtedly destined to continue in the bill for many weeks to come.

PRINCE OF WALES'S THEATRE.—Lessees, Messrs. Rodgers, Limited; Manager, Mr. J. F. Graham; Acting-Manager, Mr. Henry Johnston.—Cinderella receives an excellent greeting from a crowded house at every performance, and a lucrative run seems assured for this entertaining and ornate production.

GRAND THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. J. W. Turner; Manager, Mr. Victor Turner.—The Sleeping Beauty remains in favour here with large audiences nightly.

ALEXANDRA THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Lester Collingwood; Acting-Manager, Mr. Fred Bernardo.—Elue Beard fully holds its own, both in popularity and merit, the public carrying its approval to great lengths of enthusiasm.

METROPOLE THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Andrew Melville.—Driven from Home, with new local scenery and effects, has been produced here this week, with marked success, by the Metropole company stationed here. Mr. Frederick Sandy besides acting with fine force as David Wilson, shows his good work in the stage-management. Mr. Felix Pitt is conspicuous by his sound acting as Anthony Raybrook; Mr. Frederick Harker scores as Geoffrey Waring; Mr. Herbert Humphreys shows good ability as Walter Hatherleigh; Mr. Howard Tracey shines as George Clissold; Mr. Andrew Emm (Melville) makes a prominent character of the outcast Willie; Mr. Harry Liddle displays a humorous bent as the stable boy; Miss Frances Ruttledge acts with much sympathy as Laura; and the Misses Florence Nelson, Evelyn Marrable, Muriel Alleyne, Messrs. Clifford Bown, and Harry Cornwall lend valuable aid.

CARLTON THEATRE, SALTLEY.—Owner and Manager, Mr. Arthur Carlton; Resident-Manager, Mr. James Alexander.—Her Luck in London is noticed elsewhere in our columns.

THEATRE ROYAL, ASTON.—Lessee, Mr. Charles Barnard; General-Manager, Mr. E. Hewitson; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Whittles. — Little Bo-Peep, which is presented on a delightful scale of elegance by Mr. J. Gar. Kiddie, has met with crowded houses nightly. Miss Lizzie Payne enacts the heroine with much charm and success; Miss Susie Beaven sings, dances, and acts with pleasant abandon as Boy Blue; Miss Bessie Frank scores in the song "My Irish Molly," and fills the rôle of Margery Daw with distinguished success; and the Solon Trio, the Pem Quartette, and the Hammersley ballet troupe lend charm and spirit to the show. Mr. Dawson Dewick works well in the comic interest as the Baron; Mr. J. W. Groves is indefatigable as Granny Brown; and Miss Melinda May, as the dashing Lord de Rhino, and Messrs. Harry Wren, Stern, and Stern, and Gilroy and Ross are favourites. An extensive company supports the above.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Resident-Manager, Mr. A. W. Matcham.—The capital programme presented this week is headed by Bella and Bijou, whose refined entertainment is loudly applauded, as also are Sydney James's Strolling Players. Mendel, the blind pianist, is a talented musician; Cecil Lidden and Elsie Hayward have a smart musical absurdity entitled The Midnight Express; the juggling of Walter Bellonini is exceedingly smart; some graceful dances are executed by the Sisters Kauffman; and the Five Olracs, Sam Redfern, and Park's Eton Boys add to the brightness of the programme.

GAIETY THEATRE.—General-Manager, Mr. Albert Bushell.—With Florrie Forde at the head of affairs, needless to say that crowded houses have been the result. Her rendering of "Susannah's got money" is repeatedly encored, and she has also given four of her other popular songs. The Ten Genis are seen in an exceptionally smart Risley act; Tate and Tate are applauded for their acrobatic display; the gymnastic act of Stelling and Revell is of a humorous nature; H. F. Wilson renders his descriptive songs with good effect; Childie Stuart is a dainty comedienne; and Charles Mildare is a popular whistling comedian.

HIPPODROME.—Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Barrasford.—Miss Dolly Elsworthy and company are appearing in an original version of "Nell Gwyn" entitled The Orange Girl. The piece is well written, and the acting all round far above the average. The title-rôle is in the hands of Miss Elsworthy, who is enthusiastically received. Lydia Yeamans, who is in excellent voice, displays astonishing versatility in her imitations of singers, from the poorest to the highest. The George Power Comedy Combination has an amusing sketch, Matrimonial Bliss; the Sisters Lytton are captivating vocalists; and the Waldrons in their comedy act, The Silly Burglar, Bert Weston, Frances Drew, and Davis and Davis add to the attractiveness of the programme.

BORDESLEY PALACE.—Resident-Manager, Mr. Edward Foster.—Fred Storey and company are this week presenting Rip Van Winkle, which is attracting packed houses. Mr. Storey gives a clever study of Rip. Kokin is a Japanese juggler of a high order, his tricks being most skilful; the Amaranths, three clever acrobatic dancers from La Belle France, win loud applause; the Bohemians have a refined musical entertainment; Jessie Burnett sings herself into favour; and the Venola Bros. have a humorous gymnastic display.

1906. OF ALL BOOKSELLERS AND BOOKSTALLS. 1906.

Thirty-ninth Year of Publication.

THE ERA ANNUAL

IS THE MOST COMPLETE

Dramatic Dictionary of Dates and Theatrical Treasury of Knowledge

EVER BROUGHT BEFORE THE PUBLIC.

It is the most interesting Annual of the Year, containing as it does MANY STORIES told by Members of the DRAMATIC and MUSICAL PROFESSIONS.

ILLUSTRATED BY PHOTOGRAPHS AND AUTOGRAPHS.

READY MONDAY NEXT, JANUARY 15.

THIRTY-NINTH YEAR OF PUBLICATION.
Price, ONE SHILLING; by Post, TWELVE STAMPS.

1906—THE ERA ANNUAL—1906
The Most Complete
DRAMATIC DICTIONARY OF DATES
and
THEATRICAL TREASURY OF KNOWLEDGE
ever brought before the Public.
It will also be found to be the most Interesting Annual of the Year.
Office, 5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, STRAND, W.C.

STAGE SUPERSTITIONS.
By CHARLES WARNER.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

"BOY BOB" AT SEA.
By LOUIE FREEAR.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

"THERE'S MANY A SLIP."
By FRANK CURZON.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

NELLIE BLIGH'S NOTICES.
By FRANK DESPREZ.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

THE GROWTH OF LOVE.
By TOM CRAVEN.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

THE VAGRANT.
By WILLIAM DEVEREUX.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

THE WRONG SEX.
By AUSTIN MELFORD.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

THE STAGE-STRUCK SAUSAGE-MAKER.
By MARK A. KINGHORNE.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

MY FIRST NOTICE.
By CHARLES ROCK.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

THE VALUE OF VIRTUE.
By E. W. GARDEN.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

STAGE DOORS.
By E. M. ROBSON.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

MY OPENING NIGHT.
By BLAKE ADAMS.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

READY MONDAY NEXT, JANUARY 15.

PRICE ONE SHILLING

PRICE,

ONE SHILLING,

By Post, Twelve Stamps.

READY MONDAY NEXT, JANUARY 15.

DEARER THAN LIFE.
By DORA GRAY.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

THE LAST MUSTER.
By JOSEPH WILSON.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

LANDLADIES I HAVE MET.
By EUGENE STAFFORD.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

MY FAVOURITE PART.
By VESTA TILLEY.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

THE DARK SEANCE.
By JOHN LAWSON.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

GOD'S GREATEST GIFT.
By ALEXANDRA DAGMAR.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

SOFTPEDAL'S LIMITATIONS.
By JOHN P. HARRINGTON.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

SONG OF THE STROLLING SINGERS.
By FRED BOWYER.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

THE OLD PIANO.
By LUSCOMBE SEARELLE.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

NEW PIECES PRODUCED
ALPHABETICAL LIST OF
AT THE LONDON THEATRES.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

NEW PIECES PRODUCED
ALPHABETICAL LIST OF
AT THE PROVINCIAL THEATRES.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906

NEW PIECES PRODUCED
AT THE PARIS THEATRES.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

NEW PIECES PRODUCED
AT THE BERLIN THEATRES.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

THEATRES AND MUSIC HALLS
IN THE UNITED KINGDOM.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

THEATRICAL, MUSICAL, AND EQUESTRIAN OBITUARY FOR 1905.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

DRAMATIC and MUSICAL CALENDAR.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

READY MONDAY NEXT, JANUARY 15.

Address, THE PUBLISHER,

TAVISTOCK STREET, STRAND, LONDON, W.C.

Telephone: No. FOUR—SEVEN—FOUR—SEVEN CENTRAL.

BISHOP AUCKLAND. — EDEN THEATRE. — Lessees, Messrs. R. Addison, Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. R. Addison; Acting-Manager and Secretary, Mr. John Huntley. — Messrs. Little and Darcy's company is on a welcome visit here with The Forty Thieves, the first pantomime of the season. Miss Minnie Silcott is seen to great advantage as Abdallah, the Captain of the Forty; Ali Baba is in the capable hands of Mr. George Rapley. Miss Violet Silcott gains much favour as Ganem; Miss Marie Silcott makes a graceful Morgiana; as Cogia Baba Mr. James Ferguson is very amusing; Cassim Baba is well portrayed by Mr. Ted Wootton; Mr. Conley is clever as Hasadric; and Mr. Malone is an amusing Hassarac. The famous Daunton Shaw troupe is responsible for a marvellous and brilliant performance; the Three Henriques are also important factors in the success.

BLACKBURN.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor, Mr. Harry Yorke; Business Manager, Mr. Reginald Yorke.—Dick Whittington and His Cat occupies the boards this week. Miss Madge Merry makes a dashing Dick Whittington, and is ably seconded by Miss Winifred Preece as Alice. Mr. Walter Wade as Idle Jack is very humorous, and introduces agreeable variety in the shape of a sentimental ballad, which is ably rendered. Mr. William Kashma is an active representative of the cat, his antics being highly appreciated by the juvenile portion of the audience. Specialities are contributed by Miss Effie White, Fire-dancer; the Thalian Glee-singers; the Kashma's; the Sisters Vincent; and Les Sprays, Continental dancers. The scenery and dresses are all that can be desired.

PALACE THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. Will Murray.—Howard and Harris appear in a clever sketch, The Adventures of a Happy Tramp; Caselli and James are expert banjo-players; another excellent musical turn is furnished by Handel and Lee; a very good exhibition of rapid portrait-painting is given by Speedwell; the Seddons as the lady juggler and comic waiter cause much amusement; Spencer and Marks are a pair of smart comedians; Ford Williams has a powerful base voice, which he uses to advantage; the Smythsons appear in a laughable sketch; and Raymond's Bio Tableaux show some fresh pictures.

BLACKPOOL.—HER MAJESTY'S OPERA HOUSE.—General-Manager, Mr. J. R. Huddlestone. — Mr. Louis Calvert's company is paying a most welcome visit here this week with Dr. Wake's Patient. Mr. Herbert Ross scores a success as Duff Wynterden, and Mr. Douglas Vigors cleverly represents Dr. Forrester Wake. The Earl of St. Olbyn finds a capable exponent in Mr. Arthur Willoughy, the Bishop of Selby is carefully presented by Mr. Alfred Phillips, and Andrew Wake has a very able exponent in Mr. Alfred Wellesley. The part of Lady Gerania is played with great charm by Miss Olive Terry; Miss Ina Pelly is well suited as Countess St. Olbyn; Miss Amy Fanchette as Mrs. Wake and Miss Beatrice Webb as Harriet Bronson are also good. The play is most effectively staged.

GRAND THEATRE.—Owner and Manager, Mr. T. Lergenson. — Are You a Mason? played by Mr. Charles Macdona's company, is paying another visit here, and meeting with a most cordial reception nightly. Mr. E. H. Paterson as Amos Bloodgood, Mr. H. Langdon Bruce as Frank Perry, Mr. Allan Pollock as George Fisher, and Mr. Richard Purdon as John Halton all make the most of their opportunities. Miss Adelaide Grace merits praise for a clever portrayal of Mrs. Bloodgood, and Miss Mabel Younge makes a sweet and charming Eva. Other parts are also in good hands.

PALACE. — General - Manager, Mr. G. H. Harrop; Acting-Manager, Mr. Fred Waller.—The combination engaged here this week includes Jennie Johns, a new and rising burlesque artist; W. J. Ashcroft, aryama, Harry Leybourne, Amandus, Percy Honri, W. L. Murray, Ethel Dunford, George Collins, and the Sisters Melba.

BLYTH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. George E. Good.—Mr. Frank Lindo, supported by an excellent company, has paid a successful visit here with the popular drama, entitled Home, Sweet Home. In the hands of the clever actor-manager the part of the young fisherman, Stephen Armitage, stands out prominently. Miss Wakeford, in the character of Joan, at once becomes a favourite with the audience.

BOLTON. — THEATRE ROYAL, LTD. — Managing-Director, Mr. J. F. Elliston.—Mr. Elliston's twenty-fifth annual pantomime, Beauty and the Beast, is continuing a successful career since its production on the 1st inst. The various artists have now settled down to their respective parts. Miss Florence Burns is very sprightly as the Prince Greatheart; Miss Nellie Randall is striking as Silver Button, and Miss Edie Rivers is charming as Beauty. The Eldorado Girls do some dainty dancing; Burley and Burley are clever as contortionists, and Baroni and Kemp are smart quick-change artists.

GRAND THEATRE, LTD.—Managing Director, Mr. J. F. Elliston; Acting-Manager, Mr. Harry Kenyon.—The company here comprises Mr. Charles Parker's Æolians (six in number); Miss Minnie Cunningham, comedienne; J. P. Carroll, tambourinist; the Harlem Bros., sand dancers, &c.; Carney and Armstrong, speciality artists; Maud Edwards, lady ventriloquist; Linton, in a cable act; F. S. Hulme, actor vocalist; Cyrus Dare, Society humorist; Charles Fanning, comedian; Henry Carlton's sketch, One Night Only, and the Imperial Bioscope.

BOOTLE.—MUNCASTER THEATRE. — Proprietors, Messrs. Pennington; Manager, Mr. H. Pennington; Acting-Manager, Mr. Albert E. Wilson.—This week the boards are occupied by Miss Winifred Maude and company in The Stowaway. Mr. Royce Carlton gives an excellent rendering of Tom Inglis; Mr. Arthur E. Pringle is exceptionally good as Charles Etherington; Miss Winifred Maude soon wins the sympathy of the audience by her refined rendering of Althea Dale, and Miss Amy Corallie as Chucky, a London newsboy, is a favourite, her songs being well received; Mr. Victor-du-Cane keeps the house in a state of merriment as Dicky Dials, and his songs are much appreciated.

BOURNEMOUTH.—THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE.—Sole Proprietors, David Allen and Son; Sole Lessee, Mr. Mouillot; Manager, Mr. Rowland Stewart.—Mr. George Dance's company in The Little Michus is this week playing to large and enthusiastic audiences. Miss Alice Coverick and Miss Grace Sinclair have good voices, and act the part of the Little Michus exceedingly well; Miss Maisie Gay as Madame Michu gives a capital performance, and with Mr. T. E. Conover as Pierre Michu contributes largely towards the success of the piece; Mr. Leslie Holland as General des Ifs appears in a part which gives him many opportunities of displaying his undoubted powers as a comedian; he is strongly supported by Mr. Cecil Clayton as Bagnolet and Mr. D. FitzGibbon as Aristide. Mr. Gerald Clifford is a capital Gaston. The company includes Mdlle. Marjorie, who as Mdlle. St. Cyr delights the house by her graceful dancing.

BRADFORD. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Lessee, Mr. John Hart; General-Manager, Mr. T. F. Doyle; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. Richardson.—Mother Goose, with its wealth of fun, beautiful scenery, and stage effects, charming music, and striking and costly dresses, bids fair to take its place amongst the many of Mr. Hart's very successful productions in the way of pantomime. The members of the company have settled down to their work, and the audiences which crowd the theatre are very appreciative.

PRINCE'S THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. F. Laidler; Acting-Manager, Mr. N. Hepworth.—Dick Whittington's run here is a very merry one; brightness is the prominent feature of Mr. Laidler's most successful effort in the direction of pantomime. The fun never flags, and the crowded audiences are loud in their marks of appreciation of the company's unsparing efforts and the pretty scenery.

ST. GEORGE'S HALL.—Manager, Mr. C. Carter.—Little Bo-Peep ends her merry reign here with the present week. The audiences have been very appreciative of Mr. Carter's efforts in providing a bright and pretty entertainment, and they have not failed to recognise the praiseworthy energy displayed by the company.

THE EMPIRE.—Moss' Empires, Limited; Resident-Manager, Mr. Percival Craig.—Marie Duma, an accomplished soprano vocalist, heads the programme here this week with songs most effectively rendered. Little Katie Butler, in winsome style, contributes an amusing song. A novel acrobatic and contortionist act by Genaro and Theol contains many new and clever features. Maydue Cruikshanks and company present an Irish sketch, Bridget's Idea, which has the merit of being well acted. In a funny absurdity, Convicts at Large, Burns and Burns do some smart work. Horace White, the clever ventriloquist and pianist, with his mechanical figures, is on a welcome return visit. Gallando gives a clever turn as a lightning sculptor in clay. In her vigorous and effective style Fanny Robina makes a hit as a comedienne. Driscoll, Beattie, and company, who are retained again this week, present another of their comedy sketches successfully; and the American Bioscope exhibits some entertaining films.

PALACE THEATRE.—Lessee, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Resident-Manager, Mr. H. C. Arnold, jun.—With some capital American-Dutch humour, Reilly and Taylor, comedians, open the programme here this week, followed by the Four Avocas, who re-appear in their excellent vocal and dramatic sketch, The Reckless Miner. Clara Victor is an accomplished vocalist who wins hearty appreciation. Rae and Lea come next with a clever performance on the rings and capital comedy. Lottie Lennox follows with charming costumes and good songs. L. B. Athol succeeds with a characteristic song sung in effective style. An interesting and pretty turn is given by Les Bollingers, who present pictures in rags, and they are followed by Harry Tate in his funny sketch, Motoring; and Raymond's Bio-Tableaux present some pretty films.

BRIDLINGTON.—ROYAL VICTORIA THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. Charles Palmer.—Miss Lena Stanton's company is appearing here this week in the pantomime Robinson Crusoe, which is played by an excellent company of artists, foremost amongst whom stands Miss Lena Stanton, whose portrayal of Crusoe is one of the best we have ever seen. She works hard to secure the success of the pantomime. Miss Minnie Melbah is charming in the part of Polly; her singing is good and her dancing a great treat. In the character of Mrs. Crusoe, Mr. Bruce Green gives a good rendering of the part of the Dame, and his clever business keeps the house in roars of laughter. Little Keeno adds greatly to the laurels he gained here last year, his funny pranks and amusing songs taking immensely, whilst his dancing, especially in the cake-walk song, ably assisted by Miss Carrie Herbert, is one of the hits of the evening. Miss Nellie Maxwell is a dashing Captain Taylor; Miss Dolly Richardson a pleasing Princess, and Miss Marie Lowe an engaging Lord Chamberlain. Mr. George Melbah supplies plenty of fun in his character of Friday, and with Minnie Melbah gives a noval musical turn. Mr. Bob Beirne as Davy Jones, jun., is amusing; and Mr. Will Terry in the part of the Blighted Blinker is responsible for some hearty laughter. The King Kopp-em of Mr. Dennis Syndon is excellent. The clever dancing of the Orient Troupe of lady acrobatic dancers deserves mention; and the speciality turns include J. and Ginger in an amusing ventriloquial turn; La Belle Roma on the silver wire; the Drofias in a good juggling act; and Miss Nina in her graceful trapeze and ring performance. Mr. Charles Ambler is an able musical director.

BRIGHTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. H. Cecil Beryl; Assistant-Manager, Mr. Harcourt M. Beryl. Mr. Frank Curzon's company is here this week with Sergeant Brue. Mr. Percy Clifton sustains the title-character in very amusing style; Mr. George Barrett submits a clever and humorous character study as Crookie Scrubbs; Mr. Charles Hanbury makes an excellent Michael Brue; and Miss Constance Lait is a bright and attractive Aurora Brue; Miss Violet Dene is well suited as Lady Birkenhead, while Mr. A. E. E. Edwards' Mr. Crank, Mr. Harold Montague's Inspector of Police, and Miss Eva Erskine's Daisy are admirably played. Miss Mabel Weir and Mr. Ivor Harvey contribute a capital pas de deux. The full chorus and augmented orchestra acquit themselves admirably under the direction of Mr. Ernest Harman.

GRAND THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Ernest Carpenter.—The pantomime Robinson Crusoe continues its merry career here, and is attracting good houses. Miss May Mars, a handsome and charming Robinson Crusoe, is a great favourite; Miss Rosalie Jacobi's Polly Perkins is a warmly appreciated impersonation, while the comic element, sustained by Mr. Walter Kooney (Will Atkins), and Mr. Harry Karr (Dick Deadeye), adds materially to the enjoyment of the audience. Praise must also be accorded to Mr. Allan Wye, who is a droll Mrs. Crusoe; to Mr. Ernest Laws and Miss Winifred Norman for their songs, and to Miss Maud Percy and Mr. Edgar Budden for their dancing.

ALHAMBRA.—Managing-Director, Mr. J. L. Graydon; General-Manager, Mr. Ernest Lepard.—An entertaining programme is sustained here this week. Albert Wyndham and company are very effective in the Shakespearean episode Shylock, Mr. Wyndham (Shylock), Mr. Henry Gilby (Antonio), Mr. Herbert Fox (Bassanio), Mr. Charles Whitley (Duke), Miss Maud Nichols (Portia), and Mr. Pateman (Nerissa) give admirable impersonations. The Four Figaros are well received in their speciality act Ten Minutes on the Continent; the Lorrisons are smart eccentrics; Brull and Hemsley as "the dainty damsel and the dancing dude" are warmly applauded; Harry Walker, the talking entertainer, is very droll; the Allisons are capital duettists and dancers; Walker and Lake, comedians, submit a pleasing turn; the Folkestones, in their novelty The Channel Swimmers, and Gladys Mavius, the Canadian girl, find much favour, and the Alhambrascope pictures are interesting.

HIPPODROME THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietors, Messrs. Barrasford and Smith; Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Barrasford.—There is an excellent company here this week. Mirzah, "the man in green," is a very clever banjoist; Miss May Yohe contributes a very pleasing turn; Bessie Goodwin and her little piccaninnies are warmly received; Mons. Coram, ventriloquist, is entertaining; Otto and Olga are clever in song and mock opera; Grahame and Harrington are highly successful in a dramatic episode, A Daughter of Pleasure; Arthur Reece contributes some capital songs; Cherry Lass is a pleasing comedienne and smart step dancer; Rumbo Austin and Harry Bedford are effective comedians; and the Barrascope pictures add to the attractiveness of the programme.

WEST PIER. — Secretary and Entertainment Manager, Mr. A. D. Norman.—The Cherry Girl is doing good business here. Miss Ellaline Cragie makes a delightful Queen, and Mr. G. Langford Kirby is distinctly successful as Moonshine and Happy Jack.

AQUARIUM.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. J. J. Sallmayer; Entertainment-Manager, Mr. John Henderson.—The fairy play pantomime Robin Hood runs capitally here. Miss Millie Henderson as Robin Hood, and Miss Susie Rusholme as Maid Marian are popular; Mr. Coningsby Brierley's Friar Tuck is admirably played, and much fun is provided by Newham and Latimer (Society entertainers).

BRISTOL.—PRINCE'S THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. James Macready Chute.—Mother Goose is drawing crowded houses at each performance, and all the leading artists are very popular.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Ernest Carpenter; Resident-Manager, Mr. W. F. Crowe.—There is but little to report here further than Goody Two Shoes is attracting good houses.

EMPIRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Barrasford.—Charles Coborn holds the leading position on the programme; he sings three songs in his old and inimitable style, and is very warmly appreciated by all parts of the house. The Ergotti and King Luis Troupe of Risley Acrobats present a fine act in their line; Nancy St. John, comedienne and dancer, sings pleasingly and dances with considerable ability; Brown and Nixon, eccentric comedians and dancers, obtain applause; E. J. Wilkes and his clever dog Woof do an interesting and pretty turn; Charles Stewart's company score heavily in a sketch, The Water Cure; Alix Lukos, actor-vocalist, has a fine speciality, Pictures in the Fire, to which he does full justice; the Jansons are successful in a novel gymnastic act; the Falcons have a good acrobatic comedy act; Fred Keeton, comedian, amuses with eccentric comedy; and Tom Yorke is highly successful as a coster comedian. The performance concludes with a good display of animated pictures projected by the Barrascope.

PALACE.—Resident-Manager, Mr. Horace Livermore; Secretary and Treasurer, Mr. F. J. V. Welchman. — The Kellinos in their speciality, A Fête in Venice, in which music, dancing, and clever Risley acrobatic feats are introduced, head the programme, and obtain much applause. J. H. Milburn, comedian, does a good turn, and is always popular here; Ethel Loftus, comedienne, is pleasing; Gus Barra, musical comedian, is appreciated; the Steinway Quartette have a good song scena, Songs of the Sea; Charles Collette does an excellent turn, his speciality, "Hard Luck," obtaining much applause; Kitty Clover's comedy company scores with the farce, Mistaken Identity; and Silent Tait does some clever comedy conjuring. The performance concludes with a new series of Vernon's excellent animated pictures.

COLSTON HALL.—Mr. Joseph Poole's popular Myriorama continues to attract a large attendance. The variety company is a strong one, including a fine aerial show by the Flying Rixfords.

BROMLEY.—LYRIC THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Arthur Carlton; Resident-Manager, H. Strong.—A very successful visit has been made this week by Miss Rose Moncrieff's company, in the pantomime, Sinbad the Sailor. The book, which has been written by Mr. Newman Maurice, follows the story very closely, and is performed by a capable company. Miss Rose Moncrieff is charming as Sinbad, and is very successful, both in singing and dancing; Miss Emily Harlowe is an excellent Sadie. The comic element is very much to the fore, the chief honours falling to Mr. Sam Poluski, jun., a chip of the old block, as Sinbad, the sailor; the two O'Gormans, as Diggles and Daggles; and Mr. Bert Collins, as Mrs. Sinbad. Mr. Joe Lyons is sufficiently dramatic as Vanderdecken; the old man of the sea is powerfully played by Mr. J. E. Manning; Mr. James Graydon caused much merriment as the Caliph; Miss Emmie Waite is well placed as Captain Selim, and Yosan is safe in the hands of Miss Grace Rosaire. The pantomime is adequately mounted, and smartly dressed. The performance is brought to a close with a rollicking old fashioned harlequinade, by Mr. Tom O'Gorman, as Clown, Mr. J. O'Gorman, pantaloon, Mr. A. Wills, as harlequin, Mr. Stanley Vincent, as policeman, and Miss Ethel Ardell, as Columbine.

BROUGHTON.—VICTORIA, LIMITED.—Managing-Director, Mr. James W. Haworth; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. Fred. Watson.—The sensational domestic drama, When Woman Hates, is presented this week by Miss Nettie Ware and Millar Anderson's company. Miss Leah Marlborough as Cora Daintry makes a deep impression, and Mr. Frank Eaglesfield as Godfrey Lawton is well suited. The hero and heroine, Lieutenant Fred Rokeby and Marie Rokeby, are successfully represented by Mr. J. Leighton Leigh and Miss Louisa Peach. Miss Gladys Lloyd's Edith Rokeby is a clever study; much comic business is introduced by Mr. J. P. Marsden as Patrick O'Brien; and Mr. Percy Braithwaite as Alphonse. Miss Emily Constance as Mrs. Potts and Miss Helen Richmond as Miss Sally Potts, Mr. Alfred Grenville as Colonel Hiram Vancutson, and Mr. W. R. Winning as General Rokeby are well placed.

BURNLEY.—VICTORIA OPERA HOUSE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. W. C. Horner.—In spite of political interest, Mr. Smith is again drawing excellent audiences at the above house. Mr. H. Hamilton Stuart, in the title-rôle, is responsible for an easy and natural performance; Mr. Sidney Price is a typical Earl of Oxted; Mr. Walter Dunlop gives a clever portrayal of the Duke of Angleland; Mr. Rupert Stutfield is very good as Dudley Dysart; and Mr. Austin Spencer as Jack Berkeley does well. Mr. Herbert Bentone is a most amusing and characteristic Herr Anheuser; Miss Phyllis Relph is distinctly American as Ruth Anheuser; Miss May Relph is an aristocratic Duchess of Angleland; and Miss Gwladys Morris is a charming Lady Mary. Mrs. Alfred Davis is quite successful as Mrs. Smith.

GAIETY THEATRE.—Proprietress, Mrs. T. Culeen; General-Manager, Mr. James E. Culeen.—The attraction here this week is Mr. T. Edward Ward's company in Her Wedding Day. Mr. Percy Brown presents a smart sketch of Harold Saxby; Mr. S. Herbert Humber effectively plays the part of Weedon Kenyon; Mr. H. Maxwell Payne does good work as Seth Mason; Mr. Morris Maude is very amusing as Jordon P. Jessop; Mr. and Mrs. Cackles as presented by Mr. F. Yamold and Miss Ettie Spalding are very acceptable; and Miss Beatrice Sinclair is excellent as Dolly Klink. Miss Ward gives a delicate and pleasing performance as Madge Conway; and the Dora of Miss Eva Bertram is a capital performance.

EMPIRE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. W. C. Horner.—A programme of general excellence is offered here this week, headed by Robbins, the trick cyclist, who can easily perform tricks which would almost seem to be impossible. Needless to say, he is greeted with loud cheering. The Brothers Wynford are a pair of athletes who perform some wonderful jumping feats; Rose Elliot sings several songs in a pleasant and catchy manner, as also does Mabel La Blanche. The Four Juggling Geraldos are experts in the matter of club and hoop manipulation; Pueblo and Cropp, Creole speciality artists, are very acceptable; Charles R. Whittle convulses the audience with his singing of "Billy Muggins," and Raymond's Bio-Tableaux are very amusing with "The City Man's Busy Day."

BURTON-ON-TRENT. — NEW THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietors, Messrs. Bennett; Acting-Manager, Mr. John Waller.—The Moore-Kennedy company is here for the week with Dick Whittington. The ever-popular pantomime is represented by a good cast, and is favourably received. A dashing and pleasing Dick is found in Mdlle. Lucretia, the possessor of a tuneful voice and an expert top-boot dancer. Mr. Hiam Long makes the most of Alderman Fitzwarren, and in his clever musical show meets with applause. Mr. Dan Agar (Idle Jack), Mr. Clarence Turner (Captain Bunting), Mr. A. Behan (Betsy Mary Ann), and Doyle and Massey (Shuffle and Shirk) keep the ball of fun rolling, the latter couple being responsible for a most amusing boxing bout. Mons. Paulette shows distinct sagacity as Tibby the Cat, and also appears with success in a marvellous bicycle exhibition. Miss Mollie Revell is a charming Fairy Queen; and the same may be said of the Sisters Dudley, as Fairy Goodchild and Fairy Hyacinth respectively. The Sisters Behan shine also as Alky and Polly; the Emperor of Morocco is well placed in Mr. Cecil Terry; Miss Lily Townshend is dainty as Princess Charming; and Miss Molly Ager (Viscount Piccadilly) and Miss M. Leonard (Maid Marian) both do well. Alice Fitzwarren is a pleasing and winsome character in the hands of Miss Vera Snowden. The Palais Royal Quartette of dancers appear with evident success. The scenic and special effects are up-to-date, and a transformation scene with harlequinade concludes a really good show.

BURY (LANCS).—THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE, LTD.—General-Manager, Mr. Otto C. Culling.—Mr. J. W. Turner's Opera Company is paying its annual visit here this week. On Monday The Daughter of the Regiment was played. Mr. Sydney Clifford acted and sang well as Sergeant Sulpice; Mr. Charles Le Sueur gave a good rendering of Tonio; Hortensio was excellently played by Mr. Richard Cummings; Miss Kitty Brownless was a charming Marie (she has a sweet voice, and her numbers were deservedly applauded); and Miss Winifred Knightley was excellent as the Countess. Martha, The Bohemian Girl, The Lily of Killarney, Faust, and Maritana are in the week's bill.

CIRCUS OF VARIETIES.—General-Manager, Mr. Otto C. Culling.—There is a capital programme here this week, and the turns include Belloni's amusing and highly trained cockatoos; Frank Hartley, juggler; Valvero, a lightning sketch artist; Lillian and Vera, crack shots; Freda Sprv and B. S. Monti, humorists; Fred Lester, vocalist; J. W. Hall, vocalist; and Frances Warren.

THE HIPPODROME.—Proprietors Messrs. W. Broadhead and Sons; Manager, Mr. W. Broadhead, jun.—Good fare is again provided here. Tom White's Arabs give an amusing turn. The Donatos, one-legged clowns; Winora, a clever shooter; Jack Hylton, eccentric comedian; Vere and Royal, comedy artists; the Two Neros, acrobats; Marie Blythe, comedienne; and the Two Whites, coons, are all good.

CAMBRIDGE. — NEW THEATRE. — Managing-Director, Mr. W. B. Redfern, J.P., D.C.—Milton Bode's pantomime, The Babes in the Wood, is here for the week, and a very excellent one it is. The company is strong all round and the scenery is all that can be wished. Miss Ernestine Desborough as Prince Rupert is good, singing several fresh songs; Miss Florence Arnold makes a lively Rose; Miss Kitty Tims with very fine appearance shows to advantage as Tommy; Mr. Happy Attwood makes a capital Bumble and is very funny; the Brothers Brooks do capitally as the robbers Gentle George and Cheerful Charlie; Mr. Percy Dawsone creates fun as Maria Slapp; the two children Reggy and Cissy are well impersonated by Miss Renee Reel and Miss Daisy Connell. Mr. Will Harman also works hard and with success as William Buttons. The chorus is good, and among the special features introduced are Cyclo, a clever trick cyclist; the Cameron Glee Quartette; and the Bellong Brothers, who as acrobats are exceptionally smart.

CARDIFF.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Robert Redford.—Robinson Crusoe has entered upon the third week of a successful run, and next week will be the close. There is such a delightful smoothness about the pantomime now, and such fresh and novel business has been introduced, that the theatre is packed. Miss Cassie Walmer easily captivates and charms everyone by her graceful and "goey" rendering of the dusky Empress. Miss Veronica Brady and Miss Masie Ellinger are very popular as principal girl and boy; Miss Lily Beverley as Lieut. Bobs and Miss Blanche Courtney as Jennie Hopkins are also favourites. As Man Friday Larola is earning a very lasting reputation as one of the cleverest of jugglers. The comedians are thoroughly at home in their respective parts, and Messrs. Tom Owen, Frank Couch, and Downs and Langford keep the house in a merry mood. Mr. Clifford Morgan is making friends every night by his exceptionally fine baritone singing. The chorus and orchestra do excellent work.

KING'S THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Frank Bateman; Business-Manager, Mr. Reg. Grant.—A Modern Adventuress is being presented here by the author, Mr. Lingford Carson, and is proving an attractive and stirring drama. The company is an all-round strong one, the principal characters being very cleverly portrayed. Mr. Leonard Ardele as Pietro Donelli, an Italian sculptor, gives a capital delineation, while Miss Kate Fronde as Violet Meredith enacts the trying part of the modern adventuress with undoubted ability and skill. Miss Alice Defoe as Vivette Delby makes a charming heroine, and Mr. Leonard Montgomery as John Compton is responsible for some clever acting.

EMPIRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll.—The popular sketch The Fighting Parson is presented here by the clever artist Mr. George Gray, who is supported by 100 auxiliaries. A very attractive turn is provided by our old pantomime favourites Minnie Duncan and Arthur Godfrey, in their coster romance Me and 'Er; Fred Poplar is still sustaining his high reputation; the Sisters Moulier appear in a particularly graceful gymnastic act; Harry Drew gains applause for his excellent bass singing; and Kahn and Kahn are an entertaining couple in modern necromancy; and Prof. Dunning, in ventriloquial incidents; Kitty Wager, a singer with style and force; and Sadie Simpson, a captivating comedienne, are also in the bill.

CARLISLE.—HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE.—Lessees, Trustees of R. S. M'Kino; Manager, Mr. Stanley Rogers.—Mr. Esmonde Bramley's company, under the direction of Mr. Haldane Crichton, is appearing here this week in a répertoire of Shakespearean and Old English plays. On Monday Romeo and Juliet was presented to a capital house. On Tuesday—the night of our visit—The Merchant of Venice was performed. Mr. David Beattie's impersonation of Shylock was vigorous and intellectual; Mr. Cyril Este apeared as Bassanio; Antonio had a capable representative in Mr. Baliol Holloway; the Gratiano of Mr. Frederick Sargent was an interesting and clever piece of work; Mr. Llewellyn L. Evans made a manly Lorenzo; Mr. Philip Gordon—an old favourite here—was as good as ever as Launcelot Gobbo, his comedy being distinguished by quaintness. As Portia Miss Millie Ford played gracefully and well. Miss Emma Rainbow was successful as Nerissa; and Jessica was naturally impersonated by Miss Ruth Nightingale. Richard III., Hamlet, and David Garrick are also billed for performance during the week.

ALGIE'S HIPPODROME. — Proprietress, Mrs. P. E. Veitch; General-Manager, Mr. C. Algie.—Craig, Rose, and Craig, novelty gymnasts, are paying a return visit, and meet with a big reception; Charles Matthews, the human kangaroo, soon jumps into favour; the mimicry of Yorkshire Tom is amusing; the Four Blackbirds create a most favourable impression; Miss Elsie Cooke is a sweet singer of sensible songs; Bert Bowden excites laughter; Ray and Miles are clever comic jugglers; Forrest and King submit some smart dancing; and the Hippodrome Pictures are as popular as ever.

CHATHAM. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Proprietors, Messrs. C. and L. B. Barnard; Acting-Manager, Mr. Lionel Barnard; Secretary, Mr. George G. Ridley.—The Royal's patrons are hugely enjoying the first visit of The Catch of the Season, presented by Charles Frohman. First mention must be made of Miss Marie Ash as Angela. This little lady delights her auditors, and scores a big success. The sisters Sophia and Honoria Bedford, are excellently represented by Miss Alice Lethbridge and Hettie Muret respectively. Everyone thoroughly enjoys the former lady's graceful and finished dancing and the latter's pleasing vocalisation. The Misses Hilda Stewart and Belle Napier are well placed as the Duchess of St. Jermyn and Lady Crystal respectively. Master Grata is a prime favourite as Bucket. Mr. Frank Lincoln is deservedly popular in the arduous rôle of the Duke of St. Jermyns; Mr. Laurence Caird does full justice to the part of Lord Dundreary; Mr. E. W. Royce's natural and kindly style appeals to all. The general staging of the piece is highly praiseworthy, and Mr. J. M. Capel ably conducts the local orchestra.

BARNARD'S PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Sole Proprietor, Mr. L. B. Barnard.—The following is Host Barnard's bill of fare for the week.—Leonard Mortimer and company in The Earl of Enniware; Beatie Foster, serio; the Gregson comedy Trio; T. W. Barrett, the well-known comedian and quaint patterer; the Felixs, conjurers; Wallace Whitney, eccentric comedian; and the Herald Comedy Four, vocalists and dancers. Mr. Lacey's Erascope also contributes its weekly selection of animated pictures.

GAIETY THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietor, Capt. H. E. Davis; Manager, Mr. Frank J. Donne.—Here we have Ruby Aston, comedienne and dancer; J. C. Manley, descriptive comedian; Millie Howell, a vocalist with pleasing appearance; Sinclair and Whiteford, who gain appreciation for their duologue, Getting Even; Joe Archer, a comedian who is on excellent terms with audiences; and the Ashers, in a pleasing act, The Dude and the Soubrette. The Edisonograph, among other films, illustrates in an amusing way "How Not to Solve a Puzzle." Last, but not least, come the Athos Troupe, whose ball manipulation certainly ranks as the finest witnessed here for some time past.

CHELTENHAM.—OPERA HOUSE.—General-Manager, Mr. H. Oswald Redford.—Mr. George Dance's principal company presented The Orchid on Monday evening for the first time here. Mr. Bertie Wright works indefatigably as Meakin, keeping the house convulsed with laughter; he is well supported by Miss Florence Vie as Caroline Vokins, whose piquantly saucy songs are much appreciated. Miss Chrissie Ralland is a bright and dainty Lady Violet Anstruther, her song "Little Mary" being keenly relished; Mr. C. Stone acts and sings pleasantly as Dr. Faussett; Miss Mamie Stuart plays charmingly as Josephine Zaccary; Mr. Alf Bennett ably takes the part of the Hon. Guy; Mr. Harry T. Butler's Zaccary is a smart performance; Miss Elsie Werner acts with good effect as Zelie Humbert; Miss Ruby Garman as Thisbe sings and dances prettily; Messrs. Cecil Frere and Buchanan Wake cause much laughter as the Comte's eccentric seconds; Mr. F. Attree is amusing as the blundering Register; and Miss Ida Chichester is effective in the small part of the Countess Anstruther.

CHORLEY (Lancs.).—GRAND THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. G. T. Santé; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. Clay.—Mr. James Hare's company opened on Monday with The Guilty Man. Mr. Chas. O'Connor gave a capital rendering of George Seymour; Mr. James Hare's artistic performance of James Redman was excellently received; and Mr. Edmund O'Grady was good as Esau Herbon. Mr. John A. Shinton was happy in the humorous character of Bob Sparrow; P.C. Maggles was capitally presented by Mr. Drew Spencer; and Mr. C. Clarke was good as Father Mildmay. Miss Irene Clifford as Nell Radford scored a success, and Miss Violet Hammersley was well placed as Audrey Priestly. Miss Alice Buckland effectively sustained the part of Sukie Barton. The Golden Chance was billed for the last three days of the week.

CLYDEBANK.—NEW GAIETY THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Acting-Manager, Mr. Robert Bayne.—Mr. George Dance's Cingalese company opened here on Monday to a packed house. Mr. Courtney Comber acts and sings well as Hon. Harry Vereker; Mr. Walter Champney, a comedian of resource, undertakes the part of Chambuddy Ram in a manner that calls forth much applause; Boobhamba has a capable exponent in Mr. Hugh Webb; Mr. W. Bosco makes a humorous Sir Peter Loftus; and Mr. Arthur Foote a rollicking Bobby Warren. Miss Nona Grey looks charming as Lady Patricia Vereker, and sings with good taste; Miss Katie Yates is highly successful as Peggy Sabine, and the same may be said of Miss Cecile Beresford as Nanoya. The dressing and staging are excellent.

COATBRIDGE.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietress and Manageress, Mrs. Mary Watson.—Mr. Alfred Selwyn's variety company occupies the boards here this week; Vernando, novelty ventriloquist, delights the audience with his funniosities; Miss Clara Nesbit's songs are much applauded; the Wonderful Hernes excel in their juggling act; Miss Lallie Forsyth proves an entertaining vocalist; Miss Florence Lambeth and Mr. Robert Robertson cause much laughter in "Scots Folks' Wooin'"; Miss Jessie W. Fraser, soprano, makes a successful appearance; and Stanley and Vandyke in their comedy act. Mr. Tom Vine, comedian, Mr. Will Souls, laughing comedian, and Lillian, the charming cyclist, also contribute good turns.

COLCHESTER.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Proprietor, Mr. Charles Macdona; Resident-Manager, Mr. F. C. Upton.—Mr. Tom H. Taylor's company opened here on Monday, before a good audience, in Mr. Walter Melville's sensational drama, The Worst Woman in London. In the title-rôle, Miss Florence Dalton acted in a powerful manner, being most ably supported in her machinations by Mr. Paul Barry-Lewers, as the wily Vincent Lyle. The doings of Hugh Drayton, presented by Mr. H. W Monte; and Philip Armstrong, played by Mr. Leonard Booker, were much applauded by the upper portion of the house. Mr. H. H. Barrington was capital as the wealthy Mr. Milford; and as his daughter, Miss Effie Bartlett was conspicuously successful. Mr. Wallace Campbell made an admirable Jack Felton; and the humour was well sustained by Mr. Alvin Sawyer, as Bob Goldfinch, and Miss Florence Lovell, as the maid.

CONSETT.—NEW THEATRE.—Lessee, Mr. Hugh Robertson; Resident-Manager, Mr. Lloyd Clarance.—Messrs. G. M. Polini and L. Maitland's company is here this week with The Coal King. Mr. Lauderdale Maitland gives a powerful delineation of the part of Tom Roberts, and as Sir Reginald Harford Mr. Robin Shiells is very good. Mr. Joseph Millane is sufficiently villainous as Walter Harford, and Mr. Wilfred Graham is good as Dick Shirley. Mr. Charles R. Stone as Jim Williams and Miss Hetty Cornwallis as Araminta Green are very funny. Miss Joan Williams is effective as Mad Ann, and Miss Gertrude Valentine a charming Grace Shirley. During the week Messrs. Polini and Maitland have given four half-tons of coal to four of the most deserving cases in the town, this being decided by the audience by ballot.

CORK.—OPERA HOUSE.—Manager, Mr. John Horgan.—Mr. Thomas Th transformation is exquisite, and the harlequinade provokes hilarity.

DARLINGTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Manager, Mr. James Bell.—Leah Kleschna is having a successful run this week, Mr. Charles Frohman's company being most heartily received. In the title-rôle Miss Pilar Morin (an American actress), as Leah Kleschna, gives an admirable portrayal; Mr. Laughorne Burton is powerful as Paul Sylvaine; Mr. Pat Newall, as Raoul Berton, takes his part well; and Mr. Cyril Rawdon, as Schram, is effective; Miss Pearila Gardner, as Sophie, gives a good performance; and Miss Lilian Locke is a charming Claire Berton.

DARWEN.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee, Mr. McLeod Loader; Acting-Manager, Mr. F. J. Robinson.—Dick Whittington is the title of Mr. Frank Denman-Wood's production, which is delighting large audiences. The dresses and scenery are gorgeous, some sets being brilliantly illuminated by electricity. In the title-role Miss Grace Henderson leaves little to be desired. Alderman Frizwarren is in the capable hands of Mr. Ben Ford; as Martha Muggins, his cook, Mr. Harry Albery is a distinct success amongst the mirth-provokers; in Mr. Will Dennis, who undertakes the part of Idle Jack, the audience recognises an old favourite, and he still further enhances his previous successes. Miss Emmie Hands is a sweet and fascinating principal girl and sings with good taste; Mdlle. Dora is good as the Prince of Abyssinia; Miss Gladys Wells is a pretty and effective Fairy Sunshine; and Miss Mona Wells is satisfactory as the Demon King, her rendering of the song "Will o' the Wisp" being loudly encored. Mr. Jack Simpson, the Cat, is a contortionist of ability. Some pleasing specialities include the Yorkshire Singing Mill Lassies, who are old favourites here the Verona Quartette of acrobats and speciality dancers; Mdlle. Dora, oboe soloist; the Moros, triple-bar comedians; Lambert and Hands, in a vocal scena, Well; and Miss Marie Winsome, male impersonator, who is repeatedly encored. The augmented orchestra is under the leadership of Mr. William Crandon Beran. The pantomime is produced under the entire supervision of Mr. Fred Acton, who deserves a word of praise.

DEAL.—ODD-FELLOWS HALL.—On Tuesday last, for one night only, Mr. Arthur Hart's company played the well-known musical comedy My Lady Molly with the greatest success. Miss Reydon Dalas sustained the part of Lady Molly Martingale with great charm, and delighted everyone with her acting; Miss Mary Glanbran acted nicely the rôle of Hester; Mr. George Begg scored in the character of Sir Miles Coverdale; Mr. Fred Doran was very amusing as Reaben Oats; Mr. Vernon C. Bootle was a capital Captain Harry Romney. The scenery was pretty, and the chorus, under the direction of Mr. William Martin, first rate.

DERBY.—GRAND THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.—Sole Proprietor and General-Manager, Mr. T. Allan Edwardes; Assistant-Manager, Mr. Chas. Denley.—The pantomime, Aladdin, has entered on the last week of a successful run, and everything goes with a swing and smoothness. There are several new songs and dances introduced, and the Five Robertys give an exceptionally good equilibristic performance, which is heartily appreciated. Altogether the pantomime has been a great success.

PALACE.—Lessee and General-Manager, Mr. T. Allan Edwardes; Assistant-Manager, Mr. H. Taylor.—The Deer Family appear as the star turn here this week in a series of tableaux, entitled, Indians of the Past. The item is both novel and sensational, and is accorded a hearty reception. Tom Davis and company are responsible for an amusing sketch, entitled, Theatrical Aspirants; Marie Yorke is a pleasing burlesque artist; Dan Noble is popular as a comedian; Major Moss and his son are singers of ability; the Voldam Bros., original Dutch acrobats, are well above the average; Henri Bekker is a smart juggler; and the Palace Bioscope displays some amusing films.

DEWSBURY.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Resident-Manager, Mr. J. Herbert Asquith.—Messrs. Haddon and Loader are delighting local playgoers by the production of their attractive pantomime, Jack and the Beanstalk. Miss Nellie Burdette is almost an ideal Jack, and scores throughout; Miss Rosie Sylvester is a favourite as Dora; while the Sisters Poole as Nancy and Charley and in their speciality act, go strong. Mr. Jay Laurier as Billy is an irresistible comedian, and with Mr. Leon Simkin as Dame Trotter supply most of the fun. Much credit is due to Mr. H. A. Lonsdell for his excellent assumption of the Giant, while Messrs. Grant and Allen as Dip and Dap are bright throughout. Others in the cast who deserve mention are Miss Rene Rennie as Discordia and Miss Jennie Langlois as Harmonie. The chorus is a strong one, and is ably controlled by Mr. George Jenkinson.

HIPPODROME AND VARIETIES.—Much interest is being created here by the appearance of Billy, the human horse, who, introduced by James De Voye, does some wonderful tricks. R. C. Note is a popular vocalist, and Blanco White, patterer and dancer, is smart. Alec Aubrey, Welsh gymnast, has a sterling act, and the Haverleys, singers of illustrated songs, are encored repeatedly. Daisy Devonport is a comedienne of merit, and Mdlle. Vena, juggler, is very clever. J. H. Carney does well, and Yetta, in her wire act, has an act above the average. The Harriscope always proves an attractive wind-up.

DONCASTER.—NEW GRAND THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. J. W. Chapman.—Mr. Walter Reynolds's play, entitled Mr. Smith, was well received here on Monday evening. Mr. Earle Gadwyn Smith, the title-rôle, is comfortably played by Mr. Stephen T. Ewart. The Earl of Oxted has a good exponent in Mr. Russell Norrie; Mr. E. Edwin Holloway is an interesting Lord Angleland; the Hon. Dudley Dysart of Mr. Charles Pilling Baird is a huge success; Mr. H. Carter Bligh deserves praise for his presentation of Jack Berkeley; and a clever embodiment of Herr Diedrich Anheuser is given by Mr. Fred Darrell. Miss Mary Bates is winsome in the rôle of the Duchess of Angleland; a dainty Lady Mary is supplied by Miss Rosmond Berkeley; Miss Fyfe Alexander is well placed as Ruth Anheuser; and golden opinions are won by Mrs. Louise Lestrange in the rôle of Mrs. Smith. Mr. James Olvergood is a meritorious Benson.

DOUGLAS.—THE NEW EMPIRE THEATRE.—Sole Responsible Manager, Mr. Elwyn Walters.—The re-opening of this little playhouse, which quite suffices for the theatre requirements of Douglas, should prove a success. The present manager, Mr. Elwyn Walters, is adroit, and realises the desires of his clientele. The programme presented on Monday evening was a mingling of drama, variety, and farce. The drama element was punctuated by two playlets, The Dear Emerald Isle and The Cares of Garryowen. Into these little dramas was infused the spirit of the author of The Shaugraun, and they were well rendered. In the most striking item, The Cares of Garryowen, the author, Mr. J. P. McBride, was pathetic and interesting as Dennis, the blind hero; Mr. Horace Buckley was amusing as Barney O'Shea; the Myles O'Byrne of Mr. E. Carruthers was picturesque, and had that touch of the romantic which appeals; Mr. E. Farland made the most of the stereotyped spy, Humpy O'Halloran; Mr. T. Dixon was good as Sergeant Moore; Miss Nell Ingram was well placed as Katty; the Eilleen Byrne of Miss Nellie de Lacy was excellent. The same artists were equally successful in the Dear Emerald Isle. As to variety, the two Military Bantams, duettists, patterers, and dancers, secured applause; Master H. Smith dances cleverly; Mr. Jim Williams invests dramatic scenas set to music with due importance. The farce called The Doctor was capitally played by Mr. Horace Buckley and Miss Nell Ingram.

DOVER.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, The Dover Theatres, Ltd.; Chairman of Directors, Mr. B. Carter; Managing-Director, Mr. Fred C. Dew.—A Sailor's Sweetheart is occupying the boards this week, and is capitally presented by Miss Ida Molesworth and Mr. Mark Blow's company. A charming impersonation of the title-rôle is given by Miss Molly Pearson, and her performance is marked throughout by sympathy and dramatic power. Mr. Mark Blow gives a clever and consistent portrayal of Lieutenant Charles Clive, his good elocution and fine stage presence adding considerably to his success; Mr. Charles H. Lester acts with all the intensity and earnestness necessary to the part of Philip Pemberton; and Mr. C. Douglas Carlile is responsible for an excellent rendering of the part of Stephen Lucas. A noticeably fine piece of character acting is that of Mr. A. Johnson as the Rev. Robert Clive: Mr. William Shaw looks and acts well in the small part of Tom Duff; Mr. Theodore Hill as Admiral Sefton is a typical naval officer: and a most amusing sketch of a bailiff is contributed by Mr. Ern Carlton. Mr. Walter Westwood, a comedian of more than average ability, plays Tim Kelly; and Mr. Willie Osborne does well as John James, the latter gentleman's two songs meeting with appreciation. A dramatic portrayal of Nicoya, an African chief, is given by Mr. Thomas Miller; a welcome touch of humour is given to the rôle of Mrs. Pembury by Mrs. J. W. Braithwaite; and Miss Ella Dixon is bright and vivacious as Phœbe Pembury. On Thursday and Friday the same company played Moths, with the addition to the cast of Miss Ida Molesworth as Fuchsia Leach.

DUBLIN.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Mouillot; Resident-Manager, Mr. Geo. Parrington.—The Moody Manners Opera Company entered on their third week here on Monday night, when Lohengrin was presented for the first time this season. Mr. Joseph O'Mara as Lohengrin acquitted himself admirably; Madame Fanny Moody gave an artistic interpretation of the rôle of Elsa; the King, as played by Mr. Charles Manners, was a creditable performance; and Miss Toni Seiter was seen to advantage as Ortrud. Mr. William Dever achieved success as Frederick of Telramund; and Mr. Lewys James was exceedingly good as Herod. On Tuesday, Lucia di Lammermoor was successfully produced to a full house. The following are also billed:—Tannhäuser, The Lily of Killarney, The Marriage of Figaro, Carmen, Lucia di Lammermoor, and Maritana.

GAIETY THEATRE.—Lessees, Michael Gunn, Ltd.; General-Manager, Mr. Charles Hyland.—The popular pantomime, Cinderella, which entered on its third week here on Monday, is drawing packed houses nightly.

QUEEN'S.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. J. W. Whitbread; General-Manager, Mr. Kennedy Miller.—The boards are occupied here this week by Messrs. Beaudyn and Livesay's company in the Anglo-Indian drama, A Traitor Prince, which is drawing excellent houses. Mr. G. Montanini, in the rôle of Prince Rao Dalmirez, is most successful; Miss Rose Routledge makes an efficient Lola Vane; the part of Lieutenant Frank Derrick is capably played by Mr. Albert Wray; and as Vashti and Pansy Blossom the Misses Nita Langford and Kitty Thomas are all that could be desired. The rôle of the High Priest is well sustained by Mr. Richard Roberts; and the dual parts of Richard Vane and Colonel Vane are played in an able manner by Mr. Ernest A. Duval. The part of Azourim is well filled by Mr. Charles Herbert; and Miss Clara O'Grady is good as Mrs. Martha Blossom.

EMPIRE.—General Manager, Mr. Frank Allen; Musical-Director, Mr. H. J. Baynton.—Herbert Lloyd, "the Nondescript Star," tops the bill here this week, and is nightly applauded. The Mullini Sisters, in a musical turn, are much appreciated; and Amba Austa is a capital dancer. The Brontes, comedy sketch artists, are a diverting pair; Will Haines is a capital vocal comedian; Barton Howard is a clever mimic; and France and Stewart, in their sketch, The 100 to 1 Chance, keeps the audience highly amused. Frank Harwood wins favour as an actor-vocalist; and Tom Edwards, ventriloquist, who remains from last week, is as popular as ever. The Empire pictures are exceedingly interesting.

TIVOLI.—General-Manager, Mr. Charles M. Jones; Secretary, Mr. H. A. Murphy.—The principal item here this week is Moule Nicolls and company in a humorous sketch entitled The Battle of the Belles, which meets with a cordial reception. Another excellent turn is provided by the College Boys, in excerpts from opera; and the Ladderites, in a daring performance, merit applause. Souplessi is a clever contortionist; and Flo Morton a chic comedienne. Zenary Brothers, acrobatic act, are well received; and Flossie Jee is a pleasing comedienne and dancer. The Three Zaracs, in a triple bar act, meet with approbation; and Ted Waite is a good vocal comedian. The Bioscope is up to date.

DUDLEY.—OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. J. Maurice Clement; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. W. Tilley.—Mr. J. Bannister Howard's No. 1 company is here this week with Florodora, presented by an excellent company. Mr. Albert Bruno is funny as Anthony Tweedlepunch, and keeps the house in a roar. Mr. Edward Chester is thoroughly successful as Cyrus Gilfain; Mr. R. Courtier Ditton as Frank Abercoed is an actor of sterling ability; and Mr. Harold Perry is thoroughly at home as Captain Arthur Donegal. Miss Gladys Elvey plays Dolores in bewitching style, and Miss Kate Leicester's Lady Holyrood is a well-played part. Miss Florence Hersee as Angela Gilfain makes a most favourable impression, acting and singing with irresistible charm.

EMPIRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Fred H. Anderson; Acting-Manager, Mr. Eric Edwards.—The top of the bill here is occupied by the Lady in Black, who gives a clever entertainment of sleight-of-hand and illusionism. Billy Ross and company introduce some smart boxing in their sketch, The Hot Member; Ariel and Astarte give a neatly-executed trapeze and bar act; a screamingly funny farce entitled Sally's Dilemma is played by a clever company of artists; Kempton and Murdoch's comedy team are good; Alf Chester, versatile comedian, is a good singer; Slade Murray, comedian, and Isabelle Payne, coloured comedienne, are well received. The Empire pictures are very enjoyable.

DUMFRIES.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. W. E. Potts.—On the first three nights of their week, Miss Lillie Mowbray's pantomime company appeared in Dick Whittington and His Cat. Miss Kathleen Emmett played and acted the part of Dick exceedingly well, her singing being quite above the average. Miss Maudie Vincent, as Alice Fitzwarren, was sweet and sympathetic; Miss Alma Evelyn, as Sir Peter Hill; and Miss Rosie Whillin, as Fairy Bluebell, were well placed; Miss Katie Ward, as the Princess, deserved praise. Mr. Claude Morton scored as Bill Barnacle; Mr. Fred Pearce, as Idle Jack, kept the house in roars of laughter. On Thursday and Friday, Fred J. Webb and Wilson Benge's company appeared in the military drama, The Two Hussars.

DUNDEE.—HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Acting-Manager, Mr. Sandon Perkins.—The pantomime Cinderella has now entered on its second week, and has been voted a popular success. Miss Marie Reeve is first favourite, and her clever song and dance, "Shame on you," is undoubtedly the biggest hit of the show. Miss Gladys Warren sings "Bombay" and "Hear the Pipers Calling" in capital style; and Miss Janet V. Reynolds is heard to advantage in "My Irish Molly"; Miss Grace Vungley is an attractive Phyllis; and Miss Addie Rove, as the Fairy Queen, proves herself to be a cultured and pleasing vocalist; Mr. Tatten Hall is a droll King Grabbus, and along with Mr. Harry Bickley as the Dame, unite in creating the utmost merriment with their amusing "gags"; Mr. Leo Sterling introduces his musical instruments with fine effect, and with Mr. Tommy Nelldon the fun is kept moving merrily along; Mr. Barry Gilmour, as the cat, does some clever acrobatic work; the Welsh glee singers prove to be a popular item; and the Carlos troupe of lady dancers are graceful and clever.

PALACE THEATRE.—Managing-Directors, Messrs. Rosen and Bliss; Acting-Manager, Mr. E. J. Dexter.—The Children's Picnic, taken part in by over forty local children, still proves to be a great attraction, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Parker are to be congratulated on the successful result of their training. The McConnel Trio are ever-welcome visitors, and quite captivate the house with their comedy sketch, A Musical Mistake; Cliff and Kean introduce some clever dancing in their turn; McAskell is again to the fore as a comedy conjurer; Miss Elsie Robey gives a brilliant entertainment at the piano and is a clever mimic; Zocroff mimics a great many different sounds; and Leslie Lynn is a capable ventriloquist. The pictures by Vernon's cinematograph are an established success here.

GAIETY THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. R. A. Williams.—The pantomime Cinderella has now entered on its last week. The Sisters Brownie have earned a big reputation here, especially Madge, who in her part of the ugly sister, imbues the character with a most refreshing vivacity of manner; Mr. Will Wilson, as Peter the page, contrives to extract every grain of comedy from his part, in which he succeeds admirably; Miss Ethel Burns has a fine presence and an excellent voice; Miss Fay Garnet Vayne makes a graceful Cinderella; Mr. Tom Read does a clever step dance, and adds to the general hilarity; Ivy Valesco's Australian stage circus is a most attractive novelty.

EMPIRE THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Frank Percival.—A Trip to Chinatown, under the direction of Mr. Leslie Norman, is being played here. Mr. Edward de Vere, as Ben Gay, makes a successful appearance; Mr. Harry Stewart is extremely clever in the part of Welland Strong. The songs and choruses are capitally sung, and amongst the ladies who contribute with success may be mentioned Miss Hetty Gale, Miss Maisey Stanley, Miss Lake Grange, and Miss Lillie Vaughan.

KINNAIRD HALL.—Hamilton's Excursions continue to attract large attendances, and the clever company includes the Sisters Judge, Honce and Ardie, Gustave Fasola, with Mr. Claude Howell as guide.

DUNFERMLINE.—THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE.—Sole Lessee and Manager, Mr. W. E. Potts.—Mr. W. W. Reuben Payne's No. 1 company is here this week in the musical costume play, Red Coat. The company includes Miss Beatrice Fitzhugh as Violet Darnley, who submits an excellent protrayal of the part, and is worthy of special notice. Mr. Harry Eversleigh is a capable Guise Darnley; Mr. Leslie Crail gives an effective rendering of Lord Ledbury; Mr. Arthur E. Dudley, as Clifford Marl, makes a capital villain, and is ably assisted by Miss Beatrice Western, as Harriet Marl; the Finch Fernleigh of Mr. Cecil Morond is of exceptional merit; Miss Ruby Sutherland is a winsome little Edith Darnley; Miss Lilian Rignold deserves credit as Pepsey Drew.

EASTBOURNE.—DEVONSHIRE PARK THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. A. Standen Triggs.—Miss Emma Hutchison and Mr. Percy Hutchison's company is appearing here in The Freedom of Suzanne. Miss Beatrice Lindley is again quite a success as Suzanne, and she excites and holds the interest of the audience throughout. Miss Emily Patterson is a sufficiently pompous and dignified Lady Charlotte, Miss Charlotte Mead is a particularly successful and amusing Miss Minching, Miss Violet Ley is a strikingly handsome and attractive Lady Isabel, and Mrs. Mallalieu is realistic in her original part of Mrs. Putnam; while Miss Annie Stalman is quite satisfactory in all she has to do. On Monday evening Mr. Percy Standing added another success to his list. He is an earnest and manly Charles Trevor. Mr. F. G. Thurstans gives quite a little masterpiece in character acting, and is a capital Fitzroy Harding; Mr. William Mallalieu is an easy and polished Sir Horace Hatton; and Mr. Townsend Whitling, Mr. Edward Bonfield, and Mr. Archie Selwyn are able representatives of Lord Dachet, Captain Cecil, and Tommy Keston; and Mr. Frank Lee, Mr. Edward Sidney, and Mr. Bruce Smith are successful in the smaller parts. Two in a Trap precedes, and is well played by Miss Ley and Mr. E. Bonfield.

PIER PAVILION.—Manager, Mr. George Hayes.—Miss Katie Johnson and her company are appearing here in Billy's Little Love Affair. Miss Johnson is an animated, fascinating Billy Marr, and she takes a large share in the general success attained. Miss Gladys Bartle-Frere is to be highly commended on a fine performance as Lady Duncan; Miss Keith Lytton is happily placed as Mrs. Jim Greaves; Miss Clara Nicholls and Miss Blanka Stewart do good work as Mrs. Herring and Lady Roop; and Miss Vera Codd is a pleasing Fielding. The excellent work contributed by Mr. Frank G. Bayly is notably praiseworthy, and he is a bright and natural Jack Frere. Mr. Rawson Buckley is an easy and polished Sir Harry; Mr. Orlando Barnett makes much of his opportunities as Jim Greaves; and excellent help is given by Mr. R. Morris as Munkithrick, Mr. Brember Wills as Hagson, and Mr. Gerald Urquhart as Captain Bechef.

THE HIPPODROME.—General-Manager, Mr. Harry Day; Acting-Manager, Mr. Walter Smith.—The principal feature of this week's bill is a bright and pleasing miniature pantomime presented by Mr. Dan Thomas. The scenes are very pretty, and the artists excellent, and all the attractive features of a large pantomime are compressed into an attractive show, which is drawing large audiences. Mr. Dan Thomas as Widow Twankey is highly diverting and amusing, and whether singing or dancing he is excellent. Miss Nelly Lewis is quickly a favourite with the audience, and her songs are soon taken up. Miss Daisy Yates is quite a charming, pretty, and sprightly Pekoe, and Miss Sadie Seymour is a very good Princess Babroubadour. Mr. Ernest Cass is an efficient Emperor, and he sings well; Mr. Bert Wallace is funny as the Vizier, Mr. Fred Lake is a praiseworthy Abanazar, and the Brothers Daniels help the fun along as Slip and Slop. Miss Nina Elmo contributes a pleasing turn as a comedienne, and the Hippodrome pictures complete a very attractive bill.

EBBW VALE.—KING'S.—Lessees, Messrs. Arthur Carlton and Sam Duckworth; Responsible-Managers, Messrs. W. Devereux and E. T. Wood.—On the first three nights of the week Messrs. Carlton and Duckworth presented their pantomime Little Red Riding Hood to large audiences. The pantomime was produced by Mr. Arthur Knight, who also acts as general-manager, and is under the personal supervision of Mr. Sam Duckworth. Miss Edith Knight is an admirable Fairy Sunbeam, and Miss Kate Eplett is also a success. Mr. Bert Harrow scores as Simple Simon, and is a general favourite throughout; Mr. David Phillips as Dame Varders is very comical with his quaint Welsh sayings; the Sisters Deare give a pleasing military drill; and Mr. Percy Shaw scores by his clever whistling. The Daisy Verona quartette of dancers are decidedly good; the Bros. Ellis, knockabout comedians and dancers, come in for a fair share of the applause.

EDINBURGH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. F. W. Wyndham; Acting-Manager, Mr. William Whitehead.—The pantomime The Forty Thieves is still attracting crowded houses here; the many entertaining scenes and beautiful spectacular effects eliciting hearty laughter and warm applause.

ROYAL LYCEUM THEATRE.—Proprietors, Messrs. Howard and Wyndham, Ltd.; General-Manager, Mr. Geo. T. Tinshull.—Lady Madcap is proving a powerful draw at this house, the audiences continuing to be large and enthusiastic. On Monday evening the absence of Mr. Arthur Longley from the cast gave Mr. B. H. Eustace the opportunity of showing his ability by taking the part of Oroya Brown. Mr. Eustace displayed genuine comedy powers; a quiet effective method, with many light touches of humour, which evoked the constant laughter of the audience. Miss Marie Studholme revels in the character of the Madcap. There is something refreshingly bright and original in all the work of this clever actress. Mr. J. Robert Hale's neat style and graceful dancing, as Bill Stratford, enliven his scenes; and Mr. Oliver J. Round, as Posh Jenkins, gives admirable support. Mr. E. Statham Staples is amusing as the diminutive Corporal Ham; and Mr. Ernest E. Maher is a lively Count de St. Hubert; Miss Nina Sevening is charming as Gwennie Holden; and the remaining members of the company are all good in their respective parts.

GRAND THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. Eade Montefiore.—Mr. Montefiore's pantomime, Aladdin, is securing a large share of public favour, the audiences showing no falling off in point of number or enthusiasm. The piece is very bright from first to last, and there is much to arouse the risibility of the spectators in the diverting business of the exceedingly clever comedians, who keep the fun going with unabated vigour in every scene in which they appear.

EMPIRE PALACE THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; Acting-Manager, Mr. C. J. Cawood.—Mrs. Clement Scott's company heads this week's bill with Mr. Cecil Raleigh's interesting bio-drama, The Diamond Express, a piece which possesses some novel features as a music-hall turn of the melodramtic kind; and a good comedy entertainment is provided by Messrs. Frank Bertram and company with their amusing sketch, The Chaperon; while the Densmores are very funny in their lively dumb-show pantomime act, entitled Fun in the Kitchen. The Three Sisters Chester appear in a pleasing musical turn; a clever display of xylophone playing is given by Messrs. Baker and Balfe; the singing of Miss Ethel Ra Leslie and of Mr. Dan Conroy is marked by effective and artistic expression, and both these artists are warmly received; the American comedians, Messrs. Mueller and Coyne, secure cordial recognition; Mr. C. Vincent Adams is duly appreciated; and Messrs. Frobel and Ruge do some daring feats on a revolving pole. The American Bioscope concludes a good all-round programme.

COOKE'S ROYAL CIRCUS.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. John Henry Cooke.—The Arctic spectacle, Lapland, containing so much that is sensational, pleasant, and lively, has been sufficient to fill Mr. Cooke's popular establishment, while the usual scenes in the arena are of the customary gay, dashing, and amusing order.

MOSS'S WAVERLEY MARKET CARNIVAL.—The closing week of the carnival has seen an entire change of programme, the chief feature of which has been an interesting wrestling entertainment, the principal performers being Ahmed Madrali, "The Terrible Turk," and Torro Myaki, a Japanese exponent of the national Jiu-Jitsu method of athletics.

EDMONTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Proprietor, Mr. Joseph L. S. Moss; Manageress, Mrs. Amelia H. B. Moss.—On Monday Miss Emily Haby's company commenced a six nights' engagement with The Price of Pleasure. Mr. Louis Lingard as Gilbert D'Amand, the hero, played the part with discretion and power; Miss Agnes Imlay made a decided success as Alice Rivers; Sir James Featherstone was well played by Mr. Howell Webb; and Mr. C. E. Howell as Charles Mordant was an excellent family solicitor. A sound piece of character acting was supplied by Mr. Richard Harris, who as Sidney Roberts, a man with a past, was quite successful. Mr. Larry Clements capably delineated the part of Tatters, a bird-catcher; Claire, the daugnter of Alice Rivers, was embodied with much sweetness by Miss Ivy Blanche; and Miss Lilly Barley-Clarke as Lilian Mordant was an excellent heroine.

EXETER.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Edward J. Domville, J.P.; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy M. Dunsford.—The second edition of the pantomime, Jack and the Beanstalk, was submitted this week, and included many new songs and jokes. In addition to the specialities by the Sisters Leigh, Messrs. Esmond and Verona, and the Melton trio, Lauri Wylee introduces his "Mimicking Mannikin," delighting the large and appreciative audiences by his clever impersonations of well-known comedians. The engagement of the Three Romas, in their modern gladiatorial speciality is also proving a great attraction; and Miss Nellie James is a very attractive dancer in the different ballets.

FARNWORTH.—QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. T. Morton Powell.—This week we are having our first taste of pantomime with a visit from Mr. and Mrs. John Walter's company, who present a new version of Cinderella. The company is an excellent one all round, the title-rôle being in the hands of Miss Bessie Butt, who gives an excellent performance. She has a sweet voice, and is loudly applauded for her rendering of "Rainbow." She is also an admirable dancer, and during the evening delights us with several solos. The Prince Charming of Miss Kitty Phelps is a capital embodiment, the lady having a sweet and powerful voice, which she uses to advantage in "Molly, the jolly little lady." Miss Frances Ferne capably plays the part of Dandini, and Miss Gerty McQueen is a sweet singer as the Fairy Godmother. The comedians are a merry lot, and work well together. The Brothers Obo as the Sisters Clotilda and Angelina are a host in themselves, their comical quips and cranks causing roars of laughter. Mr. Will Sherlock as Baron Wheresmycash is a capital comedian, and is well assisted by Mr. Joe English as Buttons.

FLEETWOOD.—QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. H. J. Snelson.—This week, Mr. John Gerant and company are here in a military drama, in four acts, entitled, At Duty's Call. Mr. John Gerant gives a powerful rendering of the part of Harold Allison; Mr. Gwyn Richardson is a manly Captain George Allison; Mr. E. St. John is well placed as General Gordon; and, as Terry O'Hallaron, Mr. Harry Ugar is very funny. He is ably supported by Mr. Eric V. Rees, as Jack Spencer, a pugilist; Miss Alice Capel is a charming Dora Drummond; Miss Georgina Hamilton is highly successful as Salema; Misses Hetty Poplin and Amy Bonnell are creditable in the parts of Nurse Slater and Merrun respectively; Miss Harlington is a vivacious Mary.

FOLKESTONE.—PLEASURE GARDENS THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. H. W. Rowland.—Mr. Peter Davey's company is here this week with the pantomime Puss in Boots, and large houses are the rule. Mr. Wyn Weaver is amusing as King Komilfo; Princess Carita is well represented by Miss Nellie Groves, who scores a success with "My Irish Molly"; Miss Maud Brockwell sings sweetly as Lola; Mr. Arthur Royce causes much amusement as Donna Dolores; a pair of amusing comedians are Mr. Leslie Digby and Mr. Reginald Ring as Sancho and Pancho; Miss Marie Kildare is a pleasing Juan; Mr. Ernest Noble causes hilarity as Billbalio; Miss May Hollom as Perdita is effective; Miss Dolly Shaw is an excellent dancer; Messrs. Eugene and Willie are enthusiastically applauded for their acrobatic feats; the Sisters Bronson as Luis and Carmen contribute some capital singing and dancing; and Mr. Arthur White as the bat performs some marvellous acrobatic acts.

GAINSBOROUGH.—KING'S THEATRE.—Resident-Manager, Mr. Robert Kirk.—Miss Grace Warner's company under the management of Mr. H. Valkim, appeared here for three nights last week, in The Scarlet Clue and East Lynne. In the former piece Miss Warner gave a powerful rendering of the adventuress, Madame Roliene, or "Scarlet Sal," and she was well supported by Mr. George Gordon, as her partner in crime, and the rest of the company. This week ws have Espinosa's pantomime company, presenting Cinderella. Miss Josephine Colonna looked handsome, and played charmingly as the Prince; and she was excellently supported by Miss Ray Neilson, as Dandini; Miss Eva Kellard made a pretty and vivacious Cinderella; and Miss Edna Alexander introduced some pleasing songs as the Fairy Godmother; the two sisters were amusingly played by Messrs. Archie Scott and Bert Pearce; Mr. Arthur Medwin, as the Page, proved himself an excellent comedian; Mr. Espinosa gave a good sketch of Hannah; and Billy Farnell, as Baron Hooley, was very amusing, introducing some of his well-known quaint songs and clever dances; Espinosa and Neilson are remarkable dancers, and in their particular line are hard to beat. Dresses, pretty scenery, effective, and an efficient chorus completed a good all-round entertainment. The company is under the management of Mr. Auguste Creamer.

GATESHEAD.—KING'S THEATRE.—General Manager, Mr. F. R. Yeulett.—Mr. J. Bannister Howard's pantomime Aladdin continues to gain in popularity, large and appreciative audiences being the order nightly.

METROPOLE THEATRE.—Proprietors, Newcastle and Gateshead Theatres, Ltd.; General-Manager, Mr. Sidney Bacon.—Mr. Geo. Edwardes's company in The Toreador is drawing large audiences here. Mr. Richard Telford is indefatigable as Sammy Gigg, the actor evoking uproarious laughter. Mr. Tom May is very successful as Pettifer. Sir Archibald Slackitt is in the capable hands of Mr. F. Hulme Sharp; Mr. Chas. M. Heslop makes a handsome Augustus Trail; Carajola is well portrayed by Mr. J. Colclough Fagan; Mr. Chas. W. Anson as Rinaldo and Mr. Henry Arthur as The Governor get the most out of their parts; Miss Sadie Nevile, a local lady, is eminently successful as Dora Selby; Miss Ethel Netherton as Nancy Stanton and Miss Florence Spurgeon as Teresa both play and sing excellently; Miss Leah Howard is a bright and vivacious Susan; and Miss Gracie Desmond does well as Mr. Molton Hoppings.

QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Proprietors, Messrs. Bolam and Bacon; General-Manager, Mr. Sidney Bacon; Acting-Manager, Mr. M. S. Smith.—Messrs. Granville and Thorne's company in Napoleon the Great is the attraction here. Mr. Hugh Montgomery plays the part of Napoleon to perfection; Mr. Henry Earlesmere is sufficiently forbidding as Count Lavarennes; Colonel Meuron is excellently portrayed by Mr. Phil Harper; Mr. E. Bulmer Pitt is well placed as Paul Laczinski; Mr. Frank M. Thorne (the author) is very humorous in the part of Pierre Pomponnet; Mr. C. W. Spencer does well as Sergeant Choupin; Miss Leslie Warner submits an impressive rendering of Marie Walewska; Miss Maud Russell represents Mdlle. Marboeuf with skill; and Miss Marie Harcourt as Marcelle Choupin is the cause of a great deal of laughter.

GLOSSOP.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Sydney Spenser.—Messrs. E. H. Knight and Geo. Denham's company in The Grip of Iron met with a good reception on Monday night. Jagon, alias Simmonet, is capitally impersonated by Mr. Fred Powell; and Mr. George Langdon as Lorentz de Ribas is also to the fore as an adventurer; Mr. Harry Scott as Paul Blanchard does justice to the part of the hero; and Mr. Stanley Carlton as Robert de Belfort is prominent; Mr. Harry Agar Lyons as Alphonse de Concou and Mr. John Brittain as Dodot are a couple of good detectives; Mr. George Denham as Loustalot invests the character with skill, and keeps the audience in a happy mood; Miss Nellie Fletcher as Cora Simmonet acts in a praiseworthy manner; and Miss Hilda Baynton is charming as Marie Guerin; Miss Ruby Maude as Sophia Blanchard is commendable.

GLOUCESTER.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Owners, Messrs. C. W. and J. R. Poole; Manager, Mr. C. W. Poole.—Following the pantomime Mr. Charles March's company is here in a drama written by that gentleman entitled The Gamester of Metz. The story deals with the wrongs and eventual righting of one Paul Baldot, a part that is powerfully played by the author. He impersonates several characters, and in the third act assumes fourteen disguises in fifty seconds. Mr. Edward Avinal is forcible as Captain Badaire; and General de Montparasse is adequately rendered by Mr. Fred Aldworth; Lieut. Hervé is capably presented by Mr. George Paget; and Lucia Baldot is charmingly acted by Miss Una Lane. Mr. Wilfrid Protheroe makes an excellent Ferdinand du Basson; and Mr. Victor Knight as Goliath Grou proves a clever performer, as does Miss Cissy Haighton as Gwendolin Pearson. Mr. P. Wentworth as the Curé d'Artois acts in finished style, and the Countess Baldot is effectively played by Miss Eva Lyndhurst.

GOOLE.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee, Mr. John E. Tomlinson.—On Monday Mr. Andrew Robertson's company presented the historical drama A Queen's Vengeance. It is a stirring play, and replete with interest and excitement throughout. Mrs. Walter Bentley as Queen Eleanor presented a strong and artistic portrait; Miss Lilgarde Atherling played the part of Fair Rosamond with characteristic sweetness, always enlisting the sympathies of the audience; Mr. J. Kingsley Roydon had a heavy but popular part as King Henry II.; Mr. Richard Creswick was powerful as Sir Rupert Warriner; and an admirable touch of comedy was furnished by Mr. Ulick Burke as Bibeau (King's jester); Mr. George Byrne was highly amusing as Rafe; Mr. H. Macartney was well placed as Sir Martin Clifford; Mr. R. Nelme Grasswell played capitally as Father John; and Miss Reggie Baddle contributed a taking performance as Janet Jessop. On Thursday The Silent Witness will be presented.

GRAVESEND.—NEW PUBLIC HALL AND THEATRE.—Manager and Secretary, Mr. Craver. Mr. Arthur Harts' My Lady Molly company was here on Wednesday night. The title-rôle was entrusted to Miss Reydon Dallas, whose singing was thoroughly enjoyed; Miss Susie Oak as Alice was very clever, and Miss Mary Glanbran as Hester the Maid was perfectly natural; Captain Romney, in the hands of Mr. C. Vernon Booth, was an admirable impersonation; whilst the Lionel of Mr. Sidney C. Lindon left nothing to be desired; as Sir Miles Coverdale and Reuben Oats Messrs. Gordon Begg and Fred Doran respectively did well; and the Micky of Mr. George McCloskie created roars of laughter.

GREAT YARMOUTH.—ROYAL AQUARIUM.

PALACE THEATRE.—Lessees, The Palace Theatre (Greenock) Co., Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. Alfred Selwyn; Acting-Manager, Mr. Henry Slingsby.—The bill here is headed by the Dayton troupe of acrobats. Other good turns are given by Joe Hennessey, club swinger; the Royal Victorian troupe of dancers, Fred Land, comedian; Hetty Lee, soubrette and dancer; and Agustin and Hartley, with a clever barrel act. A new and interesting bioscope display is given.

GRIMSBY.—PRINCE OF WALES'S THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. J. H. Curry; Assistant-Manager, Mr. Sydney Tolfree.—The second visit of The Girl from Kay's has proved highly popular. Miss Beatrice Poole is now seen in the leading rôle of Winnie Harborough, and instils plenty of dash into the character. As the "semi-detached" couple, Harry Gordon and Norah, Mr. J. S. Durant and Miss Emily Taylor are thoroughly satisfactory. The amusing characters of Hoggenheimer and Fitzthistle are made the most of by Mr. George Blunt and Mr. Reginald Grey, whilst Mr. Tom Seymour extracts a good deal of humour out of the part of Joseph. Others who may be mentioned are Miss Mabel Dent as Ellen, Miss Lily Beaumont as Mrs. Chalmers, Mr. Thomas Pauncefort as Mr. Chalmers, and Mr. Robert Rivers as Uncle Theodore.

CURRY'S TIVOLI.—Managing-Director, Mr. J. H Curry; Acting-Manager, Mr. Sydney Tolfree.—Nellie Wallace's eccentric impersonations have proved highly diverting; Marco, a juvenile conjuror, displays much skill in sleight-of-hand business; Wild and West introduced a novel acrobatic turn, apearing in the guise of a gang of navvies; the Sisters D'Alvo give an attractive dancing turn, and good dancing also comes from Wright and Elton; Joe Humphries, a comedian with good songs; C. J. Johnson, negro artist, and Harry and May Kent, musical comedians, also appear.

THE PALACE.—Managing-Director, Mr. T. A. Edwardes; Resident-Manager, Mr. T. W. Moyes; Assistant-Manager, Mr. A. V. Allton.—T. E. Dunville has greatly delighted the Palace audiences, his "fairy tales" causing roars of laughter; the Four Hearnes also give an attractive turn, combining smart acrobatics with good comedy; the gymnastic display of the Wellfords is greatly admired, the various feats being neatly accomplished; bright comedy is presented by Phillips and Merritt; whilst Arthur and Ashby give an entertaining display of chapeaugraphy; a musical turn, including smart comedy, is given by Francis and Melli, and Minnie D'Aubyn, vocalist, and T. W. Royal, comedian, also contribute to the programme.

GUILDFORD.—BOROUGH HALL.—A pretty and refined pantomime was produced here, on Monday, under the direction of Mr. John A. Thomson, for three nights. Miss Beatrice Wadham was a dashing Robin Hood; and Miss Edith Madelle an engaging Little John; as Maid Marian, Miss Stella Rose was most dainty; and Miss Daisy Stone made an excellent Mavis; Mr. Ted Mack and Mr. Henry Young, both clever comedians, scored as Burglar Bill and Gentle Georgie; and Mr. Tom G. Warren's efforts as Araminta were provocative of roars of laughter. The pantomime was beautifully mounted, The specialities included Carl Moneta, Young and Mack, the Crystals, and the Butterfly troupe of dancers. Charley's Aunt was given on Thursday.

HALIFAX.—THEATRE ROYAL, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. Wm. Robinson; General Manager, Mr. Otto C. Culling.—Mr. George Dance's company is here in Veronique, which was seen here on Monday for the first time. In the title-rôle Miss Biba Leonhardt is vivacious and sings admirably; Mr. Roland Bottomley is a stylish Florestan; one of the best of comedians is Mr. Ellis Holland, whose Monsieur Coquenard keeps the audiences in high spirits; Mr. Jack Crichton is excellent as the Bailiff, and Mr. Tom Shelford as the Groom deserves mention.

GRAND THEATRE, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. Wm. Robinson; Manager, Mr. S. Winks.—Mr. Horace Goldin's variety company is doing good business here this week. The conjuring feats of Mr. Goldin are astounding, and meet with acclamation. A clever society comedian is Jack Lennal; Stylo, with his troupe of trained hoops; Vi and Ethel, refined Continental vocalists and dancers; Philips and Terry, in funny comedy; the Ringting Trio, American eccentric comedy entertainers; Mark Lane, a whimsical comedian; and Boswell's stage circus, all contribute excellent turns.

PALACE THEATRE, LTD.—Sole Lessee and Manager, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. Ed. Harrison.—Some clever artists submit interesting items at this house of amusement. Lady Mansell and her juveniles, in a comedy speciality, leave nothing to be desired; Guy Ryder captivates with his talented whistling and solos; Nelson and Thomas, Violi, Howard and St. Clair, Vermette and Dionne, and Frank Bernard and company in their new absurdity entitled Hello also figure in the bill.

HANLEY.—THEATRE ROYAL, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. Charles G. Elphinstone; Manager, Mr. Charles Howard.—The pantomime Aladdin continues to draw and amuse crowds nightly. Mr. Nat Clifford continues quite a host in himself, his funny jokes and antics causing roars of laughter; Mr. W. H. Kirby is quite a favourite as Abanazar, his business being excellent, and his acting exceedingly amusing; Miss Florence Wilton continues to be most successful in the title-rôle; her songs are well-chosen and rendered; Miss Elsie Steadman as the Princess still charms her audiences with her winning manner, and Miss Hearne is equally successful; Miss Ida Wirth as So-Shi is well placed; Mr. Maxwell-Stewart as Ski-Hi does capital work; and Mr. L. Rowland (So Long) is exceptionally good. The chorus is capital.

GRAND, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. Charles Elphinstone; Manager, Mr. Alfred Edwardes.—The premier position is held this week by Miss Harriet Vernon, whose vocal items are enthusiastically applauded; her pretty Japanese song is followed by an admirable number, "Only to be a child once more," which evokes a great outburst of applause. As an encore Miss Vernon contributes her scena The Lilac Girl, which is a dainty song daintily mounted. Dartigan loops the loop on a motor-cycle, one of the most daring feats ever seen here; Leslie Race is a comedian of much merit; The Vyponds, society entertainers, are seen to advantage in a diverting vocal sketch—viz., The Honeymoon; Carl Howard, the crazy conjurer, is most amusing; Zanfretta and Napio, musical eccentrics, with their knife-grinding machines, contribute a smart turn; and Grey and Welford are a smart pair of comedians and patterers. Mr. Edwin Barwick as an actor-vocalist is both original and clever, his scena, The Moan of Mephisto, being an admirable piece of work; his imitations of the late Sir Henry Irving are also highly appreciated. The pictures are first-class.

HARROGATE.—GRAND OPERA HOUSE.—Managing Director, Mr. Wm. Peacock.—On Monday evening Mr. John Tilla presented Red Riding Hood for a week's run here. As Prince Charming, Miss Bessie Cohen is an ideal principal boy, and, moreover, an agile dancer; her vocal numbers are well rendered. Miss May Merry as Red Riding Hood is a dainty and charming principal girl. Mr. Harry Elliston is quaintly humorous as Johnny Stout, and does much to ensure the success of the pantomime; he is also the producer and stage manager. As Johnny Green he finds an able lieutenant in Mr. Teddy Gibbs, who also sings a clever song entitled "Nobody." As Dame Crump Mr. Howard Ward is excellent, and Mr. Harry Morgan as Baron Fitz Fitz completes a quartette of capable and energetic comedians. As Tommy Tucker and Margery Daw, Misses Edna Morgan and Maude St. John ably fill their respective parts. Miss Florence Leonard, who possesses a sweet voice, is a competent Fairy Queen. Mr. Cecil Calvert is dramatic as the Wolf. The Burg, Hand, and Wise Comedy Trio introduce a novel and pleasing speciality acrobatic and musical turn, in which they are assisted by "Ye Olde Browne Cow." The Poppy Quartette of Dancers find favour readily, and the Excelsior Troupe of Children are a welcome addition to an all-round excellent show.

HARTLEPOOL.—EMPRESS.—Proprietors, Councillor Everton and J. W. Craggs; Manager, Mr. Harry Burns.—With the one exception of the Three Seymours, who give a capital exhibition of the equilibristic and juggling art, the programme this week is composed of the names of artists who have already faced the verdict of a local audience. Ormonde Penston, that prince of artists in smoke pictures, adds to his entertainment some smartly worked feats of conjuring in which he has valuable assistance from Tsaou Ngo, an accomplished Chinese lady conjurer. Tom and Marie Motramo do exceedingly well in their society skit Do You Reverse? into which they introduce some clever musical work. Jack Pleasants, at all times funny, excels in new business. Some illustrated songs, with appropriate accompaniment, are contributed by the Rushforths. King Leo and his mannikin in a ventriloquial entertainment are amusing. The agility of the Dashaways in a daring gymnastic act is a strong feature, and a pretty turn by Beatty and Blanche has a gratifying reception.

HASTINGS.—GAIETY THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. H. W. Rowland; Resident-Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles E. Scutt.—Mr. Frederick Mouillot's company is here this week in A Message from Mars. Mr. Cyril Austen Lee acts very finely as Horace Parker; Mr. William H. Brougham well sustains his rôle as the Marsian messenger; as a Tramp a good study is submitted by Mr. Bruce Lindley; Mr. J. Edgar Stevenson is successful as Arthur Dicey; Mrs. Edward Saker as Miss Parker and Miss May Saker as Minnie Templar play their respective rôles with excellent effect; and able assistance is afforded by Miss Joan Meredith as Mrs. Clarence, Mr. Percy Tyler as Dr. Chapman, Mr. Eustace French as Sir E. Vivian, Mr. Leslie Tyler as Mr. Fergusson, and Mr. Lionel Gadsden as a policeman.

PIER PAVILION. — Pier-Master, Mr. R. Turner; Entertainment-Manager, Mr. J. D Hunter—The Little Glass Slipper and its fortunate owner are still attracting good audiences. Mr. J. D. Hunter's natural humour asserts itself in the drollest manner as one of the ugly sisters, and he is amusingly seconded by Miss Cherry Wardroper. Should Mr. Hunter absent himself, Mr. Charles Hawker, his understudy, throws in some excellent fun. Miss Blanche Bayley improves upon acquaintance if possible; and the rôle of the Prince is as charming as ever; Miss Eva Bayley is an excellent fairy godmother; and the acrobatic revels by the Cleveland Troupe and Little Rosie's miniature circus also aid the success of Mr. J. D. Hunter's twenty-seventh annual.

HIPPODROME THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—General Manager, Mr. Harry Day; Acting-Manager, Mr. Fred C. Ewing.—Mr. Sam Dangard opens the programme with some well-selected songs; an attractive comedienne and dancer, Miss Ida Brophy is much applauded; an excellent turn is given by the Vaudeville artists, the Sainsburys; Messrs. Ford and Hanson are clever musicians, as is shown by their musical mélange; Miss Blanche Albini, comedienne, is another much appreciated turn; Mr. Arthur Slater is a remarkable mimic and sifleur; and an exceedingly funny sketch is introduced by the American Comedy Troupe, who sing some harmonious selections. Ruffe's bioscope is also popular.

HEYWOOD.—LYCEUM THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Albert Jones.—Mr. Bulmer's company, which is presenting Sentenced for Life here this week, is receiving a very fair share of patronage. Amongst a good cast the following deserve special mention: Mr. Ernest Vaughan as Captain Derrick, Mr. T. C. Glenville as the Rev. Martin Orris, Mr. James F. Firth as Percy M'Gentle, and Messrs. Ambrose Horton and Reg. Oldroyd as Bill and Toby respectively. Miss Madge Douglas as Adele Gray, Miss Mary Dalby as Kate Rennel, and Miss Gladys Hawthorne as Lady Stillwell are also commendable.

HOYLAND.—METROPOLE THEATRE.—Owner, Arthur Carlin and Co.; Sole Lessee and Manager, Mr. Geo. S. King.—This week we have Mr. Allan Wilkie's No. 1 company in a répertoire of the legitimate. On Monday night The Merchant of Venice was produced, Mr. Allan Wilkie giving a powerful rendering of Shylock; Mr. Clifford Rean was an excellent Bassanio; and Mr. H. F. Maltby a dignified Antonio; the Portia of Miss Ine Cameron was a charming portrayal; Miss Lizzie Maddocks did well as Nerissa; and Mr. Louis Palgrave (Lorenzo) and Miss Barbara Pigot (Jessica) were all that could be desired. On Tuesday The Corsican Brothers was presented; on Wednesday Othello; on Thursday Belphegor; and Friday The Sleigh-bells.

HUDDERSFIELD.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors and Managers, Messrs. Milton Bode and Edward Compton; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy G. Arthur.—The patronage of the Carl Rosa Opera Company is suffering a little from the distraction caused by a stiff Parliamentary Election fight. This is distinctly unfortunate, as the performances given are of the highest order. The production of Carmen on Monday night won the full approbation of a keenly critical audience. The singing of the principals was noticeable for fine vocal quality and purity of method. Added to good singing was acting of equal merit, and a consequently well-balanced rendering of the opera was secured. Miss Doris Woodall was full of mischievous witchery as Carmen; Herr Julius Walther was seen to advantage as José; and Mr. Charles Victor had the necessary virility for the part of Escamillo. The chorus is up to the best Carl Rosa standard, which is very high indeed. Every member seems keen and alert, and the singing is bright and smart and expressive. The much enlarged orchestra plays with discretion under the skilful guidance of Messrs. Walter Van Noorden and Eugene Goossens. The other operas down for performance are Don Gioranni, Rigoletto, Tannhäuser, Faust, Fidelio, and The Bohemian Girl.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, The Northern Theatres Co., Ltd.; Resident-Manager, Mr. N. M. Robinson.—One of the sweetest and most humorously pathetic little sketches ever seen here is being played with great ability by Mr. J. L. Shine and company. The piece is entitled Hogmany: A Tale of New Year's Eve. Other turns are the Percys, duettists; Miss Emily Alvina, vocalist; Miss Marie Wilton, comedienne; the Tupps, gymnasts; Barton and Franklin, in their pleasant musical interlude; Frank Leslie, a taking light comedian; Francois Rothig, a conjurer of the highest manipulative skill; and the Hippodrome pictures.

HULL.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Lessee, Mr. W. Morton; Resident-Director, Mr. W. F. Morton.—The pantomime Dick Whittington continues to find favour with the public, and packed houses are the rule. Mr. Elliston deserves to be complimented on his production, which is generally admitted to be the best pantomime presented in Hull for some years. The various artists work well together, and merit praise for their untiring efforts to please.

GRAND THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.—Managing-Director, Mr. John Hart; Resident-Manager, Mr. Wynn Miller.—After a brief period of pantomime ordinary business has now been resumed. Mr. William Greet's company is paying a return visit here this week with The Earl and the Girl, which is proving a big attraction. Mr. William Stephens is admirably qualified for the rôle of Jim Cheese, which he submits in an irresistibly mirth-provoking manner; Miss Aimee Grey achieves a great success as Elphin Haye, her songs "Zanzibar" and "Sammy" meeting with special favour; Mr. Percy Carr gives an artistic rendering of Dick Wargrave; and Mr. Vernon Davidson is well placed as the Hon. Crewe Boodle; Mr. Ernest Torrence supplies an amusing study as the irate Yankee uncle; Mr. Will Hindson is responsible for a creditable portrayal of the energetic American solicitor; and Mr. J. C. Graves as Mr. Talk appears to advantage. Miss Dot Carey contributes a capital study of the coster girl, whilst Miss Gladys Fontaine as the strong lady is all that could be desired. Miss Helen Langton as Miss Virginia Bliss is also well suited.

ALEXANDRA THEATRE.—Proprietors, Messrs. Morton, Ltd.; Resident-Manager, Mr. Geo. Morton.—The sensational American drama Wep-Ton-No-Meah is the attraction here this week, and is drawing big audiences. The well-known American-Indian actress Go-Won-Go-Mohawk is a picturesque figure as a mail carrier, and plays her part in an able manner. Mr. C. W. Charles gives a capable representation of Colonel Stockton; and Mr. Edward Leroy is realistic in the villainous rôle of Spanish Joe. Very popular are Mr. Dan Ryan as Garry Cullen and Mr. Guy D. Hackney as Sam White. Miss Minnie Gospel and Miss Dora Pass are both good in their respective parts.

ILKESTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Licensee and Manager, Mr. L. F. A. Rogers.—The pantomime, Dick Whittington and His Cat is drawing good houses. It is played by Messrs. W. H. and R. A. Maddox's company. Miss Mabel Kessler works zealously as Dick Whittington; Mr. Victor Le'glere gives a gratifying performance as Thomas, the fairy cat; Miss Peggy Fame makes a favourable impression as Alice; Mr. Harry Howe as Betsy the cook is a humorous exponent; Mr. Dan Lyndon (Alderman Fitzwarren) and Mr. Gus Granville (Jack) cause much hilarity, and are well supported by Messrs. R. Kempton and Harry Pastor as McFlip and O'Flop. Specialities are given by Mabel Kessler, cornet soloist; Peggy Fame, with her black pug; Harry Wright, extempore vocalist; and the Dandies, a quartette of dancers.

QUEEN'S PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietor, Mr. T. Knightall.—The Schallers provide an amusing comedy act, in which singing, dancing, and gymnastics are introduced; Rex and Louie Graham, comedy duettists, give a clever marionette show; Lily Howen pleases in song and dance; Black and Blanche do well as knockabouts; Louie Farrell is a good male impersonator; and Alf E. Rick also entertains.

INVERNESS.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Manager, Mr. Cameron Burgess. — The Orchid, played by Mr. George Dance's company, is here this week. Miss Margery Moore makes a charming Lady Violet; in the rôle of Caroline Vokins, Miss Phil Gumpel gives a clever and amusing impersonation; Miss Maude Davis, as Countess Anstruther, and Miss Sissie Brond, as Zelie Rumbert, are good in their respective parts; Mr. Harry Walsh supplies a large share of the fun as Meakin; the part of Hon. Guy Scrymgeour has an able exponent in Mr. Sinclair Holden; Mr. Albert Sealy is successful in the part of Zaccary; Dr. Ronald Fausett has an excellent representative in Mr. V. Wakeman; Mr. Charles Seymour is a capital Mr. Chesterton.

IPSWICH.—LYCEUM THEATRE.—Acting-Manager, Mr. J. E. Jennings.—Mr. W. G. Wills's fine play, A Royal Divorce, has been played here during the week by Mr. W. W. Kelly's company, and received with every sign of appreciation. In the rôle of Napoleon I. Mr. Frederic Moyes gives a striking and impressive impersonation of the great Emperor; the unfortunate Josephine finds a graceful and pathetic exponent in Miss Lilian Dundas; Mr. Henry Ludlow did justice to the unthankful part of the Marquis of Beaumont, and the characters of Talleyrand and Marshall Murat are carefully played by Mr. H. Gray Dolby and Mr. T. W. Ford respectively. Miss Muriel Thompson does justice to the difficult character of Marie Louise, and the little King of Rome is prettily enacted by Miss Gracie Kendrick.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietor, Mr. E. H. Bostock.—The programme for the current week at this popular place of entertainment includes some attractive novelties. The juggling display of Hanvarr and Anna shows much neatness and dexterity; Fred Herbert excites much enthusiasm by his topical and national songs; American songs are pictorially illustrated by Martini and Son; Roma and Romani contribute a clever instrumental musical interlude; Hughes and Elliott create merriment as ragtime vocalists and dancers; and a couple of skating experts are seen in Verne and Verne. A serious dramatic sketch, entitled An Emperor's Divorce, is well played by Ronald Bayne and Evelyn Hope. Les Rubens, society entertainers, are also in the bill.

JARROW.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Hugh Robertson; Acting-Manager, Mr. G. G. Jefferson.—This week's attraction is Mr. J. A. Campbell's company in the domestic drama, entitled The Little Breadwinner. Mr. J. A. Campbell gives a capital rendering of the part of Lord William Dorrington; Mr. David Gordon is a manly Richard Lawrence; Mr. Roland Yorke submits a powerful representation of Joseph Prior; little Emmie Thomas does full justice to Meg, the little breadwinner; and Miss Jenny Bostock is quite at home in the part of Bridget O'Flanagan; Miss Mary Mallahieu gives a charming embodiment of Margaret Daventry; and Miss M. Buchanan is equal to the part of Kate Cherry; Miss Emmie Litchfield scores as Ruth Cherry; Mr. Allen Charles is very good as Charles Prior.

KETTERING.—AVENUE THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Frank Payne.—Messrs. E. A'Dell and Fred Chabot's company is here in The Romany's Revenge. Mr. A'Dell plays the part of John Hope in good style; Mr. Lincoln Calthorpe is well suited in the character of David Reynard; and the comic element is admirably sustained by Mr. David Hamilton as Bobbie Bloom, he being well supported by Miss Fanny Wallace as Polly Pluck. Hearty praise is due to Miss Ethel Ashleigh for her clever impersonation of Zamet, the gipsy boy.

KIDDERMINSTER.—NEW OPERA HOUSE.—Licensee and Managing-Director, Mr. James P. Moore; Acting-Manager, Mr. R. C. Gudgeon, jun.—This week we have a visit from the American actress, Miss Amy F. Shermann, in the new drama entitled None but the Brave, supported by a good company under the direction of Mr. Chas. Shermann.—Miss Shermann gives a really clever representation of the part of April Showers, a journalist; and Mr. Stanley Bedwell ably portrays the part of Lal Ray, artist and war correspondent.

KILKENNY.—NEW THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. T. J. Brown.—The Alexandra grand opera company is paying a visit here this week, and on Monday presented Maritana, before a fairly well filled house. Miss Constance St. Bride was heard to good effect in her rendering of the many vocal numbers; Mr. Frank Laud was in fine voice as Don José, and sang with taste and effect. The other characters received excellent treatment. There is a good chorus, and a number of accomplished instrumentalists. The week's bill includes The Daughter of the Regiment, Faust, The Bohemian Girl, Il Trovatore, and Satanella.

KILMARNOCK.—KING'S THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Acting-Manager, Mr. A. Hales.—Mr. E. Lockwood's company is here this week with the musical comedy Sergeant Brue. Mr. Paddy Dupres does good work in the title-rôle, and Mr. E. Percy Rogers and Miss Lilian Middleton are equally successful as Michael and Aurora Brue; Mr. Henry Chichester is excellent in his portrayal of the magistrate, Mr. Crank; and Miss Midge Clark sings well, and makes a pleasing Lady Bickenhall; the part of Crookie Scrubbs finds an able exponent in Mr. Charles M'Lagan.

KING'S LYNN.—NEW ROYAL THEATRE.—Lessees, J. Bannister Howard's Co., Ltd.; Business-Manager, Mr. Arthur Howard.—Herr Pareezer's Prussian Choir has been here this week, presenting a varied programme of part songs, sketches, variety items, including a really good trick cyclist act, sand dance, &c. Mr. Stewart Braide proved a favourite with his humorous songs; the illustrated songs were also popular, and the projection on the lantern sheet of excellent portraits of the Parliamentary candidates for Lynn delighted the audience.

KIRKCALDY.—KING'S THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident-Manager, Mr. Rex. Sugden.—Mr. Wm. Greet's company is attracting large audiences this week with the charming musical comedy The Earl and the Girl. Mr. Alfred Donohoe scores a huge success as Jim Cheese; and is well supported by Miss Lina Hicks as Liza Shoddam; Mr. Leslie Gaze and Miss Hilda Dugdale as Dick Wargrave and Elphin Hay, the runaway lovers, are exceptionally good, their singing winning them much favour; Mr. A. E. Wilson is very amusing as Bunker Bliss; Mr. Tom J. Edwards and Mr. Sam Lysons are most effective as Downham and Mr. Talk; Mr. Thos. Kennard is a capable Crewe Boodle; and Mr. Grenville Hayes is successful as Mr. Hazel. Miss Beatrice Anderson is a vivacious Mrs. Shimmering Black; and as Daisy Fallowfield, Miss Ida Statham is delightful; Miss Winnie Plumpton is effective as Miss Virginia Bliss. The chorus and augmented orchestra render good assistance under Mr. W. Stephenson. The scenery and dresses are very tasteful.

LANCASTER.—ATHENÆUM.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Henry Wilkinson.—The attraction this week is Mr. T. Morton Powell's company in Honour Thy Father. Mr. J. W. Evelyn is quite at home in the rôle of Gabriel Garth; Mr. Douglas B. Watson is good as Jack Halyard; Mr. Clavering Craig is sufficiently villainous as Duncan Bly; and Miss Mabel Coleman as Lillian Garth and Miss Maudie Scott as Mercy Merry give clever portrayals. The comic element is well supplied by Mr. Walter M. Cameron as Mike Copplestone; Mr. W. H. Melrose as Ned Pennycomquick, and Miss Lizzie Moorley as Poppy Cornleigh.

PALACE.—Lessees and Managers, Messrs. John Porter and W. J. Fergusson.—The Bros. Webb, musical clowns, head the bill this week, and have had a flattering reception; Miss Addie Dornia, in a duologue "How it was Done," win rounds of applause; and the Three Schaffers are well received. Others who contribute to the excellent programme include Charles Woodward, comedian; Madge Elliott, vocalist; Barrington, musician; and Walter Payne's animated pictures.

LEAMINGTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessees, Messrs. Milton Bode and Edward Compton; Manager, Mr. C. B. Fountaine.—The Cingalee pays its first visit here this week, and is being played with great success by Mr. George Dance's principal company, which contains some notably capable artists. Mr. Lauri de Frece provides endless mirth as Chambuddy Ram; Mr. Coop Edmunds's Sir Peter is also very funny; Miss Winifred O'Connor, as Manoya, sings and acts with great distinction; and Miss Essie Perrin is a charming Angy, her dancing being the essence of grace. High honours also fall to Miss Marjorie Clarke, Miss Gladys Guy, Mr. Frank Crimp, Mr. Bertrand Yates, and Mr. Ethelbert Edwards. The augmented orchestra and large chorus are under the baton of Mr. Otto Manns.

LEEDS.—GRAND THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. John Hart; General-Manager, Mr. Edward Cadman.—The pantomime Babes in the Wood is now running with delightful smoothness, and attracts full houses. The magnificent scenic effects continue to evoke the warmest admiration, and the members of the cast have developed their parts in excellent style. Mr. J. W. Rowley continues to find increasing opportunities for the display of spontaneous humour, of which he is such a master, and is ably seconded in his efforts by Mr. Arthur Stigant, in an exceedingly clever conception of the dame, and Mr. Frank Calvert. Mr. Arthur Carlton, too, is always prominent in the fun. Miss Hilda Jacobsen acts her rôle of principal boy with distinction; and Miss Katie May is a graceful and vivacious principal girl. The Bowery Boys are specially prominent amongst a number of excellent specialities.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; General-Manager, Mr. R. Ernest Liston.—Bumper houses are nightly in evidence here to witness the performance of this most successful of recent Royal pantomimes, Jack and Jill. Though well equipped in the matter of gorgeous scenic effects, fun is the keynote of the production, and audiences are kept thoroughly amused by a fine company of comedians, of which Mr. Bob Selvidge and Mr. Harry Conlin are very able leaders. The principal ladies have established themselves as firm favourites, Miss Margaret Broadfoote and Miss Lily Black being the chief pair. Miss Jessie Templeton and Miss Ernie Franks enact with grace and distinction the parts of second boy and girl.

QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Lessees, Messrs. Dottridge and Longden; General-Manager, Mr. C. H. Longden; Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles Bush.—The successful pantomime Little Red Riding Hood is finishing a three weeks' season here, and the popularity of the piece is undiminished.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Moss' Empires, Ltd.; District-Manager, Mr. T. Gerald Morton; Resident-Manager, Mr. Alex. Galley.—Syd May is first favourite here with his excellent impersonations of star comedians. Sam Elton is very entertaining with comic jugglery and a knockabout speciality. At the bottom of the bill figure the Riogoku Family, a party of very smart Japanese acrobats. Conway and Leland convulse the house in their acrobatic turn; F. H. Dundas is an accomplished actor-vocalist; Collins and Rice are presenting a successful comedy sketch; the three Sisters Hayden are attractive in song and dance; and other popular contributions are Mabel Hind, comedienne, and Rhoda Bros., gymnasts and balancers.

TIVOLI.—Proprietor, Mr. Thos. Barrasford; Managers, Mr. Charles Weldon and Mr. Claude Shayler.—The Six Brothers Luck have a prominent place in the week's bill here, their pantomime specialty being provocative of huge merriment; Gus Harris, the popular actor-vocalist, submits his vocal scena with success; J. C. Morris, a clever comedian, is also high in public favour; the Sisters Marion, a juvenile pair of duettists, are accorded a great reception for their excellent turn; Violet Stockelle is a pleasing and attractive comedienne; Wake and Dean do well in clever comedy business; a novel musical act by the Taffonas meets with general approval; the Lyrics dance and sing in good style; and the animated pictures complete the list of attractions.

CITY VARIETIES.—Proprietor, Mr. F. W. Wood; General-Manager, Mr. J. C. Whiteman; Acting-Manager, Mr. S. Jones.—After the fat boy comes the fatter girl, and this novelty, Princess Lucy, is truly a wonder, arousing the liveliest interest at this popular hall. Other successful artists are the Redferns, lady banjoists and vocalists; Preston and Baimain, illustrated song novelty; Sill and Silcott, a pair of quaint comedians; Bros. Dean, whistlers and specialty dancers; Lal Cliff, comedienne; and E. Ford, the Australian sundowner.

ALBERT HALL.—Catlin's Royal Pierrots are having a very successful second week here, their clever entertainment attracting good patronage; the humorists are ably led by Mr. Will Catlin and Mr. Sid Frere; whilst Mr. George Houghton and Mr. Frank Blythe receive numerous encores for their renderings of sentimental songs.

LEICESTER.—ROYAL OPERA HOUSE.—Sole Proprietor and Manager, Lieutenant-Colonel J. A. Winstanley; General-Manager, Mr. Geo. M. Slater.—The pantomime of Robinson Crusoe continues its successful run here, the various artists working together in a most commendable spirit. Miss Nancy Langtyre (Robinson Crusoe), Mr. Lionel Braham (Will Atkins), Miss Florrie Saunders (Pollie), Mr. Ainslie Burton (Dame Crusoe), Mr. Alfred Sandoe (Bumper), Mdlle. Ebba Darcier (Princess Moonshine), Mr. John R. Val (Friday), Mr. Chas. A. Stephenson (Billy Crusoe), Messrs. Baroux and Bion (Captain Crosseye and Bo'sun Bobstay), and Miss Gwen Clifford (Britannia) are all gaining, if possible, more popularity, and the tuneful and catchy songs introduced remain a feature of the performance. The large operatic chorus and augmented orchestra, under the direction of Mr. H. Sullivan Brooke, continues to elicit unstinted praise.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Lessee and Manager, Lieutenant-Colonel J. A. Winstanley; General-Manager, Mr. Geo. M. Slater; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. C. Candler.—The attraction is provided here this week by Mr. Robert Perris's company, A Fight for Millions. The play contains a most interesting story, and is well staged. Mr. Henry Hargreaves is excellent as Tom Manley; Mr. J. Newton Cowling is capital as Hudson Rivers; Mr. Archie Helsby, as the evil genius Richard Dudley, is well placed; Mr. Karl H. Edwards, as the Jew, Solomon Moses, gives a good character sketch; Miss Audrey Southerland is a success as Little Madge; Mr. Robert Perris, as Willie Neverwork, and Mr. Nicholas Conway, as Harold Hobbs, are prominent in humorous portrayals; Miss Eva Purcell as Pearl Rivers, Miss Audrey Canning as Mrs. Hudson Rivers, and Miss Emma C. Turner as Helen Dudley are also to be complimented.

PALACE THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; District-Manager, Mr. Hatton Wharton; Acting-Manager, Mr. Leonard Vidal.—The usual excellent programme is submitted here, in which are included the Chas. Fisher Pocket Opera Co., whose delightful turn, which includes excerpts from famous operas and the humorous sketch The Music Master, earn for them well-deserved and unstinted applause; Theo. Hardeen, the well-known handcuff and trunk manipulator, returns, and thoroughly mystifies the audience; the Australian Twin Sisters Anderson, dancers and vocalists, are getting an excellent reception; the Garganis score with a smart acrobatic turn, which also has the merit of being humorous; Fraser and Mac, in an entertaining act, raise hearty laughter; the Royal Six are deservedly applauded for their singing and playing; Martin and Quigg present a mirth-compelling turn; George Green, a Leicester boy of 12, gets a rousing reception for his singing; Harry Clifford, character vocalist, also entertains with success; the American Bioscope is depicting the humorous fantasia, "Motoring from Paris to Monte Carlo."

PAVILION THEATRE. — Proprietor and Director-General, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Acting-Manager, Mr. Walter Lapworth.—The leading attraction is again supplied here this week by Miss Carlotta De Yonson and company, who are presenting with success the original Eastern sketch Kingdom of Hate, the principal parts being played in true dramatic style by Miss Carlotta De Yonson, Mr. Charles A. Carlisle, and Mr. W. E. Griffiths. The Brothers Zampah are remarkably clever one-legged equilibrists; Will Bacchus is an excellent coster comedian; Walter H. Pallister's Bioscope is projecting a series of amusing and popular films; Casey and Mitchell are amusing comedy duettists and dancers; and Tom Le May, musical grotesque, Carl Rosine, in a smart Continental speciality act, and Molly Seymour, comedienne and dancer, also entertain with success.

TEMPERANCE HALL.—Mr. Walter Jeffs' New Century Pictures are located here this week on a return visit, and comprise a most delightful selection of entertaining films, which are interspersed with well-rendered songs by Miss Dora Kingsley and a capital ventriloquial entertainment by Mr. Walter Roselle.

LEIGH.—THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. J. Dewhurst; Acting-Manager, Mr. H. Dewhurst.—Much hearty laughter is being caused here this week, by the farce Miss Lancashire, Limited, which is being played by Miss Florence Baines and Co. Miss Baines, as the Lancashire Lass, quickly scored a conspicuous success; as Eva Lancashire, Miss Jennie Hallworth's singing and acting are much appreciated; Mr. R. Donaldson as the guardian, Higgins, is exceedingly good; Miss M. Clinton as Bertha, gains much applause, for the songs allotted her; Mr. Payne Fletcher as the farmer is the source of considerable laughter and Miss Pattie Groves scores as his Irish wife; Mr. Horace Pollock does exceedingly well as the butler, Grant; Mr. A. M. Servington as the Jew and Mr. R. C. Hicks as the solicitor are also good.

OHMY'S CIRCUS. — Proprietor, Mr. King Ohmy; Acting-Manager, Mr. W. Prince. — The principal item in this week's bill is the Alexandras, whose clever feats are deservedly applauded; Mons. Slippere, the marvellous blind pianist, is exceedingly good; the Lloyds, in their double cable act, prove a smart turn; Miss Ohmy and Mr. Swallow, in their bareback riding acts, are very clever and neat; much laughter is caused by the buck-jumping mule, Barney; Mr. Claude Ohmy gives a clever wire performance; the clowns present some amusing sketches; and the living pictures are excellent.

LEITH.—NEW GAIETY THEATRE. — Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident-Manager, Mr. John Darlison.—The pantomime, Jack the Giant Killer, continues to run merrily along, and the appreciation of the public is still evidenced by good houses. The Blunderbore of Mr. W. S. Stevenson is a laudable piece of work, well supported by the Spareribs and Brisket of Messrs. Denby and Dent. Miss Mimi Fisher is smart and attractive in the rôle of Jack, who finds a winsome Margery Daw in Miss Bijou Drens; and Miss Louie Niemann plays very daintily as Daisy. Master Hopkins deserves commendation for his personation of Suckthumb, the giant's baby; and Mr. Hilton Frances causes much amusement by the droll antics of his valiant cow. King Fad and Queen Caressa are well represented by Mr. Charles Grantley and Miss Pattie Fairley; while the comedy element is maintained in mirthful fashion by Mr. Fred C. Imbert, Mr. Gilbert Payne, and Mr. John Henri, in the respective parts of Dame Gabble, Simple Simon, and Dowal. Miss Evelyn Robson and Miss Iris Banfield work successfully as Mephisto and Spirit of Love

LEVEN.—TOWN HALL.—Her Fatal Past was presented on Saturday, by Mr. Rushbury's company, under the capable direction of Mr. W. A. Warren. Miss Mabel Durham, as Honor Symes, the woman with a past, was natural and convincing; Miss Alice Ramsdale, first as Leonard's wife, and later as the adventuress, Belle de Lara; Miss Lillian Murray, as Martha Springwell, and Sal Jenkins much strength; a capital Gerald Fairfax was submitted by Mr. Fred Goddard; Blanche Kingsley was satisfactorily undertaken by Miss V. Ingram; Mr. Edgar L. Hocking as Hawke proved an admirable shady solicitor; and some good comedy came from Mr. Percy Hayes as Timothy Dowd and Miss Etta Turner as Dolly Gray. Worthy support came from Mr. Horace Denton, Mr. Charles Johnson, and Mr. Harry Scatchard. The play was splendidly staged, and some of the effects were uncommonly startling.

ROYAL HIPPODROME. — Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Barrasford.—Joe Peterman's company is at the head of the list here this week with The Belle of the Orient, which has been much enjoyed. To Leo Dryden a hearty welcome has been accorded for his capital songs, particularly his latest, "Bachelor boys, farewell"; an attractive feature is the electrical scena, The Maiden's Prayer, in which Mdlle. Ghita Corri sings two numbers; the Kentucky Trio are expert jugglers; Sam Morrison, "the Male Patti," who was discovered singing on the sands at Blackpool, possesses an excellent voice; Keen and Waller are a laughable pair of acrobatic comedians; some smart conjuring is executed by Sydney Lee; Bliss and Bliss are excellent as comedians and dancers; as sand dancers and speciality vocalists Starr and Jerome are good; Mountford and Walsh have a taking drawing-room entertainment; and Ida Ross gives satisfaction as a comedienne.

NEW PARTHENON.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Edwin W. Smith.—At the head of the programme here this week is J. A. Cassels, a Scotch comedian, who provokes much laughter. The Three Royal Temples render several vocal operatic selections; Joe Gold and Dorothy Sterling have a refined musical speciality. The Welsh Girl and the Artist; Kitty Marion is a dainty comedienne; Harry Jennings is a clog dancer of no mean order; and George Edney possesses a voice of good range and sweetness. The bioscope at this place always has an excellent set of pictures. Cordial support is given to the Tuesday matinées.

ROYAL PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Manager, Mr. M. Montgomery, Junr.; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank O'Toole.—After a most successful fortnight of Christmas fare Mr. Percy Boucher and his stock company have returned to dramatic work. This week the sketch When Rogues Fall Out has been staged. Mr. Boucher takes his original parts of Billy Faggles and Mother Scuttle; Mr. Cecil Ravenswood plays powerfuly as Sir Henry Lorrimore; a capital Jack Lorrimore is given by Mr. Harry Tresham; and Mr. E. D. Allen makes an excellent Bill Jenkins. Others who give much support are Mr. Herbert Cecil, Miss Beryl Ravenswood. Miss Marjory Armstrong, and Miss Lena Nazeby.

PADDINGTON PALACE.—Proprietors, The Palaces, Liverpool, Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. Walter de Frece; Director of Entertainments, Mr. Fred Willmot.—Top of the bill here this week is the Irish sketch, Donnybrook, presented by Lizette Sutherland and her thirty assistants. Farr and Farland are smart comedy bojoists; as an eccentric comedian Johnny Walker causes much laughter; and Haynes and Hughes were a couple of able speciality artists.

PARK PALACE.—Proprietors, The Palaces, Liverpool, Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. Walter de Frece; Director of Entertainments, Mr. Fred Willmot.—The top line here this week is Dandy George with his performing dog "Rosie." Shawlene, the tramp whistler, is amusing; the Esdale Bros. are smart comedians and speciality artists; Ismay's Piccaninnies, with their singing and dancing, are a good turn; some comical boxing is performed by the Arundels; a smart comedy duologue is given by Silvestre and Sansome; and Edna Barrett sings and dances agreeably.

HAYMARKET.—Lessee, Mr. Fred Willmot.—Percy Boucher's company put in another week here with the sketch The Lottery of Life. A funny knockabout bar act is provided by Elton and Elma, and Rosie Morn is a dainty comedienne. The bioscope shows some excellent pictures.

WESTMINSTER.—Manager, Mr. M. Montgomery; Acting-Manager, Mr. G. Montgomery.—Two expert hand jumpers, Jules and Feroud, are at the top of the bill here this week. Mike Cray has some funny juggling tricks; Gerald Mount, society entertainer, assisted by Rosie the maid, gives a good turn; as a comedienne Lil Hartley acquits herself with credit; George Dixon, eccentric comedian, has a novel musical act; Hilda Corelli has a smart newsboy's scena, assisted by six lads; and Fred Casburn, comedian, also appears.

OLYMPIA. — Proprietors. Moss' Empires, Ltd.; Manager, Mr. A. W. Young.—Continued success follows the spectacle, The Redskins, which is in its third week. The Empire Comedy Four are earning golden opinions and causing great laughter; Alice May and company have a humorous sketch, Tranquillity, Miss May impersonating seven characters; Rosie Archer and Harry Carsdale are excellent mimics; Sybil St. Elmo sings with taste and judgment; a funny speciality, The Dancing Goose, is given by Gallagher and Hild; Charles Cardow sings with satisfaction his own songs; and Douglas and Ford prove themselves clever comedy artists and dancers.

LLANELLY.—ROYALTY THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Z. Andrews; Acting-Manageress, Miss Alice Rocheforte.—Mr. F. Marriot Watson's company is here this week, in A False Wife, with Miss Florence E. Florence as Lady Mansfield, a part which she plays well. Mr. George Langham is good in his respective parts; Lieut. George Mansfield is capitally portrayed by Mr. Howard Barlow; whilst Mr. C. Elton Morgan, as Ben Rattler, is also commendable; the villain's part, Jean Berand, is well taken by Mr. Frank Strickland; Mr. Owen Edwin, and Miss Nita Imeson cause much fun as P.C. Archibald Brown, and Bessie Blazer, respectively; Miss Ellen Armour is excellent as Agnes Weyland.

LONG EATON.—LYCEUM THEATRE.—The Cinderella pantomime company, from Halifax, opened here on Monday under very favourable conditions. There is a large company, with a well arranged panto., containing variety and merriment in plenty. Miss Evelyn Dena is a pleasing Cinderella; and the Prince is an old favourite, Miss Lillie Monckton, whose "For better or for worse" song is applauded nightly. The Sisters give scope for Messrs. Billy Jackson and Herbert Grapho; while Mr. Alf. Widdowson, as Buttons, is very clever. Cinderella is conveyed to the ball in an electric coach, making a big display. Plenty of specialities are introduced, including Madame Cordelia, in her picture dance, the quick scene changes of Grapho and Jackson, the Duncan and Morton incidents, and the Japanese exhibition of trickery, in which doves and rabbits are mysteriously introduced.

LOUGHBOROUGH.—NEW THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. Payne Seddon and George Robertson; Acting-Manager, Mr. Lindsey Edwards.—This week Mr. J. Bannister Howard has sent a powerful company with Oliver Twist. Mr. Stanley Drewitt's impersonation of Fagin leaves nothing to be desired, for he gives a powerful rendering; Bill Sikes is in the safe hands of Mr. William H. Kemble; and Mr. Charlie Clark is a capable Artful Dodger; Miss Dorothy Marsden gives a sympathetic rendering of Oliver Twist; and Miss Marie Polini is perfect in the rôle of Nancy; Mr. Cyril Cattley is good as Harry Maylie; and Mr. W. H. Rotherham successfully doubles Mr. Grimwig and Monks.

LOWESTOFT. — MARINA. — Managing-Director Mr. E. A. Smith. — Produced at Liverpool three weeks ago, we have this week a new drama, Geoffrey Langdon's Wife (?), which is exceedingly well dressed and staged. Miss Marie Dagmar, as Elinor D'Arville, gives a careful study, and is warmly applauded; Mr. Fred C. Somerfield is also highly successful in the rôle of Will Maynard; Mr. Fred Emery does well in the dual part of Cyril and Geoffrey Langdon; Mr. Bradford Crosby makes a humorous Peter Miles; and Miss Maudie Grayson is a lively Phœbe; Miss Edith Matt is suitably cast as Janet Miles; and Messrs. Chas. E. Warne, and T. G. Vane are both amusing.

LUTON.—GRAND THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. E. Graham Falcon; Business-Manager, Mr. Louis J. Beard.—Mr. E. Graham Falcon's company, in the Babes in the Wood, which was produced at Bedford, opened here on Monday. Mr. Henry Maynard, as the Demon, is capital, his fine baritone voice helping greatly to make the part a success; Mr. Fred Alberto makes a capital Baron; the part of Robin Hood is taken by Miss Marion Hall, a clever artist, whose excellent singing and pleasing manner at once makes her a favourite; Mr. Chas. Pestin, as Dame Trot, sustains the part well; the two ruffians are represented by Messrs. Kelly and Poletti. The chorus is well trained, and quite up to the standard. The transformation scene, representing the submarine world, is admirable. Wednesday night was set apart for Mr. Falcon's first benefit.

MACCLESFIELD.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. W. K. Gattey.—Miss Mary Austin's talented and powerful company is occupying the boards this week with the emotional drama The Cotton Spinner, the piece being admirably staged. Mr. E. Vivian Edmonds is a manly Arthur Norbury, his acting being consistently good throughout; as John Prescott, Mr. John S. Haydon is powerful; Mr. G. R. Peach plays the part of Lord Northbury with ability; Mr. Ernest E. Edwards, as Major Stratton, is interesting, and in conjunction with Miss Bella Power, as Lady Charlotte, is responsible for very humorous scenes and Mr. Henry Howard as Foster Cunningham plays the villain's part effectively. Miss Mary Austin as Mary Prescott is pathetic and forcible; and Miss Enid Ross as Constance creditably sustains the part.

MAIDENHEAD.—TOWN HALL.—Secretary, The Town Clerk.—Mr. Arthur Hart's My Lady Molly company had a crowded and appreciative audience on the 4th. Miss Reydon Dallas was a capital Lady Molly, Miss Mary Glanbran a captivating Hester, and Miss Susie Oak and Miss Belle Gray were excellent as Alice Coverdale and the French Governess. Messrs. Vernon C. Booth and Sydney C. Lindon respectively were good as Captain Harry Romney and Lionel Bland; Mr. Gordon Begg and Mr. Fred Doran work well as Sir Miles and Reuben Oats; and Mr. George McCloskie was very entertaining as Micky O'Dowd.

MAIDSTONE.—HIPPODROME. — Manager, Mr. T. M. Sylvester.—Cliff Ryland is the chief attraction here this week, and is giving a very popular turn. Miss Ella Dean, the double-voiced vocalist, is a great favourite; Harry Maynard, actor-vocalist, has some good songs, the choruses of which are heartily taken up; Delmar is a clever society entertainer; and Oliver Conroy, comedian and dancer, and the Camerons, speciality artists, are also in the bill.

MANCHESTER.—ROYAL OSBORNE THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead.—A capital company is to be seen here this week in Mr. Walter Melville's well-known moral play, A Girl's Cross Roads. Mr. Charles Franmore presents an excellent picture of John Meadows; Mr. Frank R. Robertson cleverly depicts Jack Livingstone, and Mr. John Brooks is very good as Luke Ramsden. Miss Nannie Meade as Nellie Meadows and Miss Ada Oakley as Barbara Wade both act admirably; and other prominent parts are commendably rendered by Mr. Fred Ingram, Miss Elsie Saville, and Mr. Roy Fortesque. The play is thoroughly interesting and well staged.

METROPOLE THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead.—Haley's Prize Juveniles, in their magnificent carnival scene, head the bill here this week. Prominent also are the Original Celtics trio, who give a capital musical turn. Other good business is supplied by Gill and Gilbey, the rival bill-posters; Sisters Petram, with their clever Fantoches performance; Primavesi, unique juggler; Four Singing Mill-lads from Oldham; Charles Dixon, comedian; Kate Lind, comedienne, and Sultan Brothers, comedy acrobats and equilibrists.

GRAND JUNCTION THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead.—Mr. H. A. Jordison's pantomime of The Babes in the Wood was presented to a large audience here on Monday night. It is a really excellent show, elaborately staged and dressed, and equipped with ample talent. Mr. Jordison has once more secured Miss Madge Daly to play principal boy, a part for which her fine presence and excellent voice are admirably suited; Mr. Rowland Hill is also again in evidence, his comicalities having free play in the rôle of Dame Peggy; Miss Nancy Thornton gives a pleasing and clever rendering of Maid Marian, and Mr. A. Stratton depicts the wicked Baron in vigorously funny style. Messrs. Bennett and Martell are busy and efficient as the robbers; Little Dolly Cullen and Little Elsie Jordison act, sing, and dance very cleverly indeed as the Babes. Miss Madge Daly makes a big success with her two songs "Bombay" and "Molly, I love you," and among other vocal successes is Miss Nancy Thornton's "I ain't goin' to leave home in the rain." Specialities are introduced by David Poole, ventriloquist; Jordison's Ariston Quartette of Dancers, and Gus Belsiger, who also plays the part of the Baron's page.

ST. JAMES'S THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. H. A. Jordison; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. S. Nicholas.—Mr. Jarman's company in Under the Czar is the attraction here this week. The play, as its title indicates, is pitched in Russia, and contains plenty of dramatic interest. It is also very well staged and cleverly presented, the most notable among the company being Mr. Bertram H. Ross, Miss Lacy Murray, and Miss Cathleen Cavanagh.

THE KING'S OPERA HOUSE.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead; Resident-Acting-Manager, Mr. P. Baynham.—Carter Livesey and company, including Lilian Rosebury, head the bill here this week in their most successful skit The Would-Be Actors, a very amusing bit of nonsense, well acted; Billy Richardson gives a laughable stump oration in the good old style; the Sisters Williams, Welsh duettists, sing delightfully; Ara, Zebra, and Vora appear in their clever acrobatic act, Indian Pastimes; the Cape Girls are pleasing singers and capital long-boot dancers; Revill Hall sings "It's all right for Mr. White," a capital song; Will Walton makes a hit with his song, "That's the way they do in Merrie England"; Gertrude Mason sings nicely; the Phantos present a weird and comic novelty, entitled The Phantom Ship, and "Annie's Love Story" is depicted on the Bioscope.

EMPIRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; Acting-Manager, Mr. Will Collins.—Kitty Loftus, the well-known comedienne, is the particular star here this week, and makes a big hit with her song "Splendid Force is the Police"; Fred S. Peake and company appear in a well acted and intensely dramatic episode, The Hypocrite; Lora is a pretty girl who has a wonderful memory, particularly for figures; Frank Maura, the Mexican foot equilibrist, is second to none in his particular line, and the Cotton Blossoms, a quartette of coloured singers and dancers, give a pleasing turn; Fred Elton, as a ship's officer, mimics a concert in a decidedly entertaining manner, and is well received; Hilda and Sybil Coe play harp selections nicely; Jimson's Pets are well trained, and the Five Osranis have some funny business in a pantomimic incident. The Bioscope pictures are amusing.

HIPPODROME.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; Acting-Manager, Mr. E. P. Morgan.—The Butterflies in Fairyland ballet still holds the chief place in the bill at this popular house, and is really a most wonderful and brilliant show. An important turn also is that of Paul Spadoni, the Herculean juggler, who plays with cannonballs; and equally successful are the Lorch family of risleyists; the Jees, in their funny musical pantomime The Musical Smithy; and Albert Whelan, the smart Australian entertainer; while entertaining business is provided by Eno, imitator of popular stars; the Two Lannons, duettists and pedestal dancers; and Nina Gordon, the Scottish mimic at the piano. Beside these, the Hippodrome choir renders Hamish M'Cunn's version of "The Wreck of the Hesperus" with success, and a series entitled "Grandpa and the Butterfly" is presented on the Bioscope.

TIVOLI.—Managing-Director, Mr. Charles A. Wilkes; Acting-Manager, Mr. Arthur B. Wilkes.—Austin Rudd tops the bill here this week, and, as usual, scores a big success; Albert Christian, a favourite baritone, sings several songs in an excellent manner, and the Golden Michalini appear in a clever and amusing equilibrist and juggling act. Harry Allan and Rose Hart are smart duettists, dancers, and protean artists, and are well received; Madame Collard introduces some clever dogs; Tyrola, the Swiss girl, sings in a pleasing manner; Flo Cecil sings some smart songs, and dances neatly; Marie Stolle, comedienne, sings a capital song, and Percy Johnson is a most amusing comedian. Raymond's Vivagraph films are very good.

HIPPODROME (HULME).—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead.—A very amusing farcical absurdity is here this week, entitled Spiff! Spaff! Spoof! presented by Walter Howard and company, which keeps the audience in continual merriment. The funny and original methods of A. J. Rebla, the comic juggler, combined with cleverness and novel effects, are productive of well-merited applause, and the eccentric musical act of the Four Vindobonas is excellent; smart and original is the performance of Anthony, the mysterious gentleman in white; and good turns are also those of Adah and Herbert, who sing well; Charles Ashdowne, eccentric comedian and dancer; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Payne, Society entertainers; the Danvils, song illustrators; George Russell, comedian, and "Pictures of Modern Life" depicted on the Bioscope.

QUEEN'S PARK HIPPODROME.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead.—A farcical sketch entitled Barmaids tops the bill here this week, presented by Harry Lowther and company, including Miss Hulo Hodgson. Prominent turns are also those of the Five Grovinis, exceptionally clever acrobats, in a wonderful performance; the Leotards in their clever hat throwing and hand balancing act; and Harris L. Bell and Lily Pearl and company in an amusing sketch A Bit of String. Other good turns are given by Nellie Dunbar, comedienne; Chris Masters, character vocalist; Henderson, the blind musician; the Brothers Sheppard, cross-talk comedians, and Fred Horsfall, mimic. The Bioscope pictures are interesting.

PALACE.—General-Manager, Mr. Walter de Frece; Secretary, Mr. P. Watson; Acting-Manager, Mr. G. Rhodes Parry.—Joe Gorman, the genial Irishman, is the chief attraction here this week, and is vastly entertaining in song, story, and dance; the Boccaccio Minstrels are excellent singers and instrumentalists, and the mandoline playing of Signor Francia is something exceptional; Arabella Allen portrays characters from Dickens in a very clever manner; La Dore is a good speciality dancer; Maxford and O'Neill are amusing cross-talkers; Jessica Grace and coons dance well, and Grant and Grant, coloured entertainers, and the Palace pictures complete the programme. A Trip to the Isle o' Man is still in the bill, and the remarkably clever dancing of the Sisters MacGovern is greatly appreciated.

MARGATE. — HIPPODROME. — Sole Proprietors, Messrs. F. Mouillot and W. de Frece; General-Manager, Mr. J. de Frece; Resident-Manager, Mr. C. F. Bawtree; Assistant-Manager, Mr. H. P. Howell.—A most entertaining programme is presented this week, headed by Ahrensmeyer, descrived as the "Wizard of the Plains." He gives a very smart show. Gracie Lawn, comedienne and dancer, is good; and Tom Moore, comedian, is also most successful in his songs; Mozarto displays considerable expertness as an instrumentalist; whilst Inez Clough, the Mexican nightingale, is a pleasing vocalist. The pictures this week include "The Sailor's Wedding" and other animated scenes, depicted by Ruffell's Imperial Bioscope

FORESTERS' HALL.—Fant Abbott, hypnotist, supported by a company of variety artists and animated pictures, is here this week.

MERTHYR TYDFIL. — THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE.—Sole Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Will Smithson.—No Wedding Bells for Her, presented by Mr. Frank Bateman's company, opened on Monday to a full house. As Lola Delaspierre, Miss Lizzie Mouloque proved herself an actress of ability and scored a success; Miss Ida Mackay successfully represented Doris Fane; and the same may be said of Miss Ellen Owen as Marie Hall. Mr. George C. Doughty, in the part of Dick Delver, merits commendation; Frank Hatherleigh had an able exponent in Mr. Stuart Lomath; Mr. Walter T. Clifford was successful as the villainous Abney Stone; the part of Harold Tevelyn was capitally played by Mr. Edward E. Louis; Mr. A. Balfour Mackay gave an excellent reading of Horatio Fane, an old actor; and the comedy element was well placed in the hands of Mr. Will Skelton as Simpkins, and Miss Helen Stewart as Peggy.

METHIL.—TOWN HALL.—Mr. J. W. Morton's No. 1 company opened here on Monday with The Sporting Girl. In the title-rôle Miss Maggie Sinclair was bright and sprightly, and quickly danced and sang herself into favour; Miss Gladys St. Ledger, Miss Minnie Blackmore, and Miss Nell Ascott sustained admirably the parts of Martha, Mrs. Owen, and Amy Beddoe respectively. In Mr. Harry Sinclair the part of Penton Hook, a Chicago millionaire, had a capable exponent. Messrs. Chas. Phillips and P. Percy Watson, as Jack Garling and Gerald Haynes, were well suited. A good deal of the fun circles round a bogus money-lender and a watchful policeman, and in these characters Messrs. J. H. Stirling and Mr. Jock McKay were very successful. Mr. M. Drury was a good Italian; and Mr. Fred Hart an amusing cleric. The Rajah of Ranjapore was given on Thursday by the same company.

MEXBOROUGH.—PRINCE OF WALES'S THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. W. H. Melton.—Julian Malvern's company is playing here this week in I Defy the World. Mr. Lewis Gilbert gives a fine study of Leon Darville; Mr. Horace Booth plays capitally as Count de Beaulieu; Mr. Chas. Conway is a capable Laroche; as Samuel Wozzle Mr. Chas. M. Julian is thoroughly amusing; Mr. H. Creagh Hunt as André performs creditably; and Mr. D. J. Bosher (Najal), and Mr. D. Stewart (Bochan) work well together; Miss Maud Malvern plays cleverly the rôle of Blanche Darville; Miss Trixie St. Albans is a pleasing Pauline; and Miss G. Coats, a charming child actress, does well as Fanchette.

MIDDLESBROUGH.—GRAND OPERA HOUSE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Manager, Mr. D. K. Chatto.—Mr. Carlton's company in the pantomime Aladdin enters upon its third week, and continues to enjoy a good amount of public patronage. Mr. Wilfred Shine in the rôle of Widow Twankey has established himself a great favourite; Miss Julia Kent is a popular Princess; and Miss Lallah Davies a dashing and winsome Prince. Mr. Will Sandes is exceedingly funny; Little Tony continues to cause laughter by his antics; and Messrs. Carl and Carr are also successful.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor, Mr. Charles Imeson.—Mr. Peter Eland's production The Babes in the Wood is here this week. The pantomime meets with considerable success. It is pretty, and the songs are taking. Miss Minnie Locke and Miss Doris Middleton win golden opinions as the "Babes." The Three Sisters Sprightly appear in principal rôles, and they sing and dance in a captivating manner; Miss Lily Daintree is the charming fairy, and she introduces successfully some interesting impersonations of well-known artists. The comic element is in capital hands. Mr. Harry Gribben and Mr. J. C. Bland, who appear as Sammy and Bill, are irresistibly funny. Some pleasing specialities are introduced, and the scenery is worthy of praise.

EMPIRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. John Brill; Manager, Mr. Charles Rembges.—Excellent turns are provided at this place of amusement this week. Miss Ray Wallace is a great favourite in her impersonations of well-known music-hall artists; Hall and Earle do some clever business as eccentric comedians; the Moran-Marvelle Trio, in novelty comedy act, arouse admiration, the dresses and scenery being exceedingly pretty; Joe Mac awakes roars of laughter by his drollery; the Paxton Trio, head and hand balancers, prove a smart turn; and the ventriloquial turn of Clemart is appreciated. Harley and Arden, comedians, also entertain. The "Bio" completes the bill of fare.

OXFORD PALACE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Graham.—Excellent turns are witnessed at this establishment this week. Sydney Bacon's company in The Maniac heads the bill, and provides a thrilling sensation. Mr. Melville Bickford appears with great success as Nathan Black, the mad inventor. Miss Marion Countie, an old Middlesbrough favourite, maintains her popularity; as does Tony Iveson, who sings several funny songs. Bert Woodward, comedy cyclist, and Les Railes and other turns figure in the programme.

MOTHERWELL.—NEW CENTURY THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident-Manager, Mr. F. W. Davies.—Messrs. Little and Dancy's pantomime, Sinbad the Sailor, continues to do good business here. Mesdames Marion May, Amy Calcott, Ada Maud, and Cora Annitta have nightly to respond to enthusiastic encores. The quaint drolleries of Mr. Walter Adams are as mirth-provoking as ever, ample support being given him by Mr. John E. West and Messrs. Newcombe and Sullivan. The singing of Dobitio and Buxton is a popular feature of the production as is the 'cello solo of Miss Mari Wyatt. Other specialities are the Westwood Comedy Cyclists, the Stuart quartette of dancers, and Little Tim, big-boot dancer. There is an exceptionally large ballet under the baton of Mr. Frank Wyatt.

NELSON.—NEW GRAND THEATRE.—Lessee and Manageress, Mrs. T. Greenwood Croft; Business-Manager, Mr. George E. Mudd.—Mr. Walter Melville's company is this week presenting the sensational play, Her Second Time on Earth. Miss Hilda Reverley, in her original creation of Dora Grey, gives a fine interpretation; Mr. George Gaisford submits a masterly impersonation as Captain Jasper Norman; Mr. Harry Hillier is well received as Jack Carlton; Mr. W. H. Porter is eminently suited in the character of Guy Brande; Mr. Wm. C. Reid has a quaint sense of humour, and ably takes the part of Teddy Butterfly; Mr. Chas. Langton makes a capital Tom Norman; Mr. A. Fellowes Bassett portrays in admirable style the character of the Italian Beppo; the part of Laura Norman is prettily taken by Miss Dorothy Hilderbrande; Miss Polly Marsh is exceptionally clever as Elizabeth Burke, a drunken woman; Miss Marjory Millbank makes a smart Kitty Rosebud; Mr. Jno. Nolan is good as Dr. Ridley; and Mr. Alec Williams as Father Gumbril.

NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE. — TYNE THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Fred W. Wyndham; Business-Manager, Mr. Fred Sutcliffe.—Mother Goose is now in the height of its success, and as the faithful bird lays golden eggs for her owner, it may also be said that she does a similar kindness for the theatre's exchequer, as packed houses are the rule nightly. The various artists have all settled down to their work, and the entire show runs with commendable smoothness. Miss Lily Harold imparts much acceptable vivacity into her rendition of Colin, and her various songs are encored nightly. Miss Daisy Dormer looks more charming than ever as Fill; and Miss Lena Verdi in the character of a Dutch girl hits off the peculiarities of the dialect to a nicety. Miss Cecilia Wilman has a pleasing number in Rainbow, and is entirely successful as the Fairy Queen. Mr. Ernie Mayne has already established himself a big favourite as Jack; his conception of the country yokel fairy bubbles over with humour, and keeps the audience in a continual state of merriment. Mr. George Formby plays the Mayor of Tapham on quite original lines, and proves immensely popular in the singing of several songs. Mr. Ambrose Manning (who was out of the cast on Monday, his place being admirably filled by Mr. Harry A. Meymott) proves thoroughly enjoyable as Mother Goose, and Messrs. Drew and Alders keep the fun going fast and furious.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Resident-Manager, Mr. E. Teale Lingham.—Perhaps it is no exaggeration when we say that this year, with the pantomime Cinderella, Mr. Robert Arthur has scored his greatest triumph since coming to Newcastle. This pleasing state of affairs is undoubtedly due to the brilliant all-round company got together by that experienced pantomime producer, Mr. Robert Courteidge. We could not imagine a more graceful or dainty "Cinders" than Miss Phyllis Dare, who is, without doubt, "everybody's favourite." Miss Hettie Chattel has by sheer merit jumped into high favour by her dashing portrayal of the Prince. The comedians are of exceptional all-round excellence. Mr. Dan Rolyat has an undeniable chance as Archibald; his mirth is quite infectious, and some of his tumbling feats would even make the proverbial "cat laugh." The Baroness of Mr. John Humphries has proved an instantaneous success, and not a little of the evening's enjoyment is due to his quaint impersonation.

PALACE THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. T. W. Rowe; Business-Manager, Mr. E. B. Clark.—Aladdin and His Lamp continues his successful career at the Palace, thanks to the excellent efforts of the Misses Vera Marshall, Lizzie Daniels, Edith Maynard, Maggie Bowman, and Messrs. George Brooks, Cullen and Carthy, Tom J. Morton, F. W. Wilkinson, and Charlene and Charlene, all of whom work harmoniously and well together.

EMPIRE THEATRE.—Resident-Director, Mr. Richard Thornton; Resident-Manager, Mr. E. L. Conroy.—Heading a capital all-round programme here is Richard Sawade and his troupe of performing lions, dogs, bears, and tigers, a turn that arouses the utmost excitement among the audience. Florrie Gallimore returns with a budget of new songs, and this clever lady has still the happy knack of getting "the boys" to join in her choruses. The success of Barney Vox, ventriloquist, has been most emphatic, some of his impromptu gags being appropriate and witty. Kelly and Ashby are responsible for the utmost merriment in their speciality on the billiard table. The aquatic entertainment of the Finneys (James and Marie) is as clever as ever; the Hans Hansen Trio are exceptionally smart as balancing acrobats; the Arthur Lloyd Trio create much mirth in their droll playet, Little Charlie; the Sisters Neilson prove dainty duettists and dancers; Princess Pauline, comedienne, imparts plenty of dash into her act; and a neat gymnastic turn is contributed to by Lydia and Albino.

PAVILION THEATRE. — Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Barrasford; Manager, Mr. Will H. Boardman.—An excellent miniature drama, entitled The Little Stowaway, has been presented for the first time this week to a Novocastrian audience by a company under the direction of Ethel Arden and George Abel, Limited, and has been favourably received. The Four Kweeries provide a mysterious item, some of the illusions creating the utmost amazement. Gus Hindell is entirely successful with his scena, Boys will be Boys; and other prominent turns include Nellie Chandos, comedienne and dancer; the Delones, in a novel act, The Phantom Clogs; Mons. Valoni, novelty juggler; Sherlock and Van Dalle, in a musical speciality, The Mummy and the Undergrad; Joe Cheevers, comedian; and an amusing picture, entitled "Mixed Babies," by the barrascope.

OLYMPIA THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Richard Thornton; Lessee, Mr. Charles Urban.—The conclusion of the "Urbanora" show is announced, after having enjoyed a long and successful season. Prior to closing the show, however, the popular manager, Mr. C. Rider Noble, will take a well-deserved benefit, when extra attractions will appear.

NEWPORT.—LYCEUM. — Lessee and Manager, Mr. Sidney Cooper.—Cinderella, in its third and last week here, is doing capital business. Prince Charming (Miss M. Sadie) has become quite a favourite, and in the rendering of her numbers she scores quite a success; Messrs. King and Delane (the Ugly Sisters) continue to amuse the large houses by their ready wit and humour, and the remaining characters, who have all worked hard for the success of the pantomime, are to be congratulated on the excellent manner in which they have acquitted themselves. The production is a bright, refined, and charming spectacle all through, and teeming with genuine, wholesome fun.

EMPIRE.—Moss' Empires, Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. O. Stoll.—A capital programme is provided here this week, and is attracting good houses. Morris Cronin and his troupe in a club-swinging show are deservedly applauded; Bell and Henry are amusing; Grace Merton, the original street singer, is well received; and the Three Finney Sisters, in a graceful aquatic exhibition, evoke warm recognition; the Bandurrias provide a rich musical treat; Baker and Lynn, in The Brainless Boy, elicit laughter; Francis Nylie and his dog circus are entertaining; and Mokkouse and Ward, comedy cyclists, keep the house amused.

NORTHAMPTON.—OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietors and Managers, Mr. Milton Bode and Mr. Edward Compton; Resident-Manager, Mr. Harry Esden.—Mr. G. M. Polini's and Austin Melford's company is here, in The Silver King. Herbert Ford is an impressive exponent of Wilfred Denver; Miss Daisy Scudamore is a sweetly sympathetic Nellie Denver; Daniel Jaikes is still admirably played by Mr. Edward J. George; Mr. Algernon J. Hicks is a good "Spider." Mr. J. L. Power an amusing Henry Corkett, and Mr. Arthur an effective Elijah Coombe. Mr. W. Thompson as Cripps, Mr. E. A. Palmer as Geoffrey Ware, and Mr. Byron Pedley as Baxter are all well placed. Olive Skinner finds an excellent representative in Miss Georgina Wynter; and Miss Bessie Wright is a capable Susie. On Wednesday, Mr. Austin played the part of Coombe, and the remainder of the week appeared as Wilfred Denver.

PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Fred H. Anderson; Acting-Manager, Mr. Robert Barton.—"Two Fine Girls," les Seurs Marianos, give a performance on the trapeze and balanced ladder which has an exciting finish; the Dixon Ladies are charming duettists, banjoists, and sand dancers; Harry Taft is a good whistler and comedian; Winnie Travers is a pleasing comedienne; Dan Silmer, comedian, amuses in song and dance; Jimmy James excels as a banjo and bone soloist; the Three Alberts give a neat display of equilibrism; Sidney Arnold, vocalist, also appears; and the Palace Pictures maintain their excellence and popularity.

NORTH SHIELDS.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Arthur Jefferson; Acting-Manager, Mr. Horace Lee.—Mr. Charles Macdona's company, with Three Little Maids, has had an enthusiastic reception here this week. Mr. F. Henderson is clever as Lord Cheyne; Mr. T. Wilson works hard and successfully as Brian Molyneux; and Mr. W. Morgan is in every way satisfactory as Rev. Mr. Branscombe. Mr. Ewart Drake gives an admirable representation of Cupid; M. de l'Orme has a capital exponent in Mr. Wilfred Heath; Ada, Hilda, and Edna are in the capable hands of Misses Doris Lind, Cora Lingard, and Marie West, who play their parts in charming style. Miss Kate Graham Beck is an effective Lady St. Mallory; Miss Laura Wright is smart as Gretchen; and Miss P. Castleton is well received as Miss Price.

NEW CENTRAL PALACE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Wm. Mould.—The Comet Comedy Trio, vocalists and comedians, meet with a cordial reception here; and Mr. A. C. Revel, juggler, performs some very clever feats. The Lecardo Brothers, burlesque acrobats, are funny; Miss Lydia Dudley, versatile artist; Messrs. Fields and Lewis, burlesque artists; Mr. Jack McCann, comedian and skate dancer; and the Bio-photoscope, are all well received.

NORTHWICH.—CENTRAL THEATRE.—Proprietress, Mrs. S. Golden; Manager, Mr. Lester Wright.—Mr. Arnold Bell, supported by an excellent company, is this week occupying the local theatre with Ben-my-Chree, The Shaughraun, and The Ticket of Leave Man. He is ably seconded by Miss Frances Campbell, who, as Mona Mylrea in Ben-my-Chree, creates a favourable impression.

NORWICH. — THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Manager, Mr. Fred Morgan.—Mr. Frank Bertram's company is here this week with The Breed of the Treshams. Mr. Junius Booth in a powerful manner acts the part of Lieutenant Reresby; Mr. Oswald Lingard is also very good as Viscount Dorsington; and Mr. C. Herbert Hewetson [illegible] Hungerford. Mr. G. Trail deserves praise as Sir Henry Curwen, Mr. Chas. T. Doe as Colonel Bagshaw, Mr. W. M. Wetherell as Captain Stanhope, Mr. Cecil Underwood as Captain Rashleigh, Mr. Geo. Jackson as Lieutenant Willoughby, and Mr. Cecil Klein as Cornet the Hon. Francis Tresham, perform their respective parts in a praiseworthy manner. Miss Celestine Bertram as Batty acts most charmingly; Miss Ada Perry as Mrs. Bagshaw, and Miss Belle Donaldson as Helena Pierrepoint, deserve every praise for their exertions. Miss Agnes Verity appears as the Hon. Margaret Hungerford.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. E. H. Bostock and F. W. Pitt; Manager, Mr. F. W. Pitt.—An excellent variety entertainment is presented this week. The Brothers De Wynne exhibit marvellous ability as equilibrists; Professor Duncan introduces his troupe of performing collies, and has a capital reception; Amy Russell proves a pleasing vocalist; Musto as a humorous contortionist meets with much approval; Hicks's Clerks are an amusing and excellent turn; the Three Macgregors obtain much applause for their musical melange; whilst Clotilde and her cockatoos and parrots prove very attractive. Will Godwin and company submit a realistic sketch, entitled Repentance; and the Hippo. Bioscope give a representative pantomime

Mr. F. S. Gilbert's resonant voice and fine presence add dignity to the character of King Richard; and Mr. William Rokeby makes an amusing villain. The Lorenzi Brothers perform their knockabout business smartly; and the Babes (Misses Renée Lancaster and Maisie Rawlings) deservedly earn a big measure of applause.

KING'S THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. A. W. Bull.—A triple bill is provided this week by Mr. Ernest R. Abbott's company, consisting of A Wife's Triumph, Sapho, and Trilby. The first-named, presented on Monday night, was given a hearty reception. Mr. Abbott portrayed Frank Wilton with commendable ease and care; Mr. Douglas C Phelps realised exactly a typical Yorkshire squire; Mr. W. H. Garbois capitally interpreted the knavish tricks of Ellis Jordan, being ably assisted by Mr. Weedon Ross as Julius Hartmann. An attractive embodiment of Alice Wilton was given by Miss Sybil Leslie; and Miss Marjorie Tennant proved a vivacious Margery Crib. Praise is also due to Miss Ada Abbott, Miss Elsie Jones, Mr. D. Pentland, and Mr. P. Douglas.

EMPIRE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; Acting-Manager, Mr. Chas. H. Bowmaker. — A return visit of Miss Florence St. John and company in My Milliner's Bill has drawn large and delighted audiences, who have given the famous actress an enthusiastic welcome. Spessardy's bears and ponies form a striking example of patience and careful training, and the "turn" is heartily applauded; Orla's acrobatic dogs supply yet another instance of good training, and an ovation nightly awaits them; the humorous sketches of Robert Ganthony prove an interesting feature; and the comedy element is further helped by Hart and Leo. A plastic figure performance by Terley evokes applause; and Brown and Robinson are quite successful. Capital views on the American Bioscope, Rackett and Hazard in a "musical trip round the world," and Dot Hardy as a funny little slavey, complete an excellent programme.

NUNEATON.—PRINCE OF WALES'S THEATRE AND ENTERTAINMENTS CO., LTD.—Managing Director, Mr. A. F. Cross; Acting-Manager, Mr. Walter J. R. Bryan.—Messrs. Dottridge and Longden's company is here, in the sensational drama The Midnight Mail. Mr. George Havard plays in excellent style the part of Harry Steyne; Mr. C. P. Wentworth appears as Hassan Padisha, and Mr. Harry Emmerson as Jasper Thornleigh. Mr. Fred G. Evison's portrayal of Billy Brewer is productive of much fun; Miss Grace Lester gives a good representation of Mary Steyne; and Miss Mildred Carr scores as Nancy Brewer.

OXFORD.—NEW THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. T. Lucas, J.P.; Acting-Manager, Mr. C. C. Dorrill.—This week we are having a most delightful return visit of Blue-Bell in Fairyland, which, admirably interpreted by Murray King and Clark's company, met with a most enthusiastic reception from a packed house on Monday. Miss Gladys Cooper's Blue-Bell is a delightful and fascinating performance; Mr. Lawrence Emery gives excellent support as Dicky; Messrs. H. C. Morton and E. Cossart provide ample fun in their clever and highly amusing performance of Blib and Blob; Mr. Stanley Crisp works hard and successfully as the cat the King and Queen find clever exponents in Mr. C. Morris and Miss Muriel Juin; Mr. Percy Farrimond as a policeman shows himself the possessor of a powerful tenor voice; Mr. Edgar Pleon is good as the yellow dwarf; Miss Minnie Blanchard makes a capital fairy and dances prettily as the autumn leaf; and little Ruby Carter as Will o' the Wisp dances herself into high favour.

EMPIRE THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Albany Ward; Acting-Manager, Mr. H. G. P. Wells.—Mr. Charles Carte's company is here with A Noble Brother. Mr. Carte holds his audience spell-bound with his powerful and careful acting of Jerry, a part which he seems to have gripped thoroughly. Mr. Arthur Gilroy is also effective as Henry Travers, while Mr. J. Wilson is manly as Jack Elsworth. Mr. Maurice Jones is a success as Colonel Richard Leigh, and Mr. Alexander Haviland makes the most of the small part of the strange preacher. Miss Doris Brookes shows power and ability as Nan Leigh, and Miss Alice Ballard is good as Mrs. Leigh; Miss Katie Cameron infuses life into the part of Rosie Rapid.

PAISLEY.—PAISLEY THEATRE.—Sole Proprietor and Manager, Mr. J. H. Savile.—Crowded houses have been the rule this week, matinées included, to witness Mr. Savile's ninth pantomime production in town. The Sleeping Beauty is running with delightful smoothness, the artists engaged combining to make it a thorough success. Miss Marie Adair, who plays the title-rôle so charmingly, puts all her heart and soul into her work. She is one of the best principal girls seen in Paisley. Miss Ethel Wilson makes an elegant Prince and has more than justified her selection. New business is constantly being introduced by the comedians. The Belinda Butterscotch of Mr. Willie Garvey is already popular, so humorous is it, and the talent and versatility of Mr. George Hestor in the part of Count Crankiwitz are fully appreciated. A prolific fun-maker is Mr. Peter D. Bermingham in his assumption of Jake M'Craw, and one regrets that the exigencies of the plot do not allow him to appear until the pantomime is half over. Miss Ettie Cinders as Ladida and Miss Annie Wright as Pipette work hard and are always to the front. Mr. Dan O'Connor as the King and Mr. Arthur Ferris as Prince Tommy score in their respective parts. Miss Alma Evelyne distinguishes herself as the Queen, and Miss Kitty Jones (Benevolentia) and Miss Florence Lister (Furiana) perform splendidly. Mr. Frank Sutherland as Truthful Tim maintains his reputation; he is also responsible for the stage management, and works with ability. It may be mentioend that the incantation, "Spring from the Earth," from Dr. Cowen's cantata, "Sleeping Beauty," is introduced by permission, and is given a fine rendering by Fairy Furiana and a local male chorus. The last scene, the Prince's Summer Palace, is a most gorgeous one, and is well worthy of special praise. It is enhanced by the chorus, who strikingly represent, in a triumph of the costumiers' art, different countries, designs which reflect the greatest credit on Mr. R. Crafter.

EMPIRE.—Lessee, Mr. J. H. Savile; Manager, Mr. Delno Fritz.—The management has an excellent company engaged here this week. It includes Chevalier Cliquot, sword swallower; Alf Ripon, ventriloquist; Rex and Ford, comedians; Lottie Bray, comedienne, banjo, song, and dance artist; Shavo and Frank, comedy jugglers; James Horton, comedian; the Two Sages (Will and Jenny); and Ted Curtis and his Piccaninnies.

PENTRE.—LYCEUM THEATRE.—Sole Owners, Messrs. Carlton and Duckworth; Manager, Mr. Sam Duckworth; Resident-Manager, Mr. J. Roberts Jones.—This week Mr. Chas. H. Phelps' company is presenting One Woman's Wickedness, and the opening night attracted a large audience. The piece is full of interest and the songs and humour have an enlivening effect. Mr. Alf. Geo. Fry impersonates Philip Beaufort with vigour, his efforts being ably seconded by Miss Amy Dalby as Lillian Craggs; Jem Craggs is a well-studied part as presented by Mr. Chas. H. Phelps; Mr. Tommy D. Byron creates much laughter by his impersonation of Lord Algernon Fitznoodle; Mr. Frank Rogers as Sam is exceedingly good; and Miss Mamie Prescott earns praise for her vivacious acting as Jemmy Jiggles.

PENZANCE.—ST. JOHN'S HALL.—Miss Maggie Morton's company in the romantic drama, The Temptress, appeared here on Monday and Tuesday, under the personal direction of Mr. Fred K. Herman. Miss Roma Tremayne as Lady Fordyce, "the temptress," presented a powerful impersonation of the unscrupulous adventuress. Miss Madge Carrington played Marion Fordyce in a natural and unforced manner, whilst Madge Denbeigh, as portrayed by Miss Vera Meacham, was a weird conception of the distraught and much wronged wife of Lucas Denbeigh, the villain of the play, in which character Mr. J. Cook Hinton made the most of his opportunities, which won for him the hearty condemnation of pit and gallery, in itself a high compliment to the actor's ability. Mr. Otto Minster was manly as Phillip Welford, and Mr. F. K. Herman picturesque and clever in the character of the revengeful Pedro Gonzales. The comedy element was in the capable hands of Mr. F. Morton-Wright as Bob Tanner, Mr. C. V. Bern as Francis Fitz-Fluke, and Miss Olive Loftus Leyton as Rhoda, who, with Mr. Arthur Searle as John Gregory, were responsible for much hearty laughter. The incidental music by Mr. J. Rubinstein added to the completeness of the production.

PERTH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Lessee and Manager, Mr. J. H. Savile; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Aldridge.—Mr. Edward Marris's company is having a successful week here in The Dandy Doctor. Mr. Edmond Russell is successful in the rôle of Melchisadech Brown, the millionaire; and Miss Norah Melton follows close as Jane; Mr. James Danvers' Colonel Pendred is delightfully amusing; Mr. Stanley S. Gordon gives a good impersonation of Dr. Arthur Vandyke; and Mr. Leslie Martin is an admirable Bertie Bolingbroke; Miss May Yates is a favourite as Ivy Pendred, and Miss Dolly Payne is well suited in the rôle of Henson, the doctor's Buttons. The specialities introduced by Mr. James Danvers and Miss Marie Gerrard; the Dandy Belles; Mr. Ben Rowe and Miss Holden; and the Troupe of Dancers add much to the success of a very enjoyable performance.

PLYMOUTH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. C. F. Williams; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. Langdon Lee.—The pantomime of The Forty Thieves is going stronger than ever, new features introduced this week meeting with hearty approval. Messrs. Witty Wattie, Walton, Reginald Bolton, B. Couch-Johns, the Misses May Moore Duprez, Pattie Bella, Ethel Bryant, Elma Morris, Alice Lawrence, Lottie Mellor, Bessie Graves, Beatrice Jackson, and Myrtle Woodward are enacting, with considerable success, the principal parts.

GRAND THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. C. F. Williams; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy Williams; Assistant Acting-Manager, Mr. Ernest Grant.—Man to Man is the attraction here this week, with Mr. Henry Renouf and Miss Beatrice Whitney in the leading rôles, assisted by an able company. Some good acting is provided by Mr. Renouf, who impersonates the hero in manly fashion; Miss Whitney's interpretation of the character, Gipsy Madge, is a clever and careful study marked by many good qualities; Mr. Gordon McLeod and Mr. Richard Bosco, as the villain and parson respectively, are realistic and convincing; and words of praise are also due to Mr. Green Taylor, Miss Lily Prescott, and Miss Irma Farington. The piece is well mounted.

METROPOLE THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Arthur Carlton.—Cinderella continues, and deservedly so, to draw full houses, the production being generally regarded as the funniest and brightest of Mr. Carlton's series. Messrs. Jack Cromo, Alec Godfrey, Harley, Melton, R. J. Tate, H. Talbot, and F. D. Fraser, the Misses F. Watson, Edna Cragge, Amy Randolph, Edie Cameron, Eny Durell, Violet Duggan, and Lola de Marr enact the principal parts, and are scoring well.

PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Managing-Directors, Messrs. Livermore Brothers; Manager, Mr. J. Field.—Rarely has a better programme been submitted here than that provided this week. The Alexandroff Troupe of Russians are clever dancers and singers; another important turn is that given by the Five Sisters Warwick, in graceful feats on bicycles; Austin and Cowan sing and act so well that they are nightly the recipients of encores; a very unique novelty, styled A-Ba-Be, and consisting of a living picture postcard album, is refined and pleasing to a degree, the young artist who poses being graceful and pretty; refinement and humour are associated with the répertoire of Rita and Roma, who sing and act in capital style; the Five Bon-Bons appear in a pantomime trap scene; and Fred Hallam and Harry Barker are popular comedians.

PONTYPRIDD.—ROYAL CLARENCE THEATRE.—Owners and Proprietors, Mrs. Trenchard and Miss L. Jones; Manager, Mr. Charles Trenchard.—The attraction this week is Mr. Arthur Carlton's company in The Span of Life. Richard Blunt is played with distinction by Mr. Sanderson Moffatt; Mr. S. Trelawney scores as Dunstan Leech; Nutty Brown is ably portrayed by Mr. Syd Sylvester; Joshua Gurnet is in the able hands of Mr. Edwin T. Kisby; the Brothers Stebbing are enthusiastically received; Mr. J. Petersfell as Aznek is a success; Miss Phyllis Hamilton displays power as Kate Heathcote; and Miss Harriet Russell and Miss Kitty Russell are admirable as Mrs. Jelf and Shrove Tuesday respectively.

PORTH.—POOLE'S OPERA HOUSE.—Manager, Mr. W. Bynorth.—Miss Elaine Verner's company opened on Monday in Saints and Sinners. Mr. Harding Thomas appears as Jacob Fletcher and his acting is much appreciated. Miss Elaine Verner is all that could be desired as Letty Fletcher; Mr. John H. Hooker capably portrays George Kingsmill; Mr. Archibald McLean is good as Captain Eustace Fanshaw; Mr. George Lorena deserves credit as Uncle Bambury; Miss Atholie Robertson gives an excellent portrayal of Fanny Parridge; Miss Ada Clarke successfully takes the part of Lydia.

PORTSMOUTH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Licensee and Manager, Mr. J. W. Boughton; Acting-Manager, Mr. Armstrong Bell.—The bright musical play, The Spring Chicken, opened here on Monday, being presented by Mr. George Edwardes's company. Miss Gertrude Glyn played with archness and vivacity the mercenary Rosalie; Mrs. Girdle was in the capable hands of Miss Irene Verona, who made an excellent impression with the number, "I don't know, but I can guess"; Miss Rita Everard personated Madam Dulcie Babori in a bright and winning manner, her rendering of the melodious number, "Gently," being greatly admired; Baroness Papouche was cleverly taken by Miss Gertrude Gillian; Mr. George Gregory was exceedingly droll in the character of Mr. Girdle; Mr. S. W. Harris as Gustave Babori did admirable work; and Boniface was energetically acted by Mr. Donald Hall.

PRINCE'S THEATRE.—Licensee and Manager, Mr. J. W. Boughton; Acting-Manager, Mr. T. B. Agate.—The pantomime Cinderella has undoubtedly caught on here. The ballet and transformation scene are most charming, and the shadow pantomime of the harlequinade is a joy to the juveniles. Pimples the Page, the Baron, and the two ugly sisters are personated by Messrs. Frank Dunlop, Dick Thomas, Sydney Benson, and W. G. Wesldy, who are unflagging in their energy, and work together with great success. The leading ladies, including Miss Adele Roze as Cinderella, Mdlle. de Rose as Prince Perfect, Miss Zena Sana as Dandini, Miss Rose Careezer as Fairy Sunbeam have become great favourites with the audiences. The Wednesday and Saturday matinées have been well attended.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Secretary Mr. W. Pratt.—Heading the bill here are the Althoffs, in their riding act; Miss Louise and Herman give a clever and graceful exhibition of double jockey riding, which gives unbounded satisfaction; Dick Graham, who dubs himself a singer of sensible songs, has a capital greeting; the Four Jamels, with their musical entertainment, are successful; the Raymond Trio, instrumentalists and dancers, give a pleasing turn; Minnie Wren, versatile comedienne, meets with approval; Meiz and Mora, American speciality artists, have had a good reception. Other well received turns are Dora Lyric, comedienne; Sisters Arundelle, duettists and dancers; Bert Dansie, vocal comedian; and Payne's Bio-Photoscope.

PRESTON. — ROYAL HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. H. Broadhead and Sons; Resident Acting Manager, Mr. E. J. Linsdell.—Amy Anderson and company head the bill here this week in a realistic sketch, entitled Scenes from London Life, which is received with great favour; the Four Maisanos, who are here on a return visit, contribute a very enjoyable musical act; the Bounding Avolos gain loud applause for their clever acrobatic display; Drum and Major evoke hearty laughter with their smart patter; Olive Poole is a pleasing comedienne and dancer; Bernard Noble, comedian, scores a success with his songs; Conway and Garland present an amusing sketch; and Frank Reade, entertainer, provides a good turn. Interesting bioscope pictures complete the programme.

PRINCE'S THEATRE.—Proprietors and Managers, Messrs. Sawyer and Woodruff.—Mr. Fred Granville's company is completing a fortnight's engagement here this week in The Forty Thieves, which is under the direction of Mr. Forsyth Bruce. Miss Cissie Kingsley as Abdallah is a distinct success, and Miss Lily Brammer as Morgiana makes a great hit. Mr. Walter Purvis is a mirth-provoking Ali Baba; Miss Gertie Douglas a charming Ganem; Mr. Forsyth Bruce as Cassim Baba shows a dramatic ability in his miser's scene; Mr. Leo Trainer as Cogem Baba keeps the house convulsed with laughter throughout the performance. Miss Madge Western as Fizzali well deserved the applause accorded to her; Miss Pattie Transfield brings down the house with her song, "My Irish Molly"; Mr. Gus Danby as Lieut. Fitz Hassarac materially helps the success; and great credit is due to Miss Ley Loftus as Zorilda. The celebrated Revell troupe submit a screaming farce, entitled Mischief. The Achmed Ibrahim Troupe of Bedouin Arabs provide a marvellous display of tumbling. The costumes and scenery are charming, and the pantomime, under the direction of Mr. Bruce Forsyth, promises to be a huge success.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Manager, Mr. Stephen Pritt.—This week Mr. Louis Calvert's principal London company is presenting Sunday here to appreciative audiences. Colonel Brinthorpe has an admirable representative in Mr. Leonard Pagden; Arthur Brinthorpe is effectively played by Mr. Cecil Duncan; Mr. Ernest A. Douglas gives a life-like impersonation of Tom Oxley; as the gruff but true-hearted Towzer, Mr. William Lockhart is thoroughly successful; the mildly self-important air of Davy is cleverly conveyed by Mr. Sydney Rennef; and Lively's touching devotion to Sunday, and Jacky's intense self-sacrificing love for her are strikingly shown by Mr. T. Norman Walter and Mr. Arthur Vezin respectively; Miss Juliet Hardinge is a lovable nun; Miss Rosalind Ross is seen to advantage as Mrs. Naresby; and unstinted praise may be accorded to Miss Jean Sterling Mackinlay for her fascinating portrayal of Sunday. The play is well staged.

RADCLIFFE. — GRAND OPERA HOUSE. — Sole Owner and Manager, Mr. G. T. Santé; Acting-Manager, Mr. Jas. Boothman.—Miss Ethel Clayton and Mr. Gus Levaine are here with the pantomime The Babes in the Wood. Miss Maria Vesta, who undertakes Robin Hood, soon wins the hearty approval of the audience; Miss Jessie Lindsay as Maid Marion is a great success; Mr. Will Thorne and Mr. Alf. Dellas as Hip and Hop cause much amusement, and Mr. C. Bernardo fairly convulses the house with his eccentricities as Weary Willie; Mr. F. Foscoe being very good as Tired Tim. One of the mainstays of the fun is Mr. Bert Swan as Belinda; Mr. Harry Sully is a good Baron Blackheart, and the remainder of the cast is of appreciable assistance. Among the specialists are Bernardo and Travelli, Percy Victor's wonderful dog orchestra, the Ruby Quartette of lady dancers, Mons. Verlo, the chapeaugraphist; and Swan and Vesta in The Captain and the Ship, a clever and well-presented act.

RAMSGATE.—AMPHITHEATRE.—Proprietor, Lord George Sanger; General-Manager, Mr. Henry Bowman.—Good business has been done here this week with Mr. Arthur Gibbons's well-staged and capably acted pantomime Little Red Riding Hood. Miss Janet Lawton is a dashing Prince Bountiful; Miss Nina Terri, a clever danseuse, makes a capital Maid Marion; the part of Red Riding Hood is played with pleasing grace by Miss Ruby Lester, a charming child actress; Miss Agnes Clarges sustains the part of Diamond (Fairy Queen) excellently; and the comedians, led by Mr. F. G. Banks as a very droll Johnny Stout, cause a lot of fun. They include Mr. C. Honey (Baron Badenough), Mr. D. Kelway (Dame Marjory), Mr. C. Ellis (Tommy Thin), and Messrs. W. Edgecombe and W. Edge (with the highly illuminating titles of Rates and Taxes). The Three French Idols dance smartly, and the Swift Trio do some clever things in the trick-cycling line. The pantomime closes with A Glimpse of Fairyland as the transformation scene.

RAWTENSTALL.—GRAND THEATRE. — Co-Proprietors and Lessees, Messrs. W. Johnson and J. Potter; General-Manager, Mr. J. Potter; Resident-Acting-Manager, Mr. J. Ellis Miller.—Mr. Arthur Pilkington's fine pantomime company opened here with Mother Goose on Monday night to a delighted and crowded house. Miss Gracie Grahame makes a capital principal boy, Lubin, and acts and sings with great vivacity and charm. Her songs are well rendered and deservedly encored. Miss Mabel Austin is a charming Daisy, and Miss Georgie Hall a thoroughly acceptable Annabel. The Two Freans as Robert and Timothy are really fine knockabouts and keep the house in continual laughter, their boxing act being exceptionally comical. Mr. Ted Young as Mother Goose is also a great success, and scores well with his amusing song "Good-bye," which promises to be the favourite of the piece. Mr. Harry F. Wright as Billy also shows conspicuous ability, whilst Miss Dorothy Delamere and Miss Cissie Duvan are two charming village lads. Miss Marion de Verne as Benevolentia, the Queen of the Fairies, is a fascinating mistress of her four subjects, who are impersonated by Misses Kitty Ward, Nelly Dillon, Polly Keir, and Florrie Richardson. The Fairy Goose is ably acted by Mr. Harold Moxon, and Mr. Baxter Dillon, Mr. Paul Courtney, and Mr. T. H. Moxon are clever as Parchment, Squire Close, and Sergeant Long, respectively. The specialities include the Moxons in their clever performance as equilibrists and acrobats; Miss Bertha Hall in her special step and sand dance; the Shamrocks, who give a wonderfully neat acrobatic dance; and Mr. David Fuller, who as Avarice, the King of the Demons, is very good, and who introduces some exceptionally well-sung songs.

READING.—ROYAL COUNTY THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Milton Bode; Acting-Manager. Mr. W. E. Barnett; Secretary, Mr. Reginald Taylor.—Mr. George Dance's premier company in The Duchess of Dantzic is paying a welcome return visit. Miss May Glenn is highly successful as the Duchess, and Mr. Leonard F. Griffiths is deserving of praise as the Duke of Dantzic. Mr. Gilbert Yorke effectively portrays Napoleon I.; Mr. J H. Goldsworthy acts and sings well as the Vicomte de Bethune; Papillon is skilfully interpreted by Mr. Charles Adeson; Miss Maggie White scores heavily as Renee de Saint Mezard; and as the Empress Josephine Miss E. Derwent is seen to advantage. Special mention should be made of the full chorus and augmented orchestra under the musical director, Mr. Sydney Shaw.

TOWN HALL.—Mr. Charles W. Poole continues to draw crowded houses with his famous Myriorama. The Avondale Quartette of Vocalists, Leonard and Mac, Harry Stewart, Little Doretta, Miss Daisy Graham and Kitty Woodford's Canine Circus add to the pleasing entertainment.

REDHILL.—MARKET HALL.—Market Hall Co., Proprietors; Mr. A. Smith, Secretary and Manager. Mr. G. W. Bowes presents this week Mr. Arthur Hart's company in My Lady Molly, under the management of Messrs. Frank Nelson and Thomas McKenzie. The piece is appropriately staged, and the costumes are very handsome. Miss Reydon Dallas is most charming in the title-rôle, and Mr. George McCloskie is funny as Micky O'Dowd, a typical Irish bhoy.

ROCHDALE.—NEW THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, the Northern Theatres Co., Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. W. Robinson; General-Manager, Mr. Otto C. Culling; Resident-Manager, Mr. Jos. Hague.—Mr. James Kiddie presents his pantomime, Dick Whittington, here this week. It is sumptuously mounted and replete with rollicking fun. The titular rôle has a pleasing representative in Miss Bessie Willows; Miss Maggie Summerson is piquant as Alice, and vocalises with charming effect; Mr. Cyril Dundas does well as Alderman Fitzwarren; Mr. W. V. Vido impersonates the traditional cat with conspicuous ability; and Mr. Will Summerson is highly amusing as Idle Jack; and Mr. Victor Vernon makes up well as Aurelia Florence. A favourite here is Miss Florence Hilton, who makes a dashing and lively Sir Algernon de Mash; Messrs. Clifton and Gibson also deserve a good word as Silly Peter and Lazy Larry; Mr. Archie J. Milne, in the dual rôle of Rodento and Haln Ali Ben Booza, is prominent with some excellently rendered songs. Specialities are submitted by the Three Sisters Kilner, dancers; Curtis and Vanitz, in their cake walk; and La Belle Troupe of Parisian dancers.

CIRCUS AND HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. Smith and Lee; Business-Manager, Mr. S. L. Lee.—Pringle's North American Animated Picture Company continue a second week's engagement here with a change of programme. The New York Nippers, entertainers; Miss Eva Freece, comedienne; and the Lovelaces, song illustrators, contribute at intervals.

EMPIRE THEATRE OF VARIETIES. — Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Thomas Hargreaves; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Hargreaves.—The Dandies, drawing-room entertainers, submit a pleasing and refined turn; De Henan performs with his toes in astonishing manner; other turns are given by B. H. Almon, hand acrobat; Miss Ruby Bijou, vocalist and dancer; Mdlle. Aladina, with her performing cockatoos; Harry Hale, comedian; and the Empire Bioscope.

ROTHERHAM.—THEATRE ROYAL, LIMITED.—Managing-Director, Mr. F. Macnaghten; Resident-Manager, Mr. Holbery Hardy.—Mr. Fred Melville and company are here this week with The Ugliest Woman on Earth. Mr. Philip Darien is a manly Jack Merriman, and Mr. Leyton Cancellor is smart in the dual parts of Hubert and Francis Gold. Mr. Charles Barrett scores as Antonio Luchessi, and Mr. Allan Devonport is seen to advantage as Tom Redvers. Messrs. Stuart Roberts and Henry Williams are funny as Paolo and Fritz respectively, and Mr. T. Edlin is deserving of mention as Tubby Herrick. Mr. Frank Dennis gives a careful rendering of Dr. Carr, and Mr. William Wallace as Raggles is a typical hooligan. Miss Margaret Watson is effective as Morita; Miss Nellie Jackson deserves mention as Aggie Brown; Rose Courtnay is a capital part in the hands of Miss Agnes Denver; and Miss Beatrice Homer in the title-rôle gives an effective embodiment of a difficult part.

RUGBY.—THEATRE ROYAL, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. A. F. Cross. — For the first three nights of this week Mr. E. Lockwood's company was presenting the comedy of Sergeant Brue to crowded houses. Mr. J. Harold Carson gave a clever and humorous rendition of the Sergeant; Mr. Frank Wilson was an excellent Michael Brue; and as Crookie Scrubbs Mr. Albert James scored an unqualified success. Mr. Fred Laceby was exceedingly clever as Mr. Crank; Mr. Harold Godwin did well as Inspector Gorringe; and Mr. Cecil Strickland as Matthew Habisham, Mr. Fred Spencer as Mr. Lamb, and Mr. Alex Johnston as Mr. Bay all did exceedingly well. Miss Elsie Molloy as Lady Bickenhall was charming in every way as actress, vocalist, and dancer; Miss Gertie Fawcett as Aurora Brue was fascinating; and as Daisy Miss Amy Vivash was quite a success. The songs and choruses were well and effectively rendered, and the company throughout was excellent. For the last three nights of the week a high-class variety company was to appear.

RUNCORN.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee, Mr. H. W. Caddick.—An excellent variety entertainment is here this week. At the head of the bill is Mr. Dock Watson, a quaint negro comedian, with patter and songs. The Three Sisters Linde are taking coon vocalits and acrobatic dancers; Miss Nellie Shannon, vocalist, is well received; Miss Sylvia Bond chooses good songs; Miss Nellie Stuart is a comedienne of merit; and the Harveys are interesting acrobats. Clark's cinematograph, with new and up-to-date pictures, is also an attraction.

SALFORD.—PRINCE OF WALES'S.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. E. B. Goulden; Acting-Manager. Mr. Harold Goulden.—Messrs. Charles Carey and Alexander Loftus's pantomime Cinderella opened here on Monday evening. Miss Florence Godfrey, who dances and sings well, became immediately a favourite as Cinderella; Mr. James Grant as Baron Bounder, works hard; Mr. Joseph B. Montague, is a comical Peter the page; Messrs. Nash and Noel as the Broker's Men, cause roars of laughter; Sister Jane and Sister Charlotte are well presented by Mr. Norman Bowyer; and Mr. W. E. Crewd; Prince Charming and Dandini are respectively played by Miss Ernestine Walters and Miss Maud Terry with charming vivacity; Mr. Leslie Austin as the Demon is much applauded for his songs; Miss Hilda Blanche as the Fairy Godmother, and Miss Emily Preston as Electra are well placed; some pleasing dancing is done by Miss Madge Lacey and Mr. Frank Melford; Miss Maud Nicholls, as Lord Gadfly; Miss Winnie Preston as Percy Loose Cash; Miss Louie Carl as Beaugelais; Miss Jane Verner as Caramel, and Miss Amy Preston as Lady Mildred, also contribute to the success of the production. Miss Lottie Stone's troupe of dancers are very good.

REGENT OPERA HOUSE, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. W. Turner; Manager, Mr. Herbert Raymond; Secretary. Mr. J. C. Patterson. The Power of Gold attracted a good house on Monday, when Mr. Frank Ayrton's No. 1 company appeared in that exciting drama. Lady Brandon is efficiently presented by Miss Lilla Wilde. Mr. Frank Ayrton as Sammy Sunridge, and Miss Madge Seymour as Norah Donnelly, keep the house in excellent humour with their songs, dances, and comedy business; Mr. Chas. Whitlock as Hedgi Zambra; Mr. T. Ronald as Paul Judson, Miss Isabel Singleton as Meg Judson, and Mr. Albert Selfton as Mark Harley give adequate support.

REGENT THEATRE OF VARIETIES, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. W. Turner; Manager, Mr. Herbert Raymond; Secretary, Mr. J. C. Patterson.—Crowded audiences are enjoying the liberal fare contributed by the following:—Cora Duncan and Albert Brasque in the sketch A Dressing Room Romance; Marie Santoi and her Japs in a clever comic opera scena; Hudson-Powell, pantomimists in the acrobatic absurdity. The Young Recruit; Levarni, on the slack and tight wire; Edie Anderson, comedienne and dancer; Fielding and Hull, refined vocal entertainers; Harry Atkinson, musical instrument mimic; Max Trevally Harley Troupe, clever trampolin acrobats; Mayon and Marle in an amusing sketch; and the Bioscope pictures.

ROYAL HIPPODROME.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy B. Broadhead; Resident-Acting-Manager, Mr. C. H. Wentworth.—Twice nightly, Mr. H. A. Jordison's pantomime Cinderella is presented before good houses. The title rôle is charmingly played by Miss Mamie Iris, Prince Perfect is well embodied by Miss Daisy Morrell, and Miss Madge Allen is a pleasing Dandini; Mr. Will Letters is an excellent Buttons, and with Messrs. Harris and Worth as the broker's men the house is kept in roars; the sisters are in the capable hands of Mr. Johnny Worman, and Mr. Billy Keene and Baron Bunker is well placed with Mr. Charles Russell; H. A. Jordison's eight juvenile vocalists and dancers, are very good.

SALISBURY.—COUNTY HALL.—Proprietor, Mr. Arthur Whitehead; Business-Manager, Mr. T. Brinsmead.—The annual visit of Mr. J. A. Thomson's pantomime company in Dick Whittington is very pleasing to local playgoers. Miss Ida Kessanby makes a sprightly Dick; and Miss Ella Willmer is a bright and vivacious Alice Fitzwarren, her picturesque dancing being a striking feature of the performances. The Sisters English appear in acrobatic dances; and the fun of the piece is maintained at a high level throughout the entertainment by Mr. Ross Warren (Ald. Fitzwarren), Mr. Edwin Doods (Idle Jack), Mr. Fred Anderson (Pimple), and Mr. Harry Harcourt (Fitzwarren's cook). The Vanetta troupe, including Misses Edna Evelyn, Sylvia Spires, Lillie Bevington, Ivy Clowser, and Emmy King, perform clever dances; Miss Ella Rose sings charmingly; and a musical turn is given by the Morrellis. Mdlle. Florence continues to attract much attention by her well-known performance on a rolling globe.

SEACOMBE.—IRVING THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Councillor James Kiernan.—Mr. Geo. Edwardes's company proves a strong attraction here this week with the popular musical comedy, San Toy. Captain Bobby Preston is well embodied by Mr. Howard V. Crafton; and Sir Bingo Preston is capably represented by Mr. Harry Turner. Mr. Edward G. Hall is well suited as Yen How; and Mr. George Partie causes much fun by his presentment of the Emperor. Mr. Harold Cotter submits a clever rendering of Sing Hi; and Mr. Clifford Seyler gives every satisfaction as Li. Miss Madge Hamilton deserves credit for a spirited delineation of Poppy; and Miss Maud Lucy is capital as Dudley. Miss Ethel Switchen proves herself a clever dancer as Rose Tucker; and Miss Nina Osborne is vivacious and artistic as San Toy.

SEAHAM HARBOUR.—NEW THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. A. C. Harrison.—The pantomime Babes in the Wood, presented by Messrs. Monti and Firth, had a hearty reception on Monday. Mr. Harry Firth is responsible for the libretto, and the music is arranged by Mr. J. E. Machin. Robin Hood is prettily played by Miss Florrie Bray, a capital vocalist; Miss Ada Clare is a charming Maid Marion; Miss Lilian Player, the fairy, sings her allotted numbers with much taste; the Babes are delightfully played by the Misses Lily and Maudie Cleave; the Belinda of Mr. Dan Idle is one of the most amusing studies in the pantomime; Mr. Fred Monti as Simple Simon is also responsible for a large amount of mirth; the Brothers Luxmore as Weary Willie and Tired Tim are first-rate comedians; and Mr. Arthur Allen gives capital help in the comical part of the Baron. Very pleasing and effective are the specialities introduced. The Four Sisters Godfrey are smart acrobatic dancers; the Two Ascotts win hearty approval in their exhibition of baton swinging; and in a scena, The Captain and the Mate, the Izons are very successful.

SHEERNESS.—THE HIPPODROME.—General-Manager, Mr. Harry Day; Manager, Mr. Fred Leighton.—A programme of unusual interest is submitted here this week. Dante Bentley and Elion are much appreciated for their excellent contributions; the Sisters Selwyn, duettists and dancers, are also cordially received; Ted Saunders is an excellent character comedian; Jenny Belmore, comedienne, sings with pleasing effect; Fred Wright, eccentric comedian, and Maud Garland, also successfully contribute; the Bioscope pantomime Beauty and the Beast include some excellent pictures.

PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietor, Mr. P. Reymond.—A capital variety programme here comprises the Arundel Combination in the comedy act, Mistaken Identity; also Mr. Eugene Brant, comedian; Miss Lettie Young, burlesque actress; Mr. Fred Arnold, descriptive vocalist; Miss Lillie Thomas, comedienne and dancer; and Mr. Charlie Howard, comedian.

SHEFFIELD.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Manager, Mr. T. S. Carter.—The pantomime of The Babes in the Wood continues to be played nightly.

LYCEUM THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. John Hart; General Manager and Treasurer, Mr. J. E. B. Beaumont.—On Monday a large audience again received with intense interest the thrilling play Sherlock Holmes, effectively mounted, and acted with distinction by Mr. Harry Yorke's company. Mr. H. Lawrence Leyton admirably realised the fascinating character of Holmes, and the genial Dr. Watson had a very pleasing representative in Mr. Edward Heanley. Mr. W. F. Sterling was good as the "Napoleon of Crime," Dr. Moriarty; Mr. Charles Chaplin was amusing as Billy; Miss Gertrude Harrison made a good-looking and clever Madge Larribee; and the Alice Faulkner of Miss Beatrice Marsden was a tender and sympathetic performance.

ALEXANDRA THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr W. D. Forsdike; Acting-Manager, Mr. C. W. Ramsay.—The Sheffield "Home of Pantomime" has scored its thirty-eighth consecutive triumph, thanks to brilliant spectacle and the efforts of a good all-round company. Mr. Harry Pleon, the diverting Pimples; Mr. Fred Biron, the unctuous Baron; Messrs. Walter Dale and Jack McKenzie, the comical ugly sisters; the Brothers Lavelle, the agile and diverting comedy acrobats; Miss Celia Kent, the charming, graceful, and vivacious Cinderella; Miss Alice Townend, the tuneful Fairy Queen; Mr. Edward Ind, the Demon Malicio; and Miss Alma Obrey, the prepossessing and smart Prince Perfect, are all great favourites.

comedienne. The Chas. Urban Pictures maintain their popularity, and other items are contributed by Edie Veno, comedienne, Four Ramblers, whirling comedians, Harry Thurston, mimic, and Edie King, comedienne and dancer.

TIVOLI.—Proprietors and Managers, Councillor J. K. Hall and Mr. Jos. Sweeney.—The attraction here this week is Ben Hur, athlete, who receives an oration. Madame Louie succeeds in mystifying the audience, and a like remark may also apply to Satsuma, the Oriental Jap entertainer. The two Romas are sucessful in their vocal scena "Comrades in Arms," and Willis Walton, musical entertainer is popular; Will Bell, Irish comedian and dancer; Elsie May, child descriptive vocalist; and Payne's Bioscope in an interesting film "Esmeralda" are other attractions.

ST. HELENS. — THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietors, the St. Helen's Theatre, Ltd.; General-Manager, Mr. McLeod Loader.—The musical comedy The Girl from Japan, under the direction of Mr. Martin Morris is here this week, the principals being Miss Madge Kerridge (Polly), Miss Dorothy Glenson (Violet), Miss Josephine Ellis (Maud), and Messrs. G. Hudson (Allenbury), C. Ludlow (Bingle), Ernest Spadling (Rev. John Smith), Percy Baverstock (General Baugh), C. Lupton (Flippington), &c. The augmented orchestra and chorus, under the bâton of Mr. W. Eveleigh, give an excellent account of themselves, and the piece is well staged.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. T. Barrasford, Will Sley, and F. Willmot; Resident-Manager, Mr. A. V. Carnell.—Heading the bill here are Mr. C. Wordley Hulse and company in a thrilling sketch entitled The Fight in the Forge. Billy Williams scores well with his funny songs; the Belmount Troupe are exceptionally clever trick and motor cyclists; the Elektrones excel as comedy cyclists; Harry Hayton is successful as an eccentric comedian; Ray and Calden are comedians of no mean order; Decima is a talented instrumentalist; and Sheila McNeil gives a good turn as a Scotch comedienne.

ST. LEONARDS. — PIER PAVILION. — Pier Master and Entertainment Manager, Mr. Elvey Thomas.—At the Kursaal this week Mr. Val Marriott is introducing Miss Marjorie Gummerson, the popular society entertainer. This talented lady appears at every orchestral concert.

STOCKPORT. — NEW THEATRE ROYAL. — Sole Owner and Manager, Mr. Charles Revill; Acting-Manager, Mr. Wm. Revill.—There has been no mistaking the remarkable success of Mr. Charles Chard's pantomime Goody Two Shoes here this week, large audiences having been attracted and heartily amused by an exceptionally clever combination of artists. Mr. Charles Chard as Sammy Sopps stands out prominently as a comedian of the first order, his amusing antics keeping the audience in continuous laughter; Mr. Sidney Dean makes an excellent Dame Freckles, his saying, "Is my face red," causing abundant mirth; Messrs. Keith and Merson as the Dame's sons, and Messrs. Selby and Myers as the Baron's servants, contribute their fair share of the fun, along with Mr. Edwin Ramsdale as Baron Grab, and Wee Langton as Simple Simon; Miss Chummie La Mara is a pleasing principal boy Roland; and as the heroine, Miss Annie Casey sings and dances with marked success; the Sisters St. Julian as Dolly Dimple and Peter Piper are an entertaining pair; Miss Hawthorne Thwaites is a charming fairy Benevolentia; and Miss Julia Fuller wins approval as Mephisto.

EMPIRE. — Proprietors, the Stockport Empire Theatre Co., Ltd.; Acting-Manager, Mr. W. Black. —Ada Fawn, comedienne, heads the bill here this week, and at once established herself a favourite; Mdlle. Marville's cockatoos gave a pleasing entertainment; and Renson and Waite, duettists, were highly successful. The delightful vocalism of Maud Clifton was a special feature, commanding well-deserved appreciation; whilst Abdy's dog circus; Geo, Bendon, the white coon; Gertrella, in a dancing and gymnastic act; and Minnie Dorina, vocalist and dancing drummer, added their share to the evening's entertainment.

STOCKTON-ON-TEES.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee, Mr. Fred Granville; Manager, Mr. A. R. Feather.—Mr. Eade Montefiore's pantomime, Cinderella, is doing well here. Mr. Fred Lincoln's Baron Hardup is quaint; Mr. Arthur Byron and Mr. Geo. Antley, as the ugly sisters, are very laughable; as Peter, Mr. Geo. Rydon is clever; and Messrs. Conan and Doyle, as Nabem and Nailem, are responsible for the bulk of the fun. Miss Margaret Lumsden's Dandini is played briskly, and her dancing is a success. Miss Georgina Leonard sings and acts well as the Prince; and Miss Nellie Merton, in the title-rôle, also scores. Special dances are given by the Four Fiori de Montes; and Miss Vera Schlesinger, as the Fairy Godmother, sings in an artistic manner.

GRAND THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Batty; Manager, Mr. W. Batty. — The clever Max-Wesslys troupe of jugglers is the leading turn here. George and Edwards, comics; James Singleton, singing collier; Bob Hamilton, Scotch comic; Smith and Johnson, coloured duo; Griffin and Judge, eccentrics; Theo. Bowmeester, protean character actor, in Who is Guilty?; and Payne's pictures complete the bill.

HIPPODROME THEATRE.—Proprietors, Messrs. G. and R. A. Nicholson; Manager, Mr. W. Ainsworth.—A big show here is headed by Dr. Carl Herman, in his scientific and laughable electrical séance; there are also the Fordyces, vocalists, &c.; Will Onda and company, in a sketch entitled Servants Wanted; Andy Fagan, comic; Lena Manon, serio; the Three Bostonians, in song and dance; Edwin Brett and Emmeline Orford, in the sketch, The Two Lovebirds; the Brothers Rain, acrobatic comics; and the Pictoscope.

SUNDERLAND.—AVENUE THEATRE.—Director and Manager, Mr. Chas. E. Machin.—The success of Mr. Machin and Mr. Elliston's Cinderella is now more than assured, crowded houses at every performance being the rule. The principals have settled down to their business, every one working with a will that operates towards the general success of the whole. Miss Lola Patey, in the title-rôle, is a popular favourite; whilst Miss Madoline Rees, the handsome Prince Florizel, also enjoys the full favour of the house. Mdlle. De Velin (the Fairy Progress) is a source of great attraction; and Miss Winnie Miriam makes a saucy and piquant Dandido. Mr. Charles King and Miss Gillie Benson's clever specialities continue to be quite a feature. Mr. Shaun Glenville's Baron is as racy as ever; and Mr. W. T. Thompson's impersonation of Buttons is most amusing. Mr. George Goodfellow and Miss Jennie Gregson's Ugly Sisters create plenty of laughs. The Wedburns, as the broker's men, and Silly Billy Elliott add their quota to the success; whilst Mr. Geo. Belrose continues to score together with Mdlle. De Velin, as vocalists.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Chas. E. Machin; Acting-Manager, Mr. Hemingway.—A somewhat new departure is made here by the appearance of Mr. Henry Swinerd's musical comedy drama, Dare-Devil Dorothy, with a result that has proved highly satisfactory. Miss Dorothy Desmonde fills the title-rôle with plenty of dash and vigour, mingled with the necessary pathos; Miss Nellie Harcourt submits a smart rendering of Judith, and dances very cleverly; Miss Nellie Anderson and Miss Mabel Blake have a mirror dance that proves acceptable; Mr. Cecil W. Parke is equal to the demands of George Fielding; and Mr. Henry C. Wood is successful in the rôle of Edward Dudley. Much of the success of the piece is due to the drolleries of Mr. Arthur Verne, who, as Silas Crump, fairly convulses his audiences. Miss Nora Caronne makes a handsome Ruth Montrose; Mr. Frank Howard is well placed as Featherstone Haugh; and Messrs. W. G. Hearson and Alf Stretton are good as Smith and Hawkins respectively. Mr. Walter Boyce enacts the part of General Gunston in the first act.

PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Lessees and Managers, Messrs. Rosen and Bliss; Acting-Manager, Mr. John H. Stringer; Treasurer, Mr. Alfred Browne.—An exceedingly strong programme is submitted here this week, and is headed by Staley's "Transformation Company," whose quick change of costumes and scenes is really smart. The Two Kays, excellent vocalists and graceful dancers, obtain a flattering reception; Helene and Emilon are bar and acrobatic performers of unusual ability; Cissie Sullivan, clog and expert dancer, gets quite an ovation for her smart contribution; Arthur Croxon is amusing with his imitation of a village concert; the Sisters Oswald are a couple of bright duettists and dancers; John Briston and Partner, tramp cyclists; and Hamilton Hill, baritone vocalist, are also good in their respective turns. Vernon's animated pictures are kept up to date.

(Continued on page 27.)

PLAYERS OF THE PERIOD.

MISS AMY GRACE (MRS. LEONARD RAYNE).

Miss Amy Grace, although starting her theatrical career in England, retired shortly afterwards to South Africa, where she made a success, and won renown as one of South Africa's favourite comediennes. Miss Grace has had a thorough training in that best of all schools—the plays of Shakespeare. She began as a pupil with Mr. Tearle, her first part being that of the Duke of York in Richard the Third. After a few months she was entrusted with Virginia, Virginius; Lucius, Julius Cæsar; the Player Queen, Hamlet; and one of the witches in Macbeth. Then came the first of Miss Grace's visits to South Africa, being engaged by Mr. W. J. Holloway for his Shakespearean tour there. She played similar parts to those she played with Mr. Tearle.

Returning to England, Miss Grace accepted an engagement with Miss Maude Thompson for a stock season on St. Leonards Pier, playing Lavender, Sweet Lavender; Violet, A Bunch of Violets; Primrose, A Prude's Progress; Dorinda, The Money Spinner; &c.

A second visit to Africa followed, under the management of the late Mr. Frank De Jong, Miss Grace playing Wally, The Two Little Vagabonds; Sam Willoughby, The Ticket-of-Leave Man; Polly Eccles, Caste; Nancy, The Middleman; the title-rôle in Betsy; Louise, Two Orphans; &c. Returning to England for a few months, Miss Grace again visited Africa under the management of Messrs. Rayne and Paumier. Her repertory consisted of Constance, The Three Musketeers; Virginia, Virginius (the late Osmonde Tearle playing the title-rôle); Shrove Tuesday, The Span of Life; Shakespeare Jarvis, The Lights o' London; Maria, The School for Scandal, &c.

Photo by Middlebrook.

MISS AMY GRACE.

Since then Miss Grace has had four tours in Africa, being there throughout the Boer War. Just after the siege in Kimberley Miss Grace was the guest of a supper party given in her honour by some Australian officers. After supper a speech was made by one of the officers, thanking her for the pleasure she had given them by her acting during their stay in Kimberley, and he presented her with a gold-mounted purse and watch, the purse bearing the inscription in gold, "Australians." At the termination of the Boer War Miss Grace was asked to sit for a picture representing "Peace," which was circulated throughout South Africa.

Although applying herself more particularly to comedy characters, Miss Grace is by no means a "one-part" actress. She plays ingenues and "Boys," one of her chief successes being Wally. In vivid contrast to the foregoing, she has played with success Aurora in Mark Ambient's farcical comedy, Oh, Susannah! and Belinda in Our Boys. Her métier, however, does not rest there only, for she has played Dulcie Larondie, The Masqueraders (Mrs. Patrick Campbell's part); Nell Gwynne (Marie Tempest's part); Jane (Lottie Venne's part), Dorcas Gentle, Prodigal Daughter (Fanny Brough's part), which Miss Grace had the pleasure of playing with Mr. Harry Nicholls, the original Lord Banbury; Jack, Jack in the Box (Fanny Leslie's part); title-rôle in Little Jim; Cigarette, Under Two Flags; and Minnie, A Message from Mars.

Miss Grace was presented in Durban with a cake for being the most versatile actress that had ever visited South Africa. Although having made many friends there, and intending to return to the scenes of her labours, Miss Grace loves her Motherland, and hopes to become as big a favourite here (where she intends staying for a while) as she is there.

Miss Grace's favourite pastime is needlework and riding, and her hobby is acting.

A MANAGER'S WEDDING GIFT.

A second public presentation has been made to Mr. Percy M. Dunsford, the popular acting-manager of the Theatre Royal, Exeter, who has received a handsome wedding gift from the directors, theatre staff, and several friends. The presentation was made at the conclusion of the afternoon performance on the 4th inst.; the offering consisting of a handsome dining-room suite, together with a silver tea-pot, sugar basin, and cream jug, and an illuminated scroll containing the names of over 120 persons. The silver tea-pot bore the following inscription:—"Presented with a suite of furniture to Mr. Percy M. Dunsford, acting-manager of the Theatre Royal, Exeter, on his marriage, 19th December, 1905."

Dr. E. J. Domville, J.P., the chairman of the Theatre Royal Company, who made the presentation at the theatre in the presence of other directors and friends, said they were all glad to have that opportunity of bearing testimony to the good qualities of Mr. Dunsford. Those who had been associated with him for the past eight years knew his worth. He had worked hard and zealously. He (the speaker) wished Mr. Dunsford and his wife health and happiness in their married life.—Mr. Dunsford, in acknowledging the presentation, said he had, during his eight years of work in the theatre, had the cordial co-operation of all the directors and staff, and from the public of Exeter he had received nothing but kindness. He was proud to say that they had at the theatre one of the best staffs that any manager could wish to have under him.

MR. ROBERT BAYNE, late of the Tivoli, Glasgow, has been appointed by Mr. R. C. Buchanan, managing-director of Scotland's Provincial Theatres, as acting-manager of the New Gaiety Theatre, Clydebank.

THE DRAMA IN PARIS.

"LE COUP D'AILE."

Play, in Three Acts, by M. F. de Curel,
Produced at the Théâtre Antoine on Jan. 10.

Michel	M. ANTOINE
Bernard	M. SIGNORET
Colonel Héronard	M. MOSNIER
Le Porte-drapeau	M. DAMORES
Hélène	MDLLE. VAN DOREN
Clotilde	MDLLE. GRUMBACH
Amélie	MDLLE. DE VILLERS
Madame Mathilde	MADAME GABRIELLE FLEURY

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

PARIS, THURSDAY, JAN. 11.—M. de Curel, the talented author of Les Fossiles, has given us wherein he does not express his ideas very clearly. Possibly he wants to illustrate the dangers of the thirst for glory, a thirst that may even lead to crime. Michel is a brilliant soldier. Sent with his regiment to Africa, he has captured a large piece of territory, and has become the hero of the hour. When, however, another officer is sent to take possession of that territory, Michel rebels. He commands the blacks to fire on the flag of his country, and shoots the Colonel who wants to arrest him. His own subjects then rise in arms against him; he is made a prisoner, and is believed to have been killed. But he is not dead. For twenty years he has lived in England under an assumed name, and only his brother Bernard, an influential member of the French Parliament, knows about this. One day Michel appears before the astounded Bernard. Michel is sick of the idle life he is leading, and wants to embark in another military exploit, for which his brother's help is necessary. Bernard flatly refuses his assistance, for he fears complications that may mar his own prospects. In his young days Michel seduced a girl, who gave birth to a girl, after which he deserted her. Bernard took charge of the child, Hélène, and had her brought up in a convent, without ever telling her the name of her father. Hélène, now twenty years of age, has retained only one recollection of her childhood, that of her mother cursing on her deathbed the man who deserted her; and Hélène has inherited her mother's hatred for her unknown father. But she has also inherited her father's violent temperament, and when these two people meet we assist at a fearful scene, wherein Hélène overwhelms Michel with reproaches mingled with curses. Then Michel's temper is roused. He seizes the girl roughly, throws her down, and forces her to ask his forgiveness for the insults she hurled at him. And these two untamed creatures then go away together towards an unknown future. The task of impersonating these extraordinary characters rested with M. Antoine and Mdlle. Van Doren, both admirable in these difficult rôles. In M. Antoine's hands Michel became terribly realistic, and Mdlle. Van Doren scored the same success as in Les Oiseaux de Passage, when she revealed herself an artist of a high standard. M. Signoret made the most of the ungrateful part of Bernard, and the other rôles were also well sustained.

THE Théâtre Trianon gave us La bonne Affaire, three-act comedy-bouffe by M. Henri Gréjois. It is a poor production. Raphael, a youth about town, has squandered his fortune, and all there remains of the millions he once possessed is an annuity of forty thousand francs. He then goes to a rich money-lender called Baudruc, who has a pretty daughter, and obtains the father's consent to marry the girl. But Raphael is in immediate want of money, and as old Baudruc refuses to advance him any, Raphael proposes to him to let him have his life annuity for a lump sum of one hundred thousand francs. Baudruc, of course, accepts. But once the document is signed, he informs Raphael that his engagement to his daughter is at an end. Poor Raphael, who has already given these one hundred thousand francs to his mistress, Cydalise, is now totally ruined, and threatens to throw himself in the Seine. This frightens the wily Baudruc; for, if Raphael commits suicide, the life policy he purchased becomes valueless. He therefore tries to prevent Raphael from carrying out his threat; and then follows an imbroglio so bewildering that we lose sight of the plot, and the end of the story remains a mystery. It was fairly well acted by M. Villot, M. Nemo, and Madame Jeanne Leriche.

THREE new plays have been brought out at the Théâtre Royal, the smart little playhouse opened only a few weeks ago. The first was a two-act comedy by M. Edmond Guiraud. It bears the title of Le Gardien du Square, and shows us a trio of Parisians spending their holidays in small watering-places. This trio is composed of Michel; his mistress, Lucienne; and Paul, their friend. Paul and Lucienne are in love with one another; but it is a platonic affair, for neither of them cares to deceive that excellent and trusting Michel. Paul even keeps a sort of guard on the lady, frightening away those who want to poach on his friend's domain, for which Lucienne has christened him the "Gardien du Square." But Michel hits upon the idea of marrying Lucienne; and from that moment everything changes. Michel will "only" be the husband, and Lucienne's position being no longer insecure, she can, as she thinks, dispose of her heart and time as she pleases. He (Paul) will no longer have to keep guard over the lady; and, in his turn, he will become a poacher. This somewhat pretentious, but witty, piece was admirably played by Madame Mégard—the wife of that excellent actor, M. Gémier—who has improved wonderfully of late, by Mdlle. Leduc, and MM. Paulet, Rambert, and Dufleuve.

THE second piece, Le Péril Jaune, by M. Carolus Brio, shows us the groundless fear of a husband who surprises his wife, Arlette, in an elegant négligé with an unknown gentleman. But everything is satisfactorily explained. When Arlette married Jacques she had dyed her hair a golden hue; and, as she never had the courage to tell her husband of this little deceit, she was compelled to continue the treatment to her hair, and the gentleman whom her husband saw was only the hairdresser.

AT the Gaîté Serge Panine has been successfully revived, with Madame Jeanne Hading in the rôle of Madame Desvarennes, created in 1883 by Madame Pasca. Madame Hading in the rôle of a mother was something novel; and it seemed strange to hear Mdlle. Blanche Toutain address her as "Maman." Madame Hading, in fact, looks too young for the rôle, especially as she did not try very hard to age herself. A slight extra touch of powder on the temples, and the trick was done. The great actress played the part splendidly, and she was well supported by an able cast.

I AM sorry to have to chronicle the death of M. Edouard Blau, the well-known dramatic author. He wrote a large number of librettos, and became specially known by his Rédemption, the symphonic poem set to music by César Franck.

M. CATULLE MENDES is anxious to contradict the statement that he is a candidate for the post of manager of the Odéon.

MR. EDITOR,—Sir,—In your last edition of the Era your Nuneaton correspondent made an error in his criticism of the performance at the Prince of Wales's, Nuneaton, of Dare-Devil Dorothy, when he wrote "Mr. H. C. Ward plays Captain Fielding, and sings several good songs; and Mr. C. W. Parke ably portrays the villain." I have played the part of Captain Fielding (the baritone part) for close on 500 consecutive nights, and Mr. H. C. Ward represents Captain Dudley the villain, a part he has played over 1000 times. I enclose a programme, by which you will see the error is your correspondent's.—Yours faithfully, CECIL W. PARKE. —Theatre Royal, Sunderland, Jan. 9.

PLAYERS OF THE PERIOD.

MISS DORA GRAY.

One of our rising young actresses is Mrs. Lewis Waller's cousin, Miss Dora Gray, and as ambitious as she is clever, which is saying a good deal, and, gifted as she is with an expressive face, flexible voice, and a reserve of power which her slight physique hardly leads one to expect, her ambition should be justified. Miss Gray started her professional career in stock work, and was then engaged by Mr. Arthur Collins for Louisa Jupp in The Great Ruby, at the same time understudying Mrs. Raleigh at Mr. Cecil Raleigh's special request; thence to comedy with Mr. Arthur Roberts, and back again to drama at the Princess's, where she won golden opinions for her Josephs in It's Never Too Late to Mend, with Mr. Charles Warner. After this Miss Gray returned to comedy, and toured for some time with The Private Secretary, in which she was the Edith Marsland, and the young actress also made a great hit as Nan in Good for Nothing. A short tour as Esther in Caste came next, followed by His Fatal Beauty, in which she scored in a very forcible melodramatic sketch, specially written for her by Mr. H. Chance Newton. Her next rôle was Jane, in the comedy of that name, which she played a great number of times. Giving up touring for awhile, Miss Gray was the Frieda and understudy at the New Theatre, but the part gave her no outlet to her undoubted talent—to quote her own words, she "felt caged up."

In The Wife and the Woman, Mr. Tom Craven's drama, produced at the King's Theatre, Gateshead, on Nov. 20, Miss Gray appeared in the difficult part of Helen Fulcraft, and played it so well as to enlist the full sympathies of the audience.

When she gets her chance in town we venture to predict that Dora Gray will be as great a favourite with Londoners as she is in the provinces, for a young actress who can move an audience to laughter or tears or thrill them with passion, and one who also has an earnest love of her art and an insatiable desire to work, should be heard of very prominently in the near future.

[Photo by Yates.

MISS DORA GRAY.

MR. IAN MACLAREN'S Shakespearean and Classical Répertoire company is rehearsing at Kendal, Westmorland, and starts a provincial tour at Lancaster on Feb. 15. The author of Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush has chosen, in Miss Florence Glossop Harris, a very promising young actress for the parts of Portia, Rosalind, and Desdemona. She is also cast for the Queen in Hamlet and Milady in The Three Musketeers, but it is not the first time Miss Harris has had an opportunity to display her versatility, having made her début in Mrs. Gunn's répertoire company three years ago. Daughter of the late Sir Augustus Harris, her keen interest in the stage and knowledge of the necessity of hard work have been rewarded by one engagement following another in quick succession. Last autumn she joined, with her stepfather, Mr. Edward Terry, making a hit in a succession of girls' parts.

MR. EDITOR,—Sir,—In your report of Sinbad the Sailor at the New Century Theatre, Motherwell, you mention Harvey Diamond as Dame. It should have been, Yours faithfully, JOHN E. WEST.—King's Theatre, Kirkcaldy, N.B., Jan. 10.

THE MUSICAL YEAR.

Although great activity has characterised the musical year, it can hardly be said that it has been remarkable for novelties. The old cry of a National Opera has been raised, but without substantial result. When Mr. Manners attempted to awaken enthusiasm by his heroic endeavours to establish English opera, and sank a small fortune at Drury Lane, producing fine works in a style worthy of any opera house, what support did he meet with? Nor do we believe that the English musical amateur cares a fig about the opera of his own country. Meanwhile, the opera-lover has not gone without substantial fare. The Royal Opera, Covent Garden, has provided works and performances not to be surpassed in Europe, beginning with a representation of Wagner's Nibelungen Ring, under Dr. Richter, which it may safely be said no Continental establishment ever equalled. Then followed a series of works of the French and Italian school, the season winding up with the welcome visit of the San Carlo company. The season has been deservedly successful, the end portion being chiefly devoted to Verdi and Puccini, the latter composer having appeared in London, where he was much fêted, being also received by Her Majesty at Buckingham Palace. Several of his operas met with an enthusiastic greeting, La Bohème being supported by Madame Melba. But the surprise of the season was the warmth with which Madama Butterfly was greeted. Some of the principal artists won fresh laurels—for example, the new tenor, Signor Zenatello, who has a charming voice and a good style, and who will, we feel convinced, do himself greater justice next year. The return of Signor Battistini, a once-famous baritone, after an absence of thirty years, and the reappearance of Signor Sammarco, Madame Giachetti, and Madame Cisneros, of the San Carlo company, were events of interest, and other newcomers were favourably received.

The Waldorf Theatre also made a plucky attempt to produce Italian opera of the lighter school. With great wisdom, grand opera was, as a rule, avoided, and such works as Don Pasquale, Il Barbière, &c., were given with much effect.

Many amateurs will regret that St. James's Hall has vanished. After being the home of the Monday Popular Concerts for forty years, these famous concerts had to be discontinued. Much other fine music, and a host of eminent performers, was heard at St. James's Hall. But we hear that a celebrated publisher intends to erect a new hall next year near the Oxford Circus; meanwhile, the smaller halls are doing well.

Our great teaching institutions have sustained their reputations. The Royal Academy of Music has never shone more successfully than during the past year, and its occasional operatic performances have revealed a wealth of native talent, which, under the admirable guidance of Sir Alexander Mackenzie, must prove of the utmost value in the event of English operas ever gaining a firmer footing in London. By the way, an old pupil of the Royal Academy, Mdlle. Bauermeister, after forty years' service at the Royal Opera, took her farewell. The Royal College of Music worthily held its place beside the Royal Academy, and the Guildhall School continues to prosper under the able guidance of Dr. Cummings.

It seems whimsical to mix music with a General Election, but our pianoforte manufacturers are hoping if Tariff Reform gains the day, to benefit by the tax on foreign pianos, many of them being extremely bad in quality of tone, and defective in construction. The really good instruments will continue to win appreciation, while our own makers, among the best in Europe, will stand a better chance of making a profit.

A musical experiment of a daring kind has been made by the Carl Rosa Opera Company in producing an English version of Beethoven's Fidelio, and we learn that it has had a favourable reception in the provinces, where music is cultivated generally with good results. The provincial festivals last year were extremely good. The appointment of Mr. W. Hedgcock at the Crystal Palace as successor to Sir A. Manns is a satisfactory engagement.

The Promenade Concerts at Queen's Hall merit more than ordinary commendation. Important works which in past days would have been drowned with hisses and clamour, were listened to with the utmost admiration, and the great advance made by Mr. Henry Wood is universally recognised. That gentleman must certainly be considered one of the great conductors of Europe.

Dr. Joachim paid two visits to London, and Bechstein Hall was well filled with his admirers. The exceptional length of life reached by Signor Manuel Garcia was celebrated with special honours from Royalty and the profession. The music halls must be congratulated on the improvement on the quality of their performances, and they have been supported by eminent vocalists. As we have said, the prospects of music are bright for the future.

THROUGH an error in the programme the name of Mr. Walter Edge was substituted for that of Mr. Chas. D. Wright, who was responsible for a clever and amusing impersonation of Rats in Red Riding Hood pantomime at Dover.

Think This Over—

That's All.

YOU would be perfectly astonished if you were made aware of the many thousands of pounds absolutely thrown away from year to year upon so-called curatives that are foisted upon a public only too willing to believe the specious arguments laid before them.

The replenishing of the system from the wasting of tissues which is going on every day can only be accomplished by the proper assimilation of food.

It cannot be done with medicine. It can, however, be accomplished with a perfect, flesh-forming, palatable, and agreeable Food Beverage. Dr. Tibbles' Vi-Cocoa is such a Food Beverage, possessing as it does wonderful nourishing, strengthening, and stimulative powers, unsurpassed by any Food Beverage. Dr. Tibbles' Vi-Cocoa is not a medicine. It does simply what it is claimed to do, and its strengthening powers are being recognised to an extent hitherto unknown in the history of any preparation.

Dr. Tibbles' Vi-Cocoa can be obtained from all Grocers and Stores, or from 60, Bunhill Row, London, E.C. Dainty sample free. A post card will do.

LONDON & SUBURBAN THEATRES.

"CINDERELLA" at BRIXTON.

(SECOND NOTICE.)

Photographs of overflowing houses which adorn the vestibules of the handsome theatre at Brixton remain as a lasting memorial of the attractiveness of the annual which the united efforts of Mr. Ernest Stevens and Mr. R. C. Buchanan have produced. The pantomime is designed in the first place to delight the children, but many are the adults who have found enjoyment in the splendid stage pictures, the tuneful music, and the fresh and pungent comedy contained in the piece, and Mr. J. Murray Herriot, the able manager of the theatre, has rejoiced in turning "money" away at both matinée and evening performances. The scenic effects of the pantomime are ingenious and well-managed, the gradual change from a forest in winter to a rustic glade in summer, with rabbits hopping in and out of their burrows, being particularly fine. The Realms of Glittering Crystal is another impressive scene, in which the fairy coach, smothered by electric light, presents a picture of dazzling brilliance. Another elaborate set is the Royal Ball Room; and a culminating display of magnificence is furnished in the Hall of Kings, wherein a Grand Procession of Nations takes place, the costumes of the characters and the scenic embellishments being exquisite. A company, admirably selected, gives full effect to the various impersonations. Miss Molly McIntyre makes of Cinderella a maiden daintily demure and charmingly roguish by turns. She is the picture of sweet simplicity in the tattered frock of the earlier scenes, and in the beautiful dress which is afterwards bestowed upon her she is equally bewitching. Her songs are sung in cultured style, the lay about "Sweet spring" being rendered in finished manner. The popular coon lyric, "I wouldn't leave my little wooden hut for you" also falls to Miss McIntyre, who wins an enthusiastic encore for its rendition. A comely youth is made of Prince Casimir by Miss Lily Iris, who carries herself with stately elegance throughout. Many songs are allotted to Miss Iris, "The wise old owl," which is embellished with electrical effects, being received with great favour. The widely-popular song, "Give my regards to Leicester-square" is another of her successes, among which "Bombay" also figures. A pretty duet, sung with Cinderella, in which the fateful question, "Are you engaged?" is put, is likewise prettily rendered. In common with the plan adopted at the National Theatre, the part of Dandini is taken by a gentleman, and exceedingly well does Mr. Herbert St. John acquit himself in the part. He plays it on light comedy lines, and is throughout buoyant and brisk. He has a song of "Oh! the girls," which he delivers with appropriate spirit. A new departure is also made in respect to what are usually known as the "Ugly Sisters." In this case they are played by two personable ladies, and what they lose in repulsiveness is gained in drollery, Miss Adelaide Gracey as Araminta and Miss Madge Yates as Elvira taking equal honours in this respect. The latter young lady has a song with the refrain, "Yes, you do!" of which many repetitions have to be made, and a scene of mock [illegible]ma, enacted with Dandini, is also well appreciated. A happy combination of fun-producing force is made in the characters of the Baron and Baroness De Debtington, played respectively by Mr. George French and Mr. Tom W. Conway. The pair are inseparable, and each actor in his way makes the utmost of every chance afforded, with the result that screams of laughter resound whenever they are present on the stage. Mr. French's lugubrious countenance is a masterpiece of make-up, and inexpressibly droll. In the course of his performance Mr. French gives an impersonation of Mr. Harry Lauder in "She's ma daisy," and very well does he do it, and a comic wrestling match, in which the diminutive Baron, by his conquest of an abnormally developed opponent, secures emancipation from domestic thraldom, makes the house uproarious with laughter. Mr. Conway is a Baroness whose ample proportions lend weight to her comical antics. The Baroness bristles with malapropisms, most of which are original, none of them failing to make their mark. The song in which a series of embarrassing questions are put also aids the fun, of which Mr. Conway provides a liberal allowance. The spirit of drollery is also in the acting of Mr. William Pringle, who makes of Capers a particularly alert and amusing personage. His duties include the imitation of Sousa conducting one of his own marches, to which he adds many new eccentricities, and a duet of "The amorous parrot," sung and danced with Cinderella, has constantly to be repeated. A regal Fairy Godmother is supplied by Miss Kitty Dale, who is the possessor of a voice of strength and purity. It is heard with the utmost pleasure in popular ballads, which are encored, that of "Rainbow," with its touching sentiment and tuneful refrain, creating great enthusiasm. Miss Ellaline Thorne makes a courtly Duke of Whistbridge, to whom "My Irish Molly" is allotted. The effect of the song is assisted by a gay crowd of revellers, who join in the refrain, and a repetition is inevitable, a similar result being obtained in the case of a step-dance neatly performed by Miss Thorne. Mr. Charles Emerald makes a gorgeous Flunkey at the Palace, and takes a meritorious part in the wrestling match with the Baron. Miss Berenice Maxwell has the rôle of the Snow Queen; and Misses Ruth Hazlewood, Gabrielle Romero, and Dorothy Westerleigh act charmingly as Gentlemen of the Prince's Court. Picturesque dances are supplied by the Jewel Quartet of Lady Dancers, and the members of the chorus adapt themselves admirably to the various kinds of vocal work which fall to them. The music, which is invariably melodious and graceful, has been composed and selected by Mr. Harry Richardson, and the pantomime gives proof of the ability of Mr. Stanley Rogers, by whom it was written and produced.

The special children's feature is an old-fashioned comic harlequinade, arranged by Mr. Fred Leoville, in which that gentleman is clown, supported by Mr. George Dix as pantaloon, Miss Lucy Cohen as columbine, and Miss Lily Galloway as harlequina.

"THE FORTY THIEVES" at the GRAND, WOOLWICH.

(SECOND NOTICE.)

The first performance of this pantomime went with such smoothness and absence of hitch that little room was left for improvement in this direction, but at the same time, it is observable that the entertainment is now given with a briskness and assurance, on the part of all concerned, only to be attained by practice. The principals now feel themselves thoroughly at home in their parts, and the singing and drilling of the chorus are as nearly perfect as possible. As principal boy, Miss Mary Thorne has promptly worked her way into popular favour, scoring heavily, both as an actress and as a songstress. Her sprightly rendering of the part is full of animation and go, and her songs are all so equally well received that it is difficult to make a selection; her most popular number is perhaps "My Irish Molly," while another favourite is the "Teasing" duet with Morgiana. The latter character proves as charming as ever in the capable hands of Miss Lucie Caine, whose dainty, attractive style and sweet singing have caused subsequent audiences heartily to endorse the reception accorded to her on the opening night. Her well-trained voice is heard to advantage in several songs, her feeling rendering of "In Dreamland" being especially worthy of mention. As Abdallah, Miss Kitty Upton is provided with a part admirably suited to her cababilities, her good stage presence enabling her to wear several pretty dresses with distinction, and her vivacious acting and clever singing making her impersonation one of the successes of the performance. In the rôle of Princess Zoe, Miss Amy Height appears possessed of illimitable good humour and vivacity, while the few serious lines she has to say are given with genuine feeling. In our former notice the song, "I wouldn't leave my little wooden hut for you," was erroneously attributed to Miss Fitzgerald; it is sung by Miss Rosie Bartlett, whose singing and dancing are received with much applause. Miss Bartlett, who is understudying the principal boy, had her chance the other day, through Miss Thorne's temporary absence, and acquitted herself right well. Miss Beatrice Fitzgerald is responsible for a pretty rendering of a song entitled "Sweep," the effect of which is heightened by a chorus of six little ladies dressed three in black and three in white. Mr. Leonard Barry has now thoroughly settled down to his work as Ali Baba, and manages to keep his audience in a continual ripple of laughter. His song, "The Cowslip and the Cow," continues to take the house by storm, and the scene between Mr. Barry and Mr. Frank Gee, containing the latter's mock confession, is laughable in the extreme. Mr. Gee also is now seen at his best, and makes Cogia a most amusing character. His business with the wash-tub, peeling potatoes, &c., causes much laughter, especially among the ladies in the audience. Mr. Augustin Symonds plays Cassim with considerable humour, and repeats his strong scene in the robbers' cave, where he is discovered gloating over their store of gold. Clever Mr. George Autill, an extremely long and thin Hassarac, and quaint Little Dando, a very diminutive Cassarac, have several amusing scenes together, Mr. Antill's fine dancing and Mr. Dando's song, "They all love Jock," are most successful items. As an animal impersonator Mr. Harry Gardner would take a lot of beating, his representation of Abbas, the donkey, being especially clever. Mlle. Bartenelli's wonderful contortionist display secures much applause; Miss Maud May Murray's transformation dance proves a very acceptable feature; Mr. Frank Craig's sand dance, and the singing of his American Comedy Four go down well; and the Boultons' banjo duet is much liked. A special feature has been made this year of the Harlequinade which, now that more time can be allotted to it, is seen to be on an unusually elaborate scale, and indeed forms, both for the youngsters and their elders, one of the most enjoyable items on the evening's programme. Mr. Harry Gardner plays the clown on well-established lines, and his energetic efforts to amuse his audience meet with well deserved success, for both his patter and his business are excellent. Mr. Gardner is ably seconded by Mr. Fred W. Leonard, who makes the most of Pantaloon's rather few opportunities, and by Mr. Sam Leo who, as the hardly-used policeman, takes many hard knocks with quaint equanimity. Miss Carrie Ediss dances and poses gracefully as Columbine, and Mr. S. Mitchell is a nimble-toed and ubiquitous Harlequin.

DALSTON THEATRE.

On Monday, Jan. 8,
the Musical Play, entitled
"THE CINGALEE."

A most acceptable epidemic of the musical comedy order of entertainment, which set in at the Dalston Theatre a short time since, is being continued this week with performances of that pleasant addition to the list of modern productions of the kind, The Cingalee. Everyone admires the scenery, painted by Mr. Joseph Harker; and the orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Edward Whitehall, is most efficient. The general representation of the piece is all that can be desired. Mr. Kenneth Wynne as the Hon. Harry Vereker is assigned a part well suited to his style, and he sings well; the part of Nanoya is effectively sustained by Miss Zoe Gilfillan, whose vocal efforts are also most acceptable. Mr. H. J. Williams is dignified as Sir Peter Loftus, whose daughter Angy has a charming representative in Miss Vi Holmes. Mr. Helier Le Maistre scores as Boobhamba; and Mr. Roy Sydney helps towards the general success of the piece by a lively exposition of the character of Bobby Warren, whose dancing is quite a feature of the performance. Johnny Osborne is very funny as Chambbuddy Ram; in fact, he, together with Miss Cissie Sephton, who appears as Peggy Sabine, are, in the matter of active fun, the life and soul of the piece. Miss Sephton's dancing is admirable. Miss Emilie Mayhew is an imperious Lady Patricia Vane. The pas seul in act 2 is by Miss Vi Holmes. Mr. W. H. Morgan is stage-manager.

THE PAVILION.

On Monday, Jan. 8,
the Play, in Five Acts, by C. M. S. McLellan, entitled
"LEAH KLESCHNA."

That no man or woman is entirely bad has been postulated by many reformers from time to time, and Mr. C. M. S. McLellan has made a convincing case for the statement in his powerful play, Leah Kleschna, which was presented for the first time at the Pavilion on Monday evening, by Mr. Charles Frohman's capable company, and was received by a large audience with acclamation. Mr. H. Cooper-Cliffe was really excellent as Kleschna, and showed a careful study of the part, his vigorous and artistic impersonation calling forth well-deserved applause. The strong scene of the fourth act was played with a wonderful degree of realism and dramatic power. Mr. Cyril Harcourt indicated the villainy of Raoul Berton with singularly marked success, and without undue force; a manly and unaffected performance of Paul Sylvaine was given by Mr. J. Graeme Campbell, who acted with much dignity and ability, and frequently drew marks of approval from the audience; while Mr. E. H. Brooke produced a striking impression for his extremely clever portraiture of Schram, which he enacted with skill and judgment. Mr. Kenneth Rivington rendered effective assistance as General Berton; and Mr. Roland Daniel made good use of his opportunities as Valentin Favre. Leah Kleschna was essayed for the first time by Miss Haidee Wright, who proved herself an accomplished actress, and gave a natural and interesting representation of this difficult rôle. Miss Wright was powerfully incisive, and in the scenes where strong passion was required, her elocution had a penetrating ring, which roused the enthusiasm of the house. Miss Dorothy Sidney was bright as Sophie; and Miss Ethel Marryat was seen to advantage as Madame Berton; performances of genuine merit being given by Mr. William Wilson as Anton Pfaff, Mr. George Fairburn as Johann, Mr. M. M. Loomis as Reichmann, Mr. John Harding as Baptiste, Miss Haidee Hemsley as Claire Berton, Miss Ethel Lorrimer as Frieda, and Miss Alice Davis as Charlotte. The play has been staged and mounted with exceptional completeness. Mr. Walter D. Nicoll is the business-manager, and Mr. E. H. Brooke the stage-manager for Mr. Charles Frohman.

OPERA HOUSE, CROUCH END.

On Monday, Jan. 8,
"JACK THE GIANT-KILLER."

Pantomime still holds the stage at this theatre, and Mr. Samuel James's company in Jack the Giant-Killer has succeeded Red Riding Hood. The show is bright, tuneful, and merry. Mr. John Reillie is responsible for the music, which contains many melodious numbers. Miss Ruby Norton makes a capital Jack, and is full of dash and go. Her songs, "Bombay," with a fine chorus, "My Irish Molly," and "Good-bye, Sweet Marie," are all well rendered and well received. Miss Flora Morris as Princess Lovebird is dainty and charming. She sings "I'll be your dewdrop, Rosie," and "Teasing" with much sweetness and expression, and her duets with Jack meet with much applause. As Mrs. Jack Mr. George Delaforce is admirable, and never fails to amuse. His topical ditty entitled "What could you wish for more" is very popular. As the Demon Discord Mr. Fred Carrington could scarcely be bettered, and Mr. A. G. Lytton as the Giant plays a difficult part well. As the Baron Ooffess Mr. James May is delightful, and his efforts are ably seconded by the Baroness, enacted by Miss Nell Gillmore in excellent fashion. Messrs. Hans and Lux as Fanfare and Blowhard sing and dance capitally, and knock each other about in a highly diverting manner. Miss Dorothy Frances as Fairy Rosebud does well, and she sings the ever-popular "Rainbow" with good effect. Miss Ida Katerina as Cupid sings a doll song entitled "Jack-in-the-Box" exceedingly well, for which she is recalled. Miss Carmen Morena, the principal dancer, gains a hearty reception for her Spanish dances.

"CINDERELLA" at the ARTILLERY, WOOLWICH.

In our notice of the production of this pantomime at the new Royal Artillery Theatre, Woolwich, we mentioned that a certain amount of revision and pulling together was required, and it is observable on a second visit that much has been done in this direction. The pantomime plays much closer; many judicious cuts have been made; the performers are now sure of their lines and of themselves, and there is a decided improvement all round. Miss Verna Reed is a very popular principal boy, her spirited acting and the animation she infuses into the several songs entrusted to her having made her a firm favourite. Her most successful number is perhaps "The girl who leads the band," which, now that the chorus is fully at home with its work, goes with a tremendous swing, and is loudly encored. Miss Freda Murray repeats her charming impersonation of Cinderella, her refined and artistic style of acting being admirably in keeping with the character, and her clever singing of several pretty ballads being most acceptable. Her rendering of "In Dreamland" receives a determined and well-merited encore. Miss Florence Wakeman is as vivacious as ever as Dandini, and is especially commendable for the clear enunciation of her lines. Miss Wakeman's singing voice is of good power and quality, and she has an excellent idea of how to make the most of it, as she proves in her success with "My Irish Molly," which is emphatically redemanded. Miss Beatrice Rowe is a refined, dignified Queen Turquoise, and sings in an easy, unforced manner which makes her songs very acceptable. As the bold, but by no means always bad, Baron, Mr. Fred Albery displays a fund of dry humour, his clever delivery adding point to many witty lines and giving a certain zest to the most ordinary remarks. Mr. Will Burton is responsible for a really funny representation of one of the ugly sisters, his unwearying efforts to provide his audience with plenty to laugh at meeting with a most gratifying response. Somewhat of a departure has been made in the engagement of Miss Molly Russell to play the second ugly sister, but the experiment is an undoubted success, and Miss Russell proves an able second to Mr. Burton, their duet, "What will the papers say," fairly bringing down the house, their grotesque burlesque of a game of ping-pong being also provocative of considerable mirth. Mr. F. W. Mason has worked up his part a good deal, and gives a genuinely humorous rendering of Buttons, the Baron's page. The Brothers Ford provide plenty of amusement as Hob and Nob, and work energetically to make their part of the performance a success. Their combined efforts to tell a tale to the audience, one continually anticipating the other with disastrous results, are received with much laughter. A particularly popular turn is the juggling entertainment given by the Balzeas, who perform some remarkable feats in the way of spinning plates, balancing burning cones of paper, and the like. Another clever artist is Mr. Weimar, whose tight-rope performance is much appreciated, and whose absurd musical turn, during which he produces an apparently illimitable number of musical instruments from various parts of his clothing, causes much amusement. His announcement that he was Lord Roberts's trumpeter, and his bugle calls continue to arouse enthusiasm. The Erdingdale Troupe of Dancers have succeeded in dancing themselves firmly into the good graces of the audience, their clever tumbling and gymnastic display also finding favour. The Harlequinade, with which the performance terminates, has proved a popular feature, the efforts of Mr. F. Mason, as the clown, Mr. W. Albery as pantaloon, Mr. Ford as policeman, and Misses Trevelyan and De Castille as Columbine and Harlequina respectively, meeting with deserved success.

ALEXANDRA PALACE PANTOMIME.

(SECOND NOTICE.)

Since its first appearance on Christmas eve, Mr. E. Graham-Falcon's pantomime of The Forty Thieves has been well patronised, with overflowing houses on Saturdays. This speaks well for the business acumen of Mr. Richard Pakenham, who looks after the front of the house, and is largely responsible for such excellent results. An unfortunate acident happened on Wednesday afternoon, the 3rd inst., when Mr. Bobbie Hall, who had made a hit as the robber lieutenant, Hassarac, sustained a serious injury whilst wrestling with the too-playful donkey, John Willy (Mr. Ernest Leopold). An excellent substitute (pro. tem) has been found in Mr. B. Albert, who was the representative of Mustapha. Miss Tessie Vandean, as Ganem, sings "Give me a girl like that" and "The pipers are calling, Jenny." The rendering of both these songs deserves complimentary mention. Nor must the comic interlude "My brother," sung by Cassim (Mr. Wilfred Vaughan) be forgotten, for it is a number that is an established success. The sparkling duet, "Rainbow," by Ganem and Morgiana (Miss Nina Moore) is accompanied by a corps de ballet action, in which the colours of the rainbow are represented with startling electrical effects. The applause at the conclusion is prolonged. The well-sung number, "Sleeping," gives Ali Baba (Mr. John Leopold) another opportunity of displaying his vocal ability, and Cogia Babia (Mr. Willie Leopold) his acrobatic agility. The Revenge chorus of The Forty Thieves do their work exceedingly well.

APARTMENTS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ERA.

SIR,—I should like, through the medium of your valuable paper, to make an appeal to all travelling actors to impress upon the landladies wherever they are staying, the advantages of having an address book as well as the ordinary reference book, in which good apartments for various towns may be entered by actors who can recommend them. An actor, when entering an address, should sign his name as reference. The practice, if carried out, would be a great boon to actors and landladies alike.

Yours faithfully, WILLIAM LOCKHART.

T. R., Preston, Jan. 9.

PRESENTATION.—At the Crouch End Opera House on Saturday last, just before the fall of the curtain on the Palace scene of the pantomime, Mr. Eldred, the popular acting-manager, was invited on to the stage, and presented with a silver cigarette-case, matchbox, and cigarette-holder, subscribed for by the principal members of the company. Mr. Eldred was enthusiastically received by the audience, and in the course of the presentation allusion was made to the courteous and amiable manner in which he had treated the whole of the members of the company.

"HER LUCK IN LONDON."

A Drama, in Four Acts, by Charles Darrell,
Presented by Mr. George Kirk on Monday, Jan. 8, at the Carlton Theatre, Saltley.

Hon. Gerald F. O'Connor MR. C. A. LEICESTER
Richard Lenowen ..... MR. CHAS. DRACOTT.
Stephen Harborne ..... MR. EDWIN F. FYSHER
Rev. Lionel Strong .... MR. DOUGLAS TREYMAYNE
Algie Kirkcumbrie ..... MR. CHAS. DIGBY
Jerry Gotobed ..... MR. J. TILLY DILLSON
Charlie Manders ..... MR. E. S. NUTTALL
Harry Forsdayne ..... MR. G. STONES
Harvey Tremayne ..... MR. W. WROL
Archer ..... MR. BRUCE CLAPHAM
Ruth Harborne ..... MISS ELLA VANE
Lillian Harborne ..... MISS FRANCES WARING
Angela Plantagenet .... MISS RENE GLENDOWER
Maud G. Shovepenny .... MISS FLORRIE GROVES
Clara Sparkington ..... MISS DAISY MOSS
Tessie Glentowers ..... MISS QUENNIE LAMONT
Mimi Tersdale ..... MISS KITTY GERALD
Barmaid ..... MISS DORA WOODBERRY
Saucy / Hon. Mrs. Gerald O'Connor } MISS MARY NEIL

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

Her Luck in London is intended by the author to represent "life as it is to-day," and he has succeeded well in his aspiration, Mr. Darrell's facile pen and constructive genius being shown to so much advantage that there is not a single incongruous or inconsequent passage in the play. The story opens at the country homestead of Stephen Harborne, whose wife had years previously left him for the garish life of London, leaving also two children, both daughters. One, Lillian, is austere and akin to her father, the other, Nellie, being frivolous, but innocent in intent, though the father opines she is like unto her mother. Nellie is already the object of a villain's attentions, one Richard Lenowen, who keeps a gaming house in London, and who makes his presence felt in the village at a time when the home of the Harbornes is about to be sold up; thus comes the opportunity to press his evil suit. Nellie, returning from one of her frivolous excursions, is chided by her father and sister, and the father in his wrath discloses the fact that the mother whom they both thought dead is yet alive, having left him for a stranger and a life of sin. "My poor father," quoth the elder and favourite daughter. "My poor mother," exclaims the younger, "she left you for lack of sympathy, sunshine, being bound to a religion all terror and punishment." This so incenses the old man that he would have struck his daughter to the ground, but that a curate, Lionel Strong, happening to pass that way, was in time to stay his hand. However, all things conspire to the girl's ruin. The father is stern, and slow to understand his daughter's better nature, and Lenowen makes his insidious advances without hindrance. The villain deposits the necessary sum for the redemption of the homestead, and also writes a specious letter imputing shame to Nellie. Thus the girl's undoing is achieved, and she is thrust forth, despite her frenzied appeals to her father, who flings the gold on her cowering form. "I am a good girl," she cries, but it is useless, and her sister denies her, while the villain, who could exculpate her if he would, is silent. Next we find her in London at the Hilarity Lounge, the creature of the villain, Lenowen, and abandoned to shame, until the advent of the Hon. Gerald O'Connor, when she essays to throw off the shackles of vice, to be confronted with Lenowen, who has drawn O'Connor hither to be "plucked," counting on Nellie's aid as the decoy. However, O'Connor escapes his clutches, and, being enamoured of Nellie, asks her to become his wife, which, thinking he has through a third party been acquainted with her past, she at last does, only to be thrown off when, through the instigation of the scoundrel, Lenowen, and one Madame Gabrielle, a demimondaine, her past is revealed. This led up to a very powerful situation, and Nellie, who is thus for the second time thrust from home and love, despite her passionate appeals, was the object of the audience's deepest sympathy. All this was very fine acting, the passage between husband and wife creating an intense feeling, then breaking into a wild torrent of reproaches the unhappy wife exclaims: "Take back your puny love; I renounce it." Then, seeing the authoress of her undoing (Madame Gabrielle), she flings herself on that lady, and gripping her by the throat essays to strangle her, when her father appears on the scene, and exclaims, "That woman is your mother!" The last act shows Nellie tending her unhappy mother with a true daughter's care, and we see the reconciliation of husband, wife, daughter, and mother, a scene that enthralled the house. The villain's nefarious plots which he again sets in motion for the further severance of Gerald and Nellie really bring about their reconciliation, for Nellie, pretending to co-operate in the villain's scheme, is able to be at hand to save her husband. This last scene, a house in St. John's Wood, is a cleverly devised and effective one, keeping the audience in a ferment of excitement. Here Nellie, for the purpose of deceiving the villain, cleverly feigns the manner of the wanton, and as such greets her husband when he arrives, after having been inveigled thither for the purposes of plunder. Disgusted and hurt, he tries to leave, but is prevented, and the production of a bottle of drugged wine—which, however, he does not touch, thanks to Nellie—brings matters to a crisis. Feigning sleep, he is robbed, and his life threatened, but he is saved by his really devoted wife, and the villain, robbed of his prey and desperate in his aim, shoots, killing Nellie's mother, who, with her father and a rescue party, had just appeared on the scene. Husband and wife, and the devoted Nellie and Gerald, are made happy, and a most fictive curtain concludes the play.

A marked feature of the production was the brilliant acting of Miss Mary Neil as Nellie Harborne. Whether as the light-hearted, frivolous, but pure-minded Nellie of the village homestead, or the flippant, reckless-minded girl, Saucy, of the Hilarity Lounge, or as the devoted and happy wife, her acting was the perfection of art. Each phase and temperament was limned with unerring accuracy and charm, and enthusiasm for Miss Neil was denoted by great applause. Mr. Charles Draycott as the sleek and smiling villain, Richard Lenowen, got every atom of value out of the character, which in his hands proved a very formidable villain indeed. Mr. Edwin F. Fysher portrayed the stern, unbending nature and will of the father and husband, Stephen Harborne, with much attention to detail and absolute success. Mr. Douglas Tremayne as the amorous and withal earnest young curate, Lionel Strong, who finally secures for his wife the high and virtuous-minded Lillian, seized his opportunities, and won much popularity. Mr. Chas. A. Leicester played the part of the Hon. Gerald Fitzgerald O'Connor in a perfectly frank and easy manner, while in the heroic passages his vigorous acting was most effective. Mr. Charles Digby as the humorous and impecunious Algie Kirkcumbrie, satellite to the villain, presented many amusing points. Mr. J. Tilly Dillson embodied the peculiarities of Jerry Gotobed, the faithful and comic servant of the heroine, with much success. Miss Ella Vane as the strident-voiced and shameless Madame Gabrielle, and afterwards as the mother brought to repentance, was ever alive to the possibilities of her rôle. Miss Frances Waring was successful without being repellent as the unsympathetic sister, Lillian, while in the softer phases of the character her natural charm and prepossessing presence stood out in pleasant relief. Miss Florrie Groves made an uncommonly go[illegible] and comely serving-maid, one Maud Gladys, her bright, fresh, and vivacious manner being highly exhilarating to the audience, and Miss Rene Glendower as a young lady with an abnormal thirst, and the others of the cast, acted in excellent form. The dresses of the ladies at the Hilarity Lounge, &c., are exquisite creations, and the scenery is new and most effective.

STAGE CHILDREN AT PLAY.

Mr. and Mrs. Otho Stuart delighted the hearts of the many children taking part in A Midsummer Night's Dream at the Adelphi Theatre by inviting them all on Wednesday to share in the spoils of a Christmas tree standing 16ft. high and heavy with presents, including cameras, pocket electric lights, and many other valuable and useful articles. It was a study to watch the children's faces as Mrs. Otho Stuart went round the dress circle where they were seated with a hat full to overflowing with tickets, each child drawing a number; then when they were just wondering "What will mine be like," Mrs. Stuart returned to the charge again, and yet again the children drawing three tickets each, and receiving not less than three articles off the Christmas tree. The curtain went up in darkness, then a mass of blue electric lights appeared on the tree, followed by red and then white lights, the limes flooded the stage, the children screamed with delight, and Mr. and Mrs. Stuart looked happy; in that one loud shout of joy they were repaid for all their trouble and work. Mr. and Mrs. Stuart, Miss South, Mr. Oscar Asche, Mr. Alfred Brydone, and Mr. Alfred Wigley all worked hard, finding the rightful owners for the many good things—no small undertaking when there are over 200 articles on the tree and 18ft. ladders have to be mounted in order to get them.

The children afterwards had tea at the Adelphi Restaurant, the ladies and gentlemen of the company waiting upon their younger brother and sister artists. When the crackers had all been exploded they all romped back to the theatre, where Shakespeare's Most Lamentable Comedy was presented by "The Romps," a company of children specially selected by Messrs. Bellew and Stock. The curtain rose on the last scene of A Midsummer Night's Dream, and the various actors and actresses who play the parts in the evening were loud in their praise at the excellent performance given by their imitators. Miss Olive Cooke, as Quince, was Mr. Lyall Swete to the life, every movement being a perfect copy. Miss Phyllis Stean and Miss St. Claire as Thisbe and Wall had made a study of Mr. Kay Souper and Mr. Henry Kitts with marked fidelity. Pyramus played by Miss Carmen Woods, was perhaps the best thought-out rôle. She timed the business introduced by Mr. Oscar Asche to perfection. Jimmy Parke, Esq., height 36 inches, as well as being producer and stage-manager, was responsible for the lighting effects, scenery, costumes, wigs, quick-changes, all effects and defects. Mendelssohn's beautiful music to "The Lamentable Comedy" was conducted by Mr. Christopher Wilson, the eminent composer.

A great novelty was provided in part two by the production of a musical fantasy, by Alfred Wigley, entitled

"THE ENCHANTED HOUR"
(A Musical Fantasy).

1st Soldier ..... DORA FRASER
2nd Soldier ..... CYRIL COOKE
3rd Soldier ..... CLEMENT KENT
1st Sailor ..... BECKY ABRAMS
2nd Sailor ..... CECIL STEELE
Ann ..... EDITH STREETER
Anna Ann ..... OLIVE COOKE
Hannah Ann ..... FLORRIE HARRINGTON
Jack-in-box ..... GEORGE WINGROVE
Ping-Pong ..... CECIL DOYLE
Golliwog ..... MICHAEL FINN
Pretty Jane ..... CECILY WILSON
Blue-eyed Susan ..... OLIVE PICKANCE
Herr Pianotist ..... ERNEST CECIL
The Major ..... A DUMMY
An Accident ..... WOOD

This charming little "Dolly Dialogue" was specially written by Mr. Wigley for this occasion, and marvellously interpreted by Messrs. Bellew and Stock's remarkably clever juvenile comedians. These little people literally astonished their elder brother and sister actors by their artistic rendering of the various sparkling numbers which abounded in the play. And in nearly every case the singing would have put to shame many an older and more experienced cantatrice. When all were so good it were invidious to particularise, yet one needs must give more than a passing word to Miss Edith Streeter, who in her performance of Ann, the Dutch Doll, proved herself the possessor of a voice and dramatic talent very far above the average. Misses Cecily Wilson and Olive Pickance as Pretty Jane and Blue-eyed Susan did excellent work, both in singing and acting.

It is to be regretted that so admirable and novel an entertainment should have been limited to one performance, and it will be a thousand pities if it is not secured as a refined and novel turn at one of the West-end variety theatres, or as a first piece before some more serious entertainment. Three programmes were presented to Mrs. Stuart, Mr. Stuart, and Miss South respectively, the covers of which had been specially designed by Mr. Caleb Porter.

THEATRICAL PATENTS.

The following abridged description is specially drawn for "The Era" by Messrs. Hughes and Young, Patent Agents, 55-56, Chancery-lane, London, W.C., who will give advice and assistance free to our readers on all patent matters.

Patent Illustrated, 16,357. Theatres, &c. Patentee, M. Mausshardt, Billigheim, Palatinate, Germany. Theatres, public halls, &c., are so constructed and modified that in the event of a fire the audience can be quickly conveyed outside the building. Outside the building are beams supporting suspended galleries, which are reached through doors on the various floors. These beams are supported on pivots, and can be swung towards the ground, carrying the galleries. The pit is supported on a floor running on rollers, and provided with a rack, which engages with a pinion, this latter being operated by the shaft through the medium of the bevel wheels. Cables are connected to the beams, and pass over pulleys, so that as the galleries descend, owing to gravity, the shaft is operated, and this, operating on the other shaft, causes the pit to move bodily outwards on the rollers, through an aperture provided in the side of the building. The shafts may be provided with winches, so that the system may be immediately set in motion by hand or other means.

Patent Application, 23,712. — Henry Hunt and Henry John Reece, Daly's Theatre, Leicester-square, London. "Improvements in music or reading stands."

MISS LILY HAROLD, the principal boy in Mother Goose pantomime at the Tyne Theatre, Newcastle-on-Tyne, being unfortunately laid up with a severe cold, her part of Colin has, during her absence, been successfully played by Miss Amy Lorrison, whose performance has given the utmost satisfaction.

MISS NELLIE WALTERS has won great credit for the artistic costumes in the pantomime, The Sleeping Beauty, at the Paisley Theatre, the whole of the dresses worn by principal ladies, chorus, and dancers, with the exception of some of those in the last scene, being designed by her.

FIFTY YEARS OF THE DRAMA—1850-1900.

(COPYRIGHT.)

In these columns it is proposed to give a strictly alphabetical arrangement of the titles of plays produced during the last fifty years. It will be the most complete list ever published, and should prove invaluable to authors desiring to discover whether a certain title has ever been used, and when. To members of the dramatic profession it will be useful in determining the dates of plays in which they have achieved successes. Our readers are politely requested to advise us of any omission or inaccuracy which they may notice.

This list as soon as complete will be published in cheap book form.

DAUGHTER'S HONOUR, Surrey, Dec. 17, 1895.
DAUGHTERS OF BABYLON, Lyric, Feb. 6, 1897.
DAUGHTER'S SACRIFICE, Globe, May 17, 1888.
DAUGHTER'S SECRET, Britannia, Feb. 26, 1874.
DAUGHTERS, Theatre Royal, Portsmouth, June 30, 1890.
DAVENANT, Gaiety, July 12, 1879.
DAVENPORT BROS. AND CO., Theatre Royal, Birmingham, April 24, 1879.
DAVENPORT DONE, Theatre Royal, Dublin, Feb. 4, 1867.
DAVID COPPERFIELD, Grecian, Oct. 3, 1870.
DAVID GARRICK, burlesque, Criterion, May 11, 1888.
DAVID GARRICK, Haymarket, May 2, 1864.
DAVID, Garrick, Nov. 7, 1892.
DAVID MORGAN, THE JACOBITE, Star, Aberdare, Feb. 15, 1872.
DAVY CROCKETT, Southminster, Edinburgh, Sept. 29, 1873.
DAWN OF FREEDOM, Theatre Royal, Goole, April 20, 1900.
DAWN OF HOPE, Novelty, Jan. 20, 1896.
DAWN OF LOVE, Theatre Royal, Exeter, Jan. 26, 1885.
DAWN, Vaudeville, June 30, 1887.
DAYBREAK, Standard, Sept. 1, 1884.
DAY DREAMS, Loton Park, Salop, Nov. 5, 1875.
DAYE AND KNIGHT, St. George's Hall, Nov. 4, 1895.
DAYES OF OLDE, Theatre Royal, Leamington, Nov. 8, 1892.
DAY IN KINGSBURY CASTLE, St. Alban's, April 6th, 1899.
DAY OF RECKONING, Battersea, Feb. 17, 1894.
DAY OF RECKONING, Lyceum, Dec. 4, 1850.
DAY'S FISHING, Adelphi, March 8, 1869.
DAYS OF CROMWELL, Sunderland, July 9, 1896.
DAYS OF DANGER, Dalston, Sept. 24, 1900.
DAYS OF TERROR, Theatre Royal, Bishop Auckland, March 24, 1891.
DAY'S SPORT, St. George's Hall, Jan. 28, 1889.
DAYS TO COME, Elephant and Castle, May 29, 1893.
DAY TO DAY, Warrington, July 1, 1889.
DAY WILL COME, Opera House, Chatham, March 7, 1892.
DEACON BRODIE, Pullan's, Bradford, Dec. 28, 1882.
DEACON, THE, Shaftesbury, Aug. 27, 1890.
DEAD BEAT, Surrey, Oct. 22, 1885.
DEAD BOXER, Albion, Sept. 20, 1875.
DEAD CALM, Standard, Aug. 4, 1868.
DEAD DUCHESS, Britannia, March 24, 1856.
DEAD HEART, Adelphi, Nov. 10, 1859.
DEAD HEAT, Shepherd's Bush, Nov. 11, 1891.
DEAD LETTER, Marylebone, Dec. 11, 1873.
DEADLOCK, THE, Bayswater, Feb. 7, 1898.
DEADLY FOES, Theatre Royal, Belfast, Nov. 20, 1868.
DEADLY REPORTS, Olympic, Oct. 26, 1857.
DEADLY SAMPSON, Pavilion, Sept. 16, 1876.
DEADLY WEAPONS, Theatre Royal, Great Grimsby, Sept. 14, 1885.
DEADLY WEAPONS, Theatre Royal, Great Yarmouth, July 9, 1884.
DEAD MAN'S CLIFF, Evesham, Sept. 23, 1896.
DEAD MAN'S GOLD, Surrey, Nov. 7, 1887.
DEAD MAN'S HOLLOW, Theatre, Longton, Oct. 4, 1869.
DEADMAN'S POINT, Adelphi, Feb. 4, 1871.
DEAD OF NIGHT, Novelty, April 26, 1897.
DEAD O' NIGHT BOYS, Greenwich, Sept. 19, 1874.
DEAD OR ALIVE, Queen's, July 22, 1872.
DEAD; OR, THE LIVING WILL, Brierley Hill, Nov. 25, 1891.
DEAD PAST, Parkhurst, June 24, 1895.
DEAD RECKONING, Britannia, Aug. 10, 1868.
DEAD SECRET, Lyceum, Aug. 29, 1877.
DEAD TAKE IN, Olympic, Jan. 31, 1850.
DEAD TO THE WORLD, Grecian, July 12, 1875.
DEAD WITHOUT A NAME, Olympic, Feb. 14, 1853.
DEADWOOD DICK, Pavilion, March 12, 1894.
DEAL BOATMAN, Drury Lane, Sept. 21, 1863.
DEAN OF HAZELDEAN, Nelson, April 20, 1889.
DEAN'S DAUGHTER, St. James's, Oct. 13, 1888.
DEAR DEPARTED, Comedy, May 29, 1889.
DEARER THAN LIFE, Alexndra, Liverpool, Nov. 15, 1867.
DEAREST FRIENDS, Steinway Hall, June 20, 1902.
DEAREST MAMMA, Olympic, May 14, 1860.
DEAR FRIENDS, Vaudeville, July 24, 1890.
DEAR GIRLS, Salford, Sept. 11, 1899.
DEAR HEARTS OF IRELAND, Peckham, Dec. 3, 1901.
DEAR JACK, Theatre Royal, Colchester, May 30, 1892.
DEATH BY THE LAW, Pavilion, Aug. 5, 1876.
DEATH OF TINTAGILES, St. George's Hall, July 22, 1902.
DEATH OR GLORY, Britannia, Oct. 7, 1896.
DEATH OR VICTORY, Attercliffe, Sept. 22, 1898.
DEATH'S BRIDAL, Opera House, Bolton, June 10, 1878.
DEATH'S HEAD DICK, Merthyr Tydfil, March 31, 1870.
DEATH TRAP, Grecian, June 6, 1870.
DEATH WARRANT, Grecian, Oct. 25, 1879.
DEBORAH, Avenue, Feb. 22, 1892.
DEBORAH; OR, JEWISH OUTCAST, Grecian, Feb. 15, 1864.
DEBT, Gaiety, Nov. 23, 1872.
DEBT OF HONOUR, Opera Comique, Dec. 17, 1891.
DEBT OF HONOUR, Theatre Royal, West Hartlepool, Jan. 23, 1879.
DECEIVED; OR, THROUGH LIFE, Prince's, Accrington, Sept. —, 1882.
DECEIVERS EVER, Strand, Nov. 26, 1883.
DECEPTION, Theatre Royal, Edinburgh, May 27, 1889.
DECEPTION, Theatre Royal, Liverpool, Dec. 18, 1871.
DECOY BIRD, Luton, Sept. 5, 1892.
DECOY, THE, Gaiety, April 18, 1883.
DEEDS NOT WORDS, Surrey, Jan. 8, 1855.
DEEDS, South Kensington, Feb. 25, 1879.
DEEMING; OR, DOOMED AT LAST, Liverpool, June 6, 1892.
DEENE FARM, Stoke Newington, Jan. 23, 1894.
DEEP WATERS, Theatre Royal, Manchester, Sept. 19, 1889.
DEER SLAYERS, Britannia, Dec. 19, 1870.
DEFAULTER, Calcutta, 1858.
DEFEATED, Theatre Royal, Cardiff, April 11, 1881.
DEFENDER OF THE FAITH, Birmingham, Sept. 20, 1897.
DEFENDING HIS HONOUR, Keighley, Nov. 10, 1902.
DEGENERATES, Haymarket, Aug. 31, 1899.
DELIA, Bristol, March 11, 1889.
DELIA HARDING, Comedy, April 17, 1895.
DELICATE GROUND, Terry's, Jan. 11, 1897.
DELILAH, Park, Oct. 7, 1880.
DELILAH, Sadler's Wells, Sept. 26, 1892.
DELIGHTS O' LONDON, Philharmonic, April 8, 1882.
DELIVERED FROM EVIL, Theatre Royal, Bristol, March 27, 1899.
DEL OMBRA, Theatre Royal, Liverpool, April 12, 1879.
DEL TREM, Gaiety, West Hartlepool, Sept. 22, 1879.
DEMOCRAT, THE, Grand, Nottingham, March 22, 1893.
DEMON BRACELETS, Britannia, Aug. 16, 1869.
DEMON DARRELL, Britannia, June 20, 1898.
DEMON-DOCTOR, Effingham, Jan. 21, 1867.
DEMON JOCKEY, Theatre Royal, Rotherham, Oct. 16, 1882.
DEMON LOVER, New Royalty, Oct. 10, 1864.
DEMON OF DARKNESS, Victoria, April 17, 1865.
DEMON OOF BIRD, Britannia, Dec. 26, 1895.
DEMON'S BRIDE, Alhambra, Sept. 7, 1874.
DEMON SPIDER, Newcastle, Oct. 29, 1895.
DEMON, THE, Comedy, Manchester, July 2, 1888.
DENE'S REST, Southend, Dec. 6, 1897.
DENHAM'S FOLLY, Theatre Royal, Paisley, Feb. 2, 1894.
DENISE, Her Majesty's, June 11, 1886.
DENOUNCED, Elephant and Castle, Aug. 11, 1883.
DEOCH AN' DUR'ASS, Britannia, Oct. 3, 1877.
DEPUTY REGISTRAR, Criterion, Dec. 7, 1888.
DEPUTY SHERIFF, Bootle, Aug. 8, 1892.
DEPUTY, Theatre Royal, South Shields, Sept. 2, 1897.
DEPUTY, THE, Criterion, May 15, 1888.
DER BIBERPETZ, St. George's Hall, Feb. 13, 1900.
DER BIBLIOTHEKAR, Opera Comique, Oct. 20, 1894.
DERBY DAY, Pavilion, Feb. 9, 1867.
DER EINGEBILDETE KRANKE, Drury Lane, July 19, 1881.
DER EVANGELIMANN, Covent Garden, July 2, 1897.
DER FREISCHUTZ, Her Majesty's, Oct. 28, 1865.
DER FREYSCHUTZ, Strand, Oct. 8, 1866.
DER MEINEDBAUER, Opera Comique, Sept. 26, 1894.
DERMOT O'DONOGHUE, Victoria, Strathaven, July 24, 1872.
DER PFARRER VON KIRCHFELD, Opera Comique, Sept. 20, 1894.
DER PROBEPFEIL, Comedy, Oct. 26, 1900.
DER RAUB DER SABINERINNEN, Opera Comique, Oct. 31, 1894.
DERRY DRISCOLL, Alexandra, Liverpool, April 16, 1877.
DERBY WINNER, Drury Lane, Sept. 15, 1894.
DER SPORTSMAN, Royalty, Nov. 21, 1894.
DER VOGELHANALER, Drury Lane, June 17, 1895.
DER WILDSCHUTZ, Drury Lane, July 3, 1895.
DESMORO, Pavilion, Sept. 24, 1866.
DESPERATE ADVENTURES OF A BABY, Desperate Game, Adelphi, April 9, 1853.
Strand, Dec. 14, 1878.
DESTINY, East London, Feb. 24, 1869.

FIFTY YEARS OF THE DRAMA.

Kind expressions from Authors and Managers.

SIR SQUIRE BANCROFT.

"I congratulate you on your 'Fifty Years of the Drama': the list must prove both interesting and useful to lovers of and workers for the stage."

MR. GEORGE EDWARDES.

"I think the new feature of The Era is most interesting and useful. A list of plays produced from 1850 to 1900 will certainly be of great service to a very large number of your readers."

MR. EDWARD TERRY.

"An admirable idea, and will prove a most valuable record."

MR. FRANK CURZON.

"Your list, I think, will be most useful for reference."

MRS. W. K. CLIFFORD.

"I think the list will be immensely useful."

MR. SYDNEY GRUNDY.

"Your list will be exceedingly useful. But, of course, there is no reason why old titles should not be used again. Indeed, some day we shall have to go back to them. Some of our modern titles, when they are not mere proper names with an adjective attached, display the desperation of the dramatist in too ludicrous a light. Such a title as 'The Importance of Being Earnest' amounts to a misdemeanour."

MR. ARTHUR W. PINERO.

"The list of plays produced during the last half-century is a most valuable record. The thanks of those interested in the theatre are due to The Era for this and many other enterprises."

MR. ALFRED SUTRO.

"The list you are compiling will be of very great benefit, and I am looking forward to the time when it shall be complete, and obtainable in pamphlet form."

MR. JUSTIN HUNTLY McCARTHY.

"I have watched with the greatest interest the progress of your alphabetical list of the plays published during the last half of the nineteenth century. It is a most useful undertaking, and when it appears in volume form, it must prove of great value to all who are concerned with the drama."

MR. ISRAEL ZANGWILL.

"The list of plays will be very interesting and useful when published in complete form. The etiquette of the profession apparently still allows of novelists' titles being used by playwrights. Thus, The Master, which will appear in your list as a play by somebody else, is the name of a book of mine; while the new play, Noah's Ark, has the same title as a shorter story of mine."

MR. ARTHUR LAW.

"The publication in The Era of a list of plays produced during the fifty years, 1850-1900, is an excellent idea, and will be most useful to authors who may be in doubt as to their right to a certain title. When it is issued in book form I shall be very glad to possess a copy."

MR. ARTHUR BOURCHIER.

"Mr. Arthur Bourchier thinks the list very useful indeed."

MR. TOM GALLON.

"Your idea seems to me to be a most excellent one. Quite apart from the fact that there is always a difficulty in knowing what titles have been used, there very often arises the question of when and where a play was actually produced—a question difficult to be answered. Actors and authors should alike be grateful to The Era."

MR. HAROLD MONTAGUE.

"I think the idea of printing a list of plays produced during the last fifty years an excellent one. It should be of great value to authors."

MR. ARTHUR SHIRLEY.

"The list of produced plays was not merely a happy thought, for the same idea has probably occurred to many, though until The Era carried it out no one took the pains to collect and publish such a truly valuable record.

"Managers, dramatists, as well as would-be authors, will henceforward have a long list of titles to refer to, and there will be neither reason nor excuse for encroaching on pre-existing copyright in play titles. What a lot of trouble it should save us all!"

MR. WALTER MELVILLE.

"I think it shows great enterprise on the part of your journal, and likely to prove most useful and at the same time interesting to the general profession."

MR. ARTHUR MORRISON.

"The list you are publishing will be a most valuable work of reference to everybody taking an interest in the stage, and I have no doubt that when it is published as a book you will find its success warrant you in issuing fresh editions from time to time, with the information brought to date in each case."

MR. J. J. DILLEY.

"The idea is an excellent one, and there can be no question at all of the usefulness of such a summary. Cousin Grace has not been included. This is a little piece from the French, played at a matinée performance at the Gaiety Theatre, Dec. 4, 1884."

MR. COSMO HAMILTON.

"I think that your new feature is an excellent and most useful one. A list of plays produced during fifty years is interesting not only to the playgoer, but essentially so to the manager and the playwright. They will only have to consult it to be sure that a title has not been used before."

MR. CHARLES H. E. BROOKFIELD.

"My attention has been called to your list of plays produced between 1850-1900. I have no doubt it will prove interesting and useful to many."

MR. F. FRANKFORT MOORE.

"The list of plays produced during the past fifty years, now appearing in The Era, will, I am certain, prove, when completed, extremely valuable to everyone associated with the drama in England. I am convinced—and I have had a considerable amount of experience in this direction—that it will be especially valued by all writers upon stage matters. The advantage of being able to refer at a moment's notice to the criticisms upon the production of various plays in various newspapers must be apparent to everyone. If such a list had been in existence some years ago, I would have been saved a vast amount of worry and vexation of spirit. The Era has once again proved itself appreciative of the conditions under which the best interests of the drama in England are maintained."

MR. LOUIS N. PARKER.

"I think your list of plays, produced between 1850 and 1900, will, like the other contents of your paper, be invaluable."

NEW PLAYS OF THE MONTH.

LONDON.

DEC. 1. Die Rauber, tragedy, in five acts, by Schiller (German Theatre)—Great Queen-street Theatre.
„ 4. The Great Awakening, play, in four acts, by Maud Hildyard and Russell Vaun—Pavilion.
„ 8. Der Pfarrer von Kirchfeld, play, in four acts, by Ludwig Anzengruber (German Theatre)—Great Queen-street Theatre.
„ 6. The Indecision of Mr. Kingsbury, comedy, in four acts, adapted from L'Irrésolu of George Berr, by Cosmo Gordon-Lennox—Haymarket.
„ 6. The Impressions of Stella, farce, by J. F. Nolan and Frank Rolison (produced by amateurs)—Cripplegate Institute, E.C.
„ 7. The Assignation, satire, in three acts, by Hamilton Aidé—New.
„ 16. The Pierrot of the Minute, by Ernest Dowson—Bijou Theatre, Bayswater.
„ 16. A Caprice, translated from Alfred de Musset by Ierne Fitzgerald—Bijou Theatre, Bayswater.
„ 17. The Firefly, play, in a prologue and three acts, by William Toynbee (The Pioneers)—La Scala.
„ 17. Hero and Heroine, melodramatic absurdity, in one act—La Scala.
„ 18. The Chaperon, comedy, in three acts, by Arthur M. Heathcote—Bijou Theatre, Bayswater.
„ 18. Facile; or, Love the Conqueror, comedy-drama, in three acts, by George Rose Norton and Francis Chamier (produced by amateurs)—Wellington Hall, St. John's Wood.
„ 23. Bluebell, new edition of the musical dream-play, in two parts (Blue Bell in Fairyland), by Seymour Hicks, lyrics by Aubrey Hopwood and Charles H. Taylor, produced at the Vaudeville Theatre, Dec. 18, 1901—Opening of the Aldwych Theatre.
„ 23. The Sleeping Beauty, pantomime, by J. Hickory Wood—Opening of the New Prince's Theatre, Poplar.
„ 23. Aschenbroedel (Cinderella) oder der Glaserne Pantoffel, children's comedy, in six tableaux, by C. A. Goerner (German Theatre)—Great Queen-street.
„ 23. Dick Whittington, pantomime, by William Wade—King's, Hammersmith.
„ 23. Cinderella, pantomime, by Alec Murray—Artillery Theatre, Woolwich.
„ 23. Forty Thieves, pantomime, by Martin Byam—Alexandra Palace.
„ 26. Cinderella, pantomime, by Sir F. C. Burnand, J. Hickory Wood, and Arthur Collins, music by James M. Glover—Drury-lane.
„ 26. The Forty Thieves, pantomime, by J. Hickory Wood—Marlborough.
„ 26. The Forty Thieves, pantomime, by Fred Bowyer—Grand, Woolwich.
„ 26. Puss in Boots, pantomime, by J. Hickory Wood—Broadway Theatre, New Cross.
„ 26. Red Riding Hood, pantomime, by Frank Dix—Grand Theatre, Fulham.
„ 26. Little Red Riding Hood, pantomime, by Victor Stevens—West London.
„ 25. Cinderella, pantomime, by Stanley Rogers—Brixton Theatre.
„ 26. Goody Two Shoes, pantomime, by Hugh B. Pinnock—Richmond Theatre.
„ 26. Sinbad the Sailor, pantomime, by Brian Daly—Royal County Theatre, Kingston.
„ 26. Sinbad the Sailor, pantomime, by Newman Maurice—Grand, Islington.
„ 26. Cinderella, pantomime, by Frank Dix—Coronet.
„ 26. Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves, pantomime—Alexandra, Stoke Newington.
„ 26. Dick Whittington, pantomime, by Frank Dix—Kennington Theatre.
„ 26. Dick Whittington, pantomime, by Fred Bowyer—Crown Theatre, Peckham.
„ 26. King Wow-Wow, pantomime, by Charles Willmott—Britannia.
„ 25. Babes in the Wood, pantomime, by Frank Dix—Camden.
„ 26. Red Riding Hood, pantomime, by Newman Maurice—Crouch End Opera House.
„ 26. Cinderella, pantomime, by "Iam Query"—Borough Theatre, Stratford.
„ 26. The Forty Thieves, pantomime—Shakespeare, Clapham.
„ 27. Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush, dramatised version, in four acts, by Augustus Thomas and James McArthur, of Ian Maclaren's work (Mr. William Mollison's season)—St. James's.
„ 29. Blau, comedy, in one act, by Max Bernstein (German Theatre).—Great Queen-street Theatre.
„ 29. Er muss taub sein, farce, by Moinaux (German Theatre).—Great Queen-street Theatre.

REVIVALS.

DEC. 19. Peter Pan, the fairy play, in five acts, by J. M. Barrie—Duke of York's.
„ 26. The Scarlet Pimpernel—New.
„ 26. The Tempest—His Majesty's.
„ 26. Charley's Aunt, farce, in three acts, by Brandon Thomas—Terry's.
„ 26. Fourchette and Co., play, in one act—Terry's.

PROVINCES.

DEC. 2. The Star of Paris, drama, in a prologue and three acts, by R. H. Curtis and George Antley (copyright performance)—Theatre Royal, Dover.
„ 2. By Whose Hand? drama, in four acts (copyright performance)—Opera House, Harrogate.
„ 4. The Lady from London, farce, in two acts, by Cyril Depon—Royal Court Theatre, Warrington.
„ 11. Like No Other Love, play, in four acts, by Mark Melford—Grand Theatre, Croydon.
„ 11. Naughty Lady Cecil, play, in one act—New Theatre, Cambridge.
„ 11. The Little Breadwinner, drama, in four acts, by J. A. Campbell—Alexandra Theatre, Birmingham.
„ 11. The Higher Court, play, in three acts, by A. C. Fraser Wood (produced by amateurs)—Masonic Hall, Sutton Coldfield.
„ 18. The Particular Pet, farce, adapted from Max Maurey's Asile de Nuit, by Edward Knoblauch—Theatre Royal, Brighton.
„ 18. Her Lost Self, drama, in four acts, by Nita Rae—Prince's Theatre, Portsmouth.
„ 18. Geoffrey Langdon's Wife (?), drama, in four acts, by Nita Rae—Queen's Theatre, Liverpool.
„ 18. Thy Neighbour's Wife, drama, by Charles H. Longden and Eric Hudson—Queen's Theatre, Leeds.
„ 23. A Nameless Play, in three acts, by Sydney Spenser—Theatre Royal, Glossop.
„ 26. The Irish Dragoon, Irish drama, in four acts, by J. W. Whitbread—Queen's Royal Theatre, Dublin.
„ 25. No Wedding Bells for Her, drama, in four acts, by Frank Bateman and John Douglass.—King's Theatre, Cardiff.

BERLIN.

DEC. 1. Schlaraffenland, fairy play, in five acts, by A. Prasch—Des Westens.
„ 4. Wanjuschin's Kinder, four-act play, by S. Naidjonoff—Schiller O.
DEC. 6. Die herbe Frucht, three-act comedy, by R. Bracco—Trianon.
„ 6. Die Wunderglocke, Christmas play, in four acts, by F. Bertram—Berliner.
„ 10. La Rafale, three-act play, by H. Bernstein (Madame Réjane's season)—Berliner.
„ 16. Venus Amathusia, drama, in three acts, by M. Dreyer—Royal Schauspielhaus.
„ 21. So sind sie alle, musical farce, in three acts, by MM. Mannstaldt and Weller—Luisen.
„ 22. Rat Schrimpf, five-act play, by M. Barckhard—Lessing.
„ 22. Schützenliesel, operetta, in three acts, by E. Eysler—Des Westens.
„ 23. Er und ich, four-act farce, by A. Philipp—Deutsch-Amerikanisch.
„ 24. Der Weg zur Hölle, three-act farce, by G. Kadelburg—Lustspielhaus.
„ 27. Nach Afrika, five-act burlesque, by B. Zoppert—Walhalla.

PARIS.

DEC. 1. Une Revue au Palais-Royal, revue, in ten tableaux, by Pierre Véber and Adrien Vély—Palais-Royal.
„ 5. La Cousine Bette, play, in four acts and seven tableaux, after Balzac, by Pierre Decourcelle and Granet—Vaudeville.
„ 5. Triplepatte, comedy, in five acts, by T. Bernard and A. Godfernaux—Athénée.
„ 12. Jeunesse, comedy, in three acts, by André Picard—Odéon.
„ 12. Le Mari qui faillit tout gâter, comedy, one act, by S. Guitry—Odéon.
„ 18. Le Réveil, play, in three acts, by Paul Hervieu—Comédie-Française.
„ 22. Une Veine de ——, vaudeville, in three acts, by Kéroul and Barré—Folies-Dramatiques.
„ 23. Les 400 Coups du Diable, spectacular piece, in four acts and thirty-six tableaux, by Victor de Cottens and Darlay—Châtelet.
„ 26. Les Pêcheurs de Saint-Jean, opera, in four acts, by Henri Cain, music by Ch. M. Wider—Opéra-Comique.
„ 26. La Coupe enchantée, musical comedy, in one act, by Matrat, music by Gabriel Pierné—Opéra-Comique.

THE AFTERMATH OF MUSICAL PIRACY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ERA.

SIR,—Mr. Leslie Stuart has launched an appeal to stageland on behalf of the widow of the late George Le Brunn, the well-known song-writer, who has left nothing behind him and whose fees, in spite of his wide-spread popularity latterly amounted to but £1 per year.

There can be no doubt that Mr. Leslie Stuart's sympathetic words on the sad fate of Mr. George Le Brunn will awaken wide-spread sympathy, and it is to be hoped swell the receipts of the fund now started, by the music-hall profession, to which, I for one, and with me thousands of friends of our music-halls will be only too glad [illegible] tribute their mite. The song of the music-hall may not be the most exalted form of art, but it is very frequently representative of the humour and the pathos of the people, and Mr. Le Brunn's most renowned work was particularly happy in this respect. In the musical world his songs may not be highly considered, but as a critic who has endured many of our inane musical comedies, I gladly testify that his melodies, both in form and thought, are often very superior to the output of those happier composers whose fees are thousands, who cut a sorry figure when brought face to face with the one honest sovereign earned by poor George Le Brunn. And this brings me to the main theme of this short epistle. When a man of the rank of Mr. Leslie Stuart, whose melodies are constantly sung in England, our dominions beyond the sea, and in America, to say nothing of the Continent of Europe, is beggarly rewarded for the effort of his brain and imagination, there must surely be something rotten in the state of our methods. I was the other day conversing with a Parisian music-hall composer, who avowed to me that one of his songs, which was just then running the boulevards, had brought him in one year's time one hundred thousand francs for fees, and he explained the system to me, which I knew in theory, but was glad to know more intimately in practice. There is in France a society of musical composers, which, under the protection of a motherly law, watches the interests of everyone of its members with parental anxiety. This society has agents in every city and borough—aye, in every village where there is a concert room or music-hall. Its agents are instructed to watch every performance, and to collect the fees for every song given. The royalties are apportioned acording to the number of inhabitants of the various communes. Some pay so many francs per evening and per song. Some pay a fraction of a sou, but all have to pay, and woe betide the transgressor, for the law of France understands no nonsense where intellectual property is concerned. In England there may be protective societies, and there may be nothing to be said against their activity, but one thing is certain, we have no definite and no complete system, whereas we are blessed with legislation which seems to leave the status of the composer in a London fog. I think the time is ripe for an influential body of music publishers and musicians to take the matter seriously in hand, in co-operation with members of Parliament, and to make an end to a state of things which is both intolerable and detrimental to the musical profession. If Mr. Stuart's appeal tends to achieve this aim he has a claim on the gratitude of all his fellow artists, and it may well be said that Mr. George Le Brunn will not have died in vain.—Yours faithfully,

J. T. GREIN.

MISS HELENA MILLAIS, whose engagement to play Käthie in Old Heidelberg made quite a little stir in theatrical circles—she was so young and inexperienced—has recently been turning her talents to good account by giving dramatic recitals in costume. Daughter of an artist and journalist, Mr. Richard Marriott, she always heard a great deal of theatrical talk, and longed, even as a child, to go on the stage. Her father's influence obtained an interview with Mr. George Alexander, just before Mr. Mouillot sent Old Heidelberg on tour. She recited the Arthur and Hubert scene from King John to the manager of the St. James's, because he wanted to see her do something young, and the Closet scene from Hamlet, because he wanted to see her do something strong, and the opportunity to play Käthie was the result. Miss Millais, who is still in her teens, is studying singing with Madame Emilie Steed; she is a good horsewoman, an expert swimmer, and possesses a gift for selling programmes at charity concerts.

LABELLED EPPS'S TINS ONLY
SORENESS AND DRYNESS.
HOARSENESS, TICKLING AND IRRITATION.
THROAT AND COUGH
SOFTEN AND CLEAR THE VOICE.
ALWAYS EFFECTIVE.
7½D.-JUJUBES-13½D.
JAMES EPPS & Co., Ltd., Homœopathic Chemists, London.

THEATRICAL GOSSIP.

SIR CHARLES WYNDHAM and Miss Mary Moore have appointed Mr. Reginald Walter to be their stage manager. Sir Charles and Miss Moore are now preparing an artistic little souvenir containing photographs of the principal characters and scenes from Captain Drew on Leave for presentation to the audience at the 100th performance on Monday, January 29.

MR. ARTHUR BOURCHIER will produce the new version of Mr. Leo Trevor's military comedy, Brother Officers, at the Garrick Theatre, on Monday evening, the 22nd inst., and will devote the proceeds of the first night's performance to the Queen's Unemployed Fund. The present run of The Merchant of Venice therefore can only be continued for two more weeks. Mr. Charles Frohman, who holds the English rights of Mr. Alfred Sutro's new comedy, The Fascinating Mr. Vanderveldt, shortly to be produced in America, has, in common with the author, a strong desire that Mr. Arthur Bourchier should interpret the title-rôle when the play is produced in London. He, therefore, invited the eminent actor to join forces with him for this occasion, with the result that Mr. Bourchier and Mr. Frohman will together present the play at the Garrick Theatre whenever a successor is required to Brother Officers.

MRS. JOHN BILLINGTON attained her eighty-first birthday on the 4th inst., when gratifying telegrams came from far and near, one of the most cherished being from her old friend, Mr. J. L. Toole, who has been unceasing in his kindness to Mrs. Billington since the death of her husband. Sir Charles Wyndham, Mr. Beerbohm Tree, and other leading managers have also taken a kindly interest in Mrs. Billington's welfare. We wish her all happiness in the New Year.

MR. SEYMOUR HICKS will add to the museum now in the course of formation at the Aldwych Theatre the interesting collection of Irving relics which he obtained at the recent sale. Curios in the shape of old playbills, theatrical portraits and engravings, and the dresses and footgear of famous actors and actresses, including articles worn on the stage by David Garrick, Mrs. Kemble, Edmund Kean, and Lady Bancroft, will also be among the exhibits. A charge of 1s. per head will be made for admission to the museum, and the money thus obtained will be handed over to charitable organisations connected with the theatrical profession.

MR. BEERBOHM TREE will respond for "The Drama," proposed by the president, Mr. T. McDonald Rendle, at the sixth annual dinner of the O.P. Club, which will be held at the Criterion on Sunday, Feb. 18. The toast of "The Ladies" will be given by Mr. Sidney Dark, and accepted by Miss Eva Moore.

THE late Sir Henry Irving had a strong sympathy with the Salvation Army, and greatly admired General Booth. Mr. H. Chance Newton, in a most interesting article in the Free Lance, has quoted Irving's remarks on the General and his supporters. "That's the Religion!" Irving exclaimed not long before his death. "Theirs! Doing good! Rescuing the waif, the drunkard, and the poor wretched prostitute! Marvellous what Barnardo has done for the poor youngsters, eh? And look at the 'General,' as he calls himself—and well he might, for what an organiser! What an earnest preacher, this old Booth! Lately, while resting between my tours, I caught him up, several times, on his. I have been to hear him often lately. What a remarkable man! What a power over his hearers! Wonderful!"

IRVING, says Mr. Newton, in the latter years of his life, gave a good deal of money to the officials of "The Army." So much so that its "soldiers" and "lasses," whose rough, simple piety and self-sacrifice Irving always revered, often sent to him, or called upon him at the theatre, as soon as he reached this or that town, for he always had some helpful donation ready for them.

THERE exists in America an institution formed with the object of securing for blind people free admission to musical and other entertainments. Tickets which otherwise would not be used are solicited for distribution among a classified list of self-supporting blind persons living in their own homes, and, thanks to the help of philanthropic managers and subscribers, the scheme has proved so successful that there are to-day four bureaux in active work. The scheme has now been established in London. A committee has been formed, several leading managers having generously promised practical help. In order to be registered to obtain tickets, the blind must be personally known to a representative of the committee to ensure their respectability and worthiness. It is already customary for seats to be given to blind institutions, but, for lack of proper organisation, these seats are often unused. Mr. Lewis Waller is among the committee who are starting the London Bureau, and the temporary secretary is Baroness Arild Rosenkrantz, who will gladly give further information to any well-wishing inquirers.

"LIGHTS OUT," which has had such a successful run at the Waldorf Theatre, will, on Monday, be transferred to the Savoy, where for a necessarily short season it will be presented by the company at present appearing in it, including Miss Eva Moore, Mr. Charles Fulton, and Mr. H. V. Esmond. Lights Out will be preceded each evening by La Main. The brief stay of the clever piece at the Savoy is due to arrangements previously made for the presentation at that house of another attraction.

MR. SILVANUS DAUNCEY and Mr. M. V. Leveaux are to be warmly congratulated on the great success which has attended the production of The Walls of Jericho by Mr. Arthur Bourchier's company in the Royal and State Theatres of Holland. The first performance was given at the Royal Theatre at The Hague on Monday evening. It was the first time any play had been performed in the English language at the Royal Theatre, and it was witnessed by a large and brilliant audience, including Her Majesty the Queen-Mother of the Netherlands. The play was received with the greatest enthusiasm, and Mr. Edward A. Warburton and Miss Dorothy Thomas, who played the leading parts, were called before the curtain four times at the end of the third act, and warmly cheered.

AT the conclusion of the performance the Queen-Mother summoned Mr. Leveaux to the Royal box, and complimented him most highly on the play and the performance. Another large and enthusiastic audience witnessed The Walls of Jericho at Arnhem on Tuesday, and on Wednesday the company opened to a fine at the Stadsschouwburg, the beautiful State Theatre of the Netherlands at Amsterdam. The Dutch Press is unanimous in its praise of the play and the artists. The leading paper at The Hague concluded a flattering notice with the kindly wish, "May our English friends soon return to us."

THE Actors' Benevolent Fund will hold its annual general meeting at His Majesty's Theatre on Monday, Jan. 29. Mr. Beerbohm Tree will occupy the chair.

CLERGYMEN of many denominations descended upon the Shaftesbury Theatre on Wednesday afternoon, in response to the invitation of the management to witness the performance of The Jury of Fate. The enjoyment of the reverend assembly, which numbered between 1,000 and 1,500 divines, was manifest throughout, applause being frequent and hearty. Amongst those to whom boxes were allotted were the Bishop of Stepney and the Bishop of Southwark, and the audience also included Mr. Stewart Headlam and Archdeacon Harris, Chaplain to the Channel Fleet.

MR. GASTON MAYER, the director of the French season at the Royalty, has just received a telegram from M. Maurice Rouvier, the French Premier and Minister of Foreign Affairs, wishing him every success, and offering hearty congratulations for his endeavours in the cause of French Art. Madame Lara, Sociétaire de la Comedie Française, will resume the part of Germaine Lechat in Les Affaires sont les Affaires, which she created, so that three prominent Sociétaires will take part in the ten performances which M. de Feraudy is to give at the New Royalty, namely, M. de Ferandy, Mlle. Leconte, and Madame Lara. Some thirty artists have been specially engaged for the extensive répertoire to be performed during next week. The winter season of French plays will close towards the end of February, and the summer season will commence on May 28, with M. Coquelin and the entire company from the Gaiété Theatre, Paris. During the interim, Mr. Harry Fragson and Miss May de Sousa will appear at the Royalty in a novel and refined class of entertainment.

MR. SEYMOUR HICKS, in a letter congratulating Dr. Distin Maddick on the wonderful beauty of his newly-built Scala Theatre, wished "the spirit of Napoleon might return to entertain once more his famous Balcony of Kings." The production of Mr. W. G. Wills' A Royal Divorce at the theatre which stands on the ground of the old Prince of Wales's, where, in the days of Marie Wilton (now Lady Bancroft), the real Napoleon and most of our Royal Family were visitors, is therefore very appropriate. On Jan. 13 the spirit of Napoleon will be materialised on the Scala stage by Mr. Frank Lister, with Miss Edith Cole as Josephine. Whether the Balcony of Kings will be realised remains to be seen. Those who know Mr. W. W. Kelly as a manager have every confidence in him.

MR. ARTHUR BOURCHIER celebrated the hundredth performance of The Merchant of Venice at the Garrick Theatre on Wednesday by the presentation of a handsome souvenir, consisting of an album containing a number of coloured sketches representing the principal artists and scenes in the play. In response to continuous applause at the conclusion of the piece, Mr. Bourchier made the following brief speech:—"Ladies and Gentlemen,—On behalf of my wife, my friend and co-adjutor, Mr. Alan Mackinnon, my company and myself, will you allow me to take this opportunity of expressing our heart-felt thanks to the public and the Press who have so generously encouraged us in our first Shakespearean production in London. I need hardly say that The Merchant of Venice will remain in our répertoire, and will be presented to you at least once a year. May we hope for the same welcome when we produce next year our next Shakespearean play, viz., Much Ado About Nothing."

MR. F. R. BENSON has arranged an elaborate series for this year's Shakespeare Festival at Stratford-on-Avon. The celebration, which will start on April 23 and spread over three weeks, will begin with Much Ado About Nothing, The Taming of the Shrew, Julius Cæsar, Macbeth, As You Like It, and The Rivals following on each day in order, with matinées of Hamlet and The Taming of the Shrew on Wednesday and Saturday respectively. The second week will be devoted to Richard the Second, Henry the Fourth (Part 2), Henry the Sixth (Parts 1, 2, and 3), and Richard the Third, Henry the Fifth being given for the Wenesday matinée, and The Merchant of Venice for that of Saturday. She Stoops to Conquer will begin the third week, followed by King Lear, Much Ado about Nothing, and Richelieu. A matinée of Julius Cæsar will be given on Wednesday, and a Midsummer Night's Dream, which will be played on Friday, will be repeated at both morning and evening performances on the closing day of the festival.

THE Royal Theatre at The Hague, where Mr. Slivanus Dauncey and Mr. M. V. Leveaux presented Mr. Arthur Bourchier's company in The Walls of Jericho on Monday evening, is also known and advertised as the Fransche Schouwburg, the French Theatre of The Hague, a name it has acquired from the large numbers of French companies which play there. The receipts for The Walls of Jericho, the first English performance given there, on Monday evening exceeded those of any French company that has played there, excepting only Mdme. Bernhardt and M. Coquelin.

SIR CHARLES WYNDHAM, in common with other eminent actor-managers, has to withstand a regular bombardment by unacted playwrights, some of whom fall into the unaccountable error of omitting all trace of their identity. Sir Charles has in his possession a large number of manuscripts bearing neither the name nor the address of the senders, and desires to say that if the authors will communicate with him, their offspring will be duly returned.

THE amount realised by the concert held at Albert Hall on Dec. 19, on behalf of the Queen's Unemployed Fund, was £250. Many actresses were to be seen selling programmes on the occasion, and the charity was also considerably helped by popular actors, who officiated as stewards.

THE annual children's dance given by the O.P. Club took place on Saturday at the Criterion, when over 600 juveniles thoroughly enjoyed the evening. Mr. Carl Hentschel seemed quite in his element as master of the ceremonies, arranging the dances and the entertainment admirably. Miss Beryl Hentschel and Miss Norah Samuel gave a charming exhibition in a "Scarf Dance," and Mr. Owen Clarke entertained with ventriloquism, conjuring, and other feats.

M. G. DEYRENS, a young actor of Mme. Réjane's company, was made the victim of the new Aliens Act on his way to London. Arriving at Dover, he was much astonished when called upon by the officials to give an account of himself, in accordance with the provisions of the Act. He was detained for some time, a doctor examined him, and he was compelled, he says, to write out a long statement about himself and his occupation. Three hours later M. Deyrens was sent on to London.

MISS EMMA HUTCHISON and MR. PERCY HUTCHISON started their second tour of the successful comedy, The Freedom of Suzanne, at Eastbourne, on New Year's Day, under the most promising auspices. The principal parts are being played by Mr. Percy D. Standing and Miss Beatrice Lindley, and the itinerary will embrace all the large towns.

MR. FREDERICK SARGENT brings to a termination to-day a starring engagement of upwards of six months with Mr. Esmonde Bramley's Shakespearean company, during which period he has amongst other rôles, made successful appearances as Hamlet, Othello, Romeo, David Garrick, Charles Surface, and Claude Melnotte.

CAPTAIN BASIL HOOD has been wielding his facile pen busily, and in association with Mr. Charles Brookfield has practically finished the new Vaudeville piece, for which Mr. Leslie Stuart provides the music, the production being fixed for Easter or thereabouts. This modern version of Romeo and Juliet will have Miss Edna May as the heroine. The scene of the first act represents a charity bazaar, the stalls of which are managed by "opposing houses" of Montague and Capulet. Captain Hood, who is engaged upon the adaptation of the Sardou opera, to be produced at Daly's in succession to The Little Michus, has also undertaken to provide Mr. George Edwardes with the books of two original musical plays.

MISS ELLALINE TERRISS received a pretty tribute to the realism of her acting at the Aldwych recently, when a little girl who was one of the occupants of a stage-box crowded with children, sympathising with the poor flower-girl who was repulsed by the rich lady, leaned out of the box and offered the actress a sixpence. Miss Terriss promptly accepted the gift, and said she would keep it for luck. The little donor was enthusiastically cheered by the audience.

MISS LEONORA GRIEVE, who is playing Aladdin at the King's Theatre, Gateshead-on-Tyne, met with an unfortunate accident last week, owing to a heavy piece of scenery falling on her head and rendering her unconscious. The part was successfully taken up for the next performance by Miss Daisy Lake.

"THE SONG OF LIBERTY," a three-act drama, by H. A. Saintsbury and Mary C. Rowsell, has been translated for the Scandinavian stage, and will be produced, probably first in Stockholm. The scene is Strassburg in the height of the first French Revolution

HIS HONOUR JUDGE PARRY and MR. FREDERICK MOUILLOT, whose farce, What the Butler Saw, attained the longest run of any non-musical play in London during the past year, have completed a new three-act comedy, which Mr. Mouillot, following his usual policy, will try in one of his provincial theatres prior to placing it before the London public. The title of the new play is What's the Matter with London?

MR. VINCENT COLLIER'S smart little curtain-raiser, My First Patient, which was so cordially received when produced at Ealing a few weeks ago, will be seen at the Grand Theatre, Croydon, on the 22nd, with an exceptionally strong cast, including Mr. George Mudie as the Doctor. It precedes On the Love Path, in which Mr. Mudie will also appear.

MISS LENA ASHWELL will be seen in the parts of Hermione and Perdita in a dramatic reading of The Winter's Tale, to be given by the British Empire Shakespeare Society on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 25, in St. Peter's Institute, Buckingham Palace-road, S.W. The new president of the Association is Mr. Sidney Lee, and Mr. H. B. Irving is the vice-president.

IMPROVEMENTS will be notable in Terry's Theatre when it reopens on Jan. 24 with Mr. Henry Arthur Jones's new play The Heroic Stubbs. The alterations include a new system of warming, new curtains, new carpets, and new upholstery for the seats, forty-eight hours being the time allotted in which to complete the work.

MR. JAMES J. CORBETT, formerly heavy-weight champion of the world, who appeared at Drury Lane in April, 1894, in Gentleman Jack, took up the title-rôle in Stanislaus Stange's version of Bernard Shaw's story Cashel Byron's Profession, at Daly's Theatre, New York, on Monday. It is considered that Mr. Shaw's story does not lend itself to the stage, and the retired champion, not the play, is the chief attraction. The leading rôle is that of a prize-fighter, and Mr. Corbett is said to give a very creditable performance of it.

"THE LITTLE CHERUB," the new musical play by Owen Hall and Ivan Caryll, with lyrics by Adrian Ross, will descend to this terrestrial sphere at the Prince of Wales's theatre this evening at eight precisely. Mr. George Edwardes announces that the little difficulty which occasioned the postponement last week has been satisfactorily overcome, the necessary licences for a bevy of small children to play the parts of "cupids" having been obtained. It was explained at the Marlborough-street police-court on Monday when the application was made, that the "cupids" required only the space of three minutes to do their work on the stage, and the police having no objection to the little gods disporting themselves in the limelight Mr. Denman granted the licences.

A BRONZE tablet, measuring about 18in. in height and 9in. in width, has been affixed to the outside wall of one of Messrs. Lyons's refreshment depôts in Newgate-street. It bears the following lines in raised letters:—"Sir Henry Irving served his time as a publisher's clerk on these premises, leaving in 1856." Above is a laurel wreath, and below two laurel sprays.

"THE BLUE MOON," which is achieving great success at the Lyric Theatre, has been brightened by many fresh numbers, notably the duet "O, mystic love," for Miss Florence Smithson and Mr. Herbert Clayton, and some very up-to-date verses for Miss Violet Lloyd and Mr. Bert Gilbert. The political allusions of Mr. Willie Edouin are a great feature of his delightfully humorous performance as Moolraj, the Edgware-road "Indian." In bad weather, visitors to the Lyric Theatre pit and gallery are admitted a quarter of an hour before the usual time.

LIEUTENANT-COLONEL J. A. WINSTANLEY, the proprietor of the Royal Opera House, and sole lessee of the Theatre Royal, Leicester, who, we are sorry to learn, has not been enjoying the best of health lately, has disposed of his theatres to Messrs. Milton Bode and Edward Compton, who will enter into possession on Monday, Feb. 19. The incoming management will take over all contracts with travelling companies entered into by Lieutenant-Colonel J. A. Winstanley.

COLONEL WINSTANLEY, who has had a long and honourable career in the profession, became proprietor of the Royal Opera House after the retirement of the late Mr. Elliot Galer, and secured the sole lesseeship of the Theatre Royal after the death of Mr. Wallace Revill. With the retirement of the gallant colonel and Mrs. Winstanley the staffs of both theatres have lost the most generous of employers, who have shown them the greatest consideration, and have won their esteem and regard by countless acts of kindness.

MR. EUGENE C. STAFFORD has secured the sole provincial and suburban rights, by special arrangement with Miss Ethel Irving, of that smart comedy Lucky Miss Dean, by Sidney Bowkett. A strong company has been engaged, including Mr. William E. Ashcroft and Miss Dora Gray, who will play the two leading parts. The tour will start in the suburbs about March, the whole of the Criterion production being carried.

THAT ever-green farcical comedy The Private Secretary will start on its forty-first tour and twenty-second year at the Theatre Royal, Middlesbrough, on August Bank Holiday. Mr. William Hargreaves has been re-engaged by Mr. Eugene C. Stafford to play his part of Old Cattermole, which he has enacted now for nineteen years. The tour will run on till Christmas.

MR. JAMES WELCH'S startling experiment of beginning the performance of The Heroic Stubbs, which he produces at Terry's Theatre on Jan. 24, at seven o'clock applies only to the first night. On subsequent evenings the curtain will not rise until 8.15. Mr. Welch will be supported in the rendering of Mr. H. A. Jones's new comedy by Messrs. Dennis Eadie, Sydney Brough, Eille Norwood, George F. Tully, E. Dagnall, Leonard Calvert, and Leopold Profeit, and Misses Gertrude Kingston, Helen Palgrave, Marie Hudspeth, Gertrude Burnett, Irene Rooke, Estelle Winwood, Ethel Hollingshead, Rose Temple, Eva Turnour, and Pauline Potter.

MR. BEERBOHM TREE'S revival of Ibsen's An Enemy of the People at His Majesty's on Thursday evening will give all parties an opportunity of indulging in calm reflection after the political fray, and of witnessing at the same time one of Mr. Tree's most interesting impersonations. The Man Who Was, the dramatisation of Kipling's story, will also be in the programme.

MR. ARTHUR LAW RAYNER, Mr. Bert Coote's manager, has been looking after Mr. Robert Arthur's interests at the Camden Theatre for the last two weeks owing to the illness of Mr. Stanford.

"AS YOU LIKE IT," which was revived with unmistakable success at the St. James's on Tuesday, will go into the evening bill to-day, with matinées on Wednesdays and Saturdays. As it is impossible for Messrs. Lely and Mollison to secure an extension of the St. James's lease this course is necessary, but to avoid disappointment they will give special matinées of Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush every Thursday until the close of their tenancy. The suit of motley which Mr. Charles Groves wears, it is interesting to learn, is the same as that in which Compton won his "Touchstone" thirty years ago.

THE English company going to New York to play Carton's Mr. Hopkinson and Public Opinion will be the same as at Wyndham's Theatre, with the exception of Mr. James Welch, who will be replaced by Dr. Dallas Welford, and Miss Compton.

WILL it ever come to pass that London managers will put "penalty clauses" into their engagements actors? In Paris this is the usual thing. The "Variétés" has just claimed and been allowed £2,400 for Max Dearly deserting to another house.

A NEW romantic play by Arthur Shirley and Ben Landeck, entitled A Queen Without a Crown, has been accepted by a well-known management, and will first be represented after the pantomime season at the Prince of Wales's Theatre, Birmingham, with a cast of unusual strength.

MISS STELLA GASTELLE, who has made the rôle of Ganem in the pantomime of the Forty Thieves at the Marlborough Theatre a veritable principal boy's part, made her reappearance last Monday, having through a severe cold been out of the cast the previous week. She met with a most cordial and flattering reception, again proving what a favourite she is with the public.

WE regret to announce the death on Sunday last of Mr. Henry Orford, the father of Miss Emmeline Orford. The deceased gentleman was 74 years of age, and was well known and respected by many members of the theatrical profession who did business with Orford's repository, Shaftesbury-avenue.

AT least two generations of local playgoers have learnt with much regret that Mr. James Sheering died at his residence, 11, Marlborough-hill, Bristol, on the 8th inst., in his 86th year. He passed peacefully away after six years of considerable suffering, through which he was tenderly nursed by his only child—a daughter. The deceased, who was well known and highly respected, was for 52 years box-keeper at the Theatre Royal and Prince's Theatre, Bristol, under the respective managements of Mrs. Macready, Mr. J. H. Chute, and Mr. James Macready Chute. He was also clerk of the St. James's Market, Bristol, for over 36 years, and was able to boast that the late hours at the theatre never interfered with the opening of the Union-street meat market at four o'clock in the morning all the year round. He was a great personal friend of the late Sir Henry Irving's father, and was much respected by Sir Henry himself, and by many other prominent members of the profession. Mr. Sheering retired from his appointments a few years ago, but always kept in touch with the profession he loved so well, and so faithfully served in many ways.

AT Tower Bridge Police Court on Wednesday, Thomas Modlock, aged 25, of Coral-street, Waterloo-road, was charged, on remand, with assaulting Charles Maffey, of Stamford-hill, an agent of the Music Publishers' Association, at New-cut. The prisoner was also summoned to show cause why 126 copies of pirated music, seized upon his stall under the Musical Copyright Act, should not be destroyed. Evidence was given that the prosecutor approached the stall in company with Police-constable Clark, 308 L, to whom he had given a written authority. The prisoner, after using abusive language, violently assaulted the prosecutor by striking him on the stomach and on the jaw. The seizure was then made, and the prisoner was taken to the station.

TECHNICAL objections were offered by the prisoner's counsel to the documents which were produced in proof that the requirements of the Act had been complied with. The signature of a firm owning musical copyrights was not properly represented by the impress of a rubber stamp, and therefore the prosecutor's own authority was invalid. As to the constable's authority, that was vitiated by subsequent additions to the document. The magistrate overruled both objections.

PROCEEDING with the defence, counsel characterised these seizures as high-handed proceedings, and suggested that a recent death in the East-end was attributable to the violent conduct of an agent of the association. Witnesses were called who denied the alleged assault on Maffey, and said it was the accused who was knocked down. The prisoner also gave evidence on his own behalf, and swore that the story of the prosecution was entirely false.

THE magistrate said he had no doubt whatever that there was an assault committed by the prisoner upon the prosecutor. Probably the witnesses on the prisoner's behalf did not have their attention called to the circumstances until a scuffle had taken place. The constable would have had no reason for arresting Modlock had there been no assault, and he gave his evidence in a remarkably impartial way. It was evident that the prisoner attacked the prosecutor because he knew him to be an agent of the association, and that made it worse than an ordinary assault, but it seemed that he had some idea of protecting his property, and therefore the case would not be treated as one of unprovoked assault, punishable by imprisonment without the option of a fine. The prisoner was ordered to pay £5, or undergo a month's hard labour for the assault, and he was also required to pay £2 2s. costs on the summons. An order was made for the destruction of the copies which had been seized.

MR. HENRY GEORGE, so long connected with Drury-lane drama, has been engaged by Mr. Arthur Collins for the part of Stephen Magnusson in the forthcoming tour of The Prodigal Son.

MISS MURIEL GODFREY-TURNER was the recipient of many good wishes from her friends and admirers on Thursday last, the occasion of her birthday. Among other treasured messages was a telegram from Mr. M. Russell Rosse's Company from Cork, in which Mr. Thomas Thorne and the other members of the company with which Miss Turner has been in the past so pleasantly associated wished her many happy returns and all prosperity. Miss Godfrey-Turner, who shortly contemplates joining the small group of actress-managers and is on the look out for a suitable theatre, has in hand several plays in which she has every confidence. Miss Turner's business interests will be watched by Mr. M. Russell Rosse.

MISS ANNIE SAKER'S handsome dresses as Princess Astrea Von Strelsburg in Messrs. Paumier and Howard's successful play, The Midnight Wedding, include a beautiful white satin Empire, covered entirely with white net worked with a design of pearls; and a grey velvet costume figures effectively in the third act. From that Miss Saker changes in about four minutes to a complete uniform of a second lieutenant, and then back again in another five minutes to a lace and chiffon dress, over which is worn a long white velvet coat with lining of salmon pink silk. In Manchester a few weeks ago Miss Saker had a pretty compliment paid her, several mill girls awaiting her arrival at the theatre on the Saturday evening with large bunches of white chrysanthemums, with which they presented her.

THE Royal West London pantomime enters on its last six nights next Monday. Little Red Riding Hood was only booked for four weeks, being secured by Mr. George Conquest for his theatre at Southend some time ago, otherwise it could have run longer. The Playgoers' Club have taken the entire theatre for this Saturday's matinée. The Silver King opens Mr. Bailey's dramatic season.

"SINBAD THE SAILOR" at the Royal County Theatre, Kingston-on-Thames, continues to command good houses each night, and now that the show has been improved in various directions it goes with a fine swing. Miss Ethel Beech as principal boy and Miss Eva Bevington as principal girl have both became great favourites, and Mr. Harry Paulton as FitzGubbins and Mr. Frank Stanmore as the dame continue to sustain with unflagging zeal the greater part of the comic element. Mr. Peter Davey, the energetic managing-director of the Royal County, intends to run the pantomime until the 27th inst.

A MAN named Gaillard, a former prompter of the Comédie Française, Paris, committed suicide on Wednesday morning by throwing himself from the Nationale Bridge to the railway line below. A train was passing at the moment, and he was cut to pieces. Gaillard went out of his mind a year ago, and on his recovery M. Claretie did not think it safe to allow him to occupy his former post and gave him plays to copy and other work. The unfortunate man went down to the theatre on Tuesday evening while the play was in progress, and climbed into the flies, but was persuaded to come down. He then wandered about Paris all night, and in the morning met his sad end.

THE many friends of Mr. Fred Allandale will regret to hear that he has had to undergo an operation on his throat. He is, however, rapidly recovering his usual health and energy, and expects to return to the Lyric Theatre to-night (Saturday) or on Monday at latest. Mr. Allandale makes a capital man in the (Blue) Moon, his rattling songs and bright acting being notable features of the merry piece.

MR. J. BANNISTER HOWARD'S fine pantomime of Aladdin has beaten all records at Gateshead, hundreds being turned away nightly. Mr. Howard has achieved a great success, and the fact that the theatre is every night occupied by people who drive in from Newcastle is eloquent of the popular approval his production has created. Evidently Mr. Howard's idea of the old pantomime, including traps and harlequinade, have been much appreciated.

AT the Central Criminal Court, on Monday, in the case of James Frederick Willetts, William Tennant, John Wesley Puddefoot, William Wallace Ross, George Wootton, and Philip Fleming Bokenham, who were committed from the Bow-street Police Court upon charges of conspiracy to infringe various music copyrights, application was made to postpone the trial until next sessions, as the accused were not prepared with their defence. The Recorder said the case was committed for trial on the 22nd ult. The case would probably be a long one, and as this was likely to be a light sessions it was a matter of public convenience that the case should be tried this sessions. Next sessions they might have a heavy list of business, and inasmuch as it would be a great public inconvenience to have the case postponed he should decline the application. The learned counsel had better apply to the Common Serjeant for a convenient day to be fixed to commence the trial. The Common Serjeant subsequently said he would commence the trial of the case on the following day. It was Thursday, however, before it came on.

MR. MUIR, in opening the case for the prosecution, said the rise of this unlawful trade in pirated music had been extraordinary. In 1903 it had attained such proportions that the genuine publishers of music had to engage a small army of "agents" to trace the places at which this pirated music was stored, in order that they might take steps to seize it under the Musical Copyright Act of 1902.

WITHIN a period of two years 300,000 copies of pirated music of one firm alone were seized in London itself, this firm being Messrs. Chappell and Co., who were the nominal prosecutors in this case. In London itself, during the same period of time, upwards of two million copies of pirated publications were seized. These seizures, however, seemed to have no effect in checking this business, which was evidently of a most lucrative character. The defendants, it was alleged, had several places of business, and various devices were adopted to keep them secreted. Counsel said he hoped that the result of this case would be to show that the law was strong enough to protect a man in the enjoyment of the products of his own brain. Some evidence was given, and the case was adjourned.

ON Saturday Mr. H. S. Mendel, the popular manager of the German Theatre, was married to Miss Pape, of Hamburg. After the ceremony there was a déjeuner intime at the Holborn Restaurant, at which Director Andresen and his wife presided, and then the young couple left for the briefest of honeymoons—from Saturday to Monday.

MISS LOUISA PEACH, who concludes to-night a special fortnight with Miss Nettie Ware and Mr. Millar Anderson, has been specially engaged by Mr. Morton Powell to create the title-rôle in his new production, The Woman Who Gambles, which will see the footlights on Jan. 22.

MISS STELLA PARRY, who was for many years connected with the stage as a burlesque artist, died on Tuesday morning after a long and painful illness from cancer. She had been for some time an inmate of the Cancer Hospital, Fulham-road.

FRENCH PLAYS AT THE ROYALTY.

On Monday, Dec. 8,
the Comedy, in Three Acts,
by Henry Meilhac, entitled,
"DECORE."

Henriette .....MME. REJANE
La Comtesse .....MDLLE. SUZANNE AVRIL
Clara .....MME. ALCIME LEBLANC
Julie .....MDLLE. CHESNEL
Clemence .....MDLLE. TALMONT
Edouard .....M. HUGUENET
Colineau .....M. BURGUET
Leopold .....M. BOSMAN
Le Sous-Préfet .....M. MAX ROBERT
Godin .....M. BENEDICT
L'Interprète .....M. G. DEYRENS
Le Prince .....M. DELORME

Why are contemptible people so amusing—as one may say, so enjoyable? Is it on account of the subtle caress which our vanity feels in consciousness of our own elevation? Is not laughter, especially that likened to the crackling of thorns under the pot, an exultation? A French play like Décoré tickles our national vanity. If you want a "character" for his countrymen, you must not go to M. Meilhac. The folk in Décoré are indeed a scurvy crew. The "plot" is nothing—merely the old story of the wife, the comic lover, and their troubles in the endeavour to "come together." What distinguishes Décoré from the ordinary Palais-Royal farce is that it is written by a man with brains and culture. Meilhac is not only satirising French life; he is poking fun at the dozens and hundreds of sentimental adultery dramas that have wetted so many Parisian pocket-handkerchiefs in the past. Meilhac has not the acid cynicism of Labiche. He is amused with his countrymen and countrywomen; as well-satisfied, in short, as a fat rat in a pig-sty. He does not generalise; he sketches—and how he sketches! One can always see the student of anatomy at the other end of the pencil. His little bourgeoise in Décoré is an epitome. While utterly worthless and inconsiderable, she is so imbued with the spirit of sentimental adultery that she must pose. Nothing can be funnier than her soliloquy after her first entry. Edouard, the lover, preferring a provincial hotel to one of those hired apartments of assignation which fetch such high rents in Paris, asks her to spend the night with him at an hotel at Harfleur. She is really quite willing, for she "wants a change" from her husband; but she feels that, according to the Cocker of French fiction, she ought to be very angry. "I am furious with myself," she says; "furious at not feeling myself sufficiently furious with him." She wants to "fall"; but she also wants her chute to take place, as Hedda Gabler wanted suicide to be committed—"beautifully."

The husband, on his side, is planning an excursion into the country with a certain Countess, a distant relative of Mr. Pinero's Duchess in The Gay Lord Quex. The Countess manages her little affair with aristocratic ease, and her scene with the husband, Colineau, is a masterpiece. She enters, seats herself, raises his ardour to fever-heat, makes an assignation, and goes out, all in ten minutes, and without turning a hair. Her luscious smile is exquisite. Henriette and her paramour get to the hotel at Harfleur; but, unfortunately, Edouard is one of those men who can never resist the temptation of a heroic exploit, and he dives into the river with the view of saving someone from drowning. When he comes to the hotel, he has to change his clothes and put on a suit of the landlord's, which do not fit him. Henriette is disgusted. How dare he try to save anyone's life without considering her? The truth is that, her feeling for Edouard being a mere physical fancy, she takes a dislike to him when she sees him ill-dressed, and any excuse will serve to break off the connection. She will go back to her husband, she says, and tell him that she was tempted, but conquered temptation, because she was "un nature d'élite." But Edouard soon comes in properly attired, and Henriette's appetite returns. It is still possible, she thinks, to keep things in the key of sentiment. Edouard has a burlesque adventure with a tame lion; it is quite enough for Henriette to hang a scene upon—the scene that, in her view, should always precede a chute. "Mon Edouard! mon lion!" she cries, with unconscious plagiarism of Dona Sol in Hernani. Even when Edouard explains that the lion only got on its hind legs and tried to lick his face, Henriette's resolve is not affected. She talks wildly of going and telling her husband all, of being heroically honest. Of course, she has not the least intention of doing anything of the kind; but it gives the amant the chance of replying—with infinite bathos—"I take note of your intention. I believe that, if it were possible, I should love you even more on account of it. But that is unnecessary." Of course, matters are not brought to a climax. There are more adventures; and, after a last act is passed in putting Colineau off the scent and into a false position, the play ends with Henriette, heartily tired of her experiences with Edouard, going off with her husband to Holland. What if her experiment with Edouard has failed? Are there not others? She may have better luck next time.

We have never been able to decide whether Madame Réjane understands the parts she plays, or whether she acts them, so to speak, by ear. It really does not matter. When Décoré was produced at the Variétés in 1888, she was the Henriette, with Dupuis as Edouard and Baron as Colineau; and she has consequently absorbed the rôle completely. Her fine art is shown in the beautiful balance with which she delivers the tirades of the part, giving them just sufficient elocutionary emphasis to point their humour, and yet never, in the attempt to accentuate the travesty, impairing the unconsciousness of the character. What makes her performance a masterpiece is its air of absolute sincerity. Henriette is a worthless, affected little fool, with just enough petty cunning to take her through life passably; but in her own estimation she is a heroine of adulterous romance. It is in the contrast between the most polished and poetical sentiments and the pettiest of acts and instincts, that brews the vitriol of Meilhac's satire—satire so easily uttered, so absolutely tolerative and indifferent, that one hardly realises its sharpness.

There is an excellent company supporting Madame Réjane at the Royalty. M. Huguenet is quite satisfying as Edouard. He makes his points with ease and discretion, and his acting is all the more effective from its artistic reserve. M. Burguet well suggests the shallowness of the deluded spouse, Colineau; and M. Bosman indicates expertly the fatuous imbecility of Leopold. A specially intelligent and individual interpretation of the rôle of La Comtesse is supplied by Mdlle. Suzanne Avril; and the rest of the rôles have quite competent interpreters. Mr. Julian Hicks's scenery is just what is requisite. The Royalty, with the brilliant audience of Monday night, looked even prettier than at the private view.

THE DRAMA IN BERLIN.

"DIE WETTERFAHRNE,"
Comedy, in Four Acts, by G. Beer, German by A. Hahn, produced at the Trianon Theatre, Jan. 6, 1906.

Annibal .....HERR LAURENCE
Baronin .....FRAULEIN CARLSEN
Frau Fontvannes .....FRÄULEIN DARNOT
Pierre .....HERR JUNKERMANN
Desklavelles .....HERR SENIUS
Jeanne .....FRAULEIN KOLLENDT
Yvonne .....FRAULEIN VON RUTTERSHEIM
Chabreloche .....HERR STROBL
Paul .....HERR SACHS
Cailette .....FRAULEIN ZADEMACK
Brousselet .....HERR WERNER
Antoine .....HERR H. SENIUS
Julien .....HERR ROBERTS
Minstrel .....HERR DADZY
Zweiter Minstrel .....HERR BATHES
Diener .....HERR EHRLICH

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

BERLIN, THURSDAY, JAN. 11.—This is somewhat of a new departure for the Trianon, whose audiences are accustomed to more highly-spiced fare as a rule. The piece, nevertheless, met with a very cordial reception, and did it not suffer from over-long scenes it would have proved even more successful. A little resolute cutting would certainly be to its advantage, and it is a pity that the translator, who has done his work excellently, did not undertake this at the time. The piece is probably known to your readers, so a detailed description will hardly be necessary. The "weathercock" of the title is a young man named Pierre, and what is termed by the Germans "ein Muttersöhnchen," tied to his mother's apron strings, and born with the proverbial silver spoon in his mouth. Pierre might be held up as a warning to all youths who do not know their own minds; he is a model of irresolution and inconstancy—a child in spite of his thirty years. After doing a good many foolish things he allows himself to become engaged to a girl he does not care for, afterwards falling in love with a pretty young widow who twists him round her finger and insists on his marrying her. He complies with her wishes eagerly, and for a while lives in a state of bliss, but this is short-lived. At times Pierre is his wife's abject slave, adoring her even in her most capricious and extravagant moods, at others doubting her truth, hating her flirtations and making himself generally miserable. After being a prey to his own irresolute nature for some time he suddenly wakes up, and becomes as energetic as his best friend could wish. With as much suddenness, too, he converts his frivolous, coquettish little wife, and both are turned into steady-going, respect-compelling members of the community without any particular reason for the change. We are sceptical as to the future, but the curtain falls upon a happy pair, and we hope the best. The piece was well acted in the principal rôles, Fräulein von Ruttersheim and Herr Junkermann being above the average, as usual.

AN event of importance has taken place in our theatrical annals, and one as unexpected as it is welcome. Herr Ludwig Barnay, the famous actor whose retirement from the stage was so regretted by the public, has been offered, and has accepted the post of director of the Royal Schauspielhaus, which has become vacant by the retirement of Herr Grube. Herr Barnay could scarcely do less than accept the flattering offer, coming, as it does, direct from his Imperial Majesty, with whom Ludwig Barnay was ever a special favourite. Unquestionably, too, he is the right man for his place. Herr Barnay, besides being one of Germany's greatest actors, is a manager of vast experience with exceptional judgment and good taste. One time member of the Imperial Burg Company at Vienna, he joined later the famous Meiningers, with whom he acted in London in 1881. In 1888 Herr Barnay built the Berliner Theatre here, where he remained as manager until his retirement into private life some ten or twelve years ago. Since that time the popular artist has received several offers to become manager of Court theatres, but it remained for the Kaiser's to be accepted.

"RIENZI" has been revived at the Royal Opera, a "guest" from Vienna—Herr Erik Schmedes—giving the title-rôle. He was less satisfactory than in his recent impersonation of Lohengrin, though that also left a good deal to be desired. Neither the voice nor the appearance is suited to the part, and the success of the evening was due to Frau Goetze, for her admirable rendering of the rôle of Adriano, and to the orchestra, who did magnificent work under Kapellmeister Muck's bâton. "Wanted, a tenor and light soprano," are, and have been for many years, the cry of the Berlin Royal Opera—to say nothing of a superannuated chorus.

RECITATIONS have become the fashion again lately, and any well-known actor giving an evening's entertainment of the kind may be sure of a good audience. It is also the mode for authors to give readings of their works—whole or partially—in public, only naturally they must be possessed of the requisite name and fame. Frau Schneider-Nissen gave a highly successful récitation evening in the Philharmonic last week, sketches by Rosegger, Strindberg, and others being read in a very fascinating manner by the clever artist—to whom gay and grave subjects come equally opportune. The large hall was filled with a very appreciative audience, and the popular actress was recalled a number of times.

MADAME YVETTE GUILBERT—or to give her her proper name, Frau Schumann—gave the first of her "farewell concerts" in the Beethoven Hall on Saturday. It was not—to be perfectly candid—a successful evening. In the first place, the Beethoven Hall is not, according to popular opinion, the right kind of building for a programme of this sort; Madame Guilbert is an artist of originality, but she is not a singer, and the proper "Stimmung" would not make itself felt among the audience all the evening. The programme, too, was less interesting than usual; "Chansons de Pierrot" and "Chansons paysannes" fell very flat, "Les Cloches de Nantes" being the only number that made any impression, and the enthusiasm that formerly marked a "Guilbert evening" was entirely lacking.

SOPHOCLES' tragedy Antigone, adapted for the modern stage and translated into German by Herr Vollmüller, is announced for early production at the Kleines Theatre.

THE Schauspielhaus was in a dilemma a few nights ago just before the performance of Julius Cæsar. Herr Matkowsky, who was cast for the part of Mark Anthony, was suddenly taken ill, and Herr Staegemann, who frequently gives the rôle, was also indisposed. Herr Christians, the third Mark Anthony of the company, is in America, and for a while it seemed as though the performance could not take place at all. Fortunately, Herr Grube, who had not played the part for over a dozen years, was able to fill the breach to the satisfaction of all concerned, and this at a few hours' notice.

MAXIM GORKI'S new play Die Kinder der Sonne is announced for speedy production at the Kleines, the première. Herr Alexander von Huhn is the translator and adaptor.

I AM glad to be able to state the fact of Herr Vollmer's recovery from a serious illness of many months' duration. Herr Vollmer is the cleverest and most popular comedian of the Schauspielhaus company, and it is a matter of public rejoicing that he is now able to act again.

"THE MERCHANT OF VENICE."

We hardly realise sufficiently the care and consideration involved in a modern Shakespearean revival; and it is only when one reads an article like that which Mr. Alan Mackinnon has added to the Souvenir which Mr. Arthur Bourchier presented to the audience on the 100th night of The Merchant of Venice at the Garrick on Wednesday, that one understands all that goes to make up a production as marvellously clever and complete as this revival of Shakespeare's comedy. Mr. Mackinnon explains with what deliberate intention each arrangement of the mounting was made.

"The opening scene," he says, "we placed in a balcony overlooking a lagoon. The intention was to suggest the heat and brilliance of an Italian sun without, viewed from the shade within. The voice of a singing girl from the water at the rise of the curtain was meant to emphasise the effect of the former in contrast with the shadow on the mind of Antonio, the premonition of impending trouble expressed in the opening lines of the play. In reading the text, no one can fail to be impressed by the wonderful atmosphere which Shakespeare has created, from the rise of the curtain in the full noonday to its fall in the quiet moonlight and promise of early dawn.

"The balcony in the First Scene was supposed to be that of a palazzo near the mouth of the Grand Canal, with a view to the spectator's right of the spot where the Church of Sta. Maria della Salute was afterwards erected, and so on to the Isola S. Giorgio with its church just newly completed (though without the present well-known Campanile), and the open lagoon on the left.

"The Second Scene, in unison with the First, contained the same contrasts of light and shade and of thought, as suggested in Portia's first words. They formed a quiet opening, and the full blaze of light was reserved for the Third Scene to illustrate the heated passions of the dialogue between the three men. This setting attempted to portray, so far as a limited space would permit, a corner of the Piazzetta under the St. Mark's Column, with another view of the Isola S. Giorgio. Here we took advantage of the 'public place,' referred to above, to introduce the busy life of the quay, and in the movement of the crowd to point the racial enmity between Jew and Christian, and the wealth and importance of the Merchant.

The acting is worthy of the production. Mr. Arthur Bourchier's Shylock has gathered, since the first night, force, balance, and finish. The rough idea has been developed into a complete, harmonious, and masterly embodiment. It is so impressive as to be what is called, in well-worn phrase, "convincing." Mr. Bourchier has been going back to first principles. Kean did not make Shylock an old or even an elderly man, any more than he made him pathetic. Mr. Bourchier does not attempt to "whitewash" the Jew. He plays the part as Shakespeare wrote it; and he plays it as the dramatist may reasonably be supposed to have conceived it. His Shylock is never out of the picture; he never takes the stage to himself. On the other hand, it is never effaced or insipid. In the Trial Scene, for instance, when the "learned doctor" is announced, Shylock is standing silent. On the announcement, his eyes twinkle under the circumflex brows, he is uneasy, he fears a hitch in the performance he has promised to himself. Thoroughly vital and significant, Mr. Bourchier never forces a point, but never passes over an opportunity. He is not, like the curate's egg, "good in parts," but all through. He rises to a fine height in such climaxes as the revenge speech, and in the colloquy in the first act with Antonio; but the chief merit of his performance is its sustained strength, and its loyal reverence for the work of the poet. All lovers of Shakespeare must thank Mr. Bourchier, not only for his admirable production of The Merchant of Venice, but for his fine and faithful interpretation of the principal part in the play. Miss Violet Vanbrugh's Portia is irresistible in its warm affection, its spontaneous vivacity, and its noble sincerity. She shows us all the results of independence in a character like that of the heiress of Belmont, making her free and fearless, and unrestrained, except by her own fine instincts. She is especially good in the love passages, which she renders with a dreamy delicacy, a purity of passion, which are most poetical. Nothing could be better than Miss Vanbrugh's delivery of the ecstatic lines which follow Bassanio's choice of the right casket, nothing more "tender and true" than her demeanour to him afterwards. And this Portia is every inch a lady of importance—a mistress who must be obeyed, and therefore can afford to be kind, a superior whose playfulness never descends to the familiarity that breeds contempt. We never realised the discoverable depths of Portia's nature till we saw Miss Vanbrugh in the part. Mr. Julian L'Estrange is a Bassanio worthy of such a bride. Handsome without affectation, and splendid without self-consciousness, Mr. L'Estrange wears the sumptuous and beautiful Renaissance costumes with absolute ease, and acts throughout with the manly grace and the kind of regal repose which must have been an attribute of a Venetian gentleman. Mr. L'Estrange's delivery of Bassanio's speeches is as clear, distinct, forcible, and expressive as could be desired. Mr. Charles V. France's Antonio is beautifully balanced, and the inflection of his delivery of the lines of the part is exquisitely tasteful and judicious. The deep affectionateness of the character is well implied, and Antonio's melancholy never becomes mawkish. Certainly Mr. France's success has much to do with that of the revival. Mr. J. Harcourt Williams introduces into his Gratiano just a slight touch of rusticality, provincialism—what you will!—which gives individuality to the embodiment, and a sharp taste of character. He is effectively energetic, but never merely loud and boisterous; and he, too, may be warmly congratulated on his adroit management of the longer speeches, especially those in the first act. Mr. Walter Pearce makes an excellent Lorenzo—natural and simple, with a fine touch of poesy. His rendering of the romantic lines in the last act is artistic; and, altogether, he sustains the part very agreeably. Mr. George Trollope and Mr. Wilfred Foster represent Salarino and Salanio with conscientious care. The dialogue of such parts, always important to the explanation of the play, is often carelessly delivered and half inaudible. No reproach of this kind can be made to Mr. Trollope and Mr. Forster; and Mr. Arthur Burne's Salerio is another performance which, for the same reasons, deserves warm encouragement. Mr. Norman Forbes's Launcelot Gobbo is a very clever execution of a really difficult task. Half of Launcelot's wit is antiquated; and the actor has to suggest the character by his personality. Mr. Forbes's serving man, with his craziness, his loquacity, and his conceit is a study of great merit. Mr. O. B. Clarence's Old Gobbo is absolutely satisfactory, the senile oddities of the individual being made the most of by this very expert artist. Miss Muriel Beaumont is an ideal Nerissa, bright, "bonnie," and merry, within the limits of becoming mirth. Miss Elfrida Clement is a quite charming Jessica, both in style and appearance. Every speech of the Jewish maiden's is done full justice to, and the quiet gentleness of her nature is admirably expressed. Mr. Frank Lacey makes what can be made of the part of Tubal, which certainly offers few opportunities. Of these, however, Mr. Lacey takes the full advantage. Mr. Lawson Butt is a superb Prince of Morocco, grand in bearing and speech, and the essence of Oriental dignity. Pages of description might be written without doing justice to all the details of the production of The Merchant of Venice at the Garrick.

"THE ERA" can be obtained at any of Smith and Sons' bookstalls throughout the provinces.

"AS YOU LIKE IT."

Shakespeare's Comedy,
Revived at the St. James's Theatre, on Tuesday, January 9.

Duke .....MR. WILLIAM CALVERT
Frederick .....MR. A. KINGSTON
Amiens .....MR. B. KEITH
Jaques .....MR. WILLIAM MOLLISON
First Lord .....MR. HENRY BEVERS
Second Lord .....MR. J. ALTON
Third Lord .....MR. FRED THOMS
Le Beau .....MR. H. TRIPP EDGAR
Charles .....MR. K. CHALMERS
Oliver .....MR. M. MANCINI
Jaques de Bois .....MR. D. LYALL
Orlando .....MR. HENRY AINLEY
Adam .....MR. D. J. WILLIAMS
Dennis .....MR. ROY CUSHING
Touchstone .....MR. CHARLES GROVES
Corin .....MR. ALLEN THOMAS
Silvius .....MR. H. WORRALL
William .....MR. W. KENRICK
First Page .....MASTER THOMSON SAMPSON
Second Page .....MASTER ALBERT BERESFORD
Rosalind .....MISS LILIAN BRAITHWAITE
Celia .....MISS LETTICE FAIRFAX
Phœbe .....MISS EVELYN MACNAY
Audrey .....MISS CLARA COWPER

"It's all right in the summer-time!" sings a contemporary poet. What a difference it would have made if the excursion of Rosalind, Celia, and Touchstone had been undertaken in wet weather. Fancy the Forest of Arden in a "steady downpour," and the Banished Duke and his followers crouching in log-huts, amidst the odoriferous steam of drying clothes! It has been surmised that Jaques's melancholy arose from the chronic rheumatism engendered by his sufferings from the "inclemency of the weather." But Youth, with its entire ignorance of lumbago, is the season of sunshine, and As You Like It is a bright, youthful, sunshiny play, and should be treated accordingly. One of the pleasantest performances of the piece we have ever witnessed was given at the St. James's Theatre on Tuesday afternoon. The freshness and vitality of youth were especially well supplied by Mr. Henry Ainley and Miss Lilian Braithwaite. Mr. Ainley is an ideal Orlando—handsome, alert, energetic, and full of the vigour and earnestness appropriate to the personage. He surprised us by the animation and earnestness which he put into his work; and his efforts were warmly appreciated by the audience. As for Miss Braithwaite, she won all hearts by her buoyancy and beauty, and in Rosalind's doublet and hose she was absolutely bewitching. She gave a delightful rendering of the rôle—arch, simple, and always active and animated. Miss Lettice Fairfax's Celia had all the necessary sweetness, and she struck out, where possible, some sparks of dramatic fire. Here again good looks increased the effect of good acting; and when Mr. Ainley, Miss Braithwaite, and Miss Fairfax were on the stage together, the pictorial effect was very pleasing. Mr. Mollison gave an aristocratic yet humorous reading of Jaques; and the house was hushed into utter stillness during his delivery of the "Seven Ages" speech, one of the most artistic and unstilted which we have ever heard. The ideas seemed to well up naturally in the speaker's mind, and the whole treatment was happily devoid of formality. Altogether, the reading was a memorable one. Mr. Charles Groves gave to Touchstone just the required amount of dry humour and plenty of quiet, unctuous drollery. A great merit of the revival was its all-round thoroughness, not a single part being ill-allotted. Mr. A. Kingston was strongly imperative as Frederick; and Mr. William Calvert, of course, enacted the Duke with absolute ease. Mr. Tripp Edgar contributed a very dainty and clearly-cut rendering of the part of Le Beau; and Mr. D. J. Williams was venerably expressive as Old Adam. Mr. B. Keith was a satisfactory Amiens; and Mr. Reginald Davidson sang "Blow, blow, thou winter wind" and "Under the greenwood tree" most tunefully. Mr. Allen Thomas was ruggedly characteristic as Corin, Mr. H. Worrall being duly sorrowful and sentimental as Silvius, and Mr. W. Kenrick playing William soundly and well. Miss Evelyn Macnay was acceptable as Phœbe; and the rustic traits of Audrey were amusingly indicated by Miss Clara Cowper, Mr. Mancini as Oliver being in every respect effective, and Mr. D. Lyall doing excellent work as Jaques de Bois. Mr. K. Chalmers was thoroughly satisfactory as Charles. Messrs. Hawes Craven and Joseph Harker's scenery was highly artistic, the forest "set" being especially picturesque. The performance was evidently enjoyed by the matinée audience, who listened with attention and applauded with keen enthusiasm.

"THE INTERLUDE OF YOUTH."

A refreshing religious odour pervaded one's nostrils at the Great Queen-street Theatre on Monday afternoon, when the English Drama Society revived the old Morality play, The Interlude of Youth. The aromatic scent of the incense brought to one's mind thoughts of the period when the actors were priests and the theatres were monasteries.

There is much that is graceful, inspiring, and beautiful in this old-world allegory, and its blank verse received fitting treatment from the little band of players who essayed its production on the first day of this week. Of the players, there were seven. We were not permitted to know them, except by the names, respectively, of Charity, Youth, Pride, Luxury, Riot, Humility, and Angel. The young lady who represented Charity played with sincerity and maidenly modesty. It was in the gentlest and most unassuming, and yet earnest tones, that she addressed herself to wayward Youth. In no light manner did Mistress Charity realise the sacredness of her character, and she realised it as surely as she realised the meaning of one of her lines—"Qui manet in charitate in Deo manet." Vigorous, vivacious, headstrong, intractable at first to the admonitions of his angelic counsellor was Youth, though later, as he forsook Riot and Pride, one saw the gentler aspect of his nature. It was a fine piece of acting, as was also that of Riot, who, in his gaudy trappings and with his senseless jollity and solicitations to force Youth into the devil's way, was as weak and evilly-disposed a tavern-frequenting, thievish swashbuckler as one could wish to avoid. Then, the grace and tenderness of Humility, the sweetness of Angel, the vanity and pompous assumption of the gaily-apparelled popinjay Pride, and the self-indulgent proclivities of Luxury, were all delineated with appropriate expression and enunciation.

The robing of the different characters and the mounting of the little play were well in keeping with the subject, and the English Drama Society may be congratulated upon its efforts in unearthing this dainty little drama for the benefit of the more thoughtful playgoer.

THE King witnessed the performance of Mme. Réjane in Décoré at the New Royalty Theatre on Tuesday evening.

"TWO NAUGHTY BOYS."

A Musical Fairy Play, in Two Acts,
by George Grossmith, jun., Composed by Constance Tippett, Lyrics by Percy Greenbank, with additional numbers by C. H. Bovill and Philip Braham, Produced at the Gaiety Theatre on Monday Afternoon, Jan. 8.

MORTALS.

Max .....MR. EDMUND PAYNE
Moritz .....MR. WILLIAM SPRAY
The Schoolmaster .....MR. ARTHUR HATHERTON
Hans, the Miller and Baker .....MR. G. FRANKLIN
Farmer's Boy .....MR. LEWIS GRANDE
Lulu, the Donkey .....MESSRS. ALMONTE
Fritz, the Widow's Dog .....MASTER E. HALLOM
Granny Bauer .....MISS KATE BISHOP
Widow Bolt .....MISS KITTY HANSON
Agnes, the Village Belle .....MISS IDA VALLI
Grizel .....MISS ALICE HATTON
Gretchen .....MISS CORALIE BLYTHE

IMMORTALS.

The Brownie King .....MASTER ROY LORRAINE
Old Brownie .....MASTER WALTER CROSS
Bogey .....MR. D. A. STEELE
Cobweb .....MISS IRENE WAKEFIELD
Daffydowndilly .....MISS DORIS STOCKER

Founded on the picture books of Wilhelm Busch and Palmer Cox, the story of Two Naughty Boys, as told by Mr. George Grossmith, jun., is crowded with funny incidents that cause all the youngsters present to laugh heartily, and thus the main object of the production is attained. We have met with the naughty boy under many names, and of varied nationality; but his principal characteristics are always the same, whether he is an English lad, or he hails from America or the Continent. He is an imp of mischief, and the terror of the unfortunate people who are the victims of his endless pranks. Mr. George Grossmith's naughty boys are German, and their names are Max and Moritz. Their behaviour is in direct contrast with that of Grizel and Gretchen, two good little girls, who live with their granny in an old-fashioned cottage. It is they who make the acquaintance of the Fairy Daffydowndilly, who induces the girls to invite Max and Moritz to granny's birthday party, and they each bring a bag full of big spiders as a present for the old lady. The fairy's object is to convert the bad boys from their evil ways; but they are under the malign influence of a Bogey Bird, in the shape of a huge raven, and until this wicked feathered biped is shot by the Schoolmaster, Daffydowndilly fails utterly in her efforts. In fact, if she succeeded at first, there would be of course no fun in the piece, because goody-goody little boys are not in the least amusing.

Max and Moritz were played by Mr. Edmund Payne and Mr. William Spray, who in physical appearance offered a complete contrast, the one being chubby and stout and the other lean and lanky. No more comical representation of Max than the popular Gaiety comedian could have been found, and he seemed to fairly revel in the part. Max was generally the ringleader in the mischievous tricks, and to watch him putting gunpowder into the bowl of the schoolmaster's pipe, with a grinning anticipation of the results, is a delightful experience, more particularly for the youthful portion of the audience. Mr. William Spray as Moritz, with a single "lock of hair sticking up into the air," entered just as heartily into the fun and frolic, the comic partnership proving a fertile source of merry laughter from young and old alike. Their duets, "Naughty Boys" and "The Bogey Bird," with some clever business introduced, were notable numbers in the first act. Mr. Arthur Hatherton was very good as the village schoolmaster, showing much activity in his incessant pursuit of the naughty boys. His song, "Smoking," and a duet with the farmer's boy deserve mention. Mr. George Franklin was well placed as Hans, the miller and baker, and scored with his ditty, "The Jolly Miller." Mr. Lewis Grande was a capital and quite typical Farmer's Boy, and was the prominent figure in a song with a catchy chorus in the first act. Very dainty and charming were the Grizel and Gretchen of Miss Alice Hatton and Miss Coralie Blythe, whose voices blended harmoniously in the duet, "We're such dear little girls." Miss Blythe gave a pleasing rendering of "My little dolly"; and Miss Hatton was equally successful with the song, "The Ourang-Outang." Miss Kitty Hanson was a vivacious and humorous exponent of Widow Bolt, the giddy mother of the naughty boys, and her ditty, "I'm a widow, all alone," was favourably received. Miss Kate Bishop admirably embodied Granny Bauer; and her dog Fritz had a clever representative in Master E. Hallom; Lulu, the donkey, being smartly worked by Master Almonte. A special word of praise is due to Miss Ida Valli for her amusing impersonation of Agnes, the village belle. Amongst the Immortals, Master Roy Lorraine distinguished himself as the Brownie King; and Master Walter Cross was good as Old Brownie. Miss Doris Stocker was an attractive Daffydowndilly, and sang charmingly. She also spoke in effective style the rhymed lines by which the harlequinade was introduced. Miss Irene Wakefield as the fairy Cobweb and Mr. D. A. Steele as the Bogey Bird completed the cast.

In the harlequinade, invented and arranged by Mr. Edmund Payne, with which the entertainment concluded, Mr. Payne himself made a capital clown, Mr. Chapman played the pantaloon on familiar lines, and Mr. L. Mackinder as harlequin was evidently well versed in the business. Miss Olive May was a graceful columbine; and able assistance was rendered by Mr. D. A. Steele as a policeman, and Mr. C. Brown as a swell who will persist in singing, thus disturbing the slumbers of clown and pantaloon. At the conclusion all the principals were called for, as well as Mr. George Grossmith, jun., Miss Constance Tippett, the composer of the music, and Mr. Sydney Ellison, the producer of the piece and stage director. Mr. George Edwardes deserves to be heartily congratulated on the success of his holiday production for the youngsters.

"THE MERCHANT OF VENICE" having proved so successful at the Deutsches, Berlin—it has reached its fiftieth performance, and is still drawing largely—Director Reinhardt is turning his attention to another Shakespearean comedy, Twelfth Night, which is in rehearsal, and is to be produced very shortly. It is to be hoped that it will be less of a burlesque than Herr Reinhardt makes most of Shakespeare's comedies appear, which fact is all the more deplorable as the performances at the Deutsches are in many ways excellent.

ON Saturday night, at the Royal County Theatre, Bedford, Mrs. E. Graham-Falcon was the recipient of a handsome emerald and diamond pendant, from the members of The Babes in the Wood pantomime company, as a mark of esteem. The presentation was made at the end of the Palace scene by the principal comedian, Mr. Fred Alberto.

THIS week, at the Richmond Theatre, the pantomime Goody Two Shoes has given way to variety, and, as usual, an excellent bill is provided. Miss Ella Shields revisits the scenes of her former triumphs, and repeats her success; Edna Payne is a clever impersonator; John Callon is a humorist of much skill; Mabel Sinclair astonishes and amuses with her ventriloquial ability; and the Walonels' bar act is good. The George Davis sketch company extracts much merriment from the eccentricities of Jack's Uncle; the Woods, billed as the Australian Twins, are interesting in their Maori love story, Kivo; and Vernon's bioscope is as popular as ever.

SCENIC ARTISTS' ASSOCIATION.

In the absence of Mr. Hawes Craven, the president, Mr. Walter Hann, the vice-president, occupied the chair at the second annual meeting of the Scenic Artists' Association, held in Mr. Hann's Painting Room, in Murphy-street, Lambeth, on Monday. Among those present were Messrs. E. G. Banks, H. Crepin, G. J. Dodson, R. Douglass, R. H. Halley, G. R. Hemsley, H. M. Hemsley, E. J. Hirst, E. J. Humphries, R. C. McCleery, J. Davies-Massey, H. W. Owen, S. H. Paterman, Herbert Pike, Stanes Prim, W. Raphael, P. Small, W. B. Smith, R. S. Smythe, G. Tweddell, G. H. Wallis, H. Warner, H. Woolls, and H. Lawrence Harris (Secretary). The Secretary read the notice convening the meeting, and also letters from Mr. J. Martin Harvey (hon. member), Messrs. R. Caney, Geo. Tweddell, Philip Small, and Chas. Watson.

The Committee's report for 1905, which was read by the Secretary, was as follows:—

At the annual meeting, held on Jan. 9, 1905, Messrs. E. G. Banks, Harry Brooke, Richard Douglass, William Harford, W. T. Hemsley, R. C. McCleery, H. W. Owen, Harry Potts, W. Raphael, W. P. Spong, George Tweddell, and Harry Woolls were elected to serve on the Committee. On Jan. 23 Mr. William Harford was elected Vice-President, and Mr. H. Warner was elected a member of the Committee in his place. On Feb. 6 Mr. Harry Brooke resigned from the Committee, and Mr. George R. Hemsley was elected in his place. On Feb. 27 Mr. W. B. Spong resigned from the Committee in consequence of his going abroad, and Mr. R. H. Halley was elected in his place. On April 28 Mr. W. Telbin was elected a member of the Committee, in the place of Mr. H. Warner, who resigned on leaving this country for Africa. The Committee have held thirty-nine Committee meetings, over which the Chairman presided thirty-three times. Messrs. Richard Douglass (36), Harry Potts (35), H. W. Owen (32), W. T. Hemsley (30) attended thirty or more of the meetings.

BENEVOLENT FUND.

Your Committee arranged for a dinner at the Imperial Restaurant on Sunday, Feb. 19, at which Sir Lawrence Alma Tadema kindly presided. About eighty guests sat down to dinner, and the Benevolent Fund, after paying all expenses, benefited to the extent of upwards of £120. During the year grants have been made to members to the amount of £12, and no application from any member has been declined, and the amount at the present time at the credit of the Benevolent Fund is £140.

EXHIBITION.

The Committee organised an exhibition at the Grafton Galleries the week of April 10. The exhibition, artistically, was an unqualified success, and members sold pictures to upwards of £100, and the Association was brought prominently before the public by the advance paragraphs and notices of the exhibition. The debit balance as per balance-sheet of May 31 (£16 1s. 3d.) has since Aug. 31 been reduced to £10.

FINANCE.

When the subscription was fixed at one guinea, it was estimated that the Association would number upwards of 100 members. There are at the present time only seventy-five members, many of whom are in arrear with their subscriptions, and the Committee are given to understand that several members are holding back their subscriptions and fines until arrangements are completed in regard to the secretaryship and offices. At the present time general expenditure exceeds the income by about £25 per annum, and your Committee have for the past four months given special attention to the consideration of this question of finance. It is necessary that the membership be increased to 100 or the subscription increased by 50 per cent, or the expenses reduced to £50 per annum. At the last meeting of your Committee it was thought the best course was to leave the question of change of offices and secretaryship to be dealt with by the members at this meeting. The present members of this Committee, with the exception of Mr. George Tweddell, offer themselves for re-election.

The Chairman moved the adoption of the report, and congratulated the Association on the fact that over £150 had been collected for the Benevolent Fund. The Committee, he admitted, had made the mistake of running the exhibition for one week, but had made amends by undertaking three-fourths of the loss. The balance of the deficit had been reduced to about £10. The question of finance was to be faced by the meeting, who were to decide whether to increase the subscription to 30s. per annum, to raise the membership to 100, or give up present offices, and appoint hon. sec.

The Chairman, in moving the adoption of the report, said:—Gentlemen, you have heard read the report of your Committee for the year 1905. My duties as Chairman have been rendered pleasant and easy, thanks to the courtesy always extended to the chair and, I must add, to the care with which Mr. Harris has always prepared the agendas, and ready help he has always given me.

I think it is a matter for congratulation that only in our second year we have collected for the Benevolent Fund no less sum than £150. The Exhibition was an experiment of your Committee, and I trust we have learned much by same. We frankly admit that it was a fatal mistake to run the Exhibition for only one week. We have acknowledged our responsibility for the loss incurred by meeting three-quarters of the deficit ourselves, and at the present time there is only £10 balance outstanding. The Exhibition indeed was a large undertaking. Since it was decided at the last general meeting by my casting vote not to hold an Exhibition this year, our Secretary has suggested that possibly an Exhibition could be arranged free of rental at the Crystal Palace, and I think the reconsideration of the question of an Exhibition this year is worth your attention. And now, gentlemen, we have seriously to face the question of finance, and it must be decided this evening which of the three courses suggested in the Committee's Report you wish to carry out. Will you increase the subscription to 30s. per annum until the membership shall exceed 100 members? Or will you abandon the keeping of registers and give up the present offices and appoint an honorary Secretary? You have to elect twelve gentlemen to serve as a Committee for this year, and while the ballot is proceeding we can discuss the matters raised by the report just read. Mr. E. J. Humphries and Mr. H. Warner have kindly volunteered to act as scrutineers.

On the motion of Mr. H. Woolls, seconded by Mr. R. Douglass, it was unanimously resolved to retain the present offices until Christmas, 1906.

Mr. McCleery thought the working expenses should be reduced to £60 per annum, and asked what was the rent. The Secretary replied, £30 per annum, and the housekeeper £6 10s. Mr. McCleery said that it would be impossible to pay a Secretary, and thought it would be best to have an honorary one.

Mr. Harris said he was quite willing to renew the offer he made at a previous general meeting, namely, to act as Secretary, and find clerk, hire, postages, printing, firing, and lighting for £35 per annum, or to act as Secretary without remuneration.

Mr. Banks said he thought time would be saved if he proposed that Mr. Owen be appointed honorary Secretary. Mr. McCleery supported.

Mr. George R. Hemsley moved as an amendment that Mr. Harris be appointed honorary Secretary.

The Chairman called for a show of hands, and the result was fourteen for Mr. Harris and ten for Mr. Owen.

Mr. McCleery said that this vote would end the Association, as he and other members would resign, as he knew of members absent that night who objected to Mr. Harris as Secretary.

Mr. Douglass said: I cannot keep silent any longer. I protest against the remark that we should consider the views of absent members. Why are they not here? Remarks are made outside, but when a meeting is specially called to settle the question of offices and Secretaryship, these members do not come, and now we are told that they will resign if we do not give effect to their views. If they have any complaint against our Secretary, why do they not come down and face a general meeting, and say what is their trouble? I have kept quiet for months, and as long as it was a question of economy I was quite willing to support any suggestion tending to reduce the expenses; but, gentlemen, we have done everything these members asked us to do. We have given up the offices and we have dismissed our Secretary; and when we hold a Special Committee to learn what these gentlemen propose to do, they leave us in the lurch by simply stopping away. I have attended more meetings of the Committee than any other member, and have therefore had better opportunities than anyone else of judging of the efficient way in which Mr. Harris has invariably discharged his duties as Secretary, and when the question is now to-night narrowed as to which of two men we are to elect as honorary Secretary, I have given my vote in favour of Mr. Harris solely for these reasons, and not from any personal feeling. If the Association is wrecked, the responsibility must rest upon those members who have for the last few months agitated for the dismissal of Mr. Harris.

The scrutineers handed in their account of the ballot and the following gentlemen were declared duly elected:—Messrs. E. G. Banks, Richard Douglass, Geo. J. Dodson, Rd. H. Halley, George R. Hemsley, W. T. Hemsley, Harry Potts, W. Raphael, W. Telbin, G. Herbert Wallis, and H. Warner, and S. H. Woolls.

THE ACTORS' ASSOCIATION.

At the meeting of the Council of the Actors' Association, held on the 2nd inst., there were present Mr. Edward Terry (in the chair), Mr. A. E. Drinkwater (deputy chairman), Mr. Henry W. Mote (hon. solicitor), Miss Kate Phillips, Sir Squire Bancroft (president), Messrs. J. Cooke Beresford, Clarence Blakiston, Acton Bond, W. Graham Browne, Thalberg Corbett, F. Cremlin, Douglas Gordon, Lawrence Grant, Arthur Holmes-Gore, Alfred Kendrick, Ernest Legh, Fewlass Llewellyn, M. R. Morand, A. Morrice Seaton, C. Aubrey Smith, Fredk. Volpé, Hubert Willis, and Chas. Cruikshanks (secretary). The hon. solicitors reported that they had settled the claim of a member for upwards of £50, which the member had agreed to accept in payment. They also reported that a case set down for trial would be tried by a special jury at the request of the defendant, if his application was granted.

The hon. solicitors received instructions in connection with the publication of an alleged libel. J. Herbert Willes, Simon D. Ord, Robert M. Taylor, Mabel Archdall, Chas. Leveson Lane, Whitford Kane, Maude Townsend, and Rathmell Wilson were nominated for election. Beatrice Lamotte, Edmond T. Sayers, John Poole Kirkwood, Cyril Keightley, Linnie Godfrey, Constance Godfrey, and Gwladys Godfrey were elected as members. The elections of the following ladies and gentlemen were confirmed:—Christmas Grose, Jessie Browning, E. L. Garside, Fred Allandale, Florence A. Smithson, Ruth Savile, Willie Edouin, Billie Burke, Eleanor Sowray, Steven Hanworth, Ray Rockman, Walter H. Pearce, Margery Fane, Beryl Faber, Stanley B. Farbridge, Charles Boult, Annie Windsor, Beatrice May, Florence Sinclair, Roy Horniman, Cecil de Lee, Cecil Barth, and James Blakeley.

The secretary received instruction in connection with a proposed arbitration. "Roneo, Limited," were appointed official stenographers to the Actors' Association, the advantage to the members being that they, and they only, would be allowed a discount of 15 per cent. off the price list. A case of alleged insanitary practices in theatres was considered, and the secretary was directed to communicate with the hon. medical officer of health to the A.A. on the subject. The scheme for an insurance covering all members of the A.A. whose subscriptions are paid was again under consideration, and the secretary received instructions to, if possible, carry out certain suggestions. The promoters of the scheme for the "Qualification and Registration of Actors" reported progress. The report was unanimously approved of as the basis of the scheme, and in order that those members of the Council who were not present might have the opportunity of considering the matter, the secretary was instructed to forward a copy to each, and to request them to attend an adjourned meeting of the Council, to be held on Friday, the 5th inst., at two o'clock, for the purpose of further consideration of the scheme. The report of the Actors' Day Committee was received, accepted, and adopted, and the committee were empowered to circularise the profession after a given date. The secretary received instructions in connection with matters concerning the hon. medical officers. The report of the Finance and General Purposes Committee was received. Two former members were reinstated.

The Council held a special meeting on Friday, the 5th inst., to consider the scheme proposed for the "Qualification and Registration of Actors," when, after considerable discussion, it was agreed that the further consideration of the matter should be adjourned until the following Friday. There were present—Messrs. A. E. Drinkwater (deputy-chairman), Acton Bond, W. Graham Browne, Thalberg Corbett, F. Cremlin, Douglas Gordon, Arthur Holmes-Gore, Fewlass Llewellyn, Norman McKinnel, M. R. Morand, A. M. Seaton, C. Aubrey Smith, and Hubert Willis; Miss Kate Phillips and Charles Cruikshanks (secretary).

On Tuesday last the Council held their usual weekly meeting, when there were present—Messrs. A. E. Drinkwater (deputy-chairman), Henry W. Mote (hon. solicitor), J. Cooke Beresford, Clarence Blakiston, Acton Bond, W. Graham Browne, C. Hayden Coffin, Thalberg Corbett, F. Cremlin, William Devereux, A. E. George, Lawrence Grant, A. Holmes-Gore, Alfred Kendrick, M. R. Morand, A. Morrice Seaton, C. Aubrey Smith, Mrs. Cecil Raleigh, and Charles Cruikshanks (secretary). The hon. solicitors reported they had advised a member as to contract for Australia. The secretary received instructions in connection with an arbitration which had been suggested and not agreed to, and also to the signing and publication of an apology in a case of an alleged libel. The following ladies and gentlemen were nominated for election:—Daisy Atherton, Frederick Lloyd, Harry Talbot, Mabel Durrant, Alec Alexander, Nita Ashby, and Sylvia Morris. Two former members were reinstated.

The Insurance Scheme, suggested by the Secretary, was again under discussion, and the Chief Inspector of the Company undertaking the risk, having explained certain matters in connection with the proposal, the hon. solicitors were requested to settle the terms and conditions of the policy so that the matter might be carried through. Dr. Farquharson, of 2, Coates'-place, Edinburgh, was elected as an hon. medical officer to the Association, the gentleman being a specialist in affections of the throat. The report of the Finance and General Purposes Committee was received.

The Finance and General Purposes Committee held a meeting on Tuesday last, there were present—Messrs. Acton Bond (chairman), J. Cooke Beresford, William Devereux, Lawrence Grant, A. Holmes-Gore, Alfred Kendrick, Mr. R. Morand, and C. Aubrey Smith, and Charles Cruikshanks (secretary). Questions in connection with the staff were considered, and the Secretary received instructions.

HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS.

No. 3.

MR. GEORGE H. DYBALL.

Mr. Dyball is one of the founders of the Heads of Departments Association, of which he has been treasurer since its inception. He has also been treasurer for the past three years of the Theatrical Sports and the annual concerts organised by the musicians and stage employees in aid of their Benevolent Funds. In many other ways Mr. Dyball has assisted in the benevolent and social work for the benefit of the working staff as a whole, and, as the stage-manager of the Tivoli, he is deservedly popular, and highly respected by those who come into contact with him. In spite of his constitutional modesty and retiring nature we induced Mr. Dyball to tell us something about himself.

"I was born in London in 1865, but spent most of my school-days in Margate, returning to finish them in London in 1877. I had then a strong desire to be a carpenter and joiner, and was apprenticed to a firm of builders, with whom I remained until the death of the principal, when my indentures were cancelled. By that time I had made good progress, and felt no inclination to remain an apprentice, so started work with my father at the unfortunate Avenue Theatre, and helped in the first production at that house. I then secured employment at the Alhambra, only to find when I went to the theatre the following morning that it had been burnt down during the night. Fortunately most of the carpenters' tools were saved, thanks to the energy and courage of Mr. Gus Mitchel, now at the Empire Theatre. He, I believe, had a very narrow squeak in saving our tools. With the other carpenters on the staff I started work at the White Rose, in Castle-street, where the billiard-room was converted into a carpenters' shop, and where the whole of the scenery was made for the Trip to the Moon, produced at Her Majesty's Theatre. I stayed at Her Majesty's Theatre through the Trip to the Moon, Red Riding Hood pantomime, and The Ticket-of-Leave Man I have worked at what are now, many old, and some extinct, houses, including the Olympic, Globe, Adelphi, Vaudeville, Drury Lane, Covent Garden, Garrick, Royal English Opera

MR. GEORGE H. DYBALL.

House, &c., so that my experience has been somewhat varied.

"I have always kept my eyes wide open all the time to learn all I could, and to make the best of my experience, for I believe no man is too old to learn. My dad used to tell me, 'There is always something to be learnt, even from the biggest fool, if it is only how not to do a thing.' I might tell you that during the time I was working at the bench I used to snatch every opportunity to attend drawing classes, and under the tuition of Mr. Busbridge I made very good progress in building construction and geometry. I have found this knowledge very useful, so I have never regretted the time I devoted to gain it, apart from the pleasure derived from such studies. I had the pleasure of making the working drawings and preparing the specifications for the new and handsome offices for the Tivoli, Pavilion, and Oxford Amalgamated Variety Theatres, offices for Mr. G. Adney Payne, Mr. Henri Gros, the accountants' offices, and the board rooms. I superintended the erection and completion of these offices, and am very pleased to say that the work gave every satisfaction to the Board of Directors, who, to mark their appreciation, made me a present of a handsome cheque.

"I have been in the service of the Tivoli Company for over fourteen years, and have been very comfortable too. I started for the company as master carpenter in 1891, and was soon appointed to act as stage-manager. I am glad to say the whole of my staff are members of the Association of Stage Employees, and I have come to the conclusion that if a manager wants good, steady, and reliable men, he should apply to the Association. I shall be glad when all the managers and stage-managers in London and the provinces realise the advantages of this course. Fortunately there are many who already do so, and I think it is only a matter of time when all will follow suit. We are a conservative nation, and slow to grasp new ideas, at least, so the Yankees say.

"I have done many things in my time to turn an honest penny, but have never yet made scenery by contract. I am, however, seriously thinking of doing so, now that I know, according to a report in a recent law case, that the profits are 30 per cent.; but as it is my rule to employ the most skilful labour available, I might not find it so profitable as is alleged in the case referred to."

In conclusion, Mr. Dyball assured us that the "merry" Tivoli was flourishing, and that in the general-manager, Mr. Joseph Wilson, the staff had one of the kindest and most courteous of managers.

MR. EDWARD COMPTON, who is this week playing to very satisfactory business in a round of popular comedies at the Grand Theatre, Wolverhampton, made a felicitous reference on his opening night to the electioneering campaign, which is agitating the town. In the course of his amusing speech, Mr. Compton said:—"I am afraid I have struck Wolverhampton at a rather unfortunate time this visit, for there is so much excitement, and interest, and amusement to be got out of a contested election, that we "poor players" are somewhat pushed from our legitimate stools on such occasions. I hope, however, that most of my friends here will spare an evening or two to visit the theatre, and plump for this old and tried candidate for popular favour in his endeavour to retain his seat in your hearts.

THE King witnessed the performance of The Little Michus at Daly's Theatre on Wednesday evening.

MUSIC PIRACY AND POLITICS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ERA.

SIR,—Unless we organise a bold, unanimous, and uncompromising campaign, disregarding all other individual Party politics, in the forthcoming General Election, musical piracy will continue.

No Radical candidate, not even Mr. Caldwell himself, will hesitate to decare his opposition to music piracy. Mr. Caldwell has often done that, and has as often blocked our measures. So surely as he is returned—and of his return there can be no doubt—so surely will he continue to oppose our demand for protection. A Government Bill is our only hope. What Party is more likely to realise our hopes than the Party whose head has displayed active sympathy with us, pleading lack of Parliamentary time at the end of the last Session as his reason for not introducing a Government Bill himself? I therefore maintain that we should unanimously support a Party already committed to reform. To the desire for effective protection of threatened industries throughout the Empire will Mr. Chamberlain owe the votes of thousands who never before polled Conservative. Protection of individual interests in the present Election is the battle-cry of every Party; many Irish Roman Catholics will regretfully vote against Home Rule, fearing to endanger Catholic schools; men of Conservative leanings, having interests in South Africa, will vote against the employment of Chinese labour. Let us follow these examples, and become a united body in politics till we obtain redress.

I am an Irishman and a Catholic. I have fought side by side with Parnell; I yield to no man in loyalty to the cause, but I draw the line at martyrdom in this struggling age, when I see my roof in danger of collapse and my bread thrown to thieves and vagabonds.—Yours faithfully,

LESLIE STUART.

NEW MUSIC.

Francis, Day, and Hunter, who have established a world-wide reputation, send us the following new works:—"The Aldwych Quadrilles," founded on a number of popular melodies by Karl Kaps, and dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Hicks, who are to be congratulated on the opening of their splendid new theatre. Some of these melodies are very quaint, and all make capital dance tunes. The composer and compiler, Karl Kaps, is a master at this kind of work, and "The Aldwych Quadrilles" are certain to meet with general approval. "The Casino Lancers," by Warwick Williams, is another excellent specimen of quadrilles founded on popular tunes, many of them already familiar. The title-page illustrates a lively scene in bright colours, and Mr. Warwick Williams has done his work in the capable manner we might expect. We shall be surprised if these "Casino Lancers" do not enjoy a wide popularity. "My Dear Old Home," by H. Trotère, the composer of "In Old Madrid," has the sweet suggestions of a charming rustic home admirably embodied by a clever composer who knows how to combine simplicity with artistic merit in a melody easily learned and easily remembered. Mr. Edgar Bateman writes of "The Broken Slate," and tells how a poor forlorn little boy makes an appeal to Father Christmas on his broken slate. How the appeal is answered the author and composer, Mr. J. Airlie Dix, tell us most pathetically. The charming comedy The Catch of the Season is full of smart songs, and none are more successful than "Don't go too fast, little girlie," by Messrs. Taylor and Haines, sung by Miss Ellaline Terriss, whose sprightly manner heightens the effect of a sprightly song. From the same comedy we have another favourite ditty, "Rosalie, I want you so!" charmingly sung by Miss Maudi Darrell. "The Rainbow Waltz," founded on a song by H. E. Pether, attracts by its realistic rainbow on the title-page first, and then by a flowing and tuneful waltz that will be welcome in the ball-room. "Happy Heine" is a characteristic march (two step), composed by J. Bodewalt Lampe, who has caught the spirit of the march exactly. In "Chanson des Cloches," by Theo. Ward, musical director to the Eastbourne Corporation, the composer has evidently been inspired by the local town hall clock, and no doubt many a visitor to that picasant seaside resort will appreciate Mr. Ward's composition even with a French title. "When the boys go marching," composed by J. Airlie Dix to words by Fred W. Leigh, is not a song for "Little Englanders." Its spirit is Imperial, and appeals to those who would uphold the British Empire. "The Enchantress Waltz," by Charles Coote, is a good specimen of a composer who has written admirable dance music. "Hear the pipers calling, Jenny mine" is composed by Bennett Scott and sung with great success by Miss Madge Lessing, who looks charming in her Highland costume, and the echo of "Comin' thro' the Rye" adds to the interest of the song.

Messrs. Chappell and Co. send "The Bell," a new song of an elaborate character by Teresa del Riego. There is an organ accompaniment, which will require some care in performance, as the player must follow the singer closely or the effect will be lost. The vocal portion is made up of reiterated notes, and the singer will need a powerful voice to do it justice, but if executed successfully a noble result will reward the vocalist, as the composer thoroughly understands her business. "A Dream of Flowers," by Julian Clifford (words by Ethel Henniker), is a song-cycle dedicated to Lady de Tabley, and treats in a fanciful and original manner the interesting subject, though the composer has introduced some chromatic music to start with. But the song of the rose is graceful and melodious, linking that delightful flower with suggestions of love. The lily next has a pleasant tale to tell of purity and innocence, and we pass to the poppies, the contrast being effectively illustrated in the music. The sea pinks end the cycle in an animated style. Maude Valérie White, who has written so many good songs, has a new ditty called "Love me to-day," in which some clever effects and skilful changes in the melody are to be noticed, especially the enharmonic transition from D flat to E sharp, which also agrees with the sentiment of the song. "In the Days of Roses," by G. H. Clutsam, we have the story of a sudden passion and as rapid a break in the intercourse of two lovers. "A Chain of Roses," the music by Hermann Löhr, dwells with affectionate devotion on love's past joined to the present by "A chain of roses." Mr. Edward German's incidental music to The Conqueror, produced at the Scala, is here published, and includes pretty songs and dances and graceful serenades for four voices. "Qui Sait?" music by Frank Lambert, is pleasing, and "L'Amour," set to the verses of Alphonse Daudet by Teresa del Riego, will command many admirers, the composer having given an excellent version of Daudet's pretty lines. "Visitors," words by Helen May Whitney and music by Waddington Cooke, tells of the jealousy of little boys when visitors make free with their toys. The younger members of the household will appreciate the humour of the idea. "Fair Hebe" takes us back to the times of Dr. Arné, whose pastoral ballad Mr. Harold Gregory has newly arranged with complete success. "My heart will know" is composed by Guy d'Hardelot to words by Lorna Fane, who supposes that a dead maiden will know when her lover comes at night with roses in his hand to her grave. "Weymouth Chimes" is a gavotte by J. S. Howgill, musical director to the Weymouth Corporation," who has also scored his gavotte for orchestra and military bands. An effective little piece, "Ramona, Lily of the Prairie," composed by Lee Johnson, is also published as an "Indian love song." "Rosie" is a ballad with verses in the style of Goethe, by Conrad Hugo Loubart, and music by Harrison Frewin; the words have a flavour of Scotch ballads, which is rather pleasing. Mr. Charles Woolhouse, of 174, Wardour-street, is the publisher, as he is also of "Wings of Love," translated from the French of Victor Hugo by the Rev. Henry Carrington, M.A., the music being by H. V. Jervis-Read.

ON THE ROAD, JANUARY 15.

ARE YOU A MASON?—Nottingham.
AT DUTY'S CALL.—T. R., Castleford.
AT THE WORLD'S MERCY.—T. R., Attercliffe.
BEAUTY AND THE BEAST.—T. R., Bolton.
BENSON, F. R. (B).—Newry.
BENSON, MR. AND MRS.—O. H., Londonderry.
BESIDE THE BONNIE BRIER BUSH.—St. James's T.
BRAMLEY EDMOND.—H. M. T., Aberdeen.
BULMER, MR.—Albert T., Brighouse.
CATCH OF THE SEASON.—T. R., Bournemouth.
CHINESE HONEYMOON.—St. Helens.
CHRISTIAN (HOWARD).—New T., Aberdare.
CHRISTIAN, THE.—Gaiety T., Clydebank.
CINGALEE.—Derby.
CINGALEE (2).—Ipswich.
CLAUDIAN.—Royalty T., Barrow.
COAL KING.—T. R., Middlesbrough.
COMPTON COMEDY CO.—Royalty T., Chester.
COTTON SPINNER.—O. H., Burton.
COUNTRY GIRL (MACDONA).—Sutton-in-Ashfield.
DARE-DEVIL DOROTHY.—T. R., Jarrow.
DUCHESS OF DANTZIC.—Aldershot.
DUKE OF KILLICRANKIE.—O. H., Cork.
EARL AND THE GIRL.—H. M. T., Carlisle.
ETERNAL CITY.—T. R., Merthyr Tydfil.
FACE AT THE WINDOW.—Empire, Cradley Heath.
FEMALE SWINDLER.—T. R., Barnsley.
FLORODORA (HOWARD).—T. R., Birkenhead.
FREEDOM OF SUZANNE.—Gaiety T., Hastings.
GAY PARISIENNE.—Stafford.
GEOFFREY LANGDON'S WIFE.—
GIRL FROM JAPAN.—T. R., Huddersfield.
GIRL FROM KAY'S.—Hull.
GOLDEN LADDER.—Darlington.
GO-WON-GO MOHAWK.—Grand T., W. Hartlepool.
GREAT AWAKENING.—Grand T., Luton.
GRIP OF IRON.—T. R., Ashton-under-Lyne.
HER ONE GREAT SIN.—Lyceum T., Pentre.
HER SECOND TIME ON EARTH.—T. R., Rochdale.
HOME, SWEET HOME.—Court T., Bacup.
I DEFY THE WORLD.—Gaiety T., Burnley.
INDIAN MUTINY.—Queen's T., Liverpool.
LA COMEDIE ANGLAISE.—Sunninghill.
LADY MADCAP (DANCE).—Chatham.
LADY MADCAP (EDWARDES).—Lyceum T., Edinburgh.
LADY OF OSTEND.—T. R., Worthing.
LA POUPEE (RALLAND).—T. R., Blackburn.
LITTLE BO-PEEP.—Lyceum T., Sheffield.
LITTLE BREAD WINNER.—New T., Consett.
LITTLE MICHUS (DANCE).—Southampton.
LITTLE MICHUS (EDWARDES).—Royalty T., Glasgow.
LONDON FIREMAN.—Clarence T., Pontypridd.
LOST IN PARIS.—O. H., Harrogate.
LOVE THAT WOMEN DESIRE.—Alexandra T., Hull.
MANXMAN.—T. R., Tonypandy.
MIDNIGHT MAIL.—Salford.
MODERN ADVENTURESS.—T. R., Batley.
MONSIEUR BEAUCAIRE.—County T., Bedford.
MOODY MANNERS (A).—Theatre Royal, Dublin.
MOODY MANNERS (B).—O. H., Northampton.
MR. SMITH.—Court T., Wigan.
NAPOLEON THE GREAT.—T. R., Sunderland.
OLIVER TWIST.—Victoria T., Burnley.
ON THE STROKE OF TWELVE.—Kilmarnock.
ORCHID (2).—Swansea.
PASSION'S POWER.—Eden T., Bishop Auckland.
PATH OF THORNS.—T. R., Tonypandy.
PEGGY MACHREE.—P. O. W., Grimsby.
PLUCKY NIPPER.—T. R., Macclesfield.
PRICE OF HER SOUL.—Aquarium, Yarmouth.
PRODIGAL SON.—Royalty T., Llanelly.
PROOF.—Grand T., Radcliffe.
RED COAT.—Grand T., Newcastle.
REVENGE.—T. R., Aston.
ROMANY'S REVENGE.—Lyceum T., Heywood.
ROYAL DIVORCE.—Irving T., Seacombe.
SAILORS OF THE KING.—T. R., Batley.
SEE-SAW OF LIFE.—Empire T., Southend.
SHERLOCK HOLMES.—New T., Cambridge.
SILVER KING.—T. R., Leamington.
SIN OF HER CHILDHOOD.—Grand T., Stockton.
SINS OF A CITY.—T. R., Stratford.
SOMEBODY'S SWEETHEART.—T. R., Hanley.
SPRING CHICKEN.—T. R. Portsmouth.
STILL ALARM.—Victoria T., Broughton.
SUNDAY.—Theatre Royal, Worcester.
SWISS EXPRESS.—Chesterfield.
THREE LITTLE MAIDS (S.).—T. R., Stanley.
TOREADOR.—Greenock.
TRAITOR.—T. R., Smethwick.
TWO LITTLE SAILOR BOYS.—T. R., Leicester.
TWO LITTLE VAGABONDS.—T. R., West Bromwich.
VERONIQUE.—Oldham.
VILLAGE BLACKSMITH.—Prince's T., Preston.
WALLS OF JERICHO (N.).—Rotterdam.
WALLS OF JERICHO (S.).—T. R. Bath.
WARNER, MISS GRACE.—Lyceum T., Long Eaton.
WAY OF THE WORLD.—Empire T., Dundee.
WEARIN' O' THE GREEN.—H. M. T., Barrow.
WILKIE, ALLEN, AND CO.—T. R., Goole.
WOMAN'S PAST.—T. R., Windsor.
WORST WOMAN IN LONDON.—Marina, Lowestoft.
WRECKER OF MEN.—Alhambra, Stourbridge.
10.30 DOWN EXPRESS.—Lincoln.

BIRTHDAYS OF THE WEEK.

We wish many happy returns of the day to the following ladies and gentlemen:—

John Strange Winter—Saturday, Jan. 13.
Miss Haidée Wright—Saturday, Jan. 13.
Tom Cecil—Saturday, Jan. 13.
John B. Murray—Saturday, Jan. 13.
Edward Compton—Sunday, Jan. 14.
Nellie Walters—Sunday, Jan. 14.
Miss Dolly Harmer—Sunday, Jan. 14.
Miss Mabel Kessler—Monday, Jan. 15.
Rutland Barrington—Monday, Jan. 15.
Miss Helen Palgrave—Monday, Jan. 15.
J. Forbes Robertson—Tuesday, Jan. 16.
Miss Janet Achurch—Wednesday, Jan. 17.
Philip Sefton—Wednesday, Jan. 17.
Richard Warner—Wednesday, Jan. 17.
Sam Poluski—Wednesday, Jan. 17.
Miss Lilian Levey—Saturday, Jan. 13.
Sam Redfern—Sunday, Jan. 14.
Ashley Beale—Monday, Jan. 15.
Minnie Cunningham—Monday, Jan. 15.
Fay Rivington—Monday, Jan. 15.
Amy McKay—Wednesday, Jan. 17.
Olga Nethersole—Thursday, Jan. 18.
Thomas Courtice—Thursday, Jan. 18.
Amy Grace—Thursday, Jan. 18.
Johnnie Schofield—Thursday, Jan. 18.

A COPY OF "THE ERA" will be forwarded to any address in the United Kingdom for six stamps. The Era is posted on Saturday in time to reach London Subscribers by the first Town Delivery, and Country Subscribers should receive their Papers by the first London Post. Address, the PUBLISHER, 5, Tavistock-street, W.C.

Everybody knows that

EPPS'S

is an admirable food, the nicest and most nutritious beverage for the breakfast table. It is made in a moment with boiling water or milk, and its sustaining qualities are

COCOA

Invaluable to all.

BIRTHS, MARRIAGES, & DEATHS.

SILVER WEDDING.

PEDGRIFT—BUTCHER.—Jan. 16, 1881, at St. Philip's, Battersea, Frederic Henchman Pedgrift, Manager "The Era," of The Chestnuts, Rusham-road, Balham, to Henrietta Butcher, second daughter of Henry Butcher.

DEATHS.

CHEVALIER.—On the 7th inst., at St. Teilo, High Lever-road, N. Kensington, Helen Louisa Chevalier. R. I. P.

DOUGLASS.—At 138, Richmond-road, Dalston, on Jan. 10, Thomas Mace Douglass, from bronchitis and heart failure, age 83. Funeral at Abney Park Cemetery, on Monday, Jan. 15, at 1 o'clock.

HAMILTON.—On the 7th inst., at Rochdale, after a few days' illness, Alfred H. Hamilton, eldest son of the late Joseph Hamilton, originator of Hamilton's Excursions. Deeply regretted.

HAMILTON.—On the 7th inst., at Rochdale, in his fifty-fifth year, Alfred H. Hamilton, of Hamilton's Excursions. Cremated at Manchester, Jan. 10.

LYONS.—Dec. 30, 1905, at 14, Lower Byrom-street, Manchester, Edward Lyons, actor, aged 77.

ORFORD.—On Sunday, Jan. 7, at 39, Wardour-street, Shaftesbury-avenue, W., Henry Orford, aged 74, the beloved father of Emmeline Orford. R.I.P. American papers, please copy.

PARRY.—Jan. 6, at the Cancer Hospital, Fulham-road, after a long and painful illness, Stella Parry, burlesque actress.

SHEERING.—Jan. 8, at his residence, 11, Marlborough-hill, Bristol. James Sheering, formerly boxkeeper for fifty-two years, at the Theatre Royal and Prince's Theatre, Bristol, aged 86. Much loved and regretted by his daughter, Mrs. Bainton, and grandchildren.

SPENCER.—George Spencer, musician, late proprietor "Mail Coach," Doncaster, and "Marquis of Granby," Lincoln, who departed this life on Tuesday, Jan. 2, '06, and was interred in St. Swithin's Cemetery, Lincoln, on Mon., Jan. 8. Deeply mourned by his ever-loving wife, Alice Fontainbleau. Friends, accept this, the only intimation.

VILLIERS.—Jan. 7, Harry Villiers, husband of Miss Daisy James.

UNDERWOOD.—Jan. 9, at Colchester, after a four days' illness, Cecil Underwood, actor.

IN MEMORIAM.

BASHALL.—In sweet and unfading memory of my darling mother, Lydia Bashall. Always mourned by her devoted BELLA.
There is none
In all this cold and hollow world, no fount
Like the deep, strong, deathless love of a Mother's heart.

HARRISON.—In affectionate remembrance of Fred L. Harrison (of Fred and Lillie Harrison, duettists and dancers), who died Jan. 9, 1904, at his home in Covent Garden, London. "Do not forget me."

MACCABE.—In loving memory of Joseph Maccabe (Joe Mac), died Jan. 11, 1893. Never forgotten by his wife, ALICE MAYDUE.

STARR.—Dec. 29, 1905, Ethel Danbury, actress, wife of Harry Starr.

THE GERMAN THEATRE.

"ALMA MATER"

Drama, in Four Acts, by Victor Stephany, Produced at the Great Queen-street Theatre, on Thursday, Jan. 11.

The first act showing the mess-room of the Student Corps. Hermann Klein, one of the number, has like the rest returned to the University town from his summer holidays. His love for the steward's daughter Susi has not lessened during his absence, and he proposes to her. She points out the disparity of their positions, and avows that she does not really love him, but Hermann insists, and Susi eventually accepts his offer of marriage. The engagement is to be kept secret till after his examination. Her fate enters in the shape of Georg von Bayer. They had been lovers two years ago, but he left the University, and Susi had not heard from him since. But the old infatuation again gets hold of her, and she throws herself into his arms. In the next act Susi comes at 10 p.m. to Georg's room. It is to be a last meeting, and she is resolved to tell him of her engagement. But before she can speak Klein knocks at the door and threatens to force his way should he not be let in. Susi hides in another room, and Klein bursts in. He has seen his betrothed cross the square, and feels sure she had made her way to Georg's room. In an excited scene in which Klein reveals the secret of his engagement to Susi Georg perjures himself by giving his word of honour that no woman was in his room. Klein, who could not believe for a moment that a corps student would violate such a sacred declaration is satisfied, and leaves the room, apologising for his rashness. In a students assembly which takes place in the third act it is decided that a man who had lost his honour can only atone by committing suicide. Georg is in dispair. Susi cannot bear the idea that it was for her he sacrificed his honour, and is ready to do anything to restore his good name. Klein enters and catches the pair in a fond embrace, and there is no longer any doubt that Georg had lied when he gave his word of honour. Klein tears down Georg's colours, and challenges him. The duel, however, cannot come off, for a man who has lost his honour is not worthy of giving satisfaction. Susi tells Klein that he has ruined, not only his own, but also her life. That it meant another cowardice to leave her alone to fight it out, and persuades him to start fresh in life with her. Margarethe Russ, who is almost continually on the stage won new laurels as Susi. She has become a strong favourite with the audience, and well deserves it. Quite charming also was Johanna Becker in the small part of her sister Lore. Hanns Stock, though not entirely free from exaggeration, made an excellent Georg, and Ingo Kraus was very good indeed as Hermann Klein. Hans Andresen played the small part of Rother to the delight of the public. His song in the first act was encored. Herr Baselt added some good comic relief. The ensemble was all that could be wished for.

"WE actors," continued Mr. Compton, "are not supposed to have any political convictions, or, if we have, we are supposed to keep them to ourselves. But at least I can say of myself that I am Conservative in my devotion to legitimate comedy, Liberal in my ideas as to its presentation, Unionist in the belief in the union of good plays and good players, and a Labour member in that I am a glutton for work, and expect everyone about me to be the same. If these are not true politics for an actor-manager, there must be something Radically wrong somewhere; but I refuse, on such a point, to accept any adverse ruling (mind, I didn't say Home Ruling), or to consider any measure of reform—even in the Tariff of our prices of admission. And so, ladies and gentlemen, I respectfully and confidently solicit 'your vote and interest' during the week, and if you should find it in your hearts to re-elect me to my old position of first favourite, I shall proudly add the magic letters 'M.P.' to my name after Saturday night; and in my case they will signify 'Mightily Popular.'"

SORE THROAT OR HOARSENESS

CURED IN A FEW HOURS.

Sir Morell Mackenzie, M.D., the Eminent Throat Specialist, constantly recommended Condy's Remedial Fluid to be used as a Gargle for speedily curing Sore Throat or Hoarseness.

The late Sims Reeves, the world-famed Tenor Vocalist, wrote:—"Condy" used as a Gargle clears the voice and braces up the uvula."

Condy's Remedial Fluid, sold by all Chemists at 1s. 1½d. Caution.—Insist on having "Condy's."

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

A. ANDERSON.—We have been unable to trace the production of the play mentioned, and cannot, therefore, give you the author's name.

J. DEWELL.—Charles Godfrey died March 28, 1900. George Beauchamp died Dec. 23, 1900.

GEORGE LANGBURNE.—We can see no objection to the course you suggest.

ZENO.—It is difficult to give a proper opinion without seeing the order, which is stated to constitute a first charge on share. If it was a legal charge, you would be liable.

SAM FREDERICKS.—(1) The Blue Moon was produced at the Lyric on Aug. 28, 1905. (2) We do not know. Would not the lady herself supply the information, if applied to?

SIDNEY.—Committed for Trial, described as a "piece of absurdity," in two acts, by W. S. Gilbert, founded on Le Réveillon, was first performed at the Globe Theatre, on Jan. 24, 1874. The piece was afterwards expanded into three acts, and revived at the Criterion Theatre, on Feb. 5, 1877, under the title of On Bail.

SURREYITE.—Sam Cowell (Samuel Houghton Cowell) died in March, 1864. He first appeared on the stage in 1829, at Boston, U.S.A., and, on coming back to England he acted at the Theatre Royal, Edinburgh. Eventually he left the theatre for the music halls.

H. F. P. — The first English production of The Belle of New York was at the Shaftesbury Theatre on April, 12, 1898.

T. W. G.—On the production of T. W. Robertson's play M.P., at the old Prince of Wales's Theatre, on April 23, 1870, the late Charles F. Coghlan appeared as Chudleigh Dunscombe.

ARTHUR HARDY.—We keep no record of the dates of the opening of theatres in provincial towns. We should have thought that you could obtain the information locally.

"THE ERA" LETTER-BOX.

A Stamped Envelope, plainly addressed, must be enclosed with application for each Letter. Letters, after lying at this Office for One Month, are forwarded to the Postal Authorities, to be returned to the Senders.
No Circulars or Parcels admitted to this List.

Alexander, Miss M.
Allan and Mart
Amphlett, Mr. Harry
André, Madame
André, Mr. Victor
Ando, Mr. M.
Angeline, Mdm.
Arthurs, Mr. E.
Atherton, Miss Nellie
Aubrey, Mr. Alec
Austin, Miss Louie
Balcombe, Mr. H. A.
Barnett, Mr. Joseph
Barret, Mr. J. S.
Barrie, Mr. J. M.
Bedford, Mr. Harry
Belmore, Mr. H.
Biddall, Mr. G.
Black, Miss L.
Bon Bon, Mr. Harry
Bosanquet, Mr. Edmund
Boswell, Mr. J. H.
Bounds, Mr. Arnold
Bradshaw, Miss D.
Branscombe, Mr. Arthur
Breton, Mr. A
Brett, Mr. Edwin
Brightwell, Mr. E.
Broton, Mr. Fritz
Brough, Miss F.
Browne, Mr. Grahame
Brown-Potter, Mrs.
Buckley, Miss A.
Burney, Miss E.
Caisdall, Mr. A.
Campbell, Miss Dora
Cardona, Mr. Wm.
Carlton, Miss Nina
Carlton, Mr. Henry
Carnegie, Mr. G.
Castle, Mr. C.
Cawthorn, Mr. Alf.
Chichester, Mr. H.
Cinquevalli, Mr. Paul
Clyo and Rochelle
Collins & Hart
Congdon, Miss May
Conningham, Mr. Fred
Connors, Mr.
Cubberley, Mr. Fred
Cuthbert, Mr. Alfred
Dale and O'Mally
Dalmour, Miss S.
Davidson, Mr. Wm.
Davies, Mr. Geo.
Deas, Mr. Harry
Denman, Mr. Royston
Denniston, Mr. Reynolds
Digby, Miss Alice
Dudley, Miss Lydia
Dykes, Mr. R. M.
Dyson, Mr. Joshua
Eckert, Miss K.
Edson, Mr. H.
Edwards, Mr. H. Collier
Elkin, Mr. Bernard
Ellicott, Miss V.
Ely, Sisters
Emmy, Madame
Evans, Mr. F.
Evans, Mr. R.
Fair, Mr. B.
Farrell, Mr. Billy
Faulkner, Miss Annie
Fentross, Mr Burt
Fields and Lewis, Messrs
Florence, Mdlle.
Fontaine, Mr. Victor
Fysher, Mr. Edwin
Geoffreys, Mr. T.
George, Mr. Greek
Glenroy Troupe
Godwin, Mr. Will
Goldin, Mr. Horace
Gordon, Miss C.
Gratton, Miss D.
Gregsons, The
Greene, Miss Evie
Grey, Mr. Harry
Grimshaw, Mrs. L.
Grover, Mr. Arthur
Grovini, Mr. James
Haldon, Lady
Hamilton, Mr. Sydney
Handel, Miss Z.
Harcourt, Mrs. Fred
Harris, Miss D.
Hastings, Miss F.
Hazlewood, Mr. G. J.
Hearn, Mr. J.
Hebden, Mr. Will
Helen and Emilon
Hobson, Miss Maud
Hope, Mr. Roland
Hopley, Mr. E.
Horton, Mr. Walker
Howard, Miss May
Hylton, Mr.
Irving, Mr. H. B.
Jarrough, Mr. Dan
Jenkins, Mr. T. M.
Johnson, Mr. Kid
Joly, Mr. E.
Kayser, Mr. Fred
Kendal, Mrs.
Kondo, Mr. T.
Kramer, Mr. Paul
Lavater, Mr. Louis
Lawrence, Mr. Arthur
Leader, Mr. Harry
Le Gay Quartette
Leland, Mr. W. B.
Leonard, Mr. A.
Leonard, Miss Flora
Leonard, Mr. Bob
Lewis, Miss Isabella
Leybourne, Mr. Arthur
Leyseno, Mr. Barry
Lindsey, Mr. Geo.
Llewellyn, Mr. H. H.
Loates, Mr. Carr
Loveday, Mr. H. J.
Lovering, Mr. Harry
Mackay, Mr. J. W.
Mackay, Mr. W. T.
Mannings, Mr.
Marian Sisters
Marlow, Mr. W. F.
Martin, Miss Sylvia
Martine, Miss Ada
Martino, Mdme.
Maye, Miss Jennie
Medway, Miss Constance
Mervale, Miss Lindsay
Milian, Mr. Max
Milner, Mr. C.
Milton, Miss Maud
Money, Mr. Andrew
Monham, Miss Mabel
Montefiore, Mr. Ernest
Montgomery, Mr. John
Mortenette, Mr. and Mrs
Murphy, Mr. C. W.
Nat & Doris
Nelson, Mr. Frank
Neville, Miss Lillian
Norman, Mr. M.
Norton, Mr. Chas.
Olgar, Mdm. Frances
O'Neill, Mr. Ed.
Osborne, Mr. W.
Oxley, Mr. Gus
Palvay, Mdme.
Paulis, Mr. Edmond
Phillips, Mr. T. J.
Pleasants, Mr. Jack
Powell & Connor, Messrs.
Power, Miss Eugenie
Prince, Mr. Arthur
Probin, Mr. Will
Ramier, Mr. Ed.
Revell Troupe
Reynolds, Mr.
Rhodes, Mr. Alf.
Richmond, Mr. Arthur
Rizarelli, Signor
Rogers, Mr. Harry
Ross and Lewis, Messrs.
Royle, Miss Vera
Royston, Mr. Arthur
Rudd, Mr. Arthur
Ruston, Mr. E. H.
Ruthman, Mr. E. A.
Saker, Miss May
Sargent, Mr. Jack
Saunders, Mr. Thomas
Scott, Mr. M. D.
Shaw, Mr. Allan
Shaller, Mr. Arthur
Sheridan, Mr. R. B.
Shine, Mr. J. L.
Shrapnell, Mr. L.
Siegemberg, Miss Lottie
Simpson, Mr. Herbert
Sivronis, Mr.
Slingsby, Capt.
Smith, Miss Stafford
Southgate, Mr. Russell E
Stansfield, Mrs.
St. John, Miss Marie
Sumner, Mr. W. J.
Swan and Stanley
Swift, Miss Ida
Sylvester, Mr. Lawrence
Taylor, Capt. Joe
Teague, Mr. Harry
Telford, Mr. Will
Terry, Miss Beatrice
Terry, Mr. Fred.
Terry, Mr. Herbert
Thomas, Mrs. Ronald
Thorburn, Mrs. Chas.
Tinglass, Mr. Thomas
Todd, Mr. Garratt
Towle, Mr. Edward
Trevoir, Miss F.
Trueman, Mr. A. E.
Valmore, Miss Jennie
Veevers, Miss G.
Vernon, Miss Jessie
Victoria, Miss Kate
Victor, Mr. G.
Virginia, Miss
Volpe, Mr. Fred
Von-etta, Mdlle.
Walonell, Mr. Jack
Walls, Mr. Tom
Walpole, Mr. E.
"Wee Mona"
Wheatcroft, Mr. Frank
Wheeler, Miss Lilian
Wildman, Mr. Arthur
Wilson, Mr. C.
Wilton, Mr. G. W.
Willett, Miss M.
"Winona"
Wontner, Mr. Arthur
Zanella, Mr. Chas.
Zoes, Mr. J. L

MR. EDITOR,—Sir,—In your notice of Bootle of Jan. 6, 1905, it is stated that "the pantomime Babes in the Wood is presented by Mr. Gus Levaine. This is not so, as the pantomime is presented by Miss Ethel Clayton, who plays the part of Maid Marion.—Yours faithfully, C. E. BONNER, manager, Muncaster Theatre, Bootle.

BUREAU DE CHANGE

SPECIALLY RECOMMENDED. HANDS and CO., 16, STRAND, CHARING-CROSS RAILWAY STATION, LONDON, W.C.

"I'll swear upon that bottle."—TEMPEST, Act ii., Scene ii.

WHITBREAD'S BOTTLED BEERS

maintain their popularity because they are brought into condition by

MATURING IN BOTTLE,

the Natural method,

without the aid of carbonating or other artificial process.

The largest Beer Bottlers in the World.

APPLY TO CHIEF OFFICES,

BRITANNIA ST., KING'S CROSS, LONDON, W.C.

(Telephone No. 366 North. Telegraphic Address, "Beerseller, London.")

FOR NAME OF NEAREST AGENT.

"THE MAGICIAN."
A Monthly Journal Devoted to Magic, Spiritualism, Hypnotism, &c. Edited by WILL GOLDSTON.
4s. 6d. per Year, post-free. Single Copies, 4½d.
Everything New in Conjuring Illustrated and Described.
Publishers,
A. W. GAMAGE, Ltd., Holborn, London, E.C.
New Conjuring Catalogue sent post-free.

OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA
(ESTABLISHED 1821)
Is the Best Remedy for PRESERVING, STRENGTHENING, BEAUTIFYING and RESTORING the HAIR, WHISKERS, or MOUSTACHES, and PREVENTING THEM TURNING GREY.
The first application stops the hair from falling off, makes the scalp clear and clean, and causes the hair to assume a beautiful wavy appearance. For Children it is invaluable, as it forms the basis of a magnificent head of hair. It is not a dye.
Price 3s. 6d., 6s., and 11s. per bottle, of all Chemists and Drug Stores
22, WELLINGTON STREET, STRAND, LONDON.

To Asthma SUFFERERS
Instant relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup and Whooping Cough by the use of POTTER'S ASTHMA CURE, in 1/- Tins. Sold everywhere. For FREE SAMPLE send Post Card to POTTER & CLARKE, Artillery Lane, London, E. Mention paper.

Instant relief

DINNEFORD'S MAGNESIA.
The Best Remedy for Acidity of the Stomach, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and Indigestion.
A Safe and most effective Aperient for regular use.

MARTELL'S THREE STAR BRANDY
The most popular in England.

ROWLAND'S MACASSAR OIL
FOR THE HAIR.
Preserves, Nourishes, and Beautifies it. Provides the necessary nourishment for it without which the hair becomes dry, thin, and withered.
GOLDEN COLOUR FOR FAIR HAIR.
3/6, 7/-, 10/6, of Stores & Chemists

EVANS' ANTISEPTIC THROAT PASTILLES
Highly recommended by Leading Actors and Vocalists for preventing Soreness and Irritation incident to prolonged vocal exercise. Sold in 1/- and 4/6 boxes by all Chemists. Write for Free Sample, mentioning this paper, to Sole Manufacturers, EVANS SONS LESCHER & WEBB LTD. LIVERPOOL.

REAL HAMBURG GROUND
KROPP RAZOR
Always Ready for Use.
English Manufacture

WARRANTED PERFECT

NEVER REQUIRES GRINDING.

Black Handle	5s. 6d.	Pair Ivory Handles in Russia Leather Case	21s. 0d.
Ivory Handle	7s. 6d.
Kropp Duplex Strop	7s. 6d.	Kropp Strop Paste	6d.

Wholesale:
OSBORNE, GARRETT, AND CO., LONDON, W.

BIRKBECK BANK.
ESTABLISHED 1851.
CURRENT ACCOUNTS.—TWO PER CENT. Interest allowed on Minimum Monthly Balances when not drawn below £100.
DEPOSITS.—TWO-AND-A-HALF PER CENT. Interest allowed on Deposit Accounts.
ADVANCES MADE. STOCKS AND SHARES Bought and Sold.
Apply, C. F. RAVENSCROFT, Secretary, Southampton-buildings, HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

BEDFORD PANTECHNICON,
17, PERCY STREET, TOTTENHAM COURT-ROAD, LONDON, W.
FURNITURE, SCENERY, MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS and PROFESSIONAL WARDROBES
Carefully Packed for Removal and Warehoused
Estimates free.

THE MISTAKE MADE IN FURNISHING
is in having no settled plan, no fixed idea of exactly what will be required, down to the minutest detail in every room, and the exact cost. If you would furnish in STYLE, and yet with ECONOMY, you should secure the HACKNEY FURNISHING CO'S
GUIDE AND CATALOGUE,
an illustrated volume that has helped thousands, together with Prospectus of our famed "MODEL" SYSTEM, testimonials, &c.
POST FREE.

CAUTION.—Please note HACKNEY FURNISHING CO., LTD., Painted over the Premises before entering. We are compelled to notify this.

HACKNEY Furnishing Co., Ltd.
CASH BARGAINS OR EASY TERMS.

GENERAL TERMS. Worth.	Per Month.	Special Facilities for Members of the
£10	£0 6 0	Dramatic and Music Hall
20	0 11 0	Professions.
30	0 17 0
40	1 5 0	10 per cent. Discount for
50	1 8 0	Cash.
100	2 5 0
200	4 10 0	Carpets, &c., laid free.
500	11 5 0
and pro rata.		No Deposit Required.

TOWN HALL BUILDINGS, MARE STREET, HACKNEY, N.E.,
AND THE GROVE, ADJOINING.
Hours, 9 till 9; Thursdays close 4. Telegrams: "Furniments, London." Tele.: 84 Dalston and 854 North Country orders packed free and carriage paid
OPEN SATURDAYS until a LATE HOUR.

DELICIOUS COFFEE,
RED WHITE & BLUE
For Breakfast & after Dinner.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES.
For Sustaining the Voice.
Invaluable for ACTORS and SINGERS.
Indispensable for PUBLIC SPEAKERS.
GENTLEMEN,—For sudden affections of the Bronchial Organs I use and most cheerfully recommend "Brown's Troches." They are regarded as most eligible, convenient and indispensable by numerous artists of my acquaintance, BOTH IN EUROPE AND AMERICA. They seem to act specially on the organs of the voice, and produce a clear enunciation.—Yours truly (Signed), MARIE ROZE MAPLESON.
SOLD EVERYWHERE AT 1/1½ PER BOX.

READY MONDAY, JANUARY 15.
THIRTY-NINTH YEAR OF PUBLICATION.
Price, ONE SHILLING; by Post, TWELVE STAMPS.
1906—THE ERA ANNUAL—1906
The Most Complete DRAMATIC DICTIONARY OF DATES and THEATRICAL TREASURY OF KNOWLEDGE ever brought before the Public.
It will also be found to be the most Interesting Annual of the Year.
Office, 5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, STRAND, W.C.

STAGE SUPERSTITIONS.
By CHARLES WARNER.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

"BOY BOB" AT SEA.
By LOUIE FREEAR.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

"THERE'S MANY A SLIP."
By FRANK CURZON.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

NELLIE BLIGH'S NOTICES.
By FRANK DESPREZ.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

THE GROWTH OF LOVE.
By TOM CRAVEN.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

THE VAGRANT,
By WILLIAM DEVEREUX.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

THE WRONG SEX.
By AUSTIN MELFORD.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

THE STAGE-STRUCK SAUSAGE-MAKER.
By MARK A. KINGHORNE.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

MY FIRST NOTICE.
By CHARLES ROCK.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

THE VALUE OF VIRTUE.
By E. W. GARDEN.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

LONDON THEATRES.

DRURY LANE THEATRE ROYAL.
Managing Director, Arthur Collins.
TWICE DAILY, at 1.30 and 7.30,
The Children's Pantomime.

CINDERELLA,
the Real Catch of the Christmas Season,
By Sir F. C. Burnand, J. Hickory Wood, and Arthur Collins. Music by J. M. Glover.
Walter Passmore, Harry Randall, Harry Fragson, Arthur Williams, Johnnie Danvers, Arthur Conquest; Queenie Leighton, May de Sousa, Emily Spiller, Pollie Emery, Daisy Cordell, &c.

HIS MAJESTY'S. MR. TREE.
MONDAY, TUESDAY, and WEDNESDAY, at 8.
Charles Dickens's
"OLIVER TWIST."
Dramatised by J. Comyns Carr.
Fagin ..... Mr. TREE.
Bill Sikes ..... Mr. LYN HARDING.
Nancy ..... Miss CONSTANCE COLLIER.
ONLY MATINEE WEDNESDAY, Jan. 17, at 2.15.

THURSDAY, FRIDAY, and SATURDAY, Jan. 18, 19, and 20, at 8,
IBSEN'S GREAT POLITICAL PLAY,
"AN ENEMY OF THE PEOPLE."
Dr. Stockmann ..... Mr. TREE.
Followed by Rudyard Kipling's "THE MAN WHO WAS." Dramatised by F. Kinsey Peile.
Austin Limmason ..... Mr. TREE.
Box Office (Mr. Watts) 10 to 10.

GAIETY THEATRE.
Manager, Mr. GEORGE EDWARDES.
Every Evening at 8
(Doors open 7.40).
A New Musical Play,
entitled
THE SPRING CHICKEN.
Box Office open from 10.0 till 10.0.

GAIETY.
"TWO NAUGHTY BOYS,"
Every Afternoon, at 2.15,
Doors open 2.0.
A Musical Fairy Play,
entitled,
"TWO NAUGHTY BOYS."
The Most Successful Children's Play in London.

GARRICK.—MR. ARTHUR BOURCHIER as Shylock.
MISS VIOLET VANBRUGH as Portia.
Every Evening at 8,
in Shakespeare's Play,
THE MERCHANT OF VENICE.
Matinée Every Wednesday and Saturday at 2.

DALY'S THEATRE.
Produced by
MR. GEORGE EDWARDES.
Every Evening, at 8.30.
Matinée Every Saturday, at 2.30.
THE LITTLE MICHUS.
THE LITTLE MICHUS.
THE LITTLE MICHUS.
THE LITTLE MICHUS.
THE LITTLE MICHUS.
THE LITTLE MICHUS.

DUKE OF YORK'S THEATRE.
Sole Lessee and Manager, Charles Frohman.
Twice Daily at 2 and 8 o'clock.
Charles Frohman presents
"PETER PAN;
Or, The Boy Who Wouldn't Grow Up,"
by
J. M. Barrie.
Box Office daily 10 to 10.

APOLLO THEATRE.
HENRY LOWENFELD, Sole Proprietor.
TOM B. DAVIS, Sole Lessee and Manager.
Every Evening at 8.15, and Matinée every Saturday, at 2.15.
MR. POPPLE
(of Ippleton).
A Comedy with Music, written and Composed by Paul Rubens.
Mr. G. P. Huntley. Miss Ethel Irving
Mr. Rubens' representative, Mr. Arthur Whittaker.

COMEDY THEATRE.
Sole Lessee, Mr. ARTHUR CHUDLEIGH.
Under the management of Mr. ARTHUR CHUDLEIGH.
Every Evening, at 9, CHARLES FROHMAN presents "THE MOUNTAIN CLIMBER," by Cosmo Hamilton. Preceded at 8.30 by "THE LITTLE FATHER OF THE WILDERNESS." Matinée Every Wednesday and Saturday, at 2.30.

WALDORF THEATRE.
LIGHTS OUT.
Lessees, THE MESSRS. SHUBERT.
Every Evening, at 9. LIGHTS OUT.
H. V. ESMOND, CHARLES FULTON, LESLIE FABER, W. T. LOVELL, Miss EVA MOORE.
"LIGHTS OUT."
"The dramatic success of the season."
"LIGHTS OUT."
"The dramatic success of the season."
Preceded, at 8.30, by LA MAIN, a Mimodrame in One Act.
Miss Camilla Dalberg.

WALDORF THEATRE.
NOAH'S ARK.
To-day and Every Afternoon, at 2.30, an Original Fairy Play, entitled NOAH'S ARK.
NOAH'S ARK. MISS MADGE LESSING.
MISS MADGE LESSING.
MR. HARRY PAULTON.
MISS MADGE LESSING. NOAH'S ARK.
Box Office now Open, 10 to 10. Tel., 3830, Gerrard.

NEW ROYALTY THEATRE, Dean-street, Shaftesbury-avenue. THEATRE FRANCAIS. Director, Mr. GASTON MAYER. On MONDAY NEXT, Jan. 15, first appearance of Monsieur DE FERAUDY, Sociétaire de la Comédie Française, supported by Mdlle MARIE LECONTE, Sociétaire de la Comédie Française, Madame LARA, Sociétaire de la Comédie Française, and distinguished company. Monday and Tuesday, LE PAON, by Francis de Croisset (Marivaudage du XVIIIe. siècle égaré dans le XXe.). Wednesday and Thursday, CABOTINS, by E. Pailleron. Jan. 19, 20, LES AFFAIRES SONT LES AFFAIRES ("Business is Business"), by Octave Mirbeau. Jan. 22, LE BARBIER DE SEVILLE, by Beaumarchais; and LE CŒUR A SES RAISONS, by MM. de Flers and de Caillavet. Jan. 23, LES AFFAIRES SONT LES AFFAIRES. Jan. 24, BRICHANTEAU, dramatised by M. de Féraudy from Jules Claretie's novel. MATINEE, Jan. 20, LES AFFAIRES SONT LES AFFAIRES. Box-office open daily 10 to 10. Telephone, 3855 Gerrard

GREAT QUEEN STREET THEATRE.
GERMAN PLAYS.
HANS ANDRESEN.
Every Evening at 8.15, until Thursday, Jan. 18, and Matinée, to-day (Saturday), at 2.30.
"ALMA MATER," by Victor Stephany.
A Play of German Students' Life as "Alt Heidelberg."
Friday, Jan. 19, and Every Evening at 8.15,
"LISELOTT," by Heinrich Stobitzer.

KING'S THEATRE, W.
Telephone, 119 Hammersmith. Owner and Resident-Manager, J. B. MULHOLLAND.
Nightly, at 7.30, the Fourth King's Pantomime,
DICK WHITTINGTON.
Matinées, Mon., Wed., Thurs., and Sat., at 2. Children Half-Price. Usual prices: Stalls, 5s., 4s.; Circles, 4s., 3s.; Pit Stalls, 2s. 6d.; Pit, 1s.; Gallery, 6d. Book at Theatre. Box Office, 10 to 10, or Libraries.
All Communications, address, J. B. MULHOLLAND.

ROYAL WEST LONDON THEATRE.
CHURCH-STREET, EDGWARE-ROAD, W.
Every Evening at 7.30,
The Last Week of the Successful Pantomime,
LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD,
Matinées Monday and Thursday, at 2 o'clock.
Jan. 22. "THE SILVER KING."
Telephone, 2247, Mayfair.

LONDON THEATRES.

BRIXTON THEATRE, S.W.
Lessee and Manager, Mr. ERNEST STEVENS.
General-Manager, J. MURRAY HERRIOT.
The Fairy, Operatic, Spectacular, and Humorous Pantomime,
"CINDERELLA."
A Colossal Success.
Press and Public Verdict: "An Ideal Pantomime for Mirth, Music, and Magnificence."
Nightly at 7.30. Matinées Monday, Wednesday, and Saturday, at 2 o'clock.

MARLBOROUGH THEATRE, HOLLOWAY, N.
MARLBOROUGH. The Third Marlborough
MARLBOROUGH. Pantomime.
MARLBOROUGH. THE FORTY THIEVES,
MARLBOROUGH. Nightly at 7.30. Matinées
MARLBOROUGH. every Monday, Wednesday,
MARLBOROUGH. Thursday, and Saturday, un-
MARLBOROUGH. til further notice. Telephone
MARLBOROUGH. 131 North.
All communications to Mr. F. W. PURCELL.

WOOLWICH.—GRAND THEATRE.
The Premier Theatre of S.E. London.
Proprietor & Manager, Mr. CLARENCE SOUNES.
Every Evening, at 7.15. Matinées Thursday and Saturday, at 2. Mr. Clarence Sounes' Sixth Grand Christmas Pantomime,
THE FORTY THIEVES.
Telephone, 69 Woolwich. Offices, 85 Woolwich.
Vacant April 30 and May 14, onwards, for Big First-class No. 1 Attractions only.
Address, SOUNES, Woodlawn, Blackheath, London.

POPLAR. NEW PRINCE'S THEATRE.
The Premier Theatre of East London.
Proprietor & Manager, Mr. CLARENCE SOUNES.
This New and Handsome Theatre now open with Grand Pantomime, BEAUTY AND THE BEAST.
Enormous Success. Every Evening, at 7.15.
Matinées, Wednesday and Saturday, at 2.
Wanted, First Class No. 1 Attractions only, for May 7, 28, onwards (with exceptions).
Address, SOUNES, Woodlawn, Blackheath, London.

ALEXANDRA THEATRE,
STOKE NEWINGTON, N.—Enormous Success of the Grand Christmas Children's Fairy Pantomime, of Oriental magnificence, ALI BABA AND THE FORTY THIEVES.
'Phone 85 Dalston. All communications to H. G. DUDLEY BENNETT, Managing-Director.

SHAKESPEARE THEATRE, S.W.
Success! Success! Success!
The tenth Annual Children's Xmas Fairy Panto.,
"THE FORTY THIEVES,"
including the entire grand International Ballet,
"L'Entente Cordiale,"
from the Alhambra Theatre.
Manager, H. G. DUDLEY BENNETT.

ELEPHANT AND CASTLE THEATRE.
Nightly at 7.30.
Grand Pantomime,
ROBINSON CRUSOE.
Supported by the Best Company in South London.
Matinees Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday, at 2 o'clock. Popular prices.

ROYAL COUNTY THEATRE,
KINGSTON-ON-THAMES.
Managing Director, Mr. PETER DAVEY.
Nightly at 7.45, Ninth Annual Panto.,
SINBAD THE SAILOR.
Matinées, Mondays, Wednesdays, and Saturdays, Tel., "Theatre, Kingston." 'Phone, 58, Kingston.

LONDON MUSIC HALLS.

ALHAMBRA.
SUPERLATIVE PROGRAMME.
New Grand Ballet,
PARISIANA,
MDLLE. JANE MAY.
Varieties by Vanola, Miss Fatmah Diard, Clown Pascal, ROSINA CASELLI'S DOGS, MISS LALLA DUNNINGARTO, Julius Thorn, URBANORA, "A Trip to New Zealand," "Sultan of Morocco and His Army," MY LADY NICOTINE Ballet.
Manager, Mr. GEORGE SCOTT.

EMPIRE.—Every Evening at 8.15. and Saturdays at 2.30.
The Grand Spectacular Ballet, CINDERELLA.
Mdlle. ADELINE GENEE as CINDERELLA.
ROGUES AND VAGABONDS (A Revue).
Ritchie Barber Trio, Raffin's Monkeys, Tacianu, Gaudschmidts and his dog, &c., &c.
Manager, Mr. H. J. HITCHINS.

PALACE.
Mas Andres, De Dio, "Moonshine," Flying Eugenes, Lennie and Hast, Haig and Novel, &c., &c., and a New Series of Bioscope Pictures.
Every Evening at 8.0 (doors 7.45).
Special Priced Matinée Saturdays, at 2,
Full Evening Programme.
Manager, Mr. ALFRED BUTT.

MIDDLESEX, DRURY LANE, W.C.
Proprietor and Manager, Mr. J. L. GRAYDON.—The Last Six Nights of Fred Karno's Comedians in "Mumming Birds," Tray and Rich, Dora Martini, Tom E. Hughes, Marie Stoll, Ernest Montefiore and company in "The Little Colonel," Rean and Relfut, Harry Desmond, Dorothy Beld, the New Bioscope, Syd May, Meier and Mora, Alf. Cawthorne, Fred Walker, James Holden's Original Life-like Marionettes. Commence 7.15. Saturdays one hour earlier. Popular Prices.

ROYAL STANDARD MUSIC HALL
(facing Victoria Station). Proprietor and Manager, Mr. T. S. DICKIE. One House nightly. Half-time 9.30 (except Sat. and Holidays). Mon., Jan. 15, Dinah Morris and Co., J. W. Rickaby, Nell Gwynne, The McKays, The Lorrisons, Celeste, Sleath and Aldene in "Dashing Duval," Rhoda Dendron, Two Bennetts, Jack Mansfield, Marie Strabor, Will Powell, F. A. Crisp, Edisonograph, Rehearsal, Monday, 1 o'clock. Doors open 7.30 (Sat. 7). Commence 7.40 (Sat. 7.15, with augmented programme). Tele., 503 Westminster. Assist-Man., M. Volny.

HAMMERSMITH PALACE.
Proprietor, J. C. COE.
Monday, Jan. 15, 1906:—Will Evans, Frank Sylvo, Wal Robbins, George Davis and Co. in "Jack's Uncle," L. B. Athol, Carlo and Maie, Jock Whiteford, Carson Hicks, Lilian Rigby, the Great Four Herberts, Ellis and Watts, the Edisonograph, Tom Bass, Maud Yaeger, Ida Millais, Henry Herne and Co. in "No Man's Land." Tel., 106 Hammersmith. Manager, Lewis Vincent.

NEW BEDFORD PALACE OF VARIETIES (Ltd.), CAMDEN-TOWN, N.W.
Mr. A. F. LOVESEY, Manager.
Twice Nightly, at 6.10 and 9.10.
Looping the Loop, Lottie Siegenberg, Andy Burns, Maudie Forde, Kisbey, Adey Spencer, Lord Murray, and Lord, The Sivronis, Street Singers, Fred Moule and Co., in "The Battle of the Belles," Ruffell's Imperial Bioscope.
All Artists are notified that they must send their full bill matter in two clear weeks before opening. Rehearsal, 1.0 o'clock, Mondays. All Artists engaged must attend. Artists not complying with the above rules are subject to having their contracts cancelled at the option of the Management.

ROYAL ALBERT MUSIC HALL,
Victoria Dock-road (Opposite Canning Town Railway Station). Proprietor and Manager, Mr. CHARLES RELF, sen.; Chairman, Mr. Walter Leaver; Musical-Director, Mr. R. A. Howell. One Performance nightly. Monday, Jan. 15, Brien McCullough and Co., The Katos, The Maynards, Flo. Penley, Sid Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. George English, Walter Payne's Bio-Photoscope, J. C. Manley, Ivy Lelands, George Mayes, Dante, Bentley, and Elton. Boxes (each Person), 1/6. Fauteuils, 1/-, Stalls. 9d., Circle, 6d., Gallery, 3d.

TO OUR READERS.—
A SINGLE COPY OF "THE ERA"
Post-free to any Address in the United Kingdom for SIX STAMPS.
Telegraphic Address, "The Era, London."
Address, THE PUBLISHER,
"The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-st., Strand, W.C.

LONDON HIPPODROME.
Twice Daily, at 2 and 8 p.m.
"Among the Stars," "Fishing Cormorants," Annette Kellermann, Leonard Gautier, the Uessems, Tschernoff's Dogs, Bioscope, Sisters Urma, Delbosq Bros., Cole de Losse Duo, Lukushima Troupe, Lavater Lee, Tom Belling, Rinaldos, Mezzettis, "A-bo-kou," the Novellos, the Auroras, the Hardinis, Alice Lorette, Miss Marquerite Doris, &c.

MASKELYNE and DEVANT'S MYSTERIES (late Maskelyne and Cooke's), St. George's Hall, Langham-place, W. Daily, at 3 and 8. "Mascot Moth" (new version, including Indian Mango Trick); M. C. Tamamoto, the Japanese Blondin; Nelson Hardy, Ventriloquist; Enchanted Hive; and "Joey," the Clown; New Problems; Burmese Gong, &c. Reserved Seats, 2s. to 5s.; Balcony, 1s. Children under 12 half-price. 'Phone 1545, Mayfair. Telegrams, "Maskelyne, London."

WORLD'S FAIR,
ROYAL AGRICULTURAL HALL, ISLINGTON.
Open daily at 1 o'clock till Feb. 10.
Gigantic Programme of Popular Amusements, Circus, Managerie, Aerial Shows, and other Great Attractions.
Admission, SIXPENCE.

WORLD'S FAIR, ROYAL AGRICULTURAL HALL, ISLINGTON.
The SHOWMEN'S TWELFTH ANNUAL SUPPER and BALL will take place as above, on WED., Jan. 24, 1906. Chairman, T. Read, Esq.; Hon. Treasurer, Mr. Metcalfe, Star and Garter; Hon. Secretary, Mr. C. Day. Tickets admitting to Supper and Ball, 4s. each. Can be obtained of the above, or any member of the Committee. Supper, 11.45.
Success to the World's Fair.

FUNDS, &c.

ROYAL GENERAL THEATRICAL FUND.
FOR MEMBERS BECOMING INCAPACITATED EITHER BY OLD AGE OR INFIRMITY.
Hon. Treasurer, EDWARD TERRY, Esq.
CHARLES J. DAVIES, Secretary, Savoy House, Strand.

ACTORS' ASSOCIATION
(Incorporated under the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1900), 10, King-street, Covent Garden, London, W.C. Annual Subscription, 15s.; entrance fee 5s.
NOTICE.
Members having been struck off for non-payment of subscription may be reinstated on the FIRST OCCASION by payment of subscription for the year in which they were struck off and the current year's subscription. Members having been struck off for non-payment of subscription may be reinstated on the SECOND OCCASION by payment of subscription for the year in which they were struck off, plus a 7s. 6d. reinstatement fee and the current year's subscription.
A Scheme of Insurance will be adopted in 1906 by which every Member, whose subscription for the year is paid, will be covered under certain conditions, particulars of which can be obtained upon application to
CHARLES CRUIKSHANKS, Sec. Telephone, No. 1753 Gerrard. Telegraphic address, "Actoris, London."

MUSIC HALL BENEVOLENT FUND.
Established 1888. Offices, 18, ADAM-ST., STRAND, W.C. Hon. President, Sir JOSEPH RENALS, Bart.
President, J. L. GRAYDON, Esq.; Trustees, G. ADNEY PAYNE, Esq., and R. WARNER, Esq. Treasurer, J. L. GRAYDON, Esq. Secretary, HORACE MARRIOTT.
Committee:—Chairman, Frank Weeks, Esq.; Vice-Chairman, H. G. Hibbert, Esq.; Frank Allen, Angelo A. Asher, Hugh Astley; Chas. Beecham, C. Berte, E. Brown, James Chappell, C. Chapman, D. J. Clarke, W. Clarkson, F. Coyne, J. W. Cragg, J. Dunedin, H. M. Edmunds, Joe Elvin, James Fortune, Harry De Frece, Walter De Frece, Jack De Frece, Edgar Granville, Edward Granville, Fred Griffiths, H. Griff, Henri Gros, C. E. Howell, A. Hubner, W. F. Hurndall, S. M. Hyman, John Lawson, John Leopold, L. C. J. Livermore, Joe Lyons Alan Macey, Fred McAvoy, Harry Masters, A. W. Matcham, Fred Miller, T. M. M'Naughton, D. Monro, G. W. Moore, Sir E. H. Moss, George Mozart, Joe O'Gorman, Will Oliver, C. Blyth-Pratt, Harry Randall, Phil Ray, George Robey, Fred Russell, J. D. Stuart, J. Selbini, Tom Shaw, Jack Somers, Walter Stockwell, Paul Valentine, E. Warner, B. Williams, Captain. E. H. Warren Wright.
The Relief Committee Meets every Thursday, at 2 o'clock.

MUSIC HALL SICK FUND,
Founded 1867. Postal address, 1, YORK-RD., LONDON, S.E. Committee Meetings Second Wednesday in Month at 2 p.m. Sick Payments, £1, for 6d. per week; £1 10s., for 9d. per week. £10 paid to nearest Relative on death of Member. President, Mr. PAT CAREY; Hon. Treasurer, Mr. FRANK HEATH; Secretary, R. T. BAINES.

ACADEMIES and SCHOOLS.

ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC,
TENTERDEN-STREET, W.
Instituted 1822. Incorporated by Royal Charter, 1830.
The Academy offers to Pupils of both sexes an opportunity of receiving a thorough education in Music in all its Branches, the Drama, and Dramatic Elocution under the most eminent Professors.
For terms and all other information apply to
F. W. RENAUT, Secretary.

THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF MUSIC
(Incorporated by Royal Charter, 1883).
PRINCE CONSORT-RD., S. KENSINGTON, S.W.
Patron, HIS MAJESTY THE KING.
President, H.R.H. the PRINCE OF WALES, K.G.
Director, Sir C. HUBERT H. PARRY, Bart., C.V.O., D.C.L., M.A., Mus. Doc.
Hon. Sec., CHARLES MORLEY, Esq., M.P.
Next term commences on Jan. 8, 1906.
The Examination for Associateship (A.R.C.M.) will take place in April.
Syllabus and Official Entry Forms may be obtained from FRANK POWNALL, Registrar.

GUILDHALL SCHOOL OF MUSIC.
The only School in London for
OPERATIC and THEATRICAL TRAINING which possesses a completely equipped Theatre.
Public Performances periodically given.
Stagecraft, Elocution, Fencing, Gesture, and Deportment Taught by Eminent Professors.
New Pupils can enter at any time.
FEES MODERATE.
Prospectus on application to H. SAXE WYNDHAM, Victoria-embankment, E.C., Secretary.

APOLOGY.
I, ELIZABETH COCHRANE, of Fernholme, Streatham-road, Mitcham, in the county of Surrey, hereby apologise to Miss GRACIE VICAT for sending to her several postcards and letters containing libellous statements about her, and making charges which were utterly untrue and unfounded, and I hereby express my sincere regret to her for acting in the way I did, and I express my thanks to her for consenting to accept this apology, and for not taking legal proceedings, which she would have been justified in doing.
Dated Jan. 12, 1906.
(Signed) ELIZABETH COCHRANE,
Witness, CHARLES CRUIKSHANKS,
Secretary,
Actors' Association,
10, King-street, Covent Garden.

THEATRES AND MUSIC HALLS
IN THE UNITED KINGDOM.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

THEATRICAL, MUSICAL, AND EQUESTRIAN OBITUARY FOR 1905.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

DRAMATIC and MUSICAL CALENDAR.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

COLONIAL THEATRES.

AUSTRALIA.—
MELBOURNE, SYDNEY.
Mr. J. C. WILLIAMSON,
Manager of the Leading Australian Theatres.
HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE, MELBOURNE;
HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE, SYDNEY;
THEATRE ROYAL, SYDNEY.
London Representative.
J. A. E. MALONE, Daly's Theatre.

SOUTH AFRICA.—
Messrs. B. and F. WHEELER
(Mr. F. Wheeler and Mr. G. H. Smith)
now control the
ONLY CIRCUIT OF THEATRES
in
SOUTH AFRICA.
Proprietors and Lessees of
OPERA HOUSE, CAPETOWN,
HIS MAJESTY'S THEATRE, JOHANNESBURG,
WHEELER'S OPERA HOUSE, PRETORIA.
THEATRE ROYAL, DURBAN,
GOOD HOPE HALL, CAPETOWN.
Companies Now Touring:
George Edwardes' Gaiety Company.
Wheeler-Edwardes' No. 2 Musical Company,
William Haviland and Co.
R. G. Knowles' Tour.
Mrs. Langtry and Company.
The D'Oyly Carte Principal Repértoire Co. sailed s.s German, Dec. 2.
London Representative,
J. A. E. MALONE, Daly's Theatre.

AFRICA.—
LEONARD RAYNE.
Business-Manager in South Africa.
GRANT FALLOWES.
London Representative,
GEORGE RAYNE.
Portugal House, Portugal-street, W.C.

PROVINCIAL THEATRES.

ALDERSHOT.—THEATRE ROYAL.
Lessee and Manager, Mr. CLARENCE SOUNES.
Vacant April 2, 9, 16, and May 7, onwards. Rapidly Booking Autumn. SOUNES, Woodlawn, Blackheath, S.E. Telephone, 85, Woolwich.

BATLEY. — THEATRE ROYAL.
Under the Personal supervision of the Proprietors, MR. AND MRS. J. EDWARD WHITTY.
Within Two Miles of the Theatre there is a compact Population of 90,000 persons. The Theatre is at the Terminus of the Electric Cars.
Stage Capable of Mounting any Production. Holding Capacity, 2,200. Actual money taken at Ordinary Prices, £105 17s. 0d. in one day.
Address, J. EDWARD WHITTY, T. R., BATLEY.

BIRKENHEAD. — NEW THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Lessee and Manager, Mr. W. W. KELLY.—Phenomenal Success of this Beautiful New Theatre. Crowded Houses Nightly. Refer to Mr. Charles Manners (Moody-Manners Opera Co.), Mr. C. E. Hamilton ("Peggy Machree" and "Leah Kleschna"), Mr. J. Bannister Howard ("Eternal City"), and Mr. Walter Melville ("Girl's Cross Roads").
First Vacant Date, May 7, 1906.
The Only Dramatic House now Open Here.
Bookings and Pencillings Already Secured include the following High-class Attractions:—
"Earl and the Girl," "Chinese Honeymoon," "Geisha," "Cingalee," "Freedom of Suzanne," "Peggy Machree," "La Poupée," "San Toy," "Brown at Brighton," Moody-Manners Opera Co., "My Lady Molly," "Lucky Durham," "Florodora," "Greek Slave," "Silver King," "Mice and Men," "Sapho," "The Gayest of the Gay," "Country Girl," "Eternal City," "Swiss Express," F. R. Benson's Company, "The Breed of the Treshams," "Darling of the Gods," "Doctor Wake's Patient," "The Golden Girl," "Sunday," "Fatal Wedding," "Lady Slavey," "Kitty Grey," "Sherlock Holmes," "Amorelle," "Cousin Kate," Edith Cole in New Play, "Leah Kleschna," "Belle of New York," "Sign of the Cross," "The Christian," "The Garden of Lies," "A Royal Divorce," "Sergeant Brue," and all the enormously successful dramas now being toured by Messrs. Walter Melville, Frederick Melville, Dottridge and Longden, Carson and Granville, Paumier and Howard, J. F. Elliston, and E. Hill-Mitchelson.
Managers Desiring Dates at this Money-making Theatre, please address,
W. W. KELLY, 8, Hamilton-square, Birkenhead.
Telegraphic Address, "Hustler, Birkenhead."

BIRMINGHAM.—GRAND THEATRE.
Largest and most Comfortable Theatre in the Provinces.
Proprietor, J. W. TURNER. Gen-Man., V. TURNER.
Now Booking, 1906.

BOSCOMBE (Bournemouth).— Correspondent required to supply Theatre and Music-hall Reports weekly. Address, DRAMATICUS, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, London, W.C.

BLACKPOOL. — GRAND THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.
Owner and Manager, Mr. T. SERGENSON.
The Press says:—The Grand is the prettiest theatre in the world.
Everybody is charmed with this magnificent temple of the drama.
Mr. H. Beerbohm Tree says:—There is no theatre in either London or the provinces better appointed or better arranged.
Mr. H. Beerbohm Tree says: It is the most perfect theatre in England.
Mr. Wilson Barrett said it was the most perfect theatre he ever performed in.
Congratulations and Compliments on every hand from both Public and Professions.
Every Comfort and Convenience provided for the Patrons of this Lovely Theatre.
Each portion of the Theatre is provided with separate Refreshment Rooms.
The Theatre is thoroughly warmed and ventilated on the most Modern Principle.
Electric Light, own Installation.
Matcham's Masterpiece is a Model Theatre.
Financial and Artistic Success.
Acknowledged by Everyone to be "the" Theatre. Second to None in the Kingdom.
Every Comfort and Convenience for the Artists.
The most Comfortable and Perfect Dressing-rooms of any Theatre in England.
Only First-Class Companies. Holds at Ordinary Prices over £300. Open all the Year Round.
Holds at the same Prices £100 more than any Theatre in the Town.

BLACKPOOL.
HER MAJESTY'S OPERA HOUSE,
WINTER GARDENS.
The PRINCIPAL THEATRE.
Holds MORE MONEY at ORDINARY PRICES, and has better average business throughout the Year than any Theatre in the Town.
The most Comfortable, Elegant, and Best Equipped Theatre. Large and Well Electric Lighted Stage and First-Class Orchestra.
All Visitors to the Theatre have Free Admission to the Winter Gardens. Floral Hall, Empress Ballroom, and Pavilion Entertainments, thus Companies visiting Her Majesty's Opera House have this additional attraction, which no other Theatre can offer. Only best No. 1 Companies booked.
For Dates, address, JNO. R. HUDDLESTONE, Manager, Winter Gardens, Blackpool.

CAMBRIDGE.—NEW THEATRE (Ltd.)
Man. Director, Mr. W. B. REDFERN, J.P., D.L.
A theatre among the most beautiful in England. —Sunday Times. Vacant date March 1st, and onwards, with exceptions
Silence a polite negative.

CARDIFF. — KING'S THEATRE.
Sole Lessee and Manager, FRANK BATEMAN.
Vacant Dates. Easter (Certainty), April 23, and on.
All must be new to Cardiff.
Address as above

PROVINCIAL THEATRES.

COLCHESTER.—THEATRE ROYAL
Sole Proprietor, Mr. CHAS. MACDONA.
Vacant dates, Feb. 26, March 5, 19, April 30, Whit Week, and onward.
All communications to CHAS. MACDONA, 17, Shaftesbury-avenue, W.

CREWE.—Correspondent Required to supply Theatre and Music Hall Reports weekly. Address, Dramaticus, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

CREWKERNE, SOMERSET,
The new VICTORIA HALL, licensed, seat 450, 2 ante-rooms, stage 29ft. by 20ft. 9in., population about 5,000, district another 5,000.
For terms, apply the SECRETARY, Crewkerne Fair and Markets Co., Ltd.

DUBLIN. — GAIETY THEATRE.
All Communications regarding dates for above, after May 1, 1905, to be addressed to MRS. MICHAEL GUNN.

DUBLIN, QUEEN'S ROYAL THEATRE
Sole Proprietor and Patentee, Mr. ELLIS JONES.
Lessee and Manager, Mr. J. W. WHITEHEAD.
Jan. 11, 18, July 2 and 9, vacant.
Address, J. W. WHITEHEAD.
Silence in all cases a respectful negative.

ELSWICK. — QUEEN'S THEATRE.
For Sale,
or to Let.
Apply, W. GARDNER,
Elswick Theatre, Newcastle.

GATESHEAD. — KING'S NEW THEATRE.
Phenomenal success of the reduced prices, and the King's First Pantomime, "ALADDIN," produced by J. Bannister Howard.
Big Musical Attractions Wanted
For Feb. 19 and April 9.
Only vacant Spring dates.
F. R. YEULETT, General Manager,
Telegrams, "Yeulett, Gateshead."

GILLINGHAM (Kent).—Correspondent Required to Supply Music Hall Reports Weekly. Address, DRAMATICUS, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, London, W.

GRIMSBY.—PRINCE OF WALES'S THEATRE, LTD.
Established 1884.
Chairman, H. J. CURRY.
Managing-Director, JOSEPH H. CURRY.
Open all the Year Round.

CURRY'S TIVOLI THEATRE OF VARIETIES, LIMITED.
Chairman, Mr. H. J. CURRY.
Managing-Director, Mr. H. CURRY.
Opened Dec. 18, 1905.
Telegraphic Add., "Curry, Grimsby." Tel. No. 240.

HANLEY.—THEATRE ROYAL, LTD.
Please note:
The Staffordshire Potteries for all Dramatic Purposes
must be considered as one Large Town.
Hanley has undoubtedly the Largest Theatre and Stage in Staffordshire.
Lighted by Electricity.
Accommodation for 3,700 People.
Electric Trams and Trains after Performance to ends of the District, Longton, Stoke, Burslem, and Tunstall.
Vacant Dates, March 19, 26, April 9, 23, onwards.
For First-class Companies only.
Required a first-class pantomime for four or six weeks, for Xmas, 1906-7.
CHAS. E. ELPHINSTONE,
Managing-Director.

HULL. — NEW HIPPODROME.
Phenomenal Success,
Crowded Nightly.
The Pick of the Basket in Artists,
Christmas, 1906.
Grand Production for Tour,
"CINDERELLA"
will be Produced by Alfred Graham.
Star Artists, Full Ballet and Chorus.
All Coms., ALFRED GRAHAM, HIPPO., HULL.

HULL.—THE CIRCUS.
General Manager, EDWARD EMERSON.
One of the Finest and Largest Halls in the Provinces, Fitted with Large Stage, and Suitable for Circus, Minstrels, Concerts, Choir Parties, &c. Rental, Share, or Salary. Only a few Vacant Dates.

ILFRACOMBE. — ALEXANDRA THEATRE. Permanent Stage, seats 1150. Absolutely the Largest and Best Ventilated Theatre, with Heating Apparatus, and Electric Light, in the District. J. ROBERTS, Manager.

ILKESTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—
Licensee and Manager, Mr. L. F. A. ROGERS.
Tel. No. 17. Vacant Feb. 26 onwards. A few dates open for Pantomime. Silence a courteous negative.

IPSWICH. — LYCEUM.
Managing-Director, Mr. HUGH TURNER.
Now Booking Spring.
All communications re dates should in future be addressed to A. Smyth-Pigott,
General Manager,
F. R. Benson companies,
11, Henrietta-street, Covent Garden, W.C.

JARROW. — THEATRE ROYAL.
BARROW, ROYALTY T. and OPERA HOUSE, CONSETT, NEW THEATRE.
Lessee and Manager, Mr. HUGH ROBERTSON.
Jarrow, Vacant Dates, Feb. 5, on, with exception.
Barrow, Feb. 19, March 26, April 9, 16, and 23,
for First-class Musical Attractions.
Consett, Feb. 19, on, with exceptions.
Re dates, HUGH ROBERTSON, T. R., Jarrow.

JERSEY and GUERNSEY.
Population 100 000. No opposition. Transit Service, Sept. to May inclusive, depart Bournemouth 11.33 p.m., Bath 11.27 p.m., Swindon 11.28 p.m., Bristol 11.0 p.m.; June to Sept. inclusive, leave Southampton 12.30 midnight. All communications to C. ROBT. PERKINS, Jersey.

KIDDERMINSTER.—OPERA HOUSE.
Elegantly equipped.
Patronised by élite of Districts.
Vacant Jan. 29, March 5, 12, 19, April 2.
Add., JAMES P. MOORE, Ivydene, Lower Hagley.

KING'S LYNN. — NEW ROYAL.
Managing-Director, J. BANNISTER-HOWARD.
Recently Rebuilt at a Cost of £3000. Lighted with Electricity. Can be Booked in conjunction with Cambridge. 3, Bedford-st., Strand, W.C.

LEEDS. — QUEEN'S THEATRE.
Vacant April 9, 23; May 7, 21, 28.
Can Entertain a First-class Pantomime Production for Next Christmas Season.
All coms, E. DOTTRIDGE, Empire, Oldham.

LEICESTER.—ROYAL OPERA HOUSE AND THEATRE ROYAL. Lieut.-Col. J. A. Winstanley has disposed of his Theatres to Messrs. Milton Bode and Edward Compton, who will enter into possession on February 19, 1906. Messrs. Bode and Compton will take over all Contracts entered into by Lieut.-Col. Winstanley with travelling Managements. Re dates, address MILTON BODE, County Theatre, Reading.

LEYLAND. — PUBLIC HALL,
LANCASHIRE. Stage 30ft. by 20ft. Proscenium seats 800 Balcony. District Population 8000.
Small Stock Scenery. No Sharing.
Vacant dates for Companies or Entertainers.
Apply Managing Director, Park House, Leyland.

LLANDUDNO.—GRAND THEATRE.
Largest and Finest in Wales.
Record at Usual Prices £165.
Vacant, June 11, onwards.
Address,
HALDANE CRICHTON,
H. M. THEATRE, ABERDEEN.

PROVINCIAL THEATRES.

MIDDLESBROUGH. — OXFORD PALACE.
Phenomenal Success. Crowded Nightly.
The Pick of the Basket in Artists,
Christmas, 1906,
Grand Production for Tour,
"CINDERELLA"
will be Produced by Alfred Graham.
Star Artists, Full Ballet and Chorus.
All Coms., ALFRED GRAHAM, HIPPO., HULL.

MORECAMBE.—ROYALTY THEATRE
Sole Lessee, JULIAN MALVERN.
Vacant Easter, Whit, and on.
First-class Attractions only.
Address, CHAS. M. JULIAN, General Manager.

NORWICH. — THEATRE ROYAL.
Enlarged, Redecorated, Lighted Throughout by Electricity. Upholstered by Dean and Co.
Weekly Matinées for County Visitors.
Silence a polite negative.
FRED MORGAN, as above.

NOTTINGHAM.—GRAND THEATRE.
Manager, CHARLES P. COOKE.
Vacant for First-Class Attractions only, May 14 (8), June 4 (8), July 2, and on, with exceptions.
Silence a courteous negative.

OLDHAM. — EMPIRE THEATRE.
The Premier Theatre. Holding Capacity, £200. Vac. May 7, 21, 28 (Musical).
Can Entertain big Panto. Production Christmas.
Address, ERNEST DOTTRIDGE.

OXFORD. — NEW THEATRE.
Managers of First-class Companies are invited to apply for Dates to
Mr. THOMAS LUCAS, J.P.,
Managing-Director.
Silence a polite negative.

PLYMOUTH. — THEATRE ROYAL.
Lessee and Manager, Mr. C. F. WILLIAMS.
A few Spring Dates Vacant. First-class Companies only. Open all the Year Round. For Dates apply,
Mr. C. F. WILLIAMS,
THEATRE ROYAL, PLYMOUTH.

PONTYPOOL.—Correspondent Required to supply Theatre Reports Weekly. Address, DRAMATICUS, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, London.

POPLAR.—Correspondent Required to Supply Theatre Reports Weekly. Address, DRAMATICUS, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

PORTSMOUTH.—NEW THEATRE ROYAL.—Licensee and Manager, Mr J. W. BOUGHTON.
Open throughout the Year.
First-class Companies. Weekly Matinées.

RYDE. — THEATRE ROYAL.
Managing-Director, J. Bannister Howard.
The only Theatre in the Island, and commands a population of 80,000. Can be booked in conjunction with Worthing. WILLIAM MARTIN, 3, Bedford-street, Strand, W.C.

SOUTHEND THEATRE CO. (1905), Ltd.
EMPIRE THEATRE, SOUTHEND.
'Phone No. 70.
This Theatre under Entirely New Management.
Managing Director, GEO. CONQUEST.
Now Booking Spring Dates.
First-class Companies Only.

SOUTH SHIELDS THEATRE ROYAL.
Lessees and Managers,
Messrs. J. and F. COULSON.
Open all the Year Round. First-class Companies only. Unexpectedly Vacant Mar. 12.

ST. HELENS.—THEATRE and OPERA HOUSE.
Proprietors, The St. Helens Theatre, Ltd.
General-Manager, MCLEOD LOADER.
One of the handsomest Theatres in the Provinces.
High-Class Attractions only.
Address, M. LOADER, as above.

SUNDERLAND. — AVENUE OPERA HOUSE.
Managing Director and General Manager, CHARLES E. MACHIN.
Vacant, Feb. 5, for Pantomime, which must have been produced Xmas, 1905, at a No. 1 Theatre, and have been a Success; can negotiate for two or four weeks. Only other vacancies in 1906, for No. 1 Musical Comedy, April 2, and 9, and 23, May 14, 21, 28, June 4, August 6, 13, 20, September 3, 10, Nov. 5, 12, 26, Dec. 3, 10. All communications, CHARLES E. MACHIN, Avenue Opera House, Sunderland.

SWANSEA. — GRAND THEATRE.
Lessees and Managers, BROOKE & WOODBRIDGE.
Now Booking Autumn, 1906, and Spring, 1907.
Only Vacancies,
Few Summer Dates for Sound Drama, Comedy, or Musical Pieces;
Sept. 26, Nov. 5, 19, Dec. 17, 24, 1906;
Jan. 7, 28, Easter and Whit, 1907.
All coms., E. OSWALD BROOKS, Resident Partner.

WEST BROMWICH. — ROYAL.
Popular and Prosperous Theatre.
No Vacant Dates till after Easter.
Brilliantly illuminated by Gas and Electricity.
All communications to JAMES P. MOORE.

WEYMOUTH.
HOTEL BURDON ASSEMBLY ROOMS.
Seats 500, Fitted Stage, Dressing-rooms, Electric Light, Electric Current for Cinématograph, 220 volts, Small Select Theatrical Companies, Best Part Town, Acoustic Properties Perfect.

SCOTLAND'S PROVINCIAL THEATRES.
Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. BUCHANAN.
GRAND THEATRE, GLASGOW.
Now in Seventh Week of run, the Brilliant Pantomime "Aladdin," Produced by Mr Robert Courtneidge. Spring, Carl Rosa Season. Autumn, "Blue Moon" (first production in the City). First-class Companies only.
KING'S THEATRE, EDINBURGH.
At present in course of erection. The most central site in the City. Will open Autumn, 1906.

Bookings include Carl Rosa Grand Opera Co., J. W. Turner's Opera Co., "The Cingalee," "The Orchid," "San Toy," "Earl and the Girl," "The Girl from Kay's," "Kitty Grey," "Florodora," "Three Little Maids," "Trip to the Highlands," "Sergeant Brue," "Dandy Doctor," "New Barmaid," "Gay Parisienne," "Laughter Land," &c.

MOTHERWELL, NEW CENTURY.
LEITH, NEW GAIETY.
GREENOCK, THE ALEXANDRA.
AYR, NEW GAIETY.
KILMARNOCK, THE KING'S.
KIRKCALDY, THE KING'S.
FALKIRK, THE GRAND.
CLYDEBANK, NEW GAIETY.
THEATRE ROYAL, COATBRIDGE, has been acquired, and will be opened under above management on Monday, Jan 15.

Bookings include Grand Shakespearian Revival, "Romeo and Juliet," Ed. Terry, Ed. Compton, F. R. Benson's Co., "The Eternal City," "The Christian," "The Silver King," "Sapho," "Sunday," "Saturday to Monday," The Walter Melville Plays, "Ben-my-Chree," "Manxman," &c.

Also Booked in conjunction,
THE METROPOLE, GLASGOW,
and THE THEATRE ROYAL, NORTH SHIELDS.
By arrangement with Mr. Jefferson.
GRAND THEATRE, NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE, and METROPOLE THEATRE, GATESHEAD.
By arrangement with the Directorate.
HER MAJESTY'S, CARLISLE.
By arrangement with Stanley Rogers, Esq.
All communications to Mr. R. C. BUCHANAN, General Office, Grand Theatre, Glasgow.
Telegraphic Address, "Bookings, Glasgow."

FRANCIS, DAY, and HUNTER'S WINTER NOVELTIES.

"BLUE BELL" (Elaborated).
"I WOULDN'T LEAVE MY LITTLE WOODEN HUT FOR YOU."
A Clever Coon Concoction, and a Pantomime Craze Everywhere. To be Featured on Monday next at the London Coliseum.

"RAINBOW."
Sung by Miss PHYLLIS DARE, in "The Catch of the Season," and the "Hit" of a Hundred Annuals.
To be Featured on Monday next at the London Coliseum.

"THERE'S NOTHING LIKE YOUR FIRST LOVE AFTER ALL,"
(Leslie Stuart).
"THE COON THAT NEVER TOLD A LIE,"
Sung by EUGENE STRATTON, at the London Coliseum.
New Friends and Old Favourites.
"DON'T GO TOO FAST, LITTLE GIRLIE."
Sung by Miss ELLALINE TERRISS.
"LITTLE GLOW-WORM," and
"ONLY A PENNY,"
Sung by Miss ELLALINE TERRIS.
"BOW BELLS."
Sung by Miss MAUDI DARRELL.
"MY DIARY," and
"THE PATCHWORK GARDEN."
Sung by Mr. SEYMOUR HICKS.
By Gustave Kerker.
"DEAR LITTLE BABY,"
Sung by Miss MADGE LESSING in "Noah's Ark," at the Waldorf Theatre.
"WHO SAID 'GIRLS'?"
Miss VESTA TILLEY'S Latest Hit.
"A GOOD TIME IN MARS."
Sung with Enormous Success by Mr. FRED ALLANDALE, in "The Blue Moon," at the Lyric Theatre.
"YOU SHALL HAVE A LOVELY HOME, JOHANNA."
Sung by Miss MARIE DAINTON, in the Empire Revue.
"TEASING,"
Sung by Miss ELLALINE TERRISS in "The Catch of the Season" on Tour.
"THAT'S WHY I'M SANTA CLAUS."
HERBERT SHELLEY'S Sensational Success.
"SEAGULL."
Sung with very great success by HARRY BANCROFT.
"DON'T CRY, LITTLE GIRL."
Miss LIL HAWTHORNE'S Latest and Greatest Hit.
"YOU'RE NOT THE ONLY ROSEBUD,"
Sung with enormous success by Miss MARGARET ASHTON.
Professional Copies (post free, 7d. each) of all the above novelties.

FRANCIS, DAY, AND HUNTER,
142, CHARING CROSS-ROAD,
LONDON, W.C.
Telephone, 5425 Gerrard. Telegraphic Address, "Arpeggio, London."

Pioneer Publishers of Popular Music.
Sixpenny Popular Editions of
FRANCIS and DAY'S Musical Copyrights.
This Catalogue comprises 255 numbers, constantly added to, and includes the most Popular Songs, Ballads, and Pianoforte pieces.
NOW READY.
"All you've got to do," "If we hadn't any women in the World," "I shall have to ——," "She waits by the deep blue sea," "Molly, don't be teasing," "I wish I had someone to love me," "You shall have a lovely home, Johanna," "One-and-a-penny a day," "Sing my lads 'Yeave, oh,'" "That's why I'm Santa Claus," "My Japanesy Girl," "Will you be my Eskimo?" "What's the use of an old Log Cabin to me," "In Barcelona," "The Singer was Irish," "The Garden filled with Gold," "Seaweed," "Under the Um-ber-ella," "Little Glow-Worm," "Who said Girls?"
Sixpenny Pops On Sale Everywhere.

IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR A REALLY FRESH AND "CATCHY" SENTIMENTAL SONG, THE SONG THAT YOU WANT IS,

"THE LOVER WITH THE TENDER HEART."

A Gay Little Story-Song, with a Novel and Infectious Waltz-tune Chorus that Sets the House Humming.

Chorus:
Don't say "Yes" to anyone, because he is young and bold;
Don't say "Yes" to anyone, because he has lands and gold
Hands may meet and sever,
Lovers may pledge and part,
But love is for ever and ever,
When it springs in a tender heart.

Professional Copies Free on Application During Current Week.

KNIGHT BROTHERS,
18, HOLBORN and DYER'S BUILDINGS, LONDON, E.C.

A. BLACKFORD.
LADIES' and GENTLEMEN'S THEATRICAL BOOTS and SHOES in Great Variety.
Companies Fitted.
Estimates Free on application.
3, 4, and 5, KING-STREET, COVENT-GARDEN, W.C.
Telephone P.O. Central, 5,014.

DRESS CLOTHES LENT.—
BLACKFORD has for SALE or HIRE the Finest of CLOTHES for Theatres, Balls, Parties, Weddings, Dinners, Funerals, &c. Clothes sent to any part of England. Perfect Fit guaranteed. 3, 4, and 5, KING-STREET COVENT GARDEN (One Door from Market), and 31, WELLINGTON-STREET, STRAND.
Telegraphic Address, "Misfits, London."
Telephone, P.O. Central, 5,014.

Price 3s. 6d. Post Free 3s. 10d.

THE LAW OF COPYRIGHT FOR ACTOR AND COMPOSER,
BY ALBERT A. STRONG, LL.B.

Copyright confusion is, like the poor, always with us, and as it seems likely to remain so until at least the crack of doom, it were well for all concerned, or likely to be concerned, to take immediate steps to secure a copy of Mr. Albert A. Strong's new work entitled "The Law of Copyright." Mr. Strong is already favourably known to the profession for his text-book on "Dramatic and Musical Law," which, like his latest production, is published at "The Era" Office. "The Law of Copyright for Actor and Composer" essays to make clear to the non-legal mind what is—or, in some cases, what probably is—the law as musical and dramatic copyright. The chapters the Berne Convention and on the Chase Act passed by the United States Congress last March are full of interest.—Referee.

Published at "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

THEATRICAL SHOE AND HOSIERY MANUFACTURERS.
MAKERS TO THE PRINCIPAL LONDON THEATRES.
Louis Heel Dancing Shoes a Speciality.
Sixty Art Shades of Linen Back Satin, Specially Woven for the Manufacture of Dancing Shoes, kept in Stock.
This Satin has a Fine Lustre, and is almost as Strong as Leather.
Large Stock of Pure and Spun Silk Tights, Worsted and Cotton Tights, Opera Hose, Stockings, &c.
A Special Study made of Symmetrical Paddings. The most Up-to-Date Stock of Stage Requisites and Sundries.
Everything of the Best and at Store Prices.
H. and M. RAYNE,
115, 117, and 119, WATERLOO-ROAD, LONDON, S.E.
(Opposite Electric Tram Terminus).
Tel. 7,978 Central.
And at 49, Charing-cross-rd., W.C., Nr. Hippodrome.

BRIN'S OXYGEN
for the Finest Limelight Effects.
Unapproached by Electric Light for Stage Effects.
Addresses:—
BRIN'S OXYGEN COMPANY, Limited
ELVERTON-STREET, WESTMINSTER, S.W.
Works: 69, HORSEFERRY-ROAD, S.W.
MANCHESTER OXYGEN COMPANY, Limited, GREAT MARLBOROUGH-ST., MANCHESTER.
BIRMINGHAM OXYGEN COMPANY, Limited, SALTLEY WORKS, BIRMINGHAM.

READY MONDAY, JANUARY 15.
THIRTY-NINTH YEAR OF PUBLICATION.
Price, ONE SHILLING; by Post, TWELVE STAMPS.
1906—THE ERA ANNUAL—1906
The Most Complete DRAMATIC DICTIONARY OF DATES and THEATRICAL TREASURY OF KNOWLEDGE ever brought before the Public.
It will also be found to be the most Interesting Annual of the Year.
Office, 5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, STRAND, W.C.

THE ERA

SATURDAY, JANUARY 13, 1906.

"FIFTY YEARS OF THE DRAMA."

In the year 1842, when the "sailor king," WILLIAM IV., was on the throne, an Act was passed to extend the provisions of another Act which became law in the reign of King GEORGE the Third, "to amend the several Acts for the encouragement of learning"; and by this Act of King WILLIAM it was ordered that the author of any tragedy, comedy, play, opera, farce, or any other dramatic piece or entertainment should have as his own property the sole liberty of representing his work, or causing it to be represented, at any place or places of dramatic entertainment whatsoever, in any part of the United Kingdom or British dominions; and the author of published dramatic pieces was entitled until twenty-eight years from publication, or, if he should be then living, during the residue of his natural life, to the sole liberty of representing such pieces. It is not surprising that the passing of this Act, which was called BULWER LYTTON'S Act, created very little attention. The Era in 1842 was as strong a champion of the rights of the theatrical and variety professions as it is at present; but as these professions were then small in numbers and unenlightened as to grievances, The Era added to its functions that of a useful news-sheet. There was plenty to talk about in 1842, besides the passing of a Bill in the interests of authors and dramatists. Sir ROBERT PEEL was bringing in a Bill for the protection of the QUEEN'S person, punishing an attack on her with seven years' transportation, "accompanied by personal chastisement," which latter mode, The Era of the time tells us, "appeared to win the lively approbation of the House." Mr. T. DUNCOMBE drew the attention of the Commons to the distress of the country, 15,000 persons being out of work in Sheffield, where the poor rates were £520 per week; and Mr. D'ISRAELI, in reply, attributed the distress to anti-commercial diplomacy, which had driven the commerce of England out of the markets of the Continent. The Member for Armagh had called Mr. O'CONNELL a "cowardly blusterer" and a "mendicant hypocrite," and the Speaker had not objected to the language as unparliamentary. There was a prize-fight for thirty pounds aside between W. JORDAN and G. NORLEY, in which the latter fought bravely for 150 minutes against the superior weight of his antagonist, when "nature failed him," and JORDAN was proclaimed the conqueror. A pony, ridden by a monkey, was being backed for £50 to trot fourteen miles within the hour at Peckham; and a civilian had just sent a challenge to a general officer about an error in connection with a church pew. Amidst all these "alarms and excursions" it is not surprising that BULWER LYTTON'S Bill was read a second time without any serious sensation. It may be called the Magna Charta of the dramatists, whose Habeas Corpus Act was 5 and 6 Victoria, which conferred upon the author property in his play for seven years from his death, or the period of forty-two years, whichever should be the longer.

There was at one time a discussion as to whether there was any copyright on titles. We need not revive these purely academic arguments, because the matter has been settled by the honourable feeling and commonsense of the profession generally. We heard the other day of a performance which was given in a small provincial town, in which the name of a well-known actress and a famous play were used on the bills, the audience discovering after admission that the piece and the leading performer were not what they had expected to see, but something quite different. Such expedients are not common, and are generally discountenanced. In the case of a title, it is admitted by all authors that use constitutes a property. The hard case of the dramatist, however, is this. He finds, as he thinks, an entirely new title; he prepares for the production of his play, which involves extensive printing and advertisement; and then he often receives a letter from somebody or other who has really produced a piece with the same name. He has to choose between buying off the possessor of the title, or investing in fresh printing and advertisements. To say nothing of the expense, the irritation and annoyance thus caused are very great. For years it has been desired to meet this difficulty by the publication of a complete list of the titles of plays. When we say "complete," we do not mean a list going back to the times of the early Egyptians. Such a compendium would be unwieldy, and the time required to search through it would be too great. All that is necessary is a list covering the period of copyright. That which we are at present publishing lasts from 1850 to 1900. That covers a copyright period which answers all purposes. Very few dramatic authors get a piece produced before they are twenty-five. A playwright who was twenty-five in 1850 would be now about eighty. Owing to the exhausting nature of the calling, very few dramatists are "spared" to that extent. Mr. MADDISON MORTON'S long life was exceptional; and may be attributed partly to the perfect rest and peace which he enjoyed at the Charterhouse, and partly to the generous way in which he was supplied with port wine and other nourishing comforts by the gentlemen to whom he had disposed of his copyrights. So that anyone who possesses our list of titles, when it is published in cheap book-form, will be able, for all practical purposes, to feel safe in naming his play.

It is not only the dramatic author who will be benefited by our publication. As will be seen by the glowing testimonials, some of which we printed last week, the manager and the actor are also deeply interested in our achievement. The list of honoured testifyers includes leading London managers, illustrious authors, clever novelists, and actors of the first rank. In an undertaking of such magnitude it is hardly possible to avoid error, and we shall be only too pleased to have any omissions pointed out to us, so that we may have them added to the final edition. "Fifty Years of the Drama" will be a book which it will not pay anyone connected with the profession to be without. Of the time and trouble necessary in its preparation we need say nothing. We are always ready to lavish both in the interest of the profession that supports us so splendidly.

THE character of Starkie, the second Pirate in Peter Pan, finds as good an exponent in Mr. Ben Field as it did in the original production when poor Sydney Harcourt played the part. Mr. Field was very young when he acted with a small dramatic club at St. Alban's Hall, Holborn, his comrades being fellow choir boys, the pieces presented being limited to dramas where it was only necessary to use an indoor scene—all they possessed—and the ladies' rôles being taken by the lads who could make up the best. It was at one of these little shows that Mr. Ben Greet saw his promising namesake, the younger Ben, and offered him his first salary as a real live actor. When Miss Grace Hawthorne produced a version of Pilgrim's Progress, at the Olympic Theatre, Mr. Field played Mammon—perhaps he happened to be the poorest man in the company—and then he joined his old friend, Mr. Greet, and remained his leading comedian for several years.

"STARKIE" only returned from America last summer, where he had made a name for himself with the Boston Stage Society, at Castle Square Theatre, playing two performances a day and changing the bill every week. Only once during this laborious but happy engagement did he regret being well known as a comedian, for when Held by the Enemy was revived, the management cast him for Mr. Gillette's part, Tom Bean, and the audience could not forget that he always made them laugh. The more earnestly he acted the more they enjoyed what a dramatic critic called his "new style of serious fun." Mr. Field joined the Mermaid Society at Penley's Theatre immediately after arriving in London, afterwards playing Mr. Bumble in Oliver Twist, from which Mr. Tree released him to appear in Peter Pan.

MR. FIELD is so well established as one of the best of Shakespearean clowns—Dogberry is his favourite part—that he can well afford to tell the following little story. One evening, when he was acting in Hamlet at Worthing, a friend came into the dressing-room at the end of the performance and said, "I wish I had been in front to see you, Ben, for I've just heard the people as they left the theatre talking about you. You've made a tremendous hit as the First Gravedigger. Everybody is laughing at the mention of your name." Mr. Field smiled modestly, leaving it to another man in the room to explain the reason. The grave had been set too near the front of the stage, and as the First Gravedigger shovelled in the earth at the end of the scene, bending low over his spade, he suddenly felt a blow in the middle of his back, instinctively jumped out of the way, and discovered that the scene cloth of the King's Palace had fallen between himself and his work. He was sorely tempted to "gag," but resisted bravely, shouldered his spade, and marched out of sight of the howling audience, just as Claudius appeared on the other side of the stage. Starkie is the second part Mr. Field has played in a Barrie success, for he toured, a few years back, as one of the Elders in The Little Minister. A visit to Kirriemuir—known to the world as Thrumbs—made him appreciate the "local colour" of Mr. Barrie's charming comedy, for he stayed in the house where the author had lived, and several of the speeches and exclamations in his part went better than they ever had before.

MR. H. ATHOL FORDE is one of the actors whom everybody knows as a Bensonian. A Londoner by birth, he started his useful years on the stage—now running into the twenties—at the old Princess's, under Mr. Wilson Barrett's management, joining Mr. Benson's company in 1885. His first part with F.R.B. was the Player King in Hamlet. His subsequent engagements include two years with the Kendals, visits to America and South Africa, and many London appearances. Mr. Forde has only recently returned from Australia, where he went for three months, and stayed for over two years, playing leading parts under Mr. Musgrove and Mr. Williamson's managements in Shakespeare and modern comedy. Mr. Athol Forde's brother is Mr. John Le Breton, author of "Miss Tudor," "Unholy Matrimony," and other popular novels.

"A SENSE OF HUMOUR."

A Play, in Three Acts,
by Beryl and Cosmo Hamilton,
Produced at the Comedy Theatre,
On Sunday Evening, Jan. 7
(Repeated on Monday Afternoon, Jan. 8).

Captain Archibald Hay..MR. C. AUBREY SMITH
Sir William Hutton, Bart..MR. ATHOL STEWART
Mrs. Hay .....MISS EDITH OLIVE
Meakin .....MR. REGINALD DANCE
Stanner .....MISS FRANCES DILLON
Lady Hutton .....MISS BERYL FABER

Mr. and Mrs. Cosmo Hamilton's play, A Sense of Humour, was presented for the first time on Sunday evening at the Comedy Theatre, and repeated there on Monday afternoon, when an audience, in which there were many well-known members of the profession, frequently applauded the smartness of the dialogue, laughed at the occasional flashes of humour in the piece, enjoyed its neatness of construction, and thoroughly appreciated the clever way in which the authors sustained the interest until the final fall of the curtain.

The problem that the authors have set themselves to solve will be best learnt by a recital of the plot. Sir William Hutton (Billy) and Captain Archibald Hay (Archie) are chums; their wives, Margaret and Vera, are bosom friends. Ardent anglers all of them, they are spending what should be a delightful holiday in a fishing cottage in the Isle of Mull. There is, however, a rift in the lute. On the rising of the curtain, we learn that Sir William has been flirting somewhat desperately with his friend's wife, and over a tête-à-tête breakfast he implores Mrs. Hay (Vera) just to favour him with another kiss. The conduct of the pair has scandalised the female domestic, who feels it her duty to inform Lady Hutton (Margaret) of their goings on. A shrewd, clever woman, is Lady Hutton. Confident in the love of her husband, she knows him too well to take things too seriously. She becomes more concerned, however, when the mere tattle of the servant is confirmed by the statement of Captain Archibald Hay himself, who had actually seen Sir William take Vera in his arms and kiss her. "What did you do?" "Do!—why, I asked him to come on here and talk things over." Archie hints at the Divorce Court, and takes generally a very gloomy view of the situation. Margaret wisely counsels a very different plan. Anything, at any rate, is better than the destruction of the happiness of four people and a society scandal. Cheerily enough she suggests to Archie to "play their own game, and within a month Billy and Vera will be bored to death in each other's society."

Henceforth Margaret and Archie are inseparable. She plays his favourite songs; they address each other in endearing terms; and play the parts of lovers so openly that Vera makes the remark that one sitting-room will be rather inconvenient for the quartet. Vera, we should add, regards the conduct of Margaret as a huge joke—as it is really intended—but it does not appeal so readily to Billy's sense of humour; for he, on the contrary, becomes desperately jealous, and plays the detective by watching very closely his wife and his friend. He is, however, persuaded to take a less serious view, and at this juncture, rallies Archie on the absurd turn things have taken. The latter for the moment forgets himself, and is about to seize Billy by the throat, when the situation is saved by the appearance of the two women. It is evident, however, that Margaret's plan is not working so well as she would wish. Its complete success would seem to depend on Vera's jealousy being thoroughly aroused, and, as a last resource, Margaret takes Archie to her boudoir in the last act, and the two sit there with the door locked. The danger of such a compromising situation is patent, and tragedy is in the air when Margaret learns that Vera's boxes are packed in the hall, and that she is about to elope. In a state of uncontrolled indignation, Billy abuses Archie, and the two women also quarrel fiercely. The domestic storm subsides, however, almost immediately. The four young people persuade themselves how stupidly they have acted towards each other, and each couple becomes completely reconciled. Vera only wants to hear Archie confess his love for her, and Billy, animated by a similar desire, easily obtains Margaret's forgiveness. Notwithstanding this happy issue, we should accuse both couples of a blazing indiscretion did they spend another holiday together; for a sense of humour would not save a scandal for a second time.

At the fall of the curtain on Monday there was considerable applause for the players, and it was thoroughly deserved; for the piece was admirably acted. Mr. C. Aubrey Smith gave an excellent sketch of the quiet, phlegmatic Captain Archibald Hay, and his outburst of jealousy in the second act was simply volcanic in its force. For the most part, however, the lighter touch prevailed, and this clever, conscientious actor successfully accentuated the strength of the situations. Mr. Athol Stewart as the irresponsible Billy (Sir William Hutton) made that rather frivolous character sufficiently amusing, and caused considerable laughter in the first act. In the more serious aspects of the character Mr. Stewart was also effective. Mr. Reginald Dance had some very humorous things to say as Meakin, whose experience of the vagaries of aristocratic families is extensive and peculiar, and the actor scored most unmistakably by his clever treatment of the part—one of the most natural in the play. Miss Edyth Olive made the most of her opportunity in the third act, when Mrs. Hay lets her indignation have full play. In the scene with Lady Hutton she carefully avoided the melodramatic note, and acted with artistic restraint and passionate intensity. Miss Beryl Faber as Lady Hutton submitted a sympathetic portrait of that amiable and well-intentioned lady, and her charm, fascination, and distinction of style were conspicuous. Miss Faber lifted her part into the higher regions of comedy, and her acting was distinguished by convincing earnestness, happy touches of humour, and a sense of authority. Miss Frances Dillon cleverly accentuated the peculiarities of the domestic, Stanner. It was quite a humorous study. The play was well produced, under the direction of Mr. Hubert Druce. The waits were filled out by some classical selections of music, played by Mr. Rupert Borowski's quartet.

ONE of the best effects in the enlarged and elaborated edition of Blue Bell at the Aldwych is the introduction of the dainty little heroine to fairyland by Oberon, who wears a beautiful costume of shimmering gold. The King of the Fairies is played by Mr. Reginald Kenneth, a young baritone who has just signed a three years' contract with Mr. Frohman, and in whom Mr. Seymour Hicks takes a keen interest. A pupil of Signor Baraldi, Mr. Kenneth's very first part was Bobbie Preston, the hero of San Toy, and it really seemed as if Bobbie Preston was likely to be his only part, for he made such a success that directly one tour ended he was engaged for the next, playing with ten different San Toys, beginning with Miss Annie Purcell and ending with Miss Fanny Dango. Lady Mollie succeeded San Toy in his affections, followed by The Duchess of Dantzic, The Cingalee, and Lady Madcap. Mr. Kenneth is an enthusiastic golfer, and plays a good game of cricket.

A COPY OF "THE ERA" will be forwarded to any address in the United Kingdom for six stamps. The Era is posted on Saturday in time to reach London Subscribers by the first Town Delivery, and Country Subscribers should receive their Papers by the first London Post. Address, the PUBLISHER, 5, Tavistock-street, W.C.

VARIETY GOSSIP.

"MR. GEORGE LE BRUNN has left a widow totally unprovided for. He was admittedly the most prolific popular melodist of the time," writes Mr. Leslie Stuart in the Daily Mail. "His songs are being sung in every corner of the earth, and he had probably more current songs in prominence than any other living composer. Through the monstrous depredations of the music pirate, he died in financial difficulties."

"INCREDIBLE as it may seem," continues Mr. Stuart, "the grand total of royalties due to Mr. George Le Brunn for a twelvemonth from his publishers, Messrs. Francis, Day, and Hunter—who are ready to show their books for confirmation—is £1 0s. 7d. (one pound and seven pence). Could anything portray more eloquently the sad position in which those who live by music find themselves?"

WE need no excuse, therefore, for drawing our readers' attention again to the grand special matinée that is to be given at the Oxford on Monday, the 22nd, in aid of the fund being raised for George Le Brunn's widow. Mr. John P. Harrington, in his appeal, asks that any professional ladies and gentlemen, absent from London on the date of the matinée, who would like to assist the funds so urgently needed to ensure the future welfare of the widow, to forward subscriptions to Mr F. H. Pedgrift, of The Era; or, Mr. David Day, 142, Charing Cross-road, W.C.

SIR EDWARD MOSS will be the guest at a banquet organised by the London Entertainments Protection Association, in order to mark their sense of the distinguished honour conferred upon him by the King. An early date has been fixed, and the affair, we need hardly state, will command the attendance of the most influential people in the variety world.

A CONTRACT has just been signed between Mr. Cecil Raleigh and Cissie Louie Lawson to produce a sketch entitled The King's Minister, with John Lawson as the Prime Minister. The sketch is in two scenes, the first at A Restaurant in Soho, and the second at Carlton House. The draperies and furniture will be unique, as is always the case with productions in which John Lawson appears. Mr. Raleigh's "book" has been pronounced by a well-known critic as the finest twenty-six minutes' episode ever written. The production will take place on Feb. 12, when a general invitation will be given to managers and critics.

DR. KUKLA, the president of the Czech University College of Medicine, has, by a clever surgical operation, separated the Bohemian twins, Rosa and Josetta Blazek. Some years ago one of them suffered from a serious attack of typhus, while her twin-sister, in spite of the bodily connection, remained in perfect health. Rosa and Josepha will now enjoy an independent existence, as the operation was a complete success. They attracted considerable curiosity in town in the autumn of 1904, when they made their first London appearance at the Metropolitan, and fulfilled a series of engagements at other important halls. They are highly intelligent girls, and possess musical ability.

THE International Artists' Lodge will hold an extraordinary general meeting at the Hotel Provence, Leicester-square, on Sunday, Jan. 14, at 6 p.m., to which all members of the music-hall profession are invited to attend. With the view of establishing an entente cordiale between the I.A.L. and the M.H.A.R.A., it was resolved to send an invitation to the committee of the latter society. The invitation has been cordially accepted. The executive committee of the I.A.L. take this opportunity to extend an invitation also to the representatives of the professional Press.

THE officers, committee, and the members of the Music Hall Sick Fund are also most cordially invited to attend the same meeting, at which it is intended to discuss the ways and means of obtaining a better working understanding between the various music hall societies in England, and to propound schemes for the better organisation of music hall artists and the improvement of the conditions under which they work.

IN the lovely production of Cinderella at the Empire on Saturday, the audience were puzzled for a few seconds as to the identity of Mdlle. Genée, in the Baronial Hall scene, where Cinderella sees herself in the ball-room dancing. The illusion is created by the employment of a double, who is exactly the same height, and bears a wonderful resemblance in features and colour of hair to the popular queen of dance. The name of the young lady is Miss Olive Lang, who, at the end of the ballet, runs into the ballroom as the distressed Cinderella, who had outstayed the hour at which she was to return to her lowly state as the "cinder wench."

MR. JOHN LAWSON will appear on Monday at the Grand, Clapham, in a revised version of the sketch, The Progenitor of Man, under the title of The Flying Man. The costumes in the ball scene have been supplied by Messrs. John Hyman, the phonograph effects are by the Edison-Bell Co., and the flying effects by Mr. Neale.

TWELFTH NIGHT is always made a feature of at the Chelsea Palace, and the festivities on Monday were again under the genial sway of the popular Teddy Swanborough. Mr. Lyon, as in previous years, provided the cake, and there was a merry gathering of the staff and a few friends in the lounge after the performance. Mr. Swanborough proposed the health of Mr. Henri Gros, the managing-director, and of his co-directors, and the toasts that followed were "the genial Teddy"; his lieutenant, Mr. Norman Berlin; and Mr. Angelo Asher, the popular musical director. The Chelsea cake bids fair to become even more popular than the Chelsea bun.

MR. WALTER TILBURY has written the words of a parody on "The Death of Nelson," which will be sung by Mr. W. H. Berry at the Empire for the first time on Monday. It will probably become a favourite ditty with the advocates for Tariff Reform at the elections.

MISS MADGE HAINES, who is playing Cassim, jun., at the Shakespeare, Clapham, has earned much favourable comment by her singing of the popular numbers, "Little Wooden Hut" and "My Jappy Coon."

MR. HENRY HERNE AND MISS IDA MILLAIS will play the celebrated rainstorm incident in No Man's Land at the Palace, Hammersmith, on Monday, when they will commence their fourth engagement at that hall within six months.

MR. ALFRED PAWLEY concluded his season of variety entertainments at the Public Hall, Croydon, on Saturday, Dec. 30. He had been successfully running them for the past four months, and regrets that he is unable to continue them, owing to the hall being engaged.

"POPS," the magnificent black feline mascot who (when he is awake, which is seldom) presides over the destinies of the mice at Messrs. Francis and Day's London branch establishment, has been presented with a silver collar by admirers, and the "pirate" cats of Bloomsbury are duly abased thereat. "Under an Um-ber-el-la," "Little Glowworm" and "Who said Girls?" have been added to the series of "Sixpenny Pops."

WE regret to report that Mr. Fred Harcourt, magician and illusionist, died on Friday morning from cancer at the Central Nursing Home, Glasgow. He is deeply mourned by his sorrowing wife, family, and relatives.

ALTERATIONS have been carried out on the stage and in front that have brought the People's Palace, Tottenham, right up to date. The auditorium now holds 1,800 people. Mr. Payne, the manager for Mrs. Lawson, is very popular there. The chief attraction is Aladdin. The varieties this week include Harry Wenburn, the Kendalls, and Sisters Beatrice. There is a first-class orchestra under the direction of Mr. Holman.

THE Grand Theatre, Gravesend, was honoured on Wednesday, Jan. 10, by a visit from Sir Gilbert Parker, M.P., Captain Davis, K.C.C., A. E. Enfield, T.C., and several of the Corporation to witness the performance. They congratulated Mr. David Hart, the general manager, upon his programme, which included Royal Zerbinis and Miss Millie Payne, the Comedy Queen, and thanked him for an enjoyable evening.

AT the last directors' meeting of the Star Theatre Co., Ltd., Dublin, Mr. George H. Marsh, secretary of the Dublin Empire Theatre, was appointed to the dual offices of manager and secretary, and we learn that the same gentleman has also been chosen for the position of secretary to the Empire Theatre, Ltd., Belfast. Mr. Marsh will take up these duties as from Feb. 1 next. Both establishments, we should add, are booked in conjunction with the Moss Empires and Stoll companies.

WE are given to understand that Mr. Walter de Frece, acting on behalf of a syndicate, has leased the Palace, Belfast, from Messrs. Warden, Ltd., for a term, and that the establishment will be run on the two-houses-a-night principle from Monday, the 22nd inst.

As an extra turn at the Empire Theatre, Dublin, the initial performance was given last week of a very interesting act, which is both novel and effective, entitled "Mdlle. Sylvia's Vocal Electric Tableaux," which are produced under the able management of Mr. Harry Milne.

AT the Royal County Theatre, Bedford, on Saturday night, the concluding evening of the pantomime, Mr. Fred Alberto (Baron Badlot), on behalf of The Babes in the Wood company, presented Mrs. Edward Graham-Falcon with an emerald and diamond pendant brooch, and hoped she would live long to wear it. Mrs. Falcon briefly responded, and the large audience cheered and applauded.

AT Grosvenor Park, Belfast, an amusing football match was played on Wednesday afternoon last between the Little Shamrocks and Belfast pantomime artists. The pantomime artists were arrayed in the most fantastical and grotesque costumes, and the fun provided was both fast and furious. Messrs. Fred Cary, Russell Wallett, and Chas. Coverdale were especially prominent in their efforts to create amusement. The result was stated to be four goals each. Mr. Russell Wallett acted as referee. The proceeds were to be devoted to the Newsboys Appeal Fund; and a goodly sum was realised.

MR. DAN THOMAS with his touring pantomime Aladdin, which he presented at the Bedford on Boxing night, has been scoring all along the line. In remembrance of its success at the Camden Town variety theatre Mr. B. P. Lucas presented Mr. Thomas with a silver-fitted dressing case; and Mr. Harry Day gave him a box of cigars. At the Argyle, Birkenhead, last week, Mr. D. J. Clarke endowed him with a diamond scarf-pin.

JUDGMENT was pronounced in the Court of Session, Edinburgh, in the action by Isaac Nathaniel Lyons, merchant and Government contractor, 51, St. Mary-axe, London, against Moss' Empires, Ltd., Edinburgh. The pursuer sued for £1,361 18s. 4d., the balance of the price of goods supplied and work done on the order of the defenders, from Oct. 22, 1904, to Jan. 20, 1905, at the London Hippodrome. The defenders admitted liability for £500, the amount of contract estimate; £457 for goods supplied; and £45 3s. 10d., the amount of two accounts not previously rendered. They paid £750 of that amount, and tendered payment of the remainder, £252 19s. 8d., as all that was due by them. In the beginning of November, 1904, Mr. Parker, the defender's stage-manager, resolved to bring out a new Christmas show, called Butterflies in Fairyland. The spectacle required for its production an outer circular red cloth curtain, and an inner partially transparent blue gauze curtain, with a diameter of 42ft. inside, for the purpose of producing certain light effects. The show was intended to occupy both the arena or ring of the hippodrome, and the adjoining stage on the side of the building opposite the audience. Mr. Lyons's estimate for the work was accepted. Lord Ardwall dismissed the action, and found neither party entitled to expenses.

MR. HENRY T. DOWNS, the esteemed manager of the New Alhambra, Belfast, was accorded his third annual benefit on Wednesday evening last. By kind permission of Mr. Fred W. Warden, Miss Olive Marston, Mr. Fred Cary, the Tally-Ho Trio, and Mr. Chas. Coverdale came over from the Palace, and achieved much success. With their usual courtesy, Mr. A. S. Findlater, LL.D., J.P., managing-director, and Mr. John A. Walker, acting-manager, of the Empire, permitted the Three Victorias and Miss Ella Retford to appear. The popular beneficiaire, when he appeared on the stage, thanked all the artists who had so ably assisted, especially those from the Palace and Empire, and the directors of those theatres for their courtesy. At the same time he wished also to heartily thank his innumerable patrons, who, during the three and a half years he had been manager of the New Alhambra, had rallied round him so loyally, and made the Alhambra one of the successes of Belfast.

AN interesting ceremony took place in the Mayor's Parlour at the Town Hall, Bolton, on Monday afternoon, when His Worship, Colonel G. Hesketh, V.D., J.P., named four cubs, two lions and two lionesses, belonging to Sedgwick's menagerie, which is now paying its annual visit to the town. Two baby lions were the first to be named, the Mayor selecting the names "Rex" for one, which was thereupon decorated by him with blue ribbon, and for the other "Colonel," whose ribbon was of white. These two animals were three months old. Then the two baby lionesses, which were born in Bolton a week last Saturday, were brought forward, and these were named "Venus" (adorned with white ribbon) and "Juno" (whose decoration was purple). The Mayor picked up one of these little animals, which were no bigger than cats. We are given to understand that the two baby lions will be taken round the country by "Zarmah," who is Mr. Sedgwick's son, and that he will pass them round for the audiences of the halls at which he appears to fondle, until they are old enough to be trained.

WITH characteristic kindness, Messrs. Warden, Ltd., intend giving a matinée performance at the Palace, Belfast, of the pantomime Cinderella, on Wednesday next, 17th inst., in aid of the Ulster Hospital for Women and Children, Belfast.

THE Ayr Town Council have granted to Messrs. Lee and Arden the use of the Newton Public Park for their al fresco entertainments this summer. This will make the above entertainers' third season at Ayr.

MR. LESLIE STUART, in a letter in another column, advocates a bold, unanimous, and uncompromising attitude and a disregard of all other individual party politics in the struggle against musical piracy. Putting aside all party feeling, the letter will be read with interest by every professional voter.

IT is not often that two candidates who are opposing each other for Parliamentary honours appear on the same platform together during the progress of their electioneering campaign. Yet this is what happened on Thursday afternoon at the Paragon Theatre, Mile-end-road, when Mr. H. H. Wells, a popular director of that establishment, gave his third annual benefit performance in aid of the deserving poor of the district of St.-George's-in-the-East and Wapping. Mr. Wells is the treasurer of this relief fund, and the secretary is Mr. Wedgwood Benn, who is opposing the first-named gentleman in the contest for the division of St.-George's-in-the-East. Both the gentlemen, as well as Sir Thomas Dewar, who accompanied them, had a hearty reception, and Mr. Wells remarked that this was an instance where two people who were diametrically opposed to each other in politics could work together as true Englishmen to assist those who could not help themselves.

MISS ARABELLA ALLEN has been suffering from a slight attack of congestion of the lungs. The charming Dickens Girl was obliged to cancel three weeks' engagements, but Messrs. Rosen and Bliss, who had looked forward to starring her at Aberdeen, Dundee, and Sunderland, have kindly offered her dates later on, and she has this week been able to make a welcome re-appearance—for she is too fond of the work to enjoy resting under any circumstances—at the Palace, Manchester. Next week she is at the London and Collins's, and is always adding to her big répertoire.

MR. GEORGE ADNEY PAYNE and the directorate of the Euston have given Captain Jessel, the Imperialist and Unionist candidate for South St. Pancras, permission to use the whole front of the house for his bills, and have also allowed him to place cards all over the hall inside.

AN amusing incident occurred at the Grand, Clapham Junction, on Thursday evening, the 4th inst., during the second house. The act-drop was going up after the overture when, by some means or other it caught the sprinkler connections, turning on the water, the audience being treated to an unexpected (and exceptionally fine) water display lasting for some few minutes. Needless to say, although causing a little damage and inconvenience, the accident had its humorous aspect, The prompt action of Mr. H. Ketteman, the able manager, and his staff prevented anything like a serious delay, and the programme was run through with the usual smartness.

THE New Tivoli Company has declared an interim dividend of £4 per cent. (being at the rate of £8 per cent. per annum) for the half-year ending Dec. 31, 1905.

MR. BEN NATHAN, in celebration of his birthday on Friday, the 5th inst., invited a number of his friends to supper at The Lounge in Maiden-lane. Among those present were Mr. J. L. Graydon, Mr. Frank Glenister, Mr. Albert Gilmer, and several well-known music-hall stars. A most agreeable evening was spent.

MR. SYDNEY M. HYMAN, who represents the Empire Theatre, Johannesburg, and Tivoli Theatre, Cape Town, is always on the lookout for star turns for their halls in South Africa, and during a visit to Birmingham last week he was able to persuade Miss Ada Reeve to accept their South African tour.

MISS REEVE, who is now making a very big success at the Theatre Royal, Birmingham, will sail for South Africa immediately on the conclusion of the run, so that she will arrive in Johannesburg in time for the opening of the new theatre on May 14 next. What is England's loss will be South Africa's gain, and there is no doubt Miss Ada Reeve will make the big success which such a talented and popular artist deserves.

MR. GUS ELEN, who is an ardent motorist, gives high praise to the cars manufactured by the Panhard Levassor Car Co., Regent-street. He says: "I have accomplished to date something like 14,000 miles on my Panhard Levassor car, and for the last 600 miles I have not once cleaned the valves of my engine or unscrewed a single nut, which speaks volumes for these wonderful cars. My car is running beautifully. I have had eight chauffeurs, and discharged them all. On referring to my dictionary I find 'chauffeur' is a small iron furnace, which evidently means something hot. If 'chauffeur' is not spelt exactly as its English equivalent, it doesn't matter much. H-o-t is certainly the way "chauffeur" should be spelt in the future, for he is decidedly a very 'hot' person."

SEVERAL notable changes will be made in the variety section of the programme at the Alhambra (where the booking for the new dramatic ballet, Parisiana, easily exceeds all previous records at this historic theatre) on Monday next, the 15th inst. Miss Lalla Selbini returns from a most successful season in Paris. Julius Thorn, of whose jugglery as a bibulous and slothful restaurant waiter the Alhambra public so definitely approves, makes fresh fun at every representation; a novel card expert and conjurer will be found in Dunningarto; and Vanola, the Mexican Antipodiste, will continue to amaze and amuse.

NEW pictures are so frequent in "Urbanora" that no single series has a chance to lag superfluous on the screen, and the present timely set of scenes, "The Sultan of Morocco and his Army," will be supplemented on Monday by a remarkable set, taken specially for Mr. Urban by Mr. T. J. West, illustrating "A Trip to New Zealand," and the many industrial achievements and thermal wonders of the land of the Maoris. The new departure, by which 3s. balcony stalls may be booked in advance, is meeting with marked success.

MISS KATE CARNEY, who is scoring such a success in Our Laundry, will shortly produce a new scena, entitled The Flower Girl. It was as a seller of "Three pots a shilling" that the coster queen made her first hit, and the title-rôle of the new production will therefore be quite familiar to her.

MESSRS. T. AND T. E. READ, who have given a series of wonderful shows at the World's Fair, Agricultural Hall, for a quarter of a century, have been much annoyed at the currency of a report that it is their last season at Islington. They are desirous of emphatically contradicting such an absurd statement, which is not only misleading to the public, but detrimental to themselves.

THE revival of 'Appy 'Ampstead at the Canterbury has been postponed until Monday in consequence of the success of Mr. Joe Elvin's newest farcical sketch, Obedient Billy. The humours of Mr. Joe Elvin among the crowd on the famous heath were immensely enjoyed during the original run of the sketch at the Oxford, and elaborate preparations are being made "across the bridge" by Mr. Fred Miller for the illustration of the drollery of a typical cockney holiday.

WE announce with regret that Mr. Harry Villiers, the husband of Miss Daisy James, passed away on Sunday, Jan. 7, after a long illness.

AT the Coliseum on Monday Mr. Eugene Stratton will be heard in a new song by Mr. Leslie Stuart, entitled "There's nothing like your first love after all." Mr. Stratton will also present his latest provincial success, "The coon who never told a lie." A new song, with an old title, "Sweet Marie," will be introduced into Aladdin's Lamp, and treated in interesting fashion, by Mr. Marshall Moore. At the 6 to 8 performance Mr. Will Bishop will present a new version of "I wouldn't leave my little wooden hut for you," a darkie romance, in which Miss Clarissa Talbot, and the tiniest coloured comedian in the world, Pete Washington McKinley, supported by the Coliseum stock company, will take part.

VOTERS anxiously waiting the results of elections need not be afraid of missing them by attending the evening performances at the Coliseum. Mr. Oswald Stoll has made special arrangements whereby results of elections becoming known between six o'clock and eleven each evening will be either thrown on the biograph cloth or announced from the stage.

SO great was the success of the spectacular ballet, Cinderella, at the Empire matinées that the directors decided to put it in the evening bill on Wednesday. Some alteration of the scenery was necessary to shorten the production, but to Mdlle. Genée, as Cinderella, were given some additional dances. To make room for the new ballet, The Bugle Call and the excerpt from Madame Sherry have been temporarily withdrawn from the evening programme.

MR. HERBERT CYRIL, the seven-foot comedian, who at present is resting after his late severe illness, opens on Feb. 5 at the Empire, Bristol, on the Barrasford tour.

THE lady who plays Miss Giggles in Arden and Abel's Three of a Kind sketch was taken suddenly ill on Tuesday last at Aberdeen, and Elsie Roby ("The slavey's at home") kindly consented to play her part, and continued it for the rest of the week. On Saturday, Miss Roby was presented by Miss Ethel Arden with a beautiful ruby and pearl bracelet, and she was also thanked by Messrs. Rosen and Bliss for coming so aptly to the "rescue."

A LARGE number of Terriers met at Waterloo Station on Saturday last to give a send-off to Signor and Madam Borelli, who were sailing from Southampton for South Africa. Among the members of the fraternity present were Fred Neiman, Harry Lester, Willie Benn, the Two Whitleys, Griff, C. Clarke, Walter Norman, C. W. Burgess, H. Hopter, J. Dunedin, and many more.

MR. JAMES WILLARD is producing an original historical sketch at the Theatre Royal, Oldham, on Tuesday next, entitled Moll Cutpurse, the Highway Queen. The sketch is of the spectacular order, in four brief scenes, and deals with an incident in the life of the notorious Moll Cutpurse, who fought in the Royalist ranks as a trooper at the battle of Marston Moor. The title-rôle will be played by Miss Grace Lester.

FRED EUSTACE, of Our Curate fame, will shortly produce a spectacular comedy-dramatic sketch in four scenes, specially written for him by Chris. Davis. This production will be well within the limits provided by the agreement lately arrived at between the Theatrical Managers' Association and the magnates of the variety theatres. The subject has probably never before been dealt with in a dramatic form.

MR. FRED MOULE and Mr. E. D. Nicholls's company, in the farcical sketch, The Battle of the Belles, will come to the Bedford on Monday next. The trifle was originally produced at the Metropole, Manchester, on Nov. 6, 1905.

MR. HARRY LESTER, the "Terriers'" secretary, has been laid up this week with a very severe cold, which has troubled him for some weeks past. Under the care of Dr. G. F. M'Carthy he is making rapid progress.

MISS MAUD ESMOND scored an instantaneous "hit," at the Euston this week with Alf J. Lawrance and Tom Mellor's melodious number, "I've built a bamboo bungalow for you." This song, which is also being "featured" in all Mr. R. C. Buchanan's pantomimes, is published by the Monte Carlo Publishing Company, of Berners-street.

THE secretary of the Music Hall Benevolent Fund has received the sum of £5 from Mr. A. W. Matcham, being his pence box collection up to date at the Empire Palace, Birmingham. The president and committee are very grateful for his kind efforts on behalf of the fund.

THE directors of the Empire Palace, Portsmouth, recently gave their annual matinée to the inmates and patients of the Workhouse and Milton Asylum, numbering over 800. Each man received a packet of tobacco and a pipe, and to the women were given packets of sweets and oranges. They made a most enthusiastic audience.

MR AND MRS. EDGAR FORREST'S company will start on the Stoll tour on Monday next. The name of Forrest has been associated with sketches for the last twenty years.

LADE HENDERSON'S success at the Portsmouth Empire has seured for him contracts from Captain Warren Wright for three years.—Mr. Frank Coyle is successfully treating politics from a non-party point of view in his song "Master and Man."—Mr. Billy McClain is stage-managing Jack and Jill, the successful pantomime, at the Theatre Royal, Leeds, produced there by Mr. John Tiller.

MISS GWENNIE HASTO, who is playing the part of the Princess Roxana in Mr. Robert Courtneidge's pantomime, Cinderella, at the Theatre Royal, Newcastle-on-Tyne, is scoring a striking success. This is her fourth year in the same part. She is rebooked for the Continent in 1907.

AN original farcical episode from the pen of Mr. Louis Coen, entitled A Glass of Port, is in active rehearsal, and will shortly be produced—as a sketch—at a West-end music hall.

THE Miltons are scoring a most gratifying success in their knockabout and comic roller-skating act in the pantomime at the Theatre Royal, Exeter.

MR. JOCK WHITEFORD is so pleased with the success of his song, "Keep on doing it, Sandy," by Mr. J. F. Lambe, that he has accepted another ditty called "Tillie-tud-lum," by the same author.

MR. DAN CONROY, who is touring on the Moss and Stoll circuit, is taking the fancy of the hardy northerners with his comicalities, and has recently been complimented by Mr. Richard Thornton.

"OUR ISLES ARE BRITAIN'S GLORY," by Tom Mellor, author of "Little Wooden Hut," and T. Bingham Sedgwick, the author of "The Crown of England," is a non-party song, and will be sung by Mr. Norman Mills at the Camberwell Palace of Varieties this evening.

THE closing prices for music hall shares are as follow:—Alhambra, 1 11-16; Canterbury, 1¼; Drury Lane, 1 3-16; Empire (15s. paid), 2¼; do. (10s. paid), 1¼; Gaiety, 1¼; London Pav. O., 4¼; do. Pref., 5; Lon. Coliseum, 2⅜; Lyceum Ord., 1s.; do Pref., 1s. 6d.; Metropolitan, ⅝; Moss Empire, 4⅜; do. Pref., 3⅜; Oxford, 6½; Palace, 11s.; Tivoli, 5¼; Var. Cons. Theas., 14s.

MISS ANNETTE KELLERMAN, Australia's mermaid, made her 100th appearance at the Hippodrome on Thursday evening, and again scored a triumph by her magnificent exhibition of diving, being enthusiastically applauded by a crowded house, in which the New Zealand footballers were conspicuous. During the evening Mr. Fred Trussell, in a short speech, welcomed the All Blacks, who were evidently delighted with their reception. Miss Kellerman gives the bushman's cry of coo-ee during her performance, and on Thursday night the Colonials took it up, and gave quite a vigorous response. Miss Kellerman's style of swimming is so perfect, and her manner of performance so unconventional, that her wonderful popularity can be easily understood. She gives perfect imitations of Holbein and Burgess's methods, and her performance can be seen again and again with the greatest pleasure. Among the audience present on this festive occasion were Sir Malcolmn McEacharn, K.C.M.G.; the Hon. T. A. Coghlan, and the Hon. J. W. Taverner. Messrs. W. N. Benjamin, H. Benjamin, George Pragnell, and A. Hudson were among the gentlemen present connected with swimming.

"THE LADY IN RED," a new farcical sketch by that experienced dramatist and comedian, Mr. Tom Craven, has scored a success that has exceeded that gentleman's most sanguine anticipations. With the author in the cast it topped the bill at the Hippodrome, Brighton, Christmas week, playing to enormous business. Mr. Barrasford at once booked it for all his towns. Mr. Craven has written a regular screamer, and we hope shortly to welcome it in town.

MISS ADA ALEXANDRA, the popular "Dutch girl," has just returned from Canada the picture of health and vigour. Nearly two years ago, after a long fight against ill-health, Miss Alexandra had to give up her work. She now, happily, enjoys better health than she has done for many years, and has already arranged with Messrs. Henri Gros, Livermore, and others for the return of that evergreen success, The Mason.

AT the last meeting of the M.H.A.R.A. one of the proposals of Mr. George Gray's scheme that the Association be registered under the Friendly Societies Act was carried, and the Secretary was instructed to obtain the necessary forms. The consideration of the proposal to establish a Sick and Burial Fund was held over. In this connection we may point out that the wants of the profession are fully met by the Music Hall Sick Fund Provident Society, which is rapidly growing in importance, its objects having recently been brought prominently forward by well-known members of the profession, who have become staunch supporters.

THE death took place on Sunday, the 7th inst., at Rochdale, from heart failure, of Mr. Alfred H. Hamilton, of Hamilton's Excursions. Mr. Hamilton, who was in his fifty-fifth year, was the eldest son of the late Joseph Hamilton, the originator of this well-known entertainment. For many years Mr. Alfred Hamilton toured Great Britain and the Continent with his diorama, but recently turned his attention to animated picture work, and from 1899 till the close of the building in 1903 produced the Bioscope at the Royal Aquarium, Westminster. The remains were cremated at the Crematorium, Manchester, on Wednesday, January 10, those present being the deceased's son and daughter, his brother Felix, and Mr. Ralph Pringle.

MISS MARGARET ASHTON, who is now engaged in the concluding weeks of her provincial tour, has met with an excellent reception from North country audiences, who keenly appreciate her captivating style and abandon. The popular American soprano will next month fulfil a three weeks' engagement in town prior to a short tour in the West of England, after which she will begin a series of engagements at West-End halls.

MR. CECIL RALEIGH, writing to the Standard, says:—"I hope that you will not lose sight of the fact that whatever anomalies may exist in London as a result of the confused condition of entertainment law, the provinces remain undisturbed. The last prosecution of The Belle of the Orient ended in a victory, for the magistrate dismissed the case. Every second hall in the country has a double licence. You will find them as near to London as Walthamstow and Richmond. If the Lord Chamberlain and the County Council only put their heads together, and introduce the same system in the metropolis, the sketch question would be at an end. Anomalies will always continue so long as the office of Lord Chamberlain remains, but the double licence is, pending legislation, the best practicable solution of a complicated question." We propounded this solution of the sketch difficulty some twelve months ago, and said then that what was possible at Richmond should be practicable in the Edgware-road.

MR. HARRY TUCKER, husband of Miss Polly Albert, late of the Albert and Edmunds Troupe, who was well-known in the trotting world, passed away last week at the age of 74. He was interred in Forest Hill cemetery on Tuesday. A large crowd gathered at the graveside. Wreaths and floral emblems were sent by the following ladies and gentlemen:—Mrs. Tucker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baugh, Mr. and Mrs. Edmunds, Mrs. G. Preston and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley (Miss Jessie Preston), Mr. Grimmett, Mr. and Mrs. J. Albert, Mr. and Mrs. Mulford (Vinnie Edmunds), Mr. and Mrs. John Dipple, Mr. and Mrs. Hyhams, Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Jennings, and others.

MISS ALICE MAY, who presents no fewer than seven different characters in her successful sketch, Tranquillity, is paying a return visit within four months to Olympia, Liverpool, where her sketch is winning golden opinions.

THE funeral of the late Harry Hampson (of the Brothers Hampson) took place at the Elswick Cemetery, Newcastle-on-Tyne, on Monday. A large attendance of professional and other friends assembled to pay their last tribute of respect to the deceased, who was very popular. Numerous wreaths and flowers were sent from all parts.

THAT enterprising firm, the Monte Carlo Publishing Company, have this week acquired three new songs, which they purpose at a future date, including in their "Sixpenny Successes" series. These are, respectively, "Ma Bonnie Jean," a Scotch "coon" serenade, by Harrington and Le Brunn, which will be produced at the London Pavilion, with special scenery and effects by Jock Whiteford; "A Tale that will never Die," by Harrington and Tate, sung by George Leyton; and "That's your Cactus Over There!" one of the quaintest of coon songs, by that versatile author and composer, H. K. Hamilton Field.

MESSRS. JOHN P. HARRINGTON AND JAMES W. TATE have this week equipped Mr. Jock Whiteford with two new comedy songs, entitled "I'd be better if I had ma troosers on," and "Naebody could touch me."

PARTICULARLY strong companies have been engaged for the Empires of the Moss-Stoll circuit in town next week. The greatest magician of modern times, Chung Ling Soo, will appear at Hackney Empire; the realistic military play, Our Lads in Blue, at Holloway; Dr. Hermann, the hypnotist, at Shepherd's Bush; Vesta Tilley at New Cross; and Ella and her lions at Stratford.

LONDON VARIETY THEATRES.

THE LYCEUM.

Mr. George Leyton had a most sympathetic audience at the Lyceum on Saturday, when the veterans of Chelsea Hospital were invited by Mr. and Mrs. Barrasford to listen to the excellent entertainment. Mr. Leyton revived his well-known scena, "The boys of the Chelsea School," in which he was assisted by a chorus of twenty-four lads, and the stirring patriotic verses roused the old soldiers to enthusiasm. A specially interesting occurrence was the introduction by Mr. Leyton of the veteran, John Ford, of the 4th Queen's Own Dragoons, who, dressed in the picturesque uniform of 1855, recited Lord Tennyson's poem on the famous charge at Balaclava, the glories of which he shared. The proceeds of the sale of the words of Mr. Leyton's song were to be handed to another Crimean veteran, R. Topp, late of the Grenadier Guards.

But Mr. Leyton does not restrict his benevolent exertions to one veteran, and during the week he has introduced to Lyceum audiences Gunner James Groves (aged 72), of the Royal Artillery, who was present at the battles of the Alma, Inkermann, in the trenches at Sebastopol, and at Balaclava. Groves served for over twenty years, and enjoys the munificent pension of one shilling a day. Mr. Leyton briefly stated the facts of the veteran's career, and then appealed to the members of the audience to purchase copies of the song in order to provide some extra comforts for the old soldier. The popular actor-vocalist, we should add, has been the means of raising a large amount for neglected heroes of the Crimea—no less than £1,017 having been collected in the various provincial towns where he has introduced his descriptive scenas.

After what we have written, we need hardly state that "The boys of the Chelsea School" had a rousing welcome on the night of our visit, and a thrill of sympathy ran through the audience when the veteran Gunner Groves was seen to be marching on the stage at the head of the boys in front of a scene of the Duke of York's school, which is shortly to be pulled down. Mr. Leyton sang with all his well-known ardour and spirit, and the chorus was repeated again and again in response to enthusiastic plaudits.

One of the most popular items in the current programme is the sketch, Three of a Kind, presented by a specially-selected company, under the direction of Miss Ethel Arden. The plot of this most amusing trifle is founded on the farce, Tom, Dick, and Harry, and is an ingenious muddle of mistaken identity. Mr. Dick Whimpers, who has been sent to a maison de santé, returns to his home soon after the opening of the farce. His coloured photo, which has been lost by Mrs. Whimpers, suggests a disguise to two of the young lovers in the trifle, who in this way completely bamboozle a fiery general, the guardian of one of the girls. The scenes are in the spirit of pure farce, and are acted with a drollery and an agreeable rattle that are completely successful in bringing out the fun of the situations. Miss Ethel Arden herself plays in whimsical style the part of Mrs. Minerva Whimpers, who, like Niobe, is all tears, and she evokes the heartiest laughter when she requests her beloved, in a caressing voice, to call her "Nervy."

A dramatic turn of considerable interest is submitted by Mr. Victor Newman, who is announced as an actor-mimic. He chooses for his first impersonation Svengali, from Trilby, as embodied by Mr. Beerbohm Tree. The remarkable power of the Jew over the heroine of Du Maurier's novel is explained in the monologue, and the famous air "Ben Bolt" is sung by a vocalist in the wings. The audience heartily appreciate the strenuous work of the actor, and also applaud him in his concluding item when he gives an "impression" of the lamented Sir Henry Irving in Mathias's dream-scene from The Bells.

A cheery entertainment is that of Miss Fanny Wentworth, who has been called the Corney Grain in petticoats. She is very rightly making a little capital out of the election excitement by singing a special version of "Where are you going to, my pretty maid?" Very ingenious and neatly-turned are the verses. Miss Wentworth adds to her success by some well-told stories, and by her singing of "Now, isn't that like a man?" a capital number that causes considerable amusement among the fairer half of the audience. The Harmony Four, in their original musical comedy, repeat the success that they made at this house at the opening performance. Mr. Edward Hughes, as the Happy Hooligan, plays the fantastic tricks that have made him so popular; Mr. T. C. Bergeron is an artistic Professor Schultz, evincing considerable talent as a pianist; Mr. F. M. Barrett is a capital fiddle as Mike Murphy; and Mr. Tom Lloyd sings nicely as Reginald Astorbilt. The farcical business is heartily laughed at, and the harmony highly appreciated. Early in the evening Miss Evelyn Taylor, a vivacious and attractive comedienne and dancer, sings with spirit and animation, "When I backed a winner." Bud Primrose is a tireless step-dancer; the Fedoras are most successful operatic duettists; and Great Scott, cult and intrepid feats. The animated pictures unfold a dramatic theme in "The Vendetta," the progress of which is very keenly followed.

THE METROPOLITAN.

The popular Mr. Jack Edgar's New Year programme at the Metropolitan sustains the reputation of that fine house for excellent entertainment, and for something like four hours the stage is occupied by turns that have, for the most part, already won favour from the inhabitants of Paddington and the regions beyond. Early in the evening is presented a duologue entitled A Yacht for Sale, which has been played with considerable success at other London halls. It is winning a very favourable verdict at the Edgware-road house. The imbroglio arises from the error of a Mrs. Pendleton. She calls on a Dr. Smithkins—who incidentally has a yacht for sale—in reference to the character of a domestic. It is another Smithkins who runs the servants' registry, but this fact does not come out until an amusing game of cross-purposes has been played. The doctor becomes duly eloquent in his description of the qualities of the yacht, but the "fast" character of the Saucy Polly is not at all the sort of thing that is required in a housemaid. The lady is astonished to hear a number of particulars as to weight, figure, measurement, and construction, which not only puzzle her considerably, but keep the audience laughing all the time. The interpretation of the trifle is excellent, and its reception uproarious. Miss Alice Yorke, an experienced, clever actress, makes a fascinating and agreeable Mrs. Pendleton, and though the opportunities of the part are not great, she plays it with no little humour. Mr. Royston Keith makes a gentlemanly doctor, and cleverly supports Miss Yorke.

Miss Lottie Siegenberg, in a sketch, entitled The Lazy Slavey, is responsible for some meritorious vocal work. A Spanish song is followed by a coon melody, and "Il bacio" is also sung with spirit and animation. In her final selection, "The song that reached my heart" she plays her own accompaniment at the pianoforte, and is well received. Comedy is in the ascendant with the arrival of Mr. Jock Whiteford, the young Scotch comedian, who made his first appearance in London in the early part of last year. He has a command of pawky humour that is very exhilarating, and is especially funny in his description from the point of view of an excited boy spectator of a football match that takes place in Glasgow. The monologue is cleverly done, and keeps the house in roars of laughter. Miss Rose Hamilton, one of the most attractive of our burlesque actresses, displays a command of dialect and comedy in her first song, "Shopping," descriptive of the New York lady, a Scotch dame, a Lancashire girl, and a coster's donah, and their varying methods. The different types of character are skilfully accentuated, and it is evident that Miss Hamilton is happily suited with such work, which runs out of the common groove. She puts also an immense amount of life and go into her rendering of the coon song, "The Hottentot Man," her success being rounded off by a capitally-executed dance.

Miss Marie Lloyd is in brilliant form just now with "It's a thing of the past, old dear," in which a couple of old ladies exchange confidences over a nip or two of gin. The verses are extremely funny, and the touches of low comedy decidedly happy. Indeed, Miss Lloyd has never done better than in this song, which is making a great hit nightly wherever she sings it. "The little rustic maid" and "In town, in country" are also great successes. Mr. Fred Earle scores a real triumph in "Seaweed," and has to give encore verses nightly. It is a song in which funny situations are funnily described, and the humour lies in the fact that the "weed"—which is supposed to foretell the state of the atmosphere—is always prophesying what is already known. The audience commences to laugh from the first verse, and would listen to any number of additional ones were they supplied. Mr. Earle cuts a quaint figure, and emphasises the whimsical nature of the song with much cleverness. Mr. Chris. Richards is one of the drollest personages on the variety stage. He is particularly so in his dances, which are full of surprises. He is also responsible for much amusing business with a hat, and his effervescent style in the song, "On the hop," makes him extremely popular. The Three Laurels are responsible for one of the neatest and cleverest displays of acrobatism that are just now to be seen on the variety stage. Many of their most skilful tricks are performed on what is called a ping-pong table; but their ground tumbling has an intrepidity and smartness that are only to be found in the most finished performers. The funny member of the trio is a clever manipulator of hats, and we may also add that what he does not know about acrobatism is not worth learning. Florence and Lilian, two very attractive ladies, give a refined musical entertainment, in which Miss Lilian sings "Mary or Argyle" very prettily, and plays a selection from Il Trovatore on the fiddle like an angel, to the artistic piano accompaniment of her partner. Both of them are capital posthorn and bugle players, and are repeating the success they scored on their first appearance at this hall a few years since. Burke, Moller, and Teller, as The Professor and His Pupils, make their customary hit. The professor—who we may suppose is Mr. Burke—is a very fine dancer, and revives the best form of step-dancing, which is nearer to the poetry of motion than most people imagine. The programme is opened by Mr. Wal Robbins—a black-and-white performer, who plays with skill on the Japanese fiddle, and sings to his beloved mandoline, accompanying himself on that instrument. The Zampas are energetic and vigorous dancers and smart bâton twirlers. Miss Sylvia Du Barry is heard to advantage in "Sing me to sleep"; and the name of Mr. Jack Camp, comedian, is also on the bill. A cold, however, has prevented his appearance since Monday. Mr. Leon Zeitlin is the zealous acting-manager here, and Mr. D. M. Trytel the clever musical director.

EMPRESS, BRIXTON.

"Half-time at nine-thirty" is a phrase without meaning at Brixton this week, for the hall over which Mr. Nelson Francis rules so ably has been filled to the doors soon after their opening, and variety lovers who have sought to avail themselves of reduced prices later have found only standing room, and very little of that. The cause is not far to seek, for the current bill is graced by a number of turns of West-End renown. Miss Vesta Victoria is a favourite of particularly high standing at Brixton, and whether her selections are of the sentimental or the comic order, the results are equally favourable. Laughter is aroused at once by her appearance with a perambulator containing an assertive baby, her manner of recounting the infelicities of domestic life and her exquisitely droll antics keeping the flow of mirth unchecked.

Versatility is displayed by Mr. Austin Boyd and Miss Trixie Gilfain in their scena, which includes burlesques of melodrama and opera. Both artists are highly-gifted, and their excerpts, besides creating unlimited laughter, display the possession of vocal talent of a high order, Miss Gilfain also giving a specimen of her ability on the bagpipes. The vitality of Mr. Will Evans is wonderful. His antics were wont to amuse a generation of an older growth, and to-day he is indisputably funnier than ever. His preliminary patter, amusing enough in itself, gives way to an impersonation of "The Villain of the Piece," in which all the details of the part are travestied without mercy for the melodrama or for the laughter-staying powers of the audience. A couple of supernumeraries add valuably to the effect of the song, for the extension of which the audience make an enthusiastic demand.

A welcome hearty and sincere is reserved for Mr. Mark Melford, who appears in his popular sketch, My Wife Won't Let Me. The evening is well advanced when the little piece takes the stage, and the risible faculties of the audience have been thoroughly exercised, but Mr. Melford's deliciously dry humour seems to have a recuperative effect, and the progress of the sketch is made to an accompaniment of shrieks of laughter. The favourite comedian is assisted by a capable company, among whom is Miss Jackeydawra, a youthful actress, who gives proof of inherited talent. She looks very attractive in the "poke" bonnet and sober-hued costume of the stern and unrelenting young wife, and plays with commendable care and delicacy. A sketch which has won more recent favour is that of The Member for Muddlesex, played by Mr. William Lee and Miss Helen Bentley. It exercises an irresistibly droll effect, Mr. Lee's resignation and mild retorts being in comic comparison to the passionate invective of the shrewish wife. Miss Bentley preserves the character of the latter part unfailingly, her strong and clear voice, full of expression, making every line tell.

A charming exponent of the illusionary art is found in Mdlle. Von Etta, who is able to produce from a tall hat a number of bouquets with which she deluges the audience. A silk handkerchief yields a profusion of ribbons, followed by a number of flags of many nations, the production of the Japanese ensign arousing a hearty cheer. Mdlle. Von Etta, who assumes many varied and becoming costumes in the course of her performance, at length enters a box at the back of the stage, a pistol is fired, and the performer is seen making her way back to the stage from among the audience, while the lid of the box is lifted, and a young girl rises up waving a wreath of flowers in each hand. My Fancy gives a captivating display of the art of dancing, the experts among the audience watching her well-measured steps in silver clogs with undisguised delight. A sand-dance is productive of similar pleasure, and the talented exponent of terpsichore, whose equal in her special line it would be difficult to find, gains well-merited testimony of her success. The eccentricities of Mr. Phil Ray are as irresistible as ever, his song, "Only seventeen," being supplemented by a wealth of funny "patter," that causes laughs innumerable. Mr. Whit Cunliffe, a comedian with fresh and invigorating methods, retains the well-pleased ear of the house throughout his turn; Mr. Leo Tell gives specimens of equine language, which prove novel and clever; Fraser and Haley are harmonising vocalists of great excellence; and the programme which includes Mason Keeler and company, and Mr. Pat Rafferty, is brought to a mirthful conclusion by the Harvey Boys, in their boxing sketch. Mr. Robert Allington is a skilled musical director; and Mr. Francis Winchcombe acts as assistant-manager with courtesy and efficiency.

HACKNEY EMPIRE.

Though in the thick of the excitement and turmoil of a General Election, the residents of Hackney and district continue to support with liberal patronage the handsome and commodious place of amusement in Mare-street. Pantomime has deprived the variety stage for the time being of the services of many clever artists, and some weakening of the programmes—more particularly in regard to the comic turns—must of necessity be the result. However, the regular theatres have not absorbed all the talent, as the current programme at the Hackney Empire proves beyond question, a satisfactory level of excellence being maintained throughout.

Ridicule is known to have a deadly effect in some cases; and possibly the frequent burlesque of the conventional melodrama has done much to make that particular form of dramatic entertainment less popular than it was. Anyhow, Miss Louie Counsell and Mr. Oscar Mills industriously apply themselves to making fun of the sensational drama as presented at the theatres. Mr. Mills first represents the immaculate hero, whose only consolation in the midst of his many troubles is that the heroine remains faithful to him; and in this part he takes care to have all the limelight directed upon him, while he does a burlesque dying scene. Mr. Mills later comes on as the villain, with the black hair and the heavy moustache, who, in guttural gasps, accuses the distraught heroine of being false, and thereupon proceeds to make a murderous attack upon her in the good old melodramatic style that was wont to send a keen thrill of excitement through the audience. Excellent assistance in the scheme of amusement is rendered by Miss Counsell, as the much-harassed heroine, who is not made happy until the very end of the last act is reached. Another entertaining couple are Terry and Bentley, the gentleman, dressed as a huntsman, causing the lady to lose her temper by his aggravating way of asking questions and replying to inquiries. The male performer varies the act by some eccentric posturings and acrobatic feats, while the lady obliges with a neat song and dance. Miss Sable Fern, petite and pretty, meets with a good reception. She delights the audience by her piquant rendering of "There can only be one Phœbe in the house" and "I want you to be my girl." Her songs, by Frank Leo, are especially acceptable by reason of refrains which tempt her listeners to join in with vigour. The item, America's Lads in Blue, proves to be an interesting nautical spectacle, in which appear twenty-one young men as sailors. They go through a series of drills on board a man-o'-war, and the precision and quickness they display cannot fail to be greatly admired. The Marlo and Dunham Trio, consisting of two men and a lady, perform a number of clever feats on the horizontal bars, and their performance elicits much applause. The Sisters Aindow give a refined and eminently pleasing musical speciality, playing with skill the xylophone and other instruments. Madame Alice Simmons, Australian operatic prima donna, sings a couple of ballads with charming expression, and in the style of the well-trained vocalist. Mdlle. Heloise Dupont, comedienne, sings with all the vivacity which is characteristic of her countrymen and women; and Mr. Frank Bell also adds variety to the programme by his comic discourse.

The entertainment concludes with the American Bioscope, which, in a series of twelve tableaux, tells "The Story of the Hen that Laid the Golden Eggs." Being the fortunate possessors of this wonderful bird, a couple of peasants become rich "beyond the dreams of avarice"; but the place where they store their gold is discovered, and they are robbed. With the object of acquiring wealth at one stroke the owner of the hen kills it, and, of course, has reason to repent his foolish action, the couple being again reduced to penury. The story is graphically illustrated, and is a seasonable addition to the ordinary items of a well-diversified bill. Mr. John Christie is the popular acting-manager here, and Mr. Kennedy Johnson performs the duties of assistant-manager.

WALTHAMSTOW PALACE ANNIVERSARY.

The second anniversary of the opening of this popular theatre of varieties was celebrated by a special grand performance on the evening of the 5th inst., and drew an audience that simply packed the great house from stalls to gallery. Expectation regarding the event had been on tip-toe since the first announcement, and all the reserved seats in the house had been booked long before the day arrived, while early in the afternoon crowds collected at the pit and gallery doors eager to participate in the pleasures of an evening that will be remembered as a red-letter day in the annals of Walthamstow's amusements. The demand, indeed, for places in the boxes, stalls, and circle was far in excess of the holding capacity of the theatre, and many would-be spectators had reluctantly to retire. The Palace was tastefully decorated for the occasion. Festoons of roses, interspersed with electric lights, hung from gallery, circle, and boxes; looped themselves over the proscenium, stretched up the white-and-gold pillars and ran along the lines of the orchestra, while on the velvet cushion of every private box rested an exquisite bouquet of white flowers. The whole effect was brilliant in the extreme.

For such an important occasion the programme was arranged to occupy the entire evening, and this it certainly did, the curtain rising promptly at seven o'clock, and the strains of "God Save the King" not being heard until close on the stroke of midnight. The bill of fare provided by Mr. Arthur J. Barclay was worthy of the event and of the audience. Many leading "stars" of the variety stage travelled down to give their services, while Mr. G. Adney Payne, as managing-director, accompanied by Mrs. Adney Payne, occupied a private box. A great and emphatic success was made by Little Tich who, making his first appearance in Walthamstow, was at once admitted into the select constellation of "stars" that are marked as prime favourites. The inimitable droll was at his best, and gave two of his most popular songs, adding thereto his wonderful dance in the big shoes. Miss Marie Lloyd, who may now be reckoned as one of the established idols of Palace audiences, was in splendid form, and sang first one of her chic chansons in her best manner and her daintiest frock, and followed this by her exceedingly clever impersonation of the elderly lady somewhat addicted to looking upon the gin when it is clear in the cup, and discoursing to her friend of matters that are "things of the past, old dear." Mr. Alec Hurley had a great reception with one of his admirably rendered coster songs, and Mr. Will Evans, one of the special pets of the audience, amused everybody with his Villain of the Piece. Miss Vesta Victoria was as good as ever in a couple of her favourite and ever-popular effusions, and was loudly applauded. Mr. Will Cornish played delightfully on his hand-bells; Great Scott mounted his ladder and kept everyone in breathless excitement during his performance; Mr. Harry Champion was, as usual, an unmistakable favourite. Mr. Paul Martinetti and his clever company were seen to advantage in Robert Macaire, and Mr. V. L. Granville repeated the clever impersonations he had been giving during the week. Miss C. Stroud-Wilson's fine voice rang through the house in Tosti's "Good-bye!"; Miss Elsie Croft sang sweetly a pretty song, entitled "Wild Rose"; The Sabots gave their dainty Dutch entertainment. The other artists who contributed to the success of the evening included Hill and Hull, Major Newell, Mr. Charles Penrose, Datas, of the marvellous memory, Mr. Fred Earle, Mr. Tom Carney, Miss Wynnie Darrell, as neat and graceful as ever, My Fancy, in her unique sand dancing, Miss Rosa Loader, Mr. Hal Chapter, the Norman and Leonard Trio, Mr. Walter Stanley, Messrs. Stuart and Morgan, Mr. Frank Cumminger, Miss Violet Irving, and the Leonards (Bob and Jennie), the whole winding up with excellent portraits of Mr. Adney Payne, Mr. Arthur J. Barclay, and Mr. George F. Slatter, displayed by Ruffell's Imperial Bioscope. The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. H. Petersen, gave that gentleman's rattling overture, "Derby Day," in brilliant style. Great credit is due to the admirable stage-management of Mr. John Grant; everything went smoothly, there not being a single "wait" all through.

After the great audience had filed out into the street and the doors were closed, an interesting ceremony was performed in the saloon behind the circle. A large number of Mr. Arthur J. Barclay's personal friends and well-wishers in the town, having conceived the happy idea of presenting that gentleman with a testimonial in acknowledgment of the esteem in which he is universally held, and as some slight return for the unvarying kindness and courtesy he displays to visitors, considered that the celebration of the second anniversary of the opening of the Palace would be an excellent opportunity for the presentation. An influential committee was formed, with Mr. James Francis as chairman and Mr. George F. Slatter and Mr. G. W. Atkinson as honorary secretaries, Mrs. Young, of The Chequers, kindly consenting to act as hon. treasurer. The presentation was accordingly made after the conclusion of the public celebration. Councillor Friend (in the unavoidable absence of Mr. Francis) occupied the chair, and made the presentation. This consisted of a handsome silver salver, a purse of gold, and an illuminated address, beautifully engrossed in gold and colours, and suitably framed. Councillor Friend, having referred in felicitous terms to the high position Mr. Barclay held in the estimation of the inhabitants of Walthamstow, to the splendid results that had attended his untiring efforts as manager of the Palace, his unwearied desire to meet the wishes of all classes by placing before them a brilliant succession of entertainments which the most captious could not adversely criticise, handed over the gifts to Mr. Barclay amid loud and prolonged cheers. The presents having been handed round for inspection, and much admired, Mr. Barclay replied in a capital speech, thanking everyone concerned for the treasured testimonial and expressing his heartfelt gratitude for the expressions of goodwill that had been showered upon him. Mr. Barclay's health having been cordially drunk, the interesting proceedings concluded with three cheers for Mr. and Mrs. Barclay.

WALTHAMSTOW PALACE.

For this week and next, Mr. Arthur J. Barclay has practically abandoned the variety entertainment which forms the usual attraction at his handsome house, and, in its stead, seeks to lure the public with the mirth and dazzle of pantomime. And, judging from the state of business up to the moment of writing, the "lure" seems to prove irresistible to Walthamstow playgoers. By special arrangement with Mr. G. Adney Payne, Mr. Peter Davey produces his successful annual, entitled Goody Two Shoes, which has been entirely devised and arranged by the latter gentleman. The author of the piece, Mr. Hugh B. Pinnock, set himself what may strike one as an uphill labour in combining the somewhat incongruous elements of Coventry's legendary heroine, Lady Godiva, with the doings of the quaint little girl so dear to the hearts of our grandmothers; but in his hands it seems quite natural that little Goody should ride the high-horse through the streets of Silkopolis, and that Peeping Tom, ignoring his "augur hole," should hang half-way out of a window to enjoy his mischievous "peep." The action of the play—which, having no harlequinade, partakes more of the nature of a musical comedy than a pantomime—has already been fully described in these columns, and therefore does not require recapitulation. A very clever company is engaged in the interpretation. As the Earl Godiva, a capital representative is Mr. George Mudie, whose make-up and dress, in the style of the eighteenth century, certainly do not suggest the Tennysonian idea of the "grim earl." Mr. Mudie's performance is a triumph of delicate art; it is not burlesque, but pure high comedy. The actor has one or two good songs; that in which he writes letters to distinguished people being highly dramatic in itself, and capitally rendered. A more charming Goody Two Shoes than Miss Polly Prim it would be difficult to discover. Petite and pretty, Miss Prim acts with great spirit, dances marvellously well, and sings sweetly, making a great hit in the popular song, "I wouldn't leave my little wooden hut for you," with its accompanying dance. Miss Nell Richardson is altogether acceptable as Goody's defender and sweetheart, Crispin, her fine figure and expressive face telling greatly in her favour. Miss Richardson acts very well, while her singing, especially her rendering of "Rainbow," is excellent. A most amusing Dame Durdan is forthcoming in Mr. Sidney Young, who simply revels in the opportunities for fun-making given to him. Mr. Gus Garrick also extracts much comic capital from his part of Peeping Tom, and early makes himself a favourite. Mr. George Belmore as Marcodison and Mr. F. G. Martindale as the Town Crier both score. Miss May Hart is a lively Chevalier Hurley, Miss Madge Christopher a pretty Margot, and Miss Violet Broughton a bewitching messenger boy, Twig. The stage is filled with a crowd of young ladies, who enter with uncommon zeal into the business of their scenes, and are as merry and musical as they are good-looking. The scenery, painted by Mr. George Miller, is of a high order of merit. The music, arranged by Mr. J. H. Russell and Mr. Corelli Windeatt from popular airs of the day (by permission of the various publishers), is appropriate and lively; while Mr. Windeatt (who also directs the orchestra) has composed several new numbers. The general-manager (for Mr. Peter Davey) is Mr. Tom Taylor, and the acting-manager Mr. F. Cellier, jun.

SADLER'S WELLS.

A chic and engaging little lady is Miss Dot Stanley, who is this week scoring heavily with her song, "Mandy," who, we learn, is a young gentleman "as sweet as candy." The song is sung in most spirited strain, and Miss Stanley dances in the sprightliest manner imaginable. Gymnastics of an interesting order are indulged in by Adee and Agwin in their comedy act, Antics of a Road-repairer. One sees on the stage a sight familiar to Londoners—the sight of the labourer's wooden shelter, the brazier, the red "danger" lamp, and the sign-post bearing the words, "No road." The gentleman in the act referred to exhibits his skill in using his hands as the ordinary person would use his feet. By means of his manual extremities he succeeds in mounting and descending steps, cleverly balancing his body the while. Miss Rita Resdan dons a white bowler and masculine dress, wherein she cuts a nice figure of a young man, and sings the praises of the captivating creature, Irish Molly. Her second appearance is as a dandy with the indispensable monocle and Johnny ways. Then we get to hear a lot about one Charlie, who is always to be seen with a lady on his arm. Miss Resdan has fine scope for character comedy in this number, and she fully avails herself of it.

Fox and Melville, American song illustrators, make a decided hit with their vocal scenas. In the first we get the well-known song, "There's somebody waiting for me," the different pictures in connection with which are really beautiful specimens of the photographic art. In "The man in the overalls" the lady singer tells of the many-sided usefulness of the working man, and a series of extremely fine coloured slides aids in describing the various departments of labour with which the artisan has enriched his country. The two songs are sung with expression and feeling, and are amongst the most delightful items in the programme. Mr. Will Lytton is a host in himself, and offers a lot of immensely funny patter. From an absurd Scotchman, adorned by incomprehensible tartans, and with a lot of laughable dialect, he changes quickly into the character of an inebriated individual, with torn clothes and a rubicund, Bacchus-like countenance, and treats the house to a variety of whimsicalities in word and deed. Claude Ginnett's Rejected Remounts sketch company are uproariously lively in the telling of their story about the sale of a white horse. The latter itself possesses a fine sense of humour, and one wonders at the amazing intelligence it displays. There are three other horses which also give evidence of remarkably successful training. Mr. Ginnett is excruciatingly comical as the unsophisticated purchaser of the animals, and the other members of the little company assist with excellent result in the merry-making. One sees some smart sand-dancing while Mr. Frank Cumminger holds the stage, his agility and eccentric movements and twists and turns, being greatly admired. Mr. Cumminger also renders in capital style a verse or two in which the ladies of different countries receive appreciatory notice.

Miss Dorothy L. Clarke has two endowments which should go far in the making of a successful stage career. One is a fine presence, and the other splendid vocal talent. Her songs are of an inspiring character, and they are sung in a fashion which permits full justice being done to the dainty sentiment of the themes. Sweet and tuneful is her rendering of "My morning glory," and her second number, in which the military strain enters, is given with stirring spiritedness. Whatever Miss Clarke does is refined and refreshing, and her verses are of the class that tend to raise the tone of a music-hall programme. Mr. Fred Southern and his company appear in the sketch, A Waif of the Sea. Mr. Southern is extremely amusing with his low comedy acting in the part of Tim the carter, and the husky voice and irresponsible chatter of the tavern-loving driver make the rôle, as played by Mr. Southern, a realistic study. Mr. Courtney Robinson vigorously portrays the character of the villainous Roger Moreland; and Mr. C. H. Handon admirably represents the finer and manly qualities of the hero, George Manton. Pathetic and dignified is the portraiture of Lil Manton by Miss May Emery; and Mr. Percy Emery is seen to advantage in the rôle of Jack Gausden. Miss Gipsy Alexander enhances the humorous element of the sketch in her part of Dolly Farmer. Raymond's Bio-tableaux present a number of interesting and well-defined pictures.

MISS ANNETTE KELLERMAN'S 100TH PERFORMANCE AT THE LONDON HIPPODROME.

"AUSTRALIA'S MERMAID" made her 100th appearance at the Hippodrome last evening, and gained unstinted applause for her charming and very graceful water show from a big house that included several gentlemen well-known in connection with swimming, and the New Zealand footballers. During the evening Mr. Trussell, the manager of the Hippodrome, in a short speech on behalf of the audience, extended a hearty welcome to the New Zealanders, his requests for three hearty cheers being loudly taken up by those present. The footballers replied with their well-known Maori war cry, and apparently appreciated the compliment paid them. It says much for the quality of a variety turn that nowadays stands the test of one hundred consecutive performances, and is still popular, but there is that in Miss Kellerman's display that causes one to regret when her all too rapid twelve minutes in the Hippodrome tank are ended and arouses a desire to again witness it. The "mermaid" compels attention, if only for the fact that she is quite independent and declines to be shackled by the etiquette of the "show" profession. She laughs and talks, brings fish out of the water as if she had caught them, and intimates to those in front that she is an Australian girl with the bushmen's cry of "c-o-o-ee." Last night there was quite a vigorous response to Miss Kellerman's call, for the footballers immediately took it up. Her display, which has greatly improved—for Miss Kellerman is now thoroughly familiar with the conditions—is quite the best that could be seen in its way. Imitations are given of Holbein's and Burgess's methods of swimming, these being so accurate that Miss Kellerman, whose own style is perfect, reproduces the former's excellent back-stroke and Burgess's ungainly leg-kick without the least exaggeration. Her diving—which is quite the feature of the show—is delightful to watch, for it does not matter in what style she enters the water, it is always graceful. The front-back feat—a singularly difficult trick—is accomplished well, and somersaults into the water and dolphin and "wooden soldier" dives made with the minimum amount of splash. Swimming with the hands tied and "headers" are all included in the show, at the end of which Miss Kellerman just nods to the audience, as much as to say "Good-night," and goes away. In order to celebrate the occasion a charming souvneir programme of Miss Kellerman's show was presented by the Hippodrome management to all present. In this are excellently produced photographs of the New Zealand footballers, and the fair Australian is seen as an advocate of "mixed bathing," her companions being mackerel, octopi, skate, and what are known as "nightmares"—a remarkable combination. The Hippodrome programme is of a very attractive character just now, "Among the Stars" and the Fishing Cormorants being in themselves well worth seeing. A number of gentlemen connected with swimming were present, amongst them being Mr. W. N. Benjamin (President A.S.A.), Messrs. Geo. Pragnell and H. Benjamin (Past Presidents A.S.A.), and Mr. A. Hudson.—The Sportsman.

Last night being the 100th performance of Miss Annette Kellerman, "the Australian Mermaid," the directors of the Hippodrome invited the triumphant "All Blacks" to witness the magnificent exhibition of fancy swimming and diving given by their famous fellow Colonial. A souvenir of the event was distributed among the audience, and at the conclusion of the performance Mr. Fred Trussell made a short and apt speech, in which he wished the team goodwill and Godspeed on their homeward journey. After the audience had given three hearty cheers the New Zealanders stood up in a body and chanted the inspiring Maori war cry. Topical allusions concerning the guests were made throughout the performance, and the programme supplied was certainly excellent fare for the last public appearance of the Colonials, with whom were Sir Malcolm McEacharn, K.C.M.G., the Hon. T. A. Coghlan, and the Hon. J. W. Taverner.—Sporting Life.

MISS MARGUERITE BROADFOOTE, who is playing the part of the Prince in the pantomime of Jack and Jill at the Theatre Royal, Leeds, is making a great hit with her "Fables" song as well as her specially written "Girls from Leeds," her other numbers being "Irish Molly" and "When the boys come marching home." Miss Broadfoote is well booked into 1908, and has had numerous offers to play in musical comedy, which her music hall engagements prevent her from accepting for the moment.

MUSIC HALL SICK FUND.

The monthly meeting of the members of the Music Hall Sick Fund Provident Society was held at the York Hotel, Lambeth, on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Pat Carey (president) occupied the chair, and there were also present Messrs. W. J. Wainratta (vice-president), Frank Heath (hon. treasurer), H. Griff, G. Dezmonti, J. Mulcaster, and W. West.

The Secretary (Mr. R. T. Baines) read a letter from Mr. Frank Weeks, manager of the South London, accepting the position of one of the vice-presidents of the fund.

The secretary submitted a list of members who had joined since the last meeting, and stated that the new rules, which had, in accordance with the demands of the Registrar of Friendly Societies, been prepared, were still in the hands of that official. As soon as they received the official sanction, copies would be printed, and one sent to each member of the society. Messrs. Williams and Griff had been specially energetic and successful in obtaining new members for the society.

The chairman remarked that the fund was being much more talked about in the variety profession, and was now regarded as one of the best and soundest investments for a music-hall artist to become connected with. They could not be told too often that the fund made provision for times of sickness, and in the event of death a grant of £10 was made to the nearest relative. The society had now been in existence nearly forty years, and its financial position was thoroughly sound, the sum of £1,000 having been invested in Consols.

Mr. Griff suggested the formation of a Superannuation Fund for the benefit of members of the profession who, by reason of advanced age or bodily infirmity, were no longer able to follow their calling. The formation of such a fund had, he said, been often mooted, but nothing practical had ever been done in the matter. He believed that a fund of this kind would receive the support of a great many members of the profession. The details would, of course, require very careful attention, and he moved that the further consideration of the proposal be deferred until a general meeting of the Sick Fund, to be held on March 14 next, and to which members of the profession would be specially invited.

Mr. Wainratta seconded the motion, which was carried; and the proceedings closed with a vote of thanks to the chairman.

ISLINGTON EMPIRE.

The local elections of gentlemen to represent the various divisions of Islington in Parliament has had little if any effect upon the attendance at the Islington Empire; and references to the event by the comedians engaged here this week are remarkably few and far between. The spirit of pantomime is strongly represented in the rollicking skit, entitled Moving In, played by Mr. Herbert Darnley's hard-working company. Great fun is made out of the removal of furniture from a carrier's van into a house; the riotous proceedings being joined in by the father of the family, who is handicapped by a gouty leg swathed in bandages, the energetic mother, who breaks into a dance on the slightest provocation, a mischievous boy, and a little girl, also fond of a prank. The scene of confusion which arises can better be imagined than described; the furniture-shifters literally throw the goods into the room; and plates and dishes are scattered all over the place, while a pianoforte comes in for a considerable amount of rough usage. A safe excites the cupidity of the men, and when the members of the family have retired to rest they attempt to open it by violent means, but are interrupted by the entrance of the little girl already mentioned, who quietly opens the door of the safe and proceeds to fill a scuttle with coals! The expression on the faces of the would-be thieves is ludicrous in the extreme. Finally, the members of the family show by their actions that there is a strong smell of gas, and one of them endeavours to discover the leakage with a lighted candle, when a loud report is heard, and the house collapses, like a built-up pack of cards, bringing the sketch to a sensational conclusion.

Amongst other artists who excite the merriment of the audience are Messrs. Tray and Rich, patter comedians, who win well deserved popularity. They make fun of the local slow moving, old-fashioned tram-cars. Says one to the other, "I had twopennyworth on a tram from Holloway—started this morning—you see I wanted to get here to-night." This couple also excel in some smart song and dance contributions. Mr. Boyd and Miss Gilfain appear in a musical sketch, in which the lady gives a song descriptive of the various people she met while a barmaid, imitating a Frenchman, a German, a Scotchman, &c. These clever and versatile artists also submit a laughable burlesque of the sensational drama and grand opera, concluding with a skit on the entertainment given at a Scotch concert. Mr. Gilbert Girard opens with imitations of the Æolian harp and the Jew's harp, showing the difference between the two. He next causes considerable amusement by his clever reproduction of the crow of the farmyard rooster of various breeds, also giving remarkably exact imitations of fighting dogs and cats. His performance is greeted with loud applause. Lozelle, described as a sensational gymnast, gives an interesting exhibition, in which he displays both skill and strength. Miss Marion Hood sings "Will anybody take me home?" the enquiry being at last specially directed at a certain gentleman sitting in the stalls, to whom the fair vocalist also throws a pretty button-hole, as well as a tender glance. Mr. Arthur Gilbert, in his ditty, "Model England," is sarcastic at the expense of time-honoured customs and institutions, but his caustic comments are quite inoffensive, as he takes care to point out before singing the song. Mr. Milner Verren makes good use of his tenor voice in a pathetic ballad, which is well received. On the evening of our visit Mr. Michael Nolan, the popular Irish comedian, was absent, but in his place appeared Miss Venie Clements, an attractive serio, who gave imitations of various performers at a party, including a little girl with a dilapidated doll. Miss Clements made a most favourable impression, and was heartily recalled. The programme concludes with the Bioscope, illustrating the story of "The Hen that Laid the Golden Eggs." Mr. R. L. Adkin is the courteous manager at this hall, assisted by Mr. Bertram Jay, acting-manager.

The fourth anniversary was celebrated on Friday night, when a number of extra turns appeared, and there were at both houses large and enthusiastic audiences.

FOOTBALL.

BRISTOL X.L.C.R. AND HARRY HARE'S ORCHESTRAL BAND ATHLETIC CLUBS v. MUSIC HALLS A.F.C.—Played on Clifton Downs Dec. 16. Messrs. Harry Belding and Fred B. Nicholls played well in goal for their respective sides. The following were the teams:—

Bristol X.L.C.R.—H. Belding, goal; A. Hamblin (captain) and J. Lewis, backs; S. Carter, E. Bailey, and W. Miller, half backs; E. Bowman, H. Edwards, P. Hewlett, H. Clements, and E. Belding, forwards.

Music Halls A.F.C.—F. B. Nicholls, goal; F. Arni and E. Denton (backs); T. Neagle (captain), Dan O'Connor, and J. Lacey, half backs; R. Cullen, P. Reardon, F. Hansford, W. Hinder, and H. C. Douglas, forwards.

Referee, H. Slade (Bristol X.L.C.R. A.F.C.); linesmen, H. Hare and F. Stevens. No goal was scored on either side.

THE LATE GEORGE LE BRUNN.

A BRIEF APPRECIATION.

George Le Brunn was born in Pool Valley, Brighton, on June 20, 1864. His parents were business people, with no particular leaning towards music, so far as I have been able to ascertain. Yet, at an exceedingly tender age, the youthful George evinced a talent for music surprising in one so young. When quite a tiny slip of a boy he played the violin regularly in the orchestra of one of the principal music halls in Brighton. All his life, he had a strong leaning towards the harp, on which he excelled, although few had the privilege of hearing him play on that delightful instrument. The piano was, of course, the instrument on which he was facile princeps, and his command of it was simply wonderful.

In 1883, he married Miss Lizzie Hewer, one of the most constant, true-hearted companions that ever blessed the life of a clever man, the faithful partner of his life struggles. This is the bereaved one for whom an apeal to the charity of the profession is now being made, so that she may have a bumper benefit matinée at the Oxford (so kindly placed at the disposal of the benefit committee by the directors), on Monday, Jan. 22, and not be left stranded, now that the bread-winner has been called away.

On attaining to manhood, George Le Brunn drifted from Brighton to that Mecca of the English composer, London; and, thenceforward, he made the metropolis his home. He arrived an unknown man; but, in little more than a year, his genius had triumphed over all obstacles, and he became famous as a music-hall song composer. When I first joined him, he had published some six songs in all; when he died, some twenty years later, he had published considerably over 1000! A great number of these were composed to lyrics (and very notable ones many were) by authors other than myself. The very best writers in the business were proud to have their words set by George Le Brunn. He composed the music to almost the first songs that Richard Morton wrote. Many a score of songs and sketches written by Wal Pink have had his music wedded to them; while Fred W. Leigh, Edgar Bateman, the late A. J. Morris, and many other popular writers, whose names I cannot at the moment remember, have been collaborators with him in famous songs, which have made music-hall and theatrical history.

The first song that established the fame of the deceased was "The seven ages of man," sung by that departed "king" of all descriptive vocalists, Charles Godfrey. Then came "Across the bridge" (written by Fred Bowyer), also sung by Godfrey; Jenny Hill's triumph, "Masks and faces," her highly-popular scena, "The city waif"; and in rapid succession, Bessie Bonehill's "Girls of to-day," Millie Hylton's "As in a looking-glass," Harriett Vernon's "Sappho," Godfrey's "Hi-tiddley-hi-ti" (in conjunction with E. W. Rogers), Vesta Tilley's "Pretty little maiden's sea-trip," and hundreds more. In conjunction with Mr. Wal Pink he composed "The Seventh Royal Fusiliers" and "Half-past nine"; with Edgar Bateman "The 'ouses in between," "It's a great big shame"; with W. T. Lytton, Miss Marie Lloyd's first and possibly greatest success, "Wink the other eye"; with myself, the late Bessie Wentworth's "My gal hab not eyes like diamonds" and "Looking for a coon like me." These are only a few, selected haphazard from many hundreds of successes.

THE LATE MR. GEORGE LE BRUNN.

He spent his life in the service of the profession—aye, spent it long before the proper time, till at last the overwrought brain could bear no more. Meningitis laid its deadly hand on music's favoured son, and at the all-too-early age of forty-two, George Le Brunn, the greatest composer the music-hall world has ever known, passed away into the Great Beyond.

Naturally, many will ask: If George Le Brunn wrote so many and such great successes, how comes it that his widow is not more amply provided for? By way of reply, I would point to the glaring inadequacy of our copyright laws. The fell hand of the music pirate robbed George Le Brunn of the fruits of his genius, and a miserable "mess of pottage" was all these human vultures left him as the reward of his life's labours. Were it not for the presence of the pirate in the land, encouraged by the absurd laws of the England we extol in our patriotic songs, and the perfervid adherence of such judges of equity and music as Caldwell, M.P., there would have been no need for a matinée benefit for my poor colleague's widow.

Furthermore, let me here mention that he, when alive, had a host of claims upon his purse, chiefly family concerns into which it is not my province to enter. And, again, did anyone ever appeal to George Le Brunn in the cause of charity and go empty away?

A final exhortation. Professional brothers and sisters! rally round, and help the good cause of the helpless widow. If every artist for whom George Le Brunn wrote a success sent a guinea to the fund we are raising, we should net a thousand pounds!

Subscription lists are now ready, and will gladly be forwarded to any address, on application to Mr. Albert Gilmer, chairman of the committee; Mr. David Day, hon. treasurer, 142, Charing Cross-road, W.C.; or from myself, as hon. secretary, at the Oxford Music Hall, W.

JOHN P. HARRINGTON.

GEORGE LE BRUNN FUND.

FIRST LIST OF SUBSCRIPTIONS.

	£	s.	d.
Eugene Stratton	10	10	0
Gus Elen	10	10	0
Francis, Day, and Hunter	10	10	0
George Adney Payne	10	0	0
Joe Elvin	10	0	0
J. W. Monk	10	0	0
Miss Eileen Douglas	6	0	0
Miss Vesta Tilley	5	5	0
Julia Neilson and Fred Terry	2	2	0
H. Joyner	2	2	0
Frank Allen	1	1	0
Lester Barrett	1	1	0

THERE will be a Committee meeting of the George Le Brunn Fund Supporters on Monday, to be held at the Oxford Music Hall. Arrangements for the benefit performance are progressing satisfactorily.

PACEY AND REEVES' VARIETY AGENCY.

"Our agency business," said Mr. Fred Reeves, in reply to a question put by a representative of The Era, "has developed tremendously during the last two years. The principal reason of this, I suppose, is that both Mr. Tom Pacey and myself are hard workers, and admirably suited to each other. Then, we never submit a turn to a manager or proprietor until we have seen it and satisfied ourselves that it is a suitable one. This system has proved of immense advantage to us, as we have gained the confidence of the people with whom we deal, and this, of course, has resulted in a renewal of business transactions."

MR. FRED REEVES.

Mr. Fred Reeves has had twenty-eight years' experience of variety affairs—fourteen years as a performer and a similar period as a manager. Mr. Pacey's agency connections date more than twelve years back, and the extensive knowledge the two gentlemen have acquired of music-hall requirements has undoubtedly stood them in good stead. "We never," affirms Mr. Reeves, "abuse the confidence managers place in us, and we have consequently always retained their friendship and a good share of their bookings. Although last year was considered by most people to be a bad one for this business, we made 212 more contracts than in the prévious twelve months. We have done exceptionally well with all the Continental turns, and I found, while in Germany lately, that most of our principal artists are booked up for several years.

"Amongst those whom we consider our regular clients are G. H. Elliott, Erne Mayne, Duncan and Godfrey, Little Cliff, Walter Stanley, Blake and Granby, the Dunedin Troupe, Stirling and Love, The Barmaid Sketch Company, May Marton, Speedwell, V. L. Granville, Athos Troupe, Geoffreys and Benson, Maudie Forde, Hallam and Stanton, Herbert La Martine, King and Benson, W. H. Downs, Terry and Bentley, Bert Brantford, the San Remo Girls, Fred Land, and the King's College Boys. All these artists are now booked up for years, and every contract has been made by us. Our latest lady client is Miss May Marton, whose name we have only had on our books for six months, and already we have her booked up for some time to come. She bids fair to become a star, and she has had fresh contracts at a big increase of salary wherever she has appeared. At present she is making a great success in pantomime as Aladdin, at the Grand Theatre, Edinburgh. The Athos Troupe come to us three months ago, with only two weeks arranged for. Now they are nearly full for this year, and have few vacancies for next. Speedwell, the "demon painter," affords also another instance of our successful bookings. Those are only a few of the turns with whom we are making great headway. If we were to mention all, we should require two or three pages of your paper to describe their acts.

"We work exclusively for 186 artists, and have nearly 600 others on our books. It is scarcely necessary to say that we transact business with all the principal firms and syndicates, and we also have a fairly satisfactory business on the Continent and in America, to which country one of us is going at the end of the year. We also do a lot with Mr. Harry Rickards in Australia. Pantomime is another branch of our business that has developed wonderfully of late, as will be understood when I mention that in 1903 we only had fourteen turns working pantomime, in 1904 we had twenty-eight, and this Christmas season the latter number has doubled."

MR. TOM PACEY.

Both Mr. Reeves and Mr. Pacey have felt the advantage of the change of address from Waterloo-road to Brixton. At 186, Brixton-road they have commodious offices, and are, moreover, in pleasanter surroundings. Mr. Pacey lives on the premises, so that telegrams and telephone messages can be attended to without delay. Mr. Reeves resides hard by at the Cedars, only a minute's walk from the office, so that he is easily accessible. "Over two years ago," remarked Mr. Reeves, "you wished us good luck. Now, with the assistance of hard work, we have got it."

Mr. Pacey, who, as already mentioned, has been a variety agent for twelve years, takes a great interest in the Music Hall Benevolent Fund, of which he was the vice-chairman in 1903 and 1904, and chairman during last year. Of Mr. Reeves's busy career much is already known. He was born in 1865, and his father was a highly-respected member of the legal profession, a member of the London School Board, one of the Westminster Poor Law Guardians, and chairman of the Westminster Ratepayers' Association. The present Mr. Reeves was introduced to the music-hall profession at the age of eight as the "boy magician," and he appeared at every hall of note in London and the provinces under the name of Rowland Lorimer. He worked on the stage, too, as an acrobat; and, later still, he produced and stage-managed seven pantomimes, and played principal parts in no fewer than fourteen, being for three years with the late Sir Augustus Harris. For nine years he managed the Leicester Empire in conjunction with his brother, Mr. Harold Verdel, and on leaving Leicester he opened and managed the Bristol Empire for Mr. Ernest Carpenter. He was next seen in charge of affairs at the Camberwell Palace, which establishment he also opened. Then followed his three-and-a-half years' successful control of the Hammersmith Palace. When he resigned his position there he quitted the place on the very best of terms with Mr. Coe, the proprietor, a gentleman of whom he speaks most highly.

It should be stated that Messrs. Pacey and Reeves have a most diligent manager in Mr. H. S. Hart.

"THE ERA" NEW YEAR'S SHILLING FUND FOR THE MUSIC HALL HOME.

MR. THOMAS BARRASFORD'S APPEAL.

"We are very comfortable indeed, sir," said one, after the writer had wished them all a Happy New Year. "We couldn't be better treated if we paid a couple of pounds a week for the accommodation," asseverated another. "We are not interfered with in the least," was the story of the third. And so on. In fact, words were not necessary to convey what was too apparent in the faces and general outward appearance of the men. They all agreed upon one point: that they were being treated with the utmost consideration, just as if they were, to use one expression which was dropped during conversation, "lodgers." They spoke of the kindliness both of Mr. and Mrs. Fruin.

[Photo by Brooks.

MR. THOMAS BARRASFORD.

"Had a jolly Christmas?"

Had a jolly Christmas, indeed! What need to ask the question? The "turk" was splendid; never had a more tasty bird been eaten at a Yuletide banquet. The "turk" had been cooked as it should be cooked; there was more than plenty of it. So heartily was it honoured in the feasting that, when the Christmas pudding came on, only so much of it was eaten as would justify "good luck" in the New Year!

This doesn't sound like a charitable institution at all, and if you were to pay a visit to 31, Wilson-road, Camberwell, where the beneficiaries under the Music Hall Home scheme are taken care of, you would be willing to admit that it was a home in the best sense of the word.

Now, this Home requires keeping up, and it cannot be kept up on air. There is no need for us to refer to all the good work performed by the institution in the past; this must be in the recollection of our readers. At present there are seven inmates, all of whom are advanced in years, their ages ranging from fifty to seventy-six. In all probability these men will be maintained in the Home until the day of their death, and their funerals will be paid for out of the funds of the Music Hall Home. Hitherto the burial expenses of an inmate have been met by the Music Hall Benevolent Fund, but in future it is intended that the Home shall perform this office. One of the residents—"inmates" is far too harsh a word to use in this connection—died last year, and was laid in his last resting-place by the institution which had looked after his welfare during the closing years of his life.

The vice-presidents and the committee of the Music Hall Home are sincerely desirous of increasing its scope of usefulness. They would like to be in a position to afford shelter to many more deserving members of the variety profession who have fallen upon evil times. To those who are reading these lines we would say: Some day you yourself will have to retire from the activities that are called into being within the noisy arena of business affairs, and then memory and imagination will revive the doings of the past as you sit quietly watching the shadows creep along the wall. While we trust that the retrospect in your own individual case will be a very happy one, we would beg you to think of what it would mean to you should Fate so will it that disaster overtakes you in the evening of your days, when physical disabilities and the despairing cry of "old men not wanted" bar you from again entering the field. There are men and women belonging to your profession who are in that unhappy condition to-day. A few of them are receiving adequate support, but the majority are not. Let us point out that in these days of quick changes a man may be driving in his motor-car one day, and be comparatively rich so far as this world's goods are concerned. To-morrow he may be a victim of the vicissitudes which threaten in an age of fickleness.

It is, as we have already indicated, the desire of the principal gentlemen connected with the fund to procure such additional donations as will enable them to provide accommodation for more music hall performers who have been stricken with poverty or illness in their declining years. It is hoped that as a result of the appeal now being made that the subscriptions will be of a sufficiently encouraging character to warrant the establishment of a Home for women. Therefore, send your contribution to the fund, and, even if it be a small contribution, let it be a speedy one, for he who gives quickly gives twice.

Mr. Thomas Barrasford, the President of the Music Hall Home Fund, made a strenuous appeal about this time last year for the generosity of the profession in support of The Era Shilling Fund. and he desires again to urge upon artists the claims of this deserving charity. By means of The Era collecting cards the money at the disposal of the fund was increased by £217 6s. 6d. This means that practically 4,346 separate shillings were collected, and in this direction great praise is due to Miss Nellie Wilson for her strenuous efforts in the cause of charity.

We have now to renew the appeal we made this time twelve months ago. That appeal and most of the money obtained by it are, as Miss Marie Lloyd would say, "a thing of the past, old dear." We have entered upon a new year. What is the prospect? It is that of help badly needed by many of your brother and sister artists who are down on their luck, and some who, by reason of their age, are likely to remain so. There is no necessity, nor would it be right, to harrow your feelings with tales of poverty and misery. You have contributed handsomely in the past. We know that you will do so again, and we shall be pleased to acknowledge your donations to The Era New Year's Shilling Fund in these columns. Mr. F. H. Pedgrift is the hon. treasurer, and he will be pleased to receive filled-up subscription cards addressed to him at 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C. First list of subscriptions will be published next week.

BOW PALACE.

The patrons of the Bow Palace have been pleased to see Mr. Fred Baugh, Mr. Macnaghten's able general-manager, sufficiently recovered from his recent serious illness to be able to supervise affairs once more. Although his normal strength has not yet returned to him, he is now in a fair way towards complete health, and we trust he will not experience any further inconvenience of the nature in which his late malady placed him. An admirable programme at the Bow Palace this week is headed by Mr. Lew Lake and his "colossal comedy company of cunning conspitators and crafty coppers"—so the alliterative description runs—in the absurdity, The Bloomsbury Burglars. Mr. Lew Lake is as uproariously farcical as ever in his portrayal of the doings of Nobbler; and Mr. Bob Morris is scarcely less comical as Jerry. Miss Kitty Wilmore does full justice to the rôle of the "fickle jade," Edith Arlington, and the amusingly absurd dignity of the flunkey is cleverly represented by Mr. Ernest Webb; while Mr. Harry Lavers gives a capital sketch of the quieter character of the artist. Miss Ena Richards, the Canadian comedienne and dancer, sings in agreeable fashion of one Arabella Cole, her "Guessing" ditty also causing a pleasing diversion.

A delightful item in the programme is a musical duologue, entitled What Price Me? in which Miss Dolly Vernon and Miss Marie Burdell took part. These ladies appear in place of Amstell and Louie, who have been unable to turn up. Miss Vernon and Miss Burdell play the characters of an actress and her servant. The latter "makes up" after the manner of her mistress, just to prove her claims to the Thespian art. The effect is laughable, to say the least, and the two ladies acquit themselves to the entertainment of the audience in song and dance. That disconcerting, secret-divulging creature, the dickey bird, forms the subject of some amusing verses, sung by Mr. Will Driscoll. The feathered detective tells a lady a lot of things about her husband, and Mr. Driscoll deals with the various tales in a diverting manner. Vocalists of no small calibre are found in Miss Edie Gray and her White Nippers, and their rendering of coon songs furnishes one of the most enchanting items in the programme. The Washingtons also excel in a similar direction, their singing of a song about the wind and the rain, and their dancing, being very popular with the East-enders.

More comedy duologists enter the field in the persons of the Elvins, in whose parody on East Lynne one gets a good deal of really funny burlesque fooling. Tennyson and Wallis distinguish themselves as eccentric comedians, their patter being full of sportive quips and cranks. Their facial expressions, gestures, and quaint mannerisms are a programme of humorous revelry in themselves, let alone their lincs. Mr. Harry Gold, in his song-scena, entitled "Cloudland," submits some dainty dreams, which are especially welcome at this time of the year. The pictures with which they are illustrated add a charm to his words, these illustrations being extremely well executed. As a singer, he commands one's attention and admiration, and the turn is quite a dainty one of its order. The concluding number is provided by Lacey's Erascope, and the name alone is sufficient to ensure good work. The story of a waif is strikingly told in an interesting series of scenes. The pictures are very clear, and congratulations are due to those who conceived them, as well as to those who assisted in producing the little play from which these photographs were taken. No variety show nowadays seems complete without the inclusion of animated pictures, and there is not the slightest doubt that audiences of all classes derive great enjoyment from the results of that wonderful science of modern invention—cinématography.

MASKELYNE AND DEVANT'S MYSTERIES.

Messrs. Maskelyne and Devant are attracting the public in large numbers to the St. George's Hall with their varied and exceedingly strong programme. C. Tamamoto climbs a rope and walks his wire in his usual graceful and intrepid manner, and is a great favourite. The Mascot Moth still puzzles an ever-curious audience. Mr. David Devant's cleverness both as actor and magician is displayed in the part of Captain Robert Wentworth, the hero of the adventure with the illusive "insect." Mr. Charles Glenrose is good as his chum, Captain Jack Holt, and Colonel Passmore finds a capital exponent in Mr. Nevil Maskelyne, Miss Cassie Bruce acting with charming grace as Elsie, Captain Wentworth's betrothed. A word of praise should also be given to Mr. Henri Hermann, who enacts the part of an Indian juggler.

The perplexing playlet, The Enchanted Hive, a charming little sketch, is smartly worked, Mr. Arnold Mussett being very amusing as an old negro. Miss Helen M'Culloch, Miss Cassie Bruce, Mr. Edward Morehen, and Mr. Charles Glenrose also figure in the cast. All sorts of beverages flow abundantly from the "mystic kettle," and are thoroughly appreciated by members of the audience; the Burmese Gong works its customary wonders; and the sketch, Shades of Shifters, Mr. David Devant's demonstrations of mental magnetism, and animated pictures still furnish the bill.

INTERNATIONAL ARTISTS' LODGE.

The members of the International Artists' Lodge met at the Hotel Provence on Sunday, Brother 876 occupying the chair. Twenty-seven members and two guests were present.

A letter from the headquarters in Berlin was read asking those members who have been elected to the Executive Committee, and are willing to serve, to write to the headquarters and signify their acceptance of this position. The Executive Committee have granted 1,000 marks yearly for the purpose of starting an office in London, where committee meetings may be held and correspondence for the Lodge and its members written and addressed.

The Chairman made a communication with regard to the Arbitration Committee appointed to consider the difference between Brother 1,156 and an agency firm. The Chairman explained that he had seen the agent's representative during the week, who had written to Mr. Adney Payne, the latter in turn replying that he was sorry to be unable to act as chairman on this committee, as he was too busy. It was suggested that Mr. J. L. Graydon be asked to act as chairman for this Arbitration Committee.

Brother 1,183 reported that he had spoken to Mr. Graydon about the letter from the London County Council with reference to the lighting regulations lately proposed by the L.C.C. Mr. Graydon, on returning the letter, wrote that the London Entertainments' Protection Association was pleased to see the interest taken in the matter by the I.A.L., and hoped that they would continue to act on their own behalf, and the proprietors would act on theirs.

The Chairman asked any German members who were present if the question of "Lights Out" had come forward in Germany at all. To prohibit the lowering of lights in theatres and music halls during the performance would greatly spoil dancing acts and such like, which depend so much on lighting effects. He also asked what kind of lights were used behind the illuminated signs showing exits in German theatres. After some discussion it was agreed that candles, such as are used for carriage lamps, are the most generally used. The Chairman then suggested that these candle lights be mentioned in the letter to the London County Council.

Brother 1,183 proposed that the social be postponed until a more favourable time. The resolution was passed unanimously. The Executive Committee was called the next day at 12 p.m. to settle the business connected with the extraordinary meeting on Sunday.

The Chairman also reported some information sent by Brother 1,041. On going to the Hook of Holland by the Great Eastern, the brother had noticed regulations referring to excess luggage. Commercial travellers, artists, &c., are allowed double the amount of luggage, but it is not generally known that commercial travellers and artists, &c., are charged at the rate of 50 per cent. less for excess luggage than the ordinary travellers, beyond the reduction first mentioned. The Chairman suggested that the presentation of the membership cards of the I.A.L. or the M.H.A.R.A. would probably be sufficient guarantee that the passenger is an artist, and he could obtain this reduction.

Brother 142 suggested that, in view of the combinations of managers and the much harder conditions for artists which now prevail, the greatest possible unity should exist between all the members of the profession, and that as a step in this direction he would like to see a still greater entente cordiale between the members of the I.A.L. and the H.H.A.R.A. With a view to promoting this good feeling, would it not be advisable to invite the committee of the latter body to the extraordinary general meeting on Sunday next? This was agreed to. Some discussion also ensued in connection with contracts.

DUCHESS PALACE ANNIVERSARY.

The second anniversary of the Duchess Palace, Balham, was fittingly celebrated on Thursday evening last week, when two crowded houses were pleasantly entertained by a little array of talented artists. Mr Gus Elen was seen and heard in his admirable characteristic representation of a coster who had much that was diverting to say about one Maria; Mr. Whit Cunliffe gave his views upon certain matters and certain people in his song, "I would, I would," the late Prime Minister and the present one being treated to some amusing banter. Mr. Arthur Roberts and company appeared in the sketch, The Importance of being Another Man's Wife, and Mr. Roberts's comical sayings and doings fairly brought down the house. Los Rupertos were seen in a fine exhibition of hand-balancing and acrobatics; and Farley, Rennie, and Farley, created great merriment with their sketch, Fun at a Railway Station. Mr. Sam Mayo came on with his tin can, and contributed an entertaining number in the song, "Oh, yes"; Mr. Ted Cowan tickled one's risible faculties with his "Dearie, oh, dearie me," and "The nicest house you've ever seen"; the Dunedin Troupe submitted their marvellous cycling act; and Miss Mab Fowler enchanted her hearers with her exquisite rendering of "Within my heart." Mr. Barney Stuart, the character vocalist, applied his genius with excellent result to some Irishisms about a judge, as well as to his song, "Mary Ellen Malone." From the Imperial Bioscope one got the magnificent series of pictures entitled "The Hen that Laid the Golden Eggs"; Mr. Phil Ray introduced himself with his fire-bucket, and contributed a lot of laughable patter; and Mr. Fred Earle was exceedingly whimsical in regard to the wonderful qualities of seaweed. Miss Cissie Dryden had an agreeable item in "The Jockey." Others who assisted in the merrymaking were Mr. Johnny Dwyer, Miss Millie Grey, Edward Crossland, Bros. Loenworth, Charles Stevens, H. J. Kisbey, Gilbert Girard, E. J. Sheldon, O. H. Kurtz, Lillian Elfreda, Lillie Lawrence, Norman and Leonard, Franz Crisp, Amy Marsden, Nina Gordon, The Camerons, Allis and Casatti, and Harry Maynard.

STRATFORD EMPIRE.

The entrancing story of Nell Gwynne and the merry monarch, King Charles, is told this week to patrons of the excellent variety hall under the régime of Moss's Empires, who derive great enjoyment from the cleverly-concocted sketch, entitled Orange Nell, which Miss Minnie Palmer and company are playing. Miss Palmer is admirably suited to the rôle of the vivacious, light-hearted, Nell Gwynne, and the artistic blend of comedy and pathos appeals greatly to the audience. Seeley and West prove themselves very entertaining musicians and comedians, and their well-known turn affords keen pleasure. Their cornet duets reveal much musical ability, and they are equally at home with various novel instruments, the while causing roars of laughter by their comic doings and sayings.

A British officer and a well made-up military son of Japan are found in the persons of Verno and Voyce, who strike the right note with their patriotic duet, vociferous applause greeting their efforts. Afterwards, as a butcher and a baker, they are exceedingly amusing. The Picquays contribute a clever act, in which muscular feats play a prominent part, some exceedingly novel handdancing concluding their interesting turn. The Sisters Gasch arouse much attention with their graceful athletic performance; and Ryan and Hall win a most cordial reception with their acrobatic comedy business. Leone Dare, in a musical gymnastic act, is very favourably received; and E. J. Sheldon scores heavily as a comedian and whistler. Alburtus and Bartram prove themselves club experts of no mean order; and the Wally-Hoste Trio are watched with keen interest in a comic acrobatic and juggling act.

"CINDERELLA" AT THE EMPIRE.

A beautiful setting of an immortal legend is to be seen at the Empire in the fairy ballet of Cinderella, which on Saturday afternoon revealed its daintiness and charm to an audience in which the juvenile element was conspicuous. The story opens in a glade in the Royal Park, a lovely bit of woodland by Hawes Craven, wherein a fête galante à la Watteau makes the prettiest of pictures. Hardly has the melody of the gavotte died away than "Tantivy" announces the entrance of the Prince Fleur-de-Lys, his secretary Dandini, and a number of gaily-attired huntsmen. Cinderella, timid and gentle, soon comes to gather sticks, and to win our hearts by her sweet humility. The entrée of the Baroness Fi-Fi, mounted on a donkey à la Veronique, and accompanied by the Baron Sans-Sous, of the old nobility, and his two ugly elderly daughters, Brunette and Blondine, gives opportunity for some droll behaviour on the part of the moke and its fair rider—a lady who sets a value upon herself; and further amusement comes of a picnic, in which extraordinary insects from the overhanging trees get mixed with the viands. The scene closes with the introduction of the fairy-godmother, Fortunée, who, after speaking some words of comfort to Cinderella, summons her sprites, to enchant us with their fairy revels. The Kitchen scene—a cleverly-painted front cloth by J. Harker—brings into play some excellent old-fashioned pantomime fun, with flour-tubs and pastry-making, by comic and acrobatic cooks, and later the Baroness interviews the greengrocer, the milkman, and the poulterer. The latter can apparently produce eggs at will, and much is made of the incidental comicality of this scene. We resume the thread of the story in the Baronial Hall—a very fine apartment, by J. Harker—where the invitations to the ball are brought. The Baroness, much exercised in her mind as to her appearance, puts herself into the hands of the perruquier, and then takes a lesson in dancing and deportment from the Court dancing-master.

Cinderella, left to her own devices, cleverly mimics a ball-room flirtation, and, falling asleep, is awakened in the good old-fashioned way by the fairy-godmother, to be dressed for the ball by gossamer-winged fairy milliners, and to be transported thither in a superb Sedan chair, electrically illuminated. The Baron and Baroness, and daughters, had preceded her in a motor-car, which breaks down in the approved fashion. The ball-room (by H. Brooke) is at length reached—a magnificent apartment, indeed, crowded with dancers, and gay with processions of the Prince's corps of gentlemen-at-arms. With its thousand lights and its floral beauties, it forms a spectacle of glittering loveliness that has rarely been equalled even at the Empire. Even more enchanting becomes the scene with the arrival of Cinderella's wedding procession, headed by beautifully-attired pages, and the ballet concludes to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" and the ringing of joy bells.

A perfect Cinderella has been found in Mdlle. Adeline Genée, who, in the words of the poet Suckling, "dances in such a way that no sun upon an Easter day is half so fine a sight." Her acting throughout brings out the sentiment and romance of the character, and her triumph is assured from the moment of her entrée. Mr. Fred Farren, who has arranged the dances and action, plays the Baroness on broadly funny lines, but is always refined. He is exceedingly droll in the amusing toilet scene, and is of course enthusiastically encored for his solo dancing. His pantomime, too, is always expressively droll. Mdlle. Zanfretta makes a most interesting figure of the fairy godmother, and is altogether a delightful personage, full of eloquent amiability. Miss Elise Clerc and Miss May Paston are cleverly made up as the step-sisters, Brunette and Blondine, who share with Mr. Farren the success of an umbrella dance, and artistically sacrifice appearance to the interests of fun. Miss D. Craske is a courtly and graceful Prince—divinely tall; and Miss L. Collier is effective in the part of Dandini. A hit is made by Little Jimmy, a coloured page, who scores generally in the comic scenes, and particularly in a buck dance. Mr. P. Sundberg, as the Court dancing-master, is a perfect maitre de danse, and contrives to be amusing when he shows profound contempt for the step-dancing of the Baron, a part that is played with no little drollery by Mr. W. Vokes.

The brush-work of Messrs. Hawes Craven, J. Harker, E. Banks, and H. Brooke has provided a series of admirable illustrations, and the dresses, designed by C. Wilhelm, who has retold the story, realise the richness, elegance, and charm of the Watteau period. They have been executed by Miss Hastings and Morris Angel and Son. Mr. Sidney Jones's choice of music is apt and varied, and includes some delightful themes as motifs for the chief characters.

The matinée variety company includes one of the most interesting animal turns that we have seen of late. Miss Raffin has a troupe of monkeys which she has trained to such perfection that they are able to perform a number of astonishing gymnastic feats. One of them finds it quite easy work to turn somersaults from a swinging trapeze bar. Another accomplishes the disrobing feat and then drops into the security of a sheet spread underneath. Perhaps the most extraordinary of the feats accomplished is when one of the simians, blindfolded, jumps from one barrel into another, and then into a third. The Gaudschmidts, too, have a couple of clever poodles who share their acrobatic triumphs. One of the animals becomes top-mounter, and seems to thoroughly enjoy its share in the toppling column feat. Another assists in the final acrobatic rally, jumping and rolling over in quite the approved fashion, and with an alacrity that shows he thoroughly enjoys the work. The turn is an excellent one, and years must have been spent in training the dogs to such perfection. The Barber-Ritchie Trio of bicyclists include Mr. Ritchie, the funniest man on a wheel that we know. He plays the "josser" with delightful sangfroid, and such fantastic tricks does he invent that one is in fits of laughter all the time he occupies the stage. At one time he is riding a machine with a hind-wheel that wobbles in the most curious fashion; at another he is propelling the spokes of a small cart-wheel "shod" with old boots; and, as a final tour de force, he shares with a most accomplished partner the inside of a cart-wheel, in which he careers round the stage. Mr. Ritchie's companions, one of which is a lady, are responsible for more serious work, which includes some exceptionally skilful feats. Mr. Burt Earle, the famous banjoist, plays a lively American march as an introductory item, and then soars to higher musical flights by his rendering of the overture to Semiramide, which has a peculiarly old-fashioned ring. It is, however, very well played, and Mr. Earle adds to his success some amusing banjo imitations. The Biograph winds up the afternoon with one or two excellent pictures.

At the Wonderland Palace of Varieties, Seven Sisters-road, Holloway, Eagle Davis and Wild Bess are giving their great knife-throwing act to large houses.

CHAT WITH MDLLE. JULIETTE.

(By Our Own Commissioner.)

We stood in the wings and watched the rehearsal by Mdlle. Juliette's sea-lions of the feats which they were to show to a delighted audience at the Palace Theatre the same night. And the more one looked the more one wondered at the docility and intelligence displayed by these animals. To see one of them balancing hats, balls, and billiard-cues upon his nose while seated upon a horse was to witness, perhaps, the most remarkable demonstration of the extent to which it is possible to train the lower animals. One sea-lion would catch a clown's cone on his head and toss it backwards to a second, who, in his turn, would catch it, throw it up in the air, and then balance it on his nose before finally dropping it on to his head. Sometimes the cone would rest in an absurdly rakish manner over one eye. Another of the animals balanced a doll, ran with it across the stage and left the doll still balanced as he clambered on to his seat. So serious, indeed, were they about their tricks that if they failed the first time they would immediately prepare for a second attempt, and roar loudly until they had succeeded, though possibly the fact that triumph was followed by a piece of fish had something to do with the energy and conscientiousness displayed.

"Béby" is the name that Mdlle. Juliette has given to the cleverest member of her little troupe. And Béby is clever. Her "horse-sea-lionship" is something to be watched with admiration. One wonders how many weary hours must have been spent by its trainer before the animal was able to perform these equestrian feats. One quality, however, was clearly recognisable between the lady and the lion. Béby knew her mistress and the mistress knew and understood the curious creature with the long, drooping whiskers, who required no harsh commands to fulfil her stage duties. And Béby, like the rest of the sea-lions, is not averse to being fondled. "I have had Béby," says Mdlle. Juliette, "for nearly five years, and she and I are great friends. She, as well as the others, has made herself extremely popular all over Europe—France, Russia, Italy, Spain, Portugal, &c. This is our first visit to England."

"How long does it take to train one of these animals?"

"At least a year. It is a matter of practice, practice, constant practice and constant supervision. The new equestrian act of Béby's just produced at the Palace took two years of hard work to perfect. My sea-lions, by the way, come from California."

MDLLE. JULIETTE.

"And their grub?"

"Grub—grub, what's that?" And Mademoiselle, who is French, gave the interviewer a quizzing glance.

"Food, Juliette," said the lady's husband, laughingly.

"Oh! Each one eats from 18 to 20lb. of fish per day, and during their training I must feed them myself. The first thing in teaching them is to get the animal to give you paw, and the next to make them understand you when you say 'Come here' or 'Go to your place.' So far as the juggling is concerned, they begin with three balls and then go on to four or five.

"Our main trouble with them," continued Mademoiselle, "is the water difficulty and getting acclimatised to the different atmospheric conditions of the various countries to which they are taken. At this time last year we were in Russia, and you will know that it is much colder there than in England. My four sea-lions live in two large tanks, and if you'll come with me I'll show them to you."

By this time the talented performers had been carted off, whither we were soon to find out. Mademoiselle led the way to a large stable lying between the Palace Theatre and the Hippodrome. Going down a horse-lift, we came to a large and airy underground apartment against the side of one wall of which were a couple of large cages made of iron bars. These were joined together in such a way that the animals could emerge from one cage into the other. The lower part of the second cage consisted of a big tank, full of water, in which the sea-lions were merrily disporting themselves and nearly saturating the bystanders with their splashes. Apparently they were in the best of Christmas good humour, for every now and then they would raise their heads and indulge in an appreciative roar. A little to the right of the large tank was a smaller cage containing a seal, which we were told was separated from the others because he had a habit of spoiling the shiny, silken texture of the coats of the sea-lions with his sharp claws. On one occasion when let into the large tank he made himself sufficiently unpopular by nearly scratching out the eye of one of the other inmates. So he was only permitted to reside and to perform by himself.

These amphibious athletes understand only one language—Mdlle. Juliette's native tongue. When she speaks to them they draw themselves forward with their flippers and gaze at her from large, expressive, appealing eyes. It is easy to see that they regard her with as much affection as a pet dog shows towards its master.

Mdlle. Juliette's idea of training sea-lions and seals for stage performances occurred to her through her father, a captain of a merchantman, bringing home on his return from a voyage in the Pacific a seal. She made a great pet of this animal, and trained it with such excellent results that her father made her a present of two or three more. Then the young lady decided to give the public an opportunity of seeing what these inhabitants of the sea could do on land. So she and the seals made their début at Rotterdam, and were the objects of a most gratifying reception. Contracts quickly followed. Mdlle. Juliette has presented her act before our own King and Queen, when, as Prince and Princess of Wales, they visited Copenhagen some time ago. Their Royal Highnesses expressed themselves as delighted with the performance. She has also appeared before most of the other crowned heads of Europe. It was at the Olympia, Paris, that Mr. Alfred Butt witnessed the interesting exhibition, and at once made arrangements to bring Mdlle. Juliette to London.

THE TERRIERS' ANNUAL DINNER.

The Terriers held their third annual dinner, with their president, Mr. Jesse Sparrow, in the chair, on Sunday last, at the Café d'Italie, Old Compton-street. Messrs. Molinari and Baglioni catered in a most excellent manner for their guests. The dinner was arranged for half-past seven, but it was ten minutes to eight before the fraternity and their friends sat down to the following menu:—

Hors d'Œuvres.

Petite Marmite—Crême Portugaise.

Sole—Sauce Remoulade.

Côtelette de Mouton Niçoise.
Pommes Château.

Celery demi-glace.
Spaghetti à l'Italienne.

Volaille en Casserole.
Salade.

Bombe Terriers.
Dessert.

The pièce de résistance was the Bombe Terriers. This was made of various-coloured ices, and represented two terrier dogs crouching at the foot of a plinth.

The following toasts were heartily drunk:—"The Terriers' Association," proposed by the chairman and responded to by the secretary, Mr. Harry Lester; and "The Chairman and Officers of the Association," proposed by Mr. H. Cory Woodrow, and replied to by Treasurer Douglas White, Trustee Chas. Pratt, Tom Packer, the W. T. for the month, and also by Mr. Jesse Sparrow.

During the evening the company was entertained by Walter Norman, who also acted as musical director—Chas. Clarke, Andie Caine, Slade Murray, and H. C. Woodrow. In addition to the above-mentioned there were present: Terriers Busbridge, Sam Stockton, Fred Hughes, E. Appleyard, Tom Riley, Archie Howells (who acted as accompanist), H. Gage, B. Whiteley, W. H. Downes, E. Steel, J. Traynor, W. Maddern, Syd Baker, E. Cooke, J. Dunedin, Griff, M. Ringham, Chas. Cornish, C. C. Bartram, Geo. Nynian, J. Alexander, A. Clapp, H. Maisner, Fred Neiman, Gerald Burgess, Leon Bassett, and W. S. Bassett.

"WANTED, A WIFE."

Comedietta, by Harold Bartlett,
Produced at the Grand Palace, Clapham, on Monday, Jan. 8.

Jack Grover .....Mr. Hubert Bartlett
Mabel .....Miss Edith Muir

An addition to the fast-increasing number of comediettas on the variety stage was made on Monday, when a playlet, admirably fitted to the light and agreeable comedy talents of Miss Edith Muir and Mr. Hubert Bartlett, was given its first representation. The scene is the interior of a matrimonial agent's offices, whither Jack Grover, having had a lover's quarrel with Mabel, his fiancée, has come in a fit of pique to obtain a wife, determining to accept the first offer. Mabel arrives on a similar errand, and while Jack awaits the return of the agent in the inner office, the young lady occupies the outer room. Both are anxious to learn what kind of a partner is reserved for them, and, availing themselves of the partition which separates the rooms, each discovers the other's identity, and resolves to obtain a disguise, Jack posing as his own sister, and Mabel passing herself off as her brother. Jack is aided in his scheme by assuming the skirt which Mabel casts off, the cycling "bloomers" which she wears beneath serving to make Mabel's transformation complete. The identity of the lovers, however, is but thinly veiled, and recognition soon sets in, their little trouble is smoothed over, and the purpose which prompted the visit to the matrimonial agent's is amicably achieved. Honours are fairly divided in the performance of the little piece. Both characters are animated by the same sentiments and the same ideas, and the method of giving expression to them is at all times very pointed. Miss Muir plays with agreeable artlessness as the masquerading Mabel, her delivery of the lines allotted to her being remarkably good. Mr. Bartlett revels in the fun of the part of Jack Grover, giving due emphasis to the witticisms which frequently recur, and the ingenious resources to which he is driven become very comic. Considerable merriment was the outcome of the performance, and applause awaited the artists at the close.

The Kodak Company, of Clerkenwell-road, have presented the committee of the Children's Branch of Our Dumb Friends' League with a number of lantern slides, illustrating animal life. The League does an enormous amount of work in poorer districts in encouraging kindness to animals with the aid of its magic lantern.

The short season of Bostock and Wombwell's Menagerie at West Derby-road, Liverpool, terminates to-night (Saturday). Business has been good. The previous visit of this wonderful collection to that city was made twenty-three years ago.

Messrs. Levy and Cardwell's juvenile pantomime, Beauty and the Beast, is meeting with enormous success at the Colosseum, Oldham, and concludes the third week there to-night. Mr. Joseph Ball says that this production has taken more money than has ever been taken by any company during his nine years' management of the Colosseum Theatre.

Mr. Editor,—Sir,—On perusing your last issue of the Era I noticed that you mentioned Arthur Reece was making a hit with the song entitled "The Girl with the Big Brown Eyes." I may mention that it was not Arthur Reece who sang the above song it was I, who deputised for him on the Monday night.—Yours faithfully, J. W. Ellison.

The Middlesex, Drury-lane, W.C., Jan. 11.

MR. H. H. WELLS'S CHARITY MATINEE.

Mr. H. H. Wells, a highly-respected director of the Canterbury and Paragon Theatres, Ltd., gave his third annual matinée performance in aid of the St. George's and Wapping Relief Fund, on Thursday afternoon at the Paragon, Mile End-road, Mr. Wells, who has for several years taken a great interest in questions affecting the unemployed and distressed poor in the East End, is the Conservative candidate for St. George's in the East. During the afternoon a photograph of Mr. Wells was thrown on the cinematograph screen, the audience singing, to the accompaniment of the orchestra, "For he's a jolly good fellow." Mr. Wells, who appeared on the stage later, along with Mr. Wedgwood Benn, his opponent for Parliamentary honours, and Sir Thomas Dewar, was received with hearty cheers, and made a short speech as follows:—

"Ladies and gentlemen,—I just want to say one or two words before the performance is resumed. I desire to thank you all for the very generous way in which you have turned up here to-day to support the fund in which, for the last three years, I have taken the greatest possible interest—I mean the fund that is being raised for the benefit of the deserving poor in the district of St. George's in the East and Wapping. Last year you were kind enough to come here and support me, with the result that I was able to hand over to the fund something like £64. Now, I am sorry to say I see so many vacant seats here to-day that I am afraid I shall not realise so much from this performance. Nevertheless, I am extremely grateful to everyone who has come into this hall this afternoon, as each of you have thereby contributed something towards the fund. I want to ask one question. Have you all enjoyed yourselves up to now (cries of 'Yes' and cheers)? Have you had good value for your money? (renewed cries of 'Yes' and applause). Then I want you to prove it. Let each one who is present leave a small donation for me before he quits the building. Now, I desire to tell you this: I have been the treasurer of this fund for three years, and my friend, Mr. Wedgwood Benn, who is opposing me in Parliament, is the secretary of this fund. This is an instance where two gentlemen, who are diametrically opposed to each other in politics, can work together as true Englishmen to assist those who cannot help themselves. I venture to hope that for some years to come Mr. Wedgwood Benn and myself will be able to do similar work in St. George's in the East and Wapping, and that you, who are our neighbours, will come here and assist us in a very good object. I desire to express my thanks to my co-directors, the proprietors of this establishment, for giving me this hall free to-day. I have also to thank the artists who have appeared on the stage—who are always willing to do good and charitable works—and giving their services to-day free; and I also wish to acknowledge the kindness of the orchestra and the general staff of the establishment, who have done everything they could to promote the success of this function. Now, ladies and gentlemen, I will not interfere further with the remainder of your programme, but will simply tender you my grateful thanks, and I trust that that prosperity which is wanting in St. George's in the East and Wapping will be with you during the rest of the year."

The three gentlemen then retired from the stage amid loud and pleasing demonstrations from the auditorium.

A fairly well-filled house, and certainly a very enthusiastic one, followed such of the forty announced turns that were able to appear with immense delight. One of the most attractive features was the sensational cycle act, called "Cyclomoto," in the first part of which Dare-Devil Shreyer competed with Leslie Jenkins in a cycle race along a circular track, the pace being truly a terrific one. Some animated pictures were next shown depicting Shreyer performing his daring cycle shoot act at Winnipeg Fair some time back. In the third portion of Shreyer's demonstration he succeeds in completing a mile on a cycle in 57 2-5 seconds, the feat being accomplished upon a roller track. Mr. Phil Ray entertained the audience for a short period with his amusing patter; and Mr. Whit Cunliffe offered a lot of advice to certain eminent persons in his song, "I would, I would." Mr. Arthur Roberts and his company created an agreeable diversion with the sketch, The Importance of Being Another Man's Wife, in which Mr. Roberts submitted his intensely comical impersonation of a middle-aged female. Stewart and Morgan rendered in pleasing style a couple of duets, one of which was "Killarney"; and Walker and May smartly performed a cake-walk, and made a distinct hit with their coon business. Impersonations of Mr. R. G. Knowles, Mr. Harry Ford, and other well-known variety artists were contributed in capital fashion by Mr. Charles Norton; and Lord, Murray, and Lord were seen to advantage in a ball-punching act. Griff, assisted by Alpha, offered a neat turn, in which both the gentlemen showed their talents in the hoop-manipulating line. Jordan and Harvey simply convulsed the spectators with their lively absurdities of a couple of Jews, and their whimsical mannerisms and sayings were heartily appreciated. Tray and Rich distinguished themselves with their laughable patter; and Eadie and Ramsden had something of a very enchanting order in the songs, "It's the love that speaks to me" and "My little Signorina." Miss Tots Davis, assisted by her sister Ettie, sang and acted in the dainty and pathetic domestic scena, The Flower Girl and Blind Sister. The song, "Keeping me company," is most prettily and feelingly rendered by Miss Tots Davis. Miss Dolly Harmer indulged in some quaint sayings about "My old man"; and Mr. Harry Bamford aroused one's risible faculties with his ditty, "If you can't afford the motor, wear the hat." The Crown Trio appeared in a military song-scena; and others whose names were included in the list were the Avrignys, Burke, Moller, and Teller, Lily Burnand, Vi Carlyle, Clark and Hamilton, Ian Colquhoun, Cruikshank, Fred Earle, George English and Flo Penley, Will Evans, Harry Ford, the Harmony Four, Will Humberstone, Lennie and Hast, Ethyl Parker, Pat Rafferty, Chris Richards, Ruffell's Imperial Bioscope, Bijou Russell, Harry Sims, Miss Grace Wilson and Mr. Wilfred Page, Eunice Young, and Black and White Zouaves.

Louie Cissie Lawson is still catering at the People's Palace, Hounslow, for the entertainment of Hounslow and Brentford and surrounding districts. This is the last week of the successful pantomime, Babes in the Wood. The Sisters Dagmar are excellent as the two "kiddies," and the Robbers are humorously played by Mr. T. B. Lloyd and Mr. Hind. Managers would do well to see the latter artist, who has a natural fund of humour. Miss Louie Belrose is captivating and bewitching as Marion. The varieties include Reynell's Minstrels, who give much pleasure by their vocal work; the Sisters Velasco, who present real Spanish dances, hailing as they do from Castille; and Vona and Merele, capable singers. The decorations and comfort of this hall will compare very favourably with many of our best London houses. The stage-management is in the hands of Mr. Sydney, and the master hand of John Lawson as director can be seen everywhere. Mr. Lennox Barry is the manager. There was a Sunday concert on Jan. 7, when Stewart and Morgan and others appeared. John Lawson is announced for a flying matinée on Wednesday, Jan. 17, commencing at 2.30.

WORK AMONGST THE SHOW PEOPLE IN THE WEST OF ENGLAND.

Mr. G. W. A. Norton, hon. member and local hon. agent for the Showmen's Guild, has been carrying on for some considerable time a most successful and interesting work amongst the Devonshire and Cornish showfolk.

This work, entirely spontaneous on his part, and first essayed without much knowledge even of the Guild's existence, has been of great utility to the travelling showfolk and the worker.

When Mr. Norton (who is a gentleman of independent means first took a living interest in the children of the fair-ground, it was during a long holiday sojourn in the West. Making Penzance his headquarters, he followed the fair, and, like all true social missioners, won the hearts of the fathers and mothers by devoting himself to the training and well-being of the children. In the photograph which we reproduce with this article Mr. Norton is seen with "his kiddies"—that is the affectionate phrase he uses. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Jones—of Jones's circus. The eldest girl, Fanny, is a tight-rope walker; the second girl, Sophie, is a clever and graceful dancer—the champion juvenile dancer of the West—having won a silver cup against 191 competitors at the Theatre Royal, Devonport. The Boy Clown, Funny Wee Johnnie Jones, like his sisters, is growing up in the business, and is already a performer of renown.

The show people of the West are full of appreciation for Mr. Norton's work amongst them, and deeply grateful for the way in which he has championed their cause and defended them against unjust aspersion.

In a recent article in The Commonwealth, a Church of England organ of social thought and work, Mr. Norton tells the story of his work amongst the Western showfolk. We have great pleasure in making his story known in the Showman World.

"Impelled by the exigencies of his profession to be on the road most Sundays, the showman has little opportunity of availing himself of the services of the Church, and this being so, the Church must be carried to him. The happy ideal, which we hope to soon realise, of a Church Van carrying a priest to serve at its altar in the fair field, and also educate the children, would be heartily welcomed by the travellers, and is, I am glad to say, the ideal of the 'Showmen and Van Dwellers' Protection Association,' known as 'the Showmen's Guild.'

"This Guild protects the interests of the 70,000 show-people engaged in the British Isles, assists them with legal advice, watches legislation affecting their profession, affords timely assistance on the death of a member, watches over the education of the children, and possesses an Hon. Chaplain, the Rev. T. Horne, whose invaluable work is thoroughly recognised by the show-people, whose cause he has for long so well and so persistently championed.

"The showman's profession is an honourable one, and plays a not unimportnant part in the political economy of the nation; for the visit of the showman to a country fair is often the only splash of colour in the countryman's life for that year. Entailing much hard work and many discomforts and anxieties, it yet breeds a philosophy of content that a town-dweller seldom acquires. For, though a rainy season may spell financial loss for a time, yet the sun is bound to shine some day, and then the show-loving public will respond to the showman's efforts to amuse, and come and enjoy the fair.

"Through constant intercourse with ever-varying personalities the showman learns to be a hard bargain-driver through constantly appealing to people by the aid of oratory, tights, music, painting, and a judicious blend of gorgeous colouring, he learns the value of the appeal to the eye and is naturally a Ritualist, and can appreciate the reason of a magnificent ceremonial. And yet, although he is by nature and training a Catholic, here, in England, the clergy are apt to taboo the show-people, and show by face and manner, that they regard the time of the parish feast as a time of special affliction. This is a fatal mistake in judgment; fatal to the showman and his faith, and hardly less dangerous for the general parishioners.

"Were the clergy to visit them in their moveable dwellings, and treat them as parishioners for the time being, they would be rewarded by gaining the show-people's gratitude and esteem. The children—and some of the travellers' children are amongst the purest and sweetest on God's earth—would be sent to their religious duties, and so have a better chance of learning to practise the faith, which alone can help them in their hard and difficult lives."

Speaking of the domestic side of the showman's life, Mr. Norton testifies that "No child left orphan by one of the fraternity but will find a host of ready protectors; the irresponsible friends, the wayward relatives, know where to turn for help which is always readily forthcoming even if from a straitened purse. The Sacrament of Matrimony is held in high esteem amongst the show-people, the showman, as a rule, making a good father, and in his love for, and care of, his children, setting many a man an example that might well be copied. The majority of travellers in England will, on close acquaintance, be found to be downright good fellows, and they are men whose comrade I am proud to be.

"Last June, in Paris, M. Jean Lorrain, in his drama Thécla, ou le Drame de Neuilly, has depicted this view of the showman's life. This play, which M. Lorrain had the happy idea of presenting in a booth in the Avenue de Neuilly, in the middle of the great Fair then in progress, is a biting satire on Society, which is shown to be vicious, heartless, and ridiculous, whereas the contrast of honesty and virtue, albeit allied to overmastering passions, is shown to be in the showman's world. Though, possibly, by reason of its bias, overdrawn, it will yet do good if a certain section of the public can be brought to see the humanity behind the tinsel and the big drums, and so learn to respect their entertainers, and extend to them when needed, a kind word and a helping hand."

We are glad to have such men as Mr. Norton seeing from the inside the true life in showland.

On the afternoon of the 3rd inst. the remains of Mr. Alfred Stocks, the well-known steam horses proprietor, were interred at the Norwich Rosary Cemetery amidst many expressions of regret. The deceased, who had been ailing for some time, died on the Norwich Hill during the fair, aged forty-eight years. The mourners at the funeral consisted of the deceased's six sons and one daughter, his sister (Mrs. Abbott) and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Abbott. Amongst those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holmes, Mr. A. Westrop, Mr. and Mrs. H. Barker (Reading), Mr. and Mrs. J. Hurn, Mr. J. Westrop, sen., Mr. Tidman and the staff of men employed at the fair, Mrs. A. Westrop, Mr. and Mrs. G. Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. Norman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thurston, Mr. and Mrs. H. Westrop, Mrs. R. Bond and sons, Mrs. T. Bond and family, Mrs. and Mr. R. Perkins, Mr. H. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Bond, jun., Mr. J. Bond, jun., Mr. and Mrs. R. Holmes, jun., Mr. and Mrs. Ralph, Mrs. John Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. W. Rudling, Mrs. Archer (Lowestoft), Mr. and Mrs. Boody (Lowestoft), Mr. and Mrs. G. Osborne, &c. The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mrs. R. Bond.

THE SHOWMAN WORLD.

Bolton Winter Fair, held in the New Year week, is the greatest open-air festival of the mid-winter holiday season. Other towns have their Christmas carnivals, and in "Braw Scotland" the New Year is the national holiday. None the less, to Bolton belongs the honour and glory of having the premier open-air fair at the Feast of Janus. To the enterprising and up-to-date British showman it is a highly coveted business advantage and professional honour to have a pitch at Bolton, and if the Corporation had twice their present ground space it would be readily occupied.

This year's fair has been a record one both for business and enterprise. The local and Manchester Press are sounding the praises of showmen, and giving Bolton the honour due unto her for her broad-mindod and liberal co-operation with the showpeople in providing the open-air holiday entertainments of the people.

Our own special commissioner visiting the fair thus chronicles the shows:—Machines and varieties: President George H. Kemp with his Anglo-American Variety Combine and Cinematograph; Prince Samonda, the Escteric magician; Baker's British Circus and Marvels of the Arena; Captain Tom Payne's Bioscope; Braham's Trained Birds and Lady Conjurer; Colonel Clarke's Electric Coliseum of Varieties and Animated Photography; Haydon's Dark Séance and Temple of Mysticism; Dr. Lawrence's Humanities and Living Pictures; Ingram's Dog and Monkey Circus; and Wright's Fine Art Gallery—a notable list of exhibitions.

The electric and steam driven machines (a great display) were as follows:—John Whiting's Excelsior electric set, the Venetian gondolas; T. Hurst's No. 1 set, the racing birds (three-saddled); J. Green's new machine, the electric motor-cars; Wm. Mitchell's twin ships in the air; Ben Mitchell's farmyard set; C. Marshall's rolling switchback; Wm. Mitchell, jun.'s, new motor-cars; R. H. Williams's bike motor track; and Morley's lighthouse, or "Slipping the Slope."

Excellent small-arms practice was afforded by the shooting ranges, bottle batteries, and Morris tubes of Messrs. George H. Cornwell (2), Hughes and Martin, R. H. Williams, Mrs. John Cornwell, and Mrs. Jewell. The refreshment booths were by Messrs. Ingham and Butterworth, Mrs. Bowser, and local caterers. In the crowd of caterers with minor novelties (throwing games, cokers, dolly frames, pannum, and variety stalls) were Messrs. Lee, Taylor, Holmes, Harrington, Wilson, Sedgwick, Langton, J. Jewell, Forshaw, and Mrs. Jewell.

The attendance of visitors from all parts of the country was enormous, and the Boltonians entered heartily into all the fun of the fair. The business was extremely good. That 'cute showman, Mr. T. Hirst, assured us that the tide has turned, and, as regards Lancashire, showmen may look forward to their share of the prosperous times of the long-delayed boom in the cotton industry. It is particularly true of the people's fairs that they are the first to suffer when wages are low amongst the workers, and the very last to benefit when trade is on the mend.

The utmost praise is due to Mr. Superintendent Robert Pike, the Corporation official responsible for the market fairs; the setting out of the fair, and the necessary control of most difficult arrangements, reflects the greatest credit upon the able and indefatigable Mr. Pike.

On the Tuesday after the fair an important business meeting of the British Roundabout Proprietors' and Showmen's Union was held at the Flag Hotel, adjacent to the fair ground. Mr. P. Collins, president, was in the chair, and the members present included Messrs. John Green, Wm. Mitchell, John Whiting, G. H. Kemp, J. Proctor, B. Mitchell, H. R. Hibbert, J. Relph, R. Newall, R. H. Williams, C. Marshall, Wm. Wright, P. Collins, jun., T. Payne, Wm. Mitchell, jun., and others. The Secretary (Mr. T. Hurst) submitted a variety of important matters, and the agenda was satisfactorily exhausted. The Rev. T. Horne was a visitor, and at the end of the Union business he and Captain Tom Payne brought up (by permission) the report of the Van-dwellers' Sub-Committee on the Dean Memorial.

A most fitting and appropriate design—a granite column, the sub-committee's suggestion—was shown, and the dignity and simplicity of it was much admired. Speeches in favour of making a final effort to get over-long standing matter ended in a way worthy of the man and his work, and a credit to the profession he adorned, were made by the Chairman (Mr. P. Collins), the Rev. T. Horne, and Messrs. Hurst, Payne, Mitchell, and others.

It was ascertained that only £23 6s. was in hand for this purpose, and a subscription list was handed round the room with the following gratifying result:—

Rev. T. Horne	£2	2	0	C. Marshall, Esq.	0 10 6
P. Collins, Esq.	2	2	0	R. Newall, Esq.	0 10 6
W. Mitchell, Esq.	1	1	0	J. Proctor, Esq.	0 10 6
J. Whiting, Esq.	1	1	0	B. Mitchell, Esq.	0 10 6
J. Green, Esq	1	1	0	W. Wright, Esq.	0 10 6
T. Payne, Esq.	1	1	0	H. R. Hibbert, Esq.	0 10 6
T. Hurst, Esq.	0	10	6	T. Relph, Esq.	0 10 6
G. H. Kemp, Esq.	0	10	6	R. H. Williams	0 10 6
W. Holmes, Esq.	0	10	6

This subscription list will be brought before the Manchester and London meetings, and the many friends of the revered James Dean will, we feel sure, take advantage of this final opportunity of helping to erect over his honoured grave a national showmen's memorial to his sterling worth and character. The treasurer is Mr. Wm. Mitchell, 53, Hindhill-street, Heywood, Manchester; and subscriptions may also be sent to the Rev. T. Horne, c/o The Era.

Subscriptions to the Showmen's Guild, 1905:—

P. Collins, Esq.	£5	0	0	G. H. Cornwell, Esq.	0 10 6
T. Hurst, Esq.	2	2	0	A. Hibbert, Esq.	0 10 0
J. Green, Esq.	1	1	0	J. Hibbert, Esq.	0 10 0
J. Hibbert, Esq.	1	0	0	Mrs. J. Cornwell	0 5 0
H. R. Hibbert, Esq.	1	0	0

Subscriptions for 1906:—

G. H. Kemp, Esq.	£2	2	0	R. H. Mellor & Son	1 1 0
Mrs. Thornley	1	1	0	J. Bibby & Co.	1 1 0

The Showmen's Year Book, edited by the Rev. T. Horne, will in future be issued only to subscribers to the funds of the Guild and the Parliamentary Defence Committee. The hon. editor hopes to have it ready for the Manchester and London meetings. Copies of the 1905 issue, the only available copies for the general public, may still be obtained, price one shilling, from The Era offices.

The next meeting of the Roundabout Proprietors' and Showmen's Union will be at the Black Lion Hotel, Salford, on Thursday next, the day after the general meeting of the Van-dwellers' Association in Manchester, when the annual report will be submitted, the officers for 1906 elected, and other necessary business transacted. There will be two sessions, one in the morning, beginning at eleven o'clock, and an evening session.

The annual dinner and ball at Bolton of the showpeople and market tenants took place in the Empress Ball-room, Mealhouse-lane. It was from start to finish a brilliant affair. The local committee, headed by that giant for hard work and good deeds, Mr. Robert Pike, and with him two able lieutenants, Mr. Wm. Pike and Mr. W. Davenport, it is no figure of speech to say, excelled themselves, and more than deserved the universal encomiums passed upon their highly successful efforts. The prominent showmen on the Ball Committee and hon. stewards at the dinner were Messrs. Hurst, Whiting, Kemp, Wm. Holmes, T. Payne, and John Green. Upwards of three hundred guests were present, and the immense and delightful Temple of Terpsichore was a glorious vision of "Brave Men and Fair Women." An excellent band gave the musical incentive to the devotees of the light fantastic toe, and merrily, with mirth and song interpersed, the festive gathering continued until four the next morning.

Amongst the local guests who honoured the showmen with their presence and patronage were Alderman Dickinson (chairman of the Markets and Fairs Committee) and Mrs. Dickinson, Alderman Wild and Mrs. Wild, Councillors Webster, Kearns, Warburton, and Harper (members of the Fairs Committee), Councillor and Mrs. Morris, Councillor and Mrs. A. S. Wild, Councillor and Mrs. Mutch (Salford Corporation), Mr. Rhodes (Manchester), Mr. J. Miller (Blackburn), and Messrs. R. Pike, Wm. Pike, W. Davenport, T. Riley, Ross Isherwood, George Barron, John Wood, and Thomas Scowcroft (Bolton). The showpeople at the dinner and ball included Mr. and Mrs. John Whiting and party, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kemp and party, Mr. and Mrs. George Cornwell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holmes and family, Colonel and Mrs. Clarke and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Green, Mr. T. Hurst, Miss Hurst, and party, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mitchell, jun., Mr. and Mrs. Ben Mitchell, Mr. Mitchell, Mrs. P. Collins and Mr. P. Collins, jun., Mr. and Mrs. Tom Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Braham, Mr. and Mrs. Forshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. S. Mercer, Mr. Hibbert and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. Marshall and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jewell, Mr. and Mrs. Langton, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Morley, Mr. J. Norman and party, Mr. R. Newall, Mrs. Robert Dixon, Mrs. Bowser, Mr. Will Nugent, Mr. Booker, and a great crowd of other guests.

During one of the intervals an impromptu meeting of the Van-dwellers' Association was held, the floor of the ball-room being crowded with eager listeners, and great enthusiasm was manifested. Alderman Dickinson, who presided, said that he was proud to be associated with so enterprising and so respected a class of men as the van-dwellers. He had been chairman of the Markets Committee for fifteen years, and during that time only one case of complaint against the show people had come before him. He ventured to think that few classes of workers in the community stood higher,

G. W. A. NORTON, Esq.,

Hon. Agent and Worker for the Showmen's Guild in the West of England, with some of his show-children friends.

if at all, than the travelling showpeople. Other people in business might profitably take example by the up-to-date methods of these men, who year by year brought to Bolton the latest novelty in entertainments.

In their work and enterprises he recognised, and the Corporation and people of Bolton recognised, that here was an industry, a profession and business on thoroughly sound and satisfactory lines, and also employing many thousands of skilled workers, and finding an outlet for a large amount of capital. These things were good in themselves, and for them the showpeople deserved all credit, and much more generous treatment than they usually obtained. The vast improvement in his time as regards the shows and roundabouts was to him an unending source of pleasure and surprise. Let them remember that Bolton is proud of the fact that it was a Bolton man—Mr. William Hurst, the father of Mr. T. Hurst—who first applied steam power to hobby horses, and that it was at a Bolton New Year Fair many years ago that the first steam roundabout was shown. He concluded by wishing them a Most Happy and Prosperous New Year.

The Rev. T. Horne proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the Markets Committee, its honoured chairman, its members, and its most courteous and able official, the showmen's friend, Mr. Robert Pike, Market Superintendent. In so doing he tendered in the name of the assembled showpeople their sincere gratitude for and high appreciation of the ever-increasing kindness and goodwill of Bolton, its people, Corporation, and officials, to them, the showmen of the Empire. It was no light achievement on their part to live down as they were doing in all parts of the kingdom the prejudice that was raised against them and their work in life. Yet, so they were doing. When, however, they visited towns like Bolton, where every appreciation was given them, it gladdened their hearts, and encouraged them to give of their their very best for the recreation and amusement of the people.

All that he asked for showfolk was the recognition of their just position in the economy of the State. They were, he confessed, carrying on an extraordinary business, but in their individual life, as men and women, fathers, mothers, and citizens, they were ordinary people, with faults and failings, virtues and vices, like other men and women. The day of the "grand taboo" was drawing to an end, and the nation was now beginning to see that showmen and show-women were doing a necessary work, and doing it as all work should be done, with all their best powers and ability.

To Alderman Dickinson, the members of the Markets Committee, their esteemed officials, and to Bolton friends in general, he expressed in their name, and as their chosen spokesman, their deep, heartfelt appreciation of all the kindness and goodwill that was bestowed upon them year by year at this time. He moved, therefore, that the heartiest vote of thanks possible be given to the Corporation and people of Bolton from the showmen of the Empire.

Councillor Mutch, of Salford, gladly seconded the resolution, and in doing so expressed his friendly jealousy of Bolton in the matter of her treatment of showpeople. He wished his Corporation of Salford could, or would, follow the grand example of municipal wisdom given by Bolton, and give the showmen something like the same encouragement. Anyhow, he could assure them that he was not alone in this desire, that many of his colleagues on the Borough Council were of his way of thinking. He had come on the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. John Whiting, and it had given him great pleasure then and in previous years to attend their festive gatherings at Bolton. He therefore seconded the resolution with great pleasure.

The vote was carried with acclamation, and then the dancing was resumed.

The Manchester Weekly Times says:—"Hi, hi, hi, walk up, and see the finest show in the fair, all for the small sum of one penny. Ladies and gentlemen, men, women, and children, you never had such a golden opportunity of seeing so much for so little, and if you miss it you will never cease to regret it." This and a score of other equally enticing entreaties have been addressed to thousands of people who have thronged the fair grounds at Bolton during the New Year holidays, for Bolton enjoys the distinction of possessing the largest New Year fair in Lancashire, if not in England. Hull lays claim to pride of place in the matter of fairs so far as the United Kingdom is concerned, but everything considered, the fair with which each New Year is inaugurated in the great fine cotton spinning centre of Lancashire, will take a lot of beating.

Not only does it crowd the wholesale market, the largest open space in the centre of the town; but it overflows on to the fine open square surrounding the Town Hall, besides which every available yard of spare ground about the centre of the town is at this season utilised by people of the itinerant class. The whole town is, in fact, literally given up to the New Year's fair, and for about five days everybody seems to be infected with fair fever.

Falling as it did this year on Monday New Year's Day was heralded with exceptional enthusiasm, and immediately the bells of the Town Hall clock had sounded the hour of midnight on Sunday, the fun of the fair commenced. Until the hour struck all was peaceful and reverential, but the people were there in their thousands ready for the fray, and almost before the echoes of the midnight chimes had died away all was life and gaiety; for another year had been ushered into existence, and the people had turned out in force to bid it welcome, and to wish God-speed to their friends and neighbours. The shows were ablaze with light, and the "music" from a hundred different bands and organs resounded in the frosty morning air. The sport was maintained until four or five o'clock in the morning Those people who wish to see an old English fair at its best should visit Bolton when the year is young, and when the inhabitants, casting off the cares of life, and throwing to the wind all thoughts of to-morrow, give themselves up to boisterous but innocent enjoyment.

In recent years attempts have been made in some places to suppress the showman's calling, but thanks to the splendid organisation behind the showmen, all efforts in this direction have so far been frustrated. The attempts have been mainly due to a wave of misguided puritanical enthusiasm, for, as conducted to-day, old English fairs like that of Bolton are as harmless and as innocent as can be. They cater for the pleasure and enjoyment of thousands of people whose lives would otherwise be dull and dreary at this season of the year. The far-reaching popularity of the Bolton fair may be judged by the fact that special excursions are run from Manchester and many other large Lancashire towns. The showman is one of the few remaining relics of olden days that we can ill afford to lose, as the amusement provided by his class is something which has long been understood and appreciated by the masses. From time immemorial showmen have tried to brighten the lives of the toilers in town and country by giving them a pure entertainment at first under the broad canopy of heaven, but now in gorgeous canvas tents and sumptuously appointed erections. In some quarters there is a disposition to look askance at them, and to say, "They are only showmen."

But the people who indulge in these epithets forget the antiquity of the showman's calling, and the homage that has been paid to him from the earliest times. Shows and showmen have flourished in all ages in all parts of the civilised world, and their performances not only form an index to the character of the people, but also illustrate the growth of national life. It must not be forgotten that that sweet singer of ancient civilisation, Homer, the poet, was an itinerant bard or minstrel, nor that the greatest poet of all ages, William Shakespeare, was a strolling player. He caught the passion of the drama from the strolling players who acted their plays to grammar school boys at Stratford-on-Avon. Indeed it is quite safe to say that no period of reputable history, and no phase of settled or normal life but had its shows and showmen. It is not a difficult matter to picture the evolution of the fair as we know it to-day. Quite nine out of every ten fairs originated in the annual festival of the patron saint in whose honour a particular church had been named. The church kept high festival on the martyr day of its saint, and a holiday naturally followed. Neighbours and friends from far and near mingled together in fellowship at the fair, joining in the festivities with song and dance and merry joke.

To these fairs strolling players, gleemen, mountebanks, pedlars, dealers in foreign marvels, mummers, tumblers, astrologers, quack doctors, and clowns all came. And it is of such that a modern fair is made up to-day. The quack doctor and the astrologer, it is true, have gradually diminished in the face of improved education on the part of the people, but there are places in Lancashire where they still flourish. Many of the old orders of things have given place to more modern contraptions. The ghost shows, performing animals, monkeys and mice, and a score of other similar variety entertainments are still with us, but fat women and other monstrosities have vanished from the fair ground—let us hope never to return.

It is only natural that van dwellers should be in the van of progress, and some of the features witnessed at the Bolton fair do credit alike to their ingenuity and enterprise. No modern fair would be complete without roundabouts and steam or electrically-driven machines, gondolas, and switchbacks. The steam roundabout was the pioneer of rapid advancement in the world of shows, and it is, perhaps, only in keeping with the engineering reputation of the town that Bolton should have witnessed the birth of the steam roundabout.

It was the invention of Mr. William Hurst, father of Mr. T. Hurst, of Clifton, Manchester, one of the most successful showmen of the day, and himself the inventor of several valuable patents designed for the amusement of the public. There are many people still alive who remember the time when "hobby horses," pushed round by hand, were the only features of the kind in the fair. In those days the "donkey" work was done by boys, and a man stood over them with a whip which he did not scruple to use if they slackened their energies in speeding the roundabout on its course.

But all this has changed. In the fair ground, as in other places, steam and electricity long ago supplemented hand labour, and some of the mechanical contrivances cost the proprietors large sums of money. Some are more elaborately got up than others, and more than one riding machine on the Bolton fair ground was pointed out as having cost between £2,000 and £3,000, while the very latest idea—an equipment of real motor cars, on real pneumatic tyres—involved the proprietor in an expenditure of nearly £4,000. And this is where showmen who want to keep abreast with the times are put to great expense. Only a few seasons ago gorgeous gondolas and farmyard fowls as roundabouts were all the rage, but these are now being superseded by motor car roundabouts, which have proved exceedingly popular with the public. Next season some other new idea will come to the front and thus, though they make plenty of money at the business, caterers for public amusement have to spend a lot to keep up to date. It is very probable that in a month or two a novel new flying machine will be launched on a waiting world. It is claimed that it will completely outstrip the Maxim flying machine with which visitors to Blackpool are familiar, inasmuch as it will do all that the Maxim machine does at present, but will, at the same time, exactly simulate the motion of a bird in gliding up and down through the air. Mr. T. Hurst, the Roosevelt of the road as he has been called, is one of the inventors of this latest patent novelty—another proof of that engineering skill which is native to the soil of Bolton. Extensive works exist in different parts of the country for the manufacture of steam and electric roundabouts.

Over a quarter of a million pounds sterling are invested in roundabout works alone, and thousands of people are engaged in the industry itself and its allied trades. Many of the shows and roundabouts are so equipped as to make their own electric light, and a brilliant spectacle it is to see the fair ground when the powerful lamps from a hundred different shows are shedding their refulgence around. What this glare is like will be understood when it is stated that the total power of the arc and other electric lamps in use is equal to half-a-million candles.

If it is a lively time for the people who visit the fair it is a profitable one for the van dwellers and itinerant dealers as well as for the Corporation, which receives the rents for the land. Several of the show people pay as much as £40 in rent for the five days that the fair lasts, and altogether the Corporation nets about £800 as the result of the fair. This is good for the ratepayers, and reflects credit on the Superintendent of the Markets (Mr. R. Pike), who is responsible for the allocation of the spaces and the conduct of the fair. Attempts have at times been made to estimate the amount of money taken by the various show people during the New Year holidays. It is difficult to arrive at exact results, but this week many thousands of pounds have passed from the pockets of the public into those of the showmen.

When spoken to on the money side of the question they one and all admitted that it had been a real prosperous New Year, and that they would go away perfectly satisfied. When a showman unbends sufficiently to make this confession it may be taken for granted that times have indeed been good. Some of the roundabouts earn from 12s. to £1 every three or four minutes, and what the receipts will be may be gathered when it is stated that this is kept up hour after hour on the opening days of the fair. But they deserve all they get, for the showman is the first to feel bad trade and the last to feel good trade, which is only another way of showing how prosperous things are in Lancashire to-day. Then again they have long "off" seasons, when they simply hibernate, or, as one of them aptly put it, bury themselves like the opossum, until the holiday season comes round again.

Moving in and out, and talking freely with all classes of showmen, one could not fail to be struck with the high standard of intelligence and keen business acumen displayed by them. They are not the irresponsible class that tradition makes out. A vast army of people—the rank and file—are dependent on show life for a living. It is estimated that in Great Britain and Ireland there are at least 70,000 people all directly employed in the show business, besides whom there is an army of workers making and handling the goods sold or used on fair grounds. Except by a few narrow, biassed individuals, showmen are no longer regarded as pariahs or Bohemians of the road, they are no longer a difficult class to determine or fix—nomads on the borderland between gipsydom and vagabondage—but a highly respectable body of traders ministering in their craft and industry to the complex needs of the Empire. The Showmen's Guild has done much to elevate them, and the code of morality existing among them to-day is so strong that it is impossible for a vicious person to be a showman.

This is all very encouraging for the future, and is an answer to the busybodies who would like to see showmen banished off the face of the earth. They make good fathers, and strive hard to give their children the very best education possible. Some of the children of showmen have distinguished themselves in other walks of life, and among those may be mentioned the Rev. T. Horne, hon. chaplain to the Guild, who was born in a showman's van of show parents. Most of the show people have settled residences, where they leave their children to be cared for and educated, while they themselves tour the country in search of the golden shekels. With such a powerful organisation behind them there is little fear of showmen being driven off the road. If any serious attempt were made in this direction the public voice would be heard in their favour, for the average Britisher dearly loves the fair, and their vocation is closely identified with the growth of the British Constitution. There is scarcely a page in the history of the country that has not some reference to the itinerant entertainers of the people. They existed as a class long before circuses and other such pleasure places came into existence. Indeed, long before the theatre, and ages before the concert hall, the travellers and showmen of the country were the entertainers of the people. They can, therefore, boast an ancestry dating back to the beginning of organised social life in England, and closely identified with the life and liberties of the people.

Deptford Winter Carnival, at Weathered's Fair Ground, High-street, maintains to the full its well-won reputation. The exhibitions are Mander's wild beast menagerie, Biddall's theatre of variety, and animated photography. The lessee, Mrs. Weathered, exhibits the steam roundabouts and range of park swings; rifle saloons, bottle smashers, football games, varieties, and cokers by Messrs. Bishop, Knighton, Weathered, and other caterers.

Vinegar Hill Carnival Fair (Lessee, Mr. George Green) attracted a large crowd of amusement caterers with capital concerns for the holiday season. To give the shows and novelties in detail will quite sufficiently demonstrate the high standard of excellence that marks Mr. Green's enterprise. The lessee's own ventures include two cinematograph theatres; the Whitevale Theatre, with pantomime, "The Babes in the Wood"; the halls of grotesquerie and optical illusion; a gondola set; Kaffir ostrich farm set; highflier, gem horses, and a straight switchback; Paulo's circus, Swallow's cinematograph, and similar concerns by Wm. Clark, jun., and Harris; Swallow's galloping horses, Howard's steam yachts, Martin's high fliers, and swings, by Messrs. Swallow and Lawrence; Winchester ranges and bottle batteries, by Messrs. Day (two); Irvin, Newton, Wilson, and Merrick. The usual addenda of the carnival were present in goodly number and great enterprise, these including Messrs. Macintosh, Blake, Hiscoe, Anderson, Kelly, Ogden, Blake, Hiscoe, Codova, and others.

ON the Common, Hook Norton, Mr. A. Tiller's Bioscope Exhibition and Palace of Varieties are giving excellent performances to good houses. Tiller's Bioscope and Varieties have been paying a visit to Leafield. Chipping Norton has received a visit from Tiller's Bioscope and Varieties. Mr. H. Strudwick's roundabouts, &c., are at Burton Latimer. Tiller's Bioscope and Varieties have visited Whitney. At Headless Cross are Mr. C. Herbert's roundabouts, &c.

EASTER Fair Fixtures include Abberley Valley, Malvern, Evesham, and Hales Owen, all in Worcestershire. Showmen and roundabout proprietors should make a note of Malvern Link Common on Easter Monday, one day only.

ON the Royal Hotel Yard, Redditch, are Clarke's Venetian gondolas, park swings, shooting saloons, cokernut gardens, striker, &c.; Wilson's shooting saloons and African Jungle; Chipperfield's Fisheries; and Taylor's Varieties. At Leafield and Chipping Norton Mr. A. Tiller's Bioscope and Varieties have been paying a visit. Mander's Cinematograph Exhibition gave some excellent entertainments at Bloxham.

MISS JENNIE GREEN, who has been associated with her father, Mr. Tom Green, for some length of time in the production of his famous pictures, was on the occasion of her twenty-first birthday presented with a number of valuable presents, including a handsome watch from "Dad" and most esteemed tributes from Messrs. Cricks and Sharp, the well-known film producers, of London. The birthday was celebrated by a large assembly of professional friends until the early morning.

THE inquest upon the body of George Gaunt, the itinerant boxer who fell dead in the Royal Oak Public-house, King-street, Norwich, after a forced quarrel on the deceased's part with Ernest Bridgeman, employed by Mr. Charles Thurston at the recent Norwich fair, resulted in a verdict of death from natural causes, and no blame was attached to Bridgeman or anyone else. On the 4th inst., before the Norwich magistrates, Bridgeman was brought up on remand, and formally charged, when, in face of the doctor's evidence and the verdict of the Coroner's jury, no evidence was offered, and he was discharged, amidst the congratulations of his friends.

THE West of England was well provided with attractions during the Christmas Holidays. In Union-street, Torquay, were Hancock's famous motor-car roundabout; park swings and shooting saloons by W. Whiteleg; and cokernut shies, throwing games, &c., by W. Jones. At Cockside, Plymouth, were Charles's roundabouts and throwing games, and J. Jones's marionettes and living pictures. The Winter Gardens, Plymouth, were well patronised through the holidays, the attractions being supplied by Hancock's No. 1 motor-car roundabouts, switchback railway, park swings, living pictures; Oldridge's cokernut shies, shooting saloon, and ring stall; Locke's ring stall and football; Wright's boxing saloon and ring stall; roll-up boards and Emma and dip by Whiteleg; and fruit stalls and refreshments by Perkins. Devonport: Roundabouts, shooter, swings, and throwing games by Mrs. W. Locke.

WE are glad to be able to contradict with full official warrant the rumour concerning the possible cessation of the World's Fair. The following correspondence tells its own tale:—

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ERA.

SIR,—There is a persistent rumour in circulation to the effect that this season is the last of the World's Fair, at the Royal Agricultural Hall, Islington. We beg to give this a most emphatic contradiction, for, in fact, we hold a lease for a number of years to come.

You will note by the enclosed that the Royal Agricultural Hall Company have previously repudiated a similar statement as far as the hall itself is concerned; but what we complain of more directly concerns the World's Fair, annually held here with the greatest success; for we think such reports are not only misleading to the public, but most detrimental to ourselves.

Yours faithfully,
T. and T. E. READ.

World's Fair, Jan. 4.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ERA.

SIR,—In view of the persistent rumours which are now being circulated to the effect that the Royal Agricultural Hall has been secured by the London County Council in connection with its tramway system in this district, I should feel greatly obliged if you would kindly permit me through the medium of your paper to say that such rumours are very misleading, and totally devoid of truth.

I feel that it is due to the promoters of the many exhibitions in this hall, and to the very large section of the public who attend them, to do all in my power to contradict these mischievous statements.—Yours faithfully,

GARRETT TAYLOR.
(Managing-Director, Royal Agricultural Hall Co., Ltd.).

Royal Agricultural Hall Co., Limited,
Islington, London, N. Nov. 28, 1905

MR. RANDALL WILLIAMS made application before the West Hartlepool magistrates for a licence permitting him to play his organ publicly on Christmas Day; but the magistrates, having already refused a licence to the Grand Theatre, in the same town, for a proposed sacred concert, would not assent to Mr. Williams's application. None of the showman fraternity, however, had applied for licences, and when he heard the organs going in the market yard, Mr. Williams decided to allow his instrument to join them. The result was that Mr. Williams appeared at the West Hartlepool Police Court on the Monday, in answer to a summons charging him with disregarding a term on a music licence by causing an organ to be played outside a cinématograph show in Lynn-street, on Christmas Day. In answer to Mr. Dodd, the Corporation Superintendent said he did not know any other town in England or Wales where a licence was required for performances such as defendant's. It was a fact that shows in the market yard were going full swing on Christmas Day, but he could not speak as to those on the vacant ground near the cemetery. A police-inspector stated that on Christmas Day he heard defendant's organ being played at the entrance to a tent, in which an exhibition of animated pictures was being held. The exhibition, of which defendant was the proprietor, continued from 2.45 to 4.30, and from 7 till 10 p.m. The platform on which the organ stood was part of the show.

DEFENDANT, on oath, said he had never been required to take a licence for his shows, except at West Hartlepool. When the licence was granted, he asked to be allowed to reproduce the Passion Play, without the music, on Christmas Day. The show was altogether independent of the music, and there was no music at all inside the tent. The structure on which the organ stood was quite separate from the tent. No person had complained to him of annoyance through opening the show on Christmas Day.

MR. DODD, who said he had been asked to take special pains with the case, as it was one of importance to showmen all over the country, contended that the Corporation had instructed the police under a mistake as to the actual law. It had been held, he said, that the music and dancing must be inside the building, and it must be an essential part of the entertainment. In this case, the entertainment was a cinématograph show, and the tent was not opened for a musical performance. It was a singular thing, Mr. Dodd added, that it should be left to West Hartlepool to discover that the Act under which the proceedings were taken applied in such cases as this. It was only at the request of the police that defendant took out a licence, but he intended to loyally abide by the arrangement made until he found the whole of the shows in full swing in the market yard and on the vacant ground near the cemetery.

THE Bench considered for some time in private, and the Chairman announced that the case was dismissed. Mr. Williams thereupon, in consideration of the courteous manner in which he had been treated by the police and magistrates, handed over £1 1s. to the Charity Organisation Society.

AT the Newcastle-on-Tyne carnival, in the Exhibition Building, Kitty Bryant and Captain A. Gerard's group of performing lions (pictorially depicted in our advertising columns), are creating a rare sensation. The way in which this charming young lady and her smart coadjutor put these monarchs of the forest through their different tricks is quite out of the common. A perfect entente cordiale seems to exist between the whole of the performers concerned, making the show a most enjoyable one. We hear that it will soon be seen in London, where its advent should be heartily welcomed.

STAGE STAFF GOSSIP.

MR. C. PORTER, who has been master-carpenter at the Waldorf Theatre since that house was opened, has secured a long engagement with Mr. J. Welsh to take charge of the stage at Terry's Theatre. Mr. Porter will continue at the Waldorf until Mr. T. Marshall takes over the stage for Mr. Maude. Mr. J. Simms is Mr. Maude's property master.

MR. W. ROACHE succeeds Mr. A. Lenton as property master at the Adelphi. Mr. E. A. Taylor will continue as master carpenter at the Scala Theatre during Mr. Kelly's season at that house.

MOST of the scenery for Noah's Ark at the Waldorf has been made and painted in Germany. Some of it arrived in an unfinished state, and Mr. Bruce Smith was called in and succeeded in putting the required finishing touches in time for the curtain to go up as usual.

THERE is probably no section of the industrial community who are working under more exacting conditions than the permanent staffs of most of the West End theatres at the present time. As an instance, the case of one theatre may be cited where there are ten performances a week and scenery for a new play in course of preparation. Rehearsals are taking place every day during every moment of time available before and between the morning and evening performances. mealtimes are dispensed with, and the staff work all day on Sundays this month. Each day, from seven o'clock in the morning until 11.30 at night, the work goes on incessantly. If the work were not skilfully organised and in the hands of thoroughly competent men, it would be impossible to do what is being done. The hardest work and much of the worry fall to the heads of departments, who, at this theatre, are putting in over 100 hours a week.

MR. J. SUMMERFIELD has been presented with a medal and silver-mounted umbrella by the members of the Era Sick and Benevolent Fund, a society formed by members of the staff of the Britannia Theatre. The presents bear an inscription testifying to the appreciation of the members of the work done for his fellow-members by Mr. Summerfield.

THE third annual dinner of the General Staff Branch of the National Association Theatrical Employees was given on Sunday evening in the Nag's Head Hotel, Floral-street, Covent Garden. In spite of the inclement weather there was a good attendance of members and friends. Mr. C. Thorogood, president of the branch, presided, and was supported by most of the officers and members of the branch committee. Among those present were Mr. A. E. Wood, master carpenter of the Shaftesbury Theatre; Mr. T. Bryan, electrician, the Grand Theatre; Messrs. J. Atterton, H. Beasley, Cooper, and H. Penny, the Grand Theatre; Mr. J. Hands, master carpenter, and Mr. C. Jones, flyman, the Pavilion Theatre; Mr. H. Skinner, T. Gooch, J. Kinkaid, and R. Perks, the Drury Lane Theatre; Messrs. J. Finninghan, T. Delgano, and E. Burton, Empire; Mr. C. Burgess, the New Theatre; Mr. P. Smith, Covent Garden; Mr. Ed. Stow, Lyric Theatre; Mr. R. Nixon, His Majesty's; Mr. H. Kelly, Daly's; Mr. A. J. Mason, the Vaudeville; Messrs. P. Thomas, J. H. Radford, G. Montgomery, J. Lineham, H. Coombes, Phillips, Cox, Gray, Smale, Earnshaw, Devonport, Clements, the Alhambra; and others. A smoking concert followed the dinner. Mr. Will Randall sang "Ninepence-ha'penny an hour," "If the world were ruled by girls," and "Do you remember," in fine style, and was much applauded. Mr. Harry Elsbury's fine voice was heard with much effect in "Sweet Susan," "The Blind Boy," "Thou and I," and "The Soldier Song." Mr. Elsbury's natural voice is a baritone, but he retains the unusual gift of being able to sing falsetto, and so sang the chorus to "Sweet Susan." Mr. G. Wilton sang "The Grand Hotel," and included some amusing imitations of other artists; as an enore Mr. Wilton sang "She's a lady." Messrs. H. Dott, Earnshaw, and Slack also contributed to the programme. Mr. Francis White acted as accompanist. During the evening the chairman proposed the usual loyal toast and "Success to the National Association of Theatrical Employees," which was enthusiastically received. Mr. William Johnson, secretary, responded, and in the course of his remarks said that the past year had been a very satisfactory one for the branch, as they would gather when the balance sheet was published in the course of next week. He urged them to persevere in their efforts to induce every eligible theatrical stage worker to join the Association. A vote of thanks to the artists for kindly contributing to the entertainment and a vote of thanks to the chairman brought an enjoyable evening to a close.

ON Sunday evening next the usual monthly meeting of the General Theatrical Operatives' Society will take place, and the officers and committee elected at the previous meeting duly be installed in their offices. It is likely that a proposal to arrange a dinner and concert for the members of this society will be submitted to the meeting.

PROVINCIAL THEATRICALS.

(Continued from page 13.)

STOURBRIDGE.—ALHAMBRA THEATRE.—Manageress, Miss Maude Lynton.—Messrs. Stillwell and Teulon's company is here for the week with the drama The Branded Woman. Mr. James Stilwell in the double rôles of Philip Maurice and Zarka proved very successful; Miss Zana St. George in the title-rôle was seen to advantage; Mr. Beckett Bould as Dick Brown provided plenty of fun, and Messrs. Paul E. Teulon and Mr. Val Gully in their respective rôles of Leon Baron Hanber and Louis Duroc assisted greatly the success of the performance.

SUTTON-IN-ASHFIELD.—KING'S THEATRE.—Proprietor, Captain Clayton; General Manager, Mr. Edward Gray.—Mr. George Dance's company appeared in The Cingalee for three nights. Mr. F. Payne scored as Chambuddy Ram, and Mr. A. Wortley Drewitt as the Hon. Harry Vereker acted and sang in fine style. As Boobhamba Mr. F. Sutton gave a fair performance, and Mr. E. Edwards achieved success as Bobby Warren. Mr. Eric Fenton as Sir Peter Loftus played well; Miss Edith Harmer as Nanoya, a Cingalese girl, was graceful and pleasing; Miss Maude Guy as Angy Loftus, and Miss Phyllis Herbert as Peggy Sabine, were also distinctly good. Messrs. Travis Green and Arthur Hinton's company, in When a Man Hates, appeared on Thursday and Friday.

SWINDON.—QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Proprietor and Responsible Manager, Mr. Alfred Manners.—Local playgoers have looked forward with such keen interest to the initial visit to this town of that successful play, The Walls of Jericho, that it was not surprising to find this popular house crowded with a most appreciative audience on Monday. The play is admirably dressed, and the mounting reflects the greatest credit on Mr. G. A. Brandram's stage-management. Mr. Arthur Bourchier's company, under the business direction of Mr. Geo. D. Day, is a particularly strong one. Mr. Herbert Bunston embodies the important rôle of Jack Frobisher very finely, being powerfully eloquent in the great speech of the play. He is cleverly supported by Mr. George A. Brandram, who submits a forcible and effective portrayal of the part of Hankey Bannister; by Mr. Lawrence Hanray, who must be commended for the excellent judgment with which he plays the Marquis of Steveston; and by Mr. Sydney Hamilton, who is seen to advantage as Harry Dallas. The part of Lady Alethea is delineated by Miss Florence Jackson with exquisite grace and finish; and that of Lady Westerby receives artistic treatment at the hands of Miss Nora Greenlaw. Miss Molly Carton, as Lucy, and Miss Edith Cuthbert, as Lady Mornington, also do well.

TODMORDEN.—TOWN HALL.—Proprietors, Todmorden Corporation.—Miss Inez Howard's Company, under the direction of Mr. Henry Chattel, appeared here on Monday evening in the stirring melodrama, The Girl Who Lost Her Character, before a good house. Miss Gertrude Evans gave a touching portrayal of Molly Vernon; the villain of the piece, Captain Geoffrey Caversham, was admirably depicted by Mr. Herbert Pearson; Mr. Hugh Brady made an amusing Dick Punch; and Mr. Frank Etheridge scored a distinct success in the dual parts of Private Johnson and Jack England. Miss Phyllis Vaughan was lively and pleasing as Rose Seymour, and a word of praise is due to Miss Kathryn Eckart for her forcible impersonation of Marian Franklyn. Mr. Charles Coleman's delineation of the Rev. Robert Everton won the warm sympathy of the audience, and Mr. Richard Fulton as James Sutton was most effective. The minor parts of Detective Weathersby and Red Cabbage, a London salesman, were well played by Mr. W. B. Sommerville and Mr. Frederick Dickson respectively. The play was finely mounted.

TON-Y-PANDY. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Lessees, Messrs. Arthur Carlton and Sam Duckworth; General-Manager, Mr. Sam Duckworth.—Hardie and Von Leer's company is this week presenting A Path of Thorns. The part of John Edmonds is assumed by Mr. Wm. Fazan, who gives a masterly interpretation; Mr. F. G. Fenn does well as the Rev. Frank Selby; Mr. C. Mason is well placed as Sam Hallett; Jonas Deane, the villainous contractor, has a capable exponent in Mr. George K. Bull; and Jim Price and Ratty Gabbit are well presented by Mr. F. Gordon and Mr. H. Mann respectively. Miss Kitty Lofting shows a thorough appreciation of the character of Constance Howard, and the part of Nellie Hallett is safely entrusted to Miss Emilie Leslie.

TORQUAY. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Licensee and Managing Director, Mr. R. Smerdon; Secretary, Mr. A. Pearse.—Mr. G. H. W. Burrough's pantomime, Sinbad, the Sailor, was well received on the first night of the second week (Monday), when new songs and fresh business were introduced. Miss Florence Barnes, the principal girl, sang, "I wouldn't leave my little wooden hut for you," and was much applauded; Miss Louie Fuller, the principal boy, was the recipient of a handsome basket of flowers for her song, "My Irish Molly," one of the hits of the pantomime. The comedians, Mr. J. MacMahon and Mr. Fred Fuller, were responsible for new and smart business; and the Captain Cuttle of Mr. Arthur Weston was also good. Mr. George Sinclair's Excelsior quartette of dancers continue to be received with repeated applause.

TUNBRIDGE WELLS.—OPERA HOUSE. — Lessee, Charles Carey.—After Mr. Davey's pantomime of Puss in Boots, which concluded a successful local season on Saturday, when presents were handed to the principal artists over the footlights, we have this week a return visit of Two Little Vagabonds, in which Hardie and Von Leer's original company is very cordially received. Mr. Carey has kindly lent the Opera House for a concert for the Unemployed Fund.

WAKEFIELD.—ROYAL OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietors, Sherwood and Co.—Miss Mary Austin and Mr. E. Vivian Edmonds's company is here this week in the drama, Passion's Power. Mr. Gerald Kennedy gives a fine rendering of Prince Karidos; Miss Cecil Cromwell depicts with ability the rôle of Zorah; Miss Stella Carmichael is successful as Countess Delauney; Mr. Walter Raynham is seen to advantage as General Karan; and Mr. Walter Roberts does well as Rudolph Laski. The humour of the play is well provided by Mr. Ernest Dare as Felix, and Miss Lowe Dare as Lucie. The characters of Michael Laski and Patrice are ably filled by Messrs. Stephen Scanlan and Henry Howard.

HIPPODROME. — Lessees, Varieties (Wakefield), Ltd.; Managing-Directors, Alfred Selwyn and Sam L. Bury; Manager, Henry Lucas.—Altas and Miss Vulcana, assisted by Miss Gwennie Atlas, give a clever exhibition of feats of strength, which is enthusiastically received; Harry Clyo and Rose Rochelle are a smart comedy couple; Les Dorians contribute a clever act on the trapeze; the Monckton provide an interesting comedy act; Mr. Fred Villais, comedian, sings and acts in good style; Miss Florence Nolan is a pleasing comedienne; and Miss Nina Carlton, vocalist, wins favour.

WALSALL.—HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE.—Secretary and Manager, Mr. W. H. Westwood.—Mr. James Kiddie's company, in Little Aladdin, has entered upon its third week, and is proving as popular as ever. There is a considerable change in the programme of songs. Miss Maudie Clarke is the principal dancer this week; and the Carnville Troupe of lady dancers prove themselves finished artists.

GRAND THEATRE.—General-Manager and Secretary, Mr. W. H. Westwood.—Mr. W. H. Hallatt and company opened here on Monday with the romantic play, The Temptress. Mr. James C. Ashworth, as Sir Oswald Fordyce, is all that could be desired; Mr. Robert Wilton is well placed as Austin Dale; Mr. Frederick Moss makes a capital Lucas Denbeigh; Mr. W. H. Hallatt is remarkably good as Pedro Gonzales; Miss Dora Mason does well as Dennis; and Miss Blanche Steele acts the title-rôle admirably.

WALTHAMSTOW. — KING'S THEATRE.—Blue Beard, now in the third week of its successful career, is going even better now than when first produced, the various artists having "warmed up" thoroughly to their parts, introduced a large amount of new and amusing business, and have been provided with additional songs. Mr. E. C. Matthews is still full of fun as Sister Anne, and his songs, "Jamsie" and "What price Mother?" are loudly encored. As Blue Beard, Mr. Mark Milton has greatly improved his performance. Miss Isobel Cairns is more attractive than ever as Selim, her song "Bombay" being one of the big successes of the piece. Miss Ethel Cambridge is a beautiful Fatima; and Miss Amy Robson, as Beda, scores with a new song, "What a silly question to ask." Miss Dolly Bell is seen to great advantage as the Demon King, and sings "A little boy called Taps" admirably; while little Miss Hazel Kirke, as Fairy Queen, sings "Rainbow" with much delicate expression.

WARRINGTON.—ROYAL COURT.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. Johnson and J. Potter; General-Manager, Mr. J. Potter; Acting-Manager, Mr. Fred J. Reece.—Messrs. H. Armitage and Arthur Leigh's company is here in Lucky Durham. The play has scored an unqualified success. The piece teems with pathetic reminders of the deceased actor-dramatist, Wilson-Barrett. There is the incisive trenchant style of writing so characteristic of him. Mr. Edmund Kennedy, in the title-rôle, plays powerfully throughout, making the noble nature of the man stand out with lifelike fidelity. Mr. Benson North, as Lord Mountfallon; and Mr. A. E. Walker, as Mr. Vallerton, prove highly capable exponents of their respective parts; and the vacuous Hon. Reginald Steighton is well presented by Mr. Arthur Leigh. Mr. W. F. Clitherow makes a good impression by his impersonation of Ben Verstein, a money-lender; and the part of Tasker, a servant, is cleverly assumed by Mr. John Hartt. Mr. Campbell Goldsmid scores as Arthur Walcombe; Miss Gertrude Robins, as Helen Vallerton, acts with brightness and charm; and high praise is to be bestowed on Miss Louise Gourlay for her pathetic rendering of Miss Durham. A winsome Hon. Margaret Steighton is Miss Florence Dullumty; and Lady Mountfallon is admirably portrayed by Miss Frances Wolviston. The scenery is admirable and the dresses are effective.

ROYAL THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. Johnson and J. Potter; General-Manager, Mr. J. Potter; Director of Amusements, Mr. F. Willmot.—Nellie Coleman, a thoroughly versatile comedienne, is the chief attraction here this week, and her up-to-date business has won for her many admirers. Dusty Rhodes is an original comedian; and Dome is quite an expert clay modeller. Bertha Winder is really a dancing marvel; and the Clarkes score in a series of banjo duets. Jack Truman has a capital tenor voice and a good selection of songs. Other good turns are submitted by Tom Dunn, comedian; and Riboe and Crawford, comedians. The Royal Bioscope pictures are also an attraction.

WEDNESBURY.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee, Mr. Harry Battersby; Manager, Mr. W. J. Cranston.—This week Mr. Will Cranston's variety company, including the biograph, is appearing here this week to crowded houses. Miss Minnie Newman, of the Albert Hall concerts, proves a big attraction; Mr. Will Cranston, in his dramatic scena, evokes loud applause; Mr. Alfred Shaw's comic sketches are a success; and deserving of special mention is Monk Santos in his expert juggling performance.

WEST BROMWICH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. J. P. Moore. Mr. Gerald Alexander has paid us a first visit for three nights, with his new musical farce, entitled The Lady from London. The title-role was portrayed in fine style by Miss Dollie Beaufey; Miss Violet Lytton did well as Fanny Brooks; and the same remark may be applied to Miss Stella Schumann. The Dr. John Wise of Mr. Percy Compton was a smart performance; Mr. G. Alexander gave a clever impersonation of the difficult part of Algy Wise; Mr. Herbert Dickenson succeeded perfectly as Charles Wise; Miss Gertrude Le Sage made a capital Mrs. Wise; and Mr. E. Harvey White portrayed with considerable amount of ability and tact the character of Frederick. Mr. Douglas Hamilton was decidedly good as the Rev. Thos. Mole. The latter portion of the week was filled out by Mr. E. Lockwood's London Company in Sergeant Brue.

WEST HARTLEPOOL. — GRAND. — Sole Lessee, Mr. Fred Granville; Manager, Mr. J. A. Lewis.—The Face at the Window is being played here by Messrs. Armadale and Warren's company. A notable success is scored by Mr. T. W. Dunscome in the rôle of Paul Gouffet, the detective; his acting throughout is markedly realistic. A capable representative of Lucien Cortier is found in Mr. Gilbert Hall. Mr. Alfred Warne gives a studied rendering of the character of Henry de Brisson. As Lucio Delgado Mr. E. Hoggan Armadale is especially effective. Miss N. Thorn Hallams, acting in the somewhat trying rôle of Marie de Brisson, is earnest and commendable, and other characters have able exponents in Miss Gwynne Warren, Miss Elain Grant, Mr. C. Alan Hineson, and Mr. George Phythian.

PALACE.—Director-General, Mr. Frank Macnaghten.—A most enjoyable turn, and one that is as clever as it is amusing, is provided by Paulinette and Piquo. Nellie Adams is here again with her excellent entertainment at the piano and other numbers on the bill are contributed by Dolly Agnes, and Maud, the factory girls, on a return visit, the Sisters Caselli, Bert Brantford, Charles Baldwin's comedians in a sketch The Old Kent Road, and Raie Walters, vocalist.

WESTON-SUPER-MARE. — KNIGHTSTONE PAVILION AND OPERA HOUSE.—Manager, Mr. W. Payne.—Mr. Leigh Lovel's répertoire company is here this week with Robert Marshall's charming piece The Duke of Killicrankie. Mr. Lovel gives a most amusing interpretation of Henry Pitt Welby; as Ian Douglas McBryne Mr. Guy Cary is exceptionally good; Mr. Ivan Pat Gore does well as Mr. Ambrose Hicks; and Mr. Arthur McCullock is a praiseworthy Alexander McBayne. Miss Naomi Neilson's impersonation of Mrs. Mulholland is highly artistic, and the Lady Henrietta Addison is sweetly portrayed by Miss Octavia Kenmore. Miss Celia Gordon as the Countess of Pangbourne and Miss Ethel Savill as Mrs. McBayne are both commendable.

VICTORIA HALL.—Manager, Mr. E. W. Sully.—The Leon Vint's Scenorama and Globe Choir attract large audiences nightly. The pictures, as shown by the biograph, are most interesting, especially the fifteen tableaux of Gounod's opera Faust. As a clairvoyant Madame Vint is truly marvellous.

WEST STANLEY.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Mark H. Lindon.—Messrs. Paumier and Howard's company is here with the melodrama, The Midnight Wedding. Miss Annie Saker proves herself a resourceful actress, doubling the rôles of Lieut. Karl Kelsburg and the Princess von Strelsburg. A telling performance of Marie comes from Miss Prudence Laurence; the Satanella of Miss Florence Hunt is worthy of praise; the Paul Valmar of Mr. Alfred Paumier has many good points; and the villainy of Captain Rudolf von Scarsbruck is ably emphasised by Mr. Clinton Baddeley. Mr. Fred W. Freeman is capital as the Crown Prince Leopold. Mr. Cecil Melton scores as Lieut. Strelsburg. The comedy is well supplied by Mr. Fred Constable (Sergt. Max), Mr. Reginald Payne (Corporal Otto), Mr. Algie Spalding (Private Bobo), ably assisted by Miss Ada Champion as Kathie.

VICTORIA THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. T. C. Rawes; Lessee, Mr. David Williams.—The Elliotts and Savonas are paying a welcome return visit here. The entertainment is of a refined and high-class description. The Elliotts are ably assisted by the following artists: Bob Stephenson, that well-known Irish comedian and dancer; Miss Florence, a vocalist of merit; and Mick O'Brien, a smart Irish comedian.

WHITEHAVEN.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. J. Clark; Acting-Manager, Mr. F. Clark.—Mr. Frank E. Burdett's company is engaged here in the military play, The Indian Mutiny. Mr. George Steel acts well as Lieutenant Manley, and Mr. Cyril Harrison is good as Captain Manley. Mr. John Davidson has a military bearing as Major Ingleby; and Mr. George Scully is amusing as Terry. Mr. Villiers Stanley is sufficiently villainous as Nebu Sing; and Mr. Ernest Keand works hard as Ra Goonga. Miss F. Melrose-Millett both looks and acts well as Ghuz-hah; and the parts of Mrs. Ingleby and Kate Ingleby have able representatives in Miss K. Bruce and Miss A. Kingston.

WIDNES. — ALEXANDRA THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. James Kiddie.—This week Mr. A. E. Smith's pantomime, Aladdin, is here, and has merit enough to draw good houses, despite the turmoil of the General Election. The pantomime is beautifully staged, and the dresses of principals and chorus afford plenty of ground for admiration. Miss Edith Wallace is an altogether charming Aladdin; Miss Vera Ray is excellent as Princess Balroulbadour; Mr. J. H. Maxwell's Abanazar is screamingly comical, and he has a wonderfully good ally in Mr. Fred Ramsdale, who portrays the Widow Twankey in the most farcically funny fashion. In the Palace scene a number of clever speciality turns are introduced. These include Arnold, a clever illusionist; Bendene, contortionist; J. H. Maxwell, Miss Marie Walker, and the Silverdale Troupe of lady dancers.

WIGAN.—ROYAL COURT THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. J. Worswick.—A capital attraction is provided this week in The Village Blacksmith, presented by Messrs. Dottridge, Longden, and Livesey's capable company. Mr. Sam Livesey as John Strong is responsible for powerful acting; Mr. Joseph Carter plays the part of Captain Leo with ability; Mr. Thomas E. Marshall cleverly portrays the character of Jeremiah Parkins; Mr. Geo. V. Campbell does well as Billy Twig; and Mr. Edwin Maydew is effective as Lucas Marlow. Miss Laura Hansen plays with power and pathos as Kate Strong; Mrs. T. C. Livesey is well placed as Sal Parkins; and Miss Cassie Edwards is satisfactory as Ruth Parkins.

THE HIPPODROME.—Managing-Director, Mr. John Worswick.—An extremely diverting programme is presented here. Mr. Charles Majilton's company, with their farce The Trippers, are genuinely funny; Bosanquet, the famous musician, plays admirably several selections upon the violin; Ross and Lewis, musical comedy artists, create much amusement; and the Paul Hesse Trio of acrobatic wire performers, Mark Merry (comedian), and Dunningarto (conjurer) are exceptionally good turns. The Mystic Grotto is responsible for pretty water and electrical effects, and the pictures shown on the bioscope are much appreciated.

WOLVERHAMPTON. — GRAND THEATRE.—Lessees and Managers, Mr. E. H. Bull and Mr. Milton Bode; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy Percival.—The visits of the Compton Comedy Company are always very popular, and this week's is no exception to the rule. On Monday the company opened in Davy Garrick to a capital house. On Tuesday The School for Scandal was produced, and received with as much enthusiasm as if it were a new play. Mr. Edward Compton played the part of Charles Surface in admirable fashion; Mr. Henry Crocker was a really excellent Sir Peter Teazle; Mr. A. B. Imeson did full justice to the part of Joseph Surface; and Mr. Arnold Lucy essayed the part of Sir Oliver Surface satisfactorily. The Lady Teazle of Miss Mackenzie was exceptionally well done; Mrs. Elbert-Orton was a pleasing Maria; and Miss Marie Hassell was good as Mrs. Candour. The week's bill also includes To-morrow, New Men and Old Acres, and She Stoops to Conquer.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Chas. Barnard; General-Manager, Mr. W. H. Lennon.—A capital programme is provided for this week's entertainment. It includes Davis and Gledhill in their American sensational bicycle race; Dutch Daly, comedian; Oakley and Jones, comedy artists; Verno and Voyce's No. 1 Company in Jack Sheppard; Les Frasettis, musical artists; Val Watkins, comedian; Lily Esplin, comedienne; and Percy Maye, female impersonator and dancer.

WORCESTER.—NEW THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Arthur Carlton; Assistant-Manager, Mr. F. Le Ward.—The Gay Parisienne is an old favourite with Worcester playgoers, and is this week being well received by good houses. As the irrepressible Ebenezer Honeycombe, Mr. Edward Kipling is the life and soul of the piece; and in the title-rôle, Miss Alice Nixon achieves success. She is a graceful dancer and clever vocalist. Mr. Rudolph Kloss is a distinguished figure as Major Fossdyke; and Mr. Graham Wentworth is a capital Amos Dingle. Miss Gwennie Harcourt makes the part of Ruth a most laughable one; Mr. Lester Carey and Miss Lucia Collins contribute considerably to the success of the production; and Mr. Charles Sequin presents a comical sketch of Pompier. The Imperial Glee Singers contribute some excellent numbers.

WORTHING.—THEATRE ROYAL—Manager, Herr C. Adolf Seebold.—Mr. Fred Karno's company is here this week, presenting His Majesty's Guests. Too much praise cannot be allotted Mr. Arthur Lenville for an admirable impersonation of the character of Sergeant Lightning. From start to finish he kept the house highly amused. Mr. F. Fredericks was also thoroughly entertaining as Bunker; Mr. Frank Morton, who possesses an excellent voice, capably acts the part of Lord Esem; Mr. Chas. Usher ably represents Chas. Winn; Mr. H. W. Lumley is extremely funny as Mr. Minks; Mr. W. Simpson does excellently as Fritz; Mr. S. Bolton capitally portrays the character of Harry; and Mr. S. Gosling scores as Josiah Giles. Miss Dolly Royce is a winsome Dolly; Miss Amy Rogerson is a typical picture of the New Woman, as Miss Manley. Mr. Harry Rowe is extremely clever as Selina; Miss L. Castelle leaves nothing to be desired as Lady Maude Esem.

WREXHAM.—EMPIRE MUSIC HALL.—Proprietor, Mr. J. J. Scott; Manager, Mr. Herbert Nicholls.—This week the following excellent talent appeared: Mr. J. H. Crew, quaint comedian and dancer; the Bros. Hannaway, comedians, cross talkers, and dancers; Miss Lil Dresden, characteristic vocalist; Mr. Syd Herman, popular Hebrew comedian; Miss Maud Marlow, burlesque artist and dancer; together with the Empire Electric Animated Tableaux.

YORK.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessees, Messrs. Waddington; General-Manager, Mr. H. J. Dacre.—Notwithstanding the political excitement in the city a large house on Monday evening witnessed the play by G. R. Sims and Wilson Barrett The Golden Ladder, which was presented by Miss Mary Austin and E. Vivian Edmonds' company. Mr. Harry Cullenford as the manly Frank Thornhill performs an exacting part with considerable skill; Mr. J. Milne Taylor is excellent as Michael Severn; Mr. Graham Winsford and Mr. Henry Belford are heartily applauded for their clever acting as Peranza and Dixon; Mr. Joseph Rowlands, a splendid comedian, causes much fun as Peckaby; he and Miss Nellie Graham as Mrs. Peckaby keeping the audience in roars of laughter; Miss Eva Moss gives a thoroughly natural and forcible impersonation of Lilian Grant; Miss Jessie Gillette as Peckaby's daughter is exceedingly good; and Miss Holly Haslewood makes a particularly pleasing Lily.

EMPIRE AND OPERA HOUSE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Wm. Peacock; Acting-Manager, Mr. Sidney Brook.—Carl Lynn's mimicry causes much diversion this week, he is deservedly applauded; the turn of the Babusio Brothers is deservedly popular; Cooke and Rothert's laughable entertainment is smart; and Hilton and Hilton on the bars are as clever as they are amusing. Mozzetto, juggler; the Three Clarions in a sketch; Manning's, entertainers; Walter Gurney, and the Bioscope complete the bill.

MR. DAN ASHTON, "the Lancashire collier lad," met with a serious accident at Manchester on Saturday, Nov. 18, when he was taken to the Manchester Royal Infirmary. He is now recovering, and will be ready to commence business shortly.

MISS MILLIE PAYNE, the popular exponent of low comedy, has been meeting with enthusiastic receptions during her provincial tour, and opens at the Chelsea Palace and the London on Monday.

MR. JOHN BRILL, who was for some time proprietor of the Royal, Holborn, has taken possession of the Royal Forest Hotel, Chingford, which came under his management on Tuesday last. Mr. Brill broke his leg badly some twelve months since, and his many friends will be glad to hear that he is once more on the active list.

A CONCERT in aid of the Seamen's Hospitals will be given by the Stock Exchange Orchestral and Choral Society at the Queen's Hall on Thursday, Jan. 18. As an attraction, pictures from the Sherborne pageant, conducted by Mr. Louis N. Parker, will be shown. Miss Bertha Bird, the charming Australian soprano, will contribute to the programme. Miss Bird is constantly using her talent in helping objects of charity.

MR. FRED H. ANDERSON, sole proprietor of the Palace, Northampton, recently presented to Mr. Robert Barton, his acting-manager, a very valuable solid gold double Albert guard, with a massive gold medal attached, having a garter of perforated design, showing the words, "Anderson's Palace, Northampton," with a shield in the centre; on the reverse is the following inscription: "From Fred H. Anderson to Robert Barton, 'Xmas, 1905, as a token of esteem."

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD H. LUCAS, the well-known impersonators of

REVISED SCALE OF CHARGES FOR

MANAGERS WANTING ARTISTS, ARTISTS WANTING ENGAGEMENTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

This Scale does not apply to "Trade" Advertisements in these Columns.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION (Post Free).

	UNITED KINGDOM.	FOREIGN
One Quarter.....	6s. 6d.	8s.
Half Year	13s. 0d.	16s.
One Year	26s. 0d.	32s.

The Offices of "The Era" are
"THE ERA" BUILDINGS,
5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, STRAND, W.C.

For the convenience of Advertisers, Replies to Advertisements are received. They can remain until called for, or be forwarded by Post, FREE OF CHARGE

NO STAMPS.

Advertisers and Subscribers are politely requested to forward Cheques or Postal Orders in payment of their Advertisements and Subscriptions, crossed "Lloyd's Bank, Ltd." Remittances should be made payable to "The Era" Limited, and addressed,

THE PUBLISHER,
"The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-st., Strand, W.C.
"Wire," "The Era, London."
"Ring-up," 4,747, Central.

IN case of the non delivery of "THE ERA" by the First Post, the Publisher will be greatly obliged if Advertisers will forward their Postal Wrappers, with the time of delivery marked upon them.

COMPANIES WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

MILTON BODE'S THEATRES.
WANTED, Companies for
DALSTON THEATRE, LONDON, N.E.
March 26, April 9, 16, 30, May 7, 21, on.
COUNTY THEATRE, READING.
Feb. 19, March 5, 19, April 2, 9, 16, on.
ROYALTY THEATRE, CHESTER.
May 7, Race Week, 14, 28, June 4, on.
GRAND THEATRE, WOLVERHAMPTON.
Feb. 26, March 12, 26, April 2, 9, May 7, on.
THEATRE ROYAL, HUDDERSFIELD.
April 9, 16, 23, May 14, 28, June 4.
OPERA HOUSE, NORTHAMPTON.
Vacant April 9, 16, May 7, 21, 28, June 4, on.
THEATRE ROYAL, LEAMINGTON.
Vacant,
Jan. 29, Feb. 5, 19, 26.
March 5, 12, on.
Address, MILTON BODE, Theatre, Reading.

WANTED, First-class Companies, for LEAMINGTON, Jan. 29, Feb. 5, 19, 26, on.
READING, Feb. 19, March 5, 19.
Address, MILTON BODE, Theatre, Reading.

MELVILLE'S THEATRES and COMPANIES.
WANTED, Important Attractions, for STANDARD THEATRE,
March 19, 26, April 30.
TERRISS THEATRE,
Feb. 12, and various onwards.
Address, WALTER MELVILLE,
Oakley House, 14, Bloomsbury-street, W.C.

WANTED, First-Class Companies, QUEEN'S THEATRE, GATESHEAD,
March 12, May 7, 14, 21, June 11, 18, 25, July 9.
Address,
SIDNEY BACON, Metropole Theatre, Gateshead.
Telegrams, "Bacon, Gateshead."

WANTED, First-class Companies, for COUNTY THEATRE, BEDFORD.
GRAND THEATRE, LUTON.
Vacant Feb. 5, 26, March 5, 12, 26, April 2 (6 nights), Feb. 15 (3 nights, Bedford only), Feb. 19 (3 nights each town).
Address,
E. GRAHAM-FALCON,
County Theatre, Bedford.

WANTED, First-class Companies, Feb. 5 (6 nights), Luton; Feb. 15 (3 nights), Bedford; Feb. 19 (3 nights Bedford, 3 nights Luton).
E. G. FALCON, County Theatre, Bedford.

CAMBRIDGE THEATRE, SPENNYMOOR.
Lessee, Mr. HARDING THOMAS.
WANTED, Pantomime, Feb. 19; Musical Attractions, April 2, 9, on. Address, HERBERT VERE.

ROYALTY THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE, BARROW-IN-FURNESS.
Lessee and Manager, HUGH ROBERTSON.
WANTED, First-Class Attractions, for Feb. 19, March 26, April 9, 16, and 23. Managers are requested to note that the bookings for this theatre include the principal attractions touring. Apply, HUGH ROBERTSON, T. R., Jarrow.

OPERA HOUSE, CROUCH END.
WANTED, for Spring,
Musical Attractions only.
SAMUEL JAMES,
Grand Theatre, Islington.

THEATRE ROYAL, WINDSOR.
WANTED, First-Class Attractions for Spring. Apply, J. E. BULL (General-Manager for Samuel James), Grand Theatre, Islington.

THEATRE ROYAL, WINDSOR.
WANTED, Good Dramas, Jan. 22, Feb. 12 and 19.
Apply, J. E. BULL, General Manager for Samuel James, Grand Theatre, Islington.

GRAND THEATRE, DERBY.
WANTED, First-Class Pantomime, for Christmas, 1906-7.
State where can be seen.
Address, T. ALLAN EDWARDES.

GRAND THEATRE, DERBY.
WANTED, First-class Attractions, May 7, 21, and onwards, with exceptions. Can negotiate for really First-class Pantomime for Xmas, 1906-7. State where can be seen. Address,
T. ALLAN EDWARDES.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE, RADCLIFFE.
WANTED, big Musical and Dramatic Attractions, Pantomimes, including Comedians and Vocalists, but not Dramatic Students; good Pantomimes take big money. Refer F. Denman-Wood, Esq Last week's actual returns: Monday, £96 3s. 4d.; Tuesday, £56 4s. 1d.; Wednesday, £34 2s. 10d.; Thursday, £26 17s. 7d.; Friday, £17 6s. 6d.; Saturday, £78 7s. 3d.; total, £309 1s. 7d. Managers with good Pantomimes requiring a good Pantomime date, address, SANTE, Opera House, Radcliffe.

JERSEY and GUERNSEY.
WANTED, Companies, Feb. 5, 12, 19, March 19 and 26.
C. ROBT. PERKINS,
Opera House, Jersey.

EMPIRE THEATRE, OXFORD.
WANTED, First-class Companies, Jan. 22, 29, Feb. 12, and on, Musical Pieces and Good Pantomimes. Write, ALBANY WARD.

WANTED, for the Prince of Wales Theatre, Salford, First-class Companies, for Jan. 29, Feb. 19, 26, March 5, April 9. Address, E. B. GOULDEN.

WANTED, First-class Companies, Easter, onwards. Apply, R FOGERTY, Proprietor, Theatre Royal, Limerick. Musical Comedy or High-class Drama preferred.

PAVILION THEATRE, ALTRINCHAM.
WANTED, Pantomime, Jan. 22, and First-class Attractions, Jan. 29, onward. HARRY TAYLOR, Manager.

WANTED, for Theatre Royal, Peterborough, Good Companies, Jan. 22, Feb. 19.
A. D. VERNON.

WANTED, for the Prince of Wales' Theatre, Mexbro', First-Class Attractions, Feb. 26 (musical preferred). Address W. H. MELTON.

WANTED, a Company for Feb. 5, Pantomime preferred. WM. B. BROADHEAD, Hippodrome, Manchester.

WANTED, Feb. 5
(through obliging Manager).
Wire, JORDISON, St. James's Theatre, Manchester.

COMPANIES WANTED.

ARTHUR CARLTON THEATRES, LTD.

WANTED, First-class Companies,
Wanted, First-class Companies.
Wanted, First-class Companies.
Wanted, First-class Companies.
Wanted, First-class Companies.
Wanted, First-class Companies.
Wanted, First-class Companies.
Wanted, First-class Companies.
Wanted, First-class Companies.
Wanted, First-class Companies.

THEATRE ROYAL, WORCESTER.
THEATRE ROYAL, WORCESTER.
THEATRE ROYAL, WORCESTER.
Vacant March 19, April 9, 23, 30.

GREENWICH THEATRE, S.E.
GREENWICH THEATRE, S.E.
GREENWICH THEATRE, S.E.
Required, Strong Company, to Re-open under Mr. Carlton's Management, on Jan. 22.

METROPOLE THEATRE, DEVONPORT.
METROPOLE THEATRE, DEVONPORT.
METROPOLE THEATRE, DEVONPORT.
Vacant Feb. 12, March 12, May 21, June 4.

CARLTON THEATRE, BIRMINGHAM.
CARLTON THEATRE, BIRMINGHAM.
CARLTON THEATRE, BIRMINGHAM.
Vacant Feb. 5, 26, March 5, 12.

GRAND THEATRE, STALYBRIDGE.
GRAND THEATRE, STALYBRIDGE.
GRAND THEATRE, STALYBRIDGE.
Vacant Feb. 19, 26, March 5, 12.

KING'S THEATRE, GAINSBOROUGH.
KING'S THEATRE, GAINSBOROUGH.
KING'S THEATRE, GAINSBOROUGH.
Vacant Jan. 18 (3 nights), Jan. 22 (3 nights), Feb. 8 (3 nights).

GARRICK THEATRE, HEREFORD.
GARRICK THEATRE, HEREFORD.
GARRICK THEATRE, HEREFORD.
Vacant Jan. 29, Feb. 5, 12, 19, 26.

CARLTON AND DUCKWORTH THEATRES.

LYCEUM THEATRE, PENTRE.
LYCEUM THEATRE, PENTRE.
LYCEUM THEATRE, PENTRE.
Vacant Jan. 15, Feb. 12, 26, March 5.

THEATRE ROYAL, TON-Y-PANDY.
THEATRE ROYAL, TON-Y-PANDY.
THEATRE ROYAL, TON-Y-PANDY.
Vacant Feb. 5, 12, 19, 26.

THEATRE METROPOLE, ABERTILLERY.
THEATRE METROPOLE, ABERTILLERY.
THEATRE METROPOLE, ABERTILLERY.
Vacant Jan. 18 (3 nights), 29, Feb. 5 (3 nights), 12.

"SPAN OF LIFE" CO.
Vacant Feb. 5, 12, 26, March 5.

Wanted, Good Pantomimes, Several Theatres.

All communications, to ARTHUR CARLTON,
Theatre Royal, Worcester.

CARLTON THEATRE, GREENWICH.
WANTED, Good Company, to re-open under Mr. Carlton's Management, Jan. 22.
Wire,
CARLTON, Worcester.

LYCEUM THEATRE, GOVAN, GLASGOW.
Proprietor, RICH. WALDON.
WANTED, Good Attraction (not Drama) for Feb. 19,
Musical Comedy Preferred.
Last week's Receipts,
£709 10s. 2d.,
with Mr. Eade Montefiore's "Cinderella."
Vacant Feb. 19, also April 23 and 30.
Address, J. H. OAKDEN, as above.

WANTED, Wanted, Wanted,
for AVENUE OPERA HOUSE,
SUNDERLAND,
the Home of Pantomime.
Wanted, for Above, a First-class Pantomime, commencing Feb. 5, to follow J. F. Elliston's Gigantic Success "Cinderella"; must have been produced this Xmas, at a No. 1 Theatre, and have Proved a Success.
Reliable Managers Only need apply to
CHAS. E. MACHIN,
Avenue Opera House, Sunderland.

HER MAJESTY'S OPERA HOUSE, BLACKPOOL.
WANTED, First-Class Companies, Feb. 5 and 12. Applications, with full particulars, to J. R. HUDDLESTONE, Manager, Winter Gardens, Blackpool.

THEATRE ROYAL, BLACKBURN.
WANTED, First-Class Attractions, April 30, May 21 (?), 28, and June 4.
Address, HARRY YORKE.

HARROGATE GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
WANTED, First-class Companies, Jan. 29, 30, 31, March 26, 27, 28, onward.
Apply, WILLIAM PEACOCK.

HIPPODROME, NEW BROMPTON.
Lessee, D. S. COOPER. Gen.-Man., ROY COCHRANE.
Great Success of the Dramatic Season. Jan. 1, Miss Francis Delaval's "Biggest Scamp on Earth" (return booked). Jan. 2, "Aladdin." Jan. 15, "My Lady Molly."
WANTED, Company, for Jan. 22. Jan. 29, Harry Bedford's "Gipsy Jack." Large stage, band of 8 (R.E.), magnificently billed, district within 1½ miles 75,000. Wire for Jan. 22 to ROY COCHRANE.

LYCEUM THEATRE, STAFFORD.
WANTED, Companies, Feb. 1 and 8 (three nights each), and on.
JAMES ELPHINSTONE.

THEATRE ROYAL, BATLEY.
WANTED, Companies, Jan. 29, March 5, Sunday, onwards. See "Provincial Theatres" Page. J. EDWARD WHITTY, T. R, Batley.

NEW PRINCE'S THEATRE, BLACKBURN.
WANTED, First-class Dramatic Company, Comedy or Pantomime, Jan. 22 and 29, Share or Certainty. E. H. PAGE.

WANTED, First-Class Attractions, for Feb. 5, Jarrow. Apply, HUGH ROBERTSON, T. R., Jarrow.

TUNBRIDGE WELLS OPERA HOUSE.
WANTED, Companies, Feb. 5, 15, 22, March 8, and 15, Vacant (3 nights each), March 19, 26, and Easter Week. CHARLES CAREY.

WANTED, for Theatre Royal, Barnstaple, Companies, for Two Nights, Musical or Comedy preferred. Apply, H. ASHTON, Strand, Barnstaple.

WANTED, High-class Companies, Dunfermline, 3 nights, Feb. 1, 8, March 1, 8, 13, Dumfries, Jan. 22, Feb. 5, 12, 26, and April 2. Address, W. E. POTTS, Dunfermline.

THEATRE ROYAL, DUNFERMLINE.
WANTED, Three Nights, Jan. 25; 29th, three or six; Feb. 5 three or six.
Wire, W. E. POTTS.

WANTED, Good Companies, Jan. 22, onwards, good business, good shows. Good pantomime wanted. Wire, MANAGER, Theatre, Musselburgh, Scotland.

COMPANIES WANTED.

MR. MORTON POWELL'S ENTERPRISES.
WANTED, Attractions for QUEEN'S THEATRE, FARNWORTH,
March 12, 19, April 2, 9, 23.
ALBERT THEATRE, BRIGHOUSE,
Feb. 5, 6, 7, Feb. 12, 13, 14, March 12, 19, 20, 21, March 26.
STAR THEATRE, SWANSEA,
March 26, April 23, 30, May 7, 14, 21.
MORTON POWELL, Queen's T., Farnworth, Bolton.

FRED GRANVILLE'S THEATRES.
WANTED, First-class Companies,
THEATRE ROYAL, HYDE,
Vacant March 19, 26, April 9, on.
GRAND THEATRE, WEST HARTLEPOOL,
Vacant April 9, May 7, on.
THEATRE ROYAL, STOCKTON-ON-TEES,
Vacant Jan. 29, Feb. 26, March 26.
Address all Communications to Theatre Royal, Hyde.

QUEEN'S THEATRE, KEIGHLEY.
WANTED, First-class Musical and Dramatic Companies, May 14, 21, also Whit Week, Share or Certainty.
Address,
LINGFORD CARSON, Queen's Theatre, Liverpool.

QUEEN'S THEATRE, LIVERPOOL.
WANTED, Strong Dramatic Companies, for Feb. 26, April 2; also First-class Attraction for Easter.
Address,
LINGFORD CARSON, as above.

ALEXANDRA THEATRE, WIDNES.
WANTED, First-class Companies, for Feb. 26,
March 12,
and onwards, with exceptions.
Address,
THOS. SWINTON.

RAMSGATE.
SANGER'S AMPHITHEATRE.
LORD GEORGE SANGER, Sole Proprietor.
Manager, HENRY BOWMAN.
WANTED, First-class Companies, for July, August, Sept., and October. Bookings and pencillings include "The Blue Moon," "Prince of Pilsen," "Earl and the Girl," "Walls of Jericho," "The White Chrysanthemum," "Freedom of Suzanne," George Dance's Companies, Fredk. Melville's, and all the Leading Touring Attractions.
Address, HENRY BOWMAN, as above.

OPERA HOUSE, WORKINGTON.
WANTED, First-Class Companies, Feb. 12, 19, and 25, March 19. Good Panto. wanted. Booked in conjunction with T. R., Whitehaven. Apply, STANLEY ROGERS, 124, Warwick-rd., Carlisle.

IRVING THEATRE, SEACOMBE.
WANTED, First-class Attractions, March 12, 26, April 9, April 23, 30, May 7, 14, 21, 28.
Apply,
Owner and Manager, JAMES KIERNAN.

Grand Theatre, Chorley,
WANTED, Big Attractions, Something Musical and Something that Will Draw. Last week the Dramatic Mascot, "The Life of a Showman," drew on Monday, £53 9s. 2d.; Tuesday (market night), £21 0s. 3d.; Wednesday, £26 11s. 9d.; Thursday, £23 9s. 1d.; Friday, £24 4s. 2d.; Saturday, £67 9s. 1d.—£216 3s. 6d.
Good Pantomimes Wanted 1907.
Address, re Dates,
SANTE, Radcliffe.

THEATRE ROYAL, WORKINGTON.
WANTED, Sound Attractions, Feb. 19, 26, March 26, Easter, and on; also Panto., Avenue Theatre, Morpeth. Wanted, good Attractions, Feb. 12 and 26, on; might arrange short stock season, Fit-up Panto. Write all communications, DUNHAM and HAMMOND, T. R., Workington.

WORPLE HALL, WIMBLEDON.
Seats 800. No other Theatre.
WANTED, Companies, Feb. and March. Rent or share. CHARLES JONES, Lessee.

NEW COLISEUM, ABERYSTWYTH.
WANTED, Good Attraction, for Jan. 24, 25, 26, 27, on, with exceptions. PHILLIPS.

WANTED, First-Class Companies, three nights, commencing Jan. 18, 25, and Feb. 1.
CONNOLLY, Public Hall Theatre, Scunthorpe.

PUBLIC HALL THEATRE, COLWYN BAY.
WANTED, Good Companies, Feb. 12 (3 nights), onwards, with exceptions. CHAS. CHAPLIN.

ST. MARGARET'S HALL, CANTERBURY.
Seats 600. Lighted throughout with Electricity. Electric Current for Cinématograph, 220 volts.
WANTED, First-Class Attractions, onwards, Share or Rent. Apply, W. J. COTTON

WANTED (Season 1906), for Ryde Pier Pavilion and elsewhere, visiting Concert Parties.
J. HERBERT JAY, 10, Jermyn-street, Piccadilly.

THEATRES WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

"A GIRL'S CROSS ROADS."
By Walter Melville.
WANTED, Theatres, Feb. 12, March 12, 19.
WALTER MELVILLE,
Oakley House, 14, Bloomsbury-street, W.C.

"HER SECOND TIME ON EARTH."
By Walter Melville.
WANTED, Theatre, March 5,
WALTER MELVILLE,
Oakley House, 14, Bloomsbury-street, W.C.

"HER FORBIDDEN MARRIAGE."
WANTED, Jan. 29, Feb. 12,
FREDK. MELVILLE,
Oakley House, 14, Bloomsbury-street, W.C.

"BETWEEN TWO WOMEN."
WANTED, April 16, Sept. 17, Oct. 22.
FREDK. MELVILLE,
Oakley House, 14, Bloomsbury-street, W.C.

"THE UGLIEST WOMAN ON EARTH."
Frederick Melville's New Production.
WANTED, March 5, Aug. 6.
FREDK. MELVILLE,
Oakley House, 14, Bloomsbury-street, W.C.

"THE BEAST AND THE BEAUTY."
Fredk. Melville's New Production.
WANTED, Important Theatre, Aug. 13,
FREDK. MELVILLE,
14, Bloomsbury-street, W.C.

"THE FEMALE SWINDLER."
WANTED, Theatres, April 16, Aug. 6, Sept. 17.
TOM H. TAYLOR, Standard Theatre, E.

"WORST WOMAN IN LONDON."
WANTED, Wanted, Theatre,
April 16, June 4, Aug. 6, Sept. 10.
TOM H. TAYLOR, Standard Theatre, E.

"THE GIRL WHO LOST HER CHARACTER."
WANTED, Important Theatre, Feb. 12.
DOUGLAS BRUCE,
Bruges, Willow-avenue, Edgbaston, Birmingham.

"A ROYAL DIVORCE."
"A ROYAL DIVORCE."
"A ROYAL DIVORCE."
"A ROYAL DIVORCE."
WANTED, Weeks of April 2 and May 7, for this Powerful Attraction.
Wire or write,
W. W. KELLY,
8, Hamilton-square, Birkenhead.

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN."
WANTED, Theatres, April 16, 23, May 21, 28.
"THE SAILORS OF THE KING,"
Feb. 26, March 12, on.
CHARLES HARRINGTON,
Theatre Royal, Batley.

EDMUND TEARLE'S TOUR.
WANTED, Jan. 22, 29, Feb. 12, onwards.
Address,
Lister-road, Liverpool.

MRS. BANDMANN-PALMER'S TOUR.
WANTED, Feb. 19 and 26. Address, 36, Gloucester-road, Kew, Surrey.

WANTED, First-Class Theatres, "Mason," Jan. 29, Feb. 19, 26, March 19; "Gay Parisienne," Feb. 12, 19, March 26. Communicate,
CHAS. MACDONA, 17, Shaftesbury-avenue, W.

M. RUSSELL ROSSE'S TOURS.
WANTED, Feb. 5 and 12, for either Thomas Thorne and Co., or David James and Co.
Wire, RUSSELL ROSSE, 10, King-street, W.C.

THEATRES WANTED.

PANTOMIME,
PANTOMIME,
PANTOMIME,
PANTOMIME,
PANTOMIME,
PANTOMIME,
PANTOMIME,
PANTOMIME,
PANTOMIME,
PANTOMIME,
"LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD,"
"LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD,"
"LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD,"
"LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD,"
"LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD,"
"LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD,"
"LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD,"
"LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD,"
"LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD,"
"LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD,"
Written by Victor Stevens.
Written by Victor Stevens.

WANTED, Good Theatres, Jan. 29 and Feb. 5, for this "Mascotte" Version, now being performed at Royal West London Theatre.

Company includes:
Chas. Gardiner,
Chas Lilburn,
Henry de Solla,
Philip Sefton,
Geo. Elliston,
Fred Hutchings,
The Maples
(from Alhambra),
The Six American Belles,
Lily Stewart,
Ethel Morden,
Marie Beaufort,
and Louie Hurman.

Selected Chorus of Pretty Girls.

N.B.—This Pantomime is full of fun, and the Book has a Story. This is the same version used for the last twelve seasons, and has been played at Clapham, Dalston, Ealing (three times), Richmond, Birmingham (twice), Portsmouth, York (opening of theatre), Leeds, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Edinboro', Cheltenham, and other large centres, and with the same unvarying success.

Pleased to arrange for the Book and Music for next Season.

The People says:—Mr. Brydon Phillips is a past-master in the art of pantomime, and the pretty production, "Little Red Riding Hood," does him infinite credit. The story is closely adhered to, and is clearly carried through beautifully painted scenes.

Laughter is loud and long.

Open to negotiate for entire production.
Theatre Christmas, 1906-7.

A safe Booking.

Address,
GEO. BRYDON PHILLIPS,
Royal West London Theatre, London.

Telephone, 2247 Mayfair.

MR. and MRS. CHALMERS MACKEY'S CO.
"THE WEARIN' O' THE GREEN."
WANTED, March 26, between Swansea and Swindon, only vacant date. CHALMERS MACKEY, this week, Standard T., Hetton, Durham; next week, His Majesty's T., Barrow-in-Furness.

"DARE-DEVIL DOROTHY."
WANTED, Theatres, Vacant April 23 and 30.
J. W. CORDINER,
Theatre Royal, Jarrow.
See Companies Advertisement, Page 2.

MESSRS. WARAM-WATERS' COMPANIES.

"WHAT MEN DARE."
WANTED, Jan. 29, (to precede Weymouth), Feb. 19, (to follow Hastings).
G. WATERS,
3, Woodstock House, James-street, Manchester-square, London.

"DAYS OF CROMWELL."
WANTED, Feb. 5, Feb. 5, Feb. 5, March 12, April 22, 30, May 14, June 5, July 9.
MONTAGUE BEAUDYN,
Next, Amphitheatre, Ramsgate.

"THE BREED OF THE TRESHAMS."
By arrangement with Mr. Martin Harvey.
WANTED, Feb. 12 (South), April 2 (North).
EUGENE BERTRAM,
5, Gilmore-road, Lewisham, S.E.

"THE DANDY DOCTOR."
WANTED, Feb. 26,
Feb. 26,
March 5,
March 5,
March 12,
March 12,
Aug. 6,
Sept. 10,
and Xmas.
Wire, EDWARD MARRIS,
To-day, T. R., Blackburn; next, A., Lancaster.

WANTED, Wanted, Wanted,
"THE GIRL FROM JAPAN,"
The Successful Musical Comedy,
Feb. 5, 19,
onwards.
F. MARTIN MORRIS,
This week, Theatre, St. Helens;
next week, Theatre Royal, Huddersfield.

HARDIE AND VON LEER'S COMPANIES.
WANTED, First-Class Theatres,
"THE WOMAN FROM GAOL,"
by Geo. R. Sims.
Several vacancies between Easter and Whitsun.
First-class Company, Elaborate Production,
Enormous Advertising Plant.
"TWO LITTLE VAGABONDS,"
Jan. 29, Feb. 5 and 12.
"A PATH OF THORNS,"
Feb. 5, 12, May 7.
E. P. CLIFT, 110, St. Martin's-lane, W.C.
Wires, "Vagancy, London." Tel., 7504 Gerrard.

"A ROYAL REVENGE."
"A ROYAL REVENGE."
"A ROYAL REVENGE."
"A ROYAL REVENGE."
An Artistic, Established, and Pronounced Success.
WANTED, the weeks of Feb. 12, 19, 26.
J. H. CLYNDES, Central Theatre, Northwich.

MR. FRED KARNO'S NO. 1
"HIS MAJESTY'S GUESTS" CO.
WANTED, Feb. 5, 12, and 19, and on, with exceptions.
Address,
Park House, Vaughan-road, Camberwell, S.E.

"THE ROMANY'S REVENGE."
WANTED, Feb. 12 (3 nights, to follow Walsall and precede Loughboro'), Feb. 26 (?), March 19, Easter. The old success, better than ever, and played by an excellent cast. Refer McLeod Loader, Esq., O. H., St. Helens. Wire, E. A'DELL, T., Heywood.

"THE THRONE OF TERROR."
WANTED, Feb. 5, various, onwards, for this Stirring Drama, magnificent costumes, uniforms, &c. W. J. MILLER, Opera House, Treherbert.

Mr. JOSEPH W. WORLEY'S TOUR.
"A FAITHFUL FRIEND."
WANTED, Good Theatres, March 5, onward, now booking Autumn. Everything new, everything carried, everything good. LEWIS GILBERT, Gaiety Theatre, Burnley.

THEATRES WANTED.

MISS MARY NEIL AND MR. GEO. KIRK'S COMPANY.
"HER LUCK IN LONDON,"
By Chas. Darrell,
Author of "When London Sleeps," &c.

A Huge Success. A Great Success.

Equal in Every Respect to Drury Lane Drama of the Best Type.

Magnificently Staged, Acted, and Advertised. Sixteen Artists Travelled, headed by the Brilliant Actress, Miss Mary Neil, as Nellie Harborne.

Refer Wm. Morton, Esq., Alexandra, Hull, who saw show, and immediately booked for his Easter Attraction.
Only First-class Theatres can be Entertained.

WANTED, Feb. 5, 12, 19, March 5, 19, April 9, May 28, June 4.

The First, and will undoubtedly be the Biggest, Success of 1906.

Already Booked by Messrs. W. B. Broadhead (all theatres), McLeod Loader, Charles E. Machin, Colonel Winstanley, Thomas Sergenson, H. Masterman, Hugh Robertson, Sawyer and Woodruff, George E. Mudd, A. C. Mitchell, Wm. Morton, J. F. Elliston, &c., &c.

Address, GEO. KIRK,
Grand, Blackpool.

"A MODERN ADVENTURESS."
WANTED, Jan. 29, Feb. 5 and 26, only Vacant Dates till Autumn.
Address,
LINGFORD CARSON,
Queen's Theatre, Liverpool.

"DRAMA OF LIFE."
WANTED, Theatres, for this Elaborate Production,
Vacant Feb. 5, 19, and 26.
Address,
LINGFORD CARSON, Queen's Theatre, Liverpool.

"THE POWER OF THE CROSS."
WANTED, Theatres, with Holding Capacity, for this Financial Success,
Vacant, through transferring, Feb. 19 and 26.
Address,
LINGFORD CARSON, Queen's Theatre, Liverpool.

ALFRED B. CROSS'S TOUR,
"THE MANXMAN,"
by Hall Caine and Wilson Barrett.
WANTED, Dates for this Sterling Attraction, Vacant Jan. 29, Jan. 29, Jan. 29, also Feb. 5, Feb. 12, and March 5. Rapidly booking Autumn. Managers, please forward Vacant Dates. Bookings include T. R., Cardiff; G., Swansea; L., Newport; South Shields; Chester; G., Middlesbrough; G., Newcastle; A., Gravesend; Stratford; Leicester; M. and G., Glasgow; G., Birmingham; P. Bradford; R. and S., Liverpool; T. R., Hull; Clapham; Broadway; Northampton; Brighton; Yarmouth; O.H., Blackpool. Jan. 15, T. R., TON-Y-PANDY.

WANTED, owing to a misunderstanding, one of the most elaborate productions in the country. Four big Specialities.
Company of Fifty-four.
Vacant Jan. 29.
Vacant Jan. 29.
Milton Rays'
Milton Rays'
"BEAUTY AND THE BEAST."
"BEAUTY AND THE BEAST."
To follow Bolton.
Wire, ARTHUR MILTON, T. R., Bolton.

"A DESTROYER OF MEN."
"A DESTROYER OF MEN."
"A DESTROYER OF MEN."
by Sydney Spenser and Clarence Burnette.
Absolutely Everything Carried.
A Superb Production.
WANTED, Big Theatres Only, Autumn, 1906.
JAMES HARE, 70, Part-street, Southport.

"SAPHO."
"SAPHO."
WANTED, March 5, April 16.
No greater success touring.
Wire, JAMES BELL, Theatre, Darlington.

"PUSS IN BOOTS."
BROADWAY THEATRE, NEW CROSS.
On Feb. 5 a run of the above Pantomime could be arranged after the six weeks' production at this theatre.
WANTED, First-class Theatre.
Apply, FREDK. MOUILLOT,
4, Broad Court-chambers, Bow-street, W.C.

BEAUDYN and LIVESEY'S TOURS.
The Great Oriental Production,
"A TRAITOR PRINCE."
WANTED, Jan. 22, 29, Feb. 5, 12, Easter, and Whit.
Wire Queen's, Dublin; next, STAR, LIVERPOOL.

MESSRS. SHINTON and GREENWOOD'S TOUR.
"THE PRICE OF HER SOUL."
WANTED, Theatres, Vacant Feb. 26, March 5, 12, Easter, and Whit. Only Vacant Dates till Autumn. All communications to JOHN B. SHINTON, Aquarium T. Yarmouth.

"LIFE OF A SHOWMAN."
Scored another Success at Barnsley.
Kindly refer A. C. Mitchell, Esq.
WANTED, First-class Theatres for the few remaining Dates, 1906, which are: Feb. 26 (South), Aug, Oct. 22, Nov. 19, 31. Managers, do not miss this Novelty in Drama.
SANTE, T. R., Barnsley; P. O. W., Mexboro'.

WANTED, March 5, 12, 19, for "The Guilty Man," by arrangement with James Hare, Esq. EVAN ROLAND, 39, Chapel-st., Ormskirk.

"THE ORPHAN HEIRESS."
Mr. REUBEN PAYNE'S TOUR.
WANTED, for this Recognised, Sound Attraction, Various Dates, from March 5, onwards. Neither energy nor expense will be spared to satisfy the "Pay-box Requirements."
Address, ARTHUR JEFFERSON, Metropole, Glasgow.

"SENTENCED FOR LIFE."
WANTED, First-Class Theatres, Feb. 5, 12, 19.
FRED BULMER, Albert Theatre, Brighouse.

"THE GREATEST SCOUNDREL LIVING."
WANTED, First-class Theatres, Feb. 5, 12, 19.
FRED BULMER, Albert Theatre, Brighouse.

"A WOMAN'S REDEMPTION."
WANTED, June 11 (follow Grand, Llandudno), July 9 (between Stratford and Alex., Birmingham), only No. 1 Drama Houses Entertained.
JAMES HARE, 70, Part-street, Southport.

F. WYBERT CLIVE'S TOUR,
"THE CONSCRIPT."
WANTED, May 28, June 18, and on, with exceptions. Recognised by Managers, Public, and Press to be the leading Russian Drama Touring. New Scenery; Correct Dresses; Attractive Printing. Result, Success. Address, Avon Cottage, Dewsbury.

"I DEFY THE WORLD."
WANTED, Good Theatres, Feb. 5 (three nights), to precede Grantham; March 5 and 12 (to follow third visit to Stratford).
Address,
CHAS. M. JULIAN, to-day, P.O.W., Mexboro'; Jan. 15, Gaiety, Burnley (third visit).

"AFTER THE BALL."
The most successful Musical Comedy. Full Chorus, Six Gibson Girls. New Scenery. New Printing.
WANTED, Theatres, Vacant August Bank Holiday ("A" Company). CHARLES CAREY, Opera House, Tunbridge Wells.

"WHAT THE BUTLER SAW."
WANTED, Theatre for March 5, through obliging Mr. Robert Arthur.
Address,
LIONEL RIGNOLD, 398, Clapham-road, S.W.

WANTED, Jan. 22, 29, for "No Escape," or "Money Makes the Man," or Both. Everything sound. Wire, COLEMAN DAVIES, Theatre, Colwyn Bay.

"HER LOST SELF," by Nita Rae.
"THE BIGGEST SCAMP ON EARTH,"
by F. A. Scudamore.
WANTED, Jan 29, follow third return to T. R., Stratford, Mar. 5, 12, North, June 4, Aug. 6, Wire, FRANCES DELAVAL, C. T., Bedford; next, St. Remo, Woodlawn-ter., Whitstable.

THEATRES WANTED.

Wire! Wire!! Wire!!!
Wire! Wire!! Wire!!!
Wire! Wire!! Wire!!!

WANTED, Wanted, Known,
Jan. 22 Vacant.
Jan. 22 Vacant.
Jan. 22 Vacant.
Jan. 22 Vacant.

G. H. W. Burroughs' Panto.,
"SINBAD THE SAILOR."
"SINBAD THE SAILOR."
"SINBAD THE SAILOR."
"SINBAD THE SAILOR."
"SINBAD THE SAILOR."
"SINBAD THE SAILOR."
"SINBAD THE SAILOR."
"SINBAD THE SAILOR."
"SINBAD THE SAILOR."
"SINBAD THE SAILOR."
"SINBAD THE SAILOR."
"SINBAD THE SAILOR."
"SINBAD THE SAILOR."
"SINBAD THE SAILOR."
"SINBAD THE SAILOR."
"SINBAD THE SAILOR."
"SINBAD THE SAILOR."

45 Travelled. All New Scenery Carried.

Vacant Jan. 22, 29, Feb. 5, and On.

Owing to Gigantic Success extending Tour.

Wire BURROUGHS, Opera House, Torquay.

WANTED, Dates, for
Mr. Leigh Lovel,
Miss Octavia Kenmore and Company, in
"THE DUKE OF KILLICRANKIE."

One of the few First-class Companies which have been able to keep Continuously on the road. Several Spring Dates open.

"SOWING THE WIND."
A most Favourable Reception has been accorded to the Revival of this Powerful Play.

"IN THE SOUP."
(By arrangement with Mrs. Lumley.)
One of the Funniest Farces ever written.

Spring Dates Open.
Address, Weston-super-Mare.

MESSRS. MURRAY and STAFFORD'S CO.,
In an Entirely
New and Original Drama in Four Acts.
"THE CURSE OF CRIME,"
Written by Alfred Stafford.
Carefully Selected Company.
Specially Constructed and Painted Scenery.
The Best of Pictorial Printing.
WANTED, First-class Theatres for Spring and Autumn, with few exceptions.
Address, 39, Evan's-square, Beetonsville, Hull.

PAUMIER AND HOWARD TOURS.
"WHY MEN LOVE WOMEN,"
"UNDER THE RUSSIAN FLAG,"
"THE MIDNIGHT WEDDING."

"THE MIDNIGHT WEDDING."
New Romantic Play, by Walter Howard.

ANNIE SAKER,
ALFRED PAUMIER.

WANTED, Weeks, April 23, Oct. 15, for "The Midnight Wedding." Now booking 1907.
Coms., ALFRED PAUMIER, Theatre Royal, Blyth.

"THE WALLS OF JERICHO."
SPECIAL CONTINENTAL COMPANY.
WANTED, First-class Theatres, for Jan. 18, 3 nights, to follow the Leading State Theatres in Holland, Feb. 19, 26, and April 16.
Add., Mr. SILVANUS DAUNCEY, Terry's Theatre, W.C.

THE LONDON AND PROVINCIAL PANTOMIMES, CO., LTD.
Managing-Directors, Mr. ERNEST STEVENS and Mr. R. C. BUCHANAN.
"CINDERELLA,"
The Record Success, now Running at the Brixton Theatre.
A Refined, Operatic, Spectacular, and Genuinely Funny Fairy Pantomime.
Managers of First-class Theatres are Invited to see this Magnificent Pantomime, with a View to Production next Season.
WANTED, also, First-class Theatres, for Jan. 29, Feb. 5, and 12,
"THE FAIR ONE WITH GOLDEN LOCKS."
An Instantaneous Success at the Metropole Theatre, Glasgow.
"JACK THE GIANT KILLER,"
Enormous Success at Leith, Business Phenomenal.
Pronounced by Press and Public to be the Funniest Pantomime in the District.
General-Manager, Mr. STANLEY ROGERS, 124, Warwick-road, Carlisle.

WANTED, First-class Theatres, for
James Kiddie's
James Kiddie's
Colossal and Gorgeous Pantomime,
"DICK WHITTINGTON."
"DICK WHITTINGTON."
"DICK WHITTINGTON."
Theatres having Large Stage and Large Holding Capacity only need apply.
Address, THOS. SWINTON, Alexandra Theatre, Widnes.

WANTED, Theatres, 1906-7, for
"CINDERELLA,"
"CINDERELLA,"
"CINDERELLA,"
"CINDERELLA,"
"CINDERELLA,"
"CINDERELLA,"
Magnificent Production, now Playing to Record Houses, Theatre Metropole, Devonport.

All communications to ARTHUR CARLTON, Theatre Royal, Worcester.

PETER THOMPSON'S
"BABES IN THE WOOD" CO.
WANTED, Feb. 12 (First-class Theatre only), for the most genuinely funny and successful pantomime of this season. Add., WALLACE CHILDS, this, T. R., Batley; next, Grand Theatre, Nelson.

"JACK AND THE BEANSTALK."
WANTED, Feb. 12, for Haddon and Loader's Grand Pantomime, Enormous Success. Can be seen this week, Dewsbury; next, BURY.
Address, M. LOADER, T. R., St. Helens.

"THE BRANDED WOMAN." by F. Wybert Clive.
WANTED, Feb. 19, 26, March 5. Whit., Sept. 10, and on, with exceptions. Address, JAMES STILLWELL, Alhambra, Stourbridge

---

"SENTENCED FOR LIFE."
WANTED, First-Class Theatres, March 5, 19, 26.
FRED BULMER, Albert Theatre, Brighouse.

MISS BONWIN CARLTON'S
"THE PLUCKY NIPPER" CO.
WANTED, Feb. 5, 12, 19, and on.
EDWARD SURREY, to-day, T. R., Colne; next, T. R., Macclesfield.

GRANVILLE AND THORNE'S
"NAPOLEON THE GREAT" COMPANY.
WANTED, March 19, and on; also Good Theatre for Easter, "Another Man's Wife," Production shortly.

"THE MASTER CRIMINAL."
WANTED, Good Theatres, for this great success, Feb. 5, 19, 26, March 12, 19, only Vacancies till August Bank Holiday. Wire, OSMOND, Queen's, Liverpool.

"CINDERELLA"
WANTED, Jan. 29, precede Kidderminster, over forty Artists travelled, a magnificently dressed, refined show. Christmas vacant, 1906-7, first-class theatre only, for "Cinderella" or "Aladdin." Wire or write, HERBERT BARRS, Theatre Royal, Hyde.

"THE INDIAN MUTINY."
WANTED, Good Theatres, Feb. 12, 19 (?), and 26.
Address, FRANK E. BURDETT, Jan. 15, Queen's Theatre, Liverpool.

WANTED, Known, Feb. 5, Feb. 5, Feb. 5, Vacant. "Under Two Flags" and "At Cripple Creek." MARK BLOW, Theatre, Folkestone.

"SENTENCED FOR LIFE."
WANTED, First-class Theatres, Feb. 5, 12, 19.
FRED BULMER, Albert Theatre, Brighouse.

THEATRES WANTED.

MR. MORTON POWELL'S ENTERPRISES.
WANTED, Dates for
"THE WOMAN WHO GAMBLES,"
"THE WOMAN WHO GAMBLES,"
Feb. 19 (?), March 19 (?), April 9, 16, 23, 30.
"HONOUR THY FATHER,"
Feb. 12, March 5, 12.

MORTON POWELL, Queen's T., Farnworth, Bolton.

"THE POWER OF GOLD."
WANTED, for this Moneymaking Attraction, Jan. 29. Wire for Jan. 29.
Feb. 12 and 19, Midlands.
Autumn fast filling. Wanted, Oct. 1, 29, Lancs.
Company, Printing, and Scenery A1.
23rd Week of Present Tour.
FRANK AYRTON, Opera House, Dudley.

"CINDERELLA" PANTOMIME.
WANTED, Feb. 19, 26, North, for Mr. Eade Montefiore's Production.
The Record Success of Last Year at Edinburgh and Newcastle, and this Year the Breaker of all Records at Lyceum Theatre, Glasgow.
Wire, "Montefiore, Edinburgh."

EDWARD MARRIS'S
"DICK WHITTINGTON."
WANTED, for the Most Successful Version of 1905-06.
Company of 50.
Refer Stephen Pritt, Esq., Preston.
Refer Harry Yorke, Esq., Blackburn.
Feb. 25.
Feb. 26.
Feb. 26.
(Between Newcastle and Nottingham.)
Enormous Success of Walter Wade, the Most Original Idle Jack for years.
Cast and Specialities include: Miss Madge Merry as Dick, Miss Winnie Reece as Alice, Mr. W. H. Ball as Fitzwarren. Mr. Walter Nugent as The Cook, the Sisters Vincent, the Sprays, the Kashmas, Miss Effie White, &c., &c.
Re Feb. 26 and next year wire Edward Marris. To-day, Theatre Royal, Blackburn. Next, A., LANCASTER.

WANTED, Large Theatre, in No. 1 Town, for Xmas, 1906-7,
London Hippodrome Pantomime,
"ALADDIN,"
"ALADDIN,"
"ALADDIN,"
"ALADDIN,"
"ALADDIN,"
"ALADDIN,"
"ALADDIN,"
"ALADDIN,"
"ALADDIN,"
"ALADDIN,"
Now Playing to Record Business at the Grand Opera House, Middlesbrough, acknowledged to be One of the Biggest Productions of Pantomime in the Provinces. Scenery by T. Ryan, Drury Lane Theatre.

Could not consider less than four weeks from Boxing Night.

Might arrange to Sell the Entire Production.

"BABES AND ROBIN HOOD" PANTOMIME.
WANTED, Feb 12 and 19, North, for this Record Nottingham Pantomime, with the Finest Travelling Cast this Season.
Wire,
"Montefiore, Edinburgh."

"ALADDIN" PANTOMIME.
WANTED, Good Theatre, next Xmas, for this Production, which has become the Talk of Edinburgh.
Monday next, Sixth Week, and still doing Holiday Business.
Wire,
"Montefiore, Edinburgh."

Miss ETHEL CLAYTON'S
Superb and Mirthful Pantomime,
"BABES IN THE WOOD."
Full at Early Doors at Muncaster, Bootle. Refer Messrs. Pennington. Company of over Thirty Recognised Artists. Miss MARIE VESTA as ROBIN HOOD. Miss ETHEL CLAYTON as MAID MARIAN. Specialities include Percy Victor's Wonderful Dog Orchestra, Swan and Vesta, Bernardo and Travelli, Rizonis, Ruby Troupe of Dancers, The Demon Head, Vulo, and The Valmores.
WANTED, First-class Theatres, Vacant Jan. 29 and Feb. 5 only (fol. Blackpool and pre. Rawtenstall). Wire for this Attraction, this, Grand, Radcliffe; next, T. R., TYLDESLEY.

WANTED, Known, Claude Ginnett's Original Rejected Remounts, Vacant Feb. 12, 19, to follow Leeds; also April 2, 9, onward.
C. GINNETT, JUN.,
59, Nichols-square, Hackney-road, N.E.

WANTED, for Andrews' Animated Picture Co., Theatres, Halls (South), share or rental, Vacant Feb. 5, onwards, with exceptions, everything up to date, electric or lime. Films include every topical subject; effective printing; 2½ hours' continuous show. H. ANDREWS, Post Office, Salisbury.

WANTED, Good Halls or Theatres, for First-class Combinations, including Prof. Inman Hocking, Electric Healer. J. LARDER, 22, Levington-street, Grimsby.

ARTISTS WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Artists in all Lines, for Musical Play, "Somebody's Sweetheart." Sing and Dance, also Trio of Dancers. Lowest terms and photos (stamped envelopes, or will not be returned), W. H. KIRBY, Theatre Royal Hanley.

WANTED, Several Young Ladies of good appearance for Musical Comedy Sketch in Vaudeville Theatres; must have good Singing Voices and be good Dancers. Apply personally between 1.30 and 2.30, Tuesday and Wednesday next, MOLLER, The Prince Albert, St. Martin's-lane, W.C.

WANTED, Full Company, for "Romeo and Juliet." Those having played in Manchester or Glasgow production preferred.
Address,
J. W. TURNER, Grand Theatre, Birmingham.

WANTED, First-Class Leading Lady, Leading Gentleman, Heavy Gentleman, Comedian, Chambermaid, and Gentleman for old man; all must be first-class, for sketches at a Suburban Music Hall. Month's engagement guaranteed to capable artists. Open the 29th, rehearse week previous. May be long engagement. State where can be seen playing, and all particulars, including latest references, Sketch, SECRETARY, 49, Binfield-rd., Clapham.

WANTED, Known, Advertiser giving London matinée wishes to hear from clever artists wanting appearance. Strict investigation courted. AMERICAN, 39, Grange-road, Ramsgate.

WANTED, Lady Holyrood, for "Florodora" immediately; also Dancers. The latter apply to day, 10.30, with practice dress. F. DARRELL and Co., 415, Strand.

"SAPHO."
WANTED, to Rehearse and open at once, Gentleman, for Caoudal and Flamant, (double), Char. Old Man and Small Juvenile Part. Address, stating last two references, enclosing photo., &c., JAMES BELL, Theatre Royal, Darlington.

"THE LITTLE BREADWINNER."
WANTED, to Rehearse Jan. 23, at West Stanley, tall, powerful young actor, for character heavy; must be tall and powerful; good voice. Send terms, photos. (cost essential), height, and references, to J. A. CAMPBELL, New Theatre, Consett.

WANTED, Juvenile Leading Gentleman, tall, for First-class Dramatic Company, on Tour. Address, first instance, with full particulars, to Box 2,649, "The Era."

WANTED, tall, robust Character Actor (heavy father type). Photos., references, &c., to
GEORGE KIRK,
Grand Theatre, Blackpool.

WANTED, for the Variety Theatres, Amateur Gentleman, play small, important part in first-class sketch. No premium. Box 2,654, "The Era."

ARTISTS WANTED.

WANTED, Known.—Advertiser would like to Hear from Gent. capable of Booking Dates for a First-class Sketch Co., also to take part in same. Particulars, terms, and references, and photo. if possible, to
Box 2,636, "The Era."

WANTED, Brilliant Soprano and Contralto, for Summer Season on Pier; must be young and of good appearance, with experience as Principals, in Comic Opera or Musical Comedy. Good Ballad Singers, and well up to Quartette Work. Also a First-class Tenor, young and of gentlemanly address, with same experience as above. Apply, DIRECTOR, Box 2,629, "The Era."

WANTED, High Baritones or Robust Tenors, for Special Songs, London and Tour; must be exceptionally good voices. Apply first instance, with fullest particulars, Box 2,657, "The Era."

WANTED, Vocalists for Sunday Concerts, also Instrumentalists. Ability, last engagement, and terms, WHITE and SHARP, 20, New Park-road, Brixton, S.W.

WANTED, Dramatic Artists who experience difficulty in obtaining copies of "The Era" at any of Messrs. Smith and Son's Bookstalls to kindly communicate with the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-st., Strand, W.C.

ARTISTS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, by Bass-Baritone, Refined, Pupil of Signor Alberto Randegger, Ada Lewis Scholar, R.A.M., large répertoire of songs, &c., can accompany self, compass 2½ octaves, engagement, in high-class concert party, from May to Sept., 1906, South Coast preferred. Full particulars to Messrs. DYSON and SONS, 19, George-street, Croydon.

WANTED, Contracts, 1905, Madame Natalia, the celebrated S. African contralto, soloist, plays own accompaniment. Address, C. WILKINSON SCOTT, Manager, c/o "The Era."

WANTED, Known, Jeanne Damyel, Prima Contralto; fine Voice, Appearance, Wardrobe, Liberty Concert, Variety, &c. 19, Castle-st., Bolton, Lancs.

WANTED, Engagement by Young Actor, experienced, répertoire, age 23, quick study, in known company. STAIR ROBERTSON, P.O., Mendlesham, Suffolk.

PANTOMIME ARTISTS WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Good Principal Girl, Two Single Comedians, for Squire and Simple Simon part, "Mother Goose" Pantomime. PILKINGTON, Queen's Theatre, Longton.

WANTED, Principal Girl, Two Single Comedians, for Pantomime. Open immediately. ARTHUR PILKINGTON, this week, Court Theatre, Warrington; next, Grand, Rawtenstall.

SCENIC ARTISTS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

MILTON BODE and EDWARD COMPTON'S SCENE FACTORY, READING.
WANTED, Known, Estimates Given for all Kinds of Scenery, Properties, Electrical Effects, Music Stands, &c., First-class Work Guaranteed.
Apply, MILTON BODE, County Theatre, Reading.

WANTED, Contracts for Scenery, high-class work, and best materials at reasonable prices. Studio and workshop, 107, Waddon New-road. CHARLES SAYER, 2, Clarendon-road, Croydon.

WANTED, Contracts for Scenery. Large Quantity of Profile for Sale. SHARP, 20, New Park-road, S.W.

WANTED, Known, Alfred Whyatt and Son, at Liberty to accept Contracts of every description. Christmas Productions, Lester Collingwood's "Blue Beard"; W. H. Hallatt's "Temptress." Studios, Lyceum, Crewe.

WANTED, Contracts for Scenery by Alexander and Co., Bell-street Studios, Wolverhampton.

WANTED, Orders for Scenery, by ALEXANDER and Co., The Bell-street Scenic Studios, Wolverhampton.

WANTED, Known, Alfred Smith, jun., Artist, Figure, Animal, Landscapes, and Flowers, Gilding, Writing, and Decorations. Address, 66, Stanbury-road, Peckham, London.

MISCELLANEOUS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Wanted, Wanted.
Experienced Music Hall Manager, with £2,000 to Invest,
Wanted,
to Join others in New Venture,
Excellent Prospects.

Replies in Confidence,
Box 2,627,
"The Era."

WANTED, Artists to Note that I write High-class Sketches (Musical or Otherwise), also Songs, Scenas, Duets, &c., on Moderate Terms, Consistent with Good Work.
CLIFFORD GRAHAM, 8, Campden House-rd., Kensington (High-street Station). 'Phone, 2260 Western.

WANTED, Immediately, Tall, Smart, Acting-Manager, play small part, recognised touring company. Small cash security required. Age, height, Box 2,650, "The Era."

QUEEN'S THEATRE, LIVERPOOL.
WANTED, Smart Electrician, one able to Work Bioscope, long engagement to a reliable man. Lowest terms, references, &c., to J. L. ARTHUR, as above.

WANTED, Electrician; must be capable, steady and reliable. Apply with fullest particulars and references, F. R. YEULETT, King's Theatre, Gateshead.

WANTED, Good Window Biller, and Baggage, combined, assist agent; must understand smalls, for animated photograph show; single, and steady. References, CLIFFORD, Palace, Boston.

WANTED, Known, Alfred Powley, late Manager Theatre Royal, Croydon, and Greenwich Palace, is at Liberty for Management of Dramatic or Variety Theatre. Full Knowledge of Bars. First-class references. Offers invited. Box 2,645, "The Era."

WANTED, Known, Kingstone Trollope, Actor-Stage-Manager, Disengaged Jan. 13, nine years Stage-Manager Empire Theatre, Liverpool, open for Variety or Theatre, home or abroad.
Address, Care of Empire Theatre, Liverpool.

WANTED, Engagement, Evening only, thorough experience Acting-Management; occupation more essential than salary. RAYNER, Hornchurch-road, Romford.

WANTED, Engagement, as Advance Agent, late with Mr. Fred Storey in "Rip Van Winkle," Music or Drama, Travelling. Write, Box 2,628, "The Era."

WANTED, Known, Electrician Disengaged. Would undertake installing of Theatre or Hall, or maintaining same. J. H., 14 Hainesbuildings, Leicester.

WANTED, Situation by Smart Man, Billing and Check-taking, or Pay-box. Unquestionable references, London preferred. H., 36 Hartismere-road, Fulham, S.W.

WANTED, Evening Employment, by a Gentleman engaged in City during day, occupation of time more essential than remuneration. Box 2,639, "The Era."

MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED, Employment in Theatre or Music Hall, any Capacity; no experience. Excellent personal reference. P., 512 Wharncliffe-gardens, Maida Vale, W.

WANTED, by Young Man, Berth as Assistant, any Capacity, height 5ft. 10in.
Box 2,644, "The Era."

WANTED, by Scotch Piper and Scenic Artist, thoroughly useful man, any capacity.
MEDAIN, 52, Princes-square, Kennington, S.E.

MUSICIANS WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Good Violin, Flute, Reed, and Brass Players, to become Members of a Militia Band at once. In addition to Regimental Pay, Bounty, Rations, and Clothing, &c., a Bonus will be given at the end of Training. Age up to 45 years. Nothing to do but band work. Civilians and ex-Army men apply at once to BANDMASTER, 6th Middlesex Regt., Mill Hill Barracks, London, N.W.

WANTED, for Theatre Royal, Dublin, Solo Cornet, to open Monday, Jan. 22; must be first-class performer. Apply, stating terms, and enclose references, to JOHN MOODY, Musical Director.

WANTED, at once, by the Weston-super-Mare Town Band, First Cornet; young preferred. Terms, Shares. W. PFAFF, Villa Nassau, George-st., Weston-super-Mare.

WANTED, Cornet, Clarionet, and Trombone, for Town and Promenade Band, Cheltenham. Terms, shares. J. GRAINGER, 17, Glenfall-st., Cheltenham, Gloucester.

WANTED, Trombone, Special Week, Musical Comedy, open Monday. Wire terms, &c., LINDEN, Theatre, Stanley, Durham.

EMPIRE,
ASHTON-U-LYNE.
WANTED, to Open Monday, Jan. 15, Rehearsal 11 a.m., 'Cello. Apply, with last reference, to PERCY B. BROADHEAD.

HIPPODROME, SOUTHAMPTON.
WANTED, 'Cello, experienced in Variety Work. Apply, with terms and references, to J. HOWARD SHACKLETON, Musical Director.

WANTED, 'Cello Player; must be well up in variety business, steady and reliable. Age, refs., F. BRAHAM, Conductor, Regent Theatre, Salford.

WANTED, Flute and Piccolo, for Pantomime, Jan. 15 (9 shows).
State lowest inclusive terms.
Address,
MUSICAL DIRECTOR, Pier, Eastbourne.

WANTED, to augment Band, two nights, Jan. 19 and 20, Flute, Drums, and Second Violin. Lowest inclusive. ELPHINSTONE, Theatre, Stafford.

HIPPODROME, GRIMSBY.
WANTED, Pianist, Violin, Bass, Flute, and Piccolo, Cornet, Drums, used to Variety, open 22nd inst. Terms, references, to J. STUART PAUL, 191, High-street East, Glossop.

WANTED, Smart Young Man or Lady, to play Piano, one that can do turn preferred. Particulars in first letter, LYNTON, 52, Foundation-st., Ipswich.

WANTED, immediately, good Pianist and Comic Vocalist combined, must be good Sight Reader. Address, with lowest terms, to Dr. ORMONDE, 5, Murieston-place, Edinburgh.
C. Deakin and Jepson please write.

WANTED, Pianist, capable of Playing another Instrument. Permanency to suitable man. Age, references, lowest terms, E. G. FALCON, County Theatre, Bedford.

WANTED, Pianist, Lady or Gentleman, used Variety and Pictures, open Wimbledon Jan. 19, five nights. Terms, EDGAR BROOK, Worple Hall, Wimbledon.

WANTED, First-class Drummer, with Effects; must be thoroughly steady and reliable. State salary and experience. W. C. HORNER, Victoria Theatre, Burnley.

WANTED, for Six Months' Tour, Lady Instrumentalist; must invest capital; black-and-white entertainment. Write, B. CHRISTY, 715, Fulham-road.

WANTED, First-class Exceptionally Clever Novelty Band (12 to 15), for March 12 week. Good terms for one with drawing powers. Experienced exhibition bands, with or without additional attractions. State inclusive terms, HAGUE, Spa, Bridlington, Yorks.

WANTED, Musicians who are anxious to secure the best Terms, before accepting Engagements in Glasgow, to write to Mr. J. BARTLEY, 9, Seamore-street, Glasgow.

WANTED.—Musicians "Out of Shop" and Bandmasters requiring Instrumentalists will do well to try an advertisement in the "Wanted" Columns of "The Era." One Shilling expended on Twenty Words (each additional Six Words Sixpence) is likely to bring successful results, as explained in the following letters from grateful Advertisers:—

FROM A MUSICIAN:—
To the Manager of "The Era" Advert. Dept., "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, W.C.,
"Re Advertisement
"'WANTED, ENGAGEMENT BY CORNET.'
"Thanks for inserting above in the last number of your paper. I have obtained a comfortable shop. Had seventeen replies. You need not put in the second insertion.
"Yours truly, 'A GRATEFUL MUSICIAN.'"

FROM A BANDMASTER:—
"Re Advertisement 'WANTED, A DRUMMER.'
"Please do not insert my advt. for the second insertion, as I am pleased to say I have had twenty replies and secured a Drummer.
"Yours truly, PHILIP GERMANN, Bandmaster, "Littlehampton."

WANTED, Musicians who experience difficulty in obtaining copies of "The Era" at any of Messrs. Smith and Son's Bookstalls, or from any Newsagent in the United Kingdom, to kindly communicate with the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-st., Strand, W.C.

MUSICIANS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known, Michael Connelly, Musical Director, Composer of "Silver King," "Lights of London," "Golden Ladder." 54, Casewick-road, West Norwood.

WANTED, Engagement, by Jacques Bruske, Musical Director, late Hippodrome, Birmingham. Prima references. First-class offers only. Communications, c/o "Era" Office.

WANTED, Known, First-Class Variety Conductor, shortly Disengaged; highest credentials; always reliable; large library. Address Box 2,635, "The Era."

WANTED, by Conductor, or as Leader, Permanency, thoroughly experienced any business; up-to-date Répertoire. Box 2,634, "The Era."

WANTED, Engagement, as Conductor or Leader (Violinist), with very best experience, Grand Opera, Symphony Work, &c. Highest references. Apply, Box 2,608, "The Era."

WANTED, Re-engagement, as Leader or First Violin, by Lady, thoroughly experienced. Good references. Miss KATE HUSBAND, Atherstone, Sackville-road, Hove.

WANTED, Engagement as Musical Director, Violinist, and Conductor, Variety or Theatre, up-to-date Répertoire, at Liberty 22nd. VINCENT WHITE, Hippodrome, Scarboro'.

WANTED, by Young Man, Engagement in London as Second or Third Violin; inexperienced. Address, B., c/o Stone, 88, De Laune-street, Kennington, S.E.

WANTED, Engagement, as Violinist, any business, experienced; good references.
VIOLINIST, 86, Park-place, Darlington.

MUSICIANS' WANTS.

WANTED, Engagement as First Violin, can combine Clarionet, good refs.
H. SMITH, 14, Princes-sq., Kennington, London, S.E.

WANTED, Known, Good Violinist, at Liberty, Leader or First Violin, Experienced, and Stock of Music. CARPENTER, Gilpin-st., Liverpool.

WANTED, by First Violin, Permanent Engagement. Excellent refs. Apply, C. H. D., 33, Longbridge-road, Barking.

WANTED, Engagement, as Violin, can combine clarionet. Good references. H. SMITH, 14, Princes-square, Kennington, London, S.E.

WANTED, Engagement as Violinist, experienced in Dramatic or Variety Business. Good references. Apply, D. DEACON, 25, Commercial-road, Lowestoft.

WANTED, Engagement, by Violinist, soloist, young, steady, Brilliant Player, experienced. Good references. F. D., 43, Marshall-st., London-rd., Southwark, S.E.

WANTED, Engagement, by Good Cornet, Experienced, any business, out through closing. Add., H. B. METCALFE, 39, Whitehouse-st., Walsall.

WANTED, by Cornet, Engagement, any Business.
Box 2,631, "The Era."

WANTED, by Cornet, Engagement, any Line, good references, sight reader, strictly temperate, moderate salary, can join at once. CREAMER, 2, Granville-st., Kettering.

WANTED, Engagement, as Clarionet, well Experienced, would deputise, good refs. JOE HEATH, 37, Balham New-road, Balham, London.

WANTED, Known, Good Clarionet Player, Open for Yeomanry Trainings, 12 years' Cavalryman, and Good Trumpeter. Apply, Box 2,637, "The Era."

WANTED, by Clarionet, Engagement, experienced in any Business. Exceptional references. Apply, J. DUNLEARY, 24, John-street, Blackburn.

WANTED, by Clarionettist, Engagement, any Business, competent and reliable, genuine refs. MCCORMICK, 82, Chester-terrace, Brighton.

WANTED, Engagement, by Double Bass, young and steady; any business; well up in variety. BASSO, 12, Hunter-rd., Thornton Heath, S.E.

WANTED, Known, Bassoon Disengaged, Theatre or Oratorio Work.
BASSOON, 15, Warwick-road, Hampton Wick.

WANTED, Engagement, as Double Bass Player, Dramatic, Variety, or Circus Orchestra, combine bombardon. Refs. BASSO, 26, Lord-st., Stockport.

WANTED, Engagement, by Double Bass, Theatre or Variety, reliable, total abstainer. R. LANGRIDGE, 66, Priory-street, Colchester.

WANTED, by Trombone, Experienced, Engagement, any business. Good refs. Wire or write, TROMBONE, 2, Cromwell-terrace, King's Lynn.

WANTED, Engagement by thoroughly reliable and competent Trombone Player, Theatre or Concert Hall. Address, F. WILLIAMS, 99, Rhondda-street, Swansea.

WANTED, by thoroughly experienced Euphonium, Engagement any Business. Can open at once. Address, CHAS. PRICE, 184, Waterloo-road, Norwich.

WANTED, by First-class First French Horn, Engagement. Good references and good experience. V. DIDOMENICO, 70, Frederick-st., Gray's Inn-rd., W.C.

WANTED, Orchestral Practice for Little Girl on 'Cello. Also Good Engagements for 'Cellist. Mr. CASSELLE, 35, Granville-sq., King's Cross-road.

WANTED, Engagement, by First-class 'Cellist, Theatre or Variety. T. CATHIE, Theddlethorpe, Louth, Lincolnshire.

WANTED, Engagement or Deputising, by capable 'Cellist; must be in London. For references, &c., apply, 'CELLIST, 29, Oakley-crescent, Chelsea.

WANTED, Engagement, by Experienced 'Cellist. Good references. Address, W. D. KNUSSEN, Prince of Wales's Theatre, Grimsby.

WANTED, Engagement, by Viola, any Business, Disengaged Jan. 13, reliable. BOWER, 14, Maude-terrace, Walthamstow.

WANTED, by Maud Estlin Grundy (Age 18), Engagement as Harpist, Solo or Orchestral. Re-engaged by Robert Arthur, Esq., Christmas, '05-6, for Court Theatre, Liverpool.

WANTED, Engagement, Flute and Piccolo, any business, excellent refs., can commence at once. FLAUTIST, 85, Churchill-rd., Newtown, Gt. Yarmouth.

WANTED, Known, Flautist, at Liberty, steady, reliable, good references. FLAUTIST, 8, Moorland-place, Hyde Park-road, Leeds, Yorks.

WANTED, Known, Experienced Pianist, at Liberty, combine Second Violin or Viola, just concluding three years' engagement at the Theatre and Grand Hotel, Folkestone. SUTCLIFFE, 10, Albert-road, Folkestone.

WANTED, Engagement, as Pianist, any Business, exper. in var., dram. business, steady, reliable, excellent refs. PIANIST, 24, Harvey-st., Cadoxton, Barry.

WANTED, Engagement, by First-class Pianist, Sight-reader, sober, gentlemanly, any Business. Excellent references. 4, St. John-street, Longsight, Manchester.

WANTED, Engagement, Pianist, Conductor, Quick Arranger, Panto., Musical Comedy, &c. Best refs. CHALLIER, T. R., Sunderland.

WANTED, Re-engagement, by Experienced Orchestral Pianist (Lady), in or out of London, per nanency preferred. Liberty end Jan. Address, M., c/o Miss Brooke, Beauchamp Lodge, Warwick crescent, W.

WANTED, Engagement, by First-class Double Drummer, join at once, thoroughly experienced, any Business. Address, DRUMS, c/o Mulard, 15, York-road, Southend-on-Sea.

WANTED, Engagement, by Double Drummer, can open at once.
BILLY PALMER, Presto House, Great Yarmouth.

WANTED, Known, Drummer, at Liberty, well up in any Business. Address,
J. H. BRUNSDUN, 34, Well-street, Hackney, N.E.

WANTED, by Expert Mandolinist, Engagement. Address, EMELINE GRACE, 5, Bennerley-road, Wandsworth Common, S.W.

WANTED, Known, for Lady Instrumentalists, Scarlet Domino, and other Ladies' Bands. BUREAU, 8, Bedford-ter., Kensington, London, W.

WANTED, Summer Engagement, by First-Class Family Band (five upwards), thoroughly experienced instrumentalists; up-to-date library. CONDUCTOR, 19, Mayton-street, Holloway, N.

WANTED, Boy Instrumentalists (string); must be good readers and players, smart appearance. Address, 30, Gloucester-crescent, Regent's Park.

WANTED, Known, the A.M.U. National Musical Agency. Incorporated with the British Imperial Bands Company, can supply Musicians, Orchestral and Military Bands, on the shortest notice. Write for Booklet to either of the following:—J. B. WILLIAMS, 135, Moss-lane, Manchester: Tel. address, "Amuse, Manchester"; Telephone, 5,489, Manchester. C. JESSON, 96, Long-acre, W.C.; Tel. address, "Amusologia, London"; 'Phone, 9,827, Central. F. J. LEES, 104, Crompton-road, Handsworth, Birmingham. J. BARTLEY, 9, Seamore-st., Glasgow. Tel., 208 Y6, Charing-cross.

CIRCUS ARTISTS WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, for Wilder's Great Fêtes and Galas, Whit. Week, June, July, Bank Holiday, and onwards, First-class Performances and Novelties, of every description. Aërial Flying Shows, Rope Shows, Single and Double Turns, &c. Full particulars, sample, lithos., and lowest terms, to WILDER'S, Gt. Francis-street, Birmingham.

CIRCUS ARTISTS WANTED.

KING OHMY'S GRAND NEW CIRCUS, LEIGH, LANCASHIRE.

WANTED, Big Stars, Startling Sensations, and Great Novelties, for Present and Future Dates.
Something Good, Jan. 22 and 29, Bigger the Better, Anything that can follow Tom Cannon's Wrestlers. Also Useful People in all Lines. Address, KING OHMY, Ohmy's Grand Circus, Leigh, Lancashire.

TRANSFIELD'S HIPPODROME, PAISLEY, N.B.

WANTED, the best of talent, most especially Dumb Shows, for the above popular Palace of Amusement, for present and future dates. Address, TRANSFIELD, as above. Artists when writing please state when and where last in Paisley. Although the worst week in the year (after the holidays) the building has been comfortably full nightly, Monday having to turn many away from all parts. The building will be to let for any high-class entertainment, or to be sold at the termination of season. Address as above.

ALGIE'S HIPPODROME, CARLISLE.

WANTED, Specialities, of Every Description, Nothing too Big, for Ring or Stage.
P.S.—Owing to the epidemic of accidents which occur usually on Saturday or Monday, Mr. Algie informs artists that all contracts are stamped, and engagements will be enforced, unless substantial proof of said accidents is established. Address, C. ALGIE.

WANTED, for Hancock's Circus, Winter Gardens, Plymouth, Male and Female Bareback Equestrians, without Own Horse, and Variety Artists in all Lines, for Monday, Jan. 22, and onwards.

WANTED, for Summer Season in America, Tenting, Lady and Gent. Trick and Jockey Rider, together or separate, with or without Horse. All particulars in first letter.
GEORGE ROWLAND,
9, Huntingdon-road, East Finchley, London, N.

WANTED, to open Jan. 22, good sound Speciality, Animal Show preferred, Jugglers or Musical Show. Write, with lowest terms, fullest particulars, to W. PARDOE, Theatre Royal, Ilkeston.

WANTED, Smart Boy Acrobat, for Established Act; state tricks and particulars; must join me about March 12, or in May, for Europe and America. Address, PETE BELL (private), Jan. 15, Nottingham Empire.

WANTED, Young Man that can Work fairly well on Bar. E. KINGSTON, 96, Francis-road, Leyton, Essex.

WANTED, Smart Boy Tumbler. State age and height. SYDNEY, 17, Baker-street, West Derby-road, Liverpool. Good home.

WANTED, Steady and Reliable Grooms, for small Ponies. Address, Mr. ROGERS, Palace of Varieties, Boston, Lincs. Little Len write.

WANTED, sober Attentive Groom, not Boss or Manager, for Troupe Dogs; one not afraid to exercise dogs, and can be depended upon being always to time. Address, Box 2,633, "The Era."

WANTED, Circus Artists who experience difficulty in obtaining copies of "The Era" at any of Messrs. Smith and Son's Bookstalls to kindly communicate with the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

CIRCUS ARTISTS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known, Zarmah, and his Zoological Statuary of Wild Animals, consisting of African forest-bred lions, lioness, grizzly and silver-grey bears, and boarhounds, all performing together. The most exciting, original, and exclusive performance with wild animals ever seen, being the only one of its kind travelling. As far as we are from the sun, so is this animal act above all others. The beauty of this act, the animals are smart in each pose, and exciting, and show the nature of wild animals, so that the spectators see at once that they are wild animals performing, not dogs. Thanks to Frank Allen, Esq., for Contract for South Shields. Liberty Jan. 15, 22, 29. Wire, Grove Hotel, Bury New-road, Manchester.

WANTED, Known, Miss Ella, greatest and best existing Lion Show of the World, Vacant May 7, onwards.
Comm., week, Jan. 15,
Empire Palace, Stratford.

WANTED, Known, at Liberty, the best Jumping Ponies and the Greatest Riding Goat, Carnival, Newcastle. Address, after Saturday, FRASER, Blyth.

WANTED, Known, The Stephenson Family Riders and Good Ground Act, Own Horses, &c, also Good Troupe of Dogs, at Liberty or Tenting. Address, Exhibition Buildings, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

WANTED, Known, Mrs. Dudley Smith, with her novel leaping act, introducing her mare Dainty Lass, at Lib. 25, Gt. Thornton-st., Hull.

WANTED, Known, J. H. Swallow, Bareback Equestrian, at Liberty Jan. 29, also summer, home or abroad. Address, Circus, Leigh, Lancs.

WANTED, Known, Bros. Webb, Renowned Musical Clowns, owing to Postponement of their Russian Tour, are at Liberty Jan. 22, onwards. Address, Empire, Bradford.

WANTED, Known, Little Bishop, Clown and Agouste, with comic entrées, John Henry Cooke's Royal Circus, Edinburgh, until further notice. Offers invited for summer season, or tenting. Address, as above.

WANTED, Known, Buer and Son, with Educated Talking Donkey, the only one Britain, Liberty March. J. H. COOK'S Circus, Edinburgh.

WANTED, Jan. 15, 22, Mayeno Trio, Two Ladies, One Gent, Gymnasts, Acrobats, Clown, Up-to-date Entries, Number First-class Acts. Write or wire, Circus Storage, George-st., Belfast.

WANTED, by Ariel and Astarte, smartest of all Lady and Gentleman Modern Gymnastic Acts par excellence, great success, Empire, Dudley. Monday, Empire, Northampton. Free Jan. 29, Feb. 5, 12.

WANTED, Monday next, Unda and Ovah, burlesque triple bar act. Finish, to-night, 4 weeks, Carnival, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

WANTED, Jan. 15, 22, Devonas, Lady and Gentleman, Comedy Gymnasts, Acrobats; also Miss Enor, tight wire. Turley's Hotel, Chichester-street, Belfast.

WANTED, Known, Jill and Laval, New Original Comedy Acrobats, Liberty Jan. 15 and 22. Wire or write, 7, Tennyson-street, Burnley.

WANTED, by Clement Trio, Jan. 15, 22, 29, Comic Flying Trapeze Stage Act, doing four different kinds of doubles and double pirouettes. Wire, Hollydene, Hall Green, Birmingham.

WANTED, Known, Les Greers, Continental Comedy Acrobats, and their Acrobatic Dog, new and up-to-date business. Vacant Monday next, 22nd, 29th. All coms., until Saturday, Carnival, Newcastle-on-Tyne; after, 15, Union-st., Southport.

WANTED, Known, Almero, Aërial Norwegian Spar and Wire Act, Cooke's Royal Circus, Edinburgh. Liberty for summer months, right acts for galas. Offers invited. Address, as above.

WANTED, Known, Tom Hall and Family, with several acts, free for Summer. Thanks for offers. Address, Carnival Grounds, Paisley.

WANTED, by Young Man (20), Situation as Assistant to Juggler or Conjurer, &c., Juggler preferred. SANDS, c/o "The Era."

MUSIC HALL ARTISTS WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, First-Class Variety Artists, for Jan. 22, and on, all Lines. Lowest terms to save correspondence to STANHOPE and Co., 63, Regent-street, W. Telephone, 6070, Gerrard. Silence means unsuitable.

SCARBOROUGH.

WANTED, Jan. 22, and onwards, Variety Artists in all Lines. Full particulars, with permanent address (if any), to MORGAN, Aquarium.

WANTED, Variety Artists, all Lines, 22nd, 29th, Feb. 5, North, nothing too big.
Apply, EVANS, Waterloo Hotel, Blyth.

MUSIC HALL ARTISTS WANTED.

WANTED, Artists for
The North,
The North,
The North,
The North,
The North,
The North,
The North,
The North,
The North,
The North,
The North,
The North,
The North,
The North,
The North,
Send all Northern Dates and full list,
DALTON'S Agency,
5, Matlock-avenue, West Didsbury, Manchester; or personally,
W. DALTON, Pavilion, Glasgow.

WANTED, Star Artists, Big Attractions, for Fêtes and Galas, Piers and Summer Gardens,
Big Aërial and Ground Acts,
June 4, onwards.
Lithos., photos., terms, bookings,
EDGAR STEBBINGS,
23, Egerton-street, Manchester.
Telegrams, "Stebbing, Manchester."

EMPIRE, GREENOCK.
Lessee and Manager,
H. L. SKIVINGTON.

WANTED, for Immediate Dates, Star Artists in all Lines.

WANTED, Artists, in all Lines, for Palace, Oldbury. Monday next, onwards. Please Note, hall small. Address, MANAGER.

WANTED, Artists, all Lines, for Immediate and Future Dates.
WILLIAM MOULD, Central Palace, North Shields.

WANTED, Artists, Single and Double Turns, two weeks, Feb. 5, 19, onwards. All Artists promised future dates, write now.
CHAS. A. JAMES,
Waxworks and Music Hall, Dublin.

WANTED, Artists, Sisters, Serios, Comedians, Small Sketch Companies, for Jan. 22, 1906. REYMOND, New Palace, Sheerness. Quote lowest; Hall small.

WANTED, Artists, all Lines, Coatbridge, March 12. Artists going North send absolute lowest combination terms. SID COTTERELL, Theatre Royal, Drury-lane.

WANTED, Artists, in all Lines, from now onwards.
Apply, Mr. J. J. SCOTT, Empire, Wrexham.

WANTED, Artists, all Lines, Jan. 29, for Rochdale. State when last there, and lowest combination terms, SOROS, Victoria Theatre, West Stanley.

DUDLEY CASTLE FETES,
Whit Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday.
June 4, 5, and 6, 1906.

WANTED, to hear from First-Class Artists and Entertainments suitable for the above Fêtes. All applications to be sent in not later than Saturday, Feb. 3, addressed to the SECRETARIES,
J. MILLS HOUGHTON,
WILLIAM WOODHOUSE,
Town Hall, Dudley.
Artists not hearing by Feb. 13 to take it as a negative.

COVENTRY HIPPODROME.
Proprietors, COVENTRY HIPPODROME CO., LTD.

WANTED, Agents and Artists to please Note that, from Dec. 23, 1904, no Contract will be recognised unless Signed by the Secretary and Manager.
T. M. SYLVESTER, Manager.
G. E. WRIGHT, Secretary.

WANTED, Jan. 22, onwards, for
Liverpool, St. Helens, Accrington, and Warrington,
Stars and Novelties of all Kinds.
Address, F. WILLMOT, 156, Islington, Liverpool.

WANTED, for Jan. 22, 29, and Feb. 5, Stars in all Lines.
Stars in all Lines.
Full up for Smaller Items.
State Towns at Liberty for.
Can Fix Big Numbers any Odd Weeks.
CADLE'S Agency, 105-6, Strand, W.C.

WANTED, Stars and Specialities, for Immediate and Future Dates. Terms and particulars to BROOKS'S Agency, 56, Shaftesbury-avenue, W.

WANTED, Big Stars and Tops, in every Line, for immediate dates. Full particulars, DEETRICH'S Agency, 15, Hotham-street, Liverpool.

WANTED, Stars, Nothing too Big. Send full Bookings and Terms to FRANK LYNNE, New Theatre Royal, Halifax. AYTOUN'S Agency.

WANTED, Variety Stars, in every branch of the business, for immediate dates. BAYLEY, 170, Saltmarket, Glasgow. Notice, Britannia and Tivoli closed.

WANTED, for Town and Country, Big Stars and Tops, for Jan. 22, onward.
Nothing too Big.
Artists on my books keep me posted.
FRED NEIMAN,
Hippodrome, Norwich.

WANTED, Stars, Specialities, Novelties, and Comedy Acts, Jan. 22, 29, and Feb. 5, onwards. State lowest terms, bookings, &c., I can place you. JESS VERNO'S Agency, 61, West Derby-st., Liverpool. Telegrams, "Merriment." Telephone, 2076 Royal.

WANTED, Star Turns, Wanted, Comedy Acts, Novelties, Comedians, Comediennes, Comedy Musical Acts, &c., Big Tops and Bottoms, Towns and Seasides, Immediate and Future Dates. Send bookings, photos., lithos., terms, to FREDERICK YATES (late Manager, Regent T., Salford), Church-avenue, Weaste, Manchester.

WANTED, good Turns (or useless), five nights, Wimbledon, open Jan. 19. Lowest terms, litho., &c. EDGAR BROOK, Worple Hall, Wimbledon.

Telephone 288. Telegraphic Address, "Zalva."

GEO. ZALVA'S AGENCY,
HIPPODROME,
SCARBORO'.

WANTED, High-grade Specialities, Immediate and Future Dates, Good Comedy Acts.

Apply, lowest terms and full bookings, in first instance, as above.

WANTED, Variety Novelties, Hugh Wiggles-worth's Agency, late Manager Morecambe, Blackpool, &c. 164, Meadow-st., Alexandra Park, Manchester.

WANTED, Variety Numbers, all Kinds, for Immediate Dates. It will pay you to Keep me Posted.
RICHARD CASS'S AGENCY,
RICHARD CASS'S AGENCY,
RICHARD CASS'S AGENCY,
RICHARD CASS'S AGENCY,
RICHARD CASS'S AGENCY,
RICHARD CASS'S AGENCY,
RICHARD CASS'S AGENCY.
30, Maiden-lane, Strand. Telephone, 6704 Central.

WANTED, Big Attractions for Paris,
Berlin,
and Vienna.
Immediate Dates.

SHERRK and BRAFF,
10, Leicester-place,
London, W.C.

WANTED, Wanted, from April, on, Tops and every kind of Good Act.
Send Vacancies, and where to be seen, to GRAYDON'S Agency, 164, Drury-lane, W.C.

MUSIC HALL ARTISTS WANTED.

WANTED, First-class Acts, in all Lines,
in all Lines,
in all Lines,
for
All the Principal Seaside Towns.
All the Principal Seaside Towns.
All the Principal Seaside Towns.
Communicate at once.

Wanted, Wanted, Wanted,
Tops of Bill,
Tops of Bill,
Tops of Bill,
for
Jan. 22, 29, Feb. 6.

JAMES FIONI'S Agency,
21, Norton-street, Liverpool.
Telegrams, "Fioni, Liverpool."
Telephone, 1686, Royal.

CIRCUS OF VARIETIES, BURY.

WANTED, Star Acts, Jan. 29; must be good and refined. Address,
OTTO C. CULLING, Theatre, Bury.

WANTED, Gala Acts, all Kinds, for Northampton, Aug. 6, 7, 8, twice daily. Terms, lithos., to MCASKELL, Empire, Paisley.

WANTED, Comedy Acts, Comedy Acts, in fact all Lines, for Town near Manchester. Apply with particulars to EVELYN TAYLOR, Hippodrome, Hull.

COUNTY BOROUGH OF SOUTH SHIELDS.

WANTED, Known, the Corporation of South Shields invite applications for the provision of Pierrot Entertainments during the ensuing Summer, on a Stage and Covered-in Enclosure, situate between the Marine Parks in South Shields. 200 chairs will be provided Applicants must state the character of their Entertainments, the period during which they propose to provide the Entertainments, and the amount of Rental or other payment they would be prepared to pay to the Corporation for the use of the Stage and Enclosure.
Conditions of letting, with form of Tender attached, will be forwarded on application to the Town Clerk, Court-buildings, South Shields, to whom Tenders must be delivered not later than Wednesday, the 24th Jan., 1906, sealed and endorsed, "Tender for provision of Entertainments."

WANTED, Known, Palace, Boston, re-opened on Monday under entirely new management to a packed house, for Dr. Seaton's Animated Photographs, George Bohee and Concert Company. This week, Caban's Performing Ponies and Variety Combination. Vacant Jan. 22, onwards, for good Combinations, Minstrels; must have good picture posters. Wire, CLIFFORD, Palace, Boston.

WANTED, Tops of Bill, for Monday week, onward, also Artists in all Lines, for Ten Weeks' Immediate Work. Full particulars, list of bookings, photo., litho., &c., to DAY'S Variety Agency,
Effingham House, Arundel-street, Strand, London.
Telephone, 6915 Gerrard; 1500 Central.
Telegrams, "Terpsichore, London."

WANTED, Good Singles and Doubles, for the Best Shows, Aldershot Camp. Turns known to me write in for immediate work. WILL AVIS, Gamage, Aldershot

WANTED, for Empire, Dundee, Jan. 29, week, top and bottom, also good turns; must be good, or useless. State when last played Dundee, and where, actual lowest, lithos., particulars, EDGAR BROOKE, Worple Hall, Wimbledon.
Endorse Envelope, "Dundee."

W. HAMILTON'S EXCURSIONS.

WANTED, for two weeks only, March 12 and 19, First-Class Novelties, Comedy Acts, must be clever and free from vulgarity. Lowest terms. Kinnaird Hall, Dundee.

WANTED, by Sketch Writer, Lady (Good Voice) and Gentleman, for Comedy Sketch Production, several good sketches on hand, new and original ideas, nothing like it on the road, a sure success, rehearse at once; artists must share small expenses. Particulars by letter. Address, M. L., 4, William Henry-street, Blackburn.

WANTED, Known, First-class Vocalists and Entertainers Requiring Engagements, Apply,
Albert Hall,
Portsmouth.

WANTED, Lady, to Perform with New Animal Act; must be used to stage. Small security required. Letters, Box 2,640,
"The Era."

PALACE THEATRE,
CORK.
Manager, HENRY KEMBLE.

WANTED, Jan. 22, 27, and onward, Star Comedians,
Big Specialities,
Jugglers,
Cycle Shows,
Comedy Act.
All must be
First-class and Refined,
or Useless.
No Sketches.
Lithos and lowest net terms to
HENRY KEMBLE.

WANTED, a few First-class Al Fresco Performers, Comedians, Dancers, Vocalists, &c., young, and thoroughly reliable, 18 weeks, commencing Whitsun; some to open Easter. Full particulars and salary to HARRY REYNOLDS, 104, Great Dover-street, London, S.E.

WANTED, Jan. 22, 29, Feb. 19, Big Star Comedians and other lines, best Syndicates.
Lowest to
GEO. AYTOUN, 22, Wilson-road, Camberwell, S.E.
Wires, "Antics, London." 'Phone, 1949 Hop.

WANTED, Pair Versatile Comedians, Sisters (Good Voices, Dancers, Good Wardrobe), also Comedy Specialities, Refined for Established Al-Fresco Concerts, June to September. Lowest terms, photos., permanent address, to ALFRESCO, 51, Gordon-road, Aldershot.

WANTED, at once, perfect Tumbler-Knock-about, must be good comical, only artists wanted.
Apply to 14, Yerbury-road, Holloway, London, N.

WANTED, Boys, over 14, small for age, Boy Comedians, Boy Vocalists, Boy Acrobats, Boy Musicians, Boys all Lines. CADLE'S Agency, 105, Strand.

WANTED, Coloured Boys, for Music Halls; must be small and over 14, able to Sing or Dance. Open immediately. Good home. ISMAY, c/o JAMES FIONI, 21, Norton-street, Liverpool.

WANTED, a Good Tumbler, to join experienced Performer, not more than 9st. Act ready, and booking certain. Good opportunity for suitable man. Apply, TUMBLER, 7, Eskdale-villas, Brixton, S.W.

WANTED, Young Man, to Assist in Illusion, state height; also Good Cartoonist.
INNES, 82, Freeman-street, Grimsby.

WANTED, Fancy and Knockabout Skater, to join Well-known Act. Height, age, experience, photo., HESS, 15, Canterbury-st., Liverpool.

WANTED, Expert Bioscope Operator, thoroughly accustomed alternating and direct currents. Give references. VERNON'S Bioscope, Palace, Blackpool.

Bioscope.

WANTED, Smart Operator, total abstainer. Address, with last two references, terms, full particulars, E. V. EDMONDS, Opera House, Burton-on-Trent.

WANTED, Music Hall Artists who experience difficulty in obtaining copies of "The Era" at any of Messrs. Smith and Son's Bookstalls to kindly communicate with the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

MUSIC HALL ARTISTS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known, Nellie Lovell, the Great Male Impersonator, offers accepted for one week, Monday next; also Lib. Jan. 29, Feb. 6. Wire, Black Bull Hotel, Cleator Moor.

WANTED, by Nellie Nora, Musical Act, Monday next, big success, Empire. Wire, 45, Western-road, Ealing, London, W.

WANTED, for Jan. 15 and 22, Queenie Lo Lo, in her Graceful Trapeze Act and Teeth Expert. C/o W. Simpson, 12, Buchanan-street, Leith.

WANTED, Known, Mdlle La Tosca, Artist's Model (Originator), Symmetrically Perfect, 5ft. 8½in, Draped Studies, requires May 7, follow Rochdale. Address, see Card.

WANTED, Known, Lillian Davies, every evening, New Hippodrome, Mansfield, shortly at Liberty for home or abroad. Address as above.

WANTED, Known, Sisters Beatrice, Duettists and Dancers, are at Liberty 22nd and Feb. 5. Wire or write, this, Palace, Tottenham; next, P. Palace, Portsmouth.

WANTED, Monday and 22, by Sisters Ely, the Talented and Handsomely Dressed Duettists. Wire quick, Theatre Royal, Rugby.

WANTED, Known, the Five Casino Girls, Brass Instrumentalists, Jan. 15, Empire, Islington; 22nd, Barnard's, Greenwich and Woolwich. DAY'S Agency.

WANTED, Neddy Vokes, Europe's Funniest Musical Comedian, another success, and re-engaged week longer, Lib. Jan. 22. Add., Circus, Hull.

WANTED, Kardoc, Handcuff King, free Jan. 22, on, with the Best Show Extant. Book it. Sure draw. (See "Card.")

WANTED, Jan. 22, 29, on, by George Ritter, vocal, musical, patter comedian. Big success, this, P. P., Portsmouth (return); next, Hippodrome, Reading.

WANTED, Jan. 15 and 22, by Will Pettitt, Musical Variety Entertainer, splendid props., smart, clean. This week, People's Palace, Scarborough. Wire.

WANTED, Engagement, by George Barr, Eccentric and Low Com. Good Songs and Musical Speciality. 95, Fentiman-rd., Clapham, S.W.

WANTED, Known, Johnnie Roland, Novelty Burlesque Entertainment, free owing to misunderstanding, Monday next, Jan. 15, also Jan. 29. Address, 99, Derby-road, Nottingham.

WANTED, by Will Belasco, Jan. 15, onward, "An interesting and novel musical act." Concludes to-night, Olympia, London. Wire for Monday, 37, Doon-street, Waterloo-road, S.E.

WANTED, Jan. 15, 22, by Ben Jackson, the Lightning Trick Banjoist and Virtuoso. Positive Hit. Wire, 19, Bodfor-street, Rhyl.

WANTED, Known, at Lib. Monday, 15th, Wm. Jenkins, Baritone Vocalist, Experienced all Lines, versatility guaranteed, large répertoire. Address, WM. JENKINS, c/o Geo. Malcolm, 261, Waterloo-road, London.

WANTED, by Alf Hey, Popular Vocal Comedian, Monday next, also Jan. 22 and 29. Wire, 59, Great Jackson-street, Manchester.

WANTED, Jan. 22, by Fred Casburn, Droll Comedian, hit, Hippo., Preston. Next week, Hippo., Huddersfield. Wire.

WANTED, Monday next, Cambo, the Musical Monkey, also Ventriloquist. Sure Success. Wire, Music Hall, Inverness.

WANTED, by R. J. Golding, Society Ventriloquist and Illusionist, Jan. 29, on. Perm., 32, Courtenay-road, Walthamstow, London.

WANTED, Monday, Sam Jesson, the Original Sheeny Man. Look out for Hums, assisted by four of the best. Wire, Bradford, Manchester.

WANTED, Jan. 22 and 29, by J. H. Carney, Vocal Comedian and Mimic, Knocked the Bill at Hippo., Dewsbury. Mon. next, Empire, Rochdale. Agents and Managers should see him.

WANTED, Dates, for Prof. Inman Hocking, Electric Healer, Jan. 22, and onwards. Sole Agent, J. LARDER, 22, Levington-street, Grimsby.

WANTED, immediately, active Baggageman, for Dr. Ormonde's Entertainment; sobriety indispensable. Address, with lowest terms, to Dr. ORMONDE, 5, Murieston-place, Edinburgh.

WANTED, Known, Carl Volta, Refined Comedy Magician, Jan. 15, 22, 29, double vent. show, two big acts, suit panto. speciality. Wire, Poste Restante, Glasgow.

WANTED, Engagement, by Comedian, 21, height 5ft. 10in., smart appearance, two years' experience as Partner in Knockabout and Eccentric Business. Any Capacity, Sketch, Assistant, &c. Address, Box 2,630, c/o "The Era."

WANTED, Monday next, also Jan. 22, 29, Sardow's Marvellous Illusionists, also Marie Riviers, Queen of Song. Wire, c/o "Merrie Men," Durham.

WANTED, by Yankee Varno, Speciality Artist, and Jessie Harper, Soprano, Jan. 29. This, Market Palace, Burnley; next, Clarence M. H., Rotherham.

WANTED, Monday next, also March 5, by Syd. Herman, Hebrew Comedian, and Lil Dresden, Vocalist, one or both. Empire, Wrexham.

WANTED, by Bert and Dora, Comedy Artists, Jan. 15 and 22. This week, big hit Empire, Ashton-under-Lyme, Wire or write.

WANTED, Jan. 22, on, the Mintos, Lady and Gentleman, refined musical eccentrics and vocalists, a smart act, second distinct turn if required. Address, "ROYAL REVENGE" Co., Theatre, Northwich.

WANTED, Monday next, also 22nd, The Dunvilles, Comedy Musical Act, "Les Domestiques de la Maison," Spectacular Stage Set. Wire, Theatre, Workington.

WANTED, Dates, Clark and Clare, Double-voiced vocalist and contralto, "The Tramp and Girl," novel act, combining comedy with high-class singing. 19, Morgan-st., Govanhill, Glasgow.

WANTED, Jan. 29, onwards, by Stanert and Yondi, Comedy Musical Duo. Address, this, Sadler's Wells; or, 59, Nickols-sq., Hackney, N.E.

WANTED, Monday next, and 22nd, by the Two Musical Seebolds.
Wire, Circus, Edinburgh.

WANTED. Known, Sword and Robb, Comedians and Dancers, Liberty Monday and 22nd. Wire, 5, Vere-st., Birmingham. Thanks to Leo Fritz, Esq., and Albert Bushell, Esq., for return contracts.

WANTED, Jan. 22, 29, Sterling and Cashen, instrumentalists, vocalists, patterers, dancers, double, single. Offers, Victoria Theatre, Tredegar, Wales.

WANTED, by Handel and Lee, Musical Speciality, Talented Saxophonists, Jan. 29. Enormous Success, Macnaghten Tour. Palace, Blackburn; next, Tivoli, Barrow. Wire.

WANTED, Known, Original Two Eltons, Comedy Bars, Marblesque Trio, Statuary Tableaux, Lib. Jan. 15, 22. Tivoli, Barrow-in-Furness.

WANTED, Monday, through Glasgow closing, also Jan. 22, 29, by Chant and Chant, Refined Comedy Vocalists. Wire for Sure Success, Queen's Park Hippo., Manchester.

WANTED, Feb. 19, 26, Pollard Bros. and Kitty Grey, Speciality Act, "The Soldier, the Policeman, and the Cook," shrieks of laughter, top any bill. Hippodrome, Southampton.

WANTED, Known, The Lovelaces, Song Illustrators. Vacant Jan. 15, 22, and 29, Feb. 5, 12, and 19, and several dates onwards; second week and great success, Circus, Rochdale. Wire, Wire.

WANTED, Monday, also 22nd, by Four Abadoffs, Big Comedy Act. Wi Palace, Cork; or 95, Stretford-road, Manchester.

WANTED, by Clement Trio, Jan. 15, 22, 29, Comic Flying Trapeze Stage Act, doing four different doubles and double pirouettes. Wire, Hollydene, Hall Green, Birmingham.

WANTED, Known, Tom Hall and Burlesque Acrobatic Nippers. Monkey, and Dog. Lib. Monday, on, through hall closing. Wire, Carnival, Paisley.

MUSIC HALL ARTISTS' WANTS.

WANTED, Engagements (North), by the Lennards, Cinématograph and Illustrated Songs. Other items if wanted. LENNARD, c/o Anderson, 36, Nicholson-street, Glasgow.

WANTED, by The Moncktons, Feb. 19, March 5, in Screamingly Funny Comedy Act, "A Woman's Curiosity." Next, Theatre Royal, Hyde.

WANTED, Feb. 26, for the Great Comedy Success, "The Battle of the Belles," Six Artists, Own Scenery. FRED MOULE, Tivoli, Dublin; next, Bedford M. H., Camden Town.

WANTED, for Ross Clyde's Screamers, "I Must Have It" and "My Wife's Husband," Jan. 15, 22, four artists, special scene. 51, Elizabeth-st., Liverpool.

WANTED, Jan. 22 and 29, by Billy Ross and Co., great comedy act, big success, this week, Empire, Dudley. Audience still laughing. Wire.

WANTED, Galas for Troupe of Dogs, including Spot, in his marvellous High Ladder Act, a splendid show for Galas. LE CLAIR, Pier, Pav., Southend.

WANTED, Known, Sergt.-Major Williams's Dogs, in their Novel and most Interesting Exhibition of Canine Intelligence ever witnessed. Every dog an artist, the perfection of training. Wire, 43, Lowerhead-row, Leeds.

WANTED, Known, Gilbert's Original Troupe of Dogs and Cats, including Champion Diving and Football Dogs, Sure Success, Lib. Jan. 29 and Mar. 12 (North). Add., 74, Boyson-rd., London, S.E.

WANTED, Monday, Chard's Dog Circus, now the Whole Talk of Glasgow.
Wire, Hippodrome, Glasgow.

WANTED, Engagement, with Hypnotist, Acting, Dancing, Clairvoyance under Hypnosis. QUEENIE ROYELLE, 23, Homestead-road, Fulham, London.

WANTED, Known, Cinématograph (latest model), with splendid films, and first-class Operator, Disengaged. Terms, £5 a week and fares. Show lasts forty minutes; the best on the road. Illustrated Songs by arrangement. FANT ABBOTT, 78, Charrington-street, London, N.W.

WANTED, by Operator, Place, Experienced Lime and Electric. A. and C. currents, refs. given. Letters, Box 2,649, "The Era."

SHOWMEN'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

THE UNITED KINGDOM SHOWMEN AND VAN-DWELLER'S PROTECTION ASSOCIATION (THE SHOWMEN'S GUILD).
President, Lord George Sanger.

WANTED, Known, the Annual Meeting, the Memorial Hall, Albert-square, Manchester, Wednesday, Jan. 17, 1906, at 4 p.m., prompt. Speakers:—The Rev. H. Norburn, the Rev. T. Horne, Charles Howard, Esq., T. Watson Wright, Esq., and other gentlemen. Notice.—General Committee Meeting at the Black Lion Hotel, Salford, the same day, at 11 a.m. Agenda: Annual Report, Financial Statement, Nomination of Officers, and other Business. T. HURST, Hon. Sec.
T. HORNE, Organiser.

WANTED, Known, Important, Important, that the Annual General Meeting of the British Roundabout Proprietors' and Showmen's Union will be Held at Headquarters, the Black Lion Hotel, Salford, on Thursday next, Jan. 18, the Day after the Van Dwellers' Meeting, when there will be on the Agenda the following:—The Election of Officers for 1906, the Revision of Rules, and other business. To commence at 11 a.m., when all Members are requested to attend.
Signed, T. HURST, Secretary.

WANTED, Wanted, Known, TOM ORTON,
The Showman Fire Insurance Man,
Security, Security, Security.
An old-established company, with funds of over £1,000,000 (one million pounds), are prepared to grant policies covering Shows, Roundabouts, and Cinématograph Exhibitions against Fire; Workmen's Compensation; Third Party Risks.
Balance-sheet and full particulars of rates, &c., to Sole Agent, TOM ORTON, Lion Carriage Works, Princess-street, Burton-on-Trent.

WANTED, Known, Motor Cars, for Roundabouts, all shapes, sizes, and prices, prompt delivery, satisfaction guaranteed, very moderate prices, easy terms to responsible people if required. We are making a speciality of showmen's business in all its branches.
Repairs and alterations to machinery carried out quickly and cheaply. We undertake to carry out ideas for novelties of all descriptions. No patents infringed. PHŒNIX CARRIAGE Co., Aston-road, Birmingham. Sole representative, Mr. Albert Brandon.

WANTED, Auctioneers to Know, Simons, the up-to-date Warehouseman for Auctioneers' Wants, has removed to larger premises. Note New Address, 100, 101, 102A, Houndsditch. Second-hand Watches and Pawnbrokers' Forfeits Stocked to any amount

Patent No. 252,351. 1905.

WANTED, Known, by Every Roundabout Proprietor, that SAVAGE AND CO.
have taken Stanley Works, New North-road, London, N., the same Works formerly carried on by
Alf. Bedford, Carver and Gilder, where they are manufacturing motor cars for switchbacks and every kind of roundabouts at reasonable, and not exorbitant prices.
Remember, we are the Descendants of the Original Inventor,
F. Savage, late of King's Lynn.
Repairs of Every Description Connected with the Trade.
Note our only Address,
Oxford-road, New North-road, London, N.

WANTED, Known, Showmen's Properties. Ball Box joint (double), complete, 80s.; Football joint, 60s.; Cocoanut joint, 80s.; Puncher and Lifter, 80s. each; Switchback Skittle Board, 60s.; Avery Weighing Chair, 100s.; Weight and Height Machine, 60s.; 3-section Striker, complete, 60s. STACEY, Settles-street, E.

Move with the times, or get left.

WANTED, Showmen to Note that we are the Sole Agents of the Mills Novelty Co., who make 200 different Slot Machines, and not a "dud" among them. We make the famous ball-punching machine, which has taken over £25 in one week in London. The punching ball is a "daisy"; takes money quick, and takes it all the time. Send for catalogue and testimonials,
MINERVA AUTOMATIC Co.,
120, York-road, King's Cross,
London.

WANTED, Showmen and others requiring Hand-painted Posters, 6ft. square, 2s., attractive. Sample Letters, 3d. SHEARING, 8, Eldon-parade, Lordship-lane, Wood Green, N.

WANTED, Known, all Kinds of Automatic Machines, Models, &c., Repaired on the Shortest Notice. HOLT, 16, Station-avenue, Prittlewell, Essex.

OBSERVE.
OLYMPIA (LONDON) WINTER GARDENS,
Open Every Evening. Matinées Thurs. and Sat.

WANTED, Wanted, Wanted,
A Few High-class Novel Side-shows.
Remember, Novelty is Necessary.
Good Positions for Stalls.
To Let, to Good Sound Firms Only.
Letters only, with full particulars, absolute terms, to MANAGER, Café Chantant Theatre, Olympia.

TRADES EXHIBITION, WIMBLEDON,
Jan. 27 to Feb. 10.

WANTED, Small Side-show, for Room 18ft. square. JONES, 59, Alexandra-rd., Wimbledon.

BOROUGH OF BRIDGWATER GENERAL TRADES EXHIBITION, TOWN HALL,
Saturday, Jan. 27, to Saturday, Feb. 3, inclusive.
Admission Free by Programme, 1d.

WANTED, High-class Side Show. Address, MANAGER, Exhibition, Assembly Rooms, Bath.

WANTED, Novelties, for Aberdeen, Edinburgh, and Glasgow. I can Book you for two months.
Write at once,
HUMBER,
Permanent Waxwork, 112, George-st., Aberdeen.

SHOWMEN'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

'Tis not in Mortals to Command Success,
But I'll do more—deserve it. My ambition is to please you.—Namron.

WANTED, Known, that Tom Norman wishes to publicly thank Lord George Sanger, the World's Greatest Showman, for his great kindness in favouring him with his instructions to Sell by Public Auction the well-known Menagerie, &c., at the Hall-by-the-Sea, Margate, also his World-renowned Circus Plant, at his Private Residence, Park Farm, East Finchley, London; likewise for the two following letters, which will always be retained and looked upon with great pride, in giving me the satisfaction of having conducted undoubtedly the largest, grandest, and most popular auction sale of its kind in the world, and for the Grand Old Man of the Showman World :—

Park Farm,
East Finchley,
London, N.W.
Sept. 18, '05.

TOM NORMAN, ESQ.,
Dear Sir,
Allow me to express my entire satisfaction of the way you disposed of the animals at the Hall-by-the-Sea, and I have no doubt that I shall be able to find you another job upon a larger scale shortly. I herewith enclose you cheque for your amount.

Yours very truly,
G. SANGER.

Park Farm,
East Finchley,
London, N.W.
Nov. 28, 1905.

DEAR NORMAN,
Enclosed you will find cheque £256, in full settlement of your account for services rendered during your great sale here. I must express my full and entire satisfaction at the excellent manner in which you carried the sale through, and I may go further and say that a great many people have made enquiries of me asking who was the man that sold the circus, mostly finishing with the words, "He knew his business," or remarks to that effect.

With best wishes,
Yours truly,
G. SANGER.

Mr. Tom Norman,
The Silver King.

I also wish to sincerely thank the under-mentioned for their great and valuable assistance and courtesy to me during the above Sales :—
Arthur Reeves, Esq., Mrs. Reeves, Messrs. Martin, Austin, Hickey, the Stud Groom, and all the Household, not forgetting Mr. Charles Evans, Manager, and Staff, at Margate. My triumphs as an auctioneer since I started seven-and-a-half years ago have indeed been great in all parts of the United Kingdom, but none so great as the one that I now proudly acknowledge, and I have two sons who already bid fair to be capable of taking up the reins in case of emergency.
I do my own auctioneering, and believe I do it well.

N.B.—Those showmen, travellers, and friends who intend favouring me with entries for my Annual Auction Sale, which takes place after the Showmen's Meeting at the Agricultural Hall, on grounds in close proximity, will please forward same early, so as to secure good position in Catalogue. Address, Auction Office, Manor Farm, Dallington, Sussex.

WANTED, Good Novelties, with Paintings, to open Monday. Good money for good show. Wire, SPINCH, 18, Chrisp-street, Poplar, London.

WANTED, Living Novelties of every description; also Tattooist; good window flash or useless. Frank Marwood write. F. DURLAND, Exhibition, Overgate, Dundee.

WANTED, to Travel with Bostock and Wombwell's Royal No. 1 Menagerie, a Good Living Novelty; long engagement and living waggon supplied. Address,
E. H. BOSTOCK, Zoo, Glasgow.

WANTED, Novelties, with good flash, best shop in London, last week Lucas Troupe, great success; this week, Nicholas the Strong and Lady Wrestlers, doing big business.
Apply, FRED WILLIAMS, Manager for Madam Amelia's Exhibition, 15, Beresford-square, Woolwich, London. Silence a polite negative.

WANTED, Freaks, Novelties, with good window flash, best position. Wire for Monday, Whatman wire. MANAGER, 120, Belgrave-gate, Leicester.

WANTED, First-class Living Freaks and Attractions, also Smart Lady Palmist. Apply, DIRECTOR, Pickard's Waxworks, Glasgow.

WANTED, Quick Showing Freaks and Novelties, for Maxwell's Exhibition, Reading. Wire for Monday or future dates, MAXWELL'S Exhibition, Oxford-street, Reading.

WANTED, Male and Female Midgets, for Side Show, in Trades Exhibition, March 12, week. Terms, 55%. State height and full particulars, HAGUE, Spa Gardens, Ltd., Bridlington.

WANTED, High-class Lady Palmist that understands her Business, to Travel. Terms, share. BAINES'S Grand Waxwork Exhibition, Snargate-street, Dover.

WANTED, Useful People for Popular Studios making a Speciality of Stamps, Married Couple for Management, Youths as Improvers, &c. Good money and regular employment. Apply with references to REGINALD INNES, 82, Freeman-street, Grimsby.

WANTED, Known, Auction.—Smart Assistant Hand-seller or Auctioneer can obtain work on commission, Saturday night's sale, crockery, china, swag. LINDSLEY, Auctioneer, 31, Shields-road, Newcastle-on-Tyne.
Established 1894. Nat. Tel. 2425.

WANTED, Steady Man, used to a Waxwork Exhibition, one that can clean wax. Those that wrote before please write again. Addresses mislaid. SYLVESTRE, 50, Ladywell-park, Lewisham.

WANTED, Man and Wife, to Find and Work Marionettes; must be good show; one month, longer if suitable. No fancy price; money sure. E. CRECRAFT, Bioscope, Mardy, Glam.

WANTED, Known, Carl Harmon's Animated Pictures, Marionettes; also Royal Punch and Judy, with Dog Toby. 101A, Penwith-road, Earlsfield, S.W.

WANTED, to Share with Showman, with large Booth, good Front and Stage, for one of the finest troupes of Dogs in England, owned by a well-known performer.
Treat with First-Class Shows only.
6, Hyde Park-road, Portsmouth.

WANTED, Known, the Original Saxo, having just concluded two years' successful tour with his Great Strong Show, at Liberty, good draw, paintings. Wire for Monday, 121, Jubilee-street, Stepney, London. Managers send dates. Distance no object.

WANTED, Known, at Liberty for Fêtes, Galas, an Ideal Act of Strength, Ajax, the Modern Hercules. Address, 23, Foxley-road, Brixton.

WANTED, Known, Animal Trainer would undertake to Train a Troupe for a Salary or Partnership. Box 2,643, "The Era."

WANTED, by Young Man, Berth with Animal Trainer, experienced.
Box 2,642, "The Era."

WANTED, Known, Le Neve thanks those that answered advertisement re Wrestlers. All settled at present. Agricultural Hall, London.

To Showmen.—Belfast.
WANTED, to Let, within about 100yds. of Royal Avenue, the leading street in Belfast, about 2,000 square yards Vacant Ground, with frontages to Library-street and Union-street. Apply to PROPRIETORS, Belfast Evening Telegraph.

WANTED, to Let, Few Spaces, Games, Stalls, &c., rent 10s. week. Enormous success, two weeks more, Arcadia, Zoo and Exhibition, Drill Hall, Portsmouth.

WANTED, Spaces to Let, in the Original Touring Trades Exhibition, for gold and silver plating, handkerchief embroidery, or any other novelties, opening at Aberdare, Jan. 15, 1906. Apply, CHAS. COOKSON, New Market Hall, Aberdare.

WANTED, Known, Spaces to Let, in the Bridlington Ninth Annual Trades Exhibition, six days, March 12.
HAGUE,
Spa Gardens, Bridlington.

SHOWMEN'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

BLACKPOOL SANDS.
WANTED, Known, the South Shore Fair Ground is the Only Place of Outdoor Entertainment and Attraction in Blackpool. Situated at South Shore, next the Promenade. The Electric Trams run right to it. Finest Position in the Town. The land faces the sea, and has a frontage of over 500yds. The Permanent Attractions now installed include the River Caves of the World, the Maxim Flying Machine, Helter Skelter, &c. Native Village Wanted. Room for New Attractions next Season. 14, Balmoral-road.

EXHIBITION.
WANTED, Known, the Largest Free Exhibition ever organised, Opens at Winter Gardens, Blackpool, Feb. 13-23, by the Oldest and Leading Syndicate Touring Exhibition. Address, promptly, please, MANAGER, 120, Davenport-street, Macclesfield.

WANTED, to Sell, Cheap, Cinématograph Show, 31 by 41, with Gavioli Paper Organ. WARD, 29, Alexandra-street, West Hartlepool.

WANTED, to Let, Ground, for all Kinds of Shows, Gray's Switchback open on the ground. ARTHUR BURGESS, Trafalgar-place, Upper Edmonton.

WANTED, Known, Ye Olde London Touring Exhibition (Scenic), Irish Tour, commencing Assembly Rooms, Cork, Feb. 13 to 24, Visiting all the Principal Towns throughout Ireland. Six months' tour. Can Book Spaces as under for this Tour :—Sketch artist, handkerchief embroidery, gold wire jewellery, monograms, pens and pencils, electric engraving, electric plating, glove cleaner, knife cleaners, music, Daisy needle, or any other novelty; also Vacancy for a novel and up-to-date Side Show and Working Ant Show. Apply immediately to MANAGER, Exhibition, St. John's Rooms, Winchester.

WANTED, to Let, Ground, Stalls, Aërial Flight, Swings, Roundabouts, Helter Skelter, &c. Palmist write immediately. MANAGER, Theatre, Musselburgh, Scotland.

WANTED, to Let or Share, Spaces in Large Premises (admission free, open Sundays), for Games, Models, Side-shows, Stalls, Anything and Everything. Good Business being done. Apply, 150, Seven Sisters-road, N.

WANTED, Known.—All Parties requiring Ground for Exeter Easter Fair, in the Old Fair Field, Love Fair in May, Redruth Fair Whit. Monday. Poole, and Hayle, and others en route, apply, W. C. and S. HANCOCK, Winter Gardens, Plymouth

WANTED, Known, to Showmen, Cinématograph Exhibitors, and Entertainers, to Let, for any part of winter months (unlicensed for music), large hall, Balham, rear Balham Empire, size 100ft. by 35ft., fireproof building, balcony all round, seats 600, gas, installations, complete. Particulars, DICKESON, 15, Laitwood-rd., Balham.

WANTED, to Let, Large Shop, Previous to Alterations, Best Position in Hull, suit Auction or Show. LEWENDONS', Estate Agents, Hull.

WANTED, Known, Le Neve thanks those that answered advertisement re Wrestlers. All settled at present. Agricultural Hall, London.

WANTED, to Sell, Living Van, Road or Rail, 10ft. 6in. long, in excellent condition, all inside fittings plated, American cooking range, wardrobe, table, with drawers, lockers, cupboard, sleeping accommodation, skylight length of top, &c., easily drawn by one horse, just newly renovated. Will accept £25; recently cost £75. A. BARNES, Bridge-street, Belper, Derby.

WANTED, to Sell, Great Bargain, Excellent Modern 6 n.h.p. Compound Showman's Road Locomotive, by Burrell, Mounted on Springs, practically new Firebox, and everything in splendid condition. Apply, CHARLES D. PHILLIPS, Emlyn Engineering Works, Newport, Mon.

WANTED, to Sell, Showman's Road Living Waggon, 16ft. by 7ft., every comfort for living and sleeping, £40. BARRON, High Mill-rd., Great Yarmouth.

WANTED, to Sell, Biograph Show, complete, with Travelling and Living Waggons. Cost £400; price £170. Genuine. STACEY, Settles-street, London, E.

WANTED, to Sell, Rail Living Carriage, Good Condition, and must be sold quick. JONES, Fair Ground, Astley Bridge, Bolton.

WANTED, to Sell, Kemp's Grand Double Waggon Front, the most Elaborate Front in the World, practically New. Will those who wrote me, please write again, or see me in London? KEMP, Fair Ground, Bolton.

WANTED, to Sell, one Set of Roundabouts, the Largest Travelling, 52ft. in diameter, engine by Savage, King's Lynn, 14 sections, 48 horses and birds, 6 double-seated cars, overhead motion, twisted brass rods and pillars, 5 wagons, working up to Jan. 6; also another Set, smaller, engine by Savage, overhead motion, 56 horses and birds, complete with trucks.
The above, belonging to the Trust Estate of John White, Amusement Caterer.

Offers to, and particulars from,
EDWARD COWAN,
Solicitor, 4, High-street, Dundee; or,
WM. LAWSON CLARK,
Accountant, Whitehall Chambers, Dundee.

WANTED, to Sell, Organ Truck (Rail), 18ft. long, 6ft. wide, a well one end, 12ft. long, for Organ, and a space over lock end, 6ft. square, Carved and Gilded where required, built by Orton, of Burton; would suit Roundabout Frame or Show Front. Now being used on my Show.

Cheap. For price, apply,
KEMP, Fair Ground, Bolton.

WANTED, to Sell, Automatic Machines, Husbands, Babies, Love-Letters, Palmistry, Lunatics', Marriage, and Liars' Licences. MEURICE, 39, Argyle-square, W.C.

WANTED, to Sell, Automatic Slot Machines, Large Assortment. Now you can buy Bargains at STACEY'S, Settles-street, London, E.

WANTED, to Sell, Storey's Fine Art Exhibition, equal to new, can be seen open at Agricultural Hall, London, during World's Fair. Recently decorated by W. Giles and Son, Burton.

WANTED, to Sell, Butterscotch and Fortunes, 3s. per gross. Late GREEVES and Co., Leicester; now, GRAHAM and Co., 7, Banbury-street, Watford.

WANTED, to Sell, the New Toboggan Slides, shown at the World's Fair, Newcastle-on-Tyne, and Arcadia, Portsmouth, achieved the biggest success at both places, can be put up in 2, and taken down in 1½ hours. A gold mine at the seaside or fairs. No trouble, only taking the money. LARCHER, 30, Pimlico-road, London, S.W.

WANTED, to Sell Cheap, Gavioli's full size Five-figured Organ, on Truck; also Engine to drive same, good condition. Would sell separately. HENRY REYNOLDS, Broseley, Salop.

WANTED, to Sell, Ball Punchers, Guessing Scales, and all kinds other automatic machines. WORMALD, 123, Blythe-road, West Kensington, London.

WANTED, to Sell, Pony Set of Roundabouts, complete, and single shooting tube gallery, cheap. H. STRUDWICK, Burton Latimer.

WANTED, to Sell, Cheap, Large Set of Swings, nearly new, would exchange for small set of swings; also large peepshow glasses, 7in. lenses, with boards, cheap. KITSON, The Evicted Carnival Show Ground, Reed-st., W. Hartlepool.

WANTED, Known, I have for Sale Miles of Good Films, from 1d. a foot, first come, first served. KEMP, Fair Ground, Bolton.

WANTED, to Sell, Bosco Photo Machine, Flashlight, Automatic Action. Cost £60; price to clear, £6, bargain. STACEY, Settles-street, London, E.

WANTED, to Sell, Waxworks, forty figures, complete, with scenery and drapery, splendid wax, noted figures. Sacrifice to clear. STACEY, Settles-street, London, E.

WANTED, to Sell, Piano Organ, complete, £4; Hot-air Engine, £5; Fish Pond, and joint, complete, £9, cost £18. STACEY, Settles-st., London, E.

SHOWMEN'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

WANTED, to Sell, the Well-known Organ and Front of Randall Williams' Great Show.

The Magnificent Organ,
89 Keys, by Gavioli, with Two Entrances.

Size of Organ with Entrances, 38 feet;
Also Six Boxes of Up-to-date Music.

This is the Best Organ
in England
To-day.

Wind up Truck for Same to go by Rail or Road, with Stages, Steps, &c.

The Entire Front of This Grand Show to be Sold at a Great Sacrifice to the
First Reasonable Offer.

Cash or Easy Terms.

For Particulars,
Apply,
MONTE BROS.,
Howcrofts Works,
West Hartlepool.

WANTED, to Sell, Great Novelty, Part Horse, Part Camel, 3 years old, good worker, £8; worth £15 to pull Living Waggon. 150, Seven Sisters-road, N.

WANTED, to Purchase, Waxwork or Variety Business, in permanent position. Particulars, A. E. PICKARD, 101, Trongate, Glasgow.

WANTED, Known, Le Neve thanks those that answered advertisement re Wrestlers. All settled at present. Agricultural Hall, London.

WANTED, Known.—Will Mr. Harry Bailey (Ghost Show) please write me, or will someone let me know his address? KEMP, Fair Ground, Bolton.

WANTED, Known, the Seventy Thousand Showmen who use the Columns of "The Era" and are moving about should know that they can make "The Era" Offices their Permanent London Address. Letters received will be held till called for, or immediately re-addressed, according to instructions. Address all communications respecting the Letter Department to the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

WANTED, Showmen who experience difficulty in obtaining copies of "The Era" at any of Messrs. Smith and Son's Bookstalls to kindly communicate with the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

WANTED TO SELL.
TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, to Sell, Happy Home, Cheap, Six Furnished Rooms. Going to America. Dunedin Troupe, 35, Walcot-square (off Kennington-road), London, S.E.

WANTED, to Sell, or Let on Hire, good-class Films, low hire rates. THE MICROGRAPH CO., LTD., 7, Great Queen-street, London, W.C.

WANTED, to Sell, 20,000ft. of Films, majority good as new; must be cleared, from 1d. per foot. POOLE, Theatre, Gloucester.

WANTED, to Sell, Shetland Ponies, all colours, from £5 5s. to £15, delivered free in any part of England direct from breeders. Inspection invited from JAMES HUNTER, Stome, Whiteness, Shetland; or Headquarters, Great Central Pony Repository, 6,810, Jackson's-row, Manchester. Over 600 imported yearly. Stage Horses, Jumpers, and Ponies always on hand. Apply, 8 Jackson's-row, Manchester.

WANTED, to Sell, the Cleverest Talking and Trick Pony in existence, does everything, original tricks, harness. JOE PORTER, Chequers, Dorchester.

WANTED, to Sell, Bioscopes, Steady, Flickerless, mechanism, base, lantern, lenses, spools, in case, £16. Best value in the trade. THOMASSIN, Engineer, Streatham.

WANTED, to Sell, Shetland Ponies, Pair Skewbalds, 34in; bays, 40in; and large selection all colours, heights, and lowest prices. G. STEPHEN, Braehead, Ferryhill, Aberdeen.

WANTED, to Sell, Blondin Donkeys, Woven Wolves, Monkeys, Cats, Dogs, Harlequin Dresses, Cows, Baby Elephants, Leg Paddings, Masks, &c., cheap. B. MAYERS, Maker, 22, Shepperton-road, Islington, London.

WANTED, to Sell, Beautiful Dresses, and other superior second-hand clothing. Catalogue free. DUPONT, 68, Grand-parade, Harringay, London, N.

WANTED, to Sell, Six Vent. Figures, good as new, £3 the lot; also Dress Basket, 8s.
VENTO, Post Office, Grays, Essex.

WANTED, to Sell, Pair Stage Electric Arc Light-boxes, with Lamps, Cable and Coloured Glasses, complete, little used, 70s. Box 2,646, "The Era."

WANTED, to Sell, Woven Animal Dresses, Paddings, Tights, Opera Hose, in all Materials. Lowest Prices. H. J. BOXALL, 166, Waterloo-road, London, S.E.

WANTED, to Sell, Emma, nearly new; also Galvanic Battery (Down's), cheap. Address, 24, Minto-street, off Kensington, Liverpool.

WANTED, to Sell, Full Set, Amber Palace, just painted, suitable for opera, stock, or pantomime. On view any time at LESTER'S, St. Giles's, London, W.C. 3067, Gerrard. Cloths, 30 by 24.

WANTED, to Sell, Large Proscenium Fit-up, with opening of 29ft. by 20ft. high; also 1 Garden Cloth, 1 Street Cloth, 2 Proscenium Wings, 4 Wood Wings (18 by 6), 3 Wood Borders, 3 Sky Borders, 1 Proscenium Border, all 35ft. long; also a Magnificent Set of Tableau Curtains, red figured silk plushette, heavily trimmed, suitable for a Proscenium Opening 30ft. wide by 20ft. high; 80 Tip-up Chairs, in red velvet, in first-class condition; Blondin Donkey; 2 Large Slow Combustion Stoves, capable of heating the largest building, and lately used at the Zoo Hippodrome, Glasgow, and Hippodrome, Barrow; 1 Flying Trapeze Net, 65ft. by 15ft.; 2 Large Travelling Hampers, by White Bros., Nottingham, not been used. Seen any time.
GEO. ZALVA, Hippodrome, Scarboro'.

WANTED, to Sell, Trick Musical Instruments, every description; everything powerful and musical. LISLE, 5, Cuthill-road, Camberwell, sole British manufacturer

WANTED, to Sell, two handsome Bellows Side Tables, very portable, and in good condition. Price 25/- REDMOND, Fishersgate, Sussex.

WANTED, to Sell, Black Sequin Evening Dress; others, Evening and Day, full size, cheap. Write, 101, Duke-road, High-road, Chiswick.

WANTED, to Sell, or Royalty, Comedy Sketches (3 people), Good Dramatic Episode (2 gents.), Strong 4-Act Drama (9 people). All new and original. EDWIN FIRTH, Gt. Bentley, Colchester.

WANTED, Known, Mr. Tom Green, having so much of his time devoted to the production of his celebrated Cinématograph Picture, is open to Sell or Let some of his best music hall sketches, ballets, and pantomime scenes. The Studio, 106, Fairholme-road, Croydon.

WANTED, to Sell, a good Money-making Drama, now on Road. Can be seen playing. Good reason for sale. Box 2,653, "The Era."

WANTED, to Sell, or Hire, Songs, Scenas, Duologues, Sketches, by Author of "Member for Muddlesex," "Musical Mistake," "Lady and the Parson," &c. Address first instance, Box 2,655, "The Era."

WANTED TO SELL.

"AS MIDNIGHT CHIMES."
WANTED, to Sell or Let, one of the most Successful Dramas Touring.
Star Heavy Part for Intense Actor.
Production Printing, and Piece, all Excellent.
A Well-booked Tour Guaranteed.
No Reason for Selling, and Piece will be Toured, whether Sold or Not.

EDWARD MARRIS, T. R., Grantham.

WANTED, to Sell, Certain Provincial Rights of the most Successful Drama ever Toured. Has now had Two Years' Rest, and will go Big when next Toured. Short Cast, Star Lady's part. A Splendid Plant of Printing by Staffords and Allens. First-class Tour can be booked if required. Apply in first instance to E. CARTER LIVESEY, 10, King-street, Covent Garden, London.

WANTED, Sellers to Note the Following Testimony of Business done through the "Wanted" columns of "The Era."
To the Publisher of "The Era,"
SIR,—
On Aug. 19 I advertised Conjuring Tricks and Illusions. I am pleased to inform you that I received sixty enquiries, and that I have already sold many conjuring tricks, and one expensive illusion, besides several secrets, to customers I have never previously corresponded with. I enclose another advertisement. If you care to publish this testimonial, you are welcome to do so.
Yours sincerely, WALTER HALL,
3, Ernest-avenue, Leeds.

WANTED TO BUY.
TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, to Buy, Small Seizing Pony or Donkey; also Trained Dogs.
Address, Box 2,633, "The Era."

WANTED, to Buy, Light-coloured male Collie Dog, good on hind legs and skip both ways, must be cheap, not over eighteen months or two years. LLOYD, Fern Cottage, Lincoln-road, Acocks Green, Birmingham.

WANTED, complete Marionette Show, in good condition. Lowest Cash Price.
S. C. SULLINGS, 17, Orchard-street, Ipswich.

WANTED, Well-dressed Liliputian Figures, size about 18in, and Novelty to Work with Same. Also Refined Humorous Duets (Lady and Gent). THE MELFORDS, Entertainers, Nelson.

WANTED, to Buy, Two Good Leaping and Somersault Dogs; must be perfect.
READE, 56, Mount Vernon-street, Liverpool.

WANTED, Cinématograph Films, by Pathé, second-hand, good condition, will buy up to £50. H. HAMILTON, 8, West-street, Colchester.

WANTED, 60ft. or 70ft. Round Tent, in good order, with wallings, &c. FLORRIE ASTURTE, 4, Falconer-street, Shield Field, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

WANTED, Property Motor Car. State what made of, weight, and lowest price, to CHAFFEUR, 110, Eldon-street, Oldham.

WANTED, Baskets, Baskets, Baskets, for Pantomime wardrobe and properties. Lowest price, CLARENCE SOUNES, Grand Theatre, Woolwich.

WANTED, to Buy, Cheap for Cash, a second-hand Riding Pad. Address, LE NEVE, Royal Agricultural Hall, London.

WANTED, to Buy, Secondhand, Hand-feed Stage Arc Lamps, also Magic Lantern and Limelight Lenses. C. E., 22, Penton-street, Islington.

WANTED, by Well-known Music Hall Burlesque Actress, Duologue, or Smart Musical Sketch, no expense will be spared in producing same. Authors may rely on return of rejected MS. Box 2,652, "The Era."

WANTED, to Buy, Comedy Duologue or Sketch for Three People (2 m., 1 f.); must be really First-class. Write full particulars, N. L., 18, Sinclair-gardens, Kensington.

WANTED, Smartly Written Sketch, for Lady, not more than three people.
Full description, Box 2,641, "The Era."

WANTED, Good Dramas, produced or unfinished, shelved or touring, with printing or without; also any quantity photo frames, good condition. T. ARTHUR JONES, Grand, Margate.

WANTED, to Buy, in good condition, "Our Rover," "The Sailor's Wedding," "Our Errand Boy." Lowest cash price to T. GANNON, West-grove, Bristol.

WANTED TO LET OR HIRE.
TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, to Let, Main Road, Music Hall (Island Site), Plans approved by L.C.C.; or owner would be prepared to join with Substantial and Business Man or Music Hall Proprietor, for the Erection and Development of same. Position Unique, Totterdown, Tooting, Commands Enormous Population, from Tooting, Merton, Morden, Wimbledon, Raynes Park, Beddington, Carshalton, Sutton, and surroundings, all without any place of amusement. Apply, DICKESON, 15, Laitwood-road, Balham.

WANTED, to Let, the Fully-Licensed and Old-Established Music Hall, Balham Empire, Main Road, ready for immediate occupation, and Opening. Particulars, DICKESON, 15, Laitwood-road, Balham.

WANTED, Wanted, to Let,

New Brighton, Lower Parade,
Double-fronted Lock-up Shops,
Splendid Position, on Sea Front,
Close to Pier.

Apply to
LEWIS and MOUNSEY,
3, Lord-street,
Liverpool.

WANTED, to Let, or Sell, at the termination of the season, Transfield's Hippodrome, Paisley, N.B.; without doubt the best building (of its class) ever erected in Scotland, holding 2,000 persons; brilliantly illuminated by gas and electricity; well appointed; ladies' and gentlemen's lavatories; building standing in a good position. Grand opening for Variety and other first-class entertainments. Now playing to capital business, though the week after the New Year. Trams stop at the door. Unexpected arrangements on the Continent reason for selling or letting. Full particulars, TONY TRANSFIELD.

WANTED, to Let, for the Summer Season, the Marina Theatre, Ramsgate, situate on the sea front, opposite the Promenade Pier; seating capacity 1,000; licensed for music and dancing and stage plays. Moderate terms. Apply, C. G. MUSGRAVE, Mosborough, Lemna-road, Leytonstone.

WANTED, to Let or Sell, Lease of Fully-Licensed Modern Theatre. No opposition. Letters only, W. M. TILSON, 26, Southampton-st., W.C.

WANTED, to Let, Tudor's Circus, Blyth, Northumberland, Jan. 22 and 25, 1906.
Address, FRASER, Printer.

WANTED, Known, Rehearsal Room, to Let Daily, now Vacant. Terms reasonable. Ground Floor. Apply immediately, WEST, 253, Waterloo-road, London, S.E

WANTED, Known, Scenery Storage Warehouse, in Murphy-street, Lambeth, close to Westminster Bridge-road, to be let or sold; entrance for vans. Apply, BROWN, 337 Graves-rd., Camberwell.

WANTED, to Let or Sell, Complete with Scenery, Properties, Music, Printing, ready for road, "Mysteries of London," "Partners in Crime," singly or together, can be played in conjunction. LEWIS GILBERT, Gaiety Theatre, Burnley.

PUBLIC HALL THEATRE, COLWYN BAY.
WANTED, offers for Advertising Curtain, and supply of Programmes. Open all the year round. CHAS. CHAPLIN.

WANTED, to Let, Two Refined Duologues, Comediettas, not "Cross Talks." Also Melodramatic Sketch, 3 people. Box 2,647, "The Era."

WANTED TO LET OR HIRE.

WANTED to Let (Rental), Bycullah Athenæum, Enfield. Any kind of Entertainment. Scenery. Address, MANAGER, as above.

WANTED, to Hire on Lease, for two or three years, full-sized Painting Frame and scenery dock, somewhere in the Midlands preferable; also wanted to buy, Scenery, must be first-class; back cloths, not less than 36 by 24, and flats 18. Address, MOODY-MANNERS OPERA CO., Theatre Royal, Dublin.

PARTNERS WANTED.

WANTED, £250.—Recognised Manager requires Partner with this amount, for Equal Share in New and Powerful Spectacular American Play. Advertiser also invests £250. Scenery, dress, printing, &c., executed. Particulars, "SPECTACULAR," c/o Messrs. Carwithen and Allen, 138, Fulham-rd., S.W., and 34, Piccadilly-circus, W.

Original. Original. Original.
Entirely New Act.
WANTED, Gent. for Part, and invest £40. Take third share. CARLTON, 46, Union-road, Newington Causeway, London.

WANTED, Partner for a New and Up-to-date Enterprise, People's Popular Saturday Night Concerts.
Big Opening for a man with £100.
MANAGER, 25, Williamson-st., Holloway, London, N.

WANTED, Partner (Actor), Sketches, Halls, join lady and gent., with own original sketches; one who can influence bookings preferred. Address, E. FIRTH, Gt. Bentley, Colchester.

WANTED, Known, Advertiser having successful Musical Sketch, Scenery, and Printing, wants Working Partner, who can secure dates. Box 2,532, "The Era."

WANTED, Partner, with about £200, for Fully Booked Drama.
Letters, Box 2,658, "The Era" Office.

WANTED, Partner (to play or take charge preferred), for Comedy Drama now on tour, splendid printing, scenery, and uniforms, small cast. Box 2,651, "The Era" Office.

WANTED, Eccentric Comedian (Musical), to join Pantomimist for Comic Act. State instruments, full particulars, R., 8, South-st., Stratford, E.

MISCELLANEOUS.
TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known, that Hamley's are now Selling the Great Air Ball Trick. Four Large Air-balls are Produced from an Empty Opera-hat. Price, complete, 10s., post free 10s. 3d. The Genuine Method, as Sold by Us to all the Leading Conjurers, Spring Flowers, 2s. 11d. per 100, post free. Finest Hat Coils, 6 Colours, 3s. 6d. doz. Catalogue (nearly 100 illustrations), 6d., post free. Grand Magical Saloons, 231, High Holborn, W.C., and 35, New Oxford-street, W.C.

WANTED, Known, for Artistic and Cheap Lithos., write to EDWARD HARRISON, Litho. Studio, 125, Broomspring-lane, Sheffield.

WANTED, Known, 100 Ivory Visiting Cards printed with your Name, Address, and Business, 1s., post free. Money refunded if dissatisfied. Send at Once.
J. WINSTON,
19, Mostyn-road, Brixton, London, S.W.

WANTED, Known, F. G. Wright, Gymnastic Apparatus Maker, Electrical Engineer, and Theatrical Blacksmith. 66, Kennington-road, S.E.

WANTED, Known, C. Kinch, Gymnastic Apparatus Maker (15 years with Wright).
17, St. Mary-square, Kennington-road, S.E.

WANTED, Known, for Ventriloquial and Marionette Figures, and Specialities, LE MARE and SON, Coupland-st., Oxford-rd. Manchester

WANTED, Known.—Band Parts, 3s. 6d.; Melodies, 5s.; Incidental, Transposing, Copying, Band Books, 4s. 6d. ten (Special) to £1 1s. Duplicating, Letters, Parts, Music, &c. COTTLE, 85, Coldharbour-lane, London.

WANTED, Known, Full Paddings, 12s. 6d.; Monkey Skins, 25s.; Worsted Tights, 7s.; Cotton, 5s.; to order. C. ANDREWS, 23, Betterton-st., Endell-st., Long Acre.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.
WANTED, Known.—Will all Theatre Managers who have been served with Writs or Threatened with Action by Mr. J. H. Cooper, solicitor for Mr. Pitt Hardacre, re Herbert Barrs' East Lynne, please communicate with MANAGER, Box 2,656, "The Era," with a view to taking concerted action.

WANTED, Known.—Should this meet the eye of any Professionals who were travelling from Barrow on Sunday, Dec. 31, Ada Gatley lost a Hamper. Anyone having seen the same, will they kindly give information. 149, Waldegrave-road, Preston, Brighton.

WANTED, Known, Edward Haveley (Baritone) has severed all connection with William Lovell Hurt, in the Illustrated Song Act, "The Haverleys." All communications to permanent address, Withington, Manchester.

WANTED, Known, Mr. Samuel James desires to thank the Applicants for the Special Week advertised in last issue of "The Era," and to say that the Vacancies are now Filled.

WANTED, Known, Will Hilderini, Handcuff Expert, please send address at once, to JONES, Weston.

WANTED, Known, Mrs. E. Graham-Falcon (Miss Winnie Latham) wishes to thank the members of "The Babes in the Wood" company for presentation of handsome pendant on Jan. 6.

WANTED, Known, Charles H. Bell, Original Comedian, late of Fred Karno's Co. (have played the Principal Parts for 10½ years), has joined Herbert Darnley's "Moving In" Co.
Next week, EMPRESS, BRIXTON.

NOTICE TO PROPRIETORS, ARTISTS, and Others. All Singing and Performing Rights of Walter Tubury's Copyright Political Song, entitled "Impose a Duty" (echo of Nelson), are Strictly Reserved. Written Permission Must be Obtained from the Publishers, Clark and Hamilton, 44, Cranbourn-street, London, W.C.

THE
IN MEMORIAM"
ISSUE OF
THE ERA
OCT. 21, 1905,
contains the most complete Biography of the Late
SIR HENRY IRVING
ever published;
also an appreciation of the Great Actor
by T. P. O'CONNOR, ESQ., M.P.

This Issue contains a Reproduction of the Best Photograph
ever taken of the Late Sir Henry Irving.

Copies can be obtained by forwarding SIX STAMPS to
THE PUBLISHER,
"The Era" Buildings,
5, Tavistock-street, London, W.C.

THE PATHÉ CINEMATOGRAPH

CO., LTD.,

14, 16, 18, Lamb's Conduit St., High Holborn,

Telegrams—"PATHE, LONDON." Telephone—2298 CENTRAL.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Although we sell our Films at a fixed price per subject, and not by length, we would point out to our customers that our subjects measure or are longer than the lengths stated. Measure them for yourselves, and you will find this to be the case.

MACHINE FOR MEASURING FILMS £3 3s.

EVERY FILM published by us may be publicly exhibited by anyone, at any time, and anywhere.

Our Films are the steadiest on the screen and the finest photographic quality in the world.

COMPARE THEM FOR YOURSELVES.

THE NIHILISTS.

The secret printing office. The raid. Before the Governor. Sentenced. Departure for Siberia. The bitter parting. The march. The halting place. Nadia's death. The Nihilists' laboratory. Making bombs. The Governor's reception. Nihilists entering the Palace. Throwing the bomb. Revenge. The Palace ruins. About 565 feet. The Subject, £14 2s. 6d.

THE WOLF TRAP.

A trap set for a wolf catches the owner of the property by the leg. He sends his son for assistance; but the boy, meeting various playmates on the way, indulges in several games, and arrives home without a thought for his father. A gamekeeper eventually releases the master, who reaches his house just as his son, with the other children, is riding on a supposed racing motor car. The rousing he receives will keep his memory alive for a long time. About 285ft. The Subject, £7 2s. 6d.

THE DESERTER.

The Cafe Chantant. The Dancers. An officer's infatuation causes him to become a thief and deserter. Flight, and discovery in the dancer's house. Publicly degraded. Father's visit to the prison. Affecting scenes. Suicide with revolver left by his parent. About 540ft. The Subject, £13 10s. 0d.

THE CHILD STEALERS.

Stolen from a luxurious home, a lad suffers terrible privations. Stealing and begging. Sleeping in the fields. Search by father. Accidental discovery. Mother's joy at his recovery. Capture and imprisonment of gang. About 525ft. The Subject, £13 2s. 6d.

BICYCLE THIEF.

An exciting chase after a cycling thief. Attempted ride up the side of a house, followed by a crowd. About 360ft. The Subject, £9 0s. 0d.

THE EX-CONVICT, from "LES MISERABLES," by VICTOR HUGO.

The Tramp. Unsuccessful begging. A charitable Priest. Plenty of food and a good bed. Ingratitude. Theft of silver ware. Disposing of goods. Discovery and arrest. Forgiven by the owner, who blesses him. Repentance and atonement. A splendid film, beautifully tinted. About 360ft. The Subject, £9 0s. 0d.

ALCOHOL, THE CAUSE OF CONSUMPTION.

This is the finest Temperance Lecture ever put before the Public in pictures. More effective than a hundred sermons.

The happy conscript. The Tempter. The fall. Drink and gambling. The Drunkard's home. Children ill and dying. Wife starving. An attempt to reform. Failure. Murder. Prison and Madhouse. Death scenes. About 515ft. The Subject, £12 17s. 6d.

20% DISCOUNT TO ALL CUSTOMERS OFF LIST PRICES.

Remember—Our Pictures are absolutely steady.

NEW FILMS

. . A . .

COMIC DUEL.

A Humorous Absurdity.

Length, 270ft. Price, £6 15s. 0d.

Code Word, "Duel."

No. 53. PORTRAITS . . FOR NOTHING.

Good Knockabout Comedy.

Length, 150ft. Price, £3 15s. 0d.

Code Word, "Portrait."

Telephone: No. 11,414 Central.

Write for Particulars to

CRICKS & SHARP,
7, GREAT QUEEN St.,
KINGSWAY, W.C.

CRICKS & SHARP, 7, GT. QUEEN ST. KINGSWAY, W.C. Telegrams: Photoscope, London.

ANIMATOGRAPH FILMS.

AN INDIAN ANIMAL TOURNAMENT.

Bull v. Bull.
Ram v. Ram.

As witnessed by H.R.R. PRINCE OF WALES.

Code Word, "Bulls."

Length, 100ft. Price, £2 10s.

POLITICAL FAVOURITES.

The following Picture is designed to find favour with audiences of any shade of politics. It consists of a series of large cartoons, rapidly drawn, in view of the audience, the name of each leader appearing above his portrait. Included are

Mr. Campbell Bannermann,
Mr. Balfour,
Lord Rosebery,
The Duke of Devonshire, and the Right Hon. Mr. Joseph Chamberlain.

A Picture for all up to date Exhibitors.

Code Word, "Fiscal."

Length, 140ft. Price, £3 10s.

ROBERT W. PAUL,
ANIMATOGRAPH DEPOT,
68, HIGH HOLBORN, LONDON, W.C.

Telegrams: "Calibrate, London."
Telephone: 4614 Holborn.

ELGE FILMS

Great Comics.

No. 317. GRANDPA AND THE BUTTERFLY.
Sends the audience at the Empire, Leicester Square, London, into convulsions every evening. 375ft. £9 7s. 6d.

No. 314. THE NEW WOMAN.
The Question of Woman's Right solved in a way which is telling to a degree. The Best Comic of the Season. 530ft. £13 5s.

No. 348. HOW NOT TO SOLVE A PUZZLE.
The Trials and Despair of a Man who endeavoured to make money without working for it. A great idea, well executed. 300ft. £7 10s.

SOLE AGENTS FOR CLARENDON PRODUCTIONS.

THE MOROCCO QUESTION—IMPORTANT TOPICAL FILM.

THE FRANCO-CERMAN CONFERENCE AT ALGECIRAS.
A Film of Great Interest at the present time, showing the town at which Delegates are meeting for this important Conference, and the hotel at which they will discuss the burning questions which has come so near to causing serious friction between the two great Powers. 170ft. £4 5s.

"NOVEL IN A NUTSHELL" Series.

No. 372. THE BLIND MAN'S CHILD.
A Pathetic Story of a Most Appealing Nature. 560ft. £14.

SENSATIONAL.

No. 373. THE FIRE-FIEND.
Full of Excitement. Hairbreadth Escapes, and Thrilling Rescues. The incendiary's death after a fearful struggle with his pursuers. 490ft. £12 5s.

THE VERY LATEST.

No. 380. THE MAN WHO DREAMT HE WAS A MILLIONAIRE and how he enjoyed himself in the Land of Nod. A Rude Awakening. 490ft. £12 5s.

The Dramatic Copyright, Photographic Copyright, and Author's and Producer's Rights, as well as the Titles, have all been registered and secured of the above Subjects. Immediate proceedings will be instituted against infringers. We have supplied the trade with Free Brains and Ideas too long.

Notice to Managers or Exhibitors.—Should Imitations of the above Films be produced by unscrupulous parties (as has happened so often with other Subjects in the past) we hereby warn Managers and Exhibitors or Dealers against Exhibiting, Permitting to be Exhibited, or Handling, the said Imitations in any shape or form, or they will be involved in the proceedings which follow.

Come to Gaumont when you want GOOD GOODS.
ALWAYS NOVELTIES at Gaumont's.
ALWAYS ORIGINALITY at Gaumont's.
ALWAYS HONEST LENGTHS and STRAIGHT BUSINESS at Gaumont's.

L. Gaumont & Co.

THE CINEMATOGRAPH SPECIALISTS,
22 to 27, CECIL COURT, LONDON, W.C.
AND AT PARIS AND BARCELONA.
Telephone, 2430 Gerrard. Telegrams, "Objecisti, London."
NEW LABORATORIES—15B, JAMES STREET, LONDON, W.

THE "WALTURDAW" BIOSCOPE NO. 1.

THE ACME OF PERFECTION IN PROJECTING BIOSCOPES.

Best that Brains can devise; Best that skill can construct; Best that money can buy.

The whole thing is turned out as accurately as a watch and as true as a gun.

PRICE, COMPLETE, £25

All parts easily accessible. Interchangeable Gate Spring Plate. Automatic Shutter Absolutely Fireproof. Heat Radiating Shield keeps Film Gate cool. Noiseless Action ROCK STEADY. Moving Gate and Moving Light. Rewinds 2000ft. Film. Best Lenses any Focus required. Pair 12in. Spools, and Iron Bound Travelling Case. Top and Bottom Arms fold up for Packing.

WRITE FOR ANNUAL LIST OF BARGAINS IN SHOP-SOILED APPARATUS.

The "Walturdaw" Co., Ltd., 3, Dean St., Holborn, London, W.C.

Telephone, 6695 Gerrard.
Telegrams "Ruffoscope, London."

RUFFELL'S PICTURES

Ruffell's Imperial Bioscope Syndicate are in Position to Offer Proprietors and Managers Exclusive Pictures—a Great Advantage where you have Opposition to Fight. What's the use of a Picture Show possessing no novelty? Try our system; we can give you something to Bill, and you can rest assured that it is impossible for the opposite hall to sneak in the same film during the week. Our Enterprise has come to stay. For Terms,
Ruffell's Imperial Bioscope Syndicate,
12, Little Newport-street, W.C. (opposite the Hippodrome).
Complete Weekly Changes. Terms Moderate.
Secondhand Films for Sale.
Also a Fine Selection for Hire. Note New Address,

For Terms and Particulars, Apply
RUFFELL'S Syndicate, as above.

Telephone, 385 Brixton.
Telegrams, Biophosco, London.

PAYNE'S BIO-PHOTOSCOPES.

Exhibits of the Latest, up-to-Date Animated Pictures. This is not a Cheap Show, but a High-class Turn. Never mind what Others say. Try them, and then give Me a Try. That is Proof. No Exhibit too Large to Cater for.
Films for Sale or Hire.
PAYNE, 346, Brixton-road.

CRAVEN'S PATENT HAMPERS

LISTS FREE

T. CRAVEN
THE BASKET FACTORY
WAREHOUSE: 8, TO 22 MARSDEN COURT.
FENNEL STREET
MANCHESTER

DON'T SHOUT

about your Touring Equipment unless you use our Hampers. Strongest Materials, Best Workmanship, Moderate Prices. Send for Catalogue.
W. T. ELLMORE and SON, Ltd.,
Thurmaston, Leicester; 16, City-road, E.C.;
162, London-road, Manchester.

ARTISTES WANTED

requiring Sound Investments and Residences for Occupation, Rents Collected, Estates Managed, Mortgages Arranged, Surveys and Valuations made, to consult Messrs. CRABB and SON, Auctioneers, Surveyors, Estate Agents, and Valuers, 100, Brixton Hill, S.W. (close to Water Lane). Telephone 643, Brixton, Manager, Mr. WALTER INGE.
Note.—Messrs. Crabb and Son have the honour of being Estate Agents to the élite of the Profession.

TO SHOWMEN ENTREPRENEURS, AND CINEMATOGRAPH SHOW EXPLOITERS.

A CINEMATOGRAPH SHOW.

THE "CRUISE OF THE OPHIR."

ONE THOUSAND POUNDS

FOR

TWENTY-FIVE SHILLINGS.

TO THE PUBLISHER, "THE ERA."

Sir,—

It may possibly interest you to learn that a Quarter-Column Advertisement in "The Era" (One Insertion) resulted in over £1,000 Bookings for an Entertainment with which I was connected some little time ago. The Entertainment was entitled

"THE CRUISE OF THE OPHIR,"

Cinématograph Show, and the Bookings were effected within a week.

Yours faithfully,
H. GOLDSMITH-WHITTON,
Late Manager, West's "Our Navy," &c.

London, May 19, 1904.

IN case of the non delivery of "THE ERA" by the First Post, the Publisher will be greatly obliged if Advertisers will forward their Postal Wrappers, with the time of delivery marked upon them.

INDISPENSABLE!

RAYNE'S POCKET DATE BOOK.

JUST PUBLISHED. Price ONE SHILLING

Five Shillings' worth of information for One Shilling. Purchasers of this work will not only be making a good investment, but will be also adding to the funds of two deserving charities. The above work, got up in a convenient size for the waistcoat pocket, should be in the possession of every actor, every music hall artist, and every entertainer, in fact.

CONTENTS:

All About Artists' Luggage.
List of Clubs.
Information about Stamping Contracts.
Foreign Money Table.
London Music Halls and Theatres.
Their Telephone Numbers.
List of Brougham Proprietors.
List and Address of Photographers.
Size of Theatrical Printing Paper.
Names and Addresses of Theatrical
Railway Managers, &c., &c

RAYNE'S POCKET DATE BOOK.

THE BOOK WILL BE SOLD AT ONE SHILLING, Post Free.

The proceeds from the sale will be divided equally amongst the two great charities of the Dramatic and Musical Professions,

THE ACTORS' BENEVOLENT FUND
. . AND . .
THE MUSIC HALL BENEVOLENT FUND

Mr. Arthur Bourchier, Garrick Theatre, writes: "I thank you for the little book, which I am sure will be very useful."

Mr. George Scott (Manager), Alhambra, W.C., writes: "Many thanks for the little book to hand, which will prove of valuable assistance to me."

Mr. Seymour Hicks, Aldwych Theatre, writes: "I thank you for the Telephone Book, which I find most useful."

Send 12 Stamps to the Publisher,
"THE ERA" BUILDINGS,
5, TAVISTOCK STREET, W.C.
'Phone: Four-seven-four-seven Central.
Telegraphic Address: "The Era," London.

HOTEL PROPRIETORS.
To Hotel Proprietors who regularly file "The Era," HANDSOME ILLUMINATED METAL TABLETS
of
"THE ERA"
will be supplied gratis on application to the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

NEW CLARENDON FILM.

When Father Got a Holiday.

ROARS OF LAUGHTER. CLARENDON QUALITY.
THE CATCH OF THE SEASON.

No. 130. Length 355ft. Price £8 17s. 6d.

ARTISTIC NOVELTY.

The Village Blacksmith.

Length 240ft.

THE STOLEN PURSE. " 315ft.
THE SAILOR'S WEDDING. " 525ft.
FATHER'S BIRTHDAY CHEESE. " 410ft.

CLARENDON FILM COMPANY,
Clarendon Road, CROYDON,

Telegrams: "CINEMAT, CROYDON." 'Phone: 155, Croydon.

Or from L. GAUMONT & COMPANY, Agents for London.

Hepwix

THE VILLAIN'S WOOING

(A Melodrama in 12 Scenes).

SCENE 1.—Evil-looking but wealthy villain endeavours to persuade by force a young and pretty girl to marry him. Real lover appears to the rescue.

SCENE 2.—Father interviews his daughter's suitors, when the poor lover's offer is rejected, on hearing which the girl swoons.

SCENES 3, 4, and 5.—Rejected lover arranges secret appointment, giving the note he has written to a half-witted man to deliver to his sweetheart, and the messenger invests money given him on a monkey-on-a-stick.

SCENES 6, 7, and 8.—The half-witted Simon lays the note down to examine his toy, and the rich lover seizes the opportunity to read it. Simon eventually delivers the note to the girl, while the villain tells the father of the appointment he has discovered.

SCENE 9.—Shows the trysting place and the meeting. Appearance of angry parent, who is knocked down by lover, who realising what he has done rushes off for help. The villain comes up, and killing the unconscious old man accuses the poor lover of the deed, and the innocent man is locked up.

SCENES 10, 11, 12, and 13.—Girl abducted by villain; very exciting events. Guilt fixed on the villain through instrumentality of half-witted Simon. Chase of villain, who to escape capture takes mad leap over cliff.

Length 750ft. Price, the Subject, £18 15s.

THE BURGLAR'S BOY.

Small boy thrust through window by burglar, and is discovered in the act of stealing jewellery by little girl. Father appears and engages the real burglar in desperate struggle.

Length 250ft. Price, the Subject, £6 5s.

THE BABES IN THE WOOD.

Follows closely the lines of the well-known story.

Length 700ft. Price, the Subject, £17 10s.

WRITE TO

HEPWORTH MANUFACTURING CO., LTD.,

— CINEMATOGRAPHERS, —

17, Cecil Court, Charing Cross Rd., London, W.C.

TELEPHONE No. 2451 GERRARD.

PROFESSIONAL APARTMENTS.

Three Lines, ONE SHILLING.
Thirteen Insertions, TWELVE SHILLINGS.
Address, PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

BIRMINGHAM.—Sitting-rooms, Bedrooms, Bath (h. and c.), Pianos, Good Cooking, Ten Minutes Theatres. 21, Duchess-rd., Edgbaston.

BLACKPOOL.—Bed and Sit.-room; also Combined; 3 min. from Palace. Terms moderate. Fowler, 36, Kent-road.

BRADFORD.—Professionals' House of Call is the Oddfellows' Arms (Saloon Bar Entrance, opposite People's Palace). John Bramham.

BRISTOL. — The Garrick Hotel, adjoining the Prince's Hotel, en Pension to Professionals, from 25/- per week. J. Hobbs.

DUBLIN.—77, Lower Mount-st. Sitting and Bedrooms, h. and c. bath, lavatory, Piano, Good Cooking, and Attendance. State Requirements

DUNDEE.—Queen's Hotel. Special Terms for Professionals. W. Smith.

EASTBOURNE. — Devonshire Hotel, adjoining the Hippodrome. The Professional House. Agent for M.H.A.R.A. W. Webb.

EASTBOURNE.—Min. Pier and Hippo. Good Apartments, Bath, Gas, Piano. Home Comforts. Mrs. Hope, 14, Royal Parade.

GLASGOW.—Buchanan-st Station Hotel Close to the Principal Theatres and Music Halls. Moderate Terms for Board and Apartments.

HULL. — Tally Ho Hotel, The Professional House of Call. Henry Usher, Proprietor.

LEEDS.—Mrs. Pincus, Rockingham Arms. New room, the Salon Victoria, for Pro.'s Only. Social Réunions every Sunday Evening.

LIVERPOOL.—Superior Rooms. Three minutes to any theatre, special terms for Panto. Bellwood, 69, Mount Pleasant.

LONDON, N.—Well-furnished Sitting-room, Bedroom, and Combined Room. Gas; piano. Mrs. Champ, 11, Windsor-rd., Holloway.

LONDON, N.W.—Camden Theatre. 75, Oakley-square. Furnished Apartments. Motor 'Buses pass the door for all West End Theatres.

LONDON, S.E.—Mrs. Fred Gilbert, Comfortable Apartments. Good Pianos. Main Road. Vac. for Panto. 19 Kennington Park-road.

LONDON, S.E.—238, Kennington-rd. Sitting and Bedroom, and Comb. Rooms; Piano. Vacant Sunday. Mrs. Eley.

LONDON, S.E.—Comfortable Combined Room vacant, Sunday, Jan. 21, '06; gas, good cooking; highly recommended. Mrs. Bartlett, 41, St. Mary's-square, Kennington-road.

LONDON, S.E.—Correspondent Required to supply weekly reports of the Elephant and Castle Theatre. Address, DRAMATICUS, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

LONDON, S.W.—Comfortable; Single Rooms, Sitting and Bedrooms, Pianos. Mrs. Bensa, 9 and 11, Claverton-street.

LONDON, S.W.—Victoria. 64, Claverton-st. Bed-Sitting-room, Sitting-rooms, Piano, Bath. Low Inclusive Terms to Professionals.

LONDON, N.W.—Sitting and Bedrooms; also Comb. Piano. 5min. West London and Met. Mrs. Blythe, 26, Aberdeen-place.

LONDON, S.W.—Comfortable Apartments. Good Cook. Recommended by Signor and Madame Borelli. Mrs. Whiteley, 29, Brixton-rd.

LONDON, S.W.—Sitting and Bedroom Vacant, Sunday also combined, bath, h. and c. Highly recommended. Mrs. Neal, 115, Loughboro'-road, Brixton, S.W.

LONDON, S.W.—Apartments. Sitting and Bedroom, well Furnished, every Comfort, in Well Appointed House; also large bed-sitting-room. 159, Brixton-road. Recommended.

LONDON, S.W.—Bed and Sit.-room Vacant Feb. 19. Piano, Bath, Gas. Moderate. MRS. ZESCH, 37, Handforth-road, Brixton.

LONDON, S.W.—Near Kennington Gate.—Comfortable Sitting and Bedrooms. Good cooking and attendance; pianos. Mrs. Robin, 19, Brixton-rd.

LONDON, W.—Furnished Apartments. First-class House; close to Piccadilly Circus; gas, pianos, bath (h. and c.). 7, Arundell-street.

LONDON, W.C.—21, Guilford-street, Russell-square. Well Furnished, with or without Board. Piano, Bath, Electric Light, and Tel.

MANCHESTER. — Superior Apartments. Piano, bath, good cooking and attendance. Recommended. 51, Grafton-st., Oxford-rd. Suit First-class Artists.

PRESTON.—Stanley Arms Hotel, Lancaster-road. Very Central; Board and Residence. Bath and Piano; Inclusive, £1 1s. Halliday.

SALISBURY.—The City Arms Hotel. The Professional House of Call; absolutely free for all Wines, Spirits, and Beers.—G. W. Waugh.

SHEFFIELD.—Royal Victoria Station Hotel. Special Professional Terms, 9s. per day, inclusive, or by arrangement. Write, T. M OSBORNE, Manager.

SHEFFIELD.—Mrs. Ashley, Garden Gate Inn, Harvest Lane, Boarding Home for Pros. Terms Inc., 15s. Sitting-rooms, 6 Beds, Piano.

YORK.—Half Moon Hotel, near Royal Theatre, Professionals specially catered for at any hour. Under new management.

MANCHESTER.—Eagle Hotel and Restaurant, 50a, Market-street. Sunday Catering for Travellers. 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. Free from Brewer. Billiards. Special Line, Bed and Breakfast, 4s. and 4s. 6d. Cosiest Dining-Rooms in City, at Popular Prices.

MARGATE FOR HEALTH. WHITE HART HOTEL. Under New Ownership. Facing Sea, Electric Light Throughout. Choice Wines, Table d'Hôte, 7 p.m. English meat, poultry, and cooking. No Gas Stoves. Motor Garage of H. Q. A. C. Telephone, 44, Margate. Saturday to Monday, 21s. Address, Proprietor.

HOME SCHOOL FOR GIRLS AND LITTLE BOYS. Every care. Professional Dancing taught. Recommended. Healthy Situation. PRINCIPAL, 103, Balham Park-road, Wandsworth Common, S.W.

LIVE STOCK NOVELTIES. Arriving to-day, the 13th inst., Mr. J. D. Hamlyn, with his large consignment from South Africa, consisting of rare antelopes, large chacma baboons, one large performing baboon, Stanley cranes, Aard wolves (rare), rock rabbits, meercats, owls, doves, parrots, wild geese, very rare small birds, tortoises, crabs, frogs, &c., &c.

On view at Hamlyn's, 221, St. George's-street.

Telephone, 6341, Avenue. Telegrams, Hamlyn, London Docks, London.

VISIT ALL YOUR FRIENDS BY POST.

Our PORTRAIT POST CARDS will do it most effectively.

They are genuine Photographs of the best quality, and at the lowest possible price to the Profession.

THE Hana STUDIOS, LTD.

22, Bedford-street, Strand, W.C.

MODERN AMERICAN STYLES IN THEATRICAL PHOTOGRAPHY.

Professional Price List Free on Request.

ENAMELLED IRON SIGNS FOR THEATRES, MUSIC HALLS, &c. BUY DIRECT FROM MAKERS. Sandpits Enamel Works, BIRMINGHAM.

THE Most Effective, Most Artistic PANTOMIME PRINTING obtainable.

STAFFORD & CO., LTD., NETHERFIELD, NOTTS.

WILLSONS Supply STREAMER LETTERS, Mammoth Posters, Day Bills, and the General Run of Show Printing, in First-class Style. Streamers—the Largest Assortment in the United Kingdom— Day Bills, &c., at our Usual Low Rates. NEW-WALK PRINTING WORKS, LEICESTER

LATEST URBAN FILMS.

TERMS: CASH WITH ORDER.

1760

WHAT IS WHISKY?

The interesting query, "What is Whisky?" is fully and graphically answered in this unique picture. In 32 Tableaux this Film presents every phase of the manufacture of the much appreciated Scotch, from the reapers on the Scottish hillside mowing down "John Barleycorn" to the final appreciation of The Drink of all Nations by a convivial party, seated in an aristocratic lounge in the World's Capital.

ORDER OF PICTURES:

1—HARVESTING AND INGATHERING OF BARLEY ON A SCOTTISH HILLSIDE.
2—THE DISTILLER EXAMINING AND SAMPLING A SHEAF OF BARLEY.
3—THE SOURCE OF THE WATER SUPPLY. Showing the mountain torrent.
4—A TYPICAL HIGHLAND DISTILLERY.
5—ARRIVAL OF TRAIN LOAD OF BARLEY GRAIN AT THE DISTILLERY.
6—ENLARGED VIEW OF SEVERAL GRAINS OF BARLEY.
7—FILLING THE STEEPING VATS WITH BARLEY AND TURNING ON WATER.
8—STEEPED BARLEY. Several Views.
9—TURNING BARLEY IN THE MALT HOUSE.
10—ENLARGED VIEW OF CRUSHED BARLEY ready for first stage of distilling.
11—HERE WE SEE THE CRUSHED BARLEY AND WATER BEING RUN INTO THE MASH-TUN.
12—THE MASH AFTER FERMENTING is run into the huge copper stills.
13—CONDENSING THE DISTILLED VAPOUR IN THE WORM TUBS.
14—MAKING CASKS AT COOPERAGE. A scene of great activity.
15—EXCISE OFFICERS TESTING SPIRIT IN SPIRIT SAFE.
15—TRAIN LOAD OF WHISKY "IN BOND" arriving at the Bonded Warehouses.
17—SHOWING GOVERNMENT OFFICERS MEASURING CONTENTS OF CASKS.
18—GOVERNMENT OFFICERS TESTING THE GRAVITY OF WHISKY.
19—SAMPLING WHISKIES FOR BLENDING.
20—EMPTYING APPROVED WHISKIES through canvas strainers.
21—FILLING CASKS FROM BLENDING VATS.
22—UNPACKING BOTTLES FROM BALES.
23—STEEPING, STEAMING, AND CLEANING BOTTLES. A most animated scene.
24.—FILLING, CORKING, LABELLING, AND WRAPPING BOTTLES. Showing the very ingenious machines used.
25—PRINTING AND MAKING PACKING CASES.
26—STRAWING BOTTLES AND PACKING CASES.
27—WHISKY IN CASES AWAITING SHIPMENT.
28—LOADED LORRIES LEAVING THE WAREHOUSE for Railway Station.
29—LOADING A STEAMER WITH CARGO OF WHISKY.
30—THE GOVERNMENT'S CHECK ON THE DISTILLER. The formidable padlock.
31—THE DISTILLER'S CHECK TO THE GOVERNMENT FOR EXCISE DUTY.
32—APPRECIATION OF THE DRINK OF MANY PROCESSES. A party of friends seated in an aristocratic lounge in London enjoying the finished product.

Total Length, 900 feet. Price £22 10s.

1565.

THE SHERBORNE PAGEANT.

Written and Invented by Mr. LOUIS N. PARKER.

This magnificent picture presents in a condensed form the imposing pageant held at the ruins of Sherborne Castle, Dorsetshire, in celebration of the twelve hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Bishopric Town and School of Sherborne by Saint Aldhelm, in the year 705 A.D. The history of Sherborne from remotest times was illustrated by dramatic scenes, processions, and living pictures, in which over seven hundred performers, inhabitants of the town and neighbourhood, took part. Perhaps no more gorgeously presented pageant, or more sumptuously and lavishly costumed historical reproduction, has ever been given in this country; not, at any rate, has anything so grandly impressive and artistic been done since the Eglinton tournament. In the Film reproduction, the most striking scenes and tableaux from the following thirteen historical episodes are given with a clearness and brilliancy seldom attained in cinematography.

AN EXCELLENT SERIES FOR SUNDAY ENTERTAINMENTS.

1—THE COMING OF ST. ALDHELM. Four heralds announce by Fanfare commencement of the pageant. English chieftain and his following return from the chase—successful—proceed to offer up burnt-offerings as thanks, but are restrained by arrival of St. Aldhelm, who proceeds to instruct them in Christianity, and the cross is first made visible at Sherborne.
2—DEFEAT OF THE DANES BY BISHOP EALHSTAN. The overcoming of the Danes by the warlike Bishop Ealhstan and his monks in a terrific hand-to-hand encounter, the Danes leaving many dead on the field which the Shirburnians remove behind Castle Ruins, and the rest take Ealhstan on their shoulders amid shouts of triumph.
3—OBSEQUIES OF KING ETHELBALD. The death of King Ethelbald, and the touching scene with Queen Osburga and the beautiful boy brought by King Ethelbert is well depicted.
4—ETHELBERT BRINGS ALFRED (ALFRED THE GREAT) TO SHERBORNE SCHOOL.
5—INTRODUCTION OF THE BENEDICTINE RULE BY BISHOP WULSEY III. The highly dramatic arrival of William the Conqueror.
6—ARRIVAL OF WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR AND REMOVAL BY HIM OF THE BISHOPRIC TO SARUM (SALISBURY).
7—ROGER OF CAEN, BISHOP OF SARUM AND ABBOT OF SHERBORNE, BUILDS SHERBORNE CASTLE. In this episode is shown the arrival of Robin Hood and his merry men, with Friar Tuck and Little John, and Maid Marian, and many gorgeous and sprightly tableaux, including morris dancing, hobby horse, cavalcade, etc., make this a bright and pleasing section.
8—QUARREL BETWEEN THE TOWN AND THE MONASTERY. The men of Sherborne fight against the Abbot, and the Abbey is fired.
9—FOUNDATION OF THE ALMSHOUSE. To celebrate the return of peace.
10—THE MONASTERY ABOLISHED BY HENRY VIII. Sir John Horsey arrives from London with the King's edict abolishing the Abbey.
11—SHERBORNE SCHOOL RECEIVES ITS CHARTER. A most animated episode.
12—SIR WALTER RALEIGH AT SHERBORNE. The arrival of Sir Walter Raleigh and his lady. The amusing incident of his servant seeing him smoking thinking he is on fire.
13—GRAND PROCESSION of all the characters in this great historic pageant, and presentation of the final tableau.

Total Length, 1,400 feet. Price £35.

THE MOST PERFECT, EXCLUSIVE, UP-TO-DATE EXHIBIT IN THE WORLD.

Address Sole Representative: WIELAND'S AGENCY.

Sole Proprietors—

THE CHARLES URBAN TRADING CO., Ltd., 48, Rupert St., LONDON, W.

MOSS' EMPIRES, LIMITED.

(MOSS, THORNTON, AND STOLL THEATRES AMALGAMATED.)
Chairman: H. E. MOSS. Managing Director: OSWALD STOLL, WORKING IN CONJUNCTION WITH SUBSEQUENT

STOLL COMPANIES

(INCLUDING THE LONDON COLISEUM, LIMITED), REPRESENTING ALTOGETHER

£2,086,000 CAPITAL,

HAVE OPENED

CO-OPERATIVE OFFICES

AT

CRANBOURN MANSIONS, CRANBOURN-STREET, LONDON, W.C.
Managing Director: OSWALD STOLL.
Assisting-Director and Chief of Staff: FRANK ALLEN.

INTERVIEWS BY APPOINTMENT ONLY.
Telephone: 1,399 Gerrard. Wires, "Twigsome, London."

CALLS for MONDAY, JANUARY 15, 1906.

THE LONDON HIPPODROME.

"Among the Stars," Bioscope, Miss Kellerman, The Cormorants, Uessems, Cole De Losse Duo, Lukishimas, Aurora Troupe, Urma Sisters, Mezzettis, Delbosq Brothers, Rinaldos, Tschernoff's Dogs, A Bo Kou, Hardinis, Novellos, Alice Lorette, Leonard Gautier, Lavater Lee, Tom Belling and Auguste, Marguerite Dorris.

EMPIRE THEATRE, NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE

Rehearsal at 2 for
Sawade's Animals, Dave McNeil, Conway and Leland, Bioscope, Coloured Meisters, Horace White, Riogoku Family, Collins and Rice, Sisters Chester, Bros. Leslie.

EMPIRE PALACE, SHEFFIELD.

Rehearsal at 2 for
Grigolatis, Chas. Cardow, Three Missouris, Mezzetti and Mora, O'Gust, Rosie Archer, Brooks, Dale and Blitz, Driscoll and Beattie, Bert Woodward, Seeley and West.

EMPIRE PALACE, BIRMINGHAM.

Rehearsal at 2 for
Diane de Fontenoy, Andy Griffin, Genaro and Theol, Peake and Co., Three Merrils, Fanny Robina, Five Julians, Harry Weldon, Bioscope, Nelson's Newsboys.

EMPIRE PALACE, LIVERPOOL.

Rehearsal at 2 for
"Moses and Son," Will Haines, Bioscope, Ida Heath, Parke's Eton Boys, Herbert Lloyd, Moran and Mareece, Tom Edwards, Amber Austa, Minnie Palmer and Co.

OLYMPIA, LIVERPOOL.

Rehearsal at 2 for
"The Redskins," Three Amaranths, Brontes, Madge Grey, Frank Harwood, Sisters Mullini, Bioscope, Paul Spadoni.

EMPIRE PALACE, EDINBURGH.

Rehearsal at 1.30 for Florence St. John and Co., F. H. Dundas, Four Ramlos, Minnie Mace, Mr. and Mrs. Lucas, Edie Veno, Lee and Kingston, Edie King, The Tupps, Serenaders, Two St. Johns.

EMPIRE THEATRE, CLASGOW.

Rehearsal at 12 for "Mumming Birds," Hetty Lee Frobel and Ruge, Four Silvas, Dan Conroy, Ethel Ra-Leslie, Bioscope, C. V. Adams, Strolling Players.

ZOO AND HIPPODROME, CLASGOW.

Rehearsal at 12 for
Caledonian Boys, Moulier Sisters, Harry Carsdale, Baker and Balfe, Three Merrions, Dandy George, Mabel La Blanche, Four Geraldos, Bioscope, Salambos.

EMPIRE THEATRE, BRADFORD.

Rehearsal at 2 for
Bros. Webb, Sisters Hayden, Bioscope, Mabel Hind, Lilieth Leyton and Co., Fred Elton, Bros. Andreassen, Ella Retford, Lidden and Hayward, Sam Elton.

PALACE THEATRE, HULL.

Rehearsal at 2 for
Selma Braatz, Stevens and Rennior, Margaret Ashton, Lora, Sinclair and Parr, Bioscope, Irving Jones, Les Gittis, The Fitzroys, Mendel.

EMPIRE PALACE, LEEDS.

Rehearsal at 2 for
Marie Duma, The Korries, F. Bertram and Co., Ruth Dorris, W. H. Fox, Cora Caselli, Sam Redfern, Sisters Slater, Katie Butler, Sleedes.

PALACE THEATRE, BORDESLEY.

Rehearsal at 1 for
Tom White's Arabs, Empire Comedy Four, Mdlle. Chalon, Gallando, Bijou Russell, Ed. E. Forde, Bros. Hayes, Bioscope.

COLISEUM, CLASGOW.

Rehearsal at 12 for
The Gems, Bioscope, Hill and Hall, Helen Martin, Ray Wallace, Slack and Milton, Mueller and Coyne, Cook and Clinton, Millie Hylton, Jimson's Pets.

EMPIRE PALACE, HACKNEY.

Rehearsal at 1 for
Laurie's Kindergarten, Paxton Trio, Terry and Lambert, Mariano Sisters, Harry Brown, Forrest Co, Dumond Minstrels, Chung Ling Soo, Bioscope, The O'Learys.

EMPIRE PALACE, SHEPHERD'S-BUSH.

Rehearsal at 1 for
Carl Hermann, Verno and Voyce, The Picquays, Sisters Dare, Ryan and Hall, Albertus and Bartram, Sisters Gasch, Wally-Hoste Trio, E. J. Sheldon, Three Bostonians, Bioscope.

EMPIRE THEATRE, CARDIFF.

Rehearsal at 3 for
Madrali, Ike Scott and Son, Trapnell Family, The Howards, Alexandra Dagmar, Viviana, Herbert La Martine, Wood and Bates, The Ushers, Hayes and Suits.

PHILHARMONIC HALL,

ST. MARY STREET, CARDIFF.
Cinematograph Exhibition, Curio Halls, Roller Skating, Phonograph, Waxworks, Galatea, Magic Maze, Shooting Ranges.

EMPIRE THEATRE, NEWPORT.

Rehearsal at 3 for
Tom Costello, F. V. St. Clair, Two Bostons, Sisters Geretti, Phil Herman, Morton and Elliott, Powell's Marionettes, Derenda and Green, Mattie Wilks.

EMPIRE THEATRE, SWANSEA.

Rehearsal at 3 for
George Gray and Co., Fred Poplar, Kitty Wager, Prof. Dunning, Kahn and Kahn, Duncan and Godfrey, Prince Kokin, Harry Drew, Sadie Simpson.

PALACE THEATRE LEICESTER.

Rehearsal at 2.30 for
Fred Storey and Co., Dot Hardy, Hart and Leo, Brown and Robinson, Rackett and Hazard, Terley, Robt. Ganthony, Spessardy's Bears, Bioscope.

EMPIRE THEATRE, NOTTINGHAM.

Rehearsal at 3 for
Morris Cronin, Francis Wylie, Bandurrias, Newhouse and Ward, Automatos, Huxter Bros., Bertha Vere, Grace Merton, Bell and Henry, Baker and Lynn.

EMPIRE, HOLLOWAY, LONDON, N.

Rehearsal at 1 for
Kronau's Sketch, Alice Simmons, Marlo and Dunham Trio, Sisters Aindow, Terry and Bentley, Sable Fern, Mills and Counsell, Bioscope, Vaudeville Entertainers.

EMPIRE, NEW-CROSS, LONDON, S.E.

Rehearsal at 1 for
Vesta Tilley, The Bohemians, Sisters Bellatzer, Fyne and Hurley, The Findens, Drawee, The Mannons, Stewart and Morgan, Bioscope, Amann and Hartley.

EMPIRE, STRATFORD, LONDON, E.

Rehearsal at 1 for
A. C. Lilly and Co., Selbinis, Alf Gibson, J. Alexander and Co., Lilian Lowe, Five Olracs, Harding and Ah Sid, Mdlle. Olive, Ella's Lions, Dion Wade, Herr Grais.

ARDWICK EMPIRE, MANCHESTER.

Rehearsal at 2 for
F. Maxwell and Co., Katie Marsh, Bioscope, Vi and Ethel Esdaile, Rhoda Bros., Walter Munroe, "100 to 1 Chance," Frazer and Mac, Hardeen, "Codology."

HIPPODROME, MANCHESTER.

Rehearsal at 2 for Woodward's Seals, Royal Six, Harry Clifford, Bioscope, Fisher Opera Co., Garganis, Sybil St. Elmo, Martin and Quigg, Illustrated Song, Gallagher and Hild.

THE LONDON COLISEUM,

ST. MARTIN'S LANE, TRAFALGAR-SQUARE, W.C.
Three Performances Daily, at 3.0, 6.0, and 9.0 p.m.
Programme for 3.0 to 5.0 and 9.0 to 11.0 Performances:—
Mrs. Brown Potter, "The Charioteers," Miss Mabel Love, "Fenella," "In Dreamland," "Aladdin," Eugene Stratton, La Berat, Stelling and Revell.
Programme for 6.0 to 8.0 Performance:—
"Arabian Nightmare," Ten Genis, Wolkowsky Troupe, Frank Maura, Mason and Bart, Adele De Frece, Andre Kaya, Clarissa Talbot, "Cup of Tea," "Charioteers," Bioscope, "Madame Angot."

THE FOLLOWING ARE BOOKED IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE ABOVE:

EMPIRE THEATRE, DUBLIN.

Rehearsal at 1 for
Marzella's Birds, Three Victorias, Tony and Flo Vernon, Les Ados, Holles and Goldman Trio, Bicknelle, Alexandre and Bertie, Vasco.

EMPIRE THEATRE, BELFAST.

Rehearsal at 1 for
Josephine Sabel, Daisy Ray, Corty Bros., Elsie Clare, G. W. Hunter, Lizzie Fletcher, Smythson Comedy Co., Arthur Lennard.

EMPIRE PALACE, SOUTH SHIELDS.

Rehearsal at 2 for
Kelly and Ashby, Neilson Sisters, Geoffreys and Benson, Billy Hobbs, Finneys, Princess Pauline, W. B. Vox, Pictures, Han Hansen Trio, Florrie Gallimore.

HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE, WALSALL.

Rehearsal at 2 for American Comedy Four, Bioscpe, W. H. Downs, Collins and Hawley, The Finneys, Orla's Dogs, Hall and Earle, Spry and Monti.

PALACE, CAMBERWELL.

Rehearsal at 3 for
Harry Champion, Barney Armstrong, Percival, Harry Marte, Angeline, Sisters Desmond, Clara Sefton, Florence Yayman, Juno Salmo, Mason Keeler and Co., Valvero, Crown Trio, Bowmeister, Bioscope, Sisters Wingrove, Vona and Merle, Cotton Blossom Quartette.

GRANVILLE, WALHAM GREEN,

Rehearsal at 3 for
J. Elvin and Co., Lieut. Albini, Harry Marte, Clivetto, Barney Armstrong, Leo Tell, La Danseuse, Twin Andersons, La Belle Nello, Nita Clavering, Florence Yayman, Autos, Boyd and Gilfain, Elton and Edwin, Walker and May, Bioscope.

RICHMOND THEATRE, RICHMOND.

Proprietor, Mr. GEORGE DANCE.
Rehearsal, at 2, for Frederica's Animals, Sybil Montague, Jenny Hartley, Ted Leo, Adams and Ward, Harry Thurston, Pictures, New Hulines, Cotton Blossom Quartette.

INSTRUCTIONS TO ARTISTS.

Artists must have Band Parts for at least Twelve different Instruments for the Orchestras, Fifteen for the Coliseum. Matter for Bill, Blocks, and Specimens of Pictorials must be sent to the CO-OPERATIVE OFFICES, at above address, THREE Weeks before opening, or at least TWO WEEKS, failing which Artists will run the risk of having their Engagements Cancelled.
Bill Matter, &c., for the Coliseum should be sent FOUR Weeks before Opening.
IMPORTANT.—Artists must forward Copies of Songs to the Stage Department, ABOVE ADDRESS, TWO WEEKS PREVIOUS TO OPENING, with Assignments for same, which will be returned. Artists are requested to carefully note that the clause in their contracts relating to rehearsals will in future be strictly enforced.

ARTISTS WILL CLEARLY UNDERSTAND THAT THEIR BUSINESS MUST BE FREE FROM ALL VULGARITY.

N.B.—Silence in every case a polite negative. Artists are requested not to enclose stamped envelope. Letters marked "Private" will be delayed.
Telephone, 1,899 Gerrard. Wires, "Twigsome, London."

CALLS

FOR WEEK COMMENCING

MONDAY, JAN. 15, 1906.

MACNAGHTEN VAUDEVILLE CIRCUIT.

Proprietor and Director General:
Mr. FRANK MACNAGHTEN.
Business Manager for the Circuit:
Mr. E. P. LAWTON.
Special Representative:
Mr. BRANDON BLAKE.
Secretary:
Miss AMY ROBINSON.

EXECUTIVE OFFICES:
KING'S CHAMBERS, ANGEL STREET, SHEFFIELD.
Telegraphic Address, "MACNAGHTEN, SHEFFIELD."
Telephone No. 3449, SHEFFIELD.

Accountants: Messrs. HARDY, LAWTON, and MOULSON, York-street, Sheffield.

PAVILION, LEICESTER.

Lady Mansell and Juveniles, Mephisto, Sidney Dolf, Ford and Borris, The Haverleys, Clara Victor, Pallister's Bioscope, Marie Gibson.

PALACE, LINCOLN.

Chas. Whittle, Nelson and Thomas, Pallister's Bioscope, Rae and Lea, Guy Rider, Wills and August, Frantz Family, Harry Lawson.

GRAND, SHEFFIELD.

Loudoun Cameron, Mark Merry, Molly Seymour, Carl Rosine, Pallister's Bioscope, Carlotta de Yonsen and Co., Renson and Waite.

PALACE, BATH.

Raymond's Bio-Tableaux, Arthur Melrose, Tate and Tate, Cordite, Gt. Northern Troupe, Harry Russell and Co., Austin Rudd, Bayne and Hope.

PALACE, BRADFORD.

The Seddons, Will Bacchus, Raymond's Bioscope, Speedwell, Nat Watkins, Caselli and James, Geo. D'Albert, F. Bernard and Co., Belle Braham.

PALACE, BLACKBURN.

Reilly and Taylor, Sisters Caselli, Les Bollingers, Motoring, Raymond's Bioscope, Raie Walters, Rose Elliott, Howard and St. Clair, Luba de Saroma.

PALACE, HALIFAX.

Four Jumels, Lottie Lennox, Raymond's Bioscope, Bert Brantford, Ford Williams, Paulinetti and Piquo, Arthur Aldridge, Les Louberts, Spencer and Marks.

PALACE, W. HARTLEPOOL.

Burke and McVoy, Percy Hannon, Raymond's Bioscope, Bros. Zampah and Helm and Cozins, Rose Cass, Howard and St. Clair, Diana Hope and Co., Casey and Mitchell.

PALACE, SOUTHAMPTON.

Four Maisanos, The Delmars, Dean Twins, Walter Emerson, W. Lee and Helen Bentley, Raymond's Bioscope, Lily Langtry, T. E. Dunville.

THEATRE ROYAL, ROTHERHAM.

"Between Two Women."

THEATRE ROYAL, ATTERCLIFFE.

"At the World's Mercy."

THEATRE ROYAL, CHESTERFIELD.

"Aladdin" (Jazon's).

KING'S, NOTTINGHAM.

"Are You a Mason?"

THEATRE ROYAL, LEEDS.

"Jack and Jill."

CORPORATION THEATRE, CHESTERFIELD

"The Swiss Express."

LONDON DISTRICT.

General Manager, Mr. FREDERIC BAUGH.
Telephone, 5954 Avenue.
Telegrams, "Stageyness, London."
Rehearsal at all Halls, Monday at 12 o'clock.

PALACE, BOW.

Telephone, 417 East.
Matinée every Monday.
Harry Anderson, Winnie Derson, Lacy's Erascope, Monks and Wood, Minnie Wren, Percy Murray and Co., Violet Moore, Dorothy L. Clarke, Dick Kendal, Harry Luck.

THE BRITANNIA.

Telephone, 7285 Central.
Matinées Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday.
"King Wow-Wow" Pantomime, Albert and Edmunds Troupe, Jessie Preston, Fred Lawrence, The Three Prestons, Marie Brian, Arthur Lawrence, Lilly Lassah.

FORESTERS.

Telephone 5954 Avenue.
Matinée Monday and Thursday.
Fox and Melville, George Newburn, Prince Kuroki, Will Driscoll, Dinah Morris and Co., Frank Cumminger, Ross and Lewis, the Four Queries, Raymond's Bioscope, Sisters Tinsley.

SADLER'S WELLS.

Telephone 5890 Central.
Matinée every Monday.
The Washingtons, Mark Leslie, Steinert and Yondi, Ameen Abou Mahomed, Childie Stewart, Three Sisters Lee, Fred Sothern and Co., the Three Willmars, Raymond's Bioscope, Harry Gold.

SURREY THEATRE.

Telephone 1460 Hop.
Matinée every Monday.
All Artists engaged for Surrey Theatre must bring 14 Band parts.
Raymond's Bioscope, Adee and Agwin, Dora Lyric, Edie Gray and Coons, Herbert Dale, Rita Resden, The Elvins, Fred Brook and Co., De Henau, Alladina.

All Bill Matter or Notification of Appearance must be sent in 14 days prior to opening. All Artists must attend Band Rehearsal, or their Contracts may be cancelled at the option of the Management.

N.B.—All Billing Matter and Business Communications relating to the Provincial Circuit must be addressed to "King's Chambers, Angel-street, Sheffield."

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

ARTISTS (AND THEIR AGENTS) HOLDING OR SEEKING ENGAGEMENTS AT

THE OXFORD,

OXFORD-STREET, W.
Rehearsals on Monday, at 12.30 o'clock.
Joe Elvin and Co., Alec Hurley and Co., Vesta Victoria, Will Evans, Harry Ford, Lily Burnand, The Dunedin Troupe, Herbert Shelley, Amy Clevere, Collins and Hart, Norman and Leonard Trio, Pat Rafferty, Ian Colquhoun, Datas, The Three Laurels, Walter Stanley, Bernar's Fantoches.
Manager, ALBERT GILMER.

THE TIVOLI,

STRAND, W.C.
Rehearsals on Monday at 12 o'clock.
Marie Lloyd, Little Tich, Alice Hollander, Arthur Roberts and Company, Clark and Hamilton, Griff and Alpha, Dolly Harmer, Athas and Collins, Gus Elen, Will Evans, Collins and Hart, Vesta Victoria, Tray and Rich, Burke, Moller, and Teller.
Manager, JOSEPH WILSON.

THE CANTERBURY,

WESTMINSTER-BRIDGE-ROAD, S.E.
Rehearsals on Monday at 11.0 o'clock
Joe Elvin and Selected Company, in "'Appy 'Ampstead"; the Harvey Boys, My Fancy, Black and White Zouaves, the Mackweys, Dutch Daly, Whit Cunliffe, Will Evans, Harry Ford, Walker and May, Gus Elen, Griff and Alpha, Vi Carlyle, Athas and Collins, Little Tich.
Manager, FRED MILLER.

PARACON.

MILE-END-ROAD, E.
Artists are particularly requested to attend Band Rehearsals, Monday, 3.0 o'clock.
Arthur Roberts and Co., Vesta Victoria, Dare-Devil Schreyer, Alice Hollander, Collins and Hart, Imperial Boys' Orchestra, Mark Melford and Co., Lily Burnand, Burke, Moller, and Teller, Phil Ray, Boyd and Gilfain, Los Granadas, Fielding and Hull, Cruikshank, Dutch Daly, Chas. Norton.
Manager, CHARLES BERCHAM

SOUTH LONDON PALACE,

LONDON-ROAD, S.E.
Two Performances Nightly.
Rehearsals on Monday, at 12.0 o'clock.
Fred Eustace and Co., J. H. Milburn, Charles Norton, Walter Wallis, Sisters Kingsley, The Mayvilles, Rita and Roma, Maxwell and Francis, Ruffell's Bioscope.
Manager, FRANK WEEKS.

EUSTON,

EUSTON ROAD, N.W.
Two Performances Nightly.
Rehearsals on Monday, at 12.0 o'clock.
Barney Armstrong, Alec Hurley and Co., Mark Melford and Co., Five Delevines, Dolly Harmer, Boyd and Gilfain, Charles Penrose, Ruffell's Bioscope.
Manager, FRED M'AVOY.

THE EMPRESS,

BRIXTON ROAD, S.W.
Rehearsals on Monday, at 1.0 o'clock.
Special Engagement of the Great Herbert Darnley and Co., "Moving In," James Fawn, Clark and Hamilton, Barney Stuart, Sisters Anderson, Herr Fritz, James Stewart, British Quartette, Kate Traill, Dezmonte and Mora, Madge Flynn, Fielding and Hall, Geo. Chirgwin, The Great Bonsanquet.
Secretary and Manager, NELSON FRANCIS.

GRAND PALACE,

CLAPHAM.
Two Houses Nightly.
Rehearsals on Monday at 2.0 o'clock.
John Lawson and Co., Fred Earle, Milner Verren, Emlyn Jones Quartette, Booker and Narbis, Hick's Clerks, The Imperial Bioscope, Harry Phillips, Nellie Wilson, The Three Laurels.
Manager, H. KEITHMAN.

ISLINGTON EMPIRE,

UPPER-STREET, ISLINGTON, N.
Two Performances Nightly.
Matinées, Mondays, at 2.30.
Rehearsals on Mondays, at 1.30.
John L. Shine and Co., J. W. Rickaby, Casino Girls, Imperial Bioscope, Rex Fox, Zarmo, Jordan and Harvey, Muir and Bartlett, Mozondos, Astley's Circus.
Manager, R. L. ADKIN.

DUCHESS PALACE,

HIGH ROAD, BALHAM.
Two Performances Nightly, 6.45 and 9.10.
Rehearsals on Mondays at 1.30.
Telephone, 58 Balham.
Fred Ginnett and Co., Harry Champion, V. L. Granville, Arthur Gilbert, Elsa Joel, Lozelle, Dezmonti and Mora, Maggie Rimmer, Charles Craston, The Imperial Bioscope.
Manager, G. L. WILSON.

WALTHAMSTOW PALACE,

WALTHAMSTOW.
Band Rehearsal, which all Artists must attend, Mondays, at 3 o'clock.
Telephone, 40, Walthamstow.
Two Performances Nightly, at 6.30 and 9. Matinées, Monday, Thursday, and Saturday, at 2.30. The Brilliantly Successful Pantomime, "Goody Two Shoes," Chorus, and Ballet of Sixty Performers. Produced by Mr. Peter Davey.
Manager, ARTHUR J. BARCLAY.

EMPIRE PALACE, EALING.

THE BROADWAY, EALING.
One Minute G.W. and District Station.
Two Performances Nightly, 6.45 and 9 p.m.
Rehearsal on Mondays, at 12 o'clock.
Paul Martinetti and Co., The Lyrics, Mabel Sinclair, Joe Archer, Elton and Edwin, Hill and Hull, Herbert Clifton, "Rejected Remounts."
Manager E. W. JAMES.
Telephone, 1056 Ealing. Manager, E. W. JAMES.

Are particularly requested to read their Contracts carefully, especially the Clause as to barring, which will be strictly enforced. Any Alteration thereof can only be effected by Special Agreement, in writing, with the Managing-Director. For Engagements at the Royal, Holborn; Duchess Palace, Balham; Islington Empire, and Grand, Clapham, address, Mr WALTER GIBBONS, 1, Durham House-street, W.C. Telephone, 6,825 Gerrard. For Engagements at the other Halls, address, Mr. G. ADNEY PAYNE, Managing-Director, Oxford, Limited, 1, Durham House-street, W.C. Office Hours 10.0 to 4.0. Telephone No. 2,035, Gerrard.

THE METROPOLITAN,

EDGWARE-ROAD, W.
Rehearsals on Monday, at 1.0 o'clock.
Marie Lloyd, Burke, Moller and Teller, F. Gerald and Co., in "Dick Turpin," Jock Whiteford, Alice York and Co., Chris Richards, Florence and Lilian, Sylvia Du Barry, Zampas, Rose Hamilton, Wal Robins, Ruffell's Bioscope, Mayvilles, Lilian Elfrida, Harry Martell, Chas. Pastor, Sisters Wingrove.
Manager, J. W. EDGAR.

THE CHELSEA PALACE,

KING'S-ROAD, CHELSEA, S.W.
Two Performances Nightly.
Rehearsals on Monday, at 12.0 o'clock.
Brien McCullough and Co., in the great production, "Beneath Big Ben," Millie Payne, Fred Russell, Brett and Orford, Sylvia du Barry, Francis and Alfred, L. Race, Edwards and Espinosa, and James Fawn.
Manager, EDWARD SWANBOROUGH.

For Engagements at the Metropolitan or Chelsea, address, the Managing-Director, Mr. HENRI GROS, at the Metropolitan, 267, Edgware-road, W. For times, address the Manager of each Hall, to whom also all Billing Matter must be sent Two Weeks in Advance.

THOMAS BARRASFORD TOUR.

CALLS for MONDAY, JANUARY 15, 1906.

REHEARSAL EVERY MONDAY AT ALL OUR PLACES AT 12 NOON.

HIPPODROME, BRIGHTON.

Charles Coborn, E. J. Wilkes, The Jansons, Tom Stuart, Herald Comedy Four, "The Water Cure," Gus Harris, Maud Esmond, Flem and Brok, Pictures, Barton and Ashley, Madame Bernice de Pasquali.

TIVOLI, LEEDS.

Miss Ada Colley, Sam Morrison, Davis and Davis, The Athlones, Kentucky Trio, Mr. and Mrs. Blake Adams, Joe Cheevers, Pictures, Leo Dryden.

PALACE, GLASCOW.

"Belle of the Orient," Starr and Jerome, Ida Ross, The Delomes, Bliss and Bliss, Two Erolls, Flo Chevalier, Pictures, Les Rallis.

HIPPODROME, LIVERPOOL.

Ergotti and King Luis, Violet Stockelle, Bert Weston, Sisters Marion, Reynolds' Minstrels, Dusty Rhodes, Harry Bedford, Pictures, Florrie Forde.

HIPPODROME, BIRMINGHAM.

"The Little Stowaway," Tom Yorke, Sydney Lee, George Victor, Keen and Waller, Rex King, Pictures, Bonnie Goodwin.

EMPIRE, BRISTOL.

Miss Dolly Elsworthy and Co. in "The Orange Girl," Miniature Marie, T. C. Callaghan, Hector and Paulus, J. P. Dane, The Waldrons, Mike Cray, Frances Drew, Pictures, Mirzah.

PAVILION, NEWCASTLE.

Belle Davis, George Penn, Andrews and Thompson, The Tafonas, Hartbert Orelly Bros., Ada Fawn, J. C. Morris, Pictures, "The Maiden's Prayer."

LYCEUM, LONDON.

Frank Bernard, Lowrinth Bros., Tiny Arnold, May Yohe, Harmony Four, Fanny Wentworth, Bud Primrose, Victor Newman, N'Kelz Bros., Spargoli, Pictures.

ALHAMBRA, PARIS.

Tina Clementa, Ernesto, Mdlle. Millet, Phillipl Bros., Alexander, Carpatti Bros., Gus Barra, Charliesky, Pictures, The Gothams, Harry Lamore.

BRITANNIA, HOXTON.

Grand Variety Company.

LYRIC, LIVERPOOL.

Grand Variety Company.

HIPPODROME, ST. HELENS.

Grand Variety Company.

Bill Matter must be sent to the London Office Two Weeks before opening, or Artists will run the risk of having their Engagements cancelled.
All Artists must carry Band Parts for Full Band.

All communications to be addressed to the London Office,

11, LEICESTER PLACE, LEICESTER SQUARE, W.

Telephone—6,824, Gerrard. Telegrams—"Barrasford, London."

LIVERMORE PALACE TOUR.
ABERDEEN,
DUNDEE,
SUNDERLAND,
BRISTOL,
PLYMOUTH.
Address all Communications, Billing, Matter, &c., for Aberdeen, Dundee, and Sunderland (2 clear weeks in advance of opening) to Messrs. ROSEN and BLISS,
56, Whitcomb-street, Leicester-square, London, W.C.
Telegrams: "Twopence, London."
'Phone, 7623 Gerrard.
For Bristol and Plymouth, to
L. C. J. LIVERMORE,
Offices, 534, Shaftesbury-avenue, London. Telegrams, "Liverare, London." Telephone, 2009, Gerrard. Private Telephone, 1057, Battersea.
N.B.—Interviewed by appointment only.

PAVILION, GLASGOW.
CALL, Monday, Jan. 15, 1906. Rehearsal, at 12 noon. Tom Grave, Bromley and Fonteim, Rothig, Dardin and Iris, Mabelle May, Vosper, Virginian Coons, Florrie Fairfax, Will Dalton, Toch and Tard.

SPENCER BROTHERS, Ltd.,
AERONAUTS
TO THE CRYSTAL PALACE AND PRINCIPAL FETES AND GALAS.

Airship Flights, Balloon Ascents, Captive Balloons, Balloon Races, Parachute Descent (from Gas Balloons or Hot Air Balloons), Lady and Gentlemen Parachutists, Displays of Small Balloons and Figures.
Terms upon Application.
45B, Aberdeen Park, Highbury, N.
Telegrams: Aeronaut, London. Phone, 1895 Dalston.

FRED KARNO'S COMPANIES.

"MUMMING BIRDS" IN AMERICA.

Unprecedented Success.
Cables direct from Management re the "Unparalleled Ovations."

POLI CIRCUIT.
"MUMMING BIRDS."

Billie Ritchie, Arthur Gallimore, Ping Pong, H. Amstel, Chas. Griffiths, Chas. Cardon, H. Walton, Geo. Lee, F. Birrel, Winnie Ritchie, Alice Kyre, Agnes Bonson, Alma Priestley, Cissie Fremton, J. Huda.
Business Manager, ALF REEVES.

Sole American and Continental Representative, H. B. MARINELLI.

EMPIRE, GLASGOW.
"MUMMING BIRDS."

Arthur Forrest, Bob Lewis, Bert Williams, G. Farnley, W. Layton, H. Daniels, Jim Le Fre, Jack Royal, W. Ferm, Maud Cardoner, Cassie King, Lillian Forrest, Alice Stuart, T. Jenner, T. Victor Crawford.

PAVILION THEATRE, MILE-END, E.
"HIS MAJESTY'S GUESTS."

Arthur Lenville, Dick Kitchen, Frank Morton, Chas. Usher, Sam Gosling, Harry Lowe, W. Fredericks, S. Bolton, Billie Williams, Bert Moore, W. Simpson, H. W. Lumley, Geo. Cooper, G. Rigby, J. Oliver Russell, Leonora Castelle, Amy Rogerson, Miss B. La Rose, Florence Dooley, Marie Gosling, Lilian Mills, Dollie Royce, Millie Hazleton, Winifred Stewart.
Business-Manager, H. A. DOOLEY.
Conductor, F. H. J. MORAN.

LONDON AND MIDDLESEX.
"MUMMING BIRDS."

Geo. Welch, Tom Manardo, Jack Osborne, Reed Almonti, Bob McGregor, Albert Darnley, Albert Weston, W. Crackles, Junr., W. Moran, Alf Durant, G. Richardson, Rose D'Alberg, Bessie Moreing, Kitty Brunton, Dorothy Dean, Emily Darnley.

"Cinderella."
Gaiety Theatre, Dublin.

Unanimously Acknowledged, by Press and Public, A Brilliant and Instantaneous Success.

CAST INCLUDING—
Misses Annie Purcell, Lilian Lea, Alma Mary, Lulu Louden, Little Maudie Francis, Dollie Bell, Silvia Mortlake, Ruby Pond, Rosa Snell, Eva Weigh, Agnes Lane, Little Gladys Francis, Nellie Edbrook, Deany Forde, Kathleen Morland, Bessie Cornish, Dora Grey, Elia Moore, May Margaretts, Mabel Clifford, Moira Clifton, Jessie Beresford, May Hayes, Lily Atherton, Inez and Yole Mola, Alys Cliffe, Amy Minister, Ada Minister, Lucy Waldon, Ethel Adams, Millie Hazelton, Veletta Rushton, Sadie Strande, Bessie Atherton, Muriel Palmer, Stella Theodore, &c., &c.; Messrs. Alex Keith, Fred Winn, William Gourlay, Austen Lenton, Fred Whittaker, Harry Somers, Fred Palmer, Dick Harcourt, Douglas Earle, Henri Carl, Jack Melville, the Canadian Comedy Four, Vaughan Neale's "Flying Ballet."

Business-Manager, MR. ARTHUR COWLEY.
Assist.-Manager, Mr. H. LEIGHTON ROOKE.
Producer and Stage-Director, MR. HAROLD L. HILLIARD.
Stage-Manager, MR. JAMES FLETCH.
Musical Director, MR. CLEMENT LOCKNANE.

Tremendous Reception of Fred Karno's Latest and Greatest Creation,

"Moses & Son."
EMPIRE, LIVERPOOL.

CAST INCLUDES—
Misses Kate Forster, Leah Morris, Blanch Newman, Mimi Clanchy, Mabel Florence, Cora Renard, Clarice Doncaster, Andre Silvée, Caroline Silver, Ruby Diamond, Rosa David Abrahams, Janet Reeve, Katey Hyman, Bertha Hyman, Ruby W. Brownes, Marie D'Alberg, Vera Holland, Ettie Ray, Winnie Daniels, Lila Ray, Dollie Maryon, Ada Maskell, Messrs. Sasha Sprengsohn, Jack Hart, Harry Lappo, Ben F. Rosenthal, Georgie Dolin, Anthony Gordon, Nathaniel Lewis, David Birne, Phil Sinclair, W. Davis, G. Asher, Alfred Phillips, A. Schmidt, Nathaniel Goodman, Herbert C. Myers, David Asher, Bernardo Katz, L. Zeil, and Fred Kitchen.

Special Notice.

Plays and Sketches written, produced, and thoroughly equipped, in their entirety. All kinds of scenery made and painted by skilled artists. Costumes designed and executed. Properties and electrical effects supplied. Lorries, Broughams, 'Buses, and Motors on hire. Scenery, Properties, &c., warehoused and carted. Large Rooms to Let for Rehearsals, &c.

Arrangements can be made upon short notice for the removal or storage of artists' baggage, &c. Terms moderate. Trains can be met, day or night.

KARNO'S THEATRICAL FACTORY,
CAMBERWELL, S.E.

Estimates free upon Application.

Sole Proprietor and Director,
MR. FRED KARNO.
Secretary, Mr. W. H. Chippendale.

Interviews by appointment only.

ADDRESS—
26, 28a, & 28, VAUGHAN ROAD, COLDHARBOUR LANE, S.E.
Telegrams, "Karno, Camberwell."
Telephone, Nos. 2341 Hop.

IT TAKES A HIT . . TO MAKE . . A HIT.

Bombay.

Good-bye Sweet Marie.

Give my Regards to Leicester Square.

My Daisiest Daisy.

When the Blue Moon Shines.

Meet me at the Bodega.

Nyomo.

The Cowslip and the Cow.

WRITE OR WIRE US IF YOUR SONGS FAIL.

THE ABOVE ARE SURE HITS.

B. FELDMAN & Co.
51, HIGH STREET, W.C.

FRANCIS, DAY, AND HUNTER.

The Music Market of the World.

PANTOMIME SONGS FOR SECOND EDITIONS
If you are not already using the following, send for them AT ONCE.

"MOLLY, I LOVE YOU."
Enormous Hit at the Theatre Royal, Manchester.

"RIDING ON TOP OF THE CAR."
The Rage of Birmingham, Bristol, and Manchester.

"SWEET LITTLE CARABOO."
The Big Hit in Robert Arthur, Esq.'s, Pantomimes.

"COME DOWN FROM THE BIG FIG TREE."
Great Success at Edinburgh.

"IN THE SHADE OF THE OLD APPLE TREE."
This is a great success in many Pantomimes, notably at Princess's Theatre, Glasgow.

"HOW'D YOU LIKE TO SPOON WITH ME?"
The Best Principal Girl Comedy Song of the year.

"IN BARCELONA."
A Furore at the Court Theatre, Liverpool.

"BACK, BACK, BACK, TO BALTIMORE."
AND
"PUT A LITTLE BIT AWAY FOR A RAINY DAY."
The Big Successes at the King's Theatre, Hammersmith

"MY IRISH MOLLY O," "I WOULDN'T LEAVE MY LITTLE WOODEN HUT FOR YOU," "RAINBOW," and "HEAR THE PIPERS CALLING, JENNY MINE."

"THE" PANTOMIME SUCCESSES of the YEAR

FRANCIS, DAY, & HUNTER,
Publishers of the World's most Popular Songs,
142, CHARING CROSS ROAD, LONDON, W.C.
Telephone: 5425 Gerrard.
Telegraphic Address: "Arpeggio, London."

MONTE CARLO PUBLISHING CO.,

3, BERNERS ST., OXFORD ST., W.

The Premier "Song-Placers."

6 NEW SONGS,
EVERY ONE A WINNER!

BAMBOO BUNGALOW,
By ALF. J. LAWRANCE and TOM MELLOR.

PYRAMID GIRL,
By H. K. HAMILTON FIELD.

SWEET EILEEN,
By ALF. J. LAWRANCE and HARRY GIFFORD.

ANY OLD PLACE WHERE THE SUN SHINES,
By PAUL PAULTON and ARTHUR VAN DIXIE.

MOLLY O'SHEA,
By JOHN P. HARRINGTON and FINLAYSON BELL.

TRY AN' FIND ANOTHER COON,
By PAUL PAULTON and TOM MELLOR.

PROFESSIONAL COPIES IN PREPARATION.

Apply early, as only a certain number of permissions will be granted.

IF POSSIBLE, CALL AND HEAR THEM.

MONTE CARLO PUBLISHING CO.,
3, BERNERS STREET, OXFORD STREET, W.
Telegrams, "Lyrical, London."
Telephone, 12805 Central.

YOUR OWN PICTURE POSTCARDS

Photo. by Hana.
MISS ETHEL MORDEN.

ZINC BLOCK AND 250 POSTCARDS 9s.

The Block can be used for Note-paper, Postcards, Memos., Business Cards, Advertisements, &c., &c.

THE above is an exact reproduction of one of our Picture Postcards, and, as you will see, they make excellent advertisements. All you have to do is to send us your Photograph, together with a Cheque or Postal Order, value 9s., and in two or three days we return you 250 Postcards with your Photograph on each—and a zinc block from which you can have 90,000 more copies printed.

When you have used the 250 Postcards—the cost is only 5s. each 250—you simply send us the block and remittance for the number you require.

The same block can be used for Note-paper, Memos., &c., &c.; the cost of same being 5s. each 250, type matter 2s. 6d. extra.

If you should wish it we shall be pleased to keep blocks for you free of charge, and print from them as and when desired. We have had long experience in process block making for Members of the Profession, and we assure you by placing your orders with us you will save time, trouble, and money.

We shall esteem it a favour to be allowed to advise you on any matter concerning process work, and trust you will give us a call should you be contemplating having any blocks made.

SAMPLES POST FREE ON APPLICATION.

Our Address is—

THE DEAN ENGRAVING CO.

WILL ROBERTS, Managing Director.
26, DEAN STREET, FETTER LANE, LONDON, E.C.

Telephones—309 Holborn, 565 Holborn. Telegrams—"Engravitem, London."

BEST, CHEAPEST, AND FASTEST Process Block Makers in the World.

"THE OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE AMERICAN THEATRICAL PROFESSION."
ON SALE WHEREVER THERE IS A PLACE OF AMUSEMENT.

NEW YORK DRAMATIC NEWS.

ISSUED WEEKLY with from 24 to 28 Pages, handsomely Illustrated, with Reports from over 1,000 Cities and Towns in the United States and the Foreign Stage, covered by Special Correspondents.

Has the exclusive patronage of Messrs. CHARLES FROHMAN, KLAW and ERLANGER, LIEBLER and CO., WILLIAM GILLETTE, NIXON and ZIMMERMAN, GEORGE EDWARDES, NAT C. GOODWIN, HENRY W. SAVAGE, and, in fact, every prominent Theatrical Manager.

Foreign Subscription, ONE POUND A YEAR. Advertising Rates, One Shilling per Line.

London Office, Clarence House, King William-street, E.C. JOHN PARKER, Manager.
Communications may be addressed to MAX ELIOT, Special London Correspondent, 3, Queen's Gate Terrace, S.W.

NEW YORK DRAMATIC NEWS,
BROADWAY THEATRE BUILDINGS, NEW YORK, U.S.A.

THE NEW YORK DRAMATIC MIRROR.

HARRISON GREY FISKE, Editor and President.

ESTABLISHED JAN. 4, 1879.

Publication Office: 121, WEST FORTY-SECOND-STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

Leading American Publication devoted to the Dramatic and Vaudeville Stage.
Correspondence from European Cities. Telegraphic Reports. Criticism.
On Sale at Norman's Agency, 33, Haymarket, S.W.; Pall-mall Exchange, Carlton-street, Regent-street, and elsewhere.
Subscription, £1 3s. per year. Single Copies, 6d.
Members of the Profession visiting America are invited to use the "Mirror's" Post-Office Facilities.

"THE AMERICAN GENTLEMEN'S WEEKLY."

SPORTS OF THE TIMES.

Offices: HAMILTON BUILDING, 22, THAMES-STREET, NEW YORK.

The Authority in its Departments.

The Turf, The Drama, The Trotting Track, Golf, Boating, Athletics, The Kennel, and Automobiling.

Subscriptions, 18s. a Year. Single Numbers, 6d.

Its Advertisements reach a Larger and Richer Constituency than in any other American Paper, and its Advertising Rates average less than One Shilling a Line.
Specimen Copies and Advertising Terms on application.

FIVE HUNDRED REPLIES

IN ANSWER
to
ONE ADVERTISEMENT in the

WANTED COLUMN

of

"THE ERA."

Mr. ALBERT HENGLER,
writing from the
HIPPODROME, GLASGOW. says:—
"MY ADVERTISEMENT
IN THE LAST ISSUE
OF YOUR PAPER
BROUGHT ME CLOSE
ON 500 REPLIES."

AN EXCELLENT RESULT.

Particulars of
THE PUBLISHER,
"THE ERA" BUILDINGS,
5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.
(Two Doors off Wellington-street).

FAIRS, SHOWS, WAKES.

70,000 SHOWMEN
OF THE
UNITED KINGDOM
REQUIRED TO SEND FOR THE

SHOWMEN'S YEAR BOOK

For 1905.
Edited by the Rev. T. HORNE.
Entirely Re-arranged, Corrected, and Enlarged. 100 Pages.

PRICE - - ONE SHILLING.

PRINCIPAL CONTENTS.

British Shows and Showmen.
Constitution and Rules of the "Showmen's Guild."
Lists of Fairs. Local Feasts and Wakes.
Synopsis of Bye Laws, &c., &c.

INVALUABLE TO ALL WHO FOLLOW THE FAIR

SOLD AT "THE ERA" BUILDINGS,
5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, LONDON, W.C.

VOICE TROUBLES.

PHONOZONE is a New and Successful constitutional remedy for all voice troubles. Readjusts relaxed throat, rapidly removes hoarseness. It is curative, not palliative, and gives tone, timbre, compass and endurance to the voice. Price 1s. 1½d. and 2s. 3d. Any chemist will obtain it if not on stock; or post paid from Vianozone Medicine Co., Dept. E, North Shields.

WHO Made the Blondin Donkey? W. HASSAN, Theatrical Property Artist, 31, UPPER MARSH LAMBETH. Panto. and Every Description of Props. made with Despatch and Finish. Ideas carried Out. Note Change of Address.

READY MONDAY, JANUARY 15.
THIRTY-NINTH YEAR OF PUBLICATION.
Price. ONE SHILLING; by Post, TWELVE STAMPS.
1906—THE ERA ANNUAL—1906
The Most Complete
DRAMATIC DICTIONARY OF DATES
and
THEATRICAL TREASURY OF KNOWLEDGE
ever brought before the Public.
It will also be found to be the most Interesting Annual of the Year.
Office, 5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, STRAND, W.C.

STAGE DOORS.
By E. M. ROBSON.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

MY OPENING NIGHT.
By BLAKE ADAMS.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

DEARER THAN LIFE.
By DORA GRAY.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

THE LAST MUSTER.
By JOSEPH WILSON.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

LANDLADIES I HAVE MET.
By EUGENE STAFFORD.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

MY FAVOURITE PART,
By VESTA TILLEY.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

THE DARK SEANCE.
By JOHN LAWSON.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

GOD'S GREATEST GIFT.
By ALEXANDRA DAGMAR.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

SOFTPEDAL'S LIMITATIONS.
By JOHN P. HARRINGTON.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

SONG OF THE STROLLING SINGERS.
By FRED BOWYER.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

THE OLD PIANO.
By LUSCOMBE SEARRELLE.
Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph.
See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

MUSIC HALL CARDS.

Alphabetically Arranged—Limited to Three Lines.

ARMENDO BROS., Two, Comedy Acrobats. Success on Broadhead's Tour. Lib. Mon., 15th, 2 weeks. Offers. Met., Openshaw.

ABADAROFFS, FOUR. Great Comedy Conception, "Prehistoric Peeps." Coms., 95, Stretford-road, Manchester.

ABEL and WELSH, Cirque Medrano, Paris.

ABEX, Miniature Hercules, Lifting Motor Car and Four Passengers with Teeth. Panto. Com., 41, Brunswick-street, Blackpool.

ACHMED IBRAHIM'S ARABS, Ten in number. World's Greatest Tumblers. 1, Major-rd., Bermondsey, London, S.E.

AKBAR, Gymnast; BELLA LEABURN, Comedienne. Vac. Jan. 22, 29. Add., Palace, Oldbury.

ALBANO TROUPE, Refined Musical Speciality. 38, Macdonald-st., Wavertree, Liverpool.

ALBERT, MISS LOTTIE, Comedienne. Permanent Address, 91, Ridgmount-gardens, Francis-st., Gower-st., W.C.

ALBERTO, HAROLD, Australia's Deceptionist, thanks Macdermott and Sheldon for Barrasford Tour.

ALBINI, London's Society Comedian and Mystery Merchant, on a Laughing Mission, Granville, Walham Green. Fifth Return.

ALBINI, BLANCHE, Big Success, this week, Hippodrome, Hastings; next, Hippodrome, Eastbourne; next vacancy, Jan. 22.

ALDRIDGE, ARTHUR, The Phenomenal Tenor. Palace, Halifax. See Back Page.

ALETHEA, The graceful Lady Contortionist and Gymnast. Return, London Pavilion, Jan. 15, Five Weeks.

ALEX and JOLLY, First-class Comedy 3-Bar Act. Palace, Portsmouth.

ALEXANDER'S, JOHN, Burlesque Company, Empire, Stratford.

ALMAR and OSTIEER, Triple Bars, Flying Rings, two turns, Liberty Monday, Wire, 37, Upper March, Lambeth, London.

ALMERO, Aerial Norwegian Spar and Smart Wire Act. Success Cooke's Circus, Edinburgh. Open for Galas; the Right Acts.

ALVANTEE, King of Slanting Wire, Opens Monday, Palace of Varieties, Swansea. Liberty 22nd or Later, England or Abroad or Galas.

AMEDA, MDLLE., Refined Novelty Entertainer, Panto., this week, Grand T., Rawtenstall. Next, T., Longton.

AMERICAINES, LES BELLES, This week, Grand Theatre, Derby; next, Royal Theatre, Preston. Agent, H. DAY.

ARAYAMA, The Japanese Wonder. Jan. 15, Pavilion, Southport.

ARIZONA TROUPE, Acrobatic Tumblers, Jugglers, and Foot Equilibrists. Theatre Royal, Warrington.

ASHDOWN, PERCY, Author, Composer, and Arranger. First-class work only. Lyric House, 1, Holland-street, Brixton, S.W.

ASHLEY BROS. "Next, Please." Argyle, Birkenhead. 15th, Empire, Dudley. G. BARCLAY, and FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

ASTLEY BROS. and FREDA TUDOR, Comedians and Male Impersonator. Big Success Panto., "Aladdin." Jan. 15, T. R., Leigh.

ATHLONES, THE, Refined Athletes. This, Hippo., Hull; next, Tivoli, Leeds. At Liberty, Jan. 22 and 29.

ATLAS and the Beautiful MISS VULCANA, the Society Athletes. World's Greatest Artists. T. R., Oldham. ATLAS Agency.

ATORAS, Comedy Athletes, Packing Houses, in London (moving), Vac 15th and 22nd. 17, Waterford-road, Fulham.

AUBREY, STAN (late Stan Martell, of Bennett and Martell), Panto., Jordison's "Cinderella." Jan. 15, Hippo., Preston.

AUSTIN, RUMBO. Resting, at 123, Kennington-road, S.E. Jan. 22, Empire, Bristol.

BACCHUS, WILL, Coster Comedian, Big Success, in New Songs. This, Pav., Leicester; next, Palace, Bradford.

BAKER and BALFE, Zoo, Hippodrome, Glasgow.

BANCROFT, HARRY, Terrific Success on Tour. Jan. 29, Chelsea Palace.

BANDONI, Original Concertina King One Man Band. Circus, Paisley. Monday, Return, Tivoli, South Shields.

BANZAI-PAREZ MUSICAL TROUPE, Victoria Hall, Weston. Next, Jubilee Hall, Weymouth. Perm., 151 Knutsford-rd., Warrington.

BAROUX and BION, "Robinson Crusoe." Opera House, Leicester.

BARRETT and KNOWLES, Theatre Royal, Glasgow. Agents, TOM SHAW and Co. "Are we Downhearted? No!"

BARTHOLOMEW, SISTERS, The smart and successful pair. Hip., Preston. 15th Palace, Lancaster.

BARTLETT, ROSE, Grand Theatre, Woolwich.

BARTON, MARIE, Tyrolean and Operatic Vocalist. Success Grand, Bolton. Requires Feb. 12 or 19. 124, London-rd., Sheffield.

BAWN'S AGENCY, 10, Victoria-parade, Balham-hill, London, S.W. 'Phone, 1178 Battersea. Tels., "Orderless, London."

BAYNE and HOPE (RONALD and EVELYN), in "An Emperor's Divorce." Jan. 15, Palace, Bath.

BEANLAND, CHARLES, Monday next, Empire, Wrexham.

BEATRICE, SISTERS, This, Palace, Tottenham; next, P. P., Portsmouth (Second Return). At Lib. Jan. 22 and Feb. 5. Wire or write.

BELFORD and MARS, The Postman and The Slavey. Finish tonight, P., Accrington; next, G. T., Rawtenstall.

BELL, CHARLES H., Comedian, Great Success with Herbert Darnley's Company. Next week, Empress, Brixton.

BELL, THE H. LESLIE, and LILLY PEARL CO., presenting "A Bit of String," Jan. 15, Hippodrome, Ashton-under-Lyne.

BELLA, MISS PATTIE, Principal Boy, "Forty Thieves." Theatre Royal, Plymouth.

BELLONG BROS., Pantomime with Mr. Milton Bode. Free March and April.

BELLONINI, W., On Tour. Agent, SIDNEY HYMAN.

BELROSE, GEO, & MAUD DE VELIN, Speciality Duettists and Soloists. Avenue T. Panto., Sunderland. Few Vacancies.

BENET, MR. HARRY, Proprietor Alhambra, Sandgate. Artists communicate FRED DURHAM'S Agency.

BENNETT and MARTELL, the Original Team. Metropole Theatre, Oppenshaw, Manchester.

BENT, HARRY, & CARLOTTA LUNN, Starring. Last week, Empire, Rochdale. Monday, Address Westminster, Liverpool.

BENTLEY'S VARIETY AGENCY, 169, Stamford-street, London, S.E. Telephone, No. 12,706, Central.

BERNARD, GEO., Modern Vocal Actor. "Now" is yours; "Then," may never be. Bow-wow. Monday. Empire Palace, Oldbury.

BERNARDO, Comedy Juggler, Theatre, Tyldesley. One good turn deserves another (return date).

BERRICK, TOM, Original Black Tit-bit. Concludes Avenue, Morpeth; Circus (Tudor's), Blyth. Vac. Jan. 15, 22. Offers invited.

BERT and DORA, Comedy Artists, Big Success, Empire, Ashton-u-Lyne. Wanted, Monday, Jan. 15. Wire or write.

BEST, CHAS. F., as MacBunker, the Mountebank. Palace, Derby.

BEVERLEY, NORA, With Mr. Gar Kiddie's "Bo-Peep" Co. Jan. 15, Lyceum, Sheffield.

BLANCHE and DIACOFF, World's Premier Cyclists; India, India, India. Address, C/o 86, Hornsby-rd., Bombay.

BLARNEY and KENNARD, Conclude Birchmore Minstrels. Vac. 15th and 22nd. 1, Sandringham-buildings, Charing Cross-rd.

BLISS and BLISS, Comedians. Next Week, Palace, Glasgow. G. and F. PEEL.

BLYTHE, MARIE, the Successful Contralto. Jan. 15, Hippo., Ashton-under-Lyne. Agents, S. M. HYMAN, LTD.

BOHEMIANS, THE (WILL & MADGE), Instrumentalists. The Palace, Bordesley; next, Empire, New Cross. GEO. FOSTER.

BON BONS, THE, the Original Comedy Acrobatic Trampolin Trap Scene. Harry Bon-Bon's Comedy Troupe.

BORELLI, SIGNOR and MADAME, En route to South Africa. Agents, T. SHAW and Co.

BOSANQUET, Great Success, Flora, Hamburg. This week, Hippodrome, Wigan. Cheered to the echo. Jan. 15, Empress, Brixton.

BOULTONS, THE, and MDLLE BARTENELLI. Grand Theatre, Woolwich, S.E. Vacant Sept. 16 onwards.

BOWERY BOYS, THE, SKETCH CO., in "Mixed," a smart new act, Vacant April 2, on. Panto., Grand T., Leeds.

BOYCE, FRANK, Vocal Comedian, Hippo., Stoke; Monday, Empire, Northampton.

BOYLE, MARCUS, My Bonny Boy. Permanent, 8, Lime-street, Hull.

BRADLEY and TRUMAN can Recommend Mrs. Salts' Apartments, 124, Haviland-road, Boscombe. Red Lion, Costock, Notts.

BRADY, JAMES, Tivoli Theatre, Grimsby.

BRAY, LOTTIE, Speciality Artist. Usual Sucess, E., Paisley. Monday Next, Hippodrome, Accrington.

BREWSTERS, THE, Novel Speciality Act. Hippodrome, Paris.

BRIGHT, LUIE O., Irish Com. and Dancer. Vac. Jan. 15 and 22. C/o Pringle, 27 Taylor-st., Townhead, Glasgow.

BRONSON SISTERS, Enormous Success in Mr. Peter Davey's Panto. "Puss in Boots." This week, Folkestone; Next, Eastbourne.

BROOKLANDS, THE (ETHEL and BELLA), Enormous Success, Second Boy and Girl, Prince's Theatre, Bradford. Encored nightly.

BROOKS, GEORGE H., Musical, Dramatic, and Variety Agent, 36, Shaftesbury-av., W. 'Phone, No. 2099 Gerrard.

BROOKS and ANDERSON'S New and Thrilling Musical Romance, "Visions of the Past." Re dates 38, Eccles-rd., Lavender-hill, S.W.

BROWN, PAPA, Agent, 8, Cleveland-house, Hackford-road, S.W. Telegraph address, "Jibbers, London."

BROWNIE, SISTERS, Dandini and Ugly Sister, R. A. P. Williams's Panto. Jan. 15, T., Dunfermline. Offers invited.

BUCKINGHAM, STEVE, Versatile Vocalist. Coms., 1, Henstridge Villas, St. John's Wood, London.

BURG, HAUD, and WISE, "Ye Brown Cow Inn," Coms., The Lodge, Quinton, near Birmingham.

BURNELLS, Panto, "Cinderella," Prince of Wales's Theatre, Birmingham. Get together, Boys, Get together.

BURTON'S AGENCY, Fargate, Sheffield, Artists, Managers, Requiring good useful diary date book, send P.O. 1/1.

BUSH, MISS SADIE, Contralto Vocalist, Fairy Godmother, "Cinderella." Jan. 15, Queen's Theatre, Gateshead.

CABAN'S Marvellous Sixteen Performing Ponies, Donkeys, and Dogs. Palace of Varieties, Boston.

CADLE'S AGENCY, 105 and 106, Strand. Telephone No. 1975. Gerrard.

CAINE, ANDIE, "Humorous History," Francis, Day, and H. Panto., Principal Comedian, Grand, Fulham.

CAMBO, The Musical Monkey. Liberty Monday. Wire, Music Hall, Inverness.

CAMERON, LOUDOUN, the Celebrated Conjurer. Success with New Act. Jan. 15, Grand, Sheffield. SLEY.

CARDEN and ZESCH (The Carigatis), Big Success, Elephant and Castle Theatre. Pantomime Agent, FRANK WEATHERSBY.

CARL and CARR, the Great Comedians, in "Fun Outside the Workhouse." Success Grand Opera H., Middlesbrough. (See Big Advt.).

CARLTON, HENRY, in his High-class Success, "One Night Only." Palace, Lancaster (return), CARNEY, J. H., a Comedian and Vocalist. This, Hippo., Dewsbury; next, E., Rochdale. At Lib. 22nd and 29th.

CARNEY, TOM, Hippodrome, Coventry, Finish to-night. At Liberty Jan. 15 and 22. Address, 13, Hollingsworth-street, Holloway, N.

CARR and ROSE (FRED and ADA), presenting "Any Old Thing You Like," "Hot or Cold." Broadhead's Hippo., Bury.

CELLOS, THE TWO, Refined and Genuine Musical Entertainers, Hippodrome, Dewsbury.

CHALLIS, FLORENCE, Tremendous Success in Australia with Monologues and Songs; returning home in Jan.

CHANDOS, THE TWO, Lib. Monday, 15th and onwards. Refined Comedy, Musical Act. Wire, or write, 55, Kenbury-st., Camberwell.

CHARD'S DOG CIRCUS, No Act could be a greater Success. Hippodrome, Glasgow. Vacant Monday.

CHARNLEYS, THE (ANNIE & EDIE), Bâton Manipulators, Duettists, and Dancers. Big Success Albert. Mon., Alhambra, Sandgate.

CHESTER and LEE'S Marionettes, Monday, Barnard's, Greenwich. No immediate vacancies.

CHEVALIER, MISS FLO, Vocalist and Comedienne, Concludes most Successful Week, Alhambra, Brighton; Monday, Palace, Glasgow.

CHIRGWIN, Resting, for Two Weeks.

CLARIBELL, FLORRIE, the Five Feet of Versatility, now Touring North. Communications to 12, The Crofts, Rotherham, Yorks.

CLAVER and PICCOLO, Sensational Equilibrist and Juggler. Jan. 15, Tivoli, Dublin. Vacant Jan. 22, 29, Feb.

CLEMENT TRIO, Refined Comedy Stage-Flying Trapeze Act. Address, Clement Trio, Hollydene, Hall Green, near Birmingham.

CLEMENTS, VENIE, As a "Baby," and other people. Big Success. The Bedford.

CLEVELANDS, THE, Opera House, Tunbridge Wells. America August.

CLIFF and KEAN Finish To-night, Pal., Dundee. Monday next, return, Empire, Paisley, after four weeks' absence.

CLIFFE, TOM E., Versatile Comedian and Eccentric Dancer. Successful numbers Palace, Portsmouth, two weeks, Sixth Return.

CLIFFORD, CHARLES, C.D.D., the Renowned Harpist and Humorist, on Tour. 15, Priory gardens, Highgate, London, N.

COLLINS, GEO., The Quaint Comedian, 14, Grosvenor-park, Camberwell, London, S.E.

CONLIN, HARRY, and ROSIE COLEMAN. 18, Walcot-gardens, Kennington-road, London.

COOKE, STEVE, Prince's, Portsmouth. Thanks to the Girls and Boys "Cinderella" Co. for Kindness.

CORDELIA, Luminous Danseuse; also Fairy Godmother, H. Barrs', Esq., "Cinderella." Theatre Royal, Hyde.

CORNISH, WILL, in his Unique Musical Bell Act. This week, Star (third date); next, The London (ninth date).

COSTELLO, BROS., Comedy Acrobats and Legmania Artists and Patter Comedians. This, People's Pal., Portsmouth.

COTTERELL, SID, and CO., In the Great Comedy Success, "The Substitute," Panto., Theatre Royal, Drury Lane.

COUSSELL and MILLS, "Musical Playlets," Moss-Stoll Tour. Empire, Hackney. Monday, Empire, Holloway.

COVERDALE, CHAS., Baron Acres and Grotesque Charity Footballist, "Cinderella" Pantomime, Belfast.

COWPERS, THE, "Missus' Double." Re Dates. Coliseum, London.

CRAIG, ROZE, and CRAIG, A Trio of the World's Leading Athletes. c/o "The Era."

CRANKS, ORIGINAL, Comical, Whimsical, Trick Cyclists. Vac. Jan. 16, 23. Perm., 19, Alexandra-road, Manchester.

CRESSER, MISS ADA, Stanley's Transformation Co., Jan. 22, Argyle, Birkenhead.

CROSS, JOLLY CRISS, the Popular Girl, Next Week, Hippo., Wakefield. At Lib. Jan. 29 and Feb. 5, Coms., Direct.

CULLEN and CARTHY, and LITTLE CLULEY. Enormous Success, Palace Theatre, Newcastle.

CURRY, PERCY, Idle Jack; ADA JENNER, Captain Cable, Huge Success, Prince's Theatre, Bradford.

DAINTON, MAUD, COMEDY CO., In Screaming Sketch, "Selina." Palace, Bristol, week. Vac. Jan. 22.

DALTON'S AGENCY, Wanted, Big Acts of all kinds. 5, Matlock-avenue, West Didsbury, Manchester.

D'ALVO, SISTERS, Speciality Dancers and Vocalists, New Songs, by Harrington and Le Brunn. This, Tivoli, Grimsby; next, Vacant.

DANBYS, THE, Ruffians, "Babes in the Wood." Vacant 1906-7. Offers. Grand Theatre, Nelson.

DANIELS, THE TWO, a Darkie's Holiday, on Tour ("Beauty and Beast"). Offers invited. 63, Sherbourne-road, Birmingham.

D'AUBYN, MINNIE, the Lady with a Voice. Always a success. This, Palace, Grimsby; next, Palace, Attercliffe.

DAUNTON-SHAW TROUPE, Australian Cyclists (Monarchs of the Wheel). Metropole T., Gateshead, Jan. 15.

DAVENTRY, SISTERS (DOLLY and MAY), Big Success, Title-rôle and Dandini, Pardoe's "Cinderella." Next, T. R., Ilkeston.

DAY'S VARIETY AGENCY, 116, Loughborough-road, Brixton, S.W. Always Vacancies for stars. Tele. 712 Brixton.

DAYTON FAMILY, THE, Jan. 15, Tivoli, Manchester.

DE GRUCHY'S "Britannia" Bioscopes, Success, The Circus, Hull. 2 weeks. Permanent address, Craigie-street, Glasgow.

DE HENAU and MDLLE. ALADINA. Phenomenal Marvellous Painter and Wonderful Cockatoos. Surrey Theatre, London, S.E.

DELEVINES, THE, in Original Comedy, "The Bell Inn." Euston Music Hall.

DENBY and DENT, Pantomime Success. Gaiety Theatre, Leith, N.B. Free for 1906-7.

DENHAM, MILLIE, the Sprightly Burlesque Actress. Tremendous Success this week, P., Glasgow; Mon., Hippo., Huddersfield.

DE ROSE, MDLLE., J. H. HAWTREY, Principal Boy. Malicio. J. Kiddie's "Cinderella," Prince's T., Portsmouth.

DE VENA, MDLLE., the Queen of Clubs, a Unique Juggling Act, Hippodrome, Dewsbury. Monday, Ohmy's Circus, Leigh, Lancs.

DE VOYE, JAMES, and BILLY, His Wonderful Educated Pony. Success Everywhere. Next week, Grand, Bolton.

DIAMOND, HARRY, Comedian and Dancer. Relinquished panto., illness. Pleased to hear from Friends. 30 Gilmour-st., Glasgow.

DIXON, CHARLEY, KATE LYND, Very great, "Jock from Kilmarnock." Metropole, Manchester; Monday, Var., Leeds.

DIXONS, TWO, Empire P., Dudley. Sole Agent, DE VERE.

DOBITO and BUXTON, Refined Vocalists. Genuine Success. Mon., King's, Kirkcaldy. H. DAY.

DOLF, SIDNEY DOLF, Jan. 15, Pavilion, Leicester. Should like to hear from friends any time.

DOLLY, AGNES, and MAUD, The Factory Nightingales. Originality and ability. Mon., return, Hippodrome, Dewsbury.

DOMINOS, TWO, Clown and Donkey, Educated Talking Arabian Donkey. Lib., March 5. Cook's Circus, Edinburgh.

DONANS, LOS, Gymnasts, Big Success, This, Hippo., Wakefield; next, return, Hippo., Dewsbury. Perm, 11, Derby-st., Hulme, Manchester.

DONNA and CLIFF, Monday next, Palace, Lancaster. "Everybody Works but Father."

DORMER, DAISY, Principal Girl, Tyne Theatre, Newcastle.

DORRIS, MISS RUTH, The Dainty Singing Maiden. Monday, Jan. 15, Empire, Leeds.

DOYLE and GIBSON, Comedians, Mr. John Walters' Panto. Next, Theatre Royal, North Shields.

D'S THE TWO (DOROTHY and DORA), New Act in Active Rehearsal. Address, c/o "The Era."

DUCKETT, BERTHA, Charming Comedienne and Dancer, Jan. 15, Bijou Empire, Hull. 11, Arnold-street, Liverpool.

DUNCAN and MORTON, Comedians, Continued Success, "Broker's Men." Next, Theatre Royal, Hyde.

DUNEDIN TROUPE, Going to America. For Sale, Happy Home, cheap, Six Furnished Rooms. 35, Walcot-square, Kennington-rd.

DURHAM'S, FRED, Variety Agency. Telephone, 15, Brixton. 1a, Loughborough-road, Brixton, London, S.W.

DU ROCHE, MDLLE., Principal Boy, Griffin and Drake's Panto., "Cinderella," Albert T., Brighouse; next, Q. T., Gateshead-on-Tyne.

EDISON, CONNIE, the Lady Electrician, in her Latest Speciality Act. Disengaged Feb. 17. 22, Penton-street, N.

ELCOCK, AMY, and FLORRIE ST. ROY. Great success Woolwich. Vac. Monday (few weeks). 1, Castle-st., Stoke Newington, N.

ELEONORA, Lady Gymnast; also LA BELLE TOSCA, Two or Three Acts, Vacant Jan. 29, on. Add., 30, G. King-st., Macclesfield.

ELGARS, THE ORIGINAL (WALTER and ELLA), Operatic Scena and Speciality Duettists. Next, Parthenon, Liverpool. No vacs.

ELLA'S, MISS, Best existing Lion Show. Empire, Stratford.

ELLIOTT, MADGE, Success, Palace, Lancaster. All communications to Sole Business-Manager, B. DELMAR, 29, Lorn-road, Brixton.

ELLIOTT, THE ORIGINAL SILLY BILLY. Great success in Panto., "Cinderella," Avenue T., Sunderland. "Its' a nice day."

ELLIOTTS and SAVONAS, Musicians, Cyclists, &c. Jan. 15, Victoria Theatre, Stanley.

ELLISON, J. W., the Popular Light Comedian. Next, Hippo., Hull. All coms. to sole agent, BENTLEY, 169, Stamford-st. 12706 Cen.

ELMO, NINA, Comedienne, Hippodrome, Eastbourne (return). Next week, Barnard's, Chatham (return). DAY's Agency.

ELTON and ELMA, Smartest Knockabout Three Bar Act on the Road. Free Jan. 29. Communications, Tivoli, Grimsby.

ELVIN, JESSIE, and CO., Gigantic Success, "On the Boards," Palace, Bow. London Production shortly, "A Gipsy's Revenge."

ENDON, EDIE, Big Pantomime Success, Principal Dancer, Alex. Theatre, Sheffield, Till further Notice.

EPLETT, KATIE, FRANK ZARA, Comedienne and Dancer, Comedian, Raconteur. Per. add., 44, Greenheys-lane, Manchester.

ERICK, FRED, Comedian, Big Hit this week, Hippo., Stoke-on-Trent. Agent, STEBBINGS, Manchester.

ESCOTT, ALBERT, Rose and Crown, Hounslow; opposite Palace. Always at home. Recommended by H. Leslie Bell.

ESDALE BROS., Novelty Comedians. First vacancy June 4. This, Park Palace, Liverpool. Monday, Paddington.

EUSTACE, FRED, Jan. 15, "The Amber Light," South London. Jan. 22, "Our Curate," Granville, Walham Green.

FAME, PEGGY, Alice, a Pronounced Success, Monday, T. R., Norwich; HARRY WRIGHT, Emperor and Stage-Manager.

FAWN, MISS ADA, Palace, Derby. Monday, Pavilion, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

FIMANS, THE, Vaudeville Act. Touring England, May, 1906.

FINDEN, MR. and MRS. HAROLD, Empire, New Cross.

FIONI'S, JAMES, AGENCY, 21, Norton-street, Liverpool. Telegrams, "Fioni, Liverpool." 'Phone, 1,586 Royal.

FITZROYS, Moss Tour. Jan. 15, Palace, Hull.

FLORADORA GIRLS, Enormous Success Queen's, Glasgow, "Aladdin" Panto. Mon., Hippo., Stockton. Few Vacs. E. DE VERE.

FLORIZELL, ORIGINAL, Away From all others; this week, Pier Pavilion, Southport; next, Tivoli, Dublin.

FORD and HANSON, American Musical Millionaires. Address, Midland Hotel, Hull.

FORDYCES, THE, Last Week, Fifth Return, Tivoli, South Shields, this, Terrific Success; New Hippodrome, Stockton.

FORREST, EDGAR, COMEDY COMPANY. Monday, Start Stoll Tour, Empire, Hackney.

FORTUNE and GRANVILLE, Savoy House, 115, Strand, London, W.C. Telegrams, "Waggishly." 'Phone, 1,309, Gerrard.

FOX and MELVILLE, Premier Song Illustrators, Moss and Stoll Tour. Re-booked. Care of F.V. St. Clair, Hest Bank, Morecambe Bay.

MISS WINNIE STANHOPE,
At Lib. Soubrette, Juvenile Comedy.
Address c/o "The Era."

MISS BLANCHE STANLEY
(Mrs. S. MAJOR JONES). Dis., Com. Char. or Old Woman. 101, Sugden-road, S.W.

MRS. E. STATHAM STAPLES
(May St. Aubyn).
1, Prima-road, Brixton, S.W.

MISS BLANCHE STEELE,
W. H. Hallatt's Co., "The Temptress."
Theatre Royal, Smethwick, Jan. 22, 6 nights.

MISS SYLVIA STELLA,
Felicia (Lead), "Sailors of the King."
Jan. 22, King's Theatre, Gateshead.

MISS GERTRUDE STERROLL,
At Liberty.
Letters, &c., 121, Kennington-road, S.E.

MISS EDITH STEWART,
"100 to 1 Chance."
Jan. 22, Empire, Liverpool.

MISS V. ST. LAWRENCE,
Disengaged.
68, Trouville-road, Clapham Park, S.W.

MISS ADELAIDE STONEHAM,
Disengaged. Musical Comedy, &c.
64, Gloucester-crescent, Regent's Park.

MISS MAUD E. STONOR,
Disengaged.
39, Hampton-place, Brighton.

MISS MURIEL THOMPSON,
Karie Louise,
"A Royal Divorce."

MISS N. THORNE-HALLAM,
Lead, Miss MARGUERITE THORNE.
Disengaged, Char. parts. 22nd, T. R., Torquay.

MISS ADA TILLEY,
Grand Chief, "Sleeping Beauty," Grand, Birmingham. Offers invited for Spring.

MISS MARION TURNER,
H. Chattell's "Revenge" Co.
Address, 16, Mill-lane, Hampstead, N.W.

MISS ELLA VANE, Leading Business,
Mr. George Kirk and Miss Mary Neil's Co.
Jan. 22, T. R., Lincoln.

MISS HILDA VAUGHAN.
Change of Address,
6, Cosway-street, South Stafford-street, N.W.

MISS PATIENCE VYNE, Special
Engagement, Mrs. Sinden, "A Doll's House"; Edith, "Maker of Men." D. P. T., Eastbourne.

MISS MARION WAKEFORD,
Joan, in "Home Sweet Home."
Jan. 22, Athenæum, Lancaster.

MISS NELLIE WALTERS, an Accomplished Actress, Expert Danseuse, and Clever Costumiere. Dis. Spring and on; O. H., Perth.

MISS ANENA WALTON,
Principal Soubrette. Dis. Offers invited.
11, West Clowes-st., Eccles New-rd., Salford.

MISS FRANCES WARING,
Lillian Harborne, "Her Luck in London."
Jan. 29, T. R., Lincoln.

MISS FLO WARNER,
Great Success, Hippodrome, Stockton; next, King's, Manchester. Thank B. Armstrong.

MISS ADA WATSON,
Princess Soo Soo, Mr. G. Dance's "A Chinese Honeymoon." Theatre, Dudley.

MISS DAVIES WEBSTER,
Address,
38, Flanders-mansions, Bedford Park, W.

MISS MAUDE WESTERN, Big Success
as Will Scarlett, "Babes in the Wood."
Rotunda Theatre, Liverpool (four weeks).

MISS MARIE WESTON
commences Moss and Stoll Tour, Feb. 5.
Perm. address, 92, Mersey-road, Walthamstow.

MISS FRANCES WETHERALL,
Disengaged.
6, Rectory-chambers, Church-street, Chelsea, S.W.

MISS FRANCES WHITE,
Disengaged.
45, Bessborough-gardens, S.W.

MISS JENNIE WIGNEY, Second Year
as Eliza, in Mr. J. A. Hybert's
"Uncle Tom's Cabin" Co. Dis. Spring.

MISS LILLA WILDE,
Starring as Lady Brandon, "Power of Gold" Co. Theatre Royal, Radcliffe.

MISS KATHLEEN WILLOUGHBY,
Disengaged, Juvenile Lead or Light Comedy.
Add., 52, Cambridge-man., Battersea Park, S.W.

MISS DRUSILLA WILLS,
Low Comedy and Character. Disengaged.
Address, 28, Biddulph-mansions, Elgin-avenue, W.

MISS GRACE WILSON,
Permanent address,
25, Flanchford-road, Stamford Brook-road, W.

MISS KATE WINGFIELD,
Disengaged.
Address, 67, Elm Park-mansions, Chelsea, S.W.

MISS MARIE WRIGHT,
At Liberty.
67, Oxford-road, Gunnersbury, W.

MR. FRED ACTON,
Disengaged March. Frank Denman Wood's Panto. Co. Albert Theatre, Brighouse, Yorks.

MR. ADAM ALEXANDER,
Principal Old Men. Disengaged.
Address, 71, St. George's-road, S.E.

MR. ALEC ALEXANDER, Disengaged. Jan. 29, Juv., Leading Bus., tall. Ref., H. Bedford. Jan. 22, O. H., Tunbridge Wells.

MR. A. HYLTON ALLEN,
6 Worsley-road,
Hampstead, N.W.

MR. HENRY ARMSTRONG,
Compton Comedy Co.,
Jan. 22, Royal, Huddersfield.

MR. WELDON ATHERSTONE
Invites Offers. Leading Business.
Add., 8, Clifton-gardens, Prince of Wales's-rd., S.W.

MR. WILLIE ATOM, Small Comedian
(4ft. 4in.). No deformities. Comedy Boy Parts a Speciality. 26, St. George's-rd., Brighton.

MR. CYRIL AUSTEN - LEE,
Horace Parker, "A Message from Mars."
Opera House, Leicester.

MR. WILFORD BAILEY, Principal
Character Comedian, "Proof" Co.,
Metropole Theatre, Glasgow, Six Nights, Jan. 22.

MR. MAURICE E. BANDMANN,
Annual Tour of the World.
Address, care of "The Era."

MR. ARTHUR J. BARCLAY,
Manager of the Palace, Walthamstow.
Address, Parkside, The Drive, Walthamstow

MR. A. L. BARON, at Liberty, Strong
Character Parts; PHYLLIS LOVEL, Juvs., Small Parts. Wire or write, Bracewell, nr. Skipton.

MR. J. J. BARTLETT,
Address,
12, Angel-road, Hammersmith.

MR. CHARLES B. BEDELLS,
Supporting Miss Florence St. John, in "My Milliner's Bill," Palace Theatre, Hull.

MR. HENRY BELDING,
Disengaged.
Address, 2, Stoke Newington Common, London, N.

MR. and MRS. SOMERS BELLAMY
(Miss Madge Haines), Panto., Shakespeare T., S.W. Spring, H. B. Tree's "Oliver Twist Co."

MR. IVAN BERLYN,
"Aladdin" Pantomime, Grand T. Disengaged February. 35, Castle-terrace, Edinburgh.

MR. CHARLES BOULT,
Arrangements Complete.
50, Crystal-rd, Blackpool.

MR. CLIFFORD BOWN.
Comedy, Character, &c.
Letters, 32, Church-road, Moseley, Birmingham.

MR. and MRS. T. B. BRABAZON
(Lillian Murray),
19, Farcliffe-place, Manningham, Bradford.

MR. BRABOURNE,
Comedy, Engaged, Coronet Theatre
(by permission of Mr. George Edwardes).

MR. HARRY BRAYNE,
Mrs. Twankey,
Theatre Royal, Birmingham.

MR. CONINGSBY BRIERLEY,
Principal Comedian, "Robin Hood."
Address, Grand Aquarium, Brighton.

MR. & MRS. F. DUDMAN BROMWICH
(Miss Katie Neville), The Eton Hotel, Adelaide-rd, Haverstock Hill, N.W.

MR. JOHN BURTON
and Miss ALICE MAZZONI. Disengaged.
263, Windsor-avenue, Gateshead.

MR. HENRY BUTE, Character,
Comedy and Old Men. Disengaged. 59, Bramfield-road, Wandsworth Common, S.W.

MR. JOHN CABOURN,
4, Yale-court,
West Hampstead, N.W.

MR. CARTHAGE CALDCLEUGH,
General Manager, Fred Granville's Pantomime, "The Forty Thieves," Royal, Middlesbro'.

MR. and MRS. HARRY CANE,
H. C., Re-engaged by Mr. Willard, America; Mrs. C. Disengaged. 22, Linden-gardens, W.

MR. STANLEY CARLTON, Leads or Management. Dis. Jan. 27. Good Offers Invited. Concluding, "Grip of Iron" Co. Seacombe.

MR. LESLIE CARTER,
at Liberty for Leading Business.
1, Claverton-street, St. George's-square, S.W.

MR. HAROLD CHAPIN,
Address,
Theatre Royal, Drury Lane.

MR. and MRS. GEORGE CHILD
(Frances Bruce), G. C., Special Week, Sam James's Stock Company. T. R., Croydon.

MR. DICKIE CLARE,
Principal Comedian,
Jan. 22, T. R., Chesterfield.

MR. E. BELLENDEN CLARKE,
Disengaged.
Town or First-class Tour. 55, King-st., Southport.

MR. J. H. CLYNDES,
"A Royal Revenge."
Pavilion Theatre, Altrincham.

MR. HARRY COLBECK,
Father Lamplugh, "The Christian."
T. R., Llanelly.

MR. C. F. COLLINGS,
Savoy Theatre, "Lights Out,"
Address, 14, Berners-street, W.

MR. PERCY COMPTON, Principal
Com. and Char. At Lib. owing term. "Lady from London." 5, Church-ter., Richmond, Surrey.

MR. FRED CONQUEST,
Pantomime,
Prince's Theatre, Bristol.

MR. TOM W. CONWAY,
Baroness,
Brixton Theatre.

MR. BERNARD COPPING,
Lead, MISS ISA BELLINGTON, Comedy.
Miss Maud Hildyard's Co., Pier Pav., Eastbourne.

MR. J. W. CORDINER,
"Dare-Devil Dorothy" (fifth year).
Jan. 22, New Theatre, Consett.

MR. ARTHUR CORNELL,
Disengaged.
Address, 28, Perham-rd., West Kensington, W.

MR. THOS. COURTICE, Business
Manager for Charles Frohman, Esq., "Catch of the Season" Co., Letters, 9, Oval-road, N.W.

MR. ERNEST H. G. COX,
Adrien, "Lost in Paris."
8, Darlan-mansions, Fulham, S.W.

MR. HARRY J. CRANE,
Disengaged.
198, Barry-road, East Dulwich, London, S.E.

MR. W. CRONIN - WILSON,
"Saints and Sinners," "The Middleman," on Tour. Per. Add., The Cottage, Mimbridge, Woking.

MR. JULIAN CROSS,
Disengaged.
Address, 13, Eglantine-road, Wandsworth, S.W.

MR. ARTHUR CURTIS,
Disengaged Jan. 26.
Shaftesbury Theatre.

MR. ROBERT J. DANSON,
Address,
12, Blomfield-road. Maida Vale, W.

MR. COLEMAN DAVIES, Disengaged,
Comedy, Character, Lead, or Pantomime (Baron or Dame). Wire, Theatre, Colwyn Bay.

MR. HAMILTON DEANE,
Heavy Lead, "Rogues of the Turf" Tour.
Prince's Theatre, Preston (six nights).

MR. GEORGE DELAFORCE,
Disengaged. Principal Comedy.
14, Burchell-road, Peckham.

MR. HENRY DE SOLLA, Produced
Panto., for G. B. Phillips, Esq., Stage Management, Lawyer Slyfox, Empire T., Southend.

MR. JOHN W. DEVERELL,
Engaged by Mr. James Welch,
Terry's Theatre.

MR. DAWSON DEWICKE,
Comedian, the Baron, "Bo Peep" Panto.,
Monday, Jan. 22, Empire, Oldham.

MR. OSWALD DOUGLAS,
and MARY AISLIE,
2, St. George's-square, Regent's Park, N.W.

MR. WELLESLEY DRAPER,
E. Hill-Mitchelson's "Revenge" Co.
T. R., Bury, Six Nights.

MR. CECIL DU GUE,
Starring in "The Still Alarm."
Junction Theatre, Manchester.

MR. ALBERT C. DUNCAN,
Business-Manager, "Sleeping Beauty" Panto.
Grand Theatre, Birmingham.

MR. T. W. DUNSCOMBE,
500th Performance, Gouffet, "The Face at the Window." Jan. 22, Torquay.

MR. CHARLES A. EAST
Producer and S. M., "Babes in the Wood."
Disengaged Spring. T. R., Sheffield.

MR. & MRS. ERNEST C. EDWARDS
(Miss Bella Power). Major Stretton and Lady Charlotte, "The Cotton Spinner." T., Greenwich.

MR. and MRS. ROBERT ENTWISTLE
(Miss Lester-Stephens). Disengaged Jan. 29. Light Comedy. Next week, Gaiety, Hastings.

MR. PATRICK EVANS,
On Tour.
This week, Nuneaton; next, Accrington.

MR. EDWARD FENTON,
Disengaged, Character Comedy.
13, Claverton-street, S.W., or A. A.

MR. and MRS. ARTHUR FERRISS,
J. H. Saville's "Sleeping Beauty."
Panto. Invited, 1906 and '07. Address, P. T., Perth.

MR. HUGH FLEMING, Acting-
Manager, Mr. Eade Montefiore's "Babes and Robin Hood." Grand Theatre, Nottingham.

MR. and MRS. ROBERT FORSYTH
(Miss Mariette Hyde). Disengaged.
107, Camberwell New-road, S.E.

MR. HILTON FRANCES,
"Jack, the Giant Killer" Co. This and next, Gaiety, Leith.

MR. & MRS. CHARLES FRANMORE.
Address,
22, Osborne-street, Oldham-road, Manchester.

MR. WALTER B. FREEAR, Comedian and Eccentric Dancer (Short), at Lib. Musical Comedy. 24, Poulton-square, King's-road, Chelsea.

MR. and MRS. HERBERT FULLER,
Disengaged, Lead and Comedian,
Wire, Theatre, Uddingston, N.B.

MR. W. H. GARBOIS
As Ellis Jordan, "A Wife's Triumph."
En route.

MR. W. V. GARROD, Rehearsing
Shylock, Special Performance of "The Merchant of Venice," Liverpool. 3, March-rd., Anfield.

MR. and MRS. WILLIE GARVEY
(Kitty Jones), Panto.,
Opera House, Perth.

MR. HENRY GEORGE,
Stephen Macpherson, in "The Prodigal Son."
Rehearsing Drury Lane Theatre.

MR. ALFRED GODDARD,
Leading Business.
Address, 10, King-street, Covent Garden, W.C.

MR. DOUGLAS GORDON,
Disengaged.
Address, T. R., Plymouth.

MR. CLIFFORD GRAHAM'S AGENCY,
8, Campden House-road, Kensington, W.
'Phone, 2260 Western. Tele., "Cliffalla, London."

MR. and MRS. A. CARLAW GRAND
(Miss Rollo Deas) Disengaged, Light Comedy.
Address, 4, Parkshot, Richmond, Surrey.

MR. ROBERT GREY,
Address,
74, Doddington-grove, Kensington, S.E.

MR. FRED GROVE,
Disengaged till Feb. 10.
6, Court-road, West Norwood, S.E.

MR. LAURENCE GROVE,
at Liberty. Juvenile and Light Comedy Parts.
Add., 69, Huron-rd., Upper Tooting, S.W., or A.A.

MR. CHARLES HALLING, Ross
Christian, "The Manxman," Mr. A. B. Cross's Co. Lyceum Theatre, Pentre, S. Wales.

MR. AUGUSTUS HAMMOND,
Producer and Stage-Manager, "Puss in Boots."
Lyceum Theatre, Govan, Glasgow.

MR. HUBERT HARBEN,
"Stephen Undershaft" in "Major Barbara."
Court Theatre.

MR. A. C. HARDIE,
Queen's Theatre,
Manchester.

MR. FRANK HARDING.
Address, all Coms., 21, Argyll-mansions, King's-road, Chelsea, S.W. T. No. 2077, Ken.

MR. W. S. HARDY,
Father Gerard and Business Manager,
"The Midnight Wedding."

MR. FREDERICK HARKER,
Disengaged Jan. 29.
C/o Mrs. Wakeley, 55, Newtown-lane, Cradley Heath.

MR. CHARLES HARLEY,
Disengaged.
13, Western-road, Ealing, W.

MR. FRANCIS HAWLEY,
Business Manager, "The Earl and the Girl."
Jan. 22, King's Theatre, Kilmarnock.

MR. R. CALVERT HAWS, late "Walls of Jericho," Shaftesbury. Dis Juveniles, L. Com., Dudes. 13, Upper Bedford-place, W.C.

MR. T. P. HAYNES,
Address,
Scala Theatre, W.

MR. CHAS. HERBERTE, at Liberty
for Robust Character Comedy, Old Men, or Sketch. 92, Rectory-road, Fulham, S.W.

MR. A. T. HILTON,
Disengaged.
Address, 31, Crowndale-road, N.W.

MR. A. S. HOMEWOOD,
Disengaged.
Address, 86, The Drive, Fulham Park-gardens, S.W.

MR. ALFRED H. HOOK,
Touring, "The Prodigal Son."
Jan. 22, New Theatre, Aberdare.

MR. and MRS. GEORGE HOWARD
(Miss Clara Earle), "The Cherry Girl."
West Pier, Brighton.

MR. and MRS. WILSON HOWARD
(Miss Carlotta Anson),
"Claudian" Co., T. R., Stockport.

MR. and MRS. C. H. HUGHES
(Eleanor Papera), Disengaged.
Perm. Add., 178, Kennington-road, S.E.

MR. and MRS. HORACE HUNTER
(Miss Lily Hammersley), at Liberty, Leads, Heavies. Address, 348, Kennington-road, S.E.

MR. RALPH HUTTON,
Disengaged.
9 Grafton-mansions, Duke's-rd, W.C.

MR. A. B. IMESON,
Third year Leading Business with Mr. Edward Compton. Young Marlow. T. R., Huddersfield.

MR. ROBERT A. INNES,
Sixth Year with Mr. John Hart.
Address all communications to Grand T., Leeds.

MR. and MRS. FREDERIC JACQUES
(Miss M. Rayner), offers invited, Spring and on. Soubrette (con.), and Char. 52, Crowndale-rd.

MR. G. WALLACE JOHNSTON,
Backbite, Hastings, Capt. Smooth, &c.
Compton Comedy Co., T. R., Huddersfield.

MR. T. ARTHUR JONES,
Touring the Success, "Life's Sweetest Sins."
Address, 26, Wightman-road, Finsbury-park, N.

MR. S. MAJOR JONES,
Producer and Stage-Manager, "Forty Thieves," Shakespeare T., Clapham. Dis. Jan. 29.

MR. THEODORE JONES and ADA
MANSFIELD. Friar Tuck and Mother Shipton, in "Babes in the Wood." R., Halifax.

MR. F. JOYNSEN - POWELL,
"Talleyrand," Scala Theatre.
Address, 49, Waldemar-avenue, Hurlingham, S.W.

MR. WHITFORD KANE,
Re-engaged by Mr. LOUIS CALVERT.
Address, 10, King-street, Covent Garden.

MR. OGILVY KEITH.
Address,
Charlmont, Western-parade, Southsea.

MR. and MRS. EDGAR KENT (Ada
Clarke), "Saints and Sinners." "The Middleman" on Tour. Perm., Shelton, Stoke-on-Trent.

MR. CLAUDE KING,
in "The Fascinating Mr. Vandervelt."
Daly's Theatre, New York.

MR. CECIL KINGSLEY,
Garrick Theatre,
W.

MR. J. POOLE KIRKWOOD,
John Forman, in "Sherlock Holmes."
Jan. 22, Pavilion Theatre, London, E.

MR. AUGUSTINE KNIGHT,
Disengaged. Leading Business.
19, Dunalley-parade, Cheltenham.

MR. FRED KNIGHT, Disengaged,
Robust, Old Men, Comedy, Character.
C/o 35, Graham-road, Upper Mitcham, S.W.

MR. RICHARD HENRY LACE.
Address, 10, King-street, London, W.C.
Permanent address, 19, Parkfield-drive, Liscard.

MR. JAMES R. LA FANE,
Manager and Stage Director, Mr. Mouillot's Panto., "Aladdin," St. Julian's Theatre, Guernsey.

MR. ERSKINE LANG as Lord Down in "Mr. Popple," Apollo Theatre; or 5J, Oxford and Cambridge-mansions, W.

MR. and MRS. CHARLES LANGLEY
(Jessie Price). Dis. Jan. 29.
3, Mornington-crescent, N.W.

MR. WINGOLD LAWRENCE,
Lead, every evening.
Standard Theatre, E.

MR. EDWIN LEVER,
Disengaged. Heavies, Character, Old Men.
Address, 161, Cambridge-street, Pimlico, London.

MR. D. LEWIN - MANNERING,
Address,
35, Maclise-road, Kensington, W.

MR. H. LAWRENCE LEYTON,
playing Sherlock Holmes.
Next, Pavilion E.; Dalston to follow.

MR. ARDENE LINDEN,
Principal Character Comedy, Disengaged.
51, Victoria-st., Manningham-lane, Bradford.

MR. EDWIN LING,
S.M. and Character. Offers invited.
KISHMET, Wolsey-road, Esher.

MR. FRANK LISTON,
Heavies, King Charles II. in "The Orange Girl." 22nd, Hippo., Liverpool.

MR. and MRS. FRANK LITCHFIELD
Disengaged. Character, Old Women, Rough Chambermaids. Address, 444, Munton-road S.E.

MR. and MRS. SAM LIVESEY
(Miss Maggie Edwards)
"The Village Blacksmith" Co., O. H., St. Helens.

MR. FEWLASS LLEWELLYN,
"Lights Out," Savoy Theatre, W.C.
28, Chelverton-road, Putney.

MR. WILLIAM LOCKHART.
"Sunday" Co.
Grand Theatre, Swansea.

MR. T. RENAUD LOCKWOOD,
Lord Robert Ure, "The Christian,"
Jan. 22, Her Majesty's Theatre, Aberdeen.

MR. and MRS. WILLIAM LOWE,
Disengaged.
Address, 7, Bridson-street, Liverpool.

MR. and MRS. FREDERICK LOYD
(Miss Florence Creagh). Engaged by F. G. Brooke and Fred Southern, 71 St. George's-rd., S.E.

MR. WILLIAM LUGG,
Disengaged.
7, Swift-street, Fulham, S.W.

MR. GEORGE F. MACKARNESS,
Mr. Henry Furnival's "Lost in Paris" Co.
En route.

MR. and MRS. CHALMERS MACKEY.
Own Tour, "Wearin' o' the Green."
En route, or Ashdale, Poulton-le-Fylde, Lancs.

MR. & MRS. WILLIAM MACLAREN
(Miss Lily C. Bandmann). Own company in "Claudian." Opera House, Stockport.

MR. J. T. MACMILLAN,
Address,
Grand Theatre, Nottingham.

MR. & MRS. WILLIAM MALLALIEU,
"The Freedom of Suzanne" Co. Perm.
Address, 20, Cambridge-gardens, Hanwell, W.

MR. and MRS. W. MANFREE (Amy
Wood) and AMY MANFREE, "Silver King" Co. (4th tour). Jan. 22, West London Theatre.

MR. MAITLAND MARLER,
Cogia, "The Forty Thieves."
Marlborough Theatre, N.

MR. PERCY MARSHALL,
Carbury, "Lady of Ostend" Co.
Jan. 22, Carmarthen and Tenby.

MR. ROLANDO MARTIN,
Idle Jack,
Dalston Theatre, London, every Evening. Thanks.

MR. WALTER MAXWELL.
Address,
Vaudeville Theatre, London, W.C.

MR. HENRY W. MAY.
All Kinds of Music Composed and Orchestrated. Pantomimes, &c. Add., C/o "The Era."

MR. ERIC MAYNE,
Disengaged. Lead or General Management.
1, South-place, Kennington Park.

MR. QUINTON McPHERSON,
at Liberty for Character or Comedy parts.
18, Bonneville-gardens, Clapham Park, S.W.

MR. LONNEN MEADOWS,
Yellow Dwarf, and producer Grand, Birmingham. Offers invited for Spring.

MR. CHARLES MEDWIN,
Duke of York's and Tour of "Peter Pan."

MR. WILLIAM J. MILLER,
Robespierre, "The Throne of Terror."
Alhambra Theatre, Dudley Port.

MR. HUGH MONTGOMERY,
MARIE HARCOURT, Napoleon and Marcel,
"Napoleon the Great" Co. T. R., North Shields.

MR. G. MORETON-WILLIAMS,
"The Breed of the Treshams" Tour.
4, Graham-road, Dalston, N.E.

MR. ALFRED NORTHWAY,
Vacation,
57, Warrington-crescent, W.

MR. & MRS. DRELINCOURT ODLUM
(Dorothy Carington). Disengaged.
84, Ruskin House, Herrick-st, Westminster, S.W.

MR. GUS OXLEY,
Daly's Theatre,
London, W.

MR. LEONARD PAGDEN,
With "Sunday."
Jan. 22, Swansea.

MR. and MRS. ROBSON PAIGE
(Mabel Syringa),
Address, 10, Ospringe-road, N.W.

MR. and MRS. MARK PATON
(Miss MABEL REES).
1, Stockwell-avenue, Brixton, S.W.

MR. POPE PAX,
Journalist and Dramatic Critic,
Address, 18, Trinity-road, Birmingham.

MR. DOUGLAS PAYNE,
Address,
Shaftesbury Theatre, W.

MR. WILFRED E. PAYNE,
At Liberty.
63, Bedford Court-mansions, W.C.

MR. & MRS. W. KINGSFORD PEARCE
W. K. P. Engaged. Miss Wynne Hanley (Mrs. W. K. P.) Dis. 58, Ormeley-rd., Balham.

MR. ASHTON PEARSE,
Supporting Mrs. Chas. Sugden in "The Woman who was Bored." Jan. 22, Chelsea Palace.

MR. WALTER PEMBERTON,
Disengaged, Jan. 29th, for two weeks. Address, Jan. 22, Oxford; Jan. 25, Cambridge.

MR. F. PENNINGTON - GUSH,
Engaged by Mr. Louis Calvert. Juvenile Lead in "The Duffer." Care of "The Era."

MR. FRED W. PERMAIN
Address,
118, Southampton-row, W.C.

MR. and MRS. FRANK E. PETLEY
(Miss Gertrude Price), Leading Business.
Dis. Feb. 12. Add., 10, Oberstein-rd., London, S.W.

MR. THOMAS PHILLIPS, General
Manager, Mr. Cyril Maude's "Beauty and the Barge" Co. Jan. 22, Oxford and Cambridge.

MR. WILLIAM PRINGLE,
Capers in "Cinderella."
Brixton Theatre. Disengaged spring & Court.

MR. and MRS. WALTER PU[illegible]
(Miss Lily Brammer), Ali Baba and [illegible]
giana, "Forty Thieves" Panto. T. R., Middl[illegible]

MR. RULE PYOTT,
Disengaged Jan. 29.
49, Hyde-vale, Blackheath, S.E.

MR. ERNEST RAMSAY,
Disengaged.
Address, Meadowbank, Epsom-road, Guildford.

MR. J. NELSON RAMSAY,
Disengaged.
58, Portland-road, Holland Park, W.

MR. ALBERT E. RAYNOR.
On Tour with Mr. Martin Harvey.
Jan. 22, Opera House, Middlesbro'.

MR. and MRS. SIDNEY RENNEF,
S. R., Davy, "Sunday" Co.,
Grand Theatre, Swansea.

MR. PERCY RHODES,
Disengaged.
Add., [illegible]mstone-road, Fulham, S.W.

MR. and MRS. GWYN RICHARDSON
(Miss Harlington), Juv. Lead and Soubrette,
"At Duty's Call" Co. This, Castleford; n., Burton.

MR. HARRY H. RIGNOLD,
Address,
398, Clapham-road, S.W.

MR. WALTER L. RIGNOLD,
Panto., T. R., Manchester.
Liberty, Spring.

MR. WALTER ROBERTS,
Rudolph Laski, "Passion's Power."
T. R., Nelson, Lanc.; Jan. 22, Six Nights.

MR. LEONARD ROBSON,
Leading Business,
115, Grosvenor-street, All Saints, Manchester.

MR. G. STAPELTON ROCHE,
Disengaged, Light Comedy, Disengaged.
Address, 32, Kelvedon-rd., Fulham, S.W.

MR. OLIVER ROGERS, Tall Comedian,
Rehearsing with F. Curzon, Esq., "Mr. Hopkinson" Co. C/o Mr. DENTON, 34, Maiden-lane, W.C.

MR. STANLEY ROGERS.
Address all communications,
124, Warwick-road, Carlisle.

MR. and MRS. EVAN ROLAND, Own
Co., "The Guilty Man." By arrangement with Mr. J. Hare. 18. Canterbury-st., Liverpool.

MR. JOHN D. SAUNDERS,
Disengaged for Home or Abroad.
The Nook, Loveday-road, Ealing, W.

MR. WILLIE SCOTT,
Principal Comedy, "Great Awakening" Co.
This, Luton; next, T. R., Eastbourne.

MR. ARCHIE SELWYN,
Tommy Keston, "The Freedom of Suzanne."
Jan. 22, Pleasure Gardens Theatre, Folkestone.

MR. MICHAEL SHERBROOKE, Dis.
till April 16, and Miss ALICE ARDEN (Mrs. S.), Dis. 2, Jouberts-mansions, Jubilee-pl., Chelsea.

MR. WILFRED E. SHINE,
at Liberty.
Theatre Royal, Worcester.

MR. JAMES SKEA, Character Actor,
Disengaged the 20th, end of Tour.
T. R., Seaham Harbour.

MR. A. GIFFORD STACEY,
Manager for Mr. Robt. Courtneidge,
Lyric Theatre, W.

MR. FRANK STANLEY,
Acting-Manager,
Her Majesty's Theatre, Carlisle.

MR. E. STANTON - SHARP,
Lord Robert Ure, in "The Christian."
Jan. 23. Llanelly. 26th, Mountain Ash.

MR. W. R. STAVELEY,
Scala, Jan. 28 and 29, Stage Society.
239, King's-road, Chelsea, S.W.

MR. and MRS. W. S. STEVENSON,
Stage-Manager and Mephisto, "Jack the Giant Killer," Gaiety Theatre, Leith, Fifth Week.

MR. ERNEST ST. JOHN,
General Gordon, "At Duty's Call,"
Opera House, Burton-on-Trent.

MR. HERBERT ST. JOHN,
Dandini, "Cinderella." Brixton Theatre.
Capt. Donegal, "Florodora," Spring.

MR. and MRS. CHARLES R. STONE,
Character, Comedy, &c. At Liberty Spring.
Offers Invited. 10, Borough-street, Brighton.

MR. GEORGE STONE,
Resident-Manager (Twelfth Year),
Royalty T., and Opera House, Barrow-in-Furness.

MR. WALLACE STRANACK,
General Manager, L. and P. P. Co., Ltd.,
"Jack, the Giant Killer." New Gaiety T., Leith.

MR. AUGUSTIN SYMONDS and Miss Kate Parry. "Forty Thieves" Pantomime. Theatre Royal, Aldershot.

MR. ALGERNON SYMS,
Disengaged. Leading Business. Disengaged.
Perm., 3, Springdale-road, Clissold Park, N.

MR. TAPPING.
Address,
28, Leyland-road, Lee, S.E.

MR. ALFRED TERRAINE,
Artist.
25, St. Alban's-avenue, Bedford Park, London, W.

MR. and MRS. EDWARD THANE
(Louise Hampton),
New King's Theatre, Pitfield-street, Hoxton, N.

MR. FOWLER THATCHER,
The Baron, "Cinderella."
At Liberty Feb. 19, 1906. King's, Cardiff.

MR. E. W. THOMAS,
Address,
10, King-street, Covent Garden, W.C.

MR. WYLIE A. THOMPSON.
Disengaged 20th. Boys, Dudes, Light Comedy. "Bridgen," Bexley, Kent.

MR. WALTER THORNTON
Miss Ida Molesworth and Mr. Mark Blow's Co., Jan. 22, Theatre Royal, Batley.

MR. ALFRED C. TOONE,
Musical-Director, "Lady Madcap."
County T., Reading.

MR. DUNCAN TOVEY,
Sandy MacSteele, Prince's Theatre, Poplar.
Disengaged Spring.

MR. GEORGE TRAILL,
"The Breed of the Treshams" Tour.
47, College-place, Camden Town, N.W.

MR. J. HENRY TWYFORD,
Specially Engaged by Frank Bertram, Esq.
Address, 1, Holland Villas-road, W.

MR. A. W. TYRER
as Harry Dallas, "Walls of Jericho" Co.
Jan. 22, Cambridge; Jan. 25, Oxford.

MR. and MRS. LANCELOT USHER
Amy Ellam thanks Miss Dagmar, and Mr. Denham for offers. L. U., Mayor, T. R., Bradford.

MR. and MRS. EDWARD VAN BIENE
(Kate Hallam), Bus. Mgt., Char., and Lead, Dis. till Autumn. 33, Glengall-rd., Kilburn, N.W.

MR. RICHARD VANE,
Liberty for Leading Bus. To-day, Seaham Harbour; then, 68, Nicholson-street, Edinburgh.

MR. and MRS. CHAS. B. VAUGHAN.
Miss M. Lewes, Understudying Miss Julia Neilson. C. B. V., at Lib. c/o "The Era."

MR. FRED VAUGHAN,
General Business Manager,
"Life of a Showman" Co.

MR. PERCY H. VERNON,
"A Royal Divorce,"
Scala Theatre, W.

MR. FREDERICK VICTOR,
Lon. Disengaged.
71, St. George's-road, S.E.

MR. and MRS. DOUGLAS VIGORS
(Lucy Beaumont), "Dr. Wake's Patient."
L.B., Dis. 8, Bridge-avenue, Hammersmith.

MR. A. N. VINCE,
Acting-Management or Advance, Disengaged.
6, Ranelagh-gardens, Hurlingham, S.W.

MR. T. W. VOLT,
King Encyclops, "Among the Stars,"
London Hippodrome.

MR. ARTHUR WALCOTT,
Private Michael, in "Lights Out." Disengaged shortly. Savoy Theatre.

MR. PERCY CARNE WARAM,
Theatre Royal,
Stratford, E.

MR. E. C. WARBURTON-GAMBLE,
Scala Theatre,
Disengaged for Spring.

MR. ALBERT WARD,
Lead,
45, Fairfield-terrace, Dewsbury.

MR. HYLTON WARDE,
Principal Comedian, Sing and Dance.
Add., 17, Doris-road, Norwich, or A. A.

MR. W. LEMMON WARDE,
Disengaged.
47, Algiers-road, Ladywell, S.E.

MR. FRANK WEATHERSBY,
Theatrical Agency, 3, Bedford-street, Strand,
'Phone, 3781 Cen. Tel., "Frivolous, London."

MR. WYN WEAVER,
With Mr. Peter Davey. Disengaged, Jan. 27, for few weeks. 10, King-st, W.C.

MR. HAROLD WEBB,
Disengaged for Drama or Sketch.
8, Parkhurst-road, Sutton, Surrey.

MR. and MRS. ALFRED WELLESLEY
(Miss B. Webb), "Dr. Wake's Patient." G., Wolverhampton; 22nd, O. H., Cheltenham.

MR. C. A. WHITE,
At Liberty for Special Weeks till Feb. 10.
Add., Park House, Harewood-road, Merton, S.W.

MR. WILL WHITE, F.O.S.,
General Manager for Messrs. Little and Darcy (seventh year). At Lib. April 23. R., York.

MR. VICTOR WIDDICOMBE,
At Liberty.
27, Algburth-mansions, Brixton, S.W.

MR. JOHNNIE WILKINSON,
Comedian, Disengaged for Spring.
Grand Theatre, Brighton.

MR. BREMBER WILLS,
Norman V. Norman's Spring Tour. This and next, 20, Jessica-rd., Wandsworth-common, S.W.

MR. H. O. WILLS,
Making a Terrific Success in Pantomime.
Grand, Byker. No Vacancies.

MR. F. STUART WILLSON,
Disengaged. Lead or Heavy Lead.
Address, Ashby Villa, Finchley, N.

MR. HERBERT WILLIAMS,
Grand Theatre,
Islington, N.

MR. LEONARD WILLIAMS,
Juv. Lead, Returned from S. Africa. Offers Invited. Burkelands, Carlisle-road, Hove, Brighton.

MR. DICK WINSLOW, Manager,
Hardie and Von Leer's No. 1 Co., "Two Little Vagabonds." Next, T. R., Norwich.

MR. A. WOOD.
Address,
59, St. Mary's-road, Peckham, S.E.

MR. and MRS. GRAHAM WOODS
(Miss Marie Robson). Offers Invited.
Address, 1A, Kender-street, New Cross, S.E.

MR. SIDNEY YOUNG,
Now Disengaged for Comedy, Character, or Musical Comedy. See Front Page.

MISCELLANEOUS.

LITTLE DOTT MOSS, Toy Comedienne,
Starring, Hannah Spry, "Sin of Her Childhood" Co., Grand Theatre, West Hartlepool.

MASTER VYVIAN THOMAS,
Concluded "Cousin Kate." Disengaged.
93, St. Marks-road, North Kensington, W.

NOW READY.

THIRTY-NINTH YEAR OF PUBLICATION.
Price, ONE SHILLING; by Post, TWELVE STAMPS.

1906—THE ERA ANNUAL—1906

The Most Complete
DRAMATIC DICTIONARY OF DATES
and
THEATRICAL TREASURY OF KNOWLEDGE
ever brought before the Public.
It will also be found to be the most Interesting Annual of the Year.
Office, 5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, STRAND, W.C.

SPRING TOURS.

WE ARE NOW BUSY CLEANING DRESSES FOR THE ABOVE,
but our facilities and energy are illimitable.

SPECIAL QUOTATIONS AND ADVICE ALWAYS FREELY GIVEN.

PROFESSIONAL WORK TAKES PRECEDENCE OF ALL OTHER ORDERS.

By Special Arrangement,

TOURING MANAGERS

can have their Wardrobes Cleaned between Shows, when in or near London.

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONIALS.

Alexandra Theatre, Hull, Jan. 12, 1906.

Dear Sir,—Many thanks for gloves received safely. Am so pleased with them that in future will send all my things to you to be cleaned.

Yours faithfully,
Mrs. G. C. Wallace.

38, Flanders-mansions, Bedford Park, W., Jan. 14, 1906.

Dear Sir,—My white dress which you have just dyed for me for the part of Esther Coventry in "One of the Best" came last night, and I am delighted to find how successfully it has turned out. I am the more pleased that, as the lining is silk and the skirt wool, I feared one might have shrunk, and much needlework be needed, but they are just right. Thank you very much for all the trouble that must have been taken over it, and for letting me have it so quickly.

Yours faithfully,
Margaret Davies Webster.

'Phone, wire, or write to

T. HARRIS.

Delays are Dangerous

LOOK OUT YOUR DRESSES AT ONCE.

CHEMICAL CLEANING & DYEING COMPANY,

Original Theatrical Cleaners & Dyers

6, ARGYLL ST., REGENT ST., W.

Telegraphic Address, "CLEANING, LONDON"

Telephone, THREE-NINE-TWO-THREE GERRARD.

"THE ERA" IN AMERICA.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS AND SUBSCRIBERS.

LOW'S STEAMSHIP AGENCY.

1,123 BROADWAY,
Corner TWENTY-FIFTH-STREET.

Choice Berths on all Steamers at Lowest Rates
Receiving Mail, Storing, Forwarding Baggage.

SINGLE COPIES ON SALE.
SUBSCRIPTIONS RECEIVED.
ADVERTISEMENTS ACCEPTED

American Artistes visiting the Metropolis use The Era Offices as their Permanent London Address.

Apply or Address,
LOW'S STEAMSHIP AGENCY,
1,123, Broadway, corner Twenty-fifth-street, New York.

NOTICE

TO DRAMATIC ARTISTS.

Please keep your ADDRESS CARD permanently in THE ERA in the Alphabetical Arrangements of Dramatic Artists' Advertisements. Managers, Agents, and Friends are in need of this information. Engagements are frequently lost through failure to find your Address. For terms, address—

THE PUBLISHER, "The Era," 5, Tavistock-street, London, W.C.

AMERICAN AMUSEMENTS.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

NEW YORK, JAN. 3.—"ALICE SIT-BY-THE-FIRE," with Miss Ethel Barrymore in the leading rôle, was produced at the Criterion Theatre on Christmas Day, and a great many people shortened their Yuletide festivities in order to be present at this important opening. In fact, the house was crowded in every part, and as the subsequent performances of Mr. Barrie's play have been equally well attended, it is safe to include it among the season's successes. Miss Ethel Barrymore invests the character of Mrs. Grey with all of her own familiar charm. Miss Beatrice Agnew is conspicuously successful as Amy Grey; Mr. Bruce McRae gives an excellent representation of Colonel Grey; Mr. John Barrymore acquits himself well as Stephen Rollo; Master Cyril Smith plays Cosmo Grey with a sincerity of manner that is praiseworthy; and Miss Lillian Reed contributes a clever little character-sketch as the maid Richardson. Pantaloon, by the same author, serves as a curtain-raiser, and is well received. Americans know very little of that ancient appendix to the Christmas pantomime, the Harlequinade, and for that reason the remarks of the "old 'un" do not possess the point or interest that they would have for an English audience. But Mr. Barrymore's Pantaloon is such a clever characterisation, correctly conceived and faultlessly executed; and the other parts are so intelligently acted that none but the dullest of audiences could fail to appreciate the humour and pathos of Mr. Barrie's "plea for an ancient family." Miss Beatrice Agnew plays Columbine with a dainty grace that is very captivating. Mr. John Barrymore is an excellent Clown; Mr. John P. Kennedy is a satisfactory Harlequin; and the part of the child is well sustained by Miss Leona Powers.

MISS HENRIETTA CROSMAN is appearing at the Garrick Theatre in a comedy called Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary, which quite unexpectedly proved to be another adaptation of Sardou's Les Pattes de Mouche, known to English and American playgoers as A Scrap of Paper. The new version is by Eugene Presbrey, and the general opinion is that it is not an improvement on the old one. Mr. Presbrey has not altered the original situations, but has brought the dialogue "up-to-date." The rôle of Mary, the central figure of the play, provides Miss Crosman with opportunities of which she avails herself most agreeably, the character being particularly well suited to her breezy style. Mr. Addison Pitt is capital as the jealous husband Horace Belmore; Herbert Danvers (Prosper Couramont) is well represented by Mr Boyd Putnam; Mr. George Woodward wins approval as Thaddeus Brown; and Miss Belmore is charmingly played by Miss Miriam Nesbitt. The play is tastefully mounted, and its reception was decidedly favourable. Miss Crosman's personal popularity ensuring a hearty welcome for any play in which she appears.

"THE LIGHTNING CONDUCTOR," a three-act comedy, with Mr. Herbert Kelcey and Miss Effie Shannon in the leading rôles, was produced on Christmas Day at the Taylor Opera House, Trenton, N.J., and was well received. The play is a dramatisation by Harry B. Smith of the story of the same name.

MR. E. S. WILLARD devoted the last week of his very successful engagement at the New Amsterdam Theatre to the most popular plays of his répertoire, these being Tom Pinch, The Middleman, The Professor's Love Story, The Man Who Was and David Garrick. The performances throughout the week attracted large and appreciative audiences, these including many whose interest in the drama is invariably renewed whenever Mr. Willard fulfils an engagement in this city. It is announced that his répertoire for next season will include The Bells, Louis XI., and, perhaps, Charles I. and Waterloo.

"AS YE SOW," a drama of the domestic and didactic variety, with plenty of "heart interest," is the current attraction at the Garden Theatre. The author is a Unitarian clergyman, the Rev. John Snyder, and the hero also is a young divine named the Rev. John St. John. There are four acts, of which the third is the strongest, the scenes being laid in the seaside village of Cape Cod. The minister, who has just returned from a trip to Europe, meets Dora Leland, with whom he had fallen in love just before his departure. At the first avowal of his love she confesses that she has been married. But her husband and daughter are gone, and believing that the former is dead she consents to be the minister's wife. Just as the bridal couple are about to enter the church, which stands near the shore, the wedding is stopped by a storm that drives a ship on the rocks. As the life-saving crew need two more men the preacher volunteers, and with a former burglar, whom he has reformed, joins the rescuing party. On his return to the shore the wedding proceeds, but again is stopped when an injured sailor is brought to him for religious consolation. The man proves to be Frank St. John, the minister's long-lost brother, and the deserting husband of his intended bride. A little girl whom the minister has adopted is discovered to be the child of the scapegrace and the deserted wife. Frank St. John, a man of fierce passions, recovers from his illness to perceive that his wife is in love with his brother and accuses them of disloyalty. The child clings to her adopted father, and finally, with impartial curses for all concerned, the parson's brother takes himself off and enlists in the Army. He is killed in the Spanish-American war, and just as the minister has decided to take up new duties in the West he learns that the woman he loves is free, and makes new plans for their mutual happiness. Mr. Frank Gilmore as the parson, Mr. Franklin Roberts as the brother, and Miss Charlotte Walker as the deserted wife, sustain their rôles in a highly creditable manner. Mr. Forrest Robinson, as the reformed burglar, contributes a clever character-study; and Mr. Douglas Fairbanks is very amusing as a jack-of-all-trades.

MISS FRITZI SCHEFF has scored an unqualified success at the Knickerbocker Theatre in Mdlle. Modiste, a comic opera in two acts, with an excellent libretto by Henry Blossom, and a melodious score by Victor Herbert. As Fifi, a Parisian milliner's shop-girl, Miss Scheff acts with a vivacity that is irresistible and a charm that is all her own. Fifi has a talent for singing and acting. She is loved by Captain Etienne de Bouvray, whose aristocratic uncle will not hear of a match with her. But Hiram Bent, a benignant and wealthy American promoter, who is captivated by her beauty and wit, lends her the money to make herself an artist and win success in London. She returns to Paris to sing at a charity bazaar in the grounds of the aristocratic uncle, who presently gives his consent to the marriage and bestows his blessing. Mr. William Pruette as the gouty Uncle, Mr. Claude Gillingwater as the American promoter, Mr. William Percival as Fifi's soldier lover, Mr. Howard Chambers as a dashing Lieutenant, and Mr. Leo Mars as Gaston, the son of Fifi's employer, were all very successful in their respective rôles. Mr. Mars sang a French song in the English language which was encored again and again. Mr. Pruette's fine bass voice was heard to advantage in "I want what I want when I want it." Miss Scheff sang "I'm the mascot of the troop," and played the drum in such a stirring manner that the house rose at her. The other good things in the opera are too numerous to mention. It is beautifully staged, the millinery shop in the first act being a particularly pretty scene.

"THE ERA" can be obtained at any of Smith and Sons' bookstalls throughout the provinces.

PROVINCIAL THEATRICALS.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENTS.)

ABERDARE.—NEW THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. Z. Andrews.—Mr. F. Marriot-Watson's company is playing here this week in the drama, A False Wife. Mr. George Langham is good as Sir Colin Mansfield; Mr. Howard Barlow makes a manly George Mansfield; Mr. Elton Morgan keeps the house in roars of laughter as Ben Rattler; Mr. Frank Strickland is successful in his rendering of Jean Berand; Mr. John Cecil is weird as Zorak; Miss Ellen Armor wins the sympathy of the house as Agnes Weyland; Miss Nita Imeson assists largely in the funmaking as Bessie Blazier; and Miss Florence E. Florence incites the displeasure of the house by her excellent rendering of the part of Estelle du Lussau.

ABERDEEN.—HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Acting-Manager, Mr. H. C. Cavanagh, C.A.—Mr. Esmonde Bramley's Shakespearean Company opened on Monday with Romeo and Juliet. Mr. Cyril Este gave a fine interpretation of Romeo, playing throughout with a marked but highly artistic degree of restraint. He was admirably supported by Miss Nellie Ford, who made a charming Juliet. Mrs. Bernard Parkin gave a fine portraiture of the old nurse, and Mr. Baliol Halloway was an efficient Mercutio. The parts of Friar Lawrence and Peter were most capably filled by Mr. F. Owen Chambers and Mr. Philip Gordon. On Tuesday The Merchant of Venice was presented, with Mr. David Beattie as Shylock, Mr. Este as Bassanio, and Miss Ford as Portia. The company all round is one of considerable merit.

PALACE THEATRE.—Proprietors, Messrs. Rosen and Bliss; Managers, Mr Walter Gilbert.—There is, as usual, a first-rate company at this house. The New York Nippers act most vivaciously in an amusing farcical sketch, Bed-time; Conn and Conrad, the "quiet burglars," are exceedingly funny; and Doody and Wright receive an enthusiastic welcome. Mr. Hamilton Hill, the Australian baritone, scores a great success; and among the other enjoyable turns are those of Mr. Harry Cotton, eccentric comedian; the Sisters Oswald, in a novel dancing act; Zooroof, an admirable mimic; Mr. Arthur Croxon, who is excellent in the same line and also as a comedian; and the Lannons, who do well as pedestal dancers and duettists. Vernon's Imperial Bioscope pictures prove another great attraction.

ACCRINGTON.—HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. Willmot, Potter, Vandy, and Weisker; Acting-Manager, Mr. L. Campkin.—A smart bill is provided here this week. Mr. E. Carter Livesey gives a clever sketch, The Would-be Actors; the Elkethrones introduce an acceptable cycle act; Mr Harry Hyton is an amusing eccentric comedian; the Clarks are particularly good as banjoists; Lottie Bray is well received; Ray and Calden are favourably received; the Belmonts meet with success; and the Hippodrome pictures complete the evening's entertainment.

PRINCE'S THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. J. B. Ormerod; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. E. Barnes.—Mr Frederick Melville's company opened here on Monday with Her Forbidden Marriage. Mr. Albert Ward gave an excellent performance of George Maddison; Mr. Lionel D'Arragon's impersonation of Charles Devereux was life-like and convincing; Mr. Holland Day must be complimented on his performance of Geoffrey Broughton; Joe Tompkin was well played by Mr. George Littleton; Timothy Tuttutt was in the safe hands of Mr. F. De Vere; Miss Sybil Hammersley gave an ideal impersonation of Pattie Lovejoy; Miss Isla Garnet Vayne submitted a scholarly reading of Lucy; Lady Lucretia was well depicted by Miss Egmie Magnus; Miss Barbara Gott was good as Mother Superior; and Little Lucy gave a capital performance as Little Lucy.

ALDERSHOT.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Clarence Sonnes; Resident-Manager, Mr. Geo. E. Williams.—Mr. Geo. Dance's company undoubtedly score a huge success in their clever interpretation of The Duchess of Dantzic, which is being played for the first time in Aldershot. Miss May Glenn, whose success as Nan in The Country Girl is well remembered, makes an interesting Sans-Gêne. Mr. Gilbert Yorke gives a fine portrayal of Napoleon Buonaparte; it is a powerful performance. Mr. Leonard F. Griffiths is an excellent Lefebvre, his clever acting and tuneful voice aiding his successful conception. Mr. J. H. Goldsworthy possesses a powerful and well-trained voice, which he uses to advantage, and his Adhemar is one of the many able contributions. Mr. Chas. Adeson provides a humorous portrayal of Papillon. The Misses Violet and Maisie Blyth are clever as Napoleon's sisters, and Miss Ella Derwent as Josephine is good. A charming Renée comes from Miss Mabel White, and Miss Beana Bent is capable as Lisette. The staging reflects credit on those responsible.

ASHTON-UNDER-LYNE.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Owner and Manager, Mr. Chas. Revill; Acting-Manager, Mr. Armstrong Fairbairn.—The powerful and thrilling drama, The Grip of Iron, is here this week, breaking into the season of pantomime somewhat abruptly. Mr. Fred Power still sustains the rôle of Jagon, the man of double life, with undiminished power, and exciting the customary terror and thrill in the audience. Mr. Geo. Dinham also gives a humorous as well as impressive impersonation of the Smiler. Effective embodiments are also given of Lorentz de Ribas, by Mr. G. Langdon; the detectives of the old and the new school, by Messrs Jno. Brittain and Harry Agar Lyons; and of other characters by Messrs. H. Scott, S. Carlton, and E. Dane. Misses Nellie Fletcher, as Cora; Ruby Maude, as Sophie Blanchard; Hilda Baynton, as Marie Guerin; Cissie Hayes, as Babette; and Pope Royal, as Mdlle. Delaney, each give satisfactory interpretations. The drawing-room of Lorentz de Ribas's villa continues to be a brilliant stage "setting."

THE EMPIRE HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. H. Broadhead and Sons; Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy B. Broadhead; Resident Acting-Manager, Mr. W. Leech.—Something attractive has again been furnished for the patrons of the Empire for the week. The Donatos, the famous one-legged clowns, are here on a revisit in their astonishing acrobatic feats, jumping, burlesque dancing, and celebrated military march; Henderson, the famed blind musician, astonishes with his instrumental skill; the Four Vindobonas, in a novel musical act, win admiration and applause; and Marie Blythe is successful; the Leotards are watched with silent and fixed attention in their extraordinary feats as staircase clowns, aerial hand-balancers, and remarkable hat-throwers and catchers; something decidedly novel in its way is introduced by the Sisters Petram, with their Fantoches. It is a complete circus, with visitors, entrées of all possible artists, and specialities, orchestra, &c., a really interesting show; Harris L. Bell and Lily Pearl and company appear in their popular success, A Bit of String; the other artists are Fred Horsfall, smart mimic; Winona and King, American speciality performers; and the Bros. Middleton, comedians, patterers, and dancers; the Bioscope shows a series of amusing pictures, entitled "Roof-top Garden Episode."

ATTERCLIFFE.—THEATRE ROYAL, LIMITED.—Managing-Director, Mr. F. Macnaghten; Resident-Manager, Mr. G. H. Beagle.—At the World's Mercy, described as a "musical-comedy drama," is being presented here this week by Mr. Carr Loates and his good all-round company, which includes Messrs. Carr Loates, Leo. Rodway, W. Felton, Hyland Shea; the Misses Guinevere Shilton, Annie Hunter, Cissie Milford, Alice King, Jennie Gilmore, and Kitty Jerome.

PALACE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietor, Mr. T. Allan Edwardes; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. Lacy Lyne; Assistant-Manager, Mr. J. Gibbons.—This week's programme is contributed to by the following artists:—The Loma Trio, herculean gymnasts, on a novel electrical revolving trapeze; Mr. J. P. Carroll, military tambourine player; Miss Minnie D'Aubyn; Mr. Joe Mack, eccentric comedian; Mr. E. C. Clayton's pictures on the Palace Attergraph; Onda and Leon, bar performers; the Barlows, high-class duettists, in a vocal sketch, Old Pals; and Henri Bekker, conjuror, assisted by Mdlle. Maie.

BACUP.—NEW COURT THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Frank Denman-Wood; Acting-Manager, Mr. Richard Nightingale.—Mr. Frank Lindo is paying another visit to this theatre, with his domestic play, Home, Sweet Home. He gives an excellent pathetic and humorous interpretation of Stephen. David Armitage is ably portrayed by Mr. J. W. Henson; Mr. S. Bryant is funny as the Hon. Percy; as the Duke of Ancaster Captain Gerald Gambier acts with becoming dignity; Mr. Wilson Coleman plays effectively and soundly as Lucas Lyle; and Mr. George Overs sustains Dick Redmayne very creditably. Miss Marion Wakefield makes a good impression as Joan; Miss Edie Langley plays Sybil Fay in vivacious style; and special mention should be made of Miss Daisy Rochefort, who, as the child Dora, added considerably to the success.

BARNSLEY.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Manager, Mr. A. C. Mitchell.—Mr. Tom H. Taylor's company in The Female Swindler occupies the boards this week. Mr. Frederick Victor gives a striking impersonation of Jack Coulson; Abraham Meikstein is a veritable Shylock in Mr. Bernard Dunstan's hands; Mr. Luke Foster is most successful as a man of many parts, his rôle of Billy Binks being the chief; Harold Travers is finely acted by Mr. Arthur Page; Mr. Weldon Atherstone is a capital Geoffrey Warden; Mr. A. Renyon Gray is an excellent James Oliver; Miss Florrie Kelsey makes an admirable May Andrews; and Miss Grace E. Leslie plays very powerfully and with rare skill the difficult part of Lu Valroy.

BARROW-IN-FURNESS.—ROYALTY THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Hugh Robertson; Resident-Manager, Mr. George Stone.—Mr. William Maclaren and company are here this week with a revival of Claudian. Mr. William MacLaren gives a masterful and convincing portrait of the title-rôle; Miss Lily C. Bandmann is an exceedingly winning and artistic Almida; the elocutionary powers of Mr. A. G. Carr as Holy Clement are finely displayed; and the company generally acts with excellent effect.

BATLEY.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Whitty.—A naval play, The Sailors of the King, is here under the direction of Mr. Charles Harrington. It is very well staged. Mr. Harrison plays the part of Admiral Drake with feeling and conviction; Mr. Harry Douglas gives a fine manly portrait of the young lieutenant; Mr. F. Vernon Travers makes the most of a somewhat colourless part; Mr. Richard Cowell is earnest and effective; Mr. Kenneth Black, junr., revels in a comedy part; Miss Maude Digby is a sound exponent of a heavy part, her work being admirably done; Miss Sylvia Stella has a small part, which she handles with judgment; Miss Hero Hathaway is a demure and interesting Quakeress; and Miss Sylvia Stella is emotional and pathetic in the character of Daisy Dent.

BATH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Egbert Lewis; Acting-Manager, Mr. Lewis A. Long.—An early return visit of the successful play The Walls of Jericho unfortunately clashes with local political enthusiasm, consequently business was poor at the commencement of the week, but has improved nightly since. Mr. Silvanus Dauncey and Mr. M. V. Leveaux's excellent company remains almost identical with that previously here, Mr. Herbert Bunston and Mr. George A. Brandram repeating their clever impersonations of the true-hearted Queenslanders Jack Frobisher and Hankey Bannister. Mr. Lawrence Hanray and Mr. Sydney Hamilton, if possible, have improved upon their former portrayals of the Marquis and Harry Dallas. Miss Nora Greenlaw (Lady Westerby), Miss Edith Cuthbert (Miss Mornington), and Miss Molly Carton (Lady Lucy) continue to give capital embodiments of their respective rôles. The newcomer is Miss Florence Jackson as Lady Alethea, whose fine acting of this arduous character has secured the favourable verdict of Bath playgoers.

PALACE THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. Charles Schubert.—Considering the city was participating in an exciting election on Monday, a fairly good audience was present at the first house to enjoy the excellent programme provided by the management for the week. Austin Rudd is a foremost favourite, his amusing songs being received with boisterous applause; the Great Northern Troupe of international dancers evoke the usual enthusiasm by their clever dances; Tate and Tate strike out upon novel and original ideas as acrobats, the gentleman's "spring" feats securing a deserved recall; Cordite, assisted, as before, by Wild Buffalo, are exhibiting their wonderful skill as rope spinners with all their old-time success; Bayne and Hope enact a Napoleonic episode, An Emperor's Divorce, with marked elocutionary ability and quiet conviction. In another vein Harry Russell and company appear in a screaming farce, Binks's Blunders; Arthur Melrose, comedian and word whistler, gains no little favour; Raymond's bioscope concludes with new films.

BEDFORD.—ROYAL COUNTY THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. E. Graham-Falcon; Acting-Manager, Mr. Walter R. Wilson.—For the third time Mr. Norman Macowan's company is here in the successful play Monsieur Beaucaire. Mr. Norman Macowan gives a powerful interpretation of the difficult title-rôle; Mr. Murray Hathorn makes an excellent Duke of Winterset; and Mr. Arthur Somers is a good exponent of Major Molyneux. Mr. P. Ramsey Forman interprets Captain Badger with vigour; and Mr. Leonard Laurence impresses by his calm and dignified demeanour as Beau Nash. Mr. Hans Schlesinger is an admirable François. In her impersonation of Lady Mary Carlisle, Miss Violet Sterne displays natural charm and tenderness contrasted by tragic force; Miss Annie Windsor makes an attractive Lucy Rellerton. On Thursday and Friday A Soldier of Fortune was played by the same company.

BELFAST.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Fred W. Warden; Acting-Manager, Mr. James M. McCann.—Messrs. H. Armitage and Arthur Leigh's company opened here on Monday, and presented for the first time in Ireland the play entitled Lucky Durham. The success achieved was undeniable. A competent cast includes Mr. Edmund Kennedy, who, as John Durham, at once gained a great success with his convincing impersonation. Miss Gertrude Robins must be congratulated on her delightful and natural impersonation of Helen Vallerton: and Mr. Arthur Leigh's assumption of the rôle of the Hon. Reginald Steighton could not easily be excelled. Much praise must be accorded Miss Louise Gourlay for her pathetic interpretation of Mrs. Durham; and Mr. Benson North was good as Lord Mountfallon. Miss Florence Dalhunty portrayed the part of Hon. Margaret Steighton with decided ability; and Miss Frances Wolviston cleverly filled the rôle of Lady Mountfallon. Other parts were ably sustained by Miss Katie Evelyn, Miss Violet Thorold, and Messrs. A. E. Walker, Campbell Goldsmid, W. F. Clitherow, John Harit, Sydney Bancroft, &c. The piece was magnificently staged, and the beautiful dresses were the theme of admiration. It should be added that on Monday a handsome souvenir of the piece was presented to each patron occupying a reserved seat.

PALACE THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Fred W. Warden; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. P. Beardmore.—Cinderella is now in its last week, as notwithstanding the success achieved, this attractive pantomime must be withdrawn to-night, as it opens on Monday at the Theatre Royal, Dublin. Benefits have been the order of the day. On Wednesday evening Mr. Fred Cary appealed to his many friends, and on Thursday Mr. Arthur Reynolds and Mr. Russell Wallett took their benefit. Friday night was set apart for the benefit of Miss Olive Marston and Miss Empsie Bowman, who have both been so successful in their respective rôles of Prince and Cinderella.

EMPIRE THEATRE OF VARIETIES, LIMITED.—General-Manager, Mr. Frank Allen; Acting-Manager, Mr. John A. Walker.—The star here this week is Miss Josephine Sabel, a clever American comedienne, who must be congratulated on the great success she achieved on Monday. A hit of no small magnitude has been made by Mr. G. W. Hunter, who as a raconteur has few equals. Smythson's Comedy Company appears to much advantage in their comedy sketch, Our Suite; and Mr. Arthur Lennard, the well-known comedian, upholds his popularity in Belfast with "Butterfly" and other capital songs. Miss Daisy Ray, a fine dancer, gains much applause for her exhibition of the art; and the sweet ballad vocalism of Miss Elsie Clare has been much admired. Also here are Corty Bros., aerial humorists; and Miss Lizzie Fletcher, comedienne.

NEW ALHAMBRA THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—General-Manager, Mr. Henry T. Downes.—The College Boys top the bill, and have evoked much enthusiasm with their selections from operas. An acquisition to the bill is the humorous sketch, Sally's Dilemma, presented by the Bensley Evans Sketch Company, a capital combination. Les Henris appear in their attractive act, Sport in the Electric and Floral Garden; and the contortionist feats of Souplessi have created quite a sensation. King and Mackay appear in their clever comedy sketch; and Miss Daisy Devonport is a charming comedienne. Also appearing with undeniable success are Miss Flossie Jee, comedienne; Mr. R. C. Note, comedian; and Miss Flo Morton, comedienne.

BILSTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. H. Battersby; Manageress, Miss Grace Battersby.—Instead of the ordinary drama, we have this week the Biograph, from the Palace Theatre, London. There are among a variety of views "Races and Scenes at Goodwood," "London in a Hurry," "Holidays," "Burglars at Work," "The Suburbanite," &c.

BIRKENHEAD.—NEW THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee, Mr. W. W. Kelly; Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles Pell.—Mr. J. Bannister Howard's company is doing big business with Florodora. It would be difficult to improve upon the Tweediepunch of Mr. Albert Bruno; Miss Gwladys Elvey, as Dolores, gives a clever and attractive performance; Mr. Edward Chester is an admirable Cyrus W. Gilfain; Mr. R. Courtice Dutton is a capital Frank Abercoed; and Mr. Harold Perry handles the part of Captain Arthur Donegal with skill and effect. Miss Florence Hersee is a capable Angela Gilfain; Lady Holyrood is well played by Miss Kate Leicester; Miss Bessie Nunan is excellent as the Typewriter; Mr. C. A. James is a good Leanpro; and the piece is produced with a wealth of supernumeraries and accessories. There are several pretty dances by Miss Lilian Coe, and the musical forces are under the bâton of Mr. B. J. Paterson.

ARGYLE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Manager, Mr. D. J. Clarke.—The Kellinos, in their grand speciality act, A Fête in Venice, are deservedly a centre of attraction, and as an acrobatic display it is undoubtedly unsurpassed. The Marconis, electrical manipulators, also give a remarkable and bewilder ing exhibition; and Mr. Edward Sillward, in a sketch entitled Satan, is a leading success in the programme. Other excellent turns include those of Otto and Olga, clever comedy artists; Johnny Johnstone, a versatile vocalist and instrumentalist; Orpheus, in his capital musical entertainment; Miss Nina Gordon, an accomplished mimic; Mr. Fred Curran, a popular comedian; and Blanco White, coon vocalist.

BIRMINGHAM.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing Director, Mr. Tom B. Davis; Acting-Manager, Mr. Philip Rodway.—Aladdin has increased in favour at every performance, until now the notice, "House Full," appears constantly. Miss Ada Reeve, as the best of all Aladdins, sends away her admirers delighted and satisfied; Mr. Harry Tate has made an enduring name as Abanazar, in which character he assumes the personalities of various other stars, besides introducing his own original creations; Miss Fanny Dange fascinates all beholders with her grace and art as So-Shi, and Miss Rose Harvey as Pekoe, Miss Doris Deane as a most lissome dancer, Miss Lilian Pollard as Chee-Ki swell the wealth of beauty and talent, in addition to which the Eight Mimosa Girls add their charm. Messrs. Harry Brayne, Harrison Brockbank, Maitland Dicker, and Regan and Ryan are eminently successful.

PRINCE OF WALES'S THEATRE.—Lessees, Messrs. Rodgers, Limited; Manager, Mr. J. F. Graham; Acting-Manager, Mr. Henry Johnston.—Cinderella has its many adherents who nightly fill the theatre with their presence and praises. Miss Lelia Rose scores with her bountiful charms and fine singing in the character of the Prince; Miss Edith Fink acts and sings with exquisite charm in the title-rôle; and Miss Agnes Tandy, with her fine contralto voice, raises the part of the Fairy Queen into exceptional prominence; Mr. Mark Sheridan embellishes the character of the Baron with his own peculiar and witty sallies, which have raised him to the highest point of popularity; Mr. George Lashwood assumes the airs and graces of the Valet with perfect sangfroid; and Messrs. Josh Dixon, Gus Le Clerq, the Four Burnells, and the Eight of Hearts have their admirers in plenty.

GRAND THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. J. W. Turner; Manager, Mr. Victor Turner.—The Sleeping Beauty has awakened enthusiasm from crowded audiences, who have vented their admiration on Miss Maud Mortimer for her charming and dashing assumption of the Prince, with songs; Miss Lillian Digges is also much admired for her chic singing and acting as Beauty; and Little Vera, Les Voce, Sisters Cora, the Morton Trio, Miss Ada Tilley, the Four Merry Madcaps, and Messrs. James Chippendale, Lonnen Meadows, Alfred Bishop, and J. W. Churchill play strong rôles. The pantomime is enhanced by specialities by Alma and Abdullah, La Superba, the Russian Troupe, &c., and the new local and topical lines by Mr. W. Jackson Houlston invariably hit their mark.

ALEXANDRA THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Lester Collingwood; Acting-Manager, Mr. Fred Bernardo.—Blue Beard is received with thunders of applause, and the songs incidental to the pantomime are chorused by the audience with glee, such enthusiasm and satisfaction seldom being witnessed in a theatre. Miss Minnie Jeffs captivates all by her sparkle and vim as Selim; Miss Lilian Stanley appears with charming grace as Fatima; Miss Bertha Cousins must be singled out for her intelligent acting, mellifluous singing, and clever dancing as Cassim; Miss Dorothy Ward, as the saucy Zobedie, is extremely popular; Miss Millie Warde makes a most attractive rôle of Beda; and the Bogannys as the "lunatic bakers" are a huge success. Messrs. F. A. Marston, T. W. Graham, Bert Atherton, Syd Bayley, and Joly Florador continue to shine with undiminished vigour, and the Three Rubys and the Brothers Smarte are very popular.

METROPOLE THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Andrew Melville.—The Beast and the Beauty has been exceedingly well patronised and applauded here, thereby enhancing the reputation of Mr. Frederick Melville, the author, who has provided an excellent company. Mr. Fred D. Daviss gets all the effect possible out of the Beast, otherwise Jack Barrymore; Mr. Bernard Mervyn acts with all the guile of the villain as Henry Denver; Mr. H. Wimpenny scores as Dick Soanes; Mr. Ronald Adair comes out strong as the persecuted fighting man, Samson; Miss Georgette Therry acts as Delilah Vane with telling power; Miss Alice Bowes is sympathetic and attractive as Beauty; and Mr. J. Bernard Lieli, Mr. Will Corrie, and Miss Jessie Danvers give capable support. Mr. Duse Mohamed acts as advance representative in a courteous and good manner.

CARLTON THEATRE, SALTLEY.—Owner and Manager, Mr. Arthur Carlton; Resident-Manager, Mr. James Alexander.—The Hands of Sin has met with a flattering reception each night this week, and Messrs. Arthur Whitaker and Gifford Stacey's company has been obviously well chosen. Mr. Cyril W. Mackay invests the rôle of Captain Bruce Glenister with many brilliant qualities which never fail to arouse enthusiasm; Miss Ethyle Murray acts with consummate art and power as Zepham; Mr. H. Elliott Ball cleverly and thoroughly realises the character of Stephen Glenister; and Mr. Arthur Willerby, Mr. Clive Ross, Miss Lilyan Lait, Miss Daisy Snawden, Mr. Frank Ridley, Mr. Hamilton Travers, and Mr. E. H. Dobell deserve and win the highest encomiums.

THEATRE ROYAL, ASTON.—Lessee, Mr. Charles Barnard; General-Manager, Mr. E. Hewitson; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Whittles.—Revenge is the title and motif of this week's play, which is presented with due elaboration and detail by Mr. E. Hill-Mitchelson and company. Mr. E. Hill-Mitchelson's study of Prince Orloff is forceful and wholly successful in all its aspects; Mr. Wellesley Draper gains the utmost admiration with his romantic and heroic presentment of Captain Loris Vanessa; Mr. Theo. Balfour comports himself as the King in a clever manner; Mr. Edward Lowrie as Count Mussant infuses the necessary spice of comedy with good effect; Miss Violet Carlyle acts with exquisite feeling and dignity as the Queen; Miss Rosabel Dodd brings out the vices of Draga Vanessa with powerful effect; and Miss Hettie, sen., Mr. E. Jenner, Miss Alice Barber, and Miss Grace Aimes act most acceptably.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Resident-Manager, Mr. A. W. Matcham.—The tableaux vivants presented by Diane de Fontenoy constitute a refined and interesting turn. Fred G. Peake and company are seen in a dramatic sketch, The Hypocrite, which is well played throughout; Fanny Robina is a charming comedienne; the Five Julians are clever in song and dance, as also are Nelson's Newsboys; Gertrude Bradshaw puts her rich soprano voice to advantage; the Three Merrils, comedians on wheels; Harry Weldon, humorist; Frank Darwin, descriptive vocalist; and Genard and Theol, contortionist, come in for a good share of applause.

GAIETY THEATRE.—General-Manager, Mr. Albert Bushell.—George Leyton is always a big draw here, his song scena, "The Death of Nelson," being most effective; while selections from the "Lily of Killarney" are rendered by Edward Arthur and Tom Griffiths with their usual success. The Narrow Brothers are most eccentric cyclists; Little Queenie May is loudly applauded for her songs; Les Uniques are seen in a smart gymnastic display. Plenty of humour is introduced into the musical entertainment of Tee and Tee. Robert Lytton, comedian; Spring and Spring, barrel jumpers; and Marba and Verity, acrobatic dancers, complete the programme.

HIPPODROME.—Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Barrasford.—The nautical sketch, The Little Stowaway, is the principal item this week, in which Miss E. Lumley appears in the title-rôle, and Mr. J. K. Walton as Captain Worley. Rex King is exceedingly smart in his quick-change character impersonations; Bonnie Goodwin scores a big success with her Apollo piccaninnies; George Victor has a good song; Sidney Lee is appreciated for his conjuring entertainment; Tom Yorke, coster comedian, and Keen and Waller, acrobatic comedians, are well applauded.

BORDESLEY PALACE.—Resident-Manager, Mr. Edward Foster.—The musical entertainment presented by the Empire Comedy Four is clever and amusing; Bijou Russell is applauded for her sand dances; Mdlle. Chalon is one of the finest acrobats we have seen, her performance being loudly applauded; Tom White's Arabs; Edward E. Forde, comedian; Gallando, clay modeller; and the Bros. Hayes add to the mirth of the evening.

BISHOP AUCKLAND. — EDEN THEATRE. — Lessees, Messrs. R. Addison, Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. R. Addison; Acting-Manager and Secretary, Mr. J. Huntley.—Miss Mary Austin and Mr. E. Vivian Edmonds' company is here in Passion's Power. Mr. Gerald Kennedy acts the rôle of Prince Kandos with marked ability; as Michel Laski Mr. Stephen E. Scanlan gives an effective rendering; the General Zuran of Mr. Walter Raynham and the Rudolph Laski of Mr. Walter Roberts are delineations which deserve warm praise; Miss Cecil Cromwell is seen to great advantage in the character of Zora Varno; Miss Stella Carmichael is well suited to the part of Countess Delauney. The humour of the play is ably supplied by Miss Lowe Dare as Lucie, and Mr. Ernest Dare as Felix.

BLACKBURN.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor, Mr. Harry Yorke; Business Manager, Mr. Reginald Yorke.—The Forty Thieves pantomime, presented by Mr. Fred Granville's company, is making its bid for popular favour this week. Miss Cissie Kingsley plays the part of Abdallah with point and vivacity; Miss Gertie Douglas is no less successful as Ganem; the quaint style of Mr. Walter Purvis is admirably adapted to Ali Baba; and Cogia finds a humorous representative in Mr. Leo Trainer. Miss Lily Brammer is a captivating Morgiana, Mr. F. L. Conynghame as Lieut. Hassarac, Mr. Forsyth Bruce as Cassim Baba, and Miss Ada Western as Fizzali, also contribute to the success of the production. The pantomime is well mounted.

PALACE THEATRE.—Harry Tate and company are appearing here in the mirth-provoking sketch, Motoring; Reilly and Taylor are a couple of American-Dutch comedians, whose business is both novel and amusing; Madame Luba De Sarema is paying a return visit with her unique animal show; Rose Elliott wins much applause for her well-rendered songs; Les Bollingers, the Parisian rag painters, are a good turn; the Sisters Caselli and Raie Walters also deserve mention. Raymond's Bioscope completes a very attractive programme.

BLACKPOOL.—HER MAJESTY'S OPERA HOUSE.—General-Manager, Mr. J. R. Huddlestone.—Messrs. Charles Carey and Alexander Loftus's Cinderella company is in possession here this week. The cast is a very capable one, and includes Miss Freda Godfrey in the title-rôle, Miss Ernestine Walters as Prince Charming, Miss Maud Terry as Dandini, Miss Maud Nichols as Lord Gadfly, Messrs. Nash and Noel as the Broker's Men, Messrs. Norman Bowyer and W. E. Chewd as the Ugly Sisters, and Mr. J. B. Montague, who scores a great success as Peter the Page.

GRAND THEATRE.—Owner and Manager, Mr. T. Sergenson.—Her Luck in London is being played here this week by Mr. George Kirk and Miss Mary Neil's company. Miss Neil, who enacts the part of Nellie Harborne, displays great dramatic skill; Mr. Charles A. Leicester presents a capital portrayal of Gerald O'Connor; and Mr. Charles Draycott does well as Richard Lenowen.

PALACE. — General-Manager, Mr. G. H. Harrop; Acting-Manager, Mr. Fred Waller.—The bill provided here this week includes the Warsaw Bros., musical comedians; Marie Santoi, in an illuminated scena; Allis and Cassati, who score in an amusing sketch; Alf Levarni, a clever tight wire artist; J. H. Crew, a popular comedian; Lil O'Gorman, who sings well; and the Avocas, in a sensational act entitled The Reckless Miner.

BLYTH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. George E. Good.—The visit of Messrs. Alfred Paumier and Walter Howard's excellent company, with the romantic play entitled The Midnight Wedding, has met with a most enthusiastic reception, chief honours falling to Miss Annie Saker, who undertakes the dual rôles of Lieut. Karl Helsburg and Princess Astren von Strelsburg. As the Sword Master of the Red Hussars, Mr. Alfred Paumier gives a powerful performance; whilst Mr. Clinton Baddeley is sufficiently villainous as Von Scarsbruck. The comedy element is well supplied by Messrs. F. Constable, R. Payne, Algie Spalding, and Miss Ada Champion.

BOOTLE. — MUNCASTER THEATRE. — Proprietors, Messrs. Pennington; Manager, Mr. H. Pennington; Acting-Manager, Mr. Albert E. Wilson.—We have pantomime again here this week, Mr. A. E. Smith presenting Bo-Peep, which is drawing large houses. The staging is good, and the dresses are very pretty. Miss Elsie Douglas, in the title-rôle, gives a pleasing interpretation, her singing and dancing being well received; Miss Kathleen Garnon is a dashing Boy Blue, rendering her songs in an attractive and catchy manner; Miss Hilda Dayton as Colin and Miss Lily Desmonde as Maisie are well received. The humour of the production is well sustained by Reed and Lerne, their songs and patter being very quaint in the parts of Percy and Patsy. Other characters are capable played by Mr. H. J. Kemble (Granny Peep), Mr. Billy Beever (Baron Hardup), and the Sisters Marie (Jack and Jill). The specialities in the Palace Scene are introduced by Arnold, magician; Mr. Oliver Chew, a silfleur of extraordinary ability; Reed and Lerne, comedians; and Bendene, a clever contortionist. The chorus and ballet deserve a word of praise.

BOURNEMOUTH.—THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE.—Sole Proprietors, David Allen and Son; Sole Lessee, Mr. Mouillot; Manager, Mr. Rowland Stewart.—An enthusiastic reception by a large audience was given on Monday to Mr. Charles Frohman's company in The Catch of the Season. The piece was lavishly mounted and dressed. Miss Maie Ash, as the fascinating Angela, exhibited a vivacity which quickly established her in the favour of the audience, and with Mr. Frank Lincoln, who gave an excellent rendering of the Duke of St. Jermyns, she divided the honours of the evening. The rôle of Sir John Crystal was sympathetically played by that old favourite, E. W. Royce, and Miss Belle Napier, as Lady Crystal, was very convincing. As the two daughters, Miss Alice Lethbridge and Miss Hettie Muret played in charming style, the former quite bringing down the house by her graceful dancing. Mrs. A. B. Tapping was particularly excellent as Lady Caterham, and others who should receive special mention are Mr. Laurence Caird, Mr. Henry Kerr, Mr. Evelyn Wickens, and Miss Hilda Stewart.

BRADFORD. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Lessee, Mr. John Hart; General-Manager, Mr. T. F. Doyle; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. Richardson.—The crowded audiences are a fitting testimony to the excellence of Mr. Hart's latest achievement in the way of pantomime. Mother Goose is one of his best efforts. Fun, brightness, and magnificent spectacular effects are its leading features, and the company possesses an all-round ability which could not fail to guarantee success. In the title-rôle, Mr. J. E. Nightingale is delightfully quaint. As Jack, Mr. Harry Dent is resourceful and funny; Mr. Arthur Powell is humorous in his impersonation of the Laird, and he has a capital foil in Mr. Harry Roxbury as Alexander; Mr. Lancelot Usher contributes to the fun as the Mayor. There is a distinct air of grace in Miss Mabel Lait's energetic impersonation of Colin, the principal boy, and Miss Godwynne Earle is very charming as Jill. The abandon and energy displayed by Miss Daisy Jerome in a humorous impersonation of Gretchen are enjoyable features of an excellent effort. The Two Cabiacs present a graceful and wonderfully clever performance as Continental dancers. There is much charm in the Lady Ida of Miss Mamie Brickwell, in the Eric of Miss Yvonne Morel, and in Miss Joan Deering's performance of the Fairy Heartsease. Mr. Dennis Drew is excellent as Malignum, the Evil Spirit. Roars of laughter greet the antics of the Valdo Brothers as the two donkeys, and the charming ballets and beautiful scenic effects command applause.

PRINCE'S THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. F. Laidler; Acting-Manager, Mr. N. Hepworth.—Mr. Laidler has established a record with Dick Whittington; his most successful effort in the direction of pantomime. It is brimful of brightness and fun from start to finish. For this the company is in the main responsible, for their resources are great. In the way of stage and scenic effects, there is much to command admiration. In her bright and energetic performance of the title-rôle, Miss Esmé Gordon has won golden opinions, and Miss Edith Ager is very winsome in the part of Alice. Mr. Gilbert Rodgers makes a capital Alderman. There is a wealth of fun in Mr. T. B. Fayme's quaint Idle Jim, and Mr. Percy Curry's more energetic Idle Jack; and Mr. Johnny McElroy is a great source of fun as Mrs. Desiccated Edwards. Excellent efforts on the part of Mr. John Green as the Emperor, Mr. Frank Robinson as the Vizier, Miss Bella Brookland as the Princess, Miss Ethel Brookland as Lord Dedbroke, Miss Ada Jenner as Captain Cable, Miss Retta Righton as Dolly Varden, Miss Marie Wilson as Will Wherry, Mr. Will Henry as Harry Hamper, and Mr. Alfred Clegg as the nimble Cat, contribute largely to the success.

ST. GEORGE'S HALL.—Manager, Mr. C. Carter.—The success attending Mr. Carter's local pantomime Bo-Peep has led to its run extending over the present week, after which it is announced to be finally withdrawn.

THE EMPIRE.—Moss' Empires, Limited; Resident-Manager, Mr. Percival Craig.—Ella Retford, who heads an enjoyable programme here this week, submits a capital "coon" song in bright style. The Brothers Webb are entertaining clowns and experts on a variety of musical instruments; Sam Elton convulses the audience with his silent fun and clever juggling. In their musical absurdity, The Midnight Express, Cecil Linden and Elsie Hayward are amusing; a very fine acrobatic performance by the Brothers Andreassen elicits well deserved applause; the charming trio of vocal comediennes, the Sisters Hayden, provide an excellent turn. Fred Elton's musical scena, On Board Ship, is very entertaining; Mabel Hind's turn is bright and attractive, and the American Bioscope shows some excellent films.

PALACE THEATRE.—Lessee, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Resident-Manager, Mr. H. C. Arnold, jun.—Clever juggling and capital comedy by the Seddons entertain the audiences here this week, and Will Bacchus renders his coster songs in good and convincing style. Using two brushes (one in each hand), Speedwell in remarkably quick time paints some striking portraits; Nat Watkins is a "peculiar comedian" of a distinctly original type. A very expert banjo performance is submitted by Casselli and James. That versatile comedian George D'Albert re-appears with all his old success; Sam Harrison, vocalist, proves an acceptable deputy for Belle Braham, pictorial songstress; an absurdity, called Hello! presented by Frank Bernard and company, has some humour in it, and Raymond's Bio-Tableaux, as usual, prove very entertaining.

BRIDGWATER. — HIPPODROME. — Lessees, Bridgwater Hippodrome Co.; Manager, Harry Seaton.—The Camerons (Jim and Marie), comedy artists, in the sketch, Sammy in London, head the bill this week with a smart turn; Marie de Voy is recalled for her fine singing; Jim Fitzroy, comedian; Coe and Koe, in a comedy act; Dot Leoni, comedienne; Charley Moore, comedian; Ruby Norris, serio; the Sisters Lennard; and a sketch complete the programme.

BRIGHTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. H. Cecil Beryl; Assistant-Manager, Mr. Harcourt M. Beryl.—Mr. William Greet's company opened a fortnight's engagement here on Monday with The Earl and the Girl. The musical comedy was superbly staged and dressed. Mr. William Stephens won hearty applause for his humorous portrayal of Jim Cheese; Miss Aimee Grey acquitted herself admirably as Elphin Haye; Miss Florence Imeson made a bright and winsome Daisy Fallowfield; Miss Dot Carey submitted a charming character study as Liza Shoddam; Mr. Percy Carr was highly effective as Dick Wargrave; Mr. Ernest Torrence was entertaining as the fierce uncle; Miss Helen Langton's Miss Virginia Bliss was well played; and able support was given by Mr. Vernon Davidson (Hon. Crewe Boodle), Mr. Will Hudson (Downham), Mr. J. C. Graves (Mr. Talk), and Miss Gladys Fontaine (Mrs. Shimmering Black). The chorus and augmented orchestra did well under the direction of Mr. Evelyn Baker.

GRAND THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Ernest Carpenter.—The pantomime, Robinson Crusoe, continues to attract crowded houses, and seems likely to achieve a record local success. Miss May Mars, as Robinson Crusoe, is splendidly suited, and is nightly encored for her charming vocalisation; Miss Rosalie Jacobi makes a graceful and winsome Polly Perkins; and capital fun is provided by Mr. Walter Kooney (Will Atkins), Mr. Harry Karr (Dick Deadeye), and Mr. Allan Wye (Mrs. Crusoe). The singing of Mr. Ernest Laws (Sultan), Miss Winifred Norman (Princess), and the dancing of Miss Maud Percy and Mr. Edgar Budden are warmly appreciated.

ALHAMBRA.—Managing-Director, Mr. J. L. Graydon; General-Manager, Mr. Ernest Lepard.—A varied and attractive programme is sustained here this week. Wright and Elton (Crazy and Daisy), eccentrics, are entertaining; Nina May, a young vocalist, contributes her songs in pleasing style; Zeta Grey and company are highly successful in the musical comedy sketch, The Lancashire Lass; Ted Saunders, mimic, is well received; the Sisters Selwyn are dainty duettists and dancers; the Five Bon-Bons are amusing in their pantomimical trap scena, A Hot Time for One; Selma and Onga are clever on the triple bars; Frank Seeley, comedian, is enthusiastically applauded for his comic songs; the Tilley Up-to-date Minstrels provide an admirable turn; the Mackinnon Family, Scotch entertainers, win great favour with their song, instrumental, and dancing mélange; and the Alhambrascope pictures are excellent. George and the Dragon, a pantomime, or sort of play, in two acts and six scenes, written by W. Graham Robertson, was produced here on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday afternoons, the performances being in aid of the Working Men's Club, Providence Place, Brighton. Mr. A. Bromley Davenport as John Smith, confidential clerk and valet to George of Cappadocia (of the firm of George and Co., family dragon slayers), was very amusing. Tiny Miss Nancy Marson as "George's Gentleman's Gentleman," fascinated the audience with her clever and dainty dancing; Mr. Mervyn Trevor made a capital Dragon; Miss Frampton was an excellent Mother Nightmare; Miss Liddell's Princess Sabra, Miss L. Colbatch Clark's Queen of Egypt, Miss Trevelyan's Good Fairy, and Mr. Lionel Marson's King of Egypt were admirable impersonations. Miss Elaine Hawkings and Miss Maud Row contributed graceful dances; and especially delightful were the dances by the chorus of children, which had been kindly arranged by Miss Park. The picturesque scenery was painted by Messrs. B. and H. Drury; the music was orchestrated and arranged by Mr. A. W. Leggett (director of the Alhambra Orchestra), who conducted; and special numbers were composed by Mr. Ino Bastien.

HIPPODROME THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietors, Messrs. Barrasford and Smith; Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Barrasford.—There is a capital company here this week. Barton and Ashley, "breezy Americans," are especially effective in their representation of Canal Boat Sal; Charles Coborn "the man who broke the Bank at Monte Carlo," is as popular as ever; Gus Harris, Hebrew vocalist, is well received in his fine scena The Synagogue; Madame Bernice de Pasquali displays artistic vocalisation; Charles Steuart's company achieve much success in the sketch The Water Cure; Tom Stuart is a clever character actor and mimic; E. J. Wilkes, with his dog "Woof," submits a pleasing turn; Flem and Brok are amusing in their comedy act; the Jansons are very smart gymnasts; Maud Esmond is a refined comedienne; the Herald Comedy Four are effective in an Indian scena; and the Barrascope pictures are interesting.

WEST PIER. — Secretary and Entertainment Manager, Mr. A. D. Norman.—The Cherry Girl is enjoying a very prosperous career here. By permission of Mr. Seymour Hicks, the termination has been altered, "for the especial benefit of younger patrons." Miss Ellaline Craigie, the charming Queen, has been indisposed during the last few days, and her part has been ably filled by her sister, Miss Florence Craigie. Mr. G. Langford Kirby, as Moonshine and Happy Joe, is a great favourite. Mr. J. Edward Pearce, as Starlight and the Squire, is highly successful; Mr. J. P. E. Hussey and Mr. George Howard, as chamberlains and policemen, are very droll; and Miss Dorothy Green dances herself into favour.

AQUARIUM.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. J. J. Sallmayer; Entertainment-Manager, Mr. John Henderson.—The pantomime, Robin Hood, continues its prosperous run here, and large audiences are the rule. Miss Nellie Henderson is a dashing Robin Hood; Miss Susie Rusholme makes a charming Maid Marian; and Mr. Coningsby Brierley, is a mirth-provoking Friar Tuck; while Newham and Latimer as the Baron and Baroness are amusing. The pantomime concludes with a harlequinade and shadow pantomime.

BRISTOL.—PRINCE'S THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. James Macready Chute.—There was a large attendance here on Monday evening in all parts of the house, and the audience fully appreciated the Mother Goose pantomime. Mr. Wilkie Bard has made a capital study of the title-rôle. He amuses immensely with his quaint peculiarities, and at the same time his study is an artistic one. Happy Fanny Fields scores heavily as Grechen, the Dutch servant of Mother Goose. She is always bright and amusing. Miss Lily Morris and Miss Nina Wood are pleasing as principal boy and girl, and are now very popular. All the comedians are exceptionally good in their respective parts. They include Mr. Edward Lewis, Mr. Marriott Edgar, Mr. Fred Conquest, Messrs. Rick and Rich, and the Brothers Griffiths, an accomplished contingent. Miss Nellie Stratton is pleasing as Lady Biddy O'Rowke; Miss Kathryn Comber is graceful and stately as the Fairy Heartsease, singing in an exceptionally artistic style; and the Tiller "Superba" Troupe execute thier dances admirably. The dresses and scenery are quite up to the high standard we have been accustomed to here.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Ernest Carpenter; Resident-Manager, Mr. W. F. Crowe.—Goody Two Shoes continues to be successful in attracting good houses. The pantomime runs smoothly. There is a lot of comic business which causes much hilarity, and the staging, both in the way of costumes and scenery, is on a liberal scale. The principals, including Miss Harriet Fawn, Miss May Fallowfield, the Sisters Lunelle, Miss Minnie Love, Mr. Dave O'Toole, Messrs. Harrigan and Holt, Mr. Alec Kendall, and Mr. Leo Fallowfield are all excellent in their respective parts.

EMPIRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Barrasford.—Miss Dolly Elsworthy's company heads the bill with an interesting sketch, entitled The Orange Girl, the story dealing with an episode in the life of King Charles II. Miss Dolly Elsworthy plays effectively as Nell Gwynn, as also does Mr. Frank Liston as Charles II., and excellent support is given by other members of the company. The sketch, in three scenes, is nicely staged. Mirzah, "the Man in Green," does some good banjo playing and juggles with the instruments at the same time; J. P. Dane, comedian, has some smart songs; Mike Cray, comic juggler, is successful; the Waldrons amuse with their eccentricities in a funny sketch, The Silly Burglar; T. C. Calaghan, comedian, obtains applause; Miniature Marie is decidedly clever as a mimic and dancer; Hector and Paulus are expert comedy acrobats and equilibrists; and Frances Drew is a pleasing burlesque actress. Animated pictures by the Barrascope conclude the entertainment.

PALACE.—Resident-Manager, Mr. Horace Livermore; Secretary and Treasurer, Mr. F. J. V. Welchman. — The Alexandroff Troupe of Russian singers and dancers present a quaint and attractive turn. They are nine in number, mostly ladies, and clever acrobatic feats are introduced. A-Ba-Be, the "living picture postcard album," presents a very pretty novelty, the lady posing in an artistic manner, and the background pictures are cleverly painted and illuminated. Other attractive turns are provided by Ethel May, a pleasing comedienne and dancer; Jack Thornbury, a clever artist in sand and smoke pictures; the Henderson and Stanley Quartette of vocalists, instrumentalists and dancers; the Five Sisters Warwick, experts in trick, acrobatic, and fancy cycling; Maud Dainton and company, in their funny sketch, Selina; and Little Don, comedian and eccentric dancer. The performance concludes with an interesting exhibition of Vernon's animated pictures.

COLSTON HALL.—Mr. Joseph Poole's Myriorama and variety entertainment continues to attract a large attendance.

BROUGHTON.—VICTORIA, LIMITED.—Managing-Director, Mr. James W. Haworth; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. Fred Watson.—The Still Alarm is well presented here by Mathew H. Glenville and Fred Osmond's company. Mr. M. H. Glenville makes a good impression as Jack Manley; Mr. Cecil du Gue as Jack Bird gives an excellent performance; the Doc Wilber by Mr. Fred Osmond causes much laughter; Miss Maud Warburton is a charming Elinore Fordham; Miss Eva Reed is a sprightly Carrie Wilber; Miss Mabel Veriton makes an excellent Mrs. Manley; and Mr. Tom Beasley as Willie Manley, Mr. J. S. Pateman as Franklyn Fordham, and Mr. Lewis Corden as Joe Jones are well placed.

BURNLEY.—VICTORIA OPERA HOUSE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. W. C. Horner. Mr. J. Bannister Howard's company in Mr. J. Comyns Carr's version of Oliver Twist is here this week, and is being well received. Mr. Stanley Drewitt plays the heavy rôle of Fagin in a clever and brilliant manner, and is repeatedly applauded. The Bill Sikes of William H. Kemble is a well-studied representation; Mr. Arthur Brown ably portrays the benevolent Mr. Brownlow; Mr. W. H. Rotheram, a clever actor, plays the dual rôle of Mr. Grimwig and Mr. Monks; Mr. Cyril Cattley is a handsome Harry Maylie; and Mr. Charlie Clarke gives a clever representation of the Artful Dodger. Miss Marie Polini is responsible for a life-like portrayal of the repentant Nancy; Miss Helen Clement is a pleasing Rose Maylie; Miss Alice Maude does well as Mrs. Maylie; and Miss Dorothy Marsdin is an excellent Oliver. Other parts which are well played are Charlie Bates by Mr. Reginald C. Hunter, Mr. Bumble by Mr. Edward Walsh, and Giles by Mr. J. C. Appleby.

GAIETY THEATRE.—Proprietress, Mrs. T. Culeen; General-Manager, Mr. James E. Culeen.—Mr. Julian Malvern's company, under the direction of Mr. Charles M. Julian, is here on a return visit with I Defy the World. Mr. Lewis Gilbert gives a meritorious performance as Leon Darville; Mr. Horace Booth is sufficiently villainous as the Count de Beaulieu; Mr. Alfred Denning distinguishes himself as General Delaporte; and Laroches is ably portrayed by Mr. Charles Conway. The honeymoon couple, Samuel and Marie Wozzle, as played by Mr. Charles M. Julian and Miss Maud Lillian, provoke endless merriment. Miss Trixie St. Albans is an able exponent of Pauline Delaporte; Miss Gertrude Coates is very good as Fanchette; and Miss Maude Malvern displays dramatic ability as Blanche Darville.

EMPIRE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. W. C. Horner.—Herr Georg Chante is the premier turn here this week, and his clever dancing and wonderful quick changes provoke loud applause. Signor and Madame Belloni's Cockatoos are heartily applauded for their almost human performance, the tricks reflecting great credit upon their trainers; Vandinoff produces beautiful floral pictures with lightning rapidity, and is strongly welcomed; J. W. Barker is a humorous and versatile comedian; the Babusio Brothers are as much at home on their heads and hands as on their feet; J. S. James is a smart banjoist; and Ailsa Douglas is a pleasing soprano vocalist. An amusing picture, "A Butterfly Chase," is exhibited by Raymond's Bio Tableaux.

BURTON-ON-TRENT. — NEW THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietors, Messrs. Bennett; Acting-Manager, Mr. John Waller.—The attraction here this week is Miss Mary Austin's company in The Cotton Spinner, which attracted a good audience on the opening night. Miss Mary Austin, who undertook the rôle of Mary Prescott, gained much applause by her graceful and sympathetic acting. She was admirably supported by Miss Dorothy Mackenzie, who gave a finished performance as Constance Harrington. As John Prescott, the Cotton Spinner, Mr. John S. Haydon submitted an interesting performance, which was well appreciated. Mr. E. Vivian Edmonds was very successful as Arthur Northbury, and Mr. Edwin F. Fysher acted well as Lord Northbury; Mr. Henry Howard made the most of his part as Foster Cunningham; and Mr. Ernest C Edwards as Major Stratton and Miss Bella Power as Lady Charlotte Needy caused much amusement. The play was preceded by some excellent animated pictures shown by the Rayograph.

BURY (LANCS).—THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE, LTD.—General-Manager, Mr. Otto C. Culling.—Messrs. Haddon and Loader's pantomime Jack and the Beanstalk, is here this week. The company is a good one. Miss Nellie Burdette is a lively Jack; and Miss Rose Sylvester sings charmingly as Dora. The comedians include Mr. Leon Simkin (Dame Trotter), Mr. Dan Paulton (Squire Musty), and Mr. Jay Laurier (Silly Billy). The specialities include the Sisters Poole, charming dancers; Sisters Florenca, Grant and Allen, and the Alhambra Trio of speciality dancers. The scenery is capital.

CIRCUS OF VARIETIES.—General-Manager, Mr. Otto C. Culling.—The week's programme here includes the Five Whiteleys, acrobatic and musical turn; Mahatma, who answers questions regarding absent friends, &c.; Valoni, a juggler; the Three Seabornes, acrobats; H. F. Wilson, vocalist; Barton and Franklin, vocalists; Maxwell and O'Neill, comedians; and Percy Maye, female impersonator.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. Broadhead; Manager, Mr. Broadhead, jun.—The chief turns here are the Hadley Juveniles, a capital turn; the Celtic Comedy Trio; Carr and Rose; and Conway and Yarland, comedians.

CAMBRIDGE. — NEW THEATRE. — Managing-Director, Mr. W. B. Redfern, J.P., D.L.—Mr. Harry Yorke's company is here this week with a welcome return visit of Sherlock Holmes, and on Monday night Mr. Lawrence Leyton gave a most effective and realistic rendering of the famous detective; Dr. Watson was equally well presented by Mr. Edward Heanley; Professor Moriarty was remarkably well played by Mr. W. T. Stirling; Larraber and Prince were made the most of by Messrs. Ernest Gray and Phillip Renouf. Miss Beatrice Marsden as Miss Faulkner successfully represented the character.

CARDIFF.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Robert Redford. — Robinson Crusoe finishes this week, and Cardiffians are taking advantage of the last opportunities of witnessing a pantomime which is acknowledged by all to be one of the best ever seen in South Wales. Very popular is Miss Cassie Walmer, her impersonation of the Empress of Jungalow having proved most attractive. Miss Veronica Brady has been a particularly pleasing principal girl, her singing and dancing being a great feature of the production; Miss Maisie Ellinger as Crusoe has worked hard, and gained unbounded praise; and Miss Lily Beverley as Lieut. Bobs and Miss Blanche Courtney as Jennie Hopkins have been well to the fore. The clever comedians are to be congratulated on their respective delineations, Mr. Tom Owen, Mr. Frank Couch, and Messrs. Downes and Langford being a very sound combination of exceptional talent; while Mr. Clifford Morgan's baritone singing and Larola's brilliant juggling speciality deserve special mention.

KING'S THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Frank Bateman; Business-Manager, Mr. Reg. Grant.—The original New

Dick Whittington on Monday to a large house. Miss Grace Henderson makes an excellent Dick, acting and singing with great success; Miss Emmie Hands is a charming Alice Fitzwarren; and Mr. Ben Ford is capable as Alderman Fitzwarren; Messrs. Henry Albery and Will Dennis as Martha Muggine and Idle Jack respectively are a useful and amusing pair of comedians; Mr. Leo Lambert undertakes the rôle of the Emperor of Morocco, his songs being well received; Miss Mona Wells as King Demon and Miss Gladys Wells as the Fairy Queen are both well placed and effective. The specialities include Miss Marie Winsome, an admirable male impersonator; Leslie Murray, the Court magician, with clever business; the Maros, skilful triple bar artists; the Etos, capital contortionists; and Mdlle. Dora, a charming oboe soloist. The scenery and dresses are of a very superior character, and the Verona troupe of dancers do effective work. The augmented orchestra and large chorus are under the efficient command of Mr. William Crandon-Bevan.

CLYDEBANK.—NEW GAIETY THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Acting-Manager, Mr. Robert Bayne. — Mr. Wentworth Croke's company in The Christian is proving a strong attraction here this week. Mr. Frank Tennant as John Storm displays histrionic abilities of a high order. Mr. T. Renaud Lockwood gives a fine interpretation of Lord Robert Ure; Mr. Stanley Radcliffe submits a finished performance of Father Lamplugh; Mr. Charles C. Dering scores as Archdeacon Wealthy; Mr. Oswald Marshall is highly successful as Mr. Lorimer; Glory Quayle has an excellent exponent in Miss Grace Chalmers, who does every justice to the part; and Miss Molly Hayden is well suited as Mrs. Callender. Every attention has been paid to the dressing and staging of the play, which are excellent.

COATBRIDGE.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, The Coatbridge Theatre Co.; Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Acting-Manager, Mr. John Commins.—The new management made a hit in opening with Messrs. Buchanan and Stevens' pantomime company in The Fair One with the Golden Locks. Miss Mona Emerald, in the title-rôle, is very dainty, and sings admirably; Miss Dollie Hook looks handsome as the Count Von Nickel, and delights the audience with some excellent songs; Mr. George Westland, as Vinaigrette, makes a capable Scotch comedian; Mr. H. O. Wills successfully portrays Prince Pippin; Miss Ida Gladstone makes an admirable Avenant; and Sauciboy is cleverly acted by Mr. Barry Lupino. Specialities are many, and among them are Mr. Ball Valentine's Flying Ballet, which again and again receives applauses for its well-executed turns.

COLCHESTER.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Proprietor, Mr. Charles Macdona; Resident-Manager, Mr. F. C. Upton.—Notwithstanding the fact that Monday was polling day, a very fair house assembled to witness Mr. Frederick Mouillot's company play A Message from Mars. Mr. Cyril Austen Lee gave a striking portrayal of Horace Parker; and Mr. William H. Brougham made a capital Messenger; whilst the Man of Genius found an exceedingly capable exponent in Mr. Bruce Lindley. A couple of clever adaptations were those of Miss May Saker as Minnie Templar, and Mrs. Edward Saker as the egotist's aunt.

GRAND THEATRE.—The local garrison amateurs are giving performances this week of Mamz'lle Natouche for the benefit of the Army Pensioners' Widows' Fund, assisted by one or two well-known artists.

CONSETT.—NEW THEATRE.—Lessee, Mr. Hugh Robertson; Resident-Manager, Mr. Lloyd Clarance.—Mr. J. A. Campbell's principal company is here this week with the drama entitled The Little Bread Winner. As Lord William Dorrington, Mr. J. A. Campbell portrays the character to the life; whilst as Richard Lawrence Mr. Evan Roberts is very good. Mr. Roland Yorke scores as Joseph Prior; and as Charles Prior Mr. Allen Charles is excellent. Mr. Walle Spinner appears as Doctor Chadwick; and Mr. Lea Hair as Monty. Miss Mary Mallalim is most pathetic as Margaret Daventry; and Miss Jenny Bostock is a capable Bridget O'Flanaghan. Miss Maud Buchanan does full justice to the part of Kate Cherry; the same remarks apply with equal force to the rendering of the rôle of Ruth Cherry by Miss Emma Litchfield. Too much praise cannot be accorded Little Emmie Thomas, who appears as Meg, the little bread winner. She is applauded again and again for her singing and dancing.

CORK.—OPERA HOUSE.—Manager, Mr. John Horgan.—Mr. Leigh Lovel's company in The Duke of Killicrankie opened a week's engagement here on Monday. The players are exceptionally bright and clever. Mr. Walter Ringham's impersonation of the title-rôle was most artistic; as the Lady Henrietta, Miss Octavia Kenmare gave a clever delineation. Miss Naomi Neilson, on the passage over, was thrown out of her berth, but still she appeared with her customary success in the part of Mrs. Mulholland. Mr. Leigh Lovel also did well. Sowing the Wind was also billed by the same clever company on Thursday.

PALACE THEATRE, LTD.—Manager, Mr. Henry Kemble.—There is an all-round good bill of fare supplied here this week. The La Vails, on the silver chain ladders and breakaway bars, give a really marvellous performance. Ted Waite is a capital eccentric comedian; Max Merlin, the human crocodile, is a clever contortionist; the Mar-ta-Fi acrobats are clever; and Gretta May is very pleasing in her songs and dances. The De Almer Trio introduce single-stick fencing and ball-punching, their turn being much admired; Harry Jennings, comedian and dancer, is smart in his clog dancing; Marstro and Mdlle. Oretta, equilibrists and tumblers, are successful. The male performer balances himself on billiard cues, and does some clever tricks with balls off a billiard table. The American bioscope pictures are a fine collection.

COVENTRY.—THE OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietor, Mr. Wm. Bennett.—An attractive Christmas pantomime entitled Dick Whittington, written by Mr. James P. Moore, is being presented this week with success by the Moore Kennedy Company. Mr. Hyam Long is very amusing in his impersonation of Alderman Fitzwarren; Mr. Dan Agar soon sets the house in roars as Idle Jack, and sings some excellent songs; Mr. Arthur Behan is successful as the cook; and the two Canadian boys, Doyle and Massey, are respectively responsible for Shuffle and Shirk. Miss Vera Snowden is a winsome Alice Fitzwarren, and Mdlle. Lucreta captivates the house as Dick Whittington. Monsieur Pauletti is an excellent Cat. The fairy characters are well rendered by Miss Mollie Revell, Miss Clara Dudley, and Miss Lena Dudley. Miss Lily Townshend makes a capital Prince Charming. Specialities are introduced by Mdlle. Lucretia (dancer), the Palais Royal Quartette of Dancers, Pauletti (bicycle acrobat), and Mr. Hyam Long (musical eccentric).

THE HIPPODROME.—Manager, Mr. T. M. Sylvester.—The programme here includes Lew Lake and his comedy company in an amusing sketch entitled The Bloomsbury Burglars; Charles Fanning, comedian; Harry Maynard, a capital character vocalist; Les Strads, speciality musical artists; Miss Ella Dean, burlesque actress and vocalist; Deon Walker, speciality artist; and Jimmy Shields, Scotch comedian; the usual animated pictures concluding the programme.

CRADLEY HEATH.—EMPIRE THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Jno. H. Morton.—This week we have a return visit of Messrs. Armadale and Warren's company, with The Face at the Window. Mr. E. Hoggan Armadale is a favourite here as Chevalier Lucio Delgado, a character which gives him ample scope to show his histrionic ability; Mr. T. W. Dunscombe, as Paul Gouffett, a difficult part, is particularly pleasing. The fun of the play is in the capable hands of Miss Gwynne Warren and Mr. C. Alan Hineson, who, as Babette and Peter Pottlebury, make some amusing hits. Mr. Alfred Warne gives a dignified impersonation of Henry de Brisson; and Mr. Gilbert Hall is well placed as Lucien Cortier. Mr. George Phythian makes the most of a small but prominent part, Le Blanc, the mad doctor; and Mr. F. C. Raphael is well placed as Jean Barbelow. Miss N. Thorn Hallam, as Marie de Brisson, wins the sympathy of the audience; and Miss Elaine Grant is quite successful in the rôle of La Pinau.

CREWE.—LYCEUM THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Henry Taylor.—Mr. Robert Perris is paying a return visit this week with A Fight for Millions, an American drama with several sensational effects, notably the submarine boat. As Willie Neverwork Mr. Perris displays abundant humour, and his singing of "Pal of mine," an illustrated song, is enthusiastically received. Mr. W. Henry Hargreaves as Tom Manley shows marked ability, and Mr. Archie Helsby gives an excellent portrayal of Richard Dudley. Mr. Karl Edwards as Moses and Mr. Nicholas Conway as Hobbs are very clever and amusing. Among the ladies Miss Elma Turner fills the rôle of Ellen Dudley with distinction, and Miss Eva Purcell as Pearl Rivers is very effective, her singing of "A little boy called Taps," pictorially illustrated, being excellent. Mrs. Audrey Conning as Mrs. Hudson Rivers, Miss Lottie Pearce as Betty, and Miss Audrey Sutherland as Little Madge are deserving of every credit.

CROOK.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, Wallace Davidson, Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. Wallace Davidson; Resident-Manageress, Mrs. Davidson.—Messrs. Travis Green and Arthur Hinton's company is paying a return visit here this week with When a Man Hates. As Pietro Danelli, Mr. Arthur Hinton submits a forcible rendering; Miss Leila Zillwood is an admirable Olga; Mr. Travis Green is a manly Lawrence Hastings; Miss Dorothy Haigh a sweet Letty; and Peter Pimple and Dolly Dimple are in the able hands of Mr. F. Brunell and Miss Cissie Cleveland. On Thursday night, for the benefit of Miss Zillwood, The Sorrows of Satan was played.

CROYDON.—GRAND THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. Lawson Lambert.—Mr. Charles Frohman's company is here this week with Leah Kleschna. In the title-rôle Miss Haidee Wright plays with all the tact and skill of an accomplished actress; Miss Ethel Marryatt is efficient as Madame Berton; Miss Haidee Hemsley is charming as Claire Berton; Miss Dorothy Sidney is a lively Sophie Chapponiere; and useful aid is given by Misses Cecile Leith and Alice Davis as Frieda and Charlotte. Mr. H. Cooper-Cliffe gives a well-thought out rendering of Kleschna; Mr. J. Graeme-Campbell submits a sterling portrayal of Paul Sylvaine; Mr. E. H. Brooke has closely studied the rôle of Schram; Mr. Kenneth Rivington is a commanding General Berton; Mr. Cyril Harcourt acts carefully in the part of Renoul Berton; Mr. Roland Daniel causes amusement as Valentin Favre; and smaller rôles are creditably enacted by Messrs. William Wilson, George Fairburn, M. Loomis, and John Harding. Unstinted praise is due to Mr. Leonard Gautier's orchestra; and Mr. Lawson Lambert gauges to a nicety the requirements of his patrons.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Samuel James; Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles Herrick.—Little Red Riding Hood is attracting good houses here. Unstinted praise is due to Mr. Herbert Williams for his quaint impersonation of Granny; Messrs. Condon and Preston are a whimsical pair as Pen and Ink; Mr. Tod Squires extracts incessant fun from the rôle of Baron Badlot; Mr. Charles Marston does himself credit as the Wolf; and Mr. Alf. Aubyn is a favourite as Lawyer Fox. Miss Rita Rhylle is a sweet and pretty Little Red Riding Hood; Miss Ethel Dove is an attractive and animated Robin Hood; and Miss Sophie Swaby is cordially received as Fairy Bluebell. The Sisters Brand do wonders with the rôles of Jack and Jill. Mr. Sid Morton may be congratulated upon his able stage-management; Miss Idalia May is a clever dancer; and admirable specialities are submitted by Mr. Mansell Fane, vocalist; Knoto, contortionist; and Clito, coloured coon dancer.

DARLINGTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Manager, Mr. James Bell.—The attraction this week is Miss Mary Austin and Mr. Vivian Edmond's company in the late Wilson Barrett's play, The Golden Ladder. The principal parts of this interesting drama are taken by Mr. Harry Cullenford, as the Rev. Frank Thornhill, shows ability; Mr. Harry Belford evokes much interest in the character of Mr. Dixson; Mr. Clayton gives a creditable rendering of Noah Learoyd; Mr. James Rowland is droll as Samuel Peckaby; Miss Eva Moss, as Lilian Grant, is pathetic and forcible; Miss Nellie Graham, as Mrs. Peckaby, scores; and Miss Kate Haslewood, as The Tearer, is amusing; Miss Jessie Gillette, as Victoria Alexandra Peckaby, is responsible for a pleasing portrayal.

DARWEN.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee, Mr. Loader; Acting-Manager, Mr. F. J. Robinson.—The attraction here this week is Mr. T. Morton-Powell's company in Honour Thy Father. Mr. J. W. Evelyn, as Gabriel Garth, displays ability; Mr. Douglas B. Watson is well suited as Jack Halyard; Mr. C. Craig impersonates Duncan Bly in an able manner; Mr. W. H. Melrose is an amusing farm servant; and Mr. W. M. Cameron is good as Mike. Miss M. Coleman does justice to the rôle of Lillian Garth; Miss M. Scott is clever as Mercy Merry; and Miss Lizzie Morley is a humorous Nurse.

DERBY.—GRAND THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.—Sole Proprietor and General-Manager, Mr. T. Allan Edwardes; Assistant-Manager, Mr. Chas. Denley.—This week's attraction is supplied by Mr. George Dance's principal company in The Cingalee. In the name-rôle Miss Winifred O'Connor plays and sings with grace and charm, and secures an all-round success. Mr. Lauri De Frece as Chambhuddy Ram leads the comedy, and deserves unstinted praise. In the same connection Miss Gladys Guy as Peggy Sabine also merits high commendation. The Hon. Harry Vereker is ably accounted for by Mr. Frank Crimp, whose fine voice is heard to advantage in the various numbers allotted to the part. Mr. Bertrand Gates acquits himself admirably as Boobhamba, his topical song being several times encored. As Sir Peter Loftus Mr. Coop Edmunds is distinctly clever and diverting; and Mr. Ethelbert Edward is in every way satisfactory as Bobby Warren. Miss Phyllis Herbert, Miss May Owen, Miss Nellie Gladwell, and Miss Laurie Lindsley figure most agreeably as the four tea girls; and Miss Marjorie Clarke as Lady Patricia Vane and Miss Essie Perrin as Angy Loftus are excellent. The dancing—as is also the case with the singing—is thoroughly good throughout, and special mention should be made of Miss Perrin's delightful pas seul. The chorus is capital, and the special orchestra, under the baton of Mr. Otto Manus, leaves nothing to wish for. A first-rate production.

PALACE.—Lessee and General-Manager, Mr. T. Allan Edwardes; Assistant-Manager, Mr. H. Taylor.—An entertaining star turn here this week is supplied by the Harley Troupe of comedy trampolin acrobats. Their performance, which is both smart and deserving of praise, is accorded hearty approval. Clown Barker is responsible for much amusement with his dogs, monkey, pony, &c., the animals having evidently been well trained. C. F. Best is distinctly funny as "Mac Bunker, the Mountebank"; Mill, Ray and Theresa appear to advantage in their quick-change act; the Wallys, expert jugglers, are commendable; Wat Tyler is a successful character vocalist; the Laurens, in a novel statuary act, receive due recognition; and the Palace Bioscope has an exceedingly interesting film entitled "Life and Scenes in India."

DEWSBURY.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Resident-Manager, Mr. J. Herbert Asquith.—Mr. J. W. Turner's opera company is occupying the boards here this week, and doing excellent business. The répertoire consists of The Daughter of the Regiment, Fra Diavolo, The Bohemian Girl, The Lily of Killarney, Faust, and Maritana, in this order. The principals include Messrs. J. W. Turner, John Ridding, F. J. Hargreaves, Chas. Le Sœur, Sidney Clifford, Miss Jessie Dennis, Alice Boaden, and Kitty Brownless. The chorus is a strong one. Mr. T. Lawton conducts.

HIPPODROME AND VARIETIES.—General-Manager, Mr. G. Weldon.—Monday night was given up to a gigantic mass meeting held by the Liberal Party of this constituency. On Tuesday, when business was resumed, Dolly, Agnes, and Maud, the singing factory girls, achieved their former success; and Bert Hague, a local singer of some note, did well. The Two 'Cellos, musical artists, scored; and Wheeler and Wilson, in their acrobatic act, were satisfactory. The turn of the bill was provided by the Dorians, in a clever aerial show. Bertha Norwood, soubrette and dancer; Fred Harrison, comedian; Bert Williams, in an amusing ventriloquial act; and the Harriscope, with a stock of pictures, are also in the programme.

DONCASTER.—NEW GRAND THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. J. W. Chapman.—Goody Two Shoes, a pretty pantomime, came here on Monday. The title-rôle is daintily presented by Miss Annie Casey; and a particularly commendable interpretation of Roland, the hero, comes from Miss Chummie La Mara. The Dame Freckles of Mr. Sidney Dean could scarcely be improved upon; hearty recognition is accorded Miss Hawthorne Thwaites for her impersonation of Benevalantia; and Miss Julie Fuller gives piquancy and effect to the rôle of Mephisto. The specialities include the Mikado troupe of lady dancers, Messrs. Selby and Myers, Miss Annette Aseiky, Messrs. Keith and Merson, the Sisters St. Julian, and Cyrus and Maude.

DOVER.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, The Dover Theatres, Ltd.; Chairman of Directors, Mr. B. Carter; Managing-Director, Mr. Fred C. Dew.—Poole's Myriorama is paying a welcome return visit here this week. Many new pictures have been added, and the entertainment given by the clever company of variety artists is also much appreciated. Little Doretta contributes a pretty Dutch song, followed by a smart acrobatic dance; Miss Kitty Wood sings a charming song entitled "The Face in the Firelight," illustrated with lantern slides, and later on in the evening gives a highly effective turn with her clever and well-trained canine circus and orchestra. Mr. Harry Stewart, the American protean change artist, is exceedingly good; while Leonard and Mac, patter comedians, are amusing, and meet with well-deserved applause. The Avondale Quartette are responsible for some exceptionally well-rendered glees; and one of the prettiest and most successful items on the programme is Miss Daisy Graham's collection of trained birds. Mention must be made of the fine series of animated pictures. Mr. Cecil F. Couper is an efficient guide, and the orchestra is under the able control of Mr. A. S. Morrell.

DUBLIN.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Mouillot; Resident-Manager, Mr. Geo. Parrington.—On Monday The Moody Manners Opera company entered on its last week here after a most successful season. Meyerbeer's opera, The Huguenots, was excellently staged on Monday, and the work was thoroughly and satisfactorily rendered, the orchestra being under the direction of Herr Eckhold. Madame de Vere submitted a finished and artistic embodiment of Valentine; her singing was excellent and greatly admired. Miss Kate Henderson in the rôle of Valois sang and acted admirably. Mr. Joseph O'Mara gave a remarkably good representation of Raoul, and sang his music with exquisite taste. Mr. Charles Manners was warmly applauded for his praiseworthy performance of Marcella, his song "Piff Paff" being deservedly encored. Mr. Charles Magrath did well as Count San Bris, and Mr. William Dever filled the character of Count de Nevers in a successful manner. The week's programme included The Lily of Killarney, Maritana, The Puritan's Daughter, Carmen, Siegfried, Faust, and The Bohemian Girl.

GAIETY THEATRE.—Lessees, Michael Gunn, Ltd.; General-Manager, Mr. Charles Hyland.—The enormously successful pantomime, Cinderella, is still the attraction here, and is drawing full houses.

QUEEN'S.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. J. W. Whitbread; General-Manager, Mr. Kennedy Miller.—Mr. Kennedy Miller's company is here this week with Lord Edward, or '98. Mr. Robert Faulkner capitally portrays the part of Lord Edward and Miss Cecilia Dare is a creditable Pamela. Mr. James O'Brien causes much laughter by his impersonation of Thady, and as Lady Louisa Connolly Miss P. Reynolds is excellent. The part of Higgins is in the capable hands of Mr. Ion Ireland, and Mrs. Brady is successful as Madame de Sillery. Mr. Dane Clarke acts with judgment as Francis Magan, and Miss Monica Kelly makes a humorous Katey Malone. Napper Tandy is ably depicted by Mr. R. Payne, and Major Sirr is well sustained by Mr. Ryeland Leigh. The Misses Ada Turner and May Axon are both good as Mrs. and Miss Moore, and Major Swan is well played by Mr. Phillip Blake.

EMPIRE.—General Manager, Mr. Frank Allen; Musical Director, Mr. H. J. Baynton.—This week's programme is a good one, the principle position being alloted to Madame Marzella's performing birds, whose wonderful training elicits applause; Vasco, the mad musician, pays a return visit, and is as popular as ever; Tony and the Vernon Comedy Four receive due recognition; and the Three Victorias are charming vocalists and dancers; Holles and Goldman's Trio, in their musical comedy, The Little Charwoman, are highly amusing; and Bicknelle is an expert in clay-modelling; Alexandre and Bertie's gymnastic performance deserves commendation; and Les Adoz, in Olympian plays, makes a favourable impression. The Empire pictures are also interesting.

TIVOLI.—General-Manager, Mr. Charles M. Jones; Secretary, Mr. H. A. Murphy.—Mr. W. Permane's educated bears, the current attraction here, give an interesting show; and the Brothers Hannaway are smart comedians and dancers; Ned Kennedy and company's sketch, Life in a Tenement House, causes much laughter; and Dave Watson's cornet solos scores a success; a clever display is given by Mlle. Florizell, the flexible lady; and Volp and Cleveland's musical specialtiy meets with approval; Clavers and Piccolo are an acceptable pair of comedians; and Shirley Liggins, negro comedian; J. A. Cassels, Scotch comedian; and the Bioscope complete the bill.

ROUND ROOM ROTUNDA.—The Irish Animated company is still here, and has in no way diminished in popularity.

WORLDS FAIR AND MUSIC HALL.—Proprietor, Mr. C. A. James.—Pettigrove and Son's Marionettes pantomime, Cinderella, continues to attract.

DUNDEE.—HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Acting-Manager, Mr. S. Perkins.—Milton Bode's pantomime, Puss in Boots, which we inadvertently referred to last week as Cinderella, has now entered in the last week of a most successful season. The management have good reason for congratulation, the production having been a success in every way, and everyone will say farewell with the greatest reluctance.

PALACE THEATRE.—Managing-Directors, Messrs. Rosen and Bliss; Acting-Manager, Mr. E. J. Dexter.—The Saxon Trio of strong men return with their amazing athletic performance. The Children's Picnic is still going strong; and a capital programme is contributed to by the Venola Brothers, ring performers; the Brothers Ralston, vocal duettists; Jack Charman, vocalist; Miss Millie Harris, and Miss Agnes Molteno, in classical excerpts from opera. Vernon's Imperial Bioscope remains up-to-date.

GAIETY THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. R. A. P. Williams.—Mr. Williams's second pantomime, Dick Whittington, was produced on Monday with great éclat. It is picturesque from a scenic point of view, and strong in principals and specialities. Miss Kathleen Emmet makes a dashing Dick, and scores a big success with her rendering of "My Irish Molly O"; Miss Rose Whillier, as the Fairy Bluebell, has a fine voice, which is heard to advantage in "Dreamland"; Miss Irene Vincent cuts a dashing figure as Mustapha; Miss Kitty Ward makes an exceedingly handsome Princess; and Miss Renée Walton is effective as Grimalkin. Mr. Fred Pearce keeps the fun going as Idle Jack, and contributes a clever eccentric dance. Mr. Jack Wilson has a fine sense of humour, and is distinctly quaint as Captain Reuben Ratlin; Mr. Fred Collins, as the Dame, is a mirth-provoking Scotch comedian, his song, "I'm getting married to John Mackay," being received with great delight; Mr. Harry Cardoe is a clever contortionist, and makes an excellent Cat; Mr. James Millar, as King Rat, displays an excellent baritone voice in his song, "A soldier's life"; Miss Alma Evelyn as Sir Potter Hill, Mr. Alf. Bilford as Alderman Fitzwarren, Mr. Claude Morton as Bill Barnacle, and Mr. Ed. Chas. Howitt as the Verger, are alike excellent in their respective parts. Rappo and Ella give an amazing and daring equilibrist entertainment; the Two Flowers contribute a cleverly-executed dance; and the Gaiety troupe of dancers score well in their clog dance.

EMPIRE THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Frank Percival.—Messrs. Beaudyn and Crowe's company produce The Way of the World. The outstanding feature is the assumption of the part of Adela Roche, the circus queen, by Miss Sydney Crowe, who gives an excellent impersonation. Mr. Herbert Scardon makes a dashing Cecil Montague; and Mr. Clare Temple, as the clergyman, gives a fine character study. Miss Violette Vivian, as Polly Bell, the circus strong woman, manipulated the heavy weights with great success.

DUNFERMLINE.—THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE.—Sole Lessee and Manager, Mr. W. E. Potts.—Miss Lillie Mowbray's successful pantomime, Cinderella, is being played here this week, and was attended on Monday night by a good audience. Miss Ethel Burns makes a handsome Prince Peerless, her singing being a great attraction; Miss May Garnet Vayne is a sweet Cinderella, her singing and dancing being much appreciated; Miss Vesta Brownie, as Dandina, does well; Miss Maggie Brownie, in her comic make-up as Semolina, plays her part well; Miss Eva Dumante, as Fairy Light Heart, is enthusiastically encored for her fine singing; Miss Lilla Kedwards is seen to great advantage as Babette; Mr. Will Wilson, as Peter, does ample justice to his part; Mr. Tom Read, as Angelina, keeps the audience laughing; and the Boston Twins, as Knipp and Knapp, are a decided success. The specialities are a special feature, and consist of Ivy Valescoe's troupe of trained ponies; Read and Wright, premier top-boot dancers; and Hampson's grotesque act.

EASTBOURNE.—DEVONSHIRE PARK THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. A. Standen Triggs.—During the latter part of the week Messrs. Murray King and Clark's company is billed to appear here in Bluebell in Fairyland.

PIER PAVILION.—Manager, Mr. George Hayes.—Mr. Peter Davey's capital company is supplying the first pantomime at this house with Puss in Boots. A complete success must be voted to Mr. Wyn Weaver for his excellent work as King Komilfo. His style is original and quaint, and he bubbles over with fun and merriment. Mrs. Arthur Royce is a distinct and highly-amusing Dame Donna; Mr. Ernest Noble provides a liberal quantity of laughter as Bilbabio; and Mr. Arthur White is a first-class cat, his contortion work being loudly applauded. Particular mention must be made of Messrs. Eugene and Willie, who, in addition to being a most diverting Bull-Bovrillio, contributes an attractive musical and acrobatic show, which is one of the hits of the pantomime; and Mr. Leslie Digby and Mr. Reginald Ring are a couple of effective comedians as Sancho and Pancho. Of the charming, shapely ladies, first mention must be made of Miss Nellie Groves, who is a vivacious and laughing Princess Carita; Miss Marie Kildare is quite a favourite as principal boy Juan; Miss Maud Brockwell is a very pretty and fascinating Lola; Miss Dollie Shaw, as Katrina, is a graceful and accomplished dancer; and Miss May Hollom a pretty Fairy Perdita.

THE HIPPODROME.—General-Manager, Mr. Harry Day; Acting-Manager, Mr. Walter Smith.—Miss Minnie Cunningham quickly obtains a firm footing in the favour of the audience, and she is a charming comedienne; Messrs. Burns and Burns have a most effective sketch; the Three San Remo Girls sing and dance in good style; Ford and Hanson score in their musical turn; Bishop and Vale succeed as comedians; the Misses May and Lilly provide enjoyment as singers and instrumentalists; and the Sainsburys and Miss Blanche Albini very capably complete the bill.

EBBW VALE.—KING'S.—Lessees, Messrs. Carlton and Sam Duckworth; Responsible-Managers, Messrs. W. Devereux and E. T. Hood.—Mr. Oswald Brook's company was here during the first three nights of the week in The Trail of the Serpent, and for the concluding nights Mr. Chas. H. Phelps's company, with One Woman's Wickedness, was announced.

EDINBURGH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. F. W. Wyndham; Acting-Manager, Mr. William Whitehead.—The pantomime The Forty Thieves, with Mr. Tom Murray as first comedian, Miss Ruth Lytton as principal boy, and Mr. Felino as the donkey, continues to provide good entertainment for full houses.

ROYAL LYCEUM THEATRE.—Proprietors, Messrs. Howard and Wyndham, Ltd.; General-Manager, Mr. G. T. Minshull.—Lady Madcap, now in the fourth and last week of a very successful run, is still attracting large audiences. Miss Marie Studholme in the name part is mainly responsible for the popularity of this latest musical play.

GRAND THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. Eade Montefiore.—Aladdin still holds the field at this enterprising house, where new songs and further novelties are seasonably introduced by Miss May Marton, Messrs. Walton and Lester, and other members of the company. Cordial appreciation of the performance is manifested by the crowds flocking to the theatre.

EMPIRE PALACE THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; Acting-Manager, Mr. C. J. Cawood.—In the programme here this week Miss Florence St. John is the principal attraction in Godfrey's comedietta, My Milliner's Bill. The part of Mrs. Merridew is played by Miss St. John with all the old charm of manner, and her rendering of "Sally in our Alley" is full of the expression which always marks her singing. Mr. Chas. B. Bedells gives adequate support as Mr. Merridew. The sketches of characters from Dickens's novels are graphically done by Mr. and Mrs. Lucas, who display dramatic powers of a high order. Miss Minnie Mace is graceful and vivacious as vocalist and dancer; and the Two St. Johns provide a very pleasing musical act. The Serenaders, masked musicians, appear to much advantage in solo and part singing and dainty dances. Mr. F. K. Dundas, actor-vocalist, is heartily applauded for his dramatic sketches; the Four Kamlos are clever and amusing in their horizontal bar act; Miss Edie King dances with expertness; Miss Edie Veno sings coon songs with success; and Miss Haidee Lee and Mr. Wallace Kingston are really amusing in a somewhat novel farcical sketch.

COOKE'S ROYAL CIRCUS.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. John Henry Cooke.—The Arctic spectacle Lapland is still the main attraction here, and good houses are the rule. Mr. Cooke never spares himself or his staff in his efforts to please his patrons, and his entertainment this season is marked by the care and variety which characterise all his programmes. The horsemanship is admirable; the turns are excellent of their kind, and the clowning of the drolls is sufficient to make the building ring with laughter.

EDMONTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Proprietor, Mr. Joseph L. S. Moss; Manageress, Mrs. Amelia H. B. Moss.—On Monday, Miss Emily Huby's company commenced the second week of its engagement, the piece selected being The Convent Bell; or, the Secret of Sinners' Point. Miss Huby's conception of the Lady-mother of the convent was excellent; and the part of Sister Gertrude was well played by Miss Isabel Treton. Miss Dot Russell, as Susette, added greatly to the success of the piece, and her singing and dancing were greatly appreciated; Miss Agnes Imlay as Christine Valgrave played a difficult part in capital style; and Miss Lily Barley Clarke gave a charming impersonation of Marguerite Courier, the much-suffering heroine. Mr. Howell Webb, as Pickle Podd, scored another success; and Mr. L. Clements again delighted the audience with his quaint comedy as Jean, a very tired page-boy. Philip Vautier was capitally played by Mr. Horace Herbert; and the part of Colonel Vautier was safe in the hands of Mr. Charles E. Howell. Henri Cassella was excellently played by Mr. R. Harris. The remaining parts were well interpreted by Mr. J. H. Howard (Captain Drummond), Mr. Ben Fletcher (George Fireater), Mr. J. Williams (a prison warder); and Mr. L. Manville Huggins (a fisherman).

EXETER.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Edward J. Domville, J.P.; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy M. Dunsford.—The pantomime Jack and the Beanstalk continues to draw large and appreciative audiences. There has been a further change this week, more new songs and jokes being introduced, and the pantomime is as bright and pleasing as ever. Mr. Henry Buss as Dame Durden, and Miss Bessie Allayne as Jack, have become very popular, and also Mr. H. A. Griffiths as MacHaggis. He is intensely funny with his dry Scotch remarks. The other ladies and comedians are also great favourites. Amongst the specialities Leon Clarke is the special feature this week with his performing monkeys, rabbits, rats, mice, and canaries.

FALKIRK.—GRAND THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident-Manager, Mr. Horace W. Ebbutt.—Mr. William Greet's company holds the boards this week with the musical comedy, The Earl and the Girl. Mr. Alfred Donohoe, as Jim Cheese, is the life and soul of the piece; Dick Wargrave has a capable exponent in Mr. Leslie Gaze; Mr. Thomas Kennard as the Hon. Crewe Boodle, Mr. A. E. Wilson as A. Bunker Bliss, Mr. Tom J. Edwards as Downham, are also excellent in their respective parts. The ladies of the cast are also successful, particularly Miss Hylda Dugdale as Elphin Haye, Miss Lina Hicks as Lizzie Shoddam, Miss Beatrice Anderson as Mrs. Shimmering Black, Miss Ida Stratham as Daisy Fallowfield, and Miss Winnie Plumpton as Miss Virginia Bliss.

FARNWORTH.—QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, T. Morton Powell, Esq.—Messrs. Carson and Kendall's company is here in The Power of the Cross. Mr. Fred Goddard is responsible for an excellent impersonation of Gerald Fairfax. As David Kingsley, Mr. Charles Johnson meets with success, and Mr. Horace Denton, as Dr. Fairfax, submits a clever piece of character-acting; Mr. Percy Hayes gets everything possible out of the part of Timothy; Miss Cissy St. Elmo is a capable exponent of Rita Lascelles; Miss Etta Turner is very funny as Dolly Gray; and Miss Ethel Bracewell plays naturally as Blanche Kingsley; Miss Stanley Burt as Margaret Seaton is all that could be desired.

FLEETWOOD.—QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. H. J. Snelson.—On Monday evening Mr. Fred. J. Kirke and company presented The Naval Detective, a musical comedy-drama that met with a hearty reception. Mr. Kirke, as Lieutenant Jack Beresford, the naval detective, was interesting, his various disguises being excellent; Mr. George Frere was well placed as Dr. Schreiner; the Captain Hustle of Mr. Mack Practice was extremely funny, his eccentric dancing being very clever; Mr. Bert Leighton as the Hon. Bertie Fairlox proved himself to be a comedian of merit; Mr. C. H. Barnes (who introduced a pleasing musical speciality) gave a good character-study of the part of Hans Winklepump; Miss Louie Fountaine was a charming Phyllis Leslie, her singing being greatly appreciated; Miss E. Claris, as Susan Scrubbs, made herself very popular; Miss Ethel W. Stuart gave a powerful rendering of the part of Lulu Kaufman; Miss Lily Seymour was very successful as Rebecca Gentle. Some clever dances were given by Misses Nancy and Amy Shaw. Our Sailor Lad was announced for the latter part of the week.

FOLKESTONE.—PLEASURE GARDENS THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. H. W. Rowland.—Miss Ida Molesworth and Mr. Mark Blow's company is here this week in A Sailor's Sweetheart. Mr. Mark Blow gives an artistic portrayal of Lieut. Charles Clive; Mr. Theodore Hill, as Admiral Sefton, plays his part creditably; Mr. Fred Lillywhite acts with care as Captain Mayland; Mr. A. Johnstone gives adequate support as the Rev. Robert Clive; Mr. A. B. Cuncliffe, as Sinfallah, deserves special mention; Mr. Dan Shields is excellent as Prentos; Mr. Thomas Miller is well placed as Nicoya; Mr. E. R. Wyvers is satisfactory as Ashwah, the Seer; Miss Maud Locker is a pleasing Mrs. Pembury; Miss Ella Dixon, as Phœbe Pembury, is charming; and Miss Mollie Pearson specially good as Grace Mayland. Moths was played on Friday by the same company.

GATESHEAD.—KING'S THEATRE.—General Manager, Mr. F. R. Yeulett.—In its fourth and last week Aladdin continues to draw crowded houses. Mr. Daley Cooper (Abanazar) has made himself an immense favourite with local playgoers. Messrs. Story and Trigg (Policemen) and Mr. Edward Thirlby (Widow Twankey) also have numerous admirers. Miss Lilly Gullick (Princess) and Miss Leonora Grieve (Aladdin) are successful in their respective parts, the former's song, "My Irish Molly O," being undoubtedly the "hit" of the pantomime. Miss Nellie Barnwell is a very dainty Pekoe, having an excellent number in "Buttercups and Daisies." Benefit performances were given during the week as follows:—Tuesday, Miss Leonora Grieve; character part of Hommeybeg; while the part of the Governor of the Island has a gentlemanly representative in Mr. F. C. Robson.

LYCEUM.—Proprietor, Mr. Rich. Waldon; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. H. Oakden.—Mr. Frederick Melville's company is here this week playing The Ugliest Woman on Earth, in which Miss Beatrice Homer sustains the part of the supposed ugly one with powerfully dramatic effect; the hero, Jack Merriman, being also ably played by Mr. Philip Darien. Mr. Leyton Chancellor as Hubert Gold and Mr. Allan Devonport as Redvers are well fitted in their parts; Mr. Charles Barrett as Antonio Luchesi looks and acts the plotting Italian to the life; a fine part is that of Morita, an Italian girl disguised as a boy, nicely performed by Miss Margaret Wilson; Miss Agnes Denver as Rose Courtney acts an intriguing woman powerfully; Miss Nellie Jackson as Aggie Brown, together with Mr. Tubby Eblin as Herrick, impart a plentiful supply of comedy to the drama. Mr. William Wallace as Raggles, a loafing hooligan, is extremely life-like, and all the other characters are ably sustained.

EMPIRE.—Proprietors, Moss's Empires, Ltd.; District-Manager, Mr. Sam Gething; Resident-Manager, Mr. Charles Mussett.—The company appearing here this week includes Fred Karno's company in their amusing sketch The Mumming Birds, which is well received. Other turns are Hetty Lee, comedienne and dancer; the Silvas, ladder experts; Dan Conroy, comedian; Frobel and Ruge, on the revolving pole; Lambert and Glover, comedy sketch artists; C. Vincent Adams, comedian; dainty Ethel Ra Leslie, ballad vocalist; Sydney James's Strolling Players; and the American bioscope, with a pleasing series of pictures.

ZOO-HIPPODROME.—Proprietor, Moss's Empires, Ltd., and E. H. Bostock; Resident-Manager, Mr. E. H. Bostock.—The principal turn this week is the Caledonian Boys' orchestra, which gives unbounded delight. The grace and daring of the gymnastic Moulier Sisters excite intense admiration; Harry Carsdale cleverly imitates bird and animal language; Baker and Balfe are spirited performers upon the xylophone; the Three Merrions in the music shop is an entertaining turn; Dandy George and his dog are a highly appreciated pair; Mabel La Blanche sings her sensible songs with much spirit; the Salambos give some astonishing exhibitions of what can be done with electricity; and the Juggling Geraldos are wonderful exponents of club juggling. The bioscope winds up a pleasing entertainment.

COLISEUM.—Proprietors, Moss's Empires, Ltd.; District-Manager, Mr. Sam Gething; Resident-Manager, Mr. B. G. Maclachlan.—The Gems are the star turn here, and with their varied musical and comedy business do exceedingly well; Ray Wallace is again giving her clever imitations of popular artists; Helen Martin is a sweet singer with a charming and refined style; the Stack and Milton Trio give a clever bar and spring somersault display, which is neat and smart; Cooke and Clinton are a skilful pair of lady sharpshooters; while Millie Hylton, Mueller and Coyne, Hill and Hull, Jimson's sketch The Burglar's Surprise, and the bioscope all contribute to an enjoyable programme.

PALACE.—Proprietors, Messrs. Rich Waldon and Thos. Barrasford; Assistant-Manager, Mr. H. McKelvie.—Joe Peterman's company in The Belle of the Orient provides lots of fun here, Mr. Peterman himself as the Jew being mainly responsible. The company includes several fine singers and clever dancers, and the chorus is large and attractive. Bliss and Bliss are a smart pair of comedians; and enjoyable turns are contributed by Starr and Jerome, Flo Chevalier, Sisters Lytton, the Delomes, Two Errolls, Ida Ross, and Les Rallis.

PAVILION.—General-Manager, Mr. Samuel Lloyd.—The programme submitted here this week includes the sensational cycling feat by Tom Graves, flying the revolving wheel, an astonishing act. The other members of the company are Mabelle May, comedienne and Terpsichorean expert; François Rothig, conjurer; the Virginians, coon singers and dancers; Arthur Bromley and Line Fontein, vocal entertainers; Dardan and Iris, acrobats and dancers; Vosper, facial caricaturist; Will Dalton, character comedian; Florrie Fairfax, vocalist and mimic; and Toch and Tard, burlesque acrobats.

QUEEN'S.—Lessees and Managers, Messrs. T. J. Colquhoun and Barney Armstrong.—Albert Sturm, the 14-stone Græco-Roman wrestler, is giving displays here, and interesting contests are taking place nightly. J. A. Wilson, "the black oracle," is again in Glasgow, and fetching the East-enders with his quaint songs and amusing patter. Miss Flo Smithers and company appear in a lively sketch, and numerous other attractive turns are included in the bill of fare.

GLOSSOP.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Sydney Spenser.—Mr. J. Rice Cassidy's company is this week presenting In Holy (!) Russia, which met with a good reception from a large house on Monday. Mr. Joe Cuthbertson gives a good reading of the character of Count Gregori Petrolski; Mr. Louis Norman is successful as Michael Natolski; and Mr. Stephen Crossley impersonates skilfully the part of Baron von Plevo; Mr. Carl Rovinelli, as Laurice Storagoff; and Mr. John Chesterfield, as Ivan Overitch, are also prominent; Mr. Frank Copeland, as Sir Harry Berresford, gives a good delineation; and Mr. John Nelson, as Sergeant Touloff, deserves praise; Mr. Haughton Macauley, as Colonel Richard Forrest, and Mr. J. Rice Cassidy, as Mickey Nolan, cause constant outbursts of merriment; Miss Ada Roscoe is excellent as Catska Lavotski; and Miss Florence Halton, as Mrs. Richard Forrest, is amusing; Miss Alice Marsden is a dignified Madame Natolski; and Miss Evie Norman, as Natalie Natolski, is commendable; Mrs. J. Rice Cassidy, as Rennee Rubinoff, is applauded for her really clever acting. The drama is well staged.

GLOUCESTER.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Owners, Messrs. C. W. and J. R. Poole; Manager, Mr. C. W. Poole.—West's Naval and Military Cinematograph is showing here this week. The pictures are excellent, and the whole exhibition is instructive and amusing.

GOOLE.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee, Mr. John E. Tomlinson.—Mr. Allan Wilkie and company is paying a first visit to this theatre. On Monday the engagement opened with Othello, Mr. Allan Wilkie gave an impressive and powerful portrayal of the name-part; as Desdemona, Miss Ine Cameron played with touching grace and tenderness; an excellent and forcible reading of Iago was contributed by Mr. Geo. Lampton; Mr. Clifford Rean was highly successful as Cassio; Miss Lizzie Maddocks was a charming Emilia. On Tuesday, The Merchant of Venice was staged; on Wednesday, The Sleigh Bells and Robert Macaire; and on Thursday, Belphegor; and Friday, The Fool's Revenge. The scenery and dresses are worthy of special mention.

GRAVESEND.—NEW PUBLIC HALL AND THEATRE.—Manager and Secretary, Mr. R. Feaver Clarke.—The first two nights of the week Mr. John A. Thomson's pantomime company, The Babes in the Wood, was in occupation here. Introduced into the pantomime were the Butterfly Troupe of Lady Dancers, whose acrobatic and speciality dancing gave much pleasure; Carl Moneta, the eccentric legmania artist in his speciality sand dance; Claire Wadham, an accomplished contralto vocalist; Winifred May, a good coon artist; Young and Mack, comedians; and the Crystals, who did well as society speciality dancers.

GRAND THEATRE OF VARIETIES, LTD.—General-Manager, Mr. David Hart.—This week a good all-round company is here, the chief star being Wal Pink, the bright comedian, in his latest success, The Cheap Jack; Sam Dalton, a clever character comedian; Lillian Travellie, an attractive American soubrette; Rossetti, the marvellous musical girl, who introduces the smallest fiddle in the world; Bert Dansie, vocal comedian; Ruby Aston, a pleasing comedienne and dancer; and Lauri Wylie, with his amusing mimicking mannikin.

GREAT YARMOUTH.—ROYAL AQUARIUM.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. J. W. Nightingale.—The powerful Russian drama, The Price of Her Soul, is being played here this week by Messrs. John B. Shinton and Alexander Greenwood's company. Lord Rolf Mandeville is excellently represented by Mr. John B. Shinton; Mr. Langden Goulding depicts with dramatic force the character of General Demetrius Lanovitz; and Mr. Annersley Hely is equally successful as Major Ivan Skoboloff. Captain Lawton is capitally acted by Mr. Sydney Ross, Mr. Will Percy is amusing as Pat Murphy, and Miss Tina Frank as Polly Perkins proves very diverting. The Countess Inez Steinmetz is charmingly represented by Miss Ada M. Ryder; Miss Mona Grey is admirable as Olga Lanovitz; and Vera is prettily played by Little Ida Thompson.

GREENOCK.—ALEXANDRA THEATRE.—Proprietors, The Greenock Theatre Co., Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident Directors and Managers, Messrs. A. B. and J. J. Wright.—This week's attraction here is The Toreador, played by Mr. George Edwardes's company under the direction of Mr. J. A. E. Malone. Mr. J. Colclough Fagan is successful as Caragolo, and is applauded for his "Toreador" song. Mr. Richard Telford is very amusing as Sammy Gigg; Mr. Tom May as Pettifer keeps the house in the best of humour; and Mr. Henry Arthur makes an excellent Governor of Villaya. Mr. Charles W. Anson fills the part of Rinaldo with ability, and Mr. Daniel Maston is well suited as Moreno. A small part amusingly played is that of the Bandmaster by Mr. Arthur Lenborn. Mr. T. Hulme Sharp represents Sir Archie Slackitt in good style, and is well supported by Mr. Charles M. Heslop, who acts, sings, and dances well as Augustus Qaill. Miss Leah Howard is a volatile Susan, and vocalises nicely; Miss Sadie Neville and Miss Ethel Netherton are much admired as Dora Selby and Nancy Staunton; Miss Gracie Desmond makes the most of her opportunities as Mrs. Hoppings; and Miss Florena Spurgeon is good as Donna Teresa. The chorus and orchestra are ably directed by Mr. Herbert Linwood.

EMPIRE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. H. L. Skivington.—Tom Bassett's company heads the bill here with a spectacle entitled Santa Claus, and the display is appreciated. Other members of a good company are Cosmans, comedy artists; Tom Bassett, comedian; the Itrams, in a Perch pot-pourri act; Harry Legbourne, novel comedian; Bonnetti and Currie, comedy jugglers; and Tennyson and Wallis, comedians.

PALACE THEATRE.—Lessees, The Palace Theatre (Greenock) Co., Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. Alfred Selwyn; Acting-Manager, Mr. Henry Slingsby.—The Musical Johnstons head the bill here, and give an artistic xylophone entertainment. Stanley and Vandyke submit a very amusing comedy act; Gracie Taylor is a charming vocalist; Will Souls is a clever laughing comedian; the Redferns, banjoists and dancers, are capable performers; Charlie Jerome, American speciality artist, assisted by Connie Ferndale, gives an enjoyable entertainment; Harry Clys and Rosie Rochelle, acrobatic comedian and soubrette, are very humorous; and the entertainment is completed by a capital bioscope display.

GRIMSBY.—PRINCE OF WALES'S THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. J. H. Curry; Assistant-Manager, Mr. Sydney Tolfree.—Peggy Machree, which was originally produced at this theatre fourteen months ago, has paid a welcome return visit. It is now seen in a considerably revised form, and proves more entertaining than ever. Miss Claudia Lasell is now impersonating Peggy, and does so in a very winsome manner, her singing being especially pleasing. Mr. Leslie Stiles is also a great success as Barry Trevor, and is heard to special advantage in the several ballads allotted to him. Miss Blanche Astley makes a charming Molly, and also sings sweetly. The quaint Scot, McDougall, is humorously portrayed by Mr. Milroy Cooper, and Mr. Edgar Ashwin is equally good as Michael, the piper. Others who are worthy of mention are Miss Madge Avery as Moira, Miss Doris Kelvey as Madame de la Cour, Miss Dorothy Garden as the Hon. Emily Pryor, Mr. Ralph Lynn as Sir Lawrence Borthwick, Mr. Marc MacDermott as Captain de la Cour, and Mr. John Morley as Sergeant Bampton.

CURRY'S TIVOLI.—Managing-Director, Mr. J. H Curry; Acting-Manager, Mr. Sydney Tolfree.—Manning's Entertainers were, unfortunately, unable to appear on Monday evening owing to the non-arrival of their luggage, but later delighted the Tivoli audiences with their amusing business. Rastus and Banks, a couple of coloured artists, give popular songs, and good vocal work is also accomplished by Ethel Dunford. Zaid, a Spanish Moor, performs extraordinary contortionistic feats whilst suspended from swinging rings. Alma Curzon's patriotic songs meet with approval; good songs are given by Ernest Ball; and James Brady's humorous ditties cause much laughter.

THE PALACE.—Managing-Director, Mr. T. A. Edwardes; Resident-Manager, Mr. T. W. Moyes; Assistant-Manager, Mr. A. V. Allton.—A capital military burlesque, in which many novel scenic tricks are introduced, has been seen in Young Recruits, presented by the Hudson-Powell Troupe. Haydee's miniature theatre is a very pleasing turn, the puppet impersonations of various well-known variety artists being very smartly accomplished. The Indian pastimes displayed by Ara, Zebra, and Vora are more than ordinarily interesting, and include some neat gymnastic work. The Demon Chef gives a clever exhibition of conjuring feats in a kitchen scene. Others appearing are Mdlle. Sylvesto, contortionist; Will Walton, comedian; Gold and Stirling, in a speciality combining scene-painting with singing; and Major Moss and Son, who contribute good songs.

HALIFAX.—THEATRE ROYAL, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. Wm. Robinson; General Manager, Mr. Otto C. Culling.—Pantomime reigns supreme at this beautiful modern house of amusement, where Mr. Peter Eland's brilliant spectacular and mirth-provoking pantomime, Babes in the Wood, is doing enormous business. Mr. Harry Gribben and Mr. J. C. Bland keep the ball of fun rolling in the quaint characters of Sammy the Sneak and Billy the Brute, while Mr. E. H. Bertram is one of the best of Barons. Much of the success is attributable to Mr. Frank Lynne, whose Superintendent Corkshaw would be difficult to surpass. The amiable Robin Hood, Maid Marian, and Tom the Tinker are in the safe keeping of the Three Sisters Sprightly, who are as clever as they are charming. Miss Ada Mansfield is a typical Mother Shipton. The singing of the ladies is perfect, and some delightful specialities are introduced by the Three Sisters Sprightly. Helene Cecile (the mimicker of mummers), the Musical Howard, Messrs. Lytton and Bland, and George Hall, the whistling wonder.

GRAND THEATRE, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. William Robinson; Manager, Mr. S. Winks.—This week we are having a welcome visit of Mr. John F. Preston's powerful company in the realistic drama entitled The Rich and Poor of London, which is being staged in masterly style twice nightly. Large audiences enjoy the play greatly.

PALACE THEATRE, LTD.—Sole Lessee and Manager, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. Ed. Harrison.—That clever comedienne, Miss Lottie Lennox, holds the bill here this week. Another capital turn is submitted by Les Louberts in their refined and captivating comedy, Uninvited. The Four Jumels in their musical act, together with Paulinetti and Piquo in an original comedy gymnastic act, provide capital amusement.

HANLEY.—THEATRE ROYAL, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. Charles G. Elphinstone; Manager, Mr. Charles Howard.—The pantomime is now in its last week. Mr. Nat Clifford has several capital songs, which create roars of laughter, especially one entitled "The Little Drummer Boy," which is exceedingly funny. Mr. W. H. Kirby has scored a decided success as Abanazar, his topical song, "Don't tell anyone I told you," having become most popular. Miss Elsie Steadman has won much favour as the Princess, her song being rendered most artistically. Miss Florence Wilton in her song, "Jenny Mine," is excellent. All the artists work well together, and the chorus is good. A burlesque photographic scene causes much amusement. Aladdin has proved a truly capital pantomime, and Mr. Charles Elphinstone is to be congratulated.

GRAND, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. Charles Elphinstone; Manager, Mr. Alfred Edwards.—At the head of the bill this week are the Ten Loonies in their comedy instrumental act. This is one of the funniest turns ever seen at the Grand. The Max-Wesseley Troupe of Jugglers return in their clever performance, which meets with the heartiest appreciation; Miss Addie Dorina presents her quick-change sketch, viz., How It Is Done, during which she impersonates six female characters; the Three Cape Girls score a huge success, a notable feature being their excellent dancing; Lillian as a trick cyclist has but few rivals, her performance being clever and daring; Tom Brantford's turn is most amusing; and Pollo Jerome is a lady trapezist of much ability. The Grand Pictures are always well worth seeing.

HARTLEPOOL.—EMPRESS.—Proprietors, Councillor Everton and J. W. Craggs.—Ben Hur, who heads the list this week, gives a wonderful display of muscular strength and weight-lifting. Notwithstanding the number of visits, Jack Pleasants has paid here, the audience never seems to tire of him. A conspicuous hit is made by Golden Michalini, whose equilibristic and juggling act creates something like a sensation. The Four Blackbirds, coloured comedians and expert dancers, are clever; Leo Cecil, comedian and dancer, contributes a pretty number; Will Bell dances in good style; the jumping by the Brothers Wynford is done with an alertness that is truly wonderful; Bert Bowden's songs are provocative of considerable amusement; and the programme is concluded by some interesting pictures on the Bioscope.

HASTINGS.—GAIETY THEATRE.—Manager, Mr H. W. Rowland; Resident-Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles E. Scutt.—Miss Emma Hutchison and Mr. Percy Hutchison's company is here this week in The Freedom of Suzanne. Miss Beatrice Lindley supplies an excellent impersonation of the wilful heroine of the story and Mr. Percy D. Standing as Charles Trevor is also praiseworthy. Mr. F. G. Thurstans as Fitzroy Harding makes a very amusing old beau, and Mr. William Mallalieu is stately as the Family Solicitor. Suzanne's trio of admirers are well acted by Mr. Townsend Whitling (Lord Dachet), Mr. Edward Bonfield (Capt. Harry), and Mr. Archie Selwyn (Tommy Keston). Miss Emily Patterson is severely stern as Lady Charlotte Trevor, Miss Charlotte Mead acts cleverly as Miss Minching, and Miss Annie Statman (who is locally very popular) is very good as Mrs. Tustall. The piece is well staged, and is preceded by Two in a Trap.

PIER PAVILION.—Pier-Master, Mr. R. Turner; Entertainment-Manager, Mr. J. D. Hunter.—The spectacular and military drama, entitled Dishonoured; or, Through the Battle Smoke, is holding the boards here this week. The author, Mr. Arthur St. John, as Philip Cunningham, plays the part in manly fashion; Mr. E. Armitage is equally successful as Sir William Cunningham; Mr. Powell James and Mr. C. H. Fenton take important parts in the play; Mr. Victor Herne looks an Oriental to the life as Mhooleb Khan; Miss Ida St. John gives a well-studied and graceful sketch as Leslie Maynard; Miss Kitty Bennett does excellent work in the part of Sybil.

HIPPODROME THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—General Manager, Mr. Harry Day; Acting-Manager, Mr. Fred C. Ewing.—The change from two to a one-house nightly performance is proving very successful. Burns and Bentley, American artists, are skilful dancers; Mr. Cyrus Dare gives some remarkable imitations of a child; Miss Jenny Belmore is an attractive comedienne and dancer; Messrs. Dante, Bentley, and Elton introduce an amusing novel scena, Always Moving. A good song or two is sung by Mr. Andrew Higginson, comedian; the Stavordale Quintette give some harmonious vocal selections; Miss Jessie Albini, a refined comedienne, receives a warm welcome.

HEBBURN.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. G. H. Austin; Acting-Manager, Mr. H. Graham.—This week Messrs. Monti and Firth present their pantomime, The Babes in the Wood, which was well received on Monday night by a large and appreciative audience. As Robin Hood, Miss Florrie Bray makes a graceful and dashing principal boy, being encored in her popular songs; Maid Marian is capably rendered by Miss Ada Clare; Miss Daisy Cecil does well as Phyllis; and Miss May Edney gives a pleasing impersonation of Will Scarlet. Much amusement is created by Mr. Dan Idle, as Belinda (the nurse), an amusing representation of Baron Graball is submitted by Mr. Arthur Allen; the Brothers Valmore are well placed as Weary Willie and Tired Tim, provoking much mirth by their ready patter; and another notable impersonation is that of Mr. Fred Monti as Simple Simon. Miss Lily Cleave and Miss Maudie Cleave, in the parts of "The Babes," worked with untiring zeal.

HEREFORD.—GARRICK THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Arthur Carlton; Acting-Manager, Mr. Whitly Smith.—Mr. and Mrs. John Walters' company is here this week in the grand juvenile pantomime Cinderella. The company is received with every mark of approbation. The most noteworthy individual performance is that of Mr. Paddy Mills as Buttons; Miss May Bishop, dainty and pretty, plays nicely in the part of Dandini; Cinderella is winsomely presented by Miss Kitty Rafferty, scoring a success with her charming singing. The same may be said of Miss Kitty Chester as Dewdrop; Miss H. Deacon's protrayal of the Baroness is broad comedy of an excellent kind; and Miss Jessie Hardacre is very effective as Prince Charming.

HUDDERSFIELD.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors and Managers, Messrs. Milton Bode and Edward Compton; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy G. Arthur.—A musical comedy, entitled The Girl from Japan, is here for the week. The piece is of the light, inconsequential order, and is adequately represented by the cast engaged, which includes Miss Dorothy Glenton in the principal part of Violet, Mr. George Hudson as the vapid Lord Allenbury, Mr. Ernest Spalding as an impossible parson (the Rev. John Smith), Mr. Percy Baverstock as General Baugh, Miss Mabel Kerridge as Polly, Miss Jeannie Holmes as Lady Flippington, and Miss Josephine Ellis as Maud. There is a bright, active, and attractive chorus.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, The Northern Theatres Co., Ltd.; Resident-Manager, Mr. N. M. Robinson.—There is a good all-round entertainment here with the Ando Troupe of Japanese at the top. Their clever performance is highly appreciated. Mr. Fred Casburn is a comedian of merit; good sketches are presented by Ernest Leicester and company in V.C.; the Arthur Lloyd Trio and the Lyons Trio; contortionism is submitted by Bendo; fine concertina playing by Percy Honri, a song or two by Miss Millie Denham (comedienne), and the pictures on the biograph complete the programme.

HULL.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Lessee, Mr. W. Morton; Resident-Director, Mr. W. F. Morton.—The pantomime Dick Whittington well deserves the great success which it has achieved. Mr. Tom Foy as Idle Jack still keeps the house continuously amused, his quaint humour causing roars of laughter; Mr. Bert Bryne as Gertrude the Cook will long be remembered for his exceptionally clever conception of this character. Other popular members of the company are Mr. Jack Foy, Mr. Will Musgrave, and Mr. John Power, with Mr. Ted Foy as the Cat. Miss Hetty Zillwood as Dick Whittington and Miss Clara Reid as Alice have established themselves as firm favourites, with whom the Hull public will be sorry to part. Miss Cissy Murray as second boy has made a good impression, the rendering of her songs being one of the chief successes of the pantomime.

GRAND THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.—Managing-Director, Mr. John Hart; Resident-Manager, Mr. Wynn Miller.—The Girl from Kay's, presented by Mr. George Dance's company, is here this week, and, in spite of the distraction caused by the General Election, good business is being done. Miss Beatrice Poole is entirely successful in the leading rôle of Winnie Harborough, which she enacts with much grace and energy; Miss Emily Taylor is a pleasing Nora Chalmers; and Miss Mabel Dent makes a dainty maid. Mr. George Blunt as Hoggenheimer is amusing, and Mr. Reginald Grey is funny as Fitzthistle. The part of Harry Gordon has an able exponent in Mr. J. S. Durant, and Mr. Tom Seymour is a humorous Joseph. Others deserving of special mention are Miss Lily Beaumont as Mrs. Chalmers, and Mr. Thomas Pauncefort as Mr. Chalmers, who handle their parts in a satisfactory manner.

ALEXANDRA THEATRE.—Proprietors, Messrs. Morton, Ltd.; Resident-Manager, Mr. Geo. Morton.—This week Mr. G. Carlton Wallace's company is presenting the romantic melodrama The Love that Women Desire. The play is well staged, and performed by a capable company. Miss Lydia Donovan appears to advantage in the rôle of Sybil Thornburn, handling the part with great care throughout; Mr. David G. Noble distinguishes himself as the hero, Philip Carnaby; Mr. Wallace (who is the author of the piece) gives a creditable performance as Frank Hardy; Mr. J. O. Stewart as Squire Abingdon is exceedingly good; and Mr. C. Quinton Fulford as young Abingdon is also well placed. Mr. John Hignett as Dennis O'Rourke and Miss Maud Stuart as Pattie Swift supply a good deal of fun.

NEW PALACE.—Acting-Manager, Mr. John S. Barnett.—Mendel, the wonderful blind pianist, tops the bill here; Selma Braatz is an exceedingly clever juggler. Other artists appearing include Stephens and Rennior; Lora, a very smart exponent of figure-reading; The Gittis, Sinclair and Parr, The Fitzroys, Irving Jones, and Margaret Ashton.

THE HIPPODROME.—Lessee, Mr. Alfred Graham; Manager, Mr. Tom Lunn.—The Six Brothers Luck present their funny sketch, The Demon of the Cellar; Hilton and Hilton are very smart bar performers; and Evelyn Taylor makes herself very popular. Other attractions appearing include Edna Thelma, J. W. Ellison, Fred Lloyd and Co., The Rushforths, King Leo, and the Bioscope.

THE BIJOU.—Lessee, Mr. T. N. Turner; Manager, Mr. Fred Thorne.—The Cumberlands provide a sensational trick cycling act here. Other good artists include Lily Mason, Florence Schubert, Polly Heath, Newport Bros., Bertha Duckett, Harry Morris, Walter Gurney, and a very exciting boxing competition.

THE CIRCUS.—General-Manager, Mr. E. Emerson.—The Imperial Circus company is doing big business here.

ILKESTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Licensee and Manager, Mr. L. F. A. Rogers.—The pantomime of Cinderella is the attraction here, played by Pardoe's company. As principal girl Miss Dolly Wright wins a favourable verdict, and as the principal boy Miss Lottie Holland is decidedly successful, her stage presence and singing being to the taste of the audience. Dandini finds an excellent exponent in Miss May Daventry; Mr. Tom Hulme makes a hit as the Baron, and Mr. George Hyam as Scoot exhibits great ability as a comedian. The two sisters Eva and Maud are well represented by Messrs. Bert Gordon and Jesse Boxer; Mr. Tom Griffit is in fine voice as Father Time. The following specialities and a good chorus much enhance the effect: The Pardoes, in a clever gymnastic display; Paul Rundle, with a troupe of dogs; Zenieth, animal impersonator; France and Francis, equilibrists; Nellie Rose, dancer; Nellie Cross and troupe of drummers and dancers; and Bert Gordon, vocalist and Milanese piper.

QUEEN'S PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietor, Mr. T. Knightall.—James Day is clever in his handcuff feats; the Reays are equilibrists of merit; English and Edwards have a good reception for their duologue, A Smart Racing Story. Arthur Edwards, vocalist; Alice Dora, comedienne and dancer; Regan, illusionist; Dan Conway, comedian and dancer; and May English, serio, are the other turns engaged.

INVERNESS.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Manager, Mr. Cameron Burgess.—Mr. Leslie Norman's company in A Trip to Chinatown is the attraction here this week. Mr. Harry Stuart is good as Welland Strong, Mr. Edward de Vere is amusing as Ben Gay, Mr. Osmond Grey as Rashleigh Gay, and Mr. George Handel as Saxon Blood do well; all the other parts are in capable hands.

IPSWICH.—LYCEUM THEATRE.—Acting-Manager, Mr. J. E. Jennings.—On Monday evening Mr. George Edwardes's Cingalee company commenced a week's engagement here. Miss Zoe Gilfillan presented the role of Nanoya in admirable style, her singing and dancing being equally good; the part of Peggy Sabine found an excellent representative in Miss Cissie Sephton; Miss Emilie Mayhew was a stately Lady Patricia; and Miss Vi Holmes did some graceful dancing. Mr. Johnny Osborne was exceedingly droll as Chambhuddy Ram; Mr. Kenneth Wynne did full justice to the part of the Hon. Harry Vereker. Other characters were capably enacted by Messrs. Helier Le Maistre, Roy Sidney, and H. J. Williams. The play was capitally staged.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietor, Mr. E. H. Bostock.—Large audiences are still the rule at this popular place of entertainment, the current week's bill of fare containing some novel and attractive items. The Three Macgregors gain much applause for their Scotch dancing; while Musto is a humorous and clever contortionist; Walter Custer justifies his claim as a "merriment merchant"; and Clotilda, with her well-trained cockatoos and parrots pleases audiences immensely; Steve McCarthy contributes some clever dancing and singing as an Irish coon; Professor Duncan displays much skill and patience in introducing his educated collie dogs; and other turns include Miss Marie Kendall, who renders a couple of popular songs in excellent style; and De Wynne, a neat and clever equilibrist.

JARROW.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Hugh Robertson; Acting-Manager, Mr. G. G. Jefferson.—Mr. H. Swinerd's company is paying a return visit this week with Dare-Devil Dorothy. Mr. C. W. Parke gives a good account of the part of George Fielding, and Mr. H. C. Ward does full justice to the rôle of Capt. Edward Dudley. Mr. Frank Howard is quite at home as Featherstone Haugh; Mr. Alf Stretton scores as Hawkins; Mr. Arthur Verne is well placed as Silas Crump, and contributes some excellent specialities. He is ably assisted by Miss Nellie Harcourt; Miss D. Desmonde is an admirable Dorothy Montrose, and Miss N. Caronne is good as Ruth Montrose. The specialities introduced include a mirror dance by Miss Mabel Blake and Miss Nellie Anderson.

JERSEY.—OPERA HOUSE.—Lessee, Mr. C. Robert Perkins.—Mr. Frederick Mouillot's pantomime Aladdin commenced here on Tuesday evening, under the able management of Mr. James R. Le Fane. Miss Rose Helene gives a sprightly interpretation of the name-part, and is the possessor of a pretty voice and shapely figure; Miss May Davis, who was a great favourite here last year, when she played Beauty, is a particularly pleasing Pekoe; whilst Miss Dolly Varden (Princess), Miss Laura Humphries (So Shi), and Miss Daisy Browne (Electra) do good work. Mr. Jamie Douglas is an amusing Widow Twankey; Mr. Victor Wallace, who is the possessor of a fine voice, is exceedingly funny as Abanazar; and Mr. T. Gulliver is good as So Long. Messrs. Welda and Wynne contribute a clever juggling act, and the dexterous dancing of the New York Quartette is much appreciated.

KING'S LYNN.—NEW ROYAL THEATRE.—Lessees, J. Bannister Howard's Co., Ltd.; Business-Manager, Mr. Arthur Howard.—Mr. Ernest E. Norris's pantomime, Puss in Boots, has been presented here during the whole of this week. It is gorgeously dressed and staged, and many of the scenic effects and tableaux are beyond praise. In the company are many artists of ability and charm. Messrs. Lauri and Ellis, as the principal comedians, are good; and Messrs. George de Lara and Fred Tenour, as the miller's sons, are droll. Miss Kitty Courtney is a naturally graceful Princess Pansy; and Miss Mabel Murray is excellent as Gilbert. The Lord Chamberlain is well enacted by Miss Frances Clare, and special mention must be made of the Cupid of Miss Lily Vine-White, which is charmingly elfish. The dancing of the Rosie-Rice Quartette proves the favourite feature of an altogether excellent pantomime.

KIRKCALDY.—KING'S THEATRE.—Managing Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident-Manager, Mr. Rex Sugden.—Messrs. Little and Darcy's company is here in the comic pantomime, Sinbad the Sailor. Miss Marion May as Sinbad is a dashing principal boy, and is well assisted by Miss Amy Calcott as Zorilda. Much amusement is caused by the antics and humorous patter of Mr. Walter Adams as Tinbad, Messrs. Newcombe and Sullivan as Baccah and Stoppah, and Mr. John E. West as Mrs. Sinbad are also very funny. Mr Albert E. Mann is a capable Captain Cook; and Mr. Fred Dobito is good as the Emperor. Mdlle. Corra Arnitta is an excellent Lustre. Specialities are successfully given by the Stuart Quartette, dancers; the Calcotts, banjoists; Miss May Wyatt, 'cellist; Little Tim, big boot dancer; Dobito and Buxton, operatic vocalists; and the Westwoods, comedy cyclists. The dresses and scenic effects are good, and the chorus is strong.

LANCASTER.—ATHENÆUM.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Henry Wilkinson.—Mr. Edward Marris's pantomime Dick Whittington and his Cat is the attraction this week, and was right well received on Monday evening. The scenery and dresses were up to the mark, and the various songs went with a swing. Miss Madge Merry appeared as Dick Whittington with much success, and Mr. William Kashma as the Cat was very good. Miss Winifred Preece was a winsome Alice Fitzwarren, and Mr. W. H. Ball did well as Alderman Fitzwarren. Mr. Walter Nugent made a decided hit as Julia, the Cook; Mr. Walter Wade was droll as Idle Jack; and Mr. C. Kashma successful as Captain Kettle. Specialities were introduced by Les Sprays, dancers; the Kashmas, knockabouts; the Thalian Glee Singers, the Sisters Vincent, coon singers; and Miss Effie White, in a fire dance which elicited rounds of applause.

PALACE.—Lessees and Managers, Messrs. W. J. Fergusson and John Porter.—Cliff Ryland, comedian, heads the bill this week; Henry Carlton and company merit applause for their One Night Only, and the Sisters Bartholomew sing and dance nicely. Donna and Cliffe, duettists and dancers; Winnie Scott, dancer; Linton, funambulist; Molly Doon, comedienne; and Walter Payne's animated pictures, complete the programme.

LEAMINGTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessees, Messrs. Milton Bode and Edward Compton; Manager, Mr. C. B. Fountaine.—That excellent specimen of the best type of melodrama, The Silver King, is paying a welcome visit again after an absence of some years. Messrs. Polini and Melford's company is a thoroughly adequate one. Mr. Herbert Ford, as Wilfrid Denver, gives a natural and unforced yet quite powerful rendering of the part; Miss Daisy Scudamore is a gentle and womanly Nellie; and Mr. E. J. George is as able an exponent as ever of the part of the faithful Jackes. Messrs. Algernon J. Hicks, Arthur Wright, and W. Thompson are a sufficiently villainous trio of scoundrels; and Mr. James L. Power creditably enacts the part of Corket.

LEEDS.—GRAND THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. John Hart; General-Manager, Mr. Edward Cadman.—The Babes in the Wood is now at the height of its popularity, and full houses are the rule nightly. The ladies of the show, notably, Miss Katie May and Miss Ivey Roze, display commendable vivacity in their work, and their various songs are vociferously encored. Mr. G. H. Elliott, with a charming voice and style, has established himself a big favourite, his coon speciality business constituting quite a feature of the evening. The Anartos find opportunity for the display of their fine musical abilities in several enjoyable interludes; Carlton, the famous conjurer, never fails to mystify his audience, and enjoys immense popularity; whilst Mr. Arthur Stigant has great opportunities as the Dame, of which he avails himself to the fullest extent. Mr. J. W. Rowley and Mr. Frank Calvert, amongst others, are very prominent in helping along the humour of the production.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; General-Manager, Mr. R. Ernest Liston.—The pantomime, Jack and Jill, runs merrily along, amply realising the brilliant success predicted for it at the commencement of the run.

QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Lessees, Messrs. Dottridge and Longden; General-Manager, Mr. C. H. Longden; Acting-Manager, Mr. Chas. Bush.—Messrs. Dottridge and Longden, by arrangement with Mr. C. St. John Denton, put on here on Monday, for a three weeks' run, the excellent pantomime, Cinderella, which was welcomed by a crowded house. The company is particularly strong in vocal ability. Miss Hilda Guiver as the Prince, Miss Aimee Roberts as Cinderella, and Miss Nora Emerald as Dandini, each proving immensely popular in the singing of tuneful melodies. A brilliant company of comedians is thoroughly entertaining; Mr. Morny Cash as the Baron's page doing specially good work; whilst the New Macs, as a pair of comic brokers' men, with Mr. T. Hybert and Mr. F. Beck as the ugly sisters, find opportunity for many interludes of uproarious merriment. Mr. J. G. Taylor plays the Baron on novel lines. Entertaining speciality business, by Miss Madeline Rossiter, the Sisters Dorrell, and Donaldson Brothers and Ardel, are big features; and an excellent chorus performs its duties in commendable style.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Moss' Empires, Ltd.; District-Manager, Mr. T. Gerald Morton; Resident-Manager, Mr.

expert musical act; a novel ventriloquial turn by Oakdene comes in for a deal of attention; and Geo. Bendon, coon specialist, is a very strong turn in his own particular line. A local youth, J. Noble, is doing a clever conjuring act, which promises well; and other successful contributors are Charley Dixon, eccentric comedian; Paul Peiham, a favourite in the vocal line; and Gena Monan, soubrette.

ALBERT HALL.—Catlin's Royal Pierrot Troupe conclude an eminently successful three weeks' season here, their excellent entertainment having attracted most generous patronage.

LEICESTER.—ROYAL OPERA HOUSE.—Sole Proprietor and Manager, Lieutenant-Colonel J. A. Winstanley; General-Manager, Mr. Geo. M. Slater.—To-night (Saturday), the pantomime of Robinson Crusoe, which has afforded so much amusement to many thousands during the past four weeks, will terminate in consequence of prior bookings. Nancy Langtyre has throughout won golden opinions by her delightful embodiment of Robinson Crusoe; Mr. Ainslie Burton has kept the audience in the merriest of moods as Dame Crusoe. Miss Florrie Saunders has captivated all as Polly; and other ladies who have been prominent are Mdlle. Ebba Darcier as Princess Moonshine, Miss Gwen Clifford as Britannia, and Miss Dorothy Dempster as Jenny Wren. Mr. Lionel Braham, who has an excellent voice, has both acted and sang well as Will Atkins, and much hearty laughter has been caused by Mr. Alfred Sandoe as Bumper, Mr. Charles A. Stephenson as Billy Crusoe, and Messrs. Baroux and Bion as Captain Crosseye and Bo'sun Bobstay. Mr. John R. Val has been admirable as Man Friday. The marches and processions arranged by Miss Nellie James reflect great credit on her abilities in this department, and a final word of praise must also be bestowed on the really excellent chorus and augmented orchestra, under the direction of Mr. H. Sullivan Brooke.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Lessee and Manager, Lieutenant-Colonel J. A. Winstanley; General-Manager, Mr. Geo. M. Slater; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. C. Candler.—Mr. W. H. Hallatt's company, presenting the romantic play The Temptress, is the attraction here this week. The company and staging, as is usual with Mr. Hallatt's productions, leave nothing to be desired. Mr. W. H. Hallatt brings to bear on the part of Pedro Gonzales histrionic abilities of a high order, and Miss Blanche Steele in the title-rôle is also a conspicuous success. Mr. James C. Ashworth is excellent as Sir Oswald Fordyce; Mr. Robert Wilton makes a capital Austin Dale; Mr. Frederick Ross is well-placed as Lucas Denbigh; Miss Dora Mason is good as Dennis; and both Miss Lizzie Chambers and Mr. Allan Carruthers are well to the front with popular and clever portrayals.

PALACE THEATRE, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; District-Manager, Mr. Hatton Wharton; Acting-Manager, Mr. Leonard Vidal.—The principal attraction in this week's programme is Mr. Fred Storey and company, who are presenting on a return visit the popular Rip Van Winkle. Mr. Storey, as Rip, scores a great success with a portrayal which allows of full scope for his exceptional abilities in this well-known and diversified character. He is assisted in capital style by Mr. A. Maitland Stapley as Derrick, Miss Lilian Holmes as Gretchen, Miss Gwendolen Burney, Mr. Herbert Burney, Master Reginald Connor, and Miss Florence Gardner. Spessardy's performing bears and ponies reflect great credit on their trainer, their performance being one of the best seen here. Dot Hardy is aptly described as the funniest little "slavey" ever seen. Brown and Robinson are cordially received for their harmony in the kitchen; Hart and Leo as amusing comedy artists score their usual success; Rackett and Hazard are very good in "A Musical Trip round the World"; Terley is clever in his novel plastic figure performance; Robert Ganthony is popular with his humorous sketches; and the American Bioscope throws on the screen in fourteen scenes "A City Man's Busy Day."

PAVILION THEATRE.—Proprietor and Director-General, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Acting-Manager, Mr. Walter Lapworth.—A big hit is being made here this week by Ford and Barris, two boys picked up in the streets of London by Mr. Thomas Barrassford. They are remarkably clever. Lady Mansell and her juveniles on a return visit are cordially received in their speciality A Concert Rehearsal. Walter H. Pallister's Bioscope, showing the usual well-selected and entertaining films, is a popular feature. Mephisto, assisted by Mdlle. Marie, goes through a smart act as a contortionist; Clara Victor displays her fine voice to advantage in An Operatic Rehearsal; Sidney Dolf is good in his new act, "Versatility"; the Haverleys, song illustrators, please the audience greatly; Marie Gibson, a gifted soprano, scores a success.

LEIGH.—THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. J. Dewhurst; Acting-Manager, Mr. H. Dewhurst.—Mr. A. E. Smith's company is appearing here to good audiences with the pantomime Aladdin. Miss Muriel Love, as Princess Balroulbadour, depicts the rôle charmingly; Miss Edith Wallace is an admirable exponent of Aladdin; Mr. Edward Raymond does exceedingly well as the Emperor of China; as does also Mr. Frank Wheatcroft, as the Grand Vizier. The comedy element is cleverly supplied by Mr. Fred Ramsdale, as the Widow Twankey; and the Brothers Astley, as the Policemen. Several good specialities are introduced in the Palace scene, amongst them being Mr. J. H. Maxwell, big boot dancer and hat spinner; Arnold, illusionist; Bendene, contortionist; Miss Marie Walker, trombone player; and the Silverdale troupe of lady dancers.

OHMY'S CIRCUS. — Proprietor, Mr. King Ohmy; Acting-Manager, Mr. W. Prince. — Franz Josef, champion wrestler of Austria, tops the bill here this week, and some exciting bouts are being witnessed with Mr. T. McInerney, who on Tuesday withstood the Austrian for the specified time of ten minutes, and therefore won the £10. Mdlle. Venda, lady juggler, is very smart; a novel turn is that of Messrs. Hinton and Wooton, with football on bicycles; Miss Lilly, with her performing ponies, is quite successful. Other turns are Messrs. Claude Ohmy, Swallow and Rabbit, in riding acts; Mons. Atbrey, in a gymnastic performance; and a laughable sketch by the clowns.

LEITH. — NEW GAIETY THEATRE. — Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident-Manager, Mr. John Darlison. — The pantomime, Jack the Giant Killer, now in the fourth week of its very successful run, enjoys undiminished popularity. New business and fresh items of interest have been introduced by the comedians and other members of the company, with happy effect; and the admirable co-operation of all concerned in the production continues to be a marked feature in the entertainment. Miss Mimi Fisher, Miss Bijou Dreus, Miss Louie Niemann, Miss Pattie Fairley, and Miss Evelyn Robson have all gained a large share of public favour; while Messrs. Charles Grantley, F. C. Imbert, G. Payne, John Henri, Denby and Dent, and, though last not least, Mr. W. S. Stevenson cleverly sustained the burden of work set down for the male performers. Far from losing anything of its early attractiveness, the pantomime has developed considerably its capability of providing amusement.

LEVEN.—TOWN HALL.—Mr. George Dance's company, with the sprightly Girl from Kay's, paid a welcome visit here on Tuesday evening. Miss Lily Edmonds, as Winnie Harborough, was very successful; Miss Irene Vere made a dashing and popular Ellen; Miss Marie Greenhouse was musically pathetic as Norah Chalmers; and Miss Maud Leonard, as Mrs. Chalmers, was distinctly good. The part of Harry Gordon was well played by Mr. H. Jeffcoats; Mr. J. W. Hooper, as Max Hoggenheimer; and Mr. Fred Thompson, as the Hon. Percy Fitzthistle, were very amusing. Messrs. Claude Dampier and H. Jennings made the most of the parts of Joseph and Pepper. Mr. Arthur Jackson was a sufficiently legal Theodore Quench, K.C.; Mr. E. Forde a genial Mr. Chalmers; and Mr. J. Hart an accommodating Frank.

LINCOLN.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Manager, Mr. Frank King.—The 10.30 Down Express is being presented here by Mr. Horace Stanley and company. As Wagstaff Mr. Horace Stanley is continually in evidence, and with Miss Kate Kilpack keeps the audience amused. The episode of stopping the express is as effective as ever.

PALACE.—Sole Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; General-Manager, Mr. Sydney Arthur. — The Frantz Family of acrobats contribute the principal turn, and their exhibition is superb; Rae and Len also give a clever turn; Charles Whittle and Harry Lawson are entertaining comedians; Guy Rider is an excellent sifflеur; Nelson and Thomas are always a success at Lincoln; and Will and August are well applauded for their clever work. Pallister's bioscope is a welcome attraction.

LIVERPOOL.—ROTUNDA THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. M. Montgomery, jun.—Mr. J. Gar Kiddie's pantomime, Babes in the Wood, still remains here, enjoying much patronage. North-end theatregoers have certainly taken to it, for this popular house is nightly crowded.

LYRIC THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Henry C. Arnold; Directors of Entertainments, Messrs. T. Barrasford and F. Willmot; Acting-Manager, Mr. Fred Coles.—The temporary return to pantomime has been a fillip to the business of this theatre, crowded houses nightly witnessing the presentation of Mr. J. James Hewson's Jack and Jill, played by the Six Brothers Luck and their company. Mr. Hewson's treatment of the story is quite in keeping with its traditions. The brothers do full justice to their respective parts, roars of laughter greeting their antics. Miss Mabel Thorne makes a delightful Jack, and Miss Marjorie Cecil a pleasing and vivacious Jill. Flora MacDonald, as the Fairy Queen, sings her numbers in an artistic and finished manner. The very numerous chorus has been carefully trained, and do justice to their painstaking instructor, every detail being carefully looked after. The dresses are exceedingly pretty and tasteful, and the scenic effects are quite up to date.

STAR THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Harris Fineberg.—Messrs. Beaudyn and Livesey's able company is here this week with A Traitor Prince, which has been much appreciated. Mr. Ernest A. Duval, in the part of Frank Derrick, plays with much effect; Miss Rose Routledge is excellent as Lola Vane, the heiress; Vashti is well portrayed by Miss Nita Langford; Mr. G. M. Montanini makes an excellent impression with his Prince Rao, acting most ably; and the humorous parts are well placed with Mr. Alfred Selwood, as Bobby Bright, and Miss Kitty Thomas as Pansy Blossom.

QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Lingford Carson; Manager, Mr. F. L. Arthur.—A strong attraction here this week is The Indian Mutiny, played by Mr. Frank E. Burdett's able all-round company. The play has afforded large audiences much satisfaction, the scenery and Oriental costumes being particularly pretty. Mr. George Steel, as Lieut. Manley, acted with much earnestness and power; Miss F. Melrose Millett handled the part of the Priestess, Ghuz-mah, with much care and ability; Mr. Cyril Harrison filled the rôle of Captain Manley with credit; the Nebu Singh of Mr. Villiers Stanley proved telling; a successful picture of Abul Khan was given by Mr. J. S. Shedden; and Mr. George Scully made a humorous Teddy O'Brien.

EMPIRE. — Proprietors, Moss's Empires, Ltd.; Resident-Manager, Mr. Horace Cole. — Fred Karno's Moses and Son is still here, causing great laughter. A big line in the bill this week is Miss Minnie Palmer and company with Orange Nell. The sketch was cordially received, and gave much satisfaction, many playgoers being pleased to renew acquaintance with the popular actress, and perhaps one of the best items on the programme was Herbert Lloyd, "Crazy on Napoleon," who caused shrieks of laughter with his antics; the Moran and Mareece Quartette, with their ingenious musical act, were a good turn; Park's Eton Boys showed themselves gifted juvenile vocalists; Amber Austa, a quaint dancer and singer, afforded every satisfaction; the ventriloquial turn by Tom Edwards was much appreciated; and others in the bill were Ida Heath, transformation dancer; and Will Haines, comedian. The orchestral selection played at the interval included a valse, "Le Desir," composed by Mr. Fred Reynolds, son of Mr. Charles Reynolds, proprietor of the famous Lime-street Waxworks. The young man is studying music in Berlin, and shows promise of a brilliant future. His valse was a composition of much merit.

ROYAL HIPPODROME. — Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Barrasford.—Top here this week are Ergotti and King Luis troupe of Risley acrobats, who have earned much applause. Florrie Forde, with all her latest songs, had a capital reception; the Lurins, with their delightful drawing-room speciality, gave great satisfaction; quite an ovation was bestowed on Reynold's Minstrels, who are five American star artists; Dusty Rhodes makes everybody laugh; the Sisters Marion, as duettists, were very pleasing; a smart comedy bar act was given by the Two Eltons, their antics being very droll; Harry Bedford is entertaining as a comedian; and others on the list are Violet Stockelle, chic comedienne; and Bert Weston, comedian and raconteur.

NEW PARTHENON.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Edwin W. Smith.—Martine and Son pay a welcome return visit with their song illustrations, which are highly appreciated; Tony Iveson, "the ragman at the piano," gives a turn which provokes much laughter; as speciality duettists the Elgars are exceedingly pleasing; Elliott and Warne (Carrie and Tony) earn applause with their comedy and dancing; and also on the list are Gracie Bard, vocalist and dancer; and Harry Phillips, actor-vocalist.

ROYAL PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Manager, Mr. M. Montgomery, jun.; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank O'Toole.—Percy Boucher's dramatic stock company are doing good business here, despite the attractions of pantomime "down town." This week, the sketch selected is Mysteries of London, in which Mr. Boucher takes the part of Dick Coppin. Mr. Harry Tresham plays well as Philip Conway; a capital William Rawson is presented by Mr. E. D. Allen; and other strong supporters are Mr. Herbert Cecil, Mr. Cecil Ravenswood, Miss Marjory Armstrong, and Miss Beryl Ravenswood.

PADDINGTON PALACE.—Proprietors, The Palaces, Liverpool, Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. Walter de Frece; Director of Entertainments, Mr. Fred Willmot.—Heading the bill here this week is Martin Conway, the popular eccentric comedian, with his "walk round Martin"; Ismay's Piccaninnies supply a very taking vocal scena; a good turn is given by the Arundels (Will and Harry), with their speciality act and comedy boxing; Sheila McNeil sings several pleasing Scotch songs; Pearson and Marks are vocalists of ability; and others in the list include the Brothers Easdall, comedians and dancers; and Carlos Menard, violinist.

PARK PALACE.—Proprietors, The Palaces, Liverpool, Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. Walter de Frece; Director of Entertainments, Mr. Fred Willmot. — Principal here this week is Lizette Sutherland's spectacle, Donnybrook, which has proved a strong attraction, particularly on account of some forty children of the neighbourhood being engaged; and Alf. Berg, a strong man, has aroused some interest with his challenge for weight-lifting; Cora Gray sings with taste; the Musical Silvo plays on some novel instruments; and others who appear are Cissie Oliphant, vocalist; and George Raper, character comedian.

HAYMARKET.—Lessee, Mr. Fred Willmot.—Percy Boucher's company remains another week with their successful sketches. That now given is entitled The Father's Oath, and consists of nine tableaux. A capital turn is provided by Emma Don, with her black and white comedy company, in a vocal scena; the Franch Bros. have a clever and unique acrobatic act; and the bioscope shows some attractive pictures.

WESTMINSTER.—Manager, Mr. M. Montgomery, jun.; Acting-Manager, Mr. G. Montgomery.—At the head of the bill here this week are the Three Pirmans, with their clever gymnastic act. Shawlene, a mimic and sifflеur of ability, had a cordial reception; the Sisters Volbeque render duets in a pleasing style; Harley and Hardon cause great laughter with their songs and patter; as an all-round comedian, Fred Cullane gives every satisfaction; and others who appear are Bob King, comedian; and Florence Conroy, soubrette. The Wednesday matinées are proving popular.

OLYMPIA. — Proprietors. Moss' Empires, Ltd.; District-Manager, Mr. A. W. Young.—The Redskins spectacle puts in a last week here. Paul Spadoni, a remarkably clever juggler, who catches cannon-balls fired at him, has been performing some wonderful feats; Morris and Morris, with their comedy sketch, Fun on a Broom-handle, provoke much laughter; the Sisters Mullini delight everyone with their playing of the cornet; the Brontes have a laughable comedy sketch; the dialect singing of Madge Grey is particularly good; and others who appear are the Three Amaranths, smart acrobatic dancers; John Callan, comedian; and Frank Harwood, vocalist.

LONDONDERRY.—OPERA HOUSE.—Sole Proprietor, Mr. W. Payne Seddon.—Mr. F. R. Benson and company are here this week, the répertoire including King Lear, Henry V., Macbeth, Julius Cæsar, She Stoops to Conquer, Romeo and Juliet, Richard III. In King Lear Mr. Benson in the title-rôle gave a fine rendering of the mad king, and kept the audience enthralled by his vivid and impassioned impersonation. Mr. Cyril Keightley, a great favourite with the Derry audiences, as Edgar was very good, and Mr. G. R. Weir played the part of the Fool in his own admirable style. Cordelia, as embodied by Mrs. Benson, was a finished performance. Goneril and Regan were finely played by Miss Tita Brand and Miss Katherine Boyce.

LONG EATON.—LYCEUM THEATRE.—Miss Grace Warner, with a strong company, is here in the drama The Scarlet Clue. The story gives ample scope for the talents of Miss Warner, who is ably assisted by Miss Esther Dean as the French Maid, Miss Maud Steeple as Elsie Dane, Miss Ellen Beverley as the aunt; while Mr. George Gordon is the villain as Michael Stanton, Mr. Reginald Brown figuring as the Twin Brothers, and Mr. Horace Moseley as Edward Croker. Mr. V. T. Raymond as the burglar and Miss Mowbray as the servant keep things lively. Musical numbers are introduced by Miss Warner, little E. Rutland, and Mr. Raymond. Lady Audley's Secret is billed for the week-end.

LOUGHBOROUGH.—NEW THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. Payne Seddon and George Robertson; Acting-Manager, Mr. Lindsey Edwards.—The pantomime The Babes in the Wood (Messrs. C. St. John Denton and George Blunt's company) is the attraction this week. Miss Rose Dearing is a fascinating principal boy, being all animation and brightness. Mrs. Edwin Adeler is genuinely funny as Maude, the Babes' nurse. The Babes Harry and Carry are cleverly represented by Miss Nora Doone and Miss Marie Duncan. Baron Wrathwilde, the wicked uncle, is in the hands of Mr. George Rowlands, a distinctly good comedian; Miss Dot Reeve makes a charming Phyllis; Master Freddy White is very smart as Augustus; and Lord Tommy Tucker is played in a dashing manner by Miss Ethel Hubert. The specialities include Messrs. Myles and May, the Olympian Stars, Mr. Tom Parker, and Messrs. Ryde and Beeman.

LOWESTOFT. — MARINA.—Managing-Director, Mr. E. A. Smith.—Mr. Tom Taylor's company is here on a second visit with The Worst Woman in London. Miss Florence Dalton skilfully enacts the part of Frances Vere; Mr. H. H. Barrington is admirably suited as James Milford, and Mr. Wallace Campbell presents a capital performance as Jack Felton. Mr. Paul B. Lewers is excellent as Vincent Lyle, and a capital piece of characteracting is given by Mr. H. W. Monte in the rôle of Hugh Drayton, the father of Frances Vere. Miss Effie Bartlett is sympathetic as Ruth Milford, and Miss Florence Lovell (Matilda Parker) and Mr. Alvin Sawyer (Bob Goldfinch) appear to advantage in the lighter scenes.

LUTON.—GRAND THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. E. Graham Falcon; Business-Manager, Mr. Louis J. Beard.—Miss Maud Hildyard's company with the domestic drama The Great Awakening, opened here on Monday. As Lola Selby, alias Lady Merton, Miss Hildyard once more gave proof of her exceptional powers as an actress. Mention should also be made of Mr. Willie Scott as Billy Brass, and Miss Isa Bellington as Selina Worts, who cause much hearty laughter.

MAIDSTONE.—HIPPODROME. — Manager, Mr. T. M. Sylvester.—The chief attraction here this week is the sketch The Cook's Guest, and as played by the Collinson Combination it proves to be a very amusing item. The Eight Lancashire Lads are clever dancers and singers; Hope and Wayho, Dickens impersonators, appear with success; Mr. George Adams, vocalist, and Mr. Wallace Whitney, comedian, are popular. Miss Beattie Foster, comedienne, and the Hippograph are also in the programme.

MACCLESFIELD.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. W. K. Gatley.—On Monday evening, Miss Bonwin Carlton presented The Plucky Nipper to a good house. Mr. William Heilbronn, as Richard Vanbrugh, was very good; Mr. Edward Stream, as Captain Frank Leslie, gave a manly interpretation; Miss Bonwin Carlton, as Polly Hithard, in her vocal numbers was much applauded; Mr. Edward Surrey, as Bill Burgess, was a success; Mr. Dick Evans, as Tommy Atkins, was effective; Miss Esther Lamonte, as Daisy Paget, was charming; and Miss Ethel Whiteley, as Ina Fenwick, interpreted the part to perfection.

MANCHESTER.—ROYAL OSBORNE THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead.—An interesting melodrama, At Cripple Creek, is presented here this week by Miss Ida Molesworth and Mr. Mark Blow's company. The play deals successfully with the adventurous life of American goldminers, and among the exciting features is a sensational rescue in mid-air—an incident highly pleasing to the audience. Mr. Hilliard Vox, as the heroic Joe Mayfield, is a great success; and Miss Vera Fordyce is equally pleasing as "Dynamite" Ann. These are excellently supported by Messrs. Walter Thornton and Chas. D. Pitt, as the villainous schemers; Mr. Reginald H. West, in a dignified and capable rendering of Wahketah, the faithful Indian; Miss Daisy Carlton, as Maggie Mason; Little May Douglas, in a well-presented juvenile part; Miss May Straker, as Belle Gordon, the lucky New York girl; and Messrs. Albert Rogers and Will Hook as laughter-makers.

METROPOLE THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead.—Mr. Jordison's successful pantomime The Babes in the Wood is doing good business here, after a week at the Junction Theatre.

GRAND JUNCTION THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead.—A Girl's Cross Roads, excellently presented by Mr. Walter Melville's company, is here this week, after a successful week at the Royal Osborne Theatre.

ST. JAMES'S THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. H. A. Jordison; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. S. Nicholas.—Geoffrey Langdon's Wife ?, a play produced at Liverpool a month ago, is being played here successfully this week by Miss Marie Dagmar, Mr. Fred C. Somerfield, and a clever company, in a style above the average. It is an interesting story, and the dresses and scenery are worthy of high praise.

PALACE.—General-Manager, Mr. Walter de Frece; Secretary, Mr. P. Watson; Acting-Manager, Mr. G. Rhodes-Parry.—Julie Mackay, the famous American contralto, tops the bill here this week, and is well received; the Du Gros trio are particularly good in a first-rate comedy gymnastic act; Harry Taft, the well-known whistling comedian, makes a big hit; Maud A. Edwards, the lady ventriloquist, provides an excellent turn; and Gus Dalton is a most versatile entertainer. Good items are also contributed by the Chicago Gaiety Girls, who are neat and clever acrobatic dancers; and Cissy Schofield, comedienne, The Palace Pictures, as usual, are good, and the Christmas production, "A Trip to the Isle of Man," still figures in the bill.

EMPIRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll: Acting-Manager, Mr. Will Collins.—A capital sketch, entitled Dick Dare, M.P., is presented here this week with success by Fred Maxwell, Lois Du Cane, and company. Theo. Hardeen, the handcuff and trunk manipulator, gives an interesting turn; and considerable amusement is caused by the "Great Hughes," in his "Codology" sketch, an exposure of stage mesmerism; Walter Munroe is a first-rate Irish comedian; Katie Marsh is good in a pot-pourri of drama and song, "Grave and Gay"; Vi and Ethel Esdaile are pleasing vocalists; the Rhoda Brothers are clever hand-balancers; Fraser and Mac present an entertaining act; and an American racing comedy, entitled 100 to 1 Chance, is well played by Frank H. France and Edith Stewart. Pictures are also shown on the bioscope.

HIPPODROME.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; Acting-Manager, Mr. E. P. Morgan.—Captain Woodward's Seals and Sea Lions are the attraction here this week, and go through a most wonderful performance, to the delight of large audiences; another excellent turn is that of the Charles Fisher Pocket Opera Company, in a capital item, The Music Master, introducing excerpts from famous operas; the Royal Six, a sextette of beauty, sing nicely, and are very graceful in their bicycle manœuvres; Gallagher and Hild introduce some capital dancing in their speciality, "The Dancing Goose," and are loudly applauded; wonderfully clever are the Garganis, acrobats with funny methods; Martin and Quigg, "the long and the short of it," are very amusing; Sybil St. Elmo is a pleasing vocalist; Harry Clifford sings his well-known song, "Tired"; the bioscope shows an interesting film, "On Ticket of Leave"; and (second week) the choir render "The Wreck of the Hesperus" in fine style.

TIVOLI. — Managing-Director, Mr. Charles A. Wilkes; Acting-Manager, Mr. Arthur B. Wilkes.—The Dayton Troupe of Risley and pedestal acrobats top the bill here this week with a remarkably clever and highly finished act, some of their feats being exceedingly smart and daring; Frank Cass and Frank Coyle are comedians much above the average, and both prove very successful; Joad Heteb, the Wizard of the Sphinx, presents a turn mysterious and clever; whilst acceptable items are contributed by Kittee Rayburn, comedienne; Ethel Walker, society entertainer; Nellie Navette, comedienne and dancer; Ruby Bijou, a dainty dancer; and Charles H. Harrold, comedian. Raymond's Vivagraph pictures complete.

THE KING'S OPERA HOUSE.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead; Resident-Acting-Manager, Mr. P. Baynham. —A. J. Rebla, a comic juggler who follows the methods of the great W. C. Fields, heads the bill here this week, and is most successful; Harry Gray is a very funny comedian, and is well received; Bertha Stuart sings several songs sweetly; Clara Walters, at the piano, is decidedly entertaining; the Two Neros go through a clever and amusing acrobatic performance with contortions; and good turns are also provided by Fred Villers, swell comedian; the Sisters Russell, burlesque artists; Vere and Royal, very versatile artists; and Chris Masters, character vocalist. Animated pictures complete.

QUEEN'S PARK HIPPODROME.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead. —The Bounding Avolos gain considerable applause here this week by their remarkably clever somersaults from a novel arrangement of poles; the Vyponds offer a pretty scena, called "The Wedding Day"; the Four Mill Lads sing satisfactorily; Carny and Armstrong are amusing as "The Pro. and the Baggage-Man"; and Jack Hylton, eccentric comedian, is very funny. Other good items are contributed by Primavesi, juggler; Ada Marjuth, contortionist; Marti and Julietta, comedy artists; and the Paytes, society entertainers. Interesting pictures complete.

HIPPODROME (HULME).—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. B. Broadhead. —Charles Baldwin's comedians, in their absurdity The Bank Clerks, are the attraction here this week, and cause much merriment; the good singing of Maggie Walsh, the Lancashire mill girl, is highly appreciated; and the Hesso trio, in a wire potpourri act, are very clever. The Hartley Wonders, including Arthur Hartley, give a fine exhibition of jumping; and the Three Gregsons cause much laughter in a short sketch; Horace Sade is a very neat dancer; and Bernard Noble, a "new style" comedian, and Olive Veno, a lady clog-dancer, give acceptable turns. The animated pictures complete.

MANSFIELD. — HIPPODROME. — Proprietors, Messrs. Morella and Jennings. — This place of amusement, so recently opened, is drawing large crowds nightly. This week the principal attraction is undoubtedly Prof. Dickinson and Miss Johnson in their swimming exhibition. Comical Walker is very good in his turn on the ball; Mdlle. Emmie and T. Fossett on the wire meet with success, and the latter gives a daring exhibition of riding. Miss Scott, in her vaulting act, is also loudly applauded. The lady riders, Miss Lilian Davies and Miss Fossett, are both very good. There are also effective entries by the Clowns, Teddy Saul, Poor Billy, and Comical Walkers; Topsy, the performing elephant, continues to be appreciated. The new building, which is now approaching completion, will be second to none for comfort and decoration.

VICTORIA THEATRE.— This popular place of entertainment has provided drama for its patrons this week. On Thursday and Saturday The Anarchist Terror was billed, and on Friday The Sorrows of Satan.

MARGATE. — HIPPODROME. — Sole Proprietors, Messrs. F. Mouillot and W. de Frece; General-Manager, Mr. J. de Frece; Resident-Manager, Mr. C. F. Bawtree: Assistant-Manager, Mr. H. P. Howell.—This week's programme is headed by Will English, a real coon comedian, who has been most enthusiastically received. Next in order of merit is Vardon, the golfing ventriloquist, who creates considerable fun with his comical caddie, whilst his imitation of Chirgwin is extremely good; Rezene and Robini as usual cause a great deal of merriment with their drolleries; and the remaining turns include Eva Richards, Canadian Comedienne and dancer; George W. Foster, comedian; and Rose Waller, burlesque artist. A number of entertaining pictures are depicted by Ruffell's Imperial Bioscope.

MERTHYR TYDFIL. — THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE.—Sole Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Will Smithson.—Mr. J. Bannister Howard's company is here this week, in The Eternal City. As Baron Bonelli, Mr. D. L. Mannering gives a well-studied impersonation; Mr. Henry Deas is a capable exponent of David Rossi; Miss Rona Merriell gives a talented performance of Donna Roma; Mr. J. Fortescue submits a dignified study of Pope Pius XI.; and Mr. George Cartwright is effective as Bruno Rocco. The play is mounted and staged in a commendable manner, and the various choruses are well given.

METHIL.—TOWN HALL.—Mr. J. W. Morton's company commenced their second week here with The Rajah of Ranjapore. Mr. P. Piercy Watson was effective in the title-rôle; Mr. Harry Sinclair made a capital Horatio Hicks; and Mr. Jas. Stirling a sinister Captain Hertage. Messrs. Jock McKay and W. Harrison were amusing as Thistle (a comedian) and Potts (a publican). As Mr. Stubbs (racehorse owner), Ted Perkins (trainer), and John Cole (stableman), Messrs. Fred Hart, M. Drury, and Ernie Stannien respectively were good. Miss Maggie Sinclair and Miss Nell Ascott acted and sang brightly as Eliza and Primrose. Miss Minnie Blackmore was capital, and Miss Annie Trevor made the most of the part of Mary. My Sweetheart, The Octoroon, and East Lynne are billed for the remainder of the week.

MEXBOROUGH.—PRINCE OF WALES'S THEATRE. —Manager, Mr. W. H. Melton.—Mr. G. T. Santé's company is this week presenting the novelty drama, The Life of a Showman. Mr. Geo. T. Santé is prominent as the strong man and showman, Brien Leader; Mr. Chas. Osborne gives a powerful interpretation of Noel Hartland; as Hendrick Marias, Mr. Logan Darra plays vigorously; Mr. Ed. Warden is a capable Rev. Mr. Arliss; Mr. J. G. Santé, as Laurie Grey, contributes some excellent violin solos; Miss Enid Trench is a sympathetic Lena Hartland; and Miss Amy McNeil plays skilfully the rôle of Agatha Winter.

MIDDLESBROUGH.—THEATRE ROYAL. — Proprietor, Mr. Chas. Imeson.—Messrs. G. M. Polini and L. Maitland's company is appearing here this week in The Coal King. Mr. Lauderdale Maitland is Tom Roberts, and gives a masterly interpretation. As "The Coal King," Mr. Robert Shiells acts with distinction; and the Jim Williams of Mr. Charles Stone is all that can be desired. Mr. Joseph Millane figures prominently as Walter Harford. Mr. C. W. Grove supplies an excellent impersonation of Saxby. Upon Miss Gertrude Valentine falls the bulk of the work. As Grace Shirley, she acts with sympathetic refinement. Miss Hetty Cornwallis appears as Aramita Green; and Miss Joan Dellman and Miss M. Rose do well in their respective rôles.

OPERA HOUSE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Manager, Mr. W. K. Chatto.—Mr. E. Carlton's company, in the pantomime Aladdin, entered on Monday upon its last week, much to the regret of the patrons of the house. The pantomime has been well received, and the principals have established themselves as favourites. During this week, the performances have been set apart for the principals' benefits. On Monday, Mr. Wilfred Shine took his benefit, and Wednesday and Friday were allotted to Miss Julia Kent and Miss Lallah Davies.

EMPIRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. John Brill; Manager, Mr. Charles Rembges.—Miss Alexander Edwin, a lady with a fine soprano voice, proves a popular turn here; Miss Bessie Travers maintains her reputation; Albert Whelan is well applauded for his clever whistling; the Jackley Trio are an interesting turn; Gus Hindell and Nellie Chandos also contribute to the entertainment.

OXFORD.—Proprietor, Mr. Alfred Graham; Manager, Mr. R. L. Griffiths.—Charlie Deane proves a popular turn at this place of amusement, and is well applauded for his comic singing; T. W. Barritt maintains his popularity; the Three Zavacs, in comedy act, prove a laughable turn; the Wilfords are well applauded for their balancing entertainment; the Ladderites get a good reception; and Helen Charles and the Two Whites also contribute to the programme.

MOTHERWELL.—NEW CENTURY THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. Buchanan; Resident-Manager, Mr. F. W. Davies.—Mr. E. Lockwood's company is this week appearing in Sergeant Brue. Mr. Paddy Duprès sustains the title-rôle with delightful comicality, and is supported by Mr. Chas. M'Logan as Crookie Scrubbs. An exceedingly apt impersonation of the city magistrate, Mr. Crank, is given by Mr. Henry Chichester; Mr. Percy E. Rogers is suitably placed as Michael Brue, as is Mr. Arthur Stroud as Gerald Treherne. A bright and bonny Aurora Brue is found in Miss Lillian Middleton, who sustains the rôle with just the necessary amount of light-hearted gaiety; Miss Eliza Earle is a pert and pleasing Daisy; that up-to-date Society woman, Lady Bickenhall, has an exceedingly apt exponent in Miss Midge Clark.

NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE. — TYNE THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Fred W. Wyndham; Business-Manager, Mr. E. B. Clarke.—Mother Goose continues its run of popularity, and this pleasing state of affairs is not to be wondered at considering the all-round excellence of the show.

THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Resident-Manager, Mr. E. Teale Lingham. —The pantomime of Cinderella is doing exceptional business in spite of the electioneering fever, and the Royal is packed to its utmost capacity nightly. A worthy member of a famous family, to wit, Mr. Stephen Adeson, has scored a distinct triumph as Choddles. His humour is of the wholesome sort, and he also creates a favourable impression as a dancer. Another leading member is Mr. W. H. Powell, who brings a fund of genuine comedy to bear on the part of Dandini. Miss Gwennie Hasto is rapturously received for her song and dance, and Miss Luna Love is encored nightly for her spirited rendering of "My Irish Molly."

PALACE THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. T. W. Rowe; Business-Manager, Mr. E. B. Clark.—The last two weeks of the Aladdin pantomime are announced. New songs and dances have been introduced, and the whole performance goes with a refreshing swing from start to finish.

EMPIRE THEATRE.—Proprietors, Messrs. Moss' Empires, Ltd.; Resident-Director, Mr. Richard Thornton; Resident-Manager, Mr. E. Leslie Conroy.—The Riogoku Family of Japs have proved exceedingly popular here this week by a brilliant exhibition of juggling and tumbling, and have aroused the utmost enthusiasm; the Leslie Brothers, comedy musicians, are mirth-provokers of the first water; Conway and Leland submit with their usual success their always acceptable speciality; Collins and Rice prove thoroughly entertaining; and the list also includes the Coloured Meisters, vocalists; the Three Sisters Chesters, dainty comediennes and dancers; Horace White, ventriloquist; and remaining over from last week are Richard Sawade's troupe of lions, tigers, bears, and dogs, an act that creates the utmost excitement.

PAVILION THEATRE. — Managing-Director, Mr. Thomas Barrasford; Manager, Mr. Will H. Boardman.—A wonderful improvement has been made by the Picaninnies introduced by charming Miss Belle Davis, and their turn is now second to none; nothing funnier could be imagined than the wrestling bout indulged in by two miniature members of the company; a magnificent electrical scena, entitled The Maiden's Prayer, gives Mdlle. Chita Corri an excellent chance to prove her abilities as a vocalist; Miss Ada Fawn is ent tation. Miss Mabel Kessler, as Dick, acted, sang, and gave solos on the cornet in a very pleasing manner; Miss Peggy Vane was equally successful in her dancing, and with her "canine champion"; Mr. Dan Lyndon, as Alderman Fitzwarren, Mr. Harry Howe, as Belsyr, Mr. Gus Granville, as Jack, and Messrs. Rex Kempton and Harry Pastor, as McFlip and O'Flop respectively, created any amount of fun. Mr. Harry Wright, as Merley Ben Whac, with his extempore verses, was well received; Mr. Vistor Le'Glere, as the Cat, was droll. During the last scene, Miss Kessler exhibited her talent as a cornet soloist; and the Dandies, in their dance, were seen to much advantage. The scenic effects were admirably arranged.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. E. H. Bostock and F. W. Fitt; Manager, Mr. F. W. Fitt.—Notwithstanding the excitement of election week, an excellent programme is presented, and well patronised. Cooke and Rothert, the "Yankee-Doodle boy and girl," are very successful, and convulsed the house with laughter; Verne and Verne, in their trick comedy skating act, are very funny; Roma and Romani are pleasing musicians; Neiman is a clever ventriloquist; Alma Gray displays ability as a step dancer; Les Ruebens are an entertaining turn; Les Pollos are good as acrobats; Hanvaar and Lee, "the golfer and the maid," are successful as jugglers; and the Hippo. Bio., with new pictures, continues attractive. On Thursday a matinée was given by the proprietor, the proceeds of which were to go to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

NOTTINGHAM.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Robert Arthur; Acting-Manager, Mr. Howard Finney.—In spite of the election excitement this house is nightly filled by audiences, a fitting tribute to the excellent representation of Humpty Dumpty. The sprightliness of Miss Rachel Lowe, and her effective rendering of the songs, "Lucky Duck," "Kettles to Mend," &c., gives the utmost satisfaction; and Miss Georgina Middleton's graceful impersonation of Curly Locks gains her appreciative applause; Mr. R. H. Douglass, who sustains the rôle of the King so humorously, was away on Monday, owing to a regrettable family bereavement, and his place was capitally filled by Mr. Sydney Burt. Mr. Bob Baxter continues as funny as ever, his song "Good-bye" evoking hearty plaudits; and the fun is kept moving by those clever comedians Messrs. Algernon Newark, Wally Scott, Seth White, and Bishop and Hanlon. Miss Nellie Lomas comes in for her share of applause; and the Crystals are deservedly rewarded for their dancing.

GRAND THEATRE.—Manager, Mr. Charles P. Cooke.—There is no abatement in the favour extended to The Babes and Robin Hood. Miss Sophie Harriss introduces a new song entitled "Bombay," in the execution of which she has the able assistance of the clever sisters, The Four Trees, and it bids fair to be as popular as her other numbers; Miss Lulu Evans gives her delightful impersonation of Maid Marian with unvarying success, and much applause falls to the share of the Babes, Misses Maisie Rawlings and Renee Lancaster. Mr. F. S. Gilbert deserves high commendation for his magnificent singing; and the exuberant humour of the comedians, Messrs. Fred Rolph, William Rokeby, J. J. Macmillan, Tim Ryley, and the Bros. Lorenzi is rewarded with peals of responsive merriment.

KING'S THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Manager, Mr. A. W. Bull.—A thoroughly amusing representation of Are You a Mason? is being given here by Mr. Charles Macdona's company. Mr. Allan Pollock, as George Fisher, and Mr. H. Langdon Bruce, as Frank Perry, add point to the comical situations they are found in; and Mr. E. H. Paterson causes the highest hilarity by his delightfully droll humour as Amos Bloodgood. Miss Adelaide Grace realises the comedy of her character as Mrs. Bloodgood; and she has a charming trio of daughters in Misses Mabel Yonge, Babs Stuart, and Mabel Jowett; Miss Ploensgains (Franchon Armitage), Miss Rita Narcelli (Mrs. Halton), and Miss Alice Raynor (Lottie) capitally sustain their parts. John Halton is well described by Mr. Richard Purdon; and Mr. Howard L. Tracey makes an excellent exponent of Ernest Morrison; Mr. Percy Bell and Mr. Atherton also add to the success of the play.

EMPIRE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Managing-Director, Mr. Oswald Stoll; Acting-Manager, Mr. Charles H. Bowmaker.—The premier turn is supplied by Morris Cronin and his assistants, in which the marvellous dexterity and neatness of their juggling with clubs draw forth the greatest enthusiasm; Newhouse and Ward pay another welcome visit, their daring bicycle feats being the more enjoyable by the burlesque absurdities introduced; Baker and Lynn are responsible for a large element of fun, especially Baker, as "The Brainless Boy." The musical items of the Bandurrias compel vigorous applause; and the songs of Grace Merton are deservedly rewarded; the Huxter Brothers show wonderful skill as acrobats; and Francis Wylie presents his attractive dog circus. Solbrig's Automatus produces several merry moments; and the fun is further helped by Bell and Henry; Bertha Vere, comedienne, also contributes a pleasing song.

NUNEATON.—PRINCE OF WALES'S THEATRE AND ENTERTAINMENTS CO., LTD.—Managing Director, Mr. A. F. Cross; Acting-Manager, Mr. Walter J. R. Bryan.—Miss Florence Baines and an excellent company are this week presenting the farce, Miss Lancashire, Ltd., which is nightly attracting good houses. Miss Baines, as "the Lancashire Lass," wins high approval, and her laughing chorus is well received. Mr. Payne Fletcher does good work as Thompson; Mr. J. H. Selby appears as Herbert Fox; Mr. David Donaldson, as John Higgins; Mr. Patrick Evans, as Harry; Mr. R. C. Hicks, as Grant; Mr. Chas. Reeves, as Morgan; and Mr. Alan M. Servington, as Moses Goldberg. Miss Pattie Groves gives a capital impersonation of Bridget Thompson; Miss Jennie Hallworth represents Eva Lancashire; and Miss Mabelle Clinton, Bertha.

OLDHAM.—GAIETY, LIMITED.—Manager and Licensee, Mr. E. Dottridge.—The programme here this week includes Tom and Marie Motramo, in their successful comedy musical act, Do You Reverse? Gladys Mavius presents The Canadian Girl, which is well received; Amy Anderson and Co. create much amusement in their entertainment depicting coster life; Cline and Clarke are a success as comedy artists and dancers; Beatty and Blanche, duettists and dancers; Will Farrell, comedian; Alice Maple, comedienne; and the bicscope conclude an excellent entertainment.

ROYAL, LIMITED.—Manager, Mr. Ernest Dottridge; Acting-Manager, Mr. W. Howgate.—The popular comedienne Miss Marie Loftus is here this week, in her latest successes; her rendering of "Singers Past and Present" is heartily appreciated; Atlas and Vulcana, society athletes, are duly appreciated for their clever performance of feats of strength; Gwennie Atlas scores in her poses illustrative of muscular development; Vermettie and Dionne are excellent in a gymnastic bar performance; Burnettie is a success as a quick-change character musician; the Three Clarions are a success in their musical absurdity The Would-be Tenor; W. J. Webber, bass singer; Chas. Johnson, the "Black Diamond"; Jeannette Latour, a charming vocalist; Austin and Cowan, in a vocal entertainment, add to the success of the bill.

EMPIRE, LTD.—Manager, Mr. Ernest Dottridge; Acting-Manager, Mr. Hulme.—Veronique is the attraction here this week. Miss Rita Leonhardt, in the title-rôle, is dainty and charming; Mr. Ellis Holland appears as Coquenard, and his quaint humour is highly appreciated; the other artists do creditable service.

OXFORD.—NEW THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. T. Lucas, J.P.; Acting-Manager, Mr. C. C. Dorrill.—For the thirteenth time Mr. Milton Bode has brought a pantomime here, and the crowded house that heartily welcomed The Babes in the Wood on Monday, the opening night, showed the confidence of his patrons. Miss Ernestine Desborough is a handsome Prince Rupert, and both sings and acts with much charm; Miss Kitty Tims is an attractive Tommy, and meets with a most flattering reception; Miss Florence Arnold as Rose is uncommonly good; and Miss Alice Wade dances in exquisite fashion as Daisy. The babes are played very naturally and prettily by Miss Renie Reel and Miss Daisy Connell; Mr. Ernest Sefton scores a big success as the Baron; Mr. Will Harman is full of quaint humour as Buttons; the Brothers Brooks revel in the parts of the two thieves, and keep the fun going right through the show; Happy Attwood provokes roars of laughter as Bumble; and Mr. Percy Dawsone is exceedingly happy in his impersonation of Maria Slapp. The songs of the Carmen Glee Quartette meet with the keenest appreciation; Cyclo is a marvellous trick cyclist; while the Bellong Brothers positively thrilled the house with their marvellous acrobatic and bicycle balancing act.

EMPIRE THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Albany Ward; Acting-Manager, Mr. H. G. P. Wells.—Miss Rose Moncrieff's company is here in the pantomime Sinbad the Sailor. Mr. Bert Collins seems quite at home as Mrs. Sinbad, and Mr. Sam Poluski, jun., is invaluable with his bright rendering of Sinbad. Mr. Joe Lyons is sufficiently repulsive as Vanderdecken, Mr. J. E. Manning is good as the Old Man of the Sea, and Mr. James Gradon effective as Caliph. Mr. S. Vincent fills the rôle of King Kafoozle, while the Two McGormans make the most of Daggles and Diggles. Miss Rose Moncrieff comports herself well as Sinbad; Miss Emily Harlowe makes a charming Sadie; and Miss Grace Rosaire is a success as Yosan. Miss Katie Begley as Azor and Miss Josephine Begley as Moriana are attractive. Miss Kitty Reveni sings delightfully as Fairy Coralie.

PAISLEY.—PAISLEY THEATRE.—Sole Proprietor and Manager, Mr. J. H. Savile.—The run of Mr. Savile's pantomime The Sleeping Beauty terminates to-night in the height of its popularity, so that bookings already arranged for may be adhered to. A feature has been the excellent singing capabilities of the company and the exquisite good taste displayed in the dresses. To Miss Nellie Walters, the costumier of the theatre, is in no small measure due the attaining of this result. As in past years, Mr. Savile has not been unmindful of the inmates of the various charitable and other institutions in the town, they having witnessed the pantomime at matinée performances with much delight.

EMPIRE.—Lessee, Mr. J. H. Savile; Manager, Mr. Delno Fritz.—Here this week are the Five Comical Rhynes, in their laughable musical absurdity; Sabino, instrumentalist; Will Robinson, descriptive vocalist; Fifi Gordon, vocalist and dancer; the Schoolmaster and his funny pupils; Mamie Cannon, society entertainer; and Cliff and Kean, in a singing, comedy, and dancing act.

TOWN HALL.—The Harry and Fred Poole's Myrioramas, depicting all the latest events of the twentieth century, is a capital attraction here. There is also a strong variety company appearing, which includes Houston, Chinese magician; Takergero and Commie, in a new and sensational mid-air performance on the high ladder; Learto and his dog Babs, in an original comedy musical act; and the Two Mitsutas from Japan, feet equilibrists. The Poole Bioscope reveals the latest films of the Royal Animated Picture Company. Mr. J. Brierley, who directs the combination, superintends with marked ability.

PENTRE.—LYCEUM THEATRE.—Sole Owners, Messrs. Carlton and Duckworth; Manager, Mr. Sam Duckworth; Resident-Manager, Mr. J. Roberts Jones.—Miss Blanche St. Albans and Mr. J. Leicester Jackson's company is here this week in Her One Great Sin and The Penalty of Crime. The former was presented on Monday evening. As Reuben Warhurst, Mr. Sam Arthur gives a capital impersonation, ably assisted by Miss Maude Lambert, as Little Grace. Mr. Fred Hodson and Miss Nellie Lambert contribute lively humour in their vivacious acting of Jerry Jumble and Nancy Winpenny respectively; Mr. J. Leicester Jackson sustains the part of Arnold Thornhill with force and effect; while Miss Blanche St. Albans earns deserved praise for her clever interpretation of Grace Warhurst. Miss Phyllis Damian makes a capital flower-seller in the rôle of Charlie. Other well-acted parts are Dan Hundle, by Mr. Chas. E. Lambert; Jack Hundle, by Mr. Harold B. Ford; and Bet Hundle, by Miss Louie Walton.

PERTH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Lessee and Manager, Mr. J. H. Savile; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Aldridge.—Mr. George Dance's company, in The Orchid, is scoring a huge success here this week. Miss Marjory Moore assumes the rôle of Lady Violet Anstruther with marked success; and Miss Trilly Collier cleverly depicts the pupil teacher, Josephine Zaccary; Miss Phil Gumpel is amusing in the part of Caroline; Miss Sissie Brand gives a vivid portrayal of the adventuress, Zelie Rumbert; Miss D. West-Collins makes an excellent Thisbe; and Miss Maude Davis an admirable Countess Anstruther. Mr. Sinclair Holden and Mr. V. Wakeman are entertaining as the Hon. Guy Scrymgeour and Dr. Ronald Fausett respectively; Mr. Charles Seymour makes a hit as Mr. Aubrey Chesterton; Mr. Geo. Asaf causes considerable amusement in the rôle of Comte Ravil; Mr. Albert Sealy is advantageously placed in Zaccary; while Mr. Harry Walsh receives unstinted approbation for his entertaining qualities, seen to every advantage in the rôle of Meakin. Mr. J. Burt has the part of M. Fontenbras; Mr. David Hallam that of M. Merrignan; Mr. H. Malthouse is the Registrar; Mr. Mann a Commissionaire; Mr. Collins, Master of Ceremonies; and Mr. Graham, M. Deauville.

PETERBOROUGH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Manager, Mr. A. Darville Vernon.—Mr. E. Lockwood's company is here this week with Sergeant Brue. Mr. Harold Carson is responsible for hearty laughter in his thoroughly amusing impersonation of Sergeant Brue; Mr. Frank Wilson, as Michael Brue; and Mr. Albert James, as Crookie Scrubbs, are capital representations of their respective parts. Miss Elsie Molloy ably fills the rôle of Lady Bickenhall; and Miss Gertie Fawcett is graceful as Aurora Brue.

PLYMOUTH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. C. F. Williams; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. Langdon Lee.—The popular pantomime of The Forty Thieves is still going strong. New songs and comic business have been introduced this week, with conspicuous success, and all concerned work hard to do full justice to the piece.

GRAND THEATRE.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. C. F. Williams; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy Williams; Assistant Acting-Manager, Mr. Ernest Grant.—After a lapse of several years the naval drama, My Jack, was again produced here this week, and received a very cordial welcome. Well written, the piece is cleverly acted and wonderfully well staged, the scenery being especially good. Mr. Henry Renouf's interpretation of the title-rôle is full of good points; Mr. Richard Bosco is convincing as Peter Meredith; Mr. Gordon McLeod makes a striking and realistic villain; Mr. R. F Stacey and Mr. Greene Taylor are very effective in other characters. Miss Irma Farington creates a favourable impression as Dorothy; and Miss Elsie Mesnerd is amusing and versatile as Mary Ibbetson.

METROPOLE THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Arthur Carlton.—In consequence of the great success of the pantomime of Cinderella, the management has decided to extend its stay here by another fortnight. It is being played to big houses, and is going with a swing, thanks to the energy and enthusiasm of all the artists engaged.

PALACE OF VARIETIES.—Managing-Directors, Messrs. Livermore Brothers; Manager, Mr. J. Field.—A capital entertainment here this week includes turns by Mr. Harry Atkinson, whose marvellous imitations evokes hearty plaudits; the Steinway Quartette, whose song-scena is deservedly popular; Miss Ethel Loftus, a clever comedienne; a smart and novel acrobatic display by the Terras Brothers; a funny farce, Mistaken Identity, by Miss Kitty Clover's company; amusing songs, well sung by George Collins; an acceptable musical fantasy by Sherlock and Van Dalle; and coin-manipulating by Mersano.

PONTYPRIDD.—ROYAL CLARENCE THEATRE.—Owners and Proprietors, Mrs. Trenchard and Miss L. Jones; Manager, Mr. Charles Trenchard.—Messrs. Garside and Knowles's company is here this week with The London Fireman. Great interest is centred in the assumption of Hal Curtis by Mr. J. Forbes Knowles. Mr. Edward Garside admirably portrays Ratty, the convict; Mr. Charles Preece is highly diverting as Nixey Stinger; Mr. Walter Wilby scores as Joe Blowner; Mr. Frank Hertie as Dr. Gerrard is good. Too much praise cannot be given to Miss Nellie Garside for her admirable rendering of Polly Bramble; Miss Nellie Shirley does well as Ida Curtis; Countess Fleming and Grace Curtis are ably portrayed by Miss Nellie Waddington and Miss Florence M. Daly respectively.

PORTSMOUTH.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Licensee and Manager, Mr. J. W. Boughton; Acting-Manager, Mr. Armstrong Bell.—Mr. George Edwardes's well-balanced company is finishing up a triumphal fortnight here with The Spring Chicken. Mr. George Gregory is well-fitted with his part of Mr. Girdle, making his points cleverly. Rosalie is played by Miss Gertrude Glyn with animation and success, the duet "The Delights of London," shared with Mr. Gregory, causing great amusement. Miss Irene Verona's rendering of Mrs. Girdle is very meritorious indeed; Miss Gertrude Gilliam, as Baroness Papouche, and Miss Rita Everard, as Dulcie Babori, are well-placed. Mr. L. W. Harris, as Gustave Babori, does good work, and shares with Mr. Gregory the success of the duet "Under and Over Forty"; Mr. Donald Hall is duly impressive as Boniface. The scenery and appointments are rich and artistic.

PRINCE'S THEATRE.—Licensee and Manager, Mr J. W. Boughton; Acting-Manager, Mr. T. E. Agate.—Mr. James Kiddie's pantomime of Cinderella is coming to the end of a merry and most successful run, Saturday being the last performance here. The production has been a credit to all concerned, and crowded houses have testified in no uncertain way their keen appreciation.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Secretary, Mr. W. Pratt.—The sensation and star turn here this week is provided by Dr. Walford Bodie, who adds to scientific experiments in electricity some public examples of bloodless surgery, which evoke from crowded houses thunders of applause. The doctor winds up with a funny mesmeric entertainment. The usual variety programme is contributed to by Millie Howall, a pleasing soubrette; Kavados, juggler and equilibrist, a clever and capable artist; Fred Ace, with musical specialties; the Sessors, comedy duettists and baton swingers; Herbert Madden, vocal comedian; Hughes and Elliott, rag-time vocalists and eccentric dancers; the Arleys, a capital pair of knockabout cyclists; and Payne's Bio-Photoscope—all meeting with a good reception.

PRESTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Manager, Mr. Stephen Pritt.—A hearty reception has been accorded this week to Messrs. Dottridge and Longden's company in Aladdin. Miss Madie Scott—who was an immense favourite here last year—makes a captivating Aladdin. She has a charming presence, and by her sweet singing and dainty dancing again scores a great success. The Princess Badroulbadour has an attractive exponent in Miss Lily Lonsdale, whose songs are deservedly greeted with loud applause. Miss Madge Northcote, who appears as Rhadianta, is also an accomplished vocalist, whose songs win cordial approval; and to Miss Flo Collier, as well, praise must be accorded for her vocal efforts and dancing. Julian Mack, another local favourite, figures as the Widow Twankey; he is a genuine comedian, and his funny patter evokes roars of laughter. Mr. Joe Robins contributes a big share of the fun as Wot-Iz-It, his jokes and grotesque acting creating much merriment; Mr. Ernie Myers takes full advantage of his opportunities as Abanazar; and Mr. Geo. Cooper is an excellent Emperor. Mr. Carl Muller (Busyoso) is to be commended for his smart dancing.

PRINCE'S THEATRE.—Proprietors and Managers, Messrs. Sawyer and Woodruff.—Messrs. Dottridge, Longden, and Livesey's Co., is appearing here this week in The Village Blacksmith, which has met with a cordial reception. Mr. Sam Livesey gives a powerful impersonation of John Strong; Captain Leo has an excellent representative in Mr. Joseph Carter; Mr. Edwin Maydew acquits himself well as Lucas Marlow. Much praise is due to Miss Laura Hanson for her portrayal of Kate Strong; Miss Cassie Edwards makes a charming Ruth Parkins; Mrs. T. C. Livesey is seen to advantage as Sal Parkins; Mr. Geo. V. Campbell creates much merriment as Billy Twigg; Mr Thos. E. Marshall is a mirth-provoking Jeremiah Parkins; Miss Bertha Hanbury wins the sympathy of the house as Harry Strong; and Miss Edith Giddins acquits herself creditably as Martha Mopps.

ROYAL HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. H. Broadhead and Sons; Resident Acting-Manager, Mr. E. J. Linsdell.—Mr. H. A. Jordison's pantomime Cinderella fills the bill here this week. The company is an all-round good one, and the staging very effective. Miss Maimie Iris, as Cinderella, sings sweetly and dances gracefully; Miss Daisy Morrell puts the necessary "go" into her part of the Prince; and Mr. Will Letters scores well as Buttons. Quite a feature of the production is the singing and dancing of eight little girls.

RADCLIFFE.—GRAND OPERA HOUSE.—Sole Owner and Manager, Mr. G. T. Santé; Acting-Manager, Mr. Jas. Boothman.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm Maclaren's company is doing good work in the romantic play, Proof. Mr. Wm. Dexter continues to score as Lazare, alias the Count de Laval; and Mr. Wilford Bailey is an ideal Chamboran. Mr. F. H. De Quincey makes a manly Pierre Lorance; and Mr. Terance Norrey is exceedingly good as Duke d'Aubeterre. Miss May Grimshaw plays with much force Valentine; Miss Phena Powell displays talent as Madame Defrets; while Miss May Hawthorne is seen to advantage as Adrienne; and Miss Lucy Prittie Lydd is good as the Duchesse d'Aubeterre.

RAMSGATE.—AMPHITHEATRE.—Proprietor, Lord George Sanger; General-Manager, Mr. Henry Bowman.—The abundance of lively election meetings in the three-cornered political fight in Thanet have acted as a considerable counter-attraction to the excellent performances of the drama, The Days of Cromwell, which Messrs. Livesey and Hardy's company has been giving at the Amphitheatre. Mr. Montague Beaudyn acts cleverly in the rôle of Ironhand, the Avenger; Miss Irene Munroe is a charming Ruby Avondale; and the other characters are interpreted in excellent fashion.

RAWTENSTALL.—GRAND THEATRE.—Co-Proprietors and Lessees, Messrs. W. Johnson and J. Potter; General-Manager, Mr. J. Potter; Resident-Acting-Manager, Mr. J. Ellis Miller.—Mr. Erno Aguzzi's pantomime company opened here on Monday night with a good performance of Sinbad. Miss Dora Harrison is a fine principal boy, and very ably sustains her part, contributing several songs, which she sings exceedingly well. Miss Ethel Mars is a charming Princess, and acts with vivacity; the duet "Teasing" is well sung by her and Sinbad. Sinbad is in the able hands of Mr. Erno Aguzzi, who imparts considerable "go" and humour to the character. Miss Marie Gerrard makes a pretty and piquant Haidee; Mrs. Sinbad is impersonated by Mr. Bert High, who makes an exceedingly funny dame and gives a clever roller-skating turn. Messrs. Kerr and Koe take the parts of Scuttleum and Stopper with considerable ability; and Mr. Harry Collins is an acceptable Rajah. Miss Lillie Redfern also proves successful as Prince Florizel; and Miss Violet Fair is a charming Fairy, and is responsible for an exceedingly pretty and well-sung solo. Specialities are introduced by Adrim and Oram, ragtime eccentrics; Arthy, in his clever wire act; Kerr and Koe, expert dancers; Belford and Mars, and the Four Tomboys. The choruses are well arranged and equally well sung, and the whole performance is clever and enjoyable.

READING.—ROYAL COUNTY THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Milton Bode; Acting-Manager, Mr. W. E. Barnett; Secretary, Mr. Reginald Taylor.—Mr. John Tully's company is appearing this week in the ever-popular play, Uncle Tom's Cabin. Miss Edith Blanche acts most effectively in the dual rôles of Eliza Harris and Cassy; Mr. William Taylor plays with pathos as Uncle Tom; Mr. John Tully is excellent as Phineas Fletcher; Mr. James Palmer as Mr. Selby, Mr. J. D. Geddes as George Harris and Mr. Charles Colwyn as Mr. St. Clair all play well; Mr. Fred G. Kay makes a thorough-paced villain as Simon Legree; and Mr. St. Vincent Beechey acts characteristically as the rascally Marks. Miss Marie Lyndon makes a prim and proper Aunt Ophelia; Miss Kitty Wood is exceedingly droll as Topsy; and Little Marie plays the part of Eva most sympathetically. A grand plantation festival is introduced in Act IV., in which Kitty Wood, flap shoe dancer; Lillian Francis, quadroon vocalist; Florrie Mack, coon songstress; Billy Taylor, the whistling coon; Sergeant H. Darby, rifle and tambourine expert; and King Roy, basso, all appear to advantage.

REDHILL.—MARKET HALL.—Market Hall Co., Proprietors; Mr. A. Smith, Secretary and Manager.—Mr. John A. Thomson's pantomime, The Babes in the Wood, under the local direction of Mr. G. W. Bowes, is the attraction here this week. Miss Beatrice Wadham is a dashing Robin Hood; and Miss Edith Madelle a pleasing Little John. Miss Clair Wadham proves a charming Fairy Sylvania; Miss Stella Rose as Maid Marion, and Miss Daisy Stone as Mavis are all that can be desired. Miss Minnie Litchfield as Harold, and Miss Kathleen Cogan as Lucy (the "Babes"), fairly captivate the audience, both by their winsome ways and their dainty dancing. Mr. Newton Pearce is a decidedly evil-looking uncle; whilst the antics of Dumpling, his page (Mr. Carl Moneta), cause much merriment; as does also the funny business of Friar Tuck (Mr. Fred Taylor). Mr. Ted Mack and Mr. Henry Young are typical ruffians in make-up and manners. Mr. Tom G. Warren deserves great credit for his characterisation of Araminta Koffkake, the schoolmistress. The evolutions of the Butterfly troupe of lady dancers are a pleasing feature of the performance.

ROCHDALE.—NEW THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, the Northern Theatres Co., Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. W. Robinson; General-Manager, Mr. Otto C. Culling; Resident-Manager, Mr. Jos. Hague.—Her Second Time on Earth is the title of the play here this week. It is highly sensational, and finds much favour with the patrons of the popular parts of the house. Mr. George Gaisford powerfully portrays the part of Captain Jasper Norman; Mr. Harry Hiller makes a manly Jack Carlton; Mr. William C. Reid is amusing as Teddy Butterfly; Mr. W. H. Porter cleverly acts his part as Guy Brand; and Mr. Charles Langton is effective as Tom Norman. Miss Marjory Millbank is vivacious as Kitty Rosebud; Miss Polly Marsh makes a typical drunken woman as Elizabeth Burke; Miss Dorothy Hildebrande sweetly enacts the part of Laura Norman; and Miss Hilda Beverley plays with force and telling effect as Dora Grey.

CIRCUS AND HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. Smith and Lee; Business-Manager, Mr. S. L. Lee.—Pringle's North American Animated Picture Company continues a third week's engagement here with an entire set of new pictures, which are highly appreciated. The variety turns include the Attila Brothers, strong men; Nellie Dunbar, soubrette; Poole and Poole, comedians; T. E. Box, comedian; G. W. Hastings, vocalist; Kitty Gower change artist; and Kivitz, Mexican Vaquero.

EMPIRE THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Thomas Hargreaves; Acting-Manager, Mr. Frank Hargreaves.—J. W. Hall tops the bill here this week. He was accorded a hearty reception on Monday evening, and contributed his numbers in quite his old style, keeping the audience in roars of laughter. The Violas submitted a clever and mystifying turn in their second sight act; Shanghia in his entertainment, Orienta, performed some clever conjuring tricks; and other good turns are submitted by Thirza Hirst (male impersonator), J. H. Carney (comedian), Harlem Bros. (rifle manipulators, acrobats, and sand dancers), Little Beattie (child song and dance artist), and the Empire Bioscope.

ROTHERHAM.—THEATRE ROYAL, LIMITED.—Managing-Director, Mr. F. Macnaghten; Resident-Manager, Mr. Holbery Hardy.—Mr. Frederick Melville's company is here this week with the drama, Between Two Women. Mr. C. W. Standing is a manly Harry Millard; Mr. Jerrold Heather is a typical muscular Christian as Rev. Philip Carton; Mr. Louis Hector is seen to advantage as James Darwood; Mr. Arthur B. Murray has a fine part as Henry, Earl of Millard; Mr. N. Graham scores as Mr. Jorkins; and Mr. George B. Montford is deserving of mention as Major Strangeways. Miss Marjorie Murray is pleasing as Violet Thornton; Miss Winifred Pearson as Carmen de Savereaux gives a capital portrayal; Miss Sybil Hare scores as the Lady Customer; and Miss Lulu Bowes is very successful as the Blind Boy.

RUGBY.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietors, The Rugby Theatre and Entertainments Co., Ltd.; Managing-Director, Mr. A. F. Cross.—This week Mr. Chas. Macdona's company is paying a much appreciated visit with The Country Girl. Miss Eileen Guilbert, as Marjorie Joy, is a charming and capable actress; and as Nan, Miss Florence Burdette gives a clever and artistic impersonation. Miss Madge Campbell is vivacious as Sophie; and as the Princess of Bhong, Miss Vera Vizard is very successful. Miss Florence Brewster is very good as Mrs. St. Quentin; and Miss Cecilia Broughton, as Lady Anchester, makes the most of her opportunities. In the capable hands of Mr. Johnny Clegg, the rôle of Barry is quite safe. He proves himself to be an actor of great ability and humour. Mr. Bernard Vaughan, as the Rajah of Bhong, gives a dignified and artistic impersonation; and as Sir Joseph Verity, Mr. W. O. Billington is clever and amusing. Mr. W. Besley Beltran is good as Douglas Verity; and as Geoffrey Challoner, Mr. J. Mansell Stringer fills the part with success. Mr. George Stone, as Granfer Mummery, gives a clever character sketch; and Mr. A. W. Metcalfe is good as Lord Anchester. The various musical numbers are well and artistically rendered, and the orchestra is under the able leadership of Mr. C. W. Nightingale.

RUNCORN.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee, Mr. H. W. Caddick.—Mr. F. H. Neville's company is presenting A Queen's Vengeance. Mr. R. Nelme Grasswell presents an interesting portrait of the harassed monarch, Henry II.; Sir Rupert Warringer, the traitorous knight, is strenuously presented by Mr. Richard Creswick; Mr. Harold Macartrey's Gilbert Ormonde is an edifying piece of work; Mr. Thos. Bowron is well placed as Sir Martin Clifford; Mr. Ulicke Burke, as Bibeau, the Court Jester, does well; Mrs. Walter Bentley makes a decidedly pronounced hit as Queen Eleanor, the vengeful consort; Miss Leegarde Atheling is a charming Mistress Clifford; and Miss Peggie Baddle, as Janet Jessop, should also be praised.

SALFORD.—PRINCE OF WALES'S.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. E. B. Goulden; Acting-Manager, Mr. Harold Goulden. — Messrs. Dottridge and Longden's company, under the general-management of Mr. James Willard, had a good reception on Monday from a large house, when they commenced with The Midnight Mail. Mr. George Harvard does well as Harry Steyne; Billy Brewer, as portrayed by Mr. Fred G. Evison, is a fine study; Miss Grace Lester represents Mary Steyne with good effect; Miss Mildred Carr as Nancy Brewer does capable work; and Mr. Austen Mortimer as Leonard Royle, Mr. C. P. Wentworth as Hassan Padisha, Mr. Dobell Lyle as Donald Craig, and Miss Hilda Merrilees as Lady Phyllis Eustace give adequate support. The scenery is good, and the staging, especially the scene of the fight on the locomotive, is most effective.

REGENT OPERA HOUSE, LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. W. Turner; Manager, Mr. Herbert Raymond; Secretary, Mr. J. C. Patterson.—The Curate is the attraction this week, and draws good houses, as presented by Miss Hettie Jeffreys' company, under the direction of Mr. Whitmore Ledger. Gilbert Westwood is well played by Mr. Ledger; and Miss Hettie Jeffreys presents Dick in an able manner. Mr. Arthur Mervyn makes a good Rev. John Audley; as Katinka Vodsky, Miss Winifred Stuart is effective; and Miss Isabel Norman does well as Mabel Verner. Mr. Frank Stuart as Sergeant Snipe, Mr. Clifford Spencer as Simon Peter Mugs, Mr. Paul Gascoigne as Benjamin Beniebow, Mr. Harry Irvine as Private Hobbs, Mr. Charles Coventry as Gregory Verner, and Miss Agnese D'Aragon as Mrs. Mugs, each give a good performance.

REGENT THEATRE OF VARIETIES LTD.—Managing-Director, Mr. W. Turner; Manager, Mr. Herbert Raymond; Secretary, Mr. J. C. Patterson.—Edna Groves, comedienne and dancer, and Wake and Dean, comedians and dancers, give excellent turns, after which John Tiller's pantomime, Red Riding Hood, by Charles Fletcher, fills the bill. It is a pretty and amusing production, with eight scenes, and there is plenty of good singing and dancing, together with clever comedy business. Miss Bessie Cohen is a sprightly Prince Charming, getting much applause for her singing and dancing; Miss May Merry is a clever Red Riding Hood; and Mr. Harry Morgan as the Baron, Mr. Harry Elliston as Johnny Stout, and Mr. Teddy Gibbs as Johnny Green, with Mr. Howard Ward as Dame Crump, continually cause roars of laughter. Miss Edna Morgan as Lieutenant Tommy Tucker, and Miss Maud St. John as Margery Daw, are also successful. The Poppy Quartette and the Excelsior Troupe of children do some pleasing evolutions.

ROYAL HIPPODROME.—Manager, Mr. W. B. Broadhead; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy B. Broadhead; Resident-Acting-Manager, Mr. C. H. Wentworth.—This week's programme is headed by Spiff Spaff Spoof, a farcical absurdity, by Walter Howard, who appears as Terence O'Flanagan, and is assisted by Mrs. Ellen Snow, Mr. Charles Liddon, Mr. T. Kirkwood, Miss Kathleen Allen, Miss Alice Berte, and Mr. Cecil A. Melton, whose performances are very much appreciated. Billy Richardson gives an amusing stump oration; and Flora Lumière's new Electrical Fairy Grotto is very pretty. Sultan Brothers are responsible for an amusing comedy acrobatic act. Other excellent turns include Copeland and Son, expert dancers; a comical novelty, called Phantom Ship; Toner, the singing newsboy; some smart conjuring by Anthony; and the Sisters Williams, Welsh duettists.

SEACOMBE.—IRVING THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Councillor James Kiernan.—A Royal Divorce is the attraction here this week, with Mr. Frederick Moyes as Napoleon, a part which he fills with all the necessary determination and vigour. Miss Lilian Dundas acquits herself creditably as the Empress Josephine; and Talleyrand is suitably depicted by Mr. H. Gray Dolby. Miss Muriel Thompson gives a strong rendering of Marie Louise; and Stephanie de Beauharnais is prettily played by Miss Entwistle. Mr. Henry Ludlow as the Marquis de Beaumont, Mr. C. Lionel Brocknor as General Augereau, and Mr. T. W. Ford as Marshal Murat, give characteristic delineations of their respective parts.

SEAHAM HARBOUR.—NEW THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. A. C. Harrison.—Mr. Edmund Tearle and company made a welcome reappearance here on Monday night, when Richard III. was played to a large audience. Mr. Tearle's Duke of Gloucester was keenly appreciated; as King Richard VI. Mr. T. W. Benson acquitted himself well; Mr. Richard Vane scored as the Duke of Richmond. Edward and Richard, the princes, were cleverly delineated by Mr. A. W. Wynne and Miss Clara Armitage. Mr. Vernon Crabtree played Henry of Buckingham in fine style; Miss Mary Campbell, as the Duchess of York, won much favour; Elizabeth was played with marked ability by Miss Mary Cleveland; Miss Esther Tearle gave an admirable rendering of Lady Anne. During the week the following will be staged:—Othello, Virginius, Rob Roy, Hamlet, and Jeanie Deans.

SEVEN KINGS.—CENTRAL HALL.—The popularity of the Lester Entertainers was again proved on their return visit on Saturday, when the building was filled. Mr. Cliff Lester proved himself a versatile and clever artist; Mr. Morris Andrews, who is baritone, was enthusiastically encored; Mr. Charles Hutchins, a great favourite here, sang and danced in artistic style; and a most acceptable turn was the living marionette show presented by Mr. Fred Drage. The Home-Made Motor-Car, an original sketch, brought a thoroughly enjoyable entertainment to a close.

SHEERNESS.—THE HIPPODROME.—General-Manager, Mr. Harry Day; Manager, Mr. Fred Leighton.—Variety gives place to pantomime here this week, and on Monday the Messrs. Seeley and West are two good black and white entertainers; and other clever artists this week are the Driscoll and Beattie company, Mr. Charles Cardow, comedian; Miss Rosie Archer, serio-comic; Messrs. Brooks, Dale, and Blitz, in a comic absurdity; O'Gust, the popular animal mimic; Mr. Bert Woodward; and Mezzetti and Mara, agile bar performers.

GRAND PALACE.—Proprietor, Mr. Frank Macnaghten.—Engaged at this hall are Miss Carlotta de Yonsen, the well-known leading actress, and her dramatic company; Loudoun Cameron, Mr. Carl Rosine, Jack Renson, and Rose Waite, two old local favourites; Mr. Mark Merry, vocal comedian; and Miss Mollie Seymour, comedienne. In addition there is Pallister's Bioscope with up-to-date events.

ALBERT HALL.—The celebrated Joseph Poole Pierrorama and variety aggregation finish a successful month's engagement to-night. The Three Phydoras, old pantomime favourites in Sheffield; the Sisters Verona, De Marche's dogs and ponies, Miss May Finch, and Mr. Felix Somers have delighted the Sheffield public.

MONTGOMERY HALL.—Here is still located the famous Maskelyne and Devant entertainment with a new series of smart and bewildering illusions, including the Burmeze gong.

WONDERLAND.—Manager, Mr. Herbert Lemley.—The pantomime of Sinbad has proved a great success this week.

SHREWSBURY.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Licensee and Business-Manager, Mr. W. C. Dornton.—Mr. Chas. Macdona's highly-talented company played the bright musical comedy, The Gay Parisienne, here on the first four nights of the present week. Mr. Edward Kipling was droll as Mr. Ebenezer Honeycombe; Madame Ilma Norina gave a capable impersonation of Mrs. Honeycombe; Miss Lucia Collins was a charming and tuneful Nora; Miss Gwennie Harcourt a clever Ruth; Mr. Rudolph Kloss a successful Major Forsdyke; and Mr. Graham Wentworth an effective Amos Dingle. Mr. Lester Carey sang and acted with considerable ability as Tom Eversleigh; Mr. Norman Craigh, as Algernon P. Ducie, was a typical American citizen; Mr. J. Fritz James made a picturesque Hans; Mr. Bloomfield Jones was a smart Fritz; and Mr. Charles Sequin merited high praise for his exceedingly smart acting as M. Pompier. The singing of the original Imperial Glee Singers (Messrs. Jones, Reid, Carey, and FitzJames) was most enjoyable, their quartettes being loudly redemanded.

MUSIC HALL.—Licensee, Mr. V. C. L. Crump.—Mr. Joshua Dyson's highly entertaining company is here this week with their ever-popular dioramas and Gipsy Choir. The programme of vocal and instrumental music is admirably arranged, the views are up-to-date and interesting, and a dramatic sketch is diverting.

SMETHWICK. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Proprietor, Mr. C. Barnard; Manager, Mr. E. Hewitson.—Pantomime made a welcome appearance at this theatre on Monday, when Little Aladdin was presented by Mr. James Kiddie's company. From start to finish the ball of fun and frolic is kept going merrily. Mr. Arthur Aiston is particularly prominent as Abanazar, and introduces several popular songs with good effect; Miss Marie Beresford is a capital principal boy; and Miss Emmie Milsted is responsible for some popular songs and dances. Miss Lena Page is a popular Fairy Queen, her singing being much appreciated; Mr. W. G. Wesley is droll as Widow Twankey; Messrs. Tom and Will Kelso are inimitable drolls; Mr. Joe Bell is a hard-working Wishee Washee; Miss Cissie Gold a charming and piquant Princess; Mr. D. J. McCarthy a rollicking Emperor of the most bibulous type; and Mr. Jack Waller is an exponent of that peculiar dry, eccentric humour termed by the Caledonians "pawky." Miss Maude Clarke is responsible for some very clever dancing. The chorus is strong, and the ballets are taking, the production being admirably staged. Mr. J. Gill is also worthy of special note for the capital work of the orchestra. The whole of the production is under the personal supervision of that well-known writer of pantomime and musical comedy, Mr. J. S. Barry.

SOUTHAMPTON. — GRAND THEATRE.—Sole Lessee and Manager, Mr. Fredk. Mouillot; Resident-Manager, Mr. Sydney Paxton.—This week Mr. George Dance's company is presenting The Little Michus for the first time here. The musical play is exceedingly well presented, and is nightly received with uproarious applause. First favourite is Mr. Leslie Holland, who, as General des Ifs, is singularly happy in his work. His clever comedy acting is highly appreciated. Good support is rendered by Mr. Cecil Clayton, delightfully droll as Bagnolet; Mr. Gerald Clifford sings and acts well as Gaston; and Mr. T. E. Conover plays Pierre Michu in a highly meritorious manner. Miss Alice Coverick and Miss Gracie Sinclair, the little Michus, are seen to great advantage. Miss Maisie Gay, as Madame Michu, acts with briskness and humour; and Mdlle. Marjorie dances gracefully. The scenery and dresses are extremely handsome.

PALACE.—Proprietor and Director-General, Mr. Frank Macnaghten; Resident-Manager, Mr. William Trussell.—T. E. Dunville, the droll comedian, is the star artist here, and receives a hearty welcome for his clever ditties and quaint mannerisms. The Member for Muddlesex is capably presented by Mr. W. Lee and Miss Helen Bentley; and the Four Maisons excel in a clever musical act. The Dean Twins dance delightfully; and other capital turns are given by Lily Langtry, comedienne; Walter Emerson, the lengthy comedian; and the Delmars, speciality comedians.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. Fredk. Mouillot and W. de Frece; General-Manager, Mr. J. de Frece; Resident-Manager, Mr. Sydney Paxton; Acting-Manager, Mr. P. C. Aldin.—Mr. Edwin Leslie, late acting-manager here, departed for Belfast last week to take over the management of the Palace. Mr. Percy Aldin, who has been connected with the Hippodrome since the opening, has been appointed to succeed Mr. Leslie. The choice is an admirable one, for Mr. Aldin, in addition to being extremely popular with the patrons of the "Hippo," is a most zealous worker and courteous young man. We wish him every success in his more responsible position. This week the usual variety entertainment is abandoned, and in its stead Mr. Fredk. Mouillot's pantomime, Cinderella, reigns supreme. The production is very successful, and a special feature introduced by the Brothers Pollard and Miss Kitty Grey, entitled The Soldier, the Policeman, and the Cook, is very popular.

SOUTHEND-ON-SEA.—EMPIRE THEATRE.—Sole Owners, The Southend Theatre Co. (1905), Ltd.; Managing Director, Mr. Geo. Conquest; Manager, Mr. A. Lingham Power.—On Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, Mr. Henry Bedford presented his new play, entitled The See-Saw of Life, in very creditable style, his excellent company earning great praise for their all round ability. Mr. Henry Bedford takes the prominent rôle of Matt Marsten, once a detective and now a super, and wins repeated and unstinted applause for his really clever characterisation. Sir James Dalroy is well embodied by Mr. Alec Alexander, and Mr. Walter H. Domoney is well suited as James Denton. Mr. Sid Bedford causes merriment for his droll methods as Augustus. In Miss Bessie Bedford, the poor seamstress Laurie Musgrave finds a clever exponent, and Miss Ella Sennett is successful as Judith Dalroy. Mrs. Palmer is capably delineated by Miss Frances Foley, and the Misses Jeanie Risley and Enid Trench are both pleasing as Liza Allen and Kit respectively. Gipsy Jack was being played for the last three nights of this week.

PIER PAVILION.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. H. E. Angless; Acting-Manager, Mr. Stanley E. Angless.—This skating rink is gaining more popularity each week, and crowds enjoy this fascinating pastime daily. Mons. Le Clair shows a capable set of new pictures on the American Bioscope, and music is furnished by the celebrated Red Band.

SOUTHPORT.—OPERA HOUSE, WINTER GARDENS.—General-Manager, Mr. Alfred Hemming.—The engagement of Mr. Martin Harvey and his excellent company is proving a sound attraction here this week. An unusually large audience accorded the popular actor an enthusiastic reception on Monday evening, when a brilliant interpretation of The Breed of the Treshams was presented. In the part of Lieutenant Beresby (otherwise "The Rat") Mr. Martin Harvey is eminently successful, and submits a strikingly natural portrayal of the character. Mr. Charles J. Cameron is a praiseworthy exponent of Viscount Dorsington; Mr. Charles Glenney displays talent in the rôle of Colonel the Hon. Clement Hungerford; Mr. Percy Anstey is a highly commendable representative of Cornet the Hon. Francis Tresham; Miss N. De Silva imparts natural charm and vivacity to the rôle of Batty; Miss Coleridge merits unstinted praise for her graceful and polished delineation of the Hon. Margaret Hungerford; Mrs. Bagshaw and Helena Pierrepoint have able representatives in Miss Francis Ivor and Miss Bessie Elder respectively. On the evenings of Thursday and Friday The Only Way was presented.

PIER PAVILION.—Lessee, Mr. Charles Parker; Acting-Manager, Mr. J. H. Mertz.—A remarkably good turn is supplied here by Arayama, Japanese slack-wire walker and barrel manipulator. The programme includes Mattie Crawford, serio and dancer; Charles Woodward, comedian; York, Mack, and York, Widow Mack's Troublesome Boys; Richardson Taylor, mimic, ventriloquist, and silleur; Nuttall Cross, pianist; and the bio-tableaux.

SOUTH SHIELDS.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessees and Managers, Messrs. J. and F. Coulson.—An excellent pantomime, entitled Cinderella, presented by Mr. Eade Montefiore's company is occupying the boards here. Mr. George Rydon is responsible for the major portion of the fun as Peter the page, his antics, singing, and dancing creating much mirth. Miss May Merton, a capital Cinders, both sings and dances with becoming charm. Miss Georgina Leonard (Prince Peerless), who possesses a good stage presence, is an ideal principal boy. The comedians, who work together in excellent harmony, and cause hearty laughter, include Mr. Fred Lincoln (Baron Hardup), Mr. Arthur Byron (Jawrinda), Mr. George Antley (Clawrinda), and Messrs. Conan and Doyle (Nabem and Nailem). Miss Vera Schlesinger assists successfully as the Fairy Godmother; Miss Adele Lincoln creditably sustains Dandini. Specialities are introduced by Mr. Morrice Holmes, a clever whistler, the Four Fiori Del Moutes, dancers, and Miss Adele Lincoln, a neat and able dancer. The scenery and costumes and effects are commendable, and the chorus and orchestra are under the capable baton of Mr. Michael Connelly.

EMPIRE PALACE THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Richard Thornton; General-Manager, Mr. Frank Allen; Resident-Manager, Mr. Geo. F. Thompson.—Kelly and Ashby, bounding billiardists, head the bill, and are accorded an excellent reception; Florrie Gallimore, comedienne, easily sings herself into favour; a clever aquatic display is given by the Finneys; Geoffreys and Benson appear in a smart comedy sketch entitled Spoofed; W. B. Vox, ventriloquist, successfully amuses the audience; some clever acrobatic work is contributed by the Hans Hansen Trio. The remaining items are Princess Pauline, a bright comedienne and clever dancer; the sisters Neilson, duettists and dancers; Billy Hobbs, coon singer and dancer, and the American Bioscope.

TIVOLI.—Proprietors and Managers, Councillor J. K. Hall and Mr. Joseph Sweeney.—A novel turn is provided here this week by Everton and Burns, cyclists, in a racing act; the Three Seymours, smart equilibrists, are well received; Bob Hamilton, Scotch comedian; and Yorkshire Tom, mimic, are in high favour; Bandoni, one-man band, displays ability. Other popular turns are Lily Turner, descriptive vocalist; Will McIvor, vocal comedian; and Walter Payne's Bioscope.

SPENNYMOOR.—CAMBRIDGE THEATRE.—Lessee Mr. Harding Thomas; Resident-Manager, Mr. Herbert Vere.—Mr. Charles Carte is paying a welcome return visit here, and has been delighting local playgoers during the week by his clever depiction of Jerry the Tramp in that well-known American drama, A Noble Brother. Miss Doris Brookes submits a pleasing performance as Nana Leigh, Miss Alice Ballard succeeds as Mrs. Leigh, and Miss Katie Cameron gives a lively and spirited rendering of Rosie Rapid. Mr. Arthur Gilroy scores as Henry Travers; whilst Mr. J. Ansell Wilson, as Jack Elsworth, is deservedly popular. Mr. Maurice Jones appears with marked success as Colonel Leigh, and the rest of the cast is capably filled.

ST. HELENS. — THEATRE ROYAL AND OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietors, the St. Helen's Theatre, Ltd.; General-Manager, Mr. McLeod Loader.—The attraction here this week is the reappearance of Mr. George Dance's company in the perennial musical comedy, A Chincse Honeymoon, which is again proving very popular. As Fi-Fi, Miss Minnie Leslie displays much cleverness and sprightliness; Miss Ada Watson is full of vivacity as Soo-Soo, her vocal efforts being excellent; Miss Poppy Wilkinson makes an irresistible Mrs. Pineapple; as the Emperor, Mr. St. John Hammond is highly diverting; Mr. Percy Russell and Mr. Jack Leslie find congenial rôles as the Lord Chancellor and Lord High Admiral respectively; Mr. Foster Courtenay does exceedingly well as Pineapple; and the Tom Hatherton of Mr. L. Bullock Webster could scarcely be improved upon.

HIPPODROME.—Proprietors, Messrs. Barrasford, Will Sley, and F. Willmot; Manager, Mr. A. V. Carnell.—Heading the bill here we have an old favourite, Mr. Charles Majilton, and competent company, in a mirth-provoking absurdity, The Trippers, which has caught on. Mr. Jake Friedman is a clever versatile artist; Miss Bertha Winder, an exceedingly clever dancer, is justly styled "the dancing marvel"; Drum and Major are good in a speciality act; the Zenary Brothers are clever equilibrists; and Allsopp and Beckwith score a success in a burlesque act.

ST. LEONARDS.—THE KURSAAL.—Pier-Master and Entertainment-Manager, Mr. Elvey Thomas.—The vocalists for the week in connection with the orchestral concerts are Mr. Henry Parsons (baritone), Miss Winifred Dixon (soprano), Miss Marjorie Gummerson, and Madame Ella Russell.

STOCKPORT. — NEW THEATRE ROYAL. — Sole Owner and Manager, Mr. Charles Revill; Acting-Manager, Mr. William Revill.—Mr. Walter Reynold's latest play, Mr. Smith, is a strong attraction here this week. The company presenting it is one of exceptional excellence, and has commanded the heartiest appreciation from large audiences. Mr. Stewart T. Ewart submitted an impressive impersonation of Mr. Smith; and Mr. E. Edwin Holloway acted with much power and ability as Lord Angleland. A pleasing character was Herr Deidrich Anheuser, in the hands of Mr. Fred Darrell; and the Hon. Dudley Dysart was effectively portrayed by Mr. Chas. Pilling Baird. Most charming was Miss Rosmond Berkeley as Lady Mary; and Miss Fife Alexander delightfully filled the part of Ruth Anheuser. Miss Mary Bates, as the Duchess of Angleland, and Mrs. Louis Lestrange, sustained their respective parts with marked ability.

EMPIRE, LTD.—Acting-Manager, Mr. W. Black.—Will Onda's company, in a laughable sketch, Servants Wanted, forms the chief attraction here, and has provided abundant fun for large audiences. Ada Twibell, a charming burlesque artist, much admired, has been distinctly successful; and Prince Fee Lung was entertaining in his display of juggling and conjuring. Gillins, ventriloquial humorist; Harry Nation, laughing comedian; Helene and Emilon, gymnasts; the Airlies, duettists; and Eugene, the boy musician, contributed their share to the evening's enjoyment.

STOCKTON-ON-TEES.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee, Mr. Fred Granville; Manager, Mr. A. R. Feather.—Mr. J. A. Campbell's company in The Sin of Her Childhood is here. As Stephen Haysel, Mr. E. St. Clair Forbes does well; Mr. Borresford Lovett is good as Rev. Alan Grey; Mr. Franklin Graham is a dashing Captain Thornton; and Mr. Fred Elvin gets a lot of fun out of his Barney O'Reilly. Miss J. D. Hicks scores as Maria Haysel; Little Dot Moss, as Hannah Spry, acts, sings, and dances cleverly; and Miss Ruth Sheppard acts very pathetically the part of the heroine, Mary Haysel.

GRAND THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. Batty; Manager, Mr. W. Batty.—The chief turn here is the Pichel troupe of acrobats; also there are Les Fraisettes, talented xylophone soloists, &c.; the Glendenbergs, hand balancers, &c.; Ada Parker, coon vocalist; Phil Mouat, "the singing joiner"; Brown and Kelly Combination, in The Butler Knows; Two Romas, vocalists; Jimmy Shields, comic; Charles Mildare, comic whistler; and Payne's bioscope.

HIPPODROME THEATRE.—Proprietors, Messrs. G. and R. A. Nicholson; Manager, Mr. W. Ainsworth.—Mr. W. Holland's pantomime, Aladdin, is staged here. Miss Frances Haskoll makes a hit as Aladdin; Miss Flo Wood does well as Badroulbadour; and Flo Warner's Pekoe is brisk. Mr. Geo. Reeves's Widow Twankey is clever; Mr. Jack O'Connor, as Wishee Washee, is funny; Mr. R. M. Woodville's Emperor is effective; and Mr. Fred Russell's Abanazar is played in capital style. Mr. Glanmore Jones, as the Vizier, is also good; Sandy and Carl are very laughable as Bo-ki and Bo-ko; and specialities are introduced by the Floradora Girls.

STOURBRIDGE.—ALHAMBRA THEATRE.—Manageress, Miss Maude Lynton.—This week we are receiving a return visit from Mr. C. Watson Mill and company with the drama A Wrecker of Men. Miss Rosalind Tate gives an admirable delineation of the character of Risca Mallison, and Mr. Milner Noble as Pharosaphus proves a capable artist. Mr. C. Watson Mill as Jim Murley gives a powerful impersonation; Mr. Gilson Brooke as Kailton presents a careful study; and Mr. Percy Horton gains distinction as Guise Strange. Mr. N. Carter Slaughter as the Hon. Reggie Verincourt is prominent, and Mr. Henry Rutland in a dual rôle is most effective. Mr. Alfred Maurice depicts well the rôle of Eric Melville, and Miss Cissie Penmore as Dorris Melville plays in a pleasing manner. Miss Kitty Melville provides nearly all the fun in the character of Navasole Slopper.

SUTTON-IN-ASHFIELD.—KING'S THEATRE.—Proprietor, Captain Clayton; General-Manager, Mr. Edward Gray.—On Monday Mr. Henry Furnival's company in Lost in Paris opened to a good house. The play was well received, and the acting is good all round. Jacques and Pierre are capably represented by Messrs. Edward Valentine and Henry Furnival. Mr. Charles Macdona's Country Girl company was announced for Thursday.

SWINDON.—QUEEN'S THEATRE.—Proprietor and Manager, Mr. Alfred Manners.—That popular musical comedy The Orchid has been a considerable time reaching this town, but when it made its appearance on Monday it was welcomed by local playgoers in no half-hearted manner. This piece is well performed by Mr. George Dance's company, under the business-management of Mr. H. Wright Scaddan; while the staging and dressing, under the direction of Mr. R. N. Corray, deserve high praise, as also does the chorus and augmented orchestra, under the bâton of Mr. Morton Huchesson. Miss Constance Hamilton gives an admirable impersonation of Lady Violet, full of charm and vivacity, while her cultured vocalism wins the heartiest applause. She is ably supported by Miss Maud Jay, who is delightful in her treatment of the part of Josephine Zaccary, Miss Madeline Maude very funny as Caroline Vokins, and Miss Daisy W. Collins pleasing as Thisbe. Mr. Ian Maxwell proves himself exceptionally clever as the Hon. Guy, and is deservedly encored for his dances and vocal efforts. Mr. W. Garland is highly successful as Dr. Faussett, and Mr. R. Corray is seen to advantage as Mr. Chesterton. A striking feature of the piece is the remarkable activity and quaintness of Mr. Colin Campbell, who, as Meakins, keeps the fun going briskly throughout.

TON-Y-PANDY. — THEATRE ROYAL. — Lessees, Messrs. Carlton and Duckworth; General-Manager, Mr. Sam Duckworth; Acting-Manager, Mr. Barrie. —Mr. A. B. Cross and company occupy the boards here in The Manxman. Mr. Cross as Pete proves himself to be as capable as of yore, and Miss M. Watersford is thoroughly successful as Kate Cregeen. An excellent interpretation of Phillip Christian is given by Chas. Hallings, who is seen to special advantage in the closing scene.

TUNBRIDGE WELLS.—OPERA HOUSE. — Lessee, Mr. Charles Carey.—The attraction this week is Mr. J. D. Hunter's pantomime of Cinderella, fresh from Hastings. Miss Blanche Bayley is a dashing Prince, and Miss Doris Dew a charming Cinderella; Mr. Hunter is as funny as ever; Mr. Dick Tubb gives a humorous study of the Baron; and Miss Eva Bayley charms the audience as the Fairy Godmother. Miss Nell Raymond and Miss Mable Mavis, as second boy and girl, infuse much animation into their parts. Messrs. Dale and O'Malley are responsible for plenty of fun as the Baron's pages, and the Misses Florrie and Lilly Zetina are clever as the Prince's dancers. Miss Rene Ashley as the Prime Minister and Mr. Fred Cleveland as Father Christmas must also be commended. The specialities include the Cleveland Troupe of acrobats and Rosie's miniature circus, introducing Rosie Silbon, the youngest equestrienne in the world.

WAKEFIELD.—ROYAL OPERA HOUSE.—Proprietors, Sherwood and Co.—Mr. F. G. Kimberley's company, in the drama Two Little Drummer Boys, is paying a return visit this week. Mr. F. G. Kimberley gives a smart portrayal as Quiney O'Quirke; Miss Lottie Addison submits a clever rendering of Meg; Mr. Edward Bicker does well as General Kingsley; and little Elsie May displays ability as a vocalist. Other parts are capably sustained.

HIPPODROME.—Lessees, Varieties (Wakefield), Ltd.; Managing-Directors, Alf. S. Selwyn and Sam. L. Bury; Manager, Henry Lucas.—The company here this week comprises Vernando, a clever ventriloquist; Salmons, a wonderful trick cyclist; Miss Stella May, a pleasing comedienne; Reg Templeton, an amusing character comedian; Lee and Lucas, a couple of smart singers and dancers; Jolly Criss Cross, comedienne; and Tom Davis and his comedians in a successful turn.

WALSALL. — HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietors, The Walsall Theatres Co., Ltd.; Joint-Management, Moss's Empires, Ltd., and the Walsall Theatres Co., Ltd.; Secretary and Manager, Mr. W. H. Westwood.—The leading attraction is furnished here by the American Comedy Four, in the funny vocal and dancing scena, Outside Ye Olde Bull and Bushe. The pictures by the American bioscope are vastly entertaining; Mr. W. H. Downes, the coloured tenor, has some good songs; the Finneys (three sisters), in the aquatic entertainment, are most successful; and Alice Maydue, comedienne; Collins and Hawley, vocalists and dancers; Spry and Monti, in an effective combination of wit and humour; and Hall and Earle, acrobatic comedians, are also in the bill.

GRAND THEATRE. — Proprietors, The Walsall Theatres Co., Ltd.; General-Manager and Secretary, Mr. W. H. Westwood.—Mr. Andrew Melville's company is here in the drama Driven from Home. Mr. Felix Pitt makes a capital Anthony Raybrook; Mr. Hubert Humphreys displays ability as Walter Hatherleigh; Andrew Emm as Willie leaves nothing to be desired; Laura Raybrook is skilfully portrayed by Miss Frances Ruttledge; and the remaining characters are in capable hands.

WALTHAMSTOW.—PALACE.—Managing-Director, Mr. G. Adney Payne; Manager, Mr. Arthur J. Barclay; Acting-Manager, Mr. Geo. F. Slatter. —Mr. Peter Davey's pretty production of the pantomime Goody Two Shoes has taken a firm hold on the affections of playgoers here, and Mr. Arthur J. Barclay has every reason to be satisfied with the state of business in this, its second and concluding week. No alteration has been made since we wrote last, but the various artists, having apparently taken the correct measure of their new public, throw themselves with even more zest into their parts. Mr. Geo. Mudie's capital performance of the usurping Earl Godiva is as full of artistic touches as ever, and richly deserves the encomiums that have been showered upon it. Miss Polly Prim acts, sings, and dances with (if possible) increased charm; Miss Nell Richardson sings beautifully; and Mr. Sidney Young, as Dame Durdan, is responsible for any amount of laughter. Messrs. Gus Garrick, George Belmore, and P. G. Martindale, Misses May Hart, Madge Christopher, and Violet Broughton are all good, while the chorus sing even better than before.

KING'S THEATRE.—An acceptable production of Wilkie Collin's fine play The New Magdalen is presented here this week by Mr. St. John Beecher's company. Miss Patey Trounsell, with her command of pathos, is an excellent Mercy Merrick; Mr. Charles Freeman gives a polished and gentlemanly rendering of Horace Holmcroft; a fine, manly portrayal of the Rev. Julian Gray is given by Mr. Harry Gilbey, who looks the part of the courageous young clergyman to the life. Miss Oliph Webb is a stately Lady Janet Roy, and Miss Blanch Ripley does well in the unsympathetic part of Grace Rosebery.

WARRINGTON.—ROYAL COURT.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. Johnson and J. Potter; General-Manager, Mr. J. Potter; Acting-Manager, Mr. Fred J. Reece.—Mr. Lingford Carson's company, in A Modern Adventuress, is the attraction here this week. The play abounds in exciting situations, and is well acted by a capable set of artists. In the title-rôle Miss Kate Froude plays with dramatic force throughout. A careful study of Myrtle Delby is submitted by Miss Alice Defoe; and Miss Ivy Chandos in the light part of Sally Hodges is responsible for much merriment. Mr. Leonard Aardale is especially successful as Pietro Donelli; Mr. Frank Wilton is good as the Banker; and Mr. Louis Edmonde is well placed as Harry Delby. Mr. Sydney Grant as Wallace Dalton, Mr. Leonard Montgomery as John Crompton, and Mr. Stanley F. Champion as the detective, are each seen to advantage in their respective parts. The staging is good.

ROYAL THEATRE OF VARIETIES.—Proprietors, Messrs. W. Johnson and J. Potter; General-Manager, Mr. J. Potter; Director of Amusements, Mr. F. Willmot.—Another capital company is here this week. Ted and May Hopkins head the bill in the clever sketch, Courtship, which evokes much laughter; Tom Lloyd again pleases with his ditties and witticisms; the Tysons supply an excellent musical entertainment; and the Perkins are refined coloured vocalists. Other excellent turns are Will Percival, comedian; the Arizona troupe of jugglers and foot equilibrists; Billy Williams, comedian; and the Royal Bioscope pictures.

WEDNESBURY.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee, Mr. Harry Battersby; Manager, Mr. W. J. Cranston.—This week Messrs. Chesney, Sanderson, and Bessie Elma's company in the interesting drama The Power and the Glory is attracting good audiences. Mr. A. Fitzmaurice as Harry Goodluck and Mr. Reginald Fox as Harold Harker are both admirably suited to their respective parts; as Ferdinand Crape Mr. Victor R. C. Moors makes the most of his opportunities; Miss Bessie Elma acts admirably the rôle of Kate Goodluck; Little Linda, the blind girl, is artistically rendered by Miss Flo Florence; Miss M. Le Ray as Bessie Goodluck, the flower girl, meets with a hearty reception; and the rôle of Lady Gwendoline is effectively portrayed by Miss Fanny Olive.

WEST HARTLEPOOL. — PALACE. — Director-General, Mr. Frank Macnaghten. — Howard and Harris in a sketch, The Adventures of a Happy Tramp, find an opportunity of introducing some amusing comedy and clever dancing; Percy Hannon, a young American baritone, finds favour; a society episode of exceptionally sensational character is played by Miss Diana Hope, Mr. W. Hurst, and Mr. Monte Bayly; and others who contribute are Burke and McVoy, Fisher and O'Neale, Casey and Mitchell, Rose Cass, and Carl Rosine.

GRAND.—Sole Lessee, Mr. Fred Granville; Manager, Mr. J. A. Lewis.—Another visit is being paid here by Go-Won-Go Mohawk and her company in the drama written by herself, Wep-Ton-No-Mah. Go-Won-Go Mohawk gives an energetic interpretation of the title-rôle. The part of Colonel Stockton has a capital exponent in Mr. C. W. Charles. Some exceptionally good character acting is displayed by Mr. Theo. Alker in the rôle of the Chief Ge-Ne-Gua. A sprightly Nellie Stockton is found in Miss Minnie Goepel. Mr. Edward Leroy deserves creditable mention for what he does as Manuel Lopez. Mr. Ike Shawcross ably delineates the character of Captain Franklin; and the company business is chiefly entrusted to Mr. Guy D. Hackney as Sam White, Mr. Dan Ryan as Garry Cullen and Miss Dora Past as Matilda Shiffles.

WEST STANLEY.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Managing-Director, Mr. Mark H. Lindon.—Mr. Chas. Macdona's excellent company opened here on Monday with The Three Little Maids. The maids, Ada, Hilda, and Edna are well played by Misses Doris Lind, Cora Lingard, and Marie West. Miss Kate Beck is a very effective Lady St. Mallory; Miss Laura Wright is charming as Gretchen; and Miss Phyllis Castleton excellent as Miss Price. A fine piece of acting comes from Mr. Frank Henderson, who as Lord Cheyne keeps the audience in a continual titter. Mr. W. P. Morgan is satisfactory as Rev. Mr. Branscombe. Mr. Ewart Drake's representation of Cupid, a caddie, is good; Mr. Wilfred Heath is a capital M. de L'Orme; and Mr. Garnet Wilson is successful as Brian Molyneux.

VICTORIA THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. T. C. Rawes; Lessee, Mr. David Williams.—The Elliotts and Savonas are here for the second week, and are doing excellent business. They are introducing Mr. J. B. Elliott's latest musical invention entitled The Demon Musical Lantern, which has been well received. The following artists are also here:—Miss Violet Robson, a descriptive vocalist of merit; Messrs. George and Edwards, comedians and dancers; Senorita Eloina, queen of the air; and Daley and Doran, comedians.

WEXFORD.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Proprietor, Mr. E. P. Ronan.—The Alexandra Opera Company is here this week, and the operas announced are Maritana, Il Trovatore, The Bohemian Girl, Lucia Di Lammermoor, Faust, The Lily of Killarney, and The Daughter of the Regiment. On Monday night Maritana was produced, with Miss Constance St. Bride in the name-part. Miss Stone Humphries as Lazarillo, Mr. Frank Land as Don Jose, Mr. H. G. Place as King of Spain, and Mr. William Hillier as Don Cæsar.

WIDNES. — ALEXANDRA THEATRE.—Proprietor, Mr. James Kiddie.—This week Mr. George Edwarde's company is here with San Toy, and the delightful Chinese musical comedy goes with all the old-time swing. Miss Nina Osborn is a charming San Toy, singing with much tunefulness, and, at the same time, revealing herself as an accomplished actress. Mr. Howard V. Cropton is a manly and effective Captain Bobby Preston; Mr. Edward G. Hall is capital as the mandarin, Yen How; and it would be difficult to find a better Li than Mr. Clifford Seyler, whose fund of humour seems in exhaustible. Mr. Harry Turner is a dignified Sir Bingo Preston, and Mr. George Partie is good as the Emperor. Miss Madge Hamilton does some satisfactory work as Poppy; Mr. Francis Mackintosh reveals undoubted histrionic ability as Fo-Hop; and the rest of the lengthy cast acquits itself creditably. San Toy is staged and dressed in that perfect manner which the public have been led to expect from all that bears the hall mark of Mr. George Edwardes' name.

WIGAN.—ROYAL COURT THEATRE.—Managing-Director, Mr. John Worswick.—The delightful play in three acts, written by Walter Reynolds, entitled Mr. Smith, is drawing big houses. Mr. H. Hamilton Stewart, in the title-rôle, gives a strong portrayal of Mr. Smith; Mr. Sydney Price is very good as the Earl of Oxted; Mr. William Dunlop scores as the Duke of Angleland; Mr. Herbert Bentone is charming as Deidrich Anheuser; Miss Mary Relph is a typical aristocratic Duchess of Angleland; Miss Phyllis Relph, who represents Ruth Anheuser, is much admired; Miss Ethel Milton is a charming Lady Mary Hildergate; Mrs. Alfred Davis as Mrs. Smith plays the part in good style.

HIPPODROME.—Managing-Director, Mr. John Worswick.—The programme here includes Horace Goldin, the talented conjurer, assisted by Miss Fransioli and company, quite mystifies the audience with his wonderful feats. Boswell's circus of educated mules, dogs, and ponies are highly appreciated; Ethel Arden and company create much mirth in their sketch entitled Three of a Kind; Sisters Llewellyn, Australian duettists, give several selections in good style; Stylo, with hoops, is well received. Other good turns are given by Francis and Melli, a comical musical couple; Jack Lennol, comedian; Ringling Trio, comedy artists; and Tom Sansome, comedian.

WOLVERHAMPTON. — GRAND THEATRE.—Lessees and Managers, Mr. E. H. Bull and Mr. Milton Bode; Acting-Manager, Mr. Percy Percival. —An acceptable return visit of Dr. Wake's Patient, played by Mr. Louis Calvert's company, is being made here this week. Mr. Douglas Vigors acts the part of Dr. Forester Wake admirably; Mr. Alfred Wellesley is excellent as Andrew Wake; Mr. Herbert Ross is clever and amusing as Duff Wynterden; and Mr. Arthur Willoughby is capital as the Earl of St. Olbyn. Miss Olive Terry most charmingly and naturally portrays the part of Lady Gerania; Miss Ina Pelly is a vivacious and effective Countess of St. Olbyn; Miss Beatrice Webb plays efficiently as Harriett Bronson; and Miss Amy Fanchette is satisfactory as Mrs. Wake.

EMPIRE PALACE.—Managing-Director, Mr. Chas. Barnard; General-Manager, Mr. W. H. Lennon.—The Cingalee Troupe is the leading item in this week's bill, their singing and posing being well received; Mdlle. Roza introduces the canine element into a clever turn; and Matt Wilkinson is seen to advantage in a farcical absurdity. Other items in the programme are Aida Martine, comedienne and dancer; Violet Beatrice, vocalist; Vincent, acrobat; Monty Walker, laughing comedian; and Raynor and Reece, variety artists. Ruffell's bioscope also shows some good pictures.

WORCESTER.—NEW THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessee and Manager, Mr. Arthur Carlton; Acting-Manager, Mr. F. L. Wards.—This week Sunday has occupied the boards of the Theatre Royal. Miss Jean Sterling Mackinlay (daughter of the late Madame Antoinette Sterling) apeared in the title-rôle and won general admiration. Mr. Wm. Lockhart, Mr. Sidney Rennef, Mr. T. Norman Walter, and Mr. Arthur Vezin gave a capital account of themselves, while Mr. Lockhart and Mr. Walter were particularly good as Towzer and Lively. Mr. Cecil Duncan played well the part of Arthur Brinthorpe, and Mr. Leonard Pagden made a manly Colonel Brinthorpe. Mr. Ernest A. Douglas was a capital Tom Oxley, and the other parts were in capable hands.

WORTHING.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Manager, Herr C. Adolf Seebold.—Messrs. Murray King and Clark's company is here with Bluebell in Fairyland. Mr. Lawrence Emery gives an admirable impersonation of Dicky; Mr. David Cruikshank capitally fills the part of Mr. Joplin; Messrs. H. C. Morton and E. Cossart as Will and Won't are quaintly funny; Mr. Fred Allen is excellent as Policeman 1C. Mr. Percy Farrimond as the Singing Collier possesses a good voice, his rendering of "Ora pro nobis" being greatly admired; Mr. Stanley Crisp is distinctly clever as Peter the Cat; Miss Minnie Blanchard is highly successful as a fairy, and dances extremely well; Mr. Edgar Pleon deserves praise as the Yellow Dwarf; Little Ruby Carter as Will o' the Wisp dances admirably; Miss Gladys Cooper excellently acts the part of Blue Bell. Commendation is also due to the Misses Connie Emerald and Marie Edmonds as Mab and Winnie.

WREXHAM.—EMPIRE MUSIC HALL.—Proprietor, Mr. J. J. Scott; Manager, Mr. Herbert Nicholls.—This week a fine all-round company has appeared here. The Three Royal Temples, operatic vocalists, do well; Mr. Charles Beauland, comedian, has caught on; while Wallie Gilbert, descriptive vocalist; Miss Lil Hartley, comedienne; and Mr. Harry Tomlinson, vocal comedian, with the Empire pictures, complete a capital programme.

YORK.—THEATRE ROYAL.—Lessees, Messrs. Waddington; Acting-Manager, Mr. H. J. Dacre.—Considerable interest is being aroused this week by the visit of the Carl Rosa Opera company, who appeared before a well-filled and delighted house on Monday in Carmen. In the title-rôle Miss Doris Woodall was delightful; her full, fresh voice, sympathetic enunciation, and thoroughly artistic rendering of the popular rôle became the theme of general admiration. Miss Elizabeth Burgess was at once a success as Michaela, singing with much taste and freshness. As José Julius Walther proved himself an excellent actor and vocalist; Mr. Charles Victor was a picturesque Escamillo, and was encored for his vocal contributions; Miss Ina Hill and Miss Anna Hope each sang sweetly; and

THE DRAMA IN PARIS.

"BLÉ DE LUNE."

Play, in Three Acts and Five Tableaux,
By M. Georges Madague,
Produced at the Théatre Molière, on Jan. 11.

Claude Varagnez .....M. POUCTAL.
Pierronnet .....M. DEAN
Le Père La Bique .....M. ANGELY
Albéric Soucaud .....M. MORGAN
Frédéric Silvère .....M. MAEYEN
Le procureur de la République .....M. GICQUEL
La Gourlette .....MDME. CLAUDE RITTER
Chérie .....MDLLE. B. MAUFRO.
La tante Agathe .....MDME. J. MALVAU
Christiane .....MDLLE. DARBELLY
La Pétélonne .....MDME. MONTOUT

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

PARIS, THURSDAY, JANUARY 18.—The Théatre Molière has departed from the course we thought it had taken. For a while it gave us works of real merit, whilst now it has brought out a melodrama of the most ordinary kind. The new production may find favour in the eyes of the inhabitants of that populous quarter, but from a literary point of view this change of front is to be regretted. The piece certainly bears a pretty title. In the neighbourhood of Arles, in the sunny South, the term "Blé de lune" is applied to illegitimate children. They are "moon corn" not sown on the earth. The play is as follows. Chéries has never known her parents, and has been brought up by Agathe, the widow of a rich farmer, who ill-treats her. Agathe is by no means a good woman. She is hard, avaricious, and the only one in the village who refuses a piece of bread to La Bique, the old mendicant. She has a nephew, Claude Varagnez, a barrister, who, with his wife Christiane and his daughter Marie-Thérèse, comes every year to spend a few weeks with her. Agathe hates her relations, and small wonder. Some twenty years ago she had fallen violently in love with Claude, and despite the close relationship and the fact of her being ten years older, she aspired to become his wife. Claude never knew that he had inspired such a passion, but Agathe has neither forgotten nor forgiven what she considers a slight. Smarting under this blow, she has been waiting to be avenged on her nephew, when at last an opportunity presents itself. Claude is in financial straits, and asks Agathe to advance him two thousand pounds. Agathe not only refuses to help him, but in an angry flow of words informs him that it was she who separated him from Charlotte, his mistress, the girl he loved, and who committed suicide from despair. Mad with rage, Claude seizes a knife and kills Agathe. Marie-Thérèse, his daughter, has witnessed the crime, and Chérie has also overheard the violent scene between Claude and Agathe. Chérie has now only one desire—to save Claude—for she has heard that she is his daughter, and that Charlotte was her mother. And whilst Claude is struck down by a brain fever that brings him to death's door, Chérie accuses herself of the murder of Agathe, who, she says, used to beat her. Marie-Thérèse could have saved Chérie, but in that case she would have to accuse her father; and Chérie is sentenced to a long term of imprisonment. So far events have taken more or less their natural course; now a great surprise awaits us. Claude is restored to health, and we expect that he will cry Chérie's innocence over the housetops. Not a bit of it. He visits the girl in prison, and tells her that he intends to confess his crime. "If you do that, I will kill myself," says Chérie, and Claude accepts her decision to continue to bear the blame of his crime, promising to secure her a free pardon. She is pardoned, and marries Albéric, a youth she has known for a long time. But she is consumptive in the highest degree, and dies in her bridal dress, amidst the flowers, to the sound of the tambourine and of the farandole. In the second act there is a rather telling scene that reminds us of that terrible play, La Fille Elisa. We are shown the interior of a prison, as a protest against the barbarity of the so-called silent system. We see an old woman whom persistent silence has reduced to a state bordering upon insanity; and another prisoner, a woman of the most degraded type, who has conceived for the luckless Chérie an extraordinary affection. The work was well interpreted by Mdlle. Maufroy, very pathetic in the part of Chérie; by Mdme. Ritter, terrible as La Goulette, the before-mentioned prisoner; by Mdme. Malvau, who impersonated Agathe with much power; and by M. Pouctal in the difficult rôle of Claude.

The Théatre Molière also gave us two satirical one-act pieces that deserve to be mentioned. One by MM. Georges de Buysieulx and Roger Max, is called Messieurs de la Cour, and describes the mishaps of Paul Durieux, a struggling young barrister. He certainly has no luck. His speciality lies in the divorce court; but no sooner is a brief handed to him than he receives notice that the dispute has been made up, and the matter will not be brought into court. He receives the visit of a M. de Méran, who wants to separate from his wife; and our barrister makes up his mind to prevent by every means a reconciliation between the parties. When, however, he sees Madame de Méran, he recognises in her the charming Luce, one of his former mistresses. He is placed in a predicament. If M. de Méran proceeds with his action, he (Paul Durieux) will be compromised; and he is compelled to advise his client to pardon his wife.

The heroine of the other play is Chichette, a young damsel whose parents are concierges in a house belonging to an austere, high-principled man, who will not let one of his apartments to a lady whose morals are not above suspicion. This is very hard on the old concierges, who despair of ever letting the empty rooms in the house. But one day another austere gentleman, having met Chichette, takes one of the apartments in the house, so as to be near the pretty girl; an example followed by a second high-principled man; and finally the proprietor happens to see Chichette and loses his heart to her. Ere long every apartment in the house is occupied by single gentlemen.

M. Curel's next work to be produced at the Théâtre Antoine bears the title La Danse devant le Miroir. It is in three acts, two of which are finished. Le Coup d'aile, by the same author, has caught on well at Antoine's, and is bringing in the maximum.

M. Porel of the Vaudeville expects great things of Le Péril jaune, M. Alexandre Bisson's new piece, that will see the footlights on the first of next month. Besides Mdlle. Marthe Regnier and M. Max Dearly, who have been specially retained for the principal rôles, the cast includes MM. Gaston Dubosc, Baron fils, Lérand, and Mdmes. Cécile Caron and Yvonne de Bray. There is a piece of the same title now running at the Théatré Royal, but it is only in one act.

The Bouffes-Parisiens announce a revival of the old operette Joséphine vendue par ses Sœurs, wherein the chief part, that of Benjamine, was created by Mdme. Milly Meyer. This artist, whom we have not seen for years, will make her reappearance in that rôle, wherein she scored such a tremendous success. We shall be glad to welcome her back on the Paris stage.

The important event this season at the Opéra-Comique will be the production of Aphrodite by M. Louis de Grammont, for which M. Erlanger has written the music. The libretto is founded on M. Pierre Louys' novel, which, it will be remembered, created a tremendous sensation at the time. The scenes in the book are very "warm," and in the theatrical world people are curious to know how M. de Grammont has dealt with the subject. The rôle of Aphrodite will be sung by Mdlle. Mary Garden.

M. Maurice Donnay has read his play Paraître to the artists of the Comédie-Française who will have to interpret it. M. Grand and Mdlle. Berthe Cerny will make their début therein.

PLAYERS OF THE PERIOD.

MISS LAURA HANSEN.

Miss Laura Hansen was first engaged by Messrs. Gatti to understudy leading parts in The Harbour Lights at the Adelphi Theatre, and toured all the principal towns afterwards for eighteen months as Dora Vane in that play. For twelve months at the Garrick Theatre she understudied Miss Rorke in A Pair of Spectacles, and played her part of Mrs. Goldfinch for a short time during her absence. She was offered this rôle for tour with Mr. Hare, but she had already accepted a starring Shakespearean engagement with the Hon. George Coppin to visit Australia, supporting Mr. Walter Bentley, for six months. She stayed eighteen months, playing almost every leading Shakespearean part, and many others, such as Clara Douglas in Money, Ada Ingot in David Garrick, Julie in Richelieu, &c.

On returning home, Miss Hansen joined Mr. Ben Greet, and played lead in all the old comedies with him—Peg Woffington, Lady Teazle, Kate Hardcastle, Pauline, and many others. After a short season at the Royalty, where she played Hannah in St. Ronan's Well, she went to the Pavilion Theatre for a stock season to play the lead in The Prodigal Daughter, The English Rose, Black Domino, The Lights of London, A Lion's Heart, The Romany Rye, East Lynne, and others too numerous to mention. Miss Hansen left the Pavilion to join the late Osmond Tearle for Shakespearean lead. At the end of two years, during which period she added to her répertory such parts as Parthenia in Ingomar and Galatea in Pygmalion and Galatea, Miss Hansen was engaged by the late Augustin Daly for America, to play seconds to Miss Ada Rehan in Shakespearean plays and comedies. She also played Le Beau in As You Like It, when that comedy was represented by ladies only at the Prince of Wales's Theatre in 1894, and was most highly complimented by the late Mr. Clement Scott.

It was at that performance Mr. Daly saw her, and engaged her for America. Before joining the Daly company, she created the part of Madge Brierly in Old Kentucky, and played it with great success at eight principal provincial towns. Whilst in America, Mr. Daly "lent" her for a short season to play Louise to Miss Olga Nethersole's Frou-Frou, and understudy her as Camille and Juliet. Mr. Osmond Tearle cabled to her to rejoin him, which she did for another two years. Then followed a long tour of The Two Little Vagabonds, Miss Hansen playing Marion Thornton. She was specially engaged to play that part in the revival of the drama at the Adelphi Theatre. One of her happiest short engagements was to play Lena Nelson to the late William Terriss in The Harbour Lights, which he revived for a short season at the Grand, Islington (with Miss Millward as Dora Vane). She also during the run had the pleasure of playing Dora herself to Mr. Terriss's David, Miss Millward being the victim of a nasty accident. She felt very proud and happy that evening (while sympathising with Miss Millward, for whom she had the sincerest admiration) at having the honour of playing lead (and to his entire satisfaction) with an actor whom she considers to have been amongst the cleverest and most charming the stage has ever known.

Photo by Langfier.
MISS LAURA HANSEN.

Another short and very happy engagement was with Mr. Arthur Roberts at the Royalty Theatre in Tra-la-la Tosca, in which she burlesqued Mr. Waring's part of Angelotti, and received the highest praise from the late Sir Augustus Harris, and a charming letter from the author himself, Sir F. C. Burnand. Mr. Roberts offered her a leading burlesque part to tour with him, which, however, she declined, assuring him that her mock tragedy part and the clever lines Sir F. C. Burnand had given her to speak were far above ordinary burlesque. Miss Hansen also had a long and successful tour some years ago with Mr. W. W. Kelly as Josephine in A Royal Divorce. Recently she accepted a starring engagement in this part, and also as Glory Quayle in The Christian, Miladi in The Three Musketeers, and many other leading parts with Mr. Leonard Rayne in South Africa, and received most flattering notices out there; but unfortunately the climate and hard work led to a long and serious illness. Miss Hansen was invalided home, and unable to play for nearly twelve months. She joined Mr. Robert Arthur's stock season, and started again at Aberdeen and Dundee, playing the heroines in Drury Lane and Adelphi dramas. Subsequently she rejoined The Two Little Vagabonds for a tour, and later she played the starring lead in a répertoire company with Mr. Allan Wilkie, Madeline in Belphegor, Fiordelisa in The Fool's Revenge, May Edwards, Lady Isabel, &c.

At present she is playing the part of Kate Strong in The Village Blacksmith, which is being toured by Messrs. Dottridge, Longden, and Livesey. Miss Hansen claims to have played about 150 leading parts during her career.

MISS IDA PHILLIPS.

Miss Ida Phillips is the only daughter of Mandeville B. Phillips, who was for over twelve years private secretary to Archbishop Benson. Miss Phillips commenced her stage career with Mr. Mark Melford, as Ada Baltic in Turned Up, at the Reading Theatre. Mr. Melford was the first actor she had ever spoken to, and the advice he gave her was, "Don't tell the members of the company you are an amateur, or they'll borrow your grease-paints." Mr. Melford and his pretty wife were very kind and encouraging to her, and she had many happy special weeks with them.

Tours with The Fatal Card, The Harbour Lights, Sorrows of Satan, The Mariners of England, and A Bunch of Violets followed.

Miss Phillips has worked hard, having been a member of most of the London stock companies. She also played lead (starring) in a season at Aberdeen and Dundee. Last October she went to the West Indies to play lead in a large répertoire—The Idler, Our Flat, Niobé, Dr. Bill, Lord and Lady Algy, My Friend the Prince, Two Little Vagabonds, East Lynne, The Ticket of Leave Man, &c. The experience there was delightful, though the work was very hard, a fresh piece being played nightly. Miss Phillips is the proud possessor of a tiny cottage at Sarratt. In the summer she spends a great deal of her spare time there, doing most of the work and leading a simple life.

Photo by Gillard.
MISS IDA PHILLIPS.

"CYMBELINE."

Revival, at the Queen's Theatre, Manchester, on Saturday, January 13.

Cymbeline ..... MR. E. STORY GOFTON
Cloten ..... MR. ARTHUR GRENVILLE
Posthumus Leonatus ..... MR. ERIC BLIND
Belarius ..... MR. HENRY MARSTON CLIFFORD
Guiderius ..... MR. HALLIWELL HOBBES
Arviragus ..... MR. RICHARD HATTERAS
Philario ..... MR. A. C. HARDIE
Iachimo ..... MR. H. A. SAINTSBURY
Caius Lucius ..... MR. LEONARD ROBSON
Pisanio ..... MR. GEORGE FITZGERALD
Corneilus ..... MR. A. HORNBY WARBURTON
A Roman Captain .. MR. ST. BERNARD WYNTOUR
First British Captain .... MR. AUSTEN MILROY
Second British Captain .. MR. ALFRED HILLIARD
A French Gentleman .. MR. WILFRID BECKWITH
A Dutch Gentleman .... MR. EDGAR C. WHITE
A Spanish Gentleman ..... MR. J. E. DANIELS
First Lord ..... MR. MURRAY CARRINGTON
Second Lord .....MR. JOHN RICHTER
Queen ..... MISS MARY RABY
Helen ..... MISS ELLA THORNTON
Imogen ..... MISS NORA LANCASTER

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

The revival of Cymbeline marks Mr. Richard Flanagan's eleventh successive production of Shakespearean drama at the Queen's Theatre, Manchester, when this class of entertainment is provided annually in the most sumptuous style and under distinguished local patronage. The piece was chosen by public ballot nearly twelve months ago, and it is evident that the bulk of the patrons of the Bridge-street house were on the scent of an interesting play, though for modern purposes it is somewhat unmanageable in its original form. Mr. Richard Dalton, the adaptor, has managed to extract the essential elements of the story and condense them into a clearly intelligible and compact shape. An example of Mr. Dalton's condensation may be seen in a comparison of his scene "Before the Cave of Belarius" with the loose original text. Skill is also evident in the introduction of the fighting in the "Lane near the Battlefield," an episode full of picturesque energy, and in the "Battle Tableau," a vivid living picture that animates the stage with a brilliant though momentary glimpse of war. Beside this, Mr. Dalton's idea of Cloten should be commended from the spectator's point of view, howsoever much students may differ upon this debated character. He is a knave, and something of a fool, yet, like all Shakesperean fools, not without wisdom on occasions. Mr. Dalton has made him the comedian of the play, and he provides comic relief of a high order, mainly because the part is in the hands of a genuine character comedian, Mr. Arthur Grenville, to wit; and there can be no doubt that to this character no small part of the acting success of the production is due. Imogen personifies all that is most beautiful in woman, and it is a rare treat to see this ideal of Shakespeare embodied with such charm and grace and emotional sincerity as Miss Nora Lancaster brings to bear upon the part. She comports herself with a sweetness and dignity that awakes the immediate sympathy of the audience, a hold which she never for a moment loses throughout all her trials and adventures. Her lover, Posthumus Leonatus, is rendered in manly and cultured style by Mr. Eric Blind, who delivers his lines with sympathy and, at times, strong emotion, without ever descending to that staginess so frequently adopted in classic drama. Iachimo is a sinister and devilish character about whom there is no redeeming feature, until circumstances bring him to his knees; and in the person of Mr. H. A. Saintsbury he moves through the action like a spirit of evil, dark and sardonic, and such is Mr. Saintsbury's power that he holds the audience absolutely under a spell. Nothing better than this could be imagined; it is a triumph worth going a long way to see. From the long caste others may be selected for their praiseworthy rendering of parts. Miss Mary Raby gives a natural and vigorous impersonation of the unprincipled Queen; Mr. George Fitzgerald works his way into the affections of the audience by his simple and sincere depiction of the faithful Pisanio; Mr. E. Story Gofton is well-placed as Cymbeline; Belarius and his supposed sons are agreeably presented by Messrs. H. M. Clifford, Halliwell Hobbes and Richard Hatteras; Mr. Leonard Robson is effective as Caius Lucius; and Miss Ella Thornton gives a pleasing delineation of Helen.

An elegant souvenir of the play sets forth an "Argument" by Sir William H. Bailey, which is instructive and interesting. It contains also a number of reproductions, from Sepia, of the most important scenes. But no reproduction can convey any idea of the magnificence and beauty of the staging. Imagination in design and colour, splendour in dress and accessories, and an accompaniment of appropriate yet unobtrusive music, have combined to produce a setting which can hardly be described. For the scenery, Messrs. Hugh Freemantle and William Palmer are responsible; and Mr. Yorke Sheffield has composed the incidental score. Altogether, Mr. Richard Flanagan may honestly be congratulated on the production of a really notable and important success.

CHAT WITH MRS. BILLINGTON.

(BY OUR OWN COMMISSIONER.)

It seemed almost difficult to believe that the vivacious and active lady who entered the room with sprightly gait had even reached her grand climacteric, let alone passed it by eighteen years.

"I'm just over eighty-one."

Then followed a lively account of an anniversary celebration held on the 4th of this month. Instead of an octogenarian it might have been a newly-emancipated schoolgirl of eighteen giving a description of her first "grown-up" party. Apparently accumulated weight of years has only tended to the lightening of Mrs. John Billington's spirits.

"I received numerous telegrams and remembrances from friends far and near. Perhaps the message I valued most was that of my husband's old friend, Mr. J. L. Toole, who has been most unremitting in his attentions and kindness to me since Mr. Billington's death. I have also received acts of kindness and sympathy from Mr. Tree, Sir Charles Wyndham, and other leading actors and managers, and I feel I could not express my appreciation better than through the pages of The Era. Now I come to a standstill. My life is uneventful."

The writer glanced at the pictures on the walls. In front of him, by each side of the mantelpiece, hung oil paintings of J. L. Toole and the late John Billington. To the left Madame Patti and Tom Robertson shared each other's company, while a turn of the head brought him face to face with Sir Henry Irving and Charlotte Brontë.

"Surely your thoughts need not be at a standstill, Mrs. Billington, and surely you're satisfied at eighty-one?"

"No, indeed I'm not," retorted the lady, with quizzical petulance which betrayed a trace of the old player's art. "I want to be ninety-one," she added, with a laugh.

"Appearances justify a greater ambition than that, and the pictures round you will help you to live your life again."

"Isn't that a life-like one of Irving? What a dear man he was! The last time he was in this room occurred shortly before my husband's benefit. Sir Henry very nobly offered not only to be chairman for the function, but said he would play himself in Waterloo. I well recollect him crossing over to the portrait of Toole, and flicking the picture with his handkerchief as he said, 'Dear old Johnny! Dear old friend!' He then turned to my husband's picture, afterwards glancing across to his own just opposite. 'Well, John,' he remarked to my husband, 'I wonder which of us will go first.' My husband replied, 'Me—I'm shot,' using a well-known Americanism. 'My boy,' said Sir Henry, 'don't say that. I'm not the man I used to be, and I shan't be sorry when I've done with it all and able to rest.'"

A reference to Mrs. Billington's sixteen years' work at the Alelphi Theatre forced more than one pleasing reminiscence to the mind of the veteran actress. "One of my most delightful experiences," she went on, "was in Charles Dickens's and Wilkie Collins's No Thoroughfare. Dickens was away in America just prior to the production, and when the play was read by Mr. Benjamin Webster, I refused my part because it was so small. However, both Mr. Webster and my husband begged I would play it, and I agreed to do so. While I was rehearsing the lines, I was more than repaid by seeing the scene-shifters stand by every morning and cry. The character, as you will be aware, was that of an 'unknown woman,' who goes to the Foundling Hospital to claim her child. At the time I visited the institution many times, and was received most kindly by the matron. I remember that on the first night of the piece I cried so much that I lost my voice for a while, and my dresser stood by with a lemon ready for me when I went on for another touching scene. The man who blew the clarionet implored me in the name of heaven to go away, as he could not blow a note while I was sucking the lemon. Towards the conclusion of the play Charles Dickens arrived, and astonished us all by appearing in the stage box. I had left the theatre by then, my part being over in about half an hour, but Mr. Dickens asked Mr. Webster to tell me that he never thought he should be compelled to cry at his own work as he had done that evening. I had various disagreements with Mr. Wilkie Collins while the play was in the preparatory stage. He wanted to insist upon my wearing a bonnet, which I would not agree to. I told him that I could not speak sentiment in a bonnet, so he eventually yielded the point and permitted me to wear a head-dress of lace."

Photo by Langton
MRS. JOHN BILLINGTON.

"The green room was a happy meeting-place in those days, Mrs. Billington?"

"It was a very pleasant rendezvous for literary and artistic, as well as theatrical notabilities. At the Adelphi green room I frequently came in contact with William Makepeace Thackeray, John Leech, Mark Lemon, Albert Smith—oh! and a host of other brilliant men. At the time the green room was a most delightful place. Ah! it is now no more."

"The old order changeth——"

"Yes; and in the old order we never thought of playing golf, and cricket and football. It was hard work then, and we had to stick to it. Oh! I must tell you something that happened when I was playing with Mr. Sam Phelps in The Gamester of Metz, at the Theatre Royal, Birmingham. By the by, I took all the principal rôles with him. He told me that in one scene in this particular play I was to let him fall three times before I shrieked, and returned from the wings, and fell down by his side. So I most carefully watched him from the wings. He fell, as I thought once, then resumed his chair, again got out, and finally fell at the footlights. According to the business of the stage, I shrieked, and threw myself down by his side, when he turned to me, and in guttural tones exclaimed, 'I'm not dead yet!' In my anxiety to follow out his instructions to the letter, I was too quick.

"There is a little story I want you to tell. It concerns one of the lots put up for auction at the Irving sale, consisting of the printed scene between Nancy and Sikes, upon which my name was written by my husband. It came into my possession in this way, and the present owner may be glad to learn his history. I happened to be starring in Birmingham with Toole and my husband, and during our stay in that city Charles Dickens came to the Town Hall to give readings. I expressed a great desire to hear him, so he very kindly reserved a seat for me. I told his secretary that I would very much like to read the scene between Nancy and Sikes, and the result was that Dickens forwarded a copy to me. Irving picked up the paper in my husband's dressing-room one evening, and took such a keen delight in it that Mr. Billington gave it to him. I had played Nancy with Mr. Toole, who appeared as the Artful Dodger, my husband being Bill Sikes."

What need to mention all the parts played by Mrs. Billington? A few, however, may bring agreeable recollections to many old playgoers and players. She was the original Mrs. Craigen, in The Colleen Bawn, produced at the Adelphi, and Mrs. Billington mentions incidentally that all the women who took part in the production are living, while all the men have passed away. She, too, was the first to play Gretchen, in Rip Van Winkle, at the Adelphi, with Joseph Jefferson in the title-rôle. Mrs. Billington was associated with Miss Mary Anderson for six years, going twice to America with that lady. "One of the best women I ever met," is the opinion she holds of Miss Anderson. "She conducted her companies admirably. Her Juliet was a great success, as also was her Rosalind. She is now living very happily in the country with her husband, Antonio de Navarro, and her children." Mrs. Billington was also seen to great advantage as Juliet, with Charlotte Cushman. The last time the subject of this interview appeared on the stage was in Pygmalian and Galatea, in Miss Janet Steer's company, at the Comedy Theatre.

"Any final message?" The interviewer was being escorted to the door by his very charming "victim," whose lightness of step and easy grace hurled defiance at the idea of four-score years being anything in the nature of an encumbrance.

"You might say that I'm hale and hearty, and not looking my age."

And that's true.

"LA RAFALE" AT THE ROYALTY.

"LA RAFALE."

Piece, in Three Acts, by M. Henri Bernstein,
Performed on Jan. 12.

Hélène de Bréchebel .....MME. REJANE
La Marquise de Doullence....MDLLE. S. AVRIL
La Baronne Lebourg ....MME. ALCIME LEBLANC
Mme. de Thizieux .....MDLLE. TALMONT
Robert de Chacéroy .....M. PIERRE MAGNIER
Baron Lebourg.....M. CHARLES BURGUET
Amedée Lebourg .....M. DAUVILLIERS
Bragelin .....M. ALCIME LEBLANC
Comte de Bréchebel .....M. G. DEVRENS
Général Duc de Brial .....M. BENEDICT
Jean .....M. BOSMAN
François .....M. DELORME
La Vieillarde .....M. MAX ROBERT

When the characters of a play are a young wife who starts the game of adultery a few months after marriage; a lover who is entirely despicable, not merely in his amours, but beyond that, a gambler, a fraudulent trustee, and a coward to boot; a father who is a parvenu and a humbug, a husband who is a nonentity, a cousin who bargains with one of his own flesh and blood to make her his chère amie before he will consent to help the unfortunate woman out of her trouble; in fact, when the only persons with whom one can sympathise are the servants, the milieu chosen is indeed a choice one!

Such are the personages of Henri Bernstein's La Rafale, now brought to England for the first time. Spice lends a savour to many a dish that without it would be tasteless, and difficult to set before the gourmet; but all spice may be too hot for even the epicure in things dramatic. The time has passed when only the good side of the hero or heroine could be shown. To-day the public forgive faults when there are redeeming features to make the spectator think—"this is a real man"; but when such a collection of depravities are depicted as this comedy of horrors holds up for our inspection, the question must arise, is "all-black" a truer colouring of a life-picture than "all white" would be? No English company could make this play tolerable; but the fine art of Réjane and of Magnier steps in, and holds the interest with a grip never relaxed until the end of the last scene. The tension is very strong when, at the end, the wretched wife brings the proceeds of her shameful bargain to the unworthy lover, for whose sake she has sold herself, only to find that the mean wretch who prated of his honour and his family has blown out his brains an instant before, leaving her, a double adulteress, to bear her burden alone. After the clever La Souris, the witty, if risky, Décoré, the fetid atmosphere of La Rafale (The Squall), which is breezy in title only, made the air of Dean-street, Soho, at 11 p.m. seem fresh and restorative.

PRESENTATION.—At the Crown Theatre, Peckham, on the 12th inst., Miss Ethel Negretti was the recipient of a handsome diamond ring, won by her in open competition as one of the most popular pantomime artists in the United Kingdom. The presentation was made on the stage during the performance of the pantomime by "Ally Sloper, F.O.M."

NONE SO GOOD AS "THE SWAN!"

- - In Buying a - -

"SWAN" FOUNTAIN PEN

You are satisfied. Your purchase is a good one. It will last for years, do good work, rapid work, and do it comfortably.

OTHER PRICES:
10s. 6d., 16s. 6d., 25s.
to £20, Post Free.
OF ALL STATIONERS. CATALOGUE FREE.

Reduced Fac-simile "SWAN" Pen, fitted with Nickel Pocket Clip, 11/6.

MABIE, TODD & BARD,
79 & 80, HIGH HOLBORN,
LONDON, W.C.
93, Cheapside, E.C.; 95a, Regent-street W.; 3, Exchange-street, Manchester, and 37, Ave. de l'Opera, Paris.

LONDON & SUBURBAN THEATRES.

"DICK WHITTINGTON" AT THE KING'S.

(SECOND NOTICE).

A cure test of the popularity of the King's pantomime is found in the necessity for four matinées a week, at each of which the audiences exceed in size and enthusiasm those of the evening performances. Brightness, melody, scenic splendour, and wholesome fun are happily combined in Mr. Mulholland's fourth annual at Hammersmith, and the adventures of Whittington, as set forth by Mr. William M. Wade, embellished with music composed and arranged by Messrs. S. P. S. Wanton and Henry Sprake, could not be put in more attractive form. Scenes of great magnificence and pastoral beauty have been provided by Messrs. Dangerfield, Kinninmont, and Janson, that of Highgate Hill, with its realistic cornfields and undulating woods, being an especial delight to the eye. A feature of this scene is a beautiful Ballet of Flowers, remarkably well arranged, and executed with grace and precision. Wapping Old Stairs forms a quaint picture, and the Emperor's Palace is rich in colour and design. A grand display is reserved for the last scene, in which the Lord Mayor's Fête and Procession of Nations forms a striking finale.

The characters of the piece are fitted with equal felicity from first to last. Miss Carlotta Levey, who has attained an enviable place in popular favour, makes a dashing and strapping Dick, her stalwart and perfectly-proportioned physique being set off by many handsome costumes. Her vivacity and merriment are unfailing, and the singing of her numerous songs is distinguished by the artistic finish of which she is mistress. The chorus of "Put a little bit away for a rainy day" is taken up in quite melodious fashion by the gallery, and similar distinction is given to the coon song, "Back to Baltimore," both of which are encored. "Hear the pipers calling, Jenny mine," into which Miss Levey puts the utmost expression, is similarly honoured; and so much pleasure is derived from her rendering of "Lola," the Indian maiden, in which the singer makes a picturesque appearance in the dress of a noble red man, that recalls are numerous. Miss Levey's vitality and animation are invaluable throughout the evening, every scene in which she takes part deriving an added brightness from her presence. No more charming exponent of Alice is to be imagined in all the kingdom than that supplied by Miss Maud Noel, whose gracefulness and artless simplicity hold everyone captive. A sweet and cultivated voice adds to the fascination of her performance, and her popularity with the audience, begun on the first night, is thoroughly endorsed. Her rendering of her "Diary" song is particularly neat, and a love duet with Dick is harmonised with pretty tunefulness. The insinuating melody of "Rainbow" is also treated with rare delicacy by Miss Noel, the effectiveness of the lilting refrain being accentuated by an octet of ladies, who dance a mazy measure. Alderman Fitzwarren has a comic exponent in Mr. Harry Kilburn, who makes the most of the droll situations in which he is constantly placed. His singing of Mr. Harry Lauder's song, "She is my Daisy," proves very mirth-provoking, and Mr. Kilburn's acting is throughout steeped in quaintness, each utterance being sure of a laugh. An original and very mirth-provoking comedian is found in Mr. Fred Spencer, whose impassive countenance lends effect to his oddities. He makes of Martha Mixit, Fitzwarren's housekeeper, a female of stylish propensities, whose desire to be in the fashion leads to the impersonation of a "Gibson Girl," the burlesque of which is irresistibly droll. A comic complexion is also put upon the song of "Bed," the funny lines of which are strikingly emphasised. Fun of a sort quite alone is that supplied by Mr. Harry Rogerson, who as Jack Idle exploits a quiet drollery that is none the less productive of merriment. His rendering of "Sleep" is particularly well managed, the acrobatic tumbling with which it is accompanied being cleverly done. Mr. Rogerson also takes part in a duet with Alice, in which various styles of making love are skilfully travestied, and his song and dance as a three-legged sailor is also strikingly novel. Coadjutors in comedy are found in Foreman and Fannan, whose interludes of mirth are heartily welcomed. In the parts of Captain Taffrail and his boatswain they work into each other's hands with admirable effect, and loud is the laughter with which they are invariably greeted. The political speech to an audience of one is conceived and carried out in the drollest spirit; a riding lesson, with an automatic equine, provides an hilarious time; and a circus act, performed by the funny pair in conjunction with Dick Whittington, is similarly productive of laughter. Miss Winnie Channing makes an attractive Fairy Bluebell, rendering the ballad, "Sing me to sleep," in a voice of rare excellence; and an engaging Princess of Morocco is supplied in the dainty person of Miss Rhoda Ray, whose grace and prettiness are admirable. A cheery Tommy Turner is found in Miss Ruby Wentworth, whose prepossessing appearance and singing are distinct aids to the success of the pantomime. Mr. W. Clark's powerful voice gives due solemnity to the part of the Emperor of Morocco, who can be, nevertheless, a very facetious monarch at times; and M. Marius Gerard develops a distinct vein of humour in his make-up and acting as the Vizier. Mr. Johnny Fuller gives a natural imitation of a cat. Pussy's leaps and bounds are very realistic, a series of somersaults over a number of chairs arousing hearty cheers. In the Billiard Room, the tenth scene, Kelly and Gillette go through an acrobatic performance of an extraordinary nature. Parts of minor importance are played by Miss Poppy Haines, Miss Mabel Diss, and Mr. C. Thornley Stewart. The chorus are numerous and well drilled, and the smartness maintained throughout is a credit to Mr. Frederick Stanhope, to whom, in conjunction with Mr. Frederick Mouillot, the production of the pantomime is due.

THE PAVILION.

On Monday, Jan. 15, 1906,
the Musical, Pantomimical Farce, entitled
"HIS MAJESTY'S GUESTS."

A return visit of Mr. Fred Karno's company in the ever-popular pantomimical farce, His Majesty's Guests, is the attraction at the Pavilion for the current week. A good audience on Monday evening followed the performance with evident pleasure, as it is just one of those light productions that are most enjoyable; while at the same time the piece serves as an admirable vehicle for displaying the many talents of this versatile company, the many amusing situations provoking outbursts of hilarity from start to finish. Mr. Arthur Lenville was exceedingly funny as Sergeant Lightning, and kept the audience in roars of laughter. His quick changes in the second act were skilfully and cleverly managed. Miss L. Castelle sings effectively, and makes a success of Lady Maude Basem; and Miss Dolly Royce is delightfully piquant as Dolly. Mr. Frank Morton gives an interesting representation of Lord Easem, singing with power "The Yeoman's Wedding"; Miss Amy Rogerson is amusing as Miss Manley; and the part of the acrobatic Selina is well filled by Mr. Harry Howe. Mr. W. Simpson is smart as Fritz; and Mr. Charles Usher is well suited as Mr. Miffin. Mr. F. Fredericks scores as Bunker; while Mr. S. Bolton as Harry, and Mr. H. W. Lumley as Mr. Minks, are also seen to advantage. The remaining characters are capably impersonated by Mr. S. Gosling, Miss W. Stewart, Miss M. Hazleton, Miss Evelyn Moore, Miss Pearl Pond, Miss Athelina Montrose, Miss Blanche La Rose, and Miss Florence Dooley. The musical-director is Mr. F. H. Moran, and the stage-manager Mr. Charles Usher, for Mr. F. Karno.

"THE FORTY THIEVES" AT THE MARLBOROUGH.

(SECOND NOTICE).

Amongst the North London "shows" of various kinds one that should certainly not be missed is Mr. F. W. Purcell's third successive pantomime at the Marlborough. At the first performance on Boxing Day its many attractive qualities gained for the Christmas piece a favourable verdict from a holiday audience, and since then many hundreds of playgoers have confirmed the flattering opinions that were expressed on all sides concerning its merits. The story lends itself to picturesque treatment, and Mr. Purcell has freely availed himself of the opportunities thus offered for lavish decoration and sumptuous dresses. The eye is delighted with a succession of brilliant and charming scenes, some of which suggest the rich luxuriance of life in the East. In the tale of the Forty Thieves there is, too, a strong flavour of romance; and the incidents connected with the discovery by a poverty-stricken woodman and his son of the robbers' cave are strangely interesting, and a close familiarity with them from childhood's days has failed to produce the proverbial contempt. The cry of "Open, Sesame!" falls upon our ears, and we watch the mouth of the mysterious cave open with much the same feeling of expectancy and delight as in the days of youth.

Mr. J. Hickory Wood's version of the story may be said to run somewhat on musical-comedy lines; a great deal of the sparkle and brightness of that particular form of the entertainment of the stage being noticeable in the production. Mr. Purcell is no believer in the dark, dismal opening scene which was at one time a never-absent feature of pantomime. He prefers that the curtain shall rise upon a scene of animation and life—the crowded market-place of a city of Cashmere, where the story starts without the preliminary altercation between the benficent fairy and the evil spirit.

Mr. Tom Leamore is a comedian of infinite resource, and his embodiment of Ali Baba is genuinely funny. He represents the woodcutter as a poor, nervous, timid individual who was never intended to occupy a conspicuous position in the world. All his songs and business are in keeping with the true spirit of burlesque, and he seizes every opportunity of contributing to the hilarity of the audience. Mr. Maitland Marler deserves every credit for his comical impersonation of Cogia, a middle-aged lady whose eccentricities are responsible for much hearty merriment. His songs are also rendered in gay, rollicking style; and at the same time his embodiment of the dame is quite free from vulgarity. Mr. O. E. Lonnen, to whom is entrusted the part of Hassarae, the lieutenant of the Forty, has become a prime favourite by reason of his quaint humour and keen appreciation of a comical situation. This is more particularly shown in the scene where the robbers treat their diminutive but self-important lieutenant with contumely, and literally turn their backs upon him. His helplessness in this situation is extremely amusing, and indeed throughout the performance Mr. Lonnen's services are of the utmost value. Mr. Frank Hemming also does good work in the rôle of Cassim, and Mr. Walter Ingram is a fine stalwart Shacabac, the slave-dealer. Miss Stella Gastelle, whom illness kept out of the cast for a brief period, is now back again, and no one could wish for a more lovely representative of the part of Ganem. She excels both as an actress and vocalist, and her vivacity and high spirits are happily joined with refinement of manner. Miss Elise Cook is an exceedingly pleasing and graceful Morgiana, whose attractions fully account for the woodcutter's son falling in love with her at first sight. Her vocal contributions are greatly appreciated and applauded. Very effective are the Spirit of Avarice of Mr. Alfred Rogus and the Fairy Sesame of Miss Dorothy Myers, other minor parts being safe in the hands of Mr. F. Henfrey, the Misses Rosemary Rees, Daisy Webb, A. Ross, and Cassie Ross. Miss Lottie Stone's Royal Troupe of Dancers are well received in their Terpsichorean interludes. We have already referred to the beauty of the dresses and the charm of the scenery.

"THE FORTY THIEVES" AT CLAPHAM.

(SECOND NOTICE).

Mr. H. G. Dudley Bennett, and those associated with him at the Shakespeare, are to be heartily congratulated on the enormous success which has attended their efforts in the production of The Forty Thieves, which is without doubt one of the most gorgeous and entertaining pantomimes now running. The book is exceedingly well written, free from all vulgarity, and abounding with humour, which keeps the audience in continual merriment. The songs are tastefully arranged, and the incidental music is bright and tuneful. The gorgeous scenery and dresses were fully described in a former notice, and it is sufficient to say that they could not very well be surpassed. The chief mirth-providers are Mr. Chas. Kitts, who is an excellent Ali Baba; Mr. Harry Phydora, as Cassim; and Mr. W. P. Sheen, who gives a capital representation of Cogia, Ali Baba's wife. Messrs. Evans and Halter also contribute their share of the fun by an excellent performance in the rôle of eccentric policemen. Miss Addie Lennard is an exceedingly vivacious Ganem; and Miss Alice Digby is charming as Morgiana. A dashing Captain of the Forty Thieves is found in Miss Cecilia Maude; and Miss Rhoda Windrum is seen to great advantage as Zoe. Miss Fanny Wright, as Cassim, jun., contributes some excellent songs; and Miss Muriel George as Beda, gains much applause for her rendering of "Robin Adair." A hit of the evening is the song and dance by Miss Marjorie Lawrence, an engaging and clever young girl, who wins an enthusiastic recall. Mr. Picton Roxborough's fine physique is seen to advantage in the rôle of Hassarac, Lieutenant of the Forty Thieves; and Mr. R. H. Vallis as Ibrahim, Ali's donkey, gives a good performance. A feature of the pantomime is the numerous specialities, amongst which we may mention the Digby Girls, who give some excellent dances; De Gracia's Performing Elephants; and the grand International ballet, L'Entente Cordiale.

DALSTON THEATRE.

On Monday, Jan. 15,
the Fairy Pantomime, by J. Hickory Wood, entitled
"DICK WHITTINGTON."

Mr. Milton Bode's pantomime, which is being played at the Dalston Theatre this week, is based on the time-worn story of Dick Whittington; but there is such an amount of novelty and fun introduced into the production that one forgets the old story in the resemblance to modern musical comedy. It is one of Mr. J. Hickory Wood's "books," the music is written and composed by Mr. Frank Seddon and Mr. John Gregory, and the entire production is under the general stage-management of Mr. Henry Dundas, the acting stage-manager being Mr. Henry Nelson. Alderman Fitzwarren has a humorous representative in Mr. Bob Hutt. Together with Mr. Rolando Martin, who plays Jack, the idle apprentice, he introduces some very funny business. Miss Elsie Morgan is Dick Whittington, and Miss Annie Morgan Alice Fitzwarren, and their duet, "Teasing," is one of the features of the performance. Miss Evelyn Geldard, the Good Fairy, is also much applauded for her "Rainbow" song. Mr. Fred Dark is Matilda, Fitzwarren's cook, and he sings well. Lanton and Lane, as Captain and Mate respectively of the ship "Saucy Sarah," are responsible for a good deal of laughter; Mr. Tom Gilmore is agile as Dick's Cat; Miss Blanche Marion looks smart as Tommy Trot, an apprentice; and Miss Annie Laurie is his captivating sweetheart. Miss Nellie Lauraine makes a fine Empress of Morocco. The specialities include the Four Athos, the original head acrobat and ball manipulators; Elverton, the spinning marvel; and the Regent Comedy Four, whose singing is evidently well appreciated.

"CINDERELLA" AT THE CORONET.

[SECOND NOTICE.]

Mr. Robert Arthur's second annual pantomime of Cinderella, at the Coronet Theatre, gave such excellent promise of ripening into a pronounced success at its initial performance on the Saturday before Christmas, that it is small wonder its lasting popularity has decided the management to prolong its run a week more than usual. There is something to suit every taste in this pantomime, and a pretty fairy story, run on the old-fashioned lines, with plenty of pretty songs and scenic embellishments, appeals to the little ones, whilst the more advanced humours of the comedians tittilate the senses of the grown-ups. The vivacious singand dancing of Bert Coote's clever and agile Irish-Indian maids, give added charm to the production, in the eyes of young and old alike. Mr. Ernest Shand has settled down to his part, and loses no opportunity of adding humorous developments to the character of the page, Pickles, and his song, "Merrie, merrie England," and his discourse on bachelors and married men in his ditty "Eve," go with a swing, and score an unmistakable success. Mr. Harry Herbert has much improved the part of Anona, one of the ugly sisters, and his mincing, affected manner, and his capital rendering of the song, "I don't know, do you?" cause him to be a prime favourite throughout. Mr. John Brabourne's more pronounced humour and colossal stature, as Bedelia, who has caught the "entente cordiale" badly, are in striking and effective contrast, and his speciality in Act 2, Scene 2, outside the Baron's house, with the tales of his early love culminating in the vocal absurdity, "Gazing at the stars," is a delightful bit of fooling. As Fitter and Fatter, the comic brokers' men, Alexandre and Hughes more than confirm the good impression they created on their first appearance in this pantomime, and their quiet, natural, original, and unforced drollery, aids considerably in the success, while their concertina playing is entirely excellent. Mr. H. C. Barry's part of the Baron Balderdash now plays much closer, and has gained considerably in effectiveness thereby. He is now well in the picture throughout. We have left the ladies till last, but by no means least is the admirable assumption of the page Dandini by Miss Meg Hamylton, who is as smart and well-set-up a valet as one could wish to meet. Her song, "The ice-cream girl," is regularly encored. Miss Katie Vesey was so good on the first night that little room for improvement was left, and this she has contrived to make in the meantime, and her song, "Some boys have one love," goes with a rattle. Miss Ruby Forbes is still daintiest of Cinderellas; Miss Ethel Dunbar an attractive and sweet-voiced Fairy Flora; and Mrs. H. T. Wood as Aconite, A. Linton as the donkey, B. G. G. Duppa as Little Billee, the gigantic footman, and Miss E. Trevelyan as Quillino, still do excellent service. The chorus is well drilled and expert, and Miss Enid Errol heads a capital set of calisthenic experts.

"THE BABES IN THE WOOD" AT CAMDEN TOWN.

(SECOND NOTICE).

This pantomime has now quite settled down for a prosperous run, and is drawing crowded audiences nightly. It is as bright and merry a show as can be found anywhere. Everybody concerned works hard for success, and sundry new songs have been added. Any slight defects there may have been at the opening performances have entirely vanished under Mr. Michael Ring's excellent stage management. Mr. Arthur Rigby is going very strong as Mrs. Noluck Jones, and his discourse on "Men" is the cause of much hearty merriment. He has a new number in "Gay Paree," in which he is assisted by four clever dancers, and which goes excellently. Mr. John E. Coyle has made hosts of friends here, and continues to amuse with his irresponsible patter. His drilling of the Army is very funny, and causes roars of laughter. Mr. Coyle has introduced a new song, "A thing like that speaks for itself," and is scoring heavily with it. Those excellent comedians, the Poluski Brothers, have quite surpassed themselves, and the shouts of merriment which greet them testifies to the success of their endeavours. They work very hard indeed, and their mock fight is quite one of the gems of the pantomime. Miss Margaret Wilson is as vivacious as ever as Jack Hayseed, and is scoring with her song, "Give my regards to Leicester-square"; Miss Gladys Huxley is as captivating as ever as Marian; "My Irish Molly" is a welcome addition, and is charmingly rendered by Miss Dorothy Firmin, who makes a sweet Mavis; Miss Nellie Emerald remains a dashing Colin, and her song, "Molly Green," is well received; those clever young ladies, the Sisters McCalla, are proving very popular as the Babes, and they sing and dance prettily; Mr. Berte Coote's children's scene is as great an attraction as ever, and these young people fully deserve the big reception accorded them. To their programme has been added a clever pair of children, the Herberts, whose singing and dancing are remarkably clever. The chorus are putting in much good work, while the orchestra, under the bâton of Mr. G. F. Lord, is in fine form. Several electric lighting features are in evidence which were absent at the first performance, and now add greatly to the effect. We much regret to hear of Mr. Wilfred Stanford's illness, and hope to see him back again shortly; meanwhile, Mr. Adam Raynor is undertaking the duties of acting-manager, and is making himself very popular.

THE TERRISS.

On Monday, January 15, the Drama entitled,
"THE SIN OF HER CHILDHOOD."

The stock company at this popular South London house is giving this week an excellent rendering of Mr. J. A. Campbell's exciting drama. That sterling actor Mr. Ashley Page gives a convincing and manly rendering of the part of the clergyman hero, the Rev. Alan Gray, and warmly deserves the applause which is freely lavished on him. Miss Marion Denvil is impressive and sympathetic as the gentle heroine Mary Haysel, who suffers so severely for the sins of her childhood. Mr. John Chippendale soon becomes a prime favourite as Barney O'Reilly, a good-natured son of the Emerald Isle, and his eccentric love scenes with Eliza Muggins, a character very brightly played by Miss Mattie Everett, are greeted with roars of laughter. Captain Thornton is played in a polished and artistic manner by Mr. Cyril Vernon. Miss Maggie Lindsay is excellent and natural in the difficult rôle of the dipsomaniac, Marion Haysel. Mr. Edward Sorley give a graphic delineation of the crafty schemer Stephen Haysel. Mr. John Sargent makes the most of his one appearance in the prologue as Thomas Haysel. Little Marie is very nicely played by Miss Winifred Williamson, who evokes much sympathy for the character; and the little waif Hannah Spry is well rendered by Miss Maud Harris. Little Minnie makes the most of Erick Dugdale.

"THE SEA MAID," a comedy, in three acts, by Ronald MacDonald, was produced, for copyright purposes, at the Queen's Theatre, Manchester, on Tuesday. A novel under the same title, founded on the play, has just been published.

"THE LITTLE CHERUB."

A new musical play in Three Acts.
The Book by Owen Hall, Music by Ivan Caryll, and Lyrics by Adrian Ross.
Produced at the Prince of Wales's Theatre, on Saturday, January 13.

Earl of Sanctobury .....MR. FRED KAYE
Algernon Southdown ....MR. LENNOX PAWLE
Shingle .....MR. W. H. BERRY
Ethelbert .....MR. GEORGE CARROLL
Captain Hereward ....MR. SPENCER TREVOR
Mr. Grimble .....MR. HENRY ADNES
Alderman Briggs .....MR. EDMUND COOPER
Crumm .....MR. FRED J. BLACKMAN
Sir George Monteith ....MR. FORD HAMILTON
Interpreter to the Rajah ....
MR. VALENTINE O'CONNOR
Bricks .....MR. ARTHUR HOPE
The Rajah of Talcutta ..MR. MAURICE FARKOA
Lady Isabel Congress .....MISS ZENA DARE
Lady Dorothy Congress ..MISS GABRIELLE RAY
Lady Agnes Congress .....MISS LILY ELSIE
Lady Rosa Congress ....MISS GRACE PINDAR
Mrs. Briggs .....MISS IDA LYTTON
Letty .....MISS ELISE CLARE
Miss Cuckoo Vanblane..MISS MILDRED DE VERE
Miss Kitty Cranbourne .....MISS HILDA CORAL
Miss Maudi Rochester
MISS STELLA HAMMERSTEIN
Miss Mabel Ducross ....MISS DAISY DENVILLE
Miss Mary Macclesfield ..MISS AMY WEBSTER
Miss Olive Manderville..MISS BLANCHE THORPE
Miss Molly Montrose .....MISS EVIE GREENE

All concerned in the preparation and production of the new musical play at the Prince of Wales's Theatre on Saturday night are such experienced hands in catering for those who prefer the lighter forms of theatrical fare that success might well be regarded as a foregone conclusion. Mr. George Edwardes sees to it that nothing shall be wanting in the way of dresses and scenery; Mr. Owen Hall can be relied upon to supply a smart book, Mr. Adrian Ross as a writer of lyrics has few equals, and Mr. Ivan Caryll as a composer of melodious music has a high and well-deserved reputation. Such a combination, when supported by a thoroughly competent company, is bound to win, more particularly as on the present occasion Mr. Caryll is in his best form, his music having all those bright and sparkling qualities which usually distinguish his work.

The author of the book acknowledges his indebtedness to Meilhac's Decoré for at least one incident in the story, which opens in a room at Lord Sanctobury's town residence. His lordship has four daughters, and we find them and their lady and gentlemen friends engaged in the rehearsal of a new burlesque called The Little Cupid, but they are not making very good progress, one reason being that the stage manager, Mr. Algernon Southdown, is an incompetent amateur, who admits he has no real knowledge of the business he has undertaken. In these circumstances, Lady Isabel, the youngest daughter of the Earl, sends an invitation to Miss Molly Montrose, the star actress, who is playing the leading part in The Little Cherub on tour. This lady duly makes her appearance, and shows the amateurs how the piece should be performed; but the Earl, who has written to The Times severely criticising the musical play in question, professes to be horrified at finding an actress in his house. However, he has a private interview with Molly, and finally agrees to run down to Dunbridge Baths and see the play himself. Making an excuse that he is going to the House of Lords and shall be home very late, he sets out for Dunbridge, attends the performance at the local theatre, and invites Molly and a party of actresses to supper with him at the hotel. But his Lordship, who says it is the only spree he has ever had in his life, is fated to undergo some unpleasant experiences. In the first place, the Rajah of Talcutta turns up in amorous pursuit of the adorable Molly, and the Earl is taken to the local police station for creating a disturbance at the hotel. He is also recognised by his daughters, who, under the escort of Southdown, have travelled to Dunbridge to see The Little Cherub. Other complications arise out of Algy's plunge into the river to rescue a man who is supposed to be drowning and to his being mistaken for Lord Sanctobury. Before the end is reached his Lordship makes an offer of marriage to the fascinating actress, and is accepted.

Upon Miss Evie Greene, as Molly Montrose, the actress, devolves the responsibility of playing the leading part, but she is quite equal to the demands which this position involves. That the fascinating Molly is mercenary cannot be denied, and her manners are not those of Lady Clara Vere de Vere; in fact, she occasionally shows distinct traces of vulgarity; but no doubt when Molly settles down as the Countess of Sanctobury she will take good care to discard these peculiarities. Miss Evie Greene plays the part naturally and easily; and her success as a vocalist is never in doubt. In her admirable rendering of the exceptionally clever song, "Experience," Miss Greene scores a triumph, and again in the pretty duet, "A String of Pearls," with Mr. Maurice Farkoa, at the end of the second act, she affords further proof of her powers as an accomplished singer. She has another song in the last act and a duet with Mr. Fred Kaye, "Molly and Dolly," and these contributions are rendered with much spirit and effect. Mr. Maurice Farkoa, as polished an artist as ever, gives quite a delightful embodiment of the Rajah of Talcutta, who is so susceptible to the charms of the fair sex. To Mr. Farkoa falls a full share of the musical honours, he delights the audience in the first act with a song and chorus in praise of "the girls." Later he makes a decided hit with "The Supper Girl," the theme being illustrated by several young ladies, including a fair American, a part well played by Miss Hilda Coral. Mr. Maurice Farkoa's co-operation is, as usual, of the most valuable kind. Mr. Fred Kaye gives a quaintly comical portrayal of the Earl of Sanctobury, who, coming under the influence of the charming actress, succumbs at once, and becomes her devoted admirer. Mr. Lennox Pawle is throughout amusing as Algernon Southdown, the amateur and incompetent stage manager, and he cuts a comic figure when his plunge into the river compels him to put on somebody else's garments, which are not a good fit. Mr. W. H. Berry plays well as Shingle, Lord Sanctobury's valet; and he has a capital song in "The Gentleman's Gentleman." In the last act he makes a decided hit with a topical ditty, containing references to the President of the Local Government Board, the London County Council steamboats, and the General Election. Mr. George Carroll is a diminutive comedian, who, as Ethelbert, a waiter at the Hotel at Dunbridge Baths, adds greatly to the fun of the piece. He and Miss Elise Clare, as a lively chambermaid at the same hotel, contribute a capital song and dance. Mr. Edmund Cooper makes an imposing Alderman Briggs, of Dunbridge, and his song, "My wife shall be a lady," is well received. The four daughters of the Earl of Sanctobury have captivating representatives. Miss Zena Dare, as Lady Isabel, is the picture of girlish grace and freshness. She takes a leading part in a quartette "I should so love to be a boy," which is one of the chief hits of the piece. The four ladies give imitations of various outdoor games, concluding with football, the ball being passed quickly from one to the other, and finally kicked into the auditorium. Miss Gabrielle Ray is a dainty Lady Dorothy, and in the last act appears in the character of Cupid, attended by some half-dozen little girls, and discarding the bow and arrow for the rifle, she brings down one after another a row of toy figures as she sings the verses of her song. Miss Lily Elsie is an attractive Lady Agnes, and her ditty, "Baby Bayswater," with chorus, is capitally rendered. Miss Grace Pindar is a pleasing Lady Rosa, and Mrs. Briggs has a fascinating representative in Miss Ida Lytton, who joins Mr. Maurice Farkoa in the duet "Won't you waltz with me"? one of the most catchy melodies in the piece. Mr. Henry Adnes is well placed as Mr. Grimble, the landlord of the hotel; Mr. Spencer Trevor gives a brisk embodiment of Captain Hereward, and other minor rôles are safely entrusted to Messrs. Fred J. Blackman, Ford Hamilton, Valentine O'Connor, and Arthur Hope. The actresses who appear in the hotel scene are represented by half-a-dozen handsome young ladies.

Mr. Frank E. Tours, the musical director, is responsible for the music of the opening chorus of the second act, also of "I should so love to be a boy" and "Cupid's Rifle Range," sung by Miss Gabrielle Ray. Mr. George Grossmith is the author of "The Supper Girl" and "Baby Bayswater" songs. The dances and chorus business have been arranged by Mr. Willie Warde; Mr. J. A. E. Malone is stage director, and Mr. Sidney Watson, stage manager.

STOCK EXCHANGE ORCHESTRAL CONCERT.

A concert was given by the above Society at Queen's Hall on Thursday evening, January 18, in aid of the Seamens' Hospital Society. It was to be regretted that a larger audience were not present for so deserving an object, but this was to be accounted for owing to the wretched weather. The programme appropriately opened with Sir A. C. Mackenzie's Britannia overture, played with great spirit by the orchestra conducted by Mr. Arthur W. Payne. The band also did themselves great credit in the pictures from The Sherborne Pageant, Mr. Louis N. Parker conducting. Other performances by the orchestra were Sullivan's Overture di Ballo, two Hungarian Dances by Brahms, and Norwegian Artists Carnival Op. 14. Miss Bertha Bird was the solo vocalist, and had a magnificent reception at the close of her first song, "Couplets du Mysoli," (from La Perlé du Brissil) by F. David. Miss Bird was assisted by Mr. J. F. Bartlett, who played the flute obligato admirably. After being three times recalled to the platform the lady responded with Guy D'Harllelot's "Because." Miss Bird is a native of Melbourne, but is of Scottish descent. She claims to have the highest voice in the world, easily reaching F in alt., but what is more important, the singer not only possesses a soprano voice that contains such high notes, but these notes are delightfully pure and brilliant in quality. Melbourne has before given us a great singer, which is a happy omen for the future of the young artist. Later in the concert Miss Bertha Bird sang C. Deacon's "Love's Adoration," and Verdi's "Sapei Vorreste." Other interesting vocal items were the part songs given by the Male-Voice Choir conducted by Mr. Munro Davison. The choir sang with capital intonation a part song "Autumn" by W. Macfarren, Sir John Goss's glee "O Thou whose beams," and a charming madrigal, "Lady! see on every side," by Marenzio, and later in the program Dr. Cumming's "Song should breathe," and Integer Vitæ. Mr. Percy Hughes played some pianoforte solos, being encored for a brilliant rendering of Liszt's Hungarian Rhapsody No. 12. In the second part Mr. Hughes gave two solos, "Songs without words" and "Rigandon." The Stock Exchange Society are to be congratulated on so good a concert which, given better weather, would have been a great success and have drawn a large audience.

COVENT GARDEN BALL.

There was a good attendance at the Fancy Dress Ball given on the night of the 12th inst., and the usual spirit of thorough enjoyment which pervades these gatherings was as conspicuous as ever. Mdme. Jeanne gained the first prize for a striking costume called "The Old Dutch." Over a foundation of white chiffon were panels painted with pictures of Dutch life, and from the centre of the back were the sails of a windmill painted with figures of peasants in their picturesque costumes. A Dutch head-dress and wooden clogs were also worn; and Mr. W. Clarkson was awarded first prize for the wig and make-up. Messrs. Swan and Edgar won the second prize with an original design entitled "Imperial Orchid," consisting of a dress of mauve chiffon frills with pictures of well-known statesmen round the top of the bodice; on the front of the skirt was a hand-painted portrait of Mr. Chamberlain and a view of the Houses of Parliament. The whole dress was brilliantly illuminated with frosted electric lights.

Mr. Clarkson succeeded in winning gentlemen's first prize with a comic costume, "The Sscotch Mail," and third ladies' prize for another political design, "To be or not to be," sixth ladies' prize for "It's never to late to mend," and others for "A Few Songs," &c. Other prize-winning costumes were "Good old vine," "Over the snowy mountains," and "The Merry Masqueraders."

APARTMENTS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ERA.

SIR,—Might I add my small support to Mr. Lockhart's admirable suggestion in the Era last week as to landladies being asked to keep an address book for apartments recommended in other towns, and giving the references' names. Twice only I have come across such books, but each time I have been saved much inconvenience and discomfort by finding addresses, having failed to get such from professional friends or from the —as far as it goes—valuable little Actors' Association list of lodgings. The being able to write and take rooms beforehand, with anyhow a certainty that they will be clean and satisfactory, sometimes means being spared hours' hunt in the rain and perhaps in the early morning hours, or late evening, so the question is really larger than the trifling one it sounds, and I trust you will consequently forgive my wishing to encroach on your valuable space in support of so excellent an idea.—Yours faithfully,

MARGARET DAVIES WEBSTER.
38, Flanders Mansions, Bedford Park, W.,
Jan. 16.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ERA.

SIR,—I quite agree with Mr. Lockhart's idea. Very excellent!—Faithfully yours,

JERROLD HEATHER.
T. R., Rotherham, Jan. 16.

MR. ALFRED MARTIN received gratifying testimony of his ability from Mr. R. Redford on finishing his engagement at the Theatre Royal, Cardiff. The pantomime was a record success, Mr. Martin being most enterprisng and energetic in working the excursions and advertising.

MR. EDITOR, Sir,—In your notice of the pantomime at the Palace, Belfast, last week, you say that I have "happily recovered from indisposition." Kindly correct this in your next issue, as I have not in any way been indisposed during the pantomime, nor have I missed a single performance.—Yours faithfully, OLIVE MARSTON. The Palace, Belfast, Jan. 14.

MAKES THE SKIN AS SOFT AS VELVET.—Beetham's "LAROLA" preserves the Skin from the effects of frost, cold winds, and hard water. Entirely removes and prevents all roughness, redness, irritation, chaps, &c., and KEEPS THE SKIN SOFT, SMOOTH, and WHITE at all Seasons. INVALUABLE for the COMPLEXION, DELIGHTFULLY SOOTHING and REFRESHING after walking, cycling, motoring, dancing, &c. Gentlemen will find it wonderfully soothing if applied after shaving. Bottles 1s., 1s. 9d., and 2s. 6d. each, of all Chemists and Stores. M. BEETHAM and SON, Cheltenham.—[ADVT.]

FIFTY YEARS OF THE DRAMA—1850-1900.

(COPYRIGHT.)

In these columns it is proposed to give a strictly alphabetical arrangement of the titles of plays produced during the last fifty years. It will be the most complete list ever published, and should prove invaluable to authors desiring to discover whether a certain title has ever been used, and when. To members of the dramatic profession it will be useful in determining the dates of plays in which they have achieved successes. Our readers are politely requested to advise us of any omission or inaccuracy which they may notice.

This list as soon as complete will be published in cheap book form.

DESTINY, Victoria, Feb. 9, 1860.
DESTROYED BY DRINK, Queen's, Dublin, Aug. 25, 1879.
DESTROYER, THE, Royal Colosseum Theatre, Liverpool, June 15, 1868.
DETECTIVE, THE, Mirror, May 29, 1875.
DESERTED, Shepherd's Bush, Dec. 13, 1894.
DESERTER IN A FIX, Grand, March 23, 1885.
DESPERATE DEED, Sadler's Wells, Feb. 7, 1893.
DESPERATE MAN, Strand, May 15, 1891.
DESPERATION, Theatre Royal, West Bromwich, June 10, 1887.
DESTROYING ANGEL, Theatre Royal, Barnsley, Dec. 8, 1896.
DEVIL AT THE ELBOW, Britannia, Aug. 3, 1874.
DEVIL CARESFOOT, Vaudeville, Aug. 6, 1887.
DEVIL-MAY-CARE, Ealing, Aug. 10, 1893.
DEVIL ON TOWN, Surrey, April 18, 1863.
DEVIL ON TWO STICKS, Adelphi, April 18, 1859.
DEVIL'S DEVICE, Stalybridge, Aug. 19, 1895.
DEVIL'S DISCIPLE, Bayswater, April 17, 1897.
DEVILSHOOF, Victoria, June 9, 1862.
DEVIL'S HOUSE, Theatre Royal, Birmingham, June 15, 1900.
DEVIL'S IN IT, Surrey, July 26, 1852.
DEVIL'S LUCK, Adelphi, Liverpool, Aug. —, 1885.
DEVIL'S MINE, Maidenhead, April 25, 1894.
DEVIL'S RING, Drury Lane, April 1, 1850.
DEVOTION AND PREJUDICE, Theatre Royal, Brighton, Sept. 7, 1874.
DEVOTION, Court, May 1, 1884.
DEVOTION; OR, A PRICELESS WIFE, Britannia, March 14, 1881.
DEVOTION, Sadler's Wells, March 21, 1870.
DHRAME, THE; OR, BARNEY'S MISTAKE, Theatre Royal, Birkenhead, July 10, 1876.
DIAMOND QUEEN, St. George's Hall, April 6, 1889.
DIAMOND DEANE, Vaudeville, March 18, 1891.
DIAMOND GANG, Theatre Royal, Bilston, July 30, 1892.
DIAMOND KING, Shepherd's Bush, May 14, 1892.
DIAMOND RING, Queen's, Manchester, March 6, 1835.
DIAMOND RUSH, Theatre Royal, Cambridge, Feb. 6, 1895.
DIAMONDS AND HEARTS, Haymarket, March 4, 1867.
DIAMOND STATUE, Britannia, Dec. 26, 1882.
DIANA; OR, THE ADVENTURESS, Theatre Royal, Scarborough, March 29, 1880.
DIANA; OR, THE GODDESS OF THE MOON, Lincoln, Oct. —, 1882.
DIANE, Toole's, Sept. 9, 1882.
DIARMID, Covent Garden, Oct. 23, 1897.
DIARY OF A TRAMP, St. George's Hall, Oct. 19, 1891.
DICK DRAYTON'S WIFE, Ladbroke Hall, July 24, 1888.
DICK, Globe, April 17, 1884.
DICK; OR, THE BEAU OF THE BELLES, Wimbledon, Jan. 29, 1895.
DICK SHERIDAN, Comedy, Feb. 3, 1894.
DICK SWIVELLER, Theatre Royal, Brighton, Dec. 5, 1871.
DICK TURPIN THE SECOND, Gaiety, May 6, 1889.
DICK VENABLES, Shaftesbury, April 5, 1890.
DICK WHITTINGTON AND HIS CAT, Astrophe, Walsall, June 16, 1884.
DICK WILDER, Vaudeville, June 20, 1891.
DIDDLECOMBE FARM, H.M.S. Rainbow, April 1, 1886.
DIE EHRE, Drury Lane, June 18, 1895.
DID I DREAM IT?, Strand, Nov. 19, 1860.
DIDO AND ÆNEAS, Strand, Oct. 26, 1893.
DIDO, St. James's, Feb. 11, 1860.
DID SHE MEAN IT?, Theatre Royal, Portsmouth, April 17, 1871.
DID YOU RING?, Prince of Wales's, June 27, 1892.
DIE AHNFRAU, Drury Lane, June 16, 1881.
DIE FLEDERMANS, Alhambra, Dec. 18, 1876.
DIE FLEDERMAUS, Drury Lane, June 22, 1895.
DIE GOLDENE EVA, Daly's, June 30, 1897.
DIE GOTTERDAMMERUNG, Covent Garden, July 13, 1892.
DIE MEISTERSINGER, Drury Lane, May 30, 1882.
DIE PARLAMENT'S WAHL, St. Pancras, March 8, 1890.
DIE RAUBER, Drury Lane, June 6, 1881.
DIE RAUBER, Opera Comique, Nov. 2, 1894.
DIE ZARTLICHEN VERWANDTEN, St. George's Hall, Oct. 24, 1900.
DIGGINGS, THE, Theatre Royal, Jersey, May 14, 1877.
DIMITY'S DILEMMA, Gaiety, Feb. 19, 1887.
DING DONG BELL, Marylebone, Dec. 26, 1866.
DINNER FOR NOTHING, Prince of Wales's, Oct. 16, 1865.
DINNER FOR TWO, Theatre Royal, Brighton, March 9, 1893.
DINORAH, Covent Garden, Sept. 26, 1859.
DINORAH UNDER DIFFICULTIES, Adelphi, Nov. 7, 1859.
DIOGENES, Kings' Cross, Nov. 3, 1888.
DIONE, THE CANON'S DAUGHTER, Gravesend, Oct. 2, 1895.
DIPLOMACY, Garrick, Feb. 18, 1893.
DIPLOMACY, Prince of Wales's, Jan. 12, 1878.
DIRECTOR, THE, Terry's, May 7, 1891.
DISCARDED SON, Adelphi, Oct. 10, 1853.
DISCREET PRINCESS, Olympic, Dec. 26, 1855.
DISHONOURED, Theatre Royal, Macclesfield, Aug. 3, 1896.
DISHONOUR OF FRANK SCOTT, Theatre Royal, Belfast, Sept. 7, 1900.
DISINHERITED; OR, LEFT TO HER FATE, Theatre Royal, Yarmouth, June 1, 1874.
DISTRACTION, Theatre Royal, Cheltenham, June 29, 1885.
DIVER'S LUCK, Theatre Royal, Jarrow, May 30, 1887.
DIVIDED DUTY, Highbury, Oct. 18, 1885.
DIVIDED WAY, Theatre Royal, Manchester, Oct. 31, 1895.
DIVORCED, Imperial, May 19, 1898.
DIVORCE, Effingham, Jan. 29, 1866.
DIVORCONS, Gaiety, July 3, 1882.
DJAMILEH, Manchester, Sept. 22, 1892.
DOCTOR DAVY, Lyceum, June 4, 1866.
DOCTOR IN SPITE OF HIMSELF, Globe, June 23, 1877.
DOCTOR KLAUS, ——, Dec. 15, 1882.
DOCTOR KLAUS, Opera Comique, Oct. 16, 1894.
DOCTOR OF ALCANTARA, Opera Comique, Feb. 6, 1897.
DOCTOR PADDY, Theatre Royal, Lincoln, April 14, 1884.
DOCTOR'S DILEMMA, Scarborough, April 13, 1899.
DOCTOR'S BOY, Surrey, Jan. 8, 1877.
DOCTOR'S BROUGHAM, Strand, Oct. 9, 1875.
DOCTOR'S STORY, Ladbroke Hall, Dec. 26, 1894.
DOCTOR'S SHADOW, Accrington, Jan. 2, 1896.
DOCTOR, THE, Globe, July 9, 1887.
DOCTOR'S WARD, Teignmouth, Feb. 7, 1899.
DODGE FOR A DINNER, Strand, Dec. 28, 1872.
DOES HE LOVE ME? Haymarket, June 23, 1860.
DOGE OF VENICE, Drury Lane, Nov. 2, 1867.
DOGS OF ST. BERNARD, Mirror, Aug. 21, 1875.
DOING BANTING, Adelphi, Oct. 24, 1864.
DOING FOR THE BEST, Sadler's Wells, Nov. 13, 1861.
DOING MY UNCLE, Surrey, Sept. 8, 1866.
DOING THE HANDSOME, Lyceum, Nov. 3, 1856.
DOING THE SHAH, Globe, July 5, 1873.
DOLLARS AND SENSE, Toole's, Aug. 1, 1884.
DOLLUSIONS, Whitechapel, May 11, 1896.
DOLLY, Carlisle, Oct. 27, 1890.
DOLLY, Gaiety, Aug. 22, 1870.
DOLLY VARDEN, Theatre Royal, Bradford, April 29, 1872.
DOLLY'S DILEMMA, Theatre Royal, Wolverhampton, April 22, 1887.
DOLL'S HOUSE, Jodrell, June 7, 1889.
DOLLS, Ladbroke Hall, July 11, 1892.
DOLORES, Britannia, April 6, 1874.
DOMESTIC DIPLOMACY, Gaiety, Dublin, April 1, 1872.
DOMESTIC ECONOMY, Comedy, April 7, 1890.
DOMESTIC HERCULES, Drury Lane,
DOMESTIC MASH, Theatre Royal, Cheltenham, Nov. 22, 1888.
DOMESTIC MEDICINE, Theatre Royal, Grantham, June 2, 1887.
DOMENICO THE VILE 'UN, Camberwell, April 26, 1872.
DOMINICANS, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Dec. 13, 1894.
DOMINO; OR, THE FALL OF THE CURTAIN, Theatre Royal, Darwen, Feb. 26, 1883.
DOMINO, Theatre Royal, Stockton, March 7, 1879.
DONA CONSTANZA, Criterion, Nov. 20, 1875.
DONAGH'S ROMANCE, Theatre Royal, Lincoln, Oct. 8, 1883.
DONAGH, THE, Grand, April 12, 1884.
DON BUCEFALO, Covent Garden, May 29, 1869.
DON CÆSAR DE BAZAN, Kennington, Aug. 21, 1899.
DON CARLOS, New Theatre Royal, South Shields, Aug. 6, 1869.
DON CARLOS; OR, INFANTE IN ARMS, Vaudeville, April 16, 1870.
DONELLAN, Strand, June 13, 1889.
DONE TO A CINDERELLA, Theatre Royal, Exeter, Sept. 12, 1881.
DON GIOVANNI IN VENICE, Gaiety, Feb. 17, 1873.
DON GIOVANNI, JUN., Greenwich, May 17, 1875.
DON GIOVANNI, M.P., Princess's, Edinburgh, April 17, 1874.
DON GIOVANNI, Theatre Royal, Greenwich, March 11, 1872.
DON JOHN OF SEVILLE, Elephant and Castle, Sept. 30, 1876.
DON JUAN, burlesque, Theatre Royal, Bradford, Nov. 22, 1870.
DON JUAN D'AUTRICHE, Royalty, Oct. 10, 1885.
DON JUAN, Grecian, June 20, 1870. Sept. 24, 1870.
DONNA JUANITA, Ladbroke Theatre, Feb. 24, 1880.
DON JUAN, JUNIOR, Royalty, Nov. 3, 1880.
DON JUAN, Lincoln's Inn Hall, Dec. 15, 1899.
DON JUAN'S LAST WAGER, Prince of Wales's, Feb. 27, 1900.
DON'T JUDGE BY APPEARANCES, Princess's, Oct. 22, 1855.
DONNA DIANA, Princess's, Jan. 11, 1864.
DONNA DIANA, Prince of Wales's, Nov. 4, 1896.
DONNA LUIZA, Prince of Wales's, March 23, 1892.
DONNA THERESA, Institute, Wandsworth, May 21, 1885.
DONNYBROOK, Coatbridge, Aug. 5, 1899.
DON PASQUALE, Royal Academy of Music, April 2, 1897.
DON PEDRO, Strand, May 26, 1892.
DON QUIXOTE, JUNIOR, Globe, April 21, 1879.
DON QUIXOTE, Cabinet, Oct. 28, 1869.
DON'T DECEIVE YOUR WIFE, Yarmouth, Jan. 15, 1897.
DON, THE, Toole's, March 7, 1888.
DON'T JUDGE BY APPEARANCES, Princess's, Oct. 22, 1855.
DON'T LEND YOUR UMBRELLA, Strand, Jan. 26, 1857.
DON'T MIND ME, Theatre Royal, Portsmouth, Dec. 16, 1873.
DOO BROWN AND CO., Vaudeville, March 11, 1886.
DOOMED BRIDGE, Victoria, March 24, 1856.
DOOMED, Southampton, Feb. 8, 1890.
DORA, Adelphi, June 1, 1867.
DORA AND DIPLOMACY, Strand, Feb. 14, 1878.
DORA INGRAM, Pavilion, Feb. 23, 1885.
DORA MAYFIELD, Britannia, Feb. 25, 1878.
DORA'S DEVICE, Royalty, Jan. 11, 1871.
DORA'S DREAM, Gall. of Illus., June 17, 1873.
DORA'S LOVE, Prince of Wales's, Wolverhampton, Aug. 12, 1872.
DORCAS, Kilburn, Feb. 21, 1898.
DORCHLAUCHTING, St. George's Hall, Feb. 16, 1900.
DORIS, Lyric, April 20, 1889.
DORMEA, THE LAWYER'S DAUGHTER, Victoria, Longton, Sept. 2, 1878.
DOROTHY GRAY, Princess's, April 10, 1838.
DOROTHY, Leeds, April 2, 1877.
DOROTHY'S STRATAGEM, Criterion, Dec. 23, 1876.
DOROTHY VERNON, Theatre Royal, Ashton-under-Lyne, Oct. 4, 1889.
DOT, Adelphi, April 14, 1862.
DOTHEBOY'S HALL, Court, Dec. 26, 1871.
DOTTY, Leith, May 9, 1896.
DOUBLE AND QUITS, Avenue, Sunderland, March 4, 1885.
DOUBLE CONQUEST, Theatre Royal, Cardiff, Oct. 27, 1873.
DOUBLEDICK, Theatre Royal, Halifax, Oct. 18, 1875.
DOUBLE DOSE, Surrey, March 10, 1890.
DOUBLE DECEPTION, Bayswater, Oct. 25, 1897.
DOUBLE EVENT, East London, April 10, 1871.
DOUBLE EVENT, Kilburn Town Hall, May 6, 1891.
DOUBLE EVENT, St. George's Hall, Feb. 18, 1884.
DOUBLE-FACED PEOPLE, Haymarket, Feb. 7, 1857.
DOUBLE LIFE, Birkenhead, April 11, 1892.
DOUBLE LIFE, Theatre Royal, Swansea, Dec. 4, 1871.
DOUBLE MARRIAGE, Adelphi, March 8, 1873.
DOUBLE MARRIAGE, New Queen's, Oct. 24, 1867.
DOUBLE MISTAKE, Pier, Hastings, June 23, 1884.
DOUBLE SHUFFLE, Theatre Royal, York, Oct. 25, 1900.
DOUBLE SIXES, Southampton, July 16, 1900.
DOUBLE ROSE, Adelphi, June 17, 1882.
DOUBLE ZERO, Strand, Oct. 10, 1883.
DOUBTFUL PROPOSAL, Great Queen Street, June 26, 1900.
DOUBTFUL VICTORY, Olympic, April 20, 1858.
DOUBT, Strand, June 4, 1889.
DOVE AND THE SERPENT, City of London, March 21, 1859.
DOVE-COT, Duke of York's, Feb. 12, 1898.
DOWN AMONG THE COALS, Court, Nov. 15, 1873.
DOWN IN A BALLOON, Adelphi, April 10, 1871.
DOWN ON HIS LUCK, Oxford, Oct. 4, 1894.
DOWN THE SLOPE, Stalybridge, June 28, 1897.
DOWNWARD PATH, Theatre Royal, Huddersfield, July 17, 1893.
DRAGON OF HOUGUE BIE, Royal House, Jersey, Dec. 8, 1871.
DRAGOONS, THE, Folly, April 14, 1879.
DR. AMBROSIAS: HIS SECRET, St. George's Hall, Aug. 8, 1868.
DR. AND MRS. NEILL, Theatre Royal, Manchester, Sept. 28, 1894.
DRAPERY QUESTION, Adelphi, Oct. 28, 1857.
DRAWING-ROOMS, FIRST FLOORS, AND ATTICS, Princess's, March 30, 1864.
DRAWN BATTLE, Opera Comique, April 17, 1893.
DR. BELGRAFF, Vaudeville, Oct. 31, 1896.
DR. CLYDE, Alexandra Opera House, Sheffield, July 19, 1880.
DR. BILL, Avenue, Feb. 1, 1890.
DR. CHETWYND, Opera House, Cheltenham, Jan. 20, 1896.
DR. CLAUDIUS, Vaudeville, Jan. 29, 1897.
DR. D, Royalty, May 30, 1885.
DREADFULLY ALARMING, Philharmonic, Sept. 30, 1871.
DREAM, A, Avenue, July 16, 1883.
DREAM FACES, Amphitheatre, Ramsgate, Oct. 18, 1888.
DREAM FLOWER, Comedy, June 30, 1898.
DREAM OF LOVE, Opera Comique, Oct. 21, 1872.
DREAM OF THE WHITEBOY, Theatre Royal, Cheltenham, Sept. 23, 1868.
DREAM OF WHITAKER'S ALMANAC, Crystal Palace, June 5, 1899.
DREAMS, Alexandra, Liverpool, Feb. 22, 1869.
DRED, Prince of Wales's, Wolverhampton, Nov. 19, 1872.
DREGS, Vaudeville, May 16, 1889.
DRESDEN CHINA, Vaudeville, July 21, 1892.
DRESS COAT, Strand, Jan. 29, 1876.
DR. FAUST AND MISS MARGUERITE, Queen's, Dublin, Aug. 24, 1885.
DR. FAUSTUS, St. George's Hall, July 2, 1896.
DRIFTING CLOUDS, Bow and Bromley Institute, Oct. 31, 1894.
DRIFTING DOWN, Windsor, April 19, 1900.
DRIFTING SPAR, Theatre Royal, Edmonton, Aug. 5, 1893.
DRINK, Princess's, June 2, 1879.
DRIVEN FROM HOME, Grecian, July 31, 1871.
DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE, Merthyr, July 26, 1883.
DR. JOHNSON, Theatre Royal, Richmond, May 11, 1896.
DROP BY DROP, Adelphi, Liverpool, March 24, 1884.
DROPPED IN, Ladbroke Hall, Nov. 24, 1843.
DROWNED MAN'S LEGACY, Britannia, Sept. 23, 1872.
DR. SYNTAX, St. Leonard's, June 3, 1895.
DR. SYNTAX THE HYPNOTIST, Liverpool, Sept. 24, 1894.
DRUIDS ELECT, St. George's Hall, April 19, 1899.
DRUID'S OAK, Victoria, June 23, 1851.
DRUID, THE, St. George's, Feb. 22, 1879.
DRUMCLOG; OR, THE COVENANTERS, Theatre Royal, Edinburgh, Sept. 5, 1871.
DRUM MAJOR, Coronet, Oct. 1, 1900.
DRUNKARD, THE, Holte, Birmingham, Sept. 29, 1879.
DRUNKARD'S DOOM, Theatre Royal, Plymouth, Sept. 8, 1879.
DRUNKARD'S LIST, Coliseum, Liverpool, April 1, 1872.
D.T.; OR, LOST BY DRINK, Theatre Royal, Bradford, Aug. 4, 1879.
DUBLIN BAY, Adelphi, Feb. 10, 1862.
DUCHESS OF BAYSWATER AND CO., Haymarket, Dec. 8, 1888.
DUCHESS OF COOLGARDIE, Drury Lane, Sept. 19, 1896.
DUCHESS OF DIJON, Theatre Royal, Portsmouth, Sept. 20, 1897.
DUCHESS ELEANOUR, Haymarket, March 13, 1854.
DUCHESS OF MALFI, Standard, March 26, 1855.
DUCHESS OR NOTHING, Olympic, July 9, 1860.
DUCK-HUNTING, Maymarket, Sept. 29, 1862.
DUDE AND THE DANCING GIRL, Brixton Hall, Nov. 4, 1893.
DUKE IN DIFFICULTIES, Haymarket, March 6, 1861.
DUKE OF SWINDLETON, Opera Comique, June 11, 1885.
DUKE'S BOAST, Avenue, March 21, 1889.
DUKE'S DAUGHTER, Royalty, Jan. 10, 1876.
DUKE'S DIVERSION, West Norwood, May 21, 1892.
DULCAMARA, St. James's, Dec. 29, 1866.
DULVERYDOTTY, St. John's Wood, March 2, 1894.
DUMAUR'ALISED TRILBY, St. George's Hall, Dec. 6, 1895.
DUNBAR; OR, THE KING'S ADVOCATE, Glasgow, Oct. 2, 1899.
DUMB PRINCESS, Kensington, Jan. 17, 1894.
DUNDREARY MARRIED AND DONE FOR, Haymarket, June 13, 1864.
DUPLICITY, Eclectic, Dec. 14, 1871.
DURING HER MAJESTY'S PLEASURE, Grecian, May 21, 1877.
DUSTMAN'S TREASURE, Britannia, July, 16, 1866.
DUSKIE, Ladbroke Hall, June 17, 1890.
DUTCH THE DIVER, Theatre Royal, Liverpool, Sept. 30, 1878.
DUTY, Prince of Wales's, Sept. 27, 1879.
DUX REDUX, Novelty, Jan. 18, 1887.
D'YE KNOW ME NOW? New Theatre Royal, Reading, June 14, 1872.
DYING FOR LOVE, Princess's, June 28, 1858.
DYKE HOUSE, THE, Sandgate, Feb. 12, 1877.
EAGLE JOE, Princess's, Dec. 26, 1892.
EAGLE'S WING, Folkestone, Dec. 26, 1892.
EARL OF MULLIGATAWNY, Greenwich, Oct. 22, 1898.
EARL'S DAUGHTERS, Theatre Royal, Croydon, July 21, 1890.
EARL'S HOUSEKEEPER, Britannia, April 22, 1872.
EARNEST APPEAL, Strand, May 6, 1875.
EARTHLY TWINS, St. James's, July 6, 1896.
EASTER EGG, Terry's, Dec. 7, 1894.
EAST LYNNE, burlesque, Theatre Royal, Birmingham, Sept. 16, 1869.
EAST LYNNE, Prince of Wales's, Birmingham, Oct. 3, 1865.
EASTWARD HO! Opera Comique, Dec. 24, 1894.
EASY SHAVING, Haymarket, June 11, 1863.
EBB AND FLOW, Theatre Royal, Brentford, Nov. 19, 1888.
EBONY CASKET, Gaiety, Nov. 9, 1872.
ECCENTRIC GUARDIAN, New Cross Hall, April 25, 1885.
ECHOES OF THE NIGHT, Pullan's, Bradford, Jan. 7, 1884.
ECHOES OF THE OPERA, St. George's Hall, June 15, 1893.
ECHO, Trafalgar Square, April 25, 1893.
ECLIPSING THE SON, St. James's.
EDELWEISS, Opera House, Cork, April 3, 1893.
EDENDALE, Charing Cross, June 19, 1869.
EDGAR HARISSUE, Ladbroke Hall, July 19, 1898.
EDITHA'S BURGLAR, Princess's, Oct. 28, 1887.
EDMUND KEAN, Chichester, Nov. 20, 1893.

IRVING REMINISCENCES.

My earliest personal reminiscences of Henry Irving (says Mr. Austin Brereton, in his interesting book, "Henry Irving," recently published by Anthony Treherne and Co.) take me back to the year 1883. I had known him before that, but not intimately, and, in the summer of 1878, he had sent me a letter and a photograph bearing his signature—a most encouraging and kindly act towards the youthful aspirant to journalism. In the early part of the year named, however, his first American tour having been then decided upon, I projected a biography of the actor, who was then in the heyday of his fame. This brought me into close touch with him, for he gave me his cordial co-operation, and the friendship then established remained unbroken until his death.

Of the book in question, it is only necessary to say that it was the first of its kind, and much of its early matter has been frequently appropriated from that day to this. I only mention the book because it gave me ample proof of Irving's capacity for taking infinite pains—a capacity which never deserted him, and to which much of his success is to be attributed. On turning to the volume, I find that eleven large pages are devoted to the enumeration of the characters which he had acted during his first two and a half working years. This list was made for his own manuscript record, which he kept in a small book to which he always referred in subsequent years when any question arose regarding his early career. That list, by the way, makes it evident that during the period named—two years and a half—Irving played the enormous number of four hundred and twenty-eight characters.

And talking of his little manuscript book, I am reminded of a funny circumstance in connection with his first appearance in the Irish capital. First of all, let me set right an error which has crept into some of the biographical notices. It has been stated that Irving made his first appearance in London at the Surrey Theatre in March, 1859. This is not so. At that time he was playing in Edinburgh, and there he remained until Sept. 13, as he had been offered an engagement by the father of the late Sir Augustus Harris for the Princess's Theatre, and at this house, eleven days after leaving Edinburgh, he made his first appearance before a London audience. But he found that he was only allotted a few lines in a four-act play, and, seeing that there was no chance for advancement, he obtained the annulment of his contract. After giving some readings of The Lady of Lyons and Virginius, at Crosby Hall, to a few friends who believed in the young actor, and shared in his disappointment in regard to the Princess's, he shook the dust of London from his feet.

Here the little black book comes in. Not long since, a wrong statement appeared in regard to Irving's début, and with characteristic promptness—for he was most particular in regard to the professional record of his early life—he asked me to set the matter right. So the little black book was brought out and the subject was rectified. Irving's manuscript note lies before me as I write, and here is a copy of it:—

"Leaving London, Irving made his first appearance in Dublin, March 5, 1860, at the Queen's Theatre, under the management of the eccentric Henry Webb—by whom he was engaged for four weeks—and his experience was a novel one. Irving found to his surprise, on arriving in Dublin, that he was expected to take up the part of a popular favourite who had been suddenly dismissed, and, powerless and protesting, went through the ordeal of facing for three weeks the howling and hooting of as merry, reckless, and impulsive an audience as were ever gathered together. At last, the indignant manager protested, soundly rated and rebuked 'the boys,' who, on discovering the injustice they had done the young actor, as warmly encouraged and applauded him for one week—as they had before d——d him unmercifully for three."

The part that he first played in Dublin was Fulvius in Gisippus, a drama by Gerald Griffin, author of The Collegians.

I take at random another note that I have, this time of an after-dinner conversation, from which it will be gathered that in Irving's case the boy was certainly the father to the man. The story of his seeking seclusion in the packing-cases when he was a boy in the City office of a firm of East India merchants has already been told. But Irving related it to me with renewed enjoyment only a few weeks since, for he was ever fond of dwelling upon his early days.

They were only busy in the office on one day a week—Friday, mail day—and the rest of the time was largely devoted by young Irving to study of plays in the shelter of the packing-cases. At this time, as he told me, he had two companions in the office with whom he used to spend some of his evenings. The father of one of them kept an undertaker's shop, and in this gloomy establishment the boys made merry. The father of the other boy was an importer of nuts, chiefly from Brazil, and here also, in a little street near to the river, the boys disported themselves. But, surrounded as they were with the nuts, it was a point of honour among the boys that they never took a single one. "They were so hard to crack," said Irving, with a twinkle in his eye. These incidents seem but trifles when one thinks of the great work which Irving has accomplished, but the recollection of little things like this always amused him, and enabled him to get away from the strain which his career placed upon him so incessantly.

There is no harm in stating now that Sir Henry, in his own mind, abandoned the idea of another American tour some months ago. For I was talking to him not long since in reference to the pieces which he intended to play in the United States next year. "That is a long time off, a long time off," he said, with a sigh. "Plenty of time for that," he added. For he felt that it would be too much for him. But he was looking forward, and with great interest, to next spring, when he intended to return to Drury Lane. A few nights before his death, he was discussing with me the possibility of reviving Faust. But he came to the conclusion that, to do it as he felt that it should be done at Drury Lane, would cost far too much money. So he fell back in his conversation upon Olivia, but he thought that possibly Drury Lane stage was too large for the production of Wills's dramatisation of "The Vicar of Wakefield." "Again," he said, "where is there an actress to play Olivia—where is there another Ellen Terry?" And then he went on to speak most charmingly of his old companion in art, as, indeed, he invariably did whenever the name of this delightful actress cropped up. In the very last conversation that I had with him—on the night that I left Sheffield, Oct. 4, he described the rare grace with which Miss Terry had acted Iolanthe in the Wills version of King Réné's Daughter. Loyalty to his friends was one of the finest traits in the character of this great actor.

MISS EDNA HOPPER, an American actress, has obtained leave at Victoria, British Columbia, to appeal to the Privy Council in her contest with Mr. James Dunsmuir, the ex-Premier of the colony. Mr. Alexander Dunsmuir, who married Miss Edna Wallace Hopper's mother, left property to the value of £600,000 to his brother, Mr. James Dunsmuir, the owner of a railway and vast landed estates in British Columbia. His step-daughter has since twice challenged the will in the Canadian courts, which have hitherto decided in the legatee's favour.

THEATRICAL GOSSIP.

Sir Charles Wyndham, who was sent on the wings of report to Mentone on Wednesday, is nevertheless playing with unimpaired vigour and success in Captain Drew on Leave. All London is flocking to Wyndham's Theatre to witness Sir Charles's fine impersonation, in which his buoyancy, his dramatic resource, and his abounding versatility are put admirably to the proof.

Sir Squire Bancroft has just sent to King Edward's Hospital Fund for London his annual subscription of £50.

A distinguished audience were present to greet Mr. Cyril Maude on his opening night at the Waldorf, among them being:—The Lord Chief Justice, Mr. J. M. Barrie, Mr. Louis N. Parker, Lady Charles Beresford, Viscountess Parker, Earl of Kilmorey, Viscount Churchill, Mr. John Hare, Mr. Nat Goodwin, Mrs. McKenna, Captain Marshall, Mr. G. A. Redford, Mr. J. Comyns Carr, Colonel Ellis, Colonel Fletcher, Mr. W. S. Gilbert, Miss Madge Lessing, Mr. Kinsey Peile, Mr. C. F. Gill, K.C., Major Finlay, Miss Fortescue, Miss Lena Ashwell, Mrs. Carl Rosa, Mr. Otho Stuart, Mr. Hubert Henry Davis, and Miss Marie Tempest.

Mr. Beerbohm Tree will be supported in his creation of Nero, which is due at His Majesty's on Thursday next, by Miss Constance Collier and Mrs. Tree, and the cast will be completed by Messrs. Esme Percy, Basil Gill, Fisher White, Lyn Harding, C. W. Somerset, Robert Farquharson, James Hearn, Frank Lascelles, Henry Leslie, and Yates Southgate, and Miss Phyllis Embury, Miss Dorothea Baird, Miss May Price-Owen, and Miss Hilda Moore.

Mr. Tree's own view of the character is as idealistic as the author's. "The part," he says, "offers many opportunities to an actor. There is hardly a note in the gamut of the human emotions which is not touched by him. As Mr. Phillips has drawn him, he was a man of an infinite range of sensibility, with a fine sense of beauty, and a great imagination, with instincts of cruelty, of love, of poetry, of high idealism, and above all and through all with a strain of madness. Flattery, of course, was his ruin, and his natural egotism was magnified into a vastness of vanity by the atmosphere of adulation that surrounded him.

"Yes," continues Mr. Tree, "this part appeals to me. There are those thrills of artistic sensibility, those subtle sensations of mystery and fatefulness and inevitable tragedy, and of life's inexhaustible treasury of sensuous emotion, which stirred in Nero's heart. There are some wonderful moments in the play, such as when in the Imperial supper a young boy falls dying and sings his swan song, and all the people who have been laughing and applauding are silent when one of them touches the lad and starts back with a shriek, and when Nero bids them go on with the ceremonies, for it is but part of the game—the music playing more madly, but the people gazing with horror at the corpse, till one by one they steal away.

Mr. E. S. Willard, at the close of his New York engagement, received an ovation of an enthusiastic description rarely manifested by an audience of that city. The large New Amsterdam Theatre was crowded, the boxes and orchestra stalls being filled by fashionable society. At the end of the play flowers were thrown from boxes and stalls until the stage about Mr. Willard was fairly heaped with bouquets. In responding to the insistent demands for a speech, Mr. Willard smilingly declared that he had been made to feel so much like a prima donna that it seemed in order for him to sing an aria by way of returning adequate thanks.

Mr. Leonard Boyne, who was one of the house party at Aske Hall during the visit of the Princess Christian and Princess Victoria to the Marquis and Marchioness of Zetland, has returned to town and hopes soon to appear in London in a new play. Mr. Boyne, who has been taking a well-earned holiday after the long run of Leah Kleschna, has had some exceptionally good sport with Lord Zetland's hounds.

Miss Lena Ashwell, who is to represent Hermione and Perdita in the dramatic reading of The Winter's Tale, to be given by the British Empire Shakespeare Society on Thursday afternoon at St. Peter's Institute, Buckingham Palace Road, will be supported by Messrs. Acton Bond (under whose direction the reading will be given), Athol Stewart, Quinton McPherson, Clive Currie, Lewis Casson, Milton Rosmer, Charles Doran, Fewlass Llewellyn, Michael Sherbrooke, C. F. Collings, and Misses Eily Malyon, Alice Arden, Margaret Parker, Sybil Ruskin, Rita Tomkins, Winifred Rae, Florence Martin, and Margaret Nybloc.

Mr. John Hare's reappearance in London will be made in a new play by Captain Robert Marshall, which is to be produced at the Comedy Theatre next month. The eminent actor, whose return will be more than ordinarily welcome, will appear under the direction of Mr. Arthur Chudleigh and Mr. Charles Frohman.

Mr. Arthur Bourchier's company, under the direction of Mr. Silvanus Dauncey and Mr. M. V. Leveaux, which has been making a most successful tour of Holland with The Walls of Jericho, arrived in London on Wednesday evening and will resume the English tour at the New Theatre, Cambridge, on Monday. The final performance at the Stadsschouburg, Amsterdam, was given to a crowded house, notwithstanding that Madame Dusé opened at another theatre in the town. The company were all delighted with the cordial and enthusiastic reception given them everywhere in Holland, with the fine theatres they had played in, and with the courtesy which had been extended to them by the different managements.

An amusing account of his impressions is given by a member of the company, who says: "When the curtain fell on the third act at the Hague we could not make out what had happened. The cries of 'Bravo!' sounded exactly like wolf-noises. They were simply a series of 'Vo-vo-vo's,' which, of course, was very encouraging, but quite disconcerting until we discovered what the cries meant. The Queen-Dowager came to see us at the Hague. We felt so sorry for the people in attendance; they stood right through the performance, as there was only one place in the box that gave a good view of the stage, and of course the Queen was in that. They all seemed rather surprised at the number of cushions used by the ladies in the play. Their own furniture is all stiff and formal, and they like to sit upright in it. One of the papers went so far as to comment on the free-and-easiness of sitting upon the back of a sofa to talk to anybody; I am afraid the critic's wife must have been shocked, and rubbed it into him."

The Incorporated Stage Society will mark the second performance of their seventh season by the production of Ibsen's Lady Inger of Ostrat. The cast of the piece, which will be given on the 28th and 29th inst. at the Scala Theatre, will comprise Miss Edyth Olive and Miss Alice Crawford, and Messrs. Henry Ainley, Alfred Brydone, Harcourt Williams, Charles A. Doran, W. R. Stavely, Kenelm Foss, C. L. Delph, and Talbot Homewood. The play will be produced by Herbert Jarman.

Mr. Edward Compton celebrated his birthday in Wolverhampton on Saturday last, and a large house assembled to honour the occasion. At the end of the second act a beautiful horse-shoe of flowers from the ladies and gentlemen of the Compton Comedy Company, was handed up to Mr. Compton, who said in reply: "Ladies and Gentlemen,—You've done it! In the face of bad times, indifferent weather, and a mass of private gatherings, and last, but not least, a General Election, you have returned me at the head of the poll, for I am proud to say that this is the best week I have ever done in Wolverhampton. In bringing about this magnificent result you have bereft me of words, only my blood speaks to you in my veins, and I thank you from the bottom of my heart. I don't forget either that many of you are here to-night to do honour to my birthday, and to wish me many happy returns of the day; and again I thank you for your good wishes; but the 'happy returns' I look forward to most are the many happy return visits I hope to pay to Wolverhampton." Mr. Compton has commenced his winter and spring tour most successfully. He will celebrate the 100th performance of his successful fantastic play, To-Morrow, at Huddersfield on Wednesday.

Two actresses have within the last few days sought and found, in the Divorce Court, release from obnoxious ties, and in both cases it was with the parties unconnected with the theatrical profession that the guilt rested. Miss Isabel Jay, the charming singer and popular favourite of the Savoy and other London theatres, secured a decree nisi on the 12th inst. against Mr. Henry S. H. Cavendish, the chief figure of the notorious "Planchette" case, who admitted the misconduct with which he was charged. Mrs. Daisy Moss, also an actress, who went on the stage in order to overcome financial embarrassments, won a decree nisi on the same day against Mr. Harold Kenneth Moss, formerly a stockbroker's clerk, who likewise made a confession of his guilt.

Mr. Martin Harvey's Spring Tour was successfully inaugurated at the Opera House, Southport, on Monday, a large and enthusiastic audience greeting the popular actor's performance as Lieutenant Peresby in The Breed of the Treshams with continuous applause. It is Mr. Harvey's first appearance at the favourite Lancashire watering place, and it is interesting to note, as an instance of his magnetic personality, that numbers of Manchester and Liverpool playgoers were present on the occasion. On Thursday The Only Way was presented, Miss N. de Silva, of course, appearing as Mimi. The company which is supporting Mr. Harvey on the present tour is identical with that which rendered the same service last autumn.

Mr. George Giddens, being available for his original part in Public Opinion, Miss Emma Hutchison and Mr. Percy Hutchison have decided to start a tour of the clever comedy immediately, beginning, on February 12th, at the Grand Theatre, Croydon. The company will visit all the most important suburban Theatres and eight of the large cities.

Mr. Charles Manners and Madame Fanny Moody and the directors of the Theatre Royal Dublin were "at home" at the Theatre Royal on Thursday afternoon, 11th inst. Some fifteen hundred ladies and gentlemen availed themselves of the invitation, the guests on arrival being received by Madame Fanny Moody. Coffee, tea, and ices were served in the buffet, and a most enjoyable afternoon was spent.

The proceedings, which lasted from three till five o'clock, were enlivened by an enjoyable musical programme, all the artists giving their services. Mr. Charles Manners sang "In Sheltered Vale" and "To-morrow will be Friday; the harp solo, "Patrouille," was played by Mrs. A. E. James; "My Raptured Gaze" (from Flotow's Martha) was rendered by Mr. John Child, and the prologue to "Pagliacci" by Mr. Lewys James. "Hail, bright Abode" (from Wagner's Tannhäuser) was sung in chorus, and operatic selections were given by the orchestra, directed in turn by Herr Richard Eckhold and Mr. Cuthbert Hawley.

In the Court of King's Bench on Monday, before Mr. Justice Walton, Messrs. J. Defries and Son (Limited), decorators, of Houndsditch, brought an action against Mr. Gilbert Hare and Mrs. Brown Potter for £154, the price of electroliers and brackets supplied to the Savoy Theatre. Mr. Morton Smith, who appeared for the plaintiffs, said that Mrs. Brown Potter had become a bankrupt since the action was started, and Mr. Justice Bigham had that day held that the manager of the theatre had authority to pledge her credit for the goods. He had, therefore, only to deal with the action as against Mr. Hare, who denied that the work was done or the goods supplied for him or at his request or on his authority. The order was given, continued counsel, by Mr. Legge, the general manager of the Savoy, which was being "run" by the defendants. Mr. Legge was now dead.

Mr. Gilbert Hare said he was engaged by Mrs. Brown Potter to act in Pagliacci, which was her venture, and was produced under their joint management. Du Barri was the next play, and he was approached by Mrs. Brown Potter to continue with her in the management, she stating that she was no longer his employer and that the play was to be financed by a syndicate. He never authorised Mr. Legge to pledge his credit for the electroliers. The scenery was in no sense either the property of himself or of Mrs. Brown Potter. The hearing was continued on Wednesday, when judgment was given in favour of Mr. Hare.

Mr. William Gillette has explained his farewell speech at the Duke of York's Theatre, in which he declared his intention not to act again in London. It apears that he is destined to become a "fixed star" at one of Mr. Charles Frohman's Broadway theatres, where he will not only act but will be the stage manager of the house and have a hand in the selection of plays.

Mr. George Edwardes has maintained the prosperity of the Gaiety Theatre at a gratifying altitude. The interim dividend just declared by the directors for the half-year ended Dec. 31 is 1s. per share.

Mr. M. Russell Rosse had a rather unpleasant New Year's communication to the effect that during his absence in Ireland his flat in Buckingham-street had been burgled and goods to an extent still unknown abstracted. He at once communicated the news to his friend, Mr. Frank Weathersby, and asked him to take action in the matter and inform the police. A cheerful reply was received in which Mr. Weathersby said that he had taken the necessary steps, and that the same detective that was looking after his own predatory disappearances—viz., his fur coat and a considerable sum of money—had the dual task in hand. Up to the present, however, nothing has been reported.

On Sunday afternoon and evening last, for the second time within the month, Mr. Henry Taylor, the veteran manager and lessee of the Lyceum Theatre, Crewe, placed his theatre at the service of Committees organised to assist the sufferers by the long continual spell of short time in Crewe Works, and the unemployed of the town, sacred concerts being given, and handsome sums realised. Local artists have, on each occasion, furnished the entertainment. For several years past this generous action has been extended to aid the needy local charities.

Mr. Arthur Rousbie will revive the new version of Mr. Leo Trevor's comedy, Brother Officers, at the Garrick Theatre on Monday, with himself in his original character of the blunt and honest John Hinds, V.C., who has risen from the ranks. Miss Violet Vanbrugh will repeat her impressive creation of the Baroness Roydon, and the complete cast will comprise Messrs. Julian L'Estrange, O. B. Clarence, Walter Pearce, Alfred Bristowe, D. Imbert, Harrison Carter, F. Cecil, Charles Goodhart, and George Trollope, and Misses Kate Sergeantson, Muriel Beaumont, Elfrida Clement, Celia Powis and Annie Stuart.

Mr. Eade Montefiore's pantomime Cinderella, which recently broke all records at the Lyceum, Govan, has been turning money away nightly at the Theatre Royal, Stockton. The show is greatly admired for its brightness in all departments, and may be termed one of the most perfect entertainments of its kind on the road. During the next fortnight the pantomime will be at the Theatre Royal, South Shields—near Newcastle, the scene of its solid triumph last season.

We regret to announce the death on Sunday last of Mr. Herman Merivale, the well-known playwright. Son of the late Herman Merivale, Under-Secretary of State for India and the Colonies, and nephew of the late Dean Merivale, of Ely Cathedral, Mr. Merivale passed a brilliant youth at Harrow and Oxford. Passing thence with a fine record in honours, he was called to the Bar; but a longing for literature and the stage seized him, and he devoted all his spare time thereto. Mr. Merivale, who formed deep friendships with the Keans, Irving, and Miss Terry, finally abandoned politics, and settled down entirely to literature. Among his best-known plays are The White Pilgrim, Ravenswood, produced by the late Sir Henry Irving at the Lyceum Theatre, Fedora, produced at the Haymarket, Forget-Me-Not, which has been played in every corner of the globe, and, in company with his talented wife, The Butler and The Don, produced by Mr. Toole. In latter years, the loss of all his money, through a fraudulent solicitor, greatly broke Mr. Merivale's health, and the big benefit Mr. Tree gave at His Majesty's will still be fresh in people's minds.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bacon, who many years ago won celebrity as a vocalist under the name of Miss Poole, died on Monday at Langley, Bucks. Miss Poole, who retired in 1870, had a mezzo-soprano voice of remarkable sweetness and power, and her repertory of operatic rôles was a very extensive one. She also attained eminence as a ballad singer.

The Children's Fancy Dress Ball at the Mansion House the other day was graced by the presence of Master Jack and Miss Margaret Harvey, who appeared in character as Mr. and Mrs. Martin Harvey.

Over 10,000 performances in England alone is the marvellous record of that wonderful play The Private Secretary, which looks like running on for ever. Mr. Eugène C. Stafford, the original Manager from the Globe Theatre, is still booking this merry comedy, and has re-engaged Mr. Donald Price-Evans to play the Rev. Robert Spalding. The Autumn Tour starts at the Theatre Royal, Middlesbrough, on August Bank Holiday, under the personal direction of Mr. Stafford.

Mr. William Lockhart wishes to thank all those who have so enthusiastically taken up his suggestion made in The Era last week with regard to registering apartments. He finds it impossible to answer the numerous letters he has received personally.

Mr. Duncan Tovey, whose admirable acting has always been a feature of the entertainments given periodically by members of the London Scottish, has a part in the pantomime Beauty and the Beast, with which Mr. Clarence Sonnes opened his handsome new Prince's Theatre, at Poplar, at Christmas. His brother members of the regimental corps accordingly intend to visit the theatre informally on Tuesday, and to hold a "London Scottish night," in order to celebrate their comrade's return to the stage. The hope is expressed that every member of the corps will make an effort to be present at the gathering, for which the front rows of the stalls will be specially reserved.

The entire touring rights of Mr. Popple (of Ippleton) have been secured by Mr. Charles Macdona, who purposes sending out two companies, starting from August Bank Holiday, and is arranging for the services of a well-known star and also a very strong cast in connection with this latest success from the Apollo. This enterprising manager will have his hands full in August, for during that month he will also send out companies with eight of the most notable London "hits," and possibly two other pieces for which he is at present negotiating.

The Theatre Royal, Coatbridge, has now been acquired by the Coatbridge Theatre Company, of which Mr. R. C. Buchanan, of Glasgow, is Managing Director, several local gentlemen being interested in the undertaking. The bookings will now be made in conjunction with the other fourteen theatres owned by the company.

The funeral of Mr. James Sheering, whose death was recorded in our last issue, took place at Greenbank Cemetery, Bristol. Mr. James Macready Chute, of the Prince's Theatre, and Mr. George Chapman, the conductor of the orchestra, were present at the ceremony. Three generations of the family were numbered among the mourners, the principals being Mrs. Bainton (daughter), Mr. W. Bainton (grandson), Mrs. Leftwich (granddaughter), Miss Bainton (granddaughter), Mrs. Cooke (granddaughter), Mr. Cooke, Mr. J. Bainton (grandson), Mrs. J. Bainton, Miss Ruby Bainton (granddaughter), Miss Leftwich (great-granddaughter), and Mr. J. Bamford. The service was read by the Rev. John Webster, vicar of Holy Trinity. Among those who sent wreaths were Mrs. Bainton, Mr. W. Bainton, Mr. J. Bainton, Mr. and Mrs. Cooke, Miss F. Bainton, Miss R. Bainton, "Baby Jim," Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chute, Miss Christine Chute, Mrs. Leftwich, Mr. C. Knapp, Mr. and Miss Morgan, Miss Ellen Chute, Mr. William Chute, and Messrs. Tanner and Sons.

The German Company are entering upon their last weeks of the present season at the Great Queen-street Theatre. Mr. Hans Andresen, in response to numerous requests, will give two final performances of Alt Heidelberg on the evenings of Jan. 25 and 26, and Der Militairstaat, a comedy by G. von Moser and Thilo von Trotha, will be produced on Saturday, Jan. 27.

Mr. Alfred Lester, who exerts such a droll influence in the part of The Dame at the Kennington Theatre, went down to Brighton on Sunday last to give selections from his songs and recitations on the West Pier. The clever comedian's entertainment was a great success.

The Tunbridge Wells Opera House has been doing excellent business this week with Cinderella. Next year Mr. Charles Carey will produce his own pantomime there, the subject chosen being Dick Whittington. Mr. Carey is to be congratulated on the bookings his enterprise has obtained for this beautiful theatre, of which the Moody Manners Opera Company, The Eternal City, The White Chrysanthemum, and his own successful musical comedy, After the Ball, may be cited in proof of their excellence.

The D'Oyly Carte Opera Company, which is making a tour of the world with the Gilbert and Sullivan masterpieces from the Savoy, has won the highest praise in Cape Town, where they opened at the Opera House on Boxing Day with The Mikado before a crowded audience, who were delighted with the work and its representation. Mr. Albert Kavanagh in the title-rôle, Mr. Fred Billington as Pooh-Bah, Mr. Pacie Ripple as Nanki-Poo, Mr. C. H. Workman as Ko-Ko, Miss Nancie Freyne as Yum-Yum, Miss Jessie Rose as Pitti-Sing, and Miss Theresa Rassam as Katisha have all secured high encomiums, and Mr. Leicester Tunks, Mr. Fred Drawater, and Miss Mabel Burnege have also become big favourites. A six weeks' stay at Cape Town will be followed by a season at Kimberley, and afterwards the company go to Johannesburg for twelve weeks.

An artistic programme well worthy of preservation as a souvenir is supplied to the patrons of the New Theatre, where The Scarlet Pimpernel is continuing on a successful career. The programme contains sketches of some striking scenes in the play, and portraits of Mr. Fred Terry and Miss Julia Neilson, in their impersonations of Sir Percy and Lady Blakeney, and others of the principal characters. The experiment, which is primarily due to Mr. A. F. Henderson, has proved eminently satisfactory, as the circulation of the programmes is more than doubled, members of the audience frequently applying for additional copies.

Miss Fanny Wright, in consequence of Miss Godwyn Earle retiring from the engagement as principal boy at the Alexandra Theatre, Stoke Newington, has assumed the part, and will sustain it during the run of the pantomime.

The Hastings Gaiety Theatre, which was closed on Monday in consequence of the General Election, was put to a novel use by the energetic and popular resident-manager, Mr. Charles E. Scutt, who conducted an open competition as to the result, the prize being a box at the theatre on the following evening. Over 1,800 persons competed, and the winner, who came within two of Mr. H. Du Cros' majority, duly occupied the box, which was decorated for the occasion.

Mr. Holberry Hardy, the new manager of the Theatre Royal, Rotherham, has quickly obtained the goodwill of his staff by his geniality and strict sense of duty, and these qualities were recognised a short time ago by the presentation to him of several articles of virtu. Mr. A. B. Cross, who made the presentation, added his good wishes to those of the staff, and Mr. Hardy suitably responded.

Mr. Nat Goodwin is shortly to be seen again in London, an arrangement having been made with Mr. Thomas Ryley by which the popular American actor will produce at the Shaftesbury some time next month the New York success, A Gilded Fool, by Henry Guy Carlton. The play is decidedly American in tone, and before being introduced to London playgoers will receive attention at the hands of a well-known author.

Mr. Cyril Maude will add to the burden of his responsibilities at the Waldorf by appearing during the first week of February in a series of matinées of George Colman jun.'s five-act comedy The Heir-at-Law. Mr. Maude will in this revival play Dr. Pangloss, and the cast will include Mr. Charles Allan, Mr. Sydney Brough, Mrs. Charles Calvert, Miss Janet Alexander, and Miss Jessie Bateman.

Miss Vane Featherstone, after paying all the expenses of her recent Tea Party, was able to add the generous sum of £266 17s. to the resources of the Theatrical Christmas Dinner Fund.

Tom Taylor's historical drama, 'Twixt Axe and Crown, will be revived by Mrs. Russ Whytall at the Grand Theatre, Fulham, on Monday, February 19th. The part of Princess Elizabeth, originally played by the "beautiful" Mrs. Rousby, will be undertaken by Mrs. Whytall. Mr. John Beauchamp, Mr. J. J. Bartlett, Mr. Godfrey Tearle, Miss Mabel Knowles, and Miss Geraldine Olliffe are also in the cast.

"The Little Stranger," a three-act comedy by Michael Morton, which was produced at the Grand Theatre, Middlesbrough, in October last, has been to some extent revised by the author, and will be produced in the West-End by Mr. Frank Curzon within the next few weeks. An amusing idea—that of a baby into whose body the spirit of his father has passed—is worked out in the play, which quite took the attention of provincial audiences.

Miss Naomi Neilson, who is playing the part of Mrs. Mulholland in the production of The Duke of Killicrankie at the Cork Opera House this week, met with an accident on the passage over, being thrown out of her berth and bruised. She nevertheless played the part with her customary success.

Mr. J. Henry Twyford has accepted a special offer from Mr. Frank Bertram to play Mr. Martin Harvey's part in his company of The Breed of the Treshams.

Mr. Lewis Casson played the part of Adolphus Cusins in Major Barbara at the Court Theatre last Saturday and Monday in place of Mr. Granville Barker. This is the third time within the last year or so that Mr. Casson has been called on to play a part he has been understudying, the other parts being Laertes, at the Adelphi, and the Old Huntsman in Hyppolytus, at the Court.

Mr. Henry Renouf has been engaged by Mr. Arthur Collins for Magnus in the spring tour of The Prodigal Son, and thus resumes acquaintance after a long period with Drury-lane drama. Mr. Renouf will be remembered as leading man for the late Sir Augustus Harris, playing in many of the celebrated dramas with which that gentleman was associated. Mr. Renouf was also the original John Storm in the tour of Mr. Hall Caine's Christian, playing the part for three years and a half. More recent assumptions have been those of the title-rôle in Mons. Beaucaire on tour, Prince Dmitri in Mr. Tree's Resurrection company, and Denis Mallory in Mr. Louis Calvert's tour of The Garden of Lies, which went out last spring.

Mr. Allan Wilkie, who played Mathias in his own version of The Sleigh-Bells for the first time at Hoyland last week, met with great success in the part. He was called before the curtain no less than eleven times at the end of the play, the audience demanding a speech before they would consent to be dismissed. For the future this play will occupy a regular place in the répertoire of Mr. Wilkie, whose spring bookings include Dublin, Jersey (where he plays a three weeks' stock season), Tunbridge Wells and Ipswich.

Mr. G. Morton-Williams, who recently concluded an eighteen months' engagement as heavy lead with Messrs. Bertram's The Convict's Daughter company, has been re-engaged by the same management to play the part of Colonel Hungerford in their spring tour of The Breed of the Treshams.

The Playgoers' Club will this afternoon entertain some 2,500 children at the Britannia Theatre, where the Pantomime of King Wow Wow is pursuing its merry career. In connection with this treat, Miss Jessie Preston, the Principal Boy of the Pantomime, has very generously contributed to the Playgoers' Club Children's Fund a sum sufficient to provide a substantial feast for 1000 of the poor children of Hoxton.

Mrs. Brown-Potter's unfortunate enterprise at the Savoy Theatre was mentioned before Mr. Justice Bingham, in the Court of Bankruptcy, on Monday, when the Partington Advertising Company appealed against the rejection by Mrs. Potter's trustee in bankruptcy of a proof for £137 for advertising the Du Barry play. The trustee's case was that Mrs. Brown-Potter and Mr. Gilbert Hare were only responsible for the theatre from August, 1904, to Feb. 4, 1905, and that from then till Easter, 1905, Mrs. Potter and Mr. Hare were "mere salaried players," under Mr. Alfred Fossick, a Maidenhead solicitor, who, said Mr. Powell Williams, K.C., financed the play with other people's money, and had been sentenced to a term of penal servitude. The judge decided that Mrs. Brown-Potter should be held responsible for the contract, and the appeal was allowed.

The new Royalty Theatre programme for next week is a well-varied one. On Monday will be given the first performance of Le Barbier de Seville and that charming one-act play Le Cœur a ses Raisons, in which Mlle. Marie Leconte should make an exquisite Rosine. M. de Féraudy will resume the part of Figaro. On Wednesday M. de Féraudy will appear in his own dramatization of M. Jules Claretie's novel "Brichanteau," playing the part of a successful comedian. London will, in this instance, witness the production of a French play before Paris. On Thursday evening M. Silvain (Sociétaire de la Comedie Française), Mme. Silvain (de la Comedie Française), ing M. Silvain (Societaire de la Comédie Française), will make their first appearance in Le Père Lebonnard, the hundredth performance of which in Paris will thus coincide with its first London production. It is a long-standing custom in France to organise a fête in honour of the author whose play has attained its century, but on account of M. Silvain's visit to London, this ceremony has had to be deferred, and Mr. Gaston Mayer has accordingly invited the author, M. Jean Aicard, to attend the London production on Thursday.

The directors of the Stadsschouburg, Amsterdam, where Mr. Silvanus Dauncey and Mr. M. V. Leveaux produced The Walls of Jericho, sent a beautiful wreath to Miss Dorothy Thomas, the leading lady of the company, on the second evening of her appearance there, and a similar courtesy was extended to Miss Thomas by the directors of the Groote Schouwburg, Rotterdam, on the opening performance in that Theatre.

Mr. T. W. Rowe, of the Palace Theatre, Newcastle-on-Tyne, travelled expressly to town to see the Royal West London Pantomime, and immediately arranged for its transference to his house on Monday, the 29th inst. This will be the second time that this version of Little Red Riding Hood has been selected to follow Mr. J. F. Elliston's well-known production of Aladdin.

Mrs. Culling has been re-engaged to play the leading rôles with the stock company at the Theatre Royal, Canterbury, and has also been cast for Lady Alethea in the frothcoming production at Canterbury of Mr. Sutro's play, The Walls of Jericho.

Mr. J. Bannister-Howard's pantomime is in its last week at the King's Theatre, Gateshead, and a complimentary benefit will be given to Mr. Howard to-night (Saturday), all the prices being doubled. Aladdin is a very gratifying success, hundreds have been turned away nightly, and Mr. Howard's only regret is that he cannot prolong his visit, as all arrangements are complete to open at the Theatre Royal, Hull, on Monday week.

Miss Sophie Harriss, whose fine impersonation of Robin Hood in Mr. Eade Montefiore's Pantomime at the Grand Theatre, Nottingham, has secured her hosts of admirers, entertained her confrères in the company and several local notabilities to supper at the George Hotel there on Sunday evening. Amongst those present were Mr. Baron Harriss, Mr. H. A. S. Grant, Mr. C. Ford-Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fischer, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rolph, Mr. T. de Banzie, Mr. Hugh Fleming, Mr. J. T. Macmillan, the four sisters Tree, the Brothers Lorenzi, the Sisters Phillips, Miss Renée Lancaster, Miss Maisie Rawlings, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rokeby, Mrs. Goodal, Miss Edyth Goodal, Miss McGann, Mr. Collingwood Hope, and Miss Lorenzi. The repast was followed by a most enjoyable conversazione, a pleasant feature of the evening's proceedings being the presentation by the charming hostess of a handsome silver cigarette case to Mr. Hugh Fleming, Mr. Montefiore's popular acting-manager, who is resuming his former position with Mr. George Musgrove's Prince of Pilsen company.

Mr. Walter Maxwell, who has the exclusive dramatic rights of Mr. Guy Thorne's novel "When it was Dark," will produce a play founded on this story on Monday, February 12th, at the County Theatre, Kingston. The adaptation has been made specially for Mr. Maxwell by the Rev. Forbes Phillips, Vicar of Gorleston, and the production is in the experienced hands of Mr. Frank Vernon. The play will go on tour for a few weeks, visiting the principal towns. The Right Rev. the Bishop of London, it may be stated, preached no fewer than seven times in eulogy of this remarkable story.

Mr. Beerbohm Tree's presentation of The Enemy of the People at His Majesty's Theatre on Thursday evening last was as keenly enjoyed as the memorable revival at the same house on the afternoon of Nov. 2. Few, if any, changes have been made in the cast; but it should be noted that Mr. James Hearn is very successful in the character of Peter Stockmann, formerly sustained by Mr. John Beauchamp; and that Mr. William H. Day is seen to real advantage in the rôle of Morten Kiil, which on the previous occasion fell to the lot of Mr. George Shelton. The other members of the cast are as efficient and artistic as ever. Mr. Tree has improved his fine creation of Stockmann greatly, taking a slightly more serious view of this character; and he also gives his wonderfully intense and thrilling performance of the part of Austin Limmason in The Man Who Was, which follows the Ibsen play.

Mr. J. Bannister Howard, who has been practically a continuous W.M. for three years, and has retired from the degree, is now holding the position of I.P.M. both of the Yorick Lodge 2705 and La Tolerance 538.

Mr. Sydney Alport's friends will be sorry to learn that in consequence of a serious relapse which happened last September, it was found necessary to send him from London to Ventnor for atment for consumption. Through the kindness of the Actors' Benevolent Fund, under the late David James's bequest to that Institution, he was provided with a letter of admission, for the second time, to one of the Ventnor sanatoriums. Under the best treatment and in the pure air of the Isle of Wight, it is to be hoped that Mr. Alport will quickly recover. He is sadly wasted away.

Miss Kitty Loftus, in consequence of slight indisposition, is staying at Brighton, prior to accepting an engagement for South Africa.

The Royalty Theatre, Limited, was registered on January 12 with a capital of £5000 in £1 shares. The object of the company is to occupy the Royalty Theatre, London, and to carry on the business of theatrical proprietors, managers, and agents generally. The first directors are T. F. Maher, D. J. G. Lawson, T. Brumby, A. G. Ankers, W. C. Davis, H. Bundy, and A. G. Beaumont. There is no initial public issue.

FRENCH PLAYS AT THE ROYALTY.

"LE PAON,"
Comedy, in Verse, in Three Acts, by Francis de Croisset, Produced at the Royalty Theatre, on Monday, Jan. 15.

Boursoufle ..... M. De Feraudy
Frontin ..... M. G. Laine
De Brécy ..... M. Laumonnier
De Lussac ..... M. Dauvilliers
Subtil ..... M. Henry-Houry
Patu ..... M. Mondet
Le Marquis ..... M. M. Lagrange
Gratelard ..... M. Romanet
Le Comte ..... M. Spitalie
La Flèche ..... M. Defrenne
Le Facteur ..... M. Sigaud
Annette ..... Mme. Marie Leconte
Lucinde ..... Mdlle. Denise Morena
Corysande ..... Mdlle. R. Thorigny
Azais ..... Mdlle. G. Madge
Eglé ..... Mdlle. Jane Marnac

When Charles Surface's Uncle Oliver intimated to him, in connection with the fearful family portraits, that they didn't make such men and women nowadays, Charles, in complete assent, breathed a cheerful ejaculation; and there are many Philistines on this side of the Channel who may make a similar remark concerning M. Francis de Croisset's comedy, Le Paon, which was performed at the Royalty Theatre on Monday last. We have certainly nothing like it in England. The toleration, not to say the enjoyment, of a piece like Le Paon presupposes an intelligent and cultivated public meeting the author half-way, on the alert for any happy expression or well-turned phrase, and with its collective mind watchful for any intellectual power which the writer may exhibit; also a company of artists who give each line, each word, their exact value. What prevents Le Paon from being a wearisome work, in spite of the simplicity of its "fable," is the dash of philosophic consideration—of character analysis. In Le Paon these qualities are not very plentiful; but there are, as the analysts say, "traces of them"—enough to prevent us brushing the piece aside as a mere tiresome trifle.

The purely literary quality of Le Paon is not very high. It contains none of those happy lines or couplets that remain in the memory after one has forgotten even the story and the characters of a piece; with instances of which the works of Hugo and Augier teem. But the verse has always the proper number of feet, and is always to the point; and it is never allowed to overload the plot. A significant fact is that the play, in its printed form, has gone into a second edition in Paris; and that, after the production at the Comédie Française in 1904, it was thought good enough to present as a sample of modern French dramatism to an English audience in a London theatre.

It is not for nothing that K. Croisset has put his date back to 1780, a "period" in which elegant libertinism seems a matter of fashion, and morality appears, like Ko-Ko's flowers in the spring, to have "nothing to do with the case." There is a lingering Watteau odour about these Barons and Marquises and "fancy" peasantesses, who never seem to have any work to do, and who wear the daintiest costumes, boldly decolletées. The hero, the Baron Boursoufle, is a generous, kind-hearted fellow, but inordinately vain. His valet, who talks in a literary vein quite in keeping with the phantasy of the whole work, thus describes the Baron, in Alexandrines, of which the following may give an idea:—

He is a peacock. Tease a turkey, and
He swells and struts in indignation grand.
Kick at a cock, he darts a blow at you
Of beak or spur, with—cock-a-doodle-do!
A peacock simply stands and spreads his tail;
A "great attraction," never known to fail.
Such is my master. As he speaks, he swells.
All eyes are on him; every gesture tells
He knows he is admired. He preens his plumes.
Annoy him, and he angers not—he fumes.
So does a peacock. Hit at him in play,
He will not fight, he will not run away;
But with a scream, he rends the air—and ear;
A cry of wounded vanity, not fear.
Leave him unnoticed, and he drops his flag;
Its glories all along the garden drag;
No more the splendid "symphony" we see.
Such is Boursoufle, my master—such is he!

The Baron, when out shooting, has seen at a window Annette, the pretty daughter of the old inn-keeper, Patu, and has wagered with his companion De Brécy, that he will, without the assistance of his rank, win the girl's heart. Under the name of Janel, he makes her acquaintance, and dazzles her by his volubility, and by the vast extent of his information—he "crams" industriously from various text-books. To the ignorant Annette he seems a prodigy, and, compared with the louts of her village, something divine. Brécy owns himself a loser, but protests that Boursoufle has only half-proved his case. To create full conviction, he must carry the girl off to Paris; and this Boursoufle boastfully agrees to do. Patu plays into his hands by trying to force his daughter to marry a blockhead named Ferrat; and Annette, to Boursoufle's immense surprise, throws herself into his arms, and begs him to take her away with him at once. He conveys her to his country house, and there his inordinate vanity makes him have her trained to dance and sing, so that he may bring her out on the stage as a rival to his former mistress, Lucinde, an actress of repute. Annette breaks down from sheer fright at a kind of dress-rehearsal before Boursoufle's friends, and his wounded vanity inclines him to throw her over. But even that he must do en prince. So he makes over to her his country house, with all its appurtenances. Lucinde, a woman of the world who understands the situation completely, sympathises with, and advises Annette, who induces De Brécy to pose as her lover. When Annette becomes fashionable, Boursoufle grows fond of her; and this feeling is increased by the way in which she politely "snubs" him, Lucinde at the same time throwing him over for the sake of a certain Prince. Boursoufle, be it understood, is by no means a mere mass of conceit. He is kind hearted, brave, and generous, and, as his valet says, his love of display, his boastfulness, and his passion for parade, are poetical and boyish defects, not to be weighed against his virtues. Annette has never ceased to love him; and when he fights a duel with De Brécy, and is slightly wounded, her affection is revealed, and Boursoufle, realising that De Brécy has never been her lover, asks her to marry him. There is a very pretty scene, in which she gently touches on his great fault, and tenderly advises him to correct it. She says, in excellent French Alexandrines:—

O, child that you are! Be as vain as can be;
But not for the world, dear—for me, only me!
In public, be modest. It hurts me to hear
The horrible things that they say of you, dear.
Keep conceit for us only; with others, retire.
Let me be your audience! I'll always admire!

And then Boursoufle resolves to be "simple," to settle down in a village, with all the poetic accompaniments of rurality. For a moment he forgets, in his elation, his promises of reform. He becomes "lyrical," and cries: "Everyone shall talk of my generosity, of my bounty, of my proverbial, my magnificent simplicity! I'll astonish them all!" "Hush!" says Annette, holding up an admonitory finger. "You are right!" says Boursoufle, remorsefully. "I am beginning again, already!"

In a performance of this sort, the great thing is all-round excellence of interpretation; and, with two Sociétaires of the Comédie Française in the cast of Le Paon, that was assured. Both M. de Feraudy, who played Boursoufle, and Mme. Marie Leconte, the Annette, are highly-trained and expert artists, and both appeared to great advantage. M. Laumonnier was brisk and alert as Brécy; and Miss Denise Morena, if her diction was not quite as polished as that of the other principals, was bright, animated, and expressive as Lucinde. M. G. Laine deserves special praise as the valet, Frontin; and the other members of the cast were clever and competent. Some monologues, delivered by M. de Féraudy and Mdlle. Marie Leconte, were excellent examples of high-class French recitation. Mr. Julian Hicks's scenery was very pretty indeed, and quite in harmony with the spirit of the play.

"LIGHTS OUT" AT THE SAVOY.

On Monday evening the English version of Franz Adam Beyerlein's play, entitled Lights Out, was transferred from the Waldorf Theatre to the Savoy, the first-mentioned house having been given up to Mr. Cyril Maude for the production of Mr. Sidney Bowkett's new play, The Superior Miss Pellender. The German piece is well worth witnessing, if only on account of three or four exceptionally strong scenes, which, played with vigour and feeling, powerfully impress an audience. Moreover, Lights Out presents a vivid picture of military life in Germany; the characters seem to have been taken from life; and the story, sad and sinister as the end is, has the saving grace of humour. It may be said that Corporal Queiss, as played by Mr. Charles Weir, is not in any respect a German soldier. The corporal is an Englishman—there is nothing of the foreigner about him, but we welcome him all the same as a relief to this gloomy, depressing story of love and murder. There are many who would have preferred a happy ending. Why does not Lieutenant Von Lauffen come forward in manly fashion, and at least attempt to appease the angry father by offering to marry the girl who has loved him "not wisely, but too well"? But it would be too tame and conventional a conclusion for the modern dramatist.

The changes in the cast call for attention first of all. Mr. Leslie Faber now plays the part of Lieutenant von Lauffen in succession to Mr. H. B. Irving. It is a character with which the audience can have no sympathy, because, having done Klara Volkhardt a wrong, he does not adopt "the only way out," and make the girl his wife. He bears the tempest of the old man's wrath, and then, letting his head fall upon his arms, allows things to take their course. He is paralysed at the prospect of a mesalliance, and the result is a terrible tragedy. Mr. Leslie Faber does his best to conceal the weakness of the character, and is surprisingly successful. Playing with intensity and earnestness throughout, he presents the lieutenant as a young man with a good deal of the boy about him—the spoilt boy, who all his life has never been refused a thing he wanted. Lauffen, if he is deficient in moral courage, has plenty of pluck, and bears himself at the Court Martial with the same resolute spirit that he faces Sergeant Volkhardt's revolver. The physical bravery of the man is admirably indicated by Mr. Faber, and his whole performance deserves the warmest commendation. The other important change in the representation is that Mr. W. T. Lovell follows Mr. Dawson Millward in the part of Lieutenant von Howen, and on Monday night the audience were emphatic in their verdict of approval. As the candid friend of Lauffen, Mr. Lovell plays in an easy, natural style that is quite convincing and satisfactory. The only other change in the cast is that Mr. Charles Franks takes the place of Mr. Henry Vibart as Major Paschke, the President of the Court Martial, and endows the part with the requisite quality of dignity. Mr. H. V. Esmond continues to represent the rôle of Corporal Helbig, and in his hands the character stands out prominently in the picture of military life in the small German garrison town. Nothing is wanting in Mr. Esmond's thoroughly sound portrayal of the young soldier—his keen disappointment at discovering the change in his old sweetheart Klara, his dismay and outburst of rage on finding the girl in Lauffen's quarters, and, above all, his haggard despair as he stands half-fainting in the presence of the Court Martial, and presently, overcome by weakness, collapses on the wooden seat. Mr. Charles Fulton's Sergeant Volkhardt is a remarkably powerful embodiment of the old soldier who regards his good name above all things; and in the last act his denunciation of Lauffen, and then of his daughter, when she asserts her determination to stay with the man she loves, is a most convincing piece of acting, that holds the house spellbound. Mr. Charles Weir gives a capital sketch of the woman-hating Corporal Queiss, and is the rough, matter-of-fact soldier to the life. "Let her go—let 'em all go," is his advice to Helbig; and there is no mistaking his blunt sincerity. Mr. Arthur Walcott helps to brighten the piece by his impersonation of Private Michael, and in this laudable work he has the assistance of Mr. Philip Darwin as Private Speiss, Mr. C. F. Collings as Captain von Bannewitz, and Mr. Albert Sims as an orderly, who is bound hand and foot by military red-tapeism. There is only one female part in the play, Klara Volkhardt, and this rôle is happily entrusted to Miss Eva Moore, who invests the character with a delightful womanly charm. Her love for the handsome young lieutenant is prettily expressed, and Miss Moore's acting in the Court Martial scene, and again in the last act, is as effective as it is natural and artistic. To her finished performance much of the success of the military play is undoubtedly due. Minor rôles receive careful treatment from Messrs. Roland Cunningham, Leslie Victor, Fewlass Llewellyn, C. Rutland, Carlton Brough, F. W. Permain, and R. S. Boleyn. In its new home, Lights Out had a very cordial and encouraging reception on Monday evening.

The principal piece is preceded by the mimo drame in one act, entitled La Main, in which Miss Camilla Dalberg repeats her clever and graceful embodiment of Vivette the actress; and Mr. Akerman May as the Baron, and Mr. Philipp Lesing as the Burglar, also play their parts in expressive pantomime that wins ready recognition.

Mr. Alfred Manners, the proprietor and manager of the Queen's Theatre, Swindon, with characteristic generosity gave his annual sacred concert on Sunday last, in aid of the local hospital, the funds of that institution being swelled by the sum of £35. The theatre was densely crowded with an appreciative audience, and a really excellent programme, largely contributed to by members of Mr. George Dance's Orchid company, was thoroughly enjoyed.

"THE SUPERIOR MISS PELLENDER."

Comedy in Three Acts, by Sidney Bowkett.
Produced at the Waldorf Theatre, on Wednesday, Jan. 17.

Mrs. Pellender ..... Miss Winifred Emery
Miss Pellender ..... Miss Beatrice Ferrar
Edith ..... Miss Dagmar Wiehe
Nancy ..... Miss Madge Titheradge
Noel ..... Mr. Robert Bottomley
Mr. Tister ..... Mr. Cyril Maude

What a slight, simple play is The Superior Miss Pellender! and yet how it wins us, charms us, pleases us, lays us in an atmosphere of comfort, refinement, and matter-of-course security. Oh, fortunate ones at Abingdon who are ignorant of your happiness! The Pellenders' place there is in a backwater, and they live, figuratively speaking, in a similar position. The rush of the great stream of life does not disturb them; the lilies—or are they lotuses?—bloom placidly on the surface of the still water. Thus blest a life these Pellenders display; thus idly happy rolls their life away. Yet, even here, the roseleaves will develop creases. In this harmonious oaken-panelled hall picked out so delicately with Delft and pewter, worries will intrude themselves, and to Mrs. Pellender, the gentle and amiable widow-mother, her little difficulty seems intensely important. Each member of the family is strongly characteristic. There is Edith, a malade imaginaire, who is always complaining of ill-health, so as to be spared the dusting of the drawing-room; there is Nancy, a tom-boy of fourteen, with a wealth of dark hair; there is Noel, a mischievous, impudent youth, who freely satirises his sisters; and there is also the eldest, Miss Pellender—the "superior" Miss Pellender—as crisp as a biscuit and as sharp as a knife. Miss Pellender, otherwise Grace, is the terror of the family. Rigidly logical, she deals with everything in stern, sententious phrases; and when her mother falls in love with a diffident gentleman named Tister, she feels the greatest reluctance to break the news to her smart and unsparing child. Grace considers that for a mother to engage herself a second time without consulting her children by the first marriage is absolutely immoral. This is exactly what Mrs. Pellender has done; and there is a very comical consultation between her and her fiancé as to how the news shall be "broken." As she cannot muster up courage to "confess" to her family, they are in the dark as to the object of Tister's visits; and when he tries to make himself particularly agreeable to Grace, she arrives at the conclusion that her mother is offering him to her as a suitor. The idea of being disposed of without her wish or consent is very irritating to Miss Pellender's superiority, and in the last act, when her mother and Mr. Tister try to explain matters, she bitterly resents their imagined attempt to provide her with a husband. Things are now worse than ever; for Mrs. Pellender feels that Grace, when she discovers the truth, will be more than ever opposed to the marriage. Tister, in desperation, proposes a plan. They shall elope! After a frenzied appeal to Bradshaw, they agree to get away to Oxford on Tister's launch, thence to take train for London, and be "made one" by special licence. And they escape accordingly, leaving a note which the "superior" Miss Pellender reads with amazement and horror as the curtains close down.

Mr. Sidney Bowkett's little comedy needed most delicate handling, and it had it at the hands of Mr. Cyril Maude and his company. Nothing could have been more winning, more affecting, and more artistic than Miss Winifred Emery's Mrs. Pellender. Its effect was irresistible. The still-pretty woman, who finds herself in love for the first time; her kind, considerate, and unselfish attitude towards everybody, and her loving toleration of her troublesome family; her amusing worship of the romantic and sentimental Tister; and withal her extremely practical purview of her little sphere—all were indicated by Miss Winifred Emery with a skill, a refinement, and a charm which can hardly be over-praised. There is one passage—a little rhapsody on Youth—that has the real literary ring, and this was delivered by Miss Emery with admirable daintiness and pathos. Mr. Cyril Maude, as the diffident, hesitating, and chivalrous Mr. Tister, gave a rendering which was the acme of quiet, unforced comedy. Polished, acute, and always diverting and expressive, Mr. Maude's Tister takes a place in the long list of his comedy successes. Good breeding peeped through all the oddities of the lover, and common sense through the aberrations caused by his reverent adoration of his goddess. A better choice than that of Miss Beatrice Ferrar for the part of Miss Pellender could not have been made. She looked every inch the perfectly equipped, self-satisfied, sternly "superior" Miss Pellender, and acted with a clear-cut confidence which gave the rôle its proper prominence in the piece. Miss Dagmar Wiehe was quite easy and natural as the languid Edith; Miss Madge Titheradge was agreeably impulsive and unconscious as Nancy; and Mr. Robert Bottomley scored well with a very active and diverting impersonation of Noel. The scenery, by Mr. Walter Hann, was quite idyllic, the lovely old-fashioned riparian house with its quaint architecture and flowering creepers being a dream of calm delight. The real launch which was introduced in the second act worked well, and altogether the atmosphere of luxurious simplicity was very cleverly created.

The Superior Miss Pellender was preceded by a piece in one act, taken by Edward Knoblauch from Max Maurey's L'Asile de Nuit, played for the first time, and entitled—

"THE PARTIK'LER PET."

Tutt ..... Mr. Cecil Maude
Nicholls ..... Mr. F. Percival Stevens
"Skilly" ..... Mr. G. M. Graham

The "notion" of this sketch is slight but ingenious. Nicholls, the self-important Superintendent of a casual ward, is much vexed by reading the revelations of the "Amateur Casuals" of the Press, who, in disguise, obtain materials for critical articles. A real tramp named Tutt arrives at the ward over which Nicholls presides, and claims a night's lodging; and the Superintendent, taking him for a reporter in search of "copy," loads him with courtesies and presents, and tells him to stay as long as he pleases.

Artistic merit is supplied by the finished character-studies given by the three artists who appear in the piece. Mr. Cyril Maude's make-up, voice, and bearing as Tutt are wonderful in their elaborate art, and he plays the part with most quaint and insinuating humour. Mr. F. Percival Stevens is admirably realistic and natural as the "puffy" but politic Superintendent, and a very curious and original representation of a cringing pauper—a completely individual creation—is contributed by Mr. G. M. Graham.

Mr. Maude has opened his season at the Waldorf under excellent auspices.

THE "ELECTRA" OF EURIPIDES.

Translated by Gilbert Murray, and Produced at the Court Theatre, on Tuesday Afternoon, Jan. 16.

Electra ..... Miss Edith Wynne-Matthison
Clytemnestra ..... Miss Edith Olive
Orestes ..... Mr. R. Harcourt Williams
A Peasant ..... Mr. Stratton Rodney
An Old Man ..... Mr. J. H. Barnes
A Messenger ..... Mr. Hubert Harben
Pylades ..... Mr. Frederick Lloyd
Castor ..... Mr. Lewis Casson
Leader of Chorus ..... Miss Gertrude Scott
Chorus:—Miss Gwendolen Bishop, Miss Amy Lamborn, Miss Vera Longden, Miss Violet Myers, Miss M. Saumarez, Miss Elaine Sladdall, Miss Hazel Thompson, Miss Penelope Wheeler.

That theatre of the intellectuals—the Court—was filled on Tuesday afternoon with a highly-cultured audience, to give welcome to Professor Gilbert Murray's translation of the Electra of Euripides, which we may say at once, by its beauty, dignity, and impressiveness, completely justified its presentation in a house noted for high artistic endeavours. Mr. Murray, in his introduction to the play, refers to the abuse of it by Schlegel, who considered it "a singular monument of poetical, or, rather, unpoetical perversity; the very worst of all his pieces." The German critic judged it by the standards of conventional classicism, and he could scarcely have arrived at any other conclusion. For it is essentially, and perhaps consciously, a protest against those standards. So, indeed, is The Tragedy of the Trojan Woman, but on very different lines. The Electra has none of the imaginative splendour, the vastness, the intense poetry, of that wonderful work. Sophocles' tragedy on the same subject is enthusiastically praised by Schlegel, for the "celestial purity, the fresh breath of life and youth that is diffused over so dreadful a subject." Everything dark and ominous is avoided. Orestes enjoys the fullness of health and strength. He is beset neither with doubts nor with stings of conscience. But the Orestes of Euripides is more human. It is to him a cruel destiny to have been chosen to avenge a father's murder by killing his mother, and the depth of his soul-agony is sounded in the lines:—

'Twas she that bare
My body into life. She gave me suck.
How can I strike her?

This is indeed a very different Orestes—whose character bears some analogy to that of Hamlet—to the man who returns hot-foot from the murder of the usurper, Ægisthus. But Electra is the central figure of the tragedy. The daughter of a king, the virgin-wife of a peasant, she stands forth a sorrowful figure at the opening, wherein her brooding grief is sounded in the lines: "Toil, toil is a weary thing, and life is heavy about my head." As Mr. Murray remarks, "there is no woman's character in the range of Greek tragedy so profoundly studied." She becomes an heroic figure in the splendid speech over the body of Ægisthus, and yet she shows the cowardice of the mere woman. A panther-like disposition is suggested by the cunning way in which she gets Clytemnestra into her power, and yet her sisterly affection is almost as overpowering as her unwomanly thirst for revenge.

The story is simple and direct. Orestes, the son of Agamemnon, and his sister Electra avenge their father's murder by deliberately slaying the usurper, Ægisthus, and their guilty mother, Clytemnestra. The deed was done by the direct command of Apollo, who enforced the old savage doctrine of the duty and manliness of revenge. To the dramatist, however, the mother-murder was a a sin and a horror that should not have been committed, and is to be expiated by unfathomable suffering," shadowed forth by Castor at the end of the play.

As we have said, Electra—lonely, embittered, full of human feeling, and with will imperial—is the dominating character of the tragedy, and fortunately it found in Miss Edith Wynne Matthison an actress endowed with the great abilities which are demanded in such a part. She sounded the note of deep humility in the early passages of the play, the absorbing sisterly affection shone out in Electra's recognition of Orestes in front of her peasant home in the mountains, and the grandeur and nobility of tragedy echoed through Electra's magnificent speech over the body of the murdered Ægisthus. Again, in the accusation of her mother, Clytemnestra, were we impressed by the accomplished actress's lofty perception of the part. Electra's softer speeches are admirable, as emphasising the more womanly traits of a complex character; and the delivery of these was so keenly sympathetic that Miss Matthison had taken our hearts captive even before she had extracted our admiration by the depth of her tragic power. Each succeeding scene added to her triumph, and she gave us such an elevating picture of noble womanhood as we are not likely to forget. Clytemnestra, who may be likened to Gertrude in Hamlet, is strangely human, and most unlike a conventional wicked queen. She has a lengthy speech, in which she justifies the murder of her husband, Agamemnon, as a punishment for his sacrifice of their child, Iphigenia, as a sin-offering for the fleet. It is an excellent piece of special pleading, and powerful withal. Miss Edyth Olive, who played the part of the unhappy Clytemnestra on Tuesday, showed considerable feeling, and excited sympathy in the piteous character. Mr. R. Harcourt Williams, who was the Orestes—the Greek counterpart of Hamlet—made a very favourable impression. His virility and manly dignity appealed to us in the beautiful speech, "How dark lies honour hid!" a graceful and well-deserved tribute of the man of noble birth to the fine character of the peasant. The distress of Orestes after the murder of his mother is an intensely human touch, to which the young actor also did complete justice. Mr. Stratton Rodney as the Peasant, whose first speech is a sort of prologue to the play, realised the manly simplicity of the character, and made the most of his opportunities. Mr. J. H. Barnes as the Old Man—who, like other old family servants in Euripides, is absolutely and even morbidly devoted to his masters—gave one of those careful and finished impersonations which may be always expected of him. His rich voice did complete justice to the speeches of the part, which alternate between the expression of humble affection and of the ferocity of the blood-feud. Mr. Hubert Harben as the Messenger told the tragic tale of the murder of Ægisthus with sufficient impressiveness; Mr. Frederick Lloyd was the Pylades—a persona muta; and Mr. Lewis Casson, raised on high as the demi-god Castor, pronounced with sonorous eloquence the sentence on Orestes, Miss Gertrude Scott, as the leader of the chorus of Argive women, showed the value of excellent training and experience by the clearness of her elocution, and though sometimes the chanting of strophe and antistrophe sounded monotonous, yet on the whole the work of the chorus was artistically done. The music, by Theodore Stier, admirably fulfilled its purpose. The play was most artistically mounted, the one scene of the hut on the mountain-side, with the river Inachus stretching away in the distance, being an excellent piece of brush-work. Messrs. Vedrenne and Barker are entitled to our congratulations, not only on a successful matinée, but a most interesting experiment. Fortunately it is to be repeated on several afternoons.

Mr. Edwin Sir.—In your notes At Cinderella last week, you mention Mr. Walter Bale as Ethel. It should have been, yours faithfully, Walter Dale. Alexandra Theatre, Sheffield, Jan. 11, 1906.

THE DRAMA IN BERLIN.

"DER HEILIGE BRUNNEN,"
Three-Act Legendary Play, by J. M. Synge, German by M. Meyerfeld
Produced at the Deutsches, Jan. 12.

Doul ..... Herr Schildkraut
Mary ..... Fraulein Wandel
Jimmy ..... Herr Sauermann
Molly ..... Fraulein Heims
Nora ..... Fraulein Flanz
Der Heilige ..... Herr Henrich

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

BERLIN, Thursday, Jan. 18.—The Deutsches had a very interesting programme on Wednesday, three short plays—two of which were new to Berlin—being excellently performed. Mr. Synge's piece met with a most cordial reception, and the head-manager thanked the audience in the name of the absent author. It is drawn from an Irish legend, and the plot is very probably known to your readers. The story of the blind beggar, Martin Doul, and his blind wife Mary, who are healed at the sacred well, is excellently translated, and the fine acting of Herr Schildkraut, in particular, helped much towards the success. The second piece was Oscar Wilde's Florentine Tragedy, also translated by Herr Meyerfeld, and this, too, was well received. Courteline's one-act tragi-burlesque Der Herr Kommissär completed the list. This has been given here before—at the Trianon, if my memory serves me—and each time of performance there have been persons among the audience who energetically objected to the prolonged scene of the lunatic contra the police authorities. The little play was capitally acted by Herren Schildkraut, Biensfeld, and Victor Arnold in the principal rôles.

At the Komische Oper the long-expected production of Hugo Wolf's four-act comic opera Der Corregidor took place on Monday evening, and its success was undisputed. The music is beautiful and original, as would naturally be expected from the pen of Hugo Wolf, and our grateful thanks are due to Director Gregor, who has brought it before our notice. It is a work which requires several hearings to do it full justice, and there is little doubt that it will have a long and well-deserved run. The book is, unfortunately, exceedingly poor. It is drawn from a Spanish novel by Alarcon, the adaptor being Fraulein Rosa Magreder, and it has not been very skilfully treated. A few words will suffice for the narration of the plot. Don Eugenio de Zuniga, the Corregidor or Mayor, is the hero, and a very contemptible one. Despite his advanced age and civic position—not to forget that he is married into the bargain—Don Eugenio is an incorrigible rosé, and pesters Frasquita, the pretty young wife of the miller Lukas, with his attentions. He is amply and frequently punished and humiliated; he falls into a sack of flour, he tumbles into the brook, and two or three times in the four acts is treated to a good thrashing. Lukas is foolish enough to doubt his wife, without any reason, but after a time he regains his common sense and all ends happily. The third act is divided into three scenes, which is a mistake, as it unnecessarily prolongs the work. The interpretation under Kapellmeister Cassierer and Herr Moris was a very fine one, Fraulein L'Huillier as Frasquita and Herr Buers as Lukas being specially worthy of mention. As is customary at this theatre, the mounting was everything that good taste could suggest.

At the Schiller Theatre, O. Björnson's mystical drama Ueber unsere Kraft, Part I., was produced on Saturday with very satisfactory results. The management of these enterprising theatres, the Schiller, N., and the Schiller, E., does not expend much money in the acquirement of new plays, but holds itself judiciously in reserve. When a piece has enjoyed a long run at the West End, and has spent itself somewhat, it is received as a novelty by the Schiller audiences, and thus everybody is satisfied at moderate expense. The funds of the sister theatres are in consequence in a thoroughly healthy condition. Björnson's play was detailed at length on its production at the Berliner some years ago. Its interpretation at the Schiller was admirable, Herr Pategg in the rôle of Pastor Sang being especially good, while he was adequately supported by Fraulein Feldhammer in the difficult part of the Pastor's wife. The mounting, too, which is all-important, had been well managed, and the reception of the piece was an enthusiastic one.

The Mozart Cycle, which promises to be full of interest, begins at the Royal Opera next week. The works are not in chronological order, and the list opens with Don Juan. Cosi fan tutti will be given with a very select cast, and the same may be said of Die Zauberflöte.

Herr Albert Niemann, one of the most famous of German tenors of the past generation, and for many years chief tenor at the Royal Opera, celebrated his 75th birthday last Monday, being the recipient of many honours—from the Emperor downwards. Herr Niemann was the finest Tannhäuser and Tristan I have ever heard here, and I fear there will never be such another.

At the Royal Schauspielhaus, Schiller's tragedy, Die Räuber has been revived. "Revived" is, perhaps, scarcely the right expression, for, strange to say, this crudest work of the great poet rarely leaves the bill for long together. The part of Franz Moor is the acme of ambition for all rising actors, while artists who have long gained their spurs revel in it too. At the recent performance at our State theatre this rôle was effectively played by Herr Erich Ziegel, who has been for a long time one of the most valued members of the Schiller Théatre company. After this successful début Herr Ziegel will no doubt be invited to come up higher and grace the Royal stage.

Herr Intendant Prasch has entered into an arrangement with Herr Bonn whereby the Berliner Theatre is occupied by the Theatre des Westens company several evenings a week. The success of Schützenliesl at the latter house is so great that it might fill the bill night for night. In consequence of the long run certainly in store for the pretty operetta, the two novelties, Der Herr von Hann and Wolff-Ferrari's Die Vier Grobians, have had to be postponed for a while. Herr Fritz Werner from Munich is still here and with Fraulein Doninger making the running in Schützenliesl.

Frau Berta von Suttner's famous novel Die Waffen Nieder has been dramatised by the authoress in collaboration with Herr Robert Overweg, and will be produced before long on one of our best stages. The play—which is a four-act drama—will retain the original title. It is a matter of wonder that this—one of the finest of modern German novels—has not yet been adapted for the stage.

Tannhäuser has been repeated at the Royal Opera with the same success it met with a fortnight ago. This time the title-rôle was sung by Herr Kraus in place of Herr Gruening, and again two American singers were in the cast—Miss Farrar as Elisabeth and Mr. Griswold as the Landgraf. Frau Plaschinger sang the part of Venus and Herr Hoffmann that of Wolfram. It was an excellent cast, and the mounting of the opera with the new scenery and arrangements met with universal appreciation.

Frau Agnes Sorma met with a slight accident on leaving the Deutsches Theatre, where she had been playing in The Merchant of Venice, on Saturday. A collision occurred between the droschke of the popular actress and an electric tram-car, and Frau Sorma's lip was badly cut by the smashed window glass. The wound was, happily, not deep, and stitching was found to be unnecessary, so that in a few days Frau Sorma will be able to continue her charming rendering of Portia.

THE ACTORS' ASSOCIATION.

The first of the bi-monthly meetings of the members of the Association, held in accordance with the resolution passed by the recent meeting at Drury-lane Theatre, took place in the saloon of the Institution, at 10, King-street, Covent Garden, on the 11th inst., when Mr. A. E. Drinkwater (the deputy-chairman of the Council) was appointed chairman.

There were present—Mr. Adam Alexander, Mr. Cecil Barth, Mr. H. G. Bentley, Mr. Pascoe Bioletti, Mr. Acton Bond, Miss Lydia Busch, Miss Claire Cavendish, Mr. Burton Cooke, Mr. F. Cremlin, Mr. Clive Currie, Mr. David Denard, Mr. William Devereux, Miss Gladys Ffolliott, Mr. Arthur Fitzgerald, Mr. Robert Forsyth, Miss Eleanor Gilbart, Mr. Lawrence Grant, Mr. Laurence Grove, Mr. Talbot Housewood, Miss Agnes Imlay, Mr. George Ingleton, Miss Isa Johnson, Mr. P. L. Julian, Mr. Quinton McPherson, Mr. M. R. Morand, Mr. Simon D. Ord, Mr. H. P. Owen, Mr. Robson Paige, Miss Margaret Parker, Mr. Reginald Rivington, Mr. Stanley Ronalds, Miss Ethel Russell, Mr. Leonard Russell, Mr. J. E. Savery, Mr. Edmond T. Sayers, Mr. Walter Selby, Miss Lucy Sibley, Miss Mary E. Smith, Mr. Adnam Sprange, Mr. James Stevenson, Mr. Alfred Tate, Miss Minnie Thurgate, Miss Rita Trekelle, Miss Eugenie Vernie, Mr. F. Stuart Willson, and Mr. Charles Cruikshanks (secretary).

ELECTION OF ASSOCIATES.

MR. QUINTON MCPHERSON proposed the alterations following:—

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION.

That the words "and Associates" be inserted after "Members" in Article 1.

That Article 4 should read: "Any person shall be eligible for election as a member who has fulfilled 100 weeks' salaried engagements. The election of Associates shall be vested in the Council."

That in Articles 5, 6, 7, and 8 the words "or Associate" or "Associateship" follow the words "member" or membership—except in Article 7, line 3, the only difference between the Member and the Associate being that the latter would have no vote.

MISS GLADYS FFOLLIOTT seconded the proposition, which, after Miss Lucy Sibley and Messrs. Cecil Barth, Acton Bond, F. Cremlin, Lawrence Grant, Simon D. Ord, H. P. Owen, and F. Stuart Willson had spoken, was put to the vote and carried as a matter to be submitted to the Council for their consideration.

VOTING PAPERS.

MR. QUINTON MCPHERSON proposed and Mr. George Ingleton seconded the proposition "That for election of Councillors voting papers be mailed to all members giving the names of candidates and their proposers and seconders. After a discussion upon this question, in which Miss Agnes Imlay and Messrs. Cecil Barth, Acton Bond, F. Cremlin, M. R. Morand, and Adnam Sprange took part, the resolution was put to the vote, and carried as a matter to be submitted to the Council for their consideration.

MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

MR. CECIL BARTH suggested that there should be some kind of magazine published dealing only with matters connected with the Association—say, a monthly magazine at a 1d., maintained by sale of copies and profits on advertisements. Mr. Drinkwater and Mr. Morand having spoken on this subject, Mr. Barth said he would like to think the matter over, and perhaps at some future time he would bring forward a scheme with figures showing its practicability.

WAYS AND MEANS.

MR. WALTER SELBY, who had given notice that he wished to put a question on "Ways and Means," stated that he thought it not desirable to ask the managers to leave the Association, but rather that they should be told it was not the intention, in future, to make any calls upon their purses, and in order that the necessary economy might be practised to enable the Association to refrain from any further appeals to the managers for monetary aid, he proposed—"That the Sergeant's salary be increased by £5 per annum; that £5 per annum be added to the Typist's salary, and £10 to the Agency Clerk's stipend, and that the Secretary be requested to resign, inasmuch as the Secretary did nothing, and as the affairs of the Association were practically governed by the Sergeant, the Typewriter, and the Clerk, there was no need for a secretary, and there would be a saving of £180 per annum, after making the allowance to the staff as suggested."

There was no seconder to the proposition. Mr. Lawrence Grant suggested there was no need to defend the Secretary, and the matter dropped.

UTILITY OR OTHERWISE OF THESE MEETINGS.

Messrs. W. Devereux, Lawrence Grant, and M. R. Morand spoke as to the utility or otherwise of these meetings.

RESOLUTIONS.

It was agreed that the decision of the Council be forwarded to the proposers and seconders of resolutions.

A vote of thanks to the Chairman concluded the proceedings.

An adjourned meeting of the Council to further consider the scheme connected with the "Qualification and Registration of Actors" was held on Friday, the 12th inst. There were present—Messrs. Edward Terry (in the chair), A. E. Drinkwater (deputy-chairman), Acton Bond, F. Cremlin, William Devereux, Arthur Holmes-Gore, Norman McKinnel, Walter Russell, C. Aubrey Smith, Hubert Willis, and Charles Cruikshanks (secretary).

A telegram from Mr. Frank Benson was received, and the Secretary was instructed to reply. Regrets for non-attendance were received from Mr. George Alexander and Mr. Cyril Maude.

The scales of fees collectable under the scheme were agreed upon, and it was further resolved that, in view of the broad scope of the scheme, a proportion of the Senate, as completed, should be representative of the allied arts of dancing, pantomime, and opera.

The usual weekly meeting of the Council was held last Tuesday. There were present—Messrs. A. E. Drinkwater (deputy-chairman), Henry W. Mote (hon. solicitor), J. Cooke Beresford, Clarence Blakiston, Acton Bond, W. Graham Browne, F. Cremlin, A. E. George, Lawrence Grant, Fewlass Llewellyn, M. R. Morand, Walter Russell, A. Morrice Seaton, and Hubert Willis, Miss Kate Phillips and Charles Cruikshanks (secretary). The hon. solicitors reported they had advised members on points submitted, and had had some correspondence with the company connected with the proposed Insurance Scheme. Ultimately it was arranged that the agreements between the Insurance Company and the Association should be submitted to them for approval before final settlement. The scheme for the "Qualification and Registration of Actors" was again under discussion, and it was arranged that typed copies be sent to all members of the Council before proceeding further.

The following ladies and gentlemen were nominated for election:—Leonard Williams, Marmaduke Wetherell, George Stratton, Winsome Etherington, Violet Lytton, Florence Brandon, and Phyllis Relph. Two former members were reinstated.

The Secretary reported the receipt of a framed and signed photograph of the President, Sir Squire Bancroft, bearing these words, "Always faithfully yours." The Council desired the Secretary, on behalf of the Association and themselves, to thank Sir Squire for his gracious and acceptable gift. A case of alleged insanitation was under consideration, and the Secretary received certain instructions. The accounts for the year 1905, prepared by the Secretary, having been certified as correct by the honorary auditors, Messrs. Westcott, Maskall, and Co., chartered accountants, the Council adopted them, and they were referred to the Finance and General Purposes Committee for verification, and to deal with generally.

It was decided to hold the fifteenth annual general meeting, if possible, about the middle of February. The report of the Finance and General Purposes Committee was received. The Secretary received instructions in connection with an arbitration now pending.

The Finance and General Purposes Committee held their thirty-seventh meeting on Tuesday last. There were present—Messrs. Acton Bond (chairman), J. Cooke Beresford, A. E. Drinkwater, Lawrence Grant, M. R. Morand, and Charles Cruikshanks (secretary). Mr. Charles Macdona's scheme was again under discussion, and it was agreed that further consideration should be deferred until such time as Mr. Macdona could attend a meeting of the Committee, and confer with the members. The accounts for the year 1905, prepared by the Secretary, and certified as correct by the Auditors, were verified.

BIRTHDAYS OF THE WEEK.

We wish many happy returns to the following ladies and gentlemen:—

Miss Rose Hamilton—Saturday, Jan. 20.
Frank Stuart—Saturday, Jan. 20.
Miss Cis Gasparro—Sunday, Jan. 21.
Miss E. Shannon-Clyndes—Sunday, Jan. 21.
Arthur E. Behan—Sunday, Jan. 21.
Charles Grantley—Sunday, Jan. 21.
D'Arcy Kelway—Sunday, Jan. 21.
F. W. Lowther—Sunday, Jan. 21.
Fred Reed—Sunday, Jan. 21.
J. O. Stevenson—Sunday, Jan. 21.
Howard L. Tracey—Sunday, Jan. 21.
Violet Bessle——Monday, Jan. 22.
Kitty Wager—Monday, Jan. 22.
Harry B. Stanford—Monday, Jan. 22.
Miss Constance Collier—Monday, Jan. 22.
Miss Ada Murray—Tuesday, Jan. 23.
Lady Orkney—Tuesday, Jan. 23.
Coquelin aîné—Tuesday, January 23.
Bessie Munroe—Tuesday, Jan. 23.
Miss Alice Spry—Tuesday, Jan. 23.
Fred Cherry—Tuesday, Jan. 23.
Clavering Craig—Tuesday, Jan. 23.
George Millard—Tuesday, Jan. 23.
Harry Ray—Tuesday, Jan. 23.
Katie Marsh—Thursday, Jan. 25.
Suzanne Sheldon—Wednesday, Jan. 24.
Mrs. Geo. H. Smythson—Wednesday, Jan. 24.
F. H. Anderson—Wednesday, Jan. 24.
Rowland Hill—Wednesday, Jan. 24.
Bertha Kingston—Thursday, Jan. 25.
M. Henri—Friday, Jan 26.
George Adney Payne—Friday, Jan 26.
George S. Shelton—Friday, Jan. 26.

"LOVELY LONDON," the quaint old masque, by George Peele, which was first presented to Lord Mayor Wolstone Dixie in 1585, was reproduced in almost every detail before the present Lord Mayor of London in the famous old Charterhouse Hall on the 12th inst. The performance was private, and by express desire the names of the actors were not revealed, but among the performers might have been recognised the features of an eminent divine, a titled minister of the Church of England, and one of the most eminent musicians of the day. The Craftsman was played by a master of a City company; Science by the principal of a university, and one of the magistrates by a well-known coroner; while three Associates of the Royal Academy played the Architect, Sculptor, and Painter respectively.

JUDICIAL humour brightened the proceedings at the Court of King's Bench on the 12th inst., when Mr. Powell, K.C., applied that the action of Mackay v. Edwardes, which was brought by Miss Mackay, an actress, against Mr. George Edwardes for an injunction, should not be taken until the 29th inst., as the plaintiff was under a contract to appear at Newcastle and other towns, and it would be inconvenient for her to come to London before the date mentioned. The case, he said, would have been heard some time last year, when the plaintiff was disengaged, but, for the convenience of the defendant, who had to go to America, the hearing was postponed. Counsel for the defendant was in court, and felt that the indulgence asked for on behalf of the plaintiff should be granted. Mr. Justice Bigham asked where the lady was at the present time. Mr. Powell replied that she was at Newcastle. His lordship said he should be in Newcastle shortly, and would place himself at the lady's disposal if she wished to avail herself of the opportunity. Mr. Powell said that would not do, because the lady was not resident at Newcastle. The Judge opined the question was evidently when, and not where, the case would be heard. Perhaps the lady would like a Sunday. Mr. Powell replied that she would. Would his lordship place himself at the lady's convenience on a Sunday? Mr. Justice Bigham emphatically said he would not. He would fix the hearing of the case for the 30th inst.

MESSRS. FRANCIS, DAY, AND HUNTER, in the Court of King's Bench, on Monday, obtained an injunction and nominal damages of 40s., with costs, against Mr. George Hancock, a bookseller, of Manchester, in respect of the sale of plaintiff's copyright songs which had been pirated. The unsold copies were also ordered to be delivered up. Mr. Walter Payne said that such transactions as the defendant had been engaged in inflicted very heavy loss on the legitimate music trade, and rendered it very difficult for business to be carried on. In May, 1905, the plaintiffs received complaints that a large trade was being done in song-books which contained songs of which they were the copyright owners. They made inquiries, and found that the song-books were being sold by the defendant, who appeared to have bought about 2,800 copies in the previous February. It was believed that the books were printed in Darlington. The defendant, who appeared in person, said he was ignorant of infringing the copyright, and that he withdrew the sale of the song-books immediately he learned the facts. The songs had been sold for years, and were being sold at the present time in the streets of Manchester.

ON Tuesday evening, at the Theatre Royal, Preston, Mr. Julian Mack, the widow Twankey of Dottridge and Longdon's Aladdin Pantomime, suddenly lost his voice and could not appear. Mr. Billy Broom (of Williams and Broom), without rehearsal, went on for the part and made a decided success.

A COPY OF "THE ERA" will be forwarded to any address in the United Kingdom for six stamps. The Era is posted on Saturday in time to reach London Subscribers by the first Town Delivery, and Country Subscribers should receive their Papers by the first London Post. Address, the PUBLISHER, 5, Tavistock-street, W.C.

POOR CHILDREN AT THE PANTOMIME.

(BY OUR OWN COMMISSIONER.)

The little lady reflectively chewed the orange peel as she thought out a suitable answer to the question, "Who do you like best?" Finally, after the last bit of savoury and pungent peel had found its way down her throat, with all the diplomacy of ten years she said, "I think I like them all."

That, too, was the opinion of the 2500 school children who were on Saturday afternoon last taken by the Playgoers' Club to see the pantomime of Robinson Crusoe at the Elephant and Castle Theatre. There was not, as may be imagined, a vacant seat in the house. Even the niches and corners and window ledges were taken up by those youngsters for whom it was not possible to find seating accommodation. "Ain't it 'ot?" remarked one of the urchins to a pal, both of them hanging on to one another in a wall recess. The question gave a fair indication of the atmospheric conditions, which were, to say the least, oppressive.

Genial and radiant, Mr. Harry Hart, the chairman of the afternoon, darted from one part to another, exhorting the boys and girls to "let the chorus go this time." No one works harder on behalf of the children at these performances than the "Major," as Mr. Hart is popularly nicknamed. And the children did let the chorus go. The noise was earsplitting. They even momentarily resisted the temptation of dipping into their bags of sweets, oranges, and buns in order to show how well they knew the words of the song, "Give my regards to Leicester-square," which was first charmingly rendered by Miss Alice Williams (Polly Perkins). There was no need for Miss Williams to start the chorus; the kiddies were sufficiently well acquainted with it, and they were quite satisfied that the lady should pirouette up and down the stage while they engaged in a tumultuous demonstration of their vocal abilities.

Wondering eyes gazed upon the handsome white furs and feathers worn by Robinson Crusoe, a part in which Miss Julie Zesch delighted her juvenile critics. They liked her singing, too, and didn't she cut a dashing figure? Well, they wouldn't mind at all being wrecked themselves on a desert island! How they shrieked with merriment as that very frolicsome doggie ran round and round the stage, and indulged in all manner of laughable antics. But it wasn't a real canine after all. It was only Mr. Mark Lupino pretending to be a dog. All the same what a jolly, frisky, humorous mongrel he was!

And it didn't mean that because a man had a black skin he had a black heart. Friday had a darker complexion even than Othello, but the children all voted Friday to be a ripping good sort. Some of them ventured the remark that they would like to see Friday with his skin off, and in the event of such a catastrophe taking place they would certainly find a most agreeable person in Mr. George Lupino. Every time that gentleman appeared he was greeted with repetitions of his own exclamation, "Oh, me, I, me, oh, me, oh!"

The audience were heart and soul with Polly Perkins when she sang in her expressive way, "I wouldn't leave my little wooden hut for you." They all agreed that she shouldn't do anything of the kind, and to show that they had the courage of their convictions one and all joined vigorously in the chorus. They evinced a considerable partiality for the Widow Crusoe, though one sportive young gentleman in the pit somewhat let the cat out of the bag when he said to his mate, "Bet yer wot yer likes that's a man." Then to the "Major," who came up to still the storm, he protested, "Hey, Guv'nor, this 'un 'ere"—pointing with a well-licked finger to his mate—"sez as 'ow's the ole girl in the red frock ain't a man. Ain't I right, guv'nor—she ain't a female?" "It's a lady," said the "Major," who, for the moment at least, had greater ideas of pacification than of speaking the truth. "I told yer all along, Sid, that that were a woman"—this from the boy's mate. "Go and play wiv yerself," muttered Sid, "you can believe that bloke if yer like. I knows it ain't a female." And Sid could with safety have laid his shirt upon the veracity of his asseveration, for the very entertaining mother of Robinson was no other than the comical Mr. Howard Templeton.

What did the villainous Will Atkins mean by repeatedly saying to the children "Give my regards to your mother." Was he endeavouring to ingratiate himself into the affections of the mothers through the innocent instrumentality of the offspring? Were these overtures merely a cloak to disguise the innate wickedness of his nature? Anyhow, there was so much to be seen and heard that the youngsters did not trouble to engage in a judicial investigation of the conduct of William. Even if he was a villain, he was a merry one, and they recollected that they themselves were merriest when they were doing what they were told was wrong. So they responded right heartily to Mr. Jo Monkhouse's salutations, and pronounced him a most agreeable person. Dreams of a life on a very adventurous ocean wave and of fights with ferocious pirates were conjured up as Mr. Harold Wagner showed them what a breezy, bold, and light-hearted creature a Bo'sun was. After this, who wouldn't be a sailor?

What an excruciatingly funny harlequinade it was! Yet how righteously indignant did the juvenile spectators become when the butcher's meat had been thrown to the ground and the clown tried to "do" Pantaloon out of his fair share of the spoils. From 2,500 throats came the cry of "Cheat! cheat! cheat!" It sounded like the one unanimous, clamourous, mighty voice, but even underneath the weight and contempt of its judgment the unscrupulous clown continued to defy "public opinion," and went on cheating, giving his partner a few remnants from the lean kine while retaining for himself the better bred and fatter portions. Finally, however, Mr. Clown admitted that he had been acting dishonestly, and promised to reform. Then he got into their favour once more by flinging a "side" of beef at a policeman, and generally disposing of the property of poor Boney, the butcher, with a freedom and generosity which affected the onlookers so strongly that tears were forced to the eyes—with laughter. The children were by this time in a boisterous mood, and very vociferously did they shout their cheers for the gentlemen who had brought them to the theatre. And, gentlemen of the Playgoers' Club, the hurricane of thanks you got, and the sight of so many thousand pale and wan faces flushed and wrinkled with gaiety, and eyes that see not too much of the brighter side of life sparkling with keen anticipation and appreciation—were not these a handsome recompense for the time and the trouble and the money you had expended in preparing this feast of mirth for guests to whom, perhaps, last Saturday's entertainment will be the one redeeming ray of sunshine in a grey and desolate twelve months.

MISS OLIVE MARSTON has made such a success in the pantomime at the Palace, Belfast, that Mr. Warden invited her to take a benefit yesterday (Friday), in conjunction with Miss Empsie Bowman.

MR. MILTON BODE'S pantomime, Robinson Crusoe, which has proved such a success at the Theatre Royal, Cardiff, concludes a month's run to-day, after which it will be transferred in its entirety to the Queen's Theatre, Swindon, where good business is also anticipated.

ON THE ROAD, JANUARY 22.

ARE YOU A MASON?—Stockton.
AT CRIPPLE CREEK.—T. R., Batley.
AT DUTY'S CALL.—Opera House, Burton-on-Trent.
AT THE WORLD'S MERCY.—Theatre Royal, Rugby.
BEAUTY AND THE BEAST.—Theatre Royal, Bolton
BENSON, F. R. (B).—Dundalk.
BENSON, MR. AND MRS.—Theatre Royal, Belfast.
BESIDE THE BONNIE BRIER BUSH.—St. James's T.
BIGGEST SCAMP ON EARTH.—T. R., Stratford.
BRAMLEY ESMOND.—H. M. T., Dundee.
BULMER, MR.—Regent Theatre, Salford.
CATCH OF THE SEASON.—Grand Theatre, Southampton.
CHINESE HONEYMOON.—Dudley.
CHRISTIAN (HOWARD).—Mountain Ash.
CHRISTIAN, THE.—H. M. T., Aberdeen.
CINGALEE.—Barnsley.
CINGALEE (2).—Bournemouth.
CLAUDIAN.—Opera House, Southport.
COAL KING.—Star Theatre, Liverpool.
COMPTON COMEDY CO.—Royal, Huddersfield.
COTTON SPINNER.—Carlton, Greenwich.
COUNTRY GIRL (MACDONA).—Oswestry.
DANDY DOCTOR.—Paisley T., Paisley.
DARE-DEVIL DOROTHY.—New Theatre, Consett.
DUCHESS OF DANTZIC.—Stockport.
DUKE OF KILLICRANKIE.—Theatre Royal, Limerick.
FACE AT THE WINDOW.—Opera House, Torquay.
FAITHFUL FRIEND.—Gaiety T., Burnley.
FLORODORA (HOWARD).—Bishop Auckland.
FREEDOM OF SUZANNE.—Folkestone.
GAY PARISIENNE.—Woolwich.
GEOFFREY LANGDON'S WIFE.—Grand T., Rawtenstall.
GIRL FROM JAPAN.—O. H., Blackpool.
GIRL FROM KAY'S.—Bath.
GOLDEN LADDER.—Derby.
GO-WON-GO MOHAWK.—T. R., Sunderland.
GREAT AWAKENING.—Pier, Eastbourne.
GRIP OF IRON.—Irving T., Seacombe.
HER ONE GREAT SIN.—T. R., Ton-y-Pandy.
HER SECOND TIME ON EARTH.—Alexander T., Hull.
HER WEDDING DAY.—T. R., Seaham Harbour.
HOME, SWEET HOME.—Athenæum, Lancaster.
I DEFY THE WORLD.—T. R., Hyde.
INDIAN MUTINY.—St. James's, Manchester.
LA COMEDIE ANGLAISE.—Hoddesdon.
LADY MADCAP (DANCE).—Reading.
LADY MADCAP (EDWARDES).—Royalty T., Glasgow.
LA POUPEE (RALLAND).—T. R., Blackburn.
LAUGHTER LAND.—T. R., Coatbridge.
LIFE OF A SHOWMAN.—T. R., Gloucester.
LITTLE BO-PEEP.—Lyceum T., Sheffield.
LITTLE BREAD WINNER.—T. R., W. Stanley.
LITTLE MICHUS (DANCE).—Wolverhampton.
LITTLE MICHUS (EDWARDES).—Lyceum, Edinburgh.
LONDON FIREMAN.—Star T., Swansea.
LOST IN PARIS.—Central T., Northwich.
LOVE THAT WOMEN DESIRE.—T. R., Castleford.
MANXMAN.—Lyceum T., Pentre.
MARTIN HARVEY.—Grand T., Middlesboro'.
MIDNIGHT MAIL.—Rotherham.
MODERN ADVENTURESS.—Metropole T., Hoyland.
MOODY MANNERS (A.).—O. H., Cork.
MOODY MANNERS (B.).—Royalty, Chester.
MR. SMITH.—Gateshead.
MR. SMITH.—Preston.
NAPOLEON THE GREAT.—T. R., North Shields.
OLIVER TWIST.—Grand T., Woolwich.
ON THE LOVE PATH.—Croydon.
ON THE STROKE OF TWELVE.—New Cen., Motherwell.
ORCHID (2).—Cardiff.
PASSION'S POWER.—Grand Theatre, Nelson.
PEGGY MACHREE.—Theatre Royal, Hull.
PLUCKY NIPPER.—Grand Theatre, Stalybridge.
PRICE OF HER SOUL.—Grand T., Halifax.
PRODIGAL SON.—New Theatre, Aberdare.
PROOF.—Grand Theatre, Newcastle.
REVENGE.—T. R., Bury.
ROMANY'S REVENGE.—Muncaster Theatre, Bootle.
ROYAL DIVORCE.—Corporation T., Chesterfield.
ROYAL REVENGE.—Pavilion, Altrincham.
SAILORS OF THE KING.—King's Theatre, Gateshead.
SAINTS AND SINNERS.—Treherbert and Maesteg.
SEE-SAW OF LIFE.—Opera House, Tunbridge Wells.
SHERLOCK HOLMES.—Pavilion, Mile End.
SILVER KING.—West London Theatre.
SIN OF HER CHILDHOOD.—G. T., West Hartlepool.
SINS OF A CITY.—Theatre Royal, Edmonton.
SPRING CHICKEN.—Gaiety Theatre, Manchester.
STILL ALARM.—Junction Theatre, Manchester.
SUNDAY.—Theatre Royal, Worcester.
SWISS EXPRESS.—T. R., Ilkeston.
THREE LITTLE MAIDS (S.).—Barrow.
THRONE OF TERROR.—Dudley Port.
TOREADOR.—Leith.
TWO LITTLE SAILOR BOYS.—T. R., Smethwick.
UNCLE TOM'S CABIN (HARRINGTON).—T. R., Hanley.
UNDER TWO FLAGS.—Prince's T., Portsmouth.
VERONIQUE.—Carlisle.
VILLAGE BLACKSMITH.—O. H., St. Helens.
WALLS OF JERICHO.—(N.).—New T., Cambridge.
WALLS OF JERICHO (S.).—Jersey.
WARNER, MISS GRACE.—Lyceum, Long Eaton.
WAY OF THE WORLD.—T. R., Jarrow.
WEARIN' O' THE GREEN.—Queen's Theatre, Keighley.
WILKIE, ALLEN, AND CO.—T. R., Runcorn.
WORST WOMAN IN LONDON.—P. O. W., Nuneaton.
WRECKER OF MEN.—Pier Pav., Hastings.
10.30 DOWN EXPRESS.—O. H., Coventry.

HOCKEY.

BENSON'S ELEVEN V. LIMERICK COUNTY.

On Tuesday evening, under most inclement atmospheric conditions, and in the presence of a goodly gathering, the Shakespeareans met the unconquered County, when a pretty tough contest was witnessed. During the first half-time the Bensonians had it pretty well their own way, keeping the ball in County territory, but at the opening of the second time sides changed, and the County made it warm for the visitors, the result being a victory for County by 4 goals to 2. Messrs. Wilson, Howlett, Benson, Pittar, Davis, and Buchanan did excellent work for the company's team; whilst Messrs. Cyril, Fogerty, Wallace, McCullough, Ross, Dowd, Spillane, Lynch, Fogerty, Stokes, Gloster, and Roche represented the home team, in an excellent and well-contested game. There was an unusually big sprinkling of the ladies present, and the members of the company were in evidence.

MR. GEO. GROSSMITH, JUN., took the chair at an At Home given by the Concert Artistes Benevolent Association held at the Criterion on Sunday evening last, and in an interesting speech indicated the benefits resulting from membership of the Association and its Benevolent Fund, and also announced his intention of becoming a member. Mr. Grossmith pleaded eloquently on behalf of the fund, and at the subsequent collection nearly £4 in excess of any previous sum was realised.

FRANZ VON SCHONTHAN, the author of so many successful comedies, including a dramatisation of Little Dorritt, has just had a new play produced in Vienna, entitled Three Adventures of an English Detective, its reception being most enthusiastic. The rumour that the new play is based on one of Conan Doyle's stories is entirely unfounded. The International Copyright Bureau, Limited, which represents the author in this country, is preparing an English version, and the rival to Sherlock Holmes may shortly be seen on the London stage.

The Original Cocoa, and a Speciality.

EPPS'S

Distinguished from all others by its invigorating nutritious qualities and delicious flavour. It contains all the substance of the choicest Nibs, and maintains its leading position as the best form of Cocoa for every-day use.

COCOA

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

P. REYMOND.—Herbert Campbell died July 19, 1904, Dan Leno, October 31, 1904.

S. BURTON.—"The Silver King" was produced at the Princess's Theatre on November 16, 1882, and first toured a few months later.

M. J. BARDAY.—It is against our rule to give the age of members of the profession. We do not know where the lady was born.

J. E. B.—You will find all the information you require in "The Era Annual," just published.

DANSEUSE.—We do not know of any boarding-school where professional dancing is taught.

C. G.—The Britannia Theatre was re-opened as a variety house on December 23, 1905.

W. JOHNSON.—(1) The title of the piece which was in course of preparation at the Alhambra, Leicester-square, when that theatre was burnt down in 1882, was King Comet; or, Love of the Flame and Icicle. (2) The piece was not, we believe, produced at any other theatre.

303.—We are unable to inform you.

H. M. T.—"Clockwork" has been used as the title of a one-act piece by Robert Reece, performed at the Lyceum Theatre in February, 1877.

M. D.—Diamond Deane, a play in four acts, by H. J. W. Dam, was produced at the Vaudeville Theatre on Mar. 18, 1891, the cast including Miss Dorothy Dorr, Miss Jessie Millward, Messrs. T. Thorne, F. Thorne, and H. B. Conway.

GOBO.—(1) Folly Theatre, London, Feb. 23, 1878. (2) The piece was transferred to the Globe Theatre in August, 1878, when Miss Cora Stuart appeared as Germaine and Miss Emma Chambers as Serpolette.

BIRTHS, MARRIAGES, & DEATHS.

BIRTHS.

ANDERSON.—On Jan. 14, at 41, Lavan-street, Liverpool, the wife of Frank Anderson, of a son.
FORBES-ROBERTSON.—On the 12th inst., at 42, Bedford-square, to the wife of Norman Forbes (Robertson), a daughter.
HARROW.—Jan. 5, 1906, wife of Bert. Harrow (comedian), Marion Walker, of a son. Both doing fine.
KEDWARDS.—Elsie Kedwards, wife of Tom Hulme, of a son. Both doing splendid.

DEATHS.

BACON.—Jan. 15, at Langley, Bucks, Elizabeth Bacon (Miss Poole), ballad and operatic vocalist, aged eighty-six.
BELL.—On Jan. 6, at 9, Gosford-street, Belfast, William Bell, the beloved son of Will Bell and Ida Dalton, aged 13 years. "Gone, but not forgotten."
DRACO.—Jan. 19, 1906, at sister's residence, 38, Wilton-street, Stoke, Devonport, Pattie Draco, née Elliott, aged 24 years, the beloved wife of Pan E. Draco; also on the 17th, infant son of above. Into Thy hands, O Lord, into Thy Hands.
HARCOURT.—Jan. 12, at the Central Nursing Home, Glasgow, of cancer, Fred Harcourt, magician and illusionist. Deeply mourned by his sorrowing wife, family, and relatives.
HARDY.—At No. 3, Addington-road, Margate, Charles Edward Hardy (late manager of the Richmond Theatre and Grand Theatre, Margate), passed peacefully away on Sunday, Jan. 14, 1906, aged 50 years.
MERIVALE.—Jan. 14, at 69, Woodstock-road, Bedford Park, of heart failure, Herman Merivale, playwright and journalist, aged sixty-seven.
READ.—Jan. 16 Theophilus Read, of the "World's Fair," Royal Agricultural Hall, Islington, N., at his residence, 74, Palatine-road, Stoke Newington, aged 59.
SCHLESINGER.—On Jan. 13, 1906, suddenly, at 76, Devonshire-road, Aberdeen (the residence of her son-in-law) Florence Augusta, widow of Anton Schlesinger, and dearly beloved mother of Vera Schlesinger.
VERNON.—On Jan. 17, Louie, beloved wife of A. Darville Vernon, Theatre Royal, Peterborough, of pneumonia.

IN MEMORIAM.

LOCKHART.—In ever unfading memory of my dear husband, George Lockhart, died Jan. 24, 1904.
A little longer yet of expectation,
Of patience strong and brave,
And then the wondrous life of revelation,
The life beyond the grave.

STEPHENSON.—In loving memory of Charles Henry Stephenson, Father Tom of the Adelphi, who passed away in his eighty-second year, Jan. 20, 1905. Not forgotten by his friends and fellow churchmen, New Church, Southport, or his loving wife, ELIZA STEPHENSON.

VERNO.—In ever-loving memory of Sydney Verno (late Verno and Voyce), who passed away Jan. 17, 1897. Mourned and affectionately remembered by his only brother, Albert Voyce.

FOR SYMPATHY.

HARCOURT.—The widow of the late Fred Harcourt begs to acknowledge with deep-felt thanks the kindly tokens and expressions of sympathy tendered her by friends on her sad and sudden bereavement. 133, Moss-lane ast, Manchester.

MR. NELSON HARDY, the well-known ventriloquist, with "Joey the Clown," has now been added to the programme at Maskelyne and Devant's mysteries at St. George's Hall, Langham-place, W.

MR. EDITOR, Sir,—In last Saturday's issue your Preston correspondent, in his notice of Mr. Fred Granville's pantomime, The Forty Thieves, stated that the production was under the direction of Mr. Forsyth Bruce. I beg to inform you that Mr. Bruce is stage-manager of the company; but the whole production is under the sole direction of yours faithfully, CARTHAGE CALDCLEUGH. Theatre Royal, Hyde, Jan. 15, 1906.

OUR notice of the performance of Red Riding Hood, at Ebbw Vale, last week, was incomplete, inasmuch as all reference to Miss Marie Liston, who plays Boy Blue, the principal boy, was omitted. Miss Liston is undoubtedly the success of the pantomime, and is the recipient of numerous encores nightly.

Gerhart Hauptmann's new fairy-play Und Pippa tanzt is to be produced at the Lessing, Berlin—for the first time on any stage—on Friday. It is perhaps hardly necessary to observe that every seat in the house is already taken, as well as for the second performance on Saturday, at which the author will probably be present too.

MR. EDWIN TRUEMAN, author of "Poetical Fragments," has dedicated his poem "Only a tramp" to Mr. Charles Carte, who has now played the part of Jerry the tramp in A Noble Brother over 2050 times.

The Silver King, with Mr. Austin Melford as Wilfred Denver, established a record for drama under the present management, at the Opera House, Northampton, on Saturday night, money being refused at all parts of the house.

PRESENTATION.—Miss Peggy Fame was presented on Tuesday with a handsome make-up box and silver note-case by Mr. Porter, of the Theatre Royal, Norwich. She also had several other presents from a few of the host of her admirers.

MR. EDITOR,—Sir,—The Lynches appeared at the Westminster, Liverpool, last week in place of Miss Hilda Corelli, who was mentioned in your last week's report of that hall.—Yours truly, ARTHUR LYNCH.

SORE THROAT OR HOARSENESS

CURED IN A FEW HOURS.

Sir Morell Mackenzie, M.D., the Eminent Throat Specialist, constantly recommended Condy's Remedial Fluid to be used as a Gargle for speedily curing Sore Throat or Hoarseness.

The late Sims Reeves, the world-famed Tenor Vocalist, wrote:—"Condy" used as a Gargle clears the voice and braces up the uvula."

Condy's Remedial Fluid, sold by all Chemists at 1s. 1½d. Caution.—Insist on having "Condy's."

"THE ERA" LETTER-BOX.

A Stamped Envelope, plainly addressed, must be enclosed with application for each Letter. Letters, after lying at this Office for One Month, are forwarded to the Postal Authorities, to be returned to the Senders.
No Circulars or Parcels admitted to this List.

Aldred, Mr. C.
Alexander, Miss M.
Alexandra, Miss A.
André, Mr. Victor
Anson, Mr. G. W.
Anson, Miss L.
Arthurs, Mr. E.
Austin, Miss Louie
Bailey, Mr. J. W.
Balcombe, Mr. H. A.
Baroni, Mr.
Barret, Mr. J. S.
Barrie, Mr. Gus
Bayliss, Mr. W. J.
Bedford, Mr. Harry
Boise, Mr. Harry
Bon Bon, Mr. Harry
Bradshaw, Miss D.
Branscombe, Mr. Arthur
Breton, Mr. A
Brightwell, Mr. E.
Broton, Mr. Fritz
Brough, Miss F.
Browne, Mr. Grahame
Burney, Miss E.
Caisdall, Mr. A.
Campbell, Miss Dora
Cardona, Mr. Wm.
Casson, Mr. Frank
Castle, Mr. C.
Cawthorn, Mr. Alf.
Chiverrell, Mr. F.
Cody, Mr. D.
Collins & Hart
Comstock, Mr. M.
Conningham, Mr. Fred
Coopers, The
Cordwell, Mr. Levey
Creighton, Miss M.
Cronow, Mr. John
Cuthbert, Mr. Alfred
Dale and O'Mally
Dalmour, Miss S.
Danby, Mr. Gus
Daniells, Mr. Gus
Davidson, Mr. Wm.
Davies, Mr. Geo.
Davis, Mr. A.
Deas, Mr. Harry
De Bessell, Mr.
De Laporte, Miss Nana
Denman, Mr. Royston
Devereux, Capt.
Digby, Miss Alice
Dodsworth, Mr. Chas.
Dudley, Miss Lydia
Dykes, Mr. R. M.
Dyson, Mr. Joshua
Edwards, Mr. H. Collier
Elkin, Mr. Bernard
Ellicott, Miss V.
Ellis, Mr. T.
Ely, Sisters
Emmy, Madame
Evans, Mr. F.
Evans, Mr. R.
Fentross, Mr Burt
Fisher, Mr. Chas.
Flexmore, Miss M.
Florence, Mdlle.
Foldi, Miss F.
Fontaine, Mr. Victor
Forrest, Mr. H. W.
Foy, Mr. Fred
Fysher, Mr. Edwin
Geoffreys, Mr. T.
George, Mr. Greek
Godwin, Mr. Will
Goldin, Mr. Horace
Gordon, Miss C.
Grant and Grant
Gratton, Miss D.
Gray, Miss Winifred
Gregsons, The
Grimshaw, Mrs. L.
Grovini, Mr. James
Haldon, Lady
Hallam, Mr. Fred
Hamilton, Mr. Sydney
Harcourte, Miss M.
Harris, Miss D.
Hazlewood, Mr. G. J.
Hearn, Mr. J.
Hebden, Mr. Will
Helen and Emilon
Herman, Dr. Carl
Hobson, Miss Maud
Hopley, Mr. E.
Horford, Mr. W.
Howard, Miss May
Howard, Miss P.
Howard, Dr. Paul
Howard, Mr. Thomas
Howes, Miss Millie
Ipswich, Mr. Francis
Jacquinot, Mr. Claude
Jarrough, Mr. Dan
Jolly, Mr. Laffan B.
Joly, Mr. E.
Kayser, Mr. Fred
Kendal, Mrs.
Kingsley, Miss B.
Kondo, Mr. T.
Kramer, Mr. Paul
Lavater, Mr. Louis
Leader, Mr. Harry
Le Gay Quartette
Leonard, Miss Flora
Leonard, Mr. Bob
Lewis, Miss Isabella
Leybourne, Mr. Arthur
Leyseno, Mr. Barry
Loates, Mr. Carr
Lovering, Mr. Harry
Mackay, Mr. J. W.
Mannings, Mr.
Marian, Sisters
Marlow, Mr. W. F.
Martin, Miss Sylvia
Martine, Miss Ada
Maye, Miss Jennie
Medway, Miss Constance
Mercer, Mr. B.
Mervale, Miss Lindsay
Milner, Mr. C.
Milton, Miss Maud
Moneata, Mr. H.
Montefiore, Mr. Ernest
Montgomery, Mr. John
Moore, Mr. W. T.
Mortenette, Mr. and Mrs
Moxon Family
McQueen, Sisters
Nat & Doris
Nelson, Mr. Frank
Norman, Mr. N. V.
Norton, Mr. Chas.
Olgar, Mdm. Frances
O'Neill, Mr. Ed.
Osborne, Mr. W.
Paulis, Mr. Edmond
Paull, Miss Ethel G.
Picquay, Mrs. G.
Pleasants, Mr. Jack
Powell & Connor, Messrs.
Power, Miss Eugenie
Prince, Mr. Arthur
Probin, Mr. Will
Ramier, Mr. Ed.
Reco, Mr. E.
Richardson, Mr. J. F.
Richmond, Mr. Arthur
Ringham, Mr. Mark
Rizarelli, Signor
Ross and Lewis, Messrs.
Royle, Miss Vera
Rudd, Mr. Arthur
Ruthman, Mr. E. A.
Sargent, Mr Jack
Scott, Mr. M. D.
Shaw, Mr. Allan
Shaller, Mr. Arthur
Sheridan, Mr. R. B.
Shine, Mr. J. L.
Shrapnell, Mr. L.
Siegenberg, Miss Lottie
Simpson, Mr. Herbert
Sivronis, Mr.
Stafford, Mr. Eugene
St. Alban, Mr. E.
Starr, Mr. Harry
Sumner, Mr. W. J.
Swan and Stanley
Sydmon, Mr. N.
Taylor, Capt. Joe
Teague, Mr. Harry
Telford, Mr. Will
Temple, Mr. Fred
Terry, Mr. Herbert
Theodora, Miss Stella
Thomas, Mrs. Ronald
Thorburn, Mrs. Chas.
Tinglass, Mr. Thomas
Todd, Mr. Garratt
Towle, Mr. Edward
Trevoir, Miss F.
Trueman, Mr. A. E.
Valmore, Miss Jennie
Van Allen, Mrs. Will Vane, Miss Edith
Vaughan, Mr. Wilfred
Veevers Miss G.
Vernon, Miss Jessie
Vetter, Mr. Oscar
Victoria, Miss Kate
Victor, Mr. G.
Volbecque, Sisters
Volpe, Mr. Fred
Von-etta, Mdlle.
Wallace, Miss Nellie
Walls, Mr. Tom
Walpole, Mr. E.
Wardroper, Mr. Harold
"Wee Mona"
Wheatcroft, Mr. Frank
Wheeler, Miss Lilian
Whitaker, Mr. E.
Wilson, Mr. C.
Wilton, Mr. G. W.
Willett, Miss M.
"Winona"
Woodville, Mr. R.
Zanella, Mr. Chas.

FOOTBALL.

BRISTOL X.L.C.R. AND HARRY HARE'S ORCHESTRAL BAND ATHLETIC CLUBS v. MUSIC HALLS A.F.C.

Played on Clifton Downs on Dec. 23. Messrs. Ern. Belding, Jack Aubrey, Harry Edwards, and Joe Lacey (two) scored the goals for their respective sides. The following were the teams:—

BRISTOL X.L.C.R.—H. Belding, goal; J. Lewis and A. Hamlin (captain), backs; A. E. Bailey, F. Stevens, and W. Miller, half-backs; E. Belding, E. Bowman, J. Aubrey, H. Edwards, and E. Palmer, forwards.

MUSIC HALLS A.F.C.—F. B. Nicholls, goal; J. Tyley and F. Arni, backs; T. Neagle (captain), J. Lacey, and W. Hinder, half-backs; F. Hansford, R. Cullen, P. Reardon, H. C. Douglas, and W. Meadows, forwards.

Referee, M. Clarke (St. Michael's Reserves A.F.C.); linesmen, H. Hare and P. Hewlett.

Result:—
Bristol X.L.C.R. ..... Three goals.
Music Halls ..... Two goals.

THEATRICAL PATENTS.

The following abridged description is specially drawn for THE ERA by Messrs. Hughes and Young, Patent Agents, 55-56, Chancery-lane, London, W.C., who will give advice and assistance free to our readers on all patent matters:—

PATENT ILLUSTRATED (18590).—Living pictures; advertising; displaying. Patentee, F. Boggis (known as De Dio), 18, Adam-street, Strand, W.C. A large frame, representing a picture-postcard album, for displaying living pictures in theatres, or for advertising or displaying goods, has a front cover hinged to the back. The back is open, and has a frame with two-grooved rods, on which an imitation of a large picture-postcard, forming a background, slides. The front cover may be opened by any means, such as by the lever worked by the handle, thereby exposing the "leaf," in which is an opening carrying a board or screen, on which may be projected by a lantern the title of the picture to be exhibited. Living persons enter the box-like enclosure, and, when they are inside, the postcard bearing pictures or other scenery is slid into position. The front cover is then opened, and the picture is displayed. The pictures are changed while the front cover is closed. Instead of the leaf with its screen, a screen working on springs or other rollers may be provided, which is raised out of sight while the picture is being displayed. The cover may be held in position when closed by the spring.

BUREAU DE CHANGE
SPECIALLY RECOMMENDED. HANDS and CO., 16, STRAND, CHARING-CROSS RAILWAY STATION, LONDON, W.C.

"I'll swear upon that bottle."—TEMPEST, Act ii., Scene ii.

WHITBREAD'S
BOTTLED BEERS
maintain their popularity because they are brought into condition by MATURING IN BOTTLE,
the Natural method,
without the aid of carbonating or other artificial process.
The largest Beer Bottlers in the World.
APPLY TO CHIEF OFFICES,
BRITANNIA ST., KING'S CROSS, LONDON, W.C.
(Telephone No. 366 North. Telegraphic Address, "Beerseller, London.")
FOR NAME OF NEAREST AGENT.

"THE MAGICIAN."
A Monthly Journal Devoted to Magic, Spiritualism, Hypnotism, &c. Edited by WILL GOLDSTON.
4s. 6d. per Year, post-free. Single Copies, 4½d.
Everything New in Conjuring Illustrated and Described.
Publishers,
A. W. GAMAGE, Ltd., Holborn, London, E.C.
New Conjuring Catalogue sent post-free.

THE TONIC OF TONICS
Do you need bracing?
Are you suffering from lassitude or stagnation of blood?
If so, drink
Wolfe's
AROMATIC SCHIEDAM
Schnapps
the finest of all tonics and strength stimulants. It keeps the human organs in healthy action and prevents their becoming impaired.
4/- a Large Bottle.
To be had of all Wine and Spirit Merchants, Licensed Grocers, &c.
Wholesale Agents—
THE FINSBURY DISTILLERY Co., LONDON.

BIRKBECK BANK.
ESTABLISHED 1851.
CURRENT ACCOUNTS.—TWO PER CENT. Interest allowed on Minimum Monthly Balances when not drawn below £100.
DEPOSITS.—TWO-AND-A-HALF PER CENT. Interest allowed on Deposit Accounts.
ADVANCES MADE. STOCKS AND SHARES Bought and Sold.
Apply, C. F. RAVENSCROFT, Secretary, Southampton-buildings, HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

ACCIDENTS OF ALL KINDS,
SICKNESS, EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY, BURGLARY, and FIDELITY GUARANTEE RISKS Insured against by the RAILWAY PASSENGER'S ASSURANCE CO.,
Capital (fully subscribed) £1,000,000. Claims paid, £5,000,000. 64, CORNHILL, LONDON.
A. VIAN, Secretary.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.
ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.
Each Bottle of this well-known Remedy for COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, NEURALGIA, TOOTHACHE, DIARRHŒA, SPASMS, &c., BEARS ON THE STAMP THE NAME OF THE INVENTOR,
DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE
Numerous Testimonials from Eminent Physicians accompany each Bottle.
Sold in Bottles by all Chemists at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d. each.

BEDFORD PANTECHNICON,
17, PERCY STREET, TOTTENHAM COURT-ROAD, LONDON, W.
FURNITURE, SCENERY, MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS, and PROFESSIONAL WARDROBES
Carefully Packed for Removal and Warehoused Estimates free.

TYPEWRITING.
MRS. MARSHALL, 126, STRAND, W.C.
PROMPT BOOKS and ACTORS' PARTS.
TRANSLATIONS FROM and INTO ALL LANGUAGES.
ADAPTATIONS of FRENCH and GERMAN PLAYS UNDERTAKEN.
SHORTHAND DICTATION in FRENCH or ENGLISH. REFERENCES to MANY LEADING AUTHORS and MANAGERS.

A COMPLETE FOOD FOR THE ROBUST OR INVALID.
'Allenburys' DIET
A pancreatised Milk and Wheaten Food most easy of assimilation. Prepared in a minute by the addition of boiling water only. It is an ideal diet for the Dyspeptic and the Aged, and is invaluable in the sick-room.
In Tins at 1/6 and 3/- of Chemists, &c.
A large sample for 3 penny stamps.
ALLEN & HANBURYS, Ltd.,
37, Lombard-street, LONDON.
The "Allenburys" DIET is a food for Adults, and is quite distinct from the well-known "Allenburys" Foods for Infants.

THE MISTAKE MADE IN FURNISHING
is in having no settled plan, no fixed idea of exactly what will be required, down to the minutest detail in every room, and the exact cost. If you would furnish in STYLE, and yet with ECONOMY, you should secure the HACKNEY FURNISHING CO'S
GUIDE AND CATALOGUE,
an illustrated volume that has helped thousands, together with Prospectus of our famed "MODEL" SYSTEM, testimonials, &c.
POST FREE.
CAUTION.—Please note HACKNEY FURNISHING CO., LTD., Painted over the Premises before entering. We are compelled to notify this.
HACKNEY Furnishing Co., Ltd.
CASH BARGAINS OR EASY TERMS.

GENERAL TERMS. Worth.	Per Month.	Special Facilities for Members of the
£10	£0 6 0	Dramatic and Music Hall
20	0 11 0	Professions.
30	0 17 0
40	1 5 0	10 per cent. Discount for
50	1 8 0	Cash.
100	2 5 0
200	4 10 0	Carpets, &c., laid free.
500	11 5 0
and pro rata.		No Deposit Required.

TOWN HALL BUILDINGS, MARE STREET, HACKNEY, N.E.,
AND THE GROVE, ADJOINING.
Hours, 9 till 9; Thursdays close 4. Telegrams: "Furniments, London." Tele.: 84 Dalston and 854 North Country orders packed free and carriage paid
OPEN SATURDAYS until a LATE HOUR.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES.
For Sustaining the Voice.
Invaluable for ACTORS and SINGERS.
Indispensable for PUBLIC SPEAKERS.
GENTLEMEN,—For sudden affections of the Bronchial Organs I use and most cheerfully recommend "Brown's Troches." They are regarded as most eligible, convenient and indispensable by numerous artists of my acquaintance, BOTH IN EUROPE AND AMERICA. They seem to act specially on the organs of the voice, and produce a clear enunciation.—Yours truly (Signed), MARIE ROZE MAPLESON.
SOLD EVERYWHERE AT 1/1½ PER BOX.

DINNEFORD'S MAGNESIA.
The Best Remedy for Acidity of the Stomach, Heartburn, Headache, Gout, and Indigestion.
A Safe and most effective Aperient for regular use.

ROWLAND'S ODONTO
FOR THE TEETH.
Whitens, Preserves, Beautifies the Teeth; prevents Tartar and Decay, 2/9, of Stores, Chemists, and ROWLAND'S, 67, Hatton Garden, LONDON.

EVANS' ANTISEPTIC THROAT PASTILLES
Highly recommended by Leading Actors and Vocalists for preventing and removing Soreness, Irritation, and all affections incident to prolonged or undue vocal exercise. Try them when your voice fails you. Sold by Chemists at 1/- and 4/6 per box. Write for Free Sample, mentioning name of this publication to Sole Manufacturers, EVANS SONS LESCHER AND WEBB LTD., LIVERPOOL

Price 3s. 6d. Post free 3s. 10d.
THE LAW OF COPYRIGHT FOR ACTOR AND COMPOSER.
BY ALBERT A. STRONG, LL.B.
Published at "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

A. BLACKFORD.
LADIES' and GENTLEMEN'S THEATRICAL BOOTS and SHOES in Great Variety.
Companies Fitted.
Estimates Free on application.
3, 4, and 5, KING-STREET, COVENT-GARDEN, W.C.
Telephone P.O. Central, 5,014.

DRESS CLOTHES LENT.—BLACKFORD has for SALE or HIRE the Finest of CLOTHES for Theatres, Balls, Parties, Weddings, Dinners, Funerals, &c. Clothes sent to any part of England. Perfect Fit guaranteed. 3, 4, and 5, KING-STREET COVENT-GARDEN (One Door from Market), and 31, WELLINGTON-STREET, STRAND. Telegraphic Address, "Misfits, London." Telephone, P.O. Central, 5,014.

A NEW BOOK.
"LATEST CONJURING."
By WILL GOLDSTON.
148 Pages. Nearly 200 Illustrations. Handsomely Bound in Cloth, 2/- post free 2/3. The finest Work of its kind. All the latest Tricks, Illusions, Handcuff Acts Trunk and Barrel Performances, Mystic Kettle, and similar acts thoroughly explained, aided by First-class Illustrations. Write To-day. A Clever Book at a Cheap Price. Published by—
A. W. GAMAGE, Ltd.,
HOLBORN, LONDON E.C.

NO SCURF, but Beautiful Soft Glossy Hair by daily use of JAVOL
HAIR TONIC

JAVOL
Removes Scurf and Dandruff, Prevents Hair Falling Out or Turning Grey, and is a most delicate and exquisite preparation. In artistic flasks, 3/- Money returned in full if you don't like Javol. Ask your Chemist or Perfumer for it, and insist on having it, or send direct to LAMONT, CORLISS & CO.,
11, QUEEN VICTORIA STREET, LONDON.

THE FEET.—Nails a Speciality.
ALL DISEASES OF THE FEET Successfully Treated without pain by Gardner and Pendall, Chiropodists and Foot Specialists, 85, Regent-street, London, W. Highest Surgical Testimonial (Sir WILLIAM JENNER, &c.). Also Testimonials from the Prime Minister, Bishop of London, H.R.H. Prince Christian, &c. CORN, BUNION, CHILBLAIN, and RHEUMATIC OINTMENT absolutely cures Gouty and all Painful affections of Tender Feet, Soft Corns, Stiff and Enlarged Toes and Joints, Rheumatism, Piles, &c.
Post Free, 14 stamps.

NOW READY.
THIRTY-NINTH YEAR OF PUBLICATION.
Price, ONE SHILLING; by Post, TWELVE STAMPS.
1906—THE ERA ANNUAL—1906
The Most Complete DRAMATIC DICTIONARY OF DATES and THEATRICAL TREASURY OF KNOWLEDGE ever brought before the Public.
It will also be found to be the most Interesting Annual of the Year.
Office, 5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, STRAND, W.C.

STAGE SUPERSTITIONS. By CHARLES WARNER. Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph. See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.
"BOY BOB" AT SEA. By LOUIE FREEAR. Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph. See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.
"THERE'S MANY A SLIP." By FRANK CURZON. Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph. See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.
NELLIE BLIGH'S NOTICES. By FRANK DESPREZ. Illustrated by Photograph and Autograph. See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.
NEW PIECES PRODUCED ALPHABETICAL LIST OF AT THE LONDON THEATRES. See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.
NEW PIECES PRODUCED ALPHABETICAL LIST OF AT THE PROVINCIAL THEATRES. See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.
NEW PIECES PRODUCED AT THE PARIS THEATRES. See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.
NEW PIECES PRODUCED AT THE BERLIN THEATRES. See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.
THEATRES AND MUSIC HALLS IN THE UNITED KINGDOM. See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.
THEATRICAL, MUSICAL, AND EQUESTRIAN OBITUARY FOR 1905. See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.
DRAMATIC and MUSICAL CALENDAR. See THE ERA ANNUAL, 1906.

PATENT
THE H.W. Velvet Grip
STOCKING SUPPORTERS.
The only "GRIP" that "GRIPS" Securely without Injury to the Hose
No. 86, Plain Silk Elastic, 2 Grips, Pin or Loop Top .. .. ..1/7 pair
" 10, Frilled silk Elastic, 1 Grip, Safety Pin Top .. .. .. 1/8 "
" 40, Frilled Silk Elastic, 2 Grips, New Clip Top .. .. 2/6 "
GENTS' BOSTON GARTERS, for supporting the Socks, Cotton 1/- " Silk 2/- "
Postage 1d. Pair Extra
PATENT RUBBER CUSHION BUTTON
Ladies obtain from PETER ROBINSON, Ltd., Regent-street, W. Wm. WHITELEY, Ltd., Westbourne-grove, W.
Gents obtain from PALFREY & BROWN, 55 & 143, Strand, W.C. T. M. LEWIN, 18 Jermyn-street, S.W.

LONDON THEATRES.

FANCY DRESS BALLS, COVENT GARDEN.
Managers,
Messrs. FRANK RENDLE and NEIL FORSYTH.

GRAND FANCY DRESS BALL,
FRIDAY NEXT, JAN. 26,
at 11 p.m.
Box Office, 10 to 5.
Telephones, 2,888 and 2,105 Gerrard.

DRURY LANE THEATRE ROYAL.
Managing Director, Arthur Collins.
TWICE DAILY, at 1.30 and 7.30,
The Children's Pantomime.

CINDERELLA,
the Real Catch of the Christmas Season,
By Sir F. C. Burnand, J. Hickory Wood, and Arthur Collins. Music by J. M. Glover.
Walter Passmore, Harry Randall, Harry Fragson, Arthur Williams, Johnnie Danvers, Arthur Conquest; Queenie Leighton, May de Sousa, Emily Spiller, Pollie Emery, Daisy Cordell, &c.

HIS MAJESTY'S. NERO.
Mr. TREE begs to announce that on THURSDAY EVENING NEXT, Jan. 26, will be produced
NERO,
By Stephen Phillips.

Nero .. .. Mr. TREE.

Box Office (Mr. Watts) open 10 to 10. No fees.
Telephone, 1777 Gerrard.

GAIETY THEATRE.
Manager, Mr. GEORGE EDWARDES.
Every Evening at 8
(Doors open 7.40).
A New Musical Play,
entitled
THE SPRING CHICKEN.
Box Office open from 10.0 till 10.0.

GAIETY.
TWO NAUGHTY BOYS,
Every Afternoon, at 2.15,
Doors open 2.0.
A Musical Fairy Play,
entitled,
TWO NAUGHTY BOYS.
The Most Successful Children's Play in London.

GARRICK.—MR. ARTHUR BOURCHIER as Shylock.
MISS VIOLET VANBRUGH as Portia.
To-day (Saturday), at 2 and 8
(Last Two Performances for the Present),
THE MERCHANT OF VENICE.
On Monday next will be Produced a New Version of the Military Comedy, BROTHER OFFICERS.

DALY'S THEATRE.
Produced by
MR. GEORGE EDWARDES.
Every Evening, at 8.30.
Matinée Every Saturday, at 2.30.
THE LITTLE MICHUS.
THE LITTLE MICHUS.
THE LITTLE MICHUS.
THE LITTLE MICHUS.
THE LITTLE MICHUS.
THE LITTLE MICHUS.

DUKE OF YORK'S THEATRE.
Sole Lessee and Manager, Charles Frohman.
Twice Daily at 2 and 8 o'clock.
Charles Frohman presents
"PETER PAN;
Or, The Boy Who Wouldn't Grow Up."
by
J. M. Barrie.
Box Office daily 10 to 10.

APOLLO THEATRE.
HENRY LOWENFELD, Sole Proprietor.
TOM B. DAVIS, Sole Lessee and Manager.
Every Evening at 8.15 and Matinée every Saturday, at 2.15,
MR. POPPLE
(of Ippleton).
A Comedy with Music, written and Composed by Paul Rubens.
Mr. G. P. Huntley. Miss Ethel Irving
Mr. Rubens' representative, Mr. Arthur Whittaker.

COMEDY THEATRE.
Sole Lessee, Mr. ARTHUR CHUDLEIGH.
Under the management of Mr. ARTHUR CHUDLEIGH.
Every Evening, at 9, CHARLES FROHMAN presents "THE MOUNTAIN CLIMBER," by Cosmo Hamilton. Preceded at 8.30 by "THE LITTLE FATHER OF THE WILDERNESS." Matinée Every Wednesday and Saturday, at 2.30.

WALDORF THEATRE.
Mr. CYRIL MAUDE.
Lessees, the Messrs. SCHUBERT.
TO-NIGHT and EVERY EVENING, at 9 o'clock, a New Comedy, entitled,
THE SUPERIOR MISS PELLENDER,
by Sidney Bowkett,
in which Mr. CYRIL MAUDE and Miss WINIFRED EMERY will appear.
Preceded, at 8.30, by
THE PARTIK'LER PET,
by Max Maurey, adapted by Edward Knoblauch, in which Mr. CYRIL MAUDE will appear.
First Matinée WEDNESDAY, Jan. 24, and Every Wednesday and Saturday at 2.30.
BOX-OFFICE OPEN 10 to 10. Tel., 3830 Gerrard.

WALDORF THEATRE.
"Noah's Ark."
Last Performance To-day at 2.30.
An Original Fairy Play, entitled,
NOAH'S ARK.
NOAH'S ARK. MISS MADGE LESSING.
MISS MADGE LESSING.
MR. HARRY PAULTON.
MISS MADGE LESSING. NOAH'S ARK.
LAST MATINEE TO-DAY.

GREAT QUEEN STREET THEATRE.
GERMAN PLAYS.
HANS ANDRESEN.
This Saturday Evening, at 8.15,
"LISELOTT," by Heinrich Stobitzer.
Matinée To-day, at 2.30, "ALT HEIDELBERG."
Tuesday and Wednesday Evenings, at 8.15,
And Matinée, Jan. 27, at 2.30, "LISELOTT."
Thursday and Friday Evenings, at 8.15,
"ALT HEIDELBERG."
Saturday Evening, Jan. 27, at 8.15,
"DER MILITAIRSTAAT."

KING'S THEATRE, W.
Telephone, 119 Hammersmith. Owner and Resident-Manager, J. B. MULHOLLAND.
Nightly, at 7.30, the Fourth King's Pantomime,
DICK WHITTINGTON.
Matinées, Mon., Wed., Thurs., and Sat., at 2. Children Half-Price. Usual prices: Stalls, 5s., 4s.; Circles, 4s., 3s.; Pit Stalls, 2s. 6d.; Pit, 1s.; Gallery, 6d. Book at Theatre. Box Office, 10 to 10, or Libraries.
All Communications, address, J. B. MULHOLLAND.

ALEXANDRA THEATRE.
STOKE NEWINGTON, N.—Enormous Success of the Grand Christmas Children's Fairy Pantomime, of Oriental magnificence.
ALI BABA AND THE FORTY THIEVES.
'Phone 85 Dalston. All communications to H. G. DUDLEY BENNETT, Managing-Director.

SHAKESPEARE THEATRE, S.W.
Success! Success! Success!
The tenth Annual Children's Xmas Fairy Panto., THE FORTY THIEVES. including the entire grand International Ballet, "L'Entente Cordiale,"
from the Alhambra Theatre.
Manager, H. G. DUDLEY BENNETT.

ROYAL COUNTY THEATRE,
KINGSTON-ON-THAMES.
Managing Director, Mr. PETER DAVEY.
Nightly at 7.45, Ninth Annual Panto.,
SINBAD THE SAILOR.
Matinées, Mondays, Wednesdays, and Saturdays.
Tel., "Theatre, Kingston." 'Phone, 58, Kingston.

LONDON THEATRES.

BRIXTON THEATRE, S.W.
Lessee and Manager, Mr. ERNEST STEVENS.
General-Manager, J. MURRAY HERRIOT.
The Fairy, Operatic, Spectacular, and Humorous Pantomime,
"CINDERELLA."
A Colossal Success.
Press and Public Verdict: "An Ideal Pantomime for Mirth, Music, and Magnificence."
Nightly at 7.30. Matinées Monday, Wednesday, and Saturday, at 2 o'clock.

MARLBOROUGH THEATRE,
HOLLOWAY, N.
MARLBOROUGH. The Third Marlborough
MARLBOROUGH. Pantomime.
MARLBOROUGH. THE FORTY THIEVES,
MARLBOROUGH. Nightly at 7.30. Matinées
MARLBOROUGH. every Monday, Wednesday,
MARLBOROUGH. Thursday, and Saturday, un-
MARLBOROUGH. til further notice. Telephone
MARLBOROUGH. 131 North.
All communications to Mr. F. W. PURCELL.

WOOLWICH.—GRAND THEATRE.
The Premier Theatre of S.E. London.
Proprietor & Manager, Mr. CLARENCE SOUNES.
Every Evening, at 7.15. Matinées Thursday and Saturday, at 2. Mr. Clarence Sounes' Sixth Grand Christmas Pantomime,
THE FORTY THIEVES.
Telephone, 69 Woolwich. Offices, 85 Woolwich.
Vacant April 30 and May 14, onwards, for Big First-class No. 1 Attractions only.
Address, SOUNES, Woodlawn, Blackheath, London.

POPLAR. NEW PRINCE'S THEATRE.
The Premier Theatre of East London.
Proprietor & Manager, Mr. CLARENCE SOUNES.
This New and Handsome Theatre now open with Grand Pantomime, BEAUTY AND THE BEAST.
Enormous Success. Every Evening, at 7.15.
Matinées, Wednesday and Saturday, at 2.
Wanted, First Class No. 1 Attractions only, for May 7, 28, onwards (with exceptions).
Address, SOUNES, Woodlawn, Blackheath, London.

ELEPHANT AND CASTLE THEATRE.
Nightly at 7.30.
Grand Pantomime,
ROBINSON CRUSOE.
Supported by the Best Company in South London.
Matinees Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday, at 2 o'clock. Popular prices.

ROYAL WEST LONDON THEATRE.
CHURCH-STREET, EDGWARE-ROAD, W.
Jan. 22, THE SILVER KING.
Jan. 29, THE BEAST AND THE BEAUTY.
Doors open 7.30. Overture 7.45.
Popular Prices. Telephone, 2247, Mayfair.

LONDON MUSIC HALLS.

ALHAMBRA.
SUPERLATIVE PROGRAMME.
New Grand Ballet,
PARISIANA,
MDLLE. JANE MAY.
Varieties by Vanola, Miss Fatmah Diard, Clown Pacal; ROSINA CASELLI'S DOGS, Miss LALLA SELBINI, Dunningarton, Julius Thorn, URBANORA, "A Trip to New Zealand," "Latest Election Results," MY LADY NICOTINE Ballet.
Manager, Mr. GEORGE SCOTT.

EMPIRE.—Every Evening at 8.15. and Every Saturday at 2.30.
The Grand Spectacular Ballet, CINDERELLA.
Mdlle. ADELINE GENEE as CINDERELLA.
W. Louis Bradfield, Harry Huntley,
THE BUGLE CALL,
an original Divertissement.
Ritchie Barber Trio, Raffin's Monkeys, Taciann, Gaudschmidts and his dog, &c., &c.
Manager, Mr. H. J. HITCHINS.

PALACE.
Kate Cutler and Arthur Playfair, in "Hero and Heroine," Mas Andres, "Moonshine," De Dio, &c., &c., and a New Series of Bioscope Pictures.
Every Evening at 8.0 (doors 7.45).
Special Priced Matinée Saturdays, at 2.
Full Evening Programme.
Manager, Mr. ALFRED BUTT.

MIDDLESEX, DRURY LANE, W.C.
Proprietor and Manager, Mr. J. L. GRAYDON.
Lightning Programme.—Fred Karno's Comedians, in their pantomimical absurdity, "Jail Birds," Mills Bros., Ada Parker, Geo. Reeves, Rose D'Alberg, Harry Champion, Quick and Quaint, Otto's Cats, A. E. Clifford, Simosa San, Raynor and Reece, Cruikshank, the musical comedian, Montague Biggs, Sisters Selwyn, Charles Denton, the New Bioscope, the Moran and Marcese Trio, in their musical transformation act. Commence 7.15. Sat. one hour earlier. Popular prices.

ROYAL STANDARD MUSIC HALL
(facing Victoria Station). Proprietor and Manager, Mr. T. S. DICKIE. One House Nightly (half-time 9.30), except Saturdays and Holidays).
Monday, Jan. 22, Will Evans will ride Gluepot in the Great Porterhouse Stakes of 3½yds. for 3½d.; Boyd and Gilfain, Millie Payne, Frederica's Dogs, Harry Champion, Johnny Holland and Co., Billy Williams, Oakley and James, Evelyn and Vera, Dick Kendal, Dorothy Vell, Chas. Ber Vol, Florence Yaymen, Edisonograph. Rehearsal Monday, 1 o'clock. Doors open 7.30 (Saturdays 7 o'clock); Commence 7.40 (Saturdays 7.15, with augmented programme). Telephone 503 Westminster. Assistant-Manager, Mr. M. Volny.

HAMMERSMITH PALACE.
Proprietor, J. C. COE.
Monday, Jan. 22, 1906, Fred Ginnett and Co., "Turpin's Ride to York," F. W. Lees, Amy Marsden, Harry Walker, the Brothers Bright, Walter Emmerson, Sisters Wingrove, Mabel Lynne, Fred Earle, the Edisonograph, Tom Lytton, Hill and Hull, Brown and Kelly Combination, Billie Burford, Florence Moody, the Famous Jees.
Manager, LEWIS VINCENT. Tele., 106, Hammersmith.

NEW BEDFORD PALACE OF VARIETIES (Ltd.), CAMDEN-TOWN, N.W.
Mr. A. F. LOVESEY, Manager.
Twice Nightly, at 6.10 and 9.10.
Next week (Jan. 22),
Grand Star Variety Company.
All Artists are notified that they must send their full bill matter in two clear weeks before opening. Rehearsal, 1.0 o'clock, Mondays. All Artists engaged must attend. Artists not complying with the above rules are subject to having their contracts cancelled at the option of the Management.

ROYAL ALBERT MUSIC HALL.
Victoria Dock-road (Opposite Canning Town Railway Station). Proprietor and Manager, Mr. CHARLES RELF, sen.; Chairman, Mr. Walter Leaver; Musical-Director, Mr. R. A. Howell. One Performance nightly. Mon., Jan. 22, Fred G. Brooke, Sisters Beatrice, Delmars, Payne's Bio-Photoscope, Ferris and Farnley, Alice Francis, Rean and Relbut, Nellie Kilburn, Mark Tapley, Sterrol and Kirkpatrick, Alf Whitney. Boxes (each Person), 1/6, Fauteuils, 1/-, Stalls, 9d, Circle, 6d, Gallery, 3d.

Price 3s. 6d. Post Free 3s. 10d.
THE LAW OF COPYRIGHT FOR ACTOR AND COMPOSER.
BY ALBERT A. STRONG, LL.B.
Copyright confusion is, like the poor, always with us, and as it seems likely to remain so until at least the crack of doom, it were well for all concerned, or likely to be concerned, to take immediate steps to secure a copy of Mr. Albert A. Strong's new work entitled "The Law of Copyright." Mr. Strong is already favourably known to the profession for his text-book on "Dramatic and Musical Law," which, like his latest production, is published at "The Era" Office. "The Law of Copyright for Actor and Composer" essays to make clear to the non-legal mind what is—or, in some cases, what probably is—the law as musical and dramatic copyright. The chapters the Berne Convention and on the Chase Act passed by the United States Congress last March are full of interest.—Referee.
Published at "The Era" Buildings,
5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

LONDON HIPPODROME.
Twice Daily, at 2 and 8 p.m
"Among the Stars," Fishing Cormorants, Annette Kellermann, Leonard Gautier, The Uessems, Tschernoff's Dogs, Bioscope, Sisters Urma, Delbosq Bros., Cole de Losse Duo, Lukushima Troupe, Lavater Lee, Rinaldos, Mezzettis, The Novellos, The Auroras, The Hardinis, Alice Lorette, Marguerite Doris, Genero and Theol, The Pissuitis, &c.

MASKELYNE and DEVANT'S MYSTERIES (late Maskelyne and Cooke's), St. George's Hall, Langham-place, W. Daily, at 3 and 8. "Mascot Moth" (new version, including Indian Mango Trick); M. C. Tamamoto, the Japanese Blondin; Nelson Hardy, Ventriloquist; and "Joey," the Clown; New Problems; Enchanted Hive, Burmese Gong, &c. Reserved Seats, 2s. to 5s.; Balcony, 1s. Children under 12, half-price. 'Phone, 1545, Mayfair. Tele., "Maskelyne, London."

WORLD'S FAIR,
ROYAL AGRICULTURAL HALL,
ISLINGTON.
Open daily at 1 o'clock till Feb. 10.
Gigantic Programme of Popular Amusements, Circus, Managerie, Aerial Shows, and other Great Attractions.
Admission, SIXPENCE.

FUNDS, &c.

ROYAL GENERAL THEATRICAL FUND.
FOR MEMBERS BECOMING INCAPACITATED EITHER BY OLD AGE OR INFIRMITY.
Hon. Treasurer, EDWARD TERRY, Esq.
CHARLES J. DAVIES, Secretary, Savoy House, Strand.

ACTORS' BENEVOLENT FUND.
The ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING of the Subscribers will be held on the Stage of HIS MAJESTY'S THEATRE, on MONDAY, Jan. 29, at 12 o'clock, noon, for 12.30 punctually, to receive the Report of the Committee, and the Accounts for the year 1905.
H. BEERBOHM TREE, Esq., in the Chair.
The attendance of subscribers is requested, and all those interested in the work of the Fund are invited to be present.
C. I. COLTSON, Secretary,
Offices, 8, Adam-street, Adelphi, W.C.

ACTORS' ASSOCIATION
(Incorporated under the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1900), 10, King-street, Covent Garden, London, W.C. Annual Subscription, 15s.; entrance fee 5s.
NOTICE.
Members having been struck off for non-payment of subscription may be reinstated on the FIRST OCCASION by payment of subscription for the year in which they were struck off and the current year's subscription. Members having been struck off for non-payment of subscription may be reinstated on the SECOND OCCASION by payment of subscription for the year in which they were struck off, plus a 7s. 6d. reinstatement fee and the current year's subscription.
A Scheme of Insurance will be adopted in 1906 by which every Member, whose subscription for the year is paid, will be covered under certain conditions, particulars of which can be obtained upon application to
CHARLES CRUIKSHANKS, Sec. Telephone, No. 1753 Gerrard. Telegraphic address, "Actoris, London."

SCENIC ARTISTS' ASSOCIATION,
5, ROBERT-STREET, ADELPHI, W.C.
COMMITTEE MEETING, at OFFICES, 8 p.m.
MONDAY NEXT, JAN. 22, 1906.
H. LAWRENCE HARRIS,
Honorary Secretary.

MUSIC HALL BENEVOLENT FUND.
Established 1888. Offices, 18, ADAM-ST., STRAND, W.C. Hon. President, Sir JOSEPH RENALS, Bart.
President, J. L. GRAYDON, Esq.; Trustees, G. ADNEY PAYNE, Esq., and R. WARNER, Esq. Treasurer, J. L. GRAYDON, Esq. Secretary, HORACE MARRIOTT.
Committee:—Chairman, Frank Weeks, Esq.; Vice-Chairman, H. G. Hibbert, Esq.; Frank Allen, Angelo A. Asher, Hugh Astley; Chas. Beecham, C. Berte, B. Brown, James Chappell, C. Chapman, D. J. Clarke, W. Clarkson, F. Coyne, J. W. Cragg, J. Dunedin, H. M. Edmunds, Joe Elvin, James Fortune, Harry De Frece, Walter De Frece, Jack De Frece, Edgar Granville, Edward Granville, Fred Griffiths, H. Griff, Henri Gros, C. E. Howell, A. Hubner, W. F. Hurndall, S. M. Hyman, John Lawson, John Leopold, L. C. J. Livermore, Joe Lyons Alan Macey, Fred McAvoy, Harry Masters, A. W. Matcham, Fred Miller, T. M. M'Naughton, D. Monro, G. W. Moore, Sir E. H. Moss, George Mozart, Joe O'Gorman, Will Oliver, C. Blyth-Pratt, Harry Randall, Phil Ray, George Robey, Fred Russell, J. D. Stuart, J. Selbini, Tom Shaw, Jack Somers, Walter Stockwell, Paul Valentine, E. Warner, B. Williams, Captain. E. H. Warren Wright.
The Relief Committee Meets every Thursday, at 2 o'clock.

MUSIC HALL SICK FUND,
Founded 1867. Postal address, 1, YORK-RD., LONDON, S.E. Committee Meetings Second Wednesday in Month at 2 p.m. Sick Payments, £1, for 6d. per week; £1 10s., for 9d. per week. £10 paid to nearest Relative on death of Member. President, Mr. PAT CAREY; Hon. Treasurer, Mr. FRANK HEATH; Secretary, R. T. BAINES.

ACADEMIES and SCHOOLS.

ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC,
TENTERDEN-STREET, W.
Instituted 1822. Incorporated by Royal Charter, 1830.
The Academy offers to Pupils of both sexes an opportunity of receiving a thorough education in Music in all its Branches, the Drama, and Dramatic Elocution under the most eminent Professors.
For terms and all other information apply to
F. W. RENAUT, Secretary.

THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF MUSIC
(Incorporated by Royal Charter, 1883),
PRINCE CONSORT-RD., S. KENSINGTON, S.W.
Patron, HIS MAJESTY THE KING.
President, H.R.H. the PRINCE OF WALES, K.G.
Director, Sir C. HUBERT H. PARRY, Bart., C.V.O., D.C.L., M.A., Mus. Doc.
Hon. Sec., CHARLES MORLEY, Esq., M.P.
Half-term commences on Feb. 12.
The Examination for Associateship (A.R.C.M.) will take place in April.
Syllabus and Official Entry Forms may be obtained from FRANK POWNALL, Registrar.

GUILDHALL SCHOOL OF MUSIC.
The only School in London for
OPERATIC and THEATRICAL TRAINING which possesses a completely equipped Theatre.
Public Performances periodically given.
Stagecraft, Elocution, Fencing, Gesture, and Deportment Taught by Eminent Professors.
New Pupils can enter at any time.
FEES MODERATE.
Prospectus on application to H. SAXE WYNDHAM, Victoria-embankment, E.C., Secretary.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC ART. Principals, CAIRNS JAMES, ERNEST D'AUBAN; President, GEORGE EDWARDES, Esq. WINTER TERM began Jan 15, 1906. Complete course of studies for the light opera and dramatic stage. Private and class lessons in all subjects. Pupils may join at any time. THREE "GEORGE EDWARDES" OPEN SCHOLARSHIPS awarded yearly. The winners obtain one year's complete tuition and an engagement under Mr. Edwardes' management.—Apply, Secretary, 77, New Oxford-street, W.C.

TO OUR READERS.—
A SINGLE COPY OF "THE ERA"
Post-free to any Address in the United Kingdom for SIX STAMPS.
Telegraphic Address, "The Era, London."
Address, THE PUBLISHER,
"The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-st., Strand, W.C.

COLONIAL THEATRES.

AUSTRALIA.—
MELBOURNE, SYDNEY,
Mr. J. C. WILLIAMSON,
Manager of the Leading Australian Theatres.
HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE, MELBOURNE;
HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE, SYDNEY;
THEATRE ROYAL, SYDNEY.
London Representative,
J. A. E. MALONE, Daly's Theatre.

SOUTH AFRICA.—
Messrs. B. and F. WHEELER
now control the
ONLY CIRCUIT OF THEATRES
in
SOUTH AFRICA.
Proprietors and Lessees of
OPERA HOUSE, CAPETOWN,
HIS MAJESTY'S THEATRE, JOHANNESBURG,
WHEELER'S OPERA HOUSE, PRETORIA.
THEATRE ROYAL, DURBAN,
GOOD HOPE HALL, CAPETOWN.
Companies Now Touring:
George Edwardes' Gaiety Company.
Wheeler-Edwardes' No. 2 Musical Company,
William Haviland and Co.
E. G. Knowles' Tour.
Mrs. Langtry and Company.
The D'Oyly Carte Principal Repertoire Co. sailed s.s German, Dec. 2.
London Representative,
J. A. E. MALONE, Daly's Theatre.

AFRICA.—
LEONARD RAYNE.
Business-Manager in South Africa
GRANT FALLOWES.
London Representative,
GEORGE RAYNE.
Portugal House, Portugal-street, W.C.

PROVINCIAL THEATRES.

ALDERSHOT.—THEATRE ROYAL.
Lessee and Manager, Mr. CLARENCE SOUNES.
Vacant April 2, 9, 16, and May 7, onwards. Rapidly Booking Autumn. SOUNES, Woodlawn, Blackheath, S.E. Telephone, 85, Woolwich.

BATLEY. — THEATRE ROYAL.
Under the Personal supervision of the Proprietors, MR. AND MRS. J. EDWARD WHITTY.
Within Two Miles of the Theatre there is a compact Population of 90,000 persons. The Theatre is at the Terminus of the Electric Cars.
Stage Capable of Mounting any Production. Holding Capacity, 2,200. £108 17s. 4d. taken last Saturday. Four Monster Election Meetings for Opposition. Refer, Peter Thompson, "Babes in the Wood" Panto.
Address, J. EDWARD WHITTY, T. R., BATLEY.

BIRKENHEAD. — NEW THEATRE ROYAL.—Sole Lessee and Manager, Mr. W. W. KELLY.—Phenomenal Success of this Beautiful New Theatre. Crowded Houses Nightly. Refer to Mr. Charles Manners (Moody-Manners Opera Co.), Mr. C. E. Hamilton ("Peggy Machree" and "Leah Kleschna"), Mr. J. Bannister Howard ("Eternal City"), and Mr. Walter Melville ("Girl's Cross Roads").
First Vacant Date, May 7, 1906.
The Only Dramatic House now Open Here.
Bookings and Pencillings Already Secured include the following High-class Attractions:—
"Earl and the Girl," "Chinese Honeymoon," "Geisha," "Cingalee," "Freedom of Suzanne," "Peggy Machree," "La Poupée," "San Toy," "Brown at Brighton," Moody-Manners Opera Co., "My Lady Molly," "Lucky Durham," "Florodora," "Greek Slave," "Silver King," "Mice and Men," "Sapho," "The Gayest of the Gay," "Country Girl," "Eternal City," "Swiss Express," F. R. Benson's Company, "The Breed of the Treshams," "Darling of the Gods," "Doctor Wake's Patient," "The Golden Girl," "Sunday," "Fatal Wedding," "Lady Slavey," "Kitty Grey," "Sherlock Holmes," "Amorelle," "Cousin Kate," Edith Cole in New Play, "Leah Kleschna," "Belle of New York," "Sign of the Cross," "The Christian," "The Garden of Lies," "A Royal Divorce," "Sergeant Brue," and all the enormously successful dramas now being toured by Messrs. Walter Melville, Frederick Melville, Dottridge and Longden, Carson and Granville, Paumier and Howard, J. F. Elliston, and E. Hill-Mitchelson.
Managers Desiring Dates at this Money-making Theatre, please address,
W. W. KELLY, 8, Hamilton-square, Birkenhead.
Telegraphic Address, "Hustler, Birkenhead."

BIRMINGHAM.—GRAND THEATRE.
Largest and most Comfortable Theatre in the Provinces.
Proprietor, J. W. TURNER. Gen-Man., V. TURNER.
Now Booking, 1906.

BOSCOMBE (Bournemouth).— Correspondent required to supply Theatre and Music-hall Reports weekly. Address, DRAMATICUS, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, London, W.C.

BLACKPOOL. — GRAND THEATRE AND OPERA HOUSE.
Owner and Manager, Mr. T. SERGENSON.
The Press says:—The Grand is the prettiest theatre in the world.
Everybody is charmed with this magnificent temple of the drama.
Mr. H. Beerbohm Tree says:—There is no theatre in either London or the provinces better appointed or better arranged.
Mr. H. Beerbohm Tree says: It is the most perfect theatre in England.
Mr. Wilson Barrett said it was the most perfect theatre he ever performed in.
Congratulations and Compliments on every hand from both Public and Professions.
Every Comfort and Convenience provided for the Patrons of this Lovely Theatre.
Each portion of the Theatre is provided with separate Refreshment Rooms.
The Theatre is thoroughly warmed and ventilated on the most Modern Principle.
Electric Light, own Installation.
Matcham's Masterpiece is a Model Theatre.
Financial and Artistic Success.
Acknowledged by Everyone to be "the" Theatre. Second to None in the Kingdom.
Every Comfort and Convenience for the Artists.
The most Comfortable and Perfect Dressing-rooms of any Theatre in England.
Only First-Class Companies. Holds at Ordinary Prices over £300. Open all the Year Round.
Holds at the same Prices £100 more than any Theatre in the Town.

BLACKPOOL.
HER MAJESTY'S OPERA HOUSE,
WINTER GARDENS.
The PRINCIPAL THEATRE,
Holds MORE MONEY at ORDINARY PRICES, and has better average business throughout the Year than any Theatre in the Town.
The most Comfortable, Elegant, and Best Equipped Theatre. Large and Well Electric Lighted Stage and First-Class Orchestra.
All Visitors to the Theatre have Free Admission to the Winter Gardens, Floral Hall, Empress Ballroom, and Pavilion Entertainments, thus Companies visiting Her Majesty's Opera House have this additional attraction, which no other Theatre can offer. Only best No. 1 Companies booked.
For Dates, address, JNO. E. HUDDLESTONE, Manager, Winter Gardens, Blackpool.

CAMBRIDGE.—NEW THEATRE (Ltd.)
Man. Director, Mr. W. B. RAMSDEN, J.P., D.L.
A theatre among the most beautiful in England.—Sunday Times. Vacant dates, March 1 and onwards, with exceptions.
Silence a polite negative.

PROVINCIAL THEATRES.

CARDIFF. — KING'S THEATRE.
Sole Lessee and Manager, FRANK BATEMAN.
Vacant Dates, Easter (Certainty), April 23, and on.
All must be new to Cardiff.
Address as above

COLCHESTER.—THEATRE ROYAL
Sole Proprietor, Mr. CHAS. MACDONA.
Vacant dates, Feb. 26, March 5, 19, May 7, Whit Week, and onward.
All communications to CHAS. MACDONA, 17, Shaftesbury-avenue, W.

CORK.—OPERA HOUSE.
Vacant
March 5, 12, 19, 26, April 23, May 7, 14.
None but first-class attractions received.
Applications to Mr. JOHN HORGAN, Manager.

CREWE.—Correspondent Required to supply Theatre and Music Hall Reports weekly. Address, Dramaticus, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

CREWKERNE, SOMERSET,
The new VICTORIA HALL, licensed, seat 450, 2 ante-rooms, stage 29ft. by 20ft. 9in., population about 5,000, district another 5,000.
For terms, apply the SECRETARY,
Crewkerne Fair and Markets Co., Ltd.

DUBLIN. — GAIETY THEATRE.
All Communications regarding dates for above, after May 1, 1906, to be addressed to MRS. MICHAEL GUNN.

DUBLIN, QUEEN'S ROYAL THEATRE
Sole Proprietor and Patentee, Mr. ELLIS JONES.
Lessee and Manager, Mr. J. W. WHITEHEAD.
Jan., July 2 and 9, vacant.
Address, J. W. WHITEHEAD.
Silence in all cases a respectful negative.

EALING.—Correspondent Required to supply Music Hall Reports Weekly. Address, DRAMATICUS, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

GILLINGHAM (Kent).—Correspondent Required to Supply Music Hall Reports Weekly. Address, DRAMATICUS, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, London, W.

GRIMSBY.—PRINCE OF WALES'S THEATRE, LTD.
Established 1884.
Chairman, H. J. CURRY.
Managing-Director, JOSEPH H. CURRY.
Open all the Year Round.
CURRY'S TIVOLI THEATRE OF VARIETIES, LIMITED.
Chairman, Mr. H. J. CURRY.
Managing-Director, Mr. H. CURRY.
Opened Dec. 18, 1905.
Telegraphic Add., "Curry, Grimsby." Tel. No. 240.

HANLEY.—THEATRE ROYAL, LTD.
Please note:
The Staffordshire Potteries for all Dramatic Purposes
must be considered as one Large Town.
Hanley has undoubtedly the Largest Theatre and Stage in Staffordshire.
Lighted by Electricity.
Accommodation for 3,700 People.
Electric Trams and Trains after Performance to ends of the District, Longton, Stoke, Burslem, and Tunstall.
Vacant Dates, March 19, 26, April 9, 23, onwards.
For First-class Companies only.
Required a first-class pantomime for four or six weeks, for Xmas, 1906-7.
CHAS. E. ELPHINSTONE,
Managing-Director.

HULL.—THE CIRCUS.
General Manager, EDWARD EMERSON.
One of the Finest and Largest Halls in the Provinces, Fitted with Large Stage, and Suitable for Circus, Minstrels, Concerts, Choir Parties, &c. Rental, Share, or Salary. Only a few Vacant Dates.

ILFRACOMBE. — ALEXANDRA THEATRE. Permanent Stage, seats 1150. Absolutely the Largest and Best Ventilated Theatre, with Heating Apparatus, and Electric Light, in the District. J. ROBERTS, Manager.

ILKESTON.—THEATRE ROYAL.—
Licensee and Manager, Mr. L. F. A. ROGERS.
Tel. No. 17. Vacant Feb. 26 onwards.
A few dates open for Pantomime.
Silence a courteous negative.

IPSWICH. — LYCEUM.
Managing-Director, Mr. HUGH TURNER.
Now Booking Spring.
All communications re dates should in future be addressed to A. Smyth-Pigott,
General Manager,
F. R. Benson companies,
11, Henrietta-street, Covent Garden, W.C.

JARROW. — THEATRE ROYAL.
BARROW, ROYALTY T. and OPERA HOUSE, CONSETT, NEW THEATRE.
Lessee and Manager, Mr. HUGH ROBERTSON.
Jarrow, a few Vacant Dates.
Barrow, March 26, April 9, 16, and 23,
for First-class Musical Attractions.
Consett, Feb. 19, on, with exceptions.
Re dates, HUGH ROBERTSON, T. R., Jarrow.

JERSEY and GUERNSEY.
Population 100 000. No opposition. Transit Service, Sept. to May inclusive, depart Bournemouth 11.33 p.m., Bath 11.27 p.m., Swindon 11.28 p.m., Bristol 11.0 p.m.; June to Sept. inclusive, leave Southampton 12.30 midnight. All communications to C. ROBT. PERKINS, Jersey.

KIDDERMINSTER.—OPERA HOUSE.
Elegantly equipped.
Patronised by élite of Districts.
Vacant Jan. 29, March 5, 12, 19, April 2.
Add., JAMES P. MOORE, Ivydene, Lower Hagley.

KING'S LYNN. — NEW ROYAL.
Managing-Director, J. BANNISTER-HOWARD.
Recently Rebuilt at a Cost of £3000. Lighted with Electricity. Can be Booked in conjunction with Cambridge. 3, Bedford-st., Strand, W.C.

LEEDS. — QUEEN'S THEATRE.
Vacant April 9, 23; May 7, 21, 28.
Can Entertain a First-class Pantomime Production for Next Christmas Season.
All coms, E. DOTTRIDGE, Empire, Oldham.

LEICESTER.—ROYAL OPERA HOUSE AND THEATRE ROYAL. Lieut.-Col. J. A. Winstanley has disposed of his Theatres to Messrs. Milton Bode and Edward Compton, who will enter into possession on February 19, 1906. Messrs. Bode and Compton will take over all Contracts entered into by Lieut.-Col. Winstanley with travelling Managements. Re dates, address MILTON BODE, County Theatre, Reading.

LEYLAND. — PUBLIC HALL,
LANCASHIRE. Stage 30ft. by 20ft. Proscenium seats 800 Balcony. District Population 3000.
Small Stock Scenery. No Sharing.
Vacant dates for Companies or Entertainers.
Apply Managing Director, Park House, Leyland.

LLANDUDNO.—GRAND THEATRE.
Largest and Finest in Wales.
Record at Usual Prices £165.
Vacant June 25, onwards.
Address,
HALDANE CRICHTON,
M. R. THEATRE, DUNDEE.

PROVINCIAL THEATRES.

MORECAMBE.—ROYALTY THEATRE
Sole Lessee, JULIAN MALVERN.
Vacant Easter, Whit, and on.
For High-class Attractions only.
Address, CHAS. M. JULIAN, General Manager.
Jan. 22, THEATRE ROYAL, HYDE.

NORWICH. — THEATRE ROYAL.
Enlarged, Redecorated, Lighted Throughout by Electricity. Upholstered by Dean and Co.
Weekly Matinées for County Visitors.
Silence a polite negative.
FRED MORGAN, as above.

NOTTINGHAM.—GRAND THEATRE.
Manager, CHARLES P. COOKE.
Vacant Whit week, first-class attraction; also June 25, Aug. 13, and on, with exceptions.

OLDHAM. — EMPIRE THEATRE.
The Premier Theatre. Holding Capacity, £200.
Vacant April 16, 30, May 7, 21, and 28.
Also Xmas. for a First-class Pantomime Season.
Address, ERNEST DOTTRIDGE.

OXFORD. — NEW THEATRE.
Managers of First-class Companies are invited to apply for Dates to Mr. THOMAS LUCAS, J.P., Managing-Director.
Silence a polite negative.

PLYMOUTH. — THEATRE ROYAL.
Lessee and Manager, Mr. C. F. WILLIAMS.
A few Spring Dates Vacant. First-class Companies only. Open all the Year Round. For Dates apply,
Mr. C. F. WILLIAMS,
THEATRE ROYAL, PLYMOUTH.

PONTYPOOL.—Correspondent Required to supply Theatre Reports Weekly. Address, DRAMATICUS, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, London.

POPLAR.—Correspondent Required to Supply Theatre Reports Weekly. Address, DRAMATICUS, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

PORTSMOUTH.—NEW THEATRE ROYAL.—Licensee and Manager, Mr J. W. BOUGHTON.
Open throughout the Year.
First-class Companies. Weekly Matinées.

RYDE. — THEATRE ROYAL.
Managing-Director, J. Bannister Howard.
The only Theatre in the Island, and commands a population of 80,000. Can be booked in conjunction with Worthing. WILLIAM MARTIN, 3, Bedford-street, Strand, W.C.

SCARBOROUGH.—Correspondent Required to supply Theatre and Music Hall Reports Weekly. Address, DRAMATICUS, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, London, W.C.

SOUTHEND THEATRE CO. (1905), Ltd.
EMPIRE THEATRE, SOUTHEND.
'Phone No. 70.
This Theatre under Entirely New Management.
Managing Director, GEO. CONQUEST.
Now Booking Spring Dates.
First-class Companies Only.

SOUTH SHIELDS THEATRE ROYAL.
Licensees and Managers,
Messrs. J. and F. COULSON.
Open all the Year Round. First-class Companies only. Vacant April 30, June 4, 11, 18, July 16, 30.

SUNDERLAND. — AVENUE OPERA HOUSE.
Managing Director and General Manager, CHARLES E. MACHIN.
Vacant, Feb. 5, for Pantomime, which must have been produced Xmas, 1905, at a No. 1 Theatre, and have been a Success; can negotiate for two or four weeks. Only other vacancies in 1906, for No. 1 Musical Comedy, April 2, and 9, and 23, May 14, 21, 28, June 4, August 6, 13, 20, September 3, 10, Nov. 5, 12, 26, Dec. 3, 10. All communications, CHARLES E. MACHIN, Avenue Opera House, Sunderland.

SWANSEA. — GRAND THEATRE.
Lessees and Managers, BROOKE & WOODBRIDGE.
Now Booking Autumn, 1906, and Spring, 1907.
Only Vacancies,
Few Summer Dates for Sound Drama, Comedy, or Musical Pieces;
Sept. 25, Nov. 5, 19, Dec. 17, 24, 1906;
Jan. 7, 28, Easter and Whit, 1907.
All coms., E. OSWALD BROOKE, Resident Partner.

SWINDON. — QUEEN'S THEATRE.
Sole Proprietor and Responsible Manager, ALFRED MANNERS.
The only Theatre in the County of Wiltshire.
Population of Town and Districts exceeds 100,000.
Billed every week.
Lighted throughout by Electricity.
Seating capacity £100.
One of the most handsome Theatres in the Provinces.
The following plays are booked for Spring:—The Walls of Jericho, Mr. Milton Bode's Robinson Crusoe, Mr. Geo. Dance's own Co., in The Orchid, Sapho, Mr. Milton Bode's Babes in the Wood, Mr. Fred Storey in Rip Van Winkle, The Breed of the Treshams, Mr. Ernest Carpenter's Goody Two Shoes, None but the Brave, Sergeant Brue, Wearin' o' the Green, Kitty Grey, Mr. Wentworth Croke's Christian, Mr. Geo. Dance's own Co., in The Cingalee, Mr. William Maclaren in Claudian, Mr. Chas. Harrington's Uncle Tom's Cabin, and Sailors of the King, Mr. Percy Hutchison's Co., in The Freedom of Suzanne, and On the Love Path, &c., &c.
No Vacant Spring Dates.
Now Booking Autumn and Spring, 1907.
Please "Remember" this House is under my constant and personal attention, worked strictly on No. 1 lines, has a permanent orchestra of 12 Qualified Musicians.
Offers of Dates from First-class Companies will only be entertained and answered.
(Please note, I absolutely decline under any consideration to guarantee Printing Bill or Fares.)
Companies of this description are requested not to apply for Dates.
Open for First-class Panto., Xmas, 1906, two or three weeks.

TUNBRIDGE WELLS OPERA HOUSE,
Vacant Feb. 22, March 8, and 15, 3 nights each, March 19, 26, and Easter Week.
CHARLES CAREY.

WEST BROMWICH. — ROYAL.
Popular and Prosperous Theatre.
No Vacant Dates till after Easter.
Brilliantly illuminated by Gas and Electricity.
All communications to JAMES P. MOORE.

WEYMOUTH.
HOTEL BURDON ASSEMBLY ROOMS.
Seats 500, Fitted Stage, Dressing-rooms, Electric Light, Electric Current for Cinematograph, 220 volts, Small Select Theatrical Companies, Best Part Town, Acoustic Properties Perfect.

SCALE OF CHARGES FOR PROVINCIAL THEATRES AND PROVINCIAL MUSIC HALLS
Five Lines, TWO and SIXPENCE.
Thirteen Insertions (Including a Copy of "The Era" Weekly), THIRTY SHILLINGS.
For Each Additional Line, Sixpence.
Address, the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.
"Wire," "The Era, London."
"Ring-up," 4,147, Central.

PROVINCIAL THEATRES.

SCOTLAND'S PROVINCIAL THEATRES.
Managing-Director, Mr. R. C. BUCHANAN.
GRAND THEATRE, GLASGOW.
Now in Seventh Week of run, the Brilliant Pantomime "Aladdin," Produced by Mr Robert Courtneidge. Spring, Carl Rosa Season. Autumn, "Blue Moon" (first production in the City). First-class Companies only.
KING'S THEATRE, EDINBURGH.
At present in course of erection. The most central site in the City. Will open Autumn, 1906.

Bookings include Carl Rosa Grand Opera Co., J. W. Turner's Opera Co., "The Cingalee," "The Orchid," "San Toy," "Earl and the Girl," "The Girl from Kay's," "Kitty Grey," "Florodora," "Three Little Maids," "Trip to the Highlands," "Sergeant Brue," "Dandy Doctor," "New Barmaid," "Gay Parisienne," "Laughter Land," &c.

MOTHERWELL, NEW CENTURY.
LEITH, NEW GAIETY,
GREENOCK, THE ALEXANDRA.
AYR, NEW GAIETY.
KILMARNOCK, THE KING'S.
KIRKCALDY, THE KING'S.
FALKIRK, THE GRAND.
CLYDEBANK, NEW GAIETY.
THEATRE ROYAL, COATBRIDGE.

Bookings include Grand Shakespearian Revival, "Romeo and Juliet," Ed. Terry, Ed. Compton, F. R. Benson's Co., "The Eternal City," "The Christian," "The Silver King," "Sapho," "Sunday," "Saturday to Monday," The Walter Melville Plays, "Ben-my-Chree," "Manxman," &c.

Also Booked in conjunction,
THE METROPOLE, GLASGOW,
and THE THEATRE ROYAL, NORTH SHIELDS.
By arrangement with Mr. Jefferson.
GRAND THEATRE, NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE, and METROPOLE THEATRE, GATESHEAD.
By arrangement with the Directorate.
HER MAJESTY'S, CARLISLE.
By arrangement with Stanley Rogers, Esq.
All communications to Mr. R. C. BUCHANAN, General Office, Grand Theatre, Glasgow.
Telegraphic Address, "Bookings, Glasgow."

FRANCIS, DAY, and HUNTER'S WINTER NOVELTIES.

"BLUE BELL" (Elaborated).
New Friends and Old Favourites.
"DON'T GO TOO FAST, LITTLE GIRLIE,"
"LITTLE GLOW-WORM," and
"ONLY A PENNY,"
Sung by Miss ELLALINE TERRISS.
"BOW BELLS."
Sung by Miss MAUDI DARRELL.
"MY DIARY" and
"THE PATCHWORK GARDEN."
Sung by Mr. SEYMOUR HICKS.
"I WOULDN'T LEAVE MY LITTLE WOODEN HUT FOR YOU."
A Clever Coon Concoction, and a Pantomime Craze Everywhere. Featured at the London Coliseum.
"RAINBOW."
Sung by Miss PHYLLIS DARE in "The Catch of the Season," and the "Hit" of a Hundred Annuals. Featured at the London Coliseum.
"THERE'S NOTHING LIKE YOUR FIRST LOVE AFTER ALL"
(Leslie Stuart) and
"THE COON THAT NEVER TOLD A LIE."
Sung by EUGENE STRATTON, at the London Coliseum.
"DEAR LITTLE BABY"
(Gustave Kerker).
Sung by Miss MADGE LESSING in "Noah's Ark," at the Waldorf Theatre.
"WHO SAID 'GIRLS'?"
Miss VESTA TILLEY'S Latest Hit.
"A GOOD TIME IN MARS."
Sung with Enormous Success by Mr. FRED ALLANDALE, in "The Blue Moon," at the Lyric Theatre.
"YOU SHALL HAVE A LOVELY HOME, JOHANNA."
Sung by Miss MARIE DAINTON, in the Empire Revue.
"TEASING."
Sung by Miss ELLALINE TERRISS in "The Catch of the Season," on Tour.
"THAT'S WHY I'M SANTA CLAUS,"
HERBERT SHELLEY'S Sensational Success.
"SEAGULL."
Sung with very great success by HARRY BANCROFT and J. W. ELLISON.
"DON'T CRY, LITTLE GIRL."
Miss LIL HAWTHORNE'S Latest and Greatest Hit.
Professional Copies (post free, 7d. each) of all the above novelties,
FRANCIS, DAY, AND HUNTER, 142, CHARING CROSS-ROAD, LONDON, W.C.
Telephone, 5425 Gerrard. Telegraphic Address, "Arpeggio, London."

Pioneer Publishers of Popular Music.
Sixpenny Popular Editions of
FRANCIS and DAY'S Musical Copyrights.
This catalogue comprises 256 numbers, constantly added to, and includes the most Popular Songs, Ballads, and Pianoforte pieces.
NOW READY.
"I shall have to ——," "She waits by the deep blue sea," "Molly, don't be teasing," "I wish I had someone to love me," "You shall have a lovely home, Johanna," "One-and-a-penny a day," "Sing my lads 'Yeave oh,'" "That's why I'm Santa Claus," "My Japanesy Girl," "Will you be my Eskimo?" "What's the use of an old Log Cabin to me," "In Barcelona," "The Singer was Irish," "The Garden filled with Gold," "Seaweed," "Under the Um-ber-ella," "Little Glow-Worm," "Who said Girls?" "You're my Gal, You're my Donah" (Alec Hurley).
Sixpenny Pops. On Sale Everywhere.

IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR A REALLY FRESH AND "CATCHY" SENTIMENTAL SONG, THE SONG THAT YOU WANT IS,
"THE LOVER WITH THE TENDER HEART."
A Gay Little Story-Song, with a Novel and Infectious Waltz-tune Chorus that Sets the House Humming.
Chorus:
Don't say "Yes" to anyone, because he is young and bold;
Don't say "Yes" to anyone, because he has lands and gold.
Hands may meet and sever,
Lovers may pledge and part,
But love is for ever and ever,
When it springs in a tender heart.
Professional Copies Free on Application During Current Week.
KNIGHT BROTHERS,
18, HOLBORN and DYER'S BUILDINGS, LONDON, E.C.

YOUR AILMENT IS NATURE'S REPROOF.
To overcome that ailment
You require NATURE'S ASSISTANCE.
ENO'S 'FRUIT SALT'
IS NATURE'S OWN REMEDY.
NO FAMILY SHOULD EVER BE WITHOUT IT.
CAUTION.—Examine the Capsule, and see that it is marked ENO'S 'FRUIT SALT,' otherwise you have the sincerest form of flattery—IMITATION.

THEATRICAL SHOE AND HOSIERY MANUFACTURERS,
MAKERS TO THE PRINCIPAL LONDON THEATRES.
Louis Heel Dancing Shoes a Speciality.
Fifty Art Shades of Linen Back Satin, Specially Woven for the Manufacture of Dancing Shoes, kept in Stock.
This Satin has a Fine Lustre, and is almost as Strong as Leather.
Large Stock of Pure and Spun Silk Tights, Worsted and Cotton Tights, Opera Hose, Stockings, &c.
A Special Study made of Symmetrical Paddings.
The most Up-to-Date Stock of Stage Requisites and Sundries.
Everything of the Best and at Store Prices.
H. and M. RAYNE,
115, 117, and 119, WATERLOO-ROAD, LONDON, S.E.
(Opposite Electric Tram Terminus).
'Tel.: 7,978 Central.
And at 49, Charing-cross-rd., W.C., Nr. Hippodrome.

BRIN'S OXYGEN
for the Finest Limelight Effects.
Unapproached by Electric Light for Stage Effects.
Addresses:—
BRIN'S OXYGEN COMPANY, Limited
ELVERTON-STREET, WESTMINSTER, S.W.
Works: 69, HORSEFERRY-ROAD, S.W.
MANCHESTER OXYGEN COMPANY, Limited, GREAT MARLBOROUGH-ST., MANCHESTER.
BIRMINGHAM OXYGEN COMPANY, Limited, SALTLEY WORKS, BIRMINGHAM.

NOW READY.
THIRTY-NINTH YEAR OF PUBLICATION.
Price, ONE SHILLING; by Post, TWELVE STAMPS.
1906—THE ERA ANNUAL—1906
The Most Complete DRAMATIC DICTIONARY OF DATES and THEATRICAL TREASURY OF KNOWLEDGE ever brought before the Public.
It will also be found to be the most Interesting Annual of the Year.
Office, 5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, STRAND, W.C.

THE ERA

SATURDAY, JANUARY 20, 1906.

THE IMPORTANCE OF AMUSEMENT.

The tendency amongst the unthinking is to regard amusement as one of the "extras" of life, a mere frill on the garment of existence, and a thing of no national importance whatever. The great amusement of the English middle-class is making money; and it is followed and enjoyed with an intensity that throws all artistic attractions into the shade. There is no greater mistake than to suppose that avarice is the motive-power of most money-makers. They are artists in spirit; and what entrances them is the game, not the stakes. Art proper, therefore, becomes merely a handmaiden to the ruling passion, which satisfies all the needs of desire and imagination.

Everything, however, comes from the soil; and one of the many grave problems of the great European nations is the preservation of an agricultural class. In Germany the "Bauers," in France the peasant proprietors, answer to this description; in England the migration from the country to the towns is a commonplace of patriotic lament.

Some years since, Mr. ANDERSON GRAHAM went practically into the matter, and explained the causes of the tendency in his book "The Rural Exodus." The sum of his solution is the single word Dullness. The agricultural labourer, it appears, has lost all the old-fashioned fun of his life, and has nothing to put in its place. The fiddling, the dancing, the badger-drawing, the rat-killing, the cock-fighting, the quaint customs, the "moth-erings" and the "mummings" have died out, and all the zest of village life has died out with them. School Board education has substituted book-learning for observation of natural history and simple botany; and the fact that railways have brought the town and country into touch has made the rustic quite conscious of the slow, sordid monotony of his existence. Despite the establishment of Parish Councils, the village has little or no corporate spirit—everything is done for it at some urban centre; and the life of the rustic is like the "empty house swept and garnished" of Scripture. Is it matter for surprise that, whenever he can, he decides to get out of it?

It is useless and absurd to expect Hodge to go to his amusement. He can spare neither the time nor the money. His diversion has to be taken to him; and the only apostles who visit the rural districts are the once-despised, now-prosperous and important class of showmen. We must look at the enjoyments they offer from the point of view of the class to whom they are supplied. It is useless to preach "over the heads" of a congregation, or to expect great refinement of taste in people who live the hardest and roughest of lives, and in whom a certain insensibility is necessary for them to exist at all in a state of sanity. The showmen have always managed to discover what the common people wanted. We remember being at the Alexandra Palace when contingents from all the English troops were camping in the grounds. Seated on the horses of the roundabouts were samples of all the finest soldiery in the world—tight-uniformed Hussars, broad-hatted Australians and Canadians—all were supremely happy on their wooden steeds. Looking on stood a magnificent specimen of a native Indian soldier, tall, dark, nobly handsome, richly ornamented, turbanned vastly and voluminously. He seemed to be regarding the amusements of the Anglo-Saxons with placid scorn. The roundabout stopped, and several of the riders dismounted. Instantly a smile came over the superb features of the Indian onlooker. He promptly tucked in his loose lower garments, quickly seized on one of the vacant saddles, and in a few moments was whirling round with the rest. And, after all, are not the instincts of the people right and true? The riding instinct and the shooting instinct, the roundabout and the "gallery"—if half the trouble were taken by the State to develop these two desires from far-sighted patriotism that the showmen take from plain self-interest to gratify them we should not have our national defence in the state in which it is—according to so good an authority as Lord ROBERTS.

"People," as Mr. SLEARY told Mr. GRADGRIND, "must be amused; they can't always be working"; and quietly but steadily the show business in England has developed into a vast interest, in which thousands of pounds are invested. It enlists in its service not only capital, but science. The wonderful invention of the Cinematograph has enabled showmen to carry into the dullest and most distant districts films which, better than any description, inform the mind of the beholder in very various ways. No set of engravings, no printed account, can bring the actual details of manufacture, of natural history, of varied adventure, and of foreign life and scenery to the understanding like one of these instruments. Carried on with wonderful enterprise and energy, the production of these films is one of the most striking features of our modern civilisation; and the adoption of them by showmen proves how ready as a class they are to adapt themselves to up-to-date conditions. If anything can tempt Hodge to remain on the land, it will be the realisation that his life must be made less dull, that he must have more amusement. Unfortunately, the very people who deny this are those who do not work very hard, if they work at all, or whose lives are spent in some kind of pleasant frivolity. But those who have lived in a village in the wet winter months know "where the shoe pinches"; and it is in these times, when even the showmen's vans are not seen on the green, that the "rural exodus" from the villages to the towns is resolved upon.

THE dreamy Silvius, in the St. James's Theatre production of As you Like It, is played by Mr. Henry Worrall, much of whose short experience of the stage has been in Shakespearian parts. Born and educated in Manchester, until three years ago he was a prominent member of Mr. Ryder Boys's Old English Comedy Company, playing for charities as an amateur, but firmly determined to become a professional. Mr. Courtnedge's revival of As You Like It gave him the hoped-for opportunity, and soon afterwards he obtained an engagement to play juvenile parts in Mr. Oswald's Brand's tour of Dickens's plays. A sunny season of pastorals—in As You Like It again—should not be forgotten in mentioning Mr. Worrall's pleasant experiences up to date.

MISS CARLOTTA ZERBINI is one of those actresses whose long experience of the stage has not spoilt her freshness in playing herself or her interest in watching other people act. A member of a famous musical family—her brother, the late Mr. J. B. Zerbini, was well known as viola and pianist in the great days of "the Pops" at St. James's Hall—she has appeared in every style of theatrical production from grand opera to burlesque, from screaming farce to intensely serious drama. In the old days when she was a charming Pantomime hero, Miss Zerbini met with the most exciting experience of her career behind the footlights. She was playing Sinbad, and in the scene where the eagle descends from the sky, holding Sinbad in its claws, the men in the flies did not manage the ropes properly, and the eagle made a fierce swoop to earth, nearly smashing Tinbad, the comedien, who was also clinging to its claws, and literally taking away the breath of the audience—to say nothing of Sinbad.

MISS ZERBINI tells another good little story of being "left." She was playing Francis Osbaldistone in Rob Roy, one of her most effective exits being at the end of a touching farewell duet with Diana Vernon. One night, to her great surprise, she found herself warbling alone, "Though I leave thee now in sorrow," and discovered that Diana had indeed left her, having suddenly forgotten the words and fled in dismay. Miss Zerbini, however, was not nonplussed, for she finished the duet as a solo, and could easily have taken an encore. This most reliable and versatile of actresses was last seen in London in That Brute Simmons. She had the pleasure, by the way, of speaking the first words in the new Haymarket Theatre, when Mr. Harrison and Mr. Maude opened the season with that capital little piece.

THE trial of the six men charged with conspiring to print and sell copyright music has been continued throughout the week at the Central Criminal Court. The case for the prosecution was closed on Thursday, when counsel were heard in behalf of several of the prisoners. On Friday the prisoners were found guilty on all counts. Willetts was sentenced to nine months' imprisonment, and a bad record drew some scathing remarks from the Judge. Tennant was sentenced to two months; Puddifoot to one month; Ross was fined £50; and the two other prisoners were let off on promises of good conduct, or if repeating any offence to forfeit £50 each, and to receive sentences in addition. The various counsel for the prisoners made strong appeals for their clients, and in the case of Ross, it was stated his father was so ill that death would be probable if the son were sentenced. The admirable and severe speech of the Judge was all on the point of protecting creative work.

A COPY OF "THE ERA" will be forwarded to any address in the United Kingdom for six stamps. The Era is posted on Saturday in time to reach London Subscribers by the first Town Delivery, and Country Subscribers should receive their Papers by the first London Post. Address, the PUBLISHER, 5, Tavistock-street, W.C.

"A ROYAL DIVORCE."

Drama, in Five Acts, by W. G. Wills, revived at the Scala Theatre on Saturday, Jan. 13.

Napoleon ..... MR. FRANK LISTER
Talleyrand ..... MR. F. JOYNSEN-POWELL
Marquis de Beaumont ..... MR. GEO. W. COCKBURN
General Augereau ..... MR. NORMAN PARTRIEGE
Marshal Murat ..... MR. MAURICE H. HOFFMANN
Marshal Ney ..... MR. FRANK MELVILLE
Dr. Corvisart ..... MR. FREDERICK POWELL
Grimaud ..... MR. T. P. HAYNES
Brigadier Antoine ..... MR. EDWARD LANGFORD
Brigadier Pierre ..... MR. LORTON ORME
Lord Keith ..... MR. PERCY H. VERNON
Bob Royal ..... MR. WARBURTON GAMBLE
Officer ..... MR. JOHN HARFORD
Servant ..... MR. C. WATT
Marie Louise ..... MRS. CECIL RALEIGH
Stephanie de Beauharnais ..... MISS MARY JERROLD
Blanche d'Hervas ..... MISS IRMA FOLDI
Angelique de Varennes ..... MISS MAUD ABBOTT
The Little King of Rome ..... MASTER H. HOLLOM
Jeanne la Terreure ..... MISS EDITH WILSDEN
Gouvernante of the King of Rome / Mother Lomas ..... MISS DOLORES DRUMMOND
Empress Josephine ..... MISS EDITH COLE

When a dramatist has to choose between satisfying the learned and pleasing the ignorant, he will, if he be wise, undoubtedly take the latter course. Had Mr. W. G. Wills, the author of A Royal Divorce, which Mr. W. W. Kelly revived at the Scala Theatre on Saturday evening, allowed himself to be trammelled by history, he would certainly not have written a play whose popularity has been proved by a long and successful career in the provinces. And what would have been the use of casting and contriving the cast so as to give "counterfeit presentments" of the members of Napoleon's Court? Not one in a hundred in an English audience knows that Ney was a common-looking man with a retroussé nose and reddish hair, that Talleyrand looked like a serene light-comedian, that Josephine was a rather shallow Creole, and that Marie Louise was a placid and commonplace German blonde. Plays are written to attract the public, and not to please such pedants as those who object to Josephine's presence at the Battle of Waterloo years after her historical death. Mr. Wills made an affecting and an effective drama; and Mr. W. W. Kelly has cast and mounted it in thoroughly good style. Since the production of the piece at the Olympic in 1891, the last act has been re-written by George Gervaise Collingham; so that now we have Napoleon brought on shore at Portsmouth to receive the ultimatum of the Allies as to his imprisonment in St. Helena, and to take a last leave of Josephine before sailing for the island prison. The part of the unhappy Empress is played by Miss Edith Cole in a whole-souled, earnest, emotional way that enlists sympathy for Josephine in every act. Nor is the note of pathos the only one which is struck. Miss Cole, in Josephine's passage of arms with Marie Louise, and in her speech to the people in the third act, employs admirable fire and fervour, and bears herself powerfully and proudly. She handles the part with all the ease and confidence of an experienced actress. A really charming exposition of the rôle of Stephanie de Beauharnais is supplied by Miss Mary Jerrold, who is bright, piquant, and animated, and delightfully arch and amusing. How the thorough training of an actress of the old school tells is shown by Miss Dolores Drummond's performance of the little rôle of the Gouvernante, and by her broadly picturesque interpretation of that of Mother Lomas. Mrs. Cecil Raleigh gives a superb embodiment of Marie Louise, taking up the author's idea of the personage most loyally, and carrying it out very cleverly. She looks particularly pretty in the Empire costume of the Malmaison scene, and makes Marie Louise as hard, scornful, proud, and unfeeling as the necessity of the drama demands. The part could hardly be better played. Mr. Frank Lister deserves our gratitude for not caricaturing Napoleon, and for the realistic moderation of his method. Mr. Lister gives what is quite imaginably a reproduction of the actual man. It is a most artistic and well-considered reading. Mr. F. Joynsen-Powell is excellent in every way as Mr. Wills's Talleyrand—courtly, sententious, and severe; and Mr. George W. Cockburn's strong and tragic acting as the Marquis de Beaumont deserves warm commendation, his work in the Waterloo act being deeply dramatic. Mr. Norman Partriege is soldierly and spirited as Augereau; and Mr. Maurice H. Hoffmann is an entirely satisfactory Murat. Mr. Frederick Powell is careful and considerate as Corvisart; and the low-comedy character of Grimaud is liberally supplied with broad drollery by Mr. T. P Haynes. Mr. Percy H. Vernon looks truly magnificent as Lord Keith, and is, besides, appropriately firm and dignified; and Mr. Warburton Gamble does good work as Bob Royal. A pretty performance of the part of Blanche d'Hervas is supplied by Miss Irma Foldi; and Miss Maud Abbott is acceptable as Angelique de Varennes, Master Herbert Hollom showing intelligence as the Little King of Rome. The minor parts have competent representatives and Mr. W. T. Hemsley's scenery and Mr. Charles Pell's battle tableau are in the best style of the art. The piece is mounted and dressed in a most liberal manner, and evident pains have been taken to make the revival of A Royal Divorce at the Scala a success.

THE foundations of Miss Theresa Osborne's success as a heroine of melodrama were laid in the good school of Shakespearan companies. A favourite pupil of the late Miss Amy Sedgwick, she commenced to act at about Juliet's age—when, according to unwritten laws of the stage, she played Lady Capulet—studying and touring with such excellent managers as Mrs. Bandmann-Palmer and Mr. Edmund Tearle. Miss Osborne married into a well-known theatrical family, her husband being Mr. Sydney Compton, one of the youngest brothers of the house. He has been playing Brasset in Charley's Aunt for the last 14 months. Miss Osborne's most recent engagement was in a highly successful tour of Alone in London.

MR. ROBERT ARTHUR'S four suburban Pantomimes are still going very merrily and playing to excellent business, the advance booking for the Coronet Cinderella being such that it has been decided to extend the run. Dick Whittington, at Kennington, The Babes in the Wood, at Camden Town, and Red Riding Hood, at Fulham, are playing to crowded houses, but Mr. Arthur is reluctantly compelled to withdraw the last-named on Saturday in consequence of arrangements made last autumn with Mr. Martin Harvey to appear there during the week of January 29 in The Only Way and other pieces from his repertoire.

"THE ERA" can be obtained of SAY, of SMITH and SONS' bookstalls throughout the provinces.

VARIETY GOSSIP.

MISS MARIE LLOYD has sent a cheque for 100 guineas as a donation to the George Le Brunn Fund. We have not been permitted to publish the amount until to-day, because the kind-hearted little woman desired that her generosity should in no way act as a possible deterrent to other professional ladies and gentlemen who might have felt that the sums they were disposed to give would be overshadowed by this special tribute of the loyal-hearted comedienne to the dead friend whose genius did so much for her artistic fame.

THEATRICAL and music-hall artistes will combine in the splendid effort that is being made to ensure the welfare of George Le Brunn's widow, and among those who will positively appear at the matinée given at the Oxford on Monday next, will be Marie Lloyd, Vesta Tilley, Kate Cutler, Adrienne Augarde, Little Tich, Eugene Stratton, Marion Winchester, Arthur Roberts, Joe Elvin, Alec Hurley, Will Evans, Vesta Victoria, Louis Bradfield, and a host of other stars.

MUCH of the sparking music in Mr. Albert Gilmer's present magnificent programme was composed by the late George Le Brunn, Miss Amy Clevere's songs, and the music of both Mr. Elvin's and Mr. Alec Hurley's fine sketches. That of the latter, for charm, variety, and haunting melodies, puts the score of many an ambitious musical play utterly in the shade.

THE Holborn Empire, standing on the site of the old Royal, with its new and beautiful interior, will open its doors to the public on Monday, Jan. 29. The seating accommodation of what is, practically speaking, a new variety theatre is much increased, and with the opening up of the new and widened thoroughfares to Holborn, the greater facilities of communication, and the establishment of a theatre centre in the immediate neighbourhood, there is every prospect of a prosperous career for this latest addition to the Empires of the Metropolis. Mr. Walter Gibbons will run the establishment on the two-houses-a-night plan, at prices that will be within the means of the toiling masses. The seat tariff will range from 1s. 6d. in the fauteuils to 4d. in the balcony; and an excellent pit-stall may be obtained for 6d.

THE opening entertainment will have as one of its chief attractions a nonsensical romantic absurdity, entitled A Trip to the Isle of Man. All seats except those in the balcony may be booked in advance at a charge of 3d. extra. The Holborn Empire will be run in conjunction with the other houses controlled by Mr. Walter Gibbons, viz., the Islington Empire, the Ealing Empire Palace, the Duchess Palace, Balham, and the Grand, Clapham Junction.

MR. JOHN LAWSON has determined upon a trial of Mr. Cecil Raleigh's sketch The King's Minister at the Hounslow Varieties on Feb. 12. The plot of the piece, which deals in a striking manner with the alien question, and will be found to be very absorbing, has been worked out by Mr. Raleigh with the dramatic skill for which he is renowned. The characters are drawn from the highest circles of society, the moving spirit being no less a personage than a Prime Minister of England, and Mr. Lawson is devoting all his energies to the mounting, which will necessarily be very elaborate. Mr. Lawson, it may be noted, gave a matinée at Hounslow on Thursday for the relief of the unemployed.

MOST of the halls and variety theatres made arrangements whereby audiences could learn the latest results of the elections each evening by means of the Bioscope. In some cases the figures were read quietly and with a resignation and calmness that betrayed an audience largely composed of Unionists; in others party feeling broke out, and applause and "boos" were freely mixed. Fortunately we have had no political songs at the halls. For this relief much thanks. The twentieth-century artist scorns apparently to obtain cheap applause by ad captandum appeals to party passion; and the depressing practice of setting an audience by the ears has died a natural death.

UNANNOUNCED on the bills, and nameless to the audience, Coram, the new ventriloquist who made his first appearance in London at the Lyceum on Monday, established his right to be considered a performer of considerable ability. His technique is perfect; the dialogue of his show is humorous; and the working of the figure excellent. The singing of "Lucky Jim" is also decidedly droll, the final flood of "tears" evoking loud laughter. The polyphonist subordinates himself to the dummy, and the figure soundly "rates" its manipulator. Coram's success has been so pronounced that he is retained by Mrs. Barrasford on the Lyceum bill for next week, when he will occupy a premier position on the programme.

CORAM is the son of a well-known Halifax cotton commissioner, and was intended for the veterinary profession. Witnessing a ventriloquial entertainment in the town, he was fired with the ambition to learn the art. Without tuition of any kind, he commenced to practise, and within six weeks he appeared at local concerts with imitations of voices. Since that time he has taken occasional provincial engagements with a view to obtaining perfection in polyphony. Coram is now only 23 years of age, and possesses an extraordinary voice power, which is attributed by medical men who have made examinations to an abnormally high roof of the mouth.

MR. H. H. WELLS, a well-known director of the Syndicate Halls, who was a candidate in the Unionist interest for St. George's-in-the-East, was unfortunately defeated by Mr. Benn, the Labour candidate, by a majority of 621. Mr. Wells polled 1664 votes. Many music-hall managers and artists took a great interest in the contest, and Mr. Charles Beecham, of the Paragon, and Mr. Fred Miller, of the Canterbury, worked excessively hard. Mr. Alec Hurley brought up voters in a red motor-car; and quite an interesting appearance was made by a theatrical state coach belonging to Mr. Fred Karno's company, which also carried Mr. Wells's supporters to the polling places. Carriages, motors, and other conveyances were also lent by Mr. Will Evans, Arthur Roberts, Harry Ford, and Miss Victoria Monks.

AT the last meeting of the M.H.A.R.A. the following resolution was passed:—"That a conference be called at the offices of the M.H.A.R.A. on Sunday January 28, at half-past two o'clock, to consider the question of forming a music-hall artists' association, and that the following bodies be asked to send six representatives to the conference, viz.: The International Artists' Lodge, the Terriers' Association, the Order of the Water Rats, and the M.H.A.R.A." The chosen representatives of the last-mentioned Association are Messrs. Harry Blake, Reinart, Foreman (Foreman and Fannan), George Gray, Frank Gerald, and Fred Herbert.

MR. GEORGE COURTNEY (brother of Miss Maud Courtney) received at the East India Dock on Friday the remains of their brother, who died quite suddenly at Johannesburg on November 9. The interment takes place at St. Mary's Cemetery, Kensal Green, in a vault adjoining the chapel. Miss Maud Courtney will close her engagement at the Tivoli, Cape Town, on January 31, arriving in London February 17. She had the sad experience of losing her brother on the day following her début at the Empire, Johannesburg.

MISS MILDRED DE GREY, who dances in her bare feet, is to appear at the Tivoli on Monday. This lady, hailing from America, has just returned from St. Petersburg and Berlin. In the former capital, on her journey to the station, she was under fire for several minutes. At last she fell into the hands of the revolutionists, from whom she was rescued by a troop of Cossacks led by a young officer, not without being severely bruised and shaken. Miss De Grey is a very charming and pretty woman, and her performance à la Trilby should be a fascinating novelty.

SONG-WRITERS have lost a staunch champion by the defeat of Mr. W. J. Galloway, who went down on Saturday in the South-West Division of Manchester, before the wave of Liberalism which has swept over the British Isles. Mr. Galloway, it will be remembered, had charge of the Musical Copyright Bill in the late Parliament, and but for the obstinate opposition of Mr. James Caldwell would have carried the measure through. Mr. Caldwell's fate still remains in the balance, but should he be returned for Mid-Lanark, and become one of the party in power, it may not be presumptuous to hope that his antagonism towards that section of the community who contribute so valuably to the pleasure of the nation will cease.

MR. EDWIN LESLIE, of the Hippodrome, Southampton, has been appointed acting-manager of the Palace Theatre of Varieties, Belfast, which theatre, as stated in our columns of last week, has been leased from Messrs. Warden for a term by a syndicate headed by Mr. Walter De Frece.

MR. LESLIE was entertained at Scullard's Hotel, Southampton, on Wednesday night, Jan. 10, and presented with a very handsome gold-mounted cigar-holder, in silver case, inscribed "E. L."—Mr. Leslie's initials—from a few friends and well-wishers of Southampton. Mr. Sydney Paxton (manager of the Grand Theatre) presided over the gathering with characteristic geniality, the vice-chair being occupied by Mr. W. Trussell, manager of the Palace. Mr. Percy Aldin, who has been connected with the Southampton Hippodrome since the opening, has been appointed to succeed Mr. Leslie. The choice is an admirable one.

THE management of the Hastings Hippodrome has been summoned for infringements of the Stage Plays Act. Six occasions were cited by Mr. C. F. Baker, the Chief Constable, beginning with the production, on December 21 last, of Mr. Dan Thomas's pantomime Aladdin, and followed by Robinson Crusoe a fortnight later. Mr. Harry Day admitted the character of the pieces, but submitted to the Hastings Bench that no proceedings had been before taken in the provinces in respect of the production of sketches, &c. Mr. Benjamin Pearce Lucas, to whom the licence of the Hippodrome was transferred last July, was fined £2 in each case for the first performances and 5s. for each subsequent performance, with costs.

ON Saturday last the Hastings Hippodrome was the scene of a panic at a special matinée performance for children. A cry of fire was raised in the gallery before the performance began, and the crowd of children already there met those ascending on the stairs, and the result was that four children were conveyed to the local hospital suffering from internal injury.

MR. PERCIVAL CRAIG, the manager of the Bradford Empire, noticing the prominent references to the "Empire" in the Election speeches and advertisements of both parties, obtained some slips with the words "Vote for," and had them posted on the tops or sides of the theatre's ordinary posters, so that they read, "Vote for the Empire to-night at 6.50 and 9," thus obtaining a novel advertisement, and one that caused a good deal of comment in the town. It was an amusing incident that really suggested the idea. Two Bradford men, strangers, were arguing as to whether "C.-B." or Chamberlain would "wreck the Empire," and asked the opinion of Mr. Craig, who was standing by, and he replied that, "seeing he was manager of the 'Empire,' he hoped neither nor would they, if he could help it."

MR. F. V. ST. CLAIR is making a pronounced success with his election songs on the Moss and Stoll tour. The candidates in several towns have sent him letters, and at Cardiff he was complimented by the Lord Mayor. At Newport, after the first house on Monday evening, he received a letter thanking him for his eulogy of Councillor Winstone, who is running in the Labour interest in that town.

WISPER, the comedy tourist juggler, has been laid up for the last eight weeks through an attack of typhoid fever. He has had the good fortune to be under the skilful treatment of the medical staff of the Florence Nightingale Hospital, Bury, and has now completely recovered. After a short rest he will resume his professional engagements on January 29.

MR. FRED REYNOLDS, the son of Mr. Charles Reynolds, proprietor of the famous waxworks in Lime-street, Liverpool, who is studying music in Berlin, has written a charming waltz, "Le Desir," which has been played nightly with great success at the Empire, Liverpool.

MENDEL, the blind pianist, who is on a provincial tour of twenty-four weeks, has received many letters expressing admiration at his wonderful technique and memory, his extraordinary gift of improvisation, and his clever reproduction of the various styles of the masters of music. At one hall in the North a 2s. piece was thrown upon the stage, with the remark that it was from a poor woman, and the following evening a gentleman stood up in the stalls to testify that the piece Mendel had just played was the finest that had ever been heard on the variety stage.

A Deserted Hero was produced at the Leicester Palace Theatre, on Thursday, the 11th inst.; by Mr. Henry W. Hatchman and Miss Trissie Humphreys, and met with immediate success.

FRANK SHERLOCK and Jean Van Dalle, who are making a big hit in the provinces with their Eastern musical fantasy, The Mummy and the Undergrad., have been booked for the Barrasford tour through Mr. John Halpin.

MISS RUBY BIJOU, a versatile artist and an expert in the art of dancing, has been scoring at the Tivoli, Manchester, where she is booked until 1910. She has also been secured for all Walter and Jack de Frece's enterprises.

MISS ROSE HAMILTON is this week at the Metropolitan, singing two new songs, entitled The Hoodo Landlord and "Things I'd like to know." Both songs are written and composed by J. F. Lambe and Tom Mellor, and have met with instantaneous success.

MR. SOMERS-BELLAMY writes:—"In reply to many inquiries, it is Miss Margery Lawrence who does the Japanese dance with Miss Madge Haines at the Shakespeare, Clapham."

MR. GEORGE DESMONTI, who together with his partner Mora is appearing with marked success this week at the Empress, Brixton, has become an active member of the Committee of the Music Hall Sick Fund, of which society W. J. Wainratta, a well-known wire-walker in his day, is vice-president.

MISS MARIE LOFTUS, who has not been to Oldham for six years, has been gratified this week by her wonderful receptions nightly. It is quite certain that "Owdham" has not forgotten the fascinating "Glesca" lassie.

MISS LILY BURNAND, after a most successful engagement at the Oxford and other halls, is leaving town for a fortnight, after which she returns to open again at the West End. She has secured from Von Tilzer & Co. the sole music-hall rights of "On the banks of the Rhine" with a 'stein'" and "Sunny, sunny side." She also has in preparation some elegant new costumes.

THE Miles Stavordale Quintette (the original act) sailed for Australia on Friday by the P. and O. liner Mooltan for a long tour in the Antipodes, under Mr. Harry Rickards's management. The cornstalks are keen lovers of music, and will be sure to appreciate the playing of this most artistic combination, who, we feel sure, will repeat the success that is always theirs in the old country.

AT the Palace Theatre Miss Elsie Bernard, one of America's foremost burlesque actresses, will produce in the near future a musical burletta entitled The Gibson Widow, and she has commissioned Messrs. John P. Harrington and James W. Tate to supply her with special songs for the same.

MISS DAISY JEROME, the charming representative of the Dutch girl "Gretchen" in Mr. John Hart's pantomime at the Theatre Royal, Bradford, is, we regret to say, confined to her bed with a severe cold. Her place has been taken at very short notice by Miss Florrie Walker, who has scored a signal success in the part.

MR. GEORGE EDWARDES has shown his liberal-mindedness by a concession of a very rare nature in theatrical management. In order to enable Mr. Alfred Butt to put on Hero and Heroine at the Palace Theatre, the little play which was produced three weeks ago by the Pioneers' Society, he has agreed to allow Miss Kate Cutler to appear at the Palace every night—with Mr. Arthur Playfair—in the course of a rather long wait that she has in The Spring Chicken. The piece will be produced at the Palace next Monday.

OUR readers will regret to hear that Miss Florence Harcourt, until recently a member of Mr. Joe Elvin's sketch company, has had to resign her engagement with Mr. W. W. Kelly's Royal Divorce company in order to undergo a serious operation. It will be some time before Miss Harcourt will be able to resume work.

MR. J. W. CRAGG, of the Marvellous Craggs, on Sunday morning had rather a startling experience. He was standing at the window of his apartments in Glasgow when someone fired a shot through the window. The bullet passed close to his looking-glass, and had its direction been a few inches to the right the result would have been serious. The police have the mysterious affair in hand.

THE fourth anniversary of the Islington Empire was celebrated on Friday, the 12th inst., amid much enthusiasm from two crowded houses. Portions of the hall and the vestibule were tastefully decorated, and no less than forty took part in the double entertainment. They included Herbert Darnley and company in the sketch Moving In (twice), Arthur Gilbert (twice), Gilbert Girard (twice), Lozelle (twice), Milner Verren (twice), Tray and Rich, Boyd and Gilfain, the Bioscope, Harry Champion, Venie Clements, Fox and Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Royston-Dene, Ferris and Farnley, Bessie Benson, Kisbey, Harry Markham, Stewart and Morgan, F. Crisp, Datas, Carne Curre and dog, Venellos, Fred Earle, Anna Kenwick, Amy Marsden, Will Evans, George Victor, Walker and May, Dolly Harmer, Sam Dalton, Ruby Emmerson, Alfreda, Elmore and Raysford, Rossi Ashton, Ike Scott and Son, and others. The stage was under the management of Messrs. Alfred Bishop and R. Dallinger.

IN writing last week of the testimonial presentation to Mr. Arthur J. Barclay at the Walthamstow Palace, by a slip of the pen we gave the name of Mr. Geo. F. Slatter as one of the hon. treasurers. Mr. Slatter was vice-chairman of the committee, and the chief hon. treasurer was Mr. Albert E. Hill (of the Palace), to whose unceasing activity and whole-hearted enthusiasm not a little of the successful issue of the testimonial and its subsequent presentation was due.

IT was Mr. John Nathan who gave a birthday supper to his friends at the Lounge, Maiden-lane, on the 5th inst., and not Mr. Ben Nathan, the well-known agent, as stated in our gossip paragraph last week.

THOSE clever performers, the Delevines, are presenting this week their new act at the Euston, and rejoice in the fact that it has been accepted by Mr. Oswald Stoll for his tour, which they commence on Monday at the Hippodrome, Manchester.

KYOTO, the original comedy Japanese entertainer, and his wife, Miss May Geraldine, commence the Stoll tour on Monday at the Empire, Hackney.—My Cyril Gilbert left Gateshead on Tuesday to produce a local ballet at the Theatre Royal, Hull, for Mr. J. Bannister Howard.—Miss Esta Stella has been suffering severely from muscular rheumatism, but has bravely fulfilled all engagements.

AT the Hammersmith Palace Mr. J. C. Coe is making some important structural alterations which will add immensely to the comfort and convenience of that popular suburban hall. On the eastern side a new entrance and corridor leading to the fauteuils is being constructed, and visitors to the best parts of the house will avoid the crowding that has been unavoidable up to the present with only one entrance for pit and stall patrons. At the end of the corridor a new saloon and lounge is being fitted up for the use of those patronising the higher-priced seats.

THE new palatial entrance will be inaugurated on Feb. 5, when the programme will be of festival proportions, the week's bill being contributed to by one of the finest companies that Mr. Coe has ever presented. It will include the cream of the profession, and will be headed by Miss Marie Lloyd.

"CRUSHED VIOLETS," Mr. Clifford Graham's one-act episode, will shortly be put on at a West End hall. The dress worn by Miss Alice Heathcote (who plays Violet) is of old Honiton lace—one hundred years old, and cost two hundred guineas. She will be supported by Mr. R. George Lake-Grange, who has been six seasons with Mr. Walter Melville.

A VERY smart advertisement hand-bill was sown broadcast throughout these islands during the present General Election time by Mr. "Sixpenny Pops" Smith. Printed in red and blue on a white ground, and surmounted by the Union Jack and Royal Standard crossed, it read: "General Election. British Public Division. Vote for Francis, Day, & Hunter, publishers of the 'Popular' favourites in Sixpenny Musical Copyrights. On sale everywhere. Printed by Guy Whittem, Ltd., and published at 22, Denmark-street, W.C." On the back of the bill were printed the titles of about fifty of the firm's pantomime successes and "standard sellers," and results have been prodigious.

CARL HERTZ has had many adventures of varying kinds during his long career as a magician, but never a more exciting stage experience than happened to him recently at the Scala Theater, Copenhagen. During his conjuring performance, an inebriated occupant of the stalls kept on creating a disturbance, and though requested to desist several times, paid no attention. Later, in answer to Mr. Hertz's invitation to any member of the audience to come upon the stage to assist him in one of his tricks, the inebriated one made an attempt to come up, but was so much under the influence of liquor that he fell, and rolled into the stalls. The audience took the incident in a jocular spirit, but the shouts of laughter so exasperated the man that he pulled out a loaded revolver, and levelled it point-blank at Mr. Hertz. Fortunately for that gentleman, a lady in the stalls, with great presence of mind, jumped up and secured the revolver, her prompt action evoking loud applause. The objectionable person was then forcibly removed from the theatre.

STRONGFORT, the latest specimen of Herculean man, has a name that suggests the entente cordiale, though we believe he is a German. He has been secured by Mr. Frank Glenister for the London Pavilion, the scene of Sandow's greatest triumphs. We are told that Nature has endowed him with the strength of Hercules and the beauty of Apollo, and that the Berlin Art Gallery possesses his marble statue, modelled and erected at the request of the German Government. He lifts a dumb-bell weighing 312lbs. with one hand above his head at arm's length—a great feat.

MR. ARTHUR ROBERTS has been going extremely well at the Tivoli and the Paragon this week, introducing new and telling jokes at every performance. Miss Lucy Webling, who was formerly a member of the Follies, joined him at literally half-an-hour's notice on Wednesday night, taking the place of a member of his smart little company who had suddenly been taken ill, and played successfully in both The Importance of Being Another Man's Wife and Where's the Count? without a single rehearsal.

MR. CHARLES W. O'CONNOR, who has had considerable journalistic experience on various papers and recently acted as press agent for the Grand Theatre, has been appointed to a similar position at the Lyceum.

MR. HARRY TATE and his company made themselves very popular during their engagement at Hammerstein's Victoria Theatre, New York, in the side-splitting sketch called Motoring. Mr. Tate's offering was considered one of the best things in current Vaudeville.

"YOU'RE a thing of the past, old dear," in which Miss Marie Lloyd gives one of her finest character studies, has been added to the "Six-penny Successes" of the Monte Carlo Publishing Company. The song is one of the last in which the late George Le Brunn collaborated with Mr. J. P. Harrington.

MESSRS. John P. Harrington and Jas W. Tate have this week equipped Miss Rosie Lloyd with a new and striking comedy song, entitled "The Sparrows went 'Chip! Chip!'" This favourite artiste will also, on Monday next, produce at Collins's, the London, and Chelsea Palace the Monte Carlo Publishing Company's latest "winner," by Lawrence and Mellor, "I've built a Bamboo Bungalow for you."

SO universal have been the applications for that gem from The Coster's Beanfeast, entitled "You're my Donah, you're my Gal," the exquisite rendering of which by Mr. Alec Hurley has nightly at the Oxford been evoking furores of applause, that it has been issued by Messrs. Francis, Day, and Hunter as No. 256 of their "Sixpenny Pops" series.

MR. HENRI ZERBINI, the musical director of the Middlesex, has been presented with a handsome silver-mounted baton from a few friends at the Cambridge, where he was musical director for over six years. Mr. P. Phillips made the presentation in the saloon of the Middlesex, and Mr. J. L. Graydon spoke of the recipient in highly complimentary terms.

MESSRS. KARR AND KOONEY'S success at the Grand Theatre, Brighton, has been so pronounced that Mr. Ernest Carpenter has offered them another two years' engagement, making five years in all.

MISS EDITH STEWART wishes to correct the impression that she has abandoned the theatres for the variety stage. The migration is only temporary, but owing to the success of the American racing duologue, The 100 to 1 Chance, at the Palace Theatre and elsewhere, she has extended her engagement as "Florence Winton" therein, and is now appearing at some of the Moss and Stoll Empires in the provinces.

CARL and Carr, the successful comedians, are scoring an unqualified success with their refined comedy act, Fun Outside the Workhouse; also as Chinese policemen in the Aladdin pantomime at the Opera House, Middlesbrough.

HANS and Lux, who have been appearing with such success in Mr. Samuel James's pantomime Jack the Giant-Killer, were last week presented with a diamond pin and a handsome dressing-case by their agent, Mr. Ernst Warner, in remembrance of their success.

REX KING has good reason to remember the warmth of a Birmingham audience, and will not easily forget his flattering reception there at the Hippodrome, where he made his first appearance on Monday in his lightning changes.

The latest Stock Exchange quotations in reference to music halls, &c., are as follows:—Alhambra (at close), 1⅞; Canterbury, 1½; Drury Lane, 1 3-16; Empire, (15s. pd.) 1½, (10s. pd.) 1⅛; Gaiety, 1½; London Pavilion, Ordinary 4¾, Preference 5; London Coliseum, 2½; Lyceum, Ordinary 1s., Preference 1s. 6d.; Metropolitan, ⅝; Moss Empire, 4¾, Preference 3½; Oxford, 6⅝; Palace, 11s.; Tivoli, 5½; Variety Consolidated Theatres, 15s.

"APPY AMPSTEAD" at the Canterbury on Monday went better, if possible, than on its first production at the Oxford, and is drawing big houses. Mr. Joe Elvin will appear in Toffy's Trotter at the Oxford on Monday afternoon for the benefit of the widow of the late George Le Brunn, the composer of the music of nearly all his sketches—Over the Sticks, Appy Ampstead, &c.

MR. DAN CONROY must have been heartily pleased at the reception given to him at the Empire, Glasgow, on Monday. It was a truly Scottish welcome.

MISS ETHEL RA-LESLIE, with her new songs, beautiful dresses and charming appearance, is making a pronounced success on the Moss-Stoll tour.—Miss Nellie Monckton (of the Monckton), who is successfully playing Prince Charming in Mr. Herbert Barr's Cinderella pantomime, has scored with her excellent singing of "For better or worse" and "My Irish Molly." Miss Monckton, with her husband, Mr. Fred Monckton, is well booked with her musical comedy acts, A Woman's Curiosity and The Lady and the Burglar.—Miss Elsa Joel, who made her re-appearance on Monday at the Duchess, Balham, after her severe indisposition, was most successful in a new coon imitation, given in her latest song, "Lulu mine."

MR. RICHARD WARNER, in celebration of his jubilee, gave a house dinner at the Eccentric Club on Wednesday, when a joyous gathering of friends congratulated the popular and young-looking agent on his excellent health, and wished him many years of continued prosperity and happiness. The birthday festival was very heartily enjoyed.

MR. WARNER was presented by Mr. Jack Harrison, the Eccentric Club's Hon. Secretary, on behalf of Sir Edward Moss, with a case containing a gold cigar case, cigarette case and gold match box and sovereign purse. A case of cutlery from some of his brother Eccentrics was another birthday present. Both gifts bore appropriate inscriptions. Among the invited were Messrs. George Adney Payne, Frank Allen, Walter Gibbons, J. L. Graydon, George Ashton, Alfred Butt, Edward Ledger, Lionel Brough, Albert Gilmer, Major Cranston, Eugene Sandow, Joseph Lyons, James Bell (Town Clerk of London), Augustus M. Moore, Ben Nathan, H. G. Hibbert, Frank Boor, Walter de Frece, Frank Glenister, George Peel, F. H. Pedgrift, Harry Lundy, Charles Chapman, Ernest de Vere, E. Mayhew, Colonel Newit.

WITH the dawn of the last day of the Waverley Market Carnival at Edinburgh came the news, writes the Edinburgh Evening Dispatch, that Mr. "Fred" Harcourt, who had been connected with the entertainment since its inauguration, had passed away at Glasgow. The circumstances of Mr. Harcourt's death were peculiarly sad. For months he had been suffering continual pain from an internal trouble, which on or about last Christmas Day assumed a more dangerous aspect. The well-known "illusion" show in the Market was opened as usual, but it was soon apparent that Mr. Harcourt was not the man he was. He gave one performance, and the following day deemed it advisable to consult Professor Annandale. But the trouble had gone too far for medical skill to remedy. As a last resort Mr. Harcourt went through to Glasgow, and was operated upon. The operation was unsuccessful, as had been prognosticated, and since then Mr. Harcourt had been practically hanging between life and death.

FOR eighteen years, with scarcely a break, Mr. Harcourt had performed in Edinburgh, and on the platform outside his side-show at the Waverley Market Carnival the man was at his best as a showman. A witty remark or two, accompanied by a graceful wave of a handkerchief, would attract the attention of the crowd, and then Mr. Harcourt would proceed to show how a few card tricks were done. Not infrequently he would give a gratis exhibition of hypnotism on the platform—first and last with the object of inducing the crowd to "walk up"—an invitation which, needless to say, was rarely declined.

FRED HARCOURT had a varied and interesting career, and had travelled in all parts of the world as an illusionist and conjurer. With his charming wife, Miss Lilian Warren, he went to Australia in 1902, opening at the Tivoli, Sydney, under Mr. Harry Rickards' management, later on appearing at Melbourne, Brisbane, Adelaide, and Perth. They also went to India and Ceylon, where they formed their own company. They had a most tempting offer to appear at the Delhi Durbar, but were unable to accept owing to their English engagements. Mr. Harcourt exploited the famous illusion "The Mysterious Lilith," which he presented with wonderful success at the Coliseum just lately. Miss Lilian Warren, his accomplished wife to whom we extend our sincerest sympathy, is the well-known singer of illustrated songs.

MR. HARCOURT was quite a young man, being born thirty-nine years ago in Manchester, where the funeral took place on Monday. He made his first beginning on the stage of his native town at the age of eight, being then billed as the "boy magician."

MESSRS. FRANCIS, DAY, AND HUNTER have acquired for immediate publication Miss Minnie Cunningham's great success, "If new friends are silver, old friends are gold." The song, which is from the pens of those talented young song-writers, Messrs. Bert M. Megson and Illingworth Moorwood, is exceedingly pretty.

MISS MARGARET ASHTON, who is this week appearing at Hull, where the local Press are unanimous in praise of her, is introducing Messrs. Lawrance and Gifford's new song, "Twit-twit, my little Redbreast," a melody which promises to prove extremely popular.

MR. J. F. LAMBE has written and H. E. Pether has composed a ballad entitled "The Bonny Brier Bush." Mr. Lambe wrote to "Ian Maclaren," the author of the famous work, asking if the song might be dedicated to him, and has received the following reply from the celebrated Scottish clergyman and novelist: "I am honoured by your proposal to dedicate your song and music to me, and shall value a copy of both very much. The music and poetry both seem to me excellent. —Believe me, yours faithfully, JOHN WATSON."

AT a matinée performance given at the Theatre Royal, Oldham, on Tuesday last, Mr. Ernest Dottridge's company appeared as an extra turn in an original and historical episode, entitled Moll Cutpurse, or the King's Highway. The sketch, which was produced by the author, Mr. James Willard, proved a great success, and will be sent on tour in the halls next autumn.

MDLLE. RENEE, in her refined drawing-room musical act, has just concluded a successful engagement at the London Pavilion. She was asked to stay on next week, but could not on account of provincial engagements. She will, however, return shortly.

MISS VICTORIA MONKS has returned to town after her short stay at Brighton, feeling fit and well, and in better voice than ever. She will open at the Coliseum Jan. 29, when she will introduce two new songs, specially written and composed for her by Messrs. J. F. Lambe and Tom Mellor, entitled "Can't you hear me calling, Mister Primrose Brown," and "On our honeymoon."

ANYONE passing the old "Goat Inn," Beddington Corner, Mitcham, at twelve o'clock Wednesday last, would have been somewhat astonished and bewildered to see enacting in the near distance on the common a veritable highway robbery, and "holding up" of a mail coach and its passengers. A masked horseman, mounted on a splendid black mare, was waylaying the said coach, and relieving the travellers of their spare cash. He had, moreover, cut the traces of the four horses, and overturned the coach. A fair passenger was on her knees beseeching the good-looking red-coated horseman to spare her aged father and herself, whilst the other passengers held up their arms in token of surrender. The highwayman, evidently impressed by the beauty of the lady passenger, raises her from her kneeling position, kisses her hand, and begs a rose from her breast. A hurried embrace, the horseman has mounted his black mare, and is away at full speed. What does it all mean in this dry-as-dust, matter-of-fact, unromantic age? On inquiry, it just meant this, that Fred Ginnett and his company, now performing at the Duchess, Balham, were giving a full-dress rehearsal of the Robbery of the York Mail for inclusion, by means of the Bioscope, in the spectacle of Turpin's Ride to York. It would be about Dick Turpin's time, A.D. 1737, that this same old "Goat Inn," Beddington Corner, was built, and who knows that history has not repeated itself in reproducing a highway robbery on the self-same spot of yesterday's mimic show.

LONDON VARIETY THEATRES.

THE ALHAMBRA.

Miss Fatmah Diard is a singer who reaches a high note of excellence. Her voice is quite of the classical order, and her rendering of "I dreamt I dwelt in marble halls," and her other song, "It is not mine," is a most pleasing performance and a finished piece of work. Most of the Alhambra habitues are great music lovers, and Miss Diard's singing will have an attraction for them, especially as she will conclude her present engagement at this hall to-night. An act in which one sees much that is interesting from the animal-trainer's point of view, is provided by Miss Rosina Caselli and her troupe of Chihuahua dogs from Mexico. This class of dog apparently possesses finer intelligence than can be claimed on behalf of most of the other canine races. They make their entry by means of a small motor-car, driven by the animals themselves. Then we get an exhibition of doggish cleverness. One of them walks along a rope placed in a horizontal position and performs the feat of balancing itself, much after the style of a wire-walker. All the dogs show strength and ability in one way or another, and the performance is one of the best of its kind. Some amazingly smart sleight-of-hand tricks are brought to our notice by Dunningarto. Cards appear and disappear in a most wonderful manner before one's eyes, and the conclusion is arrived at that there must be something more than music in the air. Exceedingly neatly executed is his ping-pong ball trick, whereby he contrives to make one ball blossom forth into three or four by some unseen force.

Mr. Julius Thorn succeeds in arousing roars of laughter with his burlesque juggling. He juggles with many articles of domestic use—plates, jugs, glasses, flower-pots, &c., and manages to break one after the other. In a very few minutes the stage is the scene of a most pathetic debris, in the midst of which Mr. Thorn is to be seen looking as absurdly disconsolate as he well could be. The beautiful Miss Lalla Selbini appears in her attractive act, composed of baton-swinging and cycling. She gives evidence of remarkable skill in everything she does, her feats on the double and single wheel being much admired for their originality and daring. The little black boy she brings on the stage in connection with her work causes a good deal of amusement with his funny antics. The ballet, My Lady Nicotine, remains a popular feature of the programme, the tuneful music, the pretty dresses and scenes, and the graceful dancing delighting the earlier visitors to the house. "Urbanora" is now quite a "newsy" thing. For several days past election results have been announced on the cinematograph screen. The scenes depicting the manœuvres of the Sultan of Morocco's Army furnish us with a vivid presentment of at least one phase of Eastern life. One cannot help feeling deeply interested, too, in "The Trip to New Zealand," which affords some glimpses of the country, customs and manners of a portion of the British Empire many thousands of miles from the old homeland.

The dainty divertissement, Parisiana, increases its number of admirers as it increases its age. The fine art of the costumier has been brought to bear with delightful effect upon the story this ballet is supposed to tell. Then, what could be more daintily poetical than the dance and movements of Mdlle. Jane May and of La Sylphe and of Miss Edie Slack? And what more enchanting to the ear than the running accompaniment of the exquisite music of Mr. James M. Glover. The scene which represents a fête at Neuilly, is a veritable panorama, in which sprightly actions set in gaudy picturesqueness, form a spectacle of brilliance of life and of colour, the aesthetic charm of the whole being most entrancing. Clown Pacal distinguishes himself as an imitator of animals. His mimicry of one dog fighting two ferocious canines is extremely laughable. Natural and life-like also are his vocal representations of the bellowing of a cow, the grunting and snorting of a sow, the whining of a bull-pup, the cackling of a hen and the crowing of a cock. Vanola, who is described in learned language as a Mexican antipodeste, submits an exhibition of barrel balancing. Resting his head and trunk upon a pedestal he cleverly juggles with his feet, operating upon large globes and a barrel. In the concluding part of his show, Vanola manipulates with his feet an umbrella-like contrivance which, on opening out, throws out the flags of all nations. In the end a big sunshade falls down, and it is made to revolve round and round at a tremendous rate by a simple twirling movement of Vanola's boot.

THE CANTERBURY.

An event of the evening at the Canterbury this week is the sketch, 'Appy 'Ampstead, which Mr. Joe Elvin has revived with the wealth of detail for which his producitons are renowned. All the fun of the fair on the historic heath is depicted, realism being secured by a veritable boxing match, a donkey race, and a skipping-rope contest, with roundabouts at work, a Punch and Judy show, and swing-boats in the perspective, of which a real motor-car and a four-in-hand arc prominent features. Amid the gay revels, the quaint personality of Mr. Joe Elvin is a conspicuous figure. As Tommy Flipper, the retired bookmaker, who has married into society and insists on treating his aristocratic relations to a Bank Holiday on Hampstead Heath, he takes part in the wildest diversions, and no opportunity for rest is given to the audience, who are kept in throes of laughter the whole of the time. Mr. Leslie Carter gives a good performance of a peppery major, amenable only to the influence of his wife, a part admirably assumed by Mrs. J. W. Broughton. Miss Annie Anthony makes a graceful appearance as the young wife; a designing foreigner is amusingly played by Mr. Harry Low; and Mr. Kenneth Altamont is well placed as Flipper's friend.

Among the stars shining earlier in the evening is Mr. Gus Elen, whose welcome is of the most cordial description, and well does he justify it. Never was a funnier figure to be seen on the variety boards than that of the homely bridegroom, in borrowed plumage, who serenades his belated bride on the morning of the wedding. His plaint to the sleeping "Meriah" is most whimsically delivered, and the impersonation is one to be witnessed over and over again, without any diminution of mirth. "An 'arf a pint o' ale" affords an equally effective outlet for Mr. Elen's humour, his facial play and eloquent pantomime as the humble devotee of Bacchus, being as irresistible as ever. Mr. Whit Cunliffe makes a new departure as a draper's assistant, who sings blithely at his counter, the sound of the tearing of calico strips being well-timed. Topics are also freshly treated by Mr. Cunliffe, who makes several palpable hits with his rhymes, to which additions innumerable have to be made.

Appreciation is heartily bestowed upon Fielding and Hull (Annie and Bert), who sing a medley of excerpts from musical comedy. Both have cultured voices, and the selections are artistically rendered. Griff pins his faith with every reason to his hoop manipulation, of which the clever contributions of Alpha form a part, and the impalement of oranges thrown from above on to a couple of forks held in the merry little pierrot's mouth supplies something of a sensational ending to his popular entertainment. A new skit, called Four Bob, written by Wal Pink, affords Mr. Albert Athas and Miss Lizzie Collins an opportunity of exercising their distinctive talent for travesty, laughter awaiting every utterance of the droll Albert, who is supposed to be a theatrical agent, charging four shillings for his fee. Miss Collins, in the part of an aspirant for dramatic fame, looks charming as ever in a handsome dress, which she presently changes to that of an Italian girl, with an organ. Mr. Athas supplies the monkey, in which part he does a clever somersault over the head of his fair partner, standing upright on a table.

Mr. Will Evans asserts his droll authority over the house, which is kept in uncontrollable merriment during his presentation of the pantomime, Robinson Crusoe. Mr. Evans, in the part of Will Atkins, being full of the funniest resource. The humour of Little Tich is as richly displayed as ever in his impersonation of a female of mature age, whose every movement inspires a roar of laughter. Nor does the hilarity languish in the second contribution of the little comedian, who, after singing a song with the refrain, "It's very warm to-day," is obliged by a unanimous demand to return to the stage, to give his excruciatingly funny big-boot dance. Three songs are sung by Mr. Harry Ford, each one being heartily enjoyed; and Mr. Dutch Daly, with his funny sayings and his concertina imitations, is always the means of passing an amusing ten minutes. My Fancy, comely and clever, dances in artistic style, her Highland fling in the costume of a Scotch lassie and her sand dance arousing enthusiastic applause. The talented turn of Walker and May (Charles and Ida), America's premier coloured comedians and dancers, is the more remarkable from the fact that Mr. Walker is totally blind. Another importation from the States is that of the Black and White Zouaves, whose lightning drill and wall-scaling is quite exhilarating. Miss Vi Carlyle sings in captivating style of "My Congo Queen"; and the Harvey Boys stimulate the audience early in the bill with their comical concoction, The Fighting Dummy. Mr. Archie Howells skilfully directs the Canterbury band, and Mr. Fred Miller presides with his customary ability over as fine a programme as may be seen in a metropolitan hall.

THE BEDFORD.

Local election excitement had subsided in Camden Town on the night that we visited the Bedford, where Mr. B. P. Lucas and Mr. Harry Day carry on the campaign against dulness with considerable spirit and success, and we found a numerous audience enjoying a capital bill. Chief among the novelties presented during the current week has been the sketch, entitled "THE BATTLE OF THE BELLES.

Kendal Croat	FRED MOULE
Sam Flatfoote	E. D. NICHOLLS
Hector Rooney	ERIC FORTH
Laurie Linden	ADA LUCELLE
Brenda Croat	MADGE TREVELYAN
Joanna	ADA FRANK

The success of this piece was immediately established on Monday, and every evening audiences have been laughing heartily at its exuberant humour, broad based on the love of mirth which is inherent in everyone. It is difficult to place the piece in any particular category, nor is it necessary. Mr. Fred Moule, the author, takes the part of the landlord of the Old Red Bull Inn, and arrives on the scene in a most hilarious state. The tragedies of life seem to supply Kendal Croat—that is his name—with excuses for explosive demonstrations of mirth. This unconventional character has a daughter—the antithesis of her jovial parent, and endowed with a waspish temper. Miss Brenda Croat is anxious to get married, and is deeply disappointed because the man of her choice, Hector Rodney, a young soldier, has yielded to the fascinations of a dressmaker's assistant, Laurie Linden. As a desperate expedient, Brenda proposes marriage to Rodney, and stung to the quick by his refusal, she roundly abuses her rival. Young Rodney leaves for the wars, and his sweetheart, Laurie, finds a home with Sam Flatfoote and Joanna, formerly waiter and chambermaid at the hotel, which they have left to set up housekeeping. From waiter to policeman has been quite an easy transition for Sam, whose "feet" are even astonishing for the "force." He puts on a bold front when Kendal Croat and Brenda call and insist on their departure from the cottage, which we may suppose belongs to Croat. It is Brenda, who urges her father to take this step, in order that she may be revenged on her rival, Laurie, who is stricken with grief at the news of Hector's death. Her tears, however, do not appeal to Brenda, who flings her to the ground. Joanna takes the part of the poor dressmaker, and then we have the "battle of the belles," in which crockery is thrown by both combatants. Kendal Croat, in his turn, is assailed by the irrepressible Sam, and a comic combat is "put up," which excites the most uncontrollable mirth. Eventually happiness is restored to Laurie Linden by the return of the young soldier; and Brenda Croat, who seems none the worse for her fight, and her father retire.

A most humorous bit of character-acting comes from Mr. E. D. Nicholls, who plays the rôle of Sam Flatfoote, a melancholy waiter (afterwards a policeman) with an unctuous drollery that is as rare as it is refreshing. Joanna, the hotel chambermaid, who becomes Mrs. Flatfoote, is a part presented with considerable spirit by Miss Ada Frank. She infuses much energy into the "battle" with Joanna, who makes fun of Sam's feet, and tells him he is descended from "a long-distance race," "two feet to the yard." Mr. Fred Moule's impersonation of the landlord, who laughs at the saddest happenings, is one that takes immensely with the Bedfordians, who catch the contagion of mirth as soon as he arrives on the stage. Miss Madge Trevelyan exhibits, with no little success, the vixenish qualities of Brenda Croat, and makes an excellent foil for the whimsical landlord, her father. The Battle of the Belles, though it has its serious moments, is treated in the spirit of pure farce, both by its interpreters and the listeners, and laughter rules throughout. With a popular audience it is bound to be a success wherever produced.

The variety entertainment includes two ladies at the piano, Miss Lottie Siegenberg and Miss Adey Spencer. We described the former lady's entertainment in our notice of another hall last week. Miss Spencer, who elects to be known as the "girl from the hat shop," plays her own accompaniment to a ballad, which she sings well; gives an imitation on the piano of Mr. Frank Lawton's whistling solo in The Belle of New York; and sings and dances in imitation of an American soubrette. Her versatility is a passport to her success, and she might with advantage extend her songs at the piano repertory. Kisbey, the call-boy, has delightful assurance, and is quite a persona grata at the Bedford. For the most part he contents himself with patter of a humorous kind, but also introduces a burlesque of Eugene Stratton. The Sivronis are a happily-associated pair, whose main purpose is burlesque. Mr. Sivroni is a most eccentric dancer, with ideas of comedy that exactly coincide with those of the audience, who give him a hearty welcome. Mr. Charles Bignell, who looks a typical policeman, sings with considerable drollery "Duty must be done," and has a rousing chorus song, "Are we down-hearted?—No!" The possibilities of such a phrase in the matter of additional verses are almost limitless. Mr. Bignell has a very hearty recall. Early in the evening Miss Maudie Ford, comedienne, sings, with plaintive expression, "Throw a few crumbs to the birds," and dances prettily. Mr. Andy Burn amusingly deplores the woes of a millionaire who is reduced to £10,000 a year; and Lord, Murray, and Lord give a fine exhibition of ball punching, the comedian of the trio supplying plenty of fun. The special engagement of the week is Dartigan, who loops the loop on a 2½-h.p. motor-cycle, and supplies a thrilling sensation. The Imperial Bioscope supplies a series of amusing films in "Father's got a Holiday." Mr. A. F. Lovesy directs affairs here in a courteous and tactful manner; and Mr. F. W. Venton directs a capable orchestra.

ROYAL STANDARD.

Character comedy is Mr. Jack Mansfield's forte. This week, at the Royal Standard, Pimlico, he has been showing us how the men of different countries make love. His representations of a Scotsman, an Irishman, a Lancashire lad, and a German serenading a lady fair have proved most entertaining; while not less so are his studies of a coster, a clergyman, and other folk criticising a work of art. Celest, the well-known American gymnast, gives a clever display of bâton swinging, both while standing on the stage and while balancing himself on the high wire. By far his most daring feat is that in which he mounts a ladder while balancing the same on the wire. A very delightful turn is that of Miss Helena Sleath and Mr. Chas. Aldin, whose operatic scena, Dashing Duval, is a pretty and dainty thing of its kind. Miss Sleath and Mr. Aldin appear in handsome eighteenth century costumes, and the stage-setting is in accordance with the period in which the famous highwayman made his influence felt. The movements and dances of the two artists are executed with dignity and grace, and their duet is exceedingly well rendered. Eccentricities of a most diverting fashion are indulged in by the Lorrisons, their absurd patter and comicalities causing roars of laughter; while their dances are smartly and briskly performed.

"Why I took to the drink" is the theme of one of Mr. Frank Crisp's songs, and in it he describes how various men fall under the influence of alcohol. The song is sung with much expression, as is also another, in which he draws the moral of the dreamer who drifts helplessly along the stream of life. Mr. Crisp has vocal talents of no small order, and his performances are greatly appreciated. An amusing debate on the respective merits and demerits of the sexes is carried on between the McKays. One gets many really funny sayings in their "dry humour and wet paint" act. "There's music in the air," says the gentleman, as he picks a strand of the lady's hair, draws it out, while a member of the orchestra plays a couple of notes on his violin. The concluding part of the act consists of an exhibition of the artistic gifts of the male artist, who paints a river and field scene in full view of the audience, and paints it remarkably quickly and remarkably well. Miss Nell Gwynne sings the praises of "The man in the corduroys," and not unnaturally her sentiments are heartily endorsed by the gentlemen in the gallery, who, more than any other class, have an intimate acquaintanceship with the individual with the brown corded trousers. In her succeeding item Miss Gwynne tells a pathetic story of two lovers. The man loves the woman, but, during dark days of his life, the girl relinquishes him in favour of someone with greater abundance of this world's wealth. This fight of love against gold is described by the clever lady with true delicacy of feeling.

Mr. J. W. Rickaby comes on as a policeman, his uniform being somewhat exaggerated. He details the funny experiences of a "copper," and his "copper" is a highly-entertaining personage. His second appearance is as an absurd Tommy Atkins, and here we are treated to much more of his whimsical patter and singing. Miss Dinah Morris and her company of "Southern Belles" present the musical extravaganza, entitled The Lost Coon. This is a very pleasing number, the music and singing being most agreeable to the ear, while the dancing is quite of an exquisite order. Both Miss Dinah Morris and Miss Bessie Morris distinguish themselves in their vocalisation of such songs as "Dinah," "Has anyone seen a little coon?" and "Love like mine." The setting of the sketch, as well as the dresses, is picturesque, and the audience pronounces a verdict of unqualified approval on the doings and sayings of Miss Morris's merry band. The story of Esmeralda is vividly told in a series of cinématograph scenes, thrown upon the screen by the Edisonograph. Miss Marie Strabor charmingly renders "The Dream of Paradise," and the Two Bennetts take part in an interesting exhibition of mace swinging and dancing, their speciality business being generally admired. A neat and dainty dancer comes along in the person of Miss Rhoda Dendron; and Mr. Will Powell offers a capital entertainment in his own particular line.

HAMMERSMITH PALACE.

Election enthusiasm has in no way affected the excellent business which is the rule at Mr. J. C. Coe's popular hall in the King-street, and on Monday evening a large audience was early in attendance to sample the splendid programme provided. An exceptionally hearty welcome was that extended Mr. Will Evans, a comedian who is seldom absent from the London stage, such is the demand for a really funny comedian. The favourite droll's first contribution is a humorous attempt to describe the plot of The Prodigal Son, and this is followed by a laughter-provoking song, "The villain of the piece," in which he impersonates the Bloodthirsty Bounder of Battersea, and enacts most of the characters—with the aid of a couple of assistants—in a screamingly funny mock melodrama. The versatile and volatile comedian also cuts a most ludicrous figure as a jockey, mounted on Gluepot I., a quaint-looking quadruped, that excites the derision of a newspaper boy and a cat's-meat man, and eventually collapses on the stage, to the mortification of its rider and the hilarity of the audience. Much funny patter and many laughter-compelling antics are indulged in by Mr. Evans as the intrepid horseman, and the gentlemen who impersonate the fiery, untamed steed, also deserve mention for their successful efforts in the cause of mirth.

Midway in the bill is presented, by Mr. Henry Herne and company, the episode No Man's Land, an exciting fragment from the celebrated drama of the same name. Conspicuous in this is the fine impersonation of Mr. Herne, the actor giving a powerful and realistic portrait of the villainous first mate, Mat Marsden, especially impressive being the concluding scene on the desolate island in the Pacific. The other characters were all admirably enacted, and the rain-storm at the finish is very well managed, and excited the enthusiasm of the audience, who recalled Mr. Herne before the curtain. The comic sketch of the bill is the absurdity, Jack's Uncle, an amusing trifle, for which Mr. George Davis and his company are responsible; and more merriment is aroused by Mr. Wal Robins, the "black and white comedian," who contributes an acceptable interlude of vocal and instrumental items. He gives a pleasing rendering of "Queen of the Earth" on the one-stringed fiddle, and his song in praise of his mandoline is a much-appreciated item.

An alluring story of domestic felicity is told by Mr. L. B. Athol in the character of a contented British workman, whose return from his labours to home and fireside apparently brings joy to the entire household. The wife wears a smile that should compensate any man for the day's drudgery, the cat purrs, the baby in the cradle expresses its delight in its own peculiar fashion, the kettle gaily sings, and even "the sausages in the pan burst their sides laughing!" The song has a good melody, and Mr. Athol is to be commended for his admirable rendering of it. That it appealed to his auditors was very apparent, for they were easily persuaded to join in the chorus, and accorded the vocalist a flattering reception at its conclusion. The humour of the young Scotch comedian, Mr. Jock Whiteford, is keenly enjoyed; and the vocalism of Miss Maud Yaeger, an accomplished coloured comedienne and dancer, are also greatly appreciated. Mr. Frank Sylvo contributes some neat and clever juggling, especially attractive being his cigar-box tricks and his hat manipulation, the various droll remarks and humorous bits of business with which his show is interspersed largely aiding in its success. A novel and prettily-mounted interlude is supplied by the Four Herberts, in which they appear as jolly Californian farmers, and execute some marvellous tumbling and somersaulting. The lady of the combination is as agile and smart as her three male companions, and the quartette are tireless in their efforts to amuse and interest, in both of which they are completely successful. Mr. Tom Bass, a comedian who was a favourite when variety theatres were neither as plentiful nor as palatial as at present, still retains his powers to amuse, and on Monday created much hilarity with his ditty, "Six big girls," in which he impersonates a damsel of uncertain age, whose attractions do not appeal greatly to the sterner sex. The patter in this was especially humorous, and the popular comedian was loudly acclaimed at its conclusion. Ellis and Watts, comedians; Miss Lilian Rigby; Mr. Carson Hicks, vocalist and buck-dancer; Carlo and Maine; and the Edisonograph, also contribute to the evening's enjoyment. Mr. Lewis Vincent is Mr. Coe's courteous and astute acting-manager; and Mr. J. H. Cleve directs an excellent orchestra.

CHELSEA PALACE.

Liberal gains in attendance have been scored at Chelsea this week, where the electors have found relief from political stress in the palatial hall where Mr. Edward Swanborough, the veteran manager, has ever a cordial welcome. A piece particularly appropriate to the moment is found in the sketch Beneath Big Ben, in which a set representing the Houses of Parliament figures. Mr. Brien McCullough has added largely to his popularity in a character entirely adapted to his methods, and as the mercurial Walker Wallop he moves the audience to frequent fits of laughter. Able assistance is derived from Miss Nellie Nelson, who impersonates Marion Medwin, and from Mr. Alfred Beaumont, Mr. Gilbert Vernon, Miss Nelly Howlett, and Mr. Stafford Smith. The sketch is elaborately set, and the excitement aroused during its presentation is intense.

A "bright and breezy vaudeville" called The Two Love Birds is submitted by Mr. Edwin Brett and Miss Emmeline Orford, whose versatility is effectively displayed in the impersonation of a business man and his typewriter. A skilfully-acted duet entitled "Sweethearts All the Same" involves the appearance of the clever couple in various characters, including those of a sailor and his lass, and a pair of juveniles. Comedy is the predominant note of the turn, but a little bit of sentiment is added at the end, in the celebration by an aged couple of their golden wedding. Miss Orford is throughout charmingly vivacious and admirably distinct in delivery, and Mr. Brett's make-up is excellent, his acting in the character of the old man moving the audience to enthusiasm. Edwards and Espinosa are respectively accomplished in the arts of music and Terpsichore, the comely young lady doing a particularly expert dance, and her companion giving a taste of his talent on the violin and the banjo. His rendering of "Killarney" on the former instrument is elaborated by some skilful bowing which brought forth veritable thunders of applause, while his playing of an excerpt from William Tell was no less appreciated.

The latest arrival at the goal of public favour is Miss Millie Payne, a young lady who develops a new vein of low comedy. Her appearance as a dowdy young girl is in itself a stimulant to mirth, but when she begins to sing the comic effect is irresistible. It is the style and accent rather than the words of the song that exercise the hilarious effect, and whether Miss Payne is singing a comic variation of the juvenile lay about "Jenny Jones," or rendering the equally quaint refrain of "Ring-a-ding," the effect is the same. The thermometer of mirth is continually on the rise during the turn of Miss Payne, whose return to Chelsea after a very short absence is heartily welcomed. The juggling feats of Francis, the Cannon-ball King, are set off by the expert drollery of his assistant, whose identity is now disclosed on the programme as Alfred. A smart and wholly interesting interlude is presented, the tricks being all of an extraordinary nature. Francis fondles a 28lb. cannon-ball as if it consisted of so many ounces, balancing it on his head while walking the stage on another ball, at the same time keeping a number of spheroids moving in the air. His sensational balancing on a long pole held up by his mouth of a heavy cannon-ball, which he subsequently catches on the back of his neck, also exercises its customary sensation.

The old style of humour and the new are skilfully combined by Mr. James Fawn, who is able to touch the springs of laughter with as firm a hand as ever. A magistrate and a misogynist are the characters which just now serve him as a medium for his comic patter, every line of which draws forth a responsive roar. Mdlle. Sylvia Du Barry gives a cultivated rendering of the pretty ballad "Sing me to sleep," for which she wins cordial applause, the pleasure of her hearers being still more emphatically expressed for her singing of the "Toreador" song, the difficulties of which are cleverly surmounted. Mr. Fred Russell and his "Coster Joe" are allied in a conspiracy of mirth which meets with every success, the photograph episode being especially moving; and the well-selected programme also includes Mr. Leslie Rale, vocal comedian. Mr. Angelo Asher keeps his orchestra up to the pitch of perfection, and Mr. J. Norman Berlin officiates as acting-

ROYAL ALBERT.

What a popular number is "I wouldn't leave my little wooden hut for you." To say that it has caught the ear of the public is to put a fact in a very mild way. Miss Ivy Lelands is winning golden opinions with the song this week at the Royal Albert, Canning Town, where her tuneful voice is greatly admired. She dances, too, in agreeable fashion. Sid Arnold, an extremely youthful artist, plays nicely on the dulcimer, and gives a capital rendering of some pathetic verses about a wayward youth who leaves home not on the best of terms with his parents, and who pleadingly makes the request, "May I come home?" The chorus is sung in a sweet, boyish manner by a lad stationed in the gallery. A lively and exhilarating comedienne is Miss Flo Penley, whose song "She only came to London for the day" details the adventures of a country maid who proves to be not altogether unsophisticated. Miss Penley exhibits a sense of humour in this ditty, as well as in her succeeding number, "All among the hay." Upon her third entry Miss Penley is attired in a gaudy dress of many colours, sparkling with diamonds. For the time being, she tells us, she is the Queen of the Romany, and she tells fortunes with wonderful accuracy. Topical allusions abound in this song, which is sung with spirit and expression. Mr. George Mayes makes a comical "copper," and in that character treats the house to a good many funny sayings, his quaint mannerisms creating general merriment.

Mr. Brien McCullough and company are seen in the sensational sketch entitled The Girl I Love. It is not necessary to recapitulate the plot of this stirring drama. Suffice it to say that every word of it is keenly followed by the visitors to the Royal Albert, Mr. McCullough himself playing with conspicuous ability in the character-rôle of Jaspar Bradwin. On the whole the piece is capably presented. Mr. J. C. Manley feelingly interprets "Come back to Erin." He succeeds better with his coster impersonation, his enunciation and movements and gestures being well in keeping with the character he presents. A more serious item is his "As the Christmas bells ring out," in his performance of which he rises to a high-water-mark of vocalism. The story of how a servant girl endeavours to relinquish her fishmonger lover in favour of an actor is amusingly told by Mr. and Mrs. George English. Mr. English, who is one of our veteran favourites on the halls, shows that he has not lost his powers of entertaining in his impersonation of the vendor of fish, who suddenly becomes an actor, or assumes that he is one, in order to win back the love of the romantic-minded maid, a part charmingly played by Mrs. English. During the progress of the little sketch the lady delights the audience with her smart rendering of "In the meadows making hay." Mr. English's actor is a most cadaverous-looking individual, and his burlesquing of a tragedy scene is exceedingly diverting.

Miss Millie Dawn, who appears in place of Dante, Bentley, and Elton, does some low comedy in her song, "Oh, Ruth!" Her succeeding efforts, however, are much better appreciated. In one of them she is a vivacious schoolgirl in a pretty white frock. She frolics with all the merry abandon of youth, and sings of the jolly time the schoolgirl has when the teacher's back is turned. Returning to low comedy, she dons a tattered dress and sings of the gay doings of a family on a Sunday. Miss Dawn has decided talents as a comedienne, and one may reasonably expect to see her occupying an important position on the variety stage before many years have passed over her head. Laughable absurdities abound in the turn of the Maynards, whose cross-talk and duets are taken up with great gusto by the house. Their facial expressions are indeed an entertainment in themselves, and it would be difficult to find a wittier couple of comedians. An interesting and attractive feature of the programme is furnished by the Kato Komical Kidgets, whose "live" marionette act is most artistically managed. One wonders how they continue to get the different models to exert themselves so vigorously, while one marvels scarcely less at the neat dancing of the two figures controlled by visible human heads. The duets in which the lady and gentleman engage are well sung, and the miniature stage scene provides a pretty and picturesque setting for the act. Walter Payne's Bio-Photoscope in its mute yet plain pictorial language strikingly depicts in brief space of time what it might take hours to describe orally. The scenes indicating a bicycle tour cannot fail to arouse one's risible faculties. We were pleased to see Mr. Walter Leaver, the much-respected chairman of the Royal Albert, still at the post of honour, and we trust that he may be long spared to wield the mallet at Canning Town.

A PASTORAL POET and HIS PIPE.

"I spent two hours yesterday in the big house at the corner of Clarges Street, in company of the Duke. His Grace gave me three segars, one of which I then smoaked, carrying the others away in my pocket. His Grace tells me this style of smoaking is much in favour with Frenchmen and Spaniards, and that it is the great cost of segars stands in the way of their use here. For my part, I care little for them. I do not account three segars worth one pipeful of good, honest tobacco."—From a letter written by Robert Bloomfield, author of "The Farmer's Boy," etc., May 21, 1803.

Lovers of "good honest tobacco," should smoke

PLAYER'S Navy= Mixture

Sold in two strengths:
Medium - 4½d. PER OUNCE.
Mild - - - 5d. PER OUNCE.

John Player and Sons, Nottingham, will forward TESTING SAMPLES post free to applicants mentioning this paper.

It is absolutely pure, and satisfies the most critical taste.

"THE FLYING MAN."

Sketch, in Three Acts, by "M. M. and B. B.," produced at the Grand Palace, Clapham Junction, on Monday, Jan. 15.

Professor Brawn .....MR. E. S. VINCENT
Captain Merton .....MR. BAILEY COHEN
Birdie, the "Vulture" .....MR. JOHN LAWSON
Lady Lester .....MISS MABEL WYNNE
Nellie Gray .....MISS CISSIE LAWSON

Something of the abnormal seems ever to be required of Mr. John Lawson, and in the new sketch, which he produced at Clapham Junction on Monday, the demand is amply fulfilled, a succession of shocks and thrills being administered in the course of its performance. The little piece was inspired by the late F. A. Scudamore's play, Because I Love You, the rights of which were bought outright by Mr. Lawson in order to avoid any charge of plagiarism; but the resemblance to Mr. Scudamore's drama ends with the idea, the plot and dialogue being entirely original. The character suggested by the title is not a creation of science, but a freak of nature, by which a child owing to a fright sustained by its mother, comes into the world in the form of a vulture. The purpose of the playlet is to advocate the destruction at birth of such monstrosities. It is a wide question to treat within the twenty-one minutes which the sketch occupies in representation, and though Mr. Lawson succeeds in awakening a feeling of pity for the unfortunate creature, no conclusive proof is given that the Law of Moses should be set aside. Birdie, the name of the animal, though possessing the beak and claws of a vulture, has the nature and understanding of a man, and has been taught to speak by Professor Brawn, who secured him for purposes of exhibition. The creature sees and loves Nellie Gray, the servant to Lady Lester, and the betrothed of Captain Merton, an officer risen from the ranks, whose valour has made him the hero of the hour. The young soldier has also excited the love of Lady Lester, who gives a masked ball in his honour, to which Nellie goes like Cinderella in disguise. Birdie is also present at the reception, his deformity being looked upon as a make-up. He recognises Nellie Gray, and makes violent love to her, but she repulses him with horror, and, anxious to get away before her mistress, procures a rope ladder and escapes by the window high above her head. No sooner has she disappeared than the bird-man, with an exultant cry, takes wing and flies out through the opening in pursuit. He conveys the fainting girl to the Professor's laboratory, where Lady Lester arranges with Brawn to kill Nellie so that she may marry the Captain, but Birdie overhears the conspiracy, and just as the Professor is about to make a fiendish experiment on the brain of the young girl, who has been strapped to the operating-table, the Vulture suddenly descends from above and stays his hand, while Jack rushes to the rescue of the fainting girl, and Birdie, rising in the air, is killed by a shot from the Professor's revolver.

Mr. Lawson has an exhausting part in that of the man-bird, a character which he carries out with artistic realism. With his hooked beak and horrible talons he looks a veritable vulture, while the manner in which he perches on chairs and tables, his moaning cry, and his ferocity are all suggestive of the species, a startling effect being obtained when the creature spreads his wings and soars aloft. The rôle of Nellie Gray is invested with gentleness and grace by Miss Cissie Lawson, who is quietly effective in her reprovals to her overbearing mistress, her little scene of comedy in the ball-room being agreeably managed, the later scenes, in which she has to endure some distressful moments, being also well sustained. Mr. E. S. Vincent, admirable in everything he does, bestows the refinement of villainy upon the part of Professor Brawn; a gallant and well-spoken young soldier is found in Mr. Bailey Cohen; and the malignant nature and fell purpose of Lady Lester are suggested with such intensity by Miss Mabel Wynne that she becomes abhorrent to the audience. The sketch, in which some marvellous quick changes are made, is mounted with great care and liberal attention to detail, Mr. M. Neale being responsible for the arrangement of the flying effects, which are perfectly managed. All the performers were heartily recalled at the end of the sketch, a specially cordial reception being reserved for Mr. Lawson.

"THE ERA"
NEW YEAR'S SHILLING FUND FOR THE
MUSIC HALL HOME.

MR. THOMAS BARRASFORD'S APPEAL.

"We are very comfortable indeed, sir," said one, after the writer had wished them all a Happy New Year. "We couldn't be better treated if we paid a couple of pounds a week for the accommodation," asseverated another. "We are not interfered with in the least," was the story of the third. And so on. In fact, words were not necessary to convey what was too apparent in the faces and general outward appearance of the men. They all agreed upon one point: that they were being treated with the utmost consideration, just as if they were, to use one expression which was dropped during conversation, "lodgers." They spoke of the kindliness both of Mr. and Mrs. Fruin.

Now, this Home requires keeping up, and it cannot be kept up on air. There is no need for us to refer to all the good work performed by the institution in the past; this must be in the recollection of our readers. At present there are seven inmates, all of whom are advanced in years, their ages ranging from fifty to seventy-six. In all probability these men will be maintained in the Home until the day of their death, and their funerals will be paid for out of the funds of the Music Hall Home. Hitherto the burial expenses of an inmate have been met by the Music Hall Benevolent Fund, but in future it is intended that the Home shall perform this office. One of the residents—"inmates" is far too harsh a word to use in this connection—died last year, and was laid in his last resting-place by the institution which had looked after his welfare during the closing years of his life.

The vice-presidents and the committee of the Music Hall Home are sincerely desirous of increasing its scope of usefulness. They would like to be in a position to afford shelter to many more deserving members of the variety profession who have fallen upon evil times. To those who are reading these lines we would say: Some day you yourself will have to retire from the activities that are called into being within the noisy arena of business affairs, and then memory and imagination will revive the doings of the past as you sit quietly watching the shadows creep along the wall. While we trust that the retrospect in your own individual case will be a very happy one, we would beg you to think of what it would mean to you should Fate so will it that disaster overtakes you in the evening of your days, when physical disabilities and the despairing cry of "old men not wanted" bar you from again entering the field. There are men and women belonging to your profession who are in that unhappy condition to-day. A few of them are receiving adequate support, but the majority are not. Let us point out that in these days of quick changes a man may be driving in his motor-car one day, and be comparatively rich so far as this world's goods are concerned. To-morrow he may be a victim of the vicissitudes which threaten in an age of fickleness.

It is, as we have already indicated, the desire of the principal gentlemen connected with the fund to procure such additional donations as will enable them to provide accommodation for more music hall performers who have been stricken with poverty or illness in their declining years. It is hoped that as a result of the appeal now being made that the subscriptions will be of a sufficiently encouraging character to warrant the establishment of a Home for women. Therefore, send your contribution to the fund, and, even if it be a small contribution, let it be a speedy one, for he who gives quickly gives twice.

Mr. Thomas Barrasford, the President of the Music Hall Home Fund, made a strenuous appeal about this time last year for the generosity of the profession in support of The Era Shilling Fund, and he desires again to urge upon artists the claims of this deserving charity. By means of The Era collecting cards the money at the disposal of the fund was increased by £217 6s. 6d. This means that practically 4,346 separate shillings were collected, and in this direction great praise is due to Miss Nellie Wilson for her strenuous efforts in the cause of charity.

We have now to renew the appeal we made this time twelve months ago. That appeal and most of the money obtained by it are, as Miss Marie Lloyd would say, "a thing of the past, old dear." We have entered upon a new year. What is the prospect? It is that of help badly needed by many of your brother and sister artists who are down on their luck, and some who, by reason of their age, are likely to remain so. There is no necessity, nor would it be right, to harrow your feelings with tales of poverty and misery. You have contributed handsomely in the past. We know that you will do so again, and we shall be pleased to acknowledge your donations to The Era New Year's Shilling Fund in these columns. Mr. F. H. Pedgrift is the hon. treasurer, and he will be pleased to receive filled-up subscription cards addressed to him at 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

[Photo by Brooks.

MR. THOMAS BARRASFORD.

MR. THOMAS BARRASFORD'S APPEAL.

	Shillings.
Leeds Tivoli Collecting Box	108
Johnny Holland	21
Charles Weldon	20
Bros. Webb	10
Lydia Dudley	1
Marie Gautier	1
Fred Ewing Albini	1

Collected by Regan and Ryan, Theatre Royal, Birmingham, £1 1s.

Ada Reeve	5	Patty Yole	2½
Harry Tate	5	Fanny Dango	2½
Regan and Ryan	5	Miss Martin	1

Collected by Mr. Fred Kitchen, £1 12s.

Fred Kitchen	1	Allen Dinning	1
Mrs. Fred Kitchen	1	For Luck	1
Fred Kitchen, jun.	1	J. Grahame	1
Cossie Kitchen	1	Tom Bowling	1
Gladys Kitchen	1	J. Begg	1
Tom Buxton	1	J. B. Helm	1
Janet Reeves	1	A. Brown	1
Dudley Powell	1	Barney Gordon	1
Leah Morris	1	Kate Forster	1
Ben. F. Rosenthal	1	Cossie Noel	1
Chas. Collins	1	Cain and Abel	1
Sam. Hawley	1	King Cole	1
Capt. Scott	1	B. Crabb	1
H. Lappo	1	H. C. Myers	1
J. Gass	1	J. Hart	1
Bert Landeck	1	F. Kitchen, minor	1

Collected by "Griff," £1 10s.

Griff	1	Griff's Mother	1
Mrs. Griff	1	Griff's Sister	1
Harry Griff	1	Griff's Other Sister	1
George Griff	1	Griff's Brother	1
John Griff	1	Alpha Griff	1
Victor Griff	1	Omega Griff	1
Winifred Griff	1	Eldest Griff	1
Griff, senior	1	Youngest Griff	1
Griff, junior	1	First Griff	1
The Straight Griff	1	Second Griff	1
The Great Griff	1	Third Griff	1
The Only Griff	1	Fourth Griff	1
Griff's Pupils	1	Fifth Griff	1
The Original Griff	1	Sixth Griff	1
Griff's Father	1	Seventh Griff	1

THE COLISEUM.

Since our last visit to the famous palace in St. Martin's-lane, Mr. Oswald Stoll has applied for, and obtained, the Lord-Chamberlain's licence, and the establishment is now run as a theatre, with a permit for the sale of alcoholic beverages, but with the privilege of smoking in the auditorium withdrawn. To the uninitiated in such matters the change is hardly perceptible, because the entertainment presented remains very much on the same lines as formerly, Mr. Stoll pinning his faith to music hall scenas, excerpts from favourite comic opera, original operettas, and illustrated songs, as his chief attractions. There is, however, an important difference in the manner of presenting the variety turns. These are specially introduced as specialities—if we may use the term—in a brightly-written farcical extravaganza, Aladdin's Lamp, by Arthur Shirley and Marshall Moore. We are taken to Holly Tree Hall, where we make the acquaintance of the Rice family, of which Captain Plato Rice, an old sea-dog, is the head. The Christmas is being spent in quite the Dickensian fashion, and the arrival of Major George Rice, brother of Captain Plato, from India, with a number of presents, adds no little to the enjoyment of the youngsters. The newcomer brings with him a mysterious fakir, who is the only one acquainted with the properties of a still more mysterious lamp, which has been given in quite a haphazard fashion to Captain Plato. The old gentleman is left alone during the absence of the family at the Coliseum, and, taking it into his head to polish his new possession, is at once confronted with the geni thereof, who at once grants his wish—that he may lose his gout. We need go no further into the Arabian Nights story, but follow the Rice family to the Coliseum, where we find them in two private boxes on the stage in the second scene. They are enjoying the variety entertainment. Messrs. Stelling and Revell, who are labelled as immortals, open this entertainment with a horizontal bar performance, possessing many original features and no little humour. There are many diverting devices in the show. Even the "long arm" of coincidence has a look in; and the audience is convulsed when one of the performers, in swinging round the bar, leaves the whole of his outer garments hanging thereon. He is also responsible for other fantastic business, and some spoof balancing, and the accidental dropping of a tin can upon his head, which causes the instantaneous appearance of an immense bump, is such a whimsical incident that grown-ups laugh as heartily as if they were children witnessing an amusing bit of clowning for the first time. Fun is certainly in the ascendant in the turn, but it is allied to one of the most skilful gymnastic performances of its kind.

La Berat, the fire-maiden, is another of the immortals. She finds a habitat in a stalactite cavern, and dances, à la serpentine, in robes of diaphanous and shimmering white, in front of a constantly changing background of beautiful designs. Now we have a continually ascending cloud of brilliant-hued butterflies; then are produced with bewildering colour effects the horticultural beauties of roses, chrysanthemums, lilies; and later we gaze at a tasteful series of wonderful and indescribable patterns. These effects are of course adventitious aids to the success of De Berat, who lends grace and charm to a fascinating performance. Mr. Eugene Stratton, who returns to the Coliseum after a short absence, comes back with a song from the accomplished pen of Mr. Leslie Stuart, the composer of Florodora, who knows exactly the measure of the well-known coon impersonator. Mr. Stuart's latest is a very charming addition to the Stratton repertoire. It is entitled "There's nothing like your first love, after all." In this, Mr. Stratton impersonates a spoony nigger, who goes to a ball, but is seized with a settled melancholy, arising from "heart trouble," associated, as one may easily guess, with the eternal feminine. He can no longer shoot or fish as he used to do; but a return to cheerfulness is brought about by the full appreciation of the sentimental axiom of the refrain, which is one of the prettiest the composer has given us. It is quite in his characteristic vein, and Mr. Stratton imparts to it the utmost expression, completing his success by one of his very remarkable dances, which have a cachet entirely their own. "The coon that never told a lie," one of Mr. Stratton's old successes, prefaces the new number. In the early portion of the bill, the popular song, "In Dreamland," has been pictorially illustrated by John Hassall, who has cleverly depicted what a child saw after a Christmas party. The exuberant fancy of the words of the song, which are from the pen of Mr. Roland Carse, give the clever artist plenty of opportunity for quaintness of design, and the series of pictures marks a new departure in the illustration of songs; for Mr. Hassall is a humorist with the brush, and distinctly clever. The chief novelty of the programme is Love's Apotheosis, a spectacular episode, or, rather, a poetic cycle, in one scene and three tableaux, translated from the French of Armand Silvestre, by the late Clement Scott, Alfred Berlyn, and André Raffalovich. Mrs. Brown-Potter, clad in clinging white draperies, and with her beautiful hair wreathed in cornflowers, impersonates the "Spirit of Love," and recites the tender stanzas of the poem, which is illustrated by three tableaux, "Boaz and Ruth," "Antony and Cleopatra," and "Dante and Beatrice." The lines describe equally well the simple faith and affection of the young Moabite widow, the power and intensity of the passion of the Egyptian sorceress for the noble Roman, and the soul-worship of the Italian poet. Mrs. Brown-Potter, who acts as a sort of chorus, realises to the full the beauties of the poem, and is responsible for a very artistic effort. The music which has been arranged by Mr. Walter Slaughter, is quite in keeping with the theme. A pretty scene of a cave has been painted by Mr. Cecil Hicks, and the arrangement of the tableaux reflect the greatest credit on Mr. Marshall Moore. In Bells and Motley and Fenella are still retained among the chief attractions of the bill. In the former musical playlet Miss Mabel Love is responsible for a fascinating performance of the Arcadian Princess, who becomes a May Queen; and in the latter Mr. Richard Green, Mr. Andrew Roy, and Miss Madge Temple give the utmost effect to the excellent music by M. Napoleon Lambelet.

MR. AND MRS. E. H. LUCAS IN EDINBURGH.

Glasgow Herald, Jan. 9, 1906, says:—

THE EMPIRE.

There is much to interest and amuse at the Sauchiehall-street house this week, and under the first heading the "turn" submitted by Mr. and Mrs. Lucas takes first place. This talented couple are already well and favourably known in the city, and the pieces played, The Courtship of Jonas Chuzzlewit and Mercy Pecksniff, in two acts, and The Death of Jo, from "Bleak House," were received with hearty approval.

Edinburgh Evening Dispatch, Jan. 16, 1906:—

FEW HAVE MET WITH SUCH SUCCESS.

Selections from Dickens's works always prove an acceptable "turn" at the Empire, but few have met with the success of those which Mr. and Mrs. Lucas give. Their entertainment consists of a couple of scenes from "Martin Chuzzlewit" and one from "Bleak House." The courtship of Jonas Chuzzlewit and Mercy Pecksniff was last night their best effort, though the heavier passages were naturally more to the liking of the "gods," who were hearty in their approval.

CHAT WITH MR. J. D. HAMLYN.

(BY OUR OWN COMMISSIONER).

The place looked innocent enough from the outside. Harmless little feathered songsters could be seen, and their chirpings were distinct enough, even though a window separated them from the listener on the pavement. But inside—pandemonium! It seemed as if the parrots and cockatoos had divided themselves into two political parties, and had decided to screech one another out of hearing. This parrot Parliament allowed small peace of mind to the web-footed frogs who lay in tanks underneath the cages of the birds, while the look of fear on the face of the trembling fox in the wire net-worked box was surely well accounted for. No doubt the bark of a hound would be like unto sweet music in the ears of Reynard compared with the ear-splitting nagging of the parrots and cockatoos.

"English foxes are surely not pets, Mr. Hamlyn?"

"Oh, we get them for hunting purposes," replied the naturalist. We turned our gaze to a part of the floor which was covered with tortoises, occasionally languidly stretching out their arms and heads from beneath their ornamental carapace. "I have a thousand of them," said Mr. Hamlyn, "and they sell at from 1s. each to £5 each."

Passing the aviary, which contained the romantic little green lovebirds from Madagascar, we went on to make the acquaintance of South African meercats, cassowaries from New Guinea, a large tortoise weighing 35lb., which came from 200 miles inland from Port Elizabeth, and jackals, who treated you to sly, suspicious glances. Beautiful-plumaged pheasants, pigeons, and partridges from India, Africa, and Australia, claimed one's attention a little further on; while, next door to them, little South African rock rabbits rushed bashfully back into the inner recesses of their residence immediately you proferred the hand of friendship. A few steps further on a majestic eagle, who paced up and down his cage with lordly dignity, threw upon you the keenness of his gaze, his example being followed to a lesser extent by some African springbuck and a herd of duykerbuck.

MR. J. D. HAMLYN.

"The greatest novelty in my latest collection," remarked Mr. Hamlyn, "is these sixty penguins, from Penguin Island. Never has such a large number been imported before. The bird over there, with the long legs and delicate fawn-grey plumage, is an African crane, and those others are black and white-necked swans and African wild ducks. I ought to tell you that my Polar bears, lions, and hyænas were sold before I left South Africa."

Perhaps the most interesting apartment in Mr. Hamlyn's establishment is that which contains the monkeys and baboons—of the latter he has fifty South and West African specimens—armadilloes, mongooses, civet cats, Java apes, bishop monkeys from West Africa, Indian monkeys, African black crows, antelopes, frogs, snakes, and other lively creatures who would not make very pleasant bedfellows.

And now something about the man whose name is known practically all over the world as a collector and importer of wild animals, birds, reptiles, &c. Mr. John D. Hamlyn was born in Taunton, Somerset, in 1859, the first few years of his business career being spent in London as a shipping clerk. During his nine years' connection with the London Docks, he speculated in foreign birds and small pet animals, which he might see on any of the numerous steamers he had to attend to in the course of his duties. His first purchase was an Indian monkey, for which he paid ten shillings, and which he sold for twenty-five. After six months' working on his own account in this way, he was offered an engagement by the late celebrated naturalist, Mr. Charles Jamrach, and purchased specimens for that gentleman for some six months. On leaving Mr. Jamrach, he started in business for himself, at 63, Upper East Smithfield, and since then he has never left the neighbourhood, his present premises at 221, St. George-street, London Docks, East, being but a hundred yards from the old house.

"The business in those days," said Mr. Hamlyn, "was totally different from what it is now. London was then the centre of the bird and animal world, and all the Continental dealers, menageries, and zoological gardens were supplied from the English Metropolis. The daily and weekly arrivals of birds and animals ran into many thousands of pounds. Now the trade has entirely drifted to the Continent, to French and German hands, the seafaring men of these countries taking up the business with great vigour and enterprise, and it is impossible for us to enter into competition with them in their own ports."

In the year 1889 Mr. Hamlyn received his first big contract, which was to supply 1,000 monkeys to Brooks's Monkey Show, at the Alexandra Palace. Many were the congratulatory messages he received in connection with that wonderful exhibition. When Messrs. Barnum and Bailey visited London during the same year, Mr. Hamlyn was called upon to assist in their animal show, and during the years 1890 to 1898 he was kept busy transhipping and moving various shows belonging to Messrs. Bostock and Wombwell and Mr. Carl Hagenbeck, the well-known Hamburg dealer. All this while Mr. Hamlyn's own business was increasing by leaps and bounds, and his consignments took him frequently to Antwerp, Hamburg, and Rotterdam. In 1897 he was again approached by Messrs. Brooks to perform for them a service similar to that he undertook before, and he did so to their entire satisfaction. In 1900 to 1904 he was kept employed by the various laboratories, hospitals, and, latterly, by the Royal Commission on Tuberculosis, supplying them with specimens for their work. In 1904, too, he visited the Belgian and the French Congo, at the request of Dr. Steegman, for the purpose of procuring chimpanzees for the Royal Commission. He left England in March, 1904, and visited numerous places in the Belgian Congo, and, from thence travelling to the French Congo seaboard, stopping at such places as Loango, Mayambs, and finally settling down at Settecama for a couple of months' stay. There he found the gorilla, the chimpanzee, and the mandrill in abundance, and he returned home in the following September with a very fine collection. The ensuing year saw him again in the French Congo, in quest of gorillas and chimpanzees, and this trip proved one of the most successful ever made, for it resulted in twenty-five chimpanzees being obtained, and three gorillas, the largest number ever got together at any one time. His collection also included the celebrated lady gorilla, Miss Crowther, which was eventually sold to the New York Zoological Gardens. The number of boxes of animals secured on this particular journey totalled 120. "I would like to say," resumed Mr. Hamlyn, "that the collection of gorillas and chimpanzees is a very risky and dangerous undertaking—not so risky and dangerous in the manner of obtaining the animals, but in the manner of landing and shipping the stock from the perilous surf, which is always found on this coast.

"In September of last year I left for Cape Town, and, after traversing the surrounding neighbourhood, I betook myself to Port Elizabeth and Graaf Reinet, and from the latter point twenty miles inland to a small village, where I found the best part of the specimens just brought home. Although with the consignment just arrived none of the larger antelopes has been brought, I have already obtained nine gnus, four koodoos, and two pairs of boutebok antelopes, the latter of which have not been seen in Britain for a quarter of a century. The antelopes and birds of South Africa I found were fully protected, and it was only with the greatest amount of trouble that I could obtain permission to procure the specimens I particularly desired. When I return to Africa, as I shall do shortly, I shall go up country as far as Victoria Falls, where I expect to receive four giraffes and various other antelopes. I have been furnished with the necessary permits to secure these animals."

J. F. LAMBE and Tom Mellor have collaborated in a clever and tuneful song entitled "Can't you find a sweetheart of your own?" Mr. David Day has secured the number. Mr. W. Frame, who has been scoring heavily in the North with Mr. Lambe's "The Hielan' King of France," has accepted another song, also by the same author and composer, named "Dinna, Donal', do."

THE amazing swiftness with which the late George Le Brunn could write his brilliant and fascinating melodies was a matter of wonder and admiration to many of his collaborators, and was incredible to those artists who had not witnessed the genius at his work. On one occasion, at a Tivoli matinée, Mr. Leonard Barry looked at a set of words brought him by Edgar Bateman, a comic-song entitled "Two can live cheaper than one," and, asking where was the music, the reply was that there was no music as the composer had not arrived. Mr. Barry left the hall for a few minutes only, and at that moment George Le Brunn entered. Borrowing a bit of music-paper from Mr. Angelo Asher and a pen from one of the young ladies in the buffet, the composer wrote the melody while the orchestra was playing a march as overture, and the comedian, re-entering, was astonished to find the composition finished, and almost refused to believe it was possible to have been written in the time. A few moments later it was played over in poor George's inimitable style on a piano at Dallas's well-known music-shop opposite the Tivoli, accepted, and was published on the Monday.

ON yet another occasion the same writer, who had had some wonderful successes, thanks to Le Brunn's melodies (notably "The 'Ouses in Between," "It's a great big shame," "The Cockney's Travels," and "Folkestone for the Day"), showed Le Brunn the words of a coster song, which took the latter seven minutes to compose and write out. Together they called at Miss Kate Carney's house, and, a piano being unearthed from beneath a pile of furniture—"spring cleaning" operations being in progress at Boylands Oak—the song was played over and paid for by Mr. George Barclay on the instant. Miss Carney often recalled afterwards how, when the pair had departed, she and her husband grumbled a little at their calling on such an inopportune day. That song, which took Le Brunn seven minutes to compose, was "'Liza Johnson," and the first of the author's to be "pirated," utterly ruining the sale of legitimate copies.

ONE of the most refined and artistic items given on the variety stage has this week been delighting huge audiences at the Holloway Empire, and is composed of four ladies and five gentlemen, who are billed as The Vaudeville Entertainers. Mr. Paul Mill, the head of the combination, sings his own songs, "Penelope; or, the Pierrot on the Portobello Pier," and "Isn't it wonderful, eh?" and the fine tenor has held the house spellbound by his rendering of "The Trumpeter." Mr. Henry W. May, the accomplished chef d'orchestre during this portion of the programme, gracefully relinquishes his baton to Mr. J. Airlie Dix, the composer of the last-mentioned song.

ON Thursday Giuseppe Sacco began an attempt to fast for 45 days, during which time he will be confined in a hut or cabin specially constructed for his reception at the Royal Italian Circus. It is stated that Sacco was formerly secretary to Succi, who some years ago fasted for 40 days at the Westminster Aquarium. Sacco, who is of Hungarian origin, is 40 years of age, and has already had considerable experience of fasting, having gone through 43 periods of abstention from food, ranging over periods of time varying from nine to 31 days. He has exhibited himself while undergoing these voluntary privations in St. Petersburg, Hamburg, Vienna, Milan, Cologne, and other Continental cities.

THE death of Mr. Theophilus Read, of the Agricultural Hall, will cause profound regret both in the variety and showman worlds. He was the pioneer of the World's Fair, which every Yuletide for the last quarter of a century has been gathered under the hospitable roof of the great Hall in the Upper-street, Islington. The deceased gentleman had been ailing for the last twelve months; but his strenuous nature impelled him to look after the great show whose interests he had so much at hear when he was inwardly suffering. His elder son had, however, given him loyal assistance. Mr. Read was known to every travelling entertainer, and the news of his death will be learnt with the deepest sorrow by every vandweller in the kingdom. The interment will be at Abbey Park Cemetery on Monday.

LABELLED EPPS'S TINS ONLY
SORENESS AND DRYNESS.
HOARSENESS, TICKLING AND IRRITATION.
THROAT AND COUGH
SOFTEN AND CLEAR THE VOICE.
ALWAYS EFFECTIVE.
7½D. JUJUBES 13½D.
JAMES EPPS & Co., Ltd., Homœopathic Chemists, London.

INTERNATIONAL ARTISTS' LODGE.

An extraordinary general meeting of the International Artists' Lodge was held at the Hotel Provence, Leicester-square, on Sunday evening. The attendance of all members of the music hall profession was invited. The object of the meeting was to discuss the ways and means of obtaining a better working understanding between the various music hall societies in England, and further to propound schemes for the better organisation of music hall artists and the improvement of the conditions under which they work.

BRO. C. BANTRAM presided, and there was a large attendance of members of the profession.

THE CHAIRMAN, in opening the proceedings, read telegrams from Mr. C. Douglas Stuart, secretary of the M.H.A.R.A. Association; Mr. H. Lester, secretary of The Terriers' Association; Mr. Cliff Ryland, and Mr. Sam Ostend, expressing regret at inability to attend the meeting.

The balance-sheet up to Sept. 30, 1905, showed the assets to amount to £6344, while the total number of members was 3846.

THE CHAIRMAN said that this balance had in five years accumulated in spite of the fact that to carry on the Society cost £1 6s. per year per head. The satisfactory financial condition had been brought about by the practice of economy, and also by investing the funds in the best possible manner.

BRO. H. GRIFF read the report of the Executive Committee, from which it appeared that during the past year 100 meetings had taken place, at all of which a quorum had been present. He also read a list of members who had joined the Society in England; these included a number of well-known artists. A legal Protection Committee had also been established during the year, and not a single case had been lost.

BRO. H. MOUNTFORD, in an able and telling speech, explained the objects of the International Lodge. The initials "I.A.L.," might be taken to signify "In Any Land." A member of the Society, in whatever country he might happen to be, would have at his disposal the services of a solicitor and counsel in the event of a dispute arising with the proprietor of a hall. Mr. Mountford pointed out the importance of combination, and regretted that the membership of the Lodge only amounted to 1,300. The agents, he said, had found it necessary to form a society; so, too, had the stage hands. The International Lodge was started five years ago in Germany, and now they had formed an English branch with their own Executive Committee, their own office, and their own solicitors. He saw no reason why artists in England should not join the Association, which might be described as of a democratic character. It was formed for the purpose of removing abuses from which music hall artists had hitherto suffered. The most important of these was the barring clause. The Association would not attempt to abolish this clause, because it was admitted to be a necessary trade protection, but what they did propose to do was to make the barring clause fair and equitable, both to proprietor and artist. He might state that the Lodge was on friendly terms with the London Entertainments' Protection Association; and they had been fighting the London County Council for three months on the question of the lighting arrangements in theatres and music halls. The Theatres and Music Halls' Committee had refused to see a deputation from the Lodge, but had agreed to postpone the consideration of the matter. In conclusion, Mr. Mountford made an eloquent appeal to all artists to join the Lodge. One of the main objects was to protect them against unjust treatment and secure for them a fair contract with proprietors and managers.

THE CHAIRMAN pointed out the importance of an international organisation, and explained the reasons why the White Rats' Society in America had failed. They had invited to the meeting the officers and committees of other music hall societies, their object being to fraternise for the benefit of the profession at large.

MR. WILLIAM LEE, speaking as a non-member, said he thought that there was a general feeling amongst artists that the Society was more for the protection of the foreign than the English artist. Its objects ought to be made more generally known.

MR. PAT CAREY inquired as to the mode by which artists were elected members of the Lodge.

THE CHAIRMAN produced a nomination form, and explained that an artist wishing to join was nominated by a member who knew him and supported by two other members.

MR. FRANK GERALD pointed out that the barring clause and other matters concerning artists had been considered by the Committee of the M.H.A.R.A., and while thanking the Lodge for their invitation to that meeting, he thought that his Association ought to have been approached, and not vice-versâ. He felt he should be in a somewhat false position if he joined the Lodge, because he held that the M.H.A.R.A. was the English society to whom should be entrusted the maintenance of the rights of music-hall artists.

MR. W. HAST said he was a member of the Committee of the M.H.A.R.A., but he did not agree with Mr. Gerald, as the rules of that Society did not permit them to take up the objects which were being promoted by the International Lodge.

THE CHAIRMAN said that the M.H.A.R.A. was approached some time ago, but declined to have anything to do with the Lodge.

MR. A. VOYCE spoke in support of the Lodge, and expressed his intention of becoming a member.

MR. CHARLES COBORN said he had always been an advocate of establishing a trade union amongst music hall artists, and with regard to the Lodge, he had already expressed his opinion that it was the finest thing ever made in Germany. He was in complete sympathy with its objects, and they might enter his name as a member. He cordially wished it every success. After some further discussion the meeting closed with a vote of thanks to the Chairman.

SIR,—Over twenty years ago I convened a meeting in the neighbourhood of the Trocadero from which arose the first protection association ever formed by music hall artists. From one cause and another the institution, after proving that music hall artists could combine, despite the croakings of those half-hearted people who said such a thing could never happen, and despite the efforts of actual enemies, gradually fell to pieces, but not before it had given birth to other valuable institutions, which, happily, are still with us. The decease of the parent society appeared to have revived the delusion that "professionals" would never stick together, but there are some of us who have never lost faith in the idea, and there are others to whom it appealed so strongly that at last arose an association which seems likely to fulfil the brightest hopes of the pioneers. I allude to the International Artists' Lodge, firstly of Berlin and now of world-wide importance. We artists have often availed ourselves gladly of things which have been "made in Germany," and to my mind this is the best piece of goods which that enterprising country has brought forward for our use and benefit. I am proud to state that I have become a member of it, and, from what I know of its intentions, constitution, and workings, I would strongly recommend my fellow-workers who have the best interests of our business at heart to go and do likewise. I call our entire profession to witness that I have never ceased from urging that an association of the kind should be formed amongst ourselves, but I have urged in vain. The fault lies at the doors of those in high position, with great privileges and great powers in their hands, who, though marked out before all men as leading men, would not lead. Either from absolutely causeless fear or from comfortable indifference, they have left it to men with better hearts, greater faith, and more honest determination to see right and justice done by them and their class and craft. Personally it is a matter of indifference to me from what quarter of the world they come who are willing and ready to raise and defend the banner of right and reason against prejudice, indifference, and factious opposition. Art is of no nation, and surely amongst such a cosmopolitan community as we music hall artists, it is a little late in the day to inquire if the head of the bill is an Englishman, German, Scotchman, Dane, or any other nationality, however "foreign" we may choose to call it. The motto of the I.A.L. may be described as "Defence, not Defiance." It does not seek quarrel or litigation, but is formed to prevent such if possible. A powerful branch has been instituted in this country, with practical Home Rule, and it is very gratifying to know that many very prominent artists amongst our own ranks have welcomed the idea with the utmost heartiness, and signified their sincerity by becoming members. God speed the I.A.L., say I, and preserve it from foes, whether without or within.

"THE LADY IN RED."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ERA.

SIR,—In your generous an eulogistic reference to that highly successful sketch The Lady in Red you inadvertently give me the credit of its authorship. In justice to a clever and brilliant gentleman, will you permit me to state that The Lady in Red owes her origin to Mr Frank Dix? I could not think of permitting his giant's robe to descend upon the dwarfish shoulders of your faithfully, TOM CRAVEN.

AMUSEMENTS IN AUSTRALIA.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

SYDNEY, DEC. 5, 1905.—"LEAH KLESCHNA" was an instantaneous success at Her Majesty's Theatre on the 2nd instant. Mr. J. C. Williamson produced the much-boomed play in excellent style, and the performance was a good all-round one. Miss Minnie Tittell Brune was an ideal Leah Kleschna, all that is womanly and true shining out. Her best work was with Kleschna, ably acted by Mr. Roy Redgrave. It would be well if the authors abolished the anti-climax contained in the fifth act, save that Mr. Williamson has given us a most delicious lettuce-field scene. Mr. Roy Redgrave made a hit as Kleschna, giving a strong, consistent portrait, full of professional pride tempered by paternal love. Mr. Gaston Mervale presented us with a Raoul Berton alert with villainy, and Mr. J. B. Atholwood justified his selection for Schram—forcible and replete with vigorous activity. Mr. Albert Gran made General Berton a melodramatic father; Mr. Harry Sweeney scored a success as Valentin Favre; and Sophie was vivaciously acted by Miss Florence Gibson. Miss Clara Stephenson and Miss Olly Deering embodied with much cleverness two typical peasants. The curtain had to be raised every act many times, and at the finish the enthusiasm, undamped by the lettuce scene, was very great. Mr. John Gordon, the scenic artist, was loudly cheered. The play will run the rest of the Brune season.

"PRINCESS IDA," after a long absence, returned to the Criterion on the 2nd inst., escorted by Mr. Williamson's répertoire company. Mr. Howard Vernon, who now plays King Gama in place of Hildebrand, had a well-deserved reception, and many recalls. His work was as good as ever. Mr. Charles Kenningham, in excellent voice, made Cyril a delightfully funny man, every line of Gilbertian humour being distinctly given; Mr. Walter Whyte, the fast-arriving tenor, as Hilarion, was loudly applauded. The rich-voiced Miss Celia Ghiloni made a fine Dame Blanche, and Miss Dolly Castles, as Princess Ida, was quite satisfactory; Miss Venia De Loitte's glorious voice and piquant refinement gave Psyche a charmful attractiveness. Mr. Frank Wilson sang King Hildebrand's music well; and Miss Aggie Thorne and Messrs. Ernest Fitts, Arthur Crane, Fred England, and others aided the success of the opera

"THROUGH THE DIVORCE COURT" was produced at the Theatre Royal by Mr. William Anderson on the 2nd inst., and the play was capitally acted throughout. It has an Othello-ish aspect; pathos mingles with humour, and tragedy rules the whole. The characters are judiciously distributed. Miss Eugenie Duggan is Dolores; Mr. George Cross Lord Penarth; and Mr. Laurence Dunbar is Mendoza. These principals do their work well, and Misses Ada Guildford, Georgie Leighford, and Lorna Sinclair, with Messrs. Sterling Whyte, Bert Bailey, Temgill Harrison, Walter Dagleish, May Clifton, and Edmund Duggan have responsible duties to perform. Without any mechanical sensations, the interest is kept going by a strong story and situations of startling moment.

THE Tivoli has Leroy, Bosco, and Talma in their last week, a new boy raconteur, Boy Glen, and Mr. Ryder Slone, a character singer. These attractions are increased by the engagement of Mr. Percy Denton, tenor singer and comedian, once of Moore and Burgess Minstrels, and The Belle of New York company; the Four Jacksons, Tom Dawson, Maud Faning, Arthur Albert, Olive Lenton, and Kelly and Agnes.

THE personal estate of the late George Le Brunn, the lamented composer of music-hall songs, is declared of the value of £183. This amount includes £100 derived from an insurance policy with the Prudential.

MISS FANNY WENTWORTH, who is playing a special fortnight at the Lyceum, tells a quaint little story of the second night of her successful re-appearance in Wellington-street. She obtained admission for her maid, whose experience of entertainments is very small, and waited with some amusement for her verdict on the performance. On the following morning her maid repeated the hurried praises of the previous night, but added, in a somewhat troubled voice, "There was one thing I didn't understand, miss. Why did two men come out on each side of the stage before you commenced and put up the word 'Disputed' on those pieces of white card where they showed numbers for the other people?" "Disputed?" repeated Miss Wentworth in amazement. "Whatever did they mean by that? I think that the word must have been 'Deputy.'" "Perhaps it was," answered the maid, "for I'm sure nobody sittin' near me disputed whether you ought to be there or not. You went very well!" The popular lady "musical sketcher" has been making quite a hit with a political version of a nursery rhyme, perhaps the most applauded verse ending with the question and answer—"Shall I go with you, my pretty maid?" "I need no Protection, sir," she said; "I'm British, not foreign goods, kind sir," she said.

MR. ARTHUR ROBERTS revives on Monday at the Tivoli The Importance of Being Another Man's Wife, in which he will sing "La Mattchiche," the present craze-tune everywhere. He is supported by his clever company and a chorus of "Spanish" ladies, who, report says, are exceedingly fair to look upon.

VARIETY fills the bill this week at the Richmond Theatre. Excellent is Jenny Hartley, a bright soubrette; clever are Mrs. Frederica's terriers; and very pleasing are the ballads of Miss Sybil Montagu. Mr. Geo. A. Stevens is entertaining, the Hulines are funny in the extreme, and delightful are the coon ditties of the Cotton Blossom Quartette. Ted Leo, Adams and Ward, and the bioscope complete the bill.

CHAT WITH MISS KITTY LOFTUS.

(BY OUR OWN COMMISSIONER.)

Miss Kitty Loftus, the clever actress who is delighting audiences at the London Pavilion, has a complaint to make. "Ever so many picture postcards," she says, "are sent to me to be inscribed with my autograph. I have had as many as twelve from one man, all sent at the same time. When I get my secretary to write this gentleman a note to the effect that he might forward a small donation to the Actors' Benevolent Fund, or some other professional fund, I receive no answer whatever. Now, I do not know whether or not that man is selling my autographs. There have been other cases, however, where only one signature has been asked for, and six penny stamps have been sent for one of our charitable institutions, but the majority of applicants and autograph-collectors do not seem willing to part with a single penny. But, in any case, why should artists be asked to sign picture postcards?"

Unfortunately, Miss Loftus is not the only one who has suffered from this peculiar form of nuisance. A few of our well-known actors and actresses have taken the precaution of securing something in the shape of a quid pro quo for their autographs. Mr. Tree, we believe, sends a circular letter to applicants for a specimen of his handwriting stating that the said specimen will be duly forwarded after a small sum of money has been added to the Actor's Benevolent Fund or the Actors' Orphanage. But there is just this thought: One or two of the autograph-seekers may be in need of charity themselves, and might have to deny themselves or their families if they assisted a fund with which, after all, they are really not concerned. All the same, we think, as a general rule, that members of the profession might reasonably ask for a few coppers in return for their autographs.

Photo by Histed, Baker-street, W.

MISS KITTY LOFTUS.

"Does your appearance at the Pavilion mean that you have forsaken the theatres, Miss Loftus?"

"Indeed, no. I am too much in love with my own work for such a thing as that to happen. The moment I can get a suitable play and a suitable theatre, I shall return to what we call the legitimate."

"Perhaps the 'illegitimate' pays you better?"

"Variety work is more remunerative, but, then, you know, money's not everything in this world. I shall finish at the Pavilion at Christmas, and after that I hold a contract with Mr. Oswald Stoll. I had hoped to produce a very charming Yuletide play entitled Sunny Locks, by Mr. G. P. Hawtrey, and in the hope of finding a theatre I refused a very lucrative engagement. However, I may be able to bring it out towards the close of next year. A little later on I shall produce a one-act dramatic piece, written by myself, and called The Mountebank and His Little Maid. The scene is laid in a fairground, and will be a very bright set, and the principal characters will be a jester and a young girl. In addition to that, I am now engaged in writing a comedy, which will extend to three or four acts. Of course, I only write plays for myself."

Miss Loftus, who has been touring the provinces since she was a child, was, as she puts it, "brought up on Shakespeare." Her grandfather was an old Shakespearean actor, and much of her early training was received in Mr. F. R. Benson's company. She began by playing the children's parts in most of the plays written by the Immortal Bard. A few years saw her in more responsible rôles, such as Polly Eccles in Caste and Naomi, as well as in the Gaiety burlesques on tour, including Little Jack Sheppard, Cinderella Up Too Late, generally appearing in Miss Nellie Farren's parts. The Lady Slavey was specially written for Miss Loftus. Coming to London, she played in Santa Claus at the Lyceum under Mr. Oscar Barrett's management, and here it is of interest to state that she did a last performance and a first performance on the same evening, for within a few hours she took her final call before the curtain at the Lyceum in Santa Claus, and made her initial appearance in the production of Gentleman Joe at the Prince of Wales's Theatre with Mr. Arthur Roberts. Remaining for a time at the Shaftesbury, she was seen in Biarritz, The White Silk Dress, and A Pierrot's Life. The last-mentioned was a wordless play, the music being by Sig. Costa, and the company of artists, with the sole exception of herself, were foreigners. Subsequently she performed notable service in The Yashmak, also at the Shaftesbury, and the following Christmas was at the Queen's Hall in a little sketch, The Order of the Bath, produced by herself. In this piece Miss Loftus and Mr. Albert Chevalier were the stars. She was one of those in the company who bade farewell to the old Opera Comique in its concluding performance of The Good Old Time. At Terry's Theatre she made herself extremely popular in Mr. Basil Hood's Christmas fairy plays. These were succeeded—as far as Miss Loftus was concerned—with the production of The French Maid and Her Royal Highness at the Vaudeville, in both of which pieces she assumed title-rôles. Engaged for a six weeks' stay in America, she became such a favourite that she remained six months, and before she left signed a contract for two years. She found the work, however, to be beyond her strength, and her managers kindly released her. Back in London, Mr. F. R. Benson secured her for Puck in A Midsummer Night's Dream, the boy in Henry V., Viola in Twelfth Night, Ariel in The Tempest, and Lucy in The Rivals. She next produced and played on tour a play called Baby, by Mr. Kinsey Peale, and, on returning to town, appeared as Foolish Harriet in Shock-Headed Peter at the Garrick. Subsequently she for a while took the place of Miss Marie Tempest as Nell Gwynne in English Nell, at the Prince of Wales's Theatre, and played it in the suburbs. In the revival of Morocco Bound at the Comedy she enacted the rôle of Maud Sportington. This was followed by a tour with her own company in Naughty Nancy, Mr. John le Hay being in the cast; later appearing as Betty with Sir Charles Wyndham at Wyndham's Theatre, after which she took the Savoy Theatre and had a successful four months' run of Naughty Nancy. After a holiday in France, spent partly in enjoyment and partly in securing good French pieces suitable for adaptation, Miss Loftus returned to take her company on tour with Mr. Frank Stayton's play, The Maid from School, which she produced at Terry's Theatre, with an afterpiece called The Duchess of Silliscrankie; or, The Earl and the Cheery Girl on their singularly Entangled Honeymoon. Miss Loftus then commissioned several authors to write for her, including Mr. Louis N. Parker, and she arranged a tour last Easter with a triple bill, namely, The Circus Rider: A Means to an End, and several variety artists, including Mr. John le Hay and the Musical Johnsons.

"From that," says Miss Loftus, "I was tempted by an offer to go to the London Pavilion, where I am now giving selections from musical comedies. It was my first music-hall engagement, although variety contracts have been placed at my disposal over and over again. It seems to me that the best people are rushing to the halls.

"It is easy work doing only one turn a night, though no doubt it must be rather nerve-straining to perform at three or four in one evening. That I cannot do, and have no intention of doing. For one reason, at this moment I am exclusively engaged at the Pavilion."

In a few weeks Miss Loftus will be seen at another place of amusement in London, and it will certainly be interesting to watch her progress in a class of entertainment which is so far foreign to her. She is attractive as an artist, and in private life she is no less attractive.

STAGE STAFF GOSSIP.

MR. E. A. CLAPHAM, who has been the electrician for Collins's Music Hall, Islington, for many years past, has been engaged by Mr. De Frece to take charge of the electricians' department at the Hippodrome, Boscombe. Mr. Burrows has been appointed to succeed Mr. Clapham.

THE annual dinner of the staff at the Grand Theatre, Islington, will be given on Sunday evening in the Woolpack Hotel, St. John-street, Clerkenwell, at 6.30. About fifty employees and friends will attend. Mr. Samuel James, proprietor, will preside, and Mr. Newman Maurice, the manager, will occupy the vice-chair.

A "FRIENDLY" meeting will be held on Sunday evening in the Freemasons' Arms, Long Acre, for the benefit of Mr. J. Crawford. A meeting for a similar purpose will be held the same evening in the Enterprise, Long Acre, for the benefit of Mrs. George Cooper, whose husband died in hospital recently.

AT the monthly meeting of the General Theatrical Operatives' Sick and Benevolent Society held on Sunday evening, it was decided to arrange a dinner and social evening for members and friends.

AT the fortnightly meeting of the General Staff Branch of the National Association of Theatrical Employees, held on Wednesday evening, fifteen applications for membership were granted. The Secretary submitted the annual financial statement and the Auditor's report thereon. The Committee unanimously accepted the statement and report. The following nominations for election to office in the Branch at the forthcoming annual general meeting of members on Sunday, Feb. 4, were reported to the Committee. For President, Mr. Charles Thorogood; Vice-President, Mr. John Cunningham (Drury-lane Theatre); Treasurer, Mr. Edward Stow (Lyric); Secretary, Mr. William Johnson; Trustees, Mr. J. H. Tillett, Mr. F. Wilson (Alhambra), and Mr. A. George, master carpenter, Grand Theatre; Auditors, Mr. J. Finnigan (Empire), Mr. H. J. Kemp (His Majesty's); Committee, Mr. P. Thomas, Mr. J. Hunt, Mr. J. Lineham (Alhambra), Mr. H. T. Wood, Mr. J. Phelps (Drury-lane Theatre), Mr. H. Bowmer (Gaiety), Mr. A. J. Mason, Mr. W. J. Hindley (Vaudeville Theatre), Mr. J. Atterton (Grand, Islington). The above, with the exception of Mr. George and Mr. Hindley, now hold the offices for which they have been nominated for re-election. Other nominations are—Mr. Edward Keating, master carpenter (Queen's Theatre); Mr. W. G. Farrell (flyman, Savoy Theatre), Mr. W. Bevington (Tivoli), Mr. H. Porter (Wyndham's), Mr. G. Pickering (Apollo). There are fourteen candidates for ten vacancies.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION THEATRICAL EMPLOYEES,
GENERAL STAFF, LONDON, NO. I. BRANCH.
Extract from the financial statement for the year ending Dec. 31, 1905.

Gross Income.	£	s.	d.
Entrance Fees	24	1	3
Contributions to General, Sick, and Funeral Funds	424	17	11
Contributions to Benevolent Fund	8	2	7
Share of Theatrical Sports' Balance, 1904	2	18	0
Share of Good Friday Concert	2	19	3
Share of Dramatic and Musical Fund	120	0	0
Share of Opera House Joint Concert	30	16	1
Sale of Cards, Badges, and Fines	3	9	0
Interest on Funds	6	13	0
Compensation recovered for a Member	21	0	0
Other Items	3	16	0
	708	13	1
Balance carried forward from Dec. 31, 1904	911	15	8½
Total	1,620	8	9½

MANAGEMENT AND GENERAL FUND.

	£	s.	d.
Allocation from 1905 Income	366	13	7
Balance from 1904	350	7	4½
	717	0	11½
Expenditure.
Rent of Office and Halls	42	12	6
Secretary's Salary	156	0	0
Officers' and Committee Fees	24	14	6
Collecting Stewards' Commissions	19	12	4
London Trades Council Dues	8	13	4
Printing	2	14	0
Gas and Office Cleaning	8	6	7
Postage, Telegrams, Stationary, &c.	7	9	4½
Organising Expenses	3	10	6
Central (National) Fund Dues	25	0	0
Theatrical Employees' Journal	6	0	0
Grants to Other Societies	5	0	0
Compensation Recovered for a Member	21	0	0
Telephone	6	15	5
Dispute Pay	2	1	0
Money Refunded and Sundry Items	1	3	10
Bank Charges	0	8	4
	341	1	8½
Balance Dec. 31, 1905	375	19	3
	717	0	11½

FUNERAL FUND.

Income.	£	s.	d.
½ Class B. Contributions	85	7	6
½ Class C. Contributions	58	4	8
Portion of Sum Received from the Dramatic and Musical Fund—allocated	50	0	0
	193	12	2
Balance carried forward from Dec. 31, 1904	247	14	7
	441	6	9

Expenditure.	£	s.	d.
To Death Claims—
3 Members	30	0	0
3 Members' Wives	15	0	0
Allocated to General Fund	48	7	10
	93	7	10
Balance Dec. 31, 1905	347	18	11
	441	6	9

SICK FUND.

Income.	£	s.	d.
Contributions	58	4	9
Sick Pay Refunded	0	8	4
Allocated from the Dramatic and Musical Fund	50	0	0
	108	13	1
Balance Carried Forward from Dec. 31, 1904	57	14	2
	166	7	3

Expenditure.	£	s.	d.
Sick Benefits paid—
W. J. Hall, Alhambra	1	5	0
William Townsend, Alhambra	3	1	8
W. James, Alhambra	2	18	4
W. Littlefield, Alhambra	0	8	4
H. Bowmer, Gaiety	0	13	4
J. Brennan, Gaiety	0	18	4
J. Atterton, Grand, Islington	0	16	8
J. Took, Grand, Islington	0	8	4
T. Raglass, Paragon	0	16	8
J. H. Tillett, Paragon	3	4	2
T. O'Mara, Wyndham's	1	3	2
J. Barlow, Empire	0	13	4
G. Oakley, Empire	1	1	8
H. Skinner, Drury-lane	0	5	0
	17	14	6
Allocated to General Fund	21	14	8
	39	8	8
Balance Dec. 31, 1905	126	18	7
	166	7	3

BENEVOLENT FUND.

Income.	£	s.	d.
Members' Contributions	8	2	7
Sports, 1904, Share of Balance	2	18	0
Good Friday Concert, ditto.	2	19	3
Opera House Joint Concert, ditto.	30	16	1
Allocated from the Dramatic and Musical Fund	50	0	0
	124	15	11
Balance Carried Forward from 1904	55	19	7
	180	15	6

Expenditure.	£	s.	d.
To Grants—
Mrs. Hill, widow on Member No. 640	5	0	0
Mrs. Skelly, widow on Member No. 160	5	0	0
Mrs. Landeg, widow on Member No. 512	2	0	0
Mrs. Cotterell, wife of Member No. 412	1	0	0
Member No. 789	6	10	0
,, ,, 987	3	0	0
,, ,, 989	4	0	0
,, ,, 247	2	7	0
,, ,, 92	1	0	0
,, ,, 492	1	6	0
,, ,, 88	1	0	0
,, ,, 655	1	0	0
,, ,, 826	1	0	0
,, ,, 667	1	0	0
,, ,, 636	0	10	0
	35	13	0
To Loss on Sports, 1905	0	7	8
Allocated to General Fund	14	19	2
	50	19	10
Balance Dec. 31, 1905	129	15	8
	180	15	6

Note.—Most of the grants were made in weekly allowances of 10s. per week.

Assets and Liabilities.

	£	s.	d.
To Credit of General Fund	375	19	3
,, Funeral Fund	347	18	11
,, Sick Fund	126	18	7
,, Benevolent Fund	129	15	8
,, Reserve Fund	200	0	0
Gross Balance Dec. 31, 1905	1,180	12	5
On Deposit London and County Bank	900	0	0
Current Account	271	12	5
To Theatre Shares	9	0	0
	1,180	12	5

AUDITORS' CERTIFICATE.

We, the undersigned auditors of this Branch, certify that we have examined this Statement of Accounts and the Quarterly Statements, and all the books and vouchers relating thereto required by us, together with the Bank books and cheque books, and find the same to be correct. We find the books are in proper order, and that the payments made were duly authorised by the rules, and that the balance to the credit of the various funds is as stated above.

Signed this 15th day of January, 1906.

JAMES FINNIGAN,
HENRY J. KEMP,
Auditors.

Endorsed on approval of Committee by Charles Thorogood, President; Edward Stow, Treasurer; and William Johnson, Secretary.

MR. GEORGE ARTHURS, who is annually in great request with pantomime producers for his undoubted talent in localising songs—notably with Mr. F. W. Wyndham's splendid productions—is the author and composer of Mr. Will Evans's two latest humorous items: "The Jocular Jock; or, Gluepot I.," and "The Villain of the Piece."

MR. EDITOR, SIR,—In your last issue you gave an interview with Messrs. Pacey and Reeves, and on page 24, column 4, you mention that Mr. Reeves for nine years managed the Leicester Empire, in conjunction with his brother, Mr. Harold Verdel. This name is quite wrong, and I shall be much obliged if you will find room in your columns for this correction. I am still in Leicester, and am now, and have been for seven years, with the well-known firm of theatrical printers, Willson's, of Leicester and Notts. The name of Mr. Reeves's brother is that of yours faithfully, HAL VERDO, 59, Welford-road, Leicester, Jan. 16.

MISS MAY YOHE, with the deep contralto voice, is once again in London—this time at the Lyceum, where she is singing very successfully "If I were only you" and "In dear old Georgia." The popular artist will be well remembered by her success in Little Christopher Columbus at the Lyric.

MISS ELSIE EBELE, the charming comedienne, in her scena, Love Against Gold, has been a great success at the Standard and Camberwell. Next week she appears at the Granville. She is well booked up to the end of 1907.

"THE ERA" can be obtained at any of Smith and Sons' bookstalls throughout the provinces.

THE SHOWMAN WORLD.

CONSIDERABLE interest attached to the annual general meeting of the Showmen's Guild at Manchester on Wednesday last, owing to the prominence given to Parliamentary defence work and the fight with powerful corporations for the people's fair, rights, and privileges. The ordinary public and the specially expert and technical work of the guild did not come under discussion, or it received a mere passing allusion. Such as the usual statement of the organiser and hon. chaplain that over a thousand letters had been received and dealt with, and that he had visited over one hundred fairs North, South, West, and Midlands. The passing reference also to the constant watch and guard of showmen interests when threatened by local authorities in proposed restrictive or vexatious bye-laws, was also taken as a matter of course, and well within the ordinary every-day work and unceasing vigilance of the guild officials. The main interest was centred upon the defence of the popular fairs, and the maintenance of the guild as an effective bulwark of defence and strength against the overbearing authority of "elected persons" who misinterpreted the proper and useful sphere of their collective endeavour, and have assumed powers they do not really possess. Clad in a "little brief authority," they believe they can make or unmake existing laws, or abrogate by a vote in council the rights and privileges won for the people in days gone by, and assured to them in ancient charters and at common law. Showmen recognise (Wigan is striking example of this) that when once an adverse vote is given in a town council, it is extremely difficult to get it reversed, and to enter an action in the High Court against a public self-governing body is extremely difficult, expensive, and uncertain. The corporation may take the view (as was done at Wigan) that under a private Act of Parliament they have powers in excess of the statutory law. They act upon that opinion, and in doing so place the whole risk and burden of disproof upon the travelling showman. When we remember the expensive nature of appeals to the Higher Courts, and tremendous advantage the corporation possess of almost unlimited means through the rates, there is no wonder that the organised showmen move very cautiously and warily in every instance.

This caution is necessary—how necessary the Edgware Fair case fully illustrates—and we put this before our readers now that showmen in the home counties may realise the need of the greatest circumspection and inquiry before taking action. It is no use saying "there is a charter," or taking the general opinion of the townspeople that a charter exists. No action should be taken without the most definite proof—proof strong enough to satisfy a judge on the bench. No taking the law into our own hands ought to be attempted. We stand for law and order, utter and complete, and he is no friend of the showman who takes individual action without the most substantial proof, and not hearsay evidence. Above all things, work in a constitutional and legitimate manner. Carry the law and justice and freedom of the subject with you. When you cannot do these altogether necessary things, then learn to be patient, and win public sympathy and public tolerance by your law-abiding methods of defending your trade and vocation in life. South country showmen may well take example in these important maters by their brethren in the North.

At Wigan there were no attempts to capture by force the old fair grounds, as was done at Edgware. The showmen applied, as usual, for ground, they were refused; the corporation was asked to reconsider its refusal, but to no avail. Then the showmen took a suitable piece of land and carried on a fair at the old fair time, and no one was a penny the worse for it, except the corporation, which lost to relief of the rates between one and two thousand pounds. The showmen took the true constitutional line of action in Wigan; they organised and successfully carried out a popular movement to bring pressure to bear upon the corporation to rescind its snatch vote against the fair. The town was thoroughly well circularised, every man of public note and position, every town councillor—the elect of the people; every alderman—the city fathers; every minister of religion—the men of God; every schoolmaster and teacher were clearly told the showman's case for the retention of the fair.

At a public meeting a resolution was carried without dissent, and with great enthusiasm, asking the borough council to rescind its prohibitive ukase. They did not do so; but it must not be supposed that the showmen's constitutional appeal to Wigan had no effect. Far from it. The work done rallied to the showmen's side large elements of public sympathy and support. The dominant vote on the council altered its tactics, and instead of forcing their will with a high hand, and making their unwise resolution effective by an endeavour to prohibit the private venture fair at the old-time date, not only made no move, but were apparently glad that the matter was thus compromised. These and other burning questions formed the politics at the Manchester Conference of the showmen of the Empire, and who shall dare now to say that these sometimes despised showmen are not merely good at the graft of the fair, but are thoroughgoing citizens, and able to take their part and lot in national concerns.

The committee meeting at the guild headquarters in Manchester, the Black Lion Hotel, Salford, was but poorly attended, but the necessary detail work was done in preparation for the open and public meeting. The report was read and adopted. The financial statements, duly certified by Messrs. Halliday, Pearson, and Co., chartered accountants, Manchester, was also read. In consideration of the important issues at stake (especially with reference to the Parliamentary defence work), its confirmation was deferred until the London Committee meet next Wednesday. Letters of apology for absence owing to illness were read from General John Wilmot, Glasgow, and John Whiting, Stretford; also for urgent reasons from Richard Newall and others. Captain Tom Payne, V.P., was chairman of the committee, and the Rev. T. Horne and Mr. T. Watson Wright took part in the proceedings.

It is more than likely that the General Election touched the show and fair ground community as it has touched other classes, and materially affected the attendance at the Manchester annual public meeting of the guild. The meeting, however, was fairly well attended, and great interest shown in the work done in 1905, and the prospective work outlined for the present year. The chairman was Fred Bibby, Esq., hon. member, and a long and tried friend of showmen. He was supported by the Rev. H. Norburn, rector of St. Agnes Birch, and hon. local chaplain; the Rev. T. Horne, senior hon. chaplain and acting organiser of the guild; Charles Howard, Esq., hon. local solicitor; T. Watson Wright, Esq., Leicester, solicitor for general and Parliamentary work; Wm. Clark, V.P.; Tom Payne, V.P.; G. H. Cornwell, V.P.; H. J. Wallis, V.P.; George Green, V.P.; John Green, V.P.; Jas. Norman, V.P.; and the following members of the committee:—Messrs. Wm. Holmes, E. P. Holland, H. R. Hibbert, and J. H. Geoghegan. The visitors included:—Mr. Mellor, of Mellor and Sons; Mr. J. Goodwin, Mr. Kemp, of the London and North-Western Railway; Mr. T. Smith, of the Great Central Railway; Mr. Gwinnell, of the Midland Railway; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pike, Bolton; the representatives of Baxendale and Co., the Gourock Ropework, Tyas and Son, the Ocean Accident Insurance Company, and other tradesmen and business firms dealing with show and fair ground materials. Amongst the prominent show folk were:—Messrs. Davies, Sedgwick, Sharpe, Shuttleworth, Jewell, Chaplain, Ingham, Hancock, Forshaw, Cardwell, Harrington, Dixon, Holmes, Bowser, Jennings, Williams. There were, as usual, at Manchester a good attendance of outside friends and sympathisers.

Mr. Bibby made an ideal chairman, and in a speech bristling with telling points, exhorted show people to greater powers of combination. He contrasted their present organised condition as a body of workers and traders with their isolated and utterly divided position twenty years ago, and demonstrated that their recognition by the public as the open-air amusement caterers of the Empire was entirely due to the fact that they bonded themselves together to defend and to extend their business and vocation in life. He severely deprecated those showmen who could use the fair grounds of the country, and enjoy to the full the advantages of their acknowledged work, and yet never gave a penny to the support of the organisation that had by hard work and perseverance obtained those advantages. He pointed out that the minimum subscription amounted only to a little over a penny a week, and that an amount so small as 5s. a year was well within the compass of the humblest and poorest of the show and fair ground caterers. Like an up-to-date showman himself, he made a reference to, and drew a moral from, the election excitement now raging throughout the country. He ventured to take the great party watchwords of both sides in the political arena, and to enforce the lesson that, as the amusement caterers of the British public, they needed both "protection" and "free trade"—protection that their work in life might be kept from the prejudice of the fanatic and the faddist—protection like all other providers and workers of things the commonwealth needs—in a phrase, protection to give full and fair opportunity with all other workers to gain an honest livelihood. They also needed "free trade"—liberty to do their work and to live their life without let and hindrance from those misguided people who do not understand the importance of the showman's calling in life—free trade that cheap and up-to-date amusements may be brought to the very door of the people—protection to them and their business—freedom to work for the entertainment of the people. He concluded a masterly speech by exhorting them to drop sectional and petty jealousies, and to rally to the support of the guild, and called upon Mr. Thomas Hurst, hon. secretary, to read the annual report, as follows:—

The year 1905 has been fraught with many issues of the most serious moment to the show and fairground industry of the United Kingdom. It is no exaggeration of speech to say that increasing success in trade defence has brought with it to the Guild executive officials increasing responsibility, anxiety, and arduous toil.

The Executive Council readily tells the story of that work, and lays down its burden, in order that the whole body of showmen may select in accordance with the democratic basis of the organisation, the workers to carry on to even more triumphant success its principles and objects in the year 1906.

In the very beginning of the year the Guild found itself engaged in a most serious conflict with the authorities at Wigan. It will be remembered that the Corporation, by a resolution of a Council meeting, assumed that it had power under a Borough Improvement Act of the year 1874 to discontinue the annual pleasure fairs.

This was an entirely new reading of the Act, and practically abrogated the statutory law existing for the purpose of constitutionally abolishing obsolete and undesirable fairs.

In the business interests of the members, and in order to challenge in a constitutional manner the Council's assumption of power to abolish under a private Act of Parliament the people's rights and fair franchises, a public meeting was held with extraordinary success in Wigan. The hall in which the meeting took place was crowded, and an unchallenged vote was taken, asking the Corporation to reconsider the question and to rescind its resolution to discontinue the pleasure fairs.

This public action was followed by a serious effort to arrange a working compromise with the Corporation, and it is felt by the Committee that, although not directly successful, the work then done was of a valuable and useful character.

It only needs to be added that, at the time of the regular fair, a fair was held in Wigan without let or hindrance, and upon private ground.

Another interesting event in connection with the defence of the people's fair rights and the showmen's business interests is the compromise arranged over Edgware Fair.

In this instance the fair franchise was the property of the Lord of the Manor, who was also the freeholder of the fair ground.

Owing to the unfortunate fact that the old Charter had been lost, and no copy could be found, the people's fair rights and the showmen's business interests could not be substantiated.

The whole question was submitted for decision in the High Court of Justice, and the Lord of the Manor was victorious.

Although the Urban District Council and the people of Edgware were anxious to retain the old-time fair, their supposed right to do so, on the fair ground owned by the Lord of the Manor, had been decided against them.

At a crowded meeting of the people, with the chairman of the District Council presiding, Mr. T. Watson-Wright, Guild solicitor, and the Rev. T. Horne, Guild chaplain, explained the position of affairs from the showmen's point of view, and it was resolved: That the fair, with the consent of the District Council, should begin a new lease of life upon a new ground, even more suitable than the old fair field, over which the dispute has raged.

During the past twelve months meetings of the Guild have been held in London (two), and one each at Manchester, King's Lynn, and Porth, Wales. These have all been attended with the usual success.

Under the altered conditions of his work the hon. organising chaplain, the Rev. T. Horne, has been able to visit a great number of fairs, particularly in the south of England. He has also been able to visit the great fairs—Birmingham, Nottingham, Leeds, Hull, and many of the Lancashire wakes and Yorkshire feasts.

It will be remembered that, in 1898, Mr. F. Millar, of 25, Victoria-street, Westminster, was appointed the Guild's Parliamentary agent, and Mr. T. Watson Wright, of Leicester, the Parliamentary solicitor. Their joint work was to scrutinise all private Bills deposited by Corporations at the Private Bills Office of the Houses of Parliament, and to report back to the Committee all inimical proposals against the rights and privileges of the fair ground entertainers and traders of the kingdom. After due consideration and conference between the Parliamentary experts and the Committee, all necessary action to safeguard the trade rights of showmen was taken. This work has been continued with unfailing energy since its inauguration. From 1898 to 1905 it is the story of unbroken success; in every case, either by private negotiations or persistent opposition, the Guild has caused the bad clauses in private Bills to be thrown out.

A critical examination of the work accomplished each year demonstrates the interesting and satisfactory truth that Corporations show an increasing willingness to negotiate a settlement rather than face an expensive defeat before Parliament. Although the work of vigilant scrutiny must continue, the unbroken record of success achieved by the Guild leads to the gratifying conclusion that expensive opposition will become less and less a necessity, and conference and negotiation between the Guild and public bodies in all disputes will become more frequent.

So salutary has been the effect of the Guild's work that, in the Sessions of Parliament, 1905, there were only some half-dozen private Bills introduced containing bad clauses. The significance of this will be understood when we contrast it with the year 1898, when twenty Bills were introduced, containing objectionable proposals. In 1898 it was difficult to open up negotiations with the Parliamentary agents of public bodies. It was regarded almost as a breach of Parliamentary decorum that travelling showmen should be organised and wealthy enough to have their own Parliamentary agents and solicitors. It was also a "surprising thing" to the permanent officials of the great public departments. The Home Office, the Board of Trade, and the Local Government Board almost refused to recognise the locus standi of the showmen of the Empire.

Of the six Bills scrutinised at the beginning of the last Session, five of them were immediately settled by private negotiations, and only one—the Corporation of Colne Bill—remained unsettled for a time. The necessitated a somewhat serious outlay, two petitions, one by local showmen and the other by the Guild collectively, having to be presented against the Bill. This determination of the Guild to oppose the Bill ultimately influenced the Corporation to reopen negotiations, which were carried to a successful conclusion in friendly conference between the officials of the Corporation and the Guild. As an indication of the expensive character of this very necessary work, we may state that even a friendly compromise, as in the case of Colne, cost no less a sum than £70.

It will be remembered that early in 1904 the Showmen's Parliamentary Defence Fund was established. The object of this new departure was to remove, as far as possible, the responsibility of raising the necessary funds from the Guild, and to place the responsibility upon the whole body of showmen and open-air amusement caterers. By the kindness of The Era, the Parliamentary Defence Fund was kept well before the show community, and—of equal value to the show business—well before Corporations and the whole official bady engaged in the arduous work of local government.

The objects of the new defence organisation were twofold—first, to scrutinise private Bills, and to take action against all proposed injurious or restrictive legislation promoted by public bodies; secondly, to preserve the common law rights of the British people in their fairs, feasts, wakes, and public holidays.

It will readily be seen that a work so necessary—and at times, despite every attempt to work it economically, so costly—commands the serious attention and the generous and constant support of all engaged or interested in the show business. We record with great satisfaction that, independent of increased subscriptions to the funds of the Guild, in the year 1904 the great majority of the members of the British Roundabout Proprietors' and Showmen's Union subscribed £2 2s. each to the Parliamentary Defence Fund.

Whilst we recognise this generous response to the appeal of the Guild for money to carry on its necessary work, we must also express our surprise at the slowness evinced by the great mass of showpeople in grasping the necessity for constant and increased support. When the fund for defence work was started there was a serious deficit on Parliamentary expenditure alone. The response made to the first appeal in the columns of The Era did not cover that deficit, and since then there have been two years' of costly defence work. The Guild Committee, recognising that the past two years have been, from a business point of view, very much below the average, did not feel justified in unduly pressing the urgent necessity for immediate and full support. It is earnestly hoped that the general improvement in the trade of the country before us will give even the poorest of the travelling community the means of contributing their share to the maintenance of this necessary branch of trade defence.

When the Parliamentary Defence Fund was started, it was estimated that at least £300 was necessary to put the fund into effective working order, and that a guarantee fund of £300 was necessary to carry on Parliamentary work year by year.

By a resolution of the Guild Committee, it was determined to pay over year by year the balance of its funds to the Parliamentary Defence Fund. The Roundabout Proprietors' and Showmen's Union also promised a 2-guinea contribution from each of its members. The North of England Amusement Caterers' Amalgamation have also passed a levy of one-fourth their members' subscriptions.

The Executive Committee, whilst fully appreciating the generous support of these kindred societies, yet feels that it is its bounden duty to lay before the members of the Guild, and all showmen, the serious nature of the deficit on the Parliamentary Defence Fund, and the urgent necessity of generous and constant support of this important branch of trade defence.

We have left for the concluding paragraphs of this report the most important and far-reaching event of the year. We refer to the retirement of Lord George Sanger, our honoured President, generous patron and strenuous worker.

The Executive Council, in saying good-bye to its distinguished President, wishes him long life and great opportunities of rest, and assures him that he will carry with him the heartfelt gratitude of the men and women of the fair ground, for whom he has worked so long, so faithfully, and so successfully.

In conclusion, the rallying cry of the old Guild to its members, to kindred societies, and to all showmen, is—this is your work, it is done for you, and see you to it that it is done well, and that it is not starved out of existence for want of the means to carry it on.

Signed on behalf of the Executive,
LORD GEORGE SANGER, President.
REV. T. HORNE, Organiser and Hon. Chaplain.
T. HURST, Hon. Sec.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL FOR 1906:—Honorary Life-President, Lord George Sanger.

The Rev. H. NORBURN then arose, and met with a warm reception. Many of those present remembered his kindly ministration when at Longsight Wakes they were domiciled in his parish. He proposed "That the report as read be adopted, and that this meeting hereby heartily endorses the action of the Executive Council and fully supports the aims and objects of the Showmen's Guild." He remembered that when he first read a copy of the Showmen's Year Book that he stood alone with his friend, their Hon. Chaplain, the Rev. Thomas Horne, on the list of local chaplains. Now there were quite a dozen names in the book. That was a good sign of progress in itself; but there were other indications of advancement. The better tone of public opinion with regard to them and their business in life proved to him that it was ignorance—not vicious ignorance, but lack of accurate knowledge—that had in time past led so many people to question the utility and necessity of their work. He noted that in the good old town of Lynn that the Guild had several clerical helpers. Well, he was proud of that fact, for he was himself a "man from King's Lynn." When as a boy he went to the grand old fairs at Lynn Mart and at Whitton close by, what joy and delight it gave him, and with him the whole neighbourhood. In fact, it was the coming of these stranger folk from other worlds, bringing with them "the world of shows," that made them realise that there were other things, other people, and other interests in the world besides Norfolk.

He then referred in most sympathetic words to the anxiety of the show-people—the fathers and mothers—for the education, religious and secular, of their children. He had seen all along the immense difficulties that beset this question. Now what were they doing? What he had striven to do was to gather the children into the schools while they were in his parish. He had been pleased to notice that this had had a very gratifying effect on his own people; for instance, in the Sunday school his children had welcomed the show-children. Again, on the Wakes Sunday he had provided a service for the show-people, and they had attended in goodly numbers. He regarded them and their vocation in life as being necessary for the well-being of his own people, and he had combated considerable prejudice on their behalf. He instanced that he too was an amusement caterer, for he felt it part of his duty to provide in his schoolroom entertainment for his people, dramatic and musical. He had run the gauntlet of narrow-minded prejudice many times. One parishioner of his went so far as to say that "he (the rector) was leading people to the Devil" because he had provided and allowed his young people dancing. He answered that he had yet to see where the sin of dancing came in. He knew that recreation and amusement were necessary, and a means towards a good end. He urged them to continue their good work and enterprise. In the Guild was the centre of their activities, and to make it still more satisfactory to cast out all doubtful kinds of entertainments, and to trust the people. He, too, like the Chairman, drew an illustration from the pending Election. The most significant of all lessons, he said, was the way in which Labour was coming to the front. He saw in that a lesson for them, It was the organised trades that had come to the front. It was a victory for combination. They were members of a Trade Union. They were in their Guild organised, and the lesson for them all was—to still further strengthen and perfect their organisation. He wished them all success in their endeavour, and he felt that the great heart of England had a warm place of affection for the shows and showmen of the kingdom.

MR. CHARLES HOWARD seconded the resolution, remarking that the capital speeches already given left him with little ground to cover. He expressed the pleasure it gave him year by year to meet them, and also to say what interest he took in their enterprise. Their Guild had been a bulwark of defence to them, and "a rock of offence" to their enemies. Above all he felt concerned that so many kept from joining the organisation, when all reason pointed without doubt or cavil to the necessity of helping it along and making it still more useful. With their excellent body of honorary workers (for he found on scrutinising their annual report that the great bulk of the work was done without fee or reward) they ought to become a power in the land. What was the cause of the success of the Labour Party in the General Election, to which reference had been made already? Why, it was simply and only this—they were supported by their people, by their own trades. Each Labour member will be dependent on the money help of his Union. Did they not see the force and reason of that? Was it not their duty to support well and regularly the work and objects of the Guild? With the greatest possible pleasure he seconded the resolution.

MR. T. WATSON WRIGHT, Guild Solicitor, then dealt with the past year's work in Parliament, and also with the defence of the people's popular Fair Rights. As he had foreseen at last year's meeting, the corporations introducing obnoxious clauses into Private Bills were slowly but surely recognising the folly and mistake of their action, and less, and still less, Bills at each Session was the sign of their coming to a better mind. He contrasted their labours of the last Session with their first Session's work, and saw in it every hope for the future. From forty Bills to deal with in 1899 they came down to a dozen Bills in 1905, and of that dozen only seven threatened their business seriously. By conference and negotiation with the promoters of these seven they obtained justice, and only in one case was it necessary to lodge a petition and prepare to oppose by counsel—that was the case of Colne Corporation Bill. Had that Bill passed as it was introduced, it would have meant good-bye to their business in Colne. However, he found that after their petition was in and their case ready, better counsels prevailed, and with very happy results. He and the local showmen were received by the Mayor and Town Clerk, and he confessed with pleasure that the Colne Corporation treated them in the most friendly manner possible. Mutual concessions were made, and the Corporation expunged the objectionable clauses, whereupon they for their part withdrew their petition. Casting his mind ahead, he had to tell them of the danger that threatened through Private Bill legislation in the first Session of the new Parliament. Of the numerous Bills lodged in the Private Bills Office only some four were concerned with their business, and probably only one—the Pontefract Bill—would give them serious trouble. The other Corporations with Show and Fairs Clauses in their Bills were the Essex County Council, the Newport and Todmorden Corporation, and the District Council of Wallassey. These would come in due course, before Parliament met, before the Committee. They might rest assured that their officials would do all things possible to safeguard their trade interests, and upon them lay the duty of giving the Guild ample means for its necessary and arduous work.

The Rev. T. HORNE, the Hon. Chaplain, on rising to deliver the annual address on the general work of the Guild, was received with great cordiality. He began by reminding them that a year ago they left that Hall with a great enterprise before them. That was, in effect, to bombard the Borough of Wigan, in order to bring the legitimate pressure of an enlightened public opinion to bear upon the elected of the people of Wigan, and by fair and constitutional means bring about a reversal of the mistaken policy of the Borough Council with regard to the discontinuance of the Pleasure Fair. They did bombard Wigan with giant posters, setting forth the case for the showmen and also the case for the people of Wigan being deprived of their Fair rights, without a mandate from or a popular vote being taken. Some 500 circulars to the leading citizens of Wigan, giving full information on the question at issue were sent out, handbills distributed, the Wigan Press fully supplied with special articles, and, in fact, no man could sin in ignorance as to the right or wrong of the matter. A public meeting, with a crowded and enthusiastic audience, attended by the leading showmen of the country, listened to speeches by their solicitor, hon. secretarys, and himself. In the end a resolution was passed, unanimously asking the Corporation to rescind its prohibition against the Fair, and this was done without a word of protest from well-known Town Councillors who were present at the meeting. He ventured to say that all the time and talent and money spent upon that effort was well spent, and that it was an "object lesson" of the power and influence of the Guild that would be noted and remembered from one end of the kingdom to the other. The Corporation did not reverse its mistaken policy, but it treated the showmen with respect and kindly tolerance when the private venture Fair was held at the old Fair time. What were the net results of the mistaken policy of the Wigan Corporation? Why, a loss of two thousand pounds a year to the easement of public burdens. The Private Fair ground paid its toll not to the Corporation, not to the relief of rates, but to the profit of the lessees running the Fair. They had always advocated public Corporation Fair grounds as against private venture Fairs. They still believed that Fairs like Hull, Nottingham, Halifax, and scores of others, were all the better for being under Corporation control, and with the tolls helping the rates. That was a sound and just division of profits, and gave elements of security that other methods did not guarantee.

He had been able, owing to his fixed work on The Era, to visit over one hundred Fairs, Feasts, and Wakes in the south, north, and west of England and Wales. Circumstances he could not control—but he hoped for better opportunities in the coming season—had prevented him getting to Scotland, or holding meetings at Hull, Birmingham, Holbeck, Rotherham, and Longsight, as he had intended to do. He had dealt with over a thousand letters on the work of the Guild, and of vital concern to the show business. The Corporation of Whitchurch, the London County Council, the Urban District Council of Southend-on-Sea, the Corporations of Wigan, Blackburn, Colne, and Rawtenstall had been corresponded with upon important matters, chiefly with reference to proposed Bye-laws, and satisfactory results had accrued in almost every instance. In fact, it was to the Guild that local governing bodies now applied upon questions affecting showman interests. This, of course, was eminently satisfactory, and it made the Guild every year of its existence more and more valuable as an instrument of trade defence and protection.

As their organising hon. chaplain, his duty, his highly-valued privilege had been to provide for mental, spiritual, and educational necessities. As illustrating how this work was accomplished, he instanced their hon. local chaplain for Manchester, the Rev. Henry Norton's, work at Longsight. That was being done at many other centres of church life. The children were cared for in the schools, both day and Sunday schools. Interesting work was done amongst the children on the West of England fair ground, and done by their hon. local agent and helper, Mr. Norton. In conclusion, he urged them to remember the concluding words of the annual report: This is your work, it is done for you, and see you to it that is done well, and that it is not starved out of existence for want of the means to carry it on.

The CHAIRMAN then put the resolution to the meeting, and it was carried with unanimity and great applause.

The HON. SECRETARY then read out the nomination of members of the executive council as suggested by the retiring committee for election at that meeting:—

Vice-Presidents:—H. Ashington, Leeds; T. Read, London; E. T. Read, London; E. H. Bostock, Glasgow; Frank C. Bostock, Paris; J. W. Bostock, London; John Barker, Norwich; B. T. Burnett, Manchester; Wm. Clark, Manchester; John Collins, Liverpool; P. Collins, Walsall; Geo. Cornwell, Bolton; F. Turner, London; Robert Dixon, Salford; George Green, Glasgow; B. Howden, Boston; T. Harniess, Rotherham; G. H. Kemp, Leicester; R. Newall, Manchester; James Norman, London; Tom Norman, London; Thos. Payne, Ashton; H. Studt, Wales; Jacob Studt, Gloucester; John Studt, Wales; Wm. Toft, Dublin; D. Turnbull, Belfast; W. J. Waddington, Leeds; H. J. Wallis, Liverpool; J. Wilmot, Glasgow; J. Whiting, Manchester; Councillor G. T. Tuby, Doncaster; W. H. Marshall, Bradford; John Cottrell, Manchester.

Hon. Treasurer:—Wm. Mitchell, Heywood.

Hon. Secretary:—T. Hurst, Broadhurst Farm, Clifton, Manchester.

Trustees:—Frank Turner, London; B. Mitchell, Heywood; John Wilmot, Glasgow; Wm. Mitchell, Heywood; H. Thurston, London.

Solicitors:—T. Watson-Wright, C.C., 7, Friar-lane, Leicester; Charles Howard, 33, Princess-street, Manchester.

Law Agent for Scotland:—Joseph Shaughnessy, 190, West George-street, Glasgow.

Parliamentary Agent:—Frederick Millar, Esq., 25, Victoria-street, Westminster.

Bankers:—The National Provincial Bank of England.

Auditors:—Halliday, Pearson, and Co., Chartered Accountants, 13, Spring-gardens, Manchester.

Organiser and Hon Chaplain:—The Rev. T. Horne, care of The Era, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, London, W.C.

Executive Committee for 1906:—Wm. Bedford, Wm. Chaplain, J. B. Butlin, W. Clark, jun., J. Creighton, R. Dooner, Chas. Farrell, J. Geoghegan, W. Gibson, J. Hastings, Edmund Holland, W. Holmes, Ed. Lawrence, James Leo, J. Lloyd, G. Marshall, A. Martin, J. Monte, R. Monte, S. Plinston, J. Ravenscroft, H. Scard, H. R. Hibbert, Geo. Gray, T. Burgin, T. Hartshorn, C. Thurston, jun., J. B. Whitehead, James Wilmot, W. Wilmot.

Hon. Local Agents:—T. Hartshorn, Esq., Hettonle-Hole, R.S.O., Co. Durham; G. W. A. Norton, Esq., Penzance; J. Miller, Esq., Blackburn; W. C. Sorrell, Esq., Redditch; H. H. Hutchins, Esq., Neath; J. B. Whitehead, Esq., Pudsey.

The names, with the addition of Messrs. Wm. Shuttleworth and Wm. Marfleet, were put to the meeting and carried unanimously.

Mr. HURST then made several interesting announcements. The Committee would meet at the Black Lion Hotel at 8 that evening, and that the proceeds of the Bolton Dinner and Ball amounted to over twenty pounds.

The HON. CHAPLAIN then made a feeling reference to the memory of the late James Dean, and informed the meeting the sub-committee dealing with the matter had selected a most suitable memorial to be placed over the honoured remains of James Dean. He appealed for further funds, and read out the list of subscribers given in last week's issue of The Era, and continued in this.

At this point in the proceedings a telegram was handed to the Hon. Chaplain, who at once in grave tones read it to the meeting. It was worded as follows:

"Rev. T. HORNE, Showmen's Meeting, Memorial Hall, Manchester.—Truly sorry; just missed 12.10 train to Manchester. Attended committee meeting last night here when it was decided that owing to the death of T. Read to have no supper or ball, but to hold the Guild meeting as usual on Wednesday. I was deputed to attend personally and communicate this sad message to you. You will all regret this sad loss that has befallen us, more especially at this period. Trusting you will have a good meeting.—TOM NORMAN."

In the midst of the solemn hush that sad news cast over the meeting the Hon. Chaplain asked the audience to stand, and he moved:—"That the deepest sympathy and the most heartfelt condolence of that meeting be conveyed to the bereaved family."

This was passed in silence.

Then in a few touching and impressive words the speaker referred to the sterling worth and character of the late Mr. Read, and finished by quoting the well-known In Memoriam words:—"The souls of the Righteous are in the Hands of God, and there shall no torment touch them. Let Light perpetual shine upon. May he rest in Peace."

Subscriptions to the funds of the Guild at the Manchester meetings:—George Green, Esq., £5; T. Smith, Esq. (G.C.R.), £1 1s.; Wm. Clark, Esq., £1; Arthur Righini, £1 1s.; E. P. Holland, Esq., 15s.; J. Wingate, 10s. 6d.; John Sharpe, Esq., 5s.

To the Dean Memorial Fund:—Wm. Clarke, Esq., £1 1s.; E. P. Holland, Esq., 10s. 6d.; A. Righini, Esq., 5s.; J. Wingate, Esq., 5s.; J. Sharpe, Esq., 2s. 6d.

The adjourned Committee meeting took place at eight o'clock at the Black Lion Hotel. John Geo. H. Cornwell, Vice-President, presided.

It was resolved to further consider the balance-sheet and financial statement at the London Committee, and Mr. T. Hurst, Hon. Secretary, was appointed to attend London meetings as the delegate of the Guild.

MR. J. D. HAMLYN, the well-known naturalist, gives a thrilling account of the snake which escaped and made its way to the saloon deck of the Kildonan Castle during that vessel's voyage with a zoological cargo from the Cape to Southampton. "A young lady first saw the intruder, and her screams alarmed everybody. A stampede followed," said Mr. Hamlyn, "and the deck was cleared in something under five seconds. It was an exceptionally large and nimble creature, and looked very terrifying. I was told by an excited sailor that my beasts had escaped, and were devouring the passengers. Rushing up, I saw the snake in solitary splendour, looking very surprised at all the commotion it had caused. I caught it without much trouble, and took it to its own quarters. At dinner that night I was congratulated on my bravery in seizing the dangerous reptile. I explained that the snake was non-poisonous and very tame, but my hearers refused to believe me."

AT the World's Fair, West Hartlepool, are Walter Murphy's racing motor-cars, Beaumont's park swings, Emmer's shutes and roundabouts, and Randall Williams's grand show.

THE Minerva Automatic Company, the well-known firm of King's Cross, are the sole agents for the slot constructions of the Mills Novelty Co., who manufacture 200 varieties, and are the patentees of the famous ball-punching machine which has proved such a success. Over £25 has been taken in one week in London. The latest invention of the Mills Novelty Co. is an automatic violin, orders for which are so numerous that delivery cannot be undertaken under three months.

MESSRS. HANCOCK BROS., the well-known and enterprising proprietors of Plymouth Winter Gardens, this week applied to the local Bench for a music and dancing licence for stage purposes. The Chief Constable paid the firm a high tribute as to the manner in which they conducted the gardens. The application was adjourned for a week, to enable a full Bench to consider it.

MR. CHARLES AUGUSTUS JAMES, once an auctioneer and now proprietor of the World's Fair Music Hall, Dublin, topped the poll at the local municipal election on Monday, a very hard fight resulting in a majority of twenty votes.

THE lamentable and somewhat unexpected death of Mr. Theophilus Read, who for the past two years has continued the world's fair at the Royal Agricultural Hall, Islington, in conjunction with his son, Mr. T. E. Read, has cast a deep gloom amongst those more closely associated with this well-renowned popular home of amusement. Started some twenty-seven years back under the lesseeship of Messrs. H. and T. Read and F. Bailey, this great amalgamation has been annually held and looked upon by the amusement-seeking public as London's one great show not to be missed, and the explanation to this is practically in a nutshell; it is and has been from its innovation the one aim of its promoters to give a real good big show for the multitude at a small and popular price. As year succeeded year, so did the enterprise of the lessees, who strained every point to make each eclipse its predecessor, and this determined perseverance has met with that success it so thoroughly deserved. They were painstaking in all their endeavours, working in harmony one with the other, but on Nov. 21, 1898, a gap came by the death, after a short illness, of Mr. Henry Read.

THE show was then continued under the lesseeship of Messrs. T. Read and F. Bailey, being still run upon similar lines, with modifications and improvements as year succeeded year—till December 2nd, 1902—when Mr. F. Bailey died. The late Mr. Theo. Read then had the whole burden of responsibilities upon his own shoulders, this he took with a good heart, looked far and strove hard to make still further improvements, culminating in taking his son, Mr. T. E. Read, into partnership in 1904, and by their joint efforts have endeavoured to, and succeeded in, bringing the present fair up to a record pitch of perfection, successfully accomplishing this big effort, the aim of their ambition. But a gloom has been cast upon the scene by the sad and unexpected death of Mr. Theophilus Read, the last of the original trio, who after leaving the office on Thursday night, 11th inst., had a somewhat severe relapse, took to his bed, and breathed his last at 3.30 on Tuesday afternoon, January 16, though having been in very indifferent health for a long time past, still kept his shoulder to the wheel with determined pluck and energy. The interment will take place at Abney Park Cemetery on Monday, January 22, at 2 o'clock. The family express their sincere appreciation of the many tokens of sympathy and condolence in their sad bereavement.

WE can only add our own expression of grief and deepest condolence to the bereaved widow and family. For years the great work done by the late Theophilus Read has been the theme of admiration and sincere appreciation by all sections of the showman world. His untiring energies and unfailing courtesy to the show people who made pilgrimage every new year home to the world's fair was a mark of his fellowship with the men and women of the road. He was a vice-president of the Showmen's Guild, and a friend and patron of the trade defence movement from its very inception. We feel sure that the whole body of fair-ground caterers will be of one heart and mind in rendering every meed of respect to the memory of a good man gone to his rest, and of deepest sympathy with the widow and family. May he rest in peace.

HOCKEY.

MISSES CECILIA FOWLER AND WINIFRED BRADLEY'S LADIES' XI. v. J. LEONARD'S GENTS.' XI.

Played near Bristol on Dec. 23. During the second half of the game Miss Edie Francis was injured, and had to retire. Misses Winifred Bradley, Kit Montgomery, Lillie Belding, and Jack Leonard, Bertie Green, and Sam Coombes (two) scored for their respective sides. The following were the teams:—

MISSES FOWLER AND BRADLEY'S XI.—Miss May Fisher, goal; Miss Edie Francis and Miss Minnie Hamilton, backs; Miss Lucy Norris, Miss Edie Laurence, and Miss Cecilia Fowler (captain), half-backs; Miss Winifred Bradley, Miss Alice Mitchell, Miss Lillie Belding, Miss Kit Montgomery, and Miss Bertha Godfrey, forwards.

J. LEONARD'S XI.—M. Leonard, goal; B. Green and T. Willis, backs; W. Jones, E. Adams, and G. Thompson, half-backs; F. Hodges, E. Poole, S. Coombes, A. Lucas, and J. Leonard (captain), forwards.

Referee, Miss Ethel Bowman (of Miss Cecilia Fowler's team).

Result:—

Misses Fowler & Bradley's XI.. Three goals.
Jack Leonard's XI. ..... Four goals.

MISSES CECILIA FOWLER AND WINIFRED BRADLEY'S LADIES' XI. v. J. LEONARD'S GENT.'S XI.

Played near Clifton Downs on Dec. 29, the following were the teams:—

Misses Fowler and Bradley's XI.—Miss May Fisher, goal; Miss Ivy Bowman and Miss Lilla Carter, backs; Miss Cecilia Fowler, Miss Lucy Norris, and Miss Lillie Belding, half-backs; Miss Winifred Bradley (captain), Miss Kit Montgomery, Miss Alice Mitchell, Miss Bertha Godfrey, and Miss Amy Bernard, forwards.

J. Leonard's XI.—M. Leonard, goal; S. Coombs and F. Price, backs; G. Thompson, A. James, and B. Green, half-backs; T. Alway, J. Leonard (captain), F. Foley, T. Ferris, and G. Wilson, forwards.

Referee: Miss Nellie Bailey (of Miss Cecilia Fowler's team).

Result: Misses Fowler and Bradley's Ladies' XI., nil. Jack Leonard's Eleven, 2 goals.

F. Foley and G. Thompson scored the goals.

FIFTY YEARS OF THE DRAMA.

Kind expressions from Authors and Managers.

SIR SQUIRE BANCROFT.

"I congratulate you on your 'Fifty Years of the Drama': the list must prove both interesting and useful to lovers of and workers for the stage."

MR. GEORGE EDWARDES.

"I think the new feature of The Era is most interesting and useful. A list of plays produced from 1850 to 1900 will certainly be of great service to a very large number of your readers."

MR. EDWARD TERRY.

"An admirable idea, and will prove a most valuable record."

MR. FRANK CURZON.

"Your list, I think, will be most useful for reference."

MRS. W. K. CLIFFORD.

"I think the list will be immensely useful."

MR. SYDNEY GRUNDY.

"Your list will be exceedingly useful. But, of course, there is no reason why old titles should not be used again. Indeed, some day we shall have to go back to them. Some of our modern titles, when they are not mere proper names with an adjective attached, display the desperation of the dramatist in too ludicrous a light. Such a title as 'The Importance of Being Earnest' amounts to a misdemeanour."

MR. ARTHUR W. PINERO.

"The list of plays produced during the last half-century is a most valuable record. The thanks of those interested in the theatre are due to The Era for this and many other enterprises."

MR. ALFRED SUTRO.

"The list you are compiling will be of very great benefit, and I am looking forward to the time when it shall be complete, and obtainable in pamphlet form."

MR. JUSTIN HUNTLY McCARTHY.

"I have watched with the greatest interest the progress of your alphabetical list of the plays published during the last half of the nineteenth century. It is a most useful undertaking, and when it appears in volume form, it must prove of great value to all who are concerned with the drama."

MR. ISRAEL ZANGWILL.

"The list of plays will be very interesting and useful when published in complete form. The etiquette of the profession apparently still allows of novelists' titles being used by playwrights. Thus, The Master, which will appear in your list as a play by somebody else, is the name of a book of mine; while the new play, Noah's Ark, has the same title as a shorter story of mine."

MR. ARTHUR LAW.

"The publication in The Era of a list of plays produced during the fifty years, 1850-1900, is an excellent idea, and will be most useful to authors who may be in doubt as to their right to a certain title. When it is issued in book form I shall be very glad to possess a copy."

MR. ARTHUR BOURCHIER.

"Mr. Arthur Bourchier thinks the list very useful indeed."

MR. TOM GALLON.

"Your idea seems to me to be a most excellent one. Quite apart from the fact that there is always a difficulty in knowing what titles have been used, there very often arises the question of when and where a play was actually produced—a question difficult to be answered. Actors and authors should alike be grateful to The Era."

MR. HAROLD MONTAGUE.

"I think the idea of printing a list of plays produced during the last fifty years an excellent one. It should be of great value to authors."

MR. ARTHUR SHIRLEY.

"The list of produced plays was not merely a happy thought, for the same idea has probably occurred to many, though until The Era carried it out no one took the pains to collect and publish such a truly valuable record.

"Managers, dramatists, as well as would-be authors, will henceforward have a long list of titles to refer to, and there will be neither reason nor excuse for encroaching on pre-existing copyright in play titles. What a lot of trouble it should save us all!"

MR. WALTER MELVILLE.

"I think it shows great enterprise on the part of your journal, and likely to prove most useful and at the same time interesting to the general profession."

MR. ARTHUR MORRISON.

"The list you are publishing will be a most valuable work of reference to everybody taking an interest in the stage, and I have no doubt that when it is published as a book you will find its success warrant you in issuing fresh editions from time to time, with the information brought to date in each case."

MR. J. J. DILLEY.

"The idea is an excellent one, and there can be no question at all of the usefulness of such a summary. Cousin Grace has not been included. This is a little piece from the French, played at a matinée performance at the Gaiety Theatre, Dec. 4, 1884."

MR. COSMO HAMILTON.

"I think that your new feature is an excellent and most useful one. A list of plays produced during fifty years is interesting not only to the playgoer, but essentially so to the manager and the playwright. They will only have to consult it to be sure that a title has not been used before."

MR. CHARLES H. E. BROOKFIELD.

"My attention has been called to your list of plays produced between 1850-1900. I have no doubt it will prove interesting and useful to many."

MR. F. FRANKFORT MOORE.

"The list of plays produced during the past fifty years, now appearing in The Era, will, I am certain, prove, when completed, extremely valuable to everyone associated with the drama in England. I am convinced—and I have had a considerable amount of experience in this direction—that it will be especially valued by all writers upon stage matters. The advantage of being able to refer at a moment's notice to the criticisms upon the production of various plays in various newspapers must be apparent to everyone. If such a list had been in existence some years ago, I would have been saved a vast amount of worry and vexation of spirit. The Era has once again proved itself appreciative of the conditions under which the best interests of the drama in England are maintained."

MR. LOUIS N. PARKER.

"I think your list of plays, produced between 1850 and 1900, will, like the other contents of your paper, be invaluable."

REVISED SCALE OF CHARGES FOR MANAGERS WANTING ARTISTS, ARTISTS WANTING ENGAGEMENTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING. Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

This Scale does not apply to "Trade" Advertisements in these Columns.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION (Post Free).

	UNITED KINGDOM.	FOREIGN
One Quarter.....	6s. 6d.	8s.
Half Year	13s. 0d.	16s.
One Year	26s. 0d.	32s.

The Offices of "The Era" are "THE ERA" BUILDINGS, 5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, STRAND, W.C.

For the convenience of Advertisers, Replies to Advertisements are received. They can remain until called for, or be forwarded by Post, FREE OF CHARGE

NO STAMPS.

Advertisers and Subscribers are politely requested to forward Cheques or Postal Orders in payment of their Advertisements and Subscriptions, crossed "Lloyd's Bank, Ltd." Remittances should be made payable to "The Era" Limited, and addressed,

THE PUBLISHER,
"The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-st., Strand, W.C.
"Wire," "The Era, London."
"Ring-up," 4,747, Central.

IN case of the non delivery of "THE ERA" by the First Post, the Publisher will be greatly obliged if Advertisers will forward their Postal Wrappers, with the time of delivery marked upon them.

COMPANIES WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING. Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

MILTON BODE'S THEATRES.
WANTED, Companies for
DALSTON THEATRE, LONDON, N.E.
March 26, April 9, 16, 30, May 7, 21, on.
COUNTY THEATRE, READING.
Feb. 19, March 5, 19, April 2, 9, 16, on.
ROYALTY THEATRE, CHESTER.
May 7, Race Week, 14, 28, June 4, on.
GRAND THEATRE, WOLVERHAMPTON.
Feb. 26, March 12, 26, April 2, 9, May 7, on.
THEATRE ROYAL, HUDDERSFIELD.
April 9, 16, 23, May 14, 28, June 4.
OPERA HOUSE, NORTHAMPTON.
Vacant April 9, 16, May 7, 21, 28, June 4, on.
THEATRE ROYAL, LEAMINGTON.
Vacant,
Jan. 29, Feb. 5, 19, 26.
March 5, 12, on.
Address, MILTON BODE, Theatre, Reading.

WANTED, First-class Companies, for LEAMINGTON, Jan. 29, Feb. 5, 15 (3 nights each), 19, 26, on. READING, Feb. 19, March 5, 19. Address, MILTON BODE, Theatre, Reading.

MELVILLE'S THEATRES and COMPANIES.
WANTED, Important Attractions, for STANDARD THEATRE,
March 19, 26, April 30.
TERRISS THEATRE,
April 9.
Address, WALTER MELVILLE,
Oakley House, 14, Bloomsbury-street, W.C.

WANTED, First-Class Companies, QUEEN'S THEATRE, GATESHEAD,
March 12, May 7, 14, 21, June 11, 25, July 9, 23.
Address, SIDNEY BACON, Metropole T., Gateshead.
Telegrams, "Bacon, Gateshead."

WANTED, First-class Companies, for
COUNTY THEATRE, BEDFORD;
GRAND THEATRE, LUTON;
Vacant Feb. 5 (through obliging), 26,
March 5, 12, 26, April 2,
Feb. 15 (3 nights, Bedford only),
Feb. 19 (3 nights each town).
Address,
E. GRAHAM-FALCON, County Theatre, Bedford.

WANTED, First-class Companies, Feb. 5 (6 nights), Luton, through obliging Mr. Arthur Branscombe; Feb. 15 (3 nights), Bedford; Feb. 19 (3 nights Bedford, 3 nights Luton).
E. G. FALCON, County Theatre, Bedford.

CAMBRIDGE THEATRE, SPENNYMOOR.
Lessee, Mr. HARDING THOMAS.
WANTED, Pantomime, Feb. 19, Musical Attractions, April 2, May 7. Add., HERBERT VERE.

QUEEN'S THEATRE, KEIGHLEY.
WANTED, First-class Musical and Dramatic Companies, May 14, 21, also Whit Week, Share or Certainty.
Address,
LINGFORD CARSON, Queen's Theatre, Keighley.

QUEEN'S THEATRE, LIVERPOOL.
WANTED, Strong Dramatic Company, for April 2;
also First-class Attraction for Easter.
Address,
LINGFORD CARSON, Queen's, Keighley.

WANTED, Good Drama Company, for Feb. 5. Quote lowest, certainty, and full particulars, No Wires,
J. F. ELLISTON, Bolton.

THEATRE ROYAL, BOURNEMOUTH.
WANTED, First-class Attractions, Feb. 26, March 19, April 2.
Apply, FREDK. MOUILLOT,
4, Broad-court-chambers, Bow-street.

FOLKESTONE AND HASTINGS.
WANTED, High-class Companies Only, FOLKESTONE, March 8 (3 nights), 19, 26.
HASTINGS, March 5 (3 nights), 12, 26, April 9.
Coms., H. W. ROWLAND, Theatre, Folkestone.

OPERA HOUSE, LEICESTER.
WANTED, First-Class Companies, for
March 5, 19, April 2, Aug. 6, 13, 20.
Apply, MILTON BODE, Theatre, Reading.

THEATRE ROYAL, PLYMOUTH.
WANTED, First-class Attractions, for Feb. 26, March 19, 26, April 16 (Easter), April 23, 30, May 7, 28, June 4 (Whit.).
Apply,
C. F. WILLIAMS, T. R., Plymouth.

P. O. W., NUNEATON.
WANTED, Companies, March 5, April 30, May 14, 28,
Whit, Aug. 13, 20,
Oct. 22, and Nov. 5.
A. F. CROSS.

T. R., RUGBY.
WANTED, Companies, Feb. 12, March 5, 15 (3), April 2, 9, 16, 23, Whit, and August Bank Holidays. A. F. CROSS, P. O. W., Nuneaton.

EMPIRE THEATRE, OXFORD.
WANTED, First-Class Company, Monday next, Jan. 22 (vacant through disappointment). Printing can be got out if received by to-night. Wire immediate. Also vacant, Jan. 29 and various later dates. ALBANY WARD.

VICTORIA THEATRE, STANLEY, DURHAM.
WANTED, Good Attractions, March 19, 26, Easter, onwards. Great Success, second week of the Elliotts and Savonas. Good shows can take money here, and I give good terms. Apply, DAVID WILLIAMS.

QUEEN'S THEATRE, DUBLIN.
WANTED, through obliging Manager, Good Company for Feb. 12. Address, WHITEREAD.

THEATRE ROYAL, WORKINGTON.
WANTED, Good Companies, Feb. 19, 26, March 26, April 2, Big Attraction for Easter.
Address, FRED HAMMOND.

WANTED, Good Companies, Jan. 29, onwards, Good Shows, Good Business. Good Pantomime required. Wire, wire, wire. MANAGER, Theatre, Musselburgh, Scotland.

WANTED, First-class Companies, Easter, onwards. Apply, R. FOGARTY, Proprietor, Theatre Royal, Limerick. Musical Comedy or High-class Drama preferred.

WANTED, Company, Feb. 19 and 26. Apply, H. A. JORDISON,
St. James's Theatre, Manchester.

THEATRE ROYAL, TYLDESLEY.
WANTED, Companies, Jan. 29 and Feb. 5. BRIERLEY.

COMPANIES WANTED.

ARTHUR CARLTON THEATRES, LTD.

WANTED, First-class Companies,
Wanted, First-class Companies.
Wanted, First-class Companies.
Wanted, First-class Companies.
Wanted, First-class Companies.
Wanted, First-class Companies.
Wanted, First-class Companies.
Wanted, First-class Companies.
Wanted, First-class Companies.

THEATRE ROYAL, WORCESTER.
THEATRE ROYAL, WORCESTER.
THEATRE ROYAL, WORCESTER.
Vacant April 9, 23, 30, May 7, 14.

GREENWICH THEATRE, S.E.
GREENWICH THEATRE, S.E.
GREENWICH THEATRE, S.E.
Vacant Jan. 29, Feb. 5, 12, 19, 26.

METROPOLE THEATRE, DEVONPORT.
METROPOLE THEATRE, DEVONPORT.
METROPOLE THEATRE, DEVONPORT.
Vacant Feb. 12, May 21, June 4, 18.

CARLTON THEATRE, BIRMINGHAM.
CARLTON THEATRE, BIRMINGHAM.
CARLTON THEATRE, BIRMINGHAM.
Vacant Feb. 5, 26, March 5, 12.

GRAND THEATRE, STALYBRIDGE.
GRAND THEATRE, STALYBRIDGE.
GRAND THEATRE, STALYBRIDGE.
Vacant Feb. 26, March 5, 12, 19.

LYRIC THEATRE, BROMLEY.
LYRIC THEATRE, BROMLEY.
LYRIC THEATRE, BROMLEY.
Vacant Jan. 22 (three nights), Feb. 5, 12, 19, 26.

KING'S THEATRE, GAINSBOROUGH.
KING'S THEATRE, GAINSBOROUGH.
KING'S THEATRE, GAINSBOROUGH.
Vacant Feb. 8 (three nights), Feb. 12 (three nights), Feb. 22 (three nights), Feb. 26.

GARRICK THEATRE, HEREFORD.
GARRICK THEATRE, HEREFORD.
GARRICK THEATRE, HEREFORD.
Vacant Jan. 22, 29, Feb. 5, 12, 19.

CARLTON AND DUCKWORTH THEATRES.

LYCEUM THEATRE, PENTRE.
LYCEUM THEATRE, PENTRE.
LYCEUM THEATRE, PENTRE.
Vacant Feb. 12, 26, March 5, 12.

THEATRE ROYAL, TON-Y-PANDY.
THEATRE ROYAL, TON-Y-PANDY.
THEATRE ROYAL, TON-Y-PANDY.
Vacant Feb. 5, 12, 19, 26.

THEATRE METROPOLE, ABERTILLERY.
THEATRE METROPOLE, ABERTILLERY.
THEATRE METROPOLE, ABERTILLERY.
Vacant Jan. 29, Feb. 5 (three nights), 12, 26, March 5 (three nights).

"SPAN OF LIFE" CO.
Vacant Feb. 12, 26, March 5, April 2.

Wanted, Good Pantomimes, Several Theatres.

All communications, to ARTHUR CARLTON,
Theatre Royal, Worcester.
Telegrams, "Carlton, Worcester."

BRIXTON THEATRE.
Lessee and Manager, Mr. ERNEST STEVENS.
General-Manager, J. MURRAY HERRIOT.
WANTED, through Transferring Date, Feb. 19.
First-class Attraction,
Feb. 19,
Brixton Theatre, S.W.

WANTED, Wanted, Wanted, for AVENUE OPERA HOUSE, SUNDERLAND, the Home of Pantomime.
Wanted, for Above, a First-class Pantomime, commencing Feb. 5, to follow J. F. Elliston's Gigantic Success "Cinderella"; must have been produced this Xmas, at a No. 1 Theatre, and have Proved a Success.
Reliable Managers Only need apply to
CHAS. E. MACHIN,
Avenue Opera House, Sunderland.

THEATRE ROYAL, CHESTERFIELD.
WANTED, Sound Dramatic Attraction, Feb. 26, April 23.
THEATRE ROYAL, ATTERCLIFFE.
Vacant Feb. 26, March 12, May 7, 28.
KING'S THEATRE, NOTTINGHAM.
Vacant Feb. 5, 19, March 12, 19, April 2, 9.
FRANK MACNAGHTEN,
King's-chambers, Angel-street, Sheffield.

THEATRE ROYAL, BLACKBURN.
WANTED, First-class Attractions, April 30 (?), May 28, and June 4, Whit Week.
Address, HARRY YORKE.

THEATRE ROYAL, BATLEY.
WANTED, Companies, March 5, Sunday, onwards. See "Provincial Theatres" Page.
J. EDWARD WHITTY, T. R., Batley.

WANTED, for the Prince of Wales's Theatre, Salford, First-class Companies, for Feb. 19, 26, April 6, and June 4. Address, E. B. GOULDEN.

LYCEUM THEATRE, STAFFORD.
WANTED, Companies, Feb. 1 and 8 (3 nights each), 12th (6 nights each), and on.
JAMES ELPHINSTONE.

IRVING THEATRE, SEACOMBE.
WANTED, First-class Attractions, March 12, 26, April 9, April 23, 30,
May 7, 14, 21, 28.
Apply,
Owner and Manager, JAMES KIERNAN.

WANTED, First-class Musical or Dramatic Attractions, Feb. 12 and March 19.
H. MASTERMAN, Theatre Royal, Castleford.

HARROGATE GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
WANTED, First-class Companies, Jan. 29, 30, 31, March 26, 27, 28, onward.
Apply, WILLIAM PEACOCK.

WANTED, First-Class Dramatic or Pantomime Companies, Feb. 12, 19, 26, March 5, 12, 19, April 9, 16. MORTON, Theatre, Cradley Heath.

THEATRE ROYAL, COLNE, LANCS.
WANTED, Good Companies, Feb. 19 and March 5.
Address, GERALD HARDING.

THEATRE ROYAL, RUNCORN.
WANTED, Companies, Jan. 29 and Feb. 12.
Address, CADDICK.

NEW THEATRE ROYAL, LINCOLN.
WANTED, First-class Attractions, March 19 (?), May 14, 28, June 4 (Yeomanry Camp Week), Aug. 20, on. Silence polite negative.
Address, FRANK KING.

NEW COLISEUM, ABERYSTWYTH.
WANTED, First-class Attraction, Musical preferred. Feb. 5, on. Companies Touring Wales book above Hall. PHILLIPS.

KNIGHTSTONE PAVILION AND OPERA HOUSE, WESTON-SUPER-MARE.
WANTED, First-Class Attractions, Jan. 29 and Feb. 5 (three or six nights). PAYNE.

WANTED, First-Class Attraction, three nights, Jan. 26, Feb. 1, 8.
CONNOLLY, Public Hall Theatre, Scunthorpe

COMPANIES WANTED.

FRED GRANVILLE'S THEATRES.
WANTED, First-class Companies,
THEATRE ROYAL, HYDE,
Vacant March 19, 26, April 9, on.
GRAND THEATRE, WEST HARTLEPOOL,
Vacant April 9, May 7, on.
THEATRE ROYAL, STOCKTON,
Vacant Feb. 26, March 26, April 9, 16.
Address Communications to,
Theatre Royal, Hyde.

ALEXANDRA THEATRE, WIDNES.
WANTED, First-Class Companies for March 12,
and onwards, with exceptions.
Required, Sound Attraction for Easter Week.
Address,
THOS. SWINTON.

GRAND THEATRE, DERBY.
WANTED, First-class Pantomime, for Christmas, 1906-7. State where can be seen. Also First-class Attractions, April 30, May 7, June 4, and onwards, with exceptions.
Address, T. ALLAN EDWARDES.

SCOTLAND'S PROVINCIAL THEATRES.
WANTED, First-class Attractions, Jan. 29, Feb. 12, 19, March 5.
Wire, Wire, Wire.
R. C. BUCHANAN, Grand Theatre, Glasgow.

NEW PAVILION, EASTBOURNE PIER.
WANTED, First-class Companies, for Feb. 19, March 12(?), April 2, and various dates, onward. Spring Bookings include "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush," "The Duffer," "The Eternal City," "Beauty and the Barge," "One of the Best," "Old Heidelberg," "Monsieur Beaucaire," "The Christian," "The Sign of the Cross," &c. All the latest musical attractions booked during the season. The popular place of entertainment in Eastbourne. Receipts for 1905 10 per cent. in excess of 1904. Please address, G. HAYES, Pier, Eastbourne.

WANTED, Good Companies, for Poole's Theatres, Gloucester, Feb. 19, 26, March 12, 19, 26, and April 2, 9, 23, and 30; Porth, Feb. 5, 19, on, with exceptions; Treherbert and Maesteg, Feb. 19, on, with exceptions; Pontypool, various dates. Trade now good in Wales.
Apply, C. W. POOLE, Theatre Royal, Gloucester.

WANTED, First-class Company, Dramatic Attraction, for April 2, also Easter (certainty), April 23, and on. Communications to FRANK BATEMAN, King's Theatre, Cardiff.

WANTED, for Theatre Royal, Barnstaple, Companies, for Two Nights, Musical or Comedy preferred. Apply, H. ASHTON, Strand, Barnstaple.

WANTED, High-class Companies, Dunfermline, 3 nights, Feb. 1, 8, March 1, 8, 13, Dumfries, Jan. 22, Feb. 5, 12, 26, and April 2. Address, W. E. POTTS, Dunfermline.

THEATRE ROYAL, DUNFERMLINE.
WANTED, Three Nights, Jan. 25; 29th, three or six; Feb. 5, three or six.
Wire, W. E. POTTS.

WANTED, Companies, Assembly Hall, Bulford Camp, Jan. 29 (4 nights), Feb. 7 (2 nights), Splendid Hall, holds 1,000. Address, DIRECTOR ENTERTAINMENTS, 80, St. Paul's-road, Salisbury.

ST. MARGARET'S HALL, CANTERBURY.
Seats 600. Lighted throughout with Electricity. Electric Current for Cinématograph, 220 volts.
WANTED, First-Class Attractions, onwards, Share or Rent. Apply, W. J. COTTON

WANTED (Season 1906), for Ryde Pier Pavilion and elsewhere, visiting Concert Parties. J. HERBERT JAY, 10, Jermyn-street, Piccadilly.

WANTED, Choirs, Minstrels, Good Combinations, Jan. 29, onwards, for Palace, Boston; must have good print. CLIFFORD, Palace, Boston.

THEATRES WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING. Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

"A GIRL'S CROSS ROADS."
By Walter Melville.
WANTED, Theatres, Feb. 12, March 12, 19.
WALTER MELVILLE,
Oakley House, 14, Bloomsbury-street, W.C.

"HER SECOND TIME ON EARTH."
By Walter Melville.
WANTED, Theatre, March 5,
WALTER MELVILLE,
Oakley House, 14, Bloomsbury-street, W.C.

"HER FORBIDDEN MARRIAGE."
WANTED, Jan. 29, Feb. 12,
FREDK. MELVILLE,
Oakley House, 14, Bloomsbury-street, W.C.

"BETWEEN TWO WOMEN."
WANTED, April 16, Sept. 17, Oct. 22.
FREDK. MELVILLE,
Oakley House, 14, Bloomsbury-street, W.C.

"THE UGLIEST WOMAN ON EARTH."
Frederick Melville's New Production.
WANTED, March 5, April 2, Aug. 6.
FREDK. MELVILLE,
Oakley House, 14, Bloomsbury-street, W.C.

"THE BEAST AND THE BEAUTY."
Fredk. Melville's New Production.
WANTED, Important Theatre, Aug. 13,
FREDK. MELVILLE,
14, Bloomsbury-street, W.C.

"THE FEMALE SWINDLER."
WANTED, Theatres, April 16, Aug. 6, Sept. 17.
TOM H. TAYLOR, Standard Theatre, E.

"WORST WOMAN IN LONDON."
WANTED, Wanted, Theatre, April 16, June 4, Aug. 6, Sept. 10.
TOM H. TAYLOR, Standard Theatre, E.

"IN A WOMAN'S GRIP."
WANTED, Theatre, April 16.
FREDK. MELVILLE, 14, Bloomsbury-st., W.C.

"A ROYAL DIVORCE."
"A ROYAL DIVORCE."
"A ROYAL DIVORCE."
"A ROYAL DIVORCE."
WANTED, Weeks of May 7 and 14, for this Powerful Attraction.
Wire or write,
W. W. KELLY,
Scala Theatre, London, W.

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN."
WANTED, Theatres, April 16, 23, May 21, 28.
"THE SAILORS OF THE KING,"
Feb. 26, March 12, 19, on.
CHARLES HARRINGTON,
King's Theatre, Gateshead.

MR. and MRS. CHALMERS MACKEY'S CO.
"THE WEARIN' O' THE GREEN."
WANTED, March 26, between Swansea and Swindon, only vacant date. CHALMERS MACKEY, this His Majesty's Theatre, Barrow-in-Furness; next, Queen's Theatre, Keighley.

WILLIAM A. ARMOUR'S COMPANY,
"WHAT A WOMAN DID."
Third Year of Continuous Successful Tour.
WANTED, Jan. 29 (through misunderstanding), Feb. 5, Feb. 12, 26, and onwards, with exceptions.
Wire for Jan. 29,
WILLIAM A. ARMOUR,
To-day, 24, Upper Brook-street, Manchester; next week, Theatre Royal, Attercliffe.

BEAUDYN and LIVESEY'S TOURS.
The Great Oriental Production,
"A TRAITOR PRINCE."
WANTED, Jan. 29, Feb. 12, Easter.
Wire Star Theatre, Liverpool.
Letters, HIPPODROME, ST. HELENS.

"DARE-DEVIL DOROTHY."
WANTED, Theatres, Vacant April 23 and 30.
J. W. CORDINER,
New Theatre, Consett.
See Companies Advertisement, Page 2.

MR. and MRS. F. G. KIMBERLEY'S CO.S.
WANTED, Feb. 5 and 19 for the huge success, "Two Little Drummer Boys." Wanted, Feb. 12 and 26, for the money-maker, "A Sister's Sin." Wire for both attractions to KIMBERLEY, Wakefield; next, Sutton-in-Ashfield.

JOHN TULLY'S "UNCLE TOM'S CABIN."
WANTED, Feb. 12 and 19, for this truly Remarkable Revival.
Address,
JOHN TULLY, Opera House, Northampton.

THEATRES WANTED.

"A MODERN ADVENTURESS."
WANTED, Jan. 29, Feb. 5 and 26, only Vacant Dates till Autumn.
Address,
LINGFORD CARSON,
Queen's Theatre, Liverpool.

"DRAMA OF LIFE."
WANTED, Theatres, for this Elaborate Production,
Vacant Feb. 5, 19, and 26.
Address,
LINGFORD CARSON, Queen's Theatre, Liverpool.

"THE POWER OF THE CROSS."
WANTED, Theatres, with Holding Capacity, for this Financial Success,
Vacant, through transferring, Feb. 19 and 26.
Address,
LINGFORD CARSON, Queen's Theatre, Liverpool.

WANTED, Dates, for
Mr. Leigh Lovel,
Miss Octavia Kenmore and Company, in
"THE DUKE OF KILLICRANKIE."

One of the few First-class Companies which have been able to keep Continuously on the road.
Several Spring Dates open.

"SOWING THE WIND."
A most Favourable Reception has been accorded to the Revival of this Powerful Play.

"IN THE SOUP."
(By arrangement with Mrs. Lumley.)
One of the Funniest Farces ever written.

Spring Dates Open.
Address, Weston-super-Mare.

"THE MIDNIGHT WEDDING."
"THE MIDNIGHT WEDDING."
"THE MIDNIGHT WEDDING."
"THE MIDNIGHT WEDDING."
"THE MIDNIGHT WEDDING."
"THE MIDNIGHT WEDDING."
"THE MIDNIGHT WEDDING."
By Walter Howard.
Paumier and Howard's
Superb Production.
ANNIE SAKER,
ALFRED PAUMIER.
WANTED, April 23, Oct. 15.
ALFRED PAUMIER,
Metropole Theatre, Gateshead.

HARDIE and VON LEER'S CO.'S.
WANTED, First-class Theatres,
"THE WOMAN FROM GAOL,"
by Geo. R. Sims.
Several Vacancies between Easter and Whit.
First-class Company.
Enormous Advertising Plant.
"A PATH OF THORNS."
April 16, May 7, 14, Aug. 6.
"TWO LITTLE VAGABONDS,"
Feb. 12, March 12, 19, May 7.
E. P. CLIFT, 110, St. Martin's-lane, W.C.
Wire, "Vagancy, London." Tel. No. 7504 Gerrard.

WANTED,
"THE GIRL FROM JAPAN,"
The Successful Musical Comedy,
Feb. 5, 19,
onwards.

F. MARTIN MORRIS,
This week, Theatre Royal, Huddersfield; next week, Opera House, Winter Gardens, Blackpool.

GRANVILLE AND THORNE'S
"NAPOLEON THE GREAT" COMPANY.

WANTED, March 19, and on; also Good Theatre for Easter, "Another Man's Wife," Production shortly.

"PUSS IN BOOTS."
BROADWAY THEATRE, NEW CROSS.
On Feb. 5 a run of the above Pantomime could be arranged after the six weeks' production at this theatre.
WANTED, First-class Theatre.
Apply, FREDK. MOUILLOT,
4, Broad Court-chambers, Bow-street, W.C.

WANTED, First-Class Theatres, for
JAMES KIDDIE'S
JAMES KIDDIE'S
Colossal and Gorgeous Pantomime,
"DICK WHITTINGTON."
"DICK WHITTINGTON."
"DICK WHITTINGTON."
Vacant Feb. 19 and 26.
Only Theatres having Large Stage and Large Holding Capacity need apply.
Address, THOS. SWINTON,
Alexandra Theatre, Widnes.

WANTED, Theatres, Jan. 29, March 12, 26, June 4, Aug. 6, for "Her Lost Self" and "The Biggest Scamp on Earth." Wire, FRANCES DELAVAL, St. Remo, Woodland-terrace, Whitstable. Next, T. R., Stratford, E.

"THE THRONE OF TERROR."
WANTED, Feb. 5, 12, various, onward, for this Unique Costume Drama.
W. J. MILLER, Alhambra T., Dudley Port.

"THE MASTER CRIMINAL."
WANTED, Good Theatres, Feb. 12, 19, 26, March 19, April 2.
HENRY L. OSMOND, Alexandra T., Widnes.

"THE INDIAN MUTINY."
WANTED, Good Theatres, Feb. 12 and 26.
Address, FRANK E. BURDETT,
Jan. 22, St. James's Theatre, Manchester.

"THE GIRL FROM CHICAGO."
WANTED, Good Theatres, Easter Week and on, for this very successful Musical Farce.
Address, HAROLD S. Parkhurst-rd., Sutton, Surrey.

M. RUSSELL ROSSE'S TOURS.
WANTED, Feb. 5 and 12, for either Thomas Thorne and Co., or David James and Co.
Wire, RUSSELL ROSSE, 10, King-street, W.C.

"CINDERELLA" or "ALADDIN."
WANTED, Jan. 29 (L. and Y. or Midlands), for either of these Magnificent Pantomimes.
Fifty People on Stage. Everything carried. Wire, HERBERT BARRS, T. R., Hyde; Monday, Prince's Theatre, Horwich (re-opening).

"SENTENCED FOR LIFE."
WANTED, First-class Theatre, Feb. 5, 12, 19.
FRED BULMER, Regent Theatre, Salford.

"THE GREATEST SCOUNDREL LIVING."
WANTED, First-class Theatres, Feb. 5, 12 19.
FRED BULMER, Regent Theatre, Salford.

"SENTENCED FOR LIFE."
WANTED, First-class Theatre, March 19, 26, Ap. 2, 9. FRED BULMER, Regent T., Salford.

Mr. JOSEPH W. WORLEY'S TOUR.
"A FAITHFUL FRIEND."
WANTED, Good Theatres, Vacant March 19, April 2, now Booking Autumn. Everything new, everything carried, everything good. LEWIS GILBERT, T. R., Hyde, Lancs.

J. BANNISTER HOWARD'S COMPANY, LTD.
WANTED, Good Theatres, Jan. 29,
"THE ETERNAL CITY."
Wire, MARTIN, Opera House, Burnley, to-day; "Playgoing, London," Monday.

WANTED, Feb. 5, Feb. 5, "At Cripple Creek;" "Under Two Flags"; Jan. 29, "A Sailor's Sweetheart." MARK BLOW, Prince's T., Portsm'th.

WANTED, First-Class Theatres, "Gay Parisienne," Feb. 12, 19, March 26; "Mason," Feb. 19, 26, March 19, April 2, Easter. Communicate, CHAS. MACDONA, 17, Shaftesbury-avenue, W.

MISS BONWIN CARLTON'S
"THE PLUCKY NIPPER" CO.
WANTED, Feb. 5, 12, 19. Wire for Feb. 5, 5, 5,
EDWARD SURREY, to-day, T. R., Macclesfield; next, Grand, Stalybridge.

"THE 10.30 DOWN EXPRESS."
WANTED, Theatres, Vacant Jan. 29, Feb. 12, 19, South or Midlands.
HORACE STANLEY,
To-day, Lincoln; Next, Coventry.

Pantomime.
Pantomime.

"LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD."
"LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD."

WANTED, Feb. 12, onwards, for above, to follow Palace Theatre, Newcastle-on-Tyne, now being performed at Royal West London Theatre.

Address, G. BRYDON PHILLIPS,
Royal West London Theatre.
Telephone, No. 2247, Mayfair.

THEATRES WANTED.

MISS MARY NEIL and MR. GEO. KIRK'S CO.
"HER LUCK IN LONDON,"
by
Charles Darrell.

Miss Mary Neil as Nellie Harborne.

Third week of Tour. Saturday night at Castleford packed from floor to ceiling. Saturday night at Saltley packed from floor to ceiling. Wednesday's receipts Blackpool doubled Monday's.

Thanks T. Sergenson, Esq., for return date on Tuesday night; also Wm. Morton, Esq., Hull, who saw show and immediately booked for his Easter attraction; W. B. Broadhead (all theatres), McLeod Loader, Chas. E. Machin, Col. Winstanley, Milton Bode, H. Masterman, Hugh Robertson, Geo. E. Mudd, A. C. Mitchell, J. F. Elliston, J. and F. Coulson.

£1,800 printing by David Allen, from special designs by the celebrated artist, Will True.

WANTED, Feb. 5, 12, 19, March 5, April 9, May 28, June 4, only vacant dates until Aug. 20.

Address,
GEORGE KIRK,
To-day, Grand, Blackpool;
next, T. R., LINCOLN.

WANTED, Dates, Xmas, 1906 and '7, for
"SINBAD THE SAILOR,"
now being Played at the Grand, Islington.
Lloyd's News, Dec. 31, said:—One of the best pantomimes seen at Islington for some years.
Referee, Dec. 31 said:—"Sinbad" is a funny as well as a beautiful pantomime.
"LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD,"
Mr. James's Crouch End Pantomime.
Daily Telegraph, Dec. 27, said:—The entertainment can claim rank among the liveliest and most pleasing to be found.
"JACK THE GIANT KILLER."
Mr. James's Croydon Pantomime.
The Daily Telegraph, Dec. 27, said of this pantomime, that it was being played to the shrieking delight of the little folk and the approving applause of the elders.
Apply,
SAMUEL JAMES,
Grand Theatre, Islington, N.

SAMUEL JAMES and NEWMAN MAURICE'S CO., "WHY WOMAN SINS."
WANTED, First-class Theatres, Aug. 6, and onwards, with exceptions. Every Scene and Property Carried, clear stage only required.
SAMUEL JAMES, Grand Theatre, Islington, N.

"A ROYAL REVENGE."
"A ROYAL REVENGE."
"A ROYAL REVENGE."
"A ROYAL REVENGE."
An Artistic, Established, and Pronounced Success. A Really Remarkable and Powerful Attraction. A Great Play. A Splendid Production. A Strong Company. Managers Note.—Third Visit to Manchester within Eight Months, and the last visit a Record.
WANTED, Feb. 19 (to follow Dublin), Feb. 26, March 5, Easter, and Whitsun, for this Great Attraction. CLYNDES, Pavilion, Altrincham.

ALFRED B. CROSS'S TOUR.
"THE MANXMAN,"
"THE MANXMAN,"
By Hall Caine and Wilson Barrett.
WANTED, for this Sterling Attraction,
Feb. 5,
Feb. 12,
March 5.
Only Vacant Dates. Rapidly Filling Autumn.

Jan. 22, L., Pentre, third visit.

"DAYS OF CROMWELL."
WANTED, Feb. 5, Feb. 5, Feb. 5, March 12, April 23, 30, May 14, June 5, 19, and 26, July 9.
Wire for Feb. 5.
MONTAGUE BEAUDIN,
This, Ramsgate; Jan. 22, T. R., Dover.

"AN ABANDONED WOMAN."
WANTED, for this Brilliant Attraction, Feb. 19, 26, and March 5, to follow Yarmouth and precede Portsmouth.
Five full sets of scenery by Egerton.
HARRY FOXWELL, Grand Theatre, Walsall.

The Greatest Dramatic Success of the Age.
"SHERLOCK HOLMES."
Mr. HARRY YORKE'S Principal Company.
WANTED, Feb. 5, Six Nights, to follow Dalston T., London. Only vacant date, through obliging. Wire, HARRY YORKE, T. R., Blackburn.

"I DEFY THE WORLD."
WANTED, Good Theatres, Feb. 5 (3 Nights), to Precede Grantham;
March 5 and 12,
to Follow Third Visit to Stratford.
Address,
CHAS. M. JULIAN, T. R., Hyde.

"THE ORPHAN HEIRESS."
Mr. REUBEN PAYNE'S TOUR.
WANTED, for this tried and proved artistic and financial success. March 12 (Tyne district preferred), and various onwards.
Address, ARTHUR JEFFERSON, Metropole, Glasgow.

Mrs. BANDMANN-PALMER'S TOUR.
WANTED, Feb. 19 and 26.
Address,
36, Gloucester-road, Kew, Surrey.

"THE POWER OF GOLD."
WANTED, for this Moneymaking Attraction, Jan. 29. Wire for Jan. 29.
Feb. 5 and March 12, Midlands.
Autumn fast filling. Wanted, Oct. 1, 29, Lancs. Company, Printing, and Scenery A1.
24th week of Present Tour.
FRANK AYRTON, Grand Opera House, Radcliffe.

"THE ROMANY'S REVENGE."
"THE ROMANY'S REVENGE."
WANTED, for this acknowledged Success, Feb. 12 (3), March 19, 26, on.
Feb. 12 (3), March 19, 26, on.
E. A'DELL, Muncaster T., Bootle.

EADE MONTEFIORE'S
PANTOMIMES.
WANTED, Wanted, Wanted,
Feb. 12, 19, 26.

MONTEFIORE,
Edinburgh.

LITTLE AND DARCY'S PANTOMIME,
"SINBAD THE SAILOR."
WANTED, Feb. 12, must be large Theatre, Company of Fifty Artists.
Address,
FRED J. LITTLE, New Century Theatre, Motherwell.

WANTED, Feb. 12, for Haddon and Loader's Pantomime. See Bury Notice in Stage for Cast. Wire, LOADER, Theatre, St. Helens.

WANTED, Known, Claude Ginnett's Original Rejected Remounts, vacant Feb. 12 19, to follow Leeds; also April 2, 9, onward. C. GINNETT, JUN., 59, Nichols-square, Hackney-rd., N.E.

WANTED, Good Halls or Theatres, for First-Class Combinations, including Prof. Inman Hocking, Electric Hypnotic Healer. LARDER, 22, Levington-street, Grimsby.

ARTISTS WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

GRAND THEATRE, GLASGOW.
Production of "The Prodigal Son," Manchester Version, on Wednesday, Jan. 31. Rehearsals commence Tuesday, 23rd.
WANTED, First-class People in all Lines, may send in terms and references to RICHARD DALTON, Queen's Theatre, Manchester.

"THE LITTLE BREADWINNER."
WANTED, to Rehearse at Blyth, 30th inst., pretty, dainty young actress, for juvenile lead, sort of Puritan part, blind in two acts. State age, height, fair or dark, terms, references, and enclose photos. (most important), to J. A. CAMPBELL, New Theatre Royal, West Stanley.

WANTED, Several Young Ladies of good appearance for Musical Comedy Sketch in Vaudeville Theatres; must have good Singing Voices and be good Dancers. Apply personally between 12 and 2, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday next, MOLLER, The Prince Albert, Upper St. Martin's-lane.

ARTISTS WANTED.

WANTED, Ladies with Good Voices and Good Appearance, for West End Production. Photos., terms, and particulars, to BROOKS'S Agency, 36, Shaftesbury-avenue, W.

WANTED, Young Emotional Actress for Production, week, of New Dramatic Sketch, London Hall. Full particulars and lowest terms, Box 2,671.

WANTED, Sketch, Leading Lady and Gentleman Comedian, Child over 14, Rehearse Tuesday, open 29th. Terms, &c., no callers. 40, Morat-street, Brixton.

WANTED, for Spring Tour of "The Bank of England," first-class juvenile man; also light comedian. Percy Braithwaite send address. Terms, photos., refs., CHAS. H. LESTER, P. T., Portsmouth.

WANTED, a Really Good Refined Comedian, and Humorous Singer, who has been accustomed to play in musical comedy and burlesque, for a summer pier engagement, 9 weeks' certain, in a good concert party. Address, DIRECTOR, Box 2,671, "The Era."

WANTED, Robust Character Actor, for Aristocratic Old Man, for act in Halls, Spring. Photos., height, &c.
TRIBUNE, Grand Theatre, Edinburgh.

WANTED, for production of Play, by well-known Author, Young Actor, to play Irish part, and introduce capital; Irishman preferred; must be good looking and a gentleman. Magnificent opportunity for ambitious and clever actor. Genuine. Box 2,667, "The Era."

WANTED, Comedians, for Burlesque. Apply personally, between 12 and 1, WILLIAMS, Savoy Palace Hotel, Savoy-street, Strand.

WANTED, Amateur Gentleman, play small, important part in high-class Sketch. No premium. Box 2,687, "The Era."

WANTED, Several Tall Young Gentlemen, to speak few lines; must be refined; first-class tour, theatres and music halls.
E. CARTER LIVESEY,
10, King-street, Covent Garden, London.

WANTED, High-class Soubrette, sing and dance; Char. Comedian, tall; must give trial performance. OLIVER, New Cross Empire, S.E.

WANTED, Lady and Gentleman, to play Small Parts and Understudy. NORMAN V. NORMAN, c/o "The Era."

WANTED, Entertainer, à la Grossmith, for Costume Concert Party. Fullest particulars required. State lowest salary, Box 2,683, "The Era."

WANTED, Dancers, good appearance, not very tall, and capable of a little singing, for Continental Tour. Write immediately, sending photo. FREEMAN, 79, Rue Des Martyrs, Paris.

WANTED, Strong Acrobatic Dancer, able to Sing, age about 20, Feb. 19. Photo to SUTCLIFFE, 6, Grafton-street, Ardwick, Manchester.

WANTED, Young Lady Vocalist, must also Play Instrument in Orchestra. Permanency. Lowest terms, photo., references, &c., ETHEL SOMERFORD, Trades Exhibition, Drill Hall, Spalding.

WANTED, Dramatic Artists who experience difficulty in obtaining copies of "The Era" at any of Messrs. Smith and Son's Bookstalls to kindly communicate with the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-st., Strand, W.C.

ARTISTS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Ladies and Gentlemen Amateurs, anxious to appear in Steinway and other Concerts, may write; get thorough tuition before. 90, Netherwood-road, Shepherd's Bush (Tube).

PANTOMIME ARTISTS WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, to Open at Once, good Sopranos, for Fairy Queen. Send terms, height, and particulars to KIDDIE, Rotunda, Liverpool.

SCENIC ARTISTS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

MILTON BODE and EDWARD COMPTON'S SCENE FACTORY, READING.
WANTED, Known, Estimates Given for all Kinds of Scenery, Properties, Electrical Effects, Music Stands, &c., First-class Work Guaranteed.
Apply, MILTON BODE, County Theatre, Reading.

WANTED, Contracts for Scenery, high-class work, and best materials at reasonable prices. Studio and workshop, 107, Waddon New-road. CHARLES SAYER, 2, Clarendon-road, Croydon.

WANTED, Known, Alfred Smith, jun., Artist, Figure, Animal, Landscapes, and Flowers, Gilding, Writing, and Decorations. Address, 66, Stanbury-road, Peckham, London.

MISCELLANEOUS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known, Disengaged, Frank Rogers, jun., late Advertising-Manager, London Hippodrome (6 years' engagement), 20 years' London, Provincial, and Transatlantic Experience, in all business duties connected with the combined Professions. A solid, tireless worker, with best of references. 7, Church-st., Soho, London, W.

WANTED, Stage-Manager and Electrician Combined, small Variety Theatre, in the North of England. Apply, stating lowest terms and references, ALFRED GRAHAM, Hippodrome, Hull. Mark letters, "Stage-Manager."

WANTED, Assistant Acting-Manager. Apply, stating age, salary required, and giving names and addresses for references, to OSWALD STOLL, Cranbourn-mansions, Cranbourn-street, W.C.

SOUTHSEA.
WANTED, Energetic Man as Secretary, to Manage Chair-letting, Guide Book and Entertainments, one with experience and similar position preferred. Write, with copy testimonials, CHAIRMAN, Entertainment Committee, Town Hall, Portsmouth.

WANTED, an Assistant Acting-Manager, to play small part. Full particulars, photo., refs., lowest terms, CHARLES HARRINGTON, King's Theatre, Gateshead. Morris Harper write.

WANTED, Advance Agent, knowing Picture Towns; Lady Song Illustrator (Adela Lambert write); and Select Variety Turns. Lowest terms absolute, for tour. Silence polite negative. HUBER, Post Office, Romford.

WANTED, Billposters for Buffalo Bill's "Wild West"; must be good men, able to use long-handled brush. Those speaking Italian, German, Hungarian, Hollandish, or French given the preference, but knowledge of English only is not a bar to good workmen.
Apply to JOHN MOORE, LONDON, Ltd.,
25, Oxenden-street, Piccadilly Circus,
Sole Agent for the Donaldson Litho. Co., largest printers in the world of Pictorials for Circuses, Menageries, Agricultural and Horse Shows, Cinematograph, &c.

Billposting.
WANTED, Experienced Foreman, for the North Staffordshire Billposting Company, Ltd., Hanley. State wages required, experience, and full references. Apply, SECRETARY, care of Mr. Timmis, Fountain-square, Hanley.

Billposter.
WANTED, a Steady High-ladderman.
Apply, giving reference, to
RICHEY and Co., Ltd.,
Clayton-street, West, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

WANTED, a good Bill-poster; permanent job to suitable man.
Age about 24.
Apply, J. STOCK, 17, Commercial-road, Bedford.

MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED, Smart Young Bill-poster, used to High-ladder Work. Wages 26s. Apply with references, GREENHALGH and BRAKELEY, Billposters, Bolton.

WANTED, by Agent in Advance, experienced Press Agent, Engagement; finest English and American References. JAMES O'NEILL, Blackwood Hotel, 97, Stamford-street, S.E.

WANTED, Known, at Liberty Feb. 12, Charles F. Meadows, for Advance or Resident Bill Inspector. Thanks G. W. Bowes, Esq., for 5 years comfortable engagement. First-class Window-billier. Good refs. Per. address, 13, York-st., Dover.

WANTED, Situation as Electrician, 7 years' practical experience, willing to take small part as Comedian. G. F. B., 71, Lillington-street, Westminster.

WANTED, Engagement, by Handy Man, Good Carpenter, Own Tools; age 28. KIRBY, c/o W., 35, Gillespie-road, N.

WANTED, Situation as Billposter, just finished six years' engagement with the Dover Billposting Co. Good refs. Terms, &c., WM. MARTIN, 5, Durham-place, Dover.

WANTED, by Young Man, gentlemanly, tall, smart, Re-engagement as Attendant, Check, Money-taker, or Assist. Bonus or time given. Managers' references. L., 103, Plimsoll-road, Finsbury Park, N

WANTED, by Young Lady, Employment in Theatre or Music Hall, at Liberty Jan. 27; evening only; thoroughly experienced in Bar or Waiting; good reference from present employer; age 29. Address, Miss B., Box 2,652, "The Era."

WANTED, Evening Employment, by Gentlewoman engaged in City during the day, Theatre preferred; could attend Matinées. Box 2,681, "The Era."

WANTED, Engagement in Theatre or Music Hall, by Youth 17, any capacity, Box Office preferred; three years' previous experience in leading London Variety Theatre. T. LAMPORT, 178, Kennington-road, Lambeth, London, S.E.

WANTED, Re-engagement as Wardrobe Mistress, experienced dressmaker. Good refs. BLAKE, 41, Hartland-road, West Kilburn.

MUSICIANS WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Solo Violinist, also Solo Cornet, for Exhibition on Tour in Scotland, Ladies or Gentlemen. Address, MANAGER, Exhibition, Town Hall, Tillicoultry, N.B.

WANTED, First Cornet, for Cardiff. Apply, stating age, salary required, with references, to OSWALD STOLL,
Cranbourn-mansions, Cranbourn-street, London.

THE SPA, SCARBOROUGH.
WANTED, for Summer Military Band, First-class Solo Cornet, also Repiano Cornet, also Solo Trombone. Three performances daily. CHARLES GODFREY, JUN., Musical-Director.

WANTED, Good Reliable Cornet Player, must be first-class instrumentalist.
Address,
with references and lowest terms,
W. E. BARNETT, County Theatre, Reading.

WANTED, at once, for Croydon Town Band, Good Cornet Player, terms, shares, sobriety indispensable. WALTERS, 51, Waddon New-rd., Croydon.

WANTED, Good First Cornet, First and Second Violinists. Apply, with lowest terms and references, to W. J. ANDREWS, Royalty Theatre, Chester.

WANTED, First-class Cornet-player; must be used to variety.

State age, last references, wages required,
COUNCILLOR HALL, Proprietor,
Tivoli Music Hall, South Shields.

WANTED, Good Cornet, Permanency to Good Man. Apply,
J. WORSWICK, Court Theatre, Wigan.

WANTED, Second Cornet. Apply, stating references, &c.,
D. J. CLARKE, Argyle Theatre, Birkenhead.

WANTED, a good Clarionet or Cornet Player, as an Attendant in a County Asylum; salary commencing £34, increasing to £48, all found; single man.
Apply, with testimonials,
W. GRAINGER,
County Asylum,
Stafford.

SOUTHPORT CORPORATION MILITARY BAND.
WANTED, Clarionets, Flutes, Bassoon, French Horns, Sax Horns, Solo Trombone, Euphonium, and Saxophone (B flat).
Address, with references, to Messrs. BARTLE and RIMMER, Southport.

WANTED, immediately, a Solo Clarionet Player, knowledge of both Orchestral and Military work indispensable. Apply to CONDUCTOR, R.A. Band, The Castle, Dover.

WANTED, Solo Bassoon, for Two or More Weeks, commencing Jan. 22.
VAL MARRIOTT,
Symphony Orchestra, Kursaal, St. Leonards-on-Sea.

WANTED, Flautist, Experienced, commence Jan. 29, variety, twice nightly, 2 matinées. Age, lowest terms, recent references, MUSICAL DIRECTOR, Hippodrome, Boscombe.

WANTED, for First-class Dublin Hotel Orchestra, Young Lady 'Cellist, competent. 24s. weekly guaranteed, other engagements extra. State experience, references, age to LIBRARY, 27, Grafton-street, Dublin. Send photograph, will be returned.

BOTANICAL GARDENS, MANCHESTER.
WANTED, Season 1906 (April 13 to Sept. 29), Pianist, Sight Reader, to combine Violin. State terms, experience, and references.
Apply, OLIVER GAGGS,
Urmston, near Manchester.

WANTED, Young Lady, Pianiste and Vocalist, good vamper, good home. For terms, apply, DODDS, Seaham Harbour.

WANTED, First-class Band, with Good Drawing Powers, Ladies or Gentlemen (English only), 12 or 15, for One Week, commencing March 12. No fancy prices entertained. Address, full particulars, HAGUE, Spa Gardens, Limited, Bridlington, Yorks.

WANTED, Musicians who are anxious to secure the best Terms, before accepting Engagements in Glasgow, to write to Mr. J. BARTLEY, 9, Seamore-street, Glasgow.

WANTED, one week certain, commencing Jan. 29, Competent Drums, Cornet, Grand Opera. Lowest terms first letter. SANTE, Theatre, Radcliffe.

WANTED.—Musicians "Out of Shop" and Bandmasters requiring Instrumentalists will do well to try an advertisement in the "Wanted" Columns of "The Era." One Shilling expended on Twenty Words (each additional Six Words Sixpence) is likely to bring successful results, as explained in the following letters from grateful Advertisers:—

FROM A MUSICIAN:—
To the Manager of "The Era" Advert. Dept.,
"The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, W.C.,
Re Advertisement
"'WANTED, ENGAGEMENT BY CORNET.'
"Thanks for inserting above in the last number of your paper. I have obtained a comfortable shop. Had seventeen replies. You need not put in the second insertion.
"Yours truly, 'A GRATEFUL MUSICIAN.'"

FROM A BANDMASTER:—
"Re Advertisement 'WANTED, A DRUMMER.'
"Please do not insert my advt. for the second insertion, as I am pleased to say I have had twenty replies and secured a Drummer.
"Yours truly, PHILIP GERMANN, Bandmaster,
"Littlehampton."

WANTED, Musicians who experience difficulty in obtaining copies of "The Era" at any of Messrs. Smith and Son's Bookstalls, or from any Newsagent in the United Kingdom, to kindly communicate with the PUBLISHER,
"The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-st., Strand, W.C.

MUSICIANS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known, Michael Connelly, Musical Director, Composer of "Silver King," "Lights of London," "Golden Ladder." 54, Casewick-road, West Norwood.

WANTED, Re-engagement by a thoroughly experienced Theatre and Variety Conductor, Composer, and Arranger, extensive library (at a cost of over £200), including all the Standard Works, also British and Continental Novelties; only good offers entertained. Offers invited for Summer Season. Highest references. Box 2,666, "The Era."

WANTED, by Bandmaster (late Royal Navy), position as Bandmaster. Excellent testimonials. BANDMASTER, 16, Clarendon-street, Landport, Portsmouth, Hants.

WANTED, immediately, by First-Class Musical Director, brilliant pianist, experienced, Musical Comedy or Panto. Letters, ALLAN GREY, Box 2,661, "The Era."

WANTED, Re-engagement, by First-class thoroughly experienced Musical Director, Varieties or Theatre. Excellent references, reliable. Address, Box 2,673, "The Era."

WANTED, Known, W. Crabtree, Musical Director, Pavilion, Glasgow, at Liberty after 27th. First-class offers invited, any business. Highest credentials; splendid répertoire.

WANTED, Engagement, as Conductor or Leader (Violinist), with very best experience, Grand Opera, Symphony Work, &c. Highest references. Apply, Box 2,608, "The Era."

WANTED, by Conductor (Violin), or as Leader, permanency, thoroughly experienced, any business, up-to-date répertoire, at Lib. Jan. 29. Box 2,674, "The Era."

WANTED, Known, Mr. A. Toggart, Conductor, Violin and Piano, desire Re-engagement. Modern Library, experienced, steady. 21, Beaconsfield-rd, Brighton.

WANTED, Engagement, by Smart Conductor, Violinist and Pianist, good refs., library, &c. Address, LEONARD S. TUTE, 31, Marie Hill-parade, Cheltenham.

WANTED, Young Lady Violinist, Engagement, in Ladies' Band, as First Violinist, previous experience. VIOLINIST, 60, Kimberley-gardens, Harringay Park, N.

WANTED, Known, a First-rate Violinist requires Engagement for the ensuing Season. W. ALMON, 11, Elizabeth-cottages, Sandycombe-road, Kew Gardens.

WANTED, Engagement, as Violinist, any Business, experienced. Good refs. VIOLINIST, 9, Taylor-street, Darlington.

WANTED, Engagement, by Violinist, Theatre or Concert Orchestra; good refs. and experienced; any distance. JAMES, 46, Ravenstone-road, Hendon, N.W.

WANTED, by Good Violinist, Engagement, experienced Variety and Dramatic, Stock of Music, Up-to-date. CARPENTER, Gilpin-st., Liverpool.

WANTED, Re-engagement, First or Second Violin, experienced. References.
VIOLINIST, 55, York-road, Yarmouth.

WANTED, Engagement, by Cornet, experienced in all Lines, any distance. Good refs. MONTAGUE, 46, Ravenstone-road, Hendon, N.W.

WANTED, Known, Cornet, Disengaged, 2½ years last situation. References; moderate terms, Theatre, Music Hall, Cinématograph CREAMER, 2, Granville-street, Kettering, Northamptonshire.

WANTED, Engagement, by Cornet, long experience; good refs. in any business. Write or wire, F. T., care of LENNOX, 8, Cairnton-street, Tillicoultry, Scotland.

WANTED, Engagement, by Young Cornet, just concluded 6 months' engagement. State terms. CORNET, 11, Buxton-street, Bradford.

WANTED, Engagement, by good Cornet, any business, out through closing. Address, H. B. METCALFE, 39, Whitehouse-street, Walsall.

WANTED, by Clarionet, Engagement, Variety or any Business. Good testimonials. ALFRED RICHARD BENZING, 3, Ridgmount-street, Ampthill-road, Bedford.

WANTED, by 4-String Double Bass Player, out through closing, any business, good refs., would deputise. BRYANT, 15, London-road, Brighton.

WANTED, Engagement, as Double Bass, Experienced, steady, reliable. PETER JONES, 6, Gt. Norwood-st., Cheltenham. Music copied, transposed, scored.

WANTED, an Engagement, by Double Bass, Theatre or Variety. R. J. LANGRIDGE, 66, Priory-street, Colchester.

WANTED, by Bassoon, Engagement, Theatre or Oratorio Work.
BASSOON, 15, Warwick-road, Hampton Wick.

WANTED, Engagement, by Double Bass Player, abstainer, smart and reliable. Good reference. 12, Hunter-road, Thornton Heath, S.E.

WANTED, Engagement, B Flat Euphonium, age 35, Corporations, Trainings, Piers, could conduct, 20 years' experience. ELLIOTT, 243, St. James's-rd., Bermondsey.

WANTED, by thoroughly Experienced Euphonium, Engagement, any business, good refs., can open at once. CHAS. GRICE, 184, Waterloo-rd., Norwich.

WANTED, Engagement, as Trombonist, theatre or music hall, London or near preferred, good refs. RYAN, 55, Waddon New-rd., Croydon.

WANTED, by Trombone, Experienced, Engagement, any business. Good refs. Wire or write, TROMBONE, 2, Cromwell-terrace, King's Lynn.

WANTED, Orchestral Practice for Little Girl on 'Cello. Also Good Engagements for 'Cellist. Mr. CASSELLS, 35, Granville-sq., King's Cross-road.

WANTED, Engagement, by Competent and Experienced 'Cellist. T. CATHIE, Theddlethorpe, Louth, Lincolnshire.

WANTED, Engagement, by Experienced 'Cellist. Good references. Address, W. D. KNUDSEN, Prince of Wales's Theatre, Grimsby.

WANTED, by experienced Lady 'Cellist, Evening Engagement in London, Sundays excepted. 'CELLIST, 118, Elgin-avenue, Maida Vale, W.

WANTED, Engagement, by Oboe, experienced Theatre and Varieties, London or Suburbs preferred. C. DELEVANTE, 60, Collingbourne-road, Shepherd's Bush, London.

WANTED, by Maud Estlin Grundy (Age 18), Engagement as Harpist, Solo or Orchestral. Re-engaged by Robert Arthur, Esq., Christmas, '05-6, for Court Theatre, Liverpool.

WANTED, Engagement by experienced Flute and 'Cello, Ladies, finished ten months' engagement, London Coliseum. Apply H., 121, Albany-street, Regent's Park.

WANTED, by Flautist, at Liberty. Highest refs.
BARDSLEY, 106, Peter-street, Blackpool.

WANTED, Summer Engagement, by Pianist, Licentiate R.A.M.; highest references.
Address,
W. B. C., 4, Stanhope-avenue, Finchley, London, N.

WANTED, Engagement by Lady Pianist, only here in London; thoroughly experienced; age 22. Box 2659, "The Era."

WANTED, Known, Experienced Pianist, at Liberty, combine Violin or Viola, just concluded three years' engagement at the Theatre and Grand Hotel, Folkestone; good references. F. SUTCLIFFE, 10, Albert-road, Folkestone.

WANTED, Engagement, by First-class Pianist, Sight-reader, sober, gentlemanly, any Business. Excellent references. 4, St. John-street, Longsight, Manchester.

WANTED, Engagement, Drums, &c., can Open at Once, any Bus. BILLY PALMER, Presto House, Great Yarmouth. Respects to old pals.

WANTED, by Double Drummer, Music Hall or Theatre. Highest Refs.: Experienced.
F. G., 50, Flood-street, Chelsea, S.W.

MUSICIANS' WANTS.

WANTED, Engagement, by First-class Double Drummer, thoroughly experienced, join at once. Address, DRUMS, Bright's Villa, 2, Myrtle-road, Southend-on-Sea.

WANTED, Summer Engagement, by First-Class Family Band (five upwards), thoroughly experienced instrumentalists; up-to-date library. CONDUCTOR, 19, Mayton-street, Holloway, N.

WANTED, Known, for Lady Instrumentalists, Scarlet Domino, and other Ladies' Bands. BUREAU, 8, Bedford-ter., Kensington, London, W.

WANTED, Known, the A.M.U. National Musical Agency, Incorporated with the British Imperial Bands Company, can supply Musicians, Orchestral and Military Bands, on the shortest notice. Write for Booklet to either of the following:—J. B. WILLIAMS, 135, Moss-lane, Manchester; Tel. address, "Amuse, Manchester"; Telephone, 5,489, Manchester. C. JESSON, 96, Long-acre, W.C.; Tel. address, "Amusologia, London"; 'Phone, 9,827, Central. F. J. LEES, 104, Crompton-road, Handsworth, Birmingham. J. BARTLEY, 9, Seamore-st., Glasgow. Tel., 208 Y6, Charing-cross.

CIRCUS ARTISTS WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

KING OHMY'S GRAND NEW CIRCUS, LEIGH, LANCASHIRE.

WANTED, Big Sensations, Great Novelties, and Star Turns in all Lines, from Jan. 29, onwards; also useful Circus Performers, Clowns, &c. Address, KING OHMY, Ohmy's Grand Circus, Leigh, Lancashire.

BURTON'S FETE AND GALA AGENCY.
5, Milner's-chambers, Fargate, Sheffield.
First in 1864. Foremost in 1906.
WANTED, Sensational Aerial and Ground Acts of every description, Continental Novelties, Double Acts, for Whit Week and numerous dates. Send Lithos., Memos., Full Bookings, Permanent Addresses, and Terms.

ALGIE'S HIPPODROME, CARLISLE.
WANTED, Specialities of Every Description, also Animal Acts, anything that can be done in Ring or Stage.
Address, C. ALGIE.

WANTED, for the Winter Gardens, Plymouth, Jan. 29, onwards, Variety Artists in all Lines, male and female, barebacked equestrians, to ride our horses. Apply, W. C. and S. HANCOCK.

WANTED, Easter Monday and Whitsuntide Sensational Specialities and Parachute Drop Hot-air Balloon. Lithos., memos., terms, GANNON, West-grove, Bristol.

WANTED, for Easter and Later Dates, Good Gala Acts, Acrobats, Cyclists, Wire Performers, and Novelties. WOOD, Caterer, Cheese-lane, Bristol.

WANTED, for Wilder's Great Fêtes and Galas, Whit. Week, June, July, Bank Holiday, and onwards, First-class Performances and Novelties, of every description, Aërial Flying Shows, Rope Shows, Single and Double Turns, &c. Full particulars, sample, lithos., and lowest terms, to WILDER'S, Gt. Francis-street, Birmingham.

WANTED, a Young Circus Clown, &c., one that is funny and can knockabout, to play Agouste in an Animal Show; must be able to handle and know something about a pony.
Address,
Box 2,682, "The Era."

WANTED, Lady Contortionist, Gymnast, for a long American tour; must be good looking, good figure. Send photos., TREBORO, Palace, Bristol.

WANTED, a sober, steady Young Man, with Knowledge of Acrobating and Tumbling, age between 19 and 24, height not less than 5ft. 9in., weight not exceeding 9st.
Apply,
photos. or personally, to P. P.,
21, Wardour-street, Leicester-square, London, W.C.

WANTED, for Season 1906, Youth, about 16 or 17 years old, used to Acrobat business. Send full particulars and experience, stating weight and height, to LORD JOHN SANGER and SONS, Ltd.,
Burstow Lodge, Horley, Surrey.

WANTED, Smart Boy Acrobat, for Established Act; state tricks and particulars; must join me about March 12, or in May, for Europe and America. Address, PETE BELL (private), Jan. 22, Empire, Leicester.

WANTED, Boy about 14, to join well-known family of Risley Performers, as Apprentice. Good home; splendid chance for smart boy; preferred slender and light figure.
Apply, Box 2,670, "The Era."

WANTED, Circus Artists who experience difficulty in obtaining copies of "The Era" at any of Messrs. Smith and Son's Bookstalls to kindly communicate with the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

CIRCUS ARTISTS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known, Miss Ella, greatest and best existing Lion Show of the World, Vacant May 7, onwards.
Comm., week, Jan. 22,
Empire Palace,, Shepherd's Bush.

WANTED, Known, Educated Talking Arabian Donkey, Liberty March 6, a comic act, stage or ring. BUER and SON, J. H. Cooke's Circus, Edinburgh

WANTED, Miss Pinder, with her Novel Equestrian Performance, introducing her Highly-trained Horse-Riding Collie Dog and Flight of Pigeons, twice daily, at Fossett's Circus, the Royal Agricultural Hall, London. Miss Pinder is the only lady doing this New Turn on the Music Hall Stage. Agents and Managers are invited to see this Turn. At Liberty Feb. 12, with John Irvin, the Dexterous Foot Equilibrist.
Address,
Agricultural Hall, London.

WANTED, Known, Lillian Davies, Bareback Equestrienne, at Liberty Jan. 29. Thanks for Offers. Address, Hippodrome, Mansfield.

WANTED, Known, Neddy Vokes, Funny Musical Clown, Lib. for Tenting Season, Home or Abroad. Address, 16, Moreton-street, Strangeways, Manchester.

WANTED, Comical Walker, Talking Clown, with good entrées, Vacant Monday, also tenting. Wire or write, Hippodrome, Mansfield, Notts.

WANTED, Known, Bros. Austin, Clowns and Agoustes, good entrées, eccentric, pyramid of chairs, and foot equilibrist, re-engaged after first week, London Hippodrome, at Liberty for summer months. Address, 3, Wincott-street, Kennington-road, London.

WANTED, Jan. 22, 29, Mayeno Trio, 2 Ladies, 1 Gent., Gymnasts, Acrobats, Wire Walkers, Stilt Tumblers, Tub Posturers, 3 Specialities, or Comedy Turns. Wire, Turley's Hotel, Chichester-st., Belfast.

WANTED, by Ariel and Astarte, absolutely the smartest of all Lady and Gentleman Gymnastic Pot Pourri Acts, free Jan. 29, Feb. 5, 12. Monday, Hippodrome, Dewsbury, where address.

WANTED, Known, Smarte Bros., Liberty March, with new and original acrobatic act. Big Success, "Blue Beard" Panto., Alexandra Theatre, Birmingham. Good agent wanted.

WANTED, Monday next and Later Dates, by Les Greers, Continental Acrobats. Vacant for Tenting Season. Address, 15, Union-st., Southport.

WANTED, Known, Queenie Lo Lo, this week Hull; Jan. 29, Transfield's Circus, Paisley; at Liberty Feb. 5.

WANTED, Known, Herman, High Telephone Wire Performer, at Liberty, for Fêtes, Galas, and Carnivals. Add., 21, Branson-st., Beswick, Manchester.

WANTED, Known, Phinias and Aida, Revolving Equilibrists, Liberty Jan. 29, also tenting season, several acts. Ohmy's Circus, Leigh.

CIRCUS ARTISTS' WANTS.

WANTED, Known, Almero, Aërial Norwegian Spar and Smart Wire Act, open for the summer months, galas, &c., continued success. John Henry Cooke's Royal Circus, Edinburgh.

WANTED, Known, at Liberty, for Fêtes, Galas, &c., an ideal act of strength, Ajax, the Modern Herculcs. Address, 23, Foxley-rd., Brixton, London.

WANTED, Known, Clown Benbo, Eccentric Juggler and Necromancer, two acts if required. Vacant Jan. 29 and Feb. 6. 99, Carmen-street, Ardwick, Manchester.

WANTED, Known, Will Daulby, Catcher, Bearer, and Tumbler, at Liberty.
Particulars to 21, Morledge-street, Leicester.

WANTED, at Liberty, March, good Tumbler, Acrobat, join good Troupe of Acrobats, Straight or Comedy. Address, TUMBLER, 1, Fenwick-street, Warwick-street, Manchester.

WANTED, Known, at the expiration of the World's Fair, Le Nève and Sullivan's Troupe of Male and Female Wrestlers, including Peter Gotz, the Light-weight Champion, are free for engagements. For full particulars, address, LE NEVE, Royal Agricultural Hall, London.

WANTED, Known, Le Neve thanks those that answered advertisement re Wrestlers. All settled at present. Agricultural Hall, London.

MUSIC HALL ARTISTS WANTED.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

SCARBOROUGH.
WANTED, Jan. 29, and onwards, Variety Artists in all Lines. Full particulars, with permanent address (if any), to MORGAN, Aquarium.

WANTED, Variety Artists and Specialities, for Jan. 29, Hippodrome, Blyth. Wire or write lowest. GEORGE and EDWARDS, Victoria Theatre, West Stanley. Bouncing Dillions wire.

WANTED, Star Artists, Big Attractions, for Fêtes and Galas, Piers and Summer Gardens, Big Aerial and Ground Acts, June 4, onwards.
Variety Artists, Jan. 29, onwards. Terms, &c.,
EDGAR STEBBINGS,
23, Egerton-street, Manchester.
Telegrams, "Stebbing, Manchester."

BURTON'S FETE AND GALA AGENCY.
5, Milner's-chambers, Fargate, Sheffield.
First in 1864. Foremost in 1906.
WANTED, Sensational Aerial and Ground Acts of every description, Continental Novelties, Double Acts, for Whit Week and numerous dates. Send Lithos., Memos., Full Bookings, Permanent Addresses, and Terms.

WANTED, Artists, all Lines, nothing too big. All artists known to me write. State full bookings, and lowest terms, J. LARDER, Manager, Bennett's Vaudeville Companies and Variety Agency, 22, Levington-st., Grimsby.

WANTED, Artists, all Lines, for Immediate and Future Dates.
WILLIAM MOULD, Central Palace, North Shields.

WANTED, Artists, all Lines, Serios and Dancers. Send lowest, lithos., particulars, SAM LEE, 148, Great Tichfield-st., Portland-rd., W.

WANTED, Star Artists every description, Big Tops and Bottoms. Bookings, terms, &c., to FREDK. YATES, Church-av., Weaste, Manchester.

WANTED, Artists, Sisters, Serios, Comedians, Small Sketch Companies, for Jan. 29, 1906. REYMOND, New Palace, Sheerness. Quote lowest; Hall small.

WANTED, Artists, Single and Double Turns, two weeks, Feb. 5, 19, onwards. All Artists promised future dates, write now.
CHAS. A. JAMES,
Waxworks and Music Hall, Dublin.

WANTED, for the Hippodrome, Bridgwater, Artists, in all Lines, Jan. 29, and onwards. Please Note, Hall Small. Address, H. LEATON, Manager.

WANTED, Artists in all Lines, those doing two acts preferred; big specialities; sharing terms. HUGH DEMPSEY, Miners' Hall, Trimdon Grange.

WANTED, Artists all Lines, Doubles doing Singles, Serios and Sisters. Lowest; Hall Small. Jan. 29, onwards. GEO. EDWARDS, Tivoli, Kidderminster.

WANTED, Artists, in all Lines, from now, onwards. Apply,
Mr. J. J. SCOTT, Empire, Wrexham.

WANTED, Wanted, Wanted.
Proprietors, Managers, and the Cream of the Profession, to Know that TOM CLAXTON'S
English, American, and Continental Dramatic and Variety Agency, Nelson House, 9, Charing Cross-road, London, Telegrams, "Plagiarism, London," Telephone 5314 Gerrard, is always in a position to supply Managers with the Greatest Acts of all Descriptions, for immediate dates. Always Vacancies for Stars, Novelties, or anything that will draw. Artists at Liberty for Monday next and immediate dates, to save time, should send in early, lowest terms, lithos., &c., address, and route.

CIRCUS AND HIPPODROME, ROCHDALE.
WANTED, Known, Rehearsal Monday next, Jan. 22, 2 o'clock, for Abdy's Dogs, Marconis, H. O. Boric, Stephen Blythe, Sisters Darnton, J. Oliver, Decona, and Marvelles' Cockatoos. Letters, S. L. LEE.

TIVOLI THEATRE, DUBLIN.
WANTED, for the Tivoli Theatre of Varieties, Dublin,
All the Greatest Stars in the Profession.
Acts New in Dublin for the above,
the Premier Variety Theatre in Ireland.
Direct or through Agents.
All communications to WILL SLEY,
41, Oxford-street, Manchester.
Telegraphic Address, "Variety, Manchester."
Telephone, 09144.

WANTED, for Jan. 29, and Feb. 5 and 12, Stars in all Lines.
Stars in all Lines.
Full up for Smaller Items.
State Towns at Liberty for.
Can Fix Big Numbers any Odd Weeks.
CADLE'S Agency, 105-6, Strand, W.C.

WANTED, Jan. 29, onwards, for
Liverpool, St. Helens, Accrington, and Warrington,
Stars and Novelties of all Kinds.
Address, F. WILLMOT, 156, Islington, Liverpool.

WANTED, Stars, Nothing too Big. Send full Bookings and Terms to FRANK LYNNE, New Theatre Royal, Halifax. AYTOUN'S Agency.

WANTED, Stars and Specialities, for Immediate and Future Dates. Terms and particulars to BROOKS'S Agency, 36, Shaftesbury-av., W.

WANTED, Hippodrome, Mansfield, Jan. 29 and onwards, all the Biggest Stars and Novelties in the Profession; Nothing too Big. Some good Wrestlers and Boxers may write. Address, J. MORRELLA, Hippodrome, Mansfield.

WANTED, for Town and Country, Big Stars and Tops, for Jan. 22, onward.
Nothing too Big.
Artists on my books keep me posted.
FRED NEIMAN,
Hippodrome, Ipswich.

WANTED, for Cheltenham, Jan. 29, Star Turn and Good Comedy Acts. Call for Monday, 22nd: Victor Newman, Nicodemus, Flo Hill, Paul Vandy, Bodina Trio, Dora Barrington, Vernando, C. Bayman, J. H. McCann, C. Osborne, and Weisker's Pictures. Terms in first letter, PAUL VANDY, Victoria Rooms, Cheltenham.

CAVILL'S AGENCY, RED HALL, LEEDS.

WANTED, Wanted, Wanted,
the Biggest Acts in the Profession, for immediate dates for the North and Ireland.
Nothing too big. Price no object.
Wire Vacancies and Terms at once.
Also Artists all Lines, for London Halls and Seaside Towns.

WANTED, Good Gala Acts, Aug. 6, 7, 8. Twice daily, Northampton. Bookings and offers this week include Harry Lauder, Boris Fridkin Troupe, Gibson and Doyle, Valvo. Thanks Williams, Gaiety, Dundee, for Contracts. Address, MCASKELL, Empire, Paisley.

MUSIC HALL ARTISTS WANTED.

PALACE THEATRE,
CORK.
Manager, HENRY KEMBLE.
WANTED, Jan. 29, Feb. 5, 12, and onward,
Big Specialities,
Novelties,
Animal Shows,
Cycle Acts,
Star Comedian,
Ballad Vocalists.
Must be Refined, or Useless.
Call, Monday, Jan. 22:
Boccaccio Minstrels,
W. E. Gillin,
Fanny Erris,
Davis and Gledhill,
R. C. Note,
Volpe and Cleveland,
Craige, Roze, and Craig,
Clement Trio,
Pictures.

WANTED, Wanted, Wanted,
Tops of Bill, for Jan. 29, Feb. 5, 12, on,
Tops of Bill, for Jan. 29, Feb. 5, 12, on,
Tops of Bill, for Jan. 29, Feb. 5, 12, on,
Tops of Bill, for Jan. 29, Feb. 5, 12, on,
Tops of Bill, for Jan. 29, Feb. 5, 12, on,
Tops of Bill, for Jan. 29, Feb. 5, 12, on,
and all Kinds of First-class
Artists Wanted.
Wire or Write Immediately, with Fullest Particulars.
Also
First Class Artists of Every Description Wanted, for the Principal Seaside Towns,
JAMES FIONI'S Agency,
21, Norton-street,
Liverpool.
Telegrams, "Fioni, Liverpool."
Telephone, 1686, Royal.

WANTED, Good Comedy Acts, for immediate dates.
ANDERSON'S AGENCY,
6, Great Clyde-street, Glasgow.

PADDINGTON PALACE, LIVERPOOL.
WANTED, for above, Big Comedy Acts, Sketches, Comedians, in fact anything good, Jan. 29, onwards. All communications to JESS VERNO, 61, West Derby-st., L'pool. Telegrams, "Merriment."

WANTED, Variety Novelties, Hugh Wigglesworth's Agency, late Manager Morecambe, Blackpool, &c. 164, Meadow-st., Alexandra Park, Manchester.

WANTED, Specialities of Every Description, Feb. 5, for town near London, comedians, comediennes, knockabouts, triple bars, acrobats, sketches, bioscope (to take few locals), &c., &c. Write, giving full particulars, and absolute lowest, in first instance, MANAGER, Rose Cottage, Wellington-street, Hanley.

WANTED, Big Specialities and Top Liners, for Jan. 29, onwards, Nothing too Big. Luigo Serenaders communicate immediately. Artists seen by appointment only. Address, JOE BROWN, Variety Agent, 58, Chicksand-street, London, E.

WANTED, Specialities, Novelties, every Description, suitable Fêtes, Midlands, Yorks., commencing Whitsun. Particulars, terms, vacancies, pictorials, permanent address, to ARTHUR EVANS, Amusement Caterer, 86, St. George's-road, Southwark, London, S.E.

WANTED, Talent, the Best Money can Buy.
DREW BAYLEY, Agent, 170, Saltmarket, Glasgow.

Unique Opportunity, Novices and Others.
WANTED, for Old-established High-class Drawing-room Entertainment, a few really clever, refined, and original Speciality Acts. Ordinary Variety Turns not required. Clay-modelling, a good Illusion simple to work and not requiring trap, Boy Violinist, Lady Violinist, or Cartoonist, &c. Apply by letter only, INGLE, 7, Dorset-road, S. Ealing.

THE PIER PAVILION, DOVER.
WANTED, Easter, Whitsun, and onwards, High-class Concert Parties and Big Attractions. Valuable Sites for Automatic Machines to let.
Apply,
F. C. DEW, The Theatre Royal, Dover.

SIDNEY DOOLEY'S AGENCY.
WANTED, for Feb. 5 and onward, First-class Numbers in Every Line.
Send full list of bookings, lithos., and lowest terms, 55A, Booth-street East, Manchester.

WANTED, Good Singles and Doubles, for the Best Shows, Aldershot Camp. Turns known to me write in for immediate work. WILL AVIS, Gamage, Aldershot

WANTED, Star Numbers, Jan. 29 and Feb. 5, wire; also Artists of every description, Jan. 29, onwards. State lowest terms, bookings, &c. I can place you. JESS VERNO'S Agency, 61, West Derby-street, Liverpool. Telegrams, "Merriment." Telephone, 2076 Royal.

GRAND THEATRE, RAWTENSTALL (LANC.).
WANTED, First-Class Comedy (Funny Acts); also Sisters. Comediennes, for Jan. 29. All communications address, CHEVALIER CLIQUOT, as above.

WANTED, First-class Pierrot Troupes for the Summer. Send full particulars to ARTHUR CARLTON, Theatre Royal, Worcester.

WANTED, for Arthur Roberts' forthcoming Season, several Tall, Smart Ladies, must be of good appearance and experienced. Apply by letter only, with photograph. Authors with smart Comedy Sketches please send scenarios. All communications to STANLEY DAMERELL, Tivoli Music Hall, Strand.

WANTED, Wanted, Wanted,
Star Comedians, Star Comediennes,
Big Specialities, Comedy Acts,
Bar Performers,
Comedy Musical Acts,
Animal Acts.
WILL SLEY,
41, Oxford-street, Manchester.
Telegraphic Address,
"Variety, Manchester."
Telephone, 09144.

WANTED, Experienced Comedians and Al Fresco Artists, for Glasgow and West of Scotland. Fullest particulars, LEE and ARDEN, Palace, Sunderland.

WANTED, Boys over 14 (small for age), Boy Actors, Boy Comedians, Boy Vocalists, Boy Acrobats, Boy Musicians.
Exceptional Opportunities Clever Boys.
CADLE'S Agency, 105, Strand.

WANTED, Wanted, Wanted,
Two Coloured Boys,
able to Sing and Dance.
CADLE'S Agency, 105, Strand, W.C.

WANTED, Banjoist who can sing Humorous Songs, and Tenor, for Tour of Concert Party; must be young and gentlemen. Write all particulars to HEATH, 47, Elliott-road, Brixton, S.W.

WANTED, Very First-class Juggler or Conjurer, or Troupe, wishing to be assisted by a smart Juggler, Conjurer, and Shadowgraphist, same has Splendid Ideas, speaks and writes five languages. Only First-class, Well-educated Artists need apply. Box 2,665, "The Era."

WANTED, well-educated Young Lady or Gentleman, to assist Juggler and Illusionist, knowledge of Juggling or Conjuring desirable. Full particulars, Box 2,686, "The Era."

WANTED, Hypnotic Subjects. Write,
Box 2,669, "The Era."

WANTED, Cinématograph Show, 10 Nights, 2 Matinées, commencing Feb. 21, for Lancashire town. KAY, Variety Agent, 25, Fleet-st., Burnley.

WANTED, Expert Bioscope Operator, thoroughly accustomed alternating and direct currents. Give references. VERNON'S Bioscope, Palace, Blackpool.

WANTED, Smart Man, for Music Hall and Show Business. State experience, qualifications, salary, &c., to A. E. PICKARD, 101, Trongate, Glasgow.

MUSIC HALL ARTISTS WANTED.

WANTED, Music Hall Artists who experience difficulty in obtaining copies of "The Era" at any of Messrs. Smith and Son's Bookstalls to kindly communicate with the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

WANTED, Cinématograph Operator, with own machine and films, as Partner, for Provincial Tour. Address, SINCLAIR, 48, Brailsford-rd., Brixton.

MUSIC HALL ARTISTS' WANTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, by Luie O. Bright, Dainty Irish Comedienne and Dancer, Everything Smart and Original, vacant Jan. 22, Feb. 5 and 12. Wires and letters, c/o PRINGLE, 27, Taylor-street, Townhead, Glasgow.

WANTED, by Nellie Nora, Musical Act, Monday next, Big Success, Empire, Ealing. Wire, 81, Falmouth-road, London, S.E.

WANTED, Known, Madge Roberts, the Charming Comedienne and Dancer, at Liberty Jan. 29. Big Success, Palace, Northampton; Monday, Empire, Dudley.

WANTED, by Sisters Ely, the pretty, talented Duettists, Monday, 22nd and 29th. Wire. Wedgwood Theatre, Burslem, Staffs.

WANTED, 22nd, 29th, on, by George Ritter, Musical Singing Patter Comedian. My act is clean, clever, and novel. If you want a turn to rely upon, wire for Monday. Big Success here, Hippodrome, Reading.

WANTED, Known, Neddy Vokes, Europe's Funniest Musical Comedian, Liberty Jan. 22. Wire, Circus, Hull. After, 16, Moreton-street, Strangeways, Manchester.

Notice, Notice. Wire, Wire, South of England to follow.
WANTED, Known, Harry Jennings, in Songs, Patter, and Dancing, tremendous success Parthenon, Liverpool, four turns every house, twelfth engagement; also this week, Palace, Cork, the audience wild with enthusiasm. Complimented by H. Kemble, Esq. The Cork Constitution says: H. J. was one of the hits of the programme last night. I am vacant Monday through mistake in date. Wire Sat., Palace, Cork; after Sat., 56, Buccleuch-street, Glasgow.

WANTED, Kardoc, the finest Handcuff Act in the Kingdom. Refer to every Manager where I have worked; they will tell you to book this Act if business is bad and you require a sure draw. See Card. Free Feb. 5, on. Wire. See Card for address. Wire.

WANTED, Jan. 29, by Will Belasco, in his interesting and novel musical act.
Address, 37, Doon-street, Waterloo-road, S.E.

WANTED, Engagement, by George Barr, Eccentric and Low Com., Sing, Dance, and Musical Speciality. 95, Fentiman-road, Clapham, S.W.

WANTED, Known, Will Bell, Eccentric Comedian and Dancer, at Liberty Monday next, also 29th. Wire, Empress, Hartlepool.

WANTED, Feb. 5, 12, 19, by Jas. Day, Postman, Handcuff King, Great Novelty, Star Turn, Lithos.; also Ragson, Conjurer. For either or both, permanent address, Aston, Birmingham.

WANTED, Engagement by Harry Baker, Refined Versatile Instrumentalist, seven instrument show, Concerts, &c. Terms moderate. 4, Borough-road, London, S.E.

WANTED, Monday next, by Fred Casburn, droll comedian. Another hit, Hippo., Huddersfield; after Sat., Hertford-st., Hunslet, Leeds. Wire.

WANTED, Jan. 29, Feb. 12, by J. H. Carney, Character Comedian and Mimic; a Show away from any other Artist. This week, Empire, Rochdale; next, Hippo., Wakefield.

WANTED, Known, Frank Whiteley, First-class Turn, at Lib. Mon., 22, also Feb. 12. Wire, 7, Clifford-street, Oxford-road, Manchester.

WANTED, Jan. 29, between Gravesend-Grimsby, by Ventom Swift, Swell Singer, Eccentric Dancer. Wire, Gaiety, Chatham; next week, Grand, Gravesend.

WANTED, Known, Robert Emslie, Descriptive Vocalist, Pianist, and Versatile Entertainer, Lib. Jan. 29. Offers invited. 11, Peas-hill, Cambridge.

WANTED, by Will Gay, Eccentric Comedian and Dancer, Monday next, also 29th. Wire, Hippodrome, Bridgwater, Wire.

WANTED, Known, Mysto, the Man of Many Modes, marvellous musical merchant, unique, sure success, Vacant Jan. 29. Offers invited. C/o "The Era."

WANTED, Engagement by First-class Continental Juggler and Up-to-date Conjurer, at Liberty February. First-class Agent wanted. M. MALINI, Hotel de l'Etoil, 30, Charlotte-street, Fitzroy-square, London, W.C.

WANTED, Monday and 29th, by Salmon, Trick and Musical Cyclist. Wire, Corn Exchange. After Sat., Albany-terrace, Burnley.

WANTED, Immediate Dates, for Prof. Hocking. Last week, at Oldbury, hundreds turned away, including Saturday, notwithstanding Election. Previous week, terrific success, Kidderminster; return Feb. 5. J. LARDER, Sole Agent, 22, Levington-st., Grimsby.

WANTED, by James Taylor, acknowledged the finest Plate Manipulator and Conjurer, Feb. 5 and onward. 565, Wandsworth-rd., Clapham, S.W.

WANTED.—Prof. Garland, Vent. and Conjurer, wants Feb. 19, 26, now working the high-class Drawing Rooms in Ireland. Testimonials from Dukes, Lords, and Earls. Success everywhere; none better. Coms., perm. address, Temple-row, Wrexham.

WANTED, Monday next, one week only, Empire, Hull, to follow, by Bonnie Maud Marlow, Burlesque and Dancer; and Jolly J. H. Crew, Quaint Comedian, hit Pal., Blackpool, where wire. Agent, WILL OLIVER.

WANTED, Monday next, Reg. Templeton and Stella May, comedian and comedienne, Hippo., Wakefield. Wire, 17, Charlotte-street.

WANTED, by Bert and Dora, Comedy Artists, Jan. 29, Feb. 5 and 12, Broadhead Tour to follow. Wire or write. 24, Brook-avenue, Levenshulme, Manchester.

WANTED, by Walter Gurney, Comedian; also Lily Mason, Comedienne and Dancer, Jan. 29. Feb. 5. Address, Aquarium, Scarborough.

WANTED, Jan. 29, Feb. 19, by The Monckton, in Screamingly Funny Musical Comedy Act, "A Woman's Curiosity." Next, T., Horwich.

WANTED, Known, Le Warren, the Ventriloquial Foli; also Sadie Dana, Comedienne, Liberty Monday, 22nd, 29th. Wire, 103, Hoxton-road, Scarboro'; after Sunday, 4, St. James's-street, Leicester.

WANTED, Monday, George Macintosh, comedian, and world's champion dancer; also Tina Royal, variety artist and expert dancer. Wire, Hippodrome, Carlisle.

WANTED, after twelve months' successful tour, at Liberty, Jan. 29, the Two Daniels, most Novel and Laughable Negro Comedians, Vocalists, and Expert Dancers. For terms, 63, Sherbourne-road, Birmingham.

WANTED, Monday, Jan. 22 and 29, Belford and Mars, Funny Vocal Comedy Act. Wire, Grand Theatre, Rawtenstall.

WANTED, Feb. 5, on, by Carl and Carr, Comedians, in Refined Comedy Act, "Fun Outside the Workhouse." Wire quick, Theatre Royal, Worcester.

WANTED, Jan. 29, by the Two Daniels, Black Variety Stilt Duettists. Wire, 63, Sherbourne-road, Birmingham.

WANTED, Monday, by Farrell and Gorman, musical eccentrics. Second week, big success, Central Hall, Sheffield, where wire.

WANTED, Known, Smarte Bros., Liberty March, with new and original acrobatic act, big success, "Blue Beard" Panto., Alex. T., Birmingham. Good agent wanted.

MUSIC HALL ARTISTS' WANTS.

WANTED, Known, The Zaros, through obliging, Liberty Feb. 5. Monday, Tivoli, Grimsby; Carlisle to follow.

WANTED, Monday next, also Jan. 29, by Chant and Chant, Refined Comedy Vocalists and Patterers. Wire for a Success, Queen's Park Hippodrome, Manchester.

WANTED, by Keir and Allen, the Great Eccentric Speciality Comedians. Jan. 29, Feb. 5. Offers. Grand, Hanley.

WANTED, by Handel and Lee, Refined Musical Speciality, Feb. 29. Enormous Success. Wire, Tivoli, Barrow; next week, Palace, Halifax.

WANTED, by the Bros. Webb, World-renowned Musical Clowns, Jan. 22, and onwards. Address, 4, Speenham-road, Stockwell, London.

WANTED, Monday next, and onwards, through sudden closing of old establishment. Wire or write, AMURAT THE ATHLETE, 253, Waterloo-road, London, S.E.

WANTED, Feb. 19, 26, Pollard Bros., and Kitty Grey, in act, "The Soldier, Policeman, and the Cook." Yells of Laughter. Come and see. Come and see.
Palace Theatre, Manchester.

WANTED, Known, the Haverleys, American Song Illustrators, 2 ladies (contralto and soprano), 1 gentleman. Pavilion, Leicester; Palace, West Hartlepool, to follow.

WANTED, by Clement Trio, Comedy Flying Trapeze Stage Act, doing Four Different Kinds of Doubles, and Double Pirouettes. Vacant Jan. 29. Wire, Palace, Cork.

WANTED, Jan. 29, Feb. 5, by Atoras, England's Comedy Athletes. The All Blacks were a Success. The All Reds will be a Success. The Atoras, a Sure Success. 17, Waterford-rd., Fulham.

WANTED, Monday, also 29th, by Four Abadaroffs, Comedy Act, "Prehistoric Peeps." Wire, 95, Stretford-road, Manchester.

WANTED, Wanted, Wanted.
Feb. 12, 19, and 26,
by the
Albano Troupe,
Albano Troupe,
the Greatest Refined Musical Act of the World.
New Hippodrome, Stockton.

WANTED, Known, Three Cheers, Vacant Jan. 29, in Original Musical Sketch, "Dick Whittington," with real performing Cat. Special Scenery and Effects by Ernest Howard. Queen's Theatre, Fleetwood.

WANTED, Seaside Dates, July and August, 1 to 4 weeks, for Matt Wilkinson's laughter-makers, in really funny comedy sketches. Address, Barnard's, Chatham (return, two weeks).

WANTED, Monday, Jan. 22, 29, for Tom Davis's Comedy Sketch Co., Lee and Lucas. Two Distinct Acts. Wire, Hippo., Wakefield.

WANTED, for Ross Clyde's Screamers, "I Must Have It" and "My Wife's Husband," Jan. 22-29, four artists, special scene. 51, Elizabeth-street, Liverpool.

WANTED, Known, Zarmah, with his Zoological Statuary of Wild Animals, consisting of African Lions, Lionesses, Grizzly and Silver-grey Bears, and Boarhounds, at Liberty Jan. 22 and 29. Wire, Grove Hotel, Bury New-rd., Manchester.

WANTED, by Parisian Specialist, to Join in Sketch. Also, he wishes to hear from Pretty Girl and Light Baritone. Box 2,677, "The Era."

WANTED, Known, The Armoury Stockport, the Greatest Handcuff and Sack Manipulator; also The World's Leading Hypnotist.
Ludicrous Performances, both Wonderful and Amusing.
The Wonderful and Sidesplitting Spectacle.
Audiences Amazed and Spellbound, Imaginable.
A Packed House at Each Performance.

WANTED, Known, Operator, Disengaged, 10 years' experience, late Moss' Empires, Ralph Pringle, Esq., &c.; also Madame Travers, illustrated songs; and Chris. Jones, effect worker and advance agent. Wire, TRAVERS (Member of the Firkinbolt Institute), 91, Totterdown-st., Tooting, S.W.

WANTED, Engagement, by Bioscope Operator, Lime or Electric, up-to-date films and machine, Illustrated Songs. Liberty to open Monday. H. WATTS, Post Office, Crewe.

WANTED, Known, Le Clair's Bioscope, and Troupe of Dogs, including Spot, in his marvellous high-ladder act. Still at Pier Pavilion, Southend.

WANTED, Engagements, De Gruchy's Britannia Bioscopes, up-to-date machine, reasonable terms, personal attention, best show. Add., 32, Craigie-st., Glasgow.

WANTED, Known, Royal Bioscope, Disengaged Jan. 29. Terms, £5. All Latest Films; 40 minutes' show if electric. PARKINSON, Kursaal, Bexhill-on-Sea.

WANTED, Known, that the London Cinématograph Syndicate have Operators, with High-class Machines and Films, available for Animated Pictures. Reasonable terms. Address, LONDON CINEMATOGRAPH SYNDICATE, 205, Queen's-road, Peckham, London.

WANTED, Halls for Cinématograph Entertainments. State terms, particulars, &c. Mr. DOBBS, 45, Frederick-street, Gray's Inn-rd., London.

WANTED, Known, at the expiration of the World's Fair, Le Neve and Sullivan's Troupe of Male and Female Wrestlers, including Peter Gotz, the Light-weight Champion, are free for engagements. For full particulars, address, LE NEVE, Royal Agricultural Hall, London.

WANTED, Known, Le Neve thanks those that answered advertisement re Wrestlers. All settled at present. Agricultural Hall, London.

WANTED, Engagement, with Hypnotist or Illusionist, or to assist in Show of any Kind. Would perform with animals. Some knowledge of dancing. RUBY ELLIOTT, 496, Wandsworth-road, Clapham, London.

SHOWMEN'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Wanted, Known,
TOM ORTON,
The Showman Fire Insurance Man,
Security, Security, Security.
An old-established company, with funds of over £1,000,000 (one million pounds), are prepared to grant policies covering Shows, Roundabouts, and Cinématograph Exhibitions against Fire; Workmen's Compensation; Third Party Risks.
Balance-sheet and full particulars of rates, &c., to Sole Agent, TOM ORTON, Lion Carriage Works, Princess-street, Burton-on-Trent.

Important to Travellers.
WANTED, Known, Messrs. Chiappa and Sons, Ltd., beg to inform travellers that the "entirely new style 1906 Grand Model 110 key Organ" will be on show at the Factory, 6, Little Bath-street, London, E.C., about Jan. 30. They respectfully request any travellers who are intending purchasers to defer placing their orders until this 1906 Model has been seen and heard, as it will be the true Organ of the Future, and will supersede all others yet made.
All the Latest Pantomime Music Kept in Stock.

Move with the times, or get left.
WANTED, Showmen to Note that we are the Sole Agents of the Mills Novelty Co., who make 200 different Slot Machines, and not a "dud" among them. They make the famous ball-punching machine, which has taken over £25 in one week in London. The punching ball is a "daisy"; takes money quick, and takes it all the time. Send for catalogue and testimonials,
MINERVA AUTOMATIC CO.,
120, York-road, King's Cross,
London.

SHOWMEN'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

WANTED, Known, World's Fair, Royal Agricultural Hall, Islington, London, N. Through the regrettable and somewhat unexpected death of the late Mr. T. Read, sen., Lessee of the above, and Chairman of the Showmen's Supper and Ball, the Committee beg to inform their Committeemen, Fellow Showmen, and Travellers, that the Supper and Ball, announced for the 24th inst., will not take place this season. This announcement is made with the Committee's deep regret and sincere sympathy.
Yours sincerely,
CHAS. DAY, Secretary.

WANTED, Wanted, Known, the Next Meeting of the British Roundabout Proprietors' and Showmen's Union will be held at The Royal Agricultural Hall, Islington, Wednesday next, Jan. 24, at 2.30 sharp.
Very Important Business.
Signed, T. HURST, Secretary.

WANTED, Known, the Showmen's Guild Annual Meeting, at the Royal Agricultural Hall, Wednesday next, Jan. 24, at 11.30.
The President, Lord George Sanger, in the Chair.
Supported by the Rev. T. Horne, the Rev. N. J. Devereux, F. Millar, Esq., T. Watson Wright, Esq., Fred Bibby, Esq., and F. H. Pedgrift, Esq.
T. HURST, Hon. Sec.

WANTED, Known, that owing to insufficient entries for my Auction Sale, advertised for Wednesday next, I have decided to cancel same. I shall, however, offer a few lots in the Agricultural Hall immediately after the Showmen's Meeting. I take this opportunity of thanking all those Clients who have favoured me with their instructions to act for them on that occasion; also inform them that I hope during next week to procure for them, in most instances by private treaty, purchases at satisfactory prices. I shall be in attendance at the World's Fair during next week, when Showmen and others requiring to purchase or dispose of anything appertaining to the business would do well to consult me, as I have an unusual number of instructions from sellers, and enquiries from buyers from all parts of the United Kingdom.
Signed,
TOM NORMAN,
Silver King.

Patent No. 252,351, 1905.
WANTED, Known, by Every Roundabout Proprietor, that SAVAGE AND CO. have taken Stanley Works, New North-road, London, N., the same Works formerly carried on by Alf. Bedford, Carver and Gilder, where they are manufacturing motor cars for switchbacks and every kind of roundabouts at reasonable, and not exorbitant prices.
Remember, we are the Descendants of the Original Inventor,
F. Savage, late of King's Lynn.
Repairs of Every Description Connected with the Trade.
Note our only Address,
Oxford-road, New North-road, London, N.

The Success of the Show World.
WANTED, Known, Motor-Cars, Motor-Cars, Motor-Cars, all Shapes, Sizes, and Prices, Fitted with our Splendid Patent Wheels, Perfect Running Guaranteed.
Absolutely the Best in the Market for Strength, Lightness, and Symmetry.
Half the Weight and Twice as Strong as any other.
As for Looks, come and see for yourself, and be Quick if you want Delivery for Easter.
Sole Representative, Mr. ALBERT BRANDON.

WANTED, Auctioneers to Know, Simons, the up-to-date Warehouseman for Auctioneers' Wants, has removed to larger premises. Note New Address, 100, 101, 102A, Houndsditch. Second-hand Watches and Pawnbrokers' Forfeits Stocked to any amount

THE THREE GREATEST CONTINENTAL EXHIBITIONS, 1906.
WANTED, Attractions, Side-shows, Novelties of every description, either on shares or rental. Big Prices paid to really Sensational Novelties. Stalls to be Let at a moderate rental, and all sorts of Concessions granted. Wanted, also, Aquatic Performers, Aquatic Novelties; Chinese, Japanese, and Indian Natives, from four to six months, on salary. Journeys paid. State lowest terms.
Address all communications, by letters only, in the first instance to M. L. S., c/o Davenport and Co., 14, Coventry-street, W.C.

WANTED, Novelties, Freaks, or any kind of Show. Wire for Monday. WATSON and JACKSON, Showman's Hippo., 20, Old Market-st., Bristol.

WANTED, First-Class Novelties, for March, onwards.
A. E. PICKARD, 101, Trongate, Glasgow.

WANTED, Novelties, with Paintings, for Four Good Shops. Wire for Monday, SPINCH, 18, Chrisp-street Poplar, London.

WANTED, Living Novelties of every description, if not good posters or paintings, &c., useless. F. DURLAND, Exhibition, Overgate, Dundee.

WANTED, Good Living Freaks and Novelties, eight weeks' engagement, Glasgow, Edinburgh, Aberdeen, &c. FREDK. STEWART, New Waxwork, 124, Cowcaddens, Glasgow.

WANTED, for Anderton and Rowland's Grand Empire, on Tour for the Coming Season, to commence first week in April, a First-class Doorsman and Lecturer, one that is not afraid to make himself generally useful. Also Wanted, a First-class Variety Turn. Address, with terms and particulars, ANDERTON'S Grand Empire, Regent-st., Swindon.

WANTED, Good Doorsman for Waxwork, must be used to cleaning and well up in the business. Wanted, to Buy, thirty Bodies, cheap for cash. Address, SYLVESTER, 50, Ladywell-park, Lewisham.

WANTED, at once, through disappointment, a thorough good Comedian and Planksman, for Auction Mart, must be a good worker. Apply, WILLIAMS, Auction Vans, Porth, Rhondda Valley.

WANTED, Funny Planksman, experienced Auction Mart Business; sobriety indispensable. Wanted, 6 good Pierrot Dresses, cheap. BARBER, Auctioneer, Cradley Heath.

WANTED, Watch Jobber, Good Workman, teetotal preferred, for Auction Mart.
BLOOM, Haughton-le-Skerne, Darlington.

WANTED, a Reliable Man, used to Show and Fair Business, capable of putting up and pulling down a small show, &c; long and comfortable engagement to suitable man. Open Feb. References and particulars to PROPRIETOR, 4, Duciegrove, Oxford-road, Manchester.

WANTED, Good Lady Character Reader, at once, for STEWART'S Exhibition, 124, Cowcaddens, Glasgow.

WANTED, Experienced Operator and Printer, for Stamp Photos; long engagement.
LIONEL TAYLOR, 4, Alexandra-ter., Maesteg, S. Wales.

WANTED, Known, Carl Harmon's Animated Pictures, Marionettes; also Royal Punch and Judy, with Dog Toby. 101A, Penwith-road, Earlsfield, S.W.

WANTED, Known, Bailey's Punch and Judy and Toby, still at Crystal Palace, London, daily. Liberty Feb. and March. Chair up.

WANTED, Known, Miss Lucy Moore, Giantess, and her Manager, Arnold Bounds, wish to thank Mr. Humber, Waxworks, Aberdeen, for the three weeks' most comfortable and successful engagement, and many kindnesses. Next Monday, Mr. Rickard's Waxworks, Trongate, Glasgow.

WANTED, Known, First-class Tattooist is Disengaged, through disappointment, electricity, permanent exhibition or waxworks. Prof. KILBRIDE, 9, Wellington-rd., Pakefield, Lowestoft.

WANTED, to Sell, Ormonde motor bicycle, 2½ horse power, perfect running order. Cost me £25 last March; sell £12, owing to business appointment, no further use for same, or exchange for Bioscope, no toys. HARRIS, Stage-manager, Hippodrome, Dewsbury.

SHOWMEN'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

To Roundabout Proprietors, Showman, Stallholders, &c.
Messrs. P. COLLINS, Ltd.,
Gondola Works, Walsall.
WANTED, Known, they are now open to book Tenants for their well-known and old-established Fair Grounds, commencing Shrove-Tide, Longton, Lichfield, and Oswestry,
March run in the Black Country;
Dudley, Quarry Bank, Cradley Heath, Brierley Hill, and Stourbridge, up to Easter.
Easter, London, Coventry, Wolverhampton, and Birkenhead; then continuous run over Bromsgrove, Midsummer Fair, Worcester July Races;
Birmingham Great May and October Fairs, Wednesbury, Darlaston, Oldbury, West Bromwich, and numerous Fêtes, Carnivals, and Flower Shows. Parties requiring grounds, address as above, with full particulars. All first-class and well-conducted concerns liberally dealt with.
Telegraphic address, "Gondola, Walsall." Telephone, No. 80, Walsall.

To Showmen.—Belfast.
WANTED, to Let, within about 100yds. of Royal Avenue, the leading street in Belfast, about 2,000 square yards Vacant Ground, with frontages to Library-street and Union-street. Apply to PROPRIETORS, Belfast Evening Telegraph.

BLACKPOOL SANDS.
WANTED, Known, the South Shore Fair Ground is the Only Place of Outdoor Entertainment and Attraction in Blackpool. Situated at South Shore, next the Promenade. The Electric Trams run right to it. Finest Position in the Town. The land faces the sea, and has a frontage of over 500yds. The Permanent Attractions now installed include the River Caves of the World, the Maxim Flying Machine, Helter Skelter, &c. Native Village Wanted. Room for New Attractions next Season. 14, Balmoral-road.

WANTED, to Let, Ground for Shows, Roundabouts, &c. Apply to J. BEAUMONT, Market Yard, West Hartlepool.

SEAFORTH ANNUAL EASTER FAIR.
WANTED, Roundabout Proprietors, Showmen, &c., to Know, Spaces now to Let for Seaforth Annual Easter Fair, for all kinds of Shows, Cinématographs, Circus, Emmas, Sheets, Shooting Saloons, and all kinds of Variety Stalls, &c. Fair commences Thursday before Good Friday and following week. Apply, HARRY WALLIS, Seaforth.

WANTED, Known, one or two Spaces to Let in "Japan" Scenic Touring Exhibition, now in its fiftieth town without a break.
Apply, MANAGER, Drill Hall, Peebles.

WANTED, Known, Ground to Let, for Riding Machine, Shows, Games, Market, Position. Lorenzo, Pole Climber, already here. BURGESS, Exhibition Ground, Upper Edmonton.

WANTED, to Let, Ground, for Large Shows or Roundabouts. Apply, T. BURGIN, Steam Swings, Market-place, Castleford.

WANTED, Known, to Roundabout, Switchback Proprietors, and other Amusement Caterers, The Stanley Sports Committee invite Tenders for the following dates:—Whit. Monday, June 4, July 28, and Bank Holiday, Aug. 6, 1906. The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted. Tenders to be sent to the Secretary not later than the 30th inst. H. HOBBS, Eden-terrace, West Stanley.

WANTED, Known, Great Natural Curiosities, Heifer and Bull, with heart in neck, no heart in chest. Offers wanted for hire.
No. 532, ROBERTSON and SCOTT,
Advertising Agents, Edinburgh.

WANTED, to Sell, Automatic Machines, Husbands, Babies, Love-Letters, Palmistry, Lunatics', Marriage, and Liars' Licences. MEURICE, 39, Argyle-square, W.C.

WANTED, to Sell, Storey's Fine Art Exhibition, equal to new, can be seen open at Agricultural Hall, London, during World's Fair. Recently decorated by W. Giles and Son, Burton.

WANTED, to Sell, Portable Engine, with Dynamo, all in first-class order, can be seen working at Willesden Green, Dudding Hill Show Ground. ALF. BALL.

WANTED, to Sell the Haunted Swing or Revolving Room, same as used on Show Grounds at Blackpool. Cost nearly £40 to build. Highest offer accepted.
CLAUDE LOW,
54, Cockburn-street, Edinburgh.

WANTED, to Sell, the New Toboggan Slides, shown at the Carnival, Newcastle-on-Tyne, and Arcadia, Portsmouth, can be put up in 2, and taken down in 1½ hours. A goldmine at the seaside and fairs. LARCHER, 30, Pimlico-road, London, S.W.

WANTED, to Sell a good Cinématograph Show, consisting of Two Front Waggons with Carved Work Front attached, Stage Booth, and Tilt (late Wall's). All have been newly done up, and can be seen built up at the Fair Ground, Monument-road, Birmingham. To be Sold, cheap. Apply, Mrs. HOLLINS.

WANTED, to Sell, Ball Punchers, Guessing Scales, and all other kinds automatic machines. WORMALD, 123, Blythe-rd., W. Kensington, London.

WANTED, to Sell, Good Sound Living Van, with inside fittings. Will accept £10 to clear. PAYNE, 2, Pole-street, Standish.

WANTED, to Sell, Fine Art Gallery, the whole in good order, size 20 by 27, back, will sell Booth without Glass Boards. No reasonable offer refused. Reason parting purchased larger.
GESS,
Show Ground, Burnbank, Lanarkshire, Scotland.

WANTED, to Sell, Set of Four Boat Swings and Truck cheap, made for strong wear, two years old, and in first-class condition, or will exchange for Dickinson's Arc Lamp. NAIL, Fair Ground, Stratford, London.

WANTED, to Sell, Booth, 16ft. by 10ft., suitable for Side Show, 3 ½gall. lamps, all new, £3, or exchange for films. 97, Warner-street, Derby.

WANTED, to Sell, to Rifle Range Proprietors, &c., genuine bargain in latest Electric Targets, as new, half price; Lee-Metford Service Rifles, .22 bore, 47s. 6d. each; good secondhand Winchester Repeaters, 20s. each; &c. MASON, 17, Settles-street, London, E.

WANTED, to Sell, the great Original Oil Painting, "The Slave Market at Cairo," Maxime Dastague's Masterpiece; a sure fortune to a steady, careful man. Apply, POOLE, Theatre, Gloucester.

WANTED, to Sell, Portable Engine and Dynamo, also quantity of Arc Lamps, Incandescent Fittings, Cable, &c., in good condition; Engine by Green, late Wadbrooks and Hippo., Porth. Cheap for cash. Apply, C. W. POOLE, Theatre Royal, Gloucester.

WANTED, to Sell, Cheap, Six American Weight-guessers; or would exchange for something New to England. Box 2,680, "The Era."

WANTED, to Sell, Hot-air Engine, 100s.; Switch-back Skittle Board, 60s.; Table Electric Battery, 60s.; Lifter (slot action), 80s.; Puncher (slot action), 80s.; Three Section Striker, 31ft., 60s.; Football Joint, 4 figures, 60s.; Double Set Ball Boxes, 80s. STACEY, Settles-st., London, E.

WANTED, to Sell, Waxwork (40 figures), Complete Show, with Scenery, Drapery, Cloths, &c., genuine lot. Would divide. STACEY, Settles-street, London, E.

WANTED, to Sell, Piano Organ, good tone, good condition, 80s.; Hot-air Engine for same, 100s. MASON, 17, Settles-st., London, E.

WANTED, to Sell, or a Partner to look after Excellent Side-show, continually running with Trade Exhibition. A. B., Drill Hall, Spalding.

WANTED, to Sell, Carved and Gilded Double Wagon, Front opens out to 44ft. (Road), in good condition, cash price £150, a bargain. Wanted, to Buy, 18ft. or 20ft. Road Living Carriage; must be good, and cheap for cash. Address, ANDERTON'S Grand Empire, Regent-st., Swindon.

WANTED, several Beast Waggons.
State dimensions, condition, lowest price.
Box 2,663, "The Era."

WANTED, for Old-established Touring Trades Exhibition (free admission), large distorting mirrors, purchase, or sharing terms. Full particulars to BUCKHURST, Haslemere, Lansdowne-place, Upper Norwood, London.

SHOWMEN'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

WANTED, to Sell, one Set of Roundabouts, the Largest Travelling, 52ft. in diameter, engine by Savage, King's Lynn, 14 sections, 48 horses and birds, 6 double-seated cars, overhead motion, twisted brass rods and pillars, 5 wagons, working up to Jan. 6; also another Set, smaller, engine by Savage, overhead motion, 56 horses and birds, complete with trucks.
The above, belonging to the Trust Estate of John White, Amusement Caterer.
Offers to, and particulars from,
EDWARD COWAN,
Solicitor, 4, High-street, Dundee; or,
WM. LAWSON CLARK,
Accountant, Whitehall Chambers, Dundee.

WANTED, for Clark's Cinématograph, Flat Iron, Salford, a Portable Engine Driver, one that understands the Electric Plant and has travelled with a show preferred.

WANTED, Known, the Seventy Thousand Showmen who use the Columns of "The Era" and are moving about should know that they can make "The Era" Offices their Permanent London Address. Letters received will be held till called for, or immediately re-addressed, according to instructions. Address all communications re specting the Letter Department to the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

WANTED, Showmen who experience difficulty in obtaining copies of "The Era" at any of Messrs. Smith and Son's Bookstalls to kindly communicate with the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

WANTED TO SELL.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

GLOUCESTER.
WANTED, Known, Messrs. Bruton, Knowles, and Co., are instructed by the Executors of the late Mr. Wildman, to Sell by Auction, at the Bell Hotel (instead of at the New Inn Hotel, as previously announced, the room being engaged), Gloucester, on Friday, Feb. 9, 1906, at 3, for 4 o'clock, the following Freehold Properties:—The Valuable Piece of Building Land, situate at the junction of Barton-street with Park-road, close to the Barton-street Gates, with an area of about 1,945 square yards; the Dwelling House, known as No. 45, Park End-road, late in the occupation of the deceased; the Dwelling House and Garden, known as No. 10, Brunswick-square, in the occupation of Mr. Packer, with Cottage in the rear; and 2 Excellent Shops and Dwelling Houses, known as Nos. 178 and 180, Barton-street, in the respective occupations of Mr. Pearce and Mr. Griffiths; and also 100 Shares in the Gloucester Football and Athletic Ground Co., Ltd. Further particulars may be had of Mr. FRANK TREASURE, Solicitor; or, of the Auctioneers, Gloucester.

Northampton.
To Capitalists, Financiers, Music Hall Proprietors, and others.
WANTED, Known, Advertiser has Finest Site in Northampton for a First-class Music Hall, and would be prepared to take up shares in same. Principals and solicitors only communicate, in first instance, Box 2,382, "The Era."

WANTED, to Dispose of the Lease of First-class Dramtic Theatre in No. 1 Town, now in Full Tide of Success. Exceptional opportunity to Capitalist. Apply, Box 2,678, "The Era."

WANTED, to Sell, or Let on Hire, good-class Films, low hire rates. THE MICROGRAPH CO., LTD., 7, Great Queen-street, London, W.C.

WANTED, to Sell, 20,000ft. of Films, majority good as new; must be cleared, from 1d. per foot. POOLE, Theatre, Gloucester.

WANTED, to Sell, Films, including Trip to Moon, Curse of Drink, and many others, cheap. TRAVERS, 91, Totterdown-st., Tooting, S.W.

To Theatrical Proprietors and Managers.
WANTED, to Sell, "Babes in the Wood." The whole of this magnificent production to be disposed of at the end of run, and which can be seen at the Theatre Royal, Sheffield, ending Feb. 3. The production includes magnificent scenery, dresses, important properties, and electrical effects, including plant of printing, book, &c. The whole to be disposed of at a fair offer. Produced at the Grand Theatre, Islington, with great success last year.
Letters to
G. D., 76, Finsbury-pavement, London, E.C.

WANTED, to Sell, the Entire Productions of "SLEEPING BEAUTY," "DICK WHITTINGTON," and "ALADDIN."
All in First-class Order, and can be seen working in First-class Towns and Theatres.
For particulars, address, J. F. ELLISTON,
Managing-Director, Theatre Royal, Bolton.

WANTED, to Sell, Certain Provincial Rights of the most Successful Drama ever Toured. Has now had Two Years' Rest, and will go Big when next Toured. Short Cast, Star Lady's part. A Splendid Plant of Printing by Staffords and Allens. First-class Tour can be booked if required. Apply in first instance to E. CARTER LIVESEY, 10, King-street, Covent Garden, London.

WANTED, to Sell, Pantomime of "The Forty Thieves," the Record Plymouth Pantomime. The whole production, including 40 splendid suits of armour, for sale, at the close of the run, cheap. Can be seen up to Jan. 27. Apply, WILLIAMS, Theatre Royal, Plymouth.

WANTED, to Sell, the Black Midget Shetland Pony. He is only 29in. high, and a perfect beauty. Price £8, carriage paid. G. STEPHEN, Braehead, Ferryhill, Aberdeen.

WANTED, to Sell, or Exchange for Monkeys, &c., 1 Hyena, also 3 splendid tame Wolves, on collar and chain. Address, PURCHASE'S Menagerie, Drill Hall, Portsmouth.

WANTED, to Sell, Beautiful Dresses, and other superior second-hand clothing. Catalogue free. DUPONT, 68, Grand-parade, Harringay, London, N.

WANTED, to Sell, Magnificent Flesh-coloured Pearl Sequin Evening Dress, from Paris, cost 40 guineas, equal to new. Can be seen at 22, New Kent-road, any day, after 1 o'clock.

WANTED, to Sell, Woven Animal Dresses, Paddings, Tights, Opera Hose, in all Materials. Lowest Prices. H. J. BOXALL, 166, Waterloo-road, London, S.E.

WANTED, to Sell, Full Set, Amber Palace, suitable for Opera. Stock, or Pantomime. On view any time at Lester's, side of St. Giles's Church, London, W.C. 3067 Gerrard. Cloths 30 by 24, Profile, &c.

WANTED, to Sell, Cheap, 2 Running Globes, 1 Heavy for Tumbling. Also Full Apparatus for Bounding Wire. Apply, 193, Brixton-hill, London.

WANTED, to Sell, Felt Mattress, and Carpet, in new condition. For particulars, address, ACROBAT, Commercial Inn, Middleton, Hartlepool, County Durham.

WANTED, to Sell, Several Sets of Beautiful Scenery, nearly new. Apply, H. MASTERMAN, Scenic Studio, Castleford.

WANTED, to Sell, Brougham, Fashionable, Very Light, splendid order, latest improvements, 20gs. Imperial Stores, Elephant-road, New Kent-road, S.E.

WANTED, to Sell, Set Duck Boxes, Trap Table Top, pair Plated Flag Staffs. Lot 32s.
VILLIERS, 13, Portsdown-road, London, W.

WANTED, to Sell, Happy Home, Cheap, Six Furnished Rooms. Going to America. Dunedin Troupe, 35, Walcot-square (off Kennington-road), London, S.E.

WANTED, to Sell, Large Hamper, by White Bros., in good condition, and cheap. Apply, 17, Walcot-square, E.C.

WANTED, to Sell, Trick Musical Instruments, every description; everything powerful and musical. LISLE, 5, Cuthill-road, Camberwell, sole British manufacturer

WANTED, to Sell, Secondhand Green 90ft. Circus Tent, in extra good condition; also new white, 80ft., to be sold CHEAP, to clear. Note address, ARTHUR SAUNDERS, Circus Tent Maker, Wisbech.

WANTED TO SELL.

WANTED, Known, Comedy or Musical, to be Sold by Auction, Jan. 31, 1906, or Privately, Novel Tableaux. On view at LEWIS DAVIS and SON, 18, Greek-street, Soho, W.

WANTED, to Sell, Illusions, first-class, suitable for Stage and Side Shows. May be seen by appointment. Address, EXECUTRIX, 133, Moss-lane East, Manchester.

WANTED, to Sell, a Complete Set of the "Theatre Magazine," Aug., 1878, Dec., 1897, bound, in 39 volumes, with all original photographs.
R. KARROL, Weybridge.

WANTED, to Sell, Cheap, Quantity of Military Band Journals, complete, Boosey's and Chappell's. Apply, BANDMASTER, 112, Osborne-road, Brighton.

WANTED, to Sell or Hire, Song Scenas, Duologues, Sketches, by Author of "Musical Mistake," "Broken Honeymoon," "Member for Muddlesex," "Lady and Parson." Address, Box 2,685, "The Era."

WANTED, Sellers to Note the Following Testimony of Business done through the "Wanted" columns of "The Era."
To the Publisher of "The Era,"
SIR,—
On Aug. 19 I advertised Conjuring Tricks and Illusions. I am pleased to inform you that I received sixty enquiries, and that I have already sold many conjuring tricks, and one expensive illusion, besides several secrets, to customers I have never previously corresponded with. I enclose another advertisement. If you care to publish this testimonial, you are welcome to do so.
Yours sincerely, WALTER HALL,
3, Ernest-avenue, Leeds.

WANTED TO BUY.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, to Buy, Bioscope Mechanism, Lantern, and Travelling Case. TRAVERS, 91, Totterdown-street, Tooting, S.W.

WANTED, Japanese Rickshaws, New or Second-hand. Apply,
CLAUDE LOW, Cockburn-street, Edinburgh.

WANTED, to Buy, 10 Baskets, for Wardrobe; must be at least 36 by 24. Letters only, FRANK FENTON, 47, Lupus-street, S.W.

WANTED, to Buy, Sleigh-bells, Hand-bells, also any Kind of Musical Instruments, good and cheap. Particulars to Professor DAY, Aston, Birmingham.

WANTED, Conjuring Apparatus, Stage Illusions, Cabinets &c; also Liliputian fit-up. Exchange Carriages. LESTER, Aylesbury.

WANTED, Performing Dogs, Cats, Monkeys, Rabbits, Birds; all must be perfect and young. Full particulars, lowest offer for cash, Box 2,664, "The Era."

WANTED, to Buy, Good Drop, Wood, Corridor, Kitchen and Drawing-room Cloths, not exceeding 20ft. by 12ft.; also Wings and Proscenium, in good condition, and cheap for cash. Full particulars, BRUCE, West End, Leslie, Fife

WANTED, to Buy, Good Light Comedy Sketch, three people.
CARLTON, Irving Theatre, Seacombe.

WANTED TO LET OR HIRE.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, to Let, for the Summer Season, the Marina Theatre, Ramsgate, situate on the sea front, opposite the Promenade Pier; seating capacity 1,000; licensed for music and dancing and stage plays. Moderate terms. Apply, C. G. MUSGRAVE, Mosborough, Lemna-road, Leytonstone.

WANTED, to Let, the New Theatre Royal, Blyth, Northumberland. Blyth is one of the largest seaports in England and is distant about 14 miles from Newcastle-on-Tyne. The mining and shipping population of the town and surrounding district is estimated at nearly 100,000. The Theatre is one of the most beautiful and commodious in the Provinces, and has a seating capacity of 2,000.
Apply, R. T. GUTHRIE, 3, Bridge-st., Blyth.

WANTED, to Let, Small Theatre, in Principal Winter and Summer Resort, for Four Months or Longer. Reasonable rent or sharing terms to responsible party. Write, Box 2,668, "The Era."

WANTED, to Let, Victoria Rooms, Cheltenham, seat 1,000, Vacant March 5, two weeks, April 1, onwards. Minstrel Troupe write in. Share or Rental. Silence polite negative.

WANTED to Let (Rental), Bycullah Athenæum, Enfield. Any kind of Entertainment. Scenery. Address, MANAGER, as above.

WANTED, Known, Scenery Storage Warehouse, in Murphy-street, Lambeth, close to Westminster Bridge-road, to be Let or Sold; entrance for vans. Apply, BROWN, 33, Graces-rd., Camberwell.

WANTED, Known, Rehearsal Room to Let, Daily, from 10 till 10. Apply, 253, Waterloo-road, London, S.E. (near the Surrey Theatre).

WANTED, to Let, Agent's Office, with Piano, and Telephone. "Duke of Argyll," Great Windmill-street, Shaftesbury-avenue.

WANTED, Known, Refined Play to Let, played over 500 nights, London Theatres, also Comic Sketch. Apply, 253, Waterloo-road, London, S.E.

WANTED, to Let, Powerful Dramatic Sketch, for 2 m., 2 f. (1 non-speaking), well-drawn characters. Box 2,675, "The Era."

WANTED, to Let, New and Original 4-Act Play, splendid parts, stock, MSS, sketches, &c. MANAGER, 195, Edward-road, Walthamstow.

PARTNERS WANTED.

WANTED, Known, Advertiser would like to join another already Established in Theatre or Music Hall, Lancs. or Yorks., small town preferred, can invest £100 to £1,000. Only letters with fullest particulars attended to.
Box 2,672, "The Era."

WANTED, Lady Partner, Violinist, and Vocalist, or Pianist and Vocalist, to join Gentleman Entertainer, Permanent; good Amateur write; Places Small. Photo., age, &c., to G. MOWBRAY, care of Post Office, Hawick, Scotland.

WANTED, Young Woman, as Partner, with small Capital, in Side Show, for Conjuring and Illusions, at Fairs and Seaside; experience unnecessary. Address, F. FILLIS, 90, Titchfield-street, Liverpool.

WANTED, Partner, by Young Man, a good all-round Gymnast, for Comedy, amateur preferred. Full particulars. Address Box 2,660, "The Era."

WANTED, Known, Violinist would like to meet Harpist, for playing London Squares. Select. Letters, J. G., c/o Marialle, 306, Fulham-road, S.W.

WANTED, Partner or Manager, with some capital, to undertake the management of Reynolds' Plant, for the production of the well-known Water Carnival or Spectacle in Hippodromes, Circuses, &c. 43, Alexandra-rd., Bedford.

WANTED, by Comedian, Lady Partner, for Comedy Act, refinement, good voice, experienced. State age, photo., &c. Residing in or near Liverpool preferred. Address, ERIC, 37, Bengel-street, Liverpool.

WANTED, a good Ring Performer, as Partner, for Comedy Act, able to Patter Good. No amateurs. Address, TOM LEA, Palace, Halifax.

WANTED, Partner, for Good Act, Smart Dancer, and Good Singer essential.
Address, Box 2,676, "The Era."

WANTED, Partner, Comedian, for Double Act, by Well-known Music Hall Performer.
Full particulars, Box 2,679, "The Era" Office.

WANTED, Lady Gymnast, to Join a Well-known Performer, everything ready. Add., with photo., &c., ALBERT SMITH, c/o Post Office, Sutton-in-Ashfield.

PARTNERS WANTED.

WANTED, Partner, Low Comedian, must be funny, for sketch business, or would join a good sketch company. Add., HUGO GERARD, Bijou Empire, Hull.

WANTED, Partner, to play Straight Part, Musical Comedy Act, to Sing and Play Instruments; must understand the business. W., 41, Fairfax-road, Bedford Park, W.

WANTED, Eccentric Comedian and Pantomimist, Musical, as Partner, for Novel Act. Full particulars to ROSE, 8, South-st., Stratford, E.

MISCELLANEOUS.

TWENTY WORDS, ONE SHILLING.
Each Additional Six Words, Sixpence.

WANTED, Known, that Hamley's are now Selling the Great Air Ball Trick. Four Large Air-balls are Produced from an Empty Opera-hat. Price, complete, 10s., post free 10s. 3d. The Genuine Method, as Sold by Us to all the Leading Conjurers, Spring Flowers, 2s. 11d. per 100, post free. Finest Hat Coils, 6 Colours, 3s. 6d. doz. Catalogue (nearly 100 illustrations), 6d., post free. Grand Magical Saloons, 231, High Holborn, W.C., and 35, New Oxford-street, W.C.

THE AMERICAN SHOW PRINTERS' AGENCY,
12, Cecil-court, Charing Cross-road, W.C.
WANTED, Managers requiring Novel and Attractive Posters and Lithographs, to give us a call before ordering elsewhere. The above agency, representing the principal show printing houses of the United States, has the largest variety of stock printing in this country. An enormous selection of printing always on hand, for circuses, menageries, cinématographs, and variety combinations. Add., A. DE FRECE, Manager.

WANTED, Known, for Artistic and Cheap Lithos., write to EDWARD HARRISON, Litho. Studio, 125, Broomspring-lane, Sheffield.

WANTED, Known, F. G. Wright, Gymnastic Apparatus Maker, Electrical Engineer, and Theatrical Blacksmith. 66, Kennington-road, S.E.

WANTED, Known, C. Kinch, Gymnastic Apparatus Maker (15 years with Wright).
17, St. Mary-square, Kennington-road, S.E.

WANTED, Known, for Ventriloquial and Marionette Figures, and Specialities, LE MARE and SON, Coupland-st., Oxford-rd. Manchester

WANTED, Known, all kinds of Performing Animals are taken at livery at the Charing Cross Livery and Bait Stables, 22, Bedfordbury, W.C. (100yds. above Coliseum Stage Door), at very low rates. Best attention and punctuality guaranteed. Apply, R. REFFELL, Manager.

WANTED, Variety Artists requiring specially-written songs, good words, pretty music, only high-class commissions accepted. Address, WILLIAMS-THEAKSTONE, 12, Dinsmore-road, Balham.

WANTED, Leading Ladies Going on Tour, to Visit Mrs. Caleb Porter's Show Rooms, 175, Brompton-road, S.W., where the latest style in Day and Evening Gowns, Blouses, &c., from the Best London and Paris Houses may be obtained at less than a quarter their Original Price.
Renovations and Dressmaking done on the Premises Economically and by Skilled Hands.
Stage Requirements a Special Study.

WANTED, Typewriting, Beautiful Work, half usual prices. Plays and Actors' Parts Speciality. ALLEN, 33, Evelyn-rd., Richmond, Surrey.

WANTED, Known, Worsted Tights, 7s.; Cotton, 5s.; Full Paddings, 12s. 6d.; Monkey Skins, 25s.; to measure. C. ANDREWS, 23, Betterton-street, Drury-lane, W.C.

WANTED, Artists to Note that I write High-class Sketches (Musical or Otherwise), also Songs, Scenas, Duets, &c., on Moderate Terms, Consistent with Good Work.
CLIFFORD GRAHAM, 8, Campden House-rd., Kensington (High-street Station). 'Phone, 2260 Western.

WANTED, Known, Band Parts, 3s. 6d.; Melodies, 5s.; Transposing, Arranging, Band Books, 4s. 6d. ten; Duplicating, 3s. 6d. hundred. COTTLE, 86, Coldharbour-lane, London.

WANTED, Known, Excelsior Bioscopes give Rock Steady Pictures. Mechanism, lantern, base, lenses, spools, rewind, £16. Grand value. THOMASSIN, Engineer, Streatham.

WANTED, Experienced, Reliable Man, well-up in modelling cleaning, and retouching valuable wax figures and works of art. Address, PANOPTICUM, The Palace, Blackpool.

WANTED, to Know, if Happy Ashby, Proprietor Merry Gitanos Co., will communicate with agent,
Mr. SAM SPINEY,
2, Barracks-place,
High-street, Hull.

WANTED, Known, Jimmy De Voye thanks George Weldon, Esq., for comfortable week and promise of return (at increase) through Billy's success. Also thanks and compliments his orchestra, the best for the number he has ever worked to.

WANTED, Adolphus Wells to Know his Father is in Hospital. Communicate at once to 31, Tressillian-terrace, Cardiff.

WANTED, Known, Charles H. Bell has moved out of Fred Karno's Co., and has moved in Herbert Darnley's Co.

WANTED, Known, will the married couple who performed with the Pierrots in June last at Port Soderick please communicate with M., 6, Cherry-street, Birmingham.

VISIT ALL YOUR FRIENDS BY POST.
Our PORTRAIT POST CARDS will do it most effectively.
They are genuine Photographs of the best quality, and at the lowest possible price to the Profession.
THE Hana STUDIOS, LTD.
22, Bedford-street, Strand, W.C.
MODERN AMERICAN STYLES IN THEATRICAL PHOTOGRAPHY.
Professional Price List Free on Request.

THE HIPPODROME, BLACKPOOL.

TO BE DISPOSED OF,
By Private Treaty, with Early Possession, the Building now used as a MUSIC HALL OR PALACE OF VARIETIES, known as

THE HIPPODROME, situate at CHURCH-STREET, BLACKPOOL.

The following Licences are held in connection with the property: (1) A Dramatic Licence; (2) a Magisterial Licence for the season for public dancing, singing, and music; and (3) a Licence for the sale of all intoxicating liquors, but limited to the periods when the premises are open for the purposes of entertainment.

The land is freehold, free from ground rent. The area is 20,095ft., or thereabouts. The buildings were specially erected as a place of public entertainment, are situate in the heart of Blackpool, about 5 minutes' walk of the two Railway Stations and the Promenade, and will accommodate from 4,000 to 5,000 persons.

Cards to view may be had, and plans showing the exterior as well as the internal arrangements of the Buildings may be seen upon application to Mr. Duignan, the Manager, Hippodrome, Blackpool, or at the Offices of Messrs. Procter and Son, Solicitors, Burnley, and Messrs. Rawlinson and Hargreaves, Chartered Accountants, 12, Exchange-street, Manchester, and 7, Grimshaw-street, Burnley. For further detailed particulars, and to treat, application must be made to Mr. F. A. Hargreaves, at either of the addresses of his firm of Rawlinson and Hargreaves, as given above.

FOR SALE.
POOLE'S THEATRES,
TO CLOSE A PARTNERSHIP.

The wages in the South Wales Coal Trade is now settled for four years, and trade is booming.

FORTH OPERA HOUSE.
Large Stone Building, splendidly situated. Doing good business. Shops bring in over £6 weekly. Large population, increasing as fast as houses can be built. Growing in value weekly. Eighty-six years' lease.

TREHERBERT OPERA HOUSE.
Large Stone Structure, close to railway station. Shops bring in £33 yearly. Large stores under worth £20 yearly; easily let. Large growing population. New pits sunk; coal found, expected to start shortly. Lease 73 years.

MAESTEG TOWN HALL THEATRE.
Only one in district. New entrances nearly finished. Five years' lease at moderate rentals. Scenery, stage fittings, seating, &c., Population nearly doubled lately. New pits sunk, grand coal found; starting shortly.

PONTYPOOL THEATRE ROYAL.
Messrs. Poole's fittings, stage proscenium, scenery, grand piano, &c. Long or short lease on moderate rental to approved tenant. Very large district population.

GLOUCESTER, THEATRE ROYAL AND KING'S THEATRES
Can also be Purchased to Form a Circuit. Full Licence to Both Theatres. All the above in first-class order, inside and outside, and fitted with grand Stock of Scenery, Properties, Hot-water heating; and can be had together or separately. Principals only dealt with.
Applications to
C. W. POOLE,
THEATRE ROYAL,
GLOUCESTER.

THE COMPTON COMEDY CO.
WILL ALL OLD MEMBERS of This Company, who see this Advertisement, kindly Communicate at once with the Business-Manager, Mr. H. B. FITZGIBBON, T. R., Huddersfield?

ACTRESS of Recognised Position would Invest Small Capital in Comedy or Drama, on Spring Tour, with Suitable Rôle for herself. All communications treated with absolute confidence. Address, Box 2,684, "The Era."

FAIRS, SHOWS, WAKES.

70,000 SHOWMEN
OF THE
UNITED KINGDOM
REQUIRED TO SEND FOR THE SHOWMEN'S YEAR BOOK
For 1905.
Edited by the Rev. T. HORNE.
Entirely Re-arranged, Corrected, and Enlarged. 100 Pages.
PRICE - - ONE SHILLING.

PRINCIPAL CONTENTS.
British Shows and Showmen.
Constitution and Rules of the "Showmen's Guild."
Lists of Fairs. Local Feasts and Wakes.
Synopsis of Bye Laws, &c., &c.

INVALUABLE TO ALL WHO FOLLOW THE FAIR

SOLD AT "THE ERA" BUILDINGS, 5, TAVISTOCK-STREET, LONDON, W.C.

"THE ERA" IN SOUTH AFRICA.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS AND SUBSCRIBERS.

. THE .
CENTRAL NEWS AGENCY, LTD.

SINGLE COPIES ON SALE.
SUBSCRIPTIONS RECEIVED.
ADVERTISEMENTS ACCEPTED.

Apply or Address,
The CENTRAL NEWS AGENCY, Ltd.,
Cape Town, Johannesburg, Pretoria, Durban
Bloemfontein, &c., &c.

HOTEL PROPRIETORS.
To Hotel Proprietors who regularly file "The Era," HANDSOME ILLUMINATED METAL TABLETS
of
"THE ERA"
will be supplied gratis on application to the PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

"THE LAZARUS"
LATEST PATENT

AUTOMATIC TIP-UP SEATS
GREAT SUCCESS.
APPROVED BY THE LONDON COUNTY COUNCIL.

15 per cent. more Seating Accommodation Gained with these Seats.

Supplied to KING'S THEATRE, GLASGOW,
THE LONDON COLISEUM,
THE MANCHESTER HIPPODROME,
&c., &c.
The Patent Fittings can be supplied to most Tip-up Seats in use.
Prices upon application.

A leading Managing-Director writes:—"That your new Automatic Seats are giving every satisfaction, both in the working and the advantage gained in space by their automatic action, and the comfort and convenience ensured thereby."

Catalogue, "Examples of Theatre Seating," Post-free.

H. LAZARUS & SON,
UP-TO-DATE THEATRICAL UPHOLSTERERS,
21, GREAT EASTERN STREET, LONDON, E.C
Telegraphic Address, "Malleable, London."
Telephone, Nine-one-five-three London Wall.

LIVE STOCK NOVELTIES.
JOHN D. HAMLYN,
221, St. George's-street, London Docks,
Telephone 6341 Avenue,
Telegrams, "Hamlyn, London Docks," has returned from South Africa.
The following collected inside two months:
69 Penguins,
all sold, except five on hand;
30 Chacma Baboons,
all sold excepting seven on hand;
10 Antelopes,
Springbuck, Duiker, and Bushbuck;
4 Ordinary Monkeys;
2 Aard Wolves;
the first arrival twenty years, sold;
4 Cape Sea Lions,
thirteen collected, one now for sale;
8 Cranes, sold;
70 Rock Rabbits;
1,000 Various Tortoises;
750 Various Birds;
192 Smooth-clawed Frogs, sold;
11 Water Turtles, sold;
70 Various Snakes, sold;
4 Meercats, 1 Eagle, 5 Owls, 1 Thicknee, 4 Herons, 6 Geese, 2 Teal, 2 Touracous, 7 Beesuckers;
350 pairs Various Horns;
30 Skins and Skeletons;
2 Tunnys, frozen;
20 Various Sharks, frozen;
2 Enormous Skate, frozen;
An Entire Collection of African Cape Fish, numbering 147 in all;
such a Collection never made before.
During Sunday and Monday
Stock amounting to £945 10s. 6d.
was sold, constituting a record sale.
Future arrangements.
I am returning to South Africa shortly for Animals already bought:
9 White-tailed Gnus;
4 Koodoos;
4 Bonte Bôks;
these were detained on account of weather.
I have also made arrangements for 4 Young Giraffes;
4 Eland Antelopes;
4 Roan Antelopes;
4 Sable Antelopes.
Price and particulars on application.
To satisfy the curious, I wish to state that this last collection was made without any outside financial assistance whatever. It may surprise you, but nevertheless it is so.
The usual stock of Small Animals and Birds on hand, which can be seen any time.
Wanted, Wanted, to know the whereabouts
of William Kaye's
(Buff Bill)
Lion Show,
lately travelling up North.
All communications confidential.
JOHN D. HAMLYN,
221, St. George's-street, London Docks.

FIVE HUNDRED REPLIES

IN ANSWER
to
ONE ADVERTISEMENT in the
WANTED COLUMN
of
"THE ERA."

Mr. ALBERT HENGLER,
writing from the
HIPPODROME, GLASGOW, says:—
"MY ADVERTISEMENT
IN THE LAST ISSUE
OF YOUR PAPER
BROUGHT ME CLOSE
ON 500 REPLIES."

AN EXCELLENT RESULT.

Particulars of
THE PUBLISHER,
"THE ERA" BUILDINGS,
5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.
(Two Doors off Wellington-street).

NOW READY.

Of all BOOKSELLERS and BOOKSTALLS.

1906.

THIRTY-NINTH YEAR OF PUBLICATION

1906.

THE ERA ANNUAL

Is the Most Complete . .

Dramatic Dictionary of Dates and Theatrical Treasury of Knowledge

Ever Brought Before the Public.

It is the Most Interesting Annual of the Year, containing as it does MANY STORIES told by MEMBERS of the DRAMATIC and MUSICAL PROFESSIONS.

Illustrated by Photographs . . . and Autographs.

Price,

ONE SHILLING.

By Post, Twelve Stamps.

Address, THE PUBLISHER,

TAVISTOCK ST., STRAND,

LONDON, W.C.

Telephone: No. FOUR—SEVEN—FOUR—SEVEN CENTRAL.

INDISPENSABLE!

RAYNE'S
POCKET DATE BOOK.

JUST PUBLISHED. Price ONE SHILLING

Five Shillings' worth of information for One Shilling Purchasers of this work will not only be making a good investment, but will be also adding to the funds of two deserving charities. The above work, got up in a convenient size for the waistcoat pocket, should be in the possession of every actor, every music hall artist, and every entertainer, in fact.

CONTENTS:
All About Artists' Luggage.
List of Clubs.
Information about Stamping Contracts.
Foreign Money Table.
London Music Halls and Theatres.
Their Telephone Numbers.
List of Brougham Proprietors.
List and Address of Photographers.
Size of Theatrical Printing Paper.
Names and Addresses of Theatrical
Railway Managers, &c., &c

RAYNE'S
POCKET DATE BOOK.

THE BOOK WILL BE SOLD AT ONE SHILLING, Post Free.

The proceeds from the sale will be divided equally amongst the two great charities of the Dramatic and Musical Professions,

THE ACTORS' BENEVOLENT FUND
. . AND . .
THE MUSIC HALL BENEVOLENT FUND

Mr. Arthur Bourchier, Garrick Theatre, writes: "I thank you for the little book, which I am sure will be very useful."
Mr. George Scott (Manager), Alhambra, W.C., writes: "Many thanks for the little book to hand, which will prove of valuable assistance to me."
Mr. Seymour Hicks, Aldwych Theatre, writes: "I thank you for the Telephone Book, which I find most useful."

Send 12 Stamps to the Publisher,
"THE ERA" BUILDINGS,
5, TAVISTOCK STREET, W.C.
'Phone: Four-seven-four-seven Central.
Telegraphic Address: "The Era," London.

SPENCER BROTHERS, Ltd.,
AERONAUTS
TO THE CRYSTAL PALACE AND PRINCIPAL FETES AND GALAS.

Airship Flights, Balloon Ascents, Captive Balloons, Balloon Races, Parachute Descent (from Gas Balloons or Hot Air Balloons), Lady and Gentlemen Parachutists, Displays of Small Balloons and Figures.
Terms upon Application.
45B, Aberdeen Park, Highbury, N.
Telegrams: Aeronaut, London. Phone, 1893 Dalston.

CHILDREN ON THE STAGE.

THE GIST OF
THE NEW ACT
AFFECTING THE EMPLOYMENT OF CHILDREN ON THE STAGE APPEARED IN
"THE ERA" dated OCT. 8, 1904.

The Act came into force on SATURDAY, OCT. 1, 1904.

MANAGERS,
AGENTS,
ENTREPRENEURS,
AND PERFORMERS
WISHING TO POSSESS A COPY of the
COMPLETE ACT
— IN A CONCISE FORM — can do so by forwarding
THREE STAMPS
THE PUBLISHER,
"THE ERA" OFFICES,
5, TAVISTOCK STREET, STRAND, W.C.

Telegraphic address: "THE ERA, LONDON."
Phone: FOUR-SEVEN-FOUR-SEVEN, CENTRAL.

THE PATHÉ CINEMATOGRAPH

CO., LTD.,

14, 16, 18, Lamb's Conduit St., High Holborn,

Telegrams—"PATHE, LONDON." Telephone—2298 CENTRAL.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Although we sell our Films at a fixed price per subject, and not by length, we would point out to our customers that our subjects measure or are longer than the lengths stated. Measure them for yourselves, and you will find this to be the case.

MACHINE FOR MEASURING FILMS £3 3s.

EVERY FILM published by us may be publicly exhibited by anyone, at any time, and anywhere.

Our Films are the steadiest on the screen and the finest photographic quality in the world.

COMPARE THEM FOR YOURSELVES.

RECEPTION of PRINCE OF WALES at LAHORE.

A very fine film of the Indian Tour, showing the Camel Corps. The State Elephants. Excellent picture of the Prince and Princess of Wales. About 200ft.
The Subject, £5 0s. 0d.

A TRAGEDY IN A TRAIN.

The train robber. Chloroforming the victim. Stealing the jewellery. Lady becomes conscious. Struggle in the carriage. Lady thrown on to the railway line, is discovered by workmen. Telegraphing along the line. The Police in waiting. Arrival of train, and arrest of robber. Identified. Convicted. About 355ft.
The Subject, £8 17s. 6d.

BEWARE! MY HUSBAND COMES.

The lady's lover. A series of alarms. Troubles of the lover. Strange hiding places. Very amusing pictures, showing the gentleman's adventures and final escape. About 410ft.
The Subject, £10 5s. 0d.

THE NIHILISTS.

The secret printing office. The raid. Before the Governor. Sentenced. Departure for Siberia. The bitter parting. The march. The halting place. Nadia's death. The Nihilists' laboratory. Making bombs. The Governor's reception. Nihilists entering the Palace. Throwing the bomb. Revenge. The Palace ruins. About 565 feet.
The Subject, £14 2s. 6d.

THE WOLF TRAP.

A trap set for a wolf catches the owner of the property by the leg. He sends his son for assistance; but the boy, meeting various playmates on the way, indulges in several games, and arrives home without a thought for his father. A gamekeeper eventually releases the master, who reaches his house just as his son, with the other children, is riding on a supposed racing motor car. The rousing he receives will keep his memory alive for a long time. About 285ft.
The Subject, £7 2s. 6d.

THE DESERTER.

The Cafe Chantant. The Dancers. An officer's infatuation causes him to become a thief and deserter. Flight, and discovery in the dancer's house. Publicly degraded. Father's visit to the prison. Affecting scenes. Suicide with revolver left by his parent. About 545ft.
The Subject, £13 10s. 0d.

THE CHILD STEALERS.

Stolen from a luxurious home, a lad suffers terrible privations. Stealing and begging. Sleeping in the fields. Search by father. Accidental discovery. Mother's joy at his recovery. Capture and imprisonment of gang. About 525ft.
The Subject, £13 2s. 6d.

20% DISCOUNT TO ALL CUSTOMERS OFF LIST PRICES.

Remember—Our Pictures are absolutely steady.

NEW FILMS

A COMIC DUEL.

A Humorous Absurdity.
Length, 270ft. Price, £8 15s. 0d.
Code Word, "Duel."

No. 53.

PORTRAITS FOR NOTHING.

Good Knockabout Comedy.
Length, 150ft. Price, £3 15s. 0d.
Code Word, "Portrait."

Telephone: No. 11,414 Central.

Write for Particulars to

CRICKS & SHARP,
7 G. Queen St. Kingsway, W.C.
Telegrams, Picturesque London.

Another Arrival from India.

THE PRINCE AND PRINCESS OF WALES AT GWALIOR.

A most interesting picture, and of fine photographic quality, which fully equals that celebrated subject taken by me, THE INDIAN DELHI DURBAR, showing the arrival of the PRINCE AND PRINCESS OF WALES IN STATE AT GWALIOR on their visit to the Maharajah of Scindia. The procession is in the following order: The Camel Corps followed by elephants with their gorgeous trappings, the Maharajah's celebrated Band and the Mounted Lancers. The concluding portion of the film shows His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales sitting beside the Maharajah on a houdah fixed on a huge Indian Elephant. Code word "GWALIOR." Length 160ft. Price £4.

AN INDIAN ANIMAL TOURNAMENT.

Bull v. Bull. Ram v. Ram.
As witnessed by H.R.R. PRINCE OF WALES.
Code Word, "Bulls." Length, 100ft. Price, £2 10s.

POLITICAL FAVOURITES.

The following Picture is designed to find favour with audiences of any shade of politics. It consists of a series of large cartoons, rapidly drawn, in view of the audience, the name of each leader appearing above his portrait. Included are
Mr. Campbell-Bannerman, Mr. Balfour, Lord Rosebery, The Duke of Devonshire, and the Right Hon. Mr. Joseph Chamberlain.
Code Word, "Fiscal." Length, 140ft. Price, £3 10s.

ROBERT W. PAUL,

ANIMATOGRAPH DEPOT,
68, HIGH HOLBORN, LONDON, W.C.
Telegrams: "Calibrate, London."
Telephone: 4614 Holborn.

ELGE FILMS

IN THE WEST END HALLS.

FOUR OF THE FINEST—making a SPLENDID PROGRAMME at the PALACE THEATRE, Shaftesbury Avenue, London:—

1. THE GREAT JEWEL ROBBERY.
A cleverly conceived plot—brilliantly executed—acted with wonderful intelligence—natural scenery—the result is a splendid success.
Code: "USINE." Catalogue No. 381. Length 540 feet. Price £13 10 0

2. A CANADIAN MOOSE HUNT.
A millionaire's sporting trip—the ride through the Far West—at Jim Rider's camp—shooting the first Moose—refreshment—shooting from the Crow's Nest—a thrilling adventure—the final Moose.
Code: "ULLMANNITE." Catalogue No. 371. Length 520 feet. Price £13 0 0

3. WHEN FATHER GOT A HOLIDAY.
The Funniest of Funny Films. Father takes his wife and numerous family out for a ride—wondrous adventures—sidesplitting situations.
Code: "UNMIRY." Catalogue No. 130 Clarendon. Length 335 feet. Price £8 7 6

4. A CRUISER IN A SOU' WESTER.
A picture which has thrilled and delighted millions—and has been exhibited in every part of the world.
Code: "STORMY." Catalogue No. 1677. Length 165 feet. Price £4 2 6

At the EMPIRE, Leicester Square, W.C., where it sends the audience into convulsions every evening—also being exhibited at several of the Moss and Stoll Halls:

GRANDPA AND THE BUTTERFLY.
Children—and adults—will find this better than the best pantomime.
Catalogue No. 317. Length 375 feet. Price £9 7 6

At the COLISEUM:—

THE FALSE ALARM; or, THE MASHER'S DUCKING.
Catalogue No. 319. Length 200 feet. Price £5 0 0

THEY WILL HAVE THE BEST IN THE WEST.

Here are some more:—

THE MOROCCO QUESTION—IMPORTANT TOPICAL FILM.

THE FRANCO-GERMAN CONFERENCE AT ALGECIRAS.
A Film of great interest at the present time, showing the town at which delegates are meeting for this important Conference, and the hotel at which they will discuss the burning questions which have come so near to causing serious friction between the two great Powers. .. .. 170 feet. £4 10s.

"NOVEL IN A NUTSHELL" SERIES.

No. 372. THE BLIND MAN'S CHILD.
A pathetic story of a most appealing nature. .. .. 560 feet. £14.

SENSATIONAL.

No. 373. THE FIRE-FIEND.
Full of excitement, hairbreadth escapes, and thrilling rescues. The incendiary's death after a fearful struggle with his pursuers .. .. .. 490 feet. £12 5s

THE VERY LATEST.

No. 380. THE MAN WHO DREAMT HE WAS A MILLIONAIRE
and how he enjoyed himself in the Land of Nod. A rude awakening.
490 feet. £12 5s.

Come to Gaumont when you want GOOD GOODS.

ALWAYS NOVELTIES at Gaumont's. ALWAYS ORIGINALITY at Gaumont's.

SOLE AGENTS FOR CLARENDON PRODUCTIONS.

L. Gaumont & Co.

THE CINEMATOGRAPH SPECIALISTS,

22 to 27, CECIL COURT, LONDON, W.C.

AND AT PARIS AND BARCELONA,

Telephone, 2430 Gerrard. Telegrams, "Objecisti, London."

NEW LABORATORIES—15B, JAMES STREET, LONDON, W.

LATEST URBAN FILM PRODUCTIONS.

SOLE PROPRIETORS and MANUFACTURERS of the celebrated

URBAN BIOSCOPE

PROJECTORS, CAMERAS, & ACCESSORIES.

Telegrams: "BIOSCOPE, LONDON."
Telephone: 3118 CENTRAL.

1775. Grand Entry of T.R.H. Prince and Princess of Wales into Gwalior.
A picturesque procession, rivalling the marvellous Delhi Durbar spectacle in grandeur. Excellent photographic quality. Total length, 250ft. £6 5s.

1774. Review of the Indian Army at Gwalior, Dec. 21st, 1905. Length, 175ft.

1773. General Views of Gwalior and Taj Mahal. Length, 225ft.

1772. Presentation of Ivory Casket to the Prince of Wales at Delhi. Length, 150ft.

1771. Scenes of Principal Palaces and Streets of Delhi. Length, 175ft.

1770. Sights in New Zealand.
A Series of remarkable pictures specially taken by Mr. T. J. WEST, to obtain which he has had every facility afforded him by the New Zealand Government and the Tourist and Health Departments of that Colony. ORDER OF PICTURES:
1—The Wonderful Steaming Hills of Rotomahana.
2—Maoris Cooking in Whakarewarewa Hot Springs.
3—Maoris Washing in the same.
4—Interesting Ceremonies at a Wedding, Ohinemutu.
5—Poi Dances, by Maori Wahines and Children.
6—A Maori War Dance or Haka by the Ohinemutu Tribe at Rotorua.
7—Canoe Hurdle Races by men and women on Lake Rotorua, also Natives racing in their War Canoes.
8—The New Zealand Axemen at Wood-Chopping Contest.
9—Marvellous Log-Cutting Competition.
10—Single-handed Saw Log Cutting.
11—Double Saw Log-Cutting Contest.
12—Children Racing Down the Cathedral Steps.
13—A Remarkable Driving Feat. Mr. F. N. Jones, of Nelson, New Zealand, driving a horse and gig up the Cathedral Steps.
14—Arrival of Thousands of Sheep and Lambs at the Works by Road.
15—Unloading Sheep from Train at the Railway Station Siding of Works.
16—Flocks of Sheep being Driven to the Abattoir.
A highly interesting and instructive Series, of splendid photographic quality.
Total length, 525ft. Price £13 2s. 6d.

1769. Publishing the World's News.
A marvellous series of pictures, showing every phase of making-up and printing a large London Newspaper. ORDER OF PICTURES:
1—Editor and Sub-Editors at Work, while clerks receive the Election returns and other news from scores of telegraphic instruments, tape machines, telephones, &c.
2—Linotyping the Copy from Editor.
3—Preparing the Forme from which the matrix is made.
4—Making the Matrix previous to casting plates from same for the Press.
5—Casting and Trimming the Plate.
6—Lively Scene in Press Rooms while printing the Edition.
7—Transporting Papers from Press Room to Office.
8—Supplying Newsboys over Office Counter.
9—The Cycle and Cart Delivery Corps leaving the Newspaper Building.
10—Arrival of Cart and Distribution amongst Newsboys.
Splendid photographic quality, although the majority of the views were secured by artificial lighting.
Total length, 250ft. Price £6 5s.

1768. ENGLISH PHEASANT SHOOTING. 200ft.

THE CHARLES URBAN TRADING CO., Ltd., 48, Rupert St., LONDON, W.

TO AMUSE AND ENTERTAIN IS GOOD TO DO BOTH AND INSTRUCT IS BETTER

URBANORA

WE PUT THE WORLD BEFORE YOU

THE MOST PERFECT, UP-TO-DATE, EXCLUSIVE MOTION PICTURE EXHIBITION IN THE WORLD.

SOLE REPRESENTATIVES

WIELAND AGENCY, 35, Whitcomb Street, Leicester Square, London, W.C.

Telephone: 6788 Gerrard.
Telegrams: "Wielders, London."

Hepwix

Here We Are Again!

Hepwix

WE HAVE BEEN OUT OF "THE ERA" FOR ABOUT A YEAR, BECAUSE THERE IS NO SENSE IN ADVERTISING WHEN YOU HAVE MORE ORDERS THAN YOU CAN COPE WITH. . .

OUR NEW FACTORIES (covering several miles of the left bank of the Thames) are now complete, and we can dry 509 Miles of Film in 10 Hours!!

WE DON'T EXPECT YOU TO BELIEVE THIS. IT ISN'T TRUE, BUT ONE EXCUSE IS AS GOOD AS ANOTHER.

THE FOLLOWING ARE JUST A FEW OF THE FILMS WE HAVE BROUGHT OUT IN THE MEANTIME:

878. RESCUED BY ROVER.

An altogether charming subject, absolutely new in conception and realisation. While in charge of a nurse, whose attention is distracted by a soldier sweetheart, a child is stolen by a gipsy woman. The baby is traced by the faithful dog Rover to the gipsy's dirty den, the animal, all alone, twice swimming a river before soliciting, in doggy fashion, the aid of the child's father in recovering the stolen baby, and again swims the river when guiding the distracted parent to the gipsy's abode. Rescue of the child by the fond father, accompanied by Rover.

Length 425ft. Price £10 12s. 6d.

773. RIVAL SPORTSMEN.

Depicts lordly Teuton and enthusiastic Frenchman in pursuance of sport. Country yokel appears, and, noticing smallness of the foreigners' "bag," slily stuffs rabbit skin with straw and secretly displays it for the "sportsmen's" edification. Grand stalk of supposed game, and amusing finale.

Length 150ft. Price £3 2s. 6d.

788. BABY'S TOILET.

Splendid photographic study of facial expression during process of "tubbing," drying, and powdering infant. Squally atmosphere pacified by arrival of feeding bottle. Very diverting as well as being instructive.

Length 200ft. Price £5 0s. 0d.

792. FALSELY ACCUSED.

Very powerful and dramatic film in fourteen scenes, telling vividly and lucidly the story of a clerk wrongly accused of stealing bank-notes. The story of the theft. The wrong man accused. The arrest. Work in the quarries. Escape of the victim, who, on telling his own true version of the theft, finds sanctuary at the vicarage. The man hunt. Scene changes to follow doings of the real thief, who is apprehended, with the stolen notes in his possession, in a gambling hell. Justice at last.

Length 850ft. Price £21 5s. 0d.

838. THE RELUCTANT BRIDEGROOM.

Lady of commanding presence extracts by threats promise of marriage from bashful swain. Scene in church. Departure of the newly-married couple, and home life of this ill-assorted pair.

Length 225ft. Price £5 12s. 6d.

842. THE INQUISITIVE BOOTS.

This film opens with a view of a corridor, and consists of a number of short scenes in the various bedrooms, of which the "Boots," who peeps through the key-holes, is an interesting spectator.

Length 300ft. Price £7 10s. 0d.

831. REHEARSING A PLAY.

Amateur actor and actress discovered by a prying neighbour rehearsing a Murder Scene, who promptly summons the police. Dismay and summary ejection of constable, who learns that it is merely a dress rehearsal.

Length 150ft. Price £3 15s. 0d.

858. THE ANNUAL TRIP OF THE MOTHERS' MEETING

Vicissitudes of a curate in charge of "Mothers' Meeting." Excursion to Southend. Donkey rides, paddling, bathing. Return by train, which collapses, with disastrous results.

Length 300ft. Price £7 10s. 0d.

864. CHILDREN V. EARTHQUAKES EARTHQUAKES PREFERRED.

Amusingly gives the astounding adventures of three children sent home from India on account of an earthquake scare, including airing the chickens, sliding down roofs, releasing the pigs. End up their mad escapades by tumbling through a slate roof into a water-butt.

Length 425ft. Price £10 12s. 6d.

890. PREHISTORIC PEEPS.

THE PROFESSOR'S DREAM.

One of the most elaborate productions ever staged, giving with marvellous precision the impressions of a dreaming Professor, who has been overcome by sleep while engaged in scientific research in a cave. From the floor of the cave a monstrous dinosaur arises and chases the scientist into the camp of some prehistoric Britons, whose attitude is the reverse of cordial. Having slain the dinosaur, the Professor is chased in turn by a diplodocus, an ichthyosaurus, and other huge monsters, eventually finding his way back to the cave, where, surrounded by menacing forms, he is reduced to a state of rigid terror.

Length 375ft. Price £9 7s. 6d.

897. DEATH OF NELSON.

This picture is intended to be shown during the singing of the celebrated song, and it is so timed in the taking that each scene corresponds, both in action and duration, with a verse of the song. Depicts the "Victory" in action with the French, when Nelson receives his death-wound. Most elaborate film, and correct in every detail.

Length 275ft. Price £6 17s. 6d.

908. WHAT THE CURATE REALLY DID.

The exaggerated tale of a curate's doings bring him into disgrace with the bishop. The supposed miscreant is able to prove that the wickedness he is accused of is pure fabrication, and is so restored to favour.

Length 250ft. Price £6 5s. 0d.

810. A TERRIBLE FLIRT.

Shows the amusing doings of a young lady with several strings to her bow. Discomfiture of the swains. Elopement.

Length 225ft. Price £4 13s. 9d.

923. THE ALIEN'S INVASION.

First of a series of Political Pictures, presenting in graphic and convincing form political questions of the hour. Scene shows arrival of steamer crowded with aliens at London Docks, and the ousting of the British workman by these competitors. A most vivid and descriptive film.

Length 450ft. Price £11 5s. 0d.

937. THE BABES IN THE WOOD.

This pretty picture follows closely on the lines of the well-known story, based on the beautiful pictures by Caldicott, and gives a startlingly realistic display of the covetous longing of the uncle for the money left the children by their dead parents. He bribes two ruffians to murder the babes, and these men carry them screaming through some of the most beautiful woodland scenery possible to imagine, where they are eventually left to perish.

Length 700ft. Price £17 10s. 0d.

872. TWO SENTIMENTAL TOMMIES.

Interesting Military Story, very grotesque and amusing.

Length 300ft. Price £7 10s. 0d.

826. A BATTLE OF CAULIFLOWERS.

Motor Car tries to pass vegetable wagon with amusing results.

Length 100ft. Price £2 1s. 8d.

823. THE DUEL.

Comical interlude between Frenchmen. Ends in discomfiture of a Waiter.

Length 175ft. Price £3 12s. 11d.

951. THE VILLAIN'S WOOING.

Powerful Melodrama in 12 exciting scenes. Very realistic.

Length 750ft. Price £18 15s. 0d.

721. A RACE FOR A KISS.

Depicts Race between Motor and Horse in which the Horse wins. Triumphant finale,

Length 225ft. Price £4 13s. 9d.

918. "LODGINGS TO LET."

Amusing incidents in Life of Lodgers.

Length 250ft. Price £5 4s. 2d.

THE VERY LATEST.

971. THE VOTER'S GUIDE.

A burlesque review of the political cries of the day. "Tariff Reform," "Free Food," "Protection," "Free Trade," "The Working Man's Friend," "Back to the Land," "Home Rule," shown in various amusing forms.

Length 325ft. Price £8 2s. 6d.

932. THE INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE.

Political cartoon, showing clearly and forcibly the disadvantages which old-fashioned John Bull has to submit to in trying to trade with America, Germany, Russia, and France.

Length 275ft. Price £5 14s. 7d.

977. THE TRAMP'S DREAM.

"Weary Willie," being reluctantly admitted to the workhouse, goes to bed and dreams of many marvels worked for his benefit by a fairy, during which time he enjoys all possible luxuries, only to wake up to be dragged off by one of the officials to the bath-room, where he goes through the process of having the dirt of ages removed.

Length 450ft. Price £11 5s. 0d.

THE HEPWORTH MANUFACTURING COMPANY, LIMITED,

Hepwix

17, Cecil Court, Charing Cross Road, London, W.C.

Telephone: 2451 Gerrard. Telegrams: "Heptoio, London."

Hepwix

MOSS' EMPIRES, Ltd. & STOLL COMPANIES

(Moss Thornton & Stoll Theatres, Amalgamated.) WORKING IN CONJUNCTION. (Including the London Coliseum, Ltd.)

Capital £2,086,000.

CO-OPERATIVE OFFICES: CRANBOURN MANSIONS, CRANBOURN STREET, LONDON, W.C.

Managing Director: OSWALD STOLL. INTERVIEWS BY APPOINTMENT ONLY. Assisting Director and Chief of Staff: FRANK ALLEN.

Telephone: 1399 Gerrard. Wires: "Twigsome, London."

CALLS FOR MONDAY, JANUARY 22, 1906.

THE LONDON HIPPODROME.

"Among the Stars," Bioscope, Cormorants, Miss Kellerman, Alice Lorette, Novellos, Delbosq Brothers, Cole De Losse Duo, Lukishima Troupe, Aurora Troupe, Urma Sisters, Mezzettis, the Rinaldos, Tschernoff's Dogs, Hardinis, Lavater Lee, Leonard Gautier, Possiutis, Genaro and Theol.

EMPIRE PALACE, EDINBURGH.
Rehearsal at 1.30 for
Carl Hermann, Billy Hobbs, Hans Hansen Trio, W. B. Vox, Florrie Gallimore, Lydia and Albino, The Finneys, Three Amaranths, Princess Pauline, Coloured Meisters, Neilson Sisters, Bostonians, Bros. Leslie.

EMPIRE THEATRE, GLASGOW.
Rehearsal at 12 for
The Grigolatis, Bioscope, Vi and Ethel Esdaile, Edie King, Sarnthalers, Frank Seeley, Griffin and Judge, De Breans, Jan Rudenyi, Poole and Poole.

ZOO AND HIPPODROME, GLASGOW.
Rehearsal at 12 for American Comedy Four, Bioscope, Nellie Coleman, Dome, Ruth Molloy, Andy Griffin, Four Ramlos, Northern Troupe, Celeste, Lempriere Pringle and Co.

COLISEUM, GLASGOW.
Rehearsal at 12 for
Sawade's Animals, Bioscope, Edie Veno, Lily Lenora, Serenaders, Four Herberts, The Tupps, Two St. Johns, Little Barney.

EMPIRE, NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE.
Rehearsal at 2 for Woodward's Seals, Cora Caselli, The Korries, Geoffreys and Benson, Les Ados, Three Sisters Slater, Fanny Robina, W. H. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Lucas, Mabel Hind.

PALACE THEATRE, HULL.
Rehearsal at 2 for
Florence St. John and Co., Marie Duma, Will Haines, Three Missouris, Bert Woodward, Brooks, Dale, and Bliiz, Seeley and West, Amber Austa, Mezetti and Mora, O'Gust, Bioscope.

EMPIRE PALACE, LEEDS.
Rehearsal at 2 for
Selma Braatz, Stevens and Rennior, Gittis, Irving Jones, Fitzroys, Ella Retford, Sinclair and Parr, Lora, Frank Harwood, Three Merrils.

EMPIRE THEATRE, BRADFORD.
Rehearsal at 2 for
Bella and Bijou, Ruth Doris, Sam Redfern, Brontes, Warren Doyle, Dan Conroy, Mullini Sisters, Bioscope, Bijou Russell, Herbert Lloyd.

EMPIRE PALACE, SHEFFIELD.
Rehearsal at 2 for
Empire Comedy Four, Lidden and Hayward, A Bo Kou, Gallando, Royal Six, Lux's Dogs, Frazer and Mac, W. H. Clemart, Griff and Alpha, Mendel.

EMPIRE PALACE, BIRMINGHAM.
Rehearsal at 2 for
Paul Spadoni, Bioscope, Rose Archer, Lilieth Leyton and Co., The Uessems, Wood and Bates, Katie Butler, Walter Munroe, Harry Carsdale, Gallagher and Hild.

BORDESLEY PALACE, BIRMINGHAM.
Rehearsal at 1 for
Sam Elton, Bioscope, Margaret Ashton, Bros. Andreassen, Payne's Vagabonds, Chas. Cardow, Driscoll and Beattie, Glenroys.

EMPIRE PALACE, LIVERPOOL.
Rehearsal at 2 for
Karno's "Moses and Son," Bioscope, Tom Edwards, Marzella's Birds, Bicknelle, Holles and Goldman, Three Victorias, F. Darwin, Gertrude Bradshaw.

OLYMPIA, LIVERPOOL.
Rehearsal at 2 for
The Gems, Bioscope, "100 to 1 Chance," Jimson's Animals, Leo Stormont, Tony and Flo Vernon, Whallen and West, Alexandre and Bertie, Vasco, De Fontenoy.

EMPIRE, HACKNEY.
Rehearsal at 1 for
The Kellinos, Duncan's Dogs, Esdale Bros., Cape Girls, The Swickards, Kyoto, May Geraldine, The Sleedes, A. C. Lilly and Co.

EMPIRE, HOLLOWAY.
Rehearsal at 1 for
Laurie's Kindergarten, Mariano Sisters, Terry and Lambert, Harry Brown, Forrest Combination, Dumond Minstrels, Chung Ling Soo, Bioscope, The O'Learys.

EMPIRE, NEW CROSS.
Rehearsal at 1 for
Kronau's Sketch, Alice Simmons, Marlo and Dunham Trio, Sisters Aindow, The Silvas, Terry and Bentley, Five Julians, Sable Fern, Mills and Counsell, Bioscope.

EMPIRE, STRATFORD.
Rehearsal at 1 for
Vesta Tilley, The Bohemians, Sisters Bellatzer, Fyne and Hurley, The Findens, Drawee, W. H. Downs, The Mannons, Amann and Hartley, Stewart and Morgan.

EMPIRE, SHEPHERD'S BUSH.
Rehearsal at 1 for
Ella's Lions, Selbinis, Alf. Gibson, J. Alexandre and Co. Herr Grais, Five Olracs, Harding and Ah Sid, Mdlle. Olive, Lilian Lowe, Dion Wade, Bioscope.

EMPIRE, CARDIFF.
Rehearsal at 3 for
Tarro Myaki, Verno and Voyce, The Picquays, Leona Dare, Ryan and Hall, Albertus and Bartram, Wally Hoste Trio, Sisters Gasch, Sybil St. Elmo.

PHILHARMONIC HALL, ST. MARY STREET, CARDIFF.
Cinématograph Exhibition, Curio Halls, Roller Skating, Phonograph, Waxworks, Galatea, Magic Maze, Shooting Ranges.

EMPIRE, SWANSEA.
Rehearsal at 3 for
Madrali, Ike Scott and Son, Trapnell Family, The Howards, Alexandra Dagmar, Viviana, H. La Martine, The Ushers, Hayes and Suits.

EMPIRE, NEWPORT.
Rehearsal at 3 for
Geo. Gray and Co., Fred Poplar, Kitty Wager, Prof. Dunning, Kahn and Kahn, Duncan and Godfrey, Moulier Sisters, Harry Drew, Sadie Simpson.

EMPIRE, NOTTINGHAM.
Rehearsal at 3 for
Tom Costello, F. V. St. Clair, Two Bostons, Sisters Geretti, Phil Hermann, Morton and Elliott, Mdlle. Chalon, Powell's Marionettes, Derenda and Green, Mattie Wilks.

PALACE, LEICESTER.
Rehearsal at 2.30 for
Morris Cronin, Francis Wylie, Bandurrias, Newhouse and Ward, Huxter Bros., Bertha Vere, Grace Merton, Bell and Henry, Baker and Lynn, Bioscope.

ARDWICK EMPIRE, MANCHESTER.
Rehearsal at 2 for
The Harmony Four, Robt. Ganthony, Bioscope, Orla's Dogs, Dot Hardy, McPhee and Hill, Rackett and Hazard, Brown and Robinson, Terley, Spessardy's Bears.

HIPPODROME, MANCHESTER.
Rehearsal at 2 for
Chirgwin, Bioscope, Illustrated Song, Arthur Lloyd Trio, George Ridgwell, Five Delevines, Kelly and Ashby, Bros. Hayes, Hart and Leo, Majilton's Co.

THE LONDON COLISEUM.

Programme for 3 o'clock and 9 o'clock Performances:—
Mrs. Brown Potter, "The Charioteers," Miss Mabel Love, "Fenella," "In Dreamland," "Aladdin," Eugene Stratton, La Berat, Stelling and Revell.
Programme for 6 o'clock Performance:—
"Arabian Nightmare," Ten Genis, Wolkowsky Troupe, Frank Maura, Mason and Bart, Adele De Frece, Andre Kaya, Clarissa Talbot, "Cup of Tea," "Charioteers," Bioscope, "Madame Angot.

THE FOLLOWING ARE BOOKED IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE ABOVE:

EMPIRE THEATRE, DUBLIN.
Rehearsal at 1 for
Josephine Sabel, Daisy Ray, Smythson Comedy Co., Elsie Clare, G. W. Hunter, Pictures, Park's Eton Boys, Lizzie Fletcher, Arthur Lennard.

EMPIRE THEATRE, BELFAST.
Rehearsal at 1 for
Karno's "Jail Birds," Chas. Adams, Mueller and Coyne, Ethel Ra-Leslie, Corty Bros., Pictures, Helen Martin, Baker and Balfe, Sisters Chester.

EMPIRE PALACE, SOUTH SHIELDS.
Rehearsal at 2 for
Riogoku Family, F. H. Dundas, Horace White, Bertha Winder, Collins and Rice, Pictures, Rhoda Bros., Fred Elton, Conway and Leland.

RICHMOND THEATRE, RICHMOND.
Proprietor, Mr. GEORGE DANCE.
Rehearsal at 2 for
Marzello and Millay, Florence and Lillian, Tom Dunmore, Rose Newport, Muir and Bartlett, Alberto, Pictures, W. P. Dempsey, Mdlle. Sylvia's Vocal Tableaux.

HER MAJESTY'S THEATRE, WALSALL
Rehearsal at 1 for
Ella Shields, Burnettis, Dave McNeill, Paxton Trio, Bioscope, Automatos, Harry Leybourne, Ed. E. Forde, Prince Kokin.

THE GRANVILLE, WALHAM GREEN
Rehearsal at 2 for
Harry Ford, Johnny Dwyer, Whit Cunliffe, Syd Godfrey, Chas. Johnson, Fred Frampton, Woolmer Young, Clown Charlton, Sisters Desmond, Ethel Dunford, Ethel Yorke, British Quartette, Groves Duo, Blake and Granby, "Our Curate," Stanley and Greenop, Bioscope, Evie Hamilton, Millie Payne.

THE PALACE, CAMBERWELL.
Rehearsal at 3 for
Harry Ford, Billy Farrell, Tom E. Hughes, Jock Whiteford, Elsie Clare, Childie Stewart, Tiny Arnold, Nellie Wilson, "Early Birds," Meier and Mora, Brighton Boys, Forrest and King, Allen and Hart, Rex Fox, Goggin and Davis, Bioscope.

INSTRUCTIONS TO ARTISTS.

Artists must have Band Parts for at least Twelve different Instruments for the Orchestras (Fifteen for the London Coliseum). Matter for Bill, Blocks, and Specimens of Pictorials FOR ALL THE ABOVE THEATRES must be sent to CO-OPERATIVE OFFICES, at above address, THREE WEEKS before Opening, or at least TWO WEEKS, failing which Artists will run the risk of having their Engagements Cancelled.

IMPORTANT.—Artists must forward Copies of Songs to the STAGE DEPARTMENT, ABOVE ADDRESS, TWO WEEKS previous to Opening, with Assignments for same, which will be returned. Artists are requested to note carefully that the clause in their contracts relating to rehearsals will in future be strictly enforced.

ARTISTS WILL CLEARLY UNDERSTAND THAT THEIR BUSINESS MUST BE FREE FROM ALL VULGARITY.

N.B.—Silence in every case a polite negative. Artists are requested not to enclose stamped envelope. Letters marked "Private" will be delayed.
elephone, 1399 Gerrard. Wires, "Twigsome, London."

The Greatest Aggregation of Variety Theatres in the World.

THE "WALTURDAW" BIOSCOPE NO. 1.

THE ACME OF PERFECTION IN PROJECTING BIOSCOPES.

Best that Brains can devise; Best that skill can construct; Best that money can buy.

The whole thing is turned out as accurately as a watch and as true as a gun.

PRICE, COMPLETE, £25

All parts easily accessible. Interchangeable Gate Spring Plate. Automatic Shutter Absolutely Fireproof. Heat Radiating Shield keeps Film Gate cool. Noiseless Action ROCK STEADY. Moving Gate and Moving Light. Rewinds 2000ft. Film. Best Lenses any Focus required. Pair 12in. Spools, and Iron Bound Travelling Case. Top and Bottom Arms fold up for Packing.

WRITE FOR ANNUAL LIST OF BARGAINS IN SHOP-SOILED APPARATUS.

The "Walturdaw" Co., Ltd., 3, Dean St., Holborn, London, W.C.

TO SHOWMEN ENTREPRENEURS, AND CINEMATOGRAPH SHOW EXPLOITERS.

A CINEMATOGRAPH SHOW.

THE

"CRUISE OF THE OPHIR."

ONE THOUSAND POUNDS

FOR

TWENTY-FIVE SHILLINGS.

TO THE PUBLISHER, "THE ERA."

Sir,—

It may possibly interest you to learn that a Quarter-Column Advertisement in "The Era" (One Insertion) resulted in over £1,800 Bookings for an Entertainment with which I was connected some little time ago. The Entertainment was entitled

"THE CRUISE OF THE OPHIR,"

Cinematograph Show, and the Bookings were effected within a week.

Yours faithfully,
H. GOLDSMITH-WHITTON,
Late Manager, West's "Our Navy," &c.
London, May 19, 1904.

IN case of the non delivery of "THE ERA" by the First Post, the Publisher will be greatly obliged if Advertisers will forward their Postal Wrappers, with the time of delivery marked upon them.

THE "OLD GUARDS BAND."

It having become known that attempts are being made to trade on my advertisements and use the above title, which is the popular name given by the Press and public to Dallimore's Band, the "Ex British Guards," so well known in London and the provinces, Directors and Managers are courteously asked not to countenance any such imitation or imposition. The above-named band is the only genuine Ex British Guards Band which has ever been organised, held, or conducted, or which has performed in or emanated from Great Britain.

NOTICE IS THEREFORE GIVEN that any person trading on the above title or its reputation, or found publishing any bills, programmes, or other notices which may be deemed an infringement, may be courting legal proceedings without further notice.

A. HOLMES-DALLIMORE.
Ex British Guards Band.
Popularly known as "The Old Guards."

THE

"IN MEMORIAM"

ISSUE OF

THE ERA

OCT. 21, 1905,
contains the most complete Biography of the Late
SIR HENRY IRVING
ever published;
also an appreciation of the Great Actor by T. P. O'CONNOR, ESQ., M.P.

This Issue contains a Reproduction of the Best Photograph
ever taken of the Late Sir Henry Irving.

Copies can be obtained by forwarding SIX STAMPS to THE PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, London, W.C.

FRANCIS, DAY, AND HUNTER.

The Music Market of the World.

PANTOMIME SONGS FOR SECOND EDITIONS
If you are not already using the following, send for them AT ONCE.

"MOLLY, I LOVE YOU."
Enormous Hit at the Theatre Royal, Manchester.

"RIDING ON TOP OF THE CAR."
The Rage of Birmingham, Bristol, and Manchester.

"SWEET LITTLE CARABOO."
The Big Hit in Robert Arthur, Esq.'s, Pantomimes.

"COME DOWN FROM THE BIG FIG TREE."
Great Success at Edinburgh and Birmingham.

"IN THE SHADE OF THE OLD APPLE TREE."
This is a great success in many Pantomimes, notably at Princess's Theatre, Glasgow.

"HOW'D YOU LIKE TO SPOON WITH ME?"
The Best Principal Girl Comedy Song of the year.

"IN BARCELONA."
A Furore at the Court Theatre, Liverpool.

"BACK, BACK, BACK, TO BALTIMORE."
AND
"PUT A LITTLE BIT AWAY FOR A RAINY DAY."
The Big Successes at the King's Theatre, Hammersmith

"MY IRISH MOLLY O," "I WOULDN'T LEAVE MY LITTLE WOODEN HUT FOR YOU," "RAINBOW," and "HEAR THE PIPERS CALLING JENNY MINE."
"THE" PANTOMIME SUCCESSES of the YEAR

FRANCIS, DAY, & HUNTER,
Publishers of the World's most Popular Songs,
142, CHARING CROSS ROAD, LONDON, W.C.
Telephone: 5125 Gerrard.
Telegraphic Address: "Arpeggio, London."

Telephone, 6695 Gerrard.
Telegrams, "Ruffoscope, London."

RUFFELL'S PICTURES
Ruffell's Imperial Bioscope Syndicate are in Position to Offer Proprietors and Managers Exclusive Pictures—a Great Advantage where you have Opposition to Fight. What's the use of a Picture Show possessing no novelty? Try our system; we can give you something to Bill, and you can rest assured that it is impossible for the opposite hall to sneak in the same film during the week. Our Enterprise has come to stay. For Terms,
Ruffell's Imperial Bioscope Syndicate,
12, Little Newport-street, W.C. (opposite the Hippodrome).
Complete Weekly Changes. Terms Moderate.
Secondhand Films for Sale.
Also a Fine Selection for Hire. Note New Address,

For Terms and Particulars, Apply
RUFFELL'S Syndicate, as above.

Telephone, 385 Brixton.
Telegrams, "Biophosco, London."

PAYNE'S BIO-PHOTOSCOPES.
Exhibits of the Latest Up-to-date Animated Pictures. This is not a Cheap Show, but a High-class Turn. Never mind what others say, Try them, and then give me a try. That is proof. No Exhibit too Large to cater for.
Secondhand Films for Sale or Hire.
PAYNE, 346, Brixton-road.

BOROUGH OF RAMSGATE.

ROYAL VICTORIA PAVILION

The Town Council invite applications for a Lease of the following part of the above premises, for three years, at a rent of £800 a year, payable quarterly in advance:—

The Great Hall (130ft. by 65ft.), with stage, dressing-rooms, &c., well adapted for theatrical, musical, or variety entertainments; licensed for music and dancing, &c. Together with the upper promenade (revenue from charges of admission), and inside lavatories.

Rates will be paid by the Corporation.

The successful applicant will be required to find a surety to be approved by the council.

Applications must be enclosed in a sealed envelope, marked, "Hire of Pavilion," addressed to the Chairman, General Purposes Committee, Albion House, Ramsgate, and delivered on or before WEDNESDAY, Feb. 14, 1906.

Plan and further particulars may be obtained from the undersigned.

The council do not bind themselves to accept any application.

E. C. BYRNE,
Town Clerk.

Albion House, Ramsgate,
Jan. 13, 1906

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

ARTISTS (AND THEIR AGENTS) HOLDING OR SEEKING ENGAGEMENTS AT

THE OXFORD,
OXFORD-STREET, W.
Rehearsals on Monday, at 12.30 o'clock.
Joe Elvin and Co., Alec Hurley and Co., Vesta Victoria, Will Evans, Harry Ford, Athas and Collins, Stave, T. E. Finglas, Alice Hollander, Herbert Shelley, Amy Clevere, Collins and Hart, Ian Colquhoun, The Three Laurels, Bernar's Fantoches.
Manager, ALBERT GILMER.

THE TIVOLI,
STRAND, W.C.
Rehearsals on Monday at 12 o'clock.
Marie Lloyd, Little Tich, Arthur Roberts and Company, Clark and Hamilton, Mildred De Grey, James Fawn, Dolly Harmer, Gus Elen, Will Evans, Collins and Hart, Vesta Victoria, Tray and Rich, Burke, Moller, and Teller.
Manager, JOSEPH WILSON.

THE CANTERBURY,
WESTMINSTER-BRIDGE-ROAD, S.E.
Rehearsals on Monday at 11.0 o'clock
Joe Elvin, "'Appy 'Ampstead," The Jackley Trio, Ruffell's Imperial Bioscope, Jordan and Harvey, Lee and Kingston, Boyd and Gilfain, Walter Wallis, Mark Melford and Co., in "Only a Wedding," Dolly Harmer, May Walters, Collins and Hart, Howard and Collinson, Johnny Dwyer, Will Evans.
Manager, FRED MILLER.

PARAGON,
MILE-END-ROAD, E.
Artists are particularly requested to attend Band Rehearsals, Monday, 3.0 o'clock.
Marie Lloyd, Brown and Nevarro, Cruikshank, The Folkestones, Pat Rafferty, Alice Hollander, Fielding and Hull, Prinz's Lions, Ruffell's Bioscope, Whit Cunliffe, Vesta Victoria, Burt Shephard, Charles Penrose, Arthur Roberts and Company in "Where's the Count?"
Manager, CHARLES BERCHAM.

SOUTH LONDON PALACE,
LONDON-ROAD, S.E.
Two Performances Nightly.
Rehearsals on Monday, at 12.0 o'clock.
Lockhart's Elephants, Frank Sylvo, Henry A. Moore, Arthur Reece, Amy Sullivan, Maudie Ford, Black and White Zouaves, Great Scot, Ford and Hanson, Ruffell's Bioscope.
Manager, FRANK WEEKS.

EUSTON,
EUSTON ROAD, N.W.
Two Performances Nightly.
Rehearsals on Monday, at 12.0 o'clock.
Lew Lake and Co., "The Bloomsbury Burglars," Geo. Newburn, Geo. Powers' Combination, Violet Carlyle, Clark and Hamilton, Wynne Darrell, Athas and Collins, Salvino, Walter Wallis.
Manager, FRED M'AVOY.

THE EMPRESS,
BRIXTON ROAD, S.W.
Rehearsals on Monday, at 1.0 o'clock.
Special Engagement of the Great and Only Marie Lloyd, Great Scott, Walker and May, Oakley and James, Dutch Daly, Massano, Rita, and Roma, Burke, Moller, and Teller, Dora Martini, The Allisons, V. L. Granville, Harry Maynard, Ruffell's Pictures, Sisters Kingsley, V.C. Sketch Co.
Secretary and Manager, NELSON FRANCIS.

GRAND PALACE,
CLAPHAM.
Two Houses Nightly.
Rehearsals on Monday at 2.0 o'clock.
"A Trip to the Isle of Man," Walter Stanley, A. B. Houghton, Millie Howell, Los Rupertos, Grove and Chalmers, J. W. Rickaby, Silent Tait, W. L. Murray, Imperial Bioscope.
Manager, H. KEITHMAN.

ISLINGTON EMPIRE,
UPPER-STREET, ISLINGTON, N.
Two Performances Nightly.
Matinées, Mondays, at 2.30.
Rehearsals on Mondays, at 1.30.
Leonard Mortimer and Co., Alec Kennedy, Gladys Archbutt, Lee and Kingston, Will Van Allen. The Avrignys, Harry Lynn and Co., Edgar Romaine, Imperial Bioscope, The Mackweys.
Manager, R. L. ADKIN.

DUCHESS PALACE,
HIGH ROAD, BALHAM.
Two Performances Nightly, 6.45 and 9.18.
Rehearsals on Mondays at 1.30.
Telephone, 58 Balham.
Herbert Darnley and Co., James Fawn, Herbert Clifton, Gilbert Girard, Tiny Reiff, Jordan and Harvey, The Mozondos, Four Australian Meister Singers, Imperial Bioscope, Astley's Circus.
Manager, G. L. WILSON.

WALTHAMSTOW PALACE,
WALTHAMSTOW.
Two Performances Nightly, at 6.30 and 9.
Band Rehearsal, which all Artists must attend, Mondays, at 3 o'clock.
Sidney Bacon's Co. in "The Maniac," Selkirk's Juveniles, Pat Rafferty, Cline and Clark, Charles Mildare, Farley, Rennie, and Farley, Charles Norton, Fraser and Haley, Ruffell's Imperial Bioscope.
Telephone, 40, Walthamstow.
Manager, ARTHUR J. BARCLAY.

EMPIRE PALACE, EALING.
THE BROADWAY, EALING,
One Minute G.W. and District Station.
Two Performances Nightly, 6.45 and 9 p.m.
Rehearsal on Mondays, at 12 o'clock.
Little Tich, Percival, Arabella Allen, Dandy George and Dog, Clown Barker, Herald Comedy Four, Arden and Abel.
Telephone, 1056 Ealing. Manager, E. W. JAMES.

Are particularly requested to read their Contracts carefully, especially the Clause as to barring, which will be strictly enforced. Any Alteration thereof can only be effected by Special Agreement, in writing, with the Managing-Director. For Engagements at the Royal, Holborn; Duchess Palace, Balham; Islington Empire, and Grand, Clapham, address, Mr WALTER GIBBONS, 1, Durham House-street, W.C. Telephone, 6,825 Gerrard. For Engagements at the other Halls, address, Mr. G. ADNEY PAYNE, Managing-Director, Oxford, Limited, 1, Durham House-street, W.C. Office Hours 10.0 to 4.0. Telephone No. 2,035, Gerrard.

THE METROPOLITAN,
EDGWARE-ROAD, W.
Rehearsals on Monday, at 1.0 o'clock.
John Lawson and Co., in "A Bride for a Living," Gus Elen, Datas, My Fancy, Lieut. Travis, James Stewart, Elsa Joel, Henry Troy, Maynard Dakin, Chas. Vincent, Fred Herbert, Ruffell's Bioscope, Mayvilles, Lilian Elfrida, Chas. Pastor, Sisters Wingrove.
Manager, J. W. EDGAR.

THE CHELSEA PALACE,
KING'S-ROAD, CHELSEA, S.W.
Two Performances Nightly.
Rehearsals on Monday, at 12.0 o'clock.
Mrs. Charles Sugden and Co., "The Woman who was Bored," Syd May, Rosie Lloyd, Barton and Franklin, Cissie Heath, Henry Anthony, Guy Rider, J. Lloyd, Edie Gray and Coons, and Holden's Marvellous Mannikins.
Manager, EDWARD SWANBOROUGH.

For Engagements at the Metropolitan or Chelsea, address, the Managing-Director, Mr. HENRI GROS, at the Metropolitan, 267, Edgware-road, W. For times, address the Manager of each Hall, to whom also all Billing Matter must be sent Two Weeks in Advance

PROFESSIONAL APARTMENTS.

Three Lines, ONE SHILLING.
Thirteen Insertions, TWELVE SHILLINGS.
Address, PUBLISHER, "The Era" Buildings, 5, Tavistock-street, Strand, W.C.

BIRMINGHAM.—Sitting-rooms, Bedrooms, Bath (h. and c.), Pianos, Good Cooking, Ten Minutes Theatres. 21, Duchess-rd., Edgbaston.

BRADFORD.—Professionals' House of Call is the Oddfellows' Arms (Saloon Bar Entrance, opposite People's Palace). John Bramham.

BRIGHTON.—Seven Stars, Ship-street, opposite G.P.O. The Professional House. Sunday Réunions. Always a hearty welcome. Luncheons, &c., at pop. prices. DE COSTA, Proprietor

BRISTOL. — The Garrick Hotel, adjoining the Prince's Hotel, en Pension to Professionals, from 25/- per week. J. Hobbs.

COVENTRY.—The House of Call. Fred Storey, Theatre Vaults, Smithford-street. Always pleased to see old and new faces.

DUNDEE.—Queen's Hotel. Special Terms for Professionals. W. Smith.

EASTBOURNE. — Devonshire Hotel, adjoining the Hippodrome. The Professional House. Agent for M.H.A.R.A. W. Webb.

EASTBOURNE.—Min. Pier and Hippo. Good Apartments, Bath, Gas, Piano. Home Comforts. Mrs. Hope, 14, Royal Parade.

GLASGOW.—Buchanan-st Station Hotel Close to the Principal Theatres and Music Halls. Moderate Terms for Board and Apartments.

GLASGOW.—Superior Sitting, Bed, and Combined Rooms, convenient to Theatres and Halls: pianos. McEwan, 430, Argyle-street.

HULL. — Tally Ho Hotel, The Professional House of Call. Henry Usher, Proprietor.

LEEDS.—Mrs. Pincus, Rockingham Arms. New room, the Salon Victoria, for Pro.'s Only. Social Réunions every Sunday Evening.

LIVERPOOL.—Superior Rooms. Three minutes to any theatre, special terms for Panto. Bellwood, 69, Mount Pleasant.

LONDON, S.E.—Mrs. Fred Gilbert, Comfortable Apartments, Good Pianos, Main Road. Vac. for Panto. 19 Kennington Park-road.

LONDON, S.E.—238, Kennington-road. Sitting, Bedrooms, Combined Rooms; Piano. Terms moderate. Mrs. Eley.

LONDON, S.E.—Apartments, Well-furnished, clean and comfortable; gas included; central; good cooking and attendance; recommended. Mrs. Riva, 144, Kennington Park-road.

LONDON, S.E.—Comfortable Combined Room. Vacant Sunday, Jan. 21, also 28th; gas, good cooking; highly recommended. Mrs. Bartlett, 41, St. Mary's-square, Kennington-road.

LONDON, S.E.—Furnished Apartments, Combined and Bedroom, with Attendance. Mrs. Rigoli, 158, Kennington-road.

LONDON, S.E.—Two Combined Rooms; also two bed-rooms. Terms Moderate. Mrs. Lawson, 54, Newnham-terrace, Hercules-road, Westminster-road.

LONDON, S.W.—Near Kennington Gate.—Comfortable Sitting and Bedrooms, Good Cooking and Attendance. Every Convenience. Highly Recommended. Mrs. Robin, 19, Brixton-rd.

LONDON, S.W.—Comfortable; Single Rooms, Sitting and Bedrooms, Pianos. Mrs. Bensa, 9 and 11, Claverton-street.

LONDON, S.W.—Well-furnished Apartments, Vacant Sunday, Jan. 28; highly recommended by Gus Blake (Blake and Granby). —Willson, 4, Lorn-road, Brixton.

LONDON, S.W.—Large, Well-furnished Bed-room and Sitting-room, Gas and every Convenience. Terms Moderate. 23, Brixton-road.

LONDON, S.W.—Comfortable Apartments. Good Cook. Recommended by Signor and Madame Borelli. Mrs. Whiteley, 29, Brixton-rd.

LONDON, S.W.—Brixton, near White Horse. Well furnished Apartments. Piano if required. Attendance; every Convenience; Space for Storage. 7, Wiltshire-road.

LONDON, S.W.—Sitting and Bedroom and combined, vacant. Highly recommended. Bath, h. and c. Mrs. Neal, 115, Loughboro'-road, Brixton.

LONDON, W.—Furnished Apartments. First-class House; close to Piccadilly Circus; gas, pianos, bath (h. and c.). 7, Arundell-street.

LONDON, W.C.—21, Guilford-street, Russell-square. Well Furnished, with or without Board. Piano, Bath, Electric Light, and Tel.

MANCHESTER.—A Large Front Combined Room, Vacant Sunday, Clean, Comfortable, Reasonable, Central, Gas. 26, Booth-street, East.

MANCHESTER. — Comfortable Bed-Sitting, and Combined rooms, Pianos, Bath, &c., Good Cooking, Terms Moderate; Highly Recommended. Mrs. Prince, 37, Rumford-st., Oxford-street.

PRESTON.—Stanley Arms Hotel, Lancaster-road, Very Central; Board and Residence. Bath and Piano; Inclusive, £1 1s. Halliday.

SALISBURY.—The City Arms Hotel. The Professional House of Call; absolutely free for all Wines, Spirits, and Beers.—G. W. Waugh.

SHEFFIELD.—Royal Victoria Station Hotel. Special Professional Terms, 9s. per day, inclusive, or by arrangement. Write, T. M OSBORNE, Manager.

SHEFFIELD.—Mrs. Ashley, Garden Gate Inn, Harvest Lane, Boarding Home for Pros. Terms Inc., 15s. Sitting-rooms, 6 Beds, Piano.

SOUTHPORT.—62, Lord-street, close to Theatre; good accommodation for members of the Profession.

SOUTH SHIELDS. — Wilkinson, 8, Woodlands-terrace. — Well-furnished sitting and bedrooms, also combined. 4 minutes' Empire. Piano, gas, bath (h. and c.).

YORK.—Old White Swan Hotel, Goodramgate, close to Theatre and Opera House, Moderate Terms for Board and Apartments.—Wm. Hemmings, Proprietor.

YORK.—Half Moon Hotel, near Royal Theatre, Professionals specially catered for at any hour. Under new management.

MANCHESTER.—Eagle Hotel and Restaurant, 50a, Market-street. Sunday Catering for Travellers. 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. Free from Brewer. Billiards. Special Line, Bed and Breakfast, 4s. and 4s. 6d. Coolest Dining-Rooms in City, at Popular Prices.

HOME SCHOOL FOR GIRLS AND LITTLE BOYS. Every care. Professional Dancing taught. Recommended. Healthy Situation. PRINCIPAL, 103, Balham Park-road, Wandsworth Common, S.W.

CALLS

FOR WEEK COMMENCING

MONDAY, JAN. 22, 1906.

MACNAGHTEN VAUDEVILLE CIRCUIT.

Proprietor and Director General:
Mr. FRANK MACNAGHTEN.
Business Manager for the Circuit:
Mr. E. P. LAWTON.
Special Representative:
Mr. BRANDON BLAKE.
Secretary:
Miss AMY ROBINSON.

EXECUTIVE OFFICES:
KING'S CHAMBERS,
ANGEL STREET, SHEFFIELD.
Telegraphic Address, "MACNAGHTEN, SHEFFIELD."
Telephone No. 3449, SHEFFIELD.

Accountants: Messrs. HARDY, LAWTON and MOULSON, York-street, Sheffield.

PAVILION, LEICESTER.
Pallister Bioscope, Bayne and Hope, Ford Williams, Mark Merry, Renson and Waite, Fred Southern and Co.

PALACE, LINCOLN.
Bert Brantford, Percy Hannan, Harry Tate's Co., in "Motoring," Belle Braham, The Seddons, Ando Japs, Jimmy Shields, Howard and St. Clair.

GRAND, SHEFFIELD.
Miss Cordite, Bros. Zampah, Mabella May, Morimura, Pallister's Bioscope, Nat Watkins.

PALACE, BATH.
Sisters Caselli, Nelson and Thomas, Raymond's Bioscope, Burke and McVoy, Frank Coyle, Howard and Harris, Loudoun Cameron, Four Avocas.

PALACE, BRADFORD.
Paulinetti and Piquo, Raymond's Bioscope, Arthur Melrose, Rose Elliott, Barton and Ashley, Mephisto, Roza's Dogs, Sidney Dolf, Les Louberts.

PALACE, BLACKBURN.
Frantz Family, Four Jumels, Lottie Lennox, Will Bacchus, Raymond's Bioscope, Albert Whelan, Francis and Alfred, Harry Russell and Co., Tee and Tee.

PALACE, HALIFAX.
Reilly and Taylor, Borghetti Troupe, Raymond's Bioscope, "The Phantom Ship," Florrie Forde, Rae and Lea, Raie Walters, Handel and Lee, Carl Rosine.

PALACE, W. HARTLEPOOL.
Lady Mansell and Juveniles, Raymond's Bioscope, Harry Luck, Marie Gibson, Caselli and James, Orpheus, Three Sisters May, Mdlle. Haydee, The Haverleys.

PALACE, SOUTHAMPTON.
Wayho and Hope, Leo Tell, Tate and Tate, Wright and Elton, Harry Lawson, Raymond's Bioscope, Toch and Tard, F. Bernard and Co.

THEATRE ROYAL, ROTHERHAM.
"The Midnight Mail."
THEATRE ROYAL, ATTERCLIFFE.
"What a Woman Did."
THEATRE ROYAL, CHESTERFIELD.
"Between Two Women."
KING'S, NOTTINGHAM.
"Beauty and the Beast."
THEATRE ROYAL, LEEDS.
"Jack and Jill."
CORPORATION THEATRE, CHESTERFIELD
"A Royal Divorce."

LONDON DISTRICT.

General Manager, Mr. FREDERIC BAUGH.
Telephone, 5954 Avenue.
Telegrams, "Stageyness, London."
Rehearsal at all Halls, Monday at 12 o'clock.

PALACE, BOW.
Telephone, 417 East.
Matinée every Monday.
Lacey's Erascope, Booker and Narbis, Stanert and Yondl, Herbert Dale, Burns and Bentley, Fred G. Brooke and Co., Rosie Leonard, Four Kweeries, Fox and Melville, The Katos.

THE BRITANNIA.
Telephone, 7285 Central.
Matinées Monday and Thursday,
"King Wow-Wow" Pantomime, Albert and Edmunds Troupe, Jessie Preston, Fred Lawrence, The Three Prestons, Marie Brian, Arthur Lawrence, Lilly Lassah.

FORESTERS.
Telephone 5954 Avenue.
Matinée Monday and Thursday.
Harry Anderson, Winnie Derson, Mark Leslie, Four Maisanos, Dora Lyric, Ameen Abou Hamad, Childi Stuart, Raymond's Bioscope, Harry Lynx, Lowenwirth Bros.

SADLER'S WELLS.
Telephone 5890 Central.
Matinée every Monday.
Nellie Kilburn, Will Driscoll, Prince Kuroki, Dinah Morris and Co., Percy Murray and Co., Minnie Wren, The Elvins, De Henau, Aladina, Raymond's Bioscope,

SURREY THEATRE.
Telephone 1460 Hop.
Matinée every Monday.
All Artists engaged for Surrey Theatre must bring 14 Band parts.
Geo. Newburn, Monks and Wood, Fred Maxwell and Co., Raymond's Bioscope, Claude Ginnett and Co., Ross and Lewis, Sisters Redfern, Will Daniels, Elsie Roby, Coram.

All Bill Matter or Notification of Appearance must be sent in 14 days prior to opening. All Artists must attend Band Rehearsal, or their Contracts may be cancelled at the option of the Management.

N.B.—All Billing Matter and Business Communications relating to the Provincial Circuit must be addressed to "King's Chambers, Angel-street, Sheffield."

THOMAS BARRASFORD TOUR.

CALLS for MONDAY, JANUARY 22, 1906.

REHEARSAL EVERY MONDAY AT ALL OUR PLACES AT 12 NOON.

HIPPODROME, BRIGHTON.
The Dandies Hector and Paulus, J. P. Dane, Mike Gray, Austin Rudd, Keen and Waller, The Waldrons, Francis Letty, Pictures, Ergotti and King Luis.

TIVOLI, LEEDS.
Belle Davis, Ida Ross, George Penn, Starr and Jerome, Fred Land, Reynold's Minstrels, Bros. Hartbert Orelly, Andrews and Thompson, Sisters Lytton, Pictures, Mdlle. Ghita Corri.

PALACE, GLASGOW.
Bros. Martini, Nellie Chandos, The Henre's, Harry Bedford, Les Tafanos, Hughes and Elliott, J. C. Morris, Pictures, King's College Boys.

HIPPODROME, LIVERPOOL.
Miss Dolly Elsworthy and Co., in "The Orange Girl," Carson Hicks, Tom Yorke, Mr. and Mrs. Blake Adams, Maxford and O'Neill, Roma and Romani, 2 Rubies, Pictures, Madame Bernice de Pasquali.

HIPPODROME, BIRMINGHAM.
Six Brothers Luck, Frances Lyric, E. J. Wilkes, Violet Stockelle, The Jansons, Tokio Troupe, Sisters Marion, The Delomes, Miniature Marie, Pictures, Charles Coborn.

EMPIRE, BRISTOL.
"The Little Stowaway," Wat Tyler, Bert Weston, Sydney Lee, Prof. McCann, Rumbo Austin, Pictures, Bros. Ashley, Herbert Madden.

PAVILION, NEWCASTLE.
Mr. J. Peterman and Co., in "The Belle of the Orient," Mabel La Blanche, Wake and Dean, Musical Silvo, Zetia Gray, Bliss and Bliss, Mack Olive, Pictures, Four Juggling Geraldos, Oliver Conroy.

LYCEUM, LONDON.
Dorothy Gould, Lew Lake, May Yohe, Lowenwirth Bros., Fanny Wentworth, Fedoras, Tiny Arnold, Edie Grey, Bernard and Weston, Pictures, Coram.

ALHAMBRA, PARIS.
For the Month of February, Commencing Feb. 1. Tom Grave, Lily Wharton, Estio and Luigy, Mons. Valoni, Les Fedoras, Les Rallis, Alexia, Hadji Hassain Arabs, Carl Nobel, Les Tafanos, Mdlle. Florizell, Pictures, Madame Bernice Pasquali.

BRITANNIA, HOXTON.
Grand Variety Company.

LYRIC, LIVERPOOL.
Grand Variety Company.

HIPPODROME, ST. HELENS.
Grand Variety Company.

Bill Matter must be sent to the London Office Two Weeks before opening, or Artists will run the risk of having their Engagements cancelled.
All Artists must carry Band Parts for Full Band.

All communications to be addressed to the London Office,

11, LEICESTER PLACE, LEICESTER SQUARE, W.

Telephone—6,824, Gerrard. Telegrams—"Barrasford, London."

LIVERMORE PALACE TOUR.
ABERDEEN,
DUNDEE,
SUNDERLAND,
BRISTOL,
PLYMOUTH.
Address all Communications, Billing, Matter, &c., for Aberdeen, Dundee, and Sunderland (2 clear weeks in advance of opening) to Messrs. ROSEN and BLISS, 56, Whitcomb-street, Leicester-square, London, W.C. Telegrams: "Twopence, London." 'Phone, 7623 Gerrard.
For Bristol and Plymouth, to L. C. J. LIVERMORE, Offices, 53a, Shaftesbury-avenue, London. Telegrams, "Liverare, London." Telephone, 2009, Gerrard. Private Telephone, 1057, Battersea. N.B.—Interviewed by appointment only.

CALL for PAVILION, GLASGOW, Jan. 22, 1906.
Rehearsal at 12 noon for Paul Martinetti and Company, Kentucky Trio, Joe Archer, Tennyson and Wallis, The Chicago Girls, Mollie Doon, King's College Boys, Two Falcons.

ARTISTES WANTED requiring Sound Investments and Residences for Occupation, Rents Collected, Estates Managed, Mortgages Arranged, Surveys and Valuations made, to consult Messrs. CRABB and SON, Auctioneers, Surveyors, Estate Agents, and Valuers, 100, Brixton Hill, S.W. (close to Water Lane). Telephone 643, Brixton. Manager, Mr. WALTER INGE.
Note.—Messrs. Crabb and Son have the honour of being Estate Agents to the Elite of the Profession

VOICE TROUBLES.

Do not Cancel Engagements till you have tried PHONOZONE
the new Constitutional Voice and Throat Cure. Removes Hoarseness in a few hours. Price, 1/1½ and 2/3. Any Chemist will obtain it, or write direct to VIANOZONE MEDICINE CO., North Shields, for Free Sample. Send Two Stamps to cover postage.

CRAVEN'S PATENT HAMPERS
STANDS ON PEDESTAL OF THEIR OWN
TELEPHONE FOR TOURING COMPANIES AND PROFESSIONALS
No 09326
A LARGE STOCK READY FOR IMMEDIATE DELIVERY
LISTS FREE
T. CRAVEN
THE BASKET FACTORY
WAREHOUSE: 8, TO 22 MARSDEN COURT.
FENNEL STREET
MANCHESTER

DON'T SHOUT about your Touring Equipment unless you use our Hampers. Strongest Materials, Best Workmanship, Moderate Prices. Send for Catalogue. W. T. ELLMORE and SON, Ltd., Thurmaston, Leicester; 16, City-road, E.C.; 162, London-road, Manchester.

"THE OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE AMERICAN THEATRICAL PROFESSION."
ON SALE WHEREVER THERE IS A PLACE OF AMUSEMENT.

NEW YORK DRAMATIC NEWS.

ISSUED WEEKLY with from 24 to 28 Pages, handsomely Illustrated, with Reports from over 1,000 Cities and Towns in the United States and the Foreign Stage, covered by Special Correspondents.
Has the exclusive patronage of Messrs. CHARLES FROHMAN, KLAW and ERLANGER, LIEBLER and CO., WILLIAM GILLETTE, NIXON and ZIMMERMAN, GEORGE EDWARDES, NAT C. GOODWIN, HENRY W. SAVAGE, and, in fact, every prominent Theatrical Manager.
Foreign Subscription, ONE POUND A YEAR. Advertising Rates, One Shilling per Line.
London Office, Clarence House, King William-street, E.C. JOHN PARKER, Manager.
Communications may be addressed to MAX ELIOT, Special London Correspondent, 3, Queen's Gate Terrace, S.W.

NEW YORK DRAMATIC NEWS,
BROADWAY THEATRE BUILDINGS, NEW YORK, U.S.A.

THE NEW YORK DRAMATIC MIRROR.

HARRISON GREY FISKE, Editor and President.

ESTABLISHED JAN. 4, 1879.

Publication Office: 121, WEST FORTY-SECOND-STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

Leading American Publication devoted to the Dramatic and Vaudeville Stage.
Correspondence from European Cities. Telegraphic Reports. Criticism.
On Sale at Norman's Agency, 33, Haymarket, S.W.; Pall-mall Exchange, Carlton-street, Regent-street, and elsewhere.
Subscription, £1 3s. per year. Single Copies, 6d.
Members of the Profession visiting America are invited to use the "Mirror's" Post-Office Facilities.

"THE AMERICAN GENTLEMEN'S WEEKLY."

SPORTS OF THE TIMES.

Offices: HAMILTON BUILDING, 22, THAMES-STREET, NEW YORK.

The Authority in its Departments.

The Turf, The Drama, The Trotting Track, Golf, Boating, Athletics, The Kennel, and Automobiling.
Subscriptions, 12s. a Year. Single Numbers, 6d.

Its Advertisements reach a Larger and Richer Constituency than in any other American Paper, and its Advertising Rates average less than One Shilling a Line.
Specimen Copies and Advertising Terms on application.

FRED KARNO'S COMPANIES.

"MUMMING BIRDS" IN AMERICA.

POLI CIRCUIT.
"MUMMING BIRDS."

Billie Ritchie, Arthur Gallimore, Ping Pong, H. Amstel, Chas. Griffiths, Chas. Cardon, H. Walton, Geo. Lee, F. Birrel, Winnie Ritchie, Alice Kyre, Agnes Bonson, Alma Priestley, Cissie Fremton, J. Huda.
Business Manager, ALF REEVES.

Sole American and Continental Representative,
H. B. MARINELLI.

EMPIRE, BELFAST.
"JAIL BIRDS."

Bob Lewis, Bert Williams, W. Layton, H. Daniels, Jim Le Fre, Jack Royal, W. Fern, Maud Cardoner, Cassie King, Lillian Forrest, Alice Stuart, T. Jenner, T. Victor Crawford.
Business Manager, ARTHUR FORREST.

T. R., WEDNESBURY.
"HIS MAJESTY'S GUESTS."

Arthur Lenville, Dick Kitchen, Frank Morton, Tom Manardo, Chas. Usher, Sam Gosling, Harry Lowe, W. Fredericks, S. Bolton, Billie Williams, Bert Moore, W. Simpson, H. W. Lumley, Geo. Cooper, G. Rigby, J. Oliver Russell, Leonora Castelle, Amy Rogerson, Miss B. La Rose, Florence Dooley, Marie Gosling, Lilian Mills, Dollie Royce, Millie Hazleton, Winifred Stewart, Kitty Brunton.
Business-Manager, H. A. DOOLEY.
Conductor, F. H. J. MORAN.

MIDDLESEX.
"JAIL BIRDS."

CAMBERWELL PALACE,
"EARLY BIRDS."

Albert Darnley, Geo. Welch, Jack Lloyd, Jack Osborne, Reed Almonti, Bob McGregor, Albert Weston, W. Crackles, Junr., W. Moran, Alf Durant, G Richardson, Rose D'Alberg, Bessie Moreing, Dorothy Dean, Emily Darnley.

"Cinderella."
Gaiety Theatre, Dublin.

Unanimously Acknowledged,
by Press and Public,
A Brilliant and Instantaneous Success.

CAST INCLUDING—

Misses Annie Purcell, Lilian Lea, Alma Mary, Lulu Louden, Little Maudie Francis, Dollie Bell, Silvia Mortlake, Ruby Pond, Rosa Snell, Eva Weigh, Agnes Lane, Little Gladys Francis, Nellie Edbrook, Deany Forde, Kathleen Morland, Bessie Cornish, Dora Grey, Ella Moore, May Margaretts, Mabel Clifford, Moira Clifton, Jessie Beresford, May Hayes, Lily Atherton, Inez and Yole Mola, Alys Cliffe, Amy Minister, Ada Minister, Lucy Waldon, Ethel Adams, Millie Hazelton, Veletta Rushton, Sadie Strande, Bessie Atherton, Muriel Palmer, Stella Theodore, &c., &c.; Messrs. Alex Keith, Fred Winn, William Gourlay, Austen Lenton, Fred Whittaker, Harry Somers, Fred Palmer, Dick Harcourt, Douglas Earle, Henri Carl, Jack Melville, the Canadian Comedy Four, Vaughan Neale's "Flying Ballet."

Business-Manager, MR. ARTHUR COWLEY.
Assist.-Manager, Mr. H. LEIGHTON ROOKE.
Producer and Stage-Director, MR. HAROLD L. HILLIARD.
Stage-Manager, MR. JAMES FLETCH.
Musical Director, MR. CLEMENT LOCKNANE.

Tremendous Reception of Fred Karno's Latest and Greatest Creation,

"Moses & Son."
EMPIRE, LIVERPOOL.

CAST INCLUDES—

Misses Kate Forster, Leah Morris, Blanch Newman, Mimi Clanchy, Mabel Florence, Cora Renard, Clarice Doncaster, Andre Silvée, Caroline Silver, Ruby Diamond, Rosa David Abrahams, Janet Reeve, Katey Hyman, Bertha Hyman, Ruby W. Brownes, Marie D'Alberg, Vera Holland, Ettie Ray, Winnie Daniels, Lila Ray, Dollie Maryon, Ada Maskell, Messrs. Sasha Sprengsohn, Jack Hart, Harry Lappo, Ben F. Rosenthal, Georgie Dolin, Anthony Gordon, Nathaniel Lewis, David Birne, Phil Sinclair, W. Davis, G. Asher, Alfred Phillips, A. Schmidt, Nathaniel Goodman, Herbert C. Myers, David Asher, Bernardo Katz, L. Zeil, and Fred Kitchen.

"THE THIRSTY FIRST."

In active preparation, to be produced in London on Jan. 29, '06.
A new and original pantomimical sketch in three scenes, by Fred Karno and Harold Gatty.
Scene I.—Interior of the "Rifleman."
Scene II.—Exterior of the Barracks.
Scene III.—The Encampment.
This production will form the first of the series of Fred Karno's new répertoire.

Special Notice.

Plays and Sketches written, produced, and thoroughly equipped, in their entirety. All kinds of scenery made and painted by skilled artists. Costumes designed and executed. Properties and electrical effects supplied. Lorries, Broughams, 'Buses, and Motors on hire. Scenery, Properties, &c., warehoused and carted. Large Rooms to Let for Rehearsals, &c.
Arrangements can be made upon short notice for the removal or storage of artists' baggage, &c. Terms moderate. Trains can be met, day or night.

KARNO'S THEATRICAL FACTORY,
CAMBERWELL, S.E.

Estimates free upon Application,

Sole Proprietor and Director,
MR. FRED KARNO.
Secretary, Mr. W. H. Chippendale.

Interviews by appointment only.

ADDRESS—

26, 28a, & 28, VAUGHAN ROAD, COLDHARBOUR LANE, S.E.

Telegrams, "Karno, Camberwell."
Telephone, Nos. 2341 Hop.

IT TAKES A HIT . . TO MAKE . . A HIT.

Bombay.

Good-bye Sweet Marie.

Give my Regards to Leicester Square.

My Daisiest Daisy.

When the Blue Moon Shines.

Meet me at the Bodega.

Nyomo.

The Cowslip and the Cow.

WRITE OR WIRE US IF YOUR SONGS FAIL.

THE ABOVE ARE SURE HITS.

B. FELDMAN & Co.

51, HIGH STREET, W.C.

MUSIC HALL CARDS.

Alphabetically Arranged—Limited to Three Lines.

ABADAROFFS, FOUR. Great Comedy Act, "Prehistoric Peeps." Coms., 95, Stretford-rd., Manchester.

ABEL and WELSH, Tivoli, Dublin. England's Greatest Grotesque Eccentrics.

ACE, FRED, Refined Musical Speciality Artist. This Week, Empire, Portsmouth. Vacant 22nd. Wire.

ACHMED IBRAHIM'S ARABS, Ten in number. World's Greatest Tumblers. 1, Major-rd., Bermondsey, London, S.E.

ACME, Musical Comedian, Terrific Success Albert Hall, Nottingham, 2 weeks, with Mr. Jasper Redfern's Co. Vac. Feb. 5 and 12.

ADAMS, WALTER, Principal Comedian, This, King's T., Kirkcaldy. Next, New Gaiety, Ayr.

ALBANO TROUPE, Refined Musical Speciality. New Hippodrome, Stockton.

ALBERT, MISS LOTTIE, Comedienne. Permanent Address, 91, Ridgmount-gardens, Francis-st., Gower-st., W.C.

ALBERTO, FRED, Comedian, Vocalist, and Dancer, Concludes Panto. Tour To-night, T. R., Canterbury. Vacant, Monday next and 29th.

ALBERTO, HAROLD, Australia's Deceptionist. Jan. 22, Richmond Theatre, Richmond. Agents, MACDERMOTT and SHELDON.

ALBERY, HARRY, Comedian and Dancer. Big Success, Dame, Martha Muggins. Albert, Brighouse. Offers Invited.

ALBINI, LIEUT., and his Mystery "The Lady in Black." The success of the Programme Everywhere. Hippo., Boscombe, Mon.

ALBINI, MISS BLANCHE, Serio and Dancer, Hippodrome, Eastbourne. Vacant one week, Jan. 22.

ALETHEA, The graceful Lady Contortionist and Gymnast. Return, London Pavilion, Jan. 22, Four Weeks.

ALEX and JOLLY, First-class Comedy Three-Bar Act. New Hippodrome, Mansfield, Notts.

ALEXANDER'S, JOHN, Burlesque Company, Empire, Shepherd's Bush.

ALLAN, MADGE, Dandini, Hippodrome, Ashton. DOOLEY'S Agency, 55A, Booth-st. East, Manchester.

ALMERO, Aerial Norwegian Spar and Smart Wire Act. Vacant for Summer Months. Add., Cooke's Royal Circus, Edinburgh.

ALVANTEE, King Slanting Wire, finish to-night, Palace, Swansea, Liberty Mon. After Sun., 33, Carlton-st., Eccles New-rd., Salford.

AMEDA, MDLLE., Refined Novelty Entertainer, Panto., this week, Queen's, Longton; next Queen's, Longton.

AMERICAINES, LES BELLES, This week, Royal Theatre, Preston; next, Burnley.

ANSON, MISS CECILE E., Resting, by Doctor's orders. Thanks for Kind Enquiries. All Coms., c/o. FORTUNE and GRANVILLE.

ARAYAMA, Japanese Wonder. Jan. 22, Great Central Palace, North Shields.

ARIZONA TROUPE, Acrobatic Tumblers, Jugglers, and Foot Equilibrists. Hippodrome, Accrington.

ASHLEY BROS. "Next, Please." Empire, Dudley; 22nd, Empire, Bristol. FORTUNE and GRANVILLE and G. BARCLAY.

ASTLEY BROS. and FREDA TUDOR, Comedians and Male Impersonator. Big Success, Panto, "Aladdin." Jan. 22, T. R., Glossop.

ASTLEY'S AMERICAN CIRCUS, Empire, Islington. Monday, Duchess, Balham. Booked by GEORGE BARCLAY.

ATHLONES, THE, Refined Athletes. This, Tivoli, Leeds. At Liberty Jan. 22 and 29.

ATLAS and the Beautiful MISS VULCANA, the Society Athletes, World's Greatest Artists, Empire, Middlesbrough.

ATORAS, England's Symmetrical Lady Athlete, and America's Funny Lanky Lad. Coms., 17, Waterford-road, Fulham, S.W.

AUBREY, STAN (late Stan Martell, of Bennett and Martell), Legmania Comedian. "Cinderella." Jan. 22, Hip., Ashton-under-Lyne.

AUSTIN, RUMBO, The Comedy Sensation, Empire, Bristol.

BACCHUS, WILL, Actor-Vocalist and Coster Comedian. This, Pal., Bradford; next, Pal., Blackburn. Thanks G. Rogers for Contracts.

BANCROFT, HARRY, Terrific Success on Tour. Jan. 29, Chelsea Palace.

BANDONI, Original Concertina King and One-Man Band. Monday, Dr. Bodie's Co., Wolverhampton. Liberty Jan. 29.

BANZAI - PAREZ TROUPE, Musical. Jubilee Hall, Weymouth; Next, Mechanics' Hall, Portland.

BARCLAY, GEORGE, and CO., Variety Agents. Telephone, 84, Streatham. 221, Brixton-hill, London, S.W.

BARKER, CLOWN, Jan. 22, Empire, Ealing.

BARRETT and KNOWLES, Are we downhearted? No. Theatre Royal, Glasgow. TOM SHAW.

BARTHOLOMEW, SISTERS, (VIOLET and DAISY), Smart and Ideal Pair. P., Lancaster, 22nd, E., Stockport.

BARTLETT, ROSIE, Grand Theatre, Woolwich. Next, Theatre Royal, Aldershot.

BAWN'S AGENCY, 10, Victoria-parade, Balham-hill, London, S.W. 'Phone, 1178 Battersea. Tels., "Orderless, London."

BAYNE and HOPE (RONALD and EVELYN), in "An Emperor's Divorce." Jan. 22, Pavilion, Leicester.

BAZLEY, SYD, the Peculiar Comedian, Enormous Success as Shacabac, Alexandra Theatre, Birmingham.

BEANLAND, CHARLES, A Natural Comedian. Monday next, Tivoli, Dublin.

BEATRICE, SISTERS, Duettists and Dancers. This, P. P., Portsmouth; at Lib. Mon.; after Sat., 35, Florence-st., Islington. Wire.

BELL, CHARLES H., Comedian (late Fred Karno's Co.). Great Success with Herbert Darnley's Co. Next week, Duchess, Balham.

BELL, THE H. LESLIE, and LILLY PEARL CO., presenting "A Bit of String," Jan. 22, Metropole, Manchester.

BELLONINI, W., On Tour. Agent, SIDNEY HYMAN.

BELROSE and DE VELIN, Speciality Duettists and Soloists, Panto., Avenue T., Sunderland. A few Vacancies '06.

BENET, MR. HARRY, Proprietor Alhambra, Sandgate. Artists communicate FRED DURHAM'S Agency.

BENNETT and MARTELL, the Original Two. T. R., Rochdale.

BENSON, ALLY, Terrific Success, Baron and Speciality, Mr. J. Walters' "Cinderella." Garrick, Hereford; next, Carlton, Birmingham.

BENSON, BESSIE, Ragtime Vocalist, Buck and Sand Dancer.

BENT, HARRY, the Mimic; also CARLOTTA LUNN, Big Hit, Oldham. Mon., Westminster M. Hall, Liverpool. Agents, FORTUNE

BENTLEY'S VARIETY AGENCY, 169, Stamford-street, London, S.E. Telegrams, "Yeltneb, London." 'Phone, 12706 Central.

BERNARD, GEO., Submits Character Studies. Monday, Aquarium, Scarborough.

BERT and DORA, Comedy Artists, Empire, Ashton. Wanted, 29th, and Feb. 5. Coms., 24, Brook-avenue, Levenshulme, Manchester.

BEST, CHAS. F., as MacBunker, the Mountebank. Regent, Salford.

BEVERLEY, NORA, Vocalist, Mr. Gar Kiddie's "Bo-Peep" Co. Jan. 22, Empire, Oldham.

BLANCHE and DIACOFF, World's Premier Cyclists; India, India, India. Address, C/o 86, Hornsby-rd., Bombay.

BLARNEY and KENNARD, in New Act, with Waltzing Dog. Finish, Middlesex. Add., 1, Sandringham-blds., Charing X-rd., W.

BLISS and BLISS, Comedians. This Week, Palace, Glasgow; Next Week, Pavilion, Newcastle. G. and F. PEEL.

BLYTHE, MARIE, the Successful Contralto, Jan. 22, Salford Hippo. Agents, S. M. HYMAN, Ltd. Few weeks vacant 1906.

BOHEMIANS, THE (WILL & MADGE), Instrumentalists and Comedy Artists. This, E., New Cross; next, E., Stratford. G. FOSTER.

BORELLI, SIGNOR and MADAME, En route to South Africa. Agents, T. SHAW and Co.

BOSANQUET, This week, Empress, Brixton, great success. Jan. 22, Empire, York. Add. above, or "The Era."

BOSTOCK, N. C., and NELLIE ELLIENE, Two Star Turns. 10, Silver-street, Bloomsbury, W.C. Agents, MACDERMOTT & SHELDON.

BOULTONS, THE, and MDLLE BARTENELLI. Panto. Prince's Theatre, Poplar, London, E. First Vacancy, Sept. 9.

BOWDEN, BERT, Quaint Comedian. A Few Open Dates. All Coms., STEBBINGS, E., Hartlepool; next, Tiv., South Shields.

BOWERY BOYS, THE, SKETCH CO., in "Mixed," a smart new act, Vacant April 2, on. Panto., Grand T., Leeds.

BOYLE, MARCUS, My Bonny Boy. Palace Theatre, Grimsby.

BRADLEY and TRUMAN Wish Old and New Friends a Prosperous New Year Old Home, Red Lion, Costock, 9 miles from Notts.

BRADY, JAMES, City Varieties, Leeds. Open to buy good, clean, funny songs.

BRANT, EUGENE, Eccentric, Droll Comedian and Grotesque Dancer. Vacant Jan. 29, Halls or Tour; Jan. 22, Hip., Bridgwater.

BRAY, LOTTIE, Usual success, Hippodrome, Accrington. Monday next, Grand, Gravesend.

BRENTON, SISTERS, Big Success, Second Boy and Girl, Lyric, Liverpool. Jan. 22, Royal, Aston, Birmingham.

BREWSTERS, THE, Novel Speciality Act. Hippodrome, Paris.

BRONSON, SISTERS, Enormous Success in Mr. Peter Davey's Panto, "Puss in Boots." Eastbourne; next, Gaiety, Hastings.

BROOKLANDS, THE (ETHEL and BELLA). Enormous Success, Second Boy and Girl, Prince's Theatre, Bradford.

BROOKS, GEORGE H., Musical, Dramatic, and Variety Agent, 36, Shaftesbury-avenue, W. 'Phone, 2099 Gerrard.

BROWN, PAPA, Agent, 8, Cleveland-house, Hackford-road, S.W. Telegraph address, "Jibbers, London."

BROWN and ROBINSON, Solos and Duetts. Jan. 22, Empire, Ardwick.

BRUCE and ROSS, Comedy Artists, Acrobats, and Expert Dancers. Vac. Jan. 29, Feb. 5, 12. Mon., Pavilion, Chorlton-cum-Hardy.

BURG, HAUD, and WISE, "Ye Brown Cow Inn," Coms., The Lodge, Quinton, near Birmingham.

BURTON'S AGENCY, Sheffield. Cherish your enemies, you may need them as an antidote to your friends.

BUSH, MISS SADIE, Contralto Vocalist. Fairy Godmother, Grimn and Drake's "Cinderella," Theatre, bacup.

CADLE'S AGENCY, 105 and 106, Strand. Telephone No. 1975, Gerrard.

CAINE, ANDIE, "Humorous History," Francis, Day, and H. Panto., Principal Comedian, Grand, Fulham.

CAMERON, LOUDOUN, The Celebrated Conjurer. An Artistic Success. Jan. 22, Palace, Bath.

CAMERONS, THE (JIM and MARIE), Comedy Sketch, Starring this, Hippo., Bridgwater; next, Hippo., Coventry. No vacancies.

CARDEN and ZESCH, King and Principal Boy, Elephant and Castle. Tremendous Success.

CARL and CARR, the Successful Comedians, in Refined Comedy Act, "Fun Outside the Workhouse." Next 2 weeks, T. R., Worcester.

CARLTON, HENRY, in his High-class Success, "One Night Only." Empire, Stockport.

CARNEY, J. H., Character Comedian and Mimic, with an Original Act. This, Empire, Rochdale; Next, Hippo., Wakefield.

CARR and ROSE (FRED and ADA), Presenting "I didn't hear the penny drop; or, the tale of the slot meter." Met., Manchester.

CELLOS, THE TWO, Refined and Genuine Musical Entertainers, This, Hippo., Dewsbury; next, Palace, Lancaster

CHALLIS, FLORENCE, Tremendous Success in Australia with Monologues and Songs; returning home in Jan.

CHARNLEYS, THE (ANNIE & EDIE), Big Success, Alhambra, Sandgate. Monday, Grand M. H., Gravesend.

CHEERS, THREE, "Whittington, Cat, and Co.," this, Wedgewood, Burslem; next, Queen's, Fleetwood. Vacant, Jan. 29.

CHESTER and LEE'S Marionettes, Monday, Empire, Dover. Idle boast portrays vulgarity.

CHIRGWIN, Hippodrome, Manchester.

CLARIBELL, FLORRIE, the Five Feet of Versatility. Touring with Clifford's Concert Party. Perm. add., 12, The Crofts, Rotherham.

CLAVER and PICCOLO, Sensational Equilibrist and Juggler. Jan. Tivoli, Dublin. Vacant Jan. 22, 29. Feb.

CLEMENT TRIO, Refined Comedy Stage-Flying Trapeze Act. Address, Clement Trio, Hollydene, Hall Green, near Birmingham.

CLEVELANDS, THE, J. D. Hunter's Pantomime, Theatre, Ramsgate.

CLIFFE, TOM E., Versatile Comedian and Eccentric Speciality Dancer, second week and sixth return, Palace, Portsmouth.

CLIFFORD, CHARLES, C.D.D., the Renowned Harpist and Humorist, on Tour. 15, Priory gardens, Highgate, London, N.

COLLINS, GEO., 14, Grosvenor-park, Camberwell, London, S.E.

CONLIN, HARRY, and ROSIE COLEMAN. 18, Walcot-gardens, Kennington-road, London.

CONWAY and GARLAND, Usual Solid Success, Hippodrome, Bury. Jan. 22, Queen's Park Hippo., Manchester. "Left in Charge."

CONYERS, CISSIE, as Captain Billie Taylor, "Crusoe" Panto., Messrs. Little and Darcy Co. Understudied Robinson Crusoe last week.

COOKE, STEVE, County Theatre, Bedford. Vacant Summer Season.

CORNISH, WILL, in his Unique Musical Bell Act. This week, The London; Next, Collins's.

COSTELLO, BROS., Comedy Acrobats, and Legmania, and Patter Comedians. This, S'ton; next, T. R., Rhymney.

COTTERELL, SID, and CO., In the Great Comedy Success, "The Substitute," Panto., T. R., Drury-lane, Fourth Season.

COWPERS, THE, "Missus' Double." Re Dates. Coliseum, London.

CRAIG, ROZE, and CRAIG, A Trio of the World's Leading Athletes. c/o "The Era."

CRANKS, COMICAL CYCLING, Trick Cyclists. Vacant 22nd, 29th. New and Novel Act. Perm., 19, Alexandra-road, Manchester.

CRESSER, MISS ADA, Stanley's Transformation Co., Jan. 22, Argyle, Birkenhead.

CROSS, JOLLY CRISS, the Popular Girl. This week, Hippo., Wakefield. Next, Empress, Hartlepool.

CULLEN and CARTHY, and LITTLE CLULEY, Chinese Police, "Aladdin," Palace Theatre, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

CURRY, PERCY, Idle Jack, ADA JENNER, Captain Cable. Huge Success Prince's Theatre, Bradford.

CUSTANCES, THE, in Successful Comedy Duologue, "A Game for Two." This, Bolton; next, Westminster, Liverpool.

DAINTON, MAUD, COMEDY CO., In Screaming Sketch, "Selina." Palace, Bristol. Vacant Jan. 22.

DALE and D'ARGAN, In their Novelty Comedy Act, "Le Café Maqique." Perm. add., 6, Dolly-lane, Leeds.

DALE and VALE, Dancers Extraordinary. Genuine Success, The London. Next week, Collins's.

DALTON'S AGENCY, Big Acts of all Kinds required. 5, Matlock-avenue, West Didsbury, Manchester.

DANBYS, THE, Ruffians, "Babes in the Wood." Wanted, good Comedy Songs. T. R., Ashton-under-Lyne.

DANIELS, THE TWO, Negro Pump, Flip, and Big Boot Song and Dance Artists. Lib. Jan. 29. Wire, 63, Sherbourne-rd., Birmingham.

D'AUBYN, MINNIE, Burlesque Artist, Complimented by Managers and Artists for Good Songs and Pretty Dresses. Next, R., Salford.

DAUNTON-SHAW TROUPE, Australian Cyclists (Monarchs of the Wheel). Jan. 22, Theatre Royal, York.

DAVENTRY, SISTERS (DOLLY and MAY), title-rôle and Dandini, Pardoe's "Cinderella." T. R., West Bromwich. Lib. March 5.

DAYTON FAMILY, THE, Jan. 22, Opera House, York.

DE HENAU and MDLLE. ALADINA, Phenomenal Marvellous Painter and Wonderful Cockatoos. Macnaghten Tour, London.

DELEVINES, THE, in Original Comedy, "The Bell Inn." Hippodrome, Manchester.

DENBY and DENT, Pantomime Success Fifth Week. Gaiety Theatre, Leith, N.B. Free for 1905-7.

DENHAM, MILLIE, the Sprightly Burlesque Actress; big success this week, Hip., Huddersfield. Monday, E., Greenock.

DE ROSE, MDLLE., J. H. HAWTREY, Principal Boy. Malicio. J. Kiddie's "Cinderella," County T., Bedford.

DE VENA, MDLLE., the Queen of Clubs, a Unique Juggling Act, Circus, Leigh. Monday, Royal Varieties, Warrington.

DE VOYE, JAMES, and BILLY, His Wonderful Educated Pony. Success Everywhere. Next week, Hippodrome, Norwich.

DILLONS, BOUNCING, Novel Gymnastic Comedy Act. Jan. 22, return, Bijou Empire, Hull.

DIXON, CHARLEY, KATE LYND, Monday, Empire, Burnley.

DOBITO and BUXTON, Refined Vocalists. Recalled Nightly. Complimented by everyone. Mon., Gaiety, Ayr.

DOLF, SIDNEY DOLF, Variety Entertainer, Jan. 22, Palace, Bradford.

DOLLY, AGNES, and MAUD, the Factory Nightingales, Originality and Ability. Monday, Empire, Stockport.

DOMINOS, TWO, Clown and Donkey, Educated talking Donkey, the only one. Lib. March 6. J. H. Cooke's Circus, Edinburgh.

DONNA and CLIFF, Monday next, Empire, Stockport. Return to London 29th inst.

DOOLEY, SIDNEY, Musical, Dramatic, and Variety Agent, 55A, Booth-street East, Manchester.

MR. W. V. GARROD, Shylock, in Special Production of "The Merchant of Venice," Liverpool. 3, March-rd., Anfield, L'pool.

MR. and MRS. WILLIE GARVEY (Kitty Jones), J. H. Savile's Pantomime. Opera House, Perth.

MR. HENRY GEORGE, Stephen Magnusson in "The Prodigal Son." Rehearsing Drury Lane Theatre.

MR. ALFRED GODDARD, as John Storm, in "The Christian," Clarence Theatre, Pontypridd.

MR. DOUGLAS GORDON, Disengaged. Address, T. R., Plymouth.

MR. CLIFFORD GRAHAM'S AGENCY, 8, Campden House-road, Kensington, W. 'Phone, 2260 Western. Tele., "Cliffalla, London."

MR. and MRS. A. CARLAW GRAND (Miss Rollo Deas) Disengaged, Light Comedy. Address, 4, Parkshot, Richmond, Surrey.

MR. HERBERT GREVILLE, at Liberty. 19, Mornington-rd, Regent's Park, N.W.

MR. ROBERT GREY, Address, C/o J. L. Shine, Esq., Hippodrome, Brighton.

MR. FRED GROVE, Disengaged till Feb. 10. 6, Court-road, West Norwood, S.E.

MR. LAURENCE GROVE, at Liberty, Juvenile and Light Comedy Parts. Add., 69, Huron-rd., Upper Tooting, S.W., or A.A.

MR. CHARLES HALLING, Ross Christian, "The Manxman," Mr. A. B. Cross's Co. T. R., Leamington.

MR. A. HALL-MENZIES, Dis. Character or Character-Comedy. Elizabeth Villa, Bee Hive, Ilford.

MR. AUGUSTUS HAMMOND, Producer and Stage-Manager, "Puss in Boots," at Liberty Feb. 12. T. R., Coatbridge.

MR. HUBERT HARBEN, "Stephen Undershaft" in "Major Barbara." Court Theatre.

MR. A. C. HARDIE, Queen's Theatre, Manchester.

MR. FRANK HARDING. Address, all Coms., 21, Argyll-mansions, King's-road, Chelsea, S.W. T. No. 2077, Ken.

MR. W. S. HARDY, Father Gerard and Business Manager, "The Midnight Wedding."

MR. FREDERICK HARKER, Disengaged. Berkeley, Chester-road, Erdington, Birmingham.

MR. CHARLES HARLEY, Disengaged. 13, Western-road, Ealing, W.

MR. BERT HARROW, Principal Comedian, Carlton and Duckworth's "Red Riding Hood." All Coms., 28, Highbury-park, N.

MR. FRANCIS HAWLEY, Business Manager, "The Earl and the Girl," Jan. 29, New Century Theatre, Motherwell.

MR. R. CALVERT HAWS, Big Success, Gussie, "The Collar Stud," Richmond. Dis. Juv. L., Com., Dudes. 13, Upper Bedford-pl., W.C.

MR. T. P. HAYNES, Address, Scala Theatre, W.

MR. GRAHAME HERINGTON, Principal Comedian and Stage-Manager. Disengaged Spring. 36, Russell-square, Brighton.

MR. A. T. HILTON, Disengaged. Address, 31, Crowndale-road, N.W.

MR. A. S. HOMEWOOD, Disengaged. Address, 86, The Drive, Fulham Park-gardens, S.W.

MR. ALFRED H. HOOK, Touring, "The Prodigal Son." Jan. 29, Star Theatre, Swansea.

MR. FRANK HOWARD, Acting-Manager and Light Comedian (10 years' refs.). Address, Opera House, Northampton.

MR. and MRS. GEORGE HOWARD (Miss Clara Earle). Address, 39, Russell-square, Brighton.

MR. ROBT. H. HOWARD, Steinway Quartette. Tony, with Minnie Palmer, &c. At Lib. for a Few Weeks. 80, Union-rd., Clapham.

MR. and MRS. WILSON HOWARD (Miss Carlotta Anson), "Claudian" Co., Theatre Royal, Stockport.

MR. JAMES P. E. HUSSEY, Light Comedy or Char. Dis. Spring Tour. Perm. Address, "Langton," Worthing.

MR. RALPH HUTTON, 9, Grafton-mansions, Duke's-road, W.C.

MR. ROBERT A. INNES, Sixth Year with Mr. John Hart. Address all communications to Grand T., Leeds.

MR. and MRS. FREDERIC JACQUES (Miss M. Rayner), offers invited, Spring and on. Soubrette (con.), and Char. 52, Crowndale-rd.

MR. and MRS. EDWIN JENNER (Hettie Senior). E. Hill Mitchelson's Co. Theatre Royal, Rochdale.

MR. T. ARTHUR JONES, Touring the Success, "Life's Sweetest Sins." Address, 25, Wightman-road, Finsbury-park, N.

MR. S. MAJOR JONES, at Liberty, 101, Sugden-road, Clapham, S.W.

MR. THEODORE JONES and ADA MANSFIELD. Friar Tuck and Mother Shipton, in "Babes in the Wood." R., Halifax.

MR. MAX JEROME, "Saints and Sinners" Tour. 134, Castellain-mansions, Maida Vale, W.

MR. G. WALLACE JOHNSTON, Backbite, Hastings, Capt. Smooth, &c. Compton Comedy Co., Lyceum T., Sheffield.

MR. F. JOYNSEN-POWELL, "Talleyrand," Scala Theatre. Address, 49, Waldemar-avenue, Hurlingham, S.W.

MR. WHITFORD KANE, Paul Martin in "The Duffer." Address, 10, King-street, Covent Garden.

MR. OGILVY KEITH. Address, Charlmont, Western-parade, Southsea.

MR. and MRS. EDGAR KENT (Ada Clarke), "Saints and Sinners," "Middleman," on Tour. Perm. Add., Shelton, Stoke-on-Trent.

MR. CLAUDE KING, in "The Fascinating Mr. Vandervelt." Daly's Theatre, New York.

MR. CECIL KINGSLEY, Address, Garrick Theart, W.

MR. F. RUSSELL KIRKLEY, The Theatrical Expert, 29, Wellington-st., W.C. (4 doors Lyceum Theatre).

MR. J. POOLE KIRKWOOD, John Forman, in "Sherlock Holmes." Jan. 29, Dalston Theatre, N.E.

MR. HENRY KITTS, Snout, "Midsummer Night's Dream." Adelphi Theatre every evening.

MR. ARTHUR KNIGHT, MISS EDITH KNIGHT, at Lib. Spring. Opera House, Porth, S. Wales.

MR. AUGUSTINE KNIGHT, Disengaged Leading Heavies. 19, Dunalley-parade, Cheltenham.

MR. FRED KNIGHT, Disengaged, Robust, Character, Comedy, Old Men. 181, Fentiman-rd, S.W.

MR. RICHARD HENRY LACE. Address, 10, King-street, London, W.C. Permanent address, 19, Parkfield-drive, Liscard.

MR. JAMES R. LA FANE, Address, 10, King-street, W.C.

MR. and MRS. CHARLES LANGLEY (Jessie Price). Dis. Jan. 29. 3, Mornington-crescent, N.W.

MR. WINGOLD LAWRENCE, Lead, every evening. Standard Theatre, E.

MR. EDMUND LEA, Address, 30, Bedford-street, W.C.

MR. EDWIN LEVER, Disengaged. Heavies, Character, Old Men. Address, 161, Cambridge-street, Pimlico, London.

MR. D. LEWIN-MANNERING, Special. Pharus in Production of Calmour's "Produgal Son." Jan. 31, Grand T., Glasgow.

MR. GEO. ENCYL LEWIS, Musical Director, Returns from South Africa, Feb. 1. Offers invited. Address, c/o "The Era."

MR. H. LAWRENCE LEYTON, Playing Sherlock Holmes, Pavilion; next, Dalston.

MR. FRANK LILLIPUT, Short Comedian. 23, Dorothy-road, Clapham Junction.

MR. ARDENE LINDEN, Disengaged. 51, Victoria-street, Bradford.

MR. EDWIN LING, S.M. and Character. Offers invited. KISHMET, Wolsey-road, Esher.

MR. FRANK LISTER, Napoleon, Scala Theatre. 47a, Bedford-road, Clapham, S.W.

MR. FRANK LISTON, Heavies, Juveniles. King Charles II., "The Orange Girl." 29th, Tivoli, Leeds.

MR. and MRS. SAM LIVESEY (Miss Maggie Edwards), "The Village Blacksmith Co., T. R., Bedford Leigh.

MR. FEWLASS LLEWELLYN, "Lights Out," Savoy Theatre, W.C. 28, Chelverton-road, Putney.

MR. WILLIAM LOCKHART, "Sunday" Co. Lyceum Theatre, Newport, Mon.

MR. and MRS. WILLIAM LOWE, Disengaged. Address, 7, Bridson-street, Liverpool.

MR. FREDERICK LOYD, Engaged for Matinée, Caxton Hall, Westminster, Tues., Jan. 30. Offers invited. 71, St. George's-rd., S.E.

MR. WILLIAM LUGG, Disengaged. 7, Swift-street, Fulham, S.W.

MR. GEORGE F. MACKARNESS, Mr. Henry Furnival's "Lost in Paris" Co. En route.

MR. and MRS. CHALMERS MACKEY. Own Tour, "Wearin' o' the Green." En route, or Ashdale, Poulton-le-Fylde, Lancs.

MR. & MRS. WILLIAM MACLAREN (Miss Lily C. Bandmann). Own company in "Claudian." Opera House, Stockport.

MR. AUBREY MALLALIEU, Light Comedian. Meynell-Gunn Australian Tour. Address, Princess's Theatre, Melbourne.

MR. JERROLD MANVILLE, Acting-Manager for Edward Marris, Esq. Disengaged, T. R., Grantham.

MR. MAITLAND MARLER, Cogia, "The Forty Thieves." Marlborough Theatre, N.

MR. PERCY MARSHALL, Carbury, "Lady of Ostend" Co. Jan. 29, Ebbw Vale.

MR. ALFRED MARTIN, Advance-Manager, Milton Bode's Pantomime. Jan. 29, Grand, Derby. Spring settled.

MR. WALTER MAXWELL. Address, Vaudeville Theatre, London.

MR. HENRY W. MAY. All Kinds of Music Composed and Orchestrated. Pantomimes, &c. Add., C/o "The Era."

MR. ERIC MAYNE, Disengaged. Lead or General Management. 1, South-place, Kennington Park.

MR. QUINTON McPHERSON, at Liberty for Character or Comedy parts. 18, Bonneville-gardens, Clapham Park, S.W.

MR. LONNEN MEADOWS, Yellow Dwarf, and producer Grand, Birmingham. Offers invited for Spring.

MR. CHARLES MEDWIN, Duke of York's and Tour of "Peter Pan."

MR. BERTRAM MILLAR, Address, 47, West 28th Street, New York, U.S. America.

MR. WILLIAM J. MILLER, Robespierre, "The Throne of Terror." Empire Theatre, Cradley Heath.

MR. HUGH MONTGOMERY, MARIE HARCOURT, Napoleon and Marcel, "Napoleon the Great" Co. T. R., Bishop Auckland.

MR. FRED MORGAN. All Communications to 55, Amersham-road, New Cross, S.E.

MR. ALFRED NORTHWAY, Vacation, 57, Warrington-crescent, W.

MR. GUS OXLEY, Daly's Theatre, London, W.

MR. BOB PADLEY, Vizier and Speciality, A. E. Smith's "Aladdin," Monday, Muncaster Theatre, Bootle.

MR. and MRS. ROBSON PAIGE (Mabel Syringa), Address, 10, Ospringe-road, N.W.

MR. and MRS. MARK PATON (Miss MABEL REES). 1, Stockwell-avenue, Brixton, S.W.

MR. POPE PAX, Journalist and Dramatic Critic, Address, 18, Trinity-road, Birmingham.

MR. DOUGLAS PAYNE, Address, 1, Elmfield-road, Bromley, Kent.

MR. WILFRED E. PAYNE, At Liberty. 63, Bedford Court-mansions, W.C.

MR. & MRS. W. KINGSFORD PEARCE W. K. P. Engaged. Miss Wynne Hanley (Mrs. W. K. P.) Dis. 58, Ormeley-rd., Balham.

MR. ASHTON PEARSE, Engaged for Monks, in "Oliver Twist." Mr. Tree's Spring Tour. Perm. Add., 65, Redcliffe-rd., S. Kensington.

MR. F. PENNINGTON-GUSH, Rehearsing Charles Chester in "The Duffer," Mr. Louis Calvert's Co. Address c/o "The Era."

MR. FRED W. PERMAIN Address, 118, Southampton-row, W.C.

MR. and MRS. FRANK E. PETLEY (Miss Gertrude Price), Leading Business. Dis. Feb. 12. Address, Empire, Sheffield.

MR. FELIX PITT, Engaged by Andrew Melville, Esq., Metropole Theatre, Birmingham.

MR. & MRS. DONALD PRICE-EVANS (Miss Marcella Hudson), "The Talk of the Town" Co., T. R., Portsmouth.

MR. WILLIAM PRINGLE, Capers in "Cinderella." Brixton Theatre. Disengaged spring.

MR. RULE PYOTT, Disengaged. 49, Hyde-vale, Blackheath, S.E.

MR. ERNEST RAMSAY, Disengaged. Meadowbank, Epsom-road, Guildford.

MR. J. NELSON RAMSAY, Disengaged. 58, Portland-road, Holland Park, W.

MR. ALBERT E. RAYNOR. On Tour with Mr. Martin Harvey. Jan. 29, Grand Theatre, Fulham.

MR. and MRS. SIDNEY RENNEF, S. R., Davy, "Sunday" Co., Lyceum Theatre, Newport, Mon.

MR. PERCY RHODES, Disengaged. 10, Elmstone-road, Fulham, S.W.

MR. HARRY H. RIGNOLD, Address, Jan. 29, Theatre Royal, Ipswich.

MR. WALTER L. RIGNOLD, Panto., T. R., Manchester. Liberty, Spring.

MR. WALTER RINGHAM, Offers invited. Address, 50, Curzon-street, Mayfair, W.

MR. WALTER ROBERTS, Rudolph Laski, "Passion's Power," P. O. W.'s Theatre, Mexborough. Six Nights.

MR. GORDON ROBEY and MISS ANNIE MEGSON, "Sin of Her Childhood" Co., En Route.

MR. LEONARD ROBSON, Leading Business, 115, Grosvenor-street, All Saints, Manchester.

MR. G. STAPELTON ROCHE, Disengaged, Light Comedy, &c., Disengaged. Address, 32, Kelvedon-rd., Fulham, S.W.

MR. STANLEY ROGERS. Address all communications, 124, Warwick-road, Carlisle.

MR. HARRY ROUSBY, Principal Comedian, General-Manager, "Laughter Land" Tour. Jan. 29, Royal, Sunderland (6 nights).

MR. and MRS. JOHN D. SAUNDERS (Miss Dora de Winton). Disengaged. The Nook, Loveday-road, Ealing.

MR. WILLIE SCOTT, Principal Comedy, "Great Awakening" Co. This, Luton; next, T. R., Dover.

MR. ARCHIE SELWYN, Tommy Keston, "The Freedom of Suzanne." Jan. 29, Artillery Theatre, Woolwich.

MR. WILFRED E. SHINE, at Liberty. Theatre Royal, Worcester.

MR. FRED SINCLAIR, Monday, Hippodrome, Hull.

MR. JAMES SKEA, Character Actor, Disengaged shortly. Offers invited. Theatre Royal, Shrewsbury.

MR. A. GIFFORD STACEY, Manager for Mr. Robt. Courtneidge, Lyric Theatre, W.

MR. FRANK STANLEY, Acting-Manager, Her Majesty's Theatre, Carlisle.

MR. E. STANTON-SHARP, Lord Robert Ure, in "The Christian." Jan. 29, Clarence T., Pontypridd.

MR. GORDON STARKEY, Disengaged Spring. Autumn Arrangements Complete.

MR. W. R. STAVELEY, Scala, Jan. 28 and 29, Stage Society. 239, King's-road, Chelsea, S.W.

MR. ERNEST ST. JOHN, General Gordon, "At Duty's Call." Gainsboro' and Harrogate.

MR. HERBERT ST. JOHN, Dandini, "Cinderella," Brixton Theatre. Capt. Donegal, "Florodora," Spring.

MR. and MRS. CHARLES R. STONE, Offers Invited. 10, Borough-street, Brighton.

MR. GEORGE STONE, Resident-Manager (Twelfth Year), Royalty T. and Opera House, Barrow-in-Furness.

MR. WALLACE STRANACK, General Manager, "Jack the Giant Killer" Co., at Lib. shortly. Grand T., Newcastle-on-Tyne.

MR. P. HOWARD STURGESS, "Among the Stars," London Hippodrome.

MR. EDWARD SWINTON, Count Mussant and Stage-Management, Mr. Chattell's "Revenge" Tour. P. O., High Wycombe.

MR. AUGUSTIN SYMONDS, Char. Com., &c. MISS KATE PARRY, Juv., Light Com., &c., Dis. Feb. 5. T. R., Aldershot.

MR. ALGERNON SYMS, Disengaged, Leading Business, Disengaged. Perm., 3, Springdale-road, Clissold Park, N.

MR. TAPPING. Address, 28, Leyland-road, Lee, S.E.

MR. ALFRED TERRAINE, Artist. 25, St. Alban's-avenue, Bedford Park, London, W.

MR. FOWLER THATCHER, The Baron, "Cinderella." At Liberty Feb. 19. Grand Theatre, Swansea.

MR. ALLEN THOMAS, Old Adam, "As You Like It," Every Evening, St. James's Theatre, London, S.W.

MR. E. W. THOMAS, Address, 10, King-street, Covent Garden, W.C.

MR. WYLIE A. THOMPSON, Late with Messrs. W. S. Penley, Lionel Rignold, &c. Disengaged. Bridgen, Bexley, Kent.

MR. WALTER THORNTON Miss Ida Molesworth and Mr. Mark Blow's Co. Jan. 29, Opera House, Wakefield.

MR. ALFRED C. TOONE, Musical-Director, "Lady Madcap." 28th, Cambridge; Feb. 1, Ipswich.

MR. GEORGE TRAILL, "The Breed of the Treshams" Tour. Grand Theatre, Southampton.

MR. J. HENRY TWYFORD, On Tour, Jan. 29, Grand Theatre, Southampton.

MR. A. W. TYRER as Harry Dallas, "Walls of Jericho" Co. Jan. 29, Theatre Royal, Brighton.

MR. and MRS. LANCELOT USHER (Amy Ellam), L. U. Mayor, T. R., Bradford.

MR. and MRS. EDWARD VAN BIENE (Kate Hallam), Bus. Mgt., Char., and Lead. Dis. till Autumn. 33, Glengall-rd., Kilburn, N.W.

MR. CHARLES VANE, Orient-Pacific R.M.S., "Orontes," 24, Via Guglielmo, Sanfelice, Naples.

MR. and MRS. CHAS. B. VAUGHAN. Miss M. Lewes, Understudying Miss Julia Neilson. C. B. V., at Lib. c/o "The Era."

MR. FRED VAUGHAN, General Business Manager, "Life of a Showman" Co.

MR. SIDNEY VAUTIER, Panto., T. R., Edinburgh. Liberty for Spring.

